The Morning Avalanche Menu for the Day

BREAKFAST

—Grape fruit, cereal, cream, scrambled eggs, crisp bacon, graham and raisin muffins, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON

—Cream of tomato soup, croquettes, sweet potato salad, whole wheat bread and butter sandwiches, lemon pudding, milk, tea.

DINNER

—Flounder in parsley sauce, twice baked potatoes, buttered spinach, jellied celery and cabbage salad, squash pie, milk, coffee.

Croquettes can be baked, pan fried or fried in deep fat, but in any event they should be made from bread at least twenty-four hours old and cut in 3-4 inch cubes. If baked, toss cubes lightly into melted butter and bake in a moderate oven until a golden brown on all sides. If should take from five to eight minutes. If fried in deep fat, the fat must be very hot so that the bread will brown before soaking much fat. Pan-fried, the croquettes are shallow fried in a hot frying pan "painted" with butter.

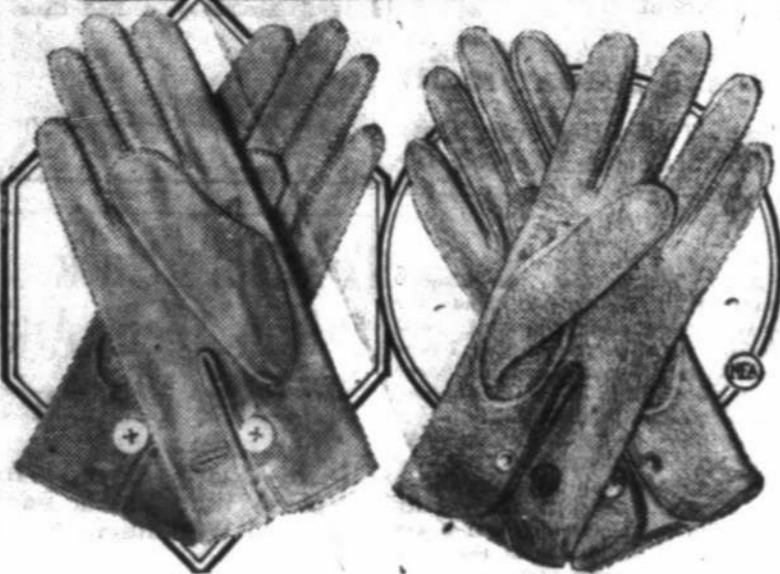

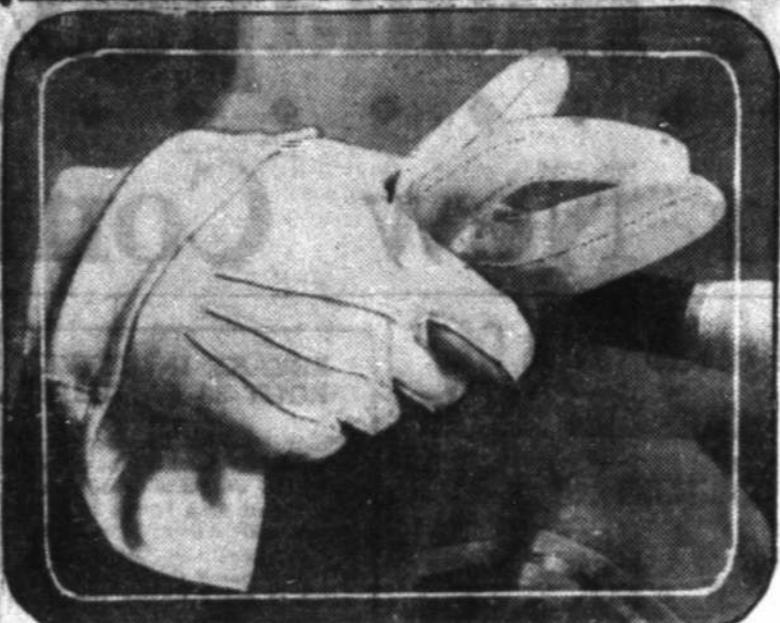

Flounder in Parsley Sauce.

Four good sized filets of flounder, 1 tablespoon salt, 1 tablespoon vinegar, 2 tablespoons butter, 1-2 tablespoons flour, 1-2 cup milk, 1-2 cup fish stock, 1-2 teaspoon salt, 1-2 teaspoon pepper, 2 tablespoons minced parsley.

The fish is cleaned and drop into a kettle of boiling water containing salt and vinegar. Watch carefully and as soon as the boiling point is reached after adding the fish, reduce temperature and simmer for ten minutes. Drain and place on a hot platter. Pour over sauce made as follows: melt butter, add flour, and when bubbling slowly, slowly add milk and water, stirring till very smooth, stirring and add salt, pepper and cook five minutes.

—THE— WOMAN'S DAY By Allene Sumner

Because the town folks gossip and made so-called malicious remarks at the companionate marriage, which he arranged for his young daughter, Haldeman-Jullia, announces that he will move his big printing firm away from Girard, Kansas. The town is stunned. More than a fourth of the inmates are employed by H. J. But will show them. Maybe it's harsh, but regardless of what I don't think of H. J. it does give me a mean thrill to see small town gossip penalized once in a while. Still—how about it? Is it small town stuff or just human nature? City slicker gossip just as much. I guess, only we don't hear what's said about us quite so readily.

By the way, that hyphenated name is thus explained. Mrs. Haldeman-Jullia's name was Haldeman. His was Jullia. They combined the two. Why isn't this a good solution for the Lucy Stoners?

WANTED NICE NOSEY

An Italian countess with a funny nose, long and crooked and beakish, recently appeared in the clinic of a famous Parisian plastic surgeon and asked to have her nose remodeled into a thing of beauty. "It's not fit for myself," she explained. "But I am expecting an heir to my husband's ancient line and want him to inherit a perfect classical nose." The surgeon's explanation that such acquired characteristics were not inherited made no difference. The Italian beauty, even black of digger perfect-profoundly offspring.

One can smile at such ignorance, true. But this maternal instinct which will suffer broken bones for an unborn child is worth more than a titter. We have rarely heard of similar malfeasance actuated by the paternal instinct.

GREEN SHEETS

And did you know that colored bed linen is the very latest? Sheets and pillow slips to match your personality, such as pastel shades of blue and cream for an ingenuite, jade green sheets to harmonize with the hair and skin of some Italian beauty, even black for dignified old age.

Can you think of anything white left, anything which has escaped the color rise? Old-fashioned, indeed, is the woman who still clings to white underwear and stationery. They are making our very pots and skillets all the colors of the rainbow and now we sleep between pink and yellow and blue and purple sheets. Only thing countless now optimistically awaits to "harmonize with personalities."

ONE FOR US

Did you know that woman's expectation of life is always two years more than that of a man's of the same age? Thus, if you're 22, you have about 35 average more years to live if you are a man, 37, if you're a woman. Various explanations are given. "The protection of woman," is explained by the discovery that in those very countries where women work in the fields and do all forms of physical labor, while the men do the easy work, the same fact remains. One theory is that women take care of their health more than men. I rather doubt it. The average man fusses about his headache and takes more dope for it than the average woman does when she knows she's dying.

Men's gloves proclaim his good taste: (Upper) light gray mocha with fine stitching for formal wear with evening togs; (lower left) genuine kidskin imports, handsome, with extension seams, correct for street wear, and (lower right) pigskin novelties for sports wear.

More Formal Mocha.

Another warm glove is the cashmere and chambray type, the outer covering of which is cashmere with a lining of chambray. It is especially good for motoring for it is not bulky and the double thickness of material is wind proof.

A slightly more formal type is the gray mocha glove, so popular for street wear. This does not exist in show dirt which any glove is able to collect sooner or later and may be worn not only to business but also to evening parties, which do not call for the mocha glove of still lighter shades and color. For formal gatherings, where dinner jackets or full dress clothes are required the latter should complete your exterior "set up."

Two-in-One.

Of late years the two in one glove has become popular for winter sports and other out of door activities. This consists of an inner glove of wool of fleece, and an outer covering of leather. The two coverings are the insulating air space between them are very effective in keeping in the heat of the hand and keeping out the cold.

Rare Real Kid.

Most gloves are made from lambskin, the term "kid" really being a misnomer. There are some kid gloves, however, the finest of which come from Germany, Austria, Sweden, Brazil, Madagascar, France and Bavaria. The ordinary leather glove consists of from 16 to 19 pieces and the art of the glove maker is a nice one. Its age may be guessed at from the fact that the gloves of Perth, Scotland, incorporated in 1165 and the glove makers of France formed their guild in 1190.

Beauty! How and Why

ENHANCING BEAUTY OF COMPLEXION

If you are a blonde, your rare must be to keep your complexion fair as a lily and the texture of your skin smooth and delicate.

I have advised you to bathe the face gently. Not only do this but before going out, use a delicate cream on your face, removing it gently after it has been on a short time. Now if you value the delicate of your complexion, which is a blonde's chief beauty asset, do not allow it to tan or freckle, no matter what fashion says. Tanning toughens and thickens the skin, and a summer's tan affects the skin for years. Freckles, once obtained are difficult to erase.

However, if you are an out-of-doors girl and do not care for the future, you will at least have the golden tan you covet and it will make up in healthy appearance.

Later, press out the blackheads, close the pores with extract of witchhazel or a benzoin lotion. Benzoin, you know, has been known as a beauty help since the days of Cleopatra.

BRUNETS should use the same care as the blonde, but need not fear tanning so much. Blonde and brunette alike should endeavor to keep the skin functioning properly.

Keep pores open. If they do clog, however, a piece of absorbent cotton and a lotion composed of equal parts of extract of witch hazel, alcohol and rose water will help dissolve the sebaceous matter. Later press out the blackheads, close the pores with extract of witchhazel or a benzoin lotion. Benzoin, you know, has been known as a beauty help since the days of Cleopatra.

BERLIN, Dec. 26 (AP)—The record prison sentence here—211 years—was laid by Herr Buchmann, 37, and a respectable artist before he became a fast-moving man. Heven by he was sentenced to life, well to appear again before the local court on another robbery charge.

The thief in question was in 1921. The prisoner couldn't remember if he had committed some 500 robberies up to that time for which he had received sentences totaling 208 years.

Under the law, the judge might have given Buchmann 15 years for the robbery. But he decided three years was enough to add on to the 208. Buchmann took the three years as a joke.

What you lack in fairness. Brunets should use the same care as the blonde, but need not fear tanning so much. Blonde and brunette alike should endeavor to keep the skin functioning properly.

Waco High Tigers Trample Mid-West Champions, 44-12 Texans, With Hunt In Feature Role, Lead West To Win Over East

Mann, Hunt Score Touchdown Each; Matthews Stars

Southwestern Conference Men Outclass "All Americans" of East and West in Tilt at San Francisco.

KIZEAR STADIUM SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 26.—Western football proved superior to the eastern game when West conquered East, 44 to 12, in the annual charity game here today. The game was played in bright weather, before a crowd of more than 27,000 people. This was the third successive time that a team composed of western college stars had defeated an eleven picked from outstanding players of the east.

The West scored touchdowns in first and second periods and also a safety in the second period.

Hunt Outstanding Star
Joel Hunt, 165 pound fullback of the Texas Aggies, was the outstanding star of the encounter. His fine runs and long kicking counted largely in the Western victory. Caldwell, Yale, was the East's most scintillating performer.

Within the shadow of their own goal line the West braced up at the beginning of the fourth period and held off the Eastern threat. Carrothers, center of Saint Ignace, intercepted Amos' pass and the West kicked out of danger. The East started a passing attack which was smothered when Wilson intercepted Amos' throw. The ball changed hands steadily as both teams intercepted passes. The East was penalized 20 yards, half the distance from the ball to their own goal line, when Weinstein, Western Maryland tackle, struck Hunt, Texas Aggie, in the face. Weinstein was banished from the game.

HUNT SCORES IN SENSATIONAL DASH

KIZEAR STADIUM SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 26.—The East and West met on the gridiron today in their third annual charity game before a crowd of 26,000 persons. The East won the toss and chose to receive from the goal nearer the Pacific ocean.

The West scored a touchdown three minutes after play started when Matthews of Texas Christian recovered a fumble on the 27-yard line and Hunt from Texas Aggies broke through the line on the first play. Wilson, Washington fullback, kicked goal to make the score West 7, East 0.

The teams struggled on even terms for the rest of the period with the ball see-sawing up and down the field. The East gained slightly in the exchange of kicks, with Caldwell booting the ball forty and forty-five yards.

Safety For West
The West added 3 points to their total early in the second period scoring a safety and touchdown. With the ball on his 13-yard line, Amos, Washington and Jefferson quarterback, missed a bad pass from center and was thrown behind his own line.

Mann Scores
The touchdown followed immediately after when Kutsch, quarterback, passed five yards to Mann, Southern Methodist, who ran 15 yards across the line. Wilson kicked goal to make the score West 16, East 0.

Mann substituted for Hunt at halfback.

The West continued to outplay their eastern rivals during the rest of the period and twice threatened to score.

East's Terrific Drive
The East opened a terrific drive in the third period and scored a touchdown five minutes after receiving the kickoff. Long runs by all members of the Eastern backfield, brought the ball into Western territory where Amos passed twenty yards to Flotwick, Yale, who was stopped on the 12 yard line. Caldwell went over on the next play going around right end on a double reverse. Caldwell's try for point was blocked by Wilson.

The East continued to outplay the Westerners during the third period, driving through the line and going around the ends steadily for long gains. Connor, N. Y. U. half back, and Caldwell both pulled off spectacular runs. Connor breaking through for 19 yards and sharing a 22 yard pass from Amos that put the ball on the West's 19 yard line as the period ended.

THE NUT CRACKER By Joe Williams

Eastern football players show greater intellect than western huckles, a coach writes in a Harvard periodical. Leave it to the coaches to find such liabilities. You may reason with the eastern football player and handle the easterner, he says. Maybe the reason eastern teams usually get the worst of it out west is because of a lack of good treaties on philosophy.

Tommy Loughran, it seems is now light heavyweight champion. All the other champions in this division now have been eliminated.

President of an eastern college objects to the glorification of the paid coach. If a good coaching by the alumni means anything, the spectators certainly get their share of glory.

Head of him. After meeting Tom Hooney, he'll have the pleasure of Mr. Jack Delaney's acquaintance. Which is like passing Ruth to get Gehrig.

Cuyler was traded to the Cubs because he was too temperamental, says Barney Dreyfuss. He was too temperamental, and Barney should add, Sparky Adams is a good second baseman.

STUDENT SPECULATORS
Four students at Ohio State University were dragged before the student court recently to answer charges of speculating in tickets for the Michigan game.

Mrs. Emory Nance, of Taloka, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Lockhart here.

HERB JOESTING.

MINNEAPOLIS, Dec. 26.—In addition to winning a place on the majority of the All-American teams of 1927, Herb Joesting, Minnesota's star fullback, won his future wife from the university class rooms. They are to be married soon.

Miss Lora Davidson, pretty Minneapolis girl, who was a student at the university, said that she could have accepted the big star if he had been a little cheer-leader instead of one of the greatest football players, but she admitted that his heroics on the football field did not reduce him in her affection.

The Joestings hope to go to California for the annual East-West game in which the head of the family will play.

STARS FAIL TO REPORT
Southern California's hopes for a championship basketball team were jolted when Morley Drury, All-American quarterback, and Jesse Hibbs, guard on the football team, decided not to report.

20,000 See Texas Champions Smash Over Latin Team

Tyson's Attack Baffles Ohio Lads, Who Score Only From Passes; Waco Was Doped to Lose.

(By Associated Press)
WACO, Dec. 26.—Before a crowd of 20,000 the largest crowd that ever saw a football clash here the Waco Tigers state champions for the past three years defeated the Cathedral Latin school from Cleveland, Ohio, champions of the middle west. The score was 44 to 12.

The game was a great offensive battle and it was not until the second half that it was over. The Tigers would be victorious. Starting off in their usual style the Tigers received the ball on the kickoff and plowed down the field for a touchdown. The dash- ing spirits of McClelland, 136 pound Tiger left half, were the big factors in the Tigers' first score. The spin play used by Captain Glover aided in the score, as did a couple of plunges by Pierce. McClelland carried the ball over for the first down.

Latin Comes Back
The visitors came back with a speedy drive that carried the ball deep into Tiger territory. There came a lightning pass from Marty Sammon to Jake Mahoney that caught the Tigers off guard and netted the Latin eleven a touchdown. But the play was called back as one of the Cleveland players was penalized for holding. Waco got the ball on downs and then marched down the field for another score. Sammon to Mahoney soon after an Althe Irish gained a touchdown. Waco ran the score up to 26, scored and near the end of the second quarter another pass from Sammon to Mahoney gave the Ohio boys their second score. The count stood 26 to 12 at the end of the first half.

Middies Explain Why Eligibility Demand Is Made

Aver They Only Ask Army To Comply With Rules of Any Large Educational School, in Football.

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Dec. 26.—Although expressing regret that a break should occur between athletic teams representing the army and navy, the Athletic News, published today by the United States naval academy, states that "every thing possible has been done to avoid it, but it is felt that this is the proper time to once and for all settle the question of eligibility."

The current issue is devoted singularly to the athletic controversy regarding the three year eligibility rule, now enforced by the midshipmen, and which the naval academy has asked West Point to adopt.

Support Admiral Views
It supports the view of Rear Admiral Louis M. Nulton, superintendent, in his refusal to make further negotiations with West Point authorities for a 1928 army-navy football game, and editorially comments that "in time the military academy will be compelled to play the larger institutions under rules approximating what the naval academy demands today."

The eligibility provision, which Major General E. B. Winans, superintendent of the military academy, declares the army will not adopt, became effective with the midshipmen last June. It states that students who have participated in three years of varsity sports, either at the academy or at another collegiate institution cannot continue to represent the Midshipmen in that sport.

Cites Examples
The News points out that "there were sixty four years of varsity experience on the 1927 army team—an average of 5.8 years per position," and cites nine players on the military academy team this year who, it says, have had from four to seven years football experience.

They include, the article says: Wilson and Sanders, 7 years; Sprague and Cagle, 6 years; Harbold, Mammack, Seeman, Born and Nave, four years. With the exceptions of Harbold, Seeman and Born it is further added, all the men named have had experience from one to three years in other institutions before entering the military academy.

"Cadet Harry Wilson, has played against the navy for seven consecutive years—three on Penn State and four on West Point."

"It is believed," the article concludes, "that for the good of the sport that there should be a parity of competition between the leading contenders, and the navy asks nothing more than the generally accepted eligibility rules as adopted by all leading institutions."

Winter and spring sports this academic year between the two institutions will not be affected by the navy demands, the paper says.

Solon Raps Army For Stubbornness

Declares Institution Is "Unfair" In Not Adopting Eligibility Rules of Other Large Schools.

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Dec. 26.—Predicting that prominent universities ultimately will "refuse all athletic contests with West Point" Representative Briten, Illinois, is ranking republican of the house naval committee, said today that Annapolis is not alone in its demand that the military academy adopt the three year eligibility rule.

"Other foremost universities have protested to West Point without effect," he added. Secretary Davis of the war department "cannot fail to be im-

REMEMBER THE VITAL SPOTS ON YOUR CHASSIS—

In faulty lubrication lies the cause of 80 per cent of all the repairs on your car. It's the 15 to 60 hard-wearing dust exposed chassis bearings below the body line that cause most grief.

Old-fashioned oil and grease cups were largely to blame, but today most manufacturers have given you a new method of lubrication—the Alemite System—now in use on 7,000,000 cars. Instead of grease and oil cups, the Alemite gun shoots fresh lubricant through each bearing and cleans out old, gritty grease at the same time, keeping the bearings clean as well as lubricated.

Our special equipment and the fact that we are the Official Alemite Service Station in Lubbock enables us to give you quick and thorough lubrication.

Spears Stars In South Win From Pacific's Eleven

Team of Southern Conference Takes 8-0 Tilt from All-Star Team of Coast in Battle of Mud.

(By Associated Press.) LOS ANGELES, Dec. 26.—"Dad Bill Spears," All-American quarterback who punts a wet and dry football led a team of Southern Conference senior stars to an 8 to 0 victory here today over an All-Senior star team of the Pacific coast.

Playing in a sea of mud, with rain falling at times during the game, Spears and his punt blocking, fumble recovering mates, "made hay" even if the sun was shining, grabbing a six to nothing margin early and augmenting it with a safety later in the final period.

The Westerns seemed unable to stand the hard tackling, Tesreau, Moser and Cook all being forced to retire from the contest because of injuries.

The south's first marker came in the first quarter when Lareneta fumbled and Creson recovered on the West's 3 yard line. On the next play, Dodson fumbled, and it was still three yards to go. Estes made a yard and it was third down and one yard to go. Middlekauff replaced Dodson.

The West stopped the Florida back on the twelve inch line but he went through the line for a touchdown on the next attempt. Spears' attempt for a goal from placement was short.

The game then revolved into a punting duel and little of unusual nature occurred until the final minutes when the safety was scored.

Final Report On Matter In Two or Three Weeks Is Promised by Chairman of Investigation.

(By Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, Dec. 26.—Hearing by special senate committee investigating the authenticity of the Mexican documents published recently in the Hearst newspaper's magazine, is expected to resume Tuesday.

A final report on the investigation within the two or three weeks, was promised tonight by Senator Reed, republican, Pennsylvania, chairman of the committee which was named after publication of documents in the Hearst papers charging Mexico set aside $125,000 for four United States senators. The committee and William H. Hearst, publisher of the papers, already has cleared the four senators—Barth, Norris, Heflin and La Follette—of receiving or even looking at the money in connection with the Mexican story.

Senator Reed expects only one witness to be heard at tomorrow's hearing which will be open. The names of the witness was withheld. Two of the five committee members—Robinson, democrat, Arkansas, and Jones, republican, Washington—are out of the city accompanying the body of the late Senator Andrius A. Jones for burial in New Mexico.

Contributions To Progress And Happiness

The Texas Utilities company, serving most of the towns and communities of the Great South Plains with electric current for power, fuel and light, feels that its organization is more than a public utility—providing a public necessity!

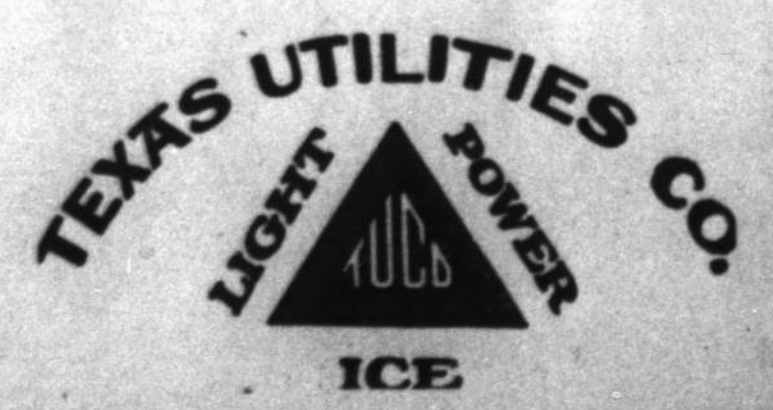

It has ever been the aim of the organization to be contributors to the progress and development of every town and community we serve.

More than a public utility—an organization that has taken advantage of every opportunity presented within our power, to let the whole world know of the opportunities of this section.

In every movement that has as its aim the happiness of the people we serve, this company lends, unstintedly, its moral and financial support.

We like to feel that our organization is personified by public spiritedness, sincerity and that its services are of such character that they may be referred to as the best regardless of those which ours may be compared.

As the Curtain of 1927 lowers, we like to reflect on the progress made and to anticipate greater progress for the New Year.

Kidnaping

The three men and two women are being held in Albany for investigation and a wide search, thus far in vain, has been made for the kidnaped youth.

Of the suspects held at Albany, three are said to have given medical attention to the escaped bandits. One of the men is a doctor from Wichita Falls. The two women are thought to have assisted in dressing wounds of the bandits, while they were at a farm house six miles southwest of Moran, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Parrett of Waco, who have been spending the holidays here, leave for their home this morning.

New Confession

appear she was alive. Behind locked and closely guarded doors of the compartment in which Hickman had been held since he left Pendleton on Sunday morning, questioning by Los Angeles officers proceeded, laying before the prisoner the gruesome details of evidence which had been gathered at the Bellevue apartment. Hickman steadily maintained until tonight that while he had been involved in the kidnaping he had not committed the actual killing.

Hickman said his motive in the kidnaping was to get $1,500 to go to college. He said he had no accomplice. Hickman killed Marian by strangling her with a towel. He knotted it about her throat and pulled tightly for two minutes before she was unconscious. Then he took a pocket knife and cut a hole in her throat.

Then he removed the clothing and cut the body through at the waist. He put it on a shelf in the dressing room. He placed a towel in the body to drain the blood. He wrapped up the exposed ends of the arms and waist with paper. He combed back her hair, powdered her face and then with a needle fixed her eyelids. He did this because he realized that he would lose the reward if he did not have the body to produce to her father.

Write Note
Hickman said he wrote the "last chance" note to Parker. He went to Low's State theatre in the afternoon after slaying the girl. Hickman returned about 5:30 o'clock p. m., took all parts of the body down to the car, which was parked by a side entrance, hurried out Sunset boulevard and turned into Oakland park, where he disposed of the body.

Then he took the torso in a suitcase, parked his car on 17th street and drove around to see that there was no police in sight.

YOUTHFUL LAWYER IS RETAINED.

KANSAS CITY, Dec. 26 (AP)—Mrs. Eva Hickman, mother of Edward Hickman, confessed kidnaper and slayer of Marian Parker, tonight announced that she had retained Jerome Walsh, 25 year old Kansas City attorney, to defend her son. She has requested District Attorney Am Keyes of Los Angeles to protect the youth's legal rights, until Walsh arrives in Los Angeles.

The announcement was made through Lieutenant Colonel Charles Edwards, friend of the Hickman family and former chief of police here, to whom young Hickman was paroled after his conviction on a forgery charge in Los Angeles last summer.

Colonel Edwards made public the following telegram, which Mrs. Hickman sent District Attorney Keyes and James Davis, Los Angeles, chief of police: "I am the mother of Edward Hickman. He is a minor and has no one in the world to take care of him except me. With the assistance and advice of Colonel Edwards and other friends who have known us almost all our lives, I am sending Attorney James Walsh to represent him with authority to get other legal assistance when he arrives. Mr. Walsh is leaving at 9:30 o'clock tomorrow (Tuesday) morning on the earliest train he can get. Meanwhile I must rely on you to see that none of my son's legal rights are preserved, which I feel sure you will do. I can be reached at the residence of Colonel Edwards, 3415 Bellefontaine avenue, Kansas City, Mo."

CROWD GATHERS TO SEE SLAYER.
ABOARD CASCADE LIMITED. GERBER, Calif., Dec. 26 (AP)—A crowd of about 300 gathered at the Gerber station today to see William Edward Hickman, on his way back to Los Angeles to answer charges on kidnaping and murder in connection with the death of 12 year old Marian Parker.

Hickman complained of slight indisposition during the afternoon and ate nothing but broth and a cup of tea. Heavy meals aboard the train, coupled with his previous weakened condition, was given as the cause. The young prisoner looked pale and his face was drawn. He needed exercise and was to be given some at the first opportunity. An order was issued on the special prison car just before reaching Gerber, that no one else would be permitted to leave or enter the car while it stopped at stations.

HICKMAN AGAIN IN GENIAL MOOD.
ABOARD CASCADE LIMITED. DUNSMUIR, Calif., Dec. 26 (AP)—A genial mood and a healthy appetite today marked the demeanor of William Edward Hickman, as he was rushed southward to face justice in Los Angeles, charged with the kidnaping and murder of 12 year old Marian Parker.

His spirit had picked up noticeably in contrast to the utter dejection apparent when the journey began yesterday at Pendleton. At Oakland tonight the prison car will be attached to the Padre train due in Los Angeles at 9:40 o'clock tomorrow morning.

District Attorney Am M. Keyes, Chief of Detectives Herman Cline and Chief of Police James E. Day, all of Los Angeles, were closeted with the young prisoner in a compartment. What they accomplished in drawing from his additional admissions was not disclosed. They denied he had confessed the murder of the girl.

At Dunsmuir, the first stop in the state where the kidnaping and brutal murder was carried out, a crowd of 2,000 milled around the train in an effort to get a glimpse of the prisoner. There was no indication of disorder, however. Hickman was in good spirit when his breakfast was served at 8:30 a. m. and he showed that his appetite was good by consuming a full portion of French toast, prune corn meal, apples and a little milk.

Upon his arrival here Hickman was taken in the club car of the Cascade Limited where he faced a battery of cameras for several pictures.

The Padre left Oakland for Los Angeles at 9:25 minutes late with the special Hickman car attached.

Is Indifferent

Hickman appeared composed and seemed resigned and indifferent. A large crowd gathered about the train at Benicia and watched the car in which Hickman traveled on the train ferry to Port Costa. At the sixteenth street station in Oakland another large crowd was in evidence. Hickman was seen there as he was being led from the special car to the photographers. There were a few cries from the crowd, but no unusual commotion.

The Hickman special car was transferred from the Cascade Limited at Oakland pier and placed immediately behind the baggage cars of the Padre which is due in Los Angeles at 9:40 tomorrow morning. The train was held for 22 minutes awaiting the arrival of the Cascade Limited from the north.

Travelers and commuters crowded about the train as it started toward Los Angeles, but Hickman could not be seen then, as the blinds in the car had been drawn.

were about eight miles from Alice, the three prisoners drew knives and threatening Cloud and Mrs. Cloud, disarmed the former. Regarding the knives, Mrs. Cloud fought one of the trio who began slashing at her husband.

Tied to Tree
The trio then forced Cloud and his wife to get out of the car. They made no attempt to harm the woman, but tied Cloud to a tree, using a chain that the agent carried. After chaining Cloud to the tree one of the prisoners fired at him with his own gun but missed. The trio then entered the car and speeded off toward the Mexican border.

Mrs. Cloud walked to Alice and notified Sheriff G. W. Price of Jim Wells county. Price went to the scene and released Cloud, taking him to Alice for medical treatment. Officers between Alice and the border were notified and Monday night, all roads were being patrolled.

Throw Prison In Darkness by Visit to Power House and Saw Way From Window of Hospital.

HUNTSVILLE, Dec. 26 (AP)—Three convicts serving sentences for robbery with firearms escaped from the hospital at the state penitentiary by going over the prison walls after visiting the power house and throwing the entire institution in darkness at 4:30 o'clock this morning.

Those at large are: Charley Frazier, 25 years; from Marion county; R. J. Wright, 25 years, from Galveston county and Claude Hoskins, 21 years, from Collins county. The men sawed through the bars of a hospital window climbed to the ground, and went to the power house. They turned off the main current and every light in the prison was extinguished. The fugitives left their hospital garments a short distance from the penitentiary.

SEARCH BY NAVAL VESSELS STARTED

BOSTON, Dec. 26 (AP)—Search by naval vessels for Mrs. Frances Wilson Grayson's transatlantic plane, The Dawn was started today.

The navy destroyers, Sturtevant and Melan, left Boston and Provincetown respectively late today under orders to search the seas from Cape Cod to Sable Island, off Nova Scotia, where the Canadian government wireless station early today picked up what were believed to be radio signals from the Dawn's emergency sending apparatus.

Inasmuch as the Dawn's emergency wireless set had a maximum sending radius of 50 miles, naval officials in charge of the search planned to concentrate most of their efforts within that radius of Sable Island station which would be the calls. They planned to keep a close watch, however, for any traces of the plane which might be found between here and the island.

Charlie Kyle, member of the Lubbock fire department, returned to Lubbock yesterday from Boston, where he spent the Christmas holidays.

The latter two were believed not to have been seriously wounded.

W. H. Cameron, president of the South Pittsburgh Savings bank—one of those who requested state police for the city and county, said he had been informed that about 20 men, several of whom were civilians and presumably members of the opposing strike factions, participated in the shooting. Of six officers' revolvers found at the scene of the male, he said, only one contained an empty shell, but he could not identify it. An investigation has been started by Attorney General Tom Stewart who said today that a hearing probably would be called soon to fix responsibility for the fray.

Ernestine Lockhart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Lockhart of this city, is in Littlefield visiting Rita Marie Elmo.

Throughout the world, the productive Dunlop Properties cover so vast an area that—if combined into one place—they would form a "DUNLOP CITY" of over 100,000 acres

"DUNLOP CITY"

6 times as big as DALLAS

THAT shining star of the south west—Dallas, occupies 15,042 acres, less than one sixth of the area of the productive properties occupied by Dunlop. And even greater than the size of "Dunlop City," is Dunlop's world-wide reputation for building uniformly supreme Dunlop Tires. Supreme quality made possible Dunlop's great size. In turn, Dunlop's great size makes possible this same supreme quality—at lower prices than ever.

You can expect more of Dunlops.

Hire Salesmen Who Will Work Hard

A famous sales manager once said:

"If an employer would offer each man $10.00 for every call he made during the week, I believe each salesman would make more than ten extra calls."

"Yet, the average salesman will find that he actually makes less than ten good thorough canvasses a week."

"The main reason for the success of most insurance salesmen is the fact that they have enough two-fistedness to insist upon telling ALL the story. They do not allow the prospect to sell them his objections but rather they sell the policy."

"A day's work planned the previous day is much more likely to be done than one planned at 9:30 in the morning and not really entered upon until 10:15."

"The most serious handicap to sales production is the unorganized vacation in the middle of the day."

"If we are honest with ourselves, we will find many days in the month about which we could NOT say: 'I have worked hard today.'"

It pays to pick GOOD salesmen at the start. When an applicant has enough enterprise to ADVERTISE HIS ABILITY in the employment columns of a newspaper, the presumption is IN HIS FAVOR. He is worth interviewing.
