Bullitt Urges Greater Speed For Defense

Says Dispute In Europe Decided By Air Control

(By The United Press)

NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—The German-Italian-Japanese pact of last September is a "clear warning" that the dictator nations have marked the United States as "next" on the aggression list, William C. Bullitt, American ambassador to France said today.

In a speech prepared for delivery before the New York Herald Tribune Forum, Bullitt said that the lesson to be learned from the European nations that have been subjected to German aggression could be expressed in the words, "late, late, too late."

Decided By Control Of Air

The issue of every diplomatic dispute in Europe in 1937, 1938 and 1939 was decided by Germany's control of the air, he said. France fell because she had not enough planes and tanks and because she had tried to produce them "without deranging normal business" and without sacrificing the 40-hour week. Ten thousand modern planes and 5,000 tanks in the combined hands of the British and French, he said, would have saved one from bombardment, the other from defeat.

Bullitt urged the United States to build for defense at high speed and to take a lesson from the courses of Britain and France because:

Is Clear Warning

"The delayed-action threat against the United States and all other nations that live in liberty, made by Italy and Germany and Japan in their agreement of September 27, 1940, is a clear warning to us that, in the minds of the dictators, it is our turn next."

He recommended that this country extend all possible aid to Britain and China because "we know that Germany and Italy will not be able to attack us so long as they are blocked in Europe by the British fleet" and that Japan will not be free to join in an attack "so long as she is held by China."

Already Building Fast

America already is building "fast" for national defense, he said, "but our instinct for self-preservation is not yet fully aroused."

"The atmosphere in America today resembles the atmosphere in France in 1938," he continued. "Today we feel the danger to our country even less than the French felt the danger to theirs in 1938.

"We must prepare now at war pace or we may be too late."

Reorganization Plan Is Announced; Four Units To Be Set Up

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24—Reorganization of the army air corps to double its present number of combat groups and create a "highly mobile fighting force," capable of operation anywhere in the western hemisphere, was announced today by the war department.

The reorganization took the form of establishment of four air districts. It will include expansion of the four air corps wings now in continental United States to 17 wings as rapidly as trained personnel and equipment, now in production, becomes available.

Instead of the present 25 combat groups, the expanded air force will have 54, the announcement said.

Purpose Is Explained

"The purpose of the creation of the air districts," the department explained, "is to effect decentralization of training and inspection duties of the commanding general, general headquarters airforce, and to provide for the development of commanders and staffs for such special task forces as may be required for operation in war."

The 1942 personnel objective for the new force was announced at 163,000 enlisted men, compared with the previous air corps objective of 45,000.

The department said the program contemplated an increase in the annual output of trained pilots from 7,000 to 12,000.

The GHQ air force commander, at present Major-General Delos C. Emmons, will remain in command of all these units. The commander's headquarters are to be transferred from Langley field., Va., to Billing field, on the outskirts of Washington, D. C.

ATLANTA, Ga., Oct. 24.—"General" James Reid Jones, a courier in Gen. Wade Hampton's Confederate cavalry of 1864, today looked over the mechanized "Yankee" army of 1940 and "wished to hell I'd had one of them automatic rifles when Sherman was marching through Georgia."

Ninety-six years old, bent and stooped, able to shuffle slowly with the aid of a cane, Jones' martial ardor is unimpaired by his years. Discussing war daily with his five cronies at the Atlanta Confederate veterans home, he got a yen to see the new weapons and a new army and went to Fort McPherson.

Italians Claim U. S. In Plot

(By The Associated Press)

ROME, Oct. 24.—Virginio Gayda, the editor who often speaks for the Fascist regime, declared today the United States' rearmament efforts were part of an imperialistic program under the mask of national defense.

Writing in Il Giornale D'Italia, Gayda said the United States "is entering imperialistic waters which formerly belonged to England."

Evidence Is Cited

The new American imperialism, he asserted, has progressed from the former "dollar imperialism" to a "political and military monopoly of positions and bases shown in ever vaster constellations around the starry republic."

The Fascist editor interpreted the recent statement of Frank Knox, secretary of the navy, that the United States would obtain additional Pacific bases as evidence America is "preparing to lend another hand to the progressive destruction of the British empire by constituting herself heiress to the positions and riches which formerly formed a part of British power."

Could Perform Miracles

He said there is no question the United States "is floating in gold" and could perform miracles in rearmament.

"But there is a question whether the necessary national spirit such as has been created in Italy and Germany will accompany this military preparation," Gayda continued.

For the first time, the Axis attitude toward the United States was

Campaign To Beat McDonald Opened

(By The Associated Press)

WACO, Oct. 24.—A write-in campaign by Democrats in the general election against State Agriculture Commissioner J. E. McDonald was proposed here today because of McDonald's support of the Republican presidential ticket.

C. C. Randle, county judge of Ellis, McDonald's home county, called for a statewide meeting here tomorrow noon to begin such a campaign.

Corry May Offer

There was also a statement by W. N. Corry, runner-up to McDonald in the July Democratic primary, that he would offer as a write-in candidate if enough party leaders indicated they would support him.

Corry, a resident of Keller, Tarrant county, made his statement at Dallas yesterday. Randle, here for a meeting of the county judges and commissioners association opening today, did not specify a candidate. He said he was looking for the "best available man."

To Support Willkie

McDonald, Democratic nominee for a sixth term as agriculture commissioner, announced Tuesday that he would support Wendell L. Willkie and Charles L. McNary, Republican candidates, for president and vice president in the Nov. 5 election.

Democratic party leaders in Dallas yesterday discounted the effect of McDonald's statement on the vote for Roosevelt and Wallace in Texas.

State Democratic Chairman E. B. Germany suggested the best thing for the party to do was ignore McDonald.

Deficit Shown After Entrada

Showing of the Coronado Entrada at the recent Panhandle-South Plains fair incurred a deficit of approximately $650, according to information given by officials of the fair association this morning.

The Entrada, the report contained, was "in the red" despite the fact that costs of the presentation were approximately $1,397 less than the budget approved by the federal Coronado commission.

Deficit To Be Absorbed

The Entrada was presented as the night grandstand attraction during the fair under the joint sponsorship of the commission, the West Texas Museum association and the fair association. The deficit will be absorbed by the fair association, officials said.

The budget as approved for the presentation here, officials said, was $5,842.50. The sum actually expended, according to the federal audit, was $4,445. Paid admissions totaled $3,794.25, indicating at least 15,177 persons bought tickets at 25 cents.

Largest Crowds Here

The final report confirms, officials said, that more persons saw the Entrada in Lubbock than in any of the approximately 20 southwestern cities where it was presented during the summer's observance of the 400th anniversary of the visit by Coronado, Spanish explorer, to the area. The first, second and third largest crowds who saw the approximately 40 performances during the summer were provided by Lubbock.

Officials pointed out also that Lubbock was the only city in which the 25 cent admission was established. In other cities, the general admission ranged from 50 cents up with additional charges, in most

S. charge d'affaires, to cable President Roosevelt a request to intercede with the Spanish government in behalf of former King Carol and other members of the Rumanian royal party now under detention in Seville.

The United States legation was reported studying the request.

Pangal described Carol's action as a move to place hemself under the president's "protection."

PEACE IN ORIENT?

Envoy Claims Settlement Of Conflict Near

Terms Said To Be Those Offered By Japs Once Before

(By The Associated Press)

"Trial balloons" were floated toward peace in the three-year-old struggle between Japan and China, it was reported today.

In San Francisco, retiring Japanese Ambassador Kensuke Horinouchi was quoted as saying a peace agreement lacking only "final official action" has been reached between China's Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek and Wang Ching-Wei, Japanese-dominated puppet ruler of Nanking, China.

"The terms, I should think, are along the lines stated by the Japanese government two years ago," he was quoted as saying.

This was an evident reference to Premier Prince Fumimaro Konoye's statement on Dec. 12, 1938, suggesting a basis for peace on the following terms:

1. Japan would respect Chinese sovereignty.
2. Japan would "discuss" giving pu her extra-territorial rights in China.
3. Japan would not demand either territory or indemnity from China.
4. In return, Japan would "ask" Chinese economic and political cooperation.

In Tokyo, capital of Japan, neutral representatives were said to have extended feelers for peace in the conflict.

Domei, the Japanese news agency, reported also that former Japanese Premier Nobuyuki Abe, now special envoy in China, was en route home

Willkie Supporters Seeking Funds Here

Local groups supporting the presidential candidacy of Wendell Willkie seek contributions of money to carry on the campaign in this area, Mrs. Wright Kerr, of Lubbock, Republican county chairman, said today. Any donation to the Willkie cause will be appreciated, whether large or small, she said, in urging interested persons to bring or send their contributions to her at the Kerr residence, 2611 Twenty-first street.

"This is not a Republican fight," Mrs. Kerr said. "It is the fight of all who oppose a third term and a continuation of present national policies. The Republican organization here is being aided by many Democrats, including those who consider Mr. Willkie more of a Democrat than Mr. Roosevelt."

The Republican organization, with aid from the No Third Term club and the Democratis-For-Willkie group, which Mrs. Kerr says are functioning here, is planning a further campaign here and in this section, including some radio programs, the GOP chairman announced.

Claims President Contributed To Dictators' Rise

(By The Associated Press)

HARBOR CREEK, Pa., Oct. 24.—Wendell L. Willkie asserted today that if President Roosevelt did not remember his promises of today longer than he did his pledges in 1932 he feared "our boys" would soon be put on transports bound for combat in war.

In a broadcast reply to Mr. Roosevelt's campaign address in Philadelphia last night, the Republican presidential candidate also charged that the "third term candidate" had evaded the issues of the 1940 campaign and that the president's speech was like the country's military defense system—"either obsolete or on order."

Quotation Is Given

He said:

"Last night, the third-term candidate, referring to the Democratic platform of 1940, quoted this language from that platform:

" 'We will not participate in foreign wars and we will not send our army, naval or air forces to fight in foreign lands outside of the Americas except in cases of attack.'

"I hope, I hope sincerely, that that pledge made last night by the third-term candidate, based upon the 1940 platform of the Democratic party, is remembered by him longer than he remembered the same pledge that he made with reference to the provisions of the Democratic platform of 1932.

"If he does not remember it longer, then shortly our boys will be on the transports, sailing for some foreign shore."

Willkie repeated that he approved of old age pensions, unemployment insurance, collective bargaining and other social gains, but declared that "if we continue along the road of deficit financing . . . the end will be financial chaos, bankruptcy and inflation which will result in the loss of every social gain as well as the loss of liberty."

Willkie spoke from his campaign train in this town a few miles from Erie, Pa. The 24-minute speech was broadcast over a nationwide NBC

Sabotage Dangers Told By Stimson

(By The United Press)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—Secretary of War Henry L. Stimson said today that the sabotage attempts of Germany and other belligerents in the present war are "far more dangerous" than they were during the World war.

Speaking at a press conference on the necessity for the creation of home guard units to replace national guard organizations called to federal service, he said that the perfection of sabotage techniques made home guards more essential than in the last war.

Attempts Already Shown

"Attempts at sabotage have already been shown by belligerent nations—Germany for example—to be far more dangerous than 20 years ago," he said.

He did not say whether instances of sabotage had actually been found in this country.

Irate Mothers And Wives Are Up In Air Over Hostess Idea

(By The United Press)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—War department officials are looking for a way to convince suspecting mothers and wives that the hostess plan for military training camps really was innocently designed to make army life more like home for the boys.

The department is being flooded with applications for the hostess jobs. But it is receiving "too many" protests from other women who charge that a plan for women in the army is "inviting the moral decline of husbands and sons."

Rupture of home ties—disregard for the holiness of marriage—a year of revel for men just waiting to get away from home—those are some of the charges being hurled at the army.

The whole trouble seems to be that word "hostess." The official who decided to call the women hostesses apparently didn't know much about what other women think of that word. But they know now. One letter stated emphatically that hostess is just a nice word for a woman.

Dying Child Wanted His Penny Saved

(By The United Press)

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Oct. 24.—When 6-year-old Donald Gordon left for school his mother gave him a penny to spend for candy.

On his way, Donald called for Carol Radman, also 6, a first-grade classmate.

"Look what I've got, Carol!" he exulted, displaying the shiny coin.

A few moments later, Donald and Carol failed to see a street car as they skipped across an intersection. The car passed over Donald's legs and knocked Carol aside.

Gripped His Coin

Unhurt and frightened, Carol jumped up and ran away. Two passing firemen leaped to Donald's aid. Still clenched between his thumb and finger was the penny. As the firemen attempted to ease his pain Donald gripped the coin tighter.

An ambulance took Donald to a hospital. Before he died a few hours later, he motioned to Dr. J. W. Rastetter.

"Mister," he whispered, "will you please take this penny and save it for me?"

Rastetter returned it to the boy's father, Donald S. Gordon.

State Officers Said Entitled To Keep Jobs

Opinion Given By Attorney General Man Reversed

(By The Associated Press)

AUSTIN, Oct. 24.—The state supreme court held in effect today that a state office holder who also is an officer of the national guard does not vacate his office when the guard is called into service of the United States.

Petition of Orville S. Carpenter, director of unemployment compensation in Texas and a major in the national guard, for a writ of mandamus compelling the state comptroller to pay his state salary was granted.

Entitled To Be Paid

Attorney General Gerald C. Mann recently held in an opinion that an officer of the national guard in active military service of the United States could not also hold a state office.

The court said Carpenter's appointment as a major did not violate the Texas constitution and "he is entitled to be paid his salary."

Much interest had attached to the case because of the effect on a number of state offices.

Others Are Affected

Among state officials who also are officers of the national guard were Ernest O. Thompson, member of the state railroad commission, Adjutant General J. Watt Page and several members of the legislature.

The court sustained Carpenter's contention in all respects, and the decision was regarded as of far-reaching importance, settling questions as to the status of state officials and guard officers which had long been discussed.

There had been speculation in particular over the possible effect on railroad commission and oil regulation policies if Thompson, a national guard colonel, had been forced to resign from the commission and Governor W. Lee O'Daniel had appointed a successor.

The court said its decision was no criticism of Mann, who himself

Island Forces To Be Raised

(By The United Press)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24 — The United States, ready to defend "land anywhere under the American flag," made its first move in more than 20 years today to strengthen its fighting forces in the Philippine islands.

Two full pursuit squadrons of the army air corps—about 160 men and officers each and an undisclosed number of airplanes—were being made ready in Michigan and California to leave for Manila. The first group will leave within a few days, the other within a month.

To Supply Planes

Secretary of War Henry L. Stimson disclosed that the two squadrons will be supplied with an undetermined number of planes from the 110 originally ordered by Sweden but requisitioned by this government. Stimson said the planes were for "combat purposes" and not for training.

Stimson also said that the American troops in the Philippines would cooperate fully with the Philippine army forces which are being trained by Gen. Douglas MacArthur, former U. S. army chief of staff.

The army's decision to strengthen Philippine air defenses was announced shortly after Secretary of the Navy Frank Knox told a press conference that "we can defend anything." It also came amidst rapid acquisition by both the army and navy of a large number of transport vessels and naval auxiliary craft from private steamship lines.

network.

Speaking of 1932 promises, he recited planks in the Democratic platform of that year—he pointed out earlier that he voted for Mr. Roosevelt in 1932—said "the New Deal candidate" accepted these promises, and then declared that they were not carried out.

"Now, Mr. Third Term Candidate," he said several times after making these charges, "tell the American people whether Wendell Willkie falsified that part of the record."

Willkie also charged that the president "killed the London economic conference" advocated in the 1932 Democratic platform and "repudiated the program of stabilization which he himself had instructed our delegates to present."

Contributed To Fall

"And, in my judgment, by that act he contributed more to the fall of the Democracies and the rise of the dictators than was performed by any single act of any government in the world."

He said he did not recognize some of the "falsifications" Mr. Roosevelt said he made in the campaign. He said he did recognize the point about Mr. Roosevelt "telephoning" to Hitler before the Munich pact, and pointed out that he, Willkie, had acknowledged previously he had made a mistake.

Mr. Roosevelt, he added, did not telephone—he "telegraphed" Hitler.

The president, Willkie said, was trying to violate a tradition of 150 years, and yet, Willkie added, "offered not one word" in defense of his attempt.

Taking issue with Mr. Roosevelt's figures on recovery, Willkie said the "history of his failure lay in the relief rolls of this country."

Nothing the third-term candidate can say, he said, can discount the fact there are 9,000,000 men out of work.

He said the 1932 Democratic platform promised a balanced budget and lower governmental expenditures, but expenditures had risen by billions and no attempt had been made to balance the budget.

Completed In 1942

Completion of the combat group program is to be expected some time in 1942, the announcement said, and to that end production of airplanes and training of pilots, combat crews, and enlisted specialists will be closely coordinated.

Outlining the composition of the new force, the department said it would have approximately 12,800 airplanes for both tactical operations and training. The balance of the 18,000 planes already contracted for or on hand will be held in an equipment reserve.

to create home guard units. There is nothing mandatory about the law and the states can set up the organizations at their own discretion. Arms and other supplies will be furnished by the government.

Equipment Limited

Stimson said that while the amount of equipment was limited, the army had on hand more than enough World war Lee-Enfield rifles to equip a home guard force of 125,000 men or more.

"In 1917 similar organizations were created to protect industries and utilities from sabotage and it was very successfully done," Stimson said. He recalled that at that time 27 states had home guard units totaling 79,000 men.

Drastic Changes In Texas Prison System Discussed

(By The United Press)

AUSTIN, Oct. 24—Preliminary surveys have been started by members of the Agricultural and Mechanical college staff on a plan to make the Texas prison system self-sustaining, Gov. W. Lee O'Daniel announced here today.

Under the proposed plan, he said, the 75,000 acres of land owned by the prison system will be turned into "production plantations" for diversified farming using latest agricultural and industrial methods.

Would Be Saving

"The economic survey being made by experts should result in installation of a complete program that would save a large part, if not all, of the $1,500,000 annual deficit in that phase of the state's business," Governor O'Daniel said.

"The land should be laid out in well-ordered plots, each devoted to raising particular products according to scientific principles, including truck gardening, dairying and poultry raising. Forests should be developed, soil renewed and irrigation systems installed."

The governor announced that the plan has been launched by the Texas prison commission and the board of directors of A. and M. college.

To Aid In Rehabilitation

"Such a plan," he said, "will have its economic advantages and should prove most useful as well in developing rehabilitation work among the prisoners. They will be taught new methods; their self-respect will be increased, and their interest in the work assigned them will be stimulated."

Previous efforts to devise a plan for a self-supporting prison system were made in 1929 and 1937. Recommendations made both times have not been acted upon.

The 1929 report was made after a tour of principal prisons of the United States by prison board members and legislators. They recommended sale of most of the prison farms and creation of an industrial prison near Austin to furnish supplies for state institutions.

Expansion Suggested

The 1937 survey was made by the prison industries reorganization administration (federal) at request of the prison board and former Gov. James V. Allred. It also recommended that prison industries be expanded and diversified "thus curtailing open market sales of cotton and reducing dependence upon one crop."

A cotton textile mill, and a hosiery mill were among the specific recommendations. Supporting the report was an exhibit of products bought by the state for its institutions that could be prison-made.

MARKET SHOWS FATIGUE

NEW YORK, Oct. 24 (AP)—The stock market exhibited fatigue today, after a two-day advance and leaders generally backed down fractions to a point or so.

After a morning of irregularly lower prices, recent steel and other industrial favorites slipped to bottom marks in the final hour. A number of small early gains were wiped out.

Transfers were around 550,000 shares.

The fact that business prospects were holding up well was offset partially, brokers said, by the highly confused foreign picture.

Among wavering stocks were U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, Youngstown Sheet, General Motors, Chrysler, Sears Roebuck, Douglas Aircraft, United Aircraft, Consolidated Edison, Public Service of N. Challenge Made To Charge Of Surgeon

CHICAGO, Oct. 24. (AP)—Dr. Malcolm MacEachern of Chicago, associate director of the American College of Surgeons, challenged today an assertion that for every well trained surgeon in this country, there were probably 20 who do incompetent work.

The charge was made by Dr. Harold L. Foss, surgeon-in-chief of the Geisinger Memorial hospital at Danville, Pa., in an address Tuesday at the ACS convention.

MacEachern declared in an interview:

"I think Dr. Foss made a very exaggerated statement, and that the publicity given to it might make people who need surfical attention hesitate to undergo a surgical operation."

Attorneys for Carpenter had built their case largely on constitutional amendments of 1926 and 1932 which they contended specifically permitted states officers to serve concurrently in the guard, whether on active or inactive duty.

The tribunal agreed, declaring "the amendments were adopted for the very purpose of not penalizing members of the guard."

Prize Mustache Of Comedian Is Costly

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 24. (U.P.)—Jerry Colonna's handle-bar mustache may be just so many whiskers on a comedian's lip to Producer Gene Markey, but Colonna figures it's worth $100,000.

The film and stage funny man filed an action for declaratory relief to prevent Markey from forcing him to shave off the mustache for a movie scene.

He charged that his mustache, six inches from tip to tip, is essential to his livelihood and that its removal would deprive him of income from several movie and stage appearances—which he estimated would cost him $100,000.

Dictators Eye United States

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24. (AP)—Members of the National Guard association, many of them bound for a year's active duty, heard Maj. Gen. Edward Martin, their new president, declare "there is only one objective for any dictator—and that is the United States."

Addressing the delegates immediately after his election, Martin, who is also adjutant general of Pennsylvania, said the present emergency made it necessary for this country's citizen-soldier to "attain even greater heights than ever before."

"There is only one objective for any dictator, and that is the United States. I don't know what's in store for us. It may be training and it may be a great campaign."

Must Be Fit Physically

He asserted the national guard must be better fit physically than at any time and "be prepared to sacrifice more time to military affairs than heretofore."

Shortly before concluding its three-day convention, the guard passed a resolution complaining that some media of public information had published "so-called special articles based on hearsay and speculation which destroy the confidence of the American people in the armed service, and consciously or unconsciously, sabotage the program."

The resolution directed the association's president to appoint a three-member standing committee to seek the cooperation of the press and radio in establishing a "self censorship" and developing a policy that would insure that "all news in connection with the rearmament and mobilization plans be constructive factual news . . ."

"Twilight Sleep" Pill Now Widely Used By Mothers In Childbirth Recommended For The Relief Of Wounded Soldiers

BY HOWARD W. BLAKESLEE
Associated Press Science Editor

CHICAGO, Oct. 24.—A "twilight sleep" pill now widely used for mothers in childbirth was recommended for wounded soldiers today at the American College of Surgeons.

This drug, sodium amytal, will prevent or delay shock and so save many lives among the wounded, it was predicted.

The report was made by Brigadier General Raymond F. Metcalfe, medical department, U. S. army, who is commanding general of the army medical center, Washington.

Deadens Sense Of Pain

Sodium amytal, a well known sedative, deadens the sense of pain and permits a suffering person to doze or even sleep.

General Metcalfe credited Major Sam Seeley and Doctors Essex and Mann, at the Mayo clinic, with finding the new shock preventive. Shock after a severe wound is frequently fatal and one of the most serious risks to a badly wounded soldier. It is a complete physical collapse and not the same thing as shell shock, a mental condition seldom fatal.

The Mayo experimentors found that in animals the onset of shock was delayed many hours by the "twilight sleep" remedy. Tests of sodium amytal in human surgery, General Metcalfe said, indicated similar benefits for man.

Use Recommended

"With the observation and the animal experiments," he went on, "we recommend that the battalion surgeons and hospital corps men be equipped with sodium amytal capsules of one-fifth of a gram and give one capsule to every seriously wounded soldier before starting him to the rear."

Another boon to wounded soldiers, described in confidential reports from European battlefields, was reported by Doctors C. C. Coleman, Richmond, Wallace B. Hamby, Buffalo, Howard C. Naffziger, San Francisco and Byron Stookey, New York.

This is sulfanilamide. It has doubled the length of time a soldier with penetrating brain wounds can wait for treatment and still have a chance to live. The sulfanilamide reduces the danger of infection. This drug is given by mouth, by injection and even by sprinkling it in wounds.

Chicago Newspaper Offers Apology To Wendell Willkie

CHICAGO, Oct. 24. (AP)—Under the heading "It Shouldn't Happen Here," the Daily Times, which is supporting Mr. Roosevelt for reelection, ran on the front page of all its editions today a picture of Wendell Willkie, his face and shoulders spattered with egg. The caption added:

"To which all Chicagoans, outraged by such an act as the one pictured, will subscribe wholeheartedly, mindful of the fact there is no place for hooliganism in the Democratic system. . . .

"Unanimous public sentiment Nis: 'Deepest apologies to you, Mr. Willkie. The whole town is genuinely sorry and ashamed for the action of this Single One of its three and a half million citizens.'—The Editor."

To Check Constipation Get at Its Cause!

If constipation has you down so you feel heavy, tired and dopey, it's time you did something about it. And something more than just taking a physic! You should get at the cause of the trouble.

If you eat the super-refined food most people eat, the chances are the difficulty is simple—you don't get enough "bulk." And "bulk" doesn't mean heavy food. It's a kind of food that isn't consumed in the body, but leaves a soft "bulky" mass in the intestines.

If this common form of constipation is your trouble, eat Kellogg's All-Bran regularly, and drink plenty of water. All-Bran isn't a medicine—it's a crunchy, toasted cereal. And it will help you not only to get regular but to keep regular. Made by Kellogg's in Battle Creek. If your condition is chronic, it is wise to consult a physician.

The first American college to teach political economy was William and Mary, which began such a course in 1784.

MONTGOMERY WARD

Millions Face Famine Threat

BY RALPH HEINZEN
United Press Staff Correspondent

ALONG THE FRANCO-GERMAN ZONE BORDERLINE, Oct. 24—France's "Oakies" have disappeared, gone back home after their great war exodus.

With the return to their homes of those hundreds of thousands of French, Dutch, Belgian and Luxemberg "Oakies" in their rattletrap autos, heaped high with household furnishings and gasoline cans, one of the most difficult problems which faced the French government and American relief field workers solved itself almost overnight.

Touring the borderline areas from Moulins through St. Amand, Bourges, Vierzon to Chateauroux, this correspondent found plenty of traces of their passage but no "Oakies." The dumbfounded peasants of the Allier, the Cher, the Indre and Vienne upon whose fields the "Oakies" camped, whose food that vast army of frightened and homeless refugees consumed, whose ripening fruit and barnyard fowls they stole, whose roadsides are still cluttered with abandoned jallopies, are tsill cleaning up and counting their losses.

Benefactors At Work

Whereas just six weeks ago when I toured the same region, I found American Red Cross and Quaker doctors taking a census of the "Oakies" to ascertain exactly how much food it would take to keep them all winter, how many blankets to keep them warm and how much quinine to cure their ills. I found on this trip that the only "Oakies" were those who had bought farms and settled down to stay.

Early in August there were 500,000 hungry refugees camped along the Franco-German zone border. They had heard that the German authorities had decided to allow refugees to return home, and being in a hurry, they started north. Most of them had no more gasoline when they reached the border. None had any food, almost none had money. All had plenty of hungry children and some carried germs of diseases which threatened to extend into epidemics.

Few of those "Oakies" had passports or other identification papers. They had fled away from home when they heard the German armies were a few miles away. When they reached the borderline on their way home that lack of papers piled them up at the repatriation points—the gateways into the German zone at Vierzon, St. Amand and Moulins. German authorities insisted upon every returning refugee having identification papers.

As a result, a half million "Oakies" piled up along the borderline in August. They wanted 1,500,000 meals a day. There was not much food in that purely rural region and within a fortnight there was a shortage of every necessary food staple. The famine threatened to become serious when it was found there was no transport to carry foodstuffs into that region to feed the "Oakies" and their unwilling peasant hosts. Happily, the harvest was plentiful and served to keep away hunger.

Germany Opens Barrier

The Germans became concerned by the size of the unwieldy "Oakie" army and the menace of epidemics and opened the barriers to about 5,000 families every day. Now the problem is wholly solved, because the "Oakies" are back in their own homes and American relief organization trucks are carrying food into the zone.

There are camps along the borderline for those who arrive and have to wait while their papers are put in order. Those camps have sufficient food stocks and hospital supplies, so the menace of famine for a half million homeless refugees has disappeared. By swift repatriation, the government, aided by German authorities already has moved more than 5,000,000 refugees back to their homes and the whole problem appears to be far less serious than had been believed when American relief workers made their survey and census in August. There are fewer than 1,200,000 refugees remaining in non-occupied France and more than half of them will be homeless until the destroyed northern provinces are rebuilt.

Government efforts are bent in the direction of assuring them warm housing, food and medical attention throughout the winter.

Hitler Aiming At Campaign To Break Shackles Of Sea Blockade

New Strategy Mapped Out

(By The Associated Press)

Adolf Hitler was reported aiming today at a campaign to break the shackles of the British blockade by shifting the main theater of the war to the Mediterranean and attacking Britain's "life-line" trade routes in the South Atlantic.

With the Nazi invasion song "we are sailing against England" now apparently muted by RAF assaults, the German fuehrer was said to be planning a two-fold winter strategy:

Seek To Crush Sea Power

1. Italy and Spain would attempt to seize Britain's historic rock fortress at Gibraltar and crush British sea power in the Mediterranean.

2. At the same time, Germany and Spain would smash at British trade with South America and her sea link with India via the Cape of Good Hope, using Spanish ports and airfields in the Atlantic and the Canary islands as bases.

Informed French sources said Hitler and French Vice Premier Pierre Laval, in secret conversations in the last 48 hours, had virtually sealed an agreement whereby the Vichy government of vanquished France would give the Rome-Berlin Axis the use of naval and air bases in Africa, Syria and unoccupied France in return for certain concessions.

Included In Bases

The naval bases would include Dakar, capital of French West Africa; Toulon, on France's Mediterranean coast; Casablanca, in French Morocco, and Bizerte, in Tunisia.

As a reward, these sources said, Germany would release all French war prisoners—estimated at 2,000,000 men — and would move the frontier of unoccupied France north from the present Tours-Swiss border line to the Seine river.

Laval returned to Paris today with Premier Marshal Philippe Petain's answer to Hitler's proposals for a French-German rapproachment, and Spain's Generalissimo Francisco Franco, who conferred with Hitler on the Spanish-French frontier last night, was on his way back to Madrid.

Important Decisions

Fascist quarters in Rome said important decisions were reached at the conference, decisions designed to restore Spain to a place of power in the Mediterranean.

"Deeds will spring forth from the conversation," said Il Popola Di Roma, without indicating what these deeds might be. Foreign observers in the Italian capital felt, however, that an Axis attack on Gibraltar, with the help of Spain, was indicated.

Beside this, the whirl of German diplomatic activity seemd to many to be pointing at Suez and the near eastern oil fields as Axis objectives of the near future.

Amid all this talk, the air war between Britain and Germany dragged on at a relatively slow pace.

The British said they had one of their most peaceful nights in weeks due to their vigorous defenses and rains over the English channel and France.

The German capital had an air raid alarm during the night and the British announced other objectives in Germany also were attacked.

TWO YANKEE EAGLES IN ENGLAND—Dean Satterlee, left, of Sacramento, Cal., and Oliver Holton, right, of Lakewood, Ohio, sight a Vickers gun during training with the R. A. F. somewhere in England. Satterlee is a former state college student. Holton used to fly a plane dusting crops. They're with the squadron of United States pilots who'll fly as a group with the R. A. F.

Draft Boards Get Warning

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24 — Ten pages of minute instructions were sent out today to forewarn the clerks of 6,500 local draft boards against errors that might cast reflection on the outcome of next Tuesday's national draft lottery.

Stressing again and again the need for "absolute accuracy," the manual of information for local board clerks, sent out from national selective headquarters, said:

May Charge Injustice

"However unintentional and innocent an error may be, it is always possible that registrants and their friends may charge that the local board and members of its clerical staff are unjust."

Designed to accelerate preparations for the lottery, the pamphlet gave detailed instructions for shuffling and serial-numbering the registration cards of 17,000,000 young men who enrolled for the lottery last week.

Enough numbers, from one upwards, will be drawn in the lottery to cover the largest number of registrants in any one local board area, and men will be called to service in the order in which their numbers are drawn, unless deferred.

Our People Have Never Failed Before And You Will Not Fail This Time --- For The Cause Is Just --- Right --- Proper

DID YOU KNOW . . . that the Salvation Army with the aid of the Lubbock School System, the NYA and the Surplus Commodities Corporation are feeding more than two hundred fifty Lubbock School children each day. These children are attending our public schools, and have been found to be in need of nourishment, after careful investigation by the Salvation Army ?

DID YOU KNOW . . . that there are ninety seven negro children attending public school in Lubbock, that the Army has found to be in need of a nourishing meal each day and the Army is without funds to feed them ?

DID YOU KNOW . . . that there are more than fifty children attending the Mexican School in need of a nourishing meal each day and the Army is without funds to meet this need ?

The Army is coming to you now, with its annual drive, however please remember that we are not asking for more money than before, except for the feeding of the children mentioned above.

Generous as we know you are, you will not fail us this time. Give as you have given before, but add a few dollars more, in order that the citizens of tomorrow may be able to reflect with pride that the Citizenship of Lubbock and the Salvation Army helped them to go forward to be better men and women.

Army Figures $400 To Be Required For Housing Of Each Soldier

High Morale To Be Sought

BY W. B. RAGSDALE
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24 — The war department figures it will cost $400 to house each one of its soldiers and provide the buildings and grounds needed to train him and keep him happy.

That is the figure to which the cantonment cost breaks down. It covers the per man cost of not just barracks but of a station hospital, mess halls, recreation buildings and grounds, administration buildings, warehouses, laundries, refrigerating plants, roads, and, of course, grading a drill field.

Nothing To Do With Food

It has nothing to do with food. William S. Knudsen of the national defense commission sagely remarked that men in the service eat about the same as they do at home except that if a man is in the army he drinks more coffee and if he is in the navy he eats more catsup.

But in these days, army officers recognize that it takes more to build an army than just feeding men and teaching them how to march and handle a gun. Twenty odd years of working with men in the Citizen's Military Training corps and the Reserve Officers Training corps have given the army a fund of information it did not have in 1917.

Want Good Spirit

And the war department wants an army that not only knows how to handle arms, but has the spirit to handle them well, a spirit that flows from good health and the conviction that it has something worth fighting for.

General George C. Marshall, the chief of staff, puts it this way:

"The war department undertakes full responsibility for the welfare of the army and it is absolutely essential that provision be made for it.

"The whole matter of morale is an extensive one, with many ramifications seemingly far removed from simple, pleasurable athletic diversions.

"Provision is made for initial issues of athletic equipment and reading material, and for the establishment of service clubs and motion picture theaters. Hostesses and librarians are provided for in the division camps. This matter is vital to morale.

Democratic Institution

"Our army will be an army of citizen soldiers and must be essentially a democratic institution. In a democracy such as ours, military discipline is attained through the exercise of leadership by our officers. Our volunteer and selected service men with the colors will quickly realize the necessity for the type of military discipline which is based on leadership and mutual cooperation."

To help commanders in the field plan and develop recreational and welfare facilities, a new morale division is already busy. It is buying athletic equipment, magazines, books and the material for service clubs and movies.

To ride herd on camp followers and the undesirable elements that spring up on the outskirts of camps, army commanders will maintain close cooperation with local civil police and health authorities.

Armistice Day Next Postoffice Holiday

Armistice day is the next holiday for postoffices, and Postmaster Amos Howard, who said the usual holiday pick-up and delivedy of mail schedule will be in effect Monday, Nov. 11.

Banks also will be closed that day. No city or rural deliveries of mail will be made, except special delivery within the city. Business section pickup of mail will be made as usual.

"Old Campaigner Who Loves A Good Fight" Nears Home Stretch

FDR Declares That Nation Has No Secret Treaties Overseas

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24. (AP)—As an old campaigner who loves "a good fight," President Roosevelt swung today into the last stages of his re-election drive with this declaration in support of his "most solemn assurance" that America has no secret pacts with any nation:

"It is for peace I have labored and it is for peace that I shall labor all the days of my life."

Drafts More Speeches

Mr. Roosevelt came back to the capital—to draft more speeches—after tabulating for a cheering audience in Philadelphia and the nation by radio last night what he termed the "more fantastic misstatements of this campaign."

In "repeating, and repeating, and repeating falsehoods," he said, his opposition has imported "certain techniques of propaganda, created and developed in dictator countries."

Not once in his address in Philadelphia's Convention hall did Mr. Roosevelt utter Wendell L. Willkie's name.

But among the "outrageous" and "unpardonable falsifications" he attributed to partisans and Republican leaders were charge that:

His administration "wishes to lead this country into war;" that it has failed to make a job for even a single man; that the industrial system is prostrate, and that business is stifled and unable to make a profit.

Statements Are False

Truthful campaign discussion of public issues is essential to the American form of government, Mr. Roosevelt asserted.

"But it is entirely a different thing," he added, "for any party or any candidate to state, for example, that the president of the United States telephoned to Mussolini and Hitler to sell Czechoslovakia down the river; or that the unfortunate unemployed of the nation are going to be driven into concentration camps; or that the social security funds of the nation will not be in existence when the workers of today become old enough to apply for them; or that the election of the present government means the end of American democracy within four years.

"I think they know, and I know we know, that all of these statements are false."

He spoke to a throng that took every one of the 14,500 seats in the auditorium, cheered him for six and a half minutes before he could begin his address, and interrupted 91 times with applause, laughter, and occasional boos when he struck heavily at his opposition.

The ovation was a climax to a day in which he had appeared before tens of thousands of people at Wilmington, Del., and on a 40-mile motor tour to national defense plants in Philadelphia and Camden, N. J.

Speaks This Afternoon

Mr. Roosevelt speaks by telephone late this afternoon to the New York Herald-Tribune forum in New York.

Confronting him also was the task of whipping together at least four more political speeches, one of which is scheduled for Madison Square Garden in New York Monday night.

An "outrageously false charge" that the administration wants to bring the nation into war, he said at Philadelphia, had been "made to strike terror into the hearts of our citizens."

"That charge is contrary to every fact, every purpose of the past eight years," he said. "Throughout these years my every act and every thought has been directed to the end of preserving the peace of the world, and more particularly, the peace of the United States—the peace of the western hemisphere . . ."

He described as the "worst bombshell of fear" loosed by Republican leaders an accusation the government had entered into secret agreements with foreign nations. It had even been intimated, he said, that the country's participation in some foreign war had been pledged.

No Secret Treaty

"I give you, and the people of this country this most solemn assurance, there is no secret treaty, no secret obligation, no secret commitment, no secret understanding in any shape or form, direct or indirect, with any other government, or any other nation in any part of the world, to involve this nation in any war or for any other purpose."

And he interpolated: "Is that clear?"

Moving into the field of economics, and providing what he said were facts and figures to answer his opposition, the president said:

Nine million more people are employed now than in March, 1933; millions are covered by social security; collective bargaining has been guaranteed, a minimum wage established, a maximum work week fixed, child labor outlawed; average hourly earnings of factory workers are higher than in 1929 and the cost of living is 22 per cent under the 1929 level.

National income has nearly doubled since 1932, he went on, bank failures in the last seven years have no reached the total of any one of the previous ten years, corporations now are showing a profit of $4,000,000,000 a year, against losses of almost that amount in 1932.

"And yet they say," the president asserted, "that this administration prevents profits and stifles business."

Westerners Primed For Surprise Test In District Opener With Borger Friday

Lubbock Heavy Favorite For Bulldog Game

Favored on paper by a flat 54 points apparently means only one thing to Coaches Goober Keyes and Walker Nichols — that the invasion of Borger's Bulldogs Friday night may prove to be the surprise test of the season.

Amarillo's heralded visit here Thursday afternoon, November 21, will be THE game of the year, of course, and likely will settle the District 1-AA championship for 1940. But if the Lubbock mentors expect their Westerners to march through undefeated until the November classic with little or no effort, such hasn't been indicated in nearly two week's serious study for what many consider one of the weakest elevens in the "Big Five" today.

Plainview In Pampa

All of which indicates that not only the eyes of the District but of the entire state will be on the Bronc Busters at Tech Stadium Friday night—to see what they can see about the first step the defending champions must make.

At the same time, attention will be given to the Plainview-Pampa clash on the Harvesters' grid.

For the first time in several seasons, Coach Vernon Hilliard will field an eleven which will be favored to take the Pampas and thus add the sixth straight scalp to the Bulldog trophy room. Only once this year has Coach Odus Mitchell's boys tasted victory and the observers agree that tomorrow night isn't the time for another feast in Pampa.

North Side Meets Sandies

While those two games are sending District competition off to a flying start, the Golden Sandstorm—the "experts" choice—will be entertaining North Side of Fort Worth. And again the pencil pushing dopesters will have a chance for comparisons of the two Black and Gold clad powers of the district.

It is such paper comparison that brought about the 54 point margin in tomorrow's tussle, Lubbock having drubbed Hobbs, N. M., 40 to 0, and Hobbs following up the next week with a 14 to 0 licking of Borger.

This afternoon, the Westerners will add the final touches to preconference preparation.

Wednesday afternoon, the second team took over and ran them at the regulars, and it must be reported picked up yardage in an alarming manner at times.

Team In Good Shape

However, some note of cheer was inserted in camp by the Westerner offense and pass defense, the latter a decided improvement over previous showings this season.

Back at full strength after about two weeks of hampering injuries to key linemen, the Westerners will have everything ready to go in their first step toward defense of their state championship. Marvin McBrayer, bruising tackle regular; DeWitt Moore, dependable right tackle mainstay; Roland Nabors, regular center; and Co-Captain and Quarterback Max Walthall—all have recovered sufficiently from various injuries to classify them as in good shape.

North Side In Amarillo

Tickets for the tussle, which starts at 8:15 o'clock, are on sale at the regular agencies: Lubbock Hotel Drug, Hub Clothiers and Mark Halsey No. 2.

Akey, Crawford Take Tournament Prizes

Honors in Wednesday's ladies day competition at Lubbock Country club were shared by Mrs. Charles Akey and Mrs. Bob Crawford. Play was in a "tin whistle" tourney.

Turning in a low handicap winning total of 16 points, Mrs. Akey came through in that division while Mrs. Crawford was posting a 13 point total for high handicap prize.

Twenty women golfers participated in the day's activities.

Mrs. W. P. Helwig was hostess at the luncheon and donor of the prizes. Others, in addition to those named, attending and competing were Mesdames W. F. Eisenberg, Hooper Stiles, K. L. Riggs, M. M. Brown, T. B. Duggan, jr., Olan Key, Fenner Tubbs, C. C. Caldwell, Ford Benham, C. I. Wall, F. L. McRee, C. L. Dean, Granville Dickinson, Cliff Widener, George Pierce, Guy L. McAfee and Miss Ruth Ford.

Borger May Be Surprise!

By Collier Parris

THEY'VE STARTED taking a little notice of Lubbock High's Westerners, we see by the papers and the press services, in connection with the state schoolboy football race, and they're saying the Lubbocks will get a test Friday night when they bump into the Borger High Bulldogs at the Texas Tech Stadium.

The Amarillo Sandies are still one of the "big three" of the state, let alone District 1, and are favorites to win the district championship and go a long way in the state race. The Sandies have displayed a fine offensive and, of a certainty, a strong defense so far this season.

We would not, and we don't wish to, deny the Golden Sandstorm of Amarillo as the biggest threat to Lubbock's supremacy as king of Texas scholastic football. As stated earlier, the Nov. 21 game here between Lubbock and Amarillo will go a long way toward determining the state champion. It is the case year after year, considering the last several years, and even before that. District One, through Amarillo or Lubbock, has featured strongly in the state race for, lo, a lot of years. Maybe one or the other got beat, but the teams which played either of them seldom came through with the title.

ALL OF WHICH LEADS UP to Friday night's game here between the Westerners and the Borger Bulldogs.

It will be the first game that counts in Lubbock's defense of the Texas Interscholastic League championship. It wouldn't have mattered if Lubbock had lost to Odessa, Big Spring, Vernon and Hobbs; the Borger game counts! The others didn't.

General opinion is that since Lubbock defeated Hobbs, N. M., 40-0, and since Hobbs defeated Borger by two touchdowns, Lubbock should have an easy time of it Friday night against the Borgers.

Don't think too much about those scores.

Don't trust our friend, Catfish Smith, coach of the Borger team, very far. He's a swell kid, and he's lots of fun in a crowd of coaches or sports writers—but he's not to be trusted when it comes to football scores. He's full of tricks. He's a "right guy" but he's still full of tricks.

Lubbock is favored to defeat Borger Friday night. Results of the last two weeks indicate Lubbock should win by seven or eight touchdowns.

But take it easy. And buy a ticket. There'll be a ball game at the Tech stadium Friday night, and the Westerners likely will get their toughest test of the season.

Touring the District One camps early this autumn, this reporter was more impressed by the Borger squad than by any of the others, and that includes Amarillo, Pampa and Plainview.

The Borger boys were out there working their heads off, but at the same time having a lot of fun. They seemed to be practicing and playing because they loved the game. They weren't finished football players by any means, but they showed a willingness to learn, a lot of spirit and plenty of fire, and Coach Catfish Smith confided that he had a pretty good team coming up.

Borger is likely to give the Westerners a good scrap here tomorrow night, and you may be missing something if you pass it up. An upset defeat—and they're very common in football—would practically eliminate Lubbock from the district race. And you've got to win the district race before you can compete in the state race.

So we'll leave you with the Westerners and the Borgers, and we'll traipse along with the Texas Tech Red Raiders to Milwaukee, Wis., where they play the Marquette University Golden Avalanche Saturday afternoon. You'll be hearing from us tomorrow following the workout at Fort Madison, Ia., and on Saturday evening we'll report from Milwaukee—and we hope it's good, but we're afraid it won't be. The Red Raiders will have accomplished a fine thing if they beat that veteran Marquette team Saturday.

Brownfield To Meet Tahoka

TAHOKA, Oct. 24 (Special)—Brownfield's favored Cubs are the chief topics of conversation in grid circles here today.

Friday night, Coach Leo Jackson takes his Tahoka High Bulldogs to the Terry county metropolis for one of the outstanding District 5-A games of the weekend. The Cubs are heavy favorites over a Tahoka team which boasts only one victory, that a 12-0 win over Crosbyton.

But, the fans point out, many of the boys are playing regularly for the first time this year, and it is lack of experience rather than lack of talent which has held them back thus far. Two of their losses have been by one- or two-point margins, and could have been victories with a bit more cooperation. Now, with five games behind them, the boys are beginning to click together and can make it tough for opponents from here on out.

Feature Schoolboy Clashes Are Booked

Heavy District Schedule Set Over League

BY HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Writer

The battle front of Texas schoolboy football bristles with important games this week but for more than one reason Waxahachie's struggle with Bryan draws the spotlight.

First, it probably will decide the Central Texas championship.

Second, it is between schools that are driving back along football's glory road after years of serving as door mats for more illustrious teams.

Cisco Makes Bid

Both were relegated to the bottom rungs of District 10 when the campaign started but their records, which include victories over preseason favorites, indicate that when they meet tomorrow night at Waxahachie the winner will eventually wear the crown.

Forty-eight other games are scheduled this week-end, 36 of them conference affairs that bring the championship struggle to all sixteen districts.

Ranking high on the list is the battle tomorrow night at Cisco between the Big Dam Loboes and Stephenville's mighty Yellow Jackets.

Battle Of Backs

This game not only will remove one of the three unbeaten, untied teams from the District 9 race but also will match two of the state's finest backs—Stephenville's Barney Welch, the season's top scorer, and Coy Warren, Cisco's one-man gang.

Welch has 108 points, amassed in five games. Warren has 72, run up in six tests. Both are ranked among the best broken field runners of West Texas gridiron history.

Longview Meets Kilgore

Lubbock's defending Westerners open the conference drive in District 1 against Borger.

Sherman's high-flying Bearcats meet Denison, another unbeaten team in District 5.

Adamson and Woodrow Wilson clash for the Dallas district leadership.

Two games bring together teams undefeated for the season. The top tilt will be between Harlingen and McAllen, who are among the 21 schools that are unbeaten and untied.

Longview, boasting a perfect record, plays Kilgore, which is unbeaten but has been tied.

The week's schedule by districts:

1—Friday: Plainview at Pampa (conference); Borger at Lubbock (conference). Saturday: North Side (Fort Worth) at Amarillo.

2—Friday: Electra at Graham (conference); Childress at Wichita Falls (conference); Vernon at Burkburnett (conference); Quanah at Olney (conference).

3—Friday: Big Spring at Midland (conference); Lamesa at San Angelo (conference); Sweetwater at Abilene (conference).

Crucial Tussles Set In Conference 5-B

Two games in Conference 5-B this weekend will decide divisional finalists for the area championship—and not one of the quartet of participating elevens can be branded as an outstanding favorite.

Hale Center plays host to the high scoring New Deal aggregation in the northern half playoff while Cooper invades Frenship for the southern half title.

Winners of the two tilts tangle not less than two weeks hence for the championship of the conference. Each team has lost one game and each can show impressive wins over other elevens of the area, either in or outside the conference.

Bible's Steers Are Tough, But Nobody Will Admit It

BY FELIX R. McKNIGHT
Associated Press Sports Writer

DALLAS, Oct. 24—Ignored, almost considered a flag stop on schedules while Dana Bible patiently labored on his rehabilitation program, the University of Texas now has a whale of a football team—and can't get a tumble from anybody.

Fans and critics are too prone to identify the University of Texas as the base of operations for Cowboy Jack Crain and let it go at that.

Leads Yardage Gained

In fact, Texas is very undefeated, has a terrific, well-rounded attack and leads the Southwest conference in total yards gained by land and air. Its reserves are unlimited.

Four state universities—Colorado, defending Big Seven champs; Indiana, Big Ten contender; Oklahoma and Arkansas—have been shelled on successive weekends by this glittering group of kids.

Only last week the Texans slaughtered the Arkansas Razorbacks, 21-0; didn't give the big red machine a chance to move.

Others Roll On

The reward? One national rating system promptly and decisively dropped them five notches in the rankings, down below teams that have been licked and tied. Mild recognition came in their twelfth position in the Associated Press poll.

Jack Crain is a furious runner, a great runner, but he is far from being the only threat the Longhorns own. In the Arkansas game Crain went to the sidelines with hurts, but Fullback Pete Layden, R. L. Harkins, R. B. Patrick, Walter Heap, Ralph Park, Noble Doss, Johnny Gill—oh you never heard of these boys—kept right on rolling.

It's Here At Last

The Texas passing game is dangerous; has worked well in a 39-7 crushing of Colorado; 13-6 licking of Indiana; 19-16 triumph over Oklahoma and the 21-0 drubbing of Arkansas.

Next Saturday at Houston the Texans play Rice institute, defeated only once in three starts and then by a good Tulane team that was long overdue.

It becomes increasingly obvious that Texas must chase Rice over into Louisiana to get recognition. And that will be a very difficult job. Rice, until the Tulane affair, was unbeaten and unscored on. To take up the Rice case fully, it, too, was completely ignored.

They've waited five years for Dana Bible's promised 1940 team. It's here now, and very noisy. It's the team that probably will play Texas A. and M., the publicized power, before 45,000 on Thanksgiving Day for the business.

And still they can't get a tumble.

The Wild Hoss Will Be At Home---

Pepper Martin Can Round Up Six Gas Housers On Coast

(By The Associated Press)

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 24.—John L. (Pepper) Martin, late of the St. Louis Cardinals, should feel at home when he takes up quarters in the Pacific Coast league next spring.

For the great Pepper, once the ringtailed leader of the noisiest, wildest collection of ball players Frankie Frisch will ever have to suffer with, will find no fewer than six of his old cronies of the once celebrated Gas House gang scattered along the shores of the Pacific.

The newly named skipper of Sacramento will find:

Ripper Collins and Big Bob Weiland with Los Angeles, Brusie Ogrodowski catching for Sacramento, "Beau Brummel Bill" Walker pitching for Seattle, Jack Rothrock at Hollywood and young Ray Harrell with Portland.

Red Raiders Off For Game With Marquette

Rolling over the rails via special pullman, Texas Tech's high spirited Red Raiders this afternoon are headed for their second encounter with a northern aggregation in as many weeks.

The last excursion into the upper portion of the nation's grid world found the Crimsons plastering a 32 to 19 licking on Montana's Silver Grizzlies.

No such field day is in prospect in Milwaukee Saturday afternoon where Coaches Pete Cawthon and Dutchy Smith send their recruits against the Golden Avalanche, one of the higher scoring machines of that area.

Thirty-one On Trip

Thirty-one Red Raiders boarded a train shortly after noon today and started the long trek that their enthusiasts hope will culminate in a fourth consecutive intersectional triumph for Tech. Other than Montana, Loyola of Los Angeles and Brigham Young have fallen before the Scarlet gridders.

Before the team entrained, the following list of players was ordered for the traveling squad:

Cawthon Pessimistic

"We're leaving some good men at home," said Coach Cawthon, "but they need the rest before we tie into Miami university of Florida when we come home next week."

The coach continued: "Guess we didn't make a very good impression last Friday against Brigham Young, so I don't guess there'll be many folks down at the station to see us off. And it looks like we'll lose the game to Marquette, and there won't be any people to welcome us home. Don't see much use of saying anything about it, or of even making the trip."

They Looked Better

Nevertheless, Coach Cawthon was in better spirits yesterday than he was the two days before. The boys clicked better in offensive practice, kicked field goals better, kicked off better and punted better, and showed a better pass defense.

Coach Berl Huffman brought his freshmen over on the varsity lot

Calf Ropers Lose 7-0 Game To Brownfield

Next item of interest for Coach Gordon Thompson's Calf Ropers will be the visit next Wednesday of Plainview's Junior High aggregation.

Yesterday at the Junior High gridiron, the Calf Ropers battled a much heavier and more experienced Brownfield team for almost four quarters before succumbing to bad breaks and superior power in the fading minutes of the game. The score was 7 to 0.

There were no outstanding stars for either team.

Following is the starting lineup for the Calf Ropers with the complete second team which alternated with the starters: Kenneth Cantrell and Ellwood Taylor, ends; Homer Terry and Vernon Billings, tackles; Henry Stephenson and O. C. Foster, guards; J. L. Pipes, center; Captain Jim Lowrey, quarterback; N. W. Elston and A. C. Griffin, halfbacks; and George Brewer, fullback.

Substitutes: James Clines and B. G. Stubbs, ends; Bill Hunt and Ed Bledsoe, tackles; R. J. Hightower and Dalton Davis, guards; Ray Clark, center; Captain Mike Guy, quarterback; Don Davidson and John Gamble, halfbacks; and John Pierson, fullback.

Penn, Big Red Lead Nation In Statistics

BY WILLIS S. DUNIWAY
United Press Sports Writer

SEATTLE, Oct. 24—Possibly of interest to Tom Harmon and company of Michigan: three opponents have gained a total of 26 yards on the ground against Pennsylvania this season.

This figure comes today from the American Football Statistical bureau, which will have a new set of figures next week, after undefeated Pennsylvania and Michigan clash Saturday at Ann Arbor, Mich.

Harmon and others in Michigan's backfield have rolled up 1,107 yards on the ground in four contests. Penn, in three games, has a rushing total of 911 yards for a slightly better average.

Record-Shattering Vote In 1940 General Election Is Predicted

Registrations At New High

(Copyright, 1940, By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—Heavy registrations throughout the country, particularly in the big cities, indicated today that a history-breaking popular vote of around 50,000,000 may be cast in the presidential election next month.

A compilation of official and estimated registrations in each state disclosed a possible total vote of 49,719,200, or about 37 for every 100 of population.

Tops Other Elections

This figure compares with an actual vote of 45,647,117 in the Roosevelt-Landon contest in 1936, and 39,816,522 in the Roosevelt-Hoover election of 1932.

It is based on an analysis of vote-filings and other data showing 60,567,979 may be eligible to vote in the November 5 elections, or about 45 per cent of the total population of 131,409,881.

Comparison of the eligible vote four years ago with the actual vote cast revealed that from 15 to 20 per cent of those qualified remained away from the polls. In some southern states the stay-at-home vote ran as high as 50 per cent. This was taken into account in arriving at this year's estimated vote.

The census bureau estimates the number of "potential" votes this year at 80,528,000. This figure includes natives and naturalized citizens 21 years old and over. It excludes aliens totalling about 3,200,000, inmates of prisons and mental institutions, and voteless residents of the District of Columbia estimated at 450,000.

However, many potential voters never take the trouble to qualify by registering or taking other necessary steps prescribed by the various states.

New York and California, with an aggregate of 69 out of the 531 electoral votes, turned in record-smashing registrations for the coming elections.

New York has an estimated registration of 6,891,238 and an estimated vote of 6,202,000, a gain of 605,602 over the actual vote four years ago.

California's official registration is 4,052,395, including 2,419,625 Democrats and 1,458,373 Republicans. The state's probable vote this year is calculated at 3,404,000, or 765,118 more than the actual 1936 vote.

A forecast of the probable vote, and the 1936 official presidential vote, included:

	Eligible Voters 1940	Estimated Vote 1940	Official Vote 1936
Arkansas	278,367	164,200	179,423
Kansas	1,100,000	903,000	865,013
Louisiana	650,000	385,000	329,778
Miss	308,000	178,000	162,090
Missouri	2,310,000	1,963,000	1,828,635
New Mex	234,000	195,000	168,920
Oklahoma	1,250,000	770,000	749,740

The war department is trying to assure the protestors that it has only the greatest concern for the morals of men in the army, maintenance of home ties and the sanctity of marriage.

One official said that the women who will be hired as hostesses for the camp programs, will be "distinctly on the motherly side."

"Our idea was simply to provide the camps with those womanly touches that would remind a boy of home," he said.

Tired Kidneys Often Bring Sleepless Nights

Doctors say your kidneys contain 15 miles of tiny tubes or filters which help to purify the blood and keep you healthy. When they get tired and don't work right in the daytime, many people have to get up nights. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder. Don't neglect this condition and lose valuable, restful sleep.

When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may also cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills. Adv.

Army Wasting No Time; Basic Training For Guardsmen Is Two Weeks Ahead Of Plans

(By The Associated Press)

CAMP SHELBY, Miss., Oct. 24.—The army, pushing its program two weeks ahead of schedule here, today sent its guardsmen soldiers into basic training intended within three weeks to make them capable of carrying 60-pound packs on 13-mile marches.

Officers entered schools of instruction in the use of heavy weapons which they don't possess and which some may have never seen.

52,000 By June

Ohio's 37th division is training here. At least 52,000 men are expected in camp by June.

The basic training starts with learning how to put up a tent, make a bed, stand at attention and salute, and quickly moves into long marches with sleeping on the bare ground in pup tents.

The training will require at last thirteen weeks.

One high officer, explaining the speedup in plans, said the guardsmen, pouring in here daily from clerical jobs and factories, should be put into shape as quickly as possible.

Keep Them Busy

"In the first place," he said, "idle hands may get into trouble and we want to keep them busy. In the second place, we want to get them into peak trim, too."

Peak trim for a soldier, he added, means fit for combat with a seasoned, trained enemy.

Soldiers, until today, had been employed in sawing wood and nailing tent floors for the camp.

Old Theory That Calf Knows Its Mother Will Be Given A Test In Kansas City

The age-old theory that a calf knows its own mother may be proved in Dodge City, Kans., today when three cows, from the S. M. Swenson ranch in Dickens county will be placed with three calves, allegedly stolen from the Dickens county ranch.

Ed Russell, an inspector of the Texas & Southwestern Cattle Raisers association, with several SMS ranch hands, left Lubbock Wednesday night for the Kansas town, with the three cows. Before they left, however, Woodrow McArthur, about 23, a Dickens county youth, had been charged in the court of Walter Davies, justice of the peace, with theft of the calves and had furnished $1,500 bond.

Capt. Maney Gault of the Texas rangers here and Sheriff Johnnie Koonsman of Dickens county worked on the case with Russell.

It was alleged that the calves were stolen, brought to Lubbock and sold through an auction ring. Investigation here indicated the calves were sold to a man in or near Dodge City.

"Russell left Wednesday night with the cows and they expected to drive all night," Capt. Gault said. "They ought to get there some time Thursday. We believe, if they are the calves of these cows, identification can easily be made."

Bob Dixon is the SMS foreman in Dickens county and he signed the complaint, Capt. Gault said. Because the animals were to leave the state of Texas, it was necessary that they be vaccinated. This was done Wednesday.

In event the calves in Kansas do not indicate they are the offspring of the Swenson cattle, the investigation will be continued along another line, Capt. Gault said Russell and others were confident the calves would begin sucking the mother cows.

rank of general, though his grade was conferred by the Confederate veterans. Majors, captains, and lieutenants snapped to attention and saluted him and he saluted them right back, though shakily.

A gunner behind a machine gun chewed up a target for his benefit, sending bullets into it at the rate of 600 a minute. The din was terrific and the young officer escorting him, said:

"Here's some cotton, general. Perhaps you'd like to stuff it in your ears."

Heard Worse Than That

"Stuff it in your own ears, sonny," Jones replied indignantly, brandishing his cane. "I've heard worse noises than that."

To Major Joseph W. Harper, he said:

"I wouldn't mind joining up again, even with some Yankees. I'm old as the devil, but I might be able to help. I tried to register the other day and they laughed at me. Made me mad."

A garand automatic rifle was brought forward and fired for his benefit. The old man's eyes popped and he asked to fire it.

"But, general," objected the captain, "that gun's heavy and has quite a kick."

Kicked Like Mule

Jones leaned on his cane and laughed until the medals on his chest of his gray uniform rattled.

"Boy, did you ever shoot a muzzle leader? It kicked like a damn mule."

He was deterred by the arrival of a .45 caliber automatic pistol for demonstration firing. Major Harper took the clip out and let him handle it.

"I'd sure have loved to have had a gun like this," he said. "You say she shoots seven times without loading? The Yanks shot at me from No'th Carolina to Georgia and all I had was my old muzzle loader and a pistol that didn't shoot half the time."

Jones was 20 years old when the Civil war ended. He is the only man now living who was present when the Confederate general, Joseph E. Johnson, surrendered to General William T. Sherman in Durham, N. C., in 1865.

That Girl on Broadway says in many cases it is more harmful to give a man something than it is to take something from him.

A statistician has it figured out that crime costs the average American family $200 per year.

That seems to us to be an awfully high price for crime, especially since we're getting it wholesale!

A FEW days ago, in a brief observation of Fire Prevention week, L. Wesley Read suggested to members of the Lubbock Rotary club that the Lubbock Fire department could use some more full time firemen and some modern, up-to-date equipment, too. Since Mr. Read is one of our more thoughtful citizens and one who takes a keen and civic interest in the welfare of the community, The Plainsman was impressed by his remarks. It occurred to us that any city's fire department is a mighty important thing, and that doubtless the folks would like to know just how the department here is stacking up. Therefore, we asked Mr. Halbert Irving Kiefer, who covers city affairs for Avalanche-Journal papers, to dig into the fire department and tell us what he found.

Mr. Kiefer did just that—and here is his report which should interest most of our folks. From now on, Mr. Kiefer speaking:

* * *

"Mr. Plainsman:

"You instructed me to obtain information concerning the adequacy of and plans for the Lubbock fire department.

"The first conclusion to be derived from information from a wide variety of sources is that Lubbock has no occasion for alarm because of its department. Expansions undoubtedly are needed, but there is every reason to believe that it is capable of handling any job with which it currently may be faced.

"IN personnel, the department consists of 18 men, an increase of only three in the past 10 years. Provision is made for four more men in the city budget now in process of adoption. However, one addition of the past two years has been a full-time city fire marshal in the person of Guy Casey, a former fireman. Most of his work is of preventive nature—the spotting and elimination of fire hazards. No one knows how many fires he has prevented, but I know from personal contact that he has been responsible for the elimination of many hazards since his appointment to the job about two years ago. For the most part, the hazards that he recognizes because of his training are of kinds the layman may overlook.

"The personnel, even with the impending increase, is substantially smaller than the standard of one fireman for each 1,000 of population which is recommended by the State Fire Insurance commission. However, it should be borne in mind that the ratio of 'one-to-1,000' is sort of a blanket recommendation. It doesn't apply to any individual city for the reason that each city is its own problem.

"Thus an old city with large areas where frame houses are crowded close together, which has slum districts, where streets may be narrow and crooked, where many buildings were erected before the existence of regulations, may need considerably more than one fireman for each 1,000 people.

"Another city—like Lubbock—where buildings for the most part are new, where houses for the most part are well spaced, which is virtually without slum districts, where streets preponderantly are wide, paved and straight, where most of the building has been done since fire precaution regulations have been established—that city may be considerably better protected with substantially fewer than one fireman per 1,000 people than another where the ratio of firemen is much greater.

"As to fire trucks, most of those in Lubbock have been in service for periods of 10 years or longer. That, however, doesn't mean they are out of date. Take the hook-and-ladder truck, for example. It was bought nearly 15 years ago. Yet the standard for such trucks then was just about the same as now. It is anything but worn out. Members of the fire department say it isn't used on an average of 10 calls per year, since it is taken only on alarms originating in the business district. They say that this $17,000 piece of equipment is just about as good as the day it was bought.

"The same is true of a $14,000 pumper, which is the second largest piece of equipment in the department.

TRUE, neither is equipped with four-wheeled brakes, but it also is true that there is no occasion for high speed with this type of equipment. The work it may be called on to do is confined almost entirely to the business district. If occasions arise for longer runs, the heavy equipment has enough speed to be on hand by time it can be put into use. The smaller and faster trucks will be first on the scene in such case and if it appears that they may not be equal to the job at hand, the heavier pieces are called out.

"The fact that the two biggest and most costly trucks were bought many years ago doesn't mean that other equipment has not been kept up to date.

"For example, within the past year an enclosed 'booster' truck has been bought and equipped with several hundred feet of hose, a pumper which builds up pressure, a 240-gallon water tank and other apparatus. Members of the department say that at least 90 per cent of all alarms are handled with that truck alone. Furthermore during winter, it provides a degree of protection for the firemen when, with their clothing saturated, they are taken back to the station from fire fighting duty.

"Likewise, there are constant replacements as needed of the other equipment which is carried aboard the various trucks, such as hose, nozzles, extinguishers and other items.

"Then there are other facts relating to Lubbock's preparedness for fighting fires. One is that the number of fire plugs has been increased from 129 to 268 in the past 10 years—more than double. Approximately $250,000 has been invested in extensions of water mains. The pumpers in the department are capable of throwing 5,000 gallons of water under high pressure per minute. The pressure is sufficient to throw a stream on top of the highest building in the city. Then there was another recent test which was interesting. In less than two minutes, members of the department left the station, elevated the ladders, climbed to the top of Hotel Hilton and were throwing water.

PERHAPS the most immediate fire fighting need in Lubbock, by general agreement of members of the fire department, city officials and insurance men, is at least one more suburban station in addition to that on Nineteenth street.

"At least one such station, perhaps two, are included in the tentative planning for the city's fiscal year which begins next year. If one is built, it likely will be in the northwestern part of the city. If two, the other will be in the southeastern part.

"Lubbock's 'key' fire insurance rate of 23 cents unquestionably is higher than in most cities of Texas. It compares with a 12 cent rate in Dallas and 16 cents in Brownsville. But it is not greatly out of proportion to the 20 cents in Tyler, San Angelo and Wichita Falls, nor the 21 cents in Abilene.

"Furthermore, the biggest contributor to this city's key rate is the matter of a water supply. If the city's fire department should be built to the ratio of one fireman for each 1,000 population, the savings on the key rate would not be more than three cents. The problem of the kind of water supply to effect key rate reductions is more difficult and isn't one for which any solution appears possible, at least for a good many years to come and at tremendous expense. The best hope there is the possibility that a big lake somewhere in the vicinity, such as that now under consideration for Yellowhouse canyon, may prove feasible."

To Mr. Read, whose interest suggested a looking-into of Lubbock's fire-fighting power, and to Mr. Kiefer, whose exhaustive search for information made good reading and offered important knowledge to the citizenship at large, go The Plainsman's thanks.

Suggestions and reports, such as those here-in contained, are invaluable to all concerned in any city.

This Could Be Your Story

BY MARGUERITE GAHAGAN
(Copyright For The Journal)

YESTERDAY: Joe begs Sue Mary to give up her job and new friends, settle down and marry him. But she isn't ready for marriage. When Natalie suggests that they share an apartment, Sue Mary is moving in before she knows it. And she likes keeping house.

CHAPTER XIII

SUE MARY HEARS TOO MUCH

Life in the new apartment settled down. Sue Mary hadn't told Joe yet. For some reason she had put it off, trying to build up her reasons for making the change. He came back from his vacation and so she had to face the issue.

"I simply couldn't stand that hall bedroom any longer," she told him while he listened, his face an expressionless blank. "After all, I spend so much time with Natalie down at the hall, and I work with Vera, who is Natalie's best friend—"

"And you go around with Nick, who is the fourth in the quartet," Joe added quietly.

She flushed. "He's a friend of mine, of course. They all are.

"And I'm tired of hearing you say that they are Reds. If you knew how silly that sounds. Just because they paint, and write, and are interested in politics you make them sound crazy. Good heavens, they aren't any more Red than I am—or you are. Why, the party paper is always warning against losing our American freedom; telling us how some groups are trying to control the press, the radio, kill freedom of speech, outlaw the right to unionize.

"The YP group is truly American, Joe. Just because they aren't blind to the mistakes being made here, and because they see the good in some other forms of government, you—and others who don't know the Youth Progress platform—say it's Red, or it's Nazi. How silly—"

"You're learning the lesson," Joe said.

He was taking her to a ball game and he wore his team uniform. Joe was a member of the plant nine, and today two of the departments were playing a sandlot game.

Sue Mary sat on the grass with wives and children watching the game. She couldn't let Joe know just how much he upset her when he criticized the YP group. He was so big, so strong, so level-headed, that each time he said such things she was overcome with doubts.

He and these boys and men were Americans, too. That was what confused her. How could two such groups, both American, have such entirely different standards?

All she had to fall back on was the lessons that Vera and Nick and Natalie had taught her. These people were workers, blinded, underprivileged, downtrodden, stupid. They had to be helped since they didn't know how to help themselves.

Around her welled the traditional American baseball spirit. "Hit the old horsehide," yelled little Tommy Slovack. "Strike 'im out! Kill the umpire!" screamed good-natured Mrs. Mahoney.

It was like being back in a remote but familiarly dear past. Like high school days in Springville, where no one thought of saving the workers, or safeguarding American ideals from warmongers, munitions makers, capitalists. Where everyone knew his neighbor and went to the polls to vote for the candidate because he was a man they had all known for years and years, and because he was honest.

It was in that mood that she left Joe that evening and went back to the apartment. She felt clean and healthy with the wind and the sun lingering in her hair and on her face, and the voice of the fans ringing in her ears. Sitting there on the grass after the game, eating some of the peanut butter sandwiches Mrs. Mahoney had insisted she share, and drinking beer that Joe had brought along, she had captured again that feeling of family unity, of safety.

She climbed the stairs to the apartment. The door was open so the cross-ventilation could cool off the room and Sue Mary heard Vera and Natalie talking.

Suddenly she wished she was back in her old room. Back where she knew no one, but where she could have privacy, where she could settle these doubts, these conflicting idea alone.

"Well, I'm not worried. And I'm not going to let you get me started." Vera's voice came to Sue Mary against the background of music from the radio. "He's no more serious with her than I am with that fool Ross Clark, Jr.

"Of course I'll use him. I'll find out everything I can. That was the plan in the beginning: I mean in going to that office to work. And it's fortunate that he's simple enough to be interested in me. I don't know how much good he'll do, but we must consider every angle. I'll pump him, and do as much undercover investigating as I can without tipping my hand.

"And as for Nick—well, I know he's doing the same thing. It's not serious."

Sue Mary leaned back against the wall. Her mind refused to function. It seemed that she had listened to those voices from a long distance. But they were real. They were the voices of girls she knew, worked with, called her friends.

"You may be able to handle your work. I don't doubt but that you can play this Clark guy for all he's worth." Natalie's voice was amused. Then it sobered.

"But remembered this, Nick is a man with emotions, with a heart, and I tell you he's not doing all this just because of the work. I've watched his face when he's not conscious of anything but her. When she's there, he goes into a fog. Maybe he's tired of our sort. Maybe he's had too much feminine intelligence, and wants a little old-fashioned feminine love."

The radio played on and the voices stopped for a while. Sue

SPREAD OF THE "DUST BOWL"

Report to the Southern Great Plains Agricultural council in Waco the other day that the "dust bowl" continues to move south is disturbing to the entire nation, and especially to such regions as our own South Plains.

At the same time, there are encouraging evidences that headway has been made in the fight to save millions of acres of land which were endangered and which undoubtedly would have been reduced to desert in course of time had the nation not been awakened to the peril.

It was not to be expected that the spread could be checked quickly. It already had gained too much momentum and too much damage had been done by man's abuse of the land. There is every reason to believe that shelter belts, plantings of native grasses and other measures are applying brakes with a pressure which is showing results.

However, the fact that the spread still continues is evidence that there can be no relenting in the efforts that have been started and are now continuing. On the contrary, it is evidence that the efforts should be re-doubled if that appears advisable and necessary.

Otherwise, no one can exaggerate the disaster that might bring result. It is entirely possible, as declared by the foremost authorities, that in time a huge area of the United States might be reduced to complete desert conditions.

Volunteers Swarm Into Service Because It Offers Much To Them

Army's Recruiting Has Smashed All Records

BY BRUCE CATTON
Journal Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24—While the nation has kept its eyes focused on the conscription law, the army has been making hay and history in the matter of voluntary enlistments.

The job was done to the tune of one of the most elaborate publicity campaigns the army ever staged, and as a result all previous recruiting records have been broken and men have been taken in so fast that time schedules originally set up for the recruiting drive have been filed in the wastebasket.

Catton

Things got started in 1939, when the army set out to grow from 165,000 men to 227,000. It finished that job in February, 1940, and until the end of May the recruiting service coasted along with nothing much to do but get the normal supply of replacements.

Then came the big wind, with orders to hike army strength to 375,000 men. Every month since then has seen a new recruiting record set. In July, the army signed up 31,960 new men; August, 38,663; September, 42,391—the all-time high, topping the best month of World war recruiting, May, 1917. First half of October ran 2000 ahead of the first half of September.

High-Powered Promotion

The army still has to get 20,000 men for the air corps. It hasn't gone after them yet, as housing and other facilities aren't ready. After that, it'll probably need another 50,000 to bring all field organizations up to full war strength.

Meanwhile, the regular army today, with 352,000 men, is bigger than it has ever been in American history, in peace or war.

(In both the Civil war and the World war the bulk of the soldiers were either draftees or duration-of-the-war volunteers. Strength of the regulars never got above 100,000.)

Chiefly responsible for the record breaking is Lieut. Col. H. N. Gilbert, in charge of recruiting. Colonel Gilbert and his aides worked out a campaign that included every imaginable variety of publicity from paper match covers to trailer-unit recruiting stations.

They put out news stories, hired newspaper display space, got national advertisers to include recruiting plugs in their ads, put on local and network radio programs, used direct mail advertising, set up displays in store windows and theater lobbies, used billboards and printed pamphlets, made 16-millimeter movies to show at high schools, helped Hollywood run off feature films on army topics, stuck signs on taxicabs and express trucks. They didn't call in any high-powered outside advertisers, either. It was an army job all the way.

Patriotism Rising

Chief thing that made the drive go over, says Colonel Gilbert, was the fact that the army really has something to offer these days. In vocational training the army can point with pride to courses offered by a great variety of mechanized units. In some instances it offers courses that would cost from $300 up, on the outside.

Next most important reason for enlistment was the age-old desire for travel and adventure. After that came a steadily increasing number of men who wanted to make the army their career.

This Could Be Your Story

Mary tried to get her thoughts in order, but her mind was as helpless as her body. She knew she couldn't have moved if anyone came along.

"She's pretty. I suppose you've noticed that," Natalie said at last. "A man would notice it long before you would. And rather helpless. I've seen him react to that. Nick always has wanted to be needed, and this is a natural."

"Old-fashioned feminine love," Vera repeated softly. "Well, that's what he'd get. She's a child. A perfect child; as naive as they come. A typical American office girl impressed with our talk, with what we are doing, gullible and pretty. Nick sees that.

"She offered us an in at the office and one of us would have enough sense to take it. The way things are now with war orders, defense appropriations, and national hysteria, you can't tell me but that these big guys aren't making money hand over fist. It would help the party to uncover a little dirty work between the politicians and our big business men. It would mean our candidate would walk in office.

"That's why I'm in this campaign. That's why Nick's in it, and for heaven's sake try not to worry me about his falling in love with that little innocent."

by the way. A bright man can retire after 30 years' army service with substantially over $100 a month coming to him for the rest of his life, which is more than a civil service job offers.)

Fourth reason offered for enlistment was—patriotism. That factor has been getting more important lately. Colonel Gilbert says he belives it would rank about second, if not first if recruits now signing up were polled.

GET LIBERAL TRIAL SIZE BOTTLE OF "HOYT'S COMPOUND" ABSOLUTELY FREE AT MARK HALSEY DRUG STORE NO. 1

I Am the Special "Hoyt" Representative. I Invite Every Person in This Vicinity to Give This New and Sensational Medicine a Fair Trial

Costs you nothing to try the new and wonderful medicine that thousands of users say brought welcome relief from constipation, sour gassy stomach, headaches, sleepless nights, nervous, back and limb pains, that tired wornout feeling and other symptoms so often associated with faulty bowl elimination.

Here is an opportunity no one can afford to ignore—an opportunity to try absolutely free a medicine that all this section is now talking about — a full-strength compound made chiefly from nature's roots and herbs that thousands publicly acclaim for bringing them amazing relief after ordinary preparations had seemed to fail.

THOUSANDS PROCLAIM ITS MERITS

Hoyt's Compound is unusually successful. It has brought relief that causes even me to open my eyes in wonder.

It's the medicine of which Mrs. R. A. James, 1519 Roberts street, Wichita, Kansas, says, "Hoyt's Compound proved to be the greatest remedy I have ever taken. It quickly restored me to good health after all the other remedies I tried had failed. For months I had been a chronic sufferer of stomach trouble. Now I am able to eat anything I care for and never suffer from gas or bloating as before. I am a Hoyt booster for life."

SOME INGREDIENTS USED FOR CENTURIES

Hoyt's Compound is no new unproven fad. It has met the test of years. Some of its ingredients have been known and used successfully for hundreds of years, and a few are comparatively new. And the name of every one, old or new, is plainly listed on the package for you to see.

In the formula of Hoyt's Compound all have been scientifically combined with rare skill and great care by one of the foremost authorities in the United States to make medicine that is, in my opinion, a preparation of real merit. Medicines compounded chiefly from herbs have been popular for years. Hoyt's Compound proves why their popularity is so well deserved.

"THE HOYT MAN"

GET YOUR FREE BOTTLE WHILE YOU CAN

My offer to give you a liberal trial-sized bottle of Hoyt's Compound free can't last forever, so don't hesitate, procrastinate or delay. Come to see me before my supply is exhausted.

Perhaps Hoyt's Compound is just the thing needed to make your bowels more active, your sleep more restful, your nerves more quiet, your indigestion less distressing, your headaches and backaches less noticeable. Perhaps it can improve your appetite, fill you with a new feeling of strength, energy and happiness, just as it has done for thousands of others.

So call at the Mark Halsey Drug Store, No. 1, Corner Avenue L and Broadway, Lubbock, to receive your free bottle of Hoyt's Compound and personally interview the Hoyt man. Thursday, Friday and Saturday only.

State Grudgingly Pays $155 For Desk Plague

SACRAMENTO, Calif., Oct. 24 (U.P.)—State Controller Harry B. Riley arched his eyebrows when a bill came in for $155 for a gold-plated plaque on the front of Gov. Culbert Olson's new desk. Riley held up the claim to see if it was necessary to have such an expensive ornament.

San Quentin prison had built the desk, ordered the plaque of the great seal of California. The law enabled the prison to manufacture for resale to other departments. So Riley paid the claim grudgingly.

Penn, Big Red

as Harmon's counterpart, the Penn machine has amassed a 400-yard average from rushing and passing to pull up in second place behind the powerful Cornell eleven. The Big Red continued its leadership with an average of 466.7 yards in each of its three games.

Local Negro Eleven Slops Amarillo, 53-7

It will be a memorable afternoon in Lubbock's grid history come November 21 should the Westerners duplicate the Dunbar High negroes' victory over Amarillo's Black Sandies.

Before some 2,000 fans, white and colored, Coach Damon Hill's Panthers defeated the colored visitors with ridiculous eact. The game was sponsored by the Lubbock American Business club, proceeds above actual expenses being used toward electrical equipment for the Tech Stadium scoreboard.

Okra Leads Scoring

Bobby Okra scored four touchdowns, J. T. Collins tallied twice, King scored once on an 85-yard run from scrimmage and H. C. Barnes scored one touchdown and five extra points by plunging. In the line, Left End Jefferson, Left Tackle and Captain Whitman, Center Mitchell, and Right Tackle Price were outstanding in a defense that refused to give.

The lineups: Lubbock—Jefferson and Demerson, ends; Whitman and Price, tackles; Wilson and Conger, guards; Mitchell, center Collins, King, Okra and Barnes, backs.

Amarillo—Johnson and Lore, ends; Hayes and Rice, tackles; McGee and Arelridge, guards; Henderson, center; Hill, Ballard, Robinson and Sneed, backs.

WORLD'S GREATEST LINER MAY HEED WAR'S CALL—Idle at her New York pier since her spectacle maiden-voyage dash across the Atlantic this spring, the Queen Elizabeth, largest ship afloat, again churns into the news. A recent hum of mysterious activity, including loading of food and mattresses, has led to rumors that she, like her sistership, the Queen Mary, will be called to active service by the British Admiralty, perhaps as a troopship. Meanwhile, to safeguard her against possible sabotage, New York policemen stand by in statue-like silhouette.

Goober Keyes Will Speak To Scouts

The following awards are to be made:

Changes Made In Pastorates

Several changes of Methodist pastors were made by the New Mexico Methodist conference which was held in Tucumcari, and presided over by Bishop Ivan Lee Holt of Dallas, who stopped in Lubbock Sunday night en route to the North Texas conference, in session at Greenville.

Rev. George W. Shearer, who was presiding elder of the old Lubbock district, was returned as district superintendent of the Clovis district. Rev. H. C. Hoy was returned to the Clovis First church and Rev. D. S. Lee was sent from Logan to the Clovis circuit.

Returned To Hobbs

Rev. C. A. Clark, brother of Dr. O. F. Clark, district superintendent here, was returned to Hobbs for his sixth year. Rev. G. L. Keever, at Jal the past year, was returned. He formerly was at Leuders and before that at Quitaque. His transfer out of the Northwest Texas conference became effective with the New Mexico group this year, as did the transfer of Rev. Melvin Rankin, now at Crosbyton, who came here a year ago from New Mexico.

Rev. John Cox was sent to Tatum from Santa Rosa and Rev. J. A. Bell from Farmington to Santa Rosa; Rev. H. N. Nance was sent to Lovington and Rev. E. J. Sloan sent to Texico-Clovis.

An exchange of interest in this conference was that of Rev. B. M. Stradley from Gallup to Tucumcari and Rev. H. D. Marlin from Tucumcari to Gallup.

Rev. Tom W. Brabham, former McMurry college president and also Texas Wesleyan college president was returned to Roswell First church, where he has been for two years.

Digging For Worms Done By Electricity

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Oct. 24 (U.P.)—Willis W. Hirsig demonstrated his 1941 model streamlined electric fishing-worm digger.

It was constructed on the principle of the "hot foot."

Hirsig's invention consisted of two long electric rods which were placed in the ground a few feet apart.

A switch was pulled, the ground became charged—and, presto—all worms within five feet were blitzkrieged to the surface where Hirsig pounced upon them.

Enlisted Navy Man Is In Service 48 Years

MEDFORD, Mass., Oct. 24 (U.P.)—Stanley Baker, 71, of Medford claims to be the oldest enlisted man in the navy.

Baker enlisted on March 2, 1892, and has been allowed to continue in service beyond the retirement limit by special permission.

First discovered in 1789, uranium was not isolated until 1842. It is a white, heavy, and metallic element.
