Cooke County adopts change in benefit plan

by Janet Felderhoff

Cooke County Commissioner's voted 5-0 Monday, Nov. 28 to adopt the new annually determined contribution rate plan allowed by recent state legislation. Under the new plan which cannot take effect prior to January 1, 1995, county employees must have 8 years vested and a combined total of 75 years of service and age to draw retirement. Currently it is 10 years vested and 80 years service and age combined.

"This will allow some to retire about two years sooner," remarked County auditor Gloria Parrish. "This is an added benefit for the employees." This will increase the county's portion somewhat.

Cooke County will renew its membership in the I-35 Coalition for fiscal year 1994-95. This is an organization of counties and cities through which I-35 runs. Its goal is to have I-35 recognized as a major corridor between Canada and Mexico. Since the United States adopted the North American Trade Agreement (NAFTA) an increase of traffic especially carrying goods is anticipated.

To become a member of the coalition a county must contribute a certain amount to the cause. The amount is determined by size and population. Cooke County's must contribute $8,000 per year. Cooke County Judge Ray Russell, noted that $3,000 had been budgeted from the county. Gainesville Factory Shops have already given Cooke County a check for $1,000 to be used for that purpose. Also the Texoma Council of Governments has offered to match up to $4,000 from Cooke County.

Other possible donors are the Gainesville Chamber of Commerce and the Industrial Foundation. With other donors it is possible that the membership will cost the county less than $3,000.

Royce Martin, Justice of the Peace for Precinct 4, asked the Commissioners Court for permission to contract with a waste disposal company. He said that he had been hauling the waste from the Precinct office himself, but the price per load had increased to over $10 and he is in need of county assistance. The Precinct generates two to three yards of waste per month.

Martin brought estimates from two companies for two yard dumpsters. Texas Waste Management would be $53.13 per month and Frontier Waste for $43.90. It was agreed that the cost would be taken out of the office's miscellaneous equipment budget and later if needed some line items might be juggled. He was advised by the commissioners to take the lower of the two bids.

The county library will soon have a microfilm reader printer. It has been a needed item for several years and recently a demo being used at a Dallas bank became available for $5,000. It will be warranted as a new machine. Actual value of a new machine is $14,000. The purchase was approved unanimously by Commissioners Court.

In other business the minutes of the last meeting and monthly bills were approved.

All members were present.

Cavalry draws crowd to Muenster

by Janet Felderhoff

Wet weather didn't put a damper on Muenster's Christkindlmarkt activities last weekend. Surrounding towns reported downpours before parade time Saturday, but moisture only fell in a drizzle in Muenster and parade plans were definitely on.

Spirits were high as former Muenster resident Drue Bynum returned to Muenster with the First Cavalry Division Horse Detachment from Fort Hood. The last horse-mounted cavalry unit in the United States Army commanded by 1st Lt. Bynum made its first official appearance in Muenster amid applause and cheers as the unit led the Muenster Christkindlmarkt Parade.

There were 30 entries in the annual parade. Other large military groups were the Blue Knights Weapons Drill Team and the White Eagles Precision Drill Team. Special Activities Teams (SAT) from Sheppard Air Force Base in Wichita Falls. At 3 p.m. the Sheppard AFB Blue Falcons Choral Group gave an outstanding performance.

Winners in the various parade categories were presented either Muenster Marks or attractive two-foot trophies. Muenster ISD's entry, "Education - Future" won the Best Theme award which was $100 in Muenster Marks. Other winners included Best Religious - Muenster ISD Fifth Graders; Best Business - The Center Restaurant; Best Civic - Beta Kappa; and Largest Group Participation - Muenster Volunteer Fire Department. Each of these winners received $50 in Muenster Marks. Trophies went to Sacred Heart Elementary for Best Image; Muenster High School for Best Band; and Sacred Heart Red-N-Motion Dance Team for Best Marching Unit. The Best Image Award was presented for the first time ever this year on the recommendation of the parade judges.

Judges for the parade were Yvonne Mims, owner of The Christmas Store in Forestburg, Barbara Inglish, owner of Barron's and Quicksilver Jewelry in Gainesville, and Robbie Storey of Nocona Athletic Goods. Announcer for the parade was Tom Carson of KGAF Radio in Gainesville.

Muenster Christkindlmarkt and the parade were featured on KXII Channel 12's 10 o'clock news. Coverage was by John Bentham who was in Muenster Saturday doing interviews and filming events.

Soft, wet soil on the Muenster Baseball Field caused the Cavalry's 3:30 p.m. demonstration to be moved to Frank and Bobbye Cromeens' CCC Ranch west of Muenster. The move was necessary to avoid possible injury to horse or rider.

This didn't deter spectators who filled the arena. The men's performance brought cheers of admiration and after the event spectators, young and old, poured into the arena to greet the cavalry men and admire their animals.

Friday and Saturday's events all seemed to be a success. Merchants who remarked on their sales were happy with the week-end. Christmas Tour of Homes again drew about 100 visitors. Comments on the parade included, "It was the biggest and best ever in Muenster, and 'There was such a variety we really enjoyed it.'"

Cooke and Montague County Clubs honored

Achievements by community clubs in Cooke and Montague Counties were recognized during a banquet hosted November 17 by Cooke County Electric Cooperative.

Cooke County Extension Agent Evelyn Yeatts presented the Downard Fairplains Community Club as winner of the Traveling Trophy for Cooke County. The club, which has a new community center on Old Denton Road about 10 miles south of Gainesville, enjoyed an outstanding year during 1994. Members completed construction and furnishing of the new community center building and they continued fund raising efforts to pay for the new structure. The achievements were especially noteworthy, Yeatts said, because only a few years earlier the club had a much lower level of member involvement and activity.

The Downard Fairplains Community Center is host to a new 4-H Club as well as numerous family and community activities.

In Montague County, Cooke Extension Agent Barbara Holcman recognized the continuing outstanding achievements of the Illinois Bend Community Club. During 1994, the Illinois Bend club, continued to upgrade the community center, installing new restrooms. Members have also done renovation work on a tabernacle built on property that adjoins the community center and performed extensive cleaning along roadways in the Illinois Bend area. The club has hosted numerous fund raising and educational events and performed community service that included helping with the Tavoyas Bridge dedication.

Wayne Mitchell, Vice President of the Cooke County Electric Cooperative Board of Directors, presented $100 checks to community clubs with delegates in attendance, including those from Callisburg, Woodbine, Mountain Springs, Downard Fairplains, Ross-Point, Hood, Spanish Fort and Illinois Bend. Also receiving a check will be the Forestburg Community Improvement Club.

Mitchell praised club members

Civic Outlook

by Mayor Bill Miller

Of all the time-honored customs of Christmas, the annual parade to usher Santa Claus into the season is one of the all-time favorites in Muenster. This year's parade was among the most enjoyable and interesting we've had. A large crowd turned out to see Mr. Drue Bynum and his cavalry's special show following the parade also.

The Muenster Chamber of Commerce and Mr. David Fette, as parade chairman, deserve our applause. To the Chamber, this is a perfect time to pause and say thank you! Your dedication and good will are very important to our city and we probably don't tell you so often enough.

And now I would like to report to you about the progress being made on our proposed new water well. The engineer who was hired for the project has completed the preliminary sketch and is in process of getting the approval from the State of Texas.

After the approval is given, the work will be open for bidding. We are confident that the work will be completed and the well will be on line in time for our peak usage next summer.

Another item of interest to all of us is the federal mandate stating America will be converted to the metric system of doing business by 1996. All weights, measures and temperatures, etc. will be changed to metrics. To effect an orderly transition, both systems will be printed on materials and signs until the public learns the new system.

It will be hard to give up all of our rulers and yardsticks and to drive meters instead of miles, but I guess the folks in the federal government feel we are never too old to learn a new way of doing business.

He noted that they are loyal members of the cooperative who frequently attend annual meetings and provide support to the Cooperative in times of need. Richard Murphy retires

Captain Richard L. Murphy of Muenster, Texas, retires from American Airlines effective December 1, 1994. Captain Murphy began his flying career after graduating from Wesley College in Dover, Delaware, by joining the US Air Force.

Murphy received his wings and commission in 1958. He flew F86 fighters in the Air Force and Air National Guard, completing 13 years of service with the rank of Major.

In 1966, Murphy joined

American Airlines as a Flight Officer based in New York. After checking out as Captain on the Boeing 727 aircraft, he has flown nearly all the equipment American Airlines flies; from the Super 80 to the Boeing 747 jumbo. He retires flying the Boeing 767 on International routes.

The Murphys moved to Muenster in 1981. Retirement plans call for him to complete the Turtle Hill Golf Course and to spend more time helping his wife Kim with her Llama business.

To the Editor:

The third letter to the editor of the several published in the Nov. 4, 1994 issue of The Muenster Enterprise did not state my true views. I retract it in total.

himself to the enormous task of Messiah, frequently going without food or sleep. When he completed the 'Hallelujah Chorus,' he told his servant: "I did think I did see all Heaven before me, and the great God Himself." And when his giant task was over, and all his music on paper, he remarked simply: "I think God has visited me."

Sacred Heart Church was chosen for this performance because of the beautiful acoustical properties of the church. Dr. Martin Kralic is president of the Chorale. Membership is open to any singer in the greater Cooke County area. In June of 1995, over 30 members of the Chorale will be touring and singing concerts in Germany and Austria. The Cooke County Chorale is a member of the Cooke County Arts Council. The public is invited and urged to attend this beautiful and meaningful concert by the Cooke County Chorale.

Following the Chorale's rehearsal Tuesday night in Sacred Heart Church, Dr. Linder told members that this is the finest performance they have ever given. He related that he had rehearsed with the University of North Texas Symphony Orchestra on Monday and is convinced it is the finest orchestra with whom the Cooke County Chorale has ever been privileged to perform. Remember that church doors open at 7:30 p.m.

Cooke County Chorale is like "family" of musicians

(EDITOR'S NOTE: The story of Cooke County's 20 year old classical choir captures the hopes of its members to be a "Family", a musical group delighting in staying together and thriving in several ways. Cooke County Chorale draws talent from throughout the area for its programs which are noted for their professional quality.)

WE ARE FAMILY

by Stephen Bonin

Openness to all is the first key ingredient of Cooke County Chorale's success; in fact, about 70 percent of about 50 singers surveyed (70 have joined) said the people - director, accompanist, other members - were what they enjoyed most about the organization. According to an original member, Dr. Martin Kralicke of Muenster, when then-head of music at North Central Texas College, Dr. Harold Kafer and his wife Cecilia, "a marvelous, mezzo soprano," decided to start a classical choir in Cooke County, they established two guidelines: there would be no auditions and the potential member would only have to profess a desire to sing. Thirty to forty people showed up to sing the first season.

Thus, as Dr. Kafer has moved up the career ladder to be head of the Department of Music at North Illinois University, the Chorale has doubled its membership (most of whom are active church musicians; ten of whom are music educators).

Because of the open door policy, Chorale members, most of whom have participated in school/college and/or church music programs, count on receiving an education - either to improve vocal ability, music reading ability or both. In fact, 50 percent of the members said they enjoy most the challenge of the Chorale, and 70 percent said they enjoy most the education.

Those who have joined the organization unable to read music but willing to participate based on their love for singing classical music have always found themselves unified by performance time. They just learn differently - by hearing rather than reading.

A weekly rehearsal schedule and a dynamic focus on the positive by NCTC music faculty Dr. Michael Linder, director, (before him Mr. Glenn Wilson) and John Dill, accompanist, have been in effect since the fall semester 1994 began. (Even though the choir is based on the NCTC campus, most members are non-students from Cooke County and beyond). Meetings have been every Tuesday from 7 to 9 p.m. for group rehearsals, with voluntary sectional rehearsals happening since mid-October.

In the lobby of the Muenster hospital recently, Dr. Kralicke, chief of staff, who has served as president many years, emphasized his message to potential members. "We want you to have the dedication that you will come and you will learn your part."

And the result when they do? An emotionally rich experience for the singers and audiences.

A friend, Gene Gieb, who has sung bass in the chorale 10 years, told him, "You know, Marty, how I dearly love the Messiah - every bit, especially the 'Halleluia Chorus'. When I hear or sing it, I cry."

Another friend David Bright, former administrator of the hospital, whose wife Juanita has participated with the Chorale since its inception, provided a memorable compliment in the Spring of 1993: "Marty, this is a first-rate performance."

The performance that drew Bright's praise was Rutter's Requiem, during which a boy soprano from Gainesville's First Baptist Church moved many - audience and choir members alike - with his solo. Kralicke, who in the fifth grade had sung soprano in an altar boys choir, enthusiastically recalls obtaining a cassock for the boy to wear, intensifying the visual effect of religious expression.

As 14-year member Linda Coursey, who serves as librarian and publicity committee member, said, "The Chorale is a progressive learning experience; I am surrounded by positive people and quality music."

Verna Edwards, 8-year member added, "There is a bond in music like no other."

Director Linder joined Edwards in emphasizing a powerful, multilevel bonding to occur soon.

"I hope that our audience for the Messiah will experience our commitment to music, to each other, to them as an audience and to a higher spiritual power that motivates us to sing."

The 1994 presentation of "Messiah" will be in Sacred Heart Church on Friday, Dec. 2 at 8 p.m.

Light Up A Life campaign began Nov. 27

The 1994 Home Hospice Auxiliary Light up a Life campaign began Sunday with tree lighting ceremonies.

The Auxiliary held a 2:00 ceremony at Bealls and a 3:30 ceremony at Gainesville Factory Mall.

A special medley of music was presented by Kevin Beall, Susan Beall, Stacy Martin, and Nancy Moore. Rev. Keith Boone, President of the Advisory Board delivered an introduction to Home Hospice. Donations will be accepted at the two mentioned locations and Tom Thumb Nov. 27 through Dec. 16.

THEATER ARTS STUDENTS at Muenster High School, under the direction of Irene Hartman, will present a full-length play, The Egg and I, a hilarious comedy on Sunday night, Dec. 4, and Monday night, Dec. 5, at 7 p.m. in MISD Auditorium. Based on a novel by Betty McDonald, the play offers good wholesome entertainment for the entire family. Cast members are, 1 to r, seated - Melissa Biffle, Toni Trubenbach, Cody Perryman; standing - Lucas Hartman, Ashley Hartman, Andrea Klement and Bryan Hudspeth, and others in supporting roles.

TIPS ON STAYING SAFE AND SOUND WITH NATURAL GAS.

For more than 80 years, Lone Star Gas has been providing safe, dependable energy to its customers. By following a few simple rules, you can help make sure you and your family stay safe and sound with natural gas:

- Always have qualified service people install, regularly check and maintain all gas heaters and appliances, following the manufacturer's instructions for installation, ventilation, and operation.
- Always use a gas appliance only for its intended purpose. An oven, for example, should not be used to heat a room.
- Always keep flammable materials and substances away from gas heaters and appliances. Remember, a pilot light is constantly burning.

IF YOU SMELL GAS

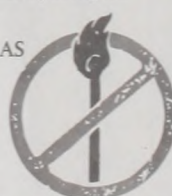

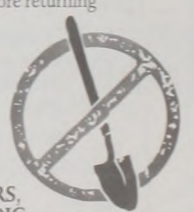

in your home, or know you have a gas leak, follow these rules:

- 1 Everyone should leave the house immediately, leaving the doors open for ventilation.
- 2 Do not switch anything electrical on or off.

- 3 Do not use your telephone (telephones use small amounts of electricity).
- 4 Do not strike a match or do anything else that might cause a spark.
- 5 Go to the nearest telephone and call Lone Star Gas Company. Wait until we have found the cause of the gas leak before returning to your home.

If you smell gas while you're outside, contact Lone Star Gas immediately.

CONTRACTORS, BEFORE YOU DIG, call or fax your request for pipeline locations to avoid any potential problems.

by Theresa Muller

Minutes from the previous meeting were read by Secretary Theresa Muller. Lucille Hesse, Treasurer, gave the financial report. A generous donation to the cancer aid and research fund was made possible due to the recent successful bake sale.

Ethel Hesse, community activity chairman, reported 7 projects of community service by 22 members - 134 hours.

Linda Knabe told of the special memorial service at church and cemetery on Nov. 11, Veterans Day. Good attendance was noted.

Frances Bayer reported on the Voice of Democracy contest in progress at both schools. The theme this year "My Vision for America." Winners will be selected soon.

Dorothy Hesse and Frances Bayer reported on the District meeting they attended in Lewisville Nov. 5 and 6. Also attending the meeting were Paul Hesse, Arthur Bayer and Don Eckart.

In keeping with the Christmas season, the Auxiliary members discussed several projects one of which was the "In Lieu of Christmas Cards" project in which a person may make a donation to the organization instead of sending Christmas cards and the names of the donors will be printed in the local newspaper. Juanita Knabe and Frances Bayer volunteered to be in charge of this project.

Ethel Hesse accepted the "Christmas Baskets to Shut-ins" project. Members also voted to distribute remembrance gifts to the special children of the community; also a donation went to Joe Walter Workshop.

Plans were made to have the annual Christmas party for children of the VFW and Auxiliary members. It will be held Friday December 9 at 10 a.m. in the Post Home. Santa will visit and refreshments will be served. On Monday Dec. 12 the VFW and Ladies Auxiliary will hold their regular monthly meetings, followed by a joint Christmas get-together and covered dish meal. Meat will be furnished by the men.

Following the meeting Eleanor Felderhoff was refreshment hostess. Frances Bayer was winner of the door prize.

Dasher and Dancer arrives at Fort Worth Zoo

In preparation for their annual overnight journey, two of Santa's reindeer are visiting the Fort Worth Zoo just in time for the holiday festival Zoobilee of Lights.

"Because Dasher and Dancer will be my lead reindeer this year, they will really need to get into the holiday spirit," said Santa Claus in a recent Fort Worth/North Pole conference call. "It was a natural decision to send them to the Fort Worth Zoo to help celebrate a magical holiday event - Zoobilee of Lights."

Earlier this year, the reindeer pair spent time in Hollywood, both playing supporting roles in the upcoming sequel to White Fang. Dasher also played a starring role alongside comedian Tim Allen in the movie The Santa Clause.

Standing 3 feet at the shoulder, weighing up to 400 pounds and bearing antlers 3 feet tall, reindeer take well to snow and cold.

Metropex families are invited to meet Santa's top reindeer anytime during Zoobilee of Lights, a seasonal event at the Fort Worth Zoo which directly helps fund the care and feeding of more than 5,000 animals as well as fund conservation and education efforts at the Zoo.

The Sacred Heart Tigerettes let their record drop to 4-1 Tuesday night, losing their 1st district match. After falling behind 46-21 early in the 3rd quarter, Dobe Fleitman and Tiffany Fisher combined for 20 points to pull the Tigerettes within 7 going into the final period. Knights whip Dawson

The Lindsay Knights now advance in the play-offs as one of the eight remaining 1A teams still fielding a football team. The honor came last Friday night when Lindsay dominated a big 35-8 victory over the Dawson Bulldogs at Terrell. That win earned the Knights the Regional Semi-Final championship title.

District champion Collinsville, lost Saturday night to the Burkeville Mustangs 55-12, so the Mustangs will challenge the Knights in the quarter finals. The contest will be Friday, Dec. 2 at Fairfield.

Against Dawson, Lindsay's defense held the Dawgs to only 51 yards the first half before allowing a few big plays the second half to improve their yardage. The Knights on the other hand gained nearly 400 yards in the game before backing off at the end of the game and allowing the bench to see action and run out the clock.

Lindsay showed their defensive force early, when on the first play of the game, Garrett Hellinger intercepted a Dog pass on the Knights 40-yard line. The offense, led by runs by Hellinger, Chris Brown and Jeff Hale moved the ball to the 34-yard line in 8 plays. On 3rd and 13, a Hellinger to Brown screen pass completion turned into a 34-yard touchdown run. Aaron Krebs added the extra point and the Knights had a 7-0 lead with 8:33 on the clock.

It was Lindsay's defense at work on Dawson's next possession. After Pat Hogan caught the Bulldogs for a 8-yard loss, Dawson was forced to punt on 4th and 12. The 27-yard kick set the Knights on their 38-yard line. Two plays later a loose ball was covered by the Dogs on the 30.

Again Dawson was unable to move the ball with Hogan, Greg Arendt, Greg Dulock, Hale, Shawn Hanks and T.J. Goldsmith together forcing a punt on 4th and one. The 14-yard kick put Lindsay deep on their 17-yard line.

An 11-yard run by Brown and an 18 gainer by Hale put Lindsay out on the 46. Brown then carried the team into Dawson territory with Hale adding another 7 to the 30-yard line. A face mask call assisted the Knights followed by a 14-yard Hale run to the 11-yard line. A penalty backed the ball up 5 yards, and an 11-yard pass from Hellinger to George Lutkenhaus ended the first quarter.

On the 5-yard line, Brown gained another 3, but the next play a fumbled snap was covered by Dawson on the 3-yard line.

The Bulldogs got in 6 runs to the 20 before punting on 4th down. The Knights began their next drive on their 46-yard line. A Brown run and a Brown to Bobby Greener pass took Lindsay into Dawson's end of the field to the 40. Four short runs by Hogan, Hale and Brown moved the ball to the 26. A penalty and quarterback sack set the Knights back 10 yards, but on 3rd and 18, a Hellinger to Hale pass play turned into a 36-yard touchdown play. The PAT kick was blocked and the Knights improved their score to 13-0 with 4:27 remaining in the first half.

It was 3 plays and punt for Dawson, putting Lindsay on the 16-yard line. Hellinger got in a 13-yard run with Hale and Brown gaining another 10 in 4 runs to the 39 where Lindsay punted on 4th and 5.

After allowing a 27-yard run, the Knights defense caused a fumble, which Garrett Hellinger covered as the first half ended.

The Knights came out strong the second half, taking only 3 plays to score. Hellinger ran for 5, then Brown got in a 22-yard run. Jeff Hale put the icing on the cake with a 31-yard touchdown run. A Hellinger to Lutkenhaus pass added the extra points giving the Knights a 21-0 lead with 10:48 still on the clock.

Dawson's offense bounced right back taking 10 plays to move 59 yards to the 11-yard line before running out of downs. The Knights took over with 7 minutes on the clock. Hellinger, Hale and Brown ran 8 times to get to the Bulldogs 33-yard line. Hogan gained another 11 with Hale and Brown getting to the 10-yard line. Pat Hogan carried the ball in for another Lindsay touchdown. Krebs booted the point after for a 28-0 score with a minute remaining in the third quarter.

Dawson got in 3 runs as the ball advanced and backed up as the flags controlled the drive. From midfield on 2nd and 9, the Dogs went to the air. Greg Arendt put pressure on the quarterback and Brian Hermes picked off the pass and returned it 51 yards for a Lindsay touchdown. Krebs added the PAT for a 35-0 score with 10:46 left on the clock.

Krebs kick put the Bulldogs on their 21-yard line. A fake punt on 4th and 2 was good for a 24-yard gain to the Knights 34. Four plays later Jason McConnell slipped in on a 7-yard run for a Dawson touchdown. A Craig Dunn to Sandy Johnson pass made the score 35-8 with 6:35 remaining in the game.

The Knights began their final drive on their 15-yard line. Hale and Brown carried the ball near midfield, then the Lindsay bench took to the field. Two off-side flags slowed the drive, with Zack Bowman getting 5 yards and Shawn Hanks 4, before punting the ball away. Dawson got in 5 plays before time ran out.

"Our defense played extremely well," commented Coach Meurer after the game. "We put on lots of pressure and dominated them physically." Meurer also commented on how well the screen pass worked. "Dawson put the heat on, penetrating, coming at us, that opened the way for the screen pass, which was also good for two touchdowns."

The final score of the game surprised most Lindsay fans and even the coach with most believing it would be a one touchdown game. Dawson defeated Colmesneil the previous game when Colmesneil was ranked in the top ten.

RRC suggests safety check for propane tanks

With cold weather moving across the state, the Texas Railroad Commission suggests that homeowners who fuel furnaces and appliances with propane contact their local dealer for a safety check of their propane tank and regulator.

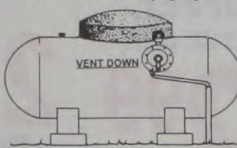

Safety officials warn that if the regulator vent ices over or is clogged by insect nests or debris, high pressure gas can be released directly to home appliances.

Regulators on most home tanks are located under a protective metal dome on the top of the tank, shielding them from weather and insects. On some tanks, however, from debris.

If homeowners are concerned about whether their regulator is properly installed and operating correctly, they should contact the local dealer that fills and services their tank.

Some Texans buy propane in portable tanks for use in barbecues or as a supplemental heat source. Colder weather may prompt such buyers to bring the portable cylinders indoors. But Commission officials say all propane cylinders and containers must stay outside for safety, as required by the Commission's safety rules.

Propane is commonly used as a residential and commercial fuel throughout Texas.

TFB Convention tackles property rights debate

The property rights movement made great strides forward in 1994, as Texas farmers and ranchers discovered a "sense of activism." That was the message delivered Monday by Bob Stallman, president of Texas Farm Bureau, at that organization's annual convention in Dallas.

"It was the year the environmental extremists and their allies in government reached too far, seeking more power and more of your freedom," Stallman said. "Not long ago, many of us believed the great extremist juggernaut could not be stopped. This year it has been slowed to a crawl."

Stallman, a rice farmer from Columbus, said there is an opportunity to "tame the regulatory beast that threatens so much of what is right and good in this country."

Stallman said the property rights debate will now center on developing and changing regulatory programs that protect the environment without compromising property rights.

The Farm Bureau president also outlined the organization's goals in the writing of the 1995 farm bill.

Pointing out that farm program payments have been halved since 1986, Stallman said, "The $12 billion used to support agriculture in 1994 may sound like a lot in a political speech but, frankly, it is a very small investment in food security for America."

Further drastic cuts in farm programs, Stallman said, would leave U.S. farmers competing against the governments of other nations that continue to subsidize agriculture. This, he said, would hurt U.S. performance in the balance of trade. The U.S. exports more agriculture goods than it imports.

Stallman emphasized that Farm Bureau will work to preserve a farm program safety net for farmers that has already reached minimal proportions.

Korea is next big market for U.S. meat

Meat industry officials see South Korea as a promising market for U.S. meats as industrialization continues and the economy strengthens, says Knight-Ridder Financial News.

Per capita beef consumption has grown faster in South Korea than anywhere else, surging 75 percent between 1989 and 1994, with pork climbing 27 percent since 1991.

"The Korean market is the next Japan for meat exports," said Al Tank of the National Pork Producers Council.

South Korea's demand for beef is outstripping domestic production. In creasing disposable income is likely to encourage them to buy more high-value foods, including imported meats.

Concern by US meat officials over restricted access to South Korean markets has resulted in a Sept. 30 petition to the US Trade Representative charging South Korea with "pattern trade violations."

ranchers assembled in Dallas for the organization's 61st annual convention, including 13 voting delegates from Cooke County.

S.M. True Jr. honored

S.M. True Jr. of Plainview, president of the Texas Farm Bureau from 1982 through 1993, has been chosen winner of the prestigious Meritorious Service Award. That presentation was made in Dallas this week by TFB President Bob Stallman during the 61st TFB convention.

The award is considered the most prestigious accolade given to a TFB member who has contributed outstanding service to Farm Bureau over several years. The award requires a unanimous vote of the 13-member TFB Board of Directors.

True, a cotton, grain sorghum, wheat and cattle producer on his farm near Plainview, has served in every capacity both on the county Farm Bureau and state Farm Bureau level since becoming a Farm Bureau member in the early 1950s.

In 1975, True was elected to the TFB Board of Directors from District 2, representing counties on the High Plains. He was chosen by his fellow board members to the position of secretary-treasurer for two years and followed that office with the election as vice president again by board members.

True was elected by voting delegates at the 1982 TFB convention in Dallas as president of the state's largest general farm organization. He was elected to the American Farm Bureau Federation Board of Directors in 1985, a position he held until his retirement as TFB president in November 1993 at San Antonio.

County Agent's Report

ANNUAL RYEGRASS CONTROL

With the wet fall that we've had much of the wheat acreage has not been planted. Producers also have fallow land waiting for planting of grain sorghum, corn, and soybeans in the spring. Much of this land now is covered with a dense growth of winter annual grasses such as ryegrass, cheat, and volunteer small grains. With the wet soils, tillage becomes very difficult.

This past week I visited with Larry Stanberry, District Manager with Monsanto, who distributes the herbicide Roundup. Monsanto's recommendations include early spraying of these grasses from November through February. Any later spraying would include what they call phasic growth of the ryegrass plant. At this growth stage, flowering has initiated. In Central Texas, which Cooke County is considered a part of, phasic growth is most likely to occur in March. It may go undetected in warm, sunny conditions. If conditions are cool, cloudy and soils are wet, the phasic growth may last three to four weeks. During the phasic growth period, Roundup will not give adequate control.

Also for best control measures, Stanberry recommended that you postpone any spraying of Roundup during the November through February period until there is warm weather predicted. If you have any freezing temperatures, wait four to five days so the ryegrass plant will begin growth and absorption of the herbicide. Monsanto's recommendations for the November through February control of ryegrass and other volunteer grasses follows:

RECOMMENDATIONS FOR CONTROL

Apply ROUNDUP to actively growing annual ryegrass. A frost 2 to 3 days prior to or after application may reduce control.

Timing: November-February

Roundup Rate:

1 pint/ac on ryegrass 1"-4"

1.5 pints/ac on ryegrass 4"-6"

Additives:

17 Lbs. Dry Ammonium Sulfate + 1/2 to 1% Non-Ionic Surfactant per 100 Gals. of Spray Solution

Producers wanting to get some of the small broadleaf weeds in the fields may want to use the 1.5 pint rate. Visit with your local chemical dealer or call the County Extension Office if you have any additional questions concerning annual ryegrass control using Roundup herbicide.
