

On The BEAM

By J. W. King, Sr.

Saturday of this week is the final day for you to pay your poll tax if you haven't already paid it.

If you fail to pay your poll tax you may regret it later in the year. You never know what may come before the voters of the county other than the regular election for officials of the precinct, county, state and nation.

SENIOR NEWS

The senior class of Loraine High School appreciate the cooperation of the townspeople when we served the chili supper January 16. Proceeds of the supper will go into the fund for the senior trip.

Members have been busy recently trying to select graduation invitation cards and caps and gowns, and also talking plans for the senior trip.

Treva Hays is our senior of the week. Treva is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Hays of Route 1, Loraine. The Hays family has left a very favorable name at Loraine High, and we sincerely believe that Treva is carrying on her fine family tradition here, with her fine grades.

Treva has held many class offices as well as served in leading other organizations. She was elected the most athletic girl in Loraine High in the annual popularity poll. Recently she was chosen from Loraine to receive the Betty Crocker Home-making Award. She was selected for this honor on the basis of a written test given to all senior girls.

Treva is a popular, well liked girl and all her classmates think she is tops and wish her good luck after she finishes Loraine High.

Open House For Dr. Terry Home

Approximately 135 called at the new home of Dr. and Mrs. Joe Terry when the Johnson Hospital staff hosted open house Sunday from 2 to 5 o'clock.

The Terry's only daughter, 11-year old Susan, and Peggy Williams presided at the register.

Members of the houseparty assisted Dr. and Mrs. Terry in showing guests through the home.

Mrs. Hugh Monroe of Wichita Falls, sister to Dr. Terry, Misses Jackie Coffee, Beverly Johnson and Mildred Evans served white iced cake squares with coffee and tea. Table appointments were silver and china. Tea napkins held the Terry's name. Floral centerpiece was yellow jonquils and blue iris. Other floral arrangements through the house included white mums and several large potted rubber plants.

The lovely home, constructed of charcoal brick, contains approximately 2400 square feet of floor space and was designed by Dr. Terry's brother, Dan Terry of Austin. Clyde Banks was contractor and Varnell Templeton electrician.

The house on South Kindred Street faces West and a brick wall extends several feet South of the building, protection for the South yard which the Terry's plan to plant with cover grass. The South wall of the living room and dining area and on South of the long hall leading to the den is solid glass windows and sliding glass doors leading onto the wide patio.

To the North of the entrance is a long hall extending the length of the three bedrooms. Across the hall are two of the three baths and large storage closets.

Walls of Susan's room are white and a tiny floral pattern was used for the cotton draw drapes on the high windows. Large closets with folding doors extend across one side of the room. Across the hall is her pink tile bath.

Joining Susan's room to the East is the boy's room. David, Mark and Scott. The room has many built-in features, twin desks, etc., all in sandwood and satinwood colors, with maple paneling on the walls. The boy's bath is of sandwood tile with twin lavatories, the tub is built entirely of tile in matching shades.

Next to the boy's room is the master bedroom which is lovely and spacious. Synthetic fabric was used for the pleated drapes. The large bath is of grey tile. A large mirror extends the full length of a long dressing table and double lavatories. Glass sliding doors are used for the tub shower.

Off the hall near the master bedroom is Mrs. Terry's sewing room where her sewing machine, automatic washer and dryer, ironing board, etc. are. When closed with sliding doors gives a hall between this room and a group of closets holding the heating system, water heaters, etc.

At the end of the hall is the spacious den, featuring a large fireplace of Arkansas stone with black base. Dr. Terry's library is placed in ceiling height shelves on the East wall, with a hi-fi and hi-fi and a stereo combination. On one wall is a Japanese wall panel and two white Japanese lanterns extended from the ceiling by a single cord. The walls in the den are English walnut. Other paneling through the house is maple. Green synthetic fabric was used for the windows in the den.

East of the den is the large double garage car port and South of the building is a concrete patio.

The living-dining and kitchen area is built as single room or may be divided by folding door across one side to isolate the living area. All walls of the living room are paneled except one. Light ceru pleated draw drapes of Irish linen are used for the windows.

The kitchen is the dream of every woman, come true for Mrs. Terry. The cabinets are of birch wood, hanging cabinets are in satin wood color and the cabinet tops and breakfast bar are of pumpkin color formica. Five wicker bar stools are used at the bar.

Three colors are used throughout the house, sandwood, sandwood and white, with a touch of grey. The entire ceiling of the kitchen is made in five aqua colored panels fluorescent lights. All ceilings are finished with exposed beams except the baths.

CHURCH NEWS

BAPTIST MISSION ENTERS ACHIEVEMENT PROGRAM

The Myrtle Barker Ware Mission of the First Baptist Church in Loraine has entered the 1960 Texas Baptist Church Achievement Program as announced this week by Patrick D. Sullivan, Missions Co-ordinator for Mitchell-Scurry Association, Dist. 8.

Sponsored by the Baptist General Convention of Texas, the program is designed to stimulate interest in small church work by providing growth incentives. Outstanding achievements by pastors and churches in areas of church, community and world improvement are recognized locally and at the annual Baptist General Convention of Texas.

More than 450 Texas Baptist town and country churches entered the program last year. Some of the churches recorded twice as many baptisms per member as the Southern Baptist Convention average. Others recorded outstanding increases in Sunday School attendance and gifts to missions.

Goals for advancement are adopted by each participating church for the three improvement areas. An inventory questionnaire furnishes suggestions for projects, such as health education, community recreation programs, citizenship training, race relations studies and world missions.

Pastors recognized in each of the denomination's 17 geographical districts receive parchment scrolls and the churches receive achievement certificates which may be displayed in a prominent position.

Churches in the open country and in towns of up to 2,500 population, and all Latin American churches and missions are eligible to enter the program. About two-thirds of the denomination's 3,837 churches are classified as town and country congregations.

Records and scrapbooks of program progress are made under the direction of three special committees. The scrapbooks are the basis for judging on the associational, district and state-wide levels.

Darwin Farmer, direct missions associate for the BGCT, of Dallas, is in charge of the program. He said "the enlistment of a church's total membership in active service" is the program's primary value.

BAPTIST WMU CIRCLES

The Willie Mae Kennedy Circle of the First Baptist Church met in the home of Mrs. Roy Linder Monday afternoon for mission study.

Mrs. Harold Hallmark gave the devotional on Prayer and read Matt. 28:1-6. Mrs. Walter Teeters led the opening prayer.

Mrs. Elwood Graham, chairman, presided at the short business meeting when reports from chairmen were heard.

Mrs. Dexter Taylor brought the mission study from the circle program in the Royal Service magazine on Prayer. After the lesson the group participated in the discussion and the meeting was closed with sentence prayers.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Linder to Mmes Walter Teeters, Elwood Graham, T. M. Ingram, Harold Hallmark, W. C. Rogers, Dexter Taylor, and Dan Butler.

The Mae Taylor Circle met with Mrs. Edwin Hallmark Monday afternoon. Meeting opened with group singing What A Friend We Have In Jesus and prayer led by Mrs. J. C. Hall.

Mrs. Lucas brought the lesson from the book Call From the Country.

Mrs. H. L. Leach directed the business meeting when members voted not to serve refreshments at the circle meetings.

Present were Mmes O. C. Lucas, J. C. Hall, H. L. Leach, Dottie Marshall, C. A. Land, W. H. Long, Mac Farrington, A. J. Barron, Woodrow Pratt.

W. S. C. S. MEETING
The Woman's Society for Christian Service met in the church Wednesday morning in Bible study of the Portrait of Christ by Luke.

The song What a Friend We Have in Jesus was directed by Mrs. Merriel Abbott, accompanied by Mrs. Kirk Taylor to open the meeting. The devotional was given by Mrs. Marshall Bruce, reading a beautiful Christmas story from the Ideal Magazine.

Mrs. Lily Bennett brought the second chapter from the study book The Messiah Is At Hand. Mrs. Willie Taylor commented on the first temptations of Christ; Mrs. Wiley Walker gave the second temptation, and Mrs. Percy Bond gave the third temptation.

Worship center was artistically arranged by Mrs. Ottis Muns. Mrs. J. M. Bruce gave the closing prayer.

T. E. L. CLASS MEETING

Mrs. Jeff Davis and Mrs. Walter Teeters were co-hostesses at the January meeting of the T. E. L. Sunday School class held in the fellowship hall of the church Thursday at 2:30 p. m.

Meeting opened with group singing More About Jesus and prayer led by Mrs. Charlie House. In giving the devotional Mrs. Dan Butler read an article, New Year Resolutions, and commented.

During the business meeting, minutes of the Nov. and Dec. meetings were read by the secretary, Mrs. J. W. King, and Mrs. Teeters, vice president, gave her report along with reports from group leaders Mmes Charlie House, Homer Wilson, Edwin Hallmark and M. A. Gann.

During the social hour, Mrs. Teeters directed a Bible quiz game and the meeting was closed with group singing Bless Be The Tie That Binds, and prayer led by Mrs. King.

The hostesses served pound cake with coffee to Mmes Fred Lankford, Henry Riden, Charlie House, M. A. Gann, Edwin Hallmark, Clarence McGee, Homer Mearse, J. W. King, Homer Wilson, Mattie Herm, Dan Butler.

as was Paul's. Another's may seem limited and modest. God does not call all of us to cross the seas. Maybe He is calling us to cross the street, or even the hallway in our apartment dwelling, to witness for Him.

Truly, God has a mission for Every Christian. If one does not know what his mission is, he should cry with Saul, "Lord, what wilt thou have me to do?" God will answer in His own way. Each Christian is meant to be a man with a mission.

PRAYER: Our heavenly Father, we thank Thee for men of old whom Thou didst call and entrust with missions for Thee. Help us to realize that Thou wouldst use us also. Give us courage and wisdom to fulfill our appointed missions. In Jesus' name and for His sake, Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY: "I'll go where You want me to go, dear Lord... I'll be what You want me to be."

Read Mark 2:105
Lord, what wilt thou have me to do? (Acts 9:6)

On the road to Damascus, Saul of Tarsus came face to face with Christ. Always a religious man, a Pharisee of the Pharisees, Saul, at the time of our Scripture verse, was in hot pursuit of new Christians. But when Saul was confronted by Christ, he changed his way of life. Saul of Tarsus became Paul the apostle, a man with a mission. You and I have missions also. One's mission may be farflung,

PARTNERSHIP POWER FOR PROGRESS

As the population of Texas grows and rural industry expands, the need for dependable electric power also increases.

The Rural Electric Cooperatives of Texas are meeting that challenge. As new power demands are made, heavier lines and equipment are installed. Expert "trouble shooters" are alert around the clock to restore service after damage from wind and weather.

This steady dependable electric service and the expert attention that makes it dependable are the proud achievement of the membership of the Electric Cooperatives of Texas. They borrowed money at interest to build the electric systems that are providing Partnership Power for Progress.

"What, exactly, are Travelers Checks?"

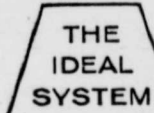

They are special checks, issued in convenient amounts such as $10, $25, and so on, which you can buy from us for a small fee. Their purpose is to eliminate the risks of carrying a great deal of cash when you travel. Readily accepted wherever you may go, each of your Travelers Checks must be countersigned by you before it can be cashed. If any Checks should be lost or stolen before you countersign them, the face amount will be refunded. Before you next take a trip, get a supply of Travelers Checks from us!
