PURELY PERSONAL

By John

Let there be light, and the Southwestern Public Service Company provided the light. Not very much the last number of years I will admit, but somewhat better than the kerosene lantern. Now comes the 20th Century and Farwell at last joins it with spanking new mercury vapor lamps. For the past several weeks, a diligent crew of workers have been taking down the old and putting up the new.

As I suspect with most small towns, the younger generation has been aware of the nighttime improvement long before many of us more mature citizens. It is worth your while to drive around town at night and see how much more light we now have to illuminate our streets. Our community never has been plagued with an excess of juvenile exuberance or just downright crime, nevertheless this should make us all feel safer when we do have to be out later than what might be our usual wont.

This tilt toward progress has come about in a joint effort between the Company and our City Dads. The Company is doing all the work at their expense and will of course own the poles and fixtures. The City for their part will pay a small amount more per light per month. This is city money well spent and wisely used for the protection of its citizens. I am glad to see this come about as it has always rather mildly annoyed me to see the feed pens to our south being mistaken for the town.

* * * *

Another area of civic improvement I can comment on is the rapid pace of home building in the Twin Cities. How good for the economy if we could induce 30 or 40 families that are now living and working in Clovis to continue to work in Clovis but to change their residence to here.

We are a perfect suburb, only minutes away via a four-lane highway. Quiet, clean, well-mannered, and as I can testify from personal experience, have a decided advantage by being on Central Standard Time. It is amazing to me how enjoyable it is to live by CST and work on a MST schedule in Clovis. I am sure that this would appeal to many Clovis residents if the message could only be taken to them. And happily enough, the Farwell Chamber of Commerce is working on this very project.

The Twin Cities of Texico and Farwell have a bright future ahead particularly as time, technology, and the mortalness of man work toward that end.

NOTICE

Farwell Quarterback Club will meet beginning at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday evening at Clara's Spur Restaurant.

I'VE GOT IT -- Seems to be the expression on Farwell end Larry Gregory's face, as he makes a diving catch of a pass in the closing minutes of last Friday's game.

Farwell Loses To Kress, 26-0

Farwell Steers traveled to Kress last Friday night and came out on the short end of a 26-0 score. The game was not as one-sided as the score indicates, as the winners did not score their last two markers until within two minutes of the game's end.

Farwell kicked off to the Kangaroos to open the game. Kress immediately began a sustained drive and scored with only five minutes of the first quarter gone. The 'Roos scored again in the second quarter with seven minutes remaining.

The score stayed 14-0 until the last two and one-half minutes of play when the Kress boys scored on a long breakaway run of 50 yards. Kress again obtained possession of the ball and scored in the last few seconds with a 36-yard pass. Farwell mounted several drives but penalties or interceptions ended the Steer threats.

HALE CENTER NEXT

Tonight, Friday, the Steers travel to Hale Center to play the strong Owls at 7:30 p.m. Coach Booth says the Owl aggregation may be the strongest team we will face all season. "They have a veteran team that is both big and fast. Their J. D. Davis looks very good in all departments," adds Coach Booth.

The Farwell crew will have one thing going for them in the form of tradition as Hale Center has never beaten Farwell in football.

TIE ME KANGAROO DOWN -- Hobbie Coffman, number 20, ties this Kress 'Roo down and kept him from a sizable gain in the 3rd quarter of last week's game at Kress.

Two Killed Near Bovina In Auto Accident

Two persons were killed and a third was seriously injured in a blinding head-on crash on FM 1731, south of Bovina at 5:20 p.m. Friday afternoon, according to Carl Davis, Parmer County Highway Patrolman who was one of the investigating officers.

Killed were Jack Morris, 48, who farmed south of Bovina and Jose Reyes, 37, who made his home at the Lawlis Gin in Bovina. Injured was Jerry Don Morris, 15, who was riding with his father.

Young Morris suffered a broken thigh, a broken ankle and numerous severe lacerations about the face and head. He was hospitalized in Parmer County Community Hospital following the accident but was transferred to Northwest Texas Hospital in Amarillo for surgery on Sunday.

According to eye witnesses the accident occurred when the Morris vehicle (a 1963 Chevrolet pick-up) headed south came from behind a loaded grain truck and pulled into the path of the oncoming Reyes vehicle (a 1965 Plymouth) while attempting to make a left turn into a side road. Skid marks at the scene indicated that Reyes saw the Morris vehicle but was unable to stop in time to avoid the accident.

Both Reyes and Morris were pronounced dead at the scene by Judge J. R. Thornton, Farwell Justice of the Peace.

Assisting in the investigation of the accident were Carl Davis, Parmer County Highway Patrolman, Sgt. Wells, from the highway patrol office in Hereford, and officials from the Parmer County sheriff's office.

Final rites were held for Morris in Bovina on Monday. Services will be held in Mercedes, Texas for Reyes. His body was returned to that city on Sunday.

Last Rites Held For Pioneer Resident

Funeral services were held for Mrs. Emma Lust, 84, pioneer Texico resident, Wednesday afternoon from Charles V. Steed Memorial Chapel, with Rev. W. C. Strickland, pastor of Hamlin Memorial Methodist Church officiating. Burial was in Mission Garden of Memories under direction of Steed Funeral Home.

Mrs. Lust died at Clovis Memorial Hospital Monday afternoon following a heart attack. Mrs. Lust was born near Kiel, Germany, January 4, 1881 and came to America with her parents at the age of nine years, settling in Iowa.

In 1908, she moved with her husband, the late Frank Lust, to a homestead north of Texico where she still made her home at time of her death. She was a member of the Methodist Church.

Surviving Mrs. Lust are two daughters, Miss Alberta Lust, San Fernando, Calif., and Mrs. Ruth Tomlinson, Texico. Also a grandson, Robert Ray Tomlinson and one great-grandchild.

Aunt Dies

A. D. McDonald, superintendent of Texico schools, was called to Coleman, Tex. on Sunday evening by the death of an aunt, Mrs. Douglas, who passed away that evening.

Services were held in Coleman on Tuesday afternoon. The McDonalds returned home on Wednesday.

Services Held For Roger Grissom

Funeral services were held from Our Chapel of Memories in Clovis on Friday for Roger Grissom, 74, who passed away in Clovis Memorial Hospital on Tuesday following a lengthy illness.

The Rev. C. C. Morgan, pastor of Forrest Heights Baptist Church, Clovis, assisted by Rev. W. C. Strickland, pastor of Hamlin Memorial Methodist Church, officiated. Burial was in Texico Cemetery, under direction of Our Chapel of Memories Funeral Home.

Mr. Grissom, who was born Sept. 3, 1891 in Texas, moved to New Mexico in 1907 and settled on the farm two miles south of Texico where he still resided at time of his death. He was married to Retha Belle Purselley in March, 1926. He was a member of the Texico Farm Bureau for many years.

Survivors include his wife, Retha Belle, one son, Wayne, Grand Junction, Colo.; one brother, Bill, Oakland, Calif; and three grandchildren. Also numerous brothers and sisters-in-law and many friends.

Serving as pallbearers were Wesley Engram, Edward Engram, Lewie Paul, Lawrence McDaniel, Jerry Paul and James Gillean.

Four Weeks Left In Football Contest, W. M. Roberts Leads

With only four weeks left in the local armchair quarterback football contest, interest is still running high with 115 persons posting entries last week, among them six new entries.

Topping the list of contestants with most games called right at the end of seven weeks is W. M. Roberts, Farwell school superintendent, who called all of the games right this week, to win first place prize money. Roberts, with 53 games called right, is two games ahead of his nearest opponents, Georgia Lee Rundell and Jerry Dee Owen, who have each called 51 games right.

Larry Gregory, who has led the list of contestants (in the overall contest) on two occasions this year is in third place with 50 games right. In good positions with 49 games right are Theo Actkinson, Jerry Mathis and Edwina Owen. Lewey Bradshaw and Archie Thompson each have called 48 games right.

Winners of second and third place weekly prize money are Mrs. Albert Johnson and Jerry Dee Owen, who each called nine games right. However, Mrs. Johnson was one point closer to the tie breaker game score than was Owen. Dolph Moten, Bovina, also called nine of the 10 games right for the week.

Each of the persons calling nine games right missed the same game.

You may be the next weekly winner - So don't fail to get in your entry this week!

WISH IT WAS -- "I wish it was four weeks from now" said W. M. Roberts, Farwell School superintendent, as he accepted congratulations and a check for $5.00 from Bill Christian, Texico Branch-Citizen's Bank, for first place weekly prize in the football contest. By calling all of the games correctly Roberts went ahead of his nearest opponent in the overall contest. Grand prize is two tickets to the Cotton Bowl and $50 expense money. There are four weeks left in the contest.

Scout Finance Group Meets

The committee on finance of the Conquistador Council of Boy Scouts met Wednesday morning for breakfast at Clara's Spur Restaurant.

Purpose of the meeting was to plan the local drive for financial support of the Boy Scout movement in the Texico-Farwell area. Among those present were Doyle Boyd, Council representative from Clovis; Dr. T. J. Glenn, finance chairman, Joe Jones, local scout treasurer, Team Captains, Herb Potts, J. W. Patrick, I. W. Quickel and John Getz. Also present was M. A. Snider Jr., representing the troop formation committee.

The date of Nov. 3 was selected for the kick-off breakfast, by that time team captains will have selected their workers and have pledge cards prepared so that a one day effort, it is hoped, will produce the funds for Scouting in this area for another year.

At the breakfast meeting Boyd pointed out that there are over 10,000 boys and workers in the Conquistador Council area and that council wide it takes an average of $12 to support a boy in Scouting.

Doyle Boyd, left, Scout representative used visual cards to explain the extent of Scouting in the Conquistador Council which embraces some 26,000 sq. miles in SE New Mexico and Parmer County. Dr. T. J. Glenn, right, was chairman of the meeting.

Texico Students To Have Holiday Next Week

Students in the Texico school will enjoy a two day holiday next week while teachers are in attendance at the New Mexico Education Association meeting in Albuquerque. Wolverines Suffer Defeat

The Texico Wolverines softball team ended what might have been a perfect season by suffering a defeat at the hands of Dora, in the Curry County softball tournament on Thursday. Final score was 9-8.

Roy McDaniel, one of the best pitchers in the softball league, was charged with the loss. Coach Johnny Green in commenting on the game said "We suffered a temporary lapse which coupled with a few bad breaks led to our downfall." Texico was leading 8-2 at the beginning of the final inning.

"Even though we lost the game and did not receive the trophy we had the best team in the district" said Green, who had nothing but praise for his boys.

The season ended with six wins and one loss-to Dora.

Boys are now in the process of practicing for basketball season, with the first game scheduled for Nov. 13. A complete schedule of games will be released in the near future.

SIGNS PROCLAMATION -- E. C. Prather, local Lion Prexy, looks on as Parmer County Judge Loyde E. Brewer signs a proclamation declaring the week Oct. 25 - Nov. 1 as EYE BANK WEEK. Lion members will canvass the Twin Cities on Monday evening, Oct. 25, selling light bulbs with funds derived from the sale going into the sight conservation program.

Lions Stage Bulb Sale

On Monday evening, Oct. 25 the Texico-Farwell Lions Club will have a light bulb sale, beginning at 6 p.m. Bulbs of 60, 75, and 100 watt size will be offered to the public at 25¢ each.

The local Lions as part of Lions International sponsor an extensive sight conservation program. The funds from such activities go to pay for glasses for underprivileged children and to defray expenses of such Lion underwritten programs as the eye bank plan.

Lion President, E. C. Prather, says the club hopes to cover the Twin Cities in one night, but if you are missed and need light bulbs call at his stations and he will see that you get what you need in the way of Lion Light Bulbs.

Additional People Receive S. S. Benefits

Some persons who had not worked long enough to qualify for social security payments will now be eligible under the recently amended Social Security Act, according to a statement made by Hal Geldon, District Manager of the Amarillo Social Security Office.

The new provision makes it possible for older workers to qualify with as little as 3 "quarters of coverage"; the previous minimum was 6 such quarters. In commercial employment a quarter of coverage is a calendar quarter in which a worker was paid wages of at least $50; quarters are credited for farm work, and for the self-employed, on a different basis.

The following table shows the groups that the new provision affects:

Man Who Reached 65 (Woman 62) In	Quarters Needed
1954 or earlier	3
1955	4
1956	5

Workers who qualify under the special provisions will receive $35 per month; payments cannot begin, however, until the worker reaches age 72. Persons who think they may be affected by this change should recheck with the social security office as soon as possible, Geldon stated.

DON'T FIRE THE SOUTH'S HARD WORKERS

Nothing works harder at boosting the beauty and economy of the South than its forests and woodlands. They provide thousands of acres in scenic beauty, recreational facilities, wildlife areas, and flood protection—millions of dollars in construction materials, industrial products, employment payrolls, and new job opportunities. Whenever you use fire, use extreme caution—always.

REMEMBER: EVERY TIME A FOREST FIRE STRIKES, YOU GET BURNED!

Following is a letter received by Dutch Quickel from Donnie Carpenter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Carpenter, who is serving in Viet Nam. Carpenter has been promoted to Captain since the letter was written.

I guess you remember Pete Dawkins, the ex-All American and Rhodes Scholar from West Point. He is here in Kontum with me. He's an advisor to a Vietnamese Airborne Brigade. He's a real fine officer and will probably be Chief of Staff some day.

My job is Civil Affairs Advisor to the Province Chief (equivalent of our state governor). The job is interesting and challenging. Kontum is located in the centeral highlands about 350 miles northeast of Saigon. The weather here is wonderful and our living conditions are not so bad.

About 80% of the people here are Montagnards (mon'-ten-yards), and only 20% Vietnamese. The Montagnards are a tribal, semi-nomadic people very similar to our American Indian. Unfortunately they have been exploited and discriminated against like our Indians. Therefore, the Vietnamese-Montagnard relationship leaves much to be desired. The Montagnard men wear loin-cloth and their women go bare-breasted, very primitive people.

They like Americans very much; much more than they do the Vietnamese. Anything a man like me can do here is a vast improvement -- from showing them how to plant potatoes to encouraging them to relieve themselves of human waste elsewhere than just outside their own front door.

Believe it or not, one of my projects, is teaching them to make lye soap, as I remember my grandmother doing not so long ago.

One of my biggest problems is providing for over 17,000 refugees here in the province. The war has driven them from their homes. So, it looks like a pretty interesting year. Naturally I don't like being away from my family, but perhaps my being here will preclude my son from having a similar experience.

We're winning here, though it's going to take a long time since the solution cannot be purely military. That's why there are jobs like mine -- we've got to win the hearts and minds of the people -- and we're doing it.

Thanks again for your letter "Dutch, having had a similar experience a couple of decades ago, I'm sure you know what mail from home means to a GI.

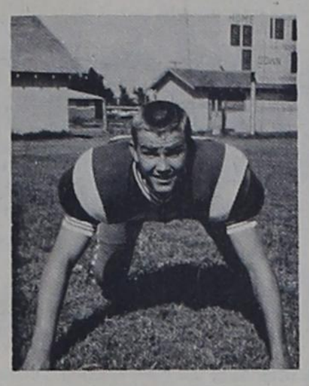

Sincerely,
Don Carpenter

HE'S UP THERE -- Children from two of the third grade classes in Friona accompanied by their teachers, Miss Jo Phillips and Mrs. June Rhodes, who were enroute to Clovis on Friday where they were scheduled to make tours of several businesses, including a bakery, dairy, candy kitchen and market, stopped for a brief visit at the county courthouse in Farwell. The children are pictured as they peer into one of the large trees looking for one of the squirrels which make their home in the trees in the courthouse yard.

Blalock's Car Stolen, Found

A stolen car, belonging to Clyde Blalock of Bovina, was found abandoned some three miles east on Highway 60 Sunday morning shortly after it was reported missing.

The automobile, a '57 Ford, was taken from Blalock's home evidently sometime Saturday night.

Blalock had been repairing the car and had the water hose disconnected. This was possibly the reason the car was abandoned as quickly as it was, according to Deputy Henry Minter.

The car had the keys in it when it was taken.

Minter said that a hitch-hiker was questioned in connection with the theft and released.

First U. S. Postal Card was issued on May 1, 1872.

39 Attend Achievement Tour

A total of 25 members and 14 adults were in attendance at the Home Improvement Tour held by Oklahoma Lane 4-H girls club on Saturday. Homes visited were those of Mrs. Johnnie Rundell, Mrs. Gilbert Kaltwasser, Leon Billingsley and Webb Gober. At these homes they viewed the results of work done by 4-H girls in the improvement of their bedrooms and homes.

At the home of Mrs. Rundell, Tina, Sheree, and Gaye, the most outstanding improvements included the study center which was located in the corner of the large bedroom shared by the girls. The desk, study lamp, chair and screen divider, to prevent distraction when studying, was an attractive grouping. Shelves and racks provided for in closets made greater use of space. Drawer dividers to help keep clothing orderly and easy to find was another addition that attracted attention.

A large cedar chest refinished in natural low sheen satin finished by the girls in a workshop last summer, was of interest, especially to the adults.

Cheryl Kaltwasser's bulletin board, bedside table and decorative bird cage attracted attention of the group along with other improvements.

The attractive refinished walnut bedside table of Janis Billingsley created quite a bit of interest. Re-arrangement of closet and drawer space for greater convenience was another feature of improvement in her bedroom.

A very small closet with a lot of space was the outstanding feature of Kathryn Gober's room, along with the refinished sewing stand, pictures and bookshelves for her parents room.

The project work is under direction of the County Extension Service, according to Cricket B. Taylor, County Extension Agent. The objectives of the bedroom improvement project is to make bedrooms more useful, convenient and attractive by providing a place for all personal things, making better use of space, select appropriate colors, pictures and furniture to meet the needs of bedroom activities.

Mrs. Webb Gober, project leader, assisted by the 4-H girls and Mrs. Johnnie Rundell, explained and discussed the project work carried out by the girls.

Refreshments were served at the Webb Gober home to the following:

Lazbuddie Club: Mrs. Ralph Broyles, Mrs. Roy Miller, Patcine Broyles, Maxine Broyles, Ann Blackstone, Diane Coker, Kathy Coker; Oklahoma Lane Club: Tina Rundell, Sheree Rundell, Gaye Rundell, Kathryn Gober, Janis Billingsley, Cheryl Kaltwasser, Mrs. Johnnie Rundell, Mrs. Gilbert Kaltwasser, Mrs. Webb Gober, Mrs. Walter Kaltwasser, Mrs. Cyrus Dale, Rhonda and Cindy Dale; Bovina Club: Mrs. Howard Shook, Loy Christian, Nancy Hutto, Kathy Shook, Ina Quintana; Farwell Club: Mrs. W. The 4-H girls in the Oklahoma Lane Community may well be proud of the work done in their Home Improvement project. One thing that all girls (and their mothers too) said helped them most was organization of drawer space. Having a place for everything and having everything in its place makes dressing and grooming ones self much easier, quicker and prevents frustration. This study or organization in the bedroom may well be carried on over into other activities of our lives too. Mrs. Webb Gober, the leader is to be commended for her part as a leader. It took interest not only of the girls in bedroom improvement, but also interest and help of the parents for these girls to succeed.

CLOTHING PROBLEMS IN FABRIC SELECTION

FALL sewing is one activity for many homemakers that is being given some thought as to the selection of fabrics. As new fabrics are made available, more knowledge of techniques in sewing these is needed, as well as information on buying.

More bonded fabrics will be on the market this winter than ever before. Manufacturers predict that in a few years that 60 per cent of all fashion fabrics, including linens and bedding, will be bonded.

Often women ask why some bonded fabrics separate. The type of process determines the longevity of the bond. Here are three types of laminated methods used in bonded fabrics:

(1) Adhesives glue the fabrics together. This is the least expensive process and the least successful as the glue is easily dissolved by solvents used in a drycleaning process.

(2) Heat setting a polyurethane foam between two fabrics is more expensive but lasts longer since it is not destroyed by drycleaning solvents. This middle layer, however, is so thin that it is difficult to distinguish it from an adhesive.

(3) Locklined fabrics are made of two layers connected during the weaving process. This is rarely found in clothing because of the expense of the construction process.

In April of next year - a all Consumers - whether they sew or buy.

The cost of clothing is higher now and care in selection will be more important to the homemaker who must "stretch" the clothing dollar.

county wide program on new Fabrics, their Selection and Care will be given in Bovina. This should be of interest to

On The Farm In Parmer County

By JOE VANZANDT
County Agent

We are in the process of planning and scheduling various kinds of crop demonstrations for next year. We would welcome any suggestions from you on what you need more information about. It may be fertilizer, cultural practices or something else that you feel is a problem. We hope to get a few fertilizer research trials in Parmer County next year.

If you would like to cooperate on some of this type of work or have suggestions on what you would like to see work done on, let me know.

It looks like we will have the best yields ever on most crops. However, our net profit may not be as much as in previous years due to increased costs. Which means we've got to be constantly on the search for new ways to lower production costs.

PHEASANT COVER

Now that Grain Sorghum harvest is about over for most, farmers need to leave a little of their sorghum stubble standing to provide cover this winter for pheasants. We don't mean a lot of acreage but many farms may have some point rows or a corner in a field that could be left standing. Probably the least interruption to next years farming operation would come from leaving this stubble on ground you plan to lay-out.

I wanted to mention this because about 1900 pheasant were bought and released by Parmer County farmers in the fall of 1963. Last year we had a pheasant season and quite a few people had the pleasure of pheasant hunting.

These game birds do need some protection and cover if they are to increase in this area. We believe that farmers should give some thought to leaving some cover, only one acre can be a big help, especially if there is not any other natural cover anywhere close.

COTTON HARVEST

We hear a lot of talk about tractor mounted baskets for cotton harvest. The greenboll seperator elevator for conventional cotton strippers has proved readily adaptable to loading of a tractor mounted basket.

Studies made in 1963 with strippers with tractor mounted baskets and strippers with drawn trailers showed that the average labor requirement for harvesting a bale of cotton with the basket system was 40 per cent lower than for the conventional drawn trailer system.

Electric Co-Op Represenitves At Meeting

Three members of the Deaf Smith County Electric Cooperative and their wives attended the Region X meeting of the National Rural Electric Cooperative Association in Santa Fe, N.M. this week.

They were among the more than 400 rural electric members attending the meeting from the Region X states of New Mexico, Arizona, and Texas.

Those attending from the Deaf Smith County Electric Cooperative were: Mr. and Mrs. Noel Gollehon of Dimmitt and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Higginbotham of Hereford. Mr. Gollehon and Mr. Higginbotham serve as directors on the Cooperative board. Manager for the Cooperative, Leo Forrest and Mrs. Forrest of Hereford and Mr. Ernest Langley, Cooperative attorney, also attended.

Forrest served as a panel member on a panel discussing the irrigation research project now being conducted in West Texas and sponsored by the electric cooperatives in this area.

Some of the topics discussed during the three-day meeting were future financing for rural electric systems, exporting the rural electric pattern to foreign countries, and the woman's place in community activities.

A "finishing touch" can often transform something just plain good into something special — as with Streusel Muffins. Good plain, muffins are enhanced by a streusel, or sweet crumb topping. Blend together ⅓ cup each enriched flour and sugar, then cut in 3 tablespoons butter or margarine. Sprinkle about 1 tablespoon streusel mixture over each muffin before baking.

Looking for new quick bread recipes? You're not alone — millions of homemakers have begun baking again, now that cooler weather is here. That's why October has been designated Biscuit/Muffin Month — to supply you with a wealth of recipes and serving ideas for these versatile hot breads.

To bake biscuits with soft, creamy-white sides, place the cut pieces of dough close together in pan or on baking sheet; for biscuits with crisper, lightly browned sides, place at least ½ to ¾-inch apart.

IN THE SOUTH

MONEY DOES GROW ON TREES

It grows in the form of employment, building materials, paper products and scores of other benefits. Because the South is one of the world's largest producers of these valuable forest resources, you as a Southerner have the largest stake in their protection. So whenever you use fire, use it with care. A spark and a breeze could burn millions of trees—"million-dollar money trees."

MEET MR. WUNSTOP DUZZIT

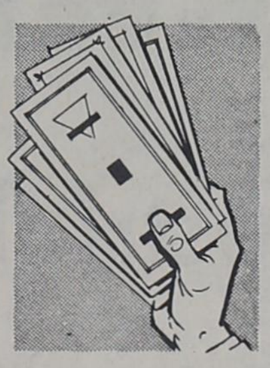

An elderly bachelor lived in a small town at the end of a street that was the local Lover's Lane. One beautiful spring night he went to bed, but he was unable to sleep because his dog kept barking every few minutes directly under his bedroom window. Finally, the old man went to the window, opened it wide and yelled: "Hey, Tiger! Cut that out!"

The barking stopped, and in the ensuing stillness a young man's voice said meekly: "Yes, sir!"

Flower Arranging Hobby For Ogetha Langford

Many women think that going to work in an office or similar job each day is quite a glamorous thing, however, most women find that the most rewarding profession, for women, is that of homemaker and mother. In this category is Mrs. Elmer (Ogetha) Langford, a member of the Pleasant Hill Community Club for the past 32 years. She is also a member of Redbud Garden Club. Mrs. Langford moved to the Pleasant Hill Community soon after her marriage in late 1931 and has made her home in that community continuously since that time.

She first joined the Pleasant Hill Community Club in 1933. She recalls that it was in early 1934 that she first was hostess to the club, which met at that time in the homes of members. The club has since acquired the teacherage at the old Pleasant Hill School for a clubhouse. She reminises that at the time she joined the club, club activities were not as modernized as they are today, but that members gathered at the homes of other members and did handwork, quilting, canning, mending or "just plain visiting" with the hostess.

Members usually met twice each month (all day) with the County Extension Agent visiting the club at one month intervals. Many ideas on home canning, sewing and crafts were learned at these early day club meetings.

Through the years (as a club member) Mrs. Langford has taken courses in copper tooling, aluminum craft, drapery making, refinishing furniture, upholstery work, gardening and many others. She is a flower enthusiast and a favorite hobby is that of raising and arranging her own flowers.

"Yes!" she likes the cultivated flowers for arrangements she said, but her favorite arrangements are made from seed pods, rocks, tree bark, weeds, leaves, heads from feed stuffs and many others which may be found almost anywhere. Containers for these arrangements are made by Mrs. Langford and many pieces of scrap iron, rock and wood plaques have been put to use as base for some of the dried arrangements.

Many items used in the arrangements have been found by Mrs. Langford in her travels over the United States. "We may be driving along at 65 miles per hour when I spy something I think would be useful in making one of the arrangements. When I say STOP-my husband will immediately throw on the brakes and allow me to get out and examine or pick up whatever has been of interest to me" she related.

She tells the story of how on a trip through Missouri and Kansas she spied some colorful berries and seed pods along the roadway and stopped to pick several branches to bring home for later use. Arriving at the home of a relative, where she was to spend the night, she was accompanied to the car by a small niece to unload an overnight bag, upon spying the profusion of berries and seed pods the child cried out "Aunt Ogetha your car sure is a mess." This story has afforded many laughs to the family who are all aware of the keen interest Mrs. Langford displays in gathering unusual articles for her flower arrangements.

Quite recently a friend who lived in Oregon, knowing of Mrs. Langford's interest in making dried flower arrangements sent her friend a large box of seed pods, pine cones, berries, weeds and many other items, native to Oregon, for use in making the arrangements. Upon opening the box Mrs. Langford cried "It's just like Christmas-only better,"

In learning more about her hobby Mrs. Langford has read many magazine articles and books on making flower arrangements. She has won many awards at area flower shows for some of her arrangements. On occasion she has received the award of merit, award of distinction and sweepstakes in the artistic division at the Curry County Extension flower shows.

She has served as assistant chairman and chairman of the county extension flower show and has also served as chairman of the Redbud Garden flower show. She has also spent many happy hours giving demonstrations on flower arranging to many extension clubs and civic organizations.

Members of her family are always happy to assist her and are justifiably proud of her accomplishments. Recently while laid up for several months following back surgery, she pressed her husband and teenage daughter into bringing the necessary items to her so that she might continue with her favorite hobby.

"Flower arranging falls into three distinct sytles (oriental, modern and traditional)" stated Mrs. Langford. She likes to make modern arrangements best as one has to pay little attention to mathematical balance or color with this type. Each arrangement is made for a particular place in the home she stated. "The arrangement that will fit on a dining table will not be proper for a hall table, so one must pay particular attention to the area in which the arrangement is to be used before beginning work" she concluded.

In arranging flowers for the home simply make an arrangement which fits the color scheme and which the family likes and it will be right for your home she says. However, this is not the case when making flower arrangements for a show. Judges place arrangements according to design and color and the category in which they are entered.

Many of her arrangements find their way into the homes of friends, hospital rooms and homes of shut ins. She is always willing to make arrangements for or share flowers with friends and neighbors.

Not only is Mrs. Langford adept at arranging flowers, but she is also a good cook and seamstress and spends many hours doing fancy handwork.

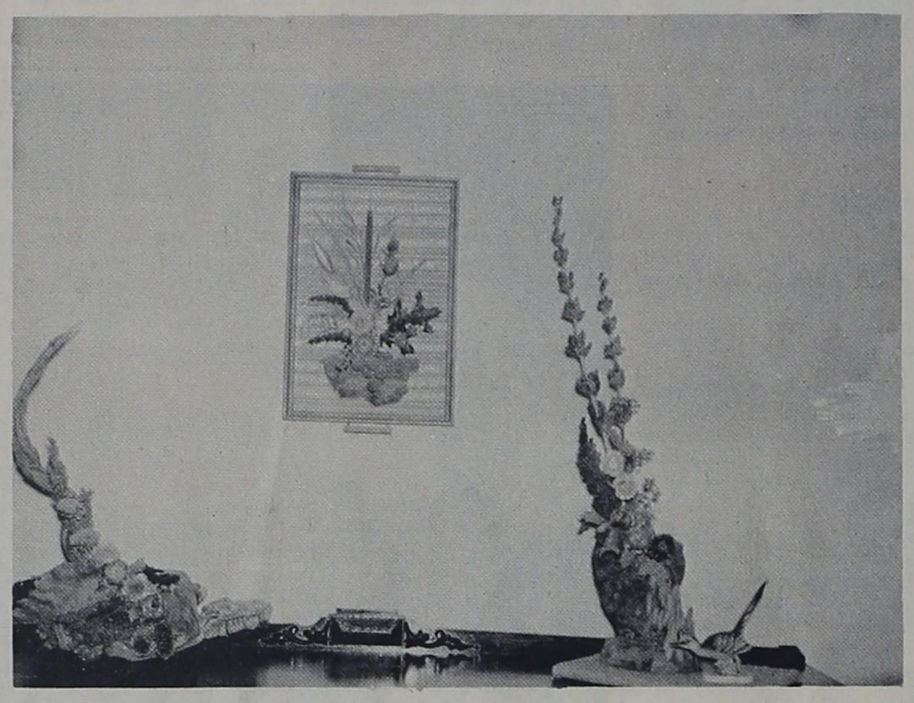

The Langford family lived eight miles north of Texico-Farwell on the Texas side of the state line. Children in the family have all attended Farwell High School and at the present time in addition to daughter, Carolyn, a sophomore, a granddaughter, Jacqueline, is a second grade student in the school.

Other members of the family are the husband, Elmer; and sons, Leon and Delvin. Leon lives on the farm adjoining his parents and Delvin lives in Shawnee, Okla. The Leon Langfords are parents of four children and the Delvin Langfords are parents of a son and daughter.

"By spreading a little sunshine to others by giving of her time and effort to provide lovely floral arrangements for friends and loved ones, Ogetha Langford has found the pathway to happiness for herself."

Red Sez

Two girls were discussing their boy friends and one of them was particularly enthused. "I think he's going to propose any day now," she said.

"What makes you so sure?" asked her friend.

"Well," came the answer, "He's begun to hate my mother violently."
