Executive Arrested In 'Conspiracy'

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP) — Clay L. Shaw, wealthy retired director of the International Trade Mart, has been booked on a charge of "conspiracy to commit murder" in Dist. Atty. Jim Garrison's first arrest in the Kennedy assassination investigation.

"There will be more arrests, a considerable number of them," said Garrison, who has been conducting a probe of the assassination of President John F. Kennedy for the past five months.

Shaw, 54, a decorated Army major in World War II, was released on $10,000 bond after his arrest Wednesday night. His luxurious French Quarter home was searched for nearly three hours by Garrison's agents.

The dozen men who made the seach carried away five cardboard boxes filled with various items, including books and a gun in a canvas case — a rifle or shotgun.

Shaw is ruggedly handsome and silver-haired. He brushed past newsmen without a word when he was released from central lockup after being booked, fingerprinted and mugged.

He was arrested in Garrison's office, where he had appeared for questioning, in response to subpoena.

Garrison has vowed to prove that a conspiracy conceived in New Orleans "culminated in the assassination of President John F. Kennedy" in Dallas Nov. 22, 1963.

His claim contradicts the official report of the Warren Commission, which said Lee Harvey Oswald, a former New Orleans resident, shot the president — and that it found no credible evidence that any one else was involved.

The announcement of Shaw's arrest said: "The first arrest has been made in the investigation of the New Orleans district attorney's office into the assassination of President John F. Kennedy.

"Arrested this evening in the district attorney's office was Clay Shaw, age 54, of 1313 Dauphine St., New Orleans, La.

"Mr. Shaw will be charged with participation in a conspiracy to murder John F. Kennedy.

"It should be pointed out, however, that the nature of this case is not conducive to an immediate succession of arrests at this time. However, other arrests will be made at a later date."

The booking and the announcement did not specify whether Shaw was being charged with a conspiracy resulting in Kennedy's death — or with a conspiracy, not carried through, to commit the murder.

Asked about this, Garrison replied: "I don't want to get involved in semantics."

BLOCKED TO FIT — The election of a new Maryland governor, 6 foot, 2-inch Spiro T. Agnew, has caused some furniture problems in Annapolis, the state capital. Wooden blocks, lower left, elevated a table so he could get his legs underneath for a news conference, in his reception room. He had his own bed brought from home to the executive mansion. Powell Threatens Federal Court Suit

By CARL P. LEUBSDORF

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House has barred Adam Clayton Powell, its most controversial and flamboyant figure — but may have trouble making the ban stick.

While the Harlem preacher relaxed at his Bahamian fishing retreat at Bimini, his attorneys termed Wednesday's action of the House "unconstitutional." They raised the threat of a federal court suit to overturn it.

The House itself may have to deal with the matter again, perhaps within two months. A special election will be held to fill Powell's seat and there is every likelihood he again will be elected to fill the post he has held 22 years.

"It will come back to haunt the House," said Rep. Emanuel Celler, the venerable New York Democrat, after the House rejected 222 to 202 the recommendation of his select committee to seat the Negro Democrat with a stiff censure, a $40,000 assessment and the loss of all seniority.

The action also rejected leadership from both parties, who had backed the committee action, and led to the final ouster 307 to 116.

"If I were representing Adam Clayton Powell," Celler told reporters, "I'd take the case to court right away. I think he's got a good case."

And Rep. Arch A. Moore Jr., the West Virginia Republican who fought alongside Celler for adoption of the censure proposal, referred reporters to his statement midway through the five-hour debate: "If we turn him out, his constituency will turn him back with an even greater majority."

The galleries were packed but orderly. Although Powell, 58, was absent, his lawyers were there. They listened intently but left when the outcome became clear.

Later, they issued a terse statement through Powell's office which said: "Within a few days an announcement will be made by or on behalf of Mr. Powell as to any future course of action."

The House floor was hushed during most of the debate, although at one point the hum of conversation rose so much that presiding Rep. Hugh L. Carey, D-N.Y., reminded members: "Gentlemen we're voting on a matter involving decorum in the House — there is no decorum in the House."

Burglars Get Motorcycle, Coins Here

Burglars stole a Honda motorcycle from Thomas Chrysler - Plymouth Co., 2103 Twenty - fifth Street, last night, and also took an undetermined amount of change from the cigarette machines of several other businesses on Twenty - fifth Street.

Entry to the Thomas firm was gained through a window on the east side of the building. Apparently the thief or thieves was cut by the glass, because officers discovered a pool of blood at the scene.

The motorcycle taken in the theft was valued at $407.50.

Also broken into Wednesday night were the Shell Station at Avenue E and the East Highway, the Mobil Station at Twenty - fifth Street and Avenue H, the Fina Station at Twenty - fifth Street and Avenue J, the Sweet Shop on the East Highway, the Steak House at 1005 Twenty - fifth Street, and the Gulf Station at Twenty - fifth and Avenue K. The burglars also destroyed a front door glass at the Gulf breakin.

Cigarette machines at each of the businesses were broken into and the coins removed.

Officers also are investigating two reports of "dognapping." Someone stole a red dog and a black French poodle from the Bill Valentine residence on W. Thirty - seventh Street Wednesday night. Earlier, someone stole two bulldogs from the residence at 2701 Avenue B.

Judge Orders Hoffa To Begin Term

By JAY BOWLES

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. (AP) — U.S. Dist. Judge Frank W. Wilson has ordered James R. Hoffa Teamsters Union president, to appear here Tuesday morning to begin serving an eight-year prison term for jury tampering.

Less than an hour before Wilson announced his decision Wednesday Hoffa designated Frank E. Fitzsimmons, general vice president of the union since last July, as his successor.

Wilson's move came after he denied Hoffa's request for continuance of his $75,000 bail pending disposition of a new trial motion. Attorneys for Hoffa, who took over the 1.8-million-member labor organizatin after Dave Beck, long time Teamsters president, was handed a 15-year sentence in 1958 for stealing union funds, said Wilson's order "more than likely" would be appealed.

However, when asked if the legal maneuver would again delay the start of Hoffa's sentence, P.D. Matkos, an attorney of Washington replied: "I doubt it."

Hoffa, 54, who also was handed a $10,000 fine at the end of his trial here in 1964, would have to serve one-third of the eight-year term before becoming eligible for parole. And the federal Landrum- Griffin Act would prohibit him from holding further union office after his release.

Although Wilson did not refer to them, his bail ruling also meant that three of Hoffa's co-defendants would have to begin their sentences.

They are Ewing King of Nashville, former president of Teamsters Local 327; Thomas Ewing Parks, 49, a Nashville funeral home employe; and Larry Campbell, 42, business agent of Detroit. Each was sentenced to three years.

A fourth defendant, Nashville lawyer Z. T. Osborn, who was tried separately and given a 3½-year term and a $5,000 fine, was granted a hearing on a new trial motion Tuesday, and is free on bail.

Search For Suspect Continues

GEORGE WEST (AP) — A search continued in South Texas today for a man wanted for questioning about the slayings of a Houston couple.

Bodies of Fred Davis, 72, and his wife Alvada, 59, were found Tuesday afternoon in their home adjacent to a motel-apartment complex they owned.

Police said Davis was stabbed 20 times and Mrs. Davis nine times.

South Texas police were alerted after a car belonging to the couple was found wrecked near George West. The driver was believed to have fled on foot.

Sheriff Bob Reagan of Live Oak County said a farmer living 10 miles south of here saw a man fitting the wanted man's description during the afternoon.

Reagan and 15 mounted men found tracks leading toward the Nueces River. George West is 110 miles from the Mexican border.

Houston detectives said no motives for the deaths had been established.

"A purse found in the house was open and dollar bills, clearly visible were not taken," said detective C. H. Walker. "However, a relative said Davis often had a sizable sum of money in his pockets and we found none."

Kimmel Promoted To Police Sergeant

J. H. Kimmel, city policeman for the past seven years and a long-time resident of Snyder, has been promoted to sergeant, according to an announcement by Chief Chester Simons.

A sergeant's vacancy occurred recently when Jesse Browning accepted the Chief of Police position at Colorado City.

Officials Encouraged Over Project Bids

A surge of optimism over downtown improvement prospects began to mount Wednesday afternoon following the opening of bids by the City Council.

The lowest of four proposals received came from T. E. Shelburne and Son of Snyder, with a quotation of $167,436 for a complete job. An alternate would deduct $14,686 by deleting landscaping on courthouse property and another would add 80 cents per foot to curb and sidewalk costs if the project is delayed until street overlay work is done.

The bids, a total of four, ranged up to $232,836 quoted by Hawkins and Westbrook of Abilene. Rose and Son of Abilene bid $230,000 and H. G. Counts of Midland submitted a bid of $223,014.

Of the total amount on the low bid, $63,481 involved work on courthouse property and this is the only phase of the project that appeared on the high side compared to estimates. The remaining $103,955 was well below the anticipated figures.

Tabulation of bid figures was continuing today and the council has set another special session for 2 p.m. Friday at which time they hope to have the prices reduced to a cost - per - foot basis on abutting property.

"A breakdown of the figures must be made before we can say exactly, but the assessments to property owners would appear to be substantially lower than preliminary estimates," said Mayor M. L. Broman.

Also at Friday's session, the council hopes to set a date for the required public hearing which will be the final step leading to the ultimate decision of whether the project will proceed to completion.

Also city officials plan to discuss the project with county officials again. There were indications that, since county property figures ran higher than anticipated, some negotiations would be made. The county had committed itself to $27,000 with the understanding that landscaping work on the courthouse property probably would be delayed and might ultimately be done by the county itself rather than a contractor. The low bid, excluding courthouse area landscaping, amounted to approximately $49,000, or about $22,000 more than the county's initial commitment.

If the project moves ahead speed will be a primary objective, since 80 cents per lineal foot can be saved by getting new curbing in ahead of street overlay work. The Texas Highway Department already has contracts in force for overlaying U. S. 180 (Twenty - fifth Street) through the business district, and Texas 350 (Avenue S) from Twenty - fifth Street south, with asphalt. The city anticipates an overlay project of its own for the remainder of the downtown streets to maintain uniformity.

Highway department officials reported recently that their contractor likely would be ready to start in early spring.

Three Hurt In Mishap At Inadale

Three area residents received serious injuries in a two - car smashup on U. S. 84 at Inadale southeast of Snyder about 3:20 p.m. Wednesday.

Taken to Cogdell Memorial Hospital by Snyder Ambulance Service for treatment of serious injuries was John E. Mason, 78, Route 2, Hermleigh. Hospital authorities this morning said his condition is not critical, but that he sustained several fractured ribs.

Also seriously injured was a Tahoka couple, C. James Bohannan, 69, and Mary Bohannan, 64. Both were taken to Simmons Hospital in Sweetwater. The extent of their injuries had not been determined.

Investigating highway patrolmen said the car driven by Bohannan, a 1964 Model Oldsmobile, was traveling north on US 84 prior to the accident. It struck the right side of the other car, a 1961 Model Chevrolet operated by Mason, near the middle.

Officers believe Mason was either crossing the highway or attempting a right turn off of US 84 at the time of the mishap. Damage to his car was total, and damage to the Oldsmobile was estimated at $700.

Connally Slams Federal Guides

NEW YORK (AP)—Gov. John Connally of Texas lashed out today at restrictions accompanying federal aid to the states, calling them the work of "average men without any divine wisdom."

Connally, a close friend of President Johnson but increasingly a critic of the administration and of some of the President's programs, made his strongest attack on federal guidelines to date.

He remarked at one point that today is the 131st anniversary of the Texas Declaration of Independence from Mexico.

"Few can quarrel with the worthy aims of many of the programs enacted in good faith by Congress," he told the New York Chamber of Commerce.

"The damaging mischief comes all too often when the design is worked out in endless, tedious detail by middle management and clerical personnel in dozens of bureaus, to be handed down to state and local governments for exact compliance to uniform regulations, or else."

"These regulations, which often go beyond the legislative intent of Congress, are the product of men—average men without any divine wisdom. Yet their will—in existence merely by the accident of their employment in a given agency—becomes the law across the land—not for one community, or one state, but for all."

The governor said there are 399 separate federal aid appropriations under 170 programs administered by 21 federal departments and agencies, 50 Washington bureaus and 400 federal regional offices. Five years ago, he said, there were only 45 such appropriations.

"Let me make it clear that I harbor no patience with the timeworn 'states rights' plea when it serves to cloak inaction," added Connally, a former secretary ofthe Navy.

School Election Ballots Completed

Ballots for school elections were completed with the passing of the filing deadline Wednesday, and one candidate was added to the field for posts on the Snyder School Board.

Harold Lacik, 3789 Avondale, who is unit manager for the Sharon Ridge oilfield repressuring unit operated by R. E. Smith, is the last candidate to file in the Snyder race.

Others in the Snyder race are O. K. Fletcher, Max von Roeder, Wesley O. (Pee Wee) Graves, Eugene Glasscock and Curtis C. Grant. Two places on the board are to be filled in the election. One is the post now held by Von Roeder, who was appointed to fill a vacancy a year ago.

At Hermleigh, Dorwin Bollinger, Joe Roemisch Jr., James Ince and Edwin Kuss have entered the race to fill three places. Raymond Schwartz is the only incumbent in the race. Others in the Hermleigh race are Donald Tate, Olin Culp Jr., Julius Roemisch, Melvin Calhoun and J. W. Kimzey.

Ray Herring has entered the race at Fluvanna, making six candidates for three places on the board there. K. D. Ball is the only incumbent in the race. Others are Guy Turner, Donald Gill, R. L. Drum, and Paul Contreras.

Candidates at Ira are Tommy Clements, Clarence Payne, Floyd House and Jake Autrey. Two places are to be filled and Autrey is the only incumbent in in the race at Ira.

For the county board, Perry Echols is a candidate for re-election in Precinct 3 and Marvin Hanson Jr., is a candidate for re-election in Precinct 4.

Red Casualties Up Sharply, Says Secretary McNamara

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara says Communist casualties in Vietnam have increased 40 to 50 per cent in the past three months because of intensified U.S. military action.

But he implied to newsmen Wednesday that new types of U.S. warfare in Vietnam — including mining of key North Vietnam rivers and ground and sea artillery bombardment of the North — do not represent an escalation of American efforts.

He said the new moves resulted largely from a cutback in bombing because of bad weather.

He offered the Communist casualties only in percentages, not specific figures.

The House is set to vote today on a bill providing $4.5- billion more for the intensified military effort this fiscal year. Little opposition is expected.

The Senate passed an authorization for the funding 89 to 2 Wednesday after hotly debating an amendment that urged no further expansion of the war while backing President Johnson's efforts to negotiate for peace.

House debate on the military appropriation bill is expected to be limited. But Chairman L. Mendel Rivers, D-S.C., of the House armed Services Committee announced in advance he'll try to tack on $5 million to furnish the Marine Corps aircraft equipped with radar-jamming devices.

Both the Senate and House versions would authorize funds for additional weapons and supplies to carry out the war. The added 4.5 billion would bring to about $73 billion authorized U.S. defense spending for the current fiscal year.

Before passing the bill, the Senate voted 72 to 19 for an amendment by Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield that offered something for both supporters and opponents of U.S. policy.

Dear Abby...

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: To guide other college boys when they are week-end guests, please tell them not to make the same mistakes our son's pal did last week-end. He opened the refrigerator door and helped himself to anything he wanted. Without waiting to be told where to sit, he scrambled into my husband's place at the table.

He helped himself (generously) to my husband's bourbon, and when, at midnight, I offered him coffee and sandwiches to indicate that the "bar" was closed, he mixed himself several more drinks. He wolf-whistled when he met me, and whacked me on the seat when he left.

MIDDLE-AGED MOM IN AUGUSTA

DEAR MOM: I doubt if most college boys who are invited to the home of a "pal" for the week-end need a guide to proper behavior. Just tell your son not to bring home any more fun-loving, thirsty, ill-bred characters.

DEAR ABBY: Do you think it is all right to speak to your mother in the same tone she speaks to you in? When she talks sharp or sarcastic to me and I answer her back in the same tone she slaps me. It's no wonder I don't have any friends. She scares them away.

Before anybody comes over they ask me, "Is your mother in a good mood?" Please tell me how to get along with a person everybody is afraid of? I have four more years to go before I will be 18 and I can leave. Thank you.

SCARED OF MOM

DEAR SCARED: No, it's NOT all right to speak to your mother in the same tone she uses to speak to you. Mothers have problems children know nothing of, and being human they sometimes take it out on those nearest and dearest to them. (Perhaps she doesn't feel well.) When mothers are in a "bad mood" children should try to be even more respectful, obedient, and understanding.

DEAR ABBY: We just bought a brand new station wagon on the instalment plan for a 7,000-mile vacation trip we plan to take. The couple next door want to go with us and said they would pay for all the gas.

It seems to me that if people want to ride in an expensive new car with air - conditioning, stereo, tinted glass and all those luxuries, they should be willing to pay more. They are no better or worse off financially than we are. What is fair? We don't want to be taken advantage of.

NEIGHBORS

DEAR NEIGHBORS: It seems fair enough to me. But if you take a 7,000-mile vacation trip with people you suspect are trying to take advantage of you, it will be the longest 7,000 mile trip on record.

Conviction To Stand

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Ohio Supreme Court has ruled that a police officer questioned in a crime does not have to be advised of his constitutional rights.

The ruling Wednesday was in the case of James Hymore, a former part-time constable in Lake Township in northwest Ohio. He was convicted of first-degree manslaughter in a 1965 tavern shooting.

Hymore was off duty at the time of the shooting.

An appeals court reversed Hymore's conviction. But the Supreme Court unanimously reversed the appeals court ruling, saying statements Hymore made to a deputy sheriff and a coroner were admissible evidence.

The high court said that because Hymore was a police officer there was no need that he "be advised of his constitutional rights before any investigation began."

St. Louis Boys Admit Glue Sniffing

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP) — Two St. Louis boys 8 and 9 years old, have told police they turned in 19 false fire alarms after sniffing airplane glue.

One of the boys is in custody, but another has been missing from his home for three days police said.

The older boy will be admitted to the State Hospital Youth Center for observation and treatments for the effects of the glue sniffing.

Independence Of Texas Celebrated

WASHINGTON - ON-THE-Brazos, Tex. (AP) — Texans observed the 131st birthday of the state today in ceremonies here where the Texas Declaration of Independence was signed March 2, 1836.

The celebration at Washington- on - the Brazos State Park included speeches, barbecue, bands and costumed train riders.

The observance meant a holiday from school for several area school districts.

Texas Secretary of State John Hill was the principal speaker at the 71-acre state park.

Mrs. Jennie Morrow Decker, 96 of Houston, was expected to attend the ceremonies. She is a granddaughter of Sam Houston, hero of the Battle of San Jacinto in which Texas won its independence from Mexico. He also was the first president of the Republic of Texas.

Additonal details of plans for a memorial museum and for reconstruction of Washington on-the-Brazos as it existed when it served as the first capital of Texas were expected to be revaled by the Washington State Park Association.

The association now has about $700,000 available for the museum and has announced plans to raise another $800,000 for the reconstruction project.

George Red, Houston lawyer and president of the association, delivered a check for $10,000 to Gov. John Connally Monday from Houston Endowment Inc., the philanthropic organization founded by the late Jesse H. Jones, Houston financier and publisher.

The organization made a simlar gift for the museum last year. The second gift permits the association to meet a requirement set by the state legislature when it made a $500,000 appropriation for the museum in 1965. The appropriation was contingent on receipt of at least local or private sources.

Solon Defends Horned Toad

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — The harmless horned toad has found a defender in State Sen. Joe Christie of El Paso.

Christie said he was burned up when he learned that hundreds of thousands of the toads are being shipped out of Texas for pets and curiosities.

"They go into strange environments in other parts of the country and die," he said. "One toad eats more than 40,000 insects a year.

To protect the horned toad, Christie introduced a bill in the Legislature Wednesday to make it unlawful to trap the creatures for commercial purposes. Violators could be fined up to $200 and sentenced to jail up to 60 days.

Burial was to follow in Dunn Cemetery under the direction of Kiker Funeral Home of Colorado City. Officiating was to be the Rev. Jessie Dea.

Mrs. Eitel was born Aug. 9, 1901 in Scurry County. She was a member of the Methodist Church and the Eastern Star Lodge.

Surviving are the husband; three brothers, Russell of Colorado City, Ollie of Lubbock, and Drue of Kerrville.

City Firemen Are Busy

City Firemen answered calls to four grass fires Wednesday afternoon and calls to three grass fires this morning.

Fires Wednesday were on a creek bank at Avenue Z between Twenty-second Street and Twenty - third Street; near Boyd's Lodge at Lake J. B. Thomas; on the Camp Springs Road; and on the Roby Highway near Rip Griffin's truck stop. These blazes all occurred between 2:18 p.m. and 4:51 p.m.

The three fires this morning occurred within a 10 minutes period. Calls were at a spot near the Basin Wax Co., to Avenue K and Thirteenth Street, and at 3101 Avenue O.

FYF Session Set Tonight

FLUVANNA — "Choosing the Right Variety of Cotton for More Profit" will be the topic at tonight's meeting of the Fluvanna Young Farmers chapter. The session is set for 7:30 p.m. in the vocational agriculture building at Fluvanna High School.

The group also will hear reports by Ray Herring and Orval Mathis who made the Area I feedlot tour. The tour covered beef cattle, lamb, poultry and swine feeding operations in Northwest Texas and New Mexico.

Other reports will be heard on the community cleanup campaign sponsored by the Young Farmers, a financial report on the community livestock show, and a report on the Area II vice president vacancy.

Members of the Hermleigh Young Farmers Chapter have been extended a special invitation to attend the meeting. Any other interested persons will be welcome.

Grassland Burns Near Del Rio

DEL RO (AP)— Fire blackened about 3,000 acres of tinder dry grass and brush land before it was controlled south of here near the Mexican border Wednesday night.

There were no buildings in the path of the flames as they roared toward the Rio Grande. Men from Laughlin Air Force Base helped city firemen check the blaze within a mile of the Del Rio city limits.

The Ira 4-H Club met Tuesday when school was out by 4-H leader Mrs. J. L. Byars, Mrs. Howard Sterling and Mrs. Preston Crowder. They then went by car to the pump station at Lake J. B. Thomas, where they were given an interesting tour by two of the station employes.

They then went to the Tomato Hot Houses located at Lake Thomas, where tomatoes are grown without soil. The owners conducted the girls and their guests on an informative tour.

Those making the tours were Leigh Sterling, Paula Sterling, Beverly House, Carmen Perez, Nancy Sterling, Danita Layne, Mittie Crowder and Connie Byars. Guests were Mrs. Howard Sterling, Mrs. Preston Crowder, Connie Sterling, Jimmy Crowder and Jimmy Byars.

Jaycee-ettes Hear Reports, Make Supper Plans

The Snyder Jaycee-ettes held their regular monthly meeting recently at the Snyder National Bank.

Mrs. Wendell Rehm presented the program with an orientation for new members on the purposes and government of the club. Mrs. Dean Floyd, president, called the meeting to order.

Mrs. Thomas Boyd reported on the Area II Convention at El Paso Jan. 27-29. She said the Jaycee-ettes who made the trip had a good time and got many new ideas about club work.

According to Mrs. Ronald Austin, project chairman, Jaycee-ette volunteer work on the Headstart program at Lincoln School has begun and will continue until school is out.

Members of the Snyder Jaycee-ettes helped collect contributions of the Heart Foundation on Heart Sunday. The social committee is planning a supper for Jaycee-ettes and their husbands on March 10th.

Hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. Bobby Melton and Mrs. Horace Caldwell. Visitors were Mrs. Verna Six and Mrs. Marolyn McMillan.

Rules For Green Thumbers

There are a few simple rules for the pot plant gardener.

Plants should be watered thoroughly and, with few exceptions, allowed to dry out between waterings. More house plants fail because of overwatering than any other reason. That's why quality plants are grown and sold in porous red clay pots. It simplifies watering techniques to know that when the surface soil is dry, the rootball is not soggy, since clay containers allow excess water to evaporate through porous sides.

Every plant needs some degree of light—either sunlight or artificial lighting. Ask your florist, grower or garden center about these requirements. Don't try to grow foliage plants in bright sunlight or cactus in northern exposures.

Plant food is nourishing, but don't overdo a good thing. Most plants only need food once every six weeks or so.

Do check with your florist on the best temperatures for plants. Homes have a tendency to become overheated during winter months. If this is true in your case, provide some extra humidity for plants by standing them in pebble - covered trays or clay saucers. Keep the pebble layer watered and moisture will evaporate, giving off needed humidity.

Delta Kappa Gamma Hears Very Interesting Program

Zeta Lambda Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma met Monday evening in the home of Wanda Clinton.

The Society was called to order by the President, Mrs. Dorothy Miller, who asked Mrs. Clinton to introduce the first part of the program, which was "The Ultimate Choices," a band composed of Tommy Favor, Dennis Williamson, Gordon Gray and Ronald Clinton, who entertained the group with several songs.

Mrs. Lillian Jones presented the next part of the program of "Nurturing Creativity on Wave Length of Youth." She said, "A creative teacher enjoys and appreciates students, not only as individuals but en masse. All kinds of students, fat ones, thin ones, bright ones, dull ones, clean ones, dirty ones, quiet ones, noisy ones, cautious ones, and brash ones. A sixth sense tells him when to put the needs of the child first and when the group must have full consideration.

"He is able not just to tolerate differences but to make use of them, to enrich living for the whole group. Teachers trying to work creatively may find small changes help, not expecting everyone to finish assignments at the same time, changing schedules so that there is time somewhere for students to talk about things that are important to them, time to write, time to listen, time when feelings are more important than facts.

"The teacher shows that students matter by waiting for students opinions. A creative teacher cares about learning in its broadest sense as it relates to subject matter, and sees the situation through the eyes of the younger individual, to tune in to a different wave length and to study the situation with empathy."

Mrs. Hazel Hanback gave the third part of the program and said: "Everyone fights boredom, and this applies to teachers and students. Some methodology can be used on all levels but has to be adjusted to the group pace.

"The advanced student wants to be able to make value judgments. This is a springboard for motivation of reading in depth. They begin to realize they have to have something fundamental on which to base an opinion on critical analysis.

"The superior student begins to recognize generalization about life and is quick to see relationships in human conditions from one age to another. They find that human nature, (the emotions) remains the same even though circumstances and living conditions change."

After a brief business meeting the hostesses, Wanda Clinton, Laura Holladay, Evelyn Boone and Pauline Turner, served refreshments to the following members, Ruby Anderson, Maydell Burns, Rita Carter, Mary Devenport, Georgene Galloway, Durelle Gorman, Joyce Gorman, Virginia Grove, Hazel Hanback, Bess Johnston, Lillian Jones, Delia McPherson, El-Wanda Nall, Vestal Maner, Carol Miller, Dorothy Miller, Sally O'Rear, Lida Rhoades, Pauline Turner, Mabel Brock, June McGlaun, and Phelemon Kelly.

Dear Abby...

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: To guide other college boys when they are week-end guests, please tell them not to make the same mistakes our son's pal did last week-end. He opened the refrigerator door and helped himself to anything he wanted. Without waiting to be told where to sit, he scrambled into my husband's place at the table.

He helped himself (generously) to my husband's bourbon, and when, at midnight, I offered him coffee and sandwiches to indicate that the "bar" was closed, he mixed himself several more drinks. He wolf-whistled when he met me, and whacked me on the seat when he left.

MIDDLE-AGED MOM IN AUGUSTA

DEAR MOM: I doubt if most college boys who are invited to the home of a "pal" for the week-end need a guide to proper behavior. Just tell your son not to bring home any more fun-loving, thirsty, ill-bred characters.

DEAR ABBY: Do you think it is all right to speak to your mother in the same tone she speaks to you in? When she talks sharp or sarcastic to me and I answer her back in the same tone she slaps me. It's no wonder I don't have any friends. She scares them away.

Before anybody comes over they ask me, "Is your mother in a good mood?" Please tell me how to get along with a person everybody is afraid of? I have four more years to go before I will be 18 and I can leave. Thank you.

SCARED OF MOM

DEAR SCARED: No, it's NOT all right to speak to your mother in the same tone she uses to speak to you. Mothers have problems children know nothing of, and being human they sometimes take it out on those nearest and dearest to them. (Perhaps she doesn't feel well.) When mothers are in a "bad mood" children should try to be even more respectful, obedient, and understanding.

DEAR ABBY: We just bought a brand new station wagon on the instalment plan for a 7,000-mile vacation trip we plan to take. The couple next door want to go with us and said they would pay for all the gas.

It seems to me that if people want to ride in an expensive new car with air - conditioning, stereo, tinted glass and all those luxuries, they should be willing to pay more. They are no better or worse off financially than we are. What is fair? We don't want to be taken advantage of.

NEIGHBORS

DEAR NEIGHBORS: It seems fair enough to me. But if you take a 7,000-mile vacation trip with people you suspect are trying to take advantage of you, it will be the longest 7,000 mile trip on record.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "WANTS TO START OVER" in Toronto: don't send him a "cute, studio card" just to remind him that you are still alive. You blew it, Sister. It's all over — no sense in making yourself appear foolish.

Conviction To Stand

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Ohio Supreme Court has ruled that a police officer questioned in a crime does not have to be advised of his constitutional rights.

The ruling Wednesday was in the case of James Hymore, a former part-time constable in Lake Township in northwest Ohio. He was convicted of first-degree manslaughter in a 1965 tavern shooting.

Hymore was off duty at the time of the shooting.

An appeals court reversed Hymore's conviction. But the Supreme Court unanimously reversed the appeals court ruling, saying statements Hymore made to a deputy sheriff and a coroner were admissible evidence.

The high court said that because Hymore was a police officer there was no need that he "be advised of his constitutional rights before any investigation began."

JACK W. WATSON

Snyderite In Action

Gunner's Mate 3C Jack W. Watson, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Watson, 1508 Twenty-seventh Street, recently completed a 45-day Seventh Fleet Operation off the coast of Vietnam as a crewmember aboard the destroyer Epperson.

During the operation, the Epperson, a unit of Anti-Submarine Group One, supported the aircraft carriers Ticonderoga, Coral Sea and Enterprise, and provided gunfire support to Marine ground forces south of Da Nang, Vietnam.

The Epperson's home port is Pearl Harbor, Hawaii.

Cub Awards Presented

Several Cubs of Den 3, Pack 61, received awards at the annual Blue and Gold Awards Banquet, held Tuesday night at North Elementary School.

Exposition badges were presented to Harvey Waller, Jimmy Callaway, Herman McAnelly and Teddy Tutor. Tutor also received a gift certificate for selling over 30 tickets to the banquet.

Felton Stephens won two awards — the Bobcat pin and the assistant denner's badge. A denner's badge also went to Jimmy Callaway.

North Elementary P-TA is sponsor of Pack 61. Den Mother of Den 3 is Mrs. Wanda McAnelly and Mrs. R. D. Callaway is assistant Den Mother.

St. Louis Boys Admit Glue Sniffing

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP) — Two St. Louis boys 8 and 9 years old, have told police they turned in 19 false fire alarms after sniffing airplane glue.

One of the boys is in custody, but another has been missing from his home for three days police said.

The older boy will be admitted to the State Hospital Youth Center for observation and treatments for the effects of the glue sniffing.

Independence Of Texas Celebrated

WASHINGTON - ON-THE-Brazos, Tex. (AP) — Texans observed the 131st birthday of the state today in ceremonies here where the Texas Declaration of Independence was signed March 2, 1836.

The celebration at Washington- on - the Brazos State Park included speeches, barbecue, bands and costumed train riders.

The observance meant a holiday from school for several area school districts.

Texas Secretary of State John Hill was the principal speaker at the 71-acre state park.

Mrs. Jennie Morrow Decker, 96 of Houston, was expected to attend the ceremonies. She is a granddaughter of Sam Houston, hero of the Battle of San Jacinto in which Texas won its independence from Mexico. He also was the first president of the Republic of Texas.

Additonal details of plans for a memorial museum and for reconstruction of Washington on-the-Brazos as it existed when it served as the first capital of Texas were expected to be revaled by the Washington State Park Association.

The association now has about $700,000 available for the museum and has announced plans to raise another $800,000 for the reconstruction project.

George Red, Houston lawyer and president of the association, delivered a check for $10,000 to Gov. John Connally Monday from Houston Endowment Inc., the philanthropic organization founded by the late Jesse H. Jones, Houston financier and publisher.

The organization made a simlar gift for the museum last year. The second gift permits the association to meet a requirement set by the state legislature when it made a $500,000 appropriation for the museum in 1965. The appropriation was contingent on receipt of at least local or private sources.

Solon Defends Horned Toad

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — The harmless horned toad has found a defender in State Sen. Joe Christie of El Paso.

Christie said he was burned up when he learned that hundreds of thousands of the toads are being shipped out of Texas for pets and curiosities.

"They go into strange environments in other parts of the country and die," he said. "One toad eats more than 40,000 insects a year.

To protect the horned toad, Christie introduced a bill in the Legislature Wednesday to make it unlawful to trap the creatures for commercial purposes. Violators could be fined up to $200 and sentenced to jail up to 60 days.

BIRD JUMPER — Balmy spring-like weather brings out the best in most people and in Florida such weather is prevalent. So what better thing is there to do than go jumping over sea gulls at St. Petersburg, Fla., beach. By the way, the bikini bird hopper is Judi Hopkins. (AP Wirephoto)

Eitel Rites At C-City

Funeral for Mrs. Vera Dunn Eitel, 65, a former resident of Scurry County, was to be held at 4 p.m. today at the Dunn Methodist Church. She died at her home in Rockport Tuesday.

Burial was to follow in Dunn Cemetery under the direction of Kiker Funeral Home of Colorado City. Officiating was to be the Rev. Jessie Dea.

Mrs. Eitel was born Aug. 9, 1901 in Scurry County. She was a member of the Methodist Church and the Eastern Star Lodge.

Surviving are the husband; three brothers, Russell of Colorado City, Ollie of Lubbock, and Drue of Kerrville.

City Firemen Are Busy

City Firemen answered calls to four grass fires Wednesday afternoon and calls to three grass fires this morning.

Fires Wednesday were on a creek bank at Avenue Z between Twenty-second Street and Twenty - third Street; near Boyd's Lodge at Lake J. B. Thomas; on the Camp Springs Road; and on the Roby Highway near Rip Griffin's truck stop. These blazes all occurred between 2:18 p.m. and 4:51 p.m.

The three fires this morning occurred within a 10 minutes period. Calls were at a spot near the Basin Wax Co., to Avenue K and Thirteenth Street, and at 3101 Avenue O.

FYF Session Set Tonight

FLUVANNA — "Choosing the Right Variety of Cotton for More Profit" will be the topic at tonight's meeting of the Fluvanna Young Farmers chapter. The session is set for 7:30 p.m. in the vocational agriculture building at Fluvanna High School.

The group also will hear reports by Ray Herring and Orval Mathis who made the Area I feedlot tour. The tour covered beef cattle, lamb, poultry and swine feeding operations in Northwest Texas and New Mexico.

Other reports will be heard on the community cleanup campaign sponsored by the Young Farmers, a financial report on the community livestock show, and a report on the Area II vice president vacancy.

Members of the Hermleigh Young Farmers Chapter have been extended a special invitation to attend the meeting. Any other interested persons will be welcome.

Grassland Burns Near Del Rio

DEL RO (AP)— Fire blackened about 3,000 acres of tinder dry grass and brush land before it was controlled south of here near the Mexican border Wednesday night.

There were no buildings in the path of the flames as they roared toward the Rio Grande. Men from Laughlin Air Force Base helped city firemen check the blaze within a mile of the Del Rio city limits.

Larry Shepard, former Columbut, Ohio manager in the Pittsburgh farm system, will coach for the Philadelphia Phillies this season.

Breakfast Honors Two Snyder Ladies

Mrs. Billy Joe Brown and Mrs. Ray Weber of the Snyder Jaycee-ettes were honorees at a surprise breakfast at the home of Mrs. Dean Floyd last Saturday.

Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Weber are leaving the club as they are moving out of town.

The club presented the ladies with a charm bracelet with Snyder Jaycee-ettes and the year they joined the club engraved on the charm.

Mrs. Dean Floyd and Mrs. Wendell Rehm were hostess and served doughnuts with coffee and orange juice.

Always butter sandwiches to the edges of the bread to keep the filling from soaking in. . . especially true for sandwiches which are to be frozen.

Ira 4-H Club Makes Tour

The Ira 4-H Club met Tuesday when school was out by 4-H leader Mrs. J. L. Byars, Mrs. Howard Sterling and Mrs. Preston Crowder. They then went by car to the pump station at Lake J. B. Thomas, where they were given an interesting tour by two of the station employes.

They then went to the Tomato Hot Houses located at Lake Thomas, where tomatoes are grown without soil. The owners conducted the girls and their guests on an informative tour.

Those making the tours were Leigh Sterling, Paula Sterling, Beverly House, Carmen Perez, Nancy Sterling, Danita Layne, Mittie Crowder and Connie Byars. Guests were Mrs. Howard Sterling, Mrs. Preston Crowder, Connie Sterling, Jimmy Crowder and Jimmy Byars.

Jaycee-ettes Hear Reports, Make Supper Plans

The Snyder Jaycee-ettes held their regular monthly meeting recently at the Snyder National Bank.

Mrs. Wendell Rehm presented the program with an orientation for new members on the purposes and government of the club. Mrs. Dean Floyd, president, called the meeting to order.

Mrs. Thomas Boyd reported on the Area II Convention at El Paso Jan. 27-29. She said the Jaycee-ettes who made the trip had a good time and got many new ideas about club work.

According to Mrs. Ronald Austin, project chairman, Jaycee-ette volunteer work on the Headstart program at Lincoln School has begun and will continue until school is out.

Members of the Snyder Jaycee-ettes helped collect contributions of the Heart Foundation on Heart Sunday. The social committee is planning a supper for Jaycee-ettes and their husbands on March 10th.

Hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. Bobby Melton and Mrs. Horace Caldwell. Visitors were Mrs. Verna Six and Mrs. Marolyn McMillan.

Rules For Green Thumbers

There are a few simple rules for the pot plant gardener.

Plants should be watered thoroughly and, with few exceptions, allowed to dry out between waterings. More house plants fail because of overwatering than any other reason. That's why quality plants are grown and sold in porous red clay pots. It simplifies watering techniques to know that when the surface soil is dry, the rootball is not soggy, since clay containers allow excess water to evaporate through porous sides.

Every plant needs some degree of light—either sunlight or artificial lighting. Ask your florist, grower or garden center about these requirements. Don't try to grow foliage plants in bright sunlight or cactus in northern exposures.

Plant food is nourishing, but don't overdo a good thing. Most plants only need food once every six weeks or so.

Do check with your florist on the best temperatures for plants. Homes have a tendency to become overheated during winter months. If this is true in your case, provide some extra humidity for plants by standing them in pebble - covered trays or clay saucers. Keep the pebble layer watered and moisture will evaporate, giving off needed humidity.

Delta Kappa Gamma Hears Very Interesting Program

Zeta Lambda Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma met Monday evening in the home of Wanda Clinton.

The Society was called to order by the President, Mrs. Dorothy Miller, who asked Mrs. Clinton to introduce the first part of the program, which was "The Ultimate Choices," a band composed of Tommy Favor, Dennis Williamson, Gordon Gray and Ronald Clinton, who entertained the group with several songs.

Mrs. Lillian Jones presented the next part of the program of "Nurturing Creativity on Wave Length of Youth." She said, "A creative teacher enjoys and appreciates students, not only as individuals but en masse. All kinds of students, fat ones, thin ones, bright ones, dull ones, clean ones, dirty ones, quiet ones, noisy ones, cautious ones, and brash ones. A sixth sense tells him when to put the needs of the child first and when the group must have full consideration.

"He is able not just to tolerate differences but to make use of them, to enrich living for the whole group. Teachers trying to work creatively may find small changes help, not expecting everyone to finish assignments at the same time, changing schedules so that there is time somewhere for students to talk about things that are important to them, time to write, time to listen, time when feelings are more important than facts.

"The teacher shows that students matter by waiting for students opinions. A creative teacher cares about learning in its broadest sense as it relates to subject matter, and sees the situation through the eyes of the younger individual, to tune in to a different wave length and to study the situation with empathy."

Mrs. Hazel Hanback gave the third part of the program and said: "Everyone fights boredom, and this applies to teachers and students. Some methodology can be used on all levels but has to be adjusted to the group pace.

"The advanced student wants to be able to make value judgments. This is a springboard for motivation of reading in depth. They begin to realize they have to have something fundamental on which to base an opinion on critical analysis.

"The superior student begins to recognize generalization about life and is quick to see relationships in human conditions from one age to another. They find that human nature, (the emotions) remains the same even though circumstances and living conditions change."

After a brief business meeting the hostesses, Wanda Clinton, Laura Holladay, Evelyn Boone and Pauline Turner, served refreshments to the following members, Ruby Anderson, Maydell Burns, Rita Carter, Mary Devenport, Georgene Galloway, Durelle Gorman, Joyce Gorman, Virginia Grove, Hazel Hanback, Bess Johnston, Lillian Jones, Delia McPherson, El-Wanda Nall, Vestal Maner, Carol Miller, Dorothy Miller, Sally O'Rear, Lida Rhoades, Pauline Turner, Mabel Brock, June McGlaun, and Phelemon Kelly.

AT SAN ANGELO FRIDAY

Bengal Baseballers Inaugurate Season

With six seniors in the starting lineup, the Snyder Tigers will again be considered strong contenders for the district 3-AAA baseball crown. The Bengals open the season Friday at San Angelo against the tough Class AAAA Bobcats. The first pitch will cut across the plate at 4 p.m.

Coach Speedy Moffett's crew took 2 of 3 from the touted Bobcats last season. And if pre-season drills give any indication, the Tigers could prove to be a stumbling block again for the San Angelo nine.

"Our pitching and defense should be improved," said Coach Moffett "but hitting remains a question mark."

Back on the hill for the Tigers is senior right - hander Roy Hunter. He's big and has the strength to fire a respectable fast ball.

Infielders for the opener will be junior Max Moreland behind the plate, sophomore Ricky Thompson at third, senior Terry Holt at short, junior Steve Moffett at second, and senior Kenny Ragland at first.

Outfielders will be seniors David Cadena in left, Buddy Powell in center and Delbert (Dink) Foree in right. Overall, the team speed should be improved.

The mound corp doesn't include a single southpaw, but several of the youngsters could develop into first rate chunkers. Pitchers, besides Hunter, are senior Rob Golden, senior Lane McMillan, sophomore Charley Johnson, junior Tony Suttle, and sophomore Joe Wilson. In addition, Dink Foree doubles as an outfielder and a hurler while junior Mickey Almond is equally at home at short or on the mound.

Others on the roster: outfielders — Leland Herod, Kinne Callaway, Kenneth Foree, Ronnie Lewis and Jerry Northcutt; and, infielders — Larry Wadzeck Ronnie Shields, David McGinnis, and Bob Ray.

Callaway and Ray are seniors, Foree, Wadzeck and Shields are juniors, and the others are sophomores.

Name In Famed Hall

NEW YORK (AP) — Earl (Greasy) Neale, one of the game's great innovators in his career as college and professional coach, and nine former players have been named to the National Football Hall of Fame for 1967.

Chester J. LaRoche, president of the National Football Foundation, in making the announcement Thursday, said the electees would be inducted at the 10th annual Awards Banquet Dec. 5.

The players honored include six linemen and three backs. They are: Slade Cutter, Navy tackle; Nathan Dougherty Tennessee guard; Joel Hunt, Texas A&M back; Wear Schoonover, Arkansas end; Paul Schwegler, Washington tackle; Herb Stein, Pittsburgh center; Francis (Whitey) Wistert, Michigan tackle; Cecil Isbell, Purdue back, and Abe Mickal, Louisiana State back.

LaRoche said the Hall of Famers were chosen not only for football performance but for leadership and citizenship.

Salukis, Atop Poll, Eye NIT Tournament

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Southern Illinois, over its toughest late-season hurdle on the way toward New York's National Invitation Tournament, maintained an apparently insurmountable lead in The Associated Press' small-college basketball poll today.

The Salukis drew 13 first-place votes and 15 points in the balloting by a national panel of 16 sports writers and broadcasters. The Salukis, recently named to the NIT, beat second-ranked Kentucky Wesleyan 52-46 last week for a 19-2 record.

The small-college leaders completed their regular season Wednesday night by defeating Springfield, Mo., 93-66.

Kentucky Wesleyan held second place in the latest poll based on games through last Saturday. There were no changes in the next three positions as Lincoln of Missouri remained in the No. 3 spot followed by Cheyney State and Indiana State.

San Diego State, winner over San Fernando Valley State and Los Angeles State for a 21-4 mark, climbed three places to sixth.

Akron slipped one notch to seventh after losing to Winston-Salem State. Southwest Missouri held the No. 8 slot, and Grambling fell two places to ninth the result of setbacks by Arkansas AM&N and Alcorn.

Arkansas State is the only new team in the rankings, advancing to 10th place and replacing Howard Payne. Arkansas State collected 28 points on the usual basis of 10 points for a first-place vote, 9 for second etc.

Howard Payne had two votes for first-place, but managed only 26 points after losing to Stephen F. Austin and Sam Houston.

The Top Ten, with first-place votes in parentheses and total points on a 10-9-etc. basis:

1.	South. Illinois (13)	15
2.	Kentucky Wesleyan	113
3.	Lincoln, Mo.	91
4.	Cheyney State	77
5.	Indiana State	67
6.	San Diego State	60
7.	Akron	57
8.	Southwest Missouri	45
	Grambling	3
9.	Grambling	37
10.	Arkansas State (1)	28

Showdown Battle?

TYLER (AP) — Tyler looked toward a playoff with San Jacinto of Houston today, needing to take a best of three-game series to earn a trip to the national junior college tournament at Hutchinson, Kan.

Tyler and San Jacinton will clash here Saturday night and at Houston Tuesday night. If a third game is necessary, it will be at College Station Thursday.

Tyler won the north zone title in Region 14 Wednesday night by beating Lon Morris 76-67. San Jacinto won the south zone championship.

First TV Appearance Proves Very Costly

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — Charles Hamilton Rhinehardt's first television appearance cost him 30 days in municipal jail.

Rhinehardt, 19, Cincinnati, was convicted Wednesday of stealing a $2 shirt from a store equipped with closed-circuit television.

"I was watching a monitor at the rear of the store and saw him steal the shirt," Patricia Pharis, 19, an employe, testified at the trial.

"I didn't know I was on camera," Rhinehardt told the judge.

Al Kaline has hit 279 home runs for the Detroit Tigers. He needs 28 next season to beat Hank Greenberg's club record of 306.

Los Angeles Dodger pitchers turned in 20 shutouts in 52 complete games last year and had a team earned run average of 2.62.

Illinois Fights To Keep Coaches

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN
Associated Press Sports Writer

CHICAGO (AP)— The University of Illinois opens its fight for retention of three coaches today in an appeal before the Big Ten's governing body of faculty representatives.

The appeal will be presented by University President Dr. David D. Henry, Illinois' faculty representative and acting athletic director, Leslie Bryan, and the university's legal counsel, James Costello.

The faculty representatives may act quickly or, more probable, make deliberate, painstaking study that could prolong their decision until Friday or Saturday.

Conference athletic directors last week ordered Illinois to fire football Coach Pete Elliott, basketball Coach Harry Combes and his assistant, Howard Braun, or show cause why the university should not be suspended or expelled from the Big Ten.

This action, described by Dr. Henry as "too harsh", opened the avenue of appeal in which the university must show cause why it should remain a conference member if it doesn't dismiss the coaches.

The coaches were involved in irregular payments to athletes from a $21,000 petty fund administered outside the university.

When the fund was revealed in December, the university blew the whistle on itself, placing Elliott and Combes on one year probation and ruling ineligible seven football and five basketball players.

The eligibility of the athletes also will be embodied in the appeal.

Big High School Golf Tourney Set

It should be a whale of a golf tournament at the Snyder Country Club Friday and Saturday when 75 schoolboys representing 15 teams tee off.

Pampa, the defending champion, is back to protect its crown, but the Harvesters should get plenty of competition from Amarillo Tascosa, Lubbock Coronado, Big Spring and Abilene Cooper.

Moreover, the second and third place teams of last season — Borger and Lamesa — will be back to challenge for the title. Other entries include Abilene High, Odessa High, Lubbock High, Sweetwater, Midland High, Brownwood, Stamford and Snyder.

Coach J. P. Ward, tournament director and coach of the host Tigers, said the Snyder teams will be comprised of Don Copeland, Alex LeFeuvre, Mitch Rambin, Steve Holder and Mark Wilson.

The best four scores of each team will be used for the official card. Tee off is set for 9 a.m. Friday and 8:30 a.m. Saturday with 18 holes of play slated each day. Medalist and team trophies will be presented to the winners.

Race Closes

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

They ring down the curtain on a hectic Southwest conference basketball race tonight with the finish from second down to last all that is to be decided. Southern Methodist already is champion.

Probably the most important thing is who's going to win the scoring championship. Two members of the same club are fighting for that.

Darrell Hardy of Baylor leads with 486 points but is only one ahead of teammate Jimmy Turner. So the final game, in which Baylor plays Arkansas at Fayetteville, can decide it—unless they wind up in a tie.

Bill Doty of Rice is third with 426 points. He needs about 75 points to win the prize even if Hardy and Turner hit a bad slump.

SMU closes out against Texas at Dallas. The latter can clinch second place with a victory but may be tied for it if the Longhorns lose.

Texas Christian and Baylor are tied for third place, each a game back of Texas. TCU's final game is with Texas A&M at Fort Worth.

Rice and Texas Tech wind things up at Houston.

Texan Triumphs

MLWAUKEE, Wis. (AP) — Texas wound up with only one champion of the National Golden Gloves — Jesse Valdez, the classy boxer from Houston.

Valdez beat Paul Fisher of Omaha to reach the finals and then whipped Ed Betson of Streator, Ill., for the 156-pound title.

He is the 15th Texas champion in the 40 years of the Golden Gloves. He also is the first Texan since 1964 to win a title.

Two other Texans — Dick Cole of Dallas and Don Jones of Fort Worth — lost in the semifinals.

Maury Wills, now with the Pittsburgh Pirates, played four games at third base for the Los Angeles Dodgers last season.

First baseman Orlando Cepeda hit .373 in day games for the St. Louis Cardinals last season but only .258 at night.

Clay Finds Home?

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Heavyweight champion Cassius Clay says he plans to train an extra week in Houston before going to New York where he will defend his title March 22 against Zora Folley.

Earlier he had planned to arrive in New York about two weeks before the bout.

"I am going to stay an extra week because I like it down here," Clay said.

"I like it better and better. I like the weather, the layout of the city. It's a peaceful, quiet, clean place."

SPORTSCUTTLE

We heard another good track story from Coach Bob Carter the other day. It seems that when he was track coach at Ft. Stockton he had a little Indian boy, Eloy Carillo, who was one of their best runners.

Eloy won a lot of points for the team, but as the season progressed, his feet began to get sore. It reached the point where he had difficulty running.

"We took him to several specialists and spent about $300 trying to find out what was wrong," recalled Coach Carter. "But nobody could seem to help him."

"Then we took him to (Foots) Mullins (a chiropodist in San Angelo)," added Carter.

"Foots took one look at him," he continued, "and said:

"'Son, you're an Indian boy and your feet have high arches. They weren't made for running over hard surfaces. You'd be more at home running in the sandy hills.'"

Acting on Foots' advice, Carter purchased two small pads for about 15 cents each in a drug store and inserted them in Eloy's shoes.

He never had any more trouble.

Snyder Track Team Is Fast, Powerful

One of the most talented Tiger track teams ever to represent Snyder High School will be among the favorites to capture the championship in Division II of the Canyon Reef Relays to be unreeled here Saturday.

Coach Bob Carter's lads won the first place trophy at Ft. Stockton last week, and they'll be out to add another one this week.

Division II will be made up of Class AAA schools, and Division I will be comprised of Class AAAA schools. Prelims begin at 9:45 a.m. with competition in the pole vault, shot put, discus, high jump and broad jump.

At 9:45 a.m., the schedule calls for the 440 relays with the eight top teams qualifying for the finals. The 120 yard high hurdles will get underway at 10 a.m. on the west side of the field with the 100 yard dash to be run off at the same time on the east side.

The prelims also will include the 440 yard dash at 10:30 a.m. followed by the 330 yard intermediate hurdles at 10:50 a.m. and the 220 yard dash at 11:20 a.m.

Division II events will precede competition in Division I events in each category of competition with the finals to begin at 1 p.m.

The schedule for the finals:

1 p.m. — pole vault, shot put, discus, high jump and broad jump.
2:15 p.m. — 440 yard relay.
2:25 p.m. — 880 yard dash.
2:50 p.m. — 120 yard high hurdles.
3 p.m. — 100 yard dash.
3:15 p.m. — 440 yard dash.
3:30 p.m. — intermediate hurdles.
3:45 p.m. — 220 yard dash.
4 p.m. — mile run.
4:25 p.m. — mile relay.

Coach Carter listed Snyder entries, as follows:

440 yard relay — Curtis Clay, Leon Riggins, Teddy Brown and M. C. Powell. mile relay — Clay, Riggins, Brown and Powell.
100 yard dash — Powell, Larry Lofton and John Schiebel.
220 yard dash — Clay, Schiebel and Lofton.
120 yard high hurdles — Dwaine Boydstun.
330 yard intermediate hurdles — Riggins and Boydstun.
440 yard dash — Brown, Morris Smith and Kent Noble.
880 yard dash — Tommy Bullard, Roy Lee, Gary Foster or Preston Lane.
mile run — Freddie Benitez, Harvey Browning and Thomas McDorman.
high jump — Schiebel, Dewey Grinslade and Riggins.
broad jump — Powell and Riggins.
pole vault — Drake Snyder, Steve Burney and Howard Newsome.
shot put — Jerry Simons, Joe Breeden and Ray Ellis or Larry Krause. discus — Simons and Breeden.

Army Calls Up Astro Outfielder

COCOA, Fla. (AP)—Gregory (Duke) Sims, Houston Astros promising young outfielder, has been called up by the Army for six months active duty.

Sims, 20, who had been working out with the Astros during spring training here, was to report to Ft. Ord, Calif., today.

Sims was with the Astros the first part of last season and then was sent to Durham of the Carolina League where he had a .277 batting average and hit nine home runs the latter part of the season.

Catcher John Bateman's headaches have ended and medical examinations in Houston turned up nothing wrong. He will return to workouts by Friday. Bateman had complained of aches since he was kicked in the head in a play at home base during winter baseball.

SWC Nines Win

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Southwest Conference baseball teams posted two more victories Wednesday to bring their record for the season to 12-1 against outside opposition.

Texas Christian swamped the University of Dallas 28-0 with a 26-hit attack. Richard Hooper got four of the hits and drove in five runs.

Texas A&M opened the season with an 18-5 triumph over St. Edward's. Mike Arrington led a 17-hit barrage with five out of six and batted in three runs. Intersectional play begins this weekend with Texas host to Oklahoma Friday and Saturday.

Nardin's Byrd, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Nardin of North Bay Village, Fla., led the 2-year-old pacers in money won last year with $136,261.

Cage Playoffs Begin Tonight

By ROBERT HEARD

AUSTIN (AP)—After months of thump-thumping basketballs around the state, Texas' 1,115 schoolboy teams are narrowed down to 22 regional champions who will compete for five state titles beginning today.

The state tournament gets under way at 8:45 a.m. with a Class B contest between Avoca, near Abilene, and Kennard, near Lufkin.

Championship games are scheduled Saturday.

Only Spring Branch Memorial in Class AAAA and Snook in Class B are returning champions, but several of the teams have long histories in state tournament play, including 10-time participant Clear Creek of League City in Class AAA.

Archer City, near Wichita Falls, in Class A, is making its first appearance since it played in the 1921 tournament.

Spring Branch has been here but once, beating Samuell of Dallas, 73-68, for the championship last year.

Snook has dominated Class B for the last three years. The players average only 5-9 in height, making up for that disadvantage with speed. They beat the Waelder Wildcats, 51-35, for the regional title Saturday, a fact that becomes more impressive because the Wildcats had one 6-foot-8 player and one who stood 6-4.

Snook won the state Class B championship in 1965 and 1966.

The teams with the best records coming into the tournament are Robert E. Lee of San Antonio, Class AAAA; Lamesa Class AAA, and Robert G. Cole of San Antonio, Class A. Each has lost only one game, Lee has won 29, Lamesa, 31, and Cole, 30.

Lamesa was scheduled to meet Waxahachie at 7:30 p.m. tonight in the first round of the Class AAA playoffs.

EGG ON HIS FACE--AGAIN!

Trend Of Supreme Court Likely To Remain Liberal

By JAMES MARLOW
AP News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — Liberal justices dominate this Supreme Court and even if some of them retire in the next few years, so long as Lyndon B. Johnson remains President the court probably will remain liberal.

With his far-reaching liberal programs, some involving welfare in many ways, Johnson seems unlikely to jeopardize them by appointing conservatives to the high bench.

Justice Tom C. Clark said this week he would step down by the end of June. At age 67 he is very close to the average retirement age of justices — 67½ years — down through American history.

But there are four other justices 67 or older: Chief Justice Earl Warren, 75; and Justices Hugo Black, 81; William O. Douglas, 68; and John Marshall Harlan, 67.

If Warren, Black and Douglas were guided by the average retirement age, they'd be gone now. Their average age is 74. But there have been some notable exceptions to the average.

The best example is Justice Oliver Wendell Holmes who didn't quit until he was 90.

As the history of the 96 men who have sat on the court shows, the age of a justice doesn't necessarily mean he is not a good justice simply because he is up in years.

Some justices, including some of the best, weren't appointed until they were in their 60s. Holmes was 61, Louis D. Brandeis, 60, and Benjamin N. Cardozo, 62.

And these three chief justices were in their 60s when they were appointed to take charge Warren, 62, William Howard Taft, 64, and Charles Evans Hughes, 68.

All these bits of arithmetic prove is that there is no mathematical formula for predicting when any justice figures he has had enough. Justice William Brennan is 60. Only three justices are under that age: Abe Fortas, 56, Potter Stewart, 52, and Byron R. White, 49.

Thus, while the average age of the present members is 63½ years, this court has had a continuity of outlook, starting with the 1954 decision outlawing public school segregation, that has made it the strongest in history and the most liberal.

Yet, only four of the present justices — Warren, Black, Douglas and Clark — were on the court at the time of the 1954 ruling. All four of them approved it.

Youth — or comparative youth — is no guarantee that a justice will be more liberal than his elders. The two youngest members of this court — White and Stewart — along with Harlan are the most conservative.

The three oldest members — Warren, Black and Douglas — along with Brennan and Fortas make up the dominant liberal majority.

This doesn't mean they vote together on every issue, but do so enough times to give the court its steadily liberal direction. Sometimes, when one or more of them dissents, the remaining liberals can't get a decision through unless joined by one or more of the conservatives.

Next to the school desegregation ruling, perhaps the most courageous act of the Supreme Court since 1954 was the decision requiring state legislatures to reapportion themselves to give more equal representation to state citizens.

The court long had held back from butting into this political ambush. But the court also showed courage in banning compulsory prayers in public schools, in toning down the hysteria about communism in the 1950's, and protecting the rights of individuals, including criminals.

Career Girls Better Hold Your Ears

Hold Your Ears, Miss;
These are remarks that pall
On career girls one and all

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Remarks that career girls get tired of hearing:

"After all, she's wedded to her work."

"If you ask me, a woman's place still is in the home."

"What's a nice dame like you doing working in a sweatshop like this?"

"To be as tactful as possible about it, Joan, I don't think that dress is for you. In a job like yours, you don't want to look too young."

"Congratulations, Joan. As the first girl in this firm ever to win her 25-year pin, you have every right to be proud of yourself."

"Sorry Miss, but we don't serve unescorted ladies at the bar. Would you care to sit at a table?"

"Let's all go dutch."

"Yes, I admit you deserve the promotion, but you know how some of the men feel. They don't want to work for a woman."

"Don't tell me you can cook, too? I thought all career girls were helpless in the kitchen."

"What'll you have for lunch, Ma'am — the same? Coffee and a peanut butter and jelly sandwich?"

"We're giving a shower for Rosemary. She's getting married to the head of her department next month."

"I do believe it's your first gray hair, Miss. Shall I tint it or pluck it for you as a souvenir?"

"I don't care whether she can type or not — she's still not my type."

"...And, of course, after you've been with us for 40 years, you're entitled to the full pension."

"I love my wife, but oh, you kid!"

"I'll handle this problem myself, Joan. I feel it needs a man's touch."

"For Pete's sake, why should a career gal expect to get the same pay as a man? He's got a family to support. All she usually has to support is a pet cat or a couple of goldfish."

"They ape everything we do. The next thing you know they'll start carrying brief cases to and from the office."

"Hey, Joan. It's my wife's birthday. Would you mind trotting out and buying a couple dozen roses for her? While you're at it, pick one out for yourself. I'll pay for it."

"They're all just marking time until they can catch themselves a husband."

"Gee, Joan, sometimes I forget you're a gal. I guess I tend to think of you as just another one of the fellows."

Most Texans Vote To Exclude Powell

WASHINGTON (AP)— Eighteen Democrats and two Republicans from Texas were among congressmen voting with the majority Wednesday to exclude Adam Clayton Powell from the House.

Three Texas Democrats were on the losing side. The total vote was 307-116.

Democrats for: Burleson, Cabell, Casey, de la Garza, Dowdy, Fisher, Kazen, Mahon, Patman, Pickle, Poage, Pool, Purcell, Roberts, Teague, White, Wright and Young.

Republicans for: Bush and Price.

Democrats against: Brooks, Eckhardt and Gonzalez.

Junior Editors Quiz on DEER

QUESTION: When do deer lose their horns?

ANSWER: There are two main types of horns on hoofed animals. Cattle, sheep, goats and antelope have hollow horns, made of a material which is like our fingernails or the shell of a turtle. But deer's horns are different. They are properly called "antlers" and are solid, made of bone. The true horns of cattle remain with them all the time but the deer sheds his antlers every year.

It is in the winter that the male deer loses his antlers. Missing these formidable weapons, the male deer becomes shy and retiring. As spring begins to come, new antlers start growing. These are mere stumps at first, tender and covered with soft, velvety hair. With the arrival of summer, the antlers become much larger, develop different points and become harder. By August they begin to look like the real thing but still have the soft covering. When in the fall, this is finally rubbed off, the solid antlers emerge in all their grandeur.

92-Year-Old JP Shows Little Patience With Lawless

Editor's Note: A. Pennington, now in his fifth term as justice of the peace, came to Seadrift to retire, finds he is busier than ever and at 92 pretty obviously has little patience with lawbreakers.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

SEADRIFT, Tex. (AP) — A. Pennington tells people, "I came here from Victoria 14 years ago to retire. Seems I've worked harder since than I ever had before."

To be working at 92 seems remarkable, but in his four and a fraction terms as justice of the peace in this town of 1,500 persons he has settled about 2,000 cases.

Looking over his docket and the jottings of fines administered, it is plain that he has little patience with those who flaunt the law.

Asked if he considers himself a severe judge, he limited his reply to a wry smile.

Speaking of his occasional political opponents, he says, "The only thing they could use against me was that I was too old."

Judge Pennington holds court in the parlor of his five-room home in downtown Seadrift, a community of about 1,500 on the Texas coast.

He sandwiches in a wedding ceremony now and then. A widower, he lives alone, keeps a spotless house and is a good cook.

He first was appointed to the job in 1952 and later that year won a write-in campaign. Pennington, alert and spry, has held the job since. Many of the cases are brought to him late at night.

Some of his friends say he has a favorite expression when he fines speeders:

"I may not break you of the habit but I'll break you—trying."

Calhoun County justices of the peace receive a salary of $10 a month and do not work on a fee per fine basis. The fines go to the county's road and bridge fund.

Pennington is grateful for his good health.

"I remember being sick one time—about 50 or 60 years ago when I had typhoid fever," he recalled in an interview.

About four years ago he went to Houston to have a cataract removed from an eye—his first time in a hospital.

Gaining great age appears to be a trait of his family. A twin sister died only recently. His mother lived to be 99, his father 92 and a brother 97. He has other brothers and sisters surviving.

Pennington and his wife, Hettie had been married 65 years when she died about five years ago.

He learned to cook during his wife's final illness.

"I use cake mixes," he admits, but then adds proudly, "I make my own icings."

Often he makes cupcakes for his friends at the Port Lavaca Courthouse.

Pennington likes to visit friends downtown or walk to the nearby waterfront.

As for fishing, "I gave up that foolishness long ago," he said.

He says his three children have no reason to worry about his living alone, but he did give up driving a car at their insistence. He is a great - great grandfather.

Pennington, before his first retirement at 75 years, was bookkeeper for 14 years for the Victoria Plumbing Co.

He was born in old Washington, Tex., and worked for a number of years with the Wells Fargo Express Co. in San Antonio.

He was a baggage agent for Southern Pacific about 1914 and was chief clerk to the general baggage agent with the Missouri, Kansas and Texas lines in Houston.

From Houston, he went to Lubbock, where he managed a furniture firm.

His relatively heavy work load in Seadrift he dismisses with, "It keeps me out of devilment."

Psychologist Experiments With Jokes

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Joke: "If you want a youthful figure, ask a woman her age."

Dr. Robert Priest describes this as a typical antifemale joke. In fact, he uses it in his studies of the social psychology of humor.

To even things up, Priest supplies this example of an antimale joke: "When Jack dances, he's all feet and when he stops he's all hands."

But, are they funny?

Priest expected the first joke to draw chuckles from men and stern looks from the women. And vice versa with the second example.

Not so.

Priest, an assistant professor of psychology at the University of Southern California, culled more than 5,000 jokes for just the right ones to use in his experiments with students.

Using a mixed panel, he divided the students into male-male pairs, female-female and male-female.

Surprisingly, reaction wasn't along sex lines at all.

The women didn't like the joke about Jack any better than the men did, and the men reacted negatively to the one about a woman's age.

Statistically, this trend held throughout Priest's experiments, he told an interviewer Wednesday.

Priest said he hopes his studies will lead to an increased understanding of the conflicts that arise in daily living and possibly help with psychological diagnosis of conflict situations.

"Apparently," he said, "the forces which join the opposing groups are stronger than those which divide them.

"It also appears that when a person is confronted by a member of the opposite sex, he tends to inhibit hostility."

Gas Leases To Be Pooled

AUSTIN (AP) — The Railroa Commission has ordered pooling of two Pecos County leases to save the cost of drilling a gas well. The request was made by Pan American Petroleum Corp.

The commission ordered pooling of Pan merican's 173-acre lease in the Gomez (Ellenburger) Field of Pecos County with an adjoining 480 - acre tract leased by Texaco.

Lawyers for the W. C. Tyrell Trust, which opposed the pooling, said the offer of straight acreage participation in production from the pooled tracts was not adequate. Both leases were from the trust.

Pan American said it would have to spend $1.5 million to drill a well if pooling was denied. The discovery well in the field was 20,745 feet deep. Texaco's lease has a producing gas well.

Opposing lawyers said the Pan American lease contained pooling authority but the Texaco lease did not.

The pooling order designated Texaco as operator of the pooled property and specified that production be allocated according to acreage.

Pitcher Earl Wilson won nine straight games for the Detroit Tigers last season.

Drought Is Critical In Texas

The worsening winter drought in Texas has reached a critical point for two-thirds of the state, the Weather Bureau says.

The Fort Worth area, with only .32 inches of rain last month, is having its driest winter since 1909.

The Weather Bureau, in a resume of February's weather, said only the Corpus Christi area of the Gulf Coast had normal rainfall last month.

"Precipitation was fairly evenly distributed throughout the month, but there was just not enough to go around," said the forecasters.

A two-inch rainfall at Corpus Christi Feb. 6 accounted for most of the middle coast's rainfall.

Most cold fronts were dry and dusty during the month, but wet northers came through Texas Feb. 5 and 19. Average monthly temperatures were below normal over all of Texas except the northern plains, but there was no protracted cold.

The dry weather continues to hamper agriculture. The Weather Bureau noted conditions are "particulary critical in the western two-thirds of Texas."

North Carolina will have an earl football season this year. The Tar Heels open with North Carolina State at Raleigh, N.C., on Sept. 16 and finish with their 10th game on Nov. 18th at Duke.

MYSTERY STUDENT IN A BLACK BAG — Oregon State University's class in Speech 113 — Basic Persuasion, has at each session a mystery student covered by a black bag with only his bare feet showing. He seldom speaks or moves. Charles Goetzinger, professor of the class at Corvallis, Ore., who knows the identity of the person, says the class' attitude changed from hostility toward the black bag to curiosity and finally to friendship. The person inside the bag does not wear it to his other classes. (AP Wirephoto)

Solons Decline To Declare War

By ROBERT E. GEIGER

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress has once more passed up an opportunity to declare war in Vietnam.

Although some senators have called U.S. actions in Vietnam illegal in the absence of a formal war declaration, most remained silent on that point Wednesday when the Senate voted 89 to 2 to provide $4.5 billion more for the fighting.

Parliamentary maneuvering by Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield forestalled the possibility the Senate would come to grips with the declaration of war issue through the authorization bill.

Sen. Joseph S. Clark, D-Pa., had prepared amendments demanding a war declaration if U.S. troops in Vietnam passed the 500,000 mark or if U.S. bombing of North Vietnam continued.

But Mansfield's maneuvering forced a vote on his alternate amendment calling for negotiations to end the struggle and generally endorsing Johnson's policies. It passed 72 to 19.

Administration officials have long been felt to believe that a formal declaration of war would create obstacles for U.S. efforts to limit the war and gain a negotiated settlement.

The Constitution gives Congress the right to make a formal war declaration. But in the case of Vietnam, officials interpret congressional approval of the administration's Vietnam policy as sufficient authority to pursue the fighting.

As support for this reasoning the officials note the Senate in 1954 approved the Southeast Asian defense treaty 82 to 1. Then in August 1964, the Senate and House by combined votes of 512 to 2 adopted a resolution asserting UMS. readiness to use armed force if necessary to help South Vietnam in defense of its freedom.

Congress approved in 1965 a $700 million appropriation asked by Johnson to "persist in our efforts to halt Communist aggression in South Vietnam."

Officials say the President's right to commit U.S. troops to Vietnam comes from constitutional provisions which make him the commander in chief of armed forces. They argue that there have been more than 100 times when presidents have employed armed forces abroad without a war declaration.

Administration officials claim a war declaration would pose major complications to U.S. strategy, which is tailored to a limited objective and to prevent escalation.

They say a declaration would tend to broaden the conflict. They also say it could be an excuse for Red China to enter the conflict.

Employes Of Halliburton Honored

Snyder employes of Halliburton Co. were honored in Dallas Tuesday night for their part in helping the Dallas division win the oil field service firm's 1966 sales contest.

G. B. Hayes, the district superintendent, accepted a trophy from Ed Trapp, Halliburton sales manager from the Duncan, Okla. general offices, in ceremonies at the Statler Hilton hotel.

"You are to be commended for your outstanding sales accomplishments in 1966," Grover Kilgore, vice president for sales, told the dinner guests.

The award is given each year to the employes in the division having the highest percentage of floating equipment used on Halliburton cementing jobs. Ten other divisions across the U. S. compete for the award. Floating equipment is oil field specialty products used when a new well's production pipe or casing is lowered into the hole, and in the following completion steps.

Other Halliburton officials on hand for the ceremonies included M. W. (Cy) Reed, vice president in charge of field operations, and William L. Hughes, general manager of service sales, both from Duncan, and Burton Aulick, central region manager from Midland.

Former Fluvanna Resident Is Dead

James Earl Evans, formerly of Fluvanna, and nephew of Bunyon Evans of Fluvanna suffered a fatal heart attack at his home in Alvin, Tex. Wednesday.

Funeral services are planned in Alvin for 10 a.m. Friday, with burial in Houston.

Mr. Evans is survived by his wife, and three sons, of the home; his mother, Mrs. Virgie Evans; one brother, Billy Evans, all of Alvin. Also two sisters, Mrs. Oneta Harrison of Grand Prairie and Eddie Marie Evans of Alvin survive.

First Lady Says Lucy Is Pregnant

WASHINGTON (AP) — The First Lady says daughter Luci is pregnant.

Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson bubbled Wednesday at a Capitol luncheon about her pending grandmotherhood in May or June. Her press secretary later confirmed the remarks.

So far, neither Luci, 19, nor her husband, Patrick J. Nugent, has confirmed the expected birth of their first child. They live in Austin, Texas. They were married Aug. 6, 1966.

Mrs. Johnson broke the news in chit-chat at a luncheon given by Sen. Allen Ellender, D-La., for about 20 women including Cabinet and Senate wives.

The grandchild would be President and Mrs. Johnson's first.

Nugent works for the Johnson family-owned broadcasting firm in Austin and has been attending the University of Texas.

Earlier Wednesday the White House denied a report that the top floor of Holy Cross Hospital in Austin would be used for the expected birth.

Until Mrs. Johnson broke the news the White House had consistently refused comment on whether Luci was expecting.

Taxman's Computer Doesn't Repeat $80 Million Error

By JOSEPH R. COYNE

WASHINGTON (AP) — The tax collector's computer can make an $80-million mistake — but apparently it won't make the same one twice.

The Internal Revenue Service admitted today its highly touted computer operation figured an $80 million refund last year for a large corporation simply because the company reversed its tax identification numbers.

It took humans to right the wrong in an audit.

But the computer made up for it this year. It caught the same mistake by the same corporation before it punched out a refund order.

This year, for the first time, all tax returns are being checked fully by the computer, which already has processed 3.2 million individual returns and credited refunds worth $479 million.

More than one in nine taxpayers who filed for refunds through last Saturday made mistakes in completing their forms, IRS said.

Errors were discovered both by computer and humans on more than 380,000 of the returns. Among them were 95,780 errors in arithmetic and 35,000 returns which listed the wrong Social Security number or none at all, IRS added.

It's the Social Security number — or tax identification number in the case of persons and corporations without a Social Security number — which is important in the computer operation.

Here's what happened when the computer goofed as related by an IRS source:

A large corporation — IRS declined to name it — filed one return last year for its domestic operations and another for its overseas subsidiary. It pays no taxes on the subsidiary operations but must file a return.

Despite all the tax and accounting experts employed by the firm, its tax returns were filed with the identification numbers reversed.

Since the return of the foreign subsidiary listed the number of the domestic firm, the computer listed a refund check for the subsidiary of about $80 million, a figure IRS said isn't unusual for large corporations.

But the refund was large enough to demand a human audit and the mistake was discovered.

Refunds for both corporations and individuals above a certain amount automatically are audited by humans but IRS won't say what the cutoff is.

IRS said the firm made the same mistake this year but the computer caught it. It had been programmed to be watchful for anything like last year's error and quickly detected the reversed numbers.

France To See History Relived

SANTA ANA, Calif. (AP) — Frenchmen will see history relived next May 21 when a tiny high-wing monoplane circles Paris' Eiffel Tower and flies on to land at Le Bourget Airport.

That's where Charles A. Lindbergh touched down May 21, 12, after a 33½-hour, 3,600-mile hop from New York that set a record for nonstop solo flight and opened the world's eyes to the potentials of aviation.

The plane that will land at Le Bourget next May is an exact copy of Lindbergh's "Spirit of St. Louis" and the man who will fly it bears a physical resemblance to the slim airmail pilot who became overnight a world hero.

He is Frank Tallman whose claim to fame until now has been as a daredevil movie stunt pilot.

Tallman, who at 48 prefers to be known as a corporation president rather than a stuntman is building the new "Spirit of St. Louis" in one of the Tallmantz Aviation, Inc., hangars at Orange County Airport 40 miles from Los Angeles. He says it is costing him $40,000.

After it is completed next month, Tallman will put the 27-foot-long craft through test flights here, remove the 46-foot wings and load them aboard an Air Force C141 transport. Due to arrive at an airport near Paris is early in May, the plane will be reassembled and tested again prior to the 40th anniversary flight.

From May 26 to June 4 the plane will be on display at the Paris Air Show. Beyond that, Tallman says the plans are indefinite.

"This is the only true replica of the 'Spirit of St. Louis' that has ever been built for flight" Tallman says. "We followed exactly the blueprints which Ryan Aeronautics of San Diego drew up to Lindbergh's specifications."

The original plane, named in honor of St. Louis citizens who funded its construction, now hangs in the Smithsonian Institution in Washington.

Time Bill Ready For Senate Debate

AUSTIN (AP) — The movies and restaurants lined up against television and railroads Wednesday for a replay of the daylight saving time game.

When it was over, the Senate State Affairs Committee voted approval of a bill that would keep present time standards in Texas when the federal Uniform Time act advances clocks one hour in most of the country.

The bill is now ready for Senate debate.

A similar battle last week before the House State Affairs Committee sent the House version to a subcommittee, where it remains.

"It would take $13 million additional investment for 41 TV stations to delay network programs one hour in order to hit prime viewing time," said Ves Box, general manager of KRLD-TV in Dallas.

Box, a spokesman for the Texas television industry, said the networks considered it economically impractical to make the delaIyed transmissions.

Roy Stanush of Austin, spokesman for the Texas Restaurant Association, said daylight saving time would cause increased expenses. Afternoon business would slow down in cafes and the dinner crowd would come later, he said.

LIGHTEST MEXICO

BY JOHN ABNEY

Chapala, Mexico — About 10 miles west of this lake shore town is the village of San Juan Cosala. San Juan has a reputation for catching small fish and being a town that isn't.

There are no public buildings in the little place because it is part of the municipality of Jocotepec, farther west.

San Juan has a population of around 3,000. But it has some luxurious homes that belong to wealthy Mexican families who visit on weekends or during vacations.

A town that is purely residential except for the charal fishing and the thermal health springs.

In the early morning hours the San Juan Cosala fishermen take their big fiber nets to Lake Chapala and bring in loads of charals. This being a tiny fish about the size of an anchovy. And you probably eat them dried with your beer around this region.

The jillions of charals are spread on the ground, generally beside the highway, to dry. The fishermen lay them in piles a foot or so wide and yards and yards long to dry.

Automobiles sometimes run over the fish piles. And sometimes burros tread cautiously on them walking beside the road.

This is an industry said to date back to before the time of the Spaniards.

It takes four men to operate a net. Sometimes they string it just offshore from a canoe and pull it in by hand. Other times they go farther out and haul the nets in with canoe power.

But the little fish are always there. And you find a big commercial demand for them.

I imagine the Spaniards ate them when they came to this region and planted the flag on a hill top. In the King's name.

"Son," the Spanish captain no doubt told the boss fisherman, "bring us around a few trays of those tasty little dried fish and you might include some cold beer. We have had a rough walk out here from Guadalajara."

Then the Spaniards hung their armor on some bushes and took a dip in the thermal springs.

There is a newly opened spa on the eastern side of San Juan Cosala. It pours hot water into a large swimming pool and fills several soaking tubs for visitors. Admission is 64 cents for adults and 32 for children. They are planning a hotel for the near future. A terrace bar and modern dressing rooms have been built.

This is in the heart of retirement country for this region. Chapala is a big lake (65 miles long and about 20 miles wide) with a number of gorgeous little towns around its shores.

The town of Chapala has an American Legion post numbering about 200 members. Drug stores, food markets and golf courses. An American Society flourishes here.

The retirees live in the villages along the lake shore and make Chapala their headquarters. I would venture a guess that San Juan Cosala will grow and pick up a fair size retired population.

The village is old and quiet. But you can sit and look at the bougainvillea, cedar, palm, mango, papays, banana and avocado trees and listen to the birds sing.

And of course eat piles of charal. Some that have been walked on and some that haven't. That is the chief industry around here although the hot springs are coming up fast.

TB Remains Widespread

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Tweny-five million people in the United States are infected with tuberculosis, although their cases aren't active, a U.S. Public Health Service physician estimates.

Dr. Sidney Dressler said of the 50,000 or so new active TB cases discovered in this nation yearly a majority involve persons who would have had positive responses if they were given tuberculin tests.

Dr. Dressler, in Los Angeles from Washington, D.C., to attend a symposium on the control of tuberculosis, told a news conference that tuberculin tests must be given to whole generations of school children.

Although cases of tuberculosis are increasing statistically the reason is a better reporting and detection system rather than any actual increase in TB, said Dr. A. A. Grabau of the Erie County Health Department, Buffalo, N.Y.
