Strike Spreads Again; Affects Workers Here

Strikers started picketing the Pan American Pipeline Co. offices and pump stations here at 12:01 o'clock this morning as the oil strike expanded throughout that company all over the state.

Between 70 and 75 men working for the company in the West Texas district are affected by the strike. The district headquarters are three miles south of Snyder on the Colorado City highway.

Two of the union members, however, did not observe their own picket lines and are working today, A. M. Ramsey, one of the strikers said this morning. The workers were said to be gaugers in the Kelley - Snyder field pump stations of the company.

Pickets are still posted at offices and pump stations of the Texas - New Mexico Pipeline Co. in this district. The strike on that company began about one week ago.

Magnolia Pipeline Co., the only other unionized pipeline operating here, has not been hit by the strike, and is still operating normally.

Operations at Pan American Pipeline Co. were said to be normal today, but a slow down may be necessary as soon as storage is filled, Vernon T. Tracy, division superintendent, said.

Tracy added that there has been no violence between strikers and non strikers in his company, although some taunts and abusive language has been used.

Tracy was helping to man the pump stations and office posts abandoned by strikers. The company has about 20 supervisory personnel in the division.

"Relations between the company supervisory personnel and strikers here have not been strained, and we hope they will not be, because the strike will be over one of these days and we will all be working together again," Tracy said.

One of the strikers called Tracy "the best superintendent the company has in Texas."

The Associated Press said today "refusal of 22 AFL, CIO, and independent oil industry unions to call an end to their week - old strike may send the wage dispute to President Truman."

Superintendents of both Magnolia Pipeline Co., and Pan American Pipeline Co., here said this morning that they have heard nothing from higher offices in their companies concerning the strike, nor anticipated entry of the government into the dispute.

A wage increase of 25-cents per hour is being sought by the unions, but officials of the union have indicated that a company offer of an 18-cent increase would probably be accepted.

ANOTHER PIPELINE STRUCK

A. M. Ramsey, left, and Tom Fox, two of more than 70 striking union employes of Pan American Pipeline Co. are shown above picketing the company's main office south of town. The nationwide oil strike spread throughout the company's Texas lines at 12:01 this morning. (Lee Watson photograph).

Ike Is Against Cutting Off Aid

WASHINGTON, May 8 (AP)—Gen. Dwight Eisenhower told Congress today any cut in President Truman's $7,900,000,000 foreign aid plan "would inevitably tend to curtail or retard" this nation's defense program.

The message from Eisenhower was made public by Sen. Connally (D-Tex), chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

The retiring head of the Western Defense forces did not specifically ask Congress to retain the full amount of funds Truman requested for foreign aid.

But he did say that any cut "would be heavily and seriously felt."

The foreign relations committee has voted to cut a billion dollars from Truman's requests. The House Foreign Affairs committee chopped off another 100 million.

Eisenhower said in his cable to Connally that "any cut materially greater" that the billion dollar reduction voted by his committee "would create such difficulties that a drastic revision of the whole program might well be indicated and might therefore endanger the proposed military build-up now visualized and which I consider essential in the interest of U. S. security."

Agreement On 37th Is Near

Paving for busy Thirty - seventh Street was a step nearer reality today as property owners on the street prepared to sign agreements for curb and gutter work.

Miss Myrtle Harrell and Miss Fay Harrell, who own a 900-foot strip bordering the north side of the street, said today they were willing to co-operate with public improvements and sign up for curbing and guttering on Thirty-seventh Street, provided satisfactory explanations were made to them. This has been done by a representative of Hassie & Greene, engineering firm of Lubbock.

They had previously by-passed contracts, but gave their approval for the work when further explanation of the appearance and drainage facilities of the completed project was made.

A tentative contract for curb and gutter construction has already been signed with A. W. Swift. His construction crews can be moved onto the job immediately, with completion expected in about a week after work begins. The paving contractor, W. O. Pelphrey, has said he will put crews on the job as soon as curbs and gutters are finished.

Testing Borden Well At 8,128

Phillips Petroleum Co. No. 1-A Dennis, Borden wildcat 13 miles northwest of Gail, recovered 1,010 feet of drilling mud and 40 feet of slightly oil and gas cut mud on a two - hour drillstem test.

The test was run on a section of unidentified lime from 8,128-197 feet. Operator was reported to be coring deeper.

FULLER WELL

The Texas Co. No. 202 P. L. Fuller, North - Central Scurry prospector, has released the rig and is preparing to complete from the Cisco. Operator swabbed 27.60 barrels of oil in eight hours. Shakeout was four per cent sand and water. There were about 500 feet of fluid in the hole.

DRILLING REPORTS

Superior Oil Co. and Intex No. 13-578 Jordan, Northwest Scurry wildcat, is drilling in lime below 5,535 feet.

Superior & Intex No. 1 Eva F. Laws, one and one-half miles northwest of Fluvanna, is drilling below 5,002 feet in shale.

Standard No. 1-S Brumley, Cisco sand test, is drilling below 2,946 feet in lime.

In Kent County, Superior No. 2-A Woods is drilling to lime below 3,535 feet. Sun No. 3-C Billy Wallace, Claremont area prospector, is drilling below 7,366 feet in lime and shale.

Husky Oil No. 1 Nance, Garza prospector, is waiting on orders after recovering 29 barrels of oil with 132 barrels of salt water on a 24-hour swab.

Hurlbut No. 1 Ina Wallace, Mitchell wildcat 13 miles southwest of Colorado City is drilling to shale below 6,760 feet.

Reds Accuse UN Of Delaying Armistice

MUNSAN, Korea (AP)—The Communists today accused the United Nations Command of delaying a truce in Korea by refusing to negotiate further on prisoner exchange.

The prisoner issue is the only one in the path of an armistice in the nearly 2-year-old war.

North Korean Gen. Nam Il's verbal blast failed to shake the Allied delegates from their no retreat stand against forced return of prisoners to Red rule.

The Allies have told the Reds that 62,000 captured Red soldiers do not want to be repatriated.

"Your so-called screening of our captured personnel is absurd," Nam declared in the 18-minute session at Panmunjom.

Nam spoke for 17 minutes. Vice Adm. C. Turner Joy, chief U.N. Command delegate, called Nam's speech a "propaganda tirade that can serve no useful purpose."

At Nam's request, truce delegates will meet again tomorrow at 11 a.m. (9 p.m. Thursday, EST).

Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway and Gen. Mark W. Clark, who will replace Ridgway as supreme Allied commander, arrived in Korea.

The visit followed by only one day Ridgway's warning that the Allies will make no further concessions to the Reds to end the war.

In Washington President Truman said the United States will not buy an armistice "by turning over human beings for slaughter or slavery."

Ridgway will leave Monday to relieve Gen. Eisenhower as commander of NATO forces in Europe.

For the second straight day, Joy proposed an indefinite suspension of negotiations until the Communists are ready to talk business. But the Reds quickly called for a Friday meeting.

The U.N. Command is willing to return 70,000 of the 169,000 prisoners of war and civilians it holds. That many want to return to Communist territory, the Allies say. The Reds demand return of 132,000 captured Chinese and North Korean troops.

Nam again "categorically rejected" the Allied proposal. He turned down a suggestion that the Reds, after an armistice, themselves interview the prisoners who have said they would forcibly resist return to communism.

Anderson Davis, Jr., Is Given Four-Year Term, $1,000 Fine

The heaviest punishment ever assessed in a misdemeanor trial here was meted today when a jury of six men sentenced Anderson Davis, Jr., Snyder Negro, to four years in the county jail and fined him $1,000 plus court cost.

The court's action placed Davis under a total of five years and three months assessed him recently on convictions of bootlegging. On April 30, he was sentenced to one year and assessed a fine of $750. That case is on appeal, and defendant is free on appeal bond in that case. He already had a sentence of 90 days on appeal when last week's case was tried. Late last year, he was sentenced to a year in jail and fined $1,000, but the court of criminal appeals reversed the court's verdict on grounds the special trial judge had not been properly chosen at the particular time of the trial. The other cases were presided over by Edgar Taylor, elected county judge.

As in the case of last week, Davis again appeared for trial without legal counsel. In today's case, however, he made relatively little showing, questioning witnesses only twice and briefly each time, both incidents concerning only the motion he filed at the beginning of the trial for continuance. The motion requested postponement of the trial on grounds he had not been notified in time to obtain legal counsel. Judge Taylor overruled the motion.

Judge Taylor himself took the witness stand to testify that at the time of the defendant's last trial, April 30, the court informed him that today's trial was set for 9 o'clock this morning.

He was tried on a charge accusing him of possessing 28 half-pints of whisky, 12 four - fifths quarts of wine, and 120 cans of beer on Feb. 6 for purpose of illegal sale. The charge was drawn under "enhanced punishment provisions" by which a jury is allowed to assess four times the maximum punishment when proof is shown of two previous convictions for similar offenses. Maximum punishment in a single first offense is a year in jail and a fine of $1,000.

Davis said he would appeal the case.

More Heat And No Rain Seen

By The Associated Press

The early-summer heat wave in Texas is due to continue through Friday.

No rain is expected, but cloudy skies may spread northward from South Texas to hold temperatures down somewhat, the U. S. Weather Bureau said.

Temperatures rose to a high of 104 at Presidio Wednesday. Wink reported 100. The lowest reading in the 24 hours ending at 6:30 a.m. Thursday was 50 at Dalhart.

Ground fog and cloud patches were reported in South Texas early Thursday.

Reds Must Accept Deal Or Face Renewed War

Red Prisoners Hold General As Hostage

PUSAN, Korea, Friday, May 9 (AP)—The Army announced today that Red prisoners on Koje Island had seized the Allied camp commandant, Brig. Gen. Francis T. Dodd, and a fellow-officer on Wednesday and still are holding Dodd as a hostage.

The other officer managed to escape, but General Dodd was dragged inside the Red prisoners' stockade. The other officer's name was not available.

A report from the island prison off the South Korean coast said a note had been passed from the stockade, but its contents were not disclosed. This report said that Dodd had not been harmed. It was several hours old, however.

Koje Island has been the scene of two violent prison disorders this year. On Feb. 12, 179 persons were killed in an uprising by Red prisoners in notorious "Compound 62."

On March 13, 12 prisoners were killed when anti-Communist and Communist prisoners engaged in a rock-fight.

Dodd, who was deputy chief of staff of the U. S. Eighth Army, took command at Koje after the February riot.

Wardlaw Said In Shakedown

DALLAS, May 8 (AP)—Protection payments of $50 per month were claimed by a former Fort Worth gambler to have been given to A. I. Wardlaw, onetime Tarrant County assistant district attorney.

W. H. Getzendaner testified at Wardlaw's trial for income tax evasion:

"I paid him $50 a month for protection for whatever time I was open. But those places (bookie joints) don't stay open all the time."

Getzendnaner said he ran a bookie operation in Fort Worth during 1948 and 1949. His statements were the first indication in court of any protection racket in the Tarrant County district attorney's office during those years.

Getzendaner's statements were made with jury out of the courtroom at the order of Judge T. Whitfield Davidson. Asst. U. S. Dist. Atty. Cavett Binion had asked that the jury be excused for Getzendaner's accusation.

HOUSE MOVING TO BE HALTED

AUSTIN, May 8 (AP)—Factory-constructed houses or storage tanks more than 20 feet wide cannot be moved over Texas highways after June 1.

The new policy was announced yesterday by state highway Engineer D. C. Greer. The policy decision has the effect of rejecting an appeal made by representatives of house and tank manufacture at a public hearing of the Highway Commission April 29.

Farm Boy May Get Clemency Of State Board

AUSTIN, May 8 (AP)—The 15-year-old Iowa farm boy who went to prison by a mistake in his age may soon go back home on parole.

The State Pardons Board yesterday indicated agreement on recommending clemency for him. They disagreed, however, as to what jurisdiction might be retained over the youth.

Herbert Fletcher went to Texas prison last year on a 10-year sentence for filling station robberies in Freestone and Williamson counties. He told officials he was 17. As a 15-year-old, he could have been tried only as a juvenile delinquent and sent to a training school.

Another robbery count had been pending against Fletcher in Milam County until yesterday when the grand jury there no-billed him because of his age and recommended his parole to Iowa.

Fletcher's mother and Georgetown Attorney W. K. McClain presented the Milam County Grand Jury's findings to the pardon board.

Board Chairman L. C. Harris and member T. B. White asked McClain to add a letter from the Milam County attorney showing no action was planned against the youth as a juvenile.

Harris and White maintained the board had power of parole over the youth who, they said, waived his right as a juvenile when he told officers he was 17. Board Member R. A. (Smoot) Schmid contended the board by law could only recommend the sentence be commuted as illegal and Fletcher be remanded to the courts where he was convicted.

Coastal Blockade Of China Is Seen

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Truman left the Asiatic Communists today with the choice of accepting what is apparently the final Allied armistice offer or continuing a war that has gained them little.

While the Communists mulled over the President's declaration yesterday that the United Nations three-point truce proposal must be accepted in entirety, military and diplomatic officials considered what to do if it isn't.

If the Chinese and Korean Reds turn down the one-package proposal, including the point that there be no forced return of prisoners, the prospects for continued war seemed uppermost.

The shape this war could take—more prolonged stalemate on the existing battleline, a blockade of Red China's ports, attacks on the China Coast—figured in several alternatives considered by the United States and its Allies.

A diplomatic effort outside Korea to settle the dispute remained at least a possibility. Deputy Defense Secretary William C. Foster was asked by reporters yesterday if direct negotiations with Russia had been considered. Foster replied that "every alternative has been considered," including that one.

The single package proposal submitted by Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway's negotiators at Panmunjom and supported by the U.N. Allies contains these three points:

1. "That there shall be no forced repatriation of prisoners of war—as the Communists have insisted" (the President's summary of the point). Interviews conducted by the Allies have shown that 100,000 of the 173,000 prisoners would oppose return to Communists hands. This is a bitter blow to Communist prestige.

2. The United Nations will not insist on prohibiting reconstruction or repair of airfields in Communist areas.

3. The commission to supervise an armistice shall include two Communist satellite nations — Poland and Czechoslovakia—and two chosen by the United Nations—Sweden and Switzerland.

It was the first point that was at issue and it was that one over which the President was precise and adamant. He said, "We will not buy an armistice by turning over human being for slaughter or slavery."

He declared the U.N. had taken extreme care in separating the 100,000 prisoners who said they would oppose return from those who wanted to go back, adding that the U.N. would agree to an impartial screening after an armistice, of the prisoners. Truman said "nothing could be fairer."

Taking the case directly to the Russians could have indirect beneficial results for the Allies even if the Kremlin rejected the armistice proposal. A rejection by Moscow would leave Russia in the position of virtually ordering her Chinese and Korean satellites to continue a war which has helped only the Russian Communists.

The Korean war has pinned down in that remote part of the world seven United States divisions, substantial portions of the United States Air Force and ships and planes of the Navy. It has cost the United States 108,000 battle casualties and the loss of planes, ground force arms and equipment and a few small ships. That, as the Kremlin wanted, has helped disperse American military strength.

But the war has cost the Chinese and Korean armies an estimated 1,170,000 battle casualties and loss of weapons and equipment hard to replace. And after almost two years the Communists stand about where they were at the start, near the 38th Parallel dividing North and South Korea.

They may choose to continue standing there, behind the fortifications in depth which they have built up along the stalemated battleline since truce talks started last summer.

The formidable nature of the Reds' fixed line well may be a factor influencing the consideration of the various alternatives for possible use if an armistice is rejected. With the great weight of firepower built up by the Allies, this defense line probably could be broken and another push in the direction of the Yalu River started.

But then there would be the question: Would the American public want to accept another costly slugging match on a front fought over before?

Biggest Raids Of War Made On Red Korea

SEOUL, Korea, May 8 (AP)—Day-long waves of American planes, in the biggest air raid of the Korean war, turned a major Communist supply base "into billowing flames and smoke" today, the U. S. Fifth Air Force reported.

The Air Force said the dawn to dusk rain of high explosives, rockets, jellied gasoline fire bombs and machinegun bullets destroyed 165 supply buildings and damaged 81.

American and Australian jet planes screening the raiders shot down two MIG-15 jets and damaged another, the Air Force added.

Target of the mass raid was Suan, 35 miles southeast of Pyongyang, North Korean capital. Suan is a feeder point to Chinese troops on the western front. Air Force photos had shown the area literally loaded with trucks and military supplies heavily guarded by antiaircraft guns.

Jets and propeller driven planes drawn from four wings made well over 300 individual attacks, the Air Force said.

They "tore the Communist supplies to shreds," a communique said. "Thousands of gallons of fiery napalm (jellied gasoline) were spread over the target, turning piles of supplies into billowing flames and smoke."

F-80 Shooting Stars opened the attack at dawn.

Then came waves of F-84 Thunderjets, more Shooting Stars, propeller driven Mustangs, and Marine Corps Pantherjets, Sky Raiders and Corsairs.

The Fifth Air Force said the strike was bigger than one a year ago on Red air bases just inside Korea near the Manchurian border. That one involved 312 planes. The Air Force didn't say how much bigger.

No report was made of damage to American planes if any. That is mentioned only in weekly summaries.

The Air Force reported two MIG 15s were destroyed in two separate battles—both fought unusually far from the Reds' Manchurian bases.

Texas Fair Dealers Make Big Day Of Talking About Shivers

AUSTIN, May 8 (AP)—Gov. Shivers came under attack from two sources yesterday, but the charge was virtually the same in each case: that Shivers is trying to tell Texans how to run their national affairs.

That was the implication of a prepared statement by Ralph W. Yarborough, candidate for governor, who said he thought "the people of Texas can be trusted to pick their own president and vice president without dictation from me or anyone else."

Fagan Dickson, leader of the self-styled Loyal Democrats, said Texas voters must choose whether they will follow Shivers up a "blind alley" or continue their program of prosperity and the fight for world peace along Roosevelt-Truman lines.

Dickson gave warning that Shivers will be challenged not only in the state and national Democratic conventions but also at the ballot box.

He said Loyal Democrats "have a rendezvous with the governor on July 26 (the date of the first Democratic primary in Texas). There is no place on the Democratic ticket for candidates who are running against the Democratic Party."

Yarborough, who will draw the support of the Loyal Democrats faction, said he believed the people of Texas "are entitled to a full-time governor."

"That's what I expect to be, and I don't intend to try to tell the people of Texas how to run their national affairs," he added.

Dickson accused Shivers of trying to create a sectional party in opposition to the national Democratic Party through his insistence on an uninstructed Texas delegation to the national convention and his opposition to a party loyalty pledge for the delegates.

Dickson said the people who controlled virtually all county Democratic conventions Tuesday were "Shivercrats."

"The Shivercrat conventions resolved against the United Nations and world peace; denounced the government's foreign policy; rejected resolutions requiring presidential electors to vote for Democratic candidates; rejected the principle of majority rule as applied to the national convention; opposed all resolutions calling for social progress of any kind; approved racial prejudice and embraced McCarthyism," Dickson said.

He promised the Loyal Democrats would continue their fight against Shivers' program at the May 27 state convention in San Antonio and at the national convention in Chicago.

High Of 99 Yesterday

Snyder's warm temperatures, which has been moving upward gradually during the last week, reached the 99 mark yesterday. Mrs. D. P. Strayhorn, weather observer, said. Last night's low was 66, and the temperature at 7:30 o'clock this morning was 71.

Billie Alford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Alford, has been named valedictorian for the senior class to graduate here May 23. Madelyn Crow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Crow, will be salutatorian.

Exercises for the 74 students will be held in the high school auditorium at 8 o'clock on the night of May 23. The commencement address, will be given by Delbert Downing, general manager of the Midland Chamber of Commerce.

Baccalaureate service will be May 18 in the auditorium at 8 p. m. Boyd Fleming, minister of the Church of Christ on Twenty-fifth Street, is to preach the sermon.

Gross Says He Had Chief Of Detectives On His Payroll

NEW YORK, May 8 (AP)—Boss Bookie Gross, who has involved former top city officials in his multi-million dollar bookmaking business, testified today that William Whalen, former chief of detectives of the New York Police Department had been on his payroll.

Gross said Whalen went on his payroll right after he became an inspector, at which time Gross gave him a dinner and an expensive watch.

Gross took the stand for the second day in the police departmental trial of five officers accused of lying about their relations with Gross.

All five of the men on trial have filed for retirement this month and unless the case is completed before the effective date of their retirement they cannot be punished by the police department.

They face loss of pension rights in this trial.

Yesterday Gross testified that James J. Moran shook him down for a $15,000 political contribution during former Mayor William O'Dwyer's 1949 campaign.

Moran, long-time political cronny of O'Dwyer, is in Sing Sing prison on a 12½-25 year sentence for racketeering in $350,000 a year fire firemen's shakedown racket when he was first deputy fire commissioner.

Gross, who returns to the witness stand today, also testified he had "an arrangement" with Inspector William P. O'Brien whom O'Dwyer later named police commissioner.

The "arrangement," Gross said, was for protection at the rate of "$50 or $100 for him (O'Brien) plus the regular amount for the spot."

Gross reputedly paid one million dollars a year graft to police for protection until his 20-million dollar-a-year bookie racket was smashed in 1950.

O'Brien, asked for comment on Gross' testimony, declared: "He's a liar. . . . I don't know him, never saw him. I never met him."

O'Brien, now in private business, quit as police commissioner during the graft scandal which broke after Gross' arrest. At the time of the resignation, O'Dwyer said "I believe Bill O'Brien is as honest a man as I have ever known."

O'Dwyer, now U.S. Ambassador to Mexico, said in Mexico City last night that he had "no comment" on Gross' testimony.

Gross testified at the departmental retrial of five policemen charged with protecting his gambling operations and with perjury at their first trial last November.

The original departmental trial and also the mass criminal trial of 18 alleged police grafters were wrecked when Gross refused to talk.

He drew a five-year sentence for contempt of court, and later was sentenced to 12 years on bookmaking and conspiracy charges.

The 50-year-old ex-bookie from Brooklyn has had a taste of penitentiary life since September, and apparently hopes to win reduction of his sentence by testifying.

Child Of Former Snyder Couple Believed Kidnapped In Aztec

The three - year - old son of a former Snyder couple and nephew of eight Scurry County persons apparently has been kidnapped from his home at Aztec, N.M.

Relatives here said the father, the Rev. Anthom Wade, reported the boy, John Wade, had been missing since Sunday night. Mr. Wade said the family returned from church and that the child stepped out on the back porch and has not been seen by them since.

State police, F. B. I. agents, local officers there, and citizens of Aztec have searched steadily, even using bloodhounds, since Sunday night but have found no clue to the child's whereabouts. The family lives inside the city.

Mr. Wade, who recently moved there as pastor of a church from a Baptist church in the Champion community near Loraine, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Wade of the Ennis Creek community near here. He is a brother of Clarence Wade, Nathan Wade, Mrs. Davis Shaw, and Mrs. Dale Rains, all of Snyder. The child's mother is a sister of T. D. Wiman, Jr., and Mrs. Silas Devenport, both of Snyder; John Wiman of Fluvanna, and Mrs. C. J. Smith of Ira.

The Associated Press quoted the child's father this morning as saying the boy needed a sweets! diet.

"I'm going on with my church work. Our faith is in God," said Mr. Anthem Wade. "These things happen.

"But I'm afraid to think of some of the things that might have happened to him."

Hundreds of searchers and five airplanes have combed this Northwestern New Mexico area without luck.

Wade has appealed by radio to anyone who may have the tot to "take good care of Johnny."

Over a station in nearby Farmington yesterday the minister pleaded:

'We love Johnny and we want him back. He has an allergy and must be kept on a special diet. He can't eat bacon, ham or any pork, green beans or corn. He can eat beef, fish and most other vegetables.

"If someone is holding him for ransom or for some other reason, please give him back or tell us what we can do to contact him."

Machine Takes Place Of Man's Lung And Heart

DALLAS (AP)—A $60 heart-lung machine pumped a man's blood for 75 minutes, changing him from sickly blue to healthy pink, a surgeon announced today.

The machine gave him an extra heart and extra lung to fight a mysterious lung disease. It drew blood from a vein in his leg, purified it of carbon dioxide, gave it fresh oxygen, and pumped the blood back into an artery in his arm.

The dramatic story was reported to the American Association for Thoracic Surgery by Dr. James Helmsworth, University of Cincinnati Medical School.

He called it the first such successful use of an artificial heart-lung on humans in this country. All the while, the man's own heart and lungs kept working.

The man died, however, several weeks after the experiment. Dr. B. N. Carter of the University of Cincinnati Medical School said the man had an "incurable lung disease" and that the heart pumping was done only to give him relief in his breathing.

Today's report marks a big step toward a major goal—of having machines that will let surgeons completely by-pass a patient's own heart and lungs, and operate on them while they are freed from work.

Mechanical hearts that by-pass just one side of the heart already have worked on humans.

The man, a former fireman, had a disease that scarred his lungs. He hungered for oxygen, became blue and short of breath. His heart was impaired.

The machine pumped for 75 minutes while his color changed from blue to near-normal pink, Dr. Helmsworth said. He could breathe more easily and slept soundly for the first time in several weeks.

Annual Concert By Snyder Band

The public is invited to the annual spring concert of the school bands, which begins at 8 o'clock tomorrow night in the high school auditorium, Jimmy Verner, director, said today.

Verner said the annual concerts will feature elementary, junior high, and high school bands.

The director is now planning summer band work, which will be held in the schools throughout the summer months. He said more than 200 students will participate in the program, and he invited all students interested to join the work.

Verner said he is especially interested in sixth grade students, who will be placed in the junior high band if they show enough progress. He urged students to contact him or Lyle Upshaw of the Upshaw Music Co. if they are interested in the program.

Snyder Student Wins Wall Street Journal Award At McMurry

Doyle B. Bynum, McMurry College senior from Snyder, has won the Wall Street Journal Student Achievement Award, Dr. Andrew Rockover, head of the business administration department, announced.

Bynum was selected by a faculty committee from a group of candidates. Eligibility for the award consists of both high academic standing and outstanding achievement in the business administration department.

Bynum is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Bynum, 2703 Avenue V.

Warren Makes Attack On Democratic Party

ALBANY, Ore. (AP)—Gov. Earl Warren of California, campaigning in Oregon for the Republican presidential nomination, said last night that if voters retain the Democratic party in power it means they "condone inefficiency and financial irresponsibility in government."

"Instead of solving problems, (the administration) is standing them on end for someone else to solve, which means they are leaving them for our children," Warren told a meeting sponsored by civic groups and the Linn County Republican central committee.

Delegate Is Named

O. S. Clark principal of the primary school, was elected by Kiwanians at their meeting yesterday as a delegate to the Kiwanis International Convention.

The convention will be held in Seattle, Wash., in June.

The group saw a film on the recent oil well fire, which caused the death of one man and injured several others.

Mr. and Mrs. Paris McPherson and daughter and Mrs. Edna Carrell and children attended a birthday dinner Sunday at Plainview honoring Fred Gilbert and Mrs. Raymond Wilson of Dimmitt.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen Miller spent the week end in Midland visiting Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Maugrum.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Langford were in Lubbock Sunday to visit a relative who is ill.

Mrs. Newell Mebane had as a visitor last week her mother, who lives in Snyder.

The Rev. and Mrs. Sidney Stone and their baby are visiting Mrs. Stone's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Woolever.

Margaret Bata McPherson was honored with a surprise birthday party Friday night in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hogue. She received a shower of gifts before refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. David Campbell left Friday for an extended trip to Arkansas and Oklahoma.

Mrs. Delbert Jones under went surgery in a local hospital Tuesday.

T. C. Martin of Lamesa visited Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Adams Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Preston Nokes and sons, Johnnie and Ray spent the first of the week in Ruidoso, N.M. They live on the Clairemont road.

Scurry Youths Tech Graduates

Five Scurry County students are to be among the 727 graduates of Texas Technological College on May 26.

Gov. Dan K. Thornton, governor of Colorado and an "ex-Techsan," will be the speaker for the commencement exercises at 8 o'clock in Jones Stadium.

Snyder students who are to be graduated are Eugene S. Bills, bachelor of science in electrical engineering; John B. Cox, bachelor of science with a major in agricultural education; Billy Popnoe Bills, bachelor of science with a petroleum geology major, and Billy J. Boren, bachelor of business administration with a marketing major.

James H. McDougald of Hermleigh is to receive a bachelor of science in electrical engineering.

Hermleigh Man Makes Trip To Alps, Rhine

Pvt. H. B. Lewis of Hermleigh is now assigned to occupation forces in Germany.

His brother, Pvt. Roy Lewis, is stationed at Fort Sill, Okla. They are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Buell Lewis of Hermleigh.

H. B. Lewis, who has been in the army for about 19 months, has been in Germany for about a year. In recent letters home he has written of trips to the Alps and along the Rhine River.

Roy Lewis, a 1950 graduate of Hermleigh High School, has been in the army for the past seven months.

HOSPITAL NOTES

No Enforcement Here Of Sewer Connection Ordinance Of City

Enforcement of city ordinances affecting sanitation will be one of the major projects of the Chamber of Commerce health and sanitation committee during the clean-up drive beginning Monday, Stanley Noah, committee chairman, said today.

Noah said that he and other committee members will probably meet with the city council at the next council meeting to ask strict enforcement of the laws.

City ordinances require that any party owning buildings occupied by any person, if the building is within 150 feet of the city sewer lines and inside the city limits, install a water closet. Violation of the ordinance is punishable by not more than $100 fine, and each day of violation is considered a separate offense.

The city trash and garbage ordinance requires that kitchen garbage be placed in a five to 32-gallon metal container with a tight - fitting cover.

Noah said his committee will probably propose that the city install its own garbage collection system. He and his committee are studying sanitation ordinances of other cities.

"I have had several complaints brought to my attention that many residents are not getting the garbage collection service they want. Whether garbage is collected is left up to the individual, and our committee believes collection should be compulsory to all residents in Snyder," Noah said. Garbage is now collected by subscription and is paid with the water bill. The city has garbage collected by contract.

J. E. Craven, Jr., city - county sanitarian, said he does not know how many persons inside the city limits are as near as 150 feet from sewer lines and are not connected, but he estimated that at least one-fourth of those not connected are within the required distance.

W. W. Park, city attorney, said that the sanitarian is to inspect property close enough to be connected to the sewer lines and give the property owner notice that he is violating the city sewer ordinance. The sanitarian is also to inform the city attorney of the violation, who gives the owner a second notice if he has not corrected the situation within 10 to 15 days. If it is not corrected, Park said, he files a complaint in corporation court, where the owner is subject to fine. Both Park and A.M. McPherson, city magistrate, said they do not remember any person ever being fined for violation of the ordinance or the trash and garbage ordinance.

At the end of April, water and gas connections far exceeded the number of sewer connections. The report at the end of last month from the city water and sewer department showed a total of 2,983 water meters, compared to 2,341 sewer connections, or 642 less sewer hookups. Lone Star Gas Co. estimated about 2,800 gas connections inside the city limits, or 459 more than sewer connections.

Craven estimated that 35 to 40 pit toilets still standing inside the city limits are not in use and could be moved immediately.

Park said many persons who have not connected to the sewer are not financially able to do so, estimating the cost of installing adequate toilet facilities at about $500.

'The Robe' May Reach Screen This Time

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Ten years ago producer Frank Ross bought the film rights to "The Robe," a best-selling novel by the late Lloyd C. Douglas.

In the years since, one production problem after another has kept the picture from reaching the screen. Howard Hughes, boss of RKO Studio, reportedly spent more than half a million dollars on the project before it was shelved.

Yesterday Ross and Darryl Zanuck, head of 20th Century-Fox Studio, announced they've made a deal for filming the novel of the birth of the Christian era with Tyrone Power in the leading role.

Court Allows Father To Teach Son Flying

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Eleven-year-old Randall (Scooter) Salmon has court permission today to take lessons in instrument flying and navigation from his daddy.

The boy's mother objected yesterday at the trial of her divorce suit against Herman Salmon, Lockheed test pilot.

But Superior Judge George A. Dockweiler said: "In this day and age when youths are thinking in terms of jet planes that are propelled faster than sound, and our whole situation is geared to transportation via airlines, it is not out of order for children to want to be pilots."

Mrs. Evelyn Salmon won a divorce and custody of Randall.

TALK OF THE TOWN

By SUE HOLMES

Got a ticket to the Little Theater production tonight or tomorrow night? You can still get one at the door, and you'll be in for a happy surprise if you don't think Snyder has talent.

The district court room was just oozing with "semi - pro" amateur actors when "Night of January Sixteenth" was presented last night.

We don't claim to be a drama critic, and the only descriptions we can use will likely to grite, but go see for yourself.

JIM PHILP, the district attorney, and JACK TOWLE, the defense atorney, were more convincing than a great many men who have passed the bar exam. JEAN BOND, playing the dead man's wife, was as prissy and pseudo-heartbroken as the part required. And BETTY BRYANT, the defendant, played a tense, emotional part and stormed out at the proper times.

DON SHAFFER, as the dead man's father-in-law, looked suave and smooth with his silvered hair and good natural tan.

Many of the bit players added spark to the play. There was SARAH WHITE as the Negro janitress, and she was funny. BILL CLICK as the medical examiner was official looking, and Bill's real wife, NINA, gave a professional rendering of the hand writing expert for the government. RONNY BAYOUTH played to the hilt the part of a young and eager policeman, who even exaggerated the size of a pistol.

One of the real character actors was SAMMY WILLIAMS as Magda Svenson, a righteous Swedish housekeeper. She pulled an accent out of the hat that would have convinced the most staunch Minnesota Swede.

RIED ESTES, who has a surprising part, was the secretary to the murdered man. Besides acting, Reid (who is county surveyor) was the property man. He commented between acts on the incongruity of the props he caried up to the courtroom—a Bible in one hand and a gun in the other.

JOE DAVE SCOTT as the elite "private eye" gave the audience a few laughs and admitted afterward he got a little amused while he was speaking his lines.

The inevitable gun moll, played by JANE KINNE, gave forth with the prancing walk up to the witness stand and spouted forth Brooklynese. MAC H. SMITH, as clerk of the court, was official - acting in his capacity of swearing the witnesses in and calling the courtroom's attention to the proceedings.

PAT EVERETT gave a good rendition of the tynical bored judge, and had his spot in the limelight at the very close of the third act.

BILL BROWN made a good gangster who was in love with the defendant.

The rest of the cast didn't say a word —ANITA MEYNIG as the D.A.'s secretary; PAT AYCOCK as the defense attorney's secretary; LUCILLE PORTER as the court reporter and ANITA HALL as the prison matron. Nevertheless, the silent ones had to act a part. And we felt sorry for the secretaries and reporter who had to keep their pencils moving over the note pads, regardless of whether or not they were drawing waves and circles, writing personal letters or doing real shorthand.

Not the least of the credit goes to JANE HARDIN, the experienced director who no doubt had complete respect from her cast. Beautiful roses were sent her for opening night from the cast, and another admirer wired yellow roses.

Other credits go to JUNE RITTER, assistant director; STACY PHILP and her committee for publicity; PAT SHAFFER and JOE MARSHALL for make - up and CLAY KINNE for the stage lighting coming down from the third floor.

The jury was chosen from the audience. The spectators got quite a kick out of seeing attorney KEITH MERRICK called as a juryman. Other jury members, who sat in various moods of boredom and amusement, were Mrs. MERLE WILLIAMS, BILLY DON HARRIS, JANE WILSON, BARBARA NICHOLS, SANDRA COOPER, TED GREENFIELD and J. R. ECKSTADT.

Go see for yourself how the trial comes out—it can be different every night, since the jury honestly decides on the basis of the facts presented.

This was the first of the Snyder Little Theater productions, but it is evident the players have had lots of experience in other theaters.

* * *

Honest confessions are sometimes good, we suppose, even if they do evoke the wrath of a few telephone operators.

For some time now, we have had what is dubbed a transpositional mind or memory. Or maybe it's lack of memory. Anyway, we sit down to make a phone call. We dial very carefully, after waiting for the dial tone. Either nothing happens or we get the special operator. She asks courteously, "What number did you dial?" For the life of us we can't remember. So we say, "Sorry, dialed the wrong number." Then we grab the well-worn telephone directory and see what a mess we made of the number. The "3" we seldom have much trouble with, since all numbers are prefaced with that digit. But those four numbers in succession really throw us for a loop.

This may be incriminating and expository, since those special operators have probably wondered what lame brain can't remember a number long enough to dial it. Sometimes we hold a pencil point right on the number and dial. Even then we transpose.

It is terribly disgusting, since we find notes on our desk of numbers to call. We try conscientiously to call to see what bridge club met or who had company over the week end. After several trys with no answer, we give up. So please, dear people, just call again if we don't call you back.

We've been looking desperately for a psychology book that will say a transpositional mind is the sign of a genius. But, unfortunately, books don't lie to that extent.

* * *

Mrs. AUBREY RUSSELL district home demonstration director, was in town Tuesday to visit Mildred Sparks. We had a pleasant lunch with the two of them, during which we discussed variety meats. This brought to mind a story Mrs. Russell told about the man who introduced himself to a Negro man by saying, "My name is the best part of the hog." (We presume it was Bacon, Ham or maybe Chops.) Immediately the colored man said, "Well, how do you do, Mr. Chitt-ling?"

Alpha Club Observes Music Week

Alpha Study Club observed music week Tuesday with a breakfast at the home of Mrs. Nolan von Roeder. Hostesses with Mrs. Von Roeder were Mrs. Frank Wilson, Mrs. V. V. McGrew and Mrs. O. M. Fowler.

May baskets filled with miniature arrangements of sprayed pink bridal wreath marked each place. The table was covered with a white cloth hand - painted by Mrs. Lindy Clark. A May pole centered the table and streamers extended from it.

The program was given by Chaplain John C. Little, Sr., and Bill Cummins, both of Big Spring Air Force Base. Chaplain Little, the soloist, was educated at Houghton College in New York and was graduated from the Gordon Divinity School in Boston. He took part in college choral groups. Bill Cummins, who plays the organ and piano, received his musical education at Texas Wesleyan College in Fort Worth after attending schools in his native Alabama. He holds a master's degree in music from Indian University. He is heard daily over a Big Spring radio station.

Twenty - one members attended the breakfast.

Basses Are Hosts To Leisure Club

Mr. and Mrs. Prentis Bass were hosts to the Leisure Bridge Club last night at their home.

High prizes went to Mrs. Bass and Sterling Parker. Second high prizes went to Mrs. Herbert Feather and Miss Leah Davis. Mrs. A. C. Floyd won bingo prize.

Refreshments were served to the members.

Bigger Conference Comes Up Tomorrow

DALLAS, May 8 (AP)—The spring meeting of the Southwest Conference opens today with golf and tennis tournaments and a session of the athletic directors tonight. The conference faculty committee holds its first meeting tomorrow afternoon at which time the burning question of whether the league is to expand will be taken up.

Waiting for the conference fathers to decide will be Texas Tech, a big West Texas school now in the Border Conference, and University of Houston, a huge school at Houston now a member of the Missouri Valley Conference.

The athletic directors have four topics for discussion tonight—whether all conference schools will share Cotton Bowl receipts, whether to restrict the number of athletic scholarships per school, radio and television contracts and a policy on use of football game motion pictures on post-game telecasts or in movie theaters. The athletic directors take no action—they merely recommend to the faculty committee.

Julian Oates of Texas is due to be seeded No. 1 and R. G. DeBerry of Texas A&M No. 2 in the three-day tennis tournament. Texas also is favored in golf with Wesley Eilis and Lee Pinkston rated tops for the singles championship of the 72-hole tournament today and tomorrow.

The annual track and field meet will begin tomorrow afternoon with Texas A&M an overwhelming favorite to win the championship.

The faculty committee mets tomorrow afternoon, tomorrow night and Saturday morning. It will announce Saturday whether Texas Tech and-or University of Houston are to be taken in, or if the circuit will continue with the same seven members it has had for 30 years. Tech, a long-time applicant, is confident of admission and, according to Athletic Director DeWitt Weaver, isn't interested in any other conference. "If we don't get in this time we'll try again," said Weaver yesterday in commenting on reports that the Missouri Valley Conference might invite Tech to come in.

Raise Funds To Send Odessa Boy To Trials

ODESSA, May 8 (AP)—A fund raising campaign to send Sprinter Joe Childress and his coach, Lee (Pop) Taylor, to the Olympic semifinals in Long Beach, Calif., June 20 and 21, neared the $500.00 mark today.

Childress will run "unattached from Odessa, Texas" and probably will enter the 100 meters and 200 meters.

Six qualifies in each event at Long Beach will run in the Olympic finals at Los Angeles June 28. The top three in each event there will comprise the United States team which will go to the world Olympics in Helsinki, Finland, later this summer.

The fund raising campaign was started by the Odessa American and is being handled by Spec Gammon, sports editor of that paper. It is a public donation affair.

Aggies Shoot For 5th Title In Six Years

COLLEGE STATION, May 8 (AP)—The fifth championship in six years will be the ambition of Texas A&M's track and field team when it enters the Southwest Conference Meet in Dallas this week end.

And Col. Frank Anderson, coach of 20 Aggie track teams, says this is his best.

The Aggies won the cinder crown in 1947, 1948 and 1949, and accumulating the biggest point total in conference history last year, the Cadets won their fourth title in five years with 114½ points. Texas won in 1950.

Sickness or injuries could keep the Cadets from entering the meet at full strength. It is now certain that the conference's top pole vaulter, Glenn Spradlin, will not participate. He pulled a leg muscle at the Texas Relays and has not participated since.

But Col. Anderson calls the present squad his best.

The team is great by national standards. Starting with the Border Olympics in 1951, the team went undefeated until it met Southern California in Los Angeles two weeks ago. The top track team in the country for nearly 20 years, the Trojans defeated A&M 78 to 60 with University of Texas collecting 32 points.

The Cadets have stars; with the exception of the tri-meet with Southern Cal, the Aggies took firsts regularly in some eight to 10 events. And 35 men on the team have placed in one or more meets this year.

An even dozen men on the squad complete their eligibility this week. Foremost among these last-year men are High Jumpers Walter Davis and Don Graves; Distance Men James Terry and John Germany; 440 and Mile Relay Stalwarts John DeWitt, Robert Shaeffer and Robert Mays; Sprinter Billy Bless, and Hurdler Paul Leming.

High Scores In Fastball Games

Bill Hanks, fastballer for Magnolia, made the first grand slam of the season last night in the Snyder Fastball League as Magnolia defeated Texaco 27-24.

Both teams scored on 15 hits and eight errors.

Valentine slugged out two homers for Magnolia, while Davis hit two for Texaco.

Winning pitcher was Ben Greenfield.

Diamond M slaughtered West Texas Concrete 20-1 in a game that saw no homers.

The winning team scored its runs on 10 hits, and had two errors. The West Texas crew, managing two hits, committed 10 errors.

LeRoy Leard hurled the win, while Royce Pierce was pitcher for the losers.

Sunray will meet National Guard at 7:30 o'clock tonight, while Hermleigh plays American Legion at 9 o'clock.

House Of David Starts 32nd Year Next Week

DALLAS, May 8 (AP)—The House of David baseball team, one of the oldest traveling aggregations in the nation, begins its 32nd year when it visits Texas next week.

The Davids play the Havana Cubans at Tyler Wednesday night and at Dallas Thursday night.

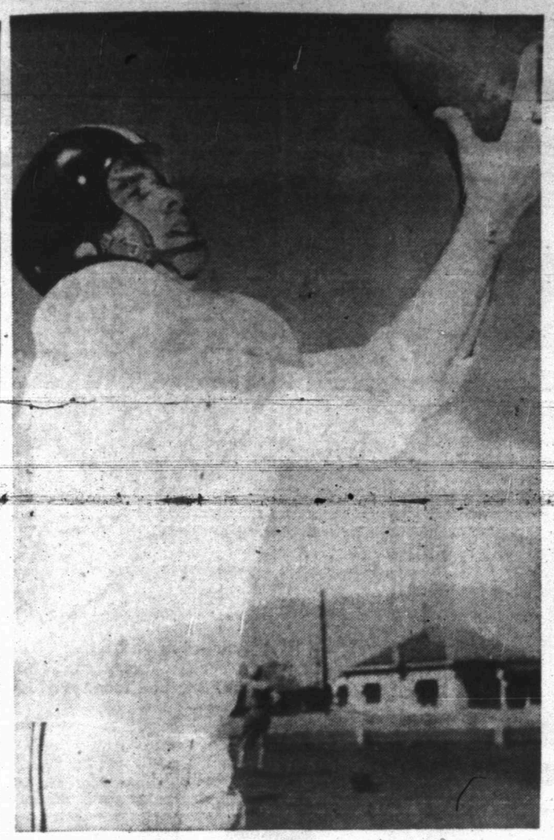

Mexico City Tourney

MEXICO CITY, May 8 (AP)—Jack Burke Jr., Houston, the U. S. Open titlist, and Tommy Bolt of Durham, N.C., were heavy favorites today as the PanAmerican Golf tournament opened.

Other strong contenders for the $15,000 prize money included Lloyd Mangrum and Jimmy Demaret.

The leading amateur entered is Frank Stranahan, Mexican amateur champion from Toledo, Ohio.

IN TEAM SCRIMMAGE TONIGHT

Reagan White, 150-pound end, will be playing with Hal Battle's Whites at 8 o'clock tonight at the high school stadium when the Whites meet Howard Bostick's Blacks. White, a B team star last year, promises to be a regular on the A squad during the next season.

Intrasquad Game Between Two Tiger Teams Set Here Tonght

High school football fans will have a chance at 8 o'clock tonight to see what kind of material Coach Speedy Moffett has for next year's entry into District 1-AAA when the Whites and Blacks clash in an intrasquad game.

The Blacks, coached by Horace Bostick, have already defeated Hal Battle's White 26-14 in one game.

The teams are closely matched, both playing with five lettermen and several former B team regulars.

Moffett, who has had his boys in spring training for about three weeks, believes they will be in better shape next fall than they were last season. He predicts that Sweetwater and Lamesa will offer the toughest opposition in the district. Other district teams are Big Spring, Plainview, and Vernon.

Pace Setters At Greenbrier

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va. (AP)—The winner of the 72-hole Greenbrier Open starting today is going to have to shoot really sub-par golf, says Max Faulkner, globe-trotting British Open Champ.

After comparing the 6,368-yard Old White Course with links of several countries he has played, Faulkner feels the par 70 for 18 holes should be easy to beat.

"The first nine is quite an easy par 34 land the back nine 36 is not very difficult," declared the Britisher. "There is no green you can't get on in two strokes without too much trouble."

This is Faulkner's first visit to the Greenbrier and he was enthusiastic about it.

"The greens are the closest to any like those in England I've ever played on," he said. "They're very fast and that's very good for me."

Yesterday morning Faulkner shot a practice round 71 for 18 holes and in the afternoon he tested only the back nine again and had a sensational 31.

Cary Middlecoff won the first 72-hole Greenbrier in 1949 with 265, 15 below par. Ben Hogan blasted 21 strokes off it in 1950 and Sam Snead was 17 strokes ahead of the game last year.

There are 37 pros trying for the $1,800 first prize to be awarded Sunday.

Yankees Wondering What Is Happening To Them This Year

By JACK HAND
By The Associated Press

Bucky Harris and his Yankee refugees are licking their chops over a six-game Washington win streak while the world champs squirm in the second division.

Ever since the "big deal" sent Jackie Jensen, Archie Wilson and Spec Shea to Washington for Irv Noren, the ex-Yanks have been hitting and pitching like crazy. Wilson has hit .526, Jensen .450 and Shea has pitched 1-0.

Before they left New York Wilson was hitting.000, Jensen .105 and Shea was 0-0. Inflation must be catching on the banks of the Potomac.

Jensen cashed in two more hits last night in the Senators' 6-2 romp over feeble Detroit. The veteran Sid Hudson didn't need much help behind his five-hit effort.

While the Senators continued to spree, the Yanks still were shaking their heads over the strange sight of two straight Cleveland wins at Yankee Stadium. Mike Garcia got home with a 7-2 victory even though the Yanks nicked him for 12 hits.

The stadium is the place the Indians are supposed to fold their tepees and steal silently into the night. Last year their pennant boom grounded on the banks of the Harlem, where they won only one out of 11 starts.

For the fifth straight time Yankee Vic Raschi failed to go the route, yielding eight hits and five runs before retiring at the end of the fifth.

The Indians needed that decision to stick one game behind the league-leading Boston Red Sox, who crushed Chicago, 7-2, on southpaw Bill Henry's pitching and batting. The rookie backed up his five-hit work with a triple and single that drove in two runs. It was his fourth straight.

Johnny Pesky's ground rules double with the bases loaded in the second inning clinched matters against Kenny Holcombe.

Philadelphia's Alex Kellner shoved the St. Louis Browns a little closer to their old home with a fine 1-0 triumph over Earl Harrist. Eddie Joost's double, a sacrifice and an outfield fly accounted for the only run in the first inning. Kellner gave five hits, Harrist only four.

Brooklyn headed home from its first Western trip, still in possession of the league lead, with the help of some strong-arm relief pitching by Johnny Rutherford. The righthanded rookie from St. Paul came on after lefthanded Chris Van Cuyk floundered in the third. Although southpaws are supposed to make the Reds curl up, this rightie gave them only three hits in a 6 2-3-inning stretch.

Leo Durocher used his two New York Giant aces—Sal Maglie and Larry Jansen—to subdue Eddie Stanky's St. Louis Cardinals last night, 3-1.

It was Maglie's win, his fifth straight. In 45 innings "The Barber" has allowed only 22 hits and just five earned runs. He gave up only six hits to the Cards, two by Solly Hemus.

Howie Pollet broke into the win column for the first time this year with a five-hitter as Pittsburgh broke a six-game losing slump to whip the Phillies, 5-1. Five errors, two each by Gran Hamner and Connie Ryan, ruined loser Russ Meyer. Four of the Pirate runs

The scheduled Boston-at-Chicago day game was postponed because were unearned.

Longview And Tyler In Wins

By The Associated Press

Longview's torrid batsmen chopped down Waco 18-3 and league-leading Tyler East Texans calmly reached a new peak in hurling Wednesday night as Gale Pringle's four-hitter blanked Texarkana 8-0, all of which emphasizes the two winners' get-together Thursday night.

There'll be an atmosphere of the irresistible batting of the Indians and the untouchable pitching of Tyler when the clubs tangle in East Texan park, there first meeting this season.

Meanwhile, Wednesday night bespectacled Warren Martin of Austin twirled his team's first shutout as the Pioneers blanked Wichita Falls 9-0 and dropped the Spudders to three full games back of Tyler.

In the other tilt, Temple completed winning its first series thus far by slapping Paris 12-5.

Longview, copping its eighth victory in the last nine starts, counted up two eight run innings in bopping Waco.

Longview's Mike Dooley, Wes Gibson and Wilcy Moore hit for the distance and Waco's Francis Glamp and Jack O'Keefe followed suit. Gibson's was a grand slammer while Dooley added four other hits to produce five runs. In all Longview backed the six-hit pitching of Oral Dryden with a 17-hit attack.

Pringle pitched Tyler's first shutout this season on a four-hitter like Martin. Pringle nerved through a base-loaded Texarkana fourth by fanning Tony York and getting Moe Santomauro to ground out to preserve the shutout. Hal Epps hit three of Tyler's 15 singles.

Martin fanned seven and Austin backed him with 12 hits, Mel Nunes starting the scoring against Wichita Falls with a second inning round-tripper.

Mrs. Melba King, Eskimo woman from Seattle, embraces her new guide dog, Miss Jypsey, a 16-month-old German shepherd, at the Training School for Guide Dogs for the Blind, San Rafael, Calif., after a workout. Mrs. King, blind since birth, became a tragic figure when the Associated Press transmitted a wirephoto showing her kneeling beside her dying guide dog, Gypsy, which had been run down by an auto in Seattle. The Eskimo's trip to San Rafael and training has been financed by Seattle residents. The dog was donated by Mr. and Mrs. Mario Stanghellini of Daly City, Calif.

Showdown Seen On Service Pay

WASHINGTON (AP) — Some lawmakers expect an agreement today over a pay increase for the 3½ million persons in the armed services.

The compromise was described in a long Senate-House deadlock to a reporter as carrying a 5 per cent boost in base pay from top generals and admirals down to privates and seamen, and a 10 per cent increase in food and rental allowances.

Expected to be dropped is a Senate provision for extra combat pay of $45 a month for all men and officers fighting in Korea.

A conference committee, appointed to adjust wide differences in the House and Senate bills, is meeting behind closed doors.

The reported compromise is much nearer to the bill passed overwhelmingly in January by the House.

The house measure called for a flat 10 per cent increase in base pay and food and rental allowances for everybody in the uniformed services. Its annual cost was estimated at 850 million dollars.

The Senate completely rewrote the measure to provide for only a 3 per cent boost in base pay and flat dollar increases in food and rental allowances, with the most liberal treatment to lower rank officers and men with dependents. Its cost was estimated at 480 millions a year.

The compromise now being pushed would add about 495 million dollars to present pay costs.

For example, a private with two dependents now gets $142, including $67.50 sent home monthly for his family. Under the compromise he would get $153, or an increase of $11, compared with $156 under the House bill and $157 under the Senate bill.

Wetbacks Stumble Into Band Of Desert Arabs

YUMA, Ariz. (AP)— Thees' ees America?"

A small band of Mexicans, coming across the border illegally to look for farm work, were startled yesterday by 60 armed Hollywood horsemen in Arab costumes.

Assistant director Russ Saunders reported that the Warner Bros. unit was on location for a forthcoming desert film. The company was working in the dunes 16 miles from Yuma and only 500 yards from the border when the Mexicans stumbled on the turbaned and bearded riflemen, he said.

They turned and fled back across the border. A Spanish-speaking member of the cast heard one of the fleeing men yell: "The [illegible] was wrong! The [illegible] his skin."

Office Wolves Essential To Morale Of Working Forces

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK, May 8 (AP)—No history of the romance of our times is complete without a chapter on that romeo of the water cooler—the office wolf.

He is the Peck's Bad Boy of the business world, but no office would be complete without a wolf.

What is an office wolf? In pulp love tales he is luridly pictured as a prowling scoundrel evilly plotting to lead astray a poor but innocent working girl.

In fact, however, his teeth are less sharp than they are in fiction. Often, alas, his teeth are as false as his designs.

The average office wolf is as harmless as a tame skunk. He isn't really a wolf at all—he is just a mouse with great yearnings. Usually he is a married man with a wife at home who understands him only too thoroughly. That is why he paws his way around the office in the romantic hope of finding some girl who will be kind enough to misunderstand him a little. If there is anything a man can't stand, it is to be understood all the time.

One of the delusions of the office wolf is that his overtures to the hired girls are a guilty secret, known only to him. The truth is, of course, that every conversation in the privacy of the ladies' room starts off:

"Well, Mabel, what did Old Wolfie whisper to you this morning? Isn't he a perfect scream? He'll be the death of me yet—from laughing."

The girls get a big kick out of comparing the techniques the office wolf tries in his daily rounds. If he ever realized this, he would dwindle quickly into an office mouse. That would be too bad because, by and large, he does bring a sense of mild adventure and fun into the workaday routine.

I don't pretend to be an authority on office wolves. But girls I have consulted on the subject say they generally fall into three classes—bookkeepers, junior executives, and vice presidents. There is also the cub wolf. This is usually an office boy with a desperate case of puppy love for the boss's secretary.

"Bookkeepers want to take you to a horse race on their day off," said one girl. "Junior executives are careful wolves—they want to meet you for a cocktail after work at some out-of-the-way sidestreet bar.

"And vice presidents Well, they are the pinchers. You have to get out of their way. But I really feel sorry for vice presidents. They are such frustrated men. I guess they really lead lonely lives."

This young lady said the two standard feminine formulas for dealing with office wolves are the classic cold shoulder treatment or the play-dumb answer, "Gee, Mr. Jones, I don't get what you mean."

But there is a simpler and even more effective way of handling the more persistent type.

"Just meet him at the office cooler some morning and whisper to him that you love him desperately and can't live without him," she [illegible] "That will frighten any office [illegible] his skin."

That is the true measure of the breed. The office wolf visualizes himself as a gay Casonva going through life being endlessly fascinating. He may think he is searching for romance. But there is one thing he is sure he isn't looking for—and that is more responsibility.

But the wise boss will always be sure to hire at least one office wolf, purely as a morale factor. He keeps the girls amused. Women are always happier if there is a foolish man around for them to laugh at.

Sub Menace Is Navy Concern

TAIPEH, Formosa (AP)—America's Pacific Fleet commander indicated today his main concern, if the Korean War spreads, would be what Russia would do with her big Pacific fleet of submarines.

It "would be a threat if used offensively," Adm. Arthur W. Radford told a press conference.

In the event of such a general emergency, Radford envisaged close co-operation with British and French forces in the Pacific. He has conferred with Far East military commanders of both on a tour of The Philippines and Formosa. The area recently was transferred to his protective jurisdiction from Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway's Far East command.

Radford said protection of Formosa from a Chinese Communist invasion or a blockade of the Red China Coast would be no problem for the Pacific Fleet. He predicted Formosa soon would be impregnable.

If ordered to, the Pacific Fleet commander said, his forces could blockade the China Coast with "significant, long range effects."

"Speaking hypothetically, it is my opinion that a blockade (of Red China) would only be ordered in an effort to halt further Communist aggression—and then only as a part of the total action taken to halt it," he said.

Fights In Almost Every State Office Seen In Primary Race

By The Associated Press

Some stiff battles were promised today in a fattened Democratic primary ticket which only a week ago seemed destined to slimness.

Late filings before Monday midnight's deadline brought a prominent Wichita Falls attorney into the race for U. S. Senate against Atty. Gen. Price Daniel and Rep. Lindley Beckworth.

A San Antonio woman said her filing fee for a place in the governor's race was in the mail. Mail filings must be postmarked before Monday midnight and Mrs. Allene Traylor said her's was mailed in time.

The last-minute filings left three persons each in the races for U. S. Senate and Governor. But John Ben Shepperd of Gladewater was the only candidate for attorney general.

State Senator George O. Nokes Jr. of Corsicana, mentioned as a possible opponent of Shepperd, told the Associated Press Monday night he had decided not to run for office this year.

Ex-Judge For Senate

In an interview with Dave Cheavens of the Associated Press, E. W. Napier of Wichita Falls said he was in the race for Senate in all earnestness.

The former judge of the 78th District Court in answer to a question by Cheavens, said he had been thinking about running for the office for some time. "I was waiting to see if someone would come out with a program fitting my ideas and they did not," Napier said. "So I decided to drive down here and apply for a place on the ballot."

Napier, repute to have a lucrative law practice in Wichita Falls, told Cheavens he would put on a vigorous campaign for the seat and intended to make a "village-to-village" tour of the state in his quest for office.

In a formal statement, he continued:

"I am a loyal Democrat and a Liberal. I have gone along with the New Deal and the Fair Deal in domestic policies but have bitterly disapproved the foreign policies. I detest extravagance and corruption in government office and abhor war."

Explaining his use of the term "loyal Democrat," Napier said:

"I am a loyal Democrat as distinguished from the type of Democrat who will not take a pledge. I believe in the loyalty pledge and believe it should be kept."

He disclaimed any affiliation with the Loyal Democrats who are opposing the policies of Governor Allan Shivers.

Napier has a wife and three sons, Edward W. Napier Jr., Lubbock attorney, George L. Napier and Eugene Napier, both of Fort Worth. He is a native of Wichita County.

Another late filer was for Place 1, State Supreme Court. He is Associate Justice Frank P. Culver Jr. of the Second Court of Civil Appeals at Fort Worth. Culver's announcement left four candidates vying for that seat. The others are Glenn R. Lewis, San Angelo lawyer; A. R. Stout, Waxahachie lawyer; and Spurgeon Bell, Houston lawyer.

The complete list of candidates up to the midnight filing deadline included:

U. S. Senator:
Price Daniel, 41, attorney general, Austin.
Lindley Beckworth, 38, congressman, Gladewater.
E. W. Napier, 65, lawyer, Wichita Falls.

Governor:
Allan Shivers, 44, farmer, Austin.
Ralph Yarborough, 48, lawyer, Austin.

Congressman-at-Large:
Roy Selman, 53, farmer, Crockett.
John Lee Smith, 57, lawyer, Lubbock.
Martin Dies, 51, lawyer, Lufkin.
Herb C. Petry Jr., 34, lawyer, Carrizo Springs.
Phil Hamburger, city councilman, Houston.
Edwin O. Nimitz, 34, insurance agency, Orange.

Lieutenant governor:
Frank Hesbrook Morales, 51, funeral director, Austin.
Ben Ramsey, 48, lawyer, San Augustine.

Attorney general:
John Ben Shepperd, 36, lawyer, Gladewater.

Land commissioner:
Bascon Giles, 51, land commissioner, Austin.
Guy Patterson, 46, real estate and oil, Eastland.

Agriculture commissioner:
John C. White, 27, agriculture commissioner, Austin.
Walter McKay, 46, stock farmer and radio station owner, Fredericksburg.
Billy E. Beard, 34, farmer and rancher, College Station.

Supreme Court, Place 1:
Glenn R. Lewis, 49, lawyer, San Angelo.
A. R. Stout, 52, Lawyer, Waxahachie.
Spurgeon Bell, 44, lawyer, Houston.
Frank P. Culver Jr., assoc. justice, 2nd Court Civil Appeals, Fort Worth.

Supreme Court, Place 2:
Graham B. Smedley, associate justice, Supreme Court, Austin.

Supreme Court, Place 3:
W. St. John Garwood, 55, associate justice, Supreme Court, Austin.

Supdeme Court, Place 4:
Clyde E. Smith, 54, associate justice, Supreme Court, Woodville.

Railroad commissioner:
Olin Culberson, 65, railroad commissioner, Austin.
Joe Laird, 34, teacher, Houston.

Comptroller:
Robert S. Calvert, 59, comptroller, Austin.

Court of criminal appeals:
Jesse Owens, 57, district judge, Vernon.
Kenneth K. Woodley, 59, commissioner court of criminal appeals, Austin.

State treasurer:
Jesse James, 47, state treasurer, Austin.

These have asked for places on the ballot, but their applications at midnight, had not been accompanied by the necessary filing fees:

Cyclone Davis, Dallas, for lieutenant governor; Charles M. Dickson, San Antonio, for congressman-at-large; Cecil A. Lotiff, Rotan, lieutenant governor; Allene M. Traylor, San Antonio, governor.

Barley, believed to be one of the first cereals cultivated by man, is one of the most widely distributed grains in the world.

BEFORE THE ELECTION

U. S. Senators Estes Kefauver (left) of Tennessee and Richard Russell of Georgia, who opposed each other in the Democratic presidential preference primary election in Florida, argued over an entry in the Congressional Quarterly magazine during a television debate in Miami. The two candidates disagreed often during their TV appearance.

YOUR AUTO and YOUR HEALTH

How careful we are of our automobile! If it emits the slightest unusual noise, we drive to the nearest auto doctor — a garageman. And we take it to him regularly for lubrication, oil change and other servicing.

We are inclined to be much less careful of our bodies, even though we can never turn our body in for a new model.

It's a healthy, commonsense practice to go to a physician regularly for a physical check-up.

WHO GOT LAST WORD?

Mrs. Wilma Soss, president of the Federation of Women's Shareholder in American Business, Inc., and a U. S. Steel stockholder, clutches her glasses as she clashes verbally with Irving S. Olds, board chairman, during the annual meeting of stockholders in Hoboken, N. J. The meeting was boisterous with varying comments from the floor on the present steel situation.

Tolstoy's Home Preserved By Soviet People

MOSCOW (AP)—A group of us decided a week in advance to drive by car to the family estate of the great Russian writer, Leo Tolstoy, author of "War and Peace," at Yasnaya Polyana.

The group included Dutch, Italian and Thailand diplomats, this correspondent and various members of our families. The diplomats had notified the Ministry of Foreign Affairs 48 hours in advance they were making the trip, as the rules require. As a foreign correspondent, I obtained permission from the Press Department to make the trip.

We took three cars with Russian drivers for each. The road led south from Moscow on the new hard-surfaced highway that connects the Soviet capitol with the Crimea. But we were't going that far—only 125 miles.

At Podolsk, 25 miles south of Moscow, the people were getting ready for the May Day holiday. Thousands were on the streets, for it was Sunday and a "free day" for most of the workers. The scene was similar at Serpukhov, a big textile center farther along the road, but even livelier. It was a bright sunshiny day and the women were out in spring colors—bright reds, light blues, yellows, pinks and emerald greens.

The Tolstoy estate is about 10 miles south of Tula, capital of the Tula Oblast, a five-way rail center. The estate is remarkably like it was when he wrote "War and Peace." A tree-lined avenue leads from the gate to the main house—a white square structure with a spacious veranda around two sides and terraces facing east and south. Visitors—they run into the thousands each year—are asked to put on cloth slippers to protect the floors and stairways.

On the ground floor are the guest rooms and the vaulted room, which was Tolstoy's study in the 1880s, just about as he left them when he died in 1910. On the second floor is the library, where his works were copied and where a secretary answered the thousands of letters Tolstoy received. An ancient Remington typewriter still stands against one window and a bottle of Swann ink on a writing table in the center of the room.

A pathway through a beautiful birch forest leads to Tolstoy's grave. He asked there be no structures or ornaments on his grave. And there aren't. Green leaves from nearby cedars cover the grave itself and atop these is a carpet of some of spring's first wildflowers.

Japs Spread Trade

MANILA (AP) — Foreign Affairs Secretary Joaquin Elizalde said last night his office has received a request from Tokyo for the establishment of a Japanese government trading agency in Manila, pending Senate action on the Japanese Peace Treaty. The Philippines Cabinet will consider the proposal tomorrow.

Mine Safety Bill Is Put Through Senate

WASHINGTON (AP) — A federal mine safety bill with all the sharp teeth John L. Lewis has been asking for years has received the Senate's approval.

The bill, passed yesterday on a voice vote, now goes to the House, where a somewhat similar measure is already awaiting action.

The bill, steered through the Senate by Sen. Neely (D-WVa), gives the federal government power to enforce safety recommendations of the Bureau of Mines' inspectors. These inspectors now may merely make safety recommendations. Enforcement is left entirely with the states.

Laborites Claiming Big Election Victory

LONDON (AP)—The Labor party is maintaining its heavy winning streak in nation-wide town and rural council elections now in their fourth day. Balloting will last through Saturday.

Results of the voting for local council members will not affect the Conservative party's control of the House of Commons, but the swing toward Labor has resulted in increased Laborite agitation for new general elections.

The laborites last night claimed to have picked up 298 more council seats than they had held in England, Wales and Scotland.

Call Taft Win In Wyoming

CASPER, Wyo. (AP)—The battle for Wyoming's delegates to both national political conventions reaches the final decision next Monday with Taft forces claiming a distinct advantage among the Republicans and no clear trend established among Democrats.

Republicans name 12 delegates to the Chicago convention. An Associated Press survey in 20 of 23 Wyoming counties indicates supporters of Sen. Taft (R-Ohio) will hold a majority of the 796 delegates in the state convention.

It would be a major departure from Wyoming tradition, however, if the GOP delegation to Chicago is instructed.

After county results were tabulated, Frank Mockler, speaker in the State House of Representatives and leader of the Taft movement in Wyoming, said:

"Taft forces in Wyoming have won a clear majority of the delegates to the state convention. It is a clear indication that the sentiment in Wyoming is very strong in favor of Bob Taft."

There was no immediate counter claim from Eisenhower backers.

Eisenhower forces are fighting for state delegates still unpledged.

By Monday they may have enough strength to win a split delegation to Chicago, or at least to prevent any instruction.

Democrats have chosen 83 of the delegates to their state convention, which will name 10 delegates to Chicago. No county instructed and no party presidential aspirant appeared favored.

Contino Wants To Be Good Soldier Now

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Thirteen months ago Dick Contino fled Ft. Ord, Calif., later claiming he suffered from panic claustrophia — "I can't stand to be fenced in."

Today Pvt. Dick Contino reports at Ft. Ord for basic training.

The former $4,000-a-week accordionist, who served 4½ months in a federal prison for draft evasion, was inducted into the Army yesterday.

"I'd like to entertain troops," he said. "Show business is my life. But I'm going to do what they tell me. I simply want to be a good soldier."

A-1 Your Cooling System Needs Care!

Water freezes in winter, so your car needs Anti-Freeze. Some anti-freezes are harmful to the cooling system if left in too long, so they should be flushed out in spring, and even the softest water has impurities which can plug up and heat up your cooling system. This can be corrected by chemical means.
In fact, no matter what care your Ford needs we Ford dealers have the Genuine Ford Parts and methods to serve you best.
