Heaviest Snow Storm of Year Strikes

Anthony Eden Quits as Protest Against 'Trade'

LONDON, Feb. 21 (A.P.).—Sir Anthony Eden told the House of Commons today that he resigned as foreign secretary rather than deal with Italy in the face of Premier Mussolini's "rife, hostile propaganda" against Britain and Mussolini's "glorification" of victories in Spain.

"Agreements worthwhile are never made on the basis of threats," he cried.

Before the session opened, Prime Minister Chamberlain, who had accepted Eden's resignation, held a surprise conference with Count Dino Grandi, Italian ambassador.

After Eden finished, Chamberlain told the house Britain had agreed to start negotiations for a new Anglo-Italian understanding immediately in Rome.

Quits Cabinet

Captain Anthony Eden

LONDON, Feb. 21 (A.P.).—Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden quit the British cabinet Sunday, taking with him Viscount Cranborne, the principal foreign undersecretary, in a drastic break with Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain on a foreign policy.

The resignation of Eden, who has opposed any British concessions to Europe's Fascist and Nazi dictators, was announced officially after the third extraordinary Sunday cabinet session.

Record Production Of Crude During 1938 Is Foreseen

HOUSTON, Texas, Feb. 21.—Following the setting of an all-time record in 1937, world production of crude oil likely will rise further to another new peak in 1938, according to an article in the special international number of The Oil Weekly, just published.

Some political observers regarded the cabinet crisis that brought about the resignation of both foreign secretary and undersecretary as the gravest since before the World War.

With the strong backing of young conservatives and adherents of the League of Nations, of which Eden was an ardent supporter, his resignation held the threat of a sharp party break possibly involving the continuance of the Chamberlain government.

Diplomatic quarters stirred to unusual activity as Britain seemed to have veered to a completely new policy toward the Fascist and Nazi dictators.

Only Sunday Eden had been singled out by German Chancellor Adolf Hitler for attack in his speech before the Reichstag. Prime Minister Benito Mussolini of Italy has long made the well-dressed Eden the target of his barbed criticism.

Eden has stood out in general against any compromise with dictators involving the sacrifice of the principles of collective security and in particular against negotiations for Anglo-Italian friendship without specific concessions from Mussolini.

Some well-informed quarters said Hitler and Mussolini had flatly warned Chamberlain he must get rid of Eden before any progress could be made toward a general European settlement.

Viscount Halifax, lord president of the council who started negotiations for a settlement with Hitler last November, was believed slated for the foreign secretaryship.

Southwestern Univ. Official Replaces Henderson in League

AUSTIN, Feb. 21 (A.P.).—D. H. Shelby, dean of extension service at the University of Texas, announced today that Rodney Kidd, physical training director at Southwestern University, would succeed Roy Henderson, who died last week, as athletic director for the Interscholastic League.

Re-Elected

Mothers-in-Law Are Urged to See, Hear Wife of President

Mothers-in-law of Midland will be given preference over all others who want to hear Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt when she lectures Mar. 9 in Amarillo.

America's No. 1 mother-in-law will speak in Amarillo's municipal auditorium as part of the celebration, expected to attract one of the southwest's largest crowds.

Reservations for the lecture may be made now by mail. Tickets will be $1.75 cents or 50 cents and all orders sent to Lois Black at The Globe-News office in Amarillo should be accompanied by a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

"The demands for seats will exceed the supply so if you plan to make your reservations now to avoid disappointment," said Miss Louise Evans, who has charge of arrangements.

Return to Nazis Of Lost Colonies Demand of Hitler

BERLIN, Feb. 21 (A.P.).—Reichschancellor Adolf Hitler addressed a demand for return of Germany's war-lost colonies directly to Great Britain Sunday in a tensely-awaited speech that emphasized firm control of German military might.

"Iron and steel will speak," he shouted to the Reichstag, if ever the international agitation against Germany manages to upset European peace.

Der Fuehrer launched his colonial demands with announcement of the recognition of Manchukuo, the empire carved out of China in 1933 by Japan, which is allied with Germany and Italy against international communism.

He pointed the demand directly at Great Britain with the statement that Germany has "no differences with England—except colonies."

He emphasized it by adding Germany wants no territory in eastern Asia, has no territorial demands against France and no territorial interest in Spain.

As a corollary of his colonial demands, Hitler warned the world Germans living beyond the present borders of the Reich were under his protection and further adjustments in their status might be expected.

Standing before a symbolic German eagle whose gilded wings were spread wide, he said the increased Nazi influence in Austria, where the majority of the population is German speaking, had "removed differences which might have resulted in catastrophe."

Der Fuehrer declared "Germans do not desire war but they do not fear war."

His army, navy and air commanders emphasized Hitler's new and absolute command of Germany's armed forces when he strode to the rostrum.

With arms stiffly outstretched they gave him the salute of the Nazi party for the first time instead of the customary military salute.

"Nobody longer doubts," Hitler shouted, "that I am the authorized leader of this state."

"Every man in authority here carries an emblem of Nazi sovereignty on his head."

He did not object, he said, if potential enemies found comfort in reports that his drastic reorganization of the government and army last Feb. 4 had weakened both state and army.

But he warned them to consider carefully before they put their comforting belief to the test of arms.

Southern Andrews Test Swabs Oil, Shows for Well

BY FRANK GARDNER.

Rogers & Rogers (Olney S. Black) No. 2, E. H. of the southern Andrews discovery, was shut in at midnight last night after demonstrating on continuous 72-hour swabbing test that it is a commercial producer.

Swabbed through tubing, it yielded an estimated 10 barrels of oil per hour, accompanied by five barrels of salty water. Origin of the water was uncertain, some believing that it might be coming from pocket in sand near total depth of 4,538 feet. Operators will open the well Wednesday morning at eight o'clock to determine whether it has built up sufficient pressure to flow. Swabbing had rather to bring fluid level below 500 feet from bottom.

No. 1 Holt originally was slated for abandonment after it had shown 4,150 feet of what operators believed was sulphur water on drill-stem test while bottomed at 4,515 feet. However, analysis revealed that water was not coming from bottom hole formation and that its sulphurous odor was probably due to contamination by strong sulphur gas. Cement pumped in to plug the hole was cored ahead, logging saturated sand from 4,526-38, the bottom.

Subsequent tests have borne out contention of some observers that the well will produce. It is located in the northwest corner of section D, block 43, public school land.

Solid lime was topped at 4,270 by Seaboard No. 1 Munger & Nix. Andrews wildcat five miles west of the 4,447 foot pool. It is now coring at 4,447 feet in lime, with some change expected shortly. Location is center of the northeast quarter of section 1, block A-41, public school land.

Amerada No. 1 R. W. Robertson, extending the Seminole pool of central Gaines a mile eastward, was opened Tuesday morning after being shut in for 22 1/2 hours and flowed 13 1/2 barrels of oil the first 30 minutes and five and one-half barrels the next 30. It then died and has been shut in again to build up pressure. Operator will experiment with various-sized chokes.

A. G. Carter, Plymouth and Conoco No. 1 H. Giescke, southeast Gaines failure, is preparing to pull casing preliminary to abandoning after 28-minute drillstem test showed 1,050 feet of drilling fluid bearing pronounced odor of sulphur water. No oil or gas was present in fluid. Location of the duster is 440 feet out of the northwest corner of labour 1, league 296, Reagan

Heavy pumps managed to withstand the battering of the tornado that struck in Rodessa, but all around can be seen what was left of "supply company row," in the center of the damaged area, with oil field roustabouts digging through the tangled mass. Twenty-two persons were killed and 50 or more injured in the worst disaster that has ever struck the oil town. Property damage was estimated at $500,000.

Clark Challenges Committee Right To Check Records

DALLAS, Feb. 21 (A.P.).—Tom Clark, Dallas, assistant United States attorney general, former law partner of Attorney General McCraw, again today challenged authority of the senate investigating committee to look at his private bank records.

The committee, which came to Dallas for the announced purpose of resuming its inquiry into practices of Land Commissioner William McDonald, has asked the Mercantile National bank here to furnish a record of accounts of Clark and McCraw.

A charge was previously made that the purpose of the investigation was to "smear" McCraw, listed as a probable candidate for governor.

County Grand Jury In First Session Of The Year Today

The Midland county grand jury met today in the first regular session of the year and heard itself charged by District Judge Charles Klapproth to investigate any alleged lawlessness in the county, and to return indictments where the evidence warranted it against persons who have been arrested since the last term of court.

The first petit jurors are to meet Thursday, but the case to be tried that date has not yet been announced. The court docket will be announced Tuesday morning and active work will start two days later.

In his charge to the grand jury this morning, Judge Klapproth complimented Midland county for its clean record and the small amount of crime in it but urged the jury to take any action that might be deemed necessary to continue its record.

Men picked on the grand jury this morning are G. Frank Aldrich, Hugh C. Barnes, Russell Conkling, J. D. Crump (foreman), W. T. Doherly, Terry Elkin, Marion Flynn, Jno. P. Butler, B. R. Greathouse, A. E. Horst, Jno. P. Howe, R. V. Lawrence.

Baptists Ordain Three New Deacons

Ordination service for three new deacons was held Sunday morning at the First Baptist church, installing W. R. Upham, R. L. Denham and C. W. Kerr who recently had been elected to the posts. The ordination of these deacons brought the total number to 23, all but four being present to participate in the service which was conducted by the Rev. Winston F. Borum, pastor.

Funeral Services Held for Infant

Funeral services for Gerald Wayne Wright, three-day-old infant, of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Wright, who died Sunday at their home, were held at the Ellis funeral chapel this morning at 10 o'clock.

Evangelist Harvey Childress, pastor of the Church of Christ, officiated at the rites. Interment followed in Fairview cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Wright live at 306 S. Dallas.

Odessa Man Takes Own Life Today

ODESSA, Feb. 21 (Special).—Dan Rose, 46, died instantly at 7 o'clock this morning of gunshot wounds, self inflicted, according to verdict of Justice of Peace J. B. Crowley.

The shooting occurred at his home near Odessa high school. His wife, reports said, was in an adjoining room lighting a fire. Hearing a shot she hurried to her husband only to find him dead. A bullet from a .30-30 rifle took effect in the side of his head, the evidence showed.

Rose was proprietor of an Odessa domino club and formerly operated a cafe at Midland. He is survived by his wife, two daughters, Miss Marguerite Rose, teacher in the Odessa public schools, and Elizabeth, high school senior; and one son, Dan Jr., student in the School of Mines at El Paso.

The fatality was the seventh violent death in Odessa since January 1.

30 Texans Suffer Violent Deaths

Filibuster Is Set Aside for Study Of New Relief Act

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21 (A.P.).—The senate shelved the anti-lynching bill today to take up the $250,000,000 emergency relief appropriation measure.

The action was taken on a motion of Democratic Leader Barkley. It ended a filibuster which had consumed 29 days of this session. The vote was 58 to 22.

8 Prisoners Escape After Overpowering Jailer at Beaumont

BEAUMONT, Feb. 21 (A.P.).—Eight negro prisoners overpowered Jailer R. W. Whitehead and fled the county prison early today.

Two were recaptured soon afterwards as they were attempting to board a train.

The prisoners, several of them rated desperate, and one known to have been armed, ganged the jailer when he took a mop and broom to their cell block for the morning clean-up.

The armed fugitive was reported to be Albert Summerall, under 12-year sentence, and awaiting trial in Texas and Louisiana on several charges of robbery.

TRIO OF LANDINGS SUNDAY

Three planes landed at Sloan field Sunday. They were a flight of two fighter land planes and an O43-A. The fighters were led by Lieut. W. F. Elb and came from Barksdale field, La., going to Tucson. The O43-A was flown by Lieut. J. Thomas, en route from Lubbock to Brooks field.

Mother, 3 Children Die of Poisoning

WESTFIELD, N. J., Feb. 21 (A.P.).—A mother and three children died today of gas poisoning in their home here and a fourth child was overcome but is expected to survive.

Pending the coroner's verdict, Police Chief John Schreiber said Mrs. Martha Leyden, 37, committed suicide and the children were unintentional victims.

Season Pass, Box Seat Offered for Person Giving Name to Baseball Club

To all baseball fans in general, and to those of Midland in particular:

Do you want to win a season pass and a box seat good for all games played at home by the Midland team in the West Texas-New Mexico League this year?

If so, here's what you do: Just pick out a name that you think would do as the official one for the year and mail it to the Sports Editor, Reporter-Telegram. Last year, the team was known as the Cardinals. Previous to that, they were known as Colts.

Due to a change in ownership and operating plans this year, club officials are asking a new name be given to the team. Just send in a name you think is appropriate. Some of those suggested so far are Cowboys, Plainsmen, Broncos, Colts, Longhorns, Steers, Herefords, Matadors, Toreadors, Antelopes, Lions, Mustangs, Riders, Raiders, Rustlers, Pirates, Rattlers, Ponies, Rangers. You can choose any of the above listed names or some one that does not appear.

There is no limit on the number of names you can send in. Send as many as you like, but those holding some kind of reference to the country (such as Cowboys) will be favored.

The judges, Bill Collins, vice president of the league, Fincher E. Withers, president of the Midland club, and the sports editor of The Reporter-Telegram, Jess Rodgers, will decide on the first three names that will be chosen. After three names have been agreed upon, further voting will be allowed to let the fans agree upon which of the three is to be the name for the year. The person submitting the name that most of the fans favor will be awarded a season pass and a box seat. The person submitting the name that the second highest number of fans favor will be awarded a full season pass.

All ballots must be mailed or brought to The Reporter-Telegram before midnight, Friday, February 25.

Fall Ranges From One to Six Inches

Flood Threat Again Raised as Rain Falls In Northeast Texas

By Associated Press.

The heaviest snow storm of the year raged in North and West Texas today, while parts of East and Central Texas reported rain.

Snow, ranging from one inch at Denton to six inches at Lamesa was recorded at Amarillo, Wichita Falls, Lubbock, Abilene, Borger, Dallas, Coleman, Big Spring and San Angelo.

Snow raged unchecked in most of the sections all morning, but this afternoon turned to rain in the Dallas area.

Flood conditions of North Texas were somewhat improved but further rises were feared if rain or snow continue.

The heaviest blanket of snow seen in the Midland area in several years was visible this morning, following an all-night fall. The snow was between three and four inches deep on the ground inside the city limits, and on cars and other articles left outside overnight it was even deeper.

A rising mercury this morning started the snow to thawing rapidly, and before noon most of it had disappeared from all exposed sites.

Coming on the heels of recent showers, from which the ground surface had not dried, the snow further guaranteed the best spring season the Midland farm and ranch area has experienced in several years. Weed and grass growth had been under way for some time. Slightly freezing temperatures late last week had not done heavy damage, it was believed, and stockmen were expecting immediate benefit from the moisture.

Snow at Odessa was about like the fall at Midland, reports said. Lubbock received an inch and a half, with corresponding fall all the way south to Midland. Practically all of the ranch territory near here had received snow, reports indicated today.

Points in the Big Bend received light snow, according to reports from Fort Davis and Marfa, and a light fall was reported from Pecos. Farther north, Hobbs and Seminole were reported to have received approximately three inches each.

Although the skies were clearing this morning in many sections, Cisco reported snow still falling, with more than three inches on the ground.

LEGION MEETS TUESDAY

CRANIUM CRACKERS

The killer pumped three bullets into Don Truman's stomach before the startled detective could draw his gun. As Truman slumped to the floor the slayer sped out of the room, down the hall and out into the street.

The landlady, a Mrs. Watson, dashed into the hall just in time to see the killer run out the front door. She described him later to police as a man of medium height who wore a polo coat and a light brown hat.

Truman muttered: "The dirty double-crossing crook" before he died in the arms of a fellow detective.

Police picked up for questioning, among others, Goo Goo Morgan and Tony Gazzano. Both wore polo coats and light brown hats and both were of medium height. Both had served terms for murder.

Tony served 10 years for killing a bartender in a barroom brawl. And four months before Truman's murder, Tony had nursed hopes that Alice Jensen, a court stenographer, would marry him. But Truman had won Alice's heart and their engagement had been announced a week before the detective was slain.

Goo Goo, an ex-bootlegger, spent 10 years behind bars for killing his partner, Maurv Manning, the day Maury discovered Goo Goo had been taking more than his share of the profits.

Which of the two suspects would you charge with Truman's murder? Answer on page 6 the morning, it usually is gone before school turns out. Very few boys in this country ever have a chance to build a snow man.

However, this kind of weather causes a lot of wet feet and wet feet cause colds, so if you play in the snow, be sure to change to dry shoes and socks as quickly as possible.

Seems like clean-up week frequently gets called off on account of the weather. Well, as long as we call it off on account of wet weather we shouldn't mind. If the weather dries up this week, remember to have your trash ready for the city trucks, as they want to complete the job which was started a week ago.

CITATION BY PUBLICATION
 THE STATE OF TEXAS
 In the County Court of Midland County, Texas.

To the Sheriff or any Constable of Midland County—GREETING:

YOU ARE HEREBY COMMANDED, that by making publication of this citation in some newspaper published in the County of Midland, State of Texas, if there be a newspaper published in said County (but if not, then in the nearest county where a newspaper is published), once in each week for four consecutive weeks previous to the return day hereof, you summon Walt Price whose residence is unknown to be and appear before the County Court in and for Midland County, Texas, to be held in and for the County of Midland, at the Court-house thereof, in the City of Midland, on the first Monday in March A. D. 1938, being the 7th day of said month, file number being 1245, then and there to answer the petition filed in said Court, on the 4th day of February A. D. 1938 wherein The First National Bank of Midland, Texas is Plaintiff and Walt Price et al are defendants and alleging in substance as follows, to-wit:

That on August 25, 1937, the said Walter Price executed and delivered to Plaintiff a promissory note for $250.00, payable four months from said date, bearing 10% interest per annum from maturity, and providing for 10% additional attorney's fees if suit is brought thereon; and on the same date he executed and delivered to Plaintiff a chattel mortgage for the purpose of securing the payment of said note, by which he mortgaged all tools and equipment located in Walt's Boot Shop, Midland, Texas. That Plaintiff is the legal holder and owner of said note and has made repeated demands for payment, but Walt Price has refused and still refuses to pay same. That Mr. and Mrs. Frank Orson claim some lien upon said chattels which is inferior to said mortgage of Plaintiff. That judgment be given Plaintiff for $250.00, in addition to said 10% interest and 10% attorney's fees, for foreclosure of said Chattel mortgage, and for subordination of said lien claimed by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Orson.

HEREIN FAIL NOT, but have you then and there before said Court this writ, with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Given under my hand and seal of said Court in Midland, Texas, this 5th day of February, A. D. 1938

Yellow and Green Chosen for Party Colors Saturday

The freshness of spring colorings marked the yellow and green motif followed by Mrs. Hugh West in appointments for the bridge with which she entertained the Saturday club and a group of guests at the home of her mother, Mrs. A. C. Francis, Saturday afternoon.

Cut flowers were used in room decorations and the yellow and green note was repeated in appointments and in the party plate served at the tea hour.

Four tables were laid for the game. Prize for high score in the club went to Mrs. John M. Speed Jr., for high guest to Mrs. Jack Kelsey, and for cut to Mrs. E. I. Bailey. Guests were: Mmes. Kelsey, Bailey, Thomas Lee Speed, Tom Sealy, H. L. Straughan Jr., Nancy Stevens. Members present included: Mmes. Ben Black W. M. Blevins, Ralph Geisler, Wade Heath, Barron Kidd, John M. Will Assist in College Masquerade

DENTON, Feb. 21 (Special) — Active in the February social season at Texas State College for Women is Miss May Beth Judkins of Midland, who will assist in preparations for the Mardi Gras masquerade to be held this Saturday. This affair replaces the All-College Valentine dance held in past years.

Prizes will be given for the cleverest costumes, and queens have been elected to reign over both dormitories where the dances will be held. Miss Judkins will give advice on costumes to underclassmen students and will assist in all activities of the evening.

Jack Sappington, Kenneth Williams, Bill Ferguson, Cedric Ferguson, Billie Barron, Bob York, Roger Sidwell, Roy Parks Jr., Bob Preston, Marion Flynn Jr., James Mims, Bill Summle, Foster Hedrick, Joe Conkling, Joe Haygood Jr., Stephen Stookey, Jimmie Harper, Bob Dozier, Cletas Hines.

Novelty Weaves in Rough Braids Noted

Pert is the word for the new spring hats, worn jauntily aslant and wishwashed with huge clusters of flowers, "little girl" bows, flowing veils, and other ultra feminine trimmings. With a suit or a tailored dress of sheer wool, a beret, above, of rough straw, topped with a grosgrain bow and prettied up with a bandeau of hyacinth blossoms is just the thing to wear right now, and later, too. The wide-brimmed model, right, also of rough straw, with a giant cluster of flowers hiding the crown, is held on by ribbon streamers that tie behind, hair-ribbon fashion.

Spring Blossom Theme Distinguishes Joie de Vie Bridge

Jonquils and violets supplied a motif of early spring for the afternoon bridge with which Mrs. Wade Heath entertained the Joie de Vie club at the home of Mrs. Frank Williamson, 911 W. Tennessee, Friday afternoon.

Clusters of jonquils and violets decorated the playing room and centered the tables at tea time.

The same blossoms were featured on the tallies and score pads for the bridge games and prizes were wrapped in keeping with the theme.

High score award went to Mrs. Frank Fulk and second high to Mrs. Chas. Brown.

Guests for the games were Mrs. R. W. Hamilton and Mrs. Harry Prickett.

Members present were: Mmes. Brown, Russell C. Conkling, R. B. Cowden, John Dublin, Geo. Glass, Chas. L. Klapproth, J. R. Martin, Roy Parks, Lem Peters, Foy Proctor, J. M. Speed Sr., Frank Williamson, and the hostess.

Students Reiterate Desires to Remain Out of Future Wars

AUSTIN—Last December the men students of the University of Texas were not in any mood to volunteer for an aggressive war as in 1917, according to the findings of the bureau of student opinion, scientific sampling department of the Daily Texan. They have again this month, in a second campus-wide poll, expressed the same opinion.

Their answer is that they want it understood they are not ready to fight outside of the United States—but if their country were in danger of invasion by a foreign army, less than 1 per cent of the men say they would refrain from fighting.

Almost to a man, they answered "no" to the question, "Would you refuse to fight if the United States were in danger of invasion?" In the carefully-selected cross-section that checked accurate within 4 per cent in comparison to actual campus election, the men answered to the aforementioned question—"yes," 0.6 per cent; "no," 99.4 per cent, and 1.0 per cent had not made up their minds. The bureau queried the men students on the same thing they did three months ago. "If the United States were to enter a war under the same conditions as in 1917, would you volunteer?" Only 31.9 per cent said "yes." In the first poll 31.8 per cent answered affirmatively—a difference of only one-tenth of 1 per cent in the two polls.

Patriotic Note Marks Programs of Christian Endeavor

Donald Griffin, new president, opened the meeting of the Senior Endeavor at the First Christian church Sunday evening.

Tennie Stewart was leader of the program which developed the subject, "Making America Christian."

Parts were taken by the leader and by Billy Joe Hall, Rex Sackett, Lillie Hultbert, Frances Mickey, Alice Lippold.

A special feature was a vocal quartet presented by the Stewart sisters.

During the business session, the group voted to have a social at the home of Mrs. S. P. Hall, 1004 W. Tennessee, Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

The meeting closed with the Endeavor benediction.

A patriotic note was sounded in the program presented by the Junior Endeavor. After the opening song and sentence prayers by the group, Ada Belle Reader read the selection from the Scriptures.

Sharon Lee Cornelius told a story.

A salute was given in unison to the American and Christian flags. Van Cummings told the story of the author of the national song, "America."

Mrs. Glenn Brunson related a missionary story.

Others taking part on the program were: Betty Ruth Pickering, Leroy Reader, Shirley Brunson, Eloise Pickering, Doris Mickey, Howard Mickey.

With Intermediates, "Doing the Job Well," a subject centering on the life of George Washington, occupied the study at the meeting of the Intermediate Endeavor.

Jimmie Pickering led the song service and sentence prayers were opened by Dale Mickey and closed by Mrs. J. E. Pickering.

Dale Mickey made the leader's talk, after which Doris Lynn Pemberton discussed the childhood of Washington. Others taking part in the discussion of the character and achievements of the great patriot were Charles Reader, A. L. Stewart, Raymond Mann, Jimmie Pickering. A round table discussion of what the group members thought of Washing-

Mrs. Ray Gwyn Presents Study Program at League

"Gifts the Negro Brought to Us" was the subject of the discussion presented by Mrs. Ray Gwyn at the meeting of the Senior Epworth League Sunday evening.

A chapter of "Out of Africa" was the background of study.

Musical special included three negro spirituals, "Down by the River Side," "Swanee River," and "I Want to Be a Christian in My ton was then held.

In the business session it was voted to meet each Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock instead of at 6:30 as heretofore. Plans were also made for a membership and attendance contest with Doris Lynn Pemberton as captain of the gold group and Jimmie Pickering captain of the purple group.

Present were: Doris Lynn Pemberton, A. L. Stewart, Dale Mickey, Jimmie Pickering, Charles Reader, Raymond Mann, Mr. and Mrs. Z. T. Reader, and Mrs. Pickering.

Jo Ann Proctor Presents Special Number for Naomies

"Choosing Companions in Service" was the title of the Sunday school lesson taught by Mrs. J. Howard Hodge at the meeting of the Naomies class Sunday morning.

Jo Ann Proctor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Proctor, presented a piano solo as a special musical number.

Miss Drotha Johnson, first vice president, presided in the absence of the president, Mrs. A. E. Horst.

Mrs. Harvey Fryar gave the scripture reading.

Devotional was brought by Miss Ruth Guy.

Offering was played by Miss Frances Farnham and Mrs. Cotter Hiett dismissed the group with prayer.

Fifteen members and two visitors, Mrs. Proctor and Jo Ann, were present.

Heart.

Miss Jane Walker played for the song service and Joyce Beauchamp and Cleo Tidwell led the singing.

"ARE CAMELS REALLY DIFFERENT FROM OTHER CIGARETTES?"... a question of interest to every smoker

"I've never been very fussy about cigarettes myself. Do you think that Camels are really as different as some people say, Bill?"

"You bet they are different, John! A fellow in any work as hard as selling has to figure a lot of angles on his smoking, such as how it agrees with him. And just notice how many salesmen smoke Camels. I changed to Camels—smoked 'em steadily—and I found a distinct difference in the way I enjoyed all-day smoking. Camels agree with me!"

A FRIEND DROPS IN to see how Bill is coming with his model racing sloop. Daly passes the Camels and answers a natural question about smoking. "That all-cigarettes-are-like talk doesn't square with my experience. Believe me, steady smoking is the test that shows Camels in a class by themselves."

MARITA'S PLANNING a grand feed. "We enjoy entertaining," Marita says. "I like to have plenty of Camels at the table. Camels certainly help to cheer up one's digestion."

ON WEEK-ENDS, Bill goes in for photography. Week days he "pounds the streets." "I get plenty tired," he says, "but when energy fails I get a quick 'lift' with a Camel."

A matchless blend of finer, MORE EXPENSIVE TOBACCOS—Turkish and Domestic

... When H. W. DALY, 34, rayon salesman, says "Yes, Camels are really different," millions of other smokers stand ready to back him up. And that explains why Camels are preferred by the largest body of smokers ever known.

A KISS FROM MARITA (Mrs. Daly) and Bill is off to catch the 7:55 on which he commutes to his job in the city. The Dalys agree about most things. Among them, Camels. Mrs. Daly smoked them first, soon noticed a difference. "Now we find that Camels agree better with both of us," she says.

county school land.
McKee At 5.341.
Magnolia No. 1-A McKee, Ordovician test in northern Peos county, this morning was drilling at 5-341 feet in green shale. Seven-inch pipe is landed at 5330 to shut off caves which slowed up drilling. The well had a showing of high-gravity oil in Simpson sand, middle Ordovician, from 5271-80, which fell short of commercial amount. It is in section 24, block 9, H. & G. N. survey.

Stanley A. Thompson No. 1 Elsinore Cattle Company, deep test 10 miles south of Fort Stockton in Peos, is drilling up rockbit cones with cable tools. Total depth is 7-123 feet. Cable tools were rigged up after the well had tested dry at 7-128.

Wilcox No. 1 Ceri, southern Peos deep test, is drilling below 1,875 feet, in anhydrite.
Depth of 6,414 feet in black shale had been reached by Humble No. 1 Lewis & Wardlaw, western Tom Green deep test.

Brown-State, Reeves Delaware test, Brown-State, Reeves Delaware test, logged another showing of gas, at 4,442, and is drilling ahead at 4,447, in Delaware sand. It had previously encountered slight oil showing from 4,299 to 4,302 and gas at 4,330 which kicked up tools.

Richardson Well Runs Tubing.
Tubing was being run yesterday in S. W. Richardson No. 1 Slaughter, two-mile north extension to the slaughter pool in southwest Hookley. It had been heading an estimated 10 to 15 barrels of oil every three hours from total depth of 4-994.

Gulf No. 1 Mallet, two miles southwest of the pool, set 7-inch casing on bottom at 4,755 with 200 sacks and will rig up standard tools before drilling plug. Gulf No. 1 Gordon, a mile southeast of the nearest Slaughter producer, is drilling at 4,737 in lime.

Shell No. 1-C Baumgart, indicated mile and a half east extension of the Denver pool in southern Yoakum, is unloading hole of circulating oil by swabbing through 2 1/2-inch pipe set at 5,016, two feet off bottom. It had swabbed 65 barrels of oil load, two per cent basic sediment, in 18 hours. A half-mile to the northeast, Shell No. 1-D Baumgart is drilling at 250 in red sand.

In the Denver pool, Ohio No. 1 Fairman is flowing eight barrels of oil hourly after treatment with 7,000 gallons. Denver No. 4 Whittenburg ran tubing at 5,055 feet, total depth, and is preparing to acidize.

Baldridge No. 1 Alamo Lumber Company, northwest Lynn test, is drilling at 4,020 in anhydrite and red rock.

Meyer Happy Over Football Prospects As 60 Enter Drills

FORT WORTH.—Coach Dutch Meyer of Texas Christian University is a happy man.

Meyer is happy because he has more than 60 varsity football candidates reporting for spring practice—the largest squad that the Horned Frogs have ever had.

"He's happy because, as he puts it: 'I never saw such football spirit in February. The boys are trying; they're in earnest. With that kind of spirit, we'll get something done.'"

Then there is the matter of eligibility. Every single important cog in the prospective '38 T. C. U. football machine cleared the fall semester scholastic hurdle. That item helps to make Dutch's smile broad and continuous.

The coach is happy at the improvement shown in Ward Wilkinson's leg injury. Wilkinson, out through most of the '37 campaign, was not expected to report for spring workouts. But the doctors said it was O. K., and that he'll be all right by September. He'll be depended upon for a lot of fullbacking and punting.

"You can just say that we have a lot of good boys, that these boys have the old spirit, and that we expect to make some real progress on our 'preparation' campaign for the '38 schedule."

Apparently, Coach Meyer is happy about the whole thing!

Junior Livestock Show to Be Held In Lubbock Soon

LUBBOCK, Texas, Feb. 21. — Plans are nearing completion for the eighth annual South Plains Junior Livestock Show to be held in Lubbock April 4, 5 and 6, according to C. C. Johnson, General Superintendent.

W. L. Stangel, head of the department of animal husbandry at Texas Technological college has been selected as judge in the Baby Beef division. It will be remembered that Stangel was head of the livestock division at the Texas Centennial at Dallas.

Ray C. Mowery, also of Texas Technological college has been selected as judge in the Fat Lamb division, Johnson announced.

Col. Earl Gartin, of Greensburg, Indiana, will again this year put side in the sales ring at the annual auction held the afternoon of the third day.

Midland county 4-H club boys and vocational students plan to enter in all divisions, so it was reported to the association.

Common Sense About Constipation

If you knew that your constipation was caused by something left out of your food, wouldn't it be just common sense to put that something back?

Your trouble may be caused by nothing more than this. For the most common kind of constipation is due to lack of "bulk" in the bowels—you need some food that passes on through the stomach without being digested. Kellogg's All-Bran supplies this. It gives the bowels the bulky mass they need to work properly. And All-Bran also gives them the intestinal-ionic, vitamin B, which helps restore their tone. Eat All-Bran as a cereal or baked in muffins. But however you eat it, be sure you get some every day. And drink plenty of water. All-Bran is made by Kellogg in Battle Creek. Sold by every grocer.

ON A BICYCLE BUILT FOR TWO

Back when "Get a horse" was the last word in wisecracks, Southern Select was the South's famous beer. Time has only served to enhance the reputation of this fine brew and a new generation of Southerners again choose Southern Select as their favorite of all fine brews.

A new York woman was saved from a bullet aimed at her by the steel bones in her corset. Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt gets a speeding ticket for going 18 miles per hour. A Chicago railroad announces revolutionary new service—electric lights in every train and a reading lamp in every berth... WANT AD—Wanted—Painters—Union wages $3.20 a day... The favorite beverage of the South is Southern Select Beer, a remarkably fine brew which has been most popular in these parts for years.
