GOP Speeds Housing, Anti-Inflation Bills

Allied Envoys Now Studying Next Move

By EDDY GILMORE
Associated Press Staff Writer

MOSCOW, Aug. 4—American, British and French envoys conferred for three hours tonight on their next step in negotiations with Russia for a settlement of the Berlin crisis and perhaps East-West differences in all Europe.

U. S. Ambassador Walter B. Smith and French Ambassador Yves Chataigneau went to the British embassy where Frank Roberts, the special British envoy, received them. U. S. Embassy Counsellor Foy Kohler accompanied Smith.

Answer Believed Received

It was reliably reported that one of the three embassies—which one was not specified—had already received the first official reaction to the talks with Prime Minister Stalin Monday night.

It was possible that all three envoys had received such advices.

The three envoys possibly discussed whether to seek another appointment with Stalin in order to communicate to him the views of their home governments.

However, there was no indication up to a late hour tonight that the western diplomats had made any effort to obtain a second appointment with either Stalin or Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov.

Agreement Seen

Reliable sources here said there is a good chance for "an agreement" between the western powers and the Soviet Union but they did not specify its nature.

(The British message to Roberts, Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin's personal envoy in Moscow, was being drafted Wednesday, London dispatches reported, after Bevin conferred with Herbert Morrison, acting prime minister, Sir William Strang, foreign officer advisor, U. S. Ambassador Lewis Douglas, and Gen. Sir Brian Robertson, British commander in Germany.

Marshall Grave At Press Meet

WASHINGTON, Aug. 4 (AP)—Secretary Marshall, one of the very few men in the world who know where we stand with the Russians, was unable to discuss that situation during his news conference today.

To every question, directly or indirectly touching upon the meetings in Moscow, he had to reply "no comment."

He said that for very evident reasons the State department could make no statement.

Secretary Very Grave

And the large group of correspondents did not attempt to press him. So nothing was said on the matter.

The secretary was very grave, however.

His manner reflected none of that cheerfulness and high good humor that was reported to have been shining in the faces of the three western diplomats who recently saw Premier Stalin. If anything, Marshall appeared to be more serious—in fact, preoccupied—than he has been on other occasions when the Russian situation was under discussion with correspondents.

The apparent absence of optimism on the part of the secretary is pretty generally evident throughout Washington.

Neither in diplomatic nor mili-

Deep Gas Discovery Abandoned Because Pressure Too High

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 4. (AP)—Discovery and abandonment of a deep gas well at the Rabbitt island dome in Atchafalaya bay, Terrebonne parish, was announced today by the Texas company.

Company officials said the well was abandoned because "the tremendous pressure was too much to handle." Shut-in pressure of 8,150 pounds per square inch was developed during a test. Spokesmen said this was the greatest pressure ever encountered in a Louisiana well. Gas sand was struck at 12,448 feet.

EFFORTS TO FIRE FEDERAL WORKER FAIL

Red Claimed 'Protected'

By JOHN B. OWEN
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Aug. 4—Nathan Gregory Silvermaster, accused of spying for Soviet Russia, related today that a White House aide and a cabinet officer protected his wartime government job after Naval Intelligence tried to get him fired.

Silvermaster produced a letter he said was written by Robert P. Patterson, then secretary of war, clearing him after Lauchlin Currie, for years a top White House assistant, had called on Patterson in Silvermaster's behalf.

The middle-aged Silvermaster, a witness before the House Un-American Activities committee, flatly refused to say whether he ever was a Communist, but he asserted he never was a spy. He said the Naval Intelligence report was an unjustified smear and that he had been cleared after investigation by various agencies, including a chief of the U. S. Secret Service.

(In New York, Patterson said that to the best of his recollection Currie called him during the war about a case in the Board of Economic Warfare involving a man he thinks was Silvermaster. He ordered an inquiry, he said, and told Currie later that the War department did not object to the man staying in BEW. He added he has every confidence in Currie. Patterson said he never met Silvermaster and only heard of him the one time.)

Testimony that both the Navy and the Civil Service commission had tried unsuccessfully to pry Silvermaster loose from his job with the Board of Economic Warfare was given the committee. He stayed on four more years—until 1946.

Louis Russell, a former FBI agent and now a committee investigator, testified that the Civil Suicide Note Hits Ex-Spy

(By The International News Service)

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 4 — A typewritten note possibly addressed to a key figure in the Washington spy probe was found on the Golden Gate bridge today—apparently left there by a mystery suicide.

The not was addressed to "Dear E. T. B." and in the text twice referred to her as "Elizabeth."

Attached to the note was a newspaper clipping of the Washington inquiry into Communist underground activities in the nation's capitol. The story was about Alger Hiss, former State department official, whose name was brought into the congressional probe by Elizabeth T. Bentley.

Search For Body

The note and newspaper clipping were found in a woman's purse which was discovered on the center of the Golden Gate span early today. The purse was among a scattered pile of woman's clothing.

Coast Guardsmen conducted a thorough search of the Golden Gate today but found no trace of any suicide. They pointed out, however, that a strong outgoing tide was running at the time a passerby reported he saw someone near the middle span of the bridge. The witness believed it to be a man, but police think it might

Possible Compromise Hinted By Arabian

CAIRO, Aug. 4 (AP)—King Abdullah of Trans-Jordan asked today for full and careful consideration of any future proposal for permanent peace in Palestine.

He told a news conference in Amman his "Arab nation does not exclude any possible compromise that secures justice and prevents unnecessary bloodshed.

"We would like that the efforts of Count Bernadotte in the refugee problem be successful, and afterwards that any new proposals (for a Palestine settlement) which he will make should not be rejected outright but be fully discussed before they are put in final form" he said.

"If there should be any reason for their rejection, such a decision should also be preceded by joint discussion."

The King's carefully chosen words promising consideration of a compromise to end the Holy Land struggle set a precedent among Arab statesmen who until now had avoided any public utterance indicating a willingness to compromise.

Observers took his statement to mean Trans-Jordan will insist the Arab league give full consideration to Bernadotte's next peace plan expected in September.

Plan To Make Tax Load More Equitable

Revaluing Of County Rural Property Set

CONTRACTS for revaluing Lubbock county rural properties for tax purposes were let Wednesday afternoon by the county commissioners court.

They provided for the work to be done by R. C. Hopping and Bob Miller, at a total cost of $20,500—$5,100 less than the nearest proposal and the only proposal made by local men.

Hopping would revalue lands and their improvements outside Lubbock Independent School district, except for urban districts, on a bid of $15,000.

Improvements To Be Assessed

Miller would revalue all properties within the school district, exclusive of the corporate limits of Lubbock, and in addition all towns outside Lubbock Independent school district: Idalou, Shallowater, Wolfforth, and Slaton. His bid was $5,500.

It was provided that the work would be completed by June 1, 1949.

The county commissioners several months ago agreed to the revamping of rural values to make the tax load throughout the entire county more equitable. Improvements on land had not been assessed for tax purposes in rural areas before, but will be under the revaluation.

Camp Ruling Given

At the morning session, the court informed a committee representing the chamber of commerce that it has no legal authority for making financial contribution to construction of an itinerant labor camp here.

A committee of Hop Halsey, W. C. Wood, George Bond, and L. L. Garrett appeared before the commissioners. Halsey, spokesman, informed the court that the city commission had offered to contribute $3,250 and a ground site contingent upon a donation of $3,250 by the county

Texans Discuss Grain Price Aid

WASHINGTON, Aug. 4 (AP)—A special committee of Texas congressmen tonight sought ways to bolster sorghum grain crop prices in their state.

Discussing the problem at a luncheon meeting, Rep. Mahon (D), delegation chairman, declared farmers are unable to obtain government loans because they do not have certified warehouses in which to store their crop.

He named the following to serve on the special committee: Reps. Poage, Fisher, Worley, Burleson, Gossett and Lyle.

Unable To Qualify

For the past several years the market has been so strong the growers have not needed to fall back on the government loan, said Mahon, and now that they need it they find they can not qualify for the aid.

The problem was brought to the attention of the congressman by Walter Hammond, head of the Texas Farm bureau, with headquarters in Waco.

Poage suggested that one partial solution would be to utilize a great unused warehouse at the wartime Bluebonnet ordnance works near McGregor.

Warehouse Needed

The property is now owned by Texas Agriculture and Mechanical college, and Poage said he had written his suggestion to both Hammond and Dr. Gibb Gilchrist head of the college.

Poage said Agriculture department officials told him if state authorities certify the warehouse for use, they are virtually certain they could give the farmers a 90 per cent of parity loan, amount-

Dixie Demos Win Fight On Poll Tax Bill

By FRANCIS J. KELLY
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Aug. 4 — An easy-going southern filibuster killed the anti-poll tax bill today for this session of Congress.

A 69 to 16 roll call vote in the Senate made it official. Earlier, Republican senators had decided to abandon their effort to pass the bill. This was the fifth day of the debate and pressure was mounting for adjournment.

Down the drain with the poll tax measure went the rest of President Truman's civil rights proposals. They weren't even mentioned as the Republicans decided to concentrate on their own anti-inflation legislation and one or two other matters before closing up shop for the year.

Barkley Opposes Motion

Technically, the decisive Senate vote came on a motion to adjourn instead of recess tonight. Approval of the motion had the effect of clearing the stage of the poll tax fight.

The motion to adjourn was opposed by Senator Barkley of Kentucky, Democratic floor leader and nominee for vice president. He said it "puts us right back where we were last week," and added that "the Senate cannot forever go on and admit to the American people that it is impossible to function."

Republicans and southern Democrats, however, lined up for the motion and the administration could muster only 16 votes in opposition.

Rule Changes Urged

The southerners' victory may prove only temporary, however. The Republican senators, meeting in a formal conference, committed themselves to an effort to change the rules at the start of the next session so as to make it easier to break filibusters.

Under their plan, the cloture rule by means of which two-thirds of the Senate can limit debate, would be made applicable to every phase of parliamentary action — to motions as well as to debate on actual legislation.

Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich), the presiding officer, reaffirmed yesterday that the rule can't be applied to motions as it stands. The southerners have taken full advantage of that loophole. At no time during the last week's proceedings has the debate been upon

GOP Feud Again Flares In City

Lubbock county's Republican row flared again late Wednesday, this time in Judge Dan Blair's 72nd District court.

John L. Vaughan, leading one faction of the two groups seeking control of the GOPs here, filed a petition requesting that Democratic County Chairman L. C. Ellis be ordered to make a complete list of voters in the recent Democratic primary election available for Vaughan's inspection.

Vaughan's petition, in effect, asked the court to issue a show cause order commanding Ellis, as county Democratic chairman, to appear and show cause why he should not be required to permit Vaughan and others to look over the list.

May Echo In State Meet

Neither Vaughan nor M. D. Temple, leader of the opposition group which has repeatedly clashed with Vaughan's faction in recent months, would comment publicly on the purposes of the move. Both did issue brief statements, however, and promised to add anything which might be necessary following a court hearing on the petition.

However, observers who have kept a close watch on the Republican dispute here, expressed a belief that the purpose of

Texas Housewives Sound Battle Cries In War On Meat Prices

(By The Associated Press)

GET out and fish! Eat beans! Don't buy meat until the price goes down!

The battle cries sounded in 13 Texas cities Wednesday as housewives got on the telephone and urged a week's boycott against meat in protest of high prices.

Waco women set Wednesday for start of the boycott. It was too early to tell its effect on meat market sales.

In Dallas, where the battle of the beef steak began, retailers and meat processors admitted their business volume was "way off" and attributed it to the housewives' campaign. There was no evidence yet of any sharp drop in meat prices. The boycott in Dallas was set for Aug. 9-15.

The "get out and fish" cry came from a man, who suggested it was a good way for husbands to help. Joe Parsley, sports editor of the Orange Leader, pointed out that the piscatorial season was at its peak around Orange.

The eat-beans-until-meat-costs-less movement in Corpus Christi brought cries of "unfair" from store owners. Retailers there, declaring the boycott unjustified, asserted that meat producers are responsible for current high prices.

NO EARLY PRICE RELIEF SEEN

Record Price Paid For Hogs As Phone Crusade Mounts

By WILLIAM FERRIS
Associated Press Staff Writer

CHICAGO, Aug. 4—A telephone crusade against high meat prices mounted as hogs hit record price peaks today.

Housewives in scattered parts of the country phoned one another to stay out of butcher shops, but the phone calls did not reach the Chicago livestock market. It was there that the new all time high hog peak — $31.50 a hundred pounds — was reached.

Hogs provided most of the sad news for consumers. However, meat was not only high, but even the implements to eat it were going up. Three makers of sterling silver table service boosted flatware prices 8 to 10 per cent.

Corn Prices Drop

Some long distance cheer came from the grain markets. Corn prices sank to a new low for the year as the largest corn crop in history approached maturity. Traders estimated the crop might top 3,500,000,000 bushels.

Corn is the major livestock food, particularly for hogs. Traders said a big crop eventually will mean more hogs and lower pork prices—but not until next year.

The butcher boycott, spread by telephone calls, centered mainly in Texas. It began in Dallas, where the Dallas Federation of Women's clubs urged housewives to buy no meat from Aug. 9 to Aug. 16. Women in several other Texas cities took up the plaintive cry.

No Early Relief Seen

Chain telephone calls also were being used to support the no-meat campaign in Miami, Fla., Louisville, Ky., and Atlanta, Ga.

In the Chicago livestock market, some choice hogs brought the equally choice price of $31.50. It was the third new record high in the last four trading days here. Hogs were higher at South St. Paul, just about the same at East St. Louis and lower at Indianapolis.

In Washington, Secretary of Agriculture Brannan told the Senate Banking committee, "we can expect little relief from the price pressures now current until the closing months of 1949." And in Chicago the Army quartermaster market center said it was going to South America to get meat.

The Agriculture department added a sour note for consumers who might be thinking of meat substitutes. It said there was no prospect of lower chicken and egg prices before next year. Thanksgiving turkeys will cost more than last year, the department predicted.

Twenty Persons Are Injured As Racer Plows Into Crowd

(By The Associated Press)

OWOSSO, Mich., Aug. 4.—Twenty spectators were injured tonight when a speeding midget auto racer hurtled off a race track and into a crowded grandstand.

Sheriff's officers who tabulated the list of injured said the mishap occurred during a benefit racing program for two drivers killed July 21 in an accident at the same Owosso midget track.

The driver, William Stone, 24, of Howell, Mich., was tossed out of the car as it veered off the track while traveling at a speed estimated by Deputy Sheriff Paul Conklin at 60 to 70 miles an hour.

GOP Plans Fight To Win Virginia Races

(By The Associated Press)

Virginia Republicans rolled up their sleeves today to make a fight of it for the congressional delegation in November following Tuesday's primary election. The state's 11 men in Congress are Democrats.

As in Missouri and Kansas, where voters also went to the polls, all incumbents on Capitol Hill who ran for re-nomination appeared to have won out.

Virginia Democrats began getting ready for a GOP attempt to carry the state after a 20-year drought. Virginia gave Herbert Hoover a majority in 1928.

Hiroshima, Seared By First Atom Bomb, Almost Normal Again, But Scars Of Blast Still Remain

(EDITOR'S NOTE: Three years ago tomorrow, at 8:15 a.m., August 6 in Hiroshima, Japan, the first atom bomb ever exploded in the fury of war burst over the teeming city and altered mankind's course for all time. Now, three years after, what remains in Hiroshima of that frightful memory. The following story is the story of Hiroshima of that frightful memory? The markable comeback—but more than that. It is the story of a city, and an explosion, that the world never can forget.)

By JOHN RICH
INS Staff Correspondent

HIROSHIMA, Aug. 4. — Hiroshima is almost normal again.

Three years after that first atomic bomb's blinding flash seared the city, Hiroshima has become a bustling, modern metropolis of 250,000 people (its pre-war population) with baseball parks, permanent wave shops and beauty contests.

Only the shattered science and commerce building, being preserved as a landmark, and a few twisted bridges remain as scars to remind of the morning of August 6 three years ago.

Rubble Cleared Away

Rubble has been cleared away. The beer bottles, dishes and sake cups, melted and run together in grotesque shapes like a Dali painting have disappeared

Most were carried off as souvenirs by the thousands of foreigners who have visited Hiroshima.

On August 6 the city, now conscious of its position in the eyes of the world, will again hold an elaborate peace festival. Hiroshima, greatest sufferer in the last war, wants to lead in the fight for peace.

Lt. Col. Thomas M. Cloward, Wilmington, Del., head of the Hiroshima military government team, observed:

"There's no better place to start a peace rally than right here."

Three Killed, Four Hurt In New Mexico Car-Truck Crash

GRANTS, N. M., Aug. 4 (AP)—A Lincoln convertible careened into a truck on the main street of Grants early today killing three persons and injuring four others, three seriously.

State patrolman Onis Reynolds said manslaughter charges will be filed against Bob Messer, 22, of Tulsa, Okla., driver of the Lincoln.

Dead were Margaret Fisher, 20, Oklahoma City; Tom Gough, about 22, McAlester, Okla., and Tom McBride, about 24, Orville, Calif.

In a Grants hospital are Geraldine Curren, Noble, Okla., still unconscious tonight with possible internal injuries, and O. T. Epps, jr., Canadian, Texas, the truck driver, who suffered a deep cut under his chin. Richard Harley, 23, Bartlesville, Okla., was taken to an Albuquerque hospital with a skull fracture and both legs broken.

Messer, not seriously injured, was taken to Los Lunas late today to be charged with manslaughter.

Bank Credit, Installment Curbs Loom

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 4 — The GOP substitute for President Truman's anti-inflation program was rammed through the House Banking committee tonight on a 16-8 vote.

It calls for restoration of wartime curbs on installment buying, and a moderate tightening of bank credit.

GOP leaders were pressing a drive to adjourn the extra session of Congress, possibly Saturday night, or at the latest next Tuesday. Earlier they had abandoned an anti-poll tax bill in the Senate, saying a southern filibuster prevented action at this session.

Housing Bill Okayed

A Senate-House committee tentatively approved, meanwhile, a housing bill which Senator McCarthy (R-Wis) said is principally designed to stimulate production of lower cost homes."

The measure is far different from the Truman-backed Taft-Ellender-Wagner bill, designed to spur the construction of 15,000,000 homes in 10 years. For one thing, the T-E-W bill lontains a provision for government-financed and publicly-owned homes for low income persons, a provsion which McCarthy said is absent from the new bill.

The anti-inflation bill approved by the House Banking committee flatly rejects Mr. Truman's call for reimposition of selective price and wage controls and rationing. It ignores his proposal for a $4,300,000 excess profits tax.

Credit Curbs Provided

The Republican measure was headed for a House vote tomorrow.

Written by Rep. Wolcott (R-Mich), chairman of the Banking committee, it won committee approval on what was reported to be a strict party line division.

It provides:

1. That "in order to protect the nation's monetary, banking and credit structure, and interstate and foreign commerce against increased inflationary pressure," the board of governors of the Federal Reserve system is authorized to exercise installment buying controls up to March 15, 1949.

Reserves May Be Upped

These controls in wartime usually required a one-third down

Cool Front Moves Over South Plains

A cool front that moved into the South Plains after crossing the Midwest from Canada dropped the mercury at the weather station north of Lubbock to a pleasant 83 degree reading Wednesday.

The reading was seven degrees below the 90 degree maximum forecast Tuesday night at the station. The minimum reading early Wednesday morning was 66 degrees. The day was the coolest since July 5 when an identical 83 maximum and 66 minimum was registered.

Warmer Weather Seen

The front failed to generate any percipitation in the South Plains area although the Amarillo and Pampa section received some moisture from thundershowers that formed in the wake of the movement.

The cool air moved into the Lubbock area from the northeast and remained out of that direction all day Wednesday. At one time it hit a velocity of 24 miles an hour. Contributing somewhat to the "coolness" was an above average humidity reading. The maximum early Wednesday morning was 90 per cent, with a drop to a minimum of 46 per cent in the afternoon.

Today will be slightly warmer, only slightly, however, the weatherman said Wednesday night. He predicted the maximum today would be 85 degrees, with a minimum of 63 recorded early this morning. The skies will be cloudy to partly cloudy, he said, but there isn't any rain in sight.

MEXICO CITY — Entrance was denied us this morning to the castle of Chapultepec on the outskirts of Mexico City because security measures were being taken to protect the president-elect of Cuba who was being entertained there by President Aleman. Later we shall visit the fabulous home of Maximilian and Carlota, emperor and empress of Mexico in the 1860's. The castle is now a Mexican national museum.

Surrounding this beautiful hill-top structure is the famous forest of Chapultepec, once called the Phantom forest because of the ghostly appearance given it by the Spanish moss hanging from giant trees which antedate Cortez by hundreds of years.

Near the castle is a monument which commemorates one of the greatest sore spots which exists between this country and the United States. It was erected in 1880 to the memory of the "Ninos Heroes," or the five boys, students of the military academy at Chapultepec, who lost their lives defending the castle against invading United States soldiers in 1847. Mexicans view the monument with reverence, unwilling to forget the incident which often is called the "Mexican Alamo." During President Truman's recent visit to Mexico, he laid a wreath on this monument, thereby doing much to warm the Mexicans' hearts toward the North Americans.

Huge crowds of Mexicans and tourists are attracted to the cool refreshing atmosphere of the dense semi-tropical forest, where an entire day can be spent rowing on the lake, picnicking and especially studying Mexican history and culture in the museum. A cultural atmosphere prevails and Mexicans enjoy lolling around the fountain of Don Quijote just off of the "Path of Philosophers." One of the best residential sections of Mexico City lies just beyond the forest of Chapultepec.

VISIT FAMED PYRAMIDS

SOMETIME before the Aztec period in Mexico's dim past the Sacred Pyramids of San Juan Teotihuacan were built strangely similar to those of the Egyptians. Located 30 miles from Mexico City, these stair-cased structures are of supreme interest to the student of Mexican culture. The Pyramid of the Sun, which was mistaken for a hill until 1905, has been excavated and now stands 216 feet high and is more than 700 feet broad at the base. Nearby is the Pyramid of the Moon which at present is being excavated.

Descending from the top of the Sun pyramid, we walked along the "Calle de los Muertos," or the "Street of the Dead," which extends between a row of wrought stone mounds which have yielded hundreds of skeleton remains and clay masks. Some of the masks show striking resemblance to ancient Egyptians, others are Mongoloid and still others bear negroid features.

At a small distance from the Pyramid of the Sun, which is in the center of an ancient buried city, stands the Temple of Quetzalcoatl, an ancient god of the Toltecs. Age of this structure is estimated at thousands of years; less artistic structures of a later era surround the temple, which is crumbling. Serpent heads of stone project from the temple's walls.

Midway between Mexico City and the pyramids, we stopped to study and photograph the church-fortress of San Agustin de Alcolman, which was begun in 1539 and which has some architecture similar to that of the structures surrounding the Temple of Quetzalcoatl.

In the winding passages of this one-time monastery hang many beautiful religious paintings attributed to the genius of monks.

Three Indians knelt in prayer upon the stone floor of the majestic old chapel during the entire time we toured the church and living quarters of the monks.

MONUMENT DESCRIBED

MOST impressive of the various monuments studied inside Mexico City is the Monument to the Revolution of 1910. Just below the dome of the 250-feet edifice are allegorical figures representing independence, reform, labor laws and agricultural laws.

On the Paseo de la Reforma, one of the most famous avenues in the world, we visited the unique Independence monument which is 150 feet high and is topped by a gilded and winged figure of Victory. In the left hand of the figure is a fragment of a chain symbolic of three centuries of bondage.

We have made oral reports in Spanish on monolithic figures studied in the Mexican National museum and library, one of which is the huge Aztec calendar which is reproduced on a great many articles of leather and silver made and sold by the Mexicans.

MRS. EDWARD LEE ANTHONY

Reba Fern Lovelace Weds E. L. Anthony

Miss Reba Fern Lovelace, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Lovelace of Tokio, Tex., became the bride of Edward Lee Anthony, son of Sam B. Anthony of Plains, recently in the First Baptist church in Wells. Rev. W. P. Brian, pastor of the church read a single ring ceremony.

The bride wore a gray tailored suit, white crepe blouse and white hat and gloves with black shoes and bag. Her corsage was of dark pink carnations. For something old she carried a linen handkerchief, and a gold bracelet, something borrowed, belonged to her sister-in-law, Mrs. Pete Phillips of Brownfield. She chose blue garters for something blue, and the traditional custom of wearing a penny in her shoe was observed.

Miss Bonnie Ware attended the bride as maid of honor, wearing a crepe dress with nail-head trim, white and gold accessories and a corsage of pale pink carnations. Kenneth Moore served the bridegroom as best man.

After a wedding trip to points in New Mexico, the couple will be at home on a farm near Tatum, N. M.

Mrs. Anthony is a 1948 graduate of Brownfield High school. The bridegroom attended high school in Brownfield and served 19 months in the Army.

Friends and relatives attended the ceremony.

Miss June Stine To Wed Mr. Thompson In September Ceremony

ARCHER CITY, Aug. 4.—News of the engagement and approaching marriage of Miss June Stine to V. E. (Jack) Thompson of 1910 Twenty-fifth, Lubbock, was revealed here recently when Mrs. J. M. Stine, mother of the bride-elect, entertained with a formal reception in the Delphian club rooms.

Guests were greeted by a receiving line composed of Mrs. Stine, Mrs. Earl Thompson, mother of the groom-to-be; Mrs. Vincent Stine, Henrietta; and Mrs. Arlie Campbell. Mrs. Jeff Seay secured signatures for the bride's book.

The reception rooms were lovely with floral arrangements in the bride-elect's colors, chosen for her wedding, of aqua and pink. Shasta and Marconi daisies were used throughout the club rooms to form attractive decorations.

To Marry In September

In the dining room a huge bouquet of daisies were arranged at the base, and ran up one side, of a three foot wedding band which was covered in aqua satin and adorned with pink wedding bells. From this arrangement were satin streamers with the lettering, "June and Jack, Sept. 1," revealing the wedding plan. Mrs. Pierre M. Stine, Henrietta, aunt of the honoree, served punch through the wedding band. The dainty cake squares were iced in pink with aqua flower decoration. Others assisting with the serving were Miss Nancy Stine, Henrietta; Mrs. Charlie King; Mrs. Virgil Seay; Mrs. W. C. Sutherland, jr., and Mrs. Roy Gresset.

The wedding, scheduled for Wednesday evening, Sept. 1, is to be an event at the First Methodist Church, with the pastor, Rev. Sam P. Farler, as officiant. The bride-elect has chosen Miss June Clark to be her maid of honor while Mrs. Jeff Seay will act as matron of honor. Bridesmaids are Miss Johnnie Johnson, Clarendon, Texas and Mrs. Charlie King. Best man for the groom is to be Bill Medley, Lubbock.

The attractive bride-elect is a graduate of the local high school and received her BA degree in journalism from Texas Technological college in Lubbock in June. The groom-to-be, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Thompson of Lubbock is a graduate of the Lubbock High school and is a senior business administration major at Tech.

NEW BID MADE FOR NEGRO VOTE

Race Segregation Is Banned On Democratic Headquarters Staff

By JACK BELL
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Aug. 4 — The Democratic national committee has banned race segregation in its headquarters staff in a new bid for negro support in the presidential election.

National chairman J. Howard McGrath told a reporter the committee "merely is being consistent" by putting into effect a policy urged by President Truman for government jobs and the armed forces.

McGrath said he expects to announce later the appointment of a negro assistant to the chairman.

Negro Division Abolished

McGrath said the committee is abolishing its negro division as such and distributing its negro workers among other units. He said there will be no race discrimination in the hiring of stenographers, clerks and other employes.

The Republican national committee maintains a negro division. William Murphy, GOP publicity director, said several negroes are employed on the headquarters staff.

McGrath's move was looked on by some Dixie Democrats as a further sign that the administration is more interested in negro support from the big vote states than it is in patching up the party row in the south.

McGrath Is Optimistic

Some of the southerners are backing a presidential candidate of their own, Gov. J. Strom Thurmond of South Carolina. Others have declared they won't vote for President Truman. Alabama and Missisippi electors have been formally instructed not to support him.

Most of the southern states have refused to come across with money for the party war chest.

But in the face of all this, McGrath said he thinks things will work out in November.

"President Truman is not going to lose the electoral vote of any southern state—wait and see," he said.

Hedge Against Revolt

There is no evidence that the south's anger over Mr. Truman's civil rights program has cooled.

But there are signs that some of the Dixie Democrats in Congress who are up for re-election this year are hedging against a revolt.

One of these, Senator Willis Robertson of Virginia, declined to bolt the ticket and was renominated in yesterday's primary. Robertson and Virginia congressmen were said to feel that they ought not to leave the field open for Truman supporters to make the November contest a three-way race in which some Republicans might win.

Crop Conditions Good On Plains

AUSTIN, Aug. 4 (U.P.)—Growing crops have enough moisture in almost all areas in Texas except in eastern and southeastern counties, the U. S. Department of Agriculture reported today.

In those regions late feed crops and pastures are feeling the brunt of continued heat.

The USDA said that conditions remained favorable in the high plains and low rolling plains, and a number of dry areas in central and West Texas were relieved by week-end rains.

Cotton Progress Good

Cotton, the department reported, made "very good progress" in most areas, and harvest continued at a fast clip in south-central and southern counties. Peak harvest was being reached in coastal bend areas.

Feed crop prospects also were good in most of northwestern and north-central Texas, but late plantings of corn and sorghum were making slow growth in other parts of the state due to the heat.

Watermelons were available in good volume in some eastern and north-central counties, and were beginning to ripen in extreme northwestern areas, where there were prospects of an "excellent" crop.

The USDA also reported a good growth of Panhandle potatoes and carrots.

The range and pasture feed supply, curing over most eastern, central and southern counties, was reported to be "generally adequate."

Local Company Given Franchise For Distribution Of Water

Announcement of the appointment of the Hygeia Purified Water Co., 2522 Ave. H, as local distributors for Ozarka water from the famous health resort at Eureka Springs, Ark., was made Wednesday. The local company was given the franchise for Lubbock and surrounding territory.

The water is shipped here in glass-lined tank cars and will be stored in a new plastic-lined storage tank recently erected by the local firm. It will be bottled and distributed under the strictest sanitary conditions.

Joe Stanley and John Chauncey are owners of the Hygeia firm.

Dallas Officials Seek Sulfite Treated Meat

DALLAS, Aug. 4 (U.P.) — City health officials today were testing additional meat samples for traces of sulphite after filing complaints charging six Dallas men with offering chemically treated meat for sale.

Two of the men charged, E. E. Wynne and J. O. Calvin, yesterday pleaded guilty to selling the sulfite-treated meat and paid fines of $50 and costs.

Four Others Charged

Two others, Frank Powell and B. B. Harris, were expected to appear in justice of the peace court No. 1 today.

Hearings for the other defendants, L. Savone and L. M. Lewis, have been set for Monday.

All were named in criminal complaints filed by city health department food and drug inspectors. They were charged with violating the Texas food and drug laws.

Sulfite is a chemical preservative which gives old meat the color and odor of fresh meat.

Sibilia, Oldest Member Of College Of Cardinals, Dies

VATICAN CITY, Aug. 4 (AP)—Enrico Cardinal Sibilia, 87, oldest member of the college of cardinals of the Roman Catholic church, died today at Anagni, his birthplace, it was announced here.

Cardinal Sibilia was bishop of Sabina and Poggiomirteto. His death leaves 11 vacancies in the college of cardinals, which at full strength has 70 members.

Last Member Of Midwest Bank Robbery Gang Nabbed In Dallas

DALLAS, Aug. 4 (U.P.)—The last member of a four-man gang sought for robbery of the Hebron, Ind., Citizens National bank faced arraignment in U. S. commissioner's court today.

FBI agents arrested Fred Bruce Pate, 28, last night as he was driving a truck. He had been working as a truck driver here since early May.

The Hebron bank lost $2,698 in an April 29 robbery. Two members of the gang were captured in New York. They were Steve M. Wzesinski now held in Indiana, and Richard Shurman, detained in New York.

The fourth member of the gang, H. C. Whitaker, was found murdered in Gary, Ind., on June 10. Wzesinski, Shurman and Shurman's wife have been charged with killing Whitaker.

Authorities suspect the gang of four other bank robberies in Indiana and Ohio.

Lady's Arm Was Bent Up Double Like A Jack-Knife

One lady recently stated that her arm used to become doubled up like a jack-knife. She couldn't move her arm up or down because her muscles were stiff with rheumatic pains and the joints of her elbow and shoulder were swollen. She said she was ashamed to leave her house because people would stare at her. Finally she got TRU-AID and says she now can raise her arm above her head and the swelling left her elbow and shoulder. She is enjoying life once more and feels like "some other woman" since taking this New Compound.

TRU-AID contains Three Great Medicinal Ingredients which go right to the very source of rheumatic aches and pains. Miserable people soon feel different all over. So don't go on suffering! Get TRU-AID. Sold by All Drug Stores here in Lubbock. Adv.

Hubs Trample Loboes, 21 To 6

Fowler Leads Hit Parade

By JOE KELLY
Avalanche Sports Editor

Lamesa forgot to kick the extra point last night at Rosenthal Field, but it didn't matter a great deal, the Hubbers going on one of their biggest hitting sprees of the year to win the rubber game of the series 21-6.

Lefty Fred Pollock was helped to his fifth victory of the season by a barrage of blows that included grand slam home runs by Chick Fowler and Gene Hixson, another homer by Fowler and doubles by Hixson, Virgil Richardson, Fowler, Floyd Walker and Don Moore, the last two each getting a pair.

Skrabacz Leaves Early

Outfielder, Eddie Skrabacz, not impressed by Hubber batting, begged for a chance to pitch, boasting that he could set the Hub City nine down with four or less runs Manager Tony Fiarito gave him his chance and a while it looked as though he might escape damage in the first inning. Then his own wildness led him into deep trouble.

Three walks, the third of which forced in the second Hubber run, loaded the sacks and brought up Fowler. He looked at a ball and two strikes, driving the next pitch over the leftfield wall and the Hubbers were ahead, 6-0.

Lamesa lowered the count to 6-3 in the fourth, when Sam Malvica, Fiarito and Lee Ellyson singled in succession. That sent Royce Mills to warming up, but Pollock got Jim Skidgel to ground out and it was the last time he was in trouble.

Lamesa Keeps Trying

The Hubbers won the game in a wild fourth that saw 12 men come to bat and nine runs scored after two were out on seven hits that included two doubles and Hixson's grand slam home run.

After that the Hubbers kept pecking away with at least one run in each of the next four innings. Fowler's second homer came in the seventh with no one aboard the sacks and there were four more Hubber doubles.

Lamesa made a stab at trying to win the game in the ninth, nine men batting and getting four hits, with two walks, good for three runs. But Pollock ended the game by fanning Dan Pinto and I. B. Palmer.

Tonight the Hubbers open a three-game series with Amarillo in the Gold Sox city, with Chris Haskins the probable Lubbock hurler.

Mrs. George Soash Wins Top Honors In Women's Tourney

Mrs. George Soash copped top honors in the regular women's golf tourney Wednesday at Lubbock Country club, posting the low score in the feature 18-hole division.

Mrs. Tom Duggan was named as the winner of the nine-hole flight, with Mrs. Leete Jackson taking first in the nine-hole flight for beginners.

Herb Schroeder, club pro, also announced that approximately 65 golfers had entered the club championship tourney, with an additional 30 or 35 contestants expected before the Saturday deadline.

ECONOMY MILLS WINS

Jesse Clark hurled the Economy Mills softball nine to a 14-5 triumph over Bennett Motors in an Industrial loop tussle Wednesday afternoon.

Cleveland Fans May Set Record

CLEVELAND, Aug. 4. (AP) — Pennant feverish Cleveland fans, setting the pace for major league baseball attendance, will break another turnstile record tomorrow when the Indians play Washington.

That's assuming, of course, it doesn't rain—a not unreasonable assumption considering rain checks haven't meant a thing to 1,516,257 customers who've paid their way into the Lake Front stadium on the 39 playing dates there so far this season.

With 26 home dates left, the league-leading Tribe is within 5,721 of equalling the 1,521,978 gate here for all of last season. Even the most optimistic fans didn't regard the 1947 fourth-placers as pennant contenders, but they turned out in numbers that swept away the 1,057,289 record set in 1946 when crowd-conscious Bill Veeck became Tribe president.

Advance sales indicate hitting 2,000,000 at the big municipal bowl this year will be easy. In fact, the Tribe's front office is shooting at the major league all-time season record of 2,265,512 set by the New York Yankees in 1946.

Dodgers, Methodist Men Win Kid Games

Dave Allen's ninth inning home run with one man out gave the Dodger a 4 to 3 win over the Yankees in a Pee Wee League tilt Wednesday afternoon at the Lubbock Boys Club. In the Junior League affair Methodist men defeated the Kiwanis Club, 9-5.

Besides gaining credit for the mound triumph, Allen batted out a single and a double in four times up for the Dodgers. The Dodgers were behind in the last of the seventh, 3 to 1, when Bobby Owens singled to drive in two runs and place the game on a three all basis. Nothing more happened until the last of the ninth, when Allen's homer over the leftfield fence gave his nine the victory.

In the Junior League tussle, Billy Presley banged out three doubles in four for the Men and Ralph Murphy got a single and a triple in three. Harold Gibson got two singles in four for the losing Kiwanis Club.

The Red Sox and the White Sox will tangle in the Pee Wee League game today and Methodist Men will play the ABC nine in the Junior league tilt.

SANDERS BEATS VFW

Leyman Branch's no-hit, no-run hurling gave Sanders Motors an 8-0 win over the Veterans of Foreign Wars in an Industrial Softball league tilt Wednesday afternoon.

STRONG AMERICAN LEGION TEAM FROM EL PASO—The Rollins Mercury nine, with a season's record of 15 victories against five defeats, will be one of the teams entered in the American Legion regional tournament at Rosenthal Field. This tournament, which gets underway today, will bring together teams from El Paso, Lamesa, Wichita Falls and Lubbock, with the championship game Saturday night. The Mercury nine lost four of its five games by one-run margins and boasts a five-game winning streak at the end of the season. Last Sunday the Mercurys played a warm up game with Las Cruces, N. M., divisional champs, and won 5-0 behind one-hit pitching. The picture above shows the El Paso team in uniform in the usual order, front row, Peter Martinez, of; Merced Martinez, of; Jose Corona, 2b; Ramon Lopez, p; and Mickey Ybarra, of. Martin's Double Sparks Attack

Jewelrymen Beat Baldridge, 6 To 3

Glenn Martin's double in the top of the seventh drove in three runs to give the Thomas Jewelers a 6-3 victory over Baldridge Bakery in the opening tilt of the South Plains Softball league Shaughnessy playoff Wednesday night at Jumbo Webster field.

The score was deadlocked at 3-3 going into the seventh, but Martin's timely blow with the bases loaded provided the margin of victory for the Jewelers.

G. W. Warden hurled brilliantly to gain credit for the mound win, while big Loy Hubbard was charged with the defeat.

Cloverlake Dairy took a forfeit win over Golden Light Coffee Wednesday in the Shaughnessy bracket, when the Coffeemen were unable to field a complete team for the scheduled tussle.

Another playoff double bill is scheduled tonight, with Thomas meeting Baldridge in the opener at 8:30 and Golden Light tangling with Cloverlake at 9:45.

The first round playoff is being conducted on a two of three games basis.

Sports Study

By Earl Scudday

The recent announcement by Detroit Tiger officials of the signing of a young prospect, Henry Frank House, jr., of Bessemer, Ala., for an estimated bonus of $75,000 is certain to add fuel to an already blazing fire in the major loops. Opponents of the "big bonus" deals, who put across the much-criticized restrictions on the handling of bonus players, are now busy trying to find some effective way of stopping the payments of $50,000 and $75,000 going to untried rookies. The bonus rule in effect, which regulates the "farming out" procedure of bonus players, has hurt the clubs and the players and yet failed to halt the payment of big bonuses to top prospects.

Actually, the bonus rule now in force has also injured some deserving players in the minor loops. Because of the restrictions on how a rookie bonus player may be sent down to lower classification, many of the youthful performers are riding the benches on major league clubs, while deserving players in the minors are being kept out of the big time. And such a situation is certain to develop unpleasantness on all sides. An able player who has spent five or more years in working up through the minors can only feel bitter when he is kept out of the majors because the Reds or the Bosox have paid some good-looking prospect $60,000 to sign a contract. And that same 'prospect' faces a tough problem in trying to play major league ball without sufficient experience and instruction.

There is, of course, the probability that the situation will adjust itself as soon as the first depression, or recession arrives. With the fans pouring through the gates at record rates, most of the club officials feel no qualms about parting with thousands of dollars for a good prospect. But as soon as business and economic levels start to recede, most club moguls will take a more cautious attitude toward the spending of so much long green. And, under the same conditions, a bonus of even $5,000 will look more attractive to most youngsters than the average run of jobs open for boys of that age and experience.

Unless conditions do change before too much longer, however, parents will really be "on the spot." Many fathers will have to decide whether little Johnny is more useful mowing the lawn and washing the car or working on his high, hard one with a neighborhood nine. And in school the teachers will have to make problems like, "If you get paid a bonus of $50,000, and the income tax rate remains the same, how much money can you put in the bank?" standard procedure.

Maybe the report card of the future will include grades on "throwing ability, speed on the base paths and hitting percentage." And perhaps something like, "work hard and some day you'll be a pitcher with the Indians," will replace the time-worn pleas to wayward youngsters.

Games Slated At Rosenthal Field

West Texas' top four American Legion junior baseball nines—Lubbock, Lamesa, Wichita Falls and El Paso—will open the final race for the Area 1 diamond championship with an initial tournament double bill starting at 12:30 o'clock this afternoon at Rosenthal field.

Pairings for the first two games of the area tourney, which will determine the team to represent West Texas in the state meet at Paris Aug. 12-15, will be announced following a drawing at 9 o'clock this morning at Legion headquarters. A second doubleheader will get underway at 7:30 o'clock tonight, with the losers of the afternoon games meeting in the opener and the winners clashing in the nightcap.

One Game Friday

Since the tourney is being scheduled on a double elimination bracket, one of the bi-district representatives will be ousted from competition following a loss in opening tilt tonight.

A single game is scheduled Friday night at the field, then the championship game—or games—will be played Saturday night. The Friday setto is slated to start at 8:30, with the Saturday bill opening an hour earlier, at 7:30.

The Lubbock Legion team, with a record of 15 victories and five defeats against top opponents, is rated a slight favorite in the area meet, with Lamesa and El Paso both ranked as extremely dangerous contenders. Wichita Falls, with one of the top 'teen-age pitchers in the state, could upset the more highly- regarded nines, but reportedly does not have enough reserve strength to survive the fast tournament pace.

The Lubbock nine, winner of the area crown in 1947, has chalked up wins over Odessa, Big Spring, Spur, Slaton, Clarendon and Wichita Falls this summer, while losing a single encounter to Lamesa and three tilts with the powerful Altus, Okla., crew. The Hub city boys defeated Wichita Falls, 3-2, in the only meeting of the two nines, but absorbed an 8-6 loss to the Lamesans in a non-conference tussle.

Lamesa Has Top Record

Lamesa has the best won-lost record in the tourney, boasting 15 victories and a single defeat. Lamesa's only district defeat was a 5-4 loss to Midland, that in a 10-inning thriller. The Lamesans will be bulwarked by one of the top mound staffs in the area, featuring right-handers Bill Hart, Donald Conner and Bobby Hawkins and Lefty Royce King.

The El Paso representatives, with a 15-won, five-lost mark, could be the real "dark horse" of the meet. The Border city crew has been hampered by injuries most of the season, but is now back in top shape. Most of El Paso's hopes will hinge on the mound efforts of Pitcher Ramon Lopez, a two-year veteran who has a no-hit, no-run game to his credit.

Another hurler, Wendell McCulley, is the chief threat of the Wichita Falls nine. McCulley, a 16-year-old right-hander, pitched two no-hit games with the high school team this spring and also has three one-hitters on his record sheet. McCulley, who averages 14 strikeouts per game, has been defeated only once this year— that by the strong Altus squad.

Wilson May Start

Either Jim Wilson, lanky right-hander, or Lefty Jackie Martyn, ace port-sider, will start on the mound for Lubbock in the initial battle, with Jack Cook behind the platter. Jesse Fullerton will get the nod at first, and other starters will include Charles Galey, stellar second-sacker; Jack Whitehead, third; Bob Brown, short; Dorrance Guy, left field; Jimmy Richards, center field; and Garnet Reeves, right field.

Acting Coach H. J. McCabe is expected to save his star right-hander, slender Hulen Fowler, for the crucial Saturday night tilts—or the Friday night game if Lubbock should lose today.

Tickets, priced at 50 cents for adults, will be on sale at the box office at noon, officials have announced.

Port Arthur Favored In Fall Grid Race

ABILENE, Aug. 4. (AP)—Port Arthur, Kerrville and Waco were put on the spot in the 1948 Texas schoolboy football race today in forecasts of championship prospects at the Texas coaching school.

Port Arthur comes up with 17 lettermen and is rated the powerhouse of the deep south. Kerrville, also well fortified with veterans, gets the call in the south-central regions, and Waco is the central Texas favorite.

On up the map Highland Park (Dallas), Odessa and Amarillo were picked among the area standouts although Odessa, a semi-finalist last year, lost heavily from its 1947 squad.

Other teams rated of district championship caliber included Childress in district 2, San Angelo in district 3, Bowie (El Paso) in district 4, Denison and Bonham in district 5, Breckenridge and Weatherford in district 7, Gladewater and Henderson in district 8, Palestine and Lufkin in district 10, Goose Creek in district 12 and San Benito and McAllen in district 14.

This is the class AA race.

In the newly-formed city conference, which this year also decides a state champion, Forest (Dallas), Arlington Heights (Fort Worth), Jeff Davis (Houston) and Burbank (San Antonio) were prominently mentioned to represent the four districts in the title playoff.

Woodrow Wilson (Dallas), Poly (Fort Worth) and Brackenridge (San Antonio), the 1947 state champion, also were given good ratings.

All coaches agreed that it was difficult to appraise the prospects because of inroads made by the eight-semester rule which went into effect this year. Many boys who otherwise would have been held over for another season of football are ineligible under this rule.

Coach Kellow's Brownfield High School Gridders Show Promise

BROWNFIELD, Aug. 4 (Special) — Brownfield High School gridsters will start the season off in top-flight shape if the coaches' present plans succeed.

Tracy Kellow, new head coach and his assistant, Farris Nowell, are looking for a suitable campsite where the squad can go into training when Interscholastic league rules permit.

Prospects for the Brownfield eleven are bright, observers report, although some top-flight men were lost this spring. Some of the younger boys have gained weight this summer and show promise.

Yankees Sweep Hurdles Event

LONDON, Aug. 4 (AP)—American track and swimming stars earned two more gold Olympic medals today as Bill Porter of Northwestern led his mates to a clean sweep of the 110-meter high hurdles and Ukelele Bill Smith of Honolulu splashed to a surprising triumph in the 400-meter free style swim race.

At the end of five full days of competition, Uncle Sam's men's track team held an overwhelming lead with eight first place winners in 16 events and a total of 156 points. Sweden, the nearest competitor, was hopelessly outdistanced with 44 points.

In swimming Smith's success gave the American men their fourth straight triumph. It was their third successive new record in the water races.

Porter Smashes Record

The 22-year-old Porter skimmed over the sticks in Olympic record time of 13.9 seconds to smash the old mark set by Forrest Towns for America in the 1936 games at Berlin.

It was an American show with Clyde Scott, the football star from Navy and Arkansas, and Craig Dixon of UCLA running close together in the early stages. When Porter put on his final spurt he edged Scott and Dixon who were clocked in 14.1, equalling the old standard.

The hurdlers' triumph was as complete as the shot-putters yesterday who also swept the first three places in the finals.

Smith's swimming victory, coming late in the day after the track events were completed, was surprising because Jimmy McLane, the 17-year-old lad from Akron, Ohio, and Andover Academy, was expected to launch a double in this 400-meter race. He is favored to take the 1,500-meter event later in the week.

Old Figures Wiped Out

Although McLane had set a new Olympic record of 4:42.2 in a trial heat, Smith was too much for him in the finals when he hung up the new Olympic mark of 4:41. These figures obliterated the figures Jack Medica of Seattle, Wash., established at Berlin in 1936 when he won in 4:44.5.

The men's diving team, reduced to two members because of the injury to Miller Anderson of Ohio State, ranked one-two after four of the eight dives in the high diving competition that will be finished tomorrow.

Dr. Sammy Lee, the army medic from Pasadena, Calif., was out front with 51.51 points to 48.94 for Bruce Harlan of Ohio State, the Olympic springboard champ.

Hollander Performs

The crowd of 75,000, including the king and queen of England, thrilled to the brilliant performance of Mrs. Fanny Blankers-Koen of Holland, a golden-haired housewife, who won her second title in the 80-meter hurdles. Mrs. Blankers-Koen beat her own world record for the distance by scooting home in 11.2 seconds.

As she already had taken the 100-meter race, Mrs. Blankers-Koen had a chance to eclipse the fine performance of Babe Didrikson—now Mrs. Mildred Zaharias—who had two firsts and a second in 1932 at Los Angeles. Mrs. Blankers-Koen withdrew from the broad jump but she also is entered in the high jump and relay.

Finland Wins First

After leading the qualifiers into the javelin finals, Martin Biles of the University of California dropped into sixth place as Maj. Routavaar of Finland won with a throw of 228 feet 10½ ins. Dr. Steve Seymour of Los Angeles was second and Bob Likins of San Jose state college was eighth.

Heats in the 400-meter race for men attracted almost as much attention as some of the finals for Mal Whitfield, the 800-meter Olympic winner from Ohio State, is the only male track and field competitor who still has a chance for a double win.

Al Getz Cops Mat Feature

Al Getz, the durable Dutchman from Pittsburgh, won a surprise victory over Karl Gray in the main event of the wrestling card at Sled Allen's arena Wednesday night, as the tough Gray was disqualified in the crucial third fall for throwing Getz out of the ring.

Gray took the first fall of the feature setto in just six minutes with a body smother and, after Getz had evened the count with a toe hold, seemed well on his way to victory in the decisive third fall. But Gray, in a burst of enthusiasm, hurled Getz over the top rope of the ring and into the laps of the paying customers.

Gorilla Poggi, veteran grappler who served as referee for the Wednesday feature, promptly awarded the bout to Getz.

Gil Knutson, the bone-setter from Davenport, Iowa, used a reverse crab to defeat speedy George Curtis in the two of three falls semi-final tussle. Knutson took the first fall in 18 minutes with a half nelson, but Curtis rebounded to take the second decision with a series of drop kicks and a body smother. Knutson then used his reverse crab to clinch the win.

Rowdy Pat O'Dowdy of Big Spring and Bill Hickson, Knoxville, Tenn., grappler, battled to a 20-minute draw in the preliminary.

Tech Net Stars Lead In Tourney

Late rallies gave Texas Tech netters Jake Broyles and Joe Wheatley an 8-6, 7-5, first round victory over defending champions Eddie Scudday and David Hester in the men's open doubles division of the City-Wide tennis tournament Wednesday afternoon at the Tech courts.

Scudday and Hester nearly upset the favored Broyles-Wheatley duo with an attack directed at Wheatley, chalking up a 4-2 game lead in the first set. But Broyles' smashing service and a series of sharp placements deadlocked the count at 5-5, then at 6-6. Wheatley took his service to make the game score 7-6 and Broyles and Wheatley broke through Scudday's service to clinch the set.

Broyles took a semi-final men's open singles match from Hubert Burgess, jr., 6-0, 6-3, in another clash Wednesday.

Mrs. Alfred Strehli scored an upset victory over Virginia Broyles in the women's singles bracket 4-6, 6-3 and 7-5. Mrs. Strehli dropped the first set under Broyles' sharp forehand, but rallied to take the second and third contests.

In other matches Harold Gans defeated Dan Scott, 6-0, 6-0, in the junior boys' novice singles division; James Burgess trounced George Sewell, 6-2 and 6-3; and David Clark and James Burgess defeated Sewell and Bo English 6-2, 6-4, in boys' doubles.

SCARBOROUGH TRADED FOR MILLER

Cotton Russell To Rejoin Hubs; Lone Star Loop Hurler Acquired

The Lubbock Hubbers received a double shot in the arm yesterday, when ailing pitcher Cotton Russell called from Fort Worth to say that he would not have to have an operation and a new hurler for the team was secured.

Russell, after examination by his family doctor, was advised to remain in bed for three or four days. This complete rest, he was assured, would quiet his chronic appendix and make it possible for him to report back to the team within the next few days. If he is able to throw off the attack, Russell might join the Hubbers at Borger.

Miller Joins Squad

The new pitcher is Roland Miller, a righthander, who has been playing with Henderson of the Lone Star League. He was brought to Lubbock in a straight trade for Charley Scarborough, the 28-year old rookie outfielder from Dallas.

Miller is about 23 years old, weighs 180 pounds and stands five feet 11 inches tall. This is his third year in organized ball, following his start with Charlotte of the Tri-State League in 1946. That year he won 16 and lost seven, going up to Chattanooga, Tenn., of the Southern Association, where he won seven and lost nine. He started the season with Chattanooga this year, winning four and losing three before being shipped to Henderson.

The new hurler will report to the Hubber Baseball club Friday and will be sent to Amarillo immediately to join the Hubbers. He may see action against the Gold Sox.

Through games of July 27, Scarborough had a batting average of .342, getting 135 hits in 395 trips to the plate and scoring 81 runs. He hit 29 doubles, five triples and 17 home runs, with eight stolen bases and three sacrifice hits. He drove in 87 runs, third highest on the team. Scarborough was walked 35 times and fanned on 46 occasions.

Famed New York Met Cancelling All Plans For 1948-49 Season

By JACK LOTTO
INS Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, Aug. 4.—New York's famed Metropolitan opera association announced today that as the result of labor troubles it is cancelling all plans for the 1948-49 season.

The action presages the first blackout of the internationally known "Met" in 50 years as the association dropped its options for first call on the world's top divas and male singers.

Fail To Finish Contracts

The decision was announced after failure of Metropolitan officials to negotiate new contracts with 12 employe unions who had been asking a 20 per cent wage increase.

George A. Sloan, chairman of the board of directors of the "Met," asserted that it was "impossible" to meet the union demands "in the face of the 1947-48 deficit" of nearly a quarter of a million dollars.

He said the decision to shut down the famed opera house was taken with the "greatest regret," but he declared that in view of the unions' stand there was nothing else to do but close.

Sloan recalled the proud history of the opera house, mecca of music lovers, and famous for its wealthy clientele, and declared:

"Since 1883, when the Metropolitan first opened, it has suspended operations only on two occasions—in 1882-83 when fire caused extensive damage, and in 1897-98 when financial reverses caused cancellation of one season."

May Be Resumed Later

The official said it would be "imprudent to the point of irresponsibility" for the Met to increase its present deficit of $220,000 "to meet further demands."

At the same time, he left the door open for the Met's reentry into the operatic field at some future date if it will be "economically possible."

Sloan declared:

"The board will consider ways and means of reestablishing the enterprise so that the production of opera in New York City, with Metropolitan standards, may be resumed another year."

Sloan said the Met "deplored" the effect its decision will have on musical life in New York and throughout the country, and regretted "this critical decision" which it had to make.

At the "final" conference today, it was learned, the unions scaled their demands down to 10 per cent, but the Met held out for "status quo" contracts because of "unfavorable financial prospects."

Sloan said negotiations with the unions were begun in February of this year in an effort to sign necessary contracts in time to plan for the new season.

Among unions involved is local 802 of the AFL American Federation of Musicians. It said the 92 members of the opera orchestra hadn't had a wage rise in two years above their current $139.50 a week. Stagehands and other backstage unions also were reported reluctant to settle for no increase.

Modern Youth Quits Simple Life, Turns To Scientific Field

By HAL BOYLE
Associated Press Staff Writer

NEW YORK, Aug. 3 — The younger generation makes me nervous.

It's too radio-active.

Every generation tends to think the next one is going to the dogs or the devil. But the one coming up isn't going to either. It's going to science.

Simple World Gone

The reluctant schoolboy of yore, full of callow puppy love and fear of the adult world, is as out-of-date as a Currier and Ives print. Today each schoolboy is his own Marco Polo and stuffed with a terrible sophistication.

Any superiority I ever felt over the younger generation was dissipated by reading of the exploit of the two Oklahoma kids who took a successful joyride in an airplane. Their teacher: a comics book.

At their age I was trying to learn how to swim and wondering how to make a sound like an eagle. I wanted to be a member of the Eagle Scout patrol.

What a simple, bare-footed world youth lived in then — only 25 years ago. It was some fun to paint signs like "oh, you kid" on your slickers. The high school hero was the boy who could repair a broken down jalopy.

Boys Build Atom Smasher

And today? Well, out in El Cerrito, Calif., four high school boys have built the 25th cyclotron ever constructed in the United States. The magazine, "Physics Today," estimates that before the war it cost $50,000 to build one of these atom-smashers. The four California high school boys put their gadget together for $600. And it has a million-electron-volt output, whatever that means.

They taught me the theory of the gasoline engine, and now bombers flit by on jet-propelled wings, and somehow I just can't get through my mind exactly what a jet is. Sure, I finally figured out vitamins. But why, just when I learn to spell penicillin, do I have to learn how to pronounce streptomycin?

I have never had much faith in the machine age, and as the years pass, I have even less. How can you have faith in anything that won't stand still?

Madly, madly, the gears grind faster, and on and on we go—uneasy passengers to where?

Ah, wilderness! I think I'll buy a chemistry set and start all over.

Thanksgiving Turkeys To Cost More Than Ever This Year

WASHINGTON, Aug. 4 (AP) — That Thanksgiving turkey will cost you more than ever this year, the Agriculture department forecast today.

The holiday birds retailed at about 60 cents a pound last November here in Washington.

The department also said there is no prospects of lower chicken and egg prices before next year. The reason: Farmers reduced poultry flocks the past year because feed grains were scarce as well as high.

However, latest crop reports for the feeding year beginning October 1 indicate the feed supplies will be largest on record. And department officials expect this to be a major factor in encouraging farmers to produce more poultry in 1949—thus trimming your Thanksgiving turkey outlay next year.

INSPECTING THE CARROTS—Ransom Walker, left, former Texas Tech Matador football star from 1926 to 1930, displays some of his rapidly maturing 300 acres of carrots to A. L. Hartzog, Floyd county agent. Walker, who with his family moved to Floydada in February to start this large scale truck farming program, also has bell pepper, baby lima beans, and lettuce crops either growing or ready to plant.

Ransom Walker, Former Tech Football Star, Fights To Make Success Of Big Carrot Patch

FLOYDADA, Aug. 4 (Special)—Back on the South Plains to fight new battles is a former Texas Tech football great, "Handsome Ransom" Walker.

His battles this year are against the elements in an effort to make a success of a mammoth carrot patch—some 300 acres in all.

Walker, who was on the Texas Tech Matador team from 1926 to 1930 and received his B. S. degree in agriculture in 1930, has lived at Mission since 1925. There he has been associated with Jim Parrish in operation of Parrish Farms, Inc.

Has Had Bad Luck

Walker came to Floydada in February, when the firm leased a half section of land 12 miles west of Floydada, where wheat formerly was grown.

Large irrigation wells with more than 1,000-gallon per minute capacity each were drilled. A $17,000 sprinkler system was purchased.

The land was plowed to a depth of nine to eleven inches over the entire area and the carrots planted on the tops of the furrows.

Walker has had some hard luck. Most of his earliest planting was destroyed by a torrential six-inch rain, and that portion of the crop had to be replanted.

"Part of the crop was saved by the wild grass," he explained. "Some of the crop was heavily interspersed with grass which kept the rain damage at a minimum."

That part of the crop will be ready for harvesting in about 30 days, as will eight acres of bell peppers which he has growing nearby. Walker is keeping his fingers crossed.

"We have a lot of weather hazards," he ruminated. "It's a hard fight, and it's all new out here. We just don't know what to do yet."

But barring heavy hail or other disaster, another 30 days will see a bumper crop of carrots.

Harvesting the crop will be on a mass-production basis. The 10 experienced Latin-Americans now on the plot, brought up from the Mission area, will be joined by 200 more.

The carrot fields will be plowed, loosening the soil, and the harvesting crew will go along the rows pulling the mature carrots from the freshly-loosened soil.

As they go along they will tie the carrots in bunches, about six to the bunch.

Then the tied bunches will be hauled into a packing plant Walker and Parrish are completing in Floydada. Here the carrots will be washed, crated, iced down and loaded aboard freight cars.

Most of the crop probably will be sent to Kansas City and other Midwestern markets, Walker predicted.

The lower quality carrots may be bagged and sold to canneries or other users who do not require top-grade products.

There are now 230 acres of carrots maturing on this land, with additional acreage just coming out of the ground. On another farm, five miles southwest of Lockney, Walker has another 40 acres of carrots maturing.

To make it a well-balanced project, there is also the eight-acre field of bell peppers, 50 acres of baby lima beans, and another tract ready for planting of a lettuce crop, which this year will be in the nature of an experiment also.

Of interest in his method of planting the peppers. They are planted in north-south rows, eight or ten rows separated by eight or ten rows of grain sorghums. The grain provides protection from the wind for the delicate pepper plants, and also provides a measure of protection against insects.

Walker is optimistic about the possibilities Floyd county has for large scale truck farming. He sees the prospect of making two crops on one field—early onions, for example, then carrots; or carrots and fall lettuce.

Movie Bad Man To Play Real Life Role In Robbery To Test New 'Detective' Camera

By DOROTHY MANNERS
INS Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 4 — Dan Duryea, movie bad man, will rob a Hollywood drug store Friday the 13th—and it is not for a scene in a movie!

Dan has agreed to be the "bandit" in an official demonstration before FBI and police officers of a new crime detecting camera. Invented by Sam Rifkin, Los Angeles furniture man, the automatic gadget can be installed in banks, jewelry stores or in homes. The slightest pressure on a concealed button starts actual filming of robberies and other crimes in progress.

If it is what they hope, the new camera will be the greatest "witness" ever presented in a courtroom.

The Duryea "robbery" takes place in a crowded drug store right at the height of the noon activity—and natch, they aren't telling the particular store.

New Star Gets Role

Beautiful, blonde Collette Lyons gets the comedy lead in "The Lone Wolf And His Lady" at Columbia. Studio has been turning out these "Lone Wolfers" for years, but this particular one gets the "A" treatment for a couple of good reasons.

The first is a build-up for Collette, who is a top singer and a natural for musical comedies. Last season, she got excellent reviews in the revival of "Show Boat" on Broadway, and was in "The Dolly Sisters" and "Frisco Sal" movies.

Second item of interest is that Ron Randall, Australian discovery, makes his Hollywood debut as the "wolf."

Comedies Lead Films

A trade paper makes an interesting analysis of the effect of current events on the box office. With war talk everywhere, comedies are booming at the ticket windows. The latest Abbott and Costello picture, "Abbott and Costello Meet Frankenstein," is cleaning up and is the No. 1 grosser in many parts of the country. It may even beat "Buck Privates."

Heavy dramas always take a nose dive when the real life going gets tough—witness "Mourning Becomes Electra."

Another odd observation is that war pictures get a big play in war times and die like dogs in peace times.

Increase In Postal Receipts At Lubbock Office Reported

Lubbock postal receipts for July showed an increase of 29.5 per cent over July 1947, Postmaster Amos Howard revealed today.

Receipts for July this year totaled $50,763.94 compared to $41,065.36 for July 1947.

Receipts for the first seven months of 1948 also have shown a substantial gain over the same period in 1947, the report revealed. Receipts thus far in 1948 total $182,703.98 compared to $173,005.40 for the same period in 1947.

BORDERLINE ANEMIA*
CAN BE A BAR TO BEAUTY!
When good looks fade and vitality falters—when you feel spent and look pale and drawn—it may be because your red blood cells are too faded and weak. You may have a Borderline Anemia, due to a ferro-nutritional blood deficiency. Medical studies say up to 68% of women—many men and children—are the weary, dreary victims of this Borderline Anemia.
If you have this Borderline Anemia, you need Ironized Yeast Tablets! They are specially formulated to help build up faded, puny red blood cells to healthy redness and size, and thus permit your color and vitality to come surging back. Of course, continuing tiredness and pallor may come from other causes—see your doctor regularly. But in this Borderline Anemia, take Ironized Yeast Tablets. Take them to reclaim your lost energy, your healthy color, your enjoyment of life!
*Due to a ferro-nutritional blood deficiency, a condition for which Ironized Yeast is specially formulated.

$500 Bond Set For Local Man

Bond of $500 was set Wednesday for Bud Olan Foreman, 33, of Idalou highway, after he entered a plea of innocent of a county court charge that he had committed an aggravated assault with a motor vehicle Sunday on Walter Eugene Brownfield, 20, of Lubbock route 1.

Foreman's car was in collision with one driven by Brownfield three miles east of Lubbock, investigators said. Brownfield was treated for contusions and bruises after the mishap.

Youths Still Sought

Still at liberty yesterday were two Brownfield youths who escaped sometime Monday night from Terry County jail by digging a hole in their cell wall with a commode lid and a hook torn off a jail bunk, authorities said.

One of the boys, Dale Webb, 13, had already been tried and was given an indefinite sentence in the Gatesville reform school. The other, Johnny Wright, 16, reportedly absent without leave from Scott Field, Ill., was awaiting trial. Both had been arrested on charges of having stolen a car from a Brownfield oil worker.

A 36-year-old Lubbock man was arrested late Wednesday afternoon in connection with a charge of drunken driving, police reports indicated. A formal charge will probably be filed sometime this morning, it was said.

The sheriff's office at Seminole reported the theft last night of a light green 1940 light sedan, bearing license number JT-3435, radio reports showed.

War On Meat Prices

made her own survey of meat markets and reported all of them said meat sales were down. One grocery reported it wasn't buying any more meats until the boycott was over. Another in the nearby community of Mauricevill said it would close its market next week and was asking others to do the same.

Houston Club Urges Boycott

Houston and Fort Worth housewives joined the movement Wednesday.

Mrs. J. Herman Thomas, who started the Fort Worth drive, said the women were eager to join the "don't buy" campaign.

The Friendly Neighbor club in Houston, with 24 members, was calling every listed number in the Houston and Pasadena telephone books asking people to buy no meat between Aug. 16 and 23.

Women had joined the movement also in Beaumont, Galveston, Abilene, Hamlin, Paris, Austin and Port Arthur.

In Houston Tom Cloud, market owner and president of the Retail Grocers association, said "the meat markets are with the women 100 per cent."

"Meat's too high," he said. "The only way to bring the prices down is to cut down on the demand."

Cloud said markets will be able to obtain more and better meat if the housewives are successful in their efforts to lower prices.

At Dallas, Otis Bryant, president of the Dallas Independent Retail Grocers association, said some grocers are "pretty disturbed' that a meat boycott might drive farm produce away from the Dallas market for a few weeks.

He said it might cause a scarcity of such products and result in higher prices.

A spokesman for a large group of Dallas independent grocery stores said that any drops in meat prices would be only temporary.

"The mechanics of the business do not allow a few customers to control it," he said.

But Mrs. R. D. Vaughn, whose army of 300 housewives was carrying the word by telephone in Dallas to boycott meat purchases next week, remained firm about the drive to force down meat prices.

"They don't have us on the run for a week. We'll do without meat until prices come down to stay."

Worker Injured In Fall From Lubbock Construction Project

H. N. Burroughs, an employe of Engineering Service and Supply company, was injured about 4 p. m. Wednesday in a fall from a construction project on Slaton highway near the city.

He was working on the new compress being erected there, and apparently fell a distance of about 10 feet to the ground, company officials said.

At St. Mary's hospital, where he was taken by a McDonald Funeral home ambulance, it was found that he had suffered a fracture of the wrist and other injuries. A full report on extent of injuries was not available last night, the hospital said.

Hiroshima

MacArthur.

At 8:15 a. m., exact moment of the bomb burst, Hiroshima's peace-minded Mayor Shinzo Hamai will raise the striker and toll the "peace gong" at the spot exactly under the center of the explosion.

The whole of Hiroshima will observe a moment of silence and pray for international peace.

Mayor Hamai has announced he's telegraphing "peace messages" to mayors of all the big cities of the world.

Last week the chamber of commerce sponsored an American innovation—a beauty contest to choose "Miss Hiroshima" from an assemblage of kimono-clad girls from throughout the prefecture.

Following the mayor's speech, "Miss Hiroshima" will release a flight of doves to wing upward over the city in the symbol of peace.

Poet Atsuo Oki will read a poem on Hiroshima and another message will be read from Lt. Gen. H. C. H. Robertson, commander of British commonwealth occupation troops which police Hiroshima.

Population Growth Rapid

Hiroshima's amazing recovery has maintained its pace the past year. The population rose by 37,000 and Col. Cloward predicts it will go on expanding beyond the pre-war level.

The city has elaborate plans to rebuild a model city, but material shortages hamper Hiroshima like any other Japanese city. Some streets have been widened and since the surrender 16,700 new buildings have mushroomed.

Most are one and two story wooden structures but many have stone or cement facades.

Military government officials discount reports of oversize vegetables grown in the atomized soil of Hiroshima as "a lot of talk."

Both American and Japanese sources confirm that Hiroshima's women are giving birth normally.

Nine Victims Being Treated

Crippled limbs and bodies scarred by the bomb blast are no longer visible to the casual visitor on the streets. Only nine victims are still under treatment at the Red Cross hospital.

But although they are not readily found, the sufferers are still there, as they are to be found at Nagasaki.

Dr. Takashi Nagai this week completed writing what probably will be his last book, "Introduction to Atomic Diseases."

Dr. Nagai is dying of injuries he received in the second atomic explosion at Nagasaki. Nagai was a student of radio-activity at Nagasaki's medical university, confined to bed and constantly wracked by high fever, Dr. Nagai has been analyzing his own symptoms.

Many visitors to Hiroshima are surprised that so little destruction is still visible. One of the tourist spots, however, is the T-shaped bridge used as a target by pilots of the atomic B-29.

City's Industries Hum

Industrially the city is buzzing. It is a rail center handling especially large shipments of lumber. Factories are busy making three wheel trucks and mining equipment. The pre-war needle factories have been revived.

In the past four months Hiroshima shipyards have launched four 110-ton fishing vessels.

The city's colleges have been organized into a new University of Hiroshima Ground has been broken for a new library sponsored by the occupation's civil information and education section.

Many plans are still on paper. If they work out Hiroshima will become a city of wide streets, modern public buildings and parks. There'll be a new "cultural center" and the university, now using the old buildings, will move to a new campus.

Smith Has Key Role

(In Washington Secretary of State George Marshall declined to say whether any new communication had been sent to the U. S. ambassador in Moscow or when any announcement will be made concerning results of the Moscow conversations.)

To observers here it seems evident that U. S. Ambassador Smith is playing a key role in the present situation.

He is the senior member of the western diplomatic trio here, and his recommendations are believed to have played a major part in the western power decision to make a new effort at a diplomatic solution with Moscow.

He is reported also to have intervened last Monday when "leaks" on the impending conversations began developing and to have personally urged that everyone keep silent while the delicate negotiations are proceeding.

Dorothy Tinsley, about 7 or 8, daughter by a previous marriage of W. R. Tinsley of Lubbock, died about 4:30 p. m. Wednesday of polio in a Pampa hospital where she had been taken late Saturday afternoon. Funeral services will be held at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon in the First Presbyterian church at Pampa, it was learned here. The child had been living in Pampa with her mother, Mrs. Rosemary Tinsley.

Condition of Mary Freeman, 23, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Freeman of 1924 Twenty-first street, who has been in Lubbock Memorial hospital since July 4 for treatment of peritonitis, was described by the family Wednesday as improved but still serious. Another blood transfusion was scheduled for sometime today, and the family said that she would probably undergo surgery in the near future.

Condition of G. T. Mason, jr., two and a half-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Grover T. Mason of the Graham community, was described Wednesday by an attending physician at Lubbock Memorial hospital as "noticeably improved in the last several days." The infant, Garza county's first polio victim this year, still is suffering from residual weakness in both legs. He entered the hospital July 16.

Suicide Note Found

have been a woman dressed in slacks.

Police also were not overlooking the possibility that the whole affair might have been a hoax.

The note said in part:

"I regard this among the most sordid things I ever attempted. God knows, I should succeed in this one mission . . . The sun, if there is such a planet, is setting and my life is going out with it."

Another paragraph read:

"You have done very well, haven't you Elizabeth? I suppose you intend to go to Hollywood when you are through with them and they are through with you."

"Leon" Mentioned

The note said that "sensationalism is a part" of the addressed Elizabeth's "very fiber, and your beliefs—your secret beliefs, even run parallel."

It then added this cryptic paragraph:

"Leon spelled it out for us, Elizabeth. He warned us of the turning point and he defined the differences between what it was in the beginning, and the 'now.' "

Police had no explanation for "Leon."

(There has been no mention of anyone named "Leon" in the current spy hearings in Washington. Senate and House investigators said they had no suggestions as to who "Leon" might be.)

The note also said that she did not want her baby to suffer as she did. And it added, "so I am taking it with me."

In conclusion the note said:

"Nobody will care about my name except Elizabeth."

MISS BENTLEY SAYS SHE DOESN'T KNOW WOMAN

WASHINGTON, Aug. 4 (INS)—Elizabeth T. Bentley, reformed Red Spy said that "to the best of my knowledge I don't know anybody in San Francisco."

Miss Bentley was informed that an apparent suicide note found on Golden Gate Bridge today was addressed to "Dear E.T.B." and mentioned the name "Elizabeth."

She said:

"I can't think of any woman with a baby out there that I know.

"To the best of my knowledge, I don't know anybody in San Francisco."

tary circles has there been any marked change of sentiment, or attitude about the outlook, since the meeting between Stalin and the American, British and French representatives. The shadings of opinion have not changed.

Talks Regarded As Crisis

That is, some officials believe war can and will be avoided, others that it can but that the odds are somewhat weighted against avoidance, and still others who feel it is inevitable.

Where there is a considerable degree of agreement is on this point:

That we may now be passing through the period of greatest danger. The whole issue of peace or war may be in the balance.

This conclusion is based on the view that Russia sooner or later would be forced, by time and the river of events, to make a sharp and definite decision. The decision would be whether, in terms of Communist objectives, the present policies can be continued, or whether nothing less than direct action could advance them.

Reds Suffered Setbacks

Since last spring, the Soviets have received a series of setbacks.

They were defeate in the Italian elections. They failed to obtain concessions from Finland. They were again rebuffed in France. They have seen the beginnings of a western union. And within their own orbit, Yugoslavia, a serious and remarkable dissension has surfaced.

As these actions developed, political experts in Washington began to expect a moment of decision.

GOP Seeking End To Session

payment on such things as automobiles, stoves, house furnishings, and electrical appliances. The remainder had to be paid in 15 months.

2. In order to "prevent injurious credit expansion," the Federal Reserve system until next March 31 may change reserve requirements of member banks as follows:

(A) Reserves against time deposits, up to seven per cent. The top requirement now is six per cent.

(B) Reserves against demand deposits— in central reserve bank cities (New York and Chicago) the maximum requirement can be increased from the present 26 per cent to 29; in reserve city banks, from 20 per cent to 23; in country banks, 14 to 17 per cent.

GOP Measure Hit

3. Every Federal Reserve bank shall maintain reserves in gold certificates of not less than 35 per cent against its deposits, and reserves in gold certificates of not less than 40 per cent against its federal reserve notes in actual circulation. The present requirement in each category is 25 per cent.

The idea behind increasing the reserves is that the higher they are the less money the banks will have to put out in inflationary loans.

Rep. Patman (D-Tex.), banking committee member, opened fire on the Republican measure. He issued a statement that it would have a devastating effect on our economy" and predicted President Truman would veto it.

Debate Is Limited

Republicans decided to present the measure to the House under procedures limiting degate to 40 minutes and requiring a two-thirds vote to pass the bill.

Patman predicted almost solid Democratic opposition and raised doubt whether Republicans can muster a two-thirds vote. There are now 244 Republican seats in the House and 185 Democratic.

The Republican housing bill was approved by a special Senate-House committee composed of members of the banking groups of both chambers. It has still to be acted upon by Senate and House.

Laying stress on low-cost homes, McCarthy said it does "nothing at all to liberalize loans on homes above $10,000."

Southern Demos Win

Republican abandonment of the anti-poll tax bill was a clear-cut victory for southern Democrats after a five-day fillibuster.

As soon as a motion was lodged last Thursday to bring up the anti-poll tax bill, southern Democrats began erecting a wall of words around the subject. They refused to yield to anyone except other senators pledged to kill the measure.

Because the debate involved a motion, not a bill, presiding officer Vandenberg (R-Mich) ruled that it was impossible to apply the debate-limiting cloture rule. Southerners could, and did, talk as long as they wanted.

May Change Senate Rules

As a tentative compromise, some GOP leaders suggested that instead of passing a bill against the poll tax, the matter be voted on by the people in the form of a constitutional amendment. Southern Democratic leaders had indicated they would not filibuster against such a proposed amendment.

But at today's Republican conference, the compromise plan apparently was tossed overboard in favor of another effort to pass the anti-poll tax bill next year.

Chairman Millikin (R-Colo) said Republican senators after long discussion decided a further attempt to pass the poll tax law now is futile but committed themselves to an effort to change Senate rules in January so debate may be limited.

This would allow the Senate to invoke cloture, halt a southern filibuster, and pass the bill.

But Senators Tydings and O'Connor, Maryland Democrats, introduced a proposal to amend the constitution to prohibit poll taxes.

Even as the GOP anti-inflation bill was being whipped into shape in committee, Secretary of the Treasury Snyder appeared before the House Banking group and pleaded for credit controls.

Senator Taft (R-Ohio), GOP leader, said he personally favors giving the administration additional controls over consumer credit and bank reserves until July 1, 1949.

Meanwhile, Secretary of Agriculture Brannan told the Senate Banking committee that something should be done about food prices, particularly meat prices.

He said meat costs, already at a record high, will go even higher this summer unless positive action is taken.

McCarthy outlined the GOP housing bill as follows:

1. Allows the Federal Housing administration to insure loans up to 95 per cent on homes costing $6,000 or less. The present limit is 90 per cent.

2. Permits homes costing $4,500 to become eligible for loans under title 1 of the present National Housing act, the title applying to very inexpensive homes. The present limitation on costs is $3,000. The new bill also increases by $35,000,000 the amount of money available for title 1 homes.

Secondary Market Provided

3. Makes $80,000,000 available for the so-called title 6 rental housing loans. Large scale rental projects come under this title. The new bill establishes a limitation of $8,100 per apartment.

4. Permits construction loans of up to 90 per cent on homes costing $7,500 or less in projects of at least 25 family units. McCarthy said this may be reduced to 80 per cent.

5. Liberalizes loans to pre-fabricated home manufacturers.

6. Authorizes the Federal National Mortgage association, a Reconstruction Finance corporation subsidiary, to provide a secondary market for 50 per cent, instead of 25 per cent as now, of all loans made subsequent to April 30, 1948. This applies to all guaranteed loans to veterans or FHA insured loans.

7. Establishes a division in the housing and home financing agency to work toward "a standardization of codes and measurements."

8. Guarantees a return of 2.75 per cent on equity investments in rental property. McCarthy said this provision was aimed principally at insurance companies.

the bill itself Rather, it has been pegged to a motion to take up the bill, or to the appeal which Senator Taft (R-Ohio) made against Vandenberg's parliamentary ruling.

Efforts Are Futile

Senator Millikin of Colorado, chairman of the Republican senators conference, said after today's closed-door session that the fight to pass the poll tax bill at this session was "futile." The House approved the bill months ago. It would outlaw collection of the poll tax as a prerequisite for voting in federal elections. Seven southern states now have the tax.

Millikin said there was some discussion at the meeting of presenting the anti-poll tax issue in the form of a proposed constitutional amendment rather than as legislation. The southerners have indicated they would not oppose such an approach, although they resent the anti-poll tax bill as an unconstitutional invasion of states' rights. Millikin reported, however, that no attempt would be made by his side at this time to put across a constitutional amendment.

Nevertheless, two Democratic senators, Tydings and O'Conor of Maryland, introduced a proposal for such a change in the basic charter. Tydings said: "If the Republicans really want to eliminate the poll tax, here's their opportunity. Let them put up or shut up."

An amendment would have to be approved by two-thirds majorities of Senate and House and by three-fourths of the states to become effective.

Indicted Red Party Leader Surrenders In Cleveland

CLEVELAND, O., Aug. 4 (INS)—Chairman Gus Hall of the Ohio Communist party surrendered today to Cleveland federal authorities on a charge of advocating overthrow of the U. S. government.

Hall, one of 12 U. S. Communist leaders indicted by a New York federal grand jury, had been sought since July 20.

He was given a preliminary hearing before U. S. Commissioner H. A. Horn and released on $5,000 bond. He will be given another hearing Friday.

TEL AVIV, Israel, Aug. 4 (AP)—The Israeli government announced today it has warned UN mediator Count Folke Bernadotte that if a British-manned UN plane lands in an Israeli airport, the crew will be detained. Britain has assigned five two-engined passenger planes with crews to Bernadotte.

commission. The labor camp, he said it was proposed, would be operated by the City-County Welfare association.

No Legal Authority

County Auditor Joe Y. Boyd, asked by the court whether there is legal authority for such a contribution, said there is none provided under state law. The county commissioners court operates under laws of the state, he said, and explained that classification of expenditures authorized by the court is closely defined.

Commissioners said there was yet another bar to such a contribution by the county. Each of the four commissioners precincts would be entitled to similar consideration, else there would be patent "discrimination," it was suggested. And Slaton, which at its own expense constructed a labor camp after the commissioners court had declined to participate financially, automatically would become entitled to receive a pro rata share of expenses incurred if the other precincts were to get labor camps, it was explained.

Benefits Are Explained

Halsey and his committee had suggested in broaching the proposal that general good would result from establishment of the labor camp; to the businessman as well as the farmer. He said crops would be gathered with less delay, because facilities for laborers would entice itinerants in larger numbers to appear here earlier in the fall than usual.

That Slaton camp, the commission was told, was "more than paying operating expenses." Some units are rented in the off-crop season, it was explained.

Commissioners voted to pay $3,000 to O. W. McLeod, at the rate of $500 an acre, the rest being classified as damages, for right-of-way on the Ave. A line northeast of Lubbock, on a cutoff to the old Plainview highway near Lubbock Country club. Acquisition of that right-of-way will clear the entire segment for expected letting soon of a road construction contract, it was announced.

The court also voted $25 to repay Paul Terry for crop damage in connection with road construction on highway 87 southeast of the city.

All commissioners were present: R. O. Short, Ben Mansker, Ottis Isom and Pat Corley. County Judge Walter Davies presided, and Louie F. Moore, county clerk, took notes of the proceeding.

Grain Price Discussed

ing to $2.35 per 100 pounds.

He observed the biggest handicap to this method is that the grain would have to be sacked and stored in bags.

Investigation Urged

This would cost the farmer about 30 cents per hundredweight, including the cost of sacking and bags, but would leave him better off than at present with the current price of about $1.85 per hundredweight, Poage added.

Hammond had complained in a wire to Poage that some bonded warehouses apparently were refusing to accept grain sorghum direct from farmers but were storing that which was brought in to them by grain speculators.

Poage said he suggested to Hammond that the farm bureau should make an investigation of this matter, adding that any warehouse guilty of such practice could have its state license revoked.

Mahon said he plans to offer a bill reinstating authority of the Commodity Credit corporation to rent warehouse space for storage of grains it holds as security on loans.

Plainsman District Scouters, Cubbers Hold Supper Meeting

Scouters and cubbers of the Plainsman district held a round-table meeting and supper last night in Scout park, Pat Lewis, field scout executive, announced.

Following a hot-dog supper served by the activities committee, considerable planning for the fall months was done, Lewis said. Such planning included the exhibits of Scouts and cubs at the Panhandle-South Plains fair, and the annual fall round-up to be held early in September. The latter event consists of an extensive Scout recruiting program, organization of new units and planning for a general ceremonial to be conducted in early December.

Bill Postma, district Scout executive, announced that the swimming pool at Camp Post would probably be ready for use by next spring's camping session.

Plans were also announced for a council-wide cubber's pow wow to be held sometime during the first week of October.

A regional scoutmasters' round table will be held next Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. in the home of Bill Dennis, scoutmaster of Troop 9, Lewis said.

Forty-five persons, including committeemen, scoutmasters, cubmasters and commissioners, attended last night's gathering. Most troops in the city were represented in the meeting, Lewis stated.

TOURISTS TO BE WISED UP

LURAY, Va. (UP)—Shenandoah National Park authorities are planning guided tours to teach tourists something of flora and fauna in the park. They also are to emphasize the difference between poison ivy and summer sumac.

Red 'Protected'

Service commission looked upon Silvermaster as a Communist. And Elizabeth Bentley, who says she was formerly a Soviet agent, repeated her story that Silvermaster furnished information that went to Russia. She said she was a courier for secrets released by many government officials, and that Silvermaster headed a group of employes with whom she dealt.

Refuses To Answer

The Vassar graduate entered the hearing while Silvermaster was testifying and was asked to stand.

"Do you know Elizabeth Bentley?" he was asked.

"I refuse to answer on the grounds that any answer might incriminate me," Silvermaster replied.

This was his stock answer to a rapidfire series of questions including: "Are you now or have you ever been a member of the Communist party?"

He did however deny her charges as "false and fantastic."

Information Refused

The committee is digging into stories that Soviet spy rings honeycombed the government during the war. Tomorrow it will hear Alger Hiss, former State department emoloye who helped get the United Nations started. Whittaker Chambers, who describes himself as a former Communist, testified yesterday that Hiss was a onetime leader in the Red underground in Washington. Hiss has denied it.

On the Senate side, an expenditures subcommittee tried and failed to learn from Secretary of the Navy John L. Sullivan whether William W. Remington was discharged from his Naval Reserve commission for security reasons.

Sullivan Testifies

Remington, 30, is a Commerce department official named by Miss Bentley as one source of government secrets she gave Russian agents. Remington said he thought she was a newspaper reporter and denied she got anything secret. He has disclosed that he resigned his naval commission by request in 1947.

Sullivan was called before the senators after three admirals had refused to talk about Remington's discharge. Chairman Ferguson (R-Mich) told Sullivan that the committee only wanted to know whether security was involved in the case. The senator has charged that Remington was allowed to transfer from one confidential government job to another while the FBI was checking on him.

To Ask Truman

Sullivan and the admirals referred to President Truman's executive order dealing with loyalty records in declining to go into the case.

Mr. Truman last April told all executive agencies not to disclose secret files bearing on the government's loyalty checks of its employes.

Sullivan agreed to take it up with Mr. Truman.

Russell, the committee investigator assigned to the Silvermaster case said he learned that as far back as 1920 Silvermaster was regarded as an "underground agent" of the Communist party. Since then, he testified, evidence indicates Silvermaster has been "everything from a fellow traveler to an agent for the OGPU (Russian secret police)."

Born In Russia

Files of west coast police, the FBI and others list Silvermaster as a Communist party member, Russell added.

Silvermaster told the committee he had worked for the government 12 years in various jobs. He said at the outset that he was born in Odessa, Russia, in 1905, although a prepared statement he read said he was born in 1898. He came to America in 1915 and was naturalized 12 years later, he related.

Robert E. Stripling, committee chief investigator, asserted that Silvermaster was not taken off the federal payroll "because he went to the White House and got Mr. Currie to go to Mr. Patterson on his behalf."

Wallaceite Mentioned

Stripling told reporters there was no indication that Patterson knew about the Civil Service commission report when he reportedly wrote the letter to Milo Perkins, then head of the Board of Economic Warfare, backing up Silvermaster.

Mundt said the letter's effect was to override both the Navy report and the civil service objections.

Currie has been named by Miss Bentley as having given the Communists "inside information on government policies" including a warning that the United States was on the point of solving a Russian code. She said, however, that Currie was not a Communist. Currie has denied all this and said he had never associated in any way with a Communist.

Silvermaster now lives at Harvey Cedars, N. J., and said he is in the house construction business.

Silvermaster said that another who intervened at the time Currie and Patterson saved his job was C. B. Baldwin, who was his boss. Baldwin now is campaign manager for Henry A. Wallace, candidate for president on the Progressive party ticket. He held various government jobs for many years.

GOP Dispute Flares

Vaughan's petition was to seek to determine if Temple or any members of a GOP delegation named at a so-called "rump" session at last Saturday's GOP county convention here to the state meeting in Waco Aug. 10, had voted in the Democratic primary. If such were the case it was believed that Vaughan would then request the state executive committee passing on which delegation to seat from Lubbock county to take such findings into consideration.

Commenting on his action Wednesday night, Vaughan, Republican leader in Lubbock county for almost a quarter a century until recently challenged by the Temple faction, said:

"I am acting only as a private citizen. The law provides that a list of the voters shall be filed with the county clerk for public information . . . I merely want to look over the list for my own information."

Vaughan explained that there had been no disagreement with Ellis over the list of voters, that the Demo county chairman after conferring with other officials had expressed a belief that he could not turn over the list to Vaughan without a court order. Therefore, the petition was filed as a matter of routine, Vaughan said.

Temple, when informed of Vaughan's latest move, said that he had not previously been advised that any such maneuver was afoot, but expressed confidence that it would not alter things to any degree.

Opposing Slates Named

A faction, headed by Temple, and naming Mrs. Wright Kerr as chairman, took over after a faction headed by Vaughan had completed a stormy meeting at the courthouse Saturday, and named its own slate to the Waco convention next Tuesday. Vaughan's faction also had named its own slate. Thus, the state executive committee likely must decide the issue. The Temple group had announced that it would enter a slate of Republican delegates for local and county offices in the November general election.

Vaughan is being represented by the law firm of Smith, Cunningham and Boling.

Judge Blair was in Crosbyton when the petition was filed to meet with counsel there in connection with perfection of appeal of W. Fred Jones, 38, from a death sentence from murder in connection with the Sept. 27, 1946 slaying of H. C. Love, Jr., 23, in Floydada. Bills of exception and the statement of fact were filed in that case, and Judge Blair returned to Lubbock late in the day.

It was learned, however, that a hearing on Vaughan's petition probably will be set for "the very near future."

New Search Ordered For Plane After Distress Signals Heard

PARIS, Aug. 4 (INS)—Mysterious distress signals sent seven U. S. B-29's and one B-17 off on a new search off the French West African coast today for a six-engined French airliner missing since Sunday with 52 passengers and crewmen.

The missing Air France luxury plane, the world's largest commercial airliner, vanished on a flight from Martinique, French island in the Caribbean, to Port Etienne, French West Africa. No Americans were known to be aboard the 79-ton air giant.

Aerial 'Divining Rod' Permits Prospectors To Take To Air In Search For Hidden Wealth

By PAUL F. ELLIS
United Press Staff Writer

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., Aug. 4 —A device that permits prospectors to take to the air in their search for oil, gold and other minerals was shown here today.

This 20th century divining rod is known as the airborne magnetometer, developed some years ago but just now winning a place in industry, particularly oil. Its greatest value is in prospecting in jungles and other inaccessible places.

Provides Oil Clues

In contrast to the divining rod of witch hazel with its forked end, the new device is housed in a bomb-like structure and trails from an airplane on a long cable. As pilots take the plane over an area, the delicate instrument measures the varying intensities of the earth's magnetic field.

The information thus obtained is translated by experts into magnetic contour maps.

These maps, it was explained, provide information concerning the structure of the basement rock many thousands of feet below the earth's surface. They furnish clues as to the possibility of oil or mineral accumulations in any particular area.

"Shoran" Also Used

Once the lead has been found, actual drilling or mining can begin.

Spokesmen for an oil company which is using the airborne magnetometer, said the device has put the company "years ahead of where the company would have been in the search for new oil deposits."

The device already has been used in making surveys in eastern and western Canada, an 85,000 square-mile ocean area in and around the Bahama islands, and in New Mexico, and South American jungles.

In using the new device, the scientists also employ shoran, a war-time navigational instrument, to determine at all times the exact location of the airplane. Such positions are correlated with the information picked up by the magnetometer.

Oil officials also said that the device will cut down the number of unsuccessful "wildcat" oil wells, saving both time and money in the quest for new oil deposits.

In other words, they said, much of the gamble in oil well prospecting may be eliminated.

Housewife Scores TKO Over Critic Of Meat Price Drive

AUSTIN, Aug. 4 (U.P.)—Mrs. Lila J. Markham, leader of Austin's non - meat - buying housewives, today claimed a tactical victory over a male critic.

She said she was asked by a man "who talked like a cattleman but wouldn't give his name," why housewives didn't fight the high price of steel as well as the high price of meat.

"Because," Mrs. Markham said she told him, "women plan their meals around meat instead of steel."

CAUGHT BARE-HANDED

Lubbock Boy Is Invited To Detroit Plane Contest

Herbert J. Longley, 2509 Twenty-third, has accepted an invitation to participate in Plymouth Motor corporation's second International Model Plane contest, to be held in Detroit, Mich., August 18-23.

The invitation places Longley among the select 500 model builders whose outstanding records in preliminary meets throughout the world brought them bids to the International.

Longley was invited to the International by a committee composed of D. S. Eddins, president of the Plymouth corporation; Dr. Walter A. Good, chairman of the Academy of Model Aeronautics; and Frank P. Sposite, contest director. He was selected by the committee from a list of approximately 700 applicants in the United States and seven foreign countries.

The international contest offers $7,875 in cash prizes and 142 trophies to winners in the events to be staged.

Fourth Postal Sub-Station Is Opened In Northwest Lubbock

A fourth postal substation opened in Lubbock Wednesday — this one at Henly's store, 208 N. College avenue.

The station will be a pick-up station only and all postal business conducted at the postoffice or at other substations will be handled at the new station with the exception of postal savings deposits.

No deliveries of mail will be made at the new station, which was established to serve the people of the Arnett-Benson addition in northwest Lubbock.

Invitation To Boys Club Event Is Extended Group

An invitation to bring their wives and attend the fourth annual birthday party barbecue of the Lubbock Boys' club, scheduled for 7 p. m. Friday at the club, was issued to Lubbock Exchange club members at Wednesday's Exchange club luncheon at Hotel Lubbock. The invitation was issued by A. C. Sanders, ABC member.

Commenting briefly on the progress of the Boys club since it opened Aug. 8, 1944, Sanders said that 898 boys are currently enrolled as members, that daily attendance at the club is usually in advance of 400, and that 1590 boys have been members since the opening four years ago.

The group also heard Roger Kuykendall explain final plans for the state Exchange club convention set in San Antonio Sept. 10-11, and learned that the club has made tentative plans to charter a bus for members desiring to make the trip.

Thad Edwards was introduced as a new member. Jim Reynolds presided.

Johnson, Stevenson Fire Opening Blasts Of Runoff

Two Candidates Sharply Split Over Foreign Policy Attitude

(By The Associated Press)

Texas' two senatorial candidates opened their runoff drive for votes Wednesday sharply divided on whether or not the nation's foreign policy is a campaign issue.

Lyndon Johnson said it is. Coke Stevenson said it isn't.

Stevenson spoke from Austin and Johnson from Houston. Johnson formally opens his campaign with a rally at Center Friday night. Stevenson plans to hit the road Monday, starting from Alvarado.

To Run As Independent

There were other political developments.

Dr. F. B. Clark of College Station, who withdrew from the first primary in the Senate race, announced he would run as an "independent Democrat" for the office in the November general election.

He said he had requested the Brazos county (Bryan) grand jury for an investigation of campaign expenditures by the "big three" in the Senate race: Johnson, Stevenson and George Peddy.

Clark said he would run as an independent because he could not vote for either Johnson or Stevenson in the run-off.

At Austin, Attorney General Price Daniel issued an opinion saying that persons unable to read, write, speak and understand English could not be barred from voting in Texas.

In the fifth senatorial district runoff race, Sen. Roger Knight of Madisonville bowed out in favor of Mrs. Nevielle Colson of Navasota, who becomes the third woman in Texas history to be elected to the state Senate. Mrs. W. Lacy Stewart of Houston is a present Senate member and Miss Margie Neal of Carthage served some years ago.

Knight said he withdrew after considering the first primary returns and after talking with friends in the district.

Johnson Accuses Stevenson Of Too Hasty Judgments; Coke Bids For Peddy Votes

(By The Associated Press)

HOUSTON, Aug. 4.—Lyndon Johnson tonight accused his senatorial runoff campaign opponent of making "hasty and ill-considered" judgments on foreign policy as damaging as "the reckless, Communist-inspired phrases which came out of the Wallace convention."

"Long before this senatorial campaign opened, I repudiated and rejected the philosophy that our friends in Europe are tramps who should be given an axe and shown the woodpile," Johnson said in a speech.

Doesn't Mention Names

He did not mention Coke Stevenson's name, but he was referring to a statement made by the former governor last January. In this speech, Stevenson said:

"It is no kindness to feed a man who's able to work but won't work. Our mothers were too smart to do that. When the tramp asked for a handout, they gave him an axe and showed him the woodpile. If he produced, he was given food. Not otherwise."

(Stevenson had prefaced this statement by urging the United States to help its friends in Europe, but not to give the fruits of its labor to the undeserving.)

The congressman said "the phrase of the tramp and the woodpile has made our foreign policy

(By The Associated Press)

AUSTIN, Aug. 4—Coke Stevenson opened his run-off campaign for the Senate tonight with a frank bid for the votes cast for George Peddy, third man in the first primary.

In a speech the former governor insisted "our foreign policy is not a political issue." This put him again at odds with Lyndon Johnson, his opponent. Stevenson put it this way:

"Look out for a man who tries to inject politics into discussions of our foreign policy. I will tell you now, as I have told you before, that Coke Stevenson will be careful not to do such a foolish and potentially dangerous thing."

Assails CIO Setup

Stevenson noted that in the first primary he did not lead in any county "where the CIO tells its members how to vote," commenting:

"Now this is all right with me. I have never had the support of that organization known as the CIO. I simply do not agree with the policies or the conduct of that group. I want to serve you in the United States Senate. But I will tell you with complete sincerity that I would rather not go to the Senate than to go there knowing I owed by election to the CIO. The people of Texas, I know, don't want a senator who has talked out of one side of his mouth to the CIO and out of the other side

The young man receiving the first ticket is J. Ronald Eagen, son of the new post commander. Dunlap's will distribute 1100 tickets to youngsters during the tournament, and several hundred more are to be given out at the Boy's club. (Staff Photo).

Legal Ruling Urged On Referendum Plan

FORT WORTH, Aug. 4 (AP) — State officials of the Democratic party were urged Wednesday to let Attorney General Daniel Price decide whether a presidential referendum is legal.

The move was made by Mrs. Bennett Smith, state executive committeewoman from Fort Worth, in connection with the Dixiecrat demand that the referendum be held in conjunction with the Aug. 28 election to let the people decide whether Truman-Barkley or Thurmond-Wright shall head the Democratic ticket in Texas.

In a telegram to state chairman R. W. Calvert, Mrs. Smith said she will introduce a resolution at the executive committee meeting in Austin next Monday calling for the referendum.

Pointing out that Calvert has indicated he thinks the committee is without authority to order the referendum, she said the state attorney general's office is the only authority outside the courts which can decide the legality of the matter.

She urged that Calvert act with dispatch.

Mrs. Smith specifically suggested that Calvert ask Governor Jester or Secretary of State Brown to request Daniel's opinion.

Former Prisoner Is Sent Funds To Go Back To Life Term

SPOKANE, Aug. 4 (AP)—Hugh Norman Darrow, 41, walked out of Spokane county jail today pondering whether to return voluntarily to New Mexico to serve a life sentence as a habitual criminal.

Undersheriff Carl W. Fawcett said Darrow "hadn't made up his mind" when he left the jail whether and when to use a bus ticket to Santa Fe, N. M., sent to him by the warden of the New Mexico state prison. The warden, Harold Gage, also sent Darrow $10 for traveling expenses.

Spokane officers handed Darrow the ticket and the $10 as he walked out of jail after completing a 90-day sentence for vagrancy. Darrow took them and kept on walking. Nobody followed him to see whether he boarded a bus.

Fawcett said Gage had notified him that Darrow had violated parole while under sentence for life as a habitual criminal. The warden wrote to Darrow that he expected the negro prisoner to be a "good boy" and return on his own.

New Homes Included In Building Permits

Of $117,225 in newly authorized construction announced Wednesday by the city building department, permits for six residences and two business buildings accounted for $107,000 of the total.

J. D. Sanders obtained permits for four of the residences, costing a total of $35,000. Their locations and individual cost are 3210 Thirty-first, $11,000, and 3307, 3309 and 3313 Thirtieth, $8,000 each.

T. O. Murphy was listed as owner and C. Harris as contractor for another of the residences, a brick veneer costing $17,000, at 3224 Twentieth. O. D. Holt was authorized to build a frame dwelling costing $10,000 at 3110 Twenty-seventh.

Building Permits Granted

C. C. Leftwich was granted a permit to build a two-story pumice tile business building costing $25,000 at 902 College avenue. Authorization for a one-story brick and tile business structure costing $20,000 at 1511 Avenue H was granted to Tidmore Construction Co., contractor, and the Edwards Co., owner.

A $5,000 alterations and repairs permit also was issued to H. R. Bundock, contractor, and the Sunbeam laundry, 1511 Avenue Q.

Work Of Blood Bank Successful

A total of 124 donations of blood have been made to Lubbock county blood bank during its first month of operation, which has been considered successful by blood bank officials.

Sixty-eight of the 124 pints given have been furnished to Lubbock Memorial, West Texas and St. Mary's hospitals in Lubbock and Mercy hospital at Slaton.

In addition, seven persons who are in the "walking blood bank" have gone directly to hospitals to give rare types of blood when needed. The rare types are not placed on storage in the blood bank refrigerator.

No Waste Seen

Arrangements were announced Wednesday whereby all blood not used at the date of expiration for use in transfusions will be given to the Buchanan blood bank at Baylor hospital in Dallas and there will be made into plasma and blood derivatives. Transportation costs will be paid by Baylor hospital.

"In that way, not one bit will go to waste," it was announced at Red Cross headquarters, where the Lubbock county blood bank is operated.

Thirty-three replacements of blood have been made during the month by friends or relatives of persons who have received transfusions. Since Lubbock is a medical center and many of the recipients are from out of the county, families of recipients of blood for the bank are being asked to provide a replacement where possible. Replacements are not necessary where critical illness exists and numerous transfusions are needed, it was stated. Also, recipients are sometimes from a great distance and friends or relatives able to give transfusions are not present.

"We feel that it is a good record," a Red Cross official said of the first month's record. Blood bank officials hope to increase replacements, so that eventually the blood bank supply will be kept up for the most part by replacements.

Dr. Clarence Mast, Dr. Sam C. Arnett and Dr A. G. Barsh alternate in serving at the bank, with one on duty at all hours it is open. Mrs. John B Steele, Mrs. Grady Harrist and Mrs. I. B. Wright, registered nurses, work at the blood bank. Wives of doctors serve as nurses aides, staff assistants, canteen workers and in the motor corps.

All blood bank workers are volunteers except the laboratory technician, whose salary is paid by West Texas, St. Mary's and Lubbock Memorial hospitals.

Mrs. W. B. Agee is blood bank chairman.

The bank is operated from 5 to 7 p. m. Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays.

BUSINESSWOMAN IS OPTIMISTIC

Mrs. Maude Hollums Ranked As Floyd County's 'First Citizen'

By BILL CLARK
Avalanche Staff Writer

FLOYDADA, Aug. 4—Mrs. Maude Hollums by popular consent holds the rank of Floyd county's first citizen.

She well deserves it, for Mrs. Hollums, now an active businesswoman with a wide variety of interests, was the first white baby born in Floyd county.

And she doesn't mind telling you the date: 1886.

"Only one person can say he has lived in the county longer than I have," Mrs. Hollums says. "That is my brother, S. E. Duncan of Floydada." Her brother was a baby when their parents moved to Floyd county.

Witty and enthusiastic, Mrs. Hollums wouldn't be taken for a pioneer, even in this young country. Stylishly dressed, she wears, for close work, horned-rimmed glasses, and she laughs frequently.

Mrs. Hollum's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur B. Duncan, played an illustrious part in the development of Floyd county to its present stature as one of the most highly developed farming areas of the South Plains. They came from Virginia.

They were the first white settlers in the county. They arrived in the canyon south of Floydada in 1884. There her father built a dug-out and they made their home. Their nearest neighbor was the famous Hank Smith, who lived in his rock house 12 miles away.

"There was no Lubbock, then, either," Mrs. Hollums said, mischievously.

The family moved to Floydada in 1890. Her father was instrumental in organizing the county and served for 20 years as the county judge.

He also formed the Arthur B. Duncan Abstract company, which Mrs. Hollums today owns and operates, after having worked in it since she was 19 years old. He was instrumental in building the courthouse, and served as school trustee and superintendent.

"My father had no formal education, but he was one of the best educated men I have ever known," Mrs. Hollums recollects. "What he learned, he learned himself by hard study."

Mr. Duncan died in 1931, Mrs. Duncan died at the age of 83 in 1943.

Mrs. Hollums, since her hus-

Sforza Indicates Italy Ready To Become State In European Union

By J. M. ROBERTS, JR.
Associated Press Staff Writer

Foreign minister Carlo Sforza says Italy is ready to subordinate her sovereignty, "even to the most unexpected degree," to obtain a European union.

That sounds very much as though he were willing, and believes his country is willing, to become a state in a United States. He has behind him the support of the Italian senate. Its endorsement of the European recovery program contained the hope a union would develop.

Exceeds Benelux Plan

Sforza refers specifically to surrendering "political sovereignty," which is a step beyond the ideas of the Benelux union between Holland, Belgium and Luxembourg. The latter accord goes no further than to envision complete customs union, by agreement rather than under a federal government. And the more complicated requirements even for that, such as a joint currency and free movement of labor, are recognized as requiring a long period of adjustment.

If this is true for the small nations, it is doubly true for the extremely complicated economies of the larger power. For them political federation becomes an extremely long-range project.

An end to the cold war, or even a truce, will reduce the pressure for union and probably produce a return to the old attitude of taking the easy way, despite its milestones of crisis after crisis.

Two Roads Open

As Sforza points out, there are two roads leading to European union.

"It means renouncing progressive ideas of sovereignty, customs barriers, financial restrictions, anti-economic distribution of tasks and functions." Also it means a union "to defend, where necessary, peace and our thousand-year-old civilization."

Western Europe is being led down this two-lane road by the Marshall plan, Benelux, Western European union and the Vandenberg resolution providing for U. S. support of Europe's defenses. But whether the nations will drink, once they reach the oasis, is likely to depend upon the outside pressures to which they are being subjected at the time.

Ralph C. DeWoody Sets Up Consultant Engineer Office

After serving for the past eight years as production superintendent for George P. Livermore, Inc., Ralph C. DeWoody, of 2409 Thirty-first, has announced that he is setting up his own practice as a consultant petroleum engineer, and that his offices will temporarily be located at his residence until he can find suitable office space.

DeWoody, who was employed as a petroleum engineer with the Stanolind Oil and Gas Co. prior to going with the Livermore firm, is a lieutenant-commander in the naval reserve, and served during World War II as commander of an LST in the South Pacific. He is a graduate of the Colorado School of Mines at Golden, Colo.

Illiterate Voters May Not Get Judges' Aid

AUSTIN, Aug. 4 (AP)—Persons unable to read, write, speak and understand English are not barred from voting in Texas, the attorney general said today.

Election judges are not required nor permitted to mark or assist in marking the ballot of a voter between the ages of 21 and 60 who is illiterate or who can not read or write English, county attorney R. E. Schneider, jr., of Live Oak county was informed.

Exceptions Cited

The opinion, by Assistant Attorney General W. T. Williams, was approved by Attorney General Price Daniel.

Assistance may be given a voter if he has some infirmity that makes him physically unable to write or if he is over 60 years old and unable to read and write, the opinion noted.

In such cases, two election judges who have sworn they will not suggest to the voter how he should vote, may prepare the ballot for him.

English must be used by the voter in asking questions of the judges, and their replies in aiding the voter must be in English, the opinion added.

Revised Supervisory System For Dorms At Texas Tech Announced

A revised supervisory system for the men's dormitories at Texas Technological college will go into effect Sept. 1, providing them with an adequate system of supervision for the first time since their construction, according to James G. Allen, dean of men.

"The new system will place men in the dormitories as supervisors who are trained and experienced in counselling, guidance and personality problems, thus building a positive, constructive program that will encourage good citizenship through cultivation of a basic regard for other people," Dean Allen stated.

Setup Is Explained

The plan and its budget was submitted to the Tech board of directors at its early June meeting by President W. M. Whyburn who had previously requested that Dean Allen and Assistant Dean of Men Lewis Jones work out the framework of the system and its budget for submission to the board.

Under this system the college will pay for dormitory supervision at the rate of $1.31 more per student per month than was spent for the old system, under which the supervisors were only part-time workers. The guidance experts who will oversee dormitory activities in the future will be full-time members of the dean of men's staff. There will be eight wing supervisors in each dormitory, as compared to six under the old method, which will allow the head supervisors more time to spend with individual and group problems.

Women's Program Studied

"This method of supervision, already in operation at the better colleges in the United States, is another step in bringing the standards at Texas Tech up to a level with the most highly recommended colleges anywhere," Allen said.

A similar program for the women's dormitories was approved as the same meeting of the board of directors, and Mrs. Margarette W. Walker, dean of women elect, is visiting the leading colleges and universities in the state, assembling ideas to be incorporated into the women's supervisory system, according to President Whyburn.

Whyburn has expressed the opinion that this program for the women's dormitories should be a great step toward getting Tech a membership in the American Association of University Women.

'Kindness' Of His Neighbors Proves Too Much For Vet

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 4 (AP) — Roy Webb's joy of living has been killed by other people's kindnesses.

Webb, a war veteran out of the quartermaster corps, lost his home and his belongings in a fire several months ago. His troubles began when neighbors collected $772 to help him.

Here are his complaints:

"Everyone is careful to mention how much he contributed. I've added it all up and it comes to about $5,000. "They all think I'm a millionaire because one group said it was going to try to raise $7,000 for me.

"The neighbors expected me to build a new house overnight. I've had to spend so much time at it I lost my job as a sign erector.

"Carpenters, electricians, plasterers and others volunteered to help but none ever showed up."

Webb said he is selling the half-completed house so he can return the contributions.

"I want to get back my self-respect," he said.

First Christian Church Men Name Officers At Meeting

Men of the First Christian church, meeting Tuesday night at the home of O. A. Terry as the Men of the Church club, named Cecil H. Cale, Lubbock manager of Southwestern Bell Telephone company, as president of the club.

Other officers named were Terry as vice president, Joe Holmes as secretary, and Floyd Reed as treasurer. The group voted to meet each month.

More than 150 men attended the meeting, a combination fun and fellowship session and chicken barbecue served in the yard of the Terry home.

In addition to organization of the church men's club, the meeting was designed to give the church membership opportunity to become better acquainted with the new pastor, Rev. Travis A. White, who assumed his duties several weeks ago.

Progress Of Cerebral Palsy Center In City Discussed At Club

Holding the spotlight Wednesday noon at the luncheon of the Rotary club at Hilton hotel was Lubbock's cerebral palsy treatment center, and a film depicting work and accomplishments in other such centers was shown to those present.

The film was a courtesy of the National Crippled Children's council.

The program was directed by Dr. Bill Gordon, who explained briefly the progress of the center to date. He introduced Miss Esther Snell, director of the center, who urged general public cooperation.

Center in Partial Operation

Dr. Gordon said the center is now in partial operation in Cottage school, through courtesy of the public school system, and that it will be moved to quarters made available by Dr. Sam Dunn at 1317 Tenth until a permanent building can be financed and erected. The program chairman said there are approximately 75 cerebral palsy children in this area.

Alex McDonald, past president of the Rotary club and member of the club's committee on the project, said a building will cost approximately $25,000, and that $8,000 to $10,000 will be needed for the first year of operation.

The Rotary club has underwritten the cost of the project, and McDonald said a committee will call on club membership for contributions to the building fund.

Student Is Introduced

Lamar Jackson of Lubbock, a pre-med student in Texas Tech college, was introduced as Junior Rotarian for the month. Visiting Rotarians included Fletcher Brummett of Albuquerque, J. W. Glenwood of Slaton, Harry Dean of Sweetwater, Harvey Pool of Levelland, R. E. Willis of Lovington, N. M., Burnett Roberts of Levelland, Nat B. Heaton and W. T. Fain of Slaton, Arno Nowatney of Austin, Rev. Nat Tracy of Ruleville, Miss., and Rev. Cecil Peeples of Jacksonville.

Club president Irving Jones was in the chair, with invocation by Dr. F. B. Malone.

1 NEW HIDE-AWAY GRID-ALL! So convenient for grilling hamburgers, cubed steaks, bacon, eggs, griddle cakes . . . and for heating large utensils. Can be replaced with a special grate to become super-giant burner. Lid folds down for flush-to-top work space.

2 THE AMAZING BAR-B-KEWER—actually a separate meat oven—broils whole hams, roasts or fowl. And with radiant heat (same as charcoal or wood embers) that makes roasts juicier . . . more delicious. Leaves your oven free for baking pies, cakes or biscuits at the same time. Deep pan raises for conventional broiling.

3 "DREAMLINED" STYLING by nationally famous industrial designers. And Estate's shining beauty contributes to utility, from top to bottom. Front panels wrap around corners to give the front a smooth, unbroken line . . . oven window is at "eye-angle" height for easy seeing without stooping . . . broad chrome handles accent horizontal lines of modern kitchen . . . mantel back is gracefully proportioned, fits under standard cabinets and windows with low sills.

4 ONE-PIECE TOP. Mantel back, work surface and gas-dial panel are all in one piece. No dirt catching crevices. Easy to keep clean.

5 FIBERGLASS INSULATION plus special "Heat-Seal" stripping on oven and Bar-B-Kewer keeps kitchen cool, comfortable.

7 ACID-RESISTING PORCELAIN all around. Not just on top.

U. S. Flays Yugoslavia In Heated Dispute On Trieste; Italian Pact Claimed Violated

By PIERRE J. HUSS
INS Staff Correspondent

LAKE SUCCESS, N.Y., Aug. 4—The United States flayed Yugoslavia in the United Nations today for arraigning the U.S. before the Security Council "on charges utterly devoid of substance."

The Tito government has claimed that Anglo-American authorities are conspiring to restore the free territory of Trieste to Italy in contravention of the Italian peace treaty.

The charge served to haul the United States before the 11-nation tribunal for the first time.

Charges Branded Propaganda

Dr. Joza Vilfan, the Yugoslav delegate to U. N., specifically charged the United States and Britain with enacting measures in the free territory designed to link Trieste to Italy through trade, currency and postal agreements.

Vilfan concluded dryly:

"We can say that the only distinction between the Anglo-American zone of the free territory and Italy—after conclusion of these agreements—is the open occupation by the Anglo-American troops."

U.S. Representative Philip C. Jessup fired back immediately after Vilfan sat down. Describing the original Yugoslav document listing the charges as "flimsy propaganda," Jessup added:

"We are surprised that any government should present to the Security Council charges so utterly devoid of substance. Also that the charges are made by a government which in the administration of its own zone has paid no heed to its international obligations and which has kept its administration shrouded in secrecy."

Backed By Allies

Jessup was backed to the hilt by Sir Alexander Cadogan of Britain and supported by Alexander Parodi of France.

The American spokesman struck back at Yugoslavia by challenging Vilfan to produce a report to the Security Council by next week on her administration of the Trieste area held by Tito troops.

Jessup and his two powerful supporters pressed hard on that point, stressing that the Anglo-American authorities already had submitted three reports on their administration of the Trieste zone.

Vilfan indirectly conceded that if the Security Council demanded such a report, it would be forthcoming.

Dimitri Manuilsky of the Ukraine then rushed to Vilfan's rescue. He denounced what he called western attempts to "get out from under" the charges before the council—namely that the United States and Britain had violated the Italian peace treaty.

Manuilsky claimed that Yugoslavia was not obligated to render a report and that such a demand was merely a maneuver to get away from the main issue. Yakov A. Malik, Soviet chairman of the council this month, underlined Manuilsky's standpoint.

Competent observers perceived in Vilfan's bow to Manuilsky a confession that the rift between Tito and the Cominform has not been permitted to crack the solid front of the "iron curtain" lands and weaken their foreign and domestic policies.

Some U.N. delegates went so far as to predict that Tito will soon seek forgiveness in Moscow and return to the Cominform fold.

Houston Widow 'Roughs It' In Mansion Of Man She Claims Is Father Of Unborn Child

By LEO TURNER
United Press Staff Writer

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., Aug. 4.—Doris Furst, redehaired, Houston skating star, rounded out a week today of "roughing it" alone in the $100,000 mansion of the man she says is the father of the child she expects in November.

Mrs. Furst, 24-year-old widow, got up at 9 a. m. to see who was pounding at the back door of the nine-room mansion. She let in the usual swarm of reporters.

Lounges In Living Room

Then she lounged around the 18-by-30 foot living room of the hilltop home of Joseph Bancroft, head of a steel manufacturing company which makes casement windows and children's toys. The floor was covered with an orchid velvet carpet. In one corner was a $1,400 television set, in another a grand piano with carved walnut legs.

Adjoining the living room was the library with an electric organ in one corner and most of the shelves lined with standard "sets" of books. One section of the bookcase was covered with heavy cardboard painted to resemble rows of books.

From behind a couch Mrs. Furst picked a gilt frame from which a picture had been ripped.

Fed By Reporters

"I wonder who could have thrown his picture away?" she asked.

Bancroft moved out when she moved in a week ago with the announcement that she was going to sit there until her baby was born.

"However, I think something will happen before then," she said.

Mrs. Furst is fed by newspaper reporters and photographers. The neighbors bring her food, too, she said. Bancoft had the telephone removed. He also has the electricity shut off, which stopped operation of the refrigerator and electric range.

"It didn't make much difference, because I can't cook," Mrs. Furst said. "I'm pretty good at opening a can."

Story Begins To Crack

Part of the young widow's story began ravelling at the edges today. She's not a New York model as first reported. She said she was introduced to Bancroft by her boss in Houston and came to New York to live with him four days later.

"He said he loved me, and I believed him," she said.

She declined to reveal her maiden name or where she was employed. She said, however, that a friend, Sam Minter, was looking after her affairs in Houston.

Mrs. Furst was seeking a divorce from 53-year-old Walter Furst when she met Bancroft. Furst died on June 24 before the divorce became final. She said they never had lived together.

"He said he loved me, and I believed him, too," Mrs. Furst said.

Southern Demos To Open Kentucky Drive

JACKSON, Miss., Aug. 4 (AP)—The national headquarters here of the States' Rights Democrats announced tonight plans for a campaign in Kentucky beginning next week.

Judge Merritt Gibson of Longview, Texas, national campaign manager, said Kentucky has been selected "as the opening scene of a nationwide campaign."

He reported that petitions will be circulated in Kentucky to place on the ballot a slate of electors pledged to Governors J. Strom Thurmond of South Carolina and Fielding L. Wright of Mississippi, the States' Rights candidates for president and vice-president, respectively.

Gibson said signatures of 1000 registered voters are needed to place a slate on the ballot in Kentucky.

"We are opening the states' rights drive in Kentucky in compliance with the first resolution adopted by the Birmingham conference of July 17," Gibson asserted.

STERLING SILVER BOOSTED

NEW YORK, Aug. 4 (AP)—Three makers of sterling silver table service—Gorham Co., Towle Manufacturing Co. and Reed & Barton—have raised their flatware prices from 8 to 10 per cent.

TRAILER COVERS GROUND

SCHENECTADY, N. Y. (AP)—Mr. and Mrs. John K. Alexander covered an estimated 20,000 miles on their trailer trip from Key West, Fla., through southwestern United States, north to Fairbanks, Alaska, and then across the northern U. S. to their home here. Mrs. Alexander drove the entire trip.

Union Accepts Ohio Governor's Terms For Strike Negotiations

DAYTON, O., Aug. 4 (AP) — Striking workers of the Univis Lens plant, thwarted by National Guard troops, agreed late today to Gov. Thomas J. Herbert's terms for aproaching a settlement of the 92-day-old dispute.

Herbert Hirschberg, regional organizer of the CIO united electrical workers, announced members of the Univis plant local would vest in their leaders full authority to sign an agreement with the company.

Governor Herbert, incensed by members' rejection of a signed agreement between union and company officials last Sunday, had refused to arrange another conference unless UEW negotiators were empowered to act for the membership.

Costs Estimated High

Earlier in the day the governor turned a cold shoulder to a union request that he arrange further negotiations subject to ratification by the UEW local's membership.

The company, reporting 390 of its normal 658 production workers were back on the job in the second day of operations under protection of guardsmen, announced it would proceed immediately to replace the strikers.

M. H. Stanley, company president, said he intended to make no new overtures to the CIO United Electrical workers whose strike, he estimated, has cost Univis $1,000,000 in sales and its employes $500,000 in lost wages.

News Briefs

Following treatment at Lubbock Memorial hospital Tuesday and Tuesday night for a fractured right arm believed suffered at the family residence Tuesday morning, Bobby Wilson, 5-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Wilson of Crane was dismissed from the hospital Wednesday morning.

After having been treated at Lubbock Memorial hospital since July 25 for poliomyelitis, Pat Bishop, 2-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Bishop of Lubbock general delivery, has been dismissed from the hospital.

The Associated Press announced from Austin Wednesday afternoon that a conditional pardon has been granted to Noble Burns, 23, of Lubbock, who was serving a five-year sentence in the penitentiary from Lubbock county. He had been sentenced in 1946 for burglary and passing a forged instrument. Gov. Beauford H. Jester also granted clemency in 10 other actions, the news service announced.

Three Lubbock youths are in Kansas City, Mo., to enter their model airplanes in the National Model Airplanes contest being held there this week. They are James Carpenter, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Carpenter of 2004 Eighteenth; Fred Salmon, 18, son of Mrs. Vera Salmon of 3118 Thirty-second; and Harry English, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. L. English of 2601 Thirty-eighth. The contests opened Wednesday and will continue through Saturday. Young English is a Texas Tech student and the other boys graduated from Lubbock High school this year.

Leonard Jarett, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Jarett, 2019 Thirty-fourth, is convalescing from an appendectomy at Lubbock Memorial hospital.

Travis T. Wallace, president of the Great American Reserve Insurance company of Dallas, is to address the Lubbock General Agents and Managers association in a dinner meeting at the Hilton hotel Friday night at 7:30 o'clock. All general agents and managers representing life insurance companies in the local area are invited to attend, Chick Trout, president, announced. The dinner will be in the Aztec room.

A regular semi-monthly meeting of the 707th Bomb squadron is scheduled for 7:30 o'clock tonight in building 62 at Lubbock Air field. All members are urged to attend the meeting. Officers of the organization announced Wednesday that there are a few openings for flying personnel and a large number of openings for enlisted men. Reservists will receive pay for their training periods.

Mrs. R. E. Thompson, 1606 Avenue R, left last night for a two months vacation trip through the Pacific Northwest and into Canada. She plans to visit Portland, Ore., Vancouver, Wash. and Seattle before crossing into Canada.

Wallace Group Gains North Carolina Spot; Dixie Demos Stalled

RALEIGH, N. C., Aug. 4. (INS)—Henry Wallace's Progressive party won a place today on the North Carolina election ballot but States' Rights Democrats ran into trouble.

The state board of elections approved a petition by the Progressives asking to be listed on the November ballot.

While the States' Righters had seven thousand more than the necessary ten thousand signatures on their petition, a majority of these were of persons already registered as either Democrats or Republicans.

This was contrary to the election code which states that the names of such a petition must be of persons not previously registered.

The eleven thousand signatures attached to the Wallacites' roll were approved as valid by the board.

Col. Phillip S. Finn, Jr., chairman of the States' Rights Democrats in North Carolina, announced that his group would appeal the ruling to the courts.

In Columbia, S. C., Gov. J. Strom Thurmond, States' Rights presidential candidate, commented on the apparent blow to the States' Rights movement. He said only:

"I'm relying on my friends in North Carolina to handle the situation."

Kansas GOPs Win Majorities

TOPEKA, Kans., Aug. 4 (INS)—Overwhelming majorities accorded Republican incumbents in Tuesday's Kansas primary election mounted tonight as final returns trickled in.

GOP Gov. Frank Carlson led two opponents in the race for the gubernatorial nomination by some 120,000 votes.

Former Gov. Andrew Schoeppel, an aspirant for the seat of retiring U.S. Senator Arthur Capper, piled up a majority of 90,000 votes over Harold H. Marone, a Wichita attorney.

Carlson will be matched against Randolph Carpenter, a former U. S. district attorney, in the November general election. Carpenter defeated Ewell Stewart of Topeka in the Democratic primary.

Schoeppel's opponent will be George McGill, former member of the U. S. Tariff commission. McGill won the Democratic nomination over E. K. Dean, St. Marys.

Five incumbent Republican Congressmen won renomination—Albert M. Cole, first district Everett P. Scrivner, second; Herbert A. Meyer, third; Ed H. Rees, fourth, and Wint Smith, sixth.

Methodist Children See Movie Visit Latin-American Church

Forty-six primary and junior children of First Methodist church met Tuesday afternoon at the church to see a sound color film shown by R. Fred Adkins, later going by chartered bus to the Latin-American Methodist church, where they were met by Mrs. V. T. Brady, Sunday school teacher and pianist for the latter church.

Mrs. C. C. Chambers led the devotional, and a story, "Teresa and The Great Book," was told by Mrs. Claude H. Dalton. A picture, "The Nativity," was presented to the Latin American church by Mrs. George Box and accepted by Mrs. Mary Guino.

After the program, picnic lunches and soft drinks were served to the children in Mackenzie State Park.

Other adult leaders and assistants were Mesdames A. F. Harrison, J. L. Miller and G. F. Hill. H. F. Key was the bus driver for the outing.

GETTING JAILED A HABIT

MUSKOGEE, Okla. (AP)—When Edward Tripp, 58, a painter, ends his latest sentence, he will have spent 3,360 days in jail. Since 1925, Tripp has been sentenced 145 times for such offenses as intoxication and panhandling. He has been arrested 11 other times on misdemeanor charges.

When you buy Barcentrate, you buy a preparation for taking off weight. You do not pay for any printed diet nor for vitamins to fortify you against weakness while on a starvation diet. You need never know a hungry moment while taking this preparation. Barcentrate is the original grapefruit juice recipe to take off ugly fat.

Just go to your druggist and ask for four ounces of liquid Barcentrate. Pour this into a pint bottle and add enough grapefruit juice to fill the bottle. Then take just two tablespoonsful twice a day. That's all there is to it.

If the very first bottle doesn't show you the simple, easy way to take off ugly fat, return the empty bottle for your money back.

Lost 30 Pounds

"I wish to state that I lost 30 pounds taking Barcentrate. I didn't starve myself and I feel better than I have in years. I am sure that the easy, safe way to lose weight is by taking Barcentrate."—Mrs. Florence Chadwell, Route 1, Box 650, San Antonio, Texas.

25 Pounds Lost

"When I started taking Barcentrate, I weighed 195 pounds. I now weigh 170. I certainly praise Barcentrate."—G. W. Miller, Weatherford, Texas.

Tito Strengthens Control With Montenegro Government Change

By KINGSBURY SMITH
European General Manager, INS

BELGRADE, Aug. 4. — Five members of the provincial Montenegro government were dismissed today and replaced by strong supporters of Marshal Tito.

The move tightening control of the province by pro-Tito Communists came amid the Yugoslav's premier's continuing fight with the Cominform which has called for a change of the party's leadership.

Popularity Increases

Top western diplomatic sources say that Tito's popularity now is stronger than it was before outbreak of his feud with the Cominform.

It is explained that nationalistic fervor has been roused by his defiance of Soviet attempts to dominate his policies.

Tito is taking vigorous measures to prevent development of any Soviet-sponsored underground opposition within the country.

Reports have been current for some days that Soviet agents have started an underground campaign to undermine Tito's regime.

Pamphlets Distributed

The reports are based primarily on the secret distribution in Belgrade of pamphlets containing the texts of three letters sent by the Soviet Communist party to the Yugoslav Communist party which Moscow is tyring to whip back into line.

Letters, which have not been published in Yugoslavia, contain bitter criticism of Tito and his policies.

Tito's government is aware that these pamphlets are being distributed. One Belgrade bookstore which distributed them was closed yesterday and reopened under new management.

NOT WORRIED, BUT Police Clerk To Be Cautious The 13th

SPOKANE, Aug. 4 (AP) — Robert Steiwer isn't nervous, but he's looking forward to Friday, August 13 — just in case.

Steiwer is a police court clerk who served during the war with the Merchant Marine. He will observe his 13th wedding anniversary this week.

He is 13 conscious for other reasons, too:

He was paid off on one ship March 13, 1943. One month later on April 13 he signed on the Francis W. Pettygrove. On Friday, Aug. 13, his ship was torpedoed off the Spanish coast. Steiwer spent 13 days in a hospital.

Returning to the United States, he was assigned to the S. Duk Jacksonville. When he learned the crew was to sign orders Jan. 13, 1944, he asked for a replacement and was signed instead on the S. S. Harrington Emerson on Jan. 12. One year later, on Jan. 13, 1945, the Jacksonville was sunk by a German submarine with all hands lost except two.

Steiwer isn't worried, but he thinks he will take it easy on Friday, Aug. 13 — just for luck.

The Philippines contain more than 7,000 islands and islets, of which only 466 cover a square mile or more.

MONK STOWS AWAY — A free ride from Panama to Miami was what this tiny marmoset monkey got when his curiosity led him aboard an airplane in Panama. He was found in the luggage compartment when the plane landed, and Roy Chapman, special serviceman, was given custody of him.

Last Rites Held For Roaring Springs Man

ROARING SPRINGS, Aug. 4. (Special)—Funeral services for W. E. Ragsdale, 58, Roaring Springs resident for the past 10 years who died here about 9 p. m. Tuesday, were conducted at 3 p. m. today in Roaring Springs Baptist church, with Rev. Ellis, pastor, and B. C. Stonecipher, minister of Roaring Springs Church of Christ, officiating.

Survivors include the wife, Mrs. Mary Ragsdale; four sons, T. F. Ragsdale and Elmer Ragsdale, both of Haskell, Charlie Ragsdale of McAllen, and Emmett Ragsdale of Pharr; and three daughters, Mrs. E. F. Frier of Plainview, Mrs. A. E. Arnold of Muleshoe, and Mrs. J. D. Patton of Austin. Sixteen grandchildren and 10 great grandchildren also survive.

Interment was in Dickens cemetery, with McDonald Funeral home of Matador in charge.

TWO DEAD IN CRASH

WAYZATA, Minn., Aug. 4. (INS) —Bodies of two Wayzata men were found today in Lake Minnetonka where their light plane crashed last night. Victims of the crash were Richard Dorfer, 26, movie projector operator, and Shirley Hoover, 32, operator of a wheat spraying business.

Worley To Seek Action On Amarillo Vets' Hospital

WASHINGTON, Aug. 4 (AP)—Rep. Worley (D-Tex) plans to confer tomorrow with Veterans Administrator Carl Gray about the Veterans hospital in Amarillo.

Author of a bill to increase the size of the hospital, Worley said he would invite the administrator to visit Texas this fall to inspect the place and see for himself how badly the proposed expansion is needed.

Balance Between Farm Products Supply And Demand Federal Goal

LARAMIE, Wyo., Aug. 4. (INS)—A. J. Loveland, newly appointed Under Secretary of Agriculture, today in Laramie explained the nation's principal agriculture goals before the national forum of labor, agriculture and industry.

He said the main points are production-conservation and marketing progams, which he said, will help establish a "balance between agriculture production and demand."

Plentiful Supply Needed

Loveland said there "has never been any intention to create a scarcity of farm products." Production plans have always called for a plentiful supply plus a safe reserve for emergencies such as a drouth or flood or other disaster, he said, and added:

"There are times when our farm goals seek a reduction in the acreage or production of one commodity," such as the recent request for reduction of wheat acreage to hold production down to "domestic, export and carry over needs."

Loveland said, "we now have a program by which farmers may effectively iron out the periods of "boom and bust" in farm supplies and prices which will also save the rest of the nation from declines."

Earlier, William Johnson, executive secretary of the Foundation for Economic Education, declared that economic cures being suggested for the United States involve substitution of government judgement for individual judgement.

He said, "the whole world is now in the grip of one of those hallucinations which sweep over mankind from age to age. It is: government can make men prosperous," but in effect, he added, such a policy only provides a degree of slavery.

Johnson's Talk

an issue in this campaign since the first day of January, 1948."

Asks For Repudiation

It was the first speech of the senatorial run-off. Johnson formally opens his campaign with a rally at Center Friday night.

Saying the "tramp and woodpile" words were not his, Johnson added:

"They will remain an issue in this senatorial race until the man who gave voice to them chooses to publicly, and expressly repudiate his own statement.

"Until the words are repudiated, the voters of Texas are justified in believing that they express the inner sentiments of the man whose lips shaped them, for all Texas to hear. Until the words are repudiated, Lyndon Johnson will decline to believe that the leopard has changed his spots."

Experience Is Cited

Johnson said his experience in Congress as a member of the Naval Affairs, Armed Services and Atomic Energy committees and his record of votes on defense issues qualified him "to do the job a senator must do" and to appraise world affairs.

"A senator must make decisions," Johnson said. "He must be willing always to stand up and be counted. If those decisions are based on information absorbed in a few minutes, or a few hours, or even a few months, they could result in tragedy in the future as they have in the past."

Johnson said the best informed opinion he found in Washington was that the world situation lies somewhere between the optimism recently expressed by President Truman in an interview and the grave concern shown by Great Britain's leaders.

"We should not deceive ourselves," Johnson said. "We are in a continuing world crisis. However, our chief ally is time. Every day gained brings new strength to us and our Allies. Time is on our side. Russia realizes that fact; and that fact bears on the Berlin situation today.

"Our course must be considered in the light of America's single-minded objective: World peace.

"The two avenues which offer the greatest hope for peace are these: One: as a nation we are committed to living by the charter of the United Nations. Two: we are determined to restore to health the war-shattered nations of Europe."

Stevenson's Talk

of his mouth to other people."

Stevenson said that in all but one of the 14 counties where Peddy led in the first primary, he was second.

"These facts are significant," Stevenson said. "Both Colonel Peddy and I tried in the first primary campaign to discuss the governmental principles involved instead of attempting to distract the attention of the people from the serious issues in this race. I congratulate Colonel Peddy on the heavy vote he received. I hope all of the Texans who voted for him in the first primary will give careful consideration to my candidacy during this runoff campaign."

Discusses Capital Visit

Stevenson's opening speech also emphasized what he had learned on his recent trip to Washington. It touched on the Communist spy stories with this comment:

"It seems inconceivable that Russia should have been able to set up a spy system efficient enough to reach into high places in Washington.

"Yet that is what happened — and it happened right under the eyes of Congress itself. Somebody has been terribly careless. A thorough investigation of this whole shameful affair must be made. If any man was in a position to know about this sort of thing and stop it—and didn't do it, the American people should be fully informed."

He warned Texans to keep an eye on the letting of defense contracts and "make sure they are not used to pay off political debts with public funds. As your United States senator. Coke Stevenson will have no such debts to be paid off with cost-plus contracts to a few political friends."

Stevenson said that what he had learned in Washington "bears out fully the stand I have been taking in my talks with you on the place of the United States in the world today."

"For example, I was confirmed in my conviction that we have a truly bi-partisan foreign policy," Stevenson said. "Our foreign policy is not a political issue. Attempts in any such campaign as this to make it a political issue are harmful to the nation as a whole."

"Ever since I opened my campaign for United States senator, I have been giving much attention to the international situation and our nation's foreign policy. All of us realize that the time is gone when the United States can seal itself off from the rest of the world . . " Stevenson said.

He said he was convinced the United States must remain strong politically and economically and give needed help to the nations of Europe who are not Communist controlled.

TWO DEAD IN CRASH

CHICAGO, Aug. 4 (INS)—A head-on auto collision northeast of Arlington Heights today killed two persons and injured two others. Killed were Mrs. Bertha Peters, 55, driver of one of the cars, and Ray Anderson, 3-year-old son of Carl Anderson of Oak Park who was riding in Mrs. Peters' automobile.

Wildcat Well To Be Drilled

R. S. Brennand, Jr., of Midland, and associates, are to start drilling at once on their No. 1 Riley, as a 5,250-foot wildcat in Northeast Gaines County.

The venture will be about midway between the Adair and the Cedar Lake fields, and approximately one mile south of the Amerada Petroleum Corporation No. 1 San Salvador,' another slated 5,250-foot prospector.

The Brennand exploration will be at the center of the northwest quarter of the northeast quarter of section 35, block H, D&W survey. It is to explore into the San Andres-Permian lime.

Lowe To Be Driller

Ralph Lowe, of Midland, is to drill the project with rotary tools. Material is now being moved in.

Brennand and associates had a block of 2,080 acres in the Northeast Gaines County region. The No. 1 Riley is on the east side of the block.

Phillips Petroleum Company has recently bought a checkerboard spread out of the block.

Seaboard Oil Company of Delaware No. 1 E. M. Hinson, Northeast Terry County discovery for flowing oil from the Cisco section of the Pennsylvanian lime at 9,405-55 feet, attempted to swab the well in, after drilling plug on 7-inch casing, which had been cemented at 9,400 feet.

Cavings Clog Tubing

The tubing was clogged with cavings. It was pulled out and cleaned. Operator has now re-run the tubing and is to resume swabbing. The well should swab out and kick off and start flowing in a short time.

It indicated a natural flowing production in excess of 50 barrels of oil per hour before the casing was set.

The new discovery is ten miles northeast of Brownfield, and 660 feet from north and west lines of section 91, block 4-X' psl survey.

Floyd County Citizen

band's death last year, has carried on in the abstract business alone. But she also finds time to sell real estate, do some wheat farming, and "just lots of other things."

"I often think of sayings my Irish mother used to have, and as the years pass they take on more meaning for me," Mrs. Hollums recalled. She quoted one example of what her mother used to say: "I'm going to have peace even if I have to fight for it."

The Floyd county people of today are just the same kind of people that first settled here, she believes.

"Maybe they were more neighborly then—they had to be," she recalls. "We had a fine citizenship then, and we still have. There was no room then for mollycoddlers. There was no one to steal from, and nobody had anything to be gypped out of."

She still owns intact a 200-acre homestead her father staked off just south of Floydada when he moved to town from the canyon. He paid a dollar an acre for it.

Asked her opinion of the future for Floydada and her county, she predicted a continuation of the prosperity that has marked the area. "I'm a natural-born optimist," she said, and her gay, enthusiastic manner confirms it. "I think we may even avoid a depression. We'll have a recession, maybe, but I think a depression can be avoided. Floyd county land some day will be worth twice what it is today. It will take initiative and vision. We will have to make the plans, then work hard to make the plans a reality."

Joe Batson Is Named Warden At Darrington Prison Farm

HUNTSVILLE, Aug. 4 (AP)—Texas prison system general manager O. B. Ellis today announced the appointment of Joe Batson as warden of the Darrington prison from near Angleton.

Batson, an assistant warden at the farm, succeeds R. R. Miller who has been transferred to Huntsville as assistant transfer agent for the system.

CITY IS FOURTH IN DEBIT GAINS

Lubbock Banks Set New Record For Check Volume During June

A new high for check volume handled by Lubbock banks was reached in June, according to the Kerlin analysis of check debits reported by the Federal Reserve Board and published in the July 30 edition of the American Banker, the nation's only daily banking newspaper.

Lubbock banks cashed a total of $58,733,000 in checks in June, showing an increase of 26 per cent from June 1947. Debits for the first six months of 1948 totaled $396,833,000, an increase of 37.5 per cent over the same period last year and 251 per cent over the same period in 1940.

Not only did Lubbock banks set a new record for checks in June but the city ranked fourth in the nation in the greatest bank debit gains for the first six months of 1948. Bartlesville, Okla., Tulsa, and Muscatine, Ia., were the cities out-ranking Lubbock in the debit gains.

For the nation, banks in 333 cities has debits of $108,629,000,000 in June, an amount 15 per cent above June, 1947. Bank debits for the first six months of 1948 totaled $611,652,000,000, 13.4 per cent ahead of the same period in 1947 and 188 per cent above comparable totals of 1940, the beginning of the present decade.

Figures for Texas banks (000 omitted in dollar figures) are as follows:

Hearing Is Asked On Censorship Charges

WASHINGTON, Aug. 4. (INS)—Federal Security Administrator Oscar Ewing tonight accused former U.S. Education Commissioner John W. Studebaker with voicing "untruths and deliberately misleading statements" in charging that there is censorship in FSA.

Ewing flew back from a mine vacation and asked Sen. Ferguson (R) Mich., Senate investigating committee chairman, to grant him a "prompt public hearing." He added:

"I request a public hearing in order that all the press and the American public can know the real facts rather than the untruths and deliberately misleading statements contained in Studebaker's letter."

Studebaker, in a letter sent to House and Senate Appropriation committee members Sunday, charged that Ewing's office had disapproved his campaign to promote anti-Communist teachings in the schools.

The Office of Education is an agency of FSA. Studebaker resigned as commissioner and head of the office July 15, after serving 14 years in the post.

Assistants to Ewing said he was in a "cold rage" because of Studebaker's charges. The FSA administrator, appointed by President Truman a year ago, dispatched his request for a hearing to the Senate within a few hours after returning to the city.

Three Ohio Residents Are Injured In Plane Accident

CORTEZ, Colo., Aug. 4 (INS) — Three Otway, Ohio, residents were recovering today in the Southwest Memorial hospital in Cortez from injuries suffered when their private plane crashed 10 miles north of Mancos, Colo.

Physicians termed the condition of Raymond Hunt as "critical." He suffered internal injuries and several broken ribs. Mrs. Doris Wallace and her pilot-husband John H. Wallace were termed in less serious condition.

State patrolman A. W. Anderson said that the trio took off from the Durango airport yesterday in an open cockpit single engined craft. He said the plane apparently went into a stall when the pilot attempted to gain altitude. The airplane started to spin and crashed.

Wallace pulled his two passengers from the demolished plane, then staggered to a nearby road where Jest Rangers took him to the nearby Vinnell dam construction camp. Workers searched the oak brush covered terrain for sometime before Mrs. Wallace's screams led them to the plane wreckage.

More State Equalization Aid For Texas Schools Is Urged

AUSTIN, Aug. 4 (AP) — More state equalization aid for Texas schools was urged here today.

Miss Emma Mae Brotze, president of the Texas State Teachers association, said that if comparable educational facilities are to be made available throughout Texas, state equalization aid must be extended to more districts and increased in poorer districts.

Twenty-seven school districts were unable to pay the minimum salaries for teachers as prescribed by law last year, she said. Rising costs, she said, threaten even more districts next year.

Oil Industry Must Make Heavy Invesiments To Meet Demands

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 4 (AP) — The oil industry must invest at least $4,700,000 every day to raise supplies to meet consumer demands, President Robert H. Colley of the Atlantic Refining Co., said today.

"At the same time," Colley said in a report to stockholders, "the industry must spend an additional substantial sum to replace the depletion of old oil wells."

The oil company executive said customers now are using all the oil the industry can produce.

"They want still more—on the average, every day, about 1,350 barrels more than the day before," Colley said.

He said that though the oil industry is "only about a three per cent factor in the total business of the country, it is being forced to make about 10 per cent of the country's total business capital expenditures in order quickly to increase its output."

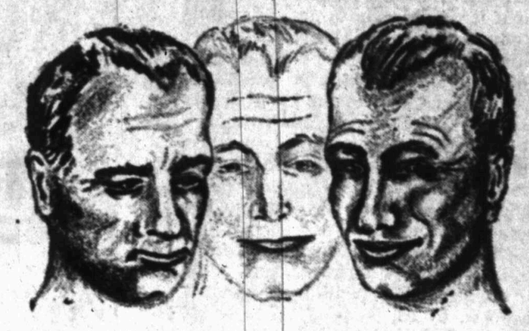

He called the problem of how to obtain needed capital for expansion a large one.

Overall output of the oil industry has been increased by about 750,000 barrels a day since the middle of 1946, Colley reported.

SOUTHERN VOTING

Senseless Argument

ONE candidate for the most asinine political argument of the year is that which contends the South would spite itself if it should help to put a Republican administration in the White House.

This contention is that a Republican victory would strengthen the probability of the enactment of the Civil Rights legislation to which the South objects. This might or might not be true. It is difficult to see how any party could make a more strenuous effort in behalf of such measures than Mr. Truman has done and is doing.

Against this possibility is the certainty that the South, by demonstrating political independence, would be courted henceforth by all parties. All have ignored the South in the past—the Democrats because they have been sure of victory there, regardless; and the Republicans, because they have known they could not win, regardless of inducements.

This attitude could not be made worse, and might be improved immeasurably if the South should strike off the shackles of blind loyalty to one party. It might cause any party in power to think twice before insisting upon objectionable legislation—including the Civil Rights program of which Mr. Truman has become the most vigorous champion.

Worth Considering

FIRST primary election returns in Kimble county are particularly important in-so-far as the run-off election for the United States Senate post is concerned. Kimble county is the home of Senate Candidate Coke R. Stevenson—and has been his home for many, many years.

Kimble county, located in Southwest Texas about half-way between San Antonio and San Angelo, is a sparsely settled county. It has only one town in it—the county seat, Junction. With the exception of the handful of business and professional people who live in Junction, the folks in Kimble county are nearly all goat, sheep and cattle raisers. They are the "backbone of Texas" type of good people. Every one of them—with the exception of little children—knows Coke Stevenson. He has been in politics there for ages; he has been a banker and a practicing lawyer in Junction.

When the people of Kimble county went to the polls on July 24, they were given an opportunity to vote for Mr. Stevenson, whom they know, and two other important candidates for the United States Senate whom a very few know personally, or politically. Here's how they voted:

For Stevenson, 1,201; for Lyndon Johnson, 418; for George Peddy, 69. Broken down, that means that 487 Kimble county people definitely didn't want Coke Stevenson to represent them in the United States Senate—in spite of the local pride which naturally accrues to the possibility of furnishing a state with a United States Senator. Broken down, the Kimble county returns mean that every time four of Coke Stevenson's neighbors went to the polls last month, two voted for their neighbor; one voted against him—and the other split his allegiance between the man everyone knew and the men who were strangers.

The July Kimble county vote is one which should be contemplated by every citizen as yet undecided about how he shall cast his Senate vote on August 28.

The Answer

Bitter Reprieve

By DREXEL DRAKE
Distributed By NEA Service, Inc.

(THE STORY: Playboy Marcus Sterling owes Harry Bindle a gambling debt of $10,000 he cannot pay. His wealthy wife, Miriam, has refused him the money. Bindle calls at Sterling's home late at night to collect. Cornered, Sterling steals his wife's diamond necklace from a wall safe in her room while she sleeps, offers it to Bindle as security. He agrees to pay up by Saturday. Sterling has also taken a sealed packet from the safe. After Bindle leaves, he sets the stage for robbery. A disconnected electric clock, set ahead to 1:30, will mark the time. Satisfied, Marcus goes to Edgecraft Country Club to spend the night. On his arrival, attractive manageress Janet Weirhaven greets him with pleasure. Janet makes no bones about wanting to break up Sterling's marriage. She threatens to "put her cards on the table with Miriam.")

HE was still worrying over that ominous threat when, from the porch, he watched the tail-lights of Janet's car until they disappeared. He found the main foyer still deserted. In the grill he went to the bar. He turned when he heard his name called from a nearby table.

It was Byron Landis who had called to him . . . a flushed, buoyant man of 30-odd. "We've got our minds on bridge, Marcus, but Walter's running out on us," Landis said, nodding his head disparagingly toward a younger man at his left. "His night at home, or something."

"Little late, isn't it?" Sterling said, walking over to them.

Landis laughted boisterously. "I never thought I'd live long enough to hear Marcus Sterling say it was late." He looked at his watch. "Only 1:30."

The mention of that precise time sent a chill along Sterling's spine. One-thirty!

"What say, Marcus?" Landis urged. "Fourth hand?"

As tired as he was, Sterling did not find the invitation unwelcome. So it was nearly 4 o'clock before he finally found himself alone in his room.

He still could not contemplate sleep . . . rest. But the same sense of alertness that had guided him earlier still dictated a program of self-preservation.

HE took the package containing the old shoes from his bag. He had no difficulty finding his way through the silent corridor to the narrow stairway at the rear of the clubhouse . . . a direct descent to the locker rooms. In a corner he found a large metal bin, more than half filled with articles discarded by members from their lockers. Shoes were a dominant item . . . another pair added to the collection would not be conspicuous. Sterling removed the paper wrapping and buried the shoes deep into the bin. He thought of the gloves he had wadded and put into his coat pocket. Delving for them, his fingers encountered the small flashlight he had used. He snapped the pencil-like gadget in two, dropped the fragments with the gloves into the bin.

Back in his room, removing his coat, Sterling remembered for the first time the flat packet he had taken from his wife's safe and slipped into his inside pocket.

He took out the packet. It was a brown envelope . . . sealed . . . bearing in the upper left corner the printed address card of Miriam's uptown bank. But what arrested Sterling was the brief flourish of handwriting penned on the face of the envelope: Marcus. Just his name, in Miriam's handwriting.

He tore the envelope open across one end . . . shook out its contents . . . a tightly pressed sheaf of currency held together around the middle by a narrow band of gummed paper. Topmost of the tight packet, perhaps a quarter of an inch thick, was a hundred-dollar bill. Sterling riffled the edges. All hundred-dollar bills . . . crisp new money. Feverishly, Sterling counted. Exactly one hundred of them. Ten thousand dollars! Only then did Sterling notice a slip of paper inserted under the narrow binder. He pulled it out. Miriam's bold handwriting stared up at him . . .

You probably know deep down in your heart that I wouldn't fail you. Forgive me if I've caused you a whole extra day of worry, but I do so long to be more fully in your confidence.

Miriam.

Sterling slumped down on the bed, unaware that the sheaf of money dropped from his fingers to the floor.

EVEN though he closed his eyes, he felt himself staring at something being restaged to destroy his reason . . . something that would haunt him as long as he lived. Miriam across the room from him, her back to him, fumbling in the bag she had just opened. Now he remembered the peculiar twinkle in her eyes, the smile that had puzzled him, just before she turned to go to her bag, saying she would get her own cigarets. Miriam had gone there actually to get the envelope from her bag, to surprise him with it.

Then he had let go that damnable, churlish, unforgetable retort . . . that he had had to face her for three years. He remembered now how she had snapped shut her bag, stood there a while before turning, then walked back slowly, staring at him from eyes that seemed stricken.

How different it might have been! If he had spared her those words, that maliciously unfair slander, she would have come back to him smiling and would have given him the envelope. She would have run along to her room, leaving him with her surprise, leaving him to read her note. He would have had the money to pay Bindle. He would have been rid of Bindle in a minute or two. He would have rushed up to Miriam, up in her room. Miriam . . . up in her room . . . up in her room with the drink he had so heavily drugged!

Looking At Life -- By Erich Brandeis

HERE I am, just about recovering from that two months' siege of illness—and now I may have to go to jail.

I managed to write my column every day while I was in bed, but I don't know whether they let you write in prison.

If they do, I am sure all my stuff will be censored, and I'm a warden turns the job over to one of the guards I doubt whether he'll be able to read. Prison guards are not necessarily literate.

(By the way, and as usual I am off on a tangent again, here is a good one: My wife and I registered for the November elections yesterday. Not having lived in this particular district of Connecticut very long, we had not registered before.

(So, according to the rules, I had to take a reading and writing test. I told our town clerk that I was a writer, but that didn't make any difference. I had to take the test. And, believe it or not, I passed.)

Yes, I may have to go to jail.

I received a formidable-looking document from The State of New York, Department of Taxation and Finance, Manhattan District Office, containing a multigraphed letter on white paper, a four-page form on yellow paper, and a return envelope on buff-colored paper.

Both my first and last names were spelled wrong.

The thing was mailed to an address where I never worked, forwarded to the office where I have not worked since last November, and finally sent on to the place where I now try to get by with as little work as possible.

This is July, 1948. But the communication from the Tax Department of the State of New York—in which State I have not lived for more than four years—has just found that it has no record of my having filed a state income tax return for the year 1944.

Will I, therefore, please return the enclosed tax return with the following information: a), b), c) c1), c2, c3).

No use boring you with all the details of the requested information. But c1) is: If tax was paid, what was the number of six digits stamped on the face of the check?

BEING a newspaperman I am naturally sloopy about my private affairs, although my wife has tried for 27 years to make a businessman out of me.

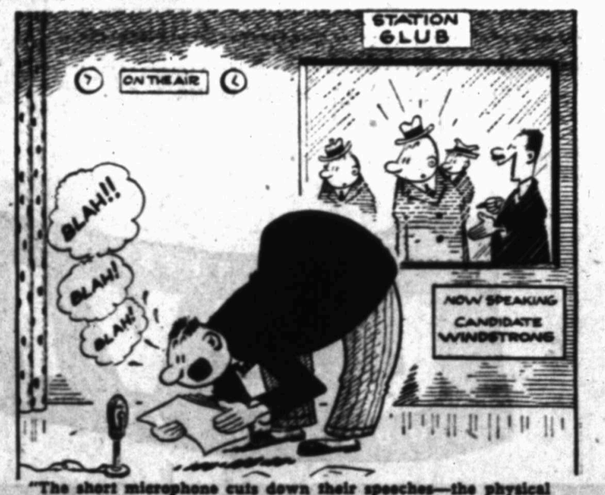

So far I haven't found a thing that could be of any use to the Tax Department—although I have discovered some old timetables, menus and other souvenirs.

The letter reached me two weeks after it was mailed, but it requests that I reply within ten days.

The yellow form specifies severe penalties for non-compliance with the rules and regulations.

And, on top of all my trouble, the radio is blasting into my ear "The Prisoner's Song" rendered —yes, rendered — by a terrible tenor.

BOTH PARTIES BUSY

Labor Vote At Stake

BY RAY TUCKER
Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON—John L. Lewis has schooled and steeled himself against showing traces of human emotion save when such an exhibition before a Congressional committee will advance the cause of his 400,000 coal miners. But his massive head popped back and a slow grin overspread his stolid face when he read a short newspaper item from Atlanta, Ga., a few days ago.

The article told how an examiner for the National Labor Relations board had held that chemical workers associated with District 50, Mr. Lewis' catch-all union could participate in a factory election, even though the Lewis brothers—John L. and A.D., the active head of District 50—had refused to sign the NLRB affidavit certifying that they are not Communists.

TUCKER

Two questions naturally popped into the minds of the Lewis leaders. The first is whether President Truman has belatedly begun to woo for the support of the man whom his courts threatened with jail, and subsequently fined several hundred thousand dollars for violation of an anti-strike injunction.

John L. knows politics and the bureaucratic mind too well to believe that the examiner would have made such a startling ruling if his superiors had not intimated that they were willing to review and possibly modify their anti-Red ban.

LEFTISTS: The other question is whether the Administration now seeks to wean away from Henry Wallace the powerful left-wing unions which aligned themselves with out-and-out Commies in stage-managing the third party's Philadelphia convention. These included Julius Emspak's electrical workers, Harry Bridges' longshoremen and numerous locals affiliated with Walter Reuther's United Automobile Workers.

Unless Mr. Truman can win back a majority of these labor leftists, who voted almost solidly for Franklin D. Roosevelt, he will have small chance of carrying such states as New York, Pennsylvania, Illinois and California. And without their electoral votes he may be one of the worst defeated Democratic presidential candidates in political history.

DEMANDS: Governor Thomas E. Dewey's emissaries have also been negotiating with spokesmen for organized labor, and especially with the anti-Truman head of the United Mine Workers. Their support in such states as Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Kentucky, Ohio and in numerous other sections might provide the margin of victory there if the race should become tighter than anybody expects now.

Mr. Lewis, however, has made demands which the Republican standard-bearer cannot possibly meet. John L. wants Mr. Dewey to declare himself in favor of scrapping almost all labor legislation now on the statute books and for making an entirely new approach to these industrial problems. He would throw out the Wagner Act as well as the Taft-Hartley law, insisting that they are inimical to the interests of both labor and management.

Almost the only feature of this vast body of legislation which the U.M.W. chieftain would retain is the collective bargaining provision, and then only if the federal agency supervising elections shows a neutral spirit toward the three national labor organizations. He maintains that they have been partial to the C.I.O. and A.F. of L. as a hangover from the days when they rang doorbells and stampeded their members to the polls to vote for F. D. R.

DESERTION: Republican strategists, however, do not feel that they can afford to advocate repeal of these laws, even though Mr. Dewey did refuse to sponsor a "baby Taft-Hartley Act" in New York state. They believe that they will get a sizable portion of the workingman's vote without making concessions that would alienate the business and white collar elements.

Although certain A.F. of L. and C.I.O. bigwigs may yet declare for Mr. Truman, it has become obvious that their attitude toward him is lukewarm. They will make no extraordinary effort to line up their following for him, preferring to try to elect so-called liberals to the House and Senate. Mr. Wallace is expected to poll approximately 10 or even 20 per cent of leftwing unionists.

Even if a majority of the workers come to regard Mr. Truman as the best of the presidential lot—sixty per cent, say—that would still be a fatal loss to the Democrats, in view of the fact that an estimated 90 per cent of this element always lined up behind Mr. Roosevelt. The President cannot afford even a partial desertion of this group to Mr. Dewey and Mr. Wallace.

SUSPICION: President Truman's plan to nominate his old senatorial pal, Senator Carl Hatch, to a federal bench at the expiration of his term next January has also aroused labor leaders' suspicion as to the sincerity of White House demands for repeal of the Taft-Hartley act. They have conveyed their querulous attitude to Mr. Truman's labor advisers, particularly John R. Steelman.

Although almost everybody except the union observers have forgotten it, Mr. Hatch was the only Democratic Senator outside the Solid South to vote to override Mr. Truman's veto of the Taft-Hartley measure. His anti-White House stand caused surprise at the time because he has been regarded as the Chief Executive's personal spokesman and representative on Capitol Hill. So much so that at times Minority Leader Barkley resented it.

PLAN: Although a vacancy in the Tenth Judicial District, which includes New Mexico, was created by resignation of a sitting jurist on July 6, the White House plan is to deter the Hatch appointment until the end of the present session, or until after the election. The Senator cannot be named to the bench so long as he keeps his seat, which gives plausibility to the scheme to withhold the "reward" until it will have no effect on the presidential voting.

But the United Mine Workers Journal, John L.'s personal organ, regards the Truman-Hatch deal as evidence that the President is paying only lip service to organized labor, despite his repeated demand for repeal of the Taft-Hartley act.

The railroads are crying that they're broke. What did they do with all that money they made during the war, when the trains were so crowded the engineer had to stand up?

The only certain way to make money on corn is to sell it to a radio program sponsor. Millions have been made this way.

"In case the girl did the proposing, I will marry the couple free," asserts a Kentucky minister. Is there ever any other case?

"Free enterprise" as constituted today is a system under which a man can go out and hustle and make a lot of money, if he doesn't mind the tax departments taking most of it away from him.

LEGISLATION TO BE PUSHED

GOP Plans Curb On Filibusters

By THOMAS L. STOKES
Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON — Senator Vandenberg (R., Mich.) and Senator Taft (R., O.), who might properly be called "Yankees," are in a conspiracy which if successful, suh, will abolish from the Senate of the United States one of its most charming and delightful features.

No longer, if these two Yankee statesmen have their way, will the humdrum of routine pressing national business be broken for one of those interludes of old-fashioned oratory in alternately dulcet and bitterly impassioned southern voices that run on for days to take us back to a dead past that is forgotten by all but the South. Impolitely and discourteously our friends at the no'th refer to it vulgarly as a "fillbuster" when we know, suh, that it is only a full discussion of grave constitutional issues that affect the very foundations of our republic.

STOKES

It is a monstrous thing that they would do to us, suh! And to others as well, and to something memorable in our traditions. No longer will the visitors to our galleries from other parts of the country be able to hear real southern oratory at its protracted best, for while it is still prolific and profuse in southern political campaigns, very few Yankees get close to one of those. Here we have preserved it, here in the United States Senate, as we have preserved in our capital city our national landmarks.

The Yankees seem finally to have got their fill of southern talk. The southerners worked out a trick that was a bit too cute. They didn't wait this time for the poll tax bill actually to be brought up but started their filibuster against a motion to bring it up. There was method in this. They argued that the Yankees couldn't bring in a cloture petition to limit debate, since cloture applies under the rules only to "measures" not "motions." It was clever. It was also legal.

Senator Vandenberg, as president pro tem, had to rule, so, and in quite a mouthful of language, himself—he'd been hearing too much southern talk of late.

But the senator indicated plainly that he'd had enough at last and observed very pointedly that there's a bill pending to plug up the loophole the southerners had used. It's been pending for 18 months, he said, obviously for the benefit of his Yankee colleagues who deplore filibusters but never do much about them, for you can still get credit politically by just bringing forward these Civil Rights bills, at least Republicans appear to believe. Then Senator Taft accepted the implied challenge and announced this cloture perfecting bill would be the first order of business in the next Congress.

Thus we have the Yankee conspiracy.

It's a reform long needed, and yet, somehow it is all a bit sad. Something will be missing when you can no longer listen, literally entranced, to these southerners on their favorite topic, as for example, Senator Lister Hill of Alabama who orates in misty, sepulchral tones with appropriate gestures as he walks back and forth behind his desk about the Yankee wrongs to the South, going all the way back to the Civil War and reconstruction and that villian Thad Stevens whose name our grandmothers spat out venomously, as the senator does. That is something that should not be lost. For it is only on that subject that southerners get in their peculiar trance. They are transported back to the past. Their voices become hushed and foggy. Their eyes roll. A strange performance for men who ordinarily are sensible and very matter-of-fact and business-like when they talk of other things.

As a native southerner watches this transmigration of soul to pillared mansions and cloudy battlefields, he is back again in the elocution session on Friday afternoon in high school.

The smell of chalk dust mingles with the perfume of late spring flowers and new-mown grass that drifts through the windows. The prize "speaker" of the class is reciting Henry W. Grady's "New South" speech with that unforgettable picture of "the footsore Confederate soldier" who turns homeward from Appomattox. That stays in the blood always, and boy orators grown older mumble it, letter-perfect, in their cups years later.

It was the "New South" about which Henry Grady professed to speak back there in 1886, in New York, but the old south kept coming back, the old south of fantastic legend, as it still does today more than half a century later when southerners go into their trance, forgetting in their emotional spree the goals of "liberty and enfranchisement" for the negro fired by Henry Grady that are not yet fully realized.

SOME SKILLED CONSTRUCTION WORKERS ARE GETTING THEIR PLANS FOR THE FUTURE INTO HIGH GEAR

HERE'S THE STORY
The high cost of living is putting a crimp into most everybody's hopes for the future. You can't save for that new house (or new anything) when it takes every penny to just get by. This is why many skilled construction workers are turning to overseas work to build a big enough stake to get out of the bind. Some figure to turn an 18-month hitch into a nice four-figure bank account.

NOT MANY OPENINGS
Middle-East, Inc. wants a limited number of responsible men for oil refinery and power house construction in Saudi Arabia, near the Persian Gulf. This company will pay top wages, monthly bonus, monthly vacation allowance and living expenses to those who can qualify.

BASIC QUALIFICATIONS
You must know your trade from the ground up. You must also be 30 to 50 years of age, have proof of U. S. citizenship and be able to pass a physical exam.

Certain Trades Needed Most PIPE WELDERS
CRANE OPERATORS
ELECTRICIANS
BOILERMAKERS
CEMENT FINISHERS
PLUMBERS
CARPENTERS

Welders must be certified by pipe test. All others must have plenty of industrial construction experience.

NO BED OF ROSES
This is not a travel for romance deal. It's an opportunity for far-sighted men. Good food and a fine clubhouse hardly make up for terrific heat and isolation. Think this over before inquiring.

Get The Story First Hand
. . . from Mr. A. L. Anderson of Middle-East, Inc. He will be in Lubbock Texas, August 5th through August 10th at the State Employment Service Office.

Remember: August 5th through August 10th Daily: 8:30 - 4:00. Sat: 8:30 - 12:00

NOTICE TO BIDDERS

Sealed proposals addressed to M. R. Smith, Jr., City Manager, Lubbock, Texas, will be received at his office until 2:00 P. M. August 12, 1948, for the drilling and casing of three (3) water wells and the furnishing of all labor, materials, tools and equipment (except that specifically stated to be furnished by the City) necessary to complete the work.

Prices in the Proposal shall be made on the basis of the linear foot of depth. Each well will be 140 feet in depth plus or minus twenty five (25) percent.

Bidders must submit a Cashier's or Certified check issued by a bank satisfactory to the Owner, or a Bidder's Bond from a reliable Surety Company, payable without recourse to the order of the City of Lubbock, Texas, in an amount not less than five (5%) percent of the total bid price as guarantee that Bidder will enter into a contract and execute Bond and Guaranty in the forms provided within ten (10) days after notice of award of contract to him. Bids without required check or Proposal Bond will not be considered.

The successful Bidder must furnish a performance bond on the attached form in the amount of one hunrded (100) per cent of the total contract price from a Surety Company holding a permit from the State of Texas, to act as Surety, or other Surety of Sureties acceptable to the owner.

The City reserves the right to reject any or all bids, to waive formalities, to accept the bid which seems most advantageous to the City's interest.

Bidders are expected to inspect the site of the work and to inform themselves regarding all local conditions.

Attention is called to the provisions of the Acts of the 43rd Legislature of the State of Texas, Article No. 5159A Civil Statutes 1925, covering the wage scale and payment of prevailing rates of wages as established by the Owner. Said scale of prevailing rates of wages is set forth in the specifications.

Information for bidders, proposal forms, specifications, contract documents and location drawings are on file at the office of John P. Ruhmann, City Engineer, in the City Hall, Lubbock, Texas.

Polio Toll Continues To Rise Over Nation

WASHINGTON, Aug. 4. (AP)—Infantile paralysis is epidemic in parts of three states and is increasing in about half the other states, the public health service reported today.

New cases for the week ended July 31 totalled 1,215, compared with 982 the week previous, 169 for the corresponding week in 1947, and 911 for the same week in 1946. The latter year eventually proved to be the second worst on record.

The year's total to July 31 reached 5,798 compared with 1,967 for the comparable period last year and 5,450 for the same period in 1946.

Of last week's new cases, the epidemic-hit states of North Carolina, Texas and California accounted for 43 per cent against 47 per cent the week before, and 60 per cent in the week before that.

North Carolina had 212 cases last week, and 206 the week before; California 224 and 192, Texas 82 and 68.

St. Louis Buses Are Equipped With FM Radio Receiving Sets

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 4 (INS)—Radio music and news blended with street noises today on 20 St. Louis Public Service Co. buses on the Cherokee line.

The buses are equipped with FM receiving sets. The music and news was broadcast to the vehicles by station KXOK-FM. The service is being offered on a trial basis on the first of the company's six lines.

Puerto Rico was discovered by Columbus in 1493.

FORT WORTH REPORT

FORT WORTH, Aug. 4 (AP) — Wheat No. 1 hard 2.29-33.
Oats No. 2 white 88½-90½.
Corn No. 2 yellow 2.11½-25.
Sorghums No. 2 yellow milo per 100 lbs 2.35-40.

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, Aug. 4 (AP) — Corn slipped into new seasonal low territory today under the weight of a record-breaking private crop forecast. Losses were not unduly large. Wheat and oats, which had displayed a firming tendency in early dealings, reversed themselves when corn started to sink.

Wheat closed ⅞-1⅞ lower, September $2.22⅞, corn was ⅛-2⅛ lower, September $1.68⅞-⅝, oats were ¼-⅝ lower, September 73⅛-½.

At A Glance

NEW YORK, Aug. 4 (AP)
STOCKS—Higher; market responds to light buying.
BONDS — Irregular; rails mixed.
COTTON — Easier; hedge selling.
WHEAT — Easy; unsettled by corn weakness.
CORN—Weak; new season-allows: record crop forecasts.
OATS—Lower with corn.
HOGS—Steady to 50 cents higher; top $31.50, new record.
CATTLE — Steady to 75 cents lower; top $40.85.

Wall Street

NEW YORK, Aug. 4. (AP)—Stock prices climbed rapidly in late trading today after a halting early ascent. The market closed with gains running from fractions to a top of 4 points in the most decisive advance in two weeks.

Trading volume expanded in the last few minutes of business. Turnover for the day amounted to 870,000 shares, compared with Tuesday's slow 720,000 shares.

Oil, rail, steel and motor stocks led the field.

Wall Street sources reported the increased buying interest stemmed from the theory that Congress will approve only mild credit controls and the belief that taut relations between Moscow and the western powers have eased.

Point or more gainers included U. S. Steel at 79½, Bethlehem Steel 36⅛, General Motors 65, Chrysler 61½, Standard Oil (NJ) 80⅛, Mission Corp. 59½, Gulf Oil 71½, Union Pacific 90 (up 4), Southern Railway 46½, Southern Pacific 57⅞, Santa Fe 114¾, American Smelting 59⅞, Dow Chemical 46⅞, and American Woolen 56½.

Cotton

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, Aug. 4 (AP) — Cotton futures were easy in moderately active dealings today. Liquidation was prompted by the issuance of higher private cotton crop forecasts, anticipating the government report next Monday. Further curtailment in the cotton textile mill operation also had a depressing effect on the market.

The crop forecast ranged from 13,250,000 bales to about 14,000,000 bales compared with the 1947 crop of 11,851,000 bales. Further hedge selling was in evidence reflecting the expanding new crop movement with spot sales at the ten primary markets more than double a year ago for the first two days of this week.
