Share and Commodity Prices Rise as Result of Speech

COMMODITIES UP 14 POINTS IN TRADINGS

Farm Strike Is Not Affected, Says Milo Reno

By UNITED PRESS
Share and commodity prices skyrocketed in Wall street as Pres. Roosevelt's gold-buying, commodity-increase speech was interpreted as a favorable factor, and gains extended over 14 points.
Wheat was at the day's peak at mid-season, and cotton was holding at a 75-cent gain.
The speech caused jubilation in the agricultural adjustment administration, where it was believed that with the stabilized dollar American farm prices would be regulated by domestic developments, not by export value fluctuations in foreign currency.
Milo Reno said the speech "will have no effect whatever" on the farm strike. "We will continue the strike until demands for the cost of production are guaranteed."

MRS. HARMON TO BE BURIED TODAY

Interment rites were to be read at 4 o'clock this afternoon at Fairview cemetery over Mrs. Isadora Harmon, 91, who died Sunday afternoon at the home of Judge and Mrs. Charles Gibbs, San Angelo. One service was said at San Angelo at 10 o'clock this morning.

A son of Mrs. Harmon was buried here several years ago.
Mrs. Harmon was a sister of the late Mrs. J. B. Rhea and is the mother of Mrs. Charles Gibbs, the only survivor. Mrs. Harmon moved to San Angelo about eight years ago. She once operated a boarding house at Waco, near Baylor university, and several Midland students lived at her establishment.

MRS. HALEY SEEKS SIGNATURE OF MA

Mrs. John A. Haley is in Austin today soliciting her personal and long-time family friend, Governor Miriam A. Ferguson, to sign the pink boll worm bill.
At request of Frank C. Dale, a leader in the pink boll worm fight, John Haley telephoned Mrs. Haley who was visiting in Fort Worth Sunday, asking her to go to Austin in interest of farmers. Mrs. Haley, herself a Ferguson appointee, being a regent of Texas Tech college, readily agreed to make the trip, though an hour later she had planned to leave for Midland.
Dale and John Haley were at work Sunday in interest of the bill. Marvin C. Ulmer sent a wire Saturday urging the passage of the bill, and farmers Saturday mailed a petition asking that the bill be signed.

NOBLES URGES WOMEN TO BUY

"The women of Midland have it in their power to give jobs to a lot of men and help make sense out of the jobs of those already working," said J. O. Nobles, chairman of the local N. R. A. compliance organization today.
It is probably true, as has been stated, said Nobles, "that women control or influence between 80 and 85 per cent of all buying. Just at present, the most important thing before the people of this country is to stop up the retail business. Let me say, parenthetically, that it is being stepped up. With a sustained, intensive buying effort between now and the end of the year, it will do more to put people to work and keep them there than anything else I can think of."
"And since 80 to 85 per cent of the major part of the success of the campaign depends on them, and mark my word, every extra dollar spent at this time goes on a direct influence in putting men to work and making more secure the jobs of those now at work."
Nobles explained that there is no desire to appeal to the sympathies of the women of Midland in asking them to fall solidly in line with the present campaign.
"Of course," women throughout the country want to do what they can to bring happiness into homes that have sad and desolate for as long a time now as a result of the depression," Nobles continued, "but we want to emphasize only the more practical features. Here they are. Prices are far below what they were three years ago. Everything is cheaper now than it was then. But remember, we are now on the up grade. Business everywhere is improving. So, prices, which have been so greatly deflated, are now rapidly returning to normal. You won't be able much longer to buy things at present prices. So it's simply good business—good sound home economics—to buy now just as much as possible."
"Let me say just this one more word to the women of Midland. Buy freely now. In so doing you will be practicing real thrift. In addition, you will be helping put people to work who have been out of jobs far too long, and who were deprived of their jobs through absolutely no fault of their own."
Nobles stated that he was receiving almost daily reports from N. R. A. headquarters in Washington indicating that people everywhere throughout the country were very noticeably intensifying their buying efforts.

ANOTHER INFLATION HERO!

Nominates Her Acquaintance As Real Miser

The master hoarder is a Cleveland, Tenn., miser, believes Mrs. V. P. Thornton of Midland.
A boyhood acquaintance of Mrs. Thornton, Manuel Young, made a deposit of $2,950 in small notes and "change."

The middle-aged bachelor is showing certificates of deposit issued by the bank and is telling that he was surprised when he found he had that much tucked away. Young says most of the money was earned during the Wilson administration and that he made the bank a present of his savings and after President Roosevelt issued his statement about the hoarders he decided to put his currency and cash into a bank and his first deposit was of $1.35 and $10 bills, which totaled $90. Next, he dug down in his strong box and produced a suit case full of half dollars and when counted there were nearly 1600 of them, which equalled $780. His silver dollars totaled 190. He peeped off $382 in $1 bills, which were mostly with age and many were stuck together, as they had been wadded up and had the appearance of having been "disinterred."

The currency was nearly all old model large size bills, which were mostly from age and it was a difficult task to get them apart, so long had they been stored.
The story reminds Mrs. Thornton of the purchase by the hoarder not so long ago of an automobile. He bargained for the car and paid off in cash, which was most unusual. He peeped off $382 in $1 bills, which were mostly with age and many were stuck together, as they had been wadded up and had the appearance of having been "disinterred."

Big Attendance At Meeting Seen

A big meeting of business men at 2:30 Tuesday afternoon in the chamber of commerce office, appeared likely today with so many interested in what attitude will be taken on closing stores Armistice day.

MONEY PLANS BRING JOY IN TRADE MARTS

Government Plans a Corner on Gold, He Assures

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23. (UP).—Strain of uncertainty over the government's immediate monetary plans has been somewhat eased as the result of Roosevelt's "Fireside" address to the nation last night in which he declared for a "sound currency."
The president said "government credit will be maintained, and sound currency will accompany the rise in American commodity price levels."
He announced the government plans a virtual corner on gold as a step towards managed currency based on a dollar of unchanging purchasing power.
He pledged aid to farmers by raising farm prices and said he was not satisfied with the amount or extent of the rise in farm produce prices so far.

"Yesterday was a very delightful day in the revival at the First Christian church. There were two confessions of faith, and one young man volunteered for the Christian ministry."

"At the 11 o'clock hour the Naomi Bible class visited the revival in a body, about 50 in the delegation. A double quartet from this class sang 'List of His Voice.' Mrs. R. R. Holmes, a visiting guest, sang 'Softly and Tenderly Jesus is Calling.' Evangelist Cole spoke on the subject, 'Of His Voice.' A large audience was in attendance at this hour."

The pastor being present and taking part in the evening's program. The subject of the message in sermon, 'Seven Ours from the Cross.' He made a powerful appeal to the hearts of his hearers."

"The ordinance of Christian baptism will be observed in the service tonight. This is known in the revival as 'Family Night' families being requested to sit together as such, if possible. Obedience is the subject for the message in sermon. There will be special features in every service during the week, the same being announced from day to day as the meetings continue."

SACRIFICE AND SELFISHNESS

One of the strangest marital tragedies ever to come into the courts seems to have popped to the surface at White Plains, N. Y., where a woman whose husband is suing for annulment of their marriage has urged the judge to grant the annulment so that her husband can be free to find some other woman.

The husband alleges that his wife was tubercular when they were married and that she concealed the fact from him. She admits that she has the disease in an incurable form and that she probably has less than a year of life ahead of her; she says, "Nobody can do anything for me," and she wants her husband to get his freedom.

What a story of misery and suffering can be read between the lines in this case! One cannot fail to admire this woman for her self-sacrifice, her willingness to carry her heavy load in utter loneliness. What one may think of the husband for being so eager to accept her sacrifice is, perhaps, something else again.

Whatever that "commodity" dollar may be, most persons will agree that a dollar would be a commodity.

The Town Quack

of the nations are already trying to start another war when they haven't finished paying out the last war.

A joke someone has sent in: "My boy," said the millionaire lecturing his son on the importance of economy, "when I was your age I carried water for a gang of bricklayers."

"I sure am proud of you, father," replied the son. "If it hadn't been for your pluck and perseverance I might have to do something like that myself."

There is an old story that all the doctors think is just about the best story ever told in and out of the medical profession:

One night when the ground was covered with snow and it was bitterly cold, a doctor received a call from a family living clear on the other side of the city. He got there about 3 o'clock in the morning and found that the girl in the household had a severe cold. However, it was not dangerous.

"How long has she had it?" he asked.

"Three days," her mother told him.

"Why didn't you call me in the daytime?" he said.

"We are poor people," replied the mother. "We aren't able to pay much, so we thought we'd call you when you weren't busy."

A Georgia lawyer tells of a dapper fellow who decided to put him on the witness stand in his own behalf. The judge, doubtful whether the dapper fellow understood the nature of the oath he took, questioned him.

"Henry," he said, "do you know what will happen if you tell a lie?"

"Yes, yes," said Henry. "I'll go to hell and burn a long time."

"Quite right," replied the judge. "And now do you know what will happen if you tell the truth?"

"Yes, yes," said Henry, "we lose the case."

BAPTISTS PLAN CELEBRATE 100TH YEAR IN TEXAS

DALLAS, Oct. 23.—The Baptist convention of Texas which will hold its eighty-fifth annual session at Fort Worth beginning November 7, will this year celebrate the one hundredth anniversary of the beginning of Baptist work in Texas. The convention program will give large space to "Our Century of Progress" and will present the story of the first Baptist organization in Texas. This church was organized in Illinois and moved to Texas as a unit, crossing the Sabine River in November 1833.

Dr. J. Howard Williams, general secretary of the convention, declares that Texas Baptists will celebrate their "Century of Progress" with a great mission offering amounting to $134,000. Some $50,000 of this fund has already been paid in, and Dr. Williams expressed himself as being very hopeful that Texas Baptists would raise the remaining $85,000 within the next two weeks.

During this fall Texas Baptists have held 107 associational meetings all over Texas, with record attendance in almost every instance, demonstrating the progress of the past century. When the first organized group of Baptists came in to Texas one hundred years ago, there were less than fifty Baptists in the state. At this time there are more than five hundred thousand white Baptists, and a total of more than a million of all races according to Dr. Williams.

At the Fort Worth meeting, representatives from various mission fields will speak of the work Baptists are doing there, and the convention will receive reports from the work of Baptists all over the world. More than five thousand visitors are expected to attend the convention.

HELPFUL HEALTH SUGGESTIONS

DEFECTS IN THE HISTOLOGICAL STRUCTURE OF TEETH

By M. Elizabeth Wilson, County Health Nurse

Poorly constructed teeth, delayed and irregular dentition, and slow development of the jaw bones frequently occur in children that have rickets. Rickets is, moreover, frequently associated with frank scurvy and it is more than likely that a rachitic child is also receiving an inadequate amount of vitamin C.

Just how much of this defective structure can be attributed to vitamin C is not known. Entirely similar abnormalities of bone and tooth structure have been produced in rats and in dogs by feeding diets deficient only in vitamin D. We must, however, be very cautious in transferring results from other of these animals to man because both the dog and rat are almost insusceptible to a vitamin C deficiency.

It seems entirely logical that a defective tooth should become diseased more easily than one that is histologically perfect.

Hypoplasia of the enamel in the permanent teeth is rather common and such teeth usually decay readily, but some people go through life without developing carious lesions in these defective teeth.

To insure normal teeth the mother should have the proper amount of food that contains vitamin D.

"Morning Glory" Has Great Cast

All the world loves a lover, and all the world adores a fighter. These are two reasons why all the world will love RKO Radio Pictures' "Morning Glory" at the Yucca Theatre Wednesday.

There are other reasons: The star studded cast headed by dynamic Katharine Hepburn, Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., and Adolphe Menjou. The sparkling direction by Charles Mackay, master of the silent screen. And the play by brilliant Zoe Akins.

"Morning Glory" is the story of a fighter, and a dramatic romance with New York's colorful Broadway as its background.

It presents Miss Hepburn, the screen's most interesting personality, as a girl who believes in herself, who knows she has the talent to become a great actress. In stirring fashion, it depicts her courageous fight to win recognition, with its disappointments, its heartbreaks, and its final triumph.

It gives young Fairbanks one of the strongest roles of his career, as a young theatrical producer who, eventually teaches her the meaning of love, and it presents Menjou as a fascinating man-of-the-world.

For many years our best doctors have prescribed creosote in some form for coughs, colds and bronchitis, knowing how dangerous it is to let them hang on.

Creosolmulsion with creosote and six other highly important medicinal elements, quickly and effectively stops all coughs and colds that otherwise might lead to serious trouble.

Creosolmulsion is powerful in the treatment of all colds and coughs, yet it is absolutely harmless and is pleasant and easy to take.

Your own druggist guarantees Creosolmulsion by refunding your money if you are not relieved after taking Creosolmulsion as directed. Beware the cough or cold that hangs on. Always keep Creosolmulsion on hand for instant use. (adv.)

FOOTBALL SKETCHES

By R. C. HANKINS

A glance into the past gives the following results of Colorado-Midland scores: Saturday's 54-6 win over the Bulldogs by the Wolves broke the scoring record for all time, in the opinion of ex-students of football here. Slat's Donovan recalls that for 15 years there has been no score to compare with it. However, the high school has lost several top-heavy decisions to other clubs during the while, last year's games with San Angelo, Big Spring and Sweetwater standing out as cases in point.

Colorado last year beat Midland 26-0, scoring half of its points in the second period when Messers. Stagner, Viles, Hall and Burrows were repeatedly shaken loose for long runs after a scoreless first period. A touchdown was made in the third and one in the fourth period. First downs were 21 to 9. The Wolves had just scattered the big, bold Badgers of McCamey 21-6, but were afraid of the virtually untied Midland club. Accordingly, they played a careful game in the first period, erupting in the second with practically everything they had.

The year before marked Midland's annihilation of Colorado hopes. That brilliant club made up, among others, of Loyd Burris, Ham Pinnell, G. B. Hallman, Bull McCall, Allen Sherrod, Frank Midkiff and Ralph Parrott. If you recall, that was the "backward football" can win—the line in the latter minutes of the game forming with its back to Colorado, which so confused the Wolves they didn't know which way to turn. The result was a 39-7 score for Midland.

In that game, as in the others since that year, the big end Stagner stood out for Colorado. In the last minute of play, Burris, the only regular in the Midland backfield, essayed to pass, and Stagner intercepted it for a long run and touchdown. He converted with a place-kick goal. Thus, he has not failed to score against Midland at least once each time the rival eleven have met since 1931. Midland clinched leadership of the second division of Class A by the win, which made the second consecutive one for their first year in Class A. And do you recall that San Angelo barely won, 7-0, at Angelo over the boys from the district, won by the same score after being outplayed three quarters and most of the fourth? While Midland lost by a big score to Big Spring early that season, we saw some real football in those days, eh, what?

Colorado and Midland played a scoreless tie in 1930. Midland then played that invincible backfield made up of the so-called "Four Immortals," Hallman, Burris, Olin Fryar and Midkiff romped plenty of yards that afternoon, Oct. 19, and so did the crack backs of Colorado, but both lines held at opportune moments. The evenly matched clubs battled to an even dozen first downs each. George Booth and Cy Foster played bang-up games in the Midland line.

Thus, the four-year record stands: Colorado 2, Midland 1, one tie game. Total points: Colorado 87, Midland 45. First downs: Colorado 63, Midland 48.

Supt. W. W. Lackey turned in figures Saturday to show how the gate benefited. A net of $100 was taken in at the times, and the annual benefited $30 on program advertisements. Figures, in detail, follow:

1. Pre-sales	$115.50
2. Gate	89.25
3. Seasons, estimated	25.00
Total	$229.75
Expense:
1. Colorado	$100.00
2. Officials	10.00
3. Advertising, etc.	10.75
Total	$120.75
Net	$109.00
Annual staff made on programs	$ 50.00

Both Rufus Hyde, the collar-ad coach of Stanton (and we mention the term with absolute respect, for not only is he a handsome fellow, but a he-man along with it) and Head Coach Barry of Midland believe Wink is set to win the district unless someone can spring a surprise, punning power or sure-climbing aerial against Coach Johnson's charges. Despite Wink's making more than 400 yards at scrimmage against Stanton, however, only 12 points could be scored. One of the touchdowns, they are saying, came when a man hid out along the sideline and emerged from a screen of Wink's population which had overflowed onto the field. A pass went for a goal.

Midland plays Wink at Wink Saturday; Odessa, which lost a game to Maria, 20-0, Saturday, goes to Rankin, who won over Crane, and Stanton goes to Pecos.

E-632-CITATION BY PUBLICATION-C-4

THE STATE OF TEXAS,
To the Sheriff or any Constable of MIDLAND county—GREETING:
YOU ARE HEREBY COMMANDED, That you summon by making Publication of this Citation in some newspaper published in the County of Midland if there is no newspaper published therein, but if not, then in the nearest County where a newspaper is published, once in each week for four consecutive weeks previous to the return day hereof, whose residence is unknown, to be and appear before the Hon. 70th Judicial District Court at the next regular term thereof, to be held in the County of Midland on the 30th day of October, A. D. 1933, at the Court House thereof in Midland, Texas, then and there to answer a petition filed in said Court, on the 13th day of July, A. D. 1933, in a suit numbered on the docket of said Court No. 2633, wherein Otis Fay Coody joined herein pro forma by her husband Walter L. Coody are Plaintiffs and E. H. Meer is defendant.

E. H. MEER,

The nature of the plaintiff's demand being as follows, to-wit:

That the plaintiff is the independent executrix and sole devisee under the will of Mrs. Dora Thompson deceased, that Mrs. Dora Thompson died in Midland County, Texas, on or about the 25th day of May, 1933, leaving a will which has been duly probated in Midland County, Texas; that at the time of her death the said Mrs. Dora Thompson was seized and possessed in fee simple with the title of the following described lands, to-wit:

FIRST TRACT: Situated in Midland County, Texas, and described as follows: The East 1/4 of the North East 1/4 of Section 5, Block 39, Township 2-South, Texas & Pacific Ry. Co. survey, Midland County, Texas.
SECOND TRACT: Situated in Reeves County, Texas, and described as follows: The North East 1/4 of Section 40, Block 57, Township 1 South, Certificate 5064, Texas & Pacific Ry. Co. survey, situated in Reeves County, Texas.

That by reason of being the sole devisee under the will of the said Mrs. Dora Thompson that this plaintiff becomes entitled with the fee simple title and right to the possession of all of the above described lands on the 19th day of June, 1933, of the total value of $3,000.00.

Whereafter, on said last named date the defendant unlawfully entered upon said land and premises and ejected the plaintiff therefrom and unlawfully withholds from her the possession thereof, to her damage in the sum of $5,000.00.

That the reasonable annual rental value of said premises is the sum of $500.00.

WHEREFORE, plaintiffs pray for judgment for title and possession of the land described above for damages and costs as alleged.

SECOND COUNT:
Plaintiffs allege that heretofore, to-wit, on or about the 4th day of August, 1931, that Mrs. Dora Thompson, made, executed and delivered to the defendant, E. H. Meer, a Deed conveying the tract of land described in the First Count of this petition as Tract No. I, and recorded in Midland County, Texas, as conveyance No. 1, and the tract of land described in the Second Count of this petition, as Tract No. II, in the deed being recorded in the Deed Records of Reeves County, Texas in Book 75 at Page 255.

These plaintiffs would show to the Court that the above described Deeds are intended to convey in trust the lands and premises hereinabove described, to be held by the Defendant, E. H. Meer, as Trustee, for the use and benefit of plaintiffs, with the express understanding and agreement that in the event of the death of the said Mrs. Dora Thompson that the defendant would promptly reconvey said two tracts of land to the plaintiffs; that there was no consideration paid by the said E. H. Meer to the said Mrs. Dora Thompson and no title was conveyed, or intended to be conveyed, to the said E. H. Meer, except the naked legal title, making the said E. H. Meer a naked Trustee for these plaintiffs.

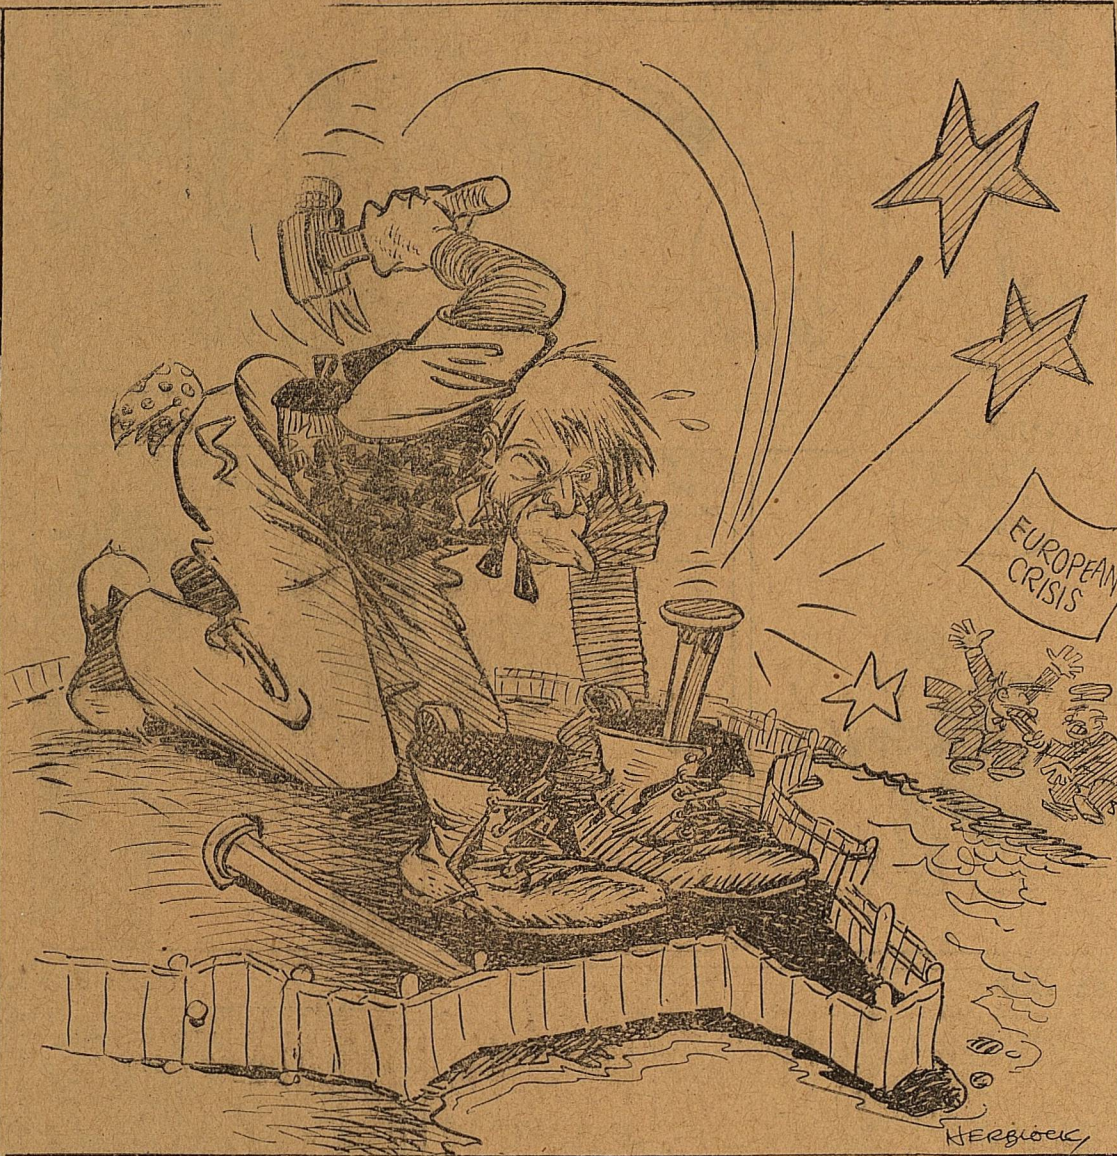

Plaintiffs further show to the Court that they have heretofore demanded in writing of the defendant a conveyance to plaintiffs of the lands above described, and that said defendant has refused to execute such conveyance, and is fraudulently asserting title to said land and premises in himself, notwithstanding his full and complete knowledge and understanding of the nature of the conveyance that was made to him by the said Mrs. Dora Thompson, and hereinabove alleged.

That by reason of facts alleged above these plaintiffs are entitled to the cancellation of said Deed made by the said Mrs. Dora Thompson to the said E. H. Meer, and to be vested fully with the title in and to said lands and premises free of any claim or right or interest in and to the same by the defendant.

WHEREFORE, plaintiffs pray for judgment cancelling the deeds and decreeing full title and possession of said above described lands in plaintiffs, for costs of suit and general and special relief.
