

FOOTBALL PREPARES CONGRESS MESSAGE Amarillo-Ranger To Clash in Bi-District Game

PEEPING THRU THE KNOTHOLE with BILL MAYES

BI-DISTRICT games of the most interest in the western section of Texas will be played this weekend, one at Sweetwater on Friday and the other at Ranger on Saturday afternoon. Sweetwater enters Austin High of El Paso and Ranger will be hosts to the Amarillo Golden Sandstorm.

ENOCH, who was christened Justin or something of the kind, who has been nicknamed "Chigger" and whose specialty is 60-yard runs for touchdowns, two of which have been made against Ranger teams, one in Ranger in 1931 and one in Amarillo this season, is the chief ball carrier of the Sandies. He has proved to be hard to stop.

AND, in addition to Enoch the Sandies have 10 other men who are above the average at their positions, making an all-round team against which the Bulldogs will be pitted tomorrow afternoon. The Bulldogs stopped Thomas or Brownwood but now they face another leading scorer.

TEAM WORK, which was stressed by Coach Francis Schmidt at the Bulldog banquet Wednesday night, has, so far, accounted for most of the Bulldog victories. Coach Schmidt said that a team of ball carriers could not get out of the huddle and that blocking made a ball team.

THE BULLDOGS have been fortunate, after the Weatherford game, as far as injuries are concerned. Early in the season Adkins and Anderson were hurt in an automobile accident, then Gray broke his leg, but since then no player has been out of the game more than a few minutes with injuries.

HOWEVER, the elimination of Gray this year, though it was a serious handicap to the backfield, has not made as serious a change in the backfield as was expected. True it took much of the speed, but the Bulldogs have managed to stay on top. With Gray there is no telling where they would have gone.

EVERY PLAYER in every play is Coach Schmidt's idea of how a team should function. If one of the players falls down on his assignment the whole play is ruined. Every play is a potential touchdown and would result in one if every man was perfect on his assignment. Perfect plays, however, are rare.

SOME OF the stores and shops in Ranger are to be closed during the game, but the Retail Merchants association voted against closing all the stores for a couple of hours during the game. Some said that they were going to be closed anyway.

AND THAT reminds us that the Breckenridge American notified us last Saturday that they were going to close up shop for the afternoon and the entire forenoon was coming down to the game, pulling for the Bulldogs. And some said Breckenridge was sore.

NOW THAT game time is drawing near many more fans are of the opinion that the Bulldogs "if they play as they did in the Abilene game" have a good chance of defeating the Sandstorm from Amarillo. In the first game of the season the Bulldogs had new material in the game, but so did Amarillo.

DARK tomorrow will tell the tale and the winner of the bi-district game will have another, and probably tougher, game on the schedule when they meet the winner of the Austin-Sweetwater game which Sweetwater is hoped to win.

INTER-SCHOOL football has been the standard of the team in the past ten years to the point where the winner of the state championship is a team that could probably compete favorably with many of the junior college and minor conference teams in the state. The winner tomorrow may surprise in the state race.

EVERYTHING points to a good crowd, at least as large as the Breckenridge game on Thanksgiving Day, when 4,986 paid to see the encounter and the seating capacity of the stadium was taxed more than in any game in the past two years, larger, even, than the Cisco game in 1931.

SEVERAL BETS have been reported offered but we have heard of no takers. Some are willing to bet large amounts, they say, though most of them want a few points, regardless of which team they get. But all the backers of the Bulldogs are sure that they will win.

Bulldogs Not to Be At 'Football' Dance, Coach Says

Numerous telephone calls to Coach Eck Curtis and other officials of the Ranger High School protesting against the "Football" dance that has been advertised for tonight has brought a statement from the school to the effect that the dance was not honoring the football players and that none of the members of the squad would be present.

Coach Curtis said today that by the time the dance started all the members of his squad would be at home and in bed (so there was no reason for the fans to worry about the dance interfering in any way with the players).

The dance was advertised as a "football dance" without the knowledge or approval of the school officials or the coach and the advertising has been misleading to many of the followers of the team, R. F. Holloway, superintendent of the Ranger Public Schools, said today.

VICE CRUSADE NETS RESULTS AT HOUSTON

HOUSTON, Dec. 2.—Crusading against youthful vice, the Harris county grand jury today was promised the aid of the city's religious leaders in a general "clean up." The grand jury turned its investigation to a nurse, who has been advertising for illegitimate operations upon high school girls.

The nurse's appearance before the jury was expected to result in her indictment, according to Assistant District Attorney Frank Willford.

Kenneth Haygood, 19, indicted two days ago on four charges of operating a brothel, where boys and girls met for liquor parties, was arrested today.

'Hunger Marchers' To Be Watched For Disorders

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—Law-enforcement agencies of Washington and surrounding territory mobilized today to prevent disorders as columns of "hunger marchers" converged on the national capital.

American Legion posts in nearby Maryland and Virginia organized to assist police, if necessary. Supplies of tear gas bombs were issued to police in Montgomery county, Maryland.

Officials of Cumberland, Md., gave flat notice the marchers would not be permitted to enter that city Saturday night. They said the order would be enforced by use of arms, if need be.

War-time precautions were in effect at Capitol Hill to protect congressmen from demonstrators or the appearance of a bomb-laden madman. Police have been ordered to prevent packages being carried into the capitol.

Eastland Red Cross Cloth Distribution To End Saturday

The distribution of materials from the Red Cross for Eastland will be closed for the present, with the work of tomorrow afternoon which opens at 2 p. m., in the Chamber of Commerce.

The amount of material assigned Eastland has been distributed except a comparatively small allotment, and for this Dr. H. B. Tanner, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce will arrange dates later on, when applicants may secure the residue.

Cato Sells May Get Appointment

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—Indorsements seeking the appointment of Cato Sells of Fort Worth as federal collector of revenue at Dallas were in the hands of federal officials today.

Should Sells be given the post it probably would be interpreted as a republican reward for his activity during the 1928 campaign in which Texas went for President Hoover.

RANGER LIONS SPONSOR PLAN FOR THE POOR

The Ranger Lions Club will sponsor a unique Christmas plan for obtaining toys, clothes, food, fruits, candies and other Christmas items for the needy of the Ranger territory. The plan to be promoted for the Child Welfare Club of Ranger.

At many of the stores of the city barrels will be placed near the entrance in which Christmas offerings can be placed. These will be collected before Christmas turned over to the Child Welfare Club for distribution among the poorer families of this section.

As one makes a purchase they can keep in mind the poor of the community and buy something and drop it in the barrel. For instance, while buying groceries a can of food can be bought and placed in the barrel or when shopping in a dry goods store a pair of children's stockings could be purchased for a small amount and the package placed in the receptacle placed in the store for that purpose.

On each barrel will be painted a sign "Put Gifts Here For Christmas Cheer" as a reminder to the shopper.

When all the gifts are collected just before Christmas they will be checked over in order that families might be given the items placed in the barrels which they need and for which they can find service. By this plan it is expected that many a youngster, who would not otherwise have anything for Christmas, might find his Christmas stocking filled.

Stores where the barrels will be placed are Scotts Store, J. C. Penney, Gentry Brothers, M. System, Mills Grocery, Joseph, Woodworth, Wiggly, A. & P., O. K. Grocery, Faircloth's Grocery and Tullos Bakery.

SEVEN TELL OF PARTY BEFORE WOMAN DIED

DALLAS, Dec. 2.—Detectives investigating the murder of Mrs. H. K. Buchanan said today they were convinced they knew the identity of the slayer but were without adequate evidence to justify an arrest.

DALLAS, Dec. 2.—Seven persons told police today a chili supper and drinking party in Mrs. H. K. Buchanan's apartment preceded the pretty 28-year-old blond woman's death.

Her body, nude and with bruises on the throat, was found on the floor of her bedroom yesterday. A torn stocking was around her neck.

Miss Jo Norwood, federal reserve bank employee, who lived across the hall, told police she quarreled with Mrs. Buchanan during the evening and that she slipped her.

Statements from the various members of the party told how the two women were finally put to bed in their respective apartments and the gathering dispersed about 11 p. m.

Mrs. Buchanan's body was found 12 hours later. It was estimated she had been strangled eight hours before by an exceedingly powerful person.

Grand Jury To Meet on Monday

The following named persons have been selected by the grand commission appointed by Judge Geo. L. Davenport of the 91st district court to serve as grand jurors for the December term of that court. The grand jury will convene Monday, Dec. 5th.

W. H. White, Staff; N. L. Capers, Gorman; F. J. Stedfield, Carbon; G. S. Bruce, Desdemona; Rufus Cox, Okra; O. S. Childress, Rising Star; Walter Gray, Eastland; Guy Dabney, Cisco; W. H. Mayes, Jr., Ramey; A. L. McDonald, Rising Star; A. H. Henderson, Olden O. D. Brodgen, Edmon; E. P. Crawford, Ranger; Edwin George, Ranger; W. B. White, Eastland; Harve Vestal, Nimrod.

BOTH TEAMS ARE ANXIOUS FOR VICTORY

Coach Blair Cherry and His Sandies To Arrive Today.

Amarillo High School's Golden Sandstorm will sweep down from the plains of the Panhandle tomorrow afternoon to play the Ranger Bulldogs, champions of the Oil Belt district in a bi-district game in the race for the state championship. The Sandies, who are expected in Ranger around 10 o'clock in the morning, have been working out at Charley field, Cisco, in preparation for the game and the entire squad, reported to consist of 35 players, will be ready for the game at 2:30.

Coach Blair Cherry, former Bulldog coach, will lead the Sandies on their second invasion of Lillard field and into the third conflict between the two teams. In 1931 the Sandies played in Ranger, taking the heavy end of a 12 to 9 score in the last few minutes of play, when the game seemed to be in the bag for the Bulldogs.

Udell Duval, broke of the Bulldog team in 1931, broke through the line to block a punt on the Sandie 20-yard line, the ball going over the goal where he covered it for a touchdown. Later in the game another Sandie punt was blocked over the goal, where it was covered by Amarillo for a safety. With the Bulldogs leading by a score of 9 to 6 Enoch, star halfback of the Sandstorm, broke through right tackle for a run of some 65 yards and the last score of the game.

Early in the season the Bulldogs traveled to Amarillo on a return game contract and were defeated 13 to 0. Again it was the fleet-footed and shifty Enoch who spelled defeat for the Bulldogs, returning one punt 62 yards for a touchdown in the first quarter and going over the goal later in the game for the second score.

Since then both teams have improved considerably as that was the first game of the season for both teams. Cleo Gray, fleet ball carrier of the Bulldogs, was laid off before the conference season opened with a broken leg and changes had to be made in the Bulldog backfield. Gloyd Lyon, quarter, was shifted to left half, where he calls signals, Aaron Anderson remained at right, while J. L. Jones continued to fill his position at full. "Rabbit" Jones, though weighing but 130 pounds, was sent in at quarter to play a blocking game, and has started at that position in every Bulldog game since the conference season opened.

The game Saturday afternoon, which starts promptly at 2:30, is expected to draw one of the largest crowds of the season, even though Amarillo is expected to send few fans to Ranger. The Breckenridge game in Ranger on Thanksgiving day had the record crowd of the Oil Belt season present when 4,986 paid to see the game.

Eastland Writer Picks An All-District Football Eleven

By JO CARROLL
There is a custom among sports writers to pick an all-star or all-district team at the close of each football season. This writer has not done that, but a few who were interested have suggested such an eleven. For the benefit of the fans the names are given as follows:

Ends—Bray, Ranger; Teddie, Breckenridge.
Tackles—Barker, Abilene; Daniels, Eastland.
Guards—Martin, Breckenridge; Williams, Ranger.
Quarter—Burgamy, Eastland.
Halves—Thomas, Brownwood; Ennis, Breckenridge.
Full—Jones, Ranger.
Some may object to this line-up because there is not a first class punter in the backfield. When it becomes necessary to punt, Jones and Daniels will exchange positions and we have the best and most consistent punter in the district. This eleven could win.

KILLED IN CRASH.
AUSTIN, Dec. 2.—John Howard, 30, died here today from injuries received when an automobile and truck collided near Round Rock.

Pastors and Missionary women from the following places will be in attendance: Eastland, Carbon, Rising Star, Gorman, De Leon, Dublin, Bunyan and Desdemona. The program will feature the work of the department of Christian Social Relations, and will be as follows:

Quiet Hour, led by Mrs. W. R. Ussery, Carbon.

CHERRY FEELS OPTIMISTIC OVER CONTEST

Frank Langston, representative of the Cisco Daily News, today interviewed Blair Cherry, coach of the Amarillo Golden Sandstorm, on his views on the game in Ranger Saturday.

Coach Cherry said that he was expecting a hard game and that the members of the team realized that they were up against one of the best teams they had met this season, but that all were optimistic even in the face of such an important game.

Cherry was quoted as saying that although Amarillo defeated Ranger early in the season by a score of 13 to 0 he had understood that the Bulldogs had shown much improvement since the season opened and that it would be a much better team his boys would have to face.

When asked about the style of offense he would use, Cherry was quoted as saying that the Sandies would mix their plays, using spinners, laterals and passes, possibly during the game. He is an advocate of the double wingback formation made popular by Pop Warner, while Curtis' team uses the Rockne shift, made popular by the Notre Dame team.

The Sandies' coach said that he might not use "Chigger" Enoch because of an injury to his ribs, but that he would go into the game if it was found necessary. Killian, who has been showing up well, is expected to start against the Bulldogs, in Enoch's place, the coach said.

About 35 men, including the two players, managers and others arrived at Cisco this morning at 4 o'clock and went to their rooms at the Laguna hotel. The boys seem to be a serious lot, according to Langston, and have been extremely well behaved while in the Big Dam city.

Cisco football fans have offered the usual Oil Belt hospitality to the coach and his charges, letting them use Chesley field and furnishing them cars to use in going to and from the ball park and for trips around the town.

Coach Cherry and the Sandies are expected to be in Ranger this afternoon.

Amarillo Not To Have Special Train
Word has been received in Ranger by O. G. Lanier that only 50 adult and 25 student tickets would be needed in Amarillo, which is much under the expectations earlier in the week.

No special train is to be run from the Panhandle and those who come to Ranger to see the bi-district game will come on the regular trains, probably arriving in Ranger on Saturday morning and leaving Saturday night.

One coach and one Pullman will be attached to one of the regular trains. O. G. Lanier has been informed, and will carry the Amarillo fans.

PROHIBITION MEETS FIRST ACID TEST

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—Prohibition repeal met its first acid test of congressional sentiment as the house judiciary committee today considered secretly the Garner resolution for unqualified abolition of the eighteenth amendment.

Wet leaders claimed the committee of 22 members would show a majority of at least four for the resolution. Efforts to get prompt action, however, failed. "There are too many drys on the committee," said one member.

Even if the committee fails to rubber-stamp the repeal program of democratic leaders, Speaker Garner intends to bring it to a decision Monday. Today he expressed confidence that the resolution would be successful in the house.

MEXICO CITY.—The Mexican farmer also is looking for a "new deal" from the next President of the United States.

Especially are the growers in Northern Mexico hoping for a change in the tariff policy of the United States.

The general feeling among agricultural interests is that the next United States administration will make good-sized openings in the present tariff barriers. Recalling, however, Franklin Roosevelt's reservations with respect to agricultural barriers, they are not expecting anything like a complete restoration of free trade.

They point out, nevertheless, that Roosevelt's protection of United States agricultural products will not be as absolute as has been the Republican—that his plan calls for adequate protection during the producing seasons in the United States.

What the North Mexico growers confidently look for is the lowering of the barrier during those seasons when competing products are not being provided by American farmers. During those seasons, when Mexico is producing, the growers in this country have suffered from restriction of markets by the American duty ban.

From this part-time duty period not only will the growers here derive benefit, they explain, but the American consumers also will have at their command a plentiful supply of staple vegetable products which now must be sold at exorbitant prices during the non-producing seasons in the United States.

Tornato growers of Northern Mexico principally are interested, and in a lesser degree growers of other truck farm products, such as string beans and carrots raised along the lower Rio Grande region, in South Texas and northern Mexico.

A general easing up of the stringent tariff policy is expected by Mexican observers, and in this case they expect growers in other sections of Mexico to benefit. As important as the effect on agriculture is the prospective increased interchange in all commercial relations of the two countries.

Inter-City Meet of Legion Posts to be Held in Ranger

At the regular weekly meeting of the Carl Barnes post of the American Legion, held in Ranger Thursday night, plans for an inter-city meeting in Ranger next week were discussed.

Legionnaires and World war veterans of Eastland, Cisco and Ranger will meet at the legion hall to discuss the many phases of the veterans' relief measures that may come before the short session of congress when it convenes next week.

All legionnaires and World war veterans from the three towns and any others in the other towns of this section of the country are issued a cordial invitation to be present and are urged to attend if possible.

The meeting will be held Thursday night, Dec. 8, at the American Legion hall in Ranger at 8 o'clock.

ECONOMY TO BE STRESSED BY PRESIDENT

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—President Hoover today put the finishing touches to his budget message to congress, which is expected to urge most drastic reductions in the cost of government in recent history.

The message goes to congress next Wednesday. It is expected to center on two major proposals to help balance the budget.

1. Revision of the pay cut for federal employees, reducing the wage scale 10 to 15 per cent instead of the present "payless furlough."

2. A sales tax on all goods but the "essentials of life."

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—The financial future of the federal government became a bit more dreary today when the treasurer's daily statement showed the deficit for the first five months of the present fiscal year amounted to $751,311,442.

Since July 1 the government spent approximately $5,000,000 a day more than it received. The deficit brought the total outstanding public debt to more than $20,000,000,000, or a net of $162 for every person in the United States.

Son of Ranger Woman Killed in Fort Worth Today

Stanley Penn, 18, oldest son of Mrs. Wanda Penn, 721 Spring road, Ranger, was killed this afternoon in Fort Worth after running into a glass door of an automobile while playing football.

Penn and several other youths were playing a "scrub" game in an alley behind the Fort Worth Press building. He sustained a six-inch gash in the chest when he crashed against the parked automobile.

A dozen newsmen offered their blood for a transfusion, but he died before the operation could be performed.

Stanley Penn was the oldest of four children of Mrs. Wanda Penn of Ranger, who was notified of the accident which caused her son's death this afternoon. She and her other three children left for Fort Worth immediately.

No funeral arrangements had been made today.

DEBT REVISION RESTING WITH CONGRESSMEN

Treasury Statement Shows Large Deficit In Last Five Months.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—Great Britain today rested before the jury of American public opinion a new appeal for war debt revision and postponement of its $95,000,000 Dec. 15 payment.

London hinted that if forced to pay it might increase its tariff against American goods.

An administration official said the debt situation before congress in a special message, probably late next week. No definite answer to the British note can be made until congress says "pay" or "postpone."

The British held that war debts were clutching world commerce with a deadly hand. They declared that the fall in international trade was costing the world $5,000,000 per hour and added: "It will not profit a creditor country to collect a few million pounds or dollars if it thereby perpetuates a world disorder which involves losses of revenue many times greater."

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—Speaker Garner said today that congress would not grant a postponement of Dec. 15 war debt payments, despite the renewed pleas of Great Britain and France.

"Congress is not going to change the situation at the present time," Garner said. "A definite statement is much better than daily-dallying. Congress is not going to do anything about it."

Livestock Men to Meet in Eastland

A meeting of the Eastland County Livestock Association is to be held in Eastland Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. It will be in the county courtroom, and a large attendance is expected.

Among the out-of-town speakers to be present to address the meeting will be E. H. Varnell and Lee Poe of Cisco, who will tell of the "Cisco Livestock Marketing Plan" and Dr. Bob Hodges of Ranger, who will talk on "What Sheep and Goats Can Do For Eastland County."

The association will decide at this meeting when and where the next meeting is to be held. Also a committee will be appointed to draft constitution and by-laws for the organization for submission at the next meeting.

Eastland Pastor Resigns His Post

At the prayer service at the Church of God, Wednesday night, Rev. J. W. Batdorf, who for a little over two years has served as pastor of that congregation, read his resignation from that office.

"I have appreciated my contact with the good people of Eastland during the past two years. Every one has been a pleasure to me. I am especially grateful for the fine fellowship I have enjoyed with the ministers and members of other churches. I trust that the same spirit of co-operation and Christian unity will continue to prevail between the churches in the future as it has the past two years. I am quite certain that this is pleasing to the Master who prayed that his people might all be one. My resignation as pastor of this church becomes effective immediately. I will preach my farewell message, Sunday night, Dec. 4th. A cordial invitation is extended to all to attend this service," said Rev. Batdorf.

PRESIDENT HOOVER AS A MONEY SAVER

President Hoover has outlined his plan for the saving $750,000,000 in government costs in the first year of the Roosevelt reign. Remarkable man is the outgoing president. He could have saved 50,000,000 in the first year of his own administration. The sum in the second year, perhaps a billion dollars in his third year and a snug sum in his outgoing year. He did not do this. He did not save a penny. He piled up a huge deficit. Now before he goes out he is ambitious to save a very large sum for the democrats. It is a matter of record that a democratic congress, after it organized and began to function, passed on to the president a program that would have resulted in a magnificent saving of money for the taxpayers. He brushed it aside. He advocated a Hoover-Mills program. It died in committee room or on the calendar. He refused to cooperate along non-partisan lines. Now he is very heroically and very patriotically carving out an economy program for his successor.

GOVERNOR HUNT SIGNS HIS LAST ORDER

Gov. George W. P. Hunt of Arizona has signed an order declaring the prohibition law of his state null and void—thus carrying out the mandate of the electorate at the November general election. It should be placed in the record that Arizona's law was adopted six years before the coming of the 18th amendment and the Volstead act. Arizona was known as one of the driest of dry commonwealths. Well, the only liquor law now effective in Arizona is the federal act. Vote on repeal of the state law in November was 63,850 for repeal to 36,218 against repeal. An overwhelming majority for the repealers. Governor Hunt was candidate for re-election for a seventh term. He was defeated for the primary nomination by another democrat—a family physician who had practiced medicine in Arizona for 40 years.

FOOTBALL GAME

Bulldogs win the district title by a score of 3 to 0.

The entire Bulldog squad is in good condition and, barring accidents in the game that might remove players from the game, practically the entire starting lineup is expected to remain in the game the full 60 minutes. The Ranger team, though having little reserve material on which it can draw in case of an emergency, has done much better than many thought possible from an "eleven-man squad" as it has often been called because of the fact that the 11 starters usually play the entire game. This "iron man team" which has stood more than any other district winner in the entire state as far as continuous play is concerned, has won the admiration of the entire district and has the good wishes of all the teams they have defeated this season.

The probable starting lineup for Ranger will be Britt and Paul Bray, ends; Adkins and Standard, tackles; Williams and Love, guards; John Bray, center; "Rabbit" Jones, quarter; Lyon and Anderson, halves and "Corporal" Jones, full.

The roster of the Amarillo squad follows:

No.	Name	Pos.	Wt.
40	Wilson	G	149
41	Simpson	B	136
42	Lane	B	142
43	Dees	B	143
44	Sullivan	B	149
45	Enochs	B	153
46	Woods	E	144
47	Barringer	G	147
48	Cazell	B	142
49	Mahuron	B	148
50	Taylor	E	157

Eastland County Rabbit Breeders to Show in Cisco

Breeders association met in regular session in the Eastland Chamber of Commerce rooms Thursday night with President H. L. Owen in charge.

City commissioners from Cisco and Stephenson were present to invite the Eastland association to hold their winter show, in connection with the Cisco Junior Fat Stock show, to be held in Cisco the latter part of February. The association accepted the invitation and President Owen appointed as committee in charge of Eastland arrangements, H. A. Garrett of Cisco, elected secretary, for show; John W. Tibbels of Ranger, Bob Herron and Guy Dunnham of Eastland, who are to assist Garrett in drawing up plans and rules governing the show and to issue a premium list.

Announcement was made that following preparation, in which the signature of every member of the Eastland county association was secured, the affiliation with the National Rabbit Breeders Association of America had been accomplished.

Cisco gave $10 in cash toward the loving cup, to be awarded to the grand champion exhibit in the winter rabbit show.

The next meeting of the Eastland county association will be held in Cisco Dec. 15.

H. L. Owen and J. A. Ross had a surprise for those attending in an original dish of chili, which was made of rabbit meat.

Art Exhibit
Draws Large Crowd.
The art exhibit from the Texas Fine Arts Association now showing at the residence of Judge and Mrs. J. E. Hickman, drew an attendance of one hundred guests on Thursday afternoon, the second reception held in a series of three, announced by the host and hostess, the last of which will be held tonight from 7:30 to 10 o'clock. Mrs. Hickman was assisted by members of her house party, who conducted the visitors through the series of rooms, in which the paintings are hung.

A beautiful collection of oil canvasses by Eastland artists, Mrs. H. P. Brelsford, and Mrs. Allen D. Dabney, was hung in the tearoom. Large crowds were attracted by the splendid work of our local artists. Tea was poured from an exquisitely appointed table by Mrs. Lola Mitchell, and Mrs. D. J. Jobe, and small cakes served with the tea in patriotic designs.
Clubs, churches and other organizations are invited for this evening's exhibit and open house will be kept as well for others not affiliated with any organization or church.

Camp Fire Girls Enjoy Art Exhibit.
The Chanyata Group of Camp Fire Girls assembled at the high school at their usual hour of meeting Thursday and in lieu of their regular session, attended the Texas Fine Art exhibit in a body, and enjoyed the hospitality of Judge and Mrs. J. E. Hickman.
The girls were busy with pencils and note books, as they viewed the canvasses and will glean from their impressions and information obtained material for themes which will be written and read by them at English classes in the high school.

Rebekah Lodge Elects Officers.

The Rebekah Lodge held their annual election of officers last night, when the session was opened by Miss Dorothy Watson, noble grand.
The installation for the new officers will be held in January. Officers elected:
Mrs. Blanche Nicols, noble grand; Mrs. Don Parker, vice noble grand; Miss Opal Hunt, secretary; Mrs. Ray R. Hardwick, treasurer; Mrs. Cassie Pearson, lodge deputy.
Mrs. Pearson was elected representative to the grand lodge in March, 1933.
Mrs. W. C. Marlow, elected alternate representative to grand lodge.
Mrs. Blanche Nicols, re-elected team captain.
The other officers are appointed by the incoming noble grand, when the chair is taken in January. There was a good attendance of members. The lodge will meet next Thursday night.

Mrs. Guy Patterson Hostess To Bluebonnet Club.
Mrs. Guy Patterson was hostess to the Bluebonnet Club Thursday afternoon, entertaining in a charming way the two tables for bridge. Club members attending were Mrs. John Oren Earnest, Mrs. Sam Gamble, Mrs. Bernie Blowers, Mrs. Roy L. Allen, Mrs. J. N. Jarrell, Mrs. James Watson, Mrs. Veon Howard, and guests were Mrs. George Patterson of Desdemona, and Mrs. E. E. Setser of Houston, both the house guests of Mrs. Guy Patterson.

High score favor, a pair of linen pillow slips, was awarded Mrs. Dabney.

The hostess served a delicious fruit salad, chicken sandwiches, olives, apple sauce cake plate and tea with lemon, at 5 o'clock.

The election settled another annoying question: where Dolly Gann will sit.

These are the days when Sunday's leisure lies buried under the ashes in the basement.
The club will meet with Mrs. Oscar Chastain in two weeks.

At the tea hour, the hostess served sandwiches, potato flakes, pickles, not apple pie with whipped cream topping, and coffee.
The club will be entertained on December 15, at 2:30 p. m., at the residence of Mrs. Jarrell.

Entertaining Relatives.
Mrs. W. T. Cunningham and daughter, Miss Velma, of Cisco, who are visiting Mrs. W. C. Marlow, and Mrs. Jodie Odom, sisters of Mrs. Cunningham, and Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Pace, her parents, are with Mrs. Marlow and Mrs. Odom, spending a few days in Lubbock, and expect to return next Tuesday.

Mrs. W. E. Chaney Hostess to Club.
The Thursday Bridge Club enjoyed a delightful game of bridge at the home of Mrs. W. E. Chaney yesterday, when two tables were occupied by Mrs. Allen D. Dabney, Mrs. George L. Davenport, Mrs. Earl Conner, Mrs. E. Roy Townsend, Mrs. W. S. Poe, Mrs. J. B. Leonard, Mrs. Karl Johnson, and Mrs. Butler, a guest.

High score game favor, a pair of linen pillow slips, was awarded Mrs. Dabney.

The hostess served a delicious fruit salad, chicken sandwiches, olives, apple sauce cake plate and tea with lemon, at 5 o'clock.

LEGISLATORS ARE BROKE

By United Press.
SEATTLE.—Eight King county representatives and a senator—all members of the Unemployed Citizens' League—are wondering how they are going to get to Olympia for the next session of the state legislature, in early January. They are broke and have been aided by commissaries here. It is possible they all may live in a large house in Olympia, Phil Pearl, president of the league, said. Many of them proposed unemployment relief from gasoline taxes and motor vehicle funds.

Al Capone's losing weight in federal prison at Atlanta, say dispatches. But Chicago wasn't such a healthy spot for him either.
If that coal bill worries you, reflect on your Uncle Sam. He's running into debt $5000 a minute.

Mongolia Gets Express Trains

PEIPING, China.—Inner Mongolia, which has been inaccessible to travelers and tourists because of poor transportation in the past, has been brought within 24 hours of Peiping as the result of enterprise on the part of railway officials.

Through express service has been inaugurated between Peiping and Pootouchen, via Kalgan and Aweihsu, over the lines of the Peiping-Suiyuan Railway, in connection with what remains to China of the Peiping-Mukden Railway.

Pootouchen, 504 miles northwest of Peiping, is in the heart of Inner Mongolia and north of the famous Ordos Desert. It is typically Mongol in character and there may be seen the descendants of Chinggis Khan living under what are still primitive conditions.

Inauguration of express train service to Inner Mongolia also indicates that officials here, appointed by Marshal Chang Hsueh-liang, do not anticipate any threat to his control from the northwest. In the event of fear that General Feng Yu-hsiang, popularly known as the "Christian General" and who now is living at Kalgan, might be planning a coup against Peiping, the authorities here would release their rolling stock for service into the far reaches of Inner Mongolia.

Ranger High School Notes

JEWELLE JUDD, Editor

Buildings, Pep Squad, Band And Faculty Honored With Hay Ride.

Miss Dorothy Johnson, active member of the high school student body, will honor the district champions, the Bulldogs and Coach, the pep squad, band and faculty members with a "hay ride" and Weiner roast after the Bulldog-Sandy game Saturday night.

The guests will assemble at the home of Miss Johnson, Sam Houston building, at 7:30.

The pep squad will assist the hostess, and a great time is anticipated.

Mr. and Mrs. Von Roeder and other members of the high school faculty will act as chaperones.

Travel Club News.

The Ranger High School Travel Club held its regular weekly meeting Wednesday, Nov. 30, 1932.

L. D. Bellah gave a short talk about some of his travels. E. M. Bowen made a talk to the club about the programs, urging every member to be on the program, because the extra points given for active work in the club will mean a great deal to a student at graduation time and also help the club.

There was some discussion on club dues, as several of the members have not as yet paid. President Hicks, appointed two boys from the club to remind those who have not paid their dues and to bring them in as soon as possible.

The following program committee was appointed to prepare a program for the next meeting. Mrs. Wagner, Frances Strong, Catherine Barker, and Nova Mae Richardson, will serve on this committee.

FORREST LYON, Reporter.

"The Stool Pigeon Speaks"
Not intending to be personal, but we have heard several favorable compliments concerning the appearance of the Bulldogs at the banquet Wednesday night. One girl said that Captain "Squint" Williams and Corp. Jones were the most handsome football heroes on the gridiron.

We notice that several teams bearing the names of various teams have been placed on the board around the Lillard Field. As for the editor of this column, I favor the Buckaroos, next to the Bulldogs.

Hazel Weeks is one of the few exceptions to the general rule, "pretty but dumb." She is pretty but NOT dumb.

The pep squad is doing some excellent work on the formation for the Ranger-Amarillo game, under the capable direction of the pep sponsor, Mrs. Lucille Buchanan. Quite a bit of time was wasted trying to decide upon a formation for this game. But the pep squad girls are to blame for that. Some members were placing their ability too highly.

Virginia Norris is certainly like a "headache tablet" of her teachers. Her lessons are always prepared and on time. Of course Virginia has her "wild moments."

Ruby Jarvis really pays her bills on time.

The pep squad has taken charge of the placards that Mr. Maddox and I had printed. That is, they plan to as soon as they can, open their banks.

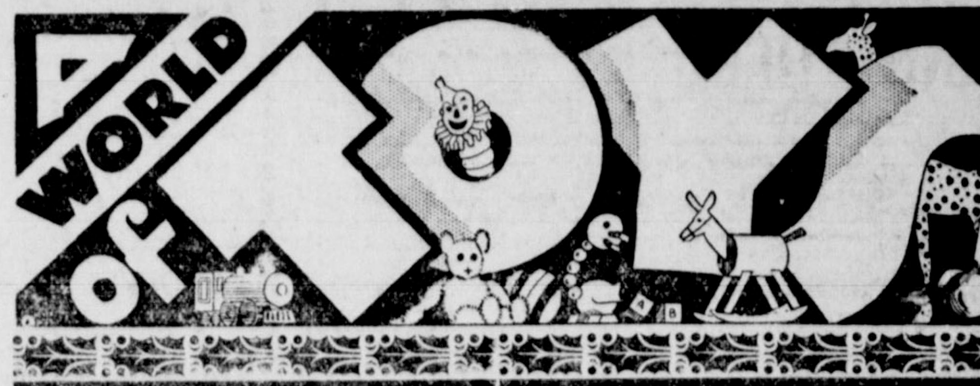

Lorene Harrell is working on the "French accent" which she must have as "Polly" in the Senior play, "Polly With a Past."

Forrest Lyon tells me that the Travel Club is having quite a little difficulty in getting the club members to serve on the program.

Come on, wake up, or I will call names next time!
Marie Galloway is having a debate as to whether she will "just act natural" or not in "Polly With a Past." Please, Marie we want this play to be a success! Mary Alice Yonker is coaching Marie. Elizabeth Turner, Jim Blair, Letty Dov Simmons, Mary Alice Yonker and Jack Mooney are planning to have a grand and glorious "Sundae" in a strip-down Ford. It seems as if Jack is going to drive, and I feel sorry for the others.

Old Santa will look into our show-cases, shelves and racks before He starts out on His stocking-filling rounds. It's all ready for your inspection. Every department is complete and there are thousands of Gift Selections here.

By ELVIE H. JACKSON

Golden Rule Week will soon be with us and the thought behind this observance has resulted in the Golden Rule Foundation, established in New York City, which is doing "good" things in the way of informing people of the meaning of the Golden Rule, the missionary work to be accomplished through its office, and the personal work that may be ours, that may be so close at hand if one only looks to find it.

Golden Rule Week comes midway between our feast of Thanksgiving, and our happy Christmas time, and it is to those able to enjoy these seasons, those who have abundance of food, and are employed, to whom the appeal is made to engage in a rational constructive task, and share a little of what they have, with some of the millions who have neither harvest nor employment, and for whom there can be no Christmas or New Year's joy, if we fail to practice as well as preach the Golden Rule.

Golden Rule Sunday has been observed in the past, all over the United States. Our own city has had a Golden Rule Sunday observance through several seasons when churches, and Sunday schools through the medium of the Eastland Civic League, gave to Golden Rule Sunday funds, which at that time was devoted to the orphans and underprivileged children of foreign lands, but is now extended through the Golden Rule Week for the benefit of the children of the unemployed wherever the greatest need exists.

So set some one day, either now or in Golden Rule Week, on which you have much plainer meal than usual, and one of little cost, and send the difference between that meal and your customary one, as a gift to any institution that best represents the interest of the giver.

All are invited to join in the Golden Rule practice, which is bringing the world a little closer together in brotherhood.

Menus planned may be considered with a view to nutriment and taste as well in the Golden Rule Menu.

During Golden Rule Week study this list of suggestions for meals, entertain an "unseen guest," at your table each time you assemble with your loved ones, and when your blessing for good things is given, include that absent boy or girl, "whom, not having seen, yet you have loved."

GIRL'S ORGANS TRANSPOSED

By United Press.

LEWISTON, Idaho.—Jane Richardson, 8-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Richardson, may not become a renowned beauty, but will at least have the distinction of being "different." Doctors have verified the fact that most of the vital organs are transposed on the child's body, heart on the right side and stomach turned around from its usual position. The child is otherwise normal.

DON'T SUFFER ANOTHER DAY

Sufferers from rheumatism need more than the mere temporary relief that comes from the use of pain relievers. The system must be freed from the poisons of this agonizing disease.

When your throbbing, swollen joints begin to subside, when aching nerves and muscles begin to relax, when poisons begin to dissolve and drain from the system, you will know beyond a doubt that the RU-NO-MA prescription is removing the cause of your trouble. RU-NO-MA acts quickly and thoroughly—contains no opiates or narcotics—absolutely harmless. Ask your druggist about this amazing prescription. Read the guarantee on every box—don't suffer another day.

Week-end MURDER

BEGIN HERE TODAY
AMOS PRADDO, elderly cousin of LINDA AVERILL, falls to his death from the second floor balcony of the Averill's Long Island home. Linda reaches him just before he dies, in time to hear him snap a few words which convince her he was murdered. Linda rushes upstairs. Someone tries to strangle her and she faints.

There are four guests in the house—all suspects of the crime. They are: MR. STANTLER, business associate of TOM AVERILL; CAPTAIN DE VOS, handsome Belgian; MARVIN PRATT, former editor of Linda's; and LIAN SHAUGHNESSY, Irish widow.

When Linda tells her husband what happened she persuades him they must keep these four men in the house until they can decide which one is guilty. There is no evidence sufficient for arrest. Tom and Linda are aided in their plan when DR. BOYLE, official medical examiner, sends word that everything that remains until he was questioned there. Boyle is on a fishing trip and can not return for several hours.

Linda talks to Pratt who is no longer suffering from strain. He gives her little information, such as curious questions about Cousin Amos and refuses to say why he quarreled with him the night before the older man's death.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY
CHAPTER XXI

LOOKING after Marvin's retreat, Linda was retreating, perhaps, in a manner more suggestive of a militant forward march—Linda was tempted to run after him and demand that he come back and tell her what really happened, answer her questions, listen to her protests. She did none of these things. Her glance traveled to the placid front of the white house. She met the cold stare of its many windows and her mood of childish rage instantly vanished. "Murder . . . murder . . . murder!" the house seemed to say. She dropped into the wicker chair more from real weakness than from graceful yielding to the inevitable. She had sworn to penetrate that mystery. She had taken the first steps to do so. She hadn't begun to cover all the things Tom had mentioned—had she done any good at all?

She had learned—or had she?—why Marvin had quarreled with Cousin Amos. It seemed incredible that the old man had actually taken it upon himself to reproach another guest for his attentions ("such as they were!" thought Linda disparagingly) to his hostess. Yet that paternal touch was so like him to mention that, her father being dead, he as an old relative—as if she weren't of age and able to take care of herself, to say nothing of having Tom! Yet Marvin had said Cousin Amos wanted to advise her! That hardly fitted in with this theory. The old man might have warned her or remonstrated with her over some too apparent intimacy, but what advice would he have given? Why that emphasis on their talking together?

"He was so anxious to find out,"

she slowly analyzed every word of Marvin's brief, confusing outburst. "Whether Cousin Amos and I got together to talk something over after the dance. He wanted us not to talk about something. What? Was it that Cousin Amos blamed me for the supposed flirtation? How idiotic! But that wouldn't account for Marvin's being so frightened, exactly. Apprehensive, that's the word. He must awfully didn't want us to get together and to compare notes. But that again isn't reasonable. What had he done that we could discuss that way? Did Cousin Amos know something—?"

Linda gave herself a little shake. "Now I'm just reading things into what he said. Everyone knows Marvin's the high-minded sort of person. It must have been simply a call down over his way of focusing on me. Tom noticed it and I told him it was just Marvin's queer way. But Cousin Amos of course had to infer the worst—and go straight to the point with the wrong person."

abnormal constraint would relax enough to permit her to probe again into these dangerous subjects.

At present he had rankly deserted her—quite obviously stranded her on her own front lawn. She had hoped to prolong their talk until perhaps the Belgian returned. She wondered if Tom were making any progress over their sales diagrams, with Stantler. If so, it would only hinder his probing if she were to join them. Well—she'd better get a book and make the best of it.

SHE rose and went up the soft grass. Nearing the house she walked more and more slowly. No, she was not exactly nervous but somehow there lay a deeper shadow there than should have been on the front terrace. The house seemed so silent, so ominously brooding. If she went in—Nonsense, it was her house, her home! Tom was inside, and what if he were not? She was often here alone all day, except for the maids, of course.

That thought turned her mind toward the faithful helpers in her kitchen.

She had not seen them since her hurried visit this morning and she wanted to speak to them now, to express her appreciation of the way they had stood by Tom and his mother earlier in the day. Rosie must be wondering, too, if anyone would be back for tea and Annie about dinner. Linda veered toward the dining room wing, walking along the soft turf without stepping on the gravel path.

At the very end of the house, where a decorative clump of bushes locked sight of the door of the unroom, she stopped. She could hardly have said why. But she realized that for a second or two she had subconsciously been aware of the murmur of voices and now they were very plain. She wondered idly what delivery boy had come so near the front of the house. He could not be by the kitchen door or the voices would not then sound so near. Unless they were looking for her, Rosie or Annie seldom came round here. If they came from the service very plain. She wondered idly what delivery boy had come so near the front of the house.
