First Snow Covers County This Week

Collingsworth County awoke Sunday morning, Nov. 16, to a snow of Christmas card appearance, but on the more practical side it was the first appreciable moisture on the 1981 wheat crop and it put moisture into the pastures that are vital to the county's cattle raising economy. It was the first snow of the season and earlier than usual.

The fall ranged from a depth estimated from three to six inches in various parts of the county.

Brisk winds whipped the snow in drifts in many areas and there could be no precise measurements.

This was a wet snow and all of it went into the soil.

Those wheat fields that held much of the snow should, with favorable weather, have enough moisture to carry the wheat until first of the year or a little later.

J.N. Glasgow of Farmer Co-op Gin said he believed there wouldn't be much damage to cotton still in the fields, although the grade could be hurt a little.

Some of the gin's customers have told him they intend to look at their cotton Wednesday afternoon to see if they can resume harvesting. Glasgow said he believed that in the sandy land, if the cotton is dry, there will be no problem. Stripping may be delayed a few days on the tight land.

The brunt of the snow was borne by the maintenance section of the Texas Department of Highways and Public Transportation.

Employees worked an all night shift Saturday after the snow began to fall, and through Sunday.

Winds whipped the snow into drifts along east-west roads, although north-south highways presented no

The first snow of the season blanketed Wellington Sunday, covering Avenue, above, but melting on sidewalks and city streets as the temperature hovered at 32 degrees.

More Plans Announced For Christmas Drawings

Wellington merchants participating in the Chamber of Commerce Christmas promotion program will give away $600 in script at weekly drawings between December 6 and Christmas eve, Tommy Hudson, co-chairman of the promotion committee has reminded.

In the meantime, Santa Claus will pay his official visit to Wellington Saturday, November 29. The time of his visit will be announced, and he will remain long enough for all his young friends to visit.

One hundred dollars in script will be given away at the drawings December 6, 13, 17 and 20. On Christmas, there will be two drawings of $100 each, and an additional drawing for children only, when a valuable gift will be given away. The winner must be present for the drawing.

Merchants will begin giving tickets for script Friday, November 28, Hudson said. Those receiving tickets for purchases from the approximately 50 merchants participating will receive both the ticket and the stub, and each person will be responsible for putting the tickets in the hopper and retaining the stubs.

The hopper will remain in front of West Texas Utilities from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday from 8 a.m. until time of the drawings Saturday.

We are doing this especially for those merchants giving tickets who are located off the square, and who may not have time to bring their tickets to the Saturday drawings, Hudson explained.

The script must be spent with the participating merchants, and because it is given in $5 denominations a $100 won at a drawing may be spent with several.

Some merchants will have additional drawings for gifts and merchandise from

NEW COURTS

Samnorwood School Superintendent Garland Cavitt, second from right, receives a check from Wellington State Bank executive vice president Bill Moseley to pay for two tennis courts at Samnorwood School. At left are Lynn Tate, Mr. Samnorwood, Sally Kincannon, Miss Samnorwood and Wellington State president Bill Beall.

Wellington State Donates Norwood Tennis Courts

Wellington State Bank officers presented a check for $5200 this week to Samnorwood School officials to pay for two tennis courts at the school.

The courts will enable the school to have a tennis program for the first time this spring, Superintendent Garland Cavitt said.

"We really appreciate the bank's donation," Cavitt said, "because it gets our tennis program off the ground and gives us another spring sport for boys and girls."

"This is our way of expressing our appreciation and respect for the school and the people of the Samnorwood community," Billy Moseley, Wellington State Bank executive vice president said.

Two concrete tennis courts will be built north of the high school building, Cavitt said. The courts will be lighted and fenced. The school will pay for any costs incurred above the donation, he said.

The courts will be available for use by the community when they're not in use by the school, Cavitt said.

Samnorwood will begin junior high and high school tennis programs this year, and will compete in various matches, although they won't compete in UIL competition until next year's season.

Write to Santa! Visit Him Nov. 29

Santa has sent the word:

It's time for all children living in the Wellington area, or who ever lived here, to write their letters to Santa Claus to be printed in the Christmas issue of The Wellington Leader.

Santa also reminded that he will make his annual visit to Wellington on Saturday, November 29, and every child in the area is urged to come to see him.

He will remain in the courthouse area long enough for every youngster to visit with him about this year's Christmas trip to Wellington on Christmas Eve night. The hour of the visit will be announced.

The deadline for mailing or bringing the letters to newspapers will be announced later.

Children's letters to Santa Claus have been published every year at Christmas for more than 50 years.

Thanksgiving Service Set Sunday Night

The Ministerial Alliance will hold its annual Thanksgiving service Sunday, November 23, beginning at 7 p.m.

The service will be in First Baptist Church.

Bob Odle, minister of First Christian Church, will preach the Thanksgiving sermon.

There will be special music, as well as congregational music.

An offering will be taken. This fund is used through the year for various community needs, according to the Rev. Stanley Hughes, president of the Ministerial Alliance.

Rockets Open Against Lakeview on Monday

Wellington Skyrockets had their first basketball practice Monday, November 17, and they will travel to Lakeview Monday, November 24, for their first game. A Saturday game with Valley was cancelled as that boys team was still in football.

Also playing at Lakeview will be the girls varsity. Game time is 6:30 p.m.

Coach Ray Bostick has five lettermen back from last year's team: Lennie Archie, Tim Anderson, Darrell Thomas, Willie Pennon and Rand Johnson.

Other players are Kenneth Warren, Jody Coleman, Channy Wood, Calvin Culpepper, and two sophomores: Tim Harris and Wade Williams.

We understand Lakeview has a pretty good team. They're fairly quick and this game should be a good test for us," said Bostick.

"We need to get some playing time in, just as many games as we can before we hit district play.

"In all of the tournaments we play in, we'll get to see every team in the district play except Canadian," Bostick continued. These

Self Protection Seminar Slated

A rape crisis seminar for women of the Wellington area will be sponsored by Collingsworth Chamber of Commerce Monday, Dec. 1, 7 p.m., in the Farm Bureau Hospitality Room.

Directing the seminar will be Teresa Hefley of Shamrock, who will be assisted by a law enforcement officer, said Margaret Vines, C-C secretary.

There is no charge for attending the seminar.

The general theme will be ideas for self protection, and the discussion will include area and national statistics, facts and myths about rape, and types of rapists.

Following a coffee break, alternatives for self protection will be discussed, and there will be a question and answer period that will give time for all questions to be covered.

City Acquires Surplus Crane

The City of Wellington has acquired an army surplus crane with 30-ton pickup capacity, City Manager Glen Taylor said Friday, Nov. 14.

City employees brought the crane from Alamogordo, N.M.

It also has a 100-foot boom, which can reach in any direction, Taylor said. The boom can be set up for shorter distances, also.

This was designed as a missile lifting crane, to be used at the White Sands Missile Range, he added. Although it is an estimated 10 years old, it has been used but little.

The city has a variety of uses for it, Taylor said.

Cost to the city was about $4,000 including transportation to Wellington. Present cost of the crane, if bought from private sources, would be $92,000, according to the city manager.

Regulations under which the purchase of army surplus equipment is made provides that the purchaser must keep it for one year but after that, it can be sold or traded.

Although the crane appears to be in excellent mechanical condition, it will be checked before it is put to use.

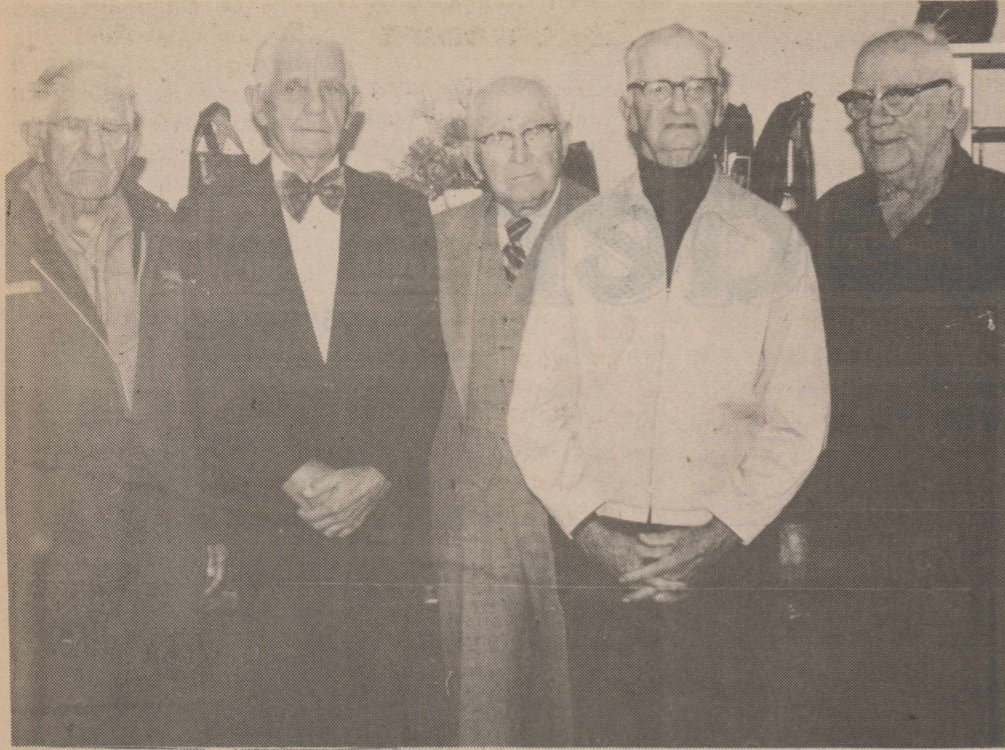

Taylor reported that the city already has a pickup order for additional equipment, including a trailer, welder and another bulldozer. This is located in Santa Fe, N.M. and will be brought here within a short time.

Equipment of this type which is offered for sale but which is not taken, is usually junked by the army.

Unused equipment is offered as surplus at most military installations, and cities or others authorized to make purchases may secure equipment at a fraction of its original cost, although some has had little use, Taylor explains.

Those authorized to buy are notified in advance when sales are to be held, and the purchaser may inspect or "scan" those pieces of equipment he is interested in before the purchase is made.

WORLD WAR I VETERANS

These 5 veterans of World War I, a war that ended 62 years ago, were present for the Dodson American Legion-Auxiliary turkey dinner Saturday. From left they are R.B. Bryant of Gould, Oscar Bryant of Hollis, Jim Harrison of Gould, Clyde Alexander of Dodson and Harve Taylor of Hollis.

will include the Norwood, Clarendon and Shamrock invitationals.

The Rocket cagers have come into the season in good physical condition and they will spend the next few weeks on drills, according to their Coach.

The Rockets have lost from last year's team an all district player, Robert Powell, and two all districts honorable mentions, Kevin Culpepper and Stacy Urban, along with players Marty Warrick and Alvin Pennon.

"We're going to use the fast break and we're going to try to play man to man. We have a little quickness and we can do that," Bostick said.

Those participating in the drawings must be 18 years of age or over, those married and under 18 years may participate. Additional plans will be announced next week.

Duncan Begins Tax Appraisal Duties

The appointment of John B. Duncan of Canyon as chief appraiser of the Collingsworth County Central Tax Appraisal Office marked the return of a young man already a part of the community.

Both Duncan and his wife, the former Janice Wood, were born, grew up and graduated from high school here.

Frequent visits with their families have enabled them to remain in contact with the town and its development.

At the time of his appointment, Duncan was tax appraiser from Randall County, with headquarters in Canyon.

Prior to that he was with the Amarillo National Bank in a supervisory office of the bookkeeping department. Earlier, he had 7½ years service with the City of Amarillo Tax Office, in which his work was with the city, Amarillo ISD, Amarillo College and Amarillo Hospital District.

Duncan has his real estate brokers license, he is an associate member of the Society of Real Estate Appraisers office, a member of the Texas Association of Assessing Officers. He had attended all of the courses offered by the TAAO which are necessary to his becoming a certified tax assessor.

A graduate of Wellington High School in 1960, Duncan received a Bachelor of Business Administration degree from West Texas State University.

Additionally, he had taken appraisal courses through the Society of Real Estate Appraisers, with additional courses at WTSU, in Lubbock and Tucson, Arizona.

Duncan is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Byron Duncan.

JOHN DUNCAN

who now live at Shamrock. Janice Duncan is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Wood.

The couple's chief involvement in Amarillo has been with their two children, Margo, 11 and David 7, especially in bicycle motocross racing. They belonged to the American Bicycle Association.

David, although he is only 7, has won many prizes as a bicycle racer including those on a national level, racing in his own younger age bracket.

He has participated in ABA races through Texas, on the West Coast, Arizona, New Mexico, Oklahoma and other points.

Margo has also participated in bicycle racing although Amarillo does not have an organized girls racing team.

When the Arabs conquered Alexandria, they are said to have burned the 700,000 books in the library to keep up the fires in the city's 4,000 public baths.

Canada is the second largest country in the world.

Family Here With Mrs. Drury Lacy

Three brothers and sisters-in-law of Mrs. Drury Lacy have been at her bedside since she has been critically ill in Collingsworth General Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Porter came from Albuquerque, New Mexico, more than a week ago, and Mr. and Mrs. R.L. Porter are here from Arlington.

Mr. and Mrs. J.K. Porter of Shamrock come almost every night.

Mrs. Lacy's condition worsened Monday night, according to her older son, Don Lacy.

Kidney Foundation Drive Raises $408

Volunteer workers in Wellington have completed a successful candy sale and $408 has been forwarded to the Kidney Foundation of the Texas Panhandle in support of its work in the Panhandle of Texas, according to Mrs. Bill Beall, who coordinated the work.

This sale began prior to Halloween and the volunteers offered a high quality candy to be given trick or treaters at that season. A total of 384 boxes was sold.

Volunteers included Mrs. Henry Sullivan, Mrs. Lynn Wright, Mrs. Earl Clark, Mrs. Cal Hurst, Mrs. B.B. Martin in Dodson, and Mrs. Beall.

For a number of years the Kidney Foundation has served Collingsworth in a variety of ways. For those who have had family members requiring kidney dialysis, the work of the Foundation is of special concern and support.

the snow fell. No damage to cattle or other livestock has been reported.

Only a small part of the Foundation's services of the Panhandle have been realized here, but plans call for the Kidney Foundation to bring other projects into the county during the coming months, Mrs. Beall said.

Wellington Hedley Samnorwood

COACHING ASSIGNMENTS

Wellington basketball coaching assignments were announced this week, as all high school and junior high teams began workouts.

Dale Morris, former coach at Amarillo and Samnorwood, is beginning his first year as Wellington's head basketball coach. He is a graduate of Quail High School and West Texas State University.

He will coach Skyrocket varsity girls teams, junior varsity girls and 8th grade girls. Roy Bostick is coaching varsity boys.

Bryan Hill is assigned to coach the Skyrocket junior varsity boys and both 7th grade boys teams.

Mark Reasor is coaching the two 7th grade girls teams.

Ronny Williams is the 8th grade boys coach.

WELLINGTON-PHILLIPS GIRLS

Wellington Rockettes, still learning offensive plays, lost to Phillips Blackhawk girls 46-36 in their opening game Saturday, Nov. 15, in Rocket Gym.

"They haven't figured yet when to take some shots, but we expect to correct that in games to come," said Coach Dale Morris.

The line score:
Phil. 7 18 34 46
Well. 8 11 24 36

Wellington: Kathleen Reeves 18 points; Mary Sue Thompson, 6; LaVonda Thomas and Sandy Morris, 4 each; Melanie Pendleton, Silva Hunnicutt, 2 each. Phillips: Williams 17.

"We hit a cold spell in the second and got behind, then couldn't overcome it," Morris said.

"We did come back in the third and got within 2 points of Phillips but couldn't take the lead."

"The girls did a good job of hustling and playing as a team and we're proud of them for that.

ROCKETTE JV-PHILLIPS

Although Wellington JV girls were ahead much of the time, they lost to Phillips JV 29-23 here Saturday.

Phil: 5 9 16 29
Well 4 10 20 23

Wellington: Cynthia Munn, 8; Paula Nash 4; Valerie Jo Thomas, 3; Belinda Crelia, Sandie Cobb, Tresa Benton and Lucy Ann Hayes, 2 each.

"Our girls played good and we played lots of girls in the game. They have improved a lot since the first of the season and we expect to see more improvement," said Coach Dale Morris.

8TH GRADE GIRLS

Eighth grade girls will play their first game Thursday evening, Nov. 20, in a triple header against Memphis. Included will be 8th grade boys and girls and one of the 7th grade girls teams, according to Dale Morris 8th grade girls coach.

Twelve girls make up the team: Juanita Martinez, Tina Bawcom, Lisa Hitchcock, Irma Barber, Jean Outley, Lori Lacy, Traci Hunnicutt, Catherine Sterling, Michelle Black, Vanda Wood, Sandra Culpepper and Margie Ingram.

JV BOYS

Approximately 15 boys will be out for Wellington High School Junior Varsity boys basketball, Coach Bryan Hill has reported.

Only part of the group could be present for the first workout Monday, as the others were participating in an FFA contest.

Uniforms and equipment were distributed to those who were present and workouts were scheduled to begin Tuesday.

JV teams will play the same schedule as the varsity. Both boys and girls playing some game, and the teams will alternate on others.

7TH GRADE BOYS

Coach Bryan Hill has announced that there will be two 7th grade boys basketball teams this year so that all of the approximately 20 youngsters wanting to play may get experience.

Some of these boys are already showing pretty good ability, he said.

The teams will be divided according to ability, Hill said, as the same procedure is being used in other area schools.

The better team will play five games, which is the regular 7th grade district schedule. The other team will play four games, meeting Hedley twice during the season, Norwood and Childress one each.

ROCKETTES

Wellington Rockette varsity and junior varsity teams will travel to Valley Saturday evening, Nov. 22.

Boys games, also scheduled for Saturday night, have been cancelled because Valley won their district football crown and will be playing the bi-district football game with Booker, said Coach Dale Morris.

SAMNORWOOD EAGLES-EAGLETES

Samnorwood Eagles and Eagletes will play in the Mobette Tournament which begins Thursday November 20.

Both teams have drawn Lakeview as first opponent, the girls playing at 9:30 and the boys at 11. If they win, they will meet the winner of the Briscoe-Darrouzett games at 4 and 5:30 p.m. If they lose the first games they will play the losers of the Briscoe-Darrouzett games Friday morning.

Monday night, Estelline will play a return game at Samnorwood, then Tuesday the Eagles and Eaglettes travel to Hedley.

"Hedley has as strong a girls team as they have had in several years. Sherri Hill is back, and in her career she has probably averaged 30 points per game," said Kenneth Martindale, Eaglette coach.

"We don't know much about the boys team, but they will be very competitive."

The 1980 total payments are $53,367.26, compared to the 1979 figure of $49,710.85.

Thanks to everyone who helped me with donations to help the hospital in fixing up the waiting room with lounges, curtains and chairs throughout the hospital.

We should be grateful for our good doctors and try to keep our hospital going. Let's unite together to make our town a better place for all our citizens to live. With all our good Christians, I know we can.

We still have work to be done on some more chairs. If I receive more donations for this, it will be much appreciated.

Thanks again for what you have done. I couldn't have done it, if it hadn't been for your help and the Lord's. With His help and your giving, it will be done.

Aoudad Hunt Application Deadline Near

AUSTIN -- The Texas Parks and Wildlife Department is planning a public aoudad sheep hunt at Caprock Canyons State Park January 3-18, 1981.

The park is located three miles north of Quitaque off State Highway 86 in Briscoe County.

Applications are being accepted for a maximum of 42 permits which will be determined by public drawing. Each hunter who draws successfully will be allowed to take one aoudad, either sex, during a two-day hunt. The application deadline is 5 p.m. November 26. The public drawing will be held in Austin at 10 a.m. December 1.

State park officials say the purpose of the hunt is to reduce the size of the herd in order to eliminate some of the competition between the introduced aoudad sheep and native mule deer.

The aoudads in the park resulted from stockings by the department in eight Texas Panhandle counties in the 1950s. Aoudads are legally classified as game animals in these eight counties. The open season is January 3-18 with a bag limit of one animal by special permit from the landowner.

Since the park was acquired in 1975, the animals have not been hunted and park officials feel that some trophy animals could be taken during the hunt. Those selected by drawing will be charged $150, which includes camping in the park.

For safety reasons, the park will be closed to normal visiting during the January 3-18; however, only 3,300 of the 13,654 acres will be hunted.

Applications and instructions may be obtained by writing to the Department 4200 Smith School Road, Austin 78744 or by calling the toll-free information line, 1-800-252-9327. The material is also available at Caprock Canyons State Park, P.O. Box 204, Quitaque, Texas. 79255, 806/455-1492, or Palo Duro Canyon State Park, Route 2, Box 285, Canyon, Texas 79015, 806/488-2227.

These will include the president, Denzil Lacy, also Lynn Emmert, John Scott, Andy Bell, Lynn Fulcher, and two others who will be named shortly before convention time.

Resolutions approved by the county FB at its annual meeting in October have been forwarded to the state office and will be incorporated in the state resolutions.

Delegates to the 47th annual meeting will adopt state policies to guide TFB when the 67th Texas Legislature convenes in January. Approved resolutions on national issues will be forwarded to the 62nd annual meeting of the American Farm Bureau Federation January 11-15 in New Orleans.

Hemisfair Complex will be the site of the meetings.

Theme of this year's convention is "Sowing Seeds of Freedom," and one of the principal speakers will be Mayo J. Thompson, Houston attorney and noted advocate of free enterprise. He is a former Commissioner of the Federal Trade Commission and is now with the law firm of Akin, Gump, Hauer and Field.

There will be special conferences on Farm Program, energy, taxes, transportation, meat production and farm bureau services. Speakers will include specialists in education, government and industry.

Special events are planned for Young Farmers and Young Ranchers, the Queen Contest, entertainment for women and children present.

The resolutions committee will conduct an open session to which each county will have one voting delegate. The purpose is to permit an opportunity for clarification of proposed resolutions.

Dodson Civic Club Entertains With Thanksgiving Dinner

The traditional Thanksgiving dinner for the Dodson Civic Club was held Thursday evening, November 13 at the Dodson Cafe. In addition to the members, their husbands and guests were feasted. Mrs. Garland Hightower and Mrs. Emma Lee Pittman were hostesses.

Mrs. Melvin Cardwell presented a program "Be Thankful for a Wonderful Season and thankful for Our Forefathers." She took the guests back on a mental journey to Plymouth Rock in 1621 to the first Thanksgiving.

Mrs. Cardwell pointed out that the first Thanksgiving was celebrated by the most underprivileged group of America, the Plymouth Pilgrims.

The only food they had was what they caught in the sea, killed in the forest or grew from their small planted fields. Their only farming implements were hoes. These people had no transportation or places of amusement, and their neighbors were savages.

To protect themselves, they built a common house which burned. No one was injured in the fire, and all knelt in the snow thanking God for sparing their lives. These half starved settlers lifted their hearts and voices in gratitude to God for sparing their lives and for his bounty to them.

Mrs. Cardwell made a comparison of modern Americans to the Pilgrims by showing that we considered 32,000 items listed in catalogues as necessities; while only 100 years ago, 16 items were listed as necessities. "Today we enslave ourselves to satisfy, or try to satisfy our wants. Mighty nations have fallen due to the lack of accepting God in their destinies. Will America follow in their footsteps? What about our claim to the faith of our fathers? After the Pilgrims disembarked from the Mayflower, without apology they knelt and thanked God they had survived to reach this new shore," said Mrs. Cardwell.

Two readings were given by Mrs. Sherrell Beanland, "I Am an American" and "I Speak for Democracy." This was followed by songs rendered by Todd Roberson. His selections were "I'm a Believer Now", "For Those Tears I Died", "Let Your Love Flow Through Me" and "My House is Full but My Field is Empty."

A short business meeting was conducted by Mrs. Fred Boyd, president. Mrs. B.B. Martin reported on the Fall District Work Shop at Perryton, October 14. Plans were finalized for the Club Bazaar to be held December 5 and 6 at the American Legion Hall in Dodson.

Present for the dinner were: Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Swift, Mr. and Mrs. J.C. Howell, Mr. and Mrs. Sherrell Beanland, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Black, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. Olan Farris, Rev. and Mrs. Dennis Hayes, Mrs. Lynel Black, Leslie Black, Larrie Black, Mrs. John Millsbaugh, Mrs. H.F. Charlton, Mrs. James Charlton, Mrs. Fred Boyd, Mrs. Murray Dodson, Mrs. T.E. Lennon, Mrs. B.T. Webb, Mrs. Melvin Cardwell, Mrs. B.B. Martin, Mrs. Emma Lee Pittman, Todd Roberson, Mrs. C.C. Lowry, and Mr. and Mrs. Garland Hightower.

The Dorotheans of the United Methodist Women convened in the Pinkston Sunday classroom November 13, for their Thanksgiving Program.

In a short business session, led by Mrs. J.B. King, several items were considered. Mrs. Nita White announced a call meeting of the Unit to finish details about Christmas involvements. The group was reminded by the group treasurer that the reporting year is almost to its close.

The Mission Emphasis Week in progress was considered. A special guest in the area, Mrs. J. Boyd (Peg) Terryll of Richmond, Virginia, has been bringing some dynamic messages. She is a former executive in the Women's Division of the United Methodist Church, and world traveller.

Mrs. Olean Leggett led the program of the evening, "Grateful Hearts." She program she would like to see next year in Extension Homemaking.

Mrs. Reynolds gave the council report.

Refreshments were served to Mrs. Boyd, Mrs. Crownover, Mrs. Cochran, Mrs. Floyd Wilhite, Miss Chandler, Mrs. Sammie Motesbocker, and the hostesses, Mrs. Lowrie and Mrs. Reynolds.

The club's next meeting will be on November 18, with Mrs. Wilhite as hostess.

Textile Heirlooms Can Be Saved Without Damage

COLLEGE STATION -- Store garments and other textile heirlooms for long periods of time without damage and deterioration, says Becky Saunders, a clothing specialist.

Follow these tips to maintain them for future generations, she suggests.

Mrs. Saunders is with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

Store textile items clean and as free of dust as possible. Dust and soils often contain materials that deteriorate fabric, especially during prolonged storage.

Remove general surface dirt by brushing or vacuuming. Tumble dry nonfragile items alone on the air cycle of the dryer.

Launder soiled items, and remove all stains if possible, she says.

Fold fragile items flat on a clean screen, and soak in the bathtub.

Dryclean soiled nonwash-ables. Alert the drycleaner of the item's age, fragile areas and intended storage for best results, Mrs. Saunders recommends.

For best storage, lay items flat without folds. Do not store with pins or other metal objects such as jewelry which can rust and cause permanent damage.

Choose as large a box as possible for flat storage. Line the box with laundered muslin or sheeting to prevent the box from adding to fabric deterioration.

Pad any folds with the box lining fabric and cover the top with fabric. Then seal the box.

Cover and hang garments made of strong fabric on padded hangers.

However, avoid packing tightly in an overly crowded closet.

Select storage with a relatively stable temperature, average humidity and darkness.

Dodson EHC Has Meeting

Dodson Extension Homemakers met in the home of Mrs. A.V. Lowrie, Tuesday, November 4, with Mrs. Thurman Crownover presiding. Mrs. Wayne Reynolds was co-hostess.

Miss Jean Chandler, extension agent, presented the program on Christmas ideas, showing the group many unusual finished items she has made.

Mrs. Fred Boyd read the devotional, Mrs. Lowrie presided at the roll call when each member told of a deterioration of natural fibers. Extreme dryness will increase brittleness, and high humidity will encourage the growth of mildew.

Light causes fading as well as overall deterioration, she adds.

Evelyn McMinn Lowe Honored As Retired Teacher of Month

The Collingsworth Unit of the Retired Teachers Association honored Mrs. Jim Lowe on November 10 as Retired Teacher of the Month.

Announcement of her selection was made, and tribute paid to her during the regular meeting of the organization.

Mrs. Dollie Mae Wilson, who taught with Mrs. Lowe during much of her career, recalled highlights of her life.

Evelyn Lowe recalls that her education began at a one-teacher school, Queen's Peak, north of Bowie. Her teacher, lived in Bowie and drove out to the school in a buggy.

The oldest daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. L.D. McMinn, she was born near Bowie.

The family moved to Collingsworth County in 1915, and she first attended the Old East Ward School. Later, she was a student at Cottonwood and Lillie, and graduated from Wellington High School in 1928.

That fall she enrolled in Wayland Junior College, Plainview.

Teacher certification of that period is a matter of amazement to today's de-greed teachers.

At the end of the year, Evelyn McMinn received a four-year elementary teaching certificate and for the next 5 years she taught at Lillie School, then one year at Salt Fork.

The idea of consolidation of rural schools was sweeping the country, with Texas schools in the forefront.

Quail was the central point designated for the consolidated schools of the west and south west parts of the county, but the elementary schools remained in their communities until arrangements could be made for them at Quail.

Evelyn Lowe, (she had married a neighbor, Jim Lowe in February, 1934), continued teaching, and working toward her degree, attending night classes, extension courses and enrolling as a resident student in the summer. In 1941, she received her B.S. Degree at West Texas State University and her Master of Education degree in 1955 from the same school.

All of her working years were devoted to little children, her first love, because she wanted them to get the right start in school.

In 1972, Evelyn Lowe retired after 41 years in the teaching profession.

During her childhood and young adulthood, Evelyn Lowe was active in 4-H and in her church. She had become a member of Lillie Baptist Church and was baptized in what was called "the Baptizing hole" in Salt Fork River.

Mrs. Lowe has taught many Sunday School classes served as church clerk, secretary, training union director and worked in WMU. She is now a member of Lillie Extension Homemakers Club, First Baptist Church, and Retired Teachers Association.

Their daughter, Billye Evelyn, is the wife of Master Sergeant Jon R. Kidwell, stationed at Altus Air Force Base. They have three granddaughters, Kristi, 10, Jill, 7, and Dawn, 26 months.

Club Hears Texas Heritage Program

Mrs. Chet Long was hostess to members of the 1954 Study Club at her home Thursday afternoon, November 19, for a program on "Texas Heritage."

Mrs. Dee Coleman was the guest speaker, with Mrs. Ben Ratliff as the program director.

During roll call members displayed family heirlooms. Mrs. Fred Cox showed an antique watch; Mrs. A.J. Fires, a compote; Mrs. L.C. Hill, a coverlet; Mrs. Long, a shaving mug; Mrs. Jerry Nix, a platter; Mrs. Ratliff, a writing portfolio; Mrs. R.L. Templeton, a necklace; Mrs. Lynn Wright a compact and Mrs. Coleman a spooner. Most of these antique items had belonged to grandmothers of the club members.

Others present were Mrs. Cal Hurst and Mrs. Virgil Patterson.

County Retired Teachers Hear Forehand in Thanksgiving Talk

Forgetfulness, pride and greed are three reasons why individuals don't have wholeheartedness when offering thanks, Garell Forehand, minister of the Church of Christ told the county unit of the Retired Teachers Association Tuesday, November 11, at their Thanksgiving meeting.

This was held in the fellowship hall of First Baptist Church with Mrs. Dee Coleman, Miss Bonnie Willis and Mrs. Charley Hill as hostesses.

Forehand's theme was "Let's Be Thankful." He noted that his first five years in school were in Wellington and some of his teachers were in the group before him. He expressed his thanks to them and to all the people of Wellington for what he had received.

He stressed that Thanksgiving is not only for a day, but for every day during the year. He pointed out that many basic changes have been made in the American society, and one of these changes, unthankfulness, abounds.

He urged that thanks should be given with the whole heart and not as a ritual.

Forehand emphasized the importance of being humble. Pride and arrogance get in the way of God's will, he reminded, and added that many people aren't grateful unless they have everything they want.

Mrs. Lois Ratliff, county RTA president, reported that she, Mrs. Dollie Mae Wilson and Mrs. Lowell Wells attended the District XVI Texas State Teachers Association annual meeting Nov. 7 in Amarillo.

They heard the keynote speaker, Carl Ross, principal of the nationally recognized Dodson Elementary School in Nashville, Tenn. Recognition has come to its innovative achievements in individualizing its education program.

He stressed the importance of teaching the whole child, the Wellington group reported, and reminded teachers to look, dress and act like teachers.

They also attended the sectional meeting for retired teachers, during which Mrs. Wilson was elected District secretary for the Retired Teachers Association.

Present for the local meeting were Forehand, Mrs. Edna Bradley, Mrs. Ratliff, Mrs. Kedron Mitchell, Mrs. Isla Mae Morris, Mrs. Merle White, Mrs. Verne Harper, Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. Florence DeArmond, Miss Hattie D. Wells, Mrs. Jean West, Miss Bonnie Willis, Mrs. Evelyn Lowe, Miss Maudie Coffee, Mrs. Coleman, Mrs. Hill and Mrs. Wells.

Personal

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Fulton of Dallas visited his mother, Mrs. D.E. Fulton, over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Rodgers and their grandson Tabor Chambers and Mrs. Bertha Turner of Amarillo visited last week in the home of Mrs. Guy Bumpas. Mr. and Mrs. Mike Haley and daughter, Erin of Oklahoma City were also weekend visitors.

Mrs. Paul Moran and children, Jennifer, Joel, Jason, Jarrod and Jamie Ruth of Waynesville, Mo., visited Mrs. Moran's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Dwight of Lutie from Friday through Tuesday morning. Mr. and Mrs. Tony Smith of Pampa also were there on Sunday.

Smoke Your Own Bird

COLLEGE STATION -- Smoking or curing poultry at home goes back to a bygone era, but it can still be done without a lot of "back-breaking" work.

The result can be a delicious smoked bird, says Dr. James H. Denton, poultry marketing specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System.

All that is needed to cure and smoke poultry at home is a curing vat, a small scale, curing ingredients, ice, a smoker and a hypodermic needle.

A curing vat can simply be an insulated cooler or ice chest. Curing ingredients can usually be purchased from a local co-op or locker plant. Brown sugar cure can be used and is usually available in grocery stores.

To begin, mix the curing solution as follows:

--5 gallons of water
--1/2-pound of salt
--3/4-pound of sugar

If brown sugar cure is used, dissolve 5 pounds of the ready-mixed ingredients in 4 gallons of water. Substitute ice for part of the water to chill the solution to 34-36 degree F., advises Denton.

Next, weigh the bird to be cured. Then inject 10 percent of the body weight of curing solution using a hypodermic needle. This distributes the brine uniformly in the muscles.

After the injection process, place the bird in the curing vat (cooler or ice chest) filled with the remainder of the brine and add a small amount of additional ice to insure a temperature of 34-36 degrees F.

Remove the bird after 48 hours in the curing solution and drain thoroughly (about 15 minutes), recommends Denton. Be sure there are no brine pockets in the body cavity. Place the bird in the smoker when it's nearly dry.

Any type of backyard cooker that will hold the temperature between 170-200 degrees F. is suitable for a smoker. A 55-gallon drum-type smoker works well, says the specialist. A small fire, such as one of charcoal, is needed to generate the heat. For smoke, use some type of green wood, such as green hickory, pecan or oak.

Keep smoking the bird until it takes on a light-brown pecan color. This usually takes 8-12 hours for turkeys and 4-6 hours for chickens. The bird is done when the muscle temperature reaches 162 degrees F. or when a slight twist will loosen the drumstick, says Denton.

A turkey or chicken will shrink about 20 percent with this smoking and cooking process. The finished product is completely cooked and will keep in the refrigerator for two weeks. Of course, it can be frozen for longer storage.

STATE CAPITAL HIGHLIGHTS

By Lyndell Williams
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN — As the swirling dust began to settle following Election Day results, the Texas Legislature got down to business last week preparing for Jan. 13 . . . opening day of the next session.

Despite the facelifting voters put on the national scene, the Legislature's complexion remains much the same as last session, and the basic issues are still around: how much will the state spend and where it will get the money?

The cost of state government in Texas is not excessive. While the average American spends $3 a year to support his state legislature, the average Texan pays only $1.20.

In Texas, it's the cost of local government that really hurts taxpayers: paying for city and county governments and shelling out for school districts. Revenues are collected by local governments mainly through the tax on property: houses, land, cars, etc.

For the past ten years, taxpayers have watched their property taxes increase annually, because that is the only way local governments can raise the extra dollars needed to combat inflation.

Property Tax Reform

One of the Legislature's jobs this session will be to find a suitable alternative to the used-up property tax. If other taxes are raised (sales tax, gasoline tax, etc.), then already suspicious voters may launch another tax revolt, unless their property taxes are lowered simultaneously with any other type tax increase.

Once again, the man who has been trying for seven years to reform property tax laws will be expected to lead some of the new reform, State Rep. Wayne Peveto, D-Orange. The controversial Peveto Bill of last session, which created single tax appraisal districts, was accepted quietly in some cities and raised a furor in others. Obviously, it has kinks which need to be worked out, Peveto believes. He and his Senate cosponsor, Grant Jones of Abilene, especially want to lift the tax burden on homeowners.

Clements' Program

Republican Gov. Bill Clements, facing a still-Democratic Texas Legislature, will go ahead with his program for a wiretapping bill, initiative and referendum, and a regional presidential primary. Clements apparently is seeking a sponsor for the wiretap bill, but the recent Brilab case, in which Speaker Bill Clayton was taperecorded without his knowledge, has made legislators much more aware of its potential abuses.

Five-State Primary

A proposal for a five-state presidential primary may find more enthusiastic support, since it has the support of Clements, Clayton and Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby.

The Southwestern primary, including Texas, New Mexico, Oklahoma, Arkansas and Louisiana, is designed to give this region maximum political clout during presidential election years.

Under the regional concept, all five states would hold a binding presidential primary on the same day, probably in March. In this manner, attention would be focused on the Southwest region. Presidential candidates would come early to put their issues to the voters. Not incidentally, it would also bring millions of campaign dollars to the region.

AG Opinions

In legal opinions issued last week, Atty. Gen. Mark White ruled:

—Conviction of the offense of involuntary manslaughter does not result in automatic suspension of a driver's license, but may result in discretionary suspension of said license.

—A state-chartered credit union may be licensed under Texas law, but may not charge interest rates in excess of rates authorized by state law.

—Section 36.10 of the Texas Business and Commerce Code requires an assumed name certificate to state the name and address of each participant in a partnership or joint venture. Although the county clerk is not required to verify the accuracy of a certificate, he may refuse to file one which is defective on its face.

—The Texas Housing Agency is not required to create a reserve fund in the state treasury to secure its bonds, but may create a reserve fund to be kept elsewhere. The agency may deposit its nonappropriated funds in a depository other than the state treasury.

THOMAS' ROLL CALL REPORT

Your Congressman's Votes Reported Each Week

WASHINGTON—Here's how area members of Congress were recorded on major record votes conducted at the outset of the lame-duck session of the 96th Congress.

HOUSE

REVENUE SHARING
The House adopted, 255 for and 118 against, an amendment to continue the federal revenue-sharing program, under which Washington annually sends billions in no-strings-attached money to state and local governments. The House later passed and sent to the Senate a bill (HR 7112) virtually identical to this amendment.

Members voting "yea" wanted to continue revenue-sharing in essentially its present form.

Reps. Bob Eckhart, D-8, Kika de la Garza, D-15, and Mickey Leland, D-18, voted "Yea."

Reps. Samuel Hall, D-1, Charles Wilson, D-2, James Collins, R-3, Jim Mattox, D-5, Phil Gramm, D-6, Bill Archer, R-7, Jack Brooks, D-9, Jake Pickle, D-10, J. Marvin Leath, D-11, James Wright, D-12, Jack Hightower, D-13, Joe Wyatt, D-14, Richard White, D-16, Charles Stenholm, D-17, Kent Hance, D-19, Henry Gonzalez, D-20, Tom Loeffler, R-21, Ron Paul, R-22, Abraham Kazen, D-23, and Martin Frost, D-24, voted "nay."

Rep. Ray Roberts, D-4, did not vote.

AID TO STATES? By a vote of 158 for and 215 against, the House rejected an amendment to exclude state governments from the federal revenue-sharing program. The vote came during debate on HR 7112 (see preceding vote).

Members voting "yea" wanted to exclude states from the revenue-sharing program.

Hall, Wilson, Collins, Roberts, Mattox, Gramm, Archer, Brooks, Pickle, Leath, Wright, Hightower, Wyatt, White, Stenholm, Hance, Gonzalez, Loeffler, Paul, Kazen and Frost voted "yea."

Eckhardt, de la Garza and Leland voted "nay."

SENATE

SCHOOL BUSING The Senate voted 42 for and 38 against to block the U.S. Department of Justice from seeking court orders for busing to integrate schools. The prohibition was attached to an appropriations bill (HR 7584) that was headed for final passage and conference with the House. Since the House version of the bill includes similarly-tough language, it is possible that the ban will become law, thus severely limiting or paralyzing federal efforts to require busing.

Senators voting "yea" wanted to prevent the Justice Department from seeking court orders for school busing.

Sens. Lloyd Bentsen, D, and John Tower, R, voted "yea."

Getting To Know You

Wellington School patrons had the opportunity Tuesday night to learn something of the improvements made to its physical plant during the summer and to visit at leisure through the buildings and with the faculty.

This was more than an open house. It signals an open door policy which the present administration is pursuing. It is the desire of Supt. Kenneth McKay and his principals to have a greater contact with the people of the district.

It is their wish that we of Wellington ISD form the habit of being around the school more. If we have questions about its operation, they want us to bring those questions to the school, to the first source of information. They will try to give answers.

Changes are being made at the school. Some come from decisions of the school board, others from the Texas Education Agency, the state legislature and from decisions made at the federal level. It is not always easy for the school patron to know the difference.

We welcome this policy of the school to know the community better. It is time the community got to know its school better, too.

Indian Summer

Half one, half the other, and the best of both — such is Indian summer, which stakes its teepee over the land, its campfires warming the cold, pale dawns.

The moment — a moment is all it amounts to, fundamentally — is to be prized. It anoints the burn of summer. It fortifies against the coming blasts of winter.

Indian summer's tom-toms beat softly. They stir slumbering tomatoes; green vines redden as they might have reddened during the blistering summer, had not the effort been too great.

The tom-toms rouse a single zinnia, which looks around in surprise to see its companions long vanished. A pink daisy or two likewise answers the summons. It is like old times, almost — whisper of high summer, without high summer's pains and penalties.

On beat the tom-toms, and the sweetgums catch fire, a blaze of red and gold. Light breezes whisk burnished leaves away from the elms. If Indian summer looks backward, so also does it look forward — to winter. The new season's approaching shadow can be seen, but only just.

FROM HIS WORD . . .

What is Thanksgiving?

"For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish, but have eternal life. For God did not send the Son into the world to judge the world but that the world should be saved through Him. He who believes in Him is not judged; He who does not believe has been judged already, because he has not believed in the name of the only Begotten Son of God." (John 3:16-18)

There are many things to be thankful for, but none greater than the love of God through Christ Jesus our Savior and Lord. For this Thanksgiving is eternal!

SET

Rockets Blank Canadian, 22-0

Wellington Skyrockets rolled to a 22-0 victory over Canadian here Friday, Nov. 14 to end the season 4-6, 3-2 in district play.

The Skyrockets first score came with 6:33 to play in the first half. Tim Anderson slipped in from the 3 yard line to cap an 80-yard drive by the Rockets that included fancy footwork by Anderson and Darrell Thomas and John Paul Munn's great diving catch of a Jody Coleman pass that netted the Rockets 25 yards. Anderson ran the extra points to make it 8-0 at halftime.

The Rockets threatened in the closing seconds of the first half, following Rand Johnson's good effort in heavy traffic to come up with Coleman's pass for 39 yards. But from the eleven yard line a field goal attempt fell wide to the right.

On the first play of the second half Channy Wood recovered a Canadian fumble with some help from Rand Johnson on Canadian's 20 yard line. On second down, Darrell Thomas twisted and turned 18 yards for the score. The extra point run fell short and the Rockets were ahead 14-0.

The Wildcats threatened at the close of the third quarter with a first and goal on the 10, following a couple of quarterback Bear Schafer passes that netted 50 yards.

The Rocket defense held for two downs. And then on third down David Castillo, Kenneth Warren, Doug Gibson and Channy Wood dropped Schafer for a 10 yard loss. The Rockets batted down a fourth down pass and took possession on their own 22 yard line. Canadian never got close again.

Kenneth Warren diagnosed a Canadian reverse for a 10-yard loss to force the Wildcats' next punt. And when the Rockets got the ball on their own 34, they drove it the distance in 9 plays on Jody Coleman quarterback sneak, and runs by Tim Anderson, John Paul Munn, Chris Lynch and Tim Harris. From the 29 yard line, Darrell Thomas sped, spun and twisted in for the score. Tim Anderson carried into the end zone untouched for the two extra points to make it 22-0 with 5 minutes to play.

David Castillo dropped Schafer for a 5 yard loss on fourth down to turn the ball over to the Rockets for the last time on Canadian's 25. The Rockets drove to the 3 where the drive stalled with 14 seconds to play. The ball went over and Castillo dropped Schafer for another 5 yard loss to end the game and the season.

7th Loses To Canadian

Wellington 7th grade football team ended its season with a 46-0 loss to Canadian 7th Thursday night, Nov. 13, on a cold Wildcat field.

Canadian jumped ahead at the start of the game.

Wellington, set to receive the kickoff, had an interception, then on their first play from scrimmage, the little Wildcats scored. They continued to play the same kind of ball throughout the game and were trying as hard to score as they did at the beginning.

"In spite of the finish, I thought we had a successful season. The kids learned a whole lot and they will improve a lot more next year," declared Coach Bryan Hill.

Firecrackers Lose 48-0

Wellington 8th grade boys had not made a comeback from their loss to Clarendon, and took another loss from Canadian 48-0 to end their season Thursday, November 13.

The game was played at Canadian on the coldest night the Firecrackers had experienced.

"Canadian got a quick touchdown, we were playing in their big bowl, they got the momentum going and we didn't," Coach Ray Bostick summed up the experience.

This gave Wellington a 3-5-2 record for the season, and the Firecrackers remained in district contention until the Clarendon game a week earlier.

"I'm very proud of these young men. They are the Rockets of the Future. We have played good ball all this year. We played good hard defense, and I'm very satisfied with them," declared Bostick. "If they continue to improve the next three years, people in the district had better watch out, we're going to get after you."

"I'll take this group of boys against any in the district as far as character, want-to and hustle."

Winter Work Due At Golf Course

Playing continued on the Wellington Country Club golf course since it remains in good shape, and Pro Randy Cole predicts there will be good days for golf through the winter.

"We plan a lot of work on the golf course though the winter and into next spring," Cole said.

"We'll be smoothing the fairways and we're going to plant a lot more trees in January and February,"

Cole explained.

Plans are being made to move some of the roads on the course.

"We'll remove the roads completely and cover the area with grass, then we'll replace these with cart paths," the pro said.

Cole gives credit for the condition of the course to club members. "They have co-operated and they have done their part. This is one of the nicest 9-hole golf courses in the area, and it's due to the work the members have put into it."

These Pioneer® brand grain sorghum hybrids do well in our area.

8501 — Even in a tough year like '80 we saw this hybrid stand up to drought and put out the yield! Under limited irrigation or dryland conditions, 8501 has in-bred strength to make a crop when lesser hybrids can't. We've seen good resistance to smut and MDMV with this hybrid.

8451 — We recommend this hybrid for limited irrigation or non-irrigated land as a companion to 8501. It has demonstrated resistance to Biotype C greenbugs and has shown itself to be one of the most vigorous hybrids available. This one has performed best when planted late.

8311 — Under full irrigation this hybrid has been the leading performer for many of our customers. 8311 has good resistance to smut and MDMV. A short, showy hybrid you're proud to show your neighbors.

PEANUTS

Otis Emmert displays two peanut plants that he grew in his garden near Quail this summer. Otis planted the peanuts from seed brought to him from Tennessee by Morris Barcroft. Fifty-six plants came up from the 60 he planted on May 15. He watered them with a garden hose through the summer and they produced peanuts, some of whose shells measured almost 3 inches long.

TAC Representatives Due To Inspect Airport Plans

Wellington City Council continued its discussion of Marian Airpark Improvement in its meeting Monday night, Nov. 17, and City Manager Glen Taylor told members that representatives of the Texas Aeronautics Commission assured him that day they will be here to go over the proposed plans and look at the airport as soon as the weather clears.

The city has received a matching fund grant of $75,000 for airport improvement. The city's portion will be in kind work by employees and machine hire, and possibly other types of non-cash contribution.

The public hearing on the airport improvement was held preceding the session with three persons meeting with the council. They were Perry Hiett, a pilot, Mrs. Curtistine Patrick and Philip

Gray. The council voted to close a portion of an alley through property belonging to Wellington State Bank at the northeast corner of the town square as part of a proposed bank project. The motion to approve the closing was made by Councilman Lyndon Crelia and seconded by councilman Tom Wilkins. Taylor told the council the crane purchased through Army Surplus has arrived and that he has pick-up orders on three other surplus items, a trailer, welder and bulldozer.

City officials present were Mayor Bill Hatch, Councilmen Wilkins, Crelia, Willie Gragson, Gary Brewer and Ralph Owens, City Manager Taylor and City Secretary Nell McKinney.

Crop, Stock Reports Due

From mid-November to early January, many Texas farmers and ranchers will receive a crop or livestock questionnaire from the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service or will be personally interviewed by the Service's field staff.

All of the estimates published by the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service are based on the data provided by Texas farmers and ranchers, County Extension Agents, ASCS offices, and many others in agriculture.

This cooperation provides the necessary data which is, in turn, returned to farmers and to be a part of this fine community. I will do my best to keep you happy with our service," Wakefield said.

and ranchers and others in the form of accurate estimates, which are so essential in making the wisest production and marketing decisions, according to Bob Weatherly, ASCS County director.

Each farmer or rancher receiving a questionnaire is urged to fill it out carefully and return it promptly to the Agricultural Statistician in Austin. Individual reports are confidential and used only for state and county estimates.

Fur dealers may obtain a free bobcat tagging permit and tags from any department law enforcement field office across the state. The office locations are printed on the back of the department's 1980-81 Guide to Texas Hunting and Fishing Regulations booklet where licenses are sold.
