

GLEAMING MEDALS FOR ACHIEVEMENTS -- Kay Givens holds the latest and most prized medal she earned for performances in girls' track events. The little gold charm signifies a mighty big win - the state 880 title in girls' Class A track. Displayed back of Kay are medals she has earned in her two years of competition and with her are the track shoes which Coach Buddy Ables promised "are yours to keep when you win state."

Class A track. Displayed back of Kay are medals she has earned in her two years of competition and with her are the track shoes which Coach Buddy Ables promised "are yours to keep when you win state."

Fillies Praised By Their Coach

OHS Fillies established themselves as competitors to be reckoned with in the school's second year in girls track. Climaxing what Coach Buddy Ables describes as an "almost unreal" season, was their performance at the State meet May 11 in Austin and the Class A state 880 run title.

"Just to be there, you've proven something, after all, only eight from the whole state make it there," he says. "And to win is really an achievement."

The '74 Fillies, as a group, garnered 28 trophies during the season. Competing in 10 meets, they captured eight team victories, one second place finish and came away with third place in their final meet, the big one in Austin.

"Probably we had the best team there (Austin) but it's real hard to go into state competition for the first time and not make some mistakes. We made some. The girls learned the hard way but it's something they won't forget," Ables says.

In only their second year as track competitors, the Fillies cinder stars notched two outstanding records -- first girls regional championship for the school and first girls state qualifiers.

Topping that was the victory Kay Givens posted in the 880 run. Carla Clark finished fourth in the 880. Donna Hodges placed sixth in the triple jump and Marla Faver seventh in the 60 yard dash. The 440 relay team, composed of Melanie Cowart, Sharon Porch and Misses Hodges and Faver, came in third.

(Editor's note: Our apologies to Carla Clark whose name and finish was omitted from last week's outline in the picture of Miss Givens.)

"As a whole," Ables says, "the team didn't get any more than they worked for. They were out there working four days a week, Mondays through Thursdays, long and hard."

Ables expressed assurance that a foot injury Miss Cowart received cost the team the state championship.

Car Dealership Offers Service, Many Selections Of Cars, Trucks

"Value in Tune with the Times," reads a sign in the window of Thompson Chevrolet Company, and values have truly fluctuated in the 19 years that Fred Thompson has been at the helm of his enterprising business.

"It's almost true, now," he chuckled, "that cars are cheaper by the pound than pinto beans...for the first time in the history of the automobile business."

And selections have changed with the times also. His customers had a choice of nine different cars when he opened the place, now there are close to a hundred variations. And in pick-ups, his early buyers had two options, today there are about 75.

Automatic transmissions, air-conditioning, power steering and power brakes were just getting started in general usage when Thompson entered the auto business. Each of these luxuries have become more commonplace by the year.

"American ingenuity and technical advances have brought the $600 air-conditioner of that day down to about $420, in spite of advancing costs on all fronts," he pointed out.

Arriving here, in 1955, from California, Thompson took over the corner lot at Main Street and Highway 70, vacated a bit earlier by Thompson Implement Company as they moved into new quarters a short distance east on Highway 70.

From a small 10' x 10' building and the open lot on the west end of the block, he established Olton's first Chevrolet agency. While selling the popular Chevys, pick-ups and trucks, he also directed the demolition of the then existing building and the construction of the present home of his establishment.

Using a small metal building as a shop, and with a limited supply of parts, he began to offer repair and other service to go along with sales. Five employees were adequate for the business of that day.

By 1956 the new building was completed. Fronting the north, the spacious showroom, then as now, furnished a 'show case' for a new and varied models of the Chevrolet family of cars, easily visible from both the highway and Main Street.

A service counter, about midway in the building forms a breakfront for the parts department. Here neat parallel rows of floor to ceiling shelves, divided into appropriate bins, are filled with myriad parts peculiar to the various models of the automobile. Over 10,000 part numbers are normally carried in stock.

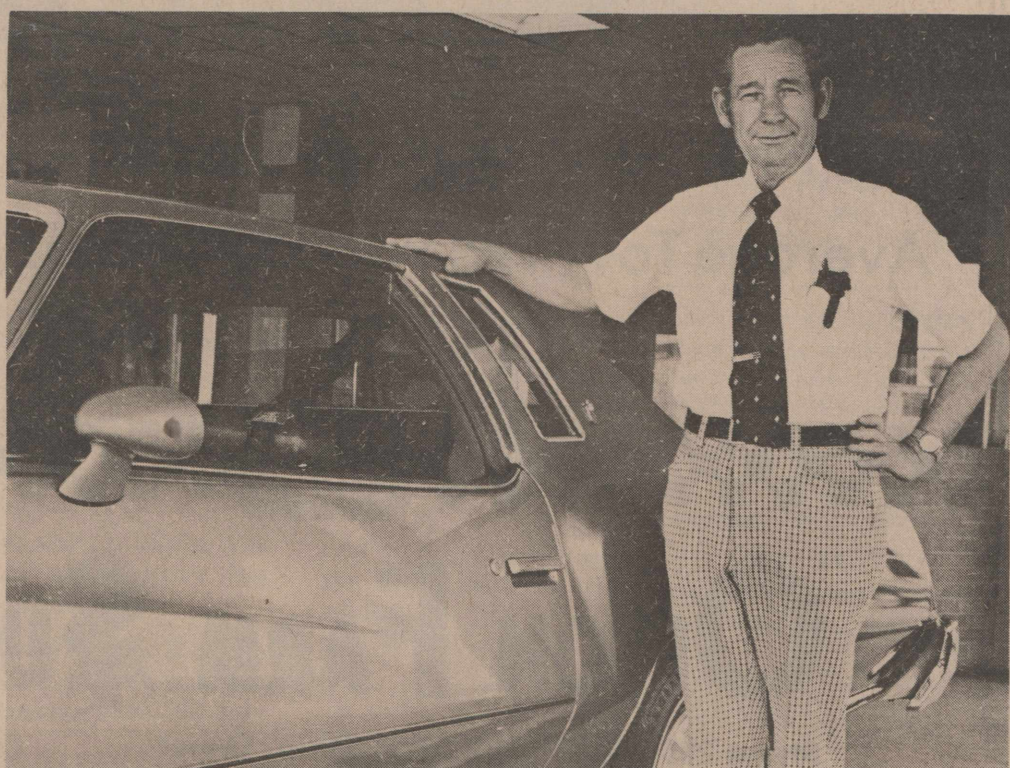

The complicated inventory of this stock of parts is automatically controlled. Weekly sales reports are sent to Dallas and replacement orders are promptly returned.

Even though the company carries thousands of "parts and parcels needed to repair the family car or the farm pick-up" it is impossible to have every part - for every model - subject to wear, tear and accident. Unusual requirements arise daily.

Thompson Chevrolet has a unique answer for these bothersome shortages. A Watts-line call to Dallas, and a 'memory bank' there (which automatically controls other dealers inventories also) can immediately tell Rate Increase Denied General Telephone Co.

Two meetings of City Council marked activities at City Hall this week.

Monday night, with all members present, the commission heard requests from Red Richardson and Roland McCullough, associated with General Telephone Company, for rate increases in city phone rates. The request was tabled for later action.

Expense allowances in the amount of $300 each were designated for volunteer fireman who attend school training sessions during the summer.

Appointed to the Board of Equalization were Bailey Hair, Clovis Poteet, Elmo Bryant with Lowell McGill and Burley Faver named as alternates.

At a second session of the council meeting Tuesday night, all members present, request for rate increase was denied General Telephone Company.

Civil Defense requests for equipment was tabled for later action.

Action taken on city water rates included increases in customer charges. Monthly water rate was increased 25 cents per month; customer trash hauling service was increased 50 cents per month; sewer service remains the same. Total charge for the month now stands at $12.50.

Water users, through meter service, were given a 15 % increase. Water use for public schools, paid by the year, will see a 15 % increase at next billing.

A purchase agreement was entered with Archie Sorley for a ten acre tract of land, contingent to the west side of Hillcrest Addition, said land to be preserved for a future well site.

Reporting on the progress of Town-Clean-up Campaign, announcement was made of the cooperation of junior high school students Friday, May 24, as they engage in a project of picking up cans, bottles and other trash on city premises during the hours of 1 to 3 p.m.

Monday Is Holiday

Monday, May 27, accepted as the national holiday for the observance of Memorial Day, is also named as one of the five holidays adopted by the local Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture as legal holidays for the city.

Two Teachers Resign Posts Reading Program Adopted

Members of the Olton Board of School Trustees in session Monday night accepted two resignations, approved one teacher and adopted a new reading program for beginning students.

Accepted were resignations of Allen Lomax, in public school music program, and Gene Gee, science teacher.

Extended a contract as choir teacher, elementary through high school, was Ricki Kendall. Graduate of Borger High School, she holds a degree from West Texas State University.

The Board approved the adoption of the "Right to Read Program." A new process in teaching in second and third grades, the program will involve Ray Kinnison, elementary principal, the teachers and parents of students enrolled.

Assistance will be given by members of Educational Service Center in Lubbock, and by surrounding schools.

Mrs. Daniel Rey was named to attend a Bi-Lingual institute to be held in Lubbock Aug. 5 to 9, to help implement the Bi-Lingual program approved in compliance with Amendment 3581, passed by the Legislature during last session.

The amendment requires that all school districts in Texas have this program if 20 or more children enrolled during the preceding year, had limited speaking ability in any language.

Olton schools will implement this program during the 1974-75 school year on the first grade level and continue until it is offered in each of the first six grades.

The native language will be taught first, with English as a second language until it is conquered.

Report of school attendance, presented by Supt. Joe Turner indicated that enrollment stood at 962, one more than last reported.

Also reported by Turner was the fact that the lunch room is still operating "in the black."

The Future Is Yours

Eagerly anticipated, that all-important milestone -- graduation -- arrives this week for 45 members of the Class of 1974.

Blue robed young men and women will walk across the stage Friday night to clasp, at last, the treasured symbol of the completion of their high school study. A warm handshake from Superintendent Joe Turner and they'll step into a future filled with hope and promise.

The future may bring both success and failure; happiness and sorrow. Tomorrow lies ahead, expectant, will all it might bring.

A measure of the wealth of Olton will wear those robes and clasp diplomas in the hands that will help hold the tomorrows of our town. It is our sincere wish that their tomorrows will be filled with the achievements of their goals.

Congratulations, Class of '74.

Accidents Injure 14 In County During April

The Texas Highway Patrol investigated 10 accidents on rural highways in Lamb County during the month of April, 1974, according to Sergeant Thurman Keffer, Highway Patrol supervisor of this area.

These crashes resulted in no persons killed and 14 persons injured.

The rural traffic accident summary for this county during the first four months of 1974 shows a total of 38 accidents resulting in one person killed and 26 persons injured.

The rural traffic accident summary for the 60 counties of the Lubbock Department of Public Safety Region for April, 1974, shows a total of 390 accidents resulting in 19 persons killed and 218 persons injured as compared to April, 1973, with 544 accidents resulting in 24 persons killed and 283 persons injured. This was 154 less accidents, five less killed, and 65 less injured in 1974 at the same period of time.

The 19 traffic deaths for the month of April, 1974, occurred in the following counties: three in Palo Pinto; two each in Moore, Terry, Wilbarger, and Lynn; and one each in Gray, Hutchinson, Randall, Swisher, Jack, Lynn, Stonewall, and Wise counties.

about the group as a whole was that their performances improved as the season progressed."

"From my personal standpoint, I think they're real commendable. I never gave them a workout schedule that they didn't do and always willingly."

Miss Givens, he says, "represents one of the finest, most easily coached girls I've ever worked with." The petite OHS junior suffered no handicap for her size in track competition.

"Kay had never run the 880 until the Roosevelt meet and she did it in 2:37. Her next run was in district and she won with 2:29.7. Her third time to run was in regional when she finished second behind Carla. The fourth time she ran she won state."

"Tremendous" was his description of Miss Givens' 2:21.1 performance.

The 880 runners, he explained, can't compile as many individual points as those competing in less strenuous events.

"They're real, real important even though they aren't getting as many points or medals. It doesn't take away anything from their talent."

"We competed in 10 meets and won the 880 every time. It was the only event we won every time," Ables said.

Ables also commended the Fillies' supporters. "We had about 75 people from Olton -- supporters, I mean -- in Austin and that's great. But we never went to a meet but what we had good support -- regardless of what kind of weather it might have been."

"I appreciate it," he said, "and the kids appreciate it, too."

The 1975 Fillies have the potential to be big winners, too, with just one of the 1974 competitors lost by graduation, Sharon Porch.

Cook Of The Week

All the tasks of a homemaker are sources of pleasure not drudgery for our Cook of the Week, Mrs. Guy Martin.

Louise says she loves to garden and then to can what she raises. "It looks so pretty," she says, explaining the satisfaction she gets from preserving vegetables and fruits.

Quilting is another home-making activity that Louise enjoys.

Parents of a daughter, Betty (Mrs. Ray) Lehman of Kress, the Martins are proud grandparents of a grandson, Rodney Keith.

Louise has been baby sitting for working mothers about eight years and has had about a dozen "honorary" children. Deeply attached to all her unofficially adopted children, she found it one of the most difficult things she'd faced when she recently lost one of her small charges when his parents moved away.

"I'd kept little five-year-old Kelon McAlister since he was a few weeks old and it was just like giving up my own," she says.

Everyone of her small charges is a pleasure, she says, and each is different. "I thought the sun rose and set with the first one I kept but I discovered that every one I've kept has their own special place."

Louise and Guy met at a party when they were living in East Texas near Sulphur Springs. They have lived here since 1951. Martin is a welder.

A member of the Church of the Nazarene, Louise has taught children's Sunday School classes and says she thinks she's about to have the opportunity to teach again.

where the needed part is stored. Thompson agrees this is "good service, but expensive." "But," he continues, "It is essential for any business in a small town, in order to give adequate service."

His son, Roger, is manager of the far flung parts department. He is ably assisted by Darrell Ogletree.

The vaulted ceiling of the western portion of the building covers the service department. High doors, amply wide for any vehicle, are plainly marked for service, brake and lubrication areas.

Overseeing this phase of operation is Bud Andrew, veteran of 16 years with the firm. He has served as service manager for 11 years. Assisting him are his brother, "Andy", (also in the department for 16 years), Louis Clark, Joe Chester, Lee Weathers, Thomas Sanchez and Donnie Irwin.

Everything, from minor tune-ups to major overhaul jobs, can be and is handled by this staff of mechanics as they endeavor to keep Olton's cars, trucks and well motors running in top shape.

Shiny new models and handsome OK used cars fill the sales lot to the west of the building. Trucks and pick-ups are parked across the street, inviting buyers. Car-truck sales are handled by Marcus Messer and Robert Edwards.

In central location in the main building, and easily accessible to all departments, is the island-office of the accounting department. Here office manager, Mrs. Leah Muller, is assisted by Miss Carla Moses in keeping records and accounts current for the many facets of the business.

When asked about the recent clamor for small cars and "teeny-gas-burners" brought about by the energy crunch, Thompson stated that he felt that 'it is dying down.' "In fact," he said, "I think I see a big trend in the other direction. Of course, prices will be higher, but due to forced changes in lifestyle, owners will be driving less, cars will probably be used longer." But, the American practice of a new car every year, then abandoning it, is a terrific waste of our raw materials."

When queried about other difficulties of present day operations, he mentioned that they do have some problems with parts and deliveries are much slower now. "A few years ago we could deliver a truck in thirty days, now it takes about a year."

Thompson, who was Olton's Man of the Year in 1971, is a native of Abernathy. He was a student at Texas Tech when his call came to enter the armed forces. Joining the U.S. Air Force, he spent three years in the Pacific theatre as a fighter pilot. Having been awarded the Silver Star and Distinguished Flying Cross he completed his tour of duty as a youthful major.

In 1945 he married the former Miss Laverna Magrاند of Bend, Oregon. He was later graduated from the University of California at Berkley with a degree in civil engineering.

In this field he became Assistant Highway Commissioner of Alameda County in California. With a desire to enter private business for himself, and hearing through friends that Olton needed a Chevrolet agency, he flew to Oklahoma City to investigate possibilities. There he made his decision that led to the move to Olton.

Since making this his home, Thompson has been very active in civic affairs. He has served several terms on the Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors and was a member of the original committee for the Olton Recreation Center, he has also served two terms on the City Council. He presently heads the Olton Medical Foundation.

Members of St. Mark's Episcopal Church of Plainview, Mr. and Mrs. Thompson are parents of two children, both are graduates of Olton High School and Texas Tech University.

A daughter, Pat, is now Mrs. Larry Boedecker. She, with her husband and two and a half year old daughter, Shannon, lives in the Dallas area.

Roger, as before mentioned is associated with his father in business. He was married recently to Miss Mary McGuire of Lubbock. She is presently employed with Olton State Bank.

In summing up his business venture with automobiles, Thompson states, "Basically this has been good to us over the years, and we are looking forward to many more."

MRS. KENNETH ANDREW SJOGREN

Sjogren-Sammann Vows Solemnized In Plainview

In a candle light ceremony held in St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Plainview, Saturday, May 18, Miss Charlotte Kay Sammamm and Kenneth Andrew Sjogren pledged nuptial vows. The Rev. Luther J. Durkop, pastor of Trinity Lutheran Church officiated.

The bride is daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B.F. Sammamm of Plainview. Sjogren is son of Mr. and Mrs. C.S. Sjogren of Kress, and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Nafzger.

The double ring ceremony was performed before an altar centered with an arrangement of pink gladioli, white mums and pompons. Flanking brass candleabras were fitted with white cathedral tapers and entwined with garlands of greenery. Tropical palms formed the background. White wrought iron candleabras fitted with votive candles and entwined with tropical foliage were used as decor at the front of the lecturn and pulpit.

A memory cake, lighted by the bride and groom at the conclusion of the ceremony, was included in the altar area. The bridal aisle was marked by votive lights and garlands of greenery with gypsophila.

Mrs. Robert Schoppa presented selected wedding music and accompanied Miss Pam Brandes, Lockney, soloist.

Presented in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal length gown of white organza over bridal taffeta, designed with empire bodice, portrait neckline and large Juliet sleeves. Clury lace traced rows over the bodice and onto the skirt. The Clury lace bands were intermingled with rows of Venice lace flowers, with similar treatment repeated on the sleeves.

Ruffles of lace fell over the hands and outlined a front panel effect on the skirt. The softly gathered skirt fell to a ruffled lace hemline and swept to back Fulness, ending in a chapel train.

A veil of imported Belgian princess lace, held in place by a lace coif, extended from under the lace mantilla to a full cathedral length.

The bridal bouquet was a cascade arrangement of pink sweetheart roses and gypso-phila showered with white satin love knots. The bride presented her mother with a pink long stemmed rose before the ceremony and a similar rose to the mother of the groom as she left the altar.

For "something old" the bride wore her grandmother's engagement ring. "New" were diamond earrings, gift of the groom, and "borrowed" were two coins minted in the years of birth of both bride and groom. Bridal traditions were completed by the addition of a touch of "blue," gift of Mrs. S.E. Coleman. A diamond necklace, also gift of the groom, completed the bridal attire.

Attending as maid of honor was Miss Tonya Caddel, Plainview. Bridesmaids were Misses Diane Palmer, Nancy Schoppa, both of Plainview, and Kathy Sjogren, sister of the groom.

Feminine attendants wore formal length gowns of petal pink dotted Swiss styled with Empire waistlines and A-line skirts. Square cut necklines were ruffled across the shoulders with Venice lace edged dotted Swiss achieving a "pinfore look."

Wide sweetheart bows and streamers centered the back of the dresses. Wearing petal pink horsehair picture hats accented with narrow petal pink grosgrain ribbon bands and streamers, they carried white baskets filled with pink and white daisies.

Miss Jana Nafzger of Olton was flower girl. Wearing a formal length gown of white dotted Swiss, styled along the lines of the bridal attendants, she wore a hot pink satin bow as a headpiece and carried a basket filled with pink daisies and tied in pink velvet ribbons.

Carl Sjogren served as his brother's best man. Groomsmen were Tim Nix of Earth, David Duncan of Roscoe and Johnny Moldenhauer of Lubbock. Guests were seated by Alfred Sammamm, Dimmitt, and Jay Sturm, Abertnathy, who also served as candlelighters, and Gayland Goddard, Nolan Bontke both of Plainview.

A reception was held in Lutheran Parish Hall honoring the couple. Miss Pam Monk, Fort Worth, cousin of the bride, presided at the guest registry table covered with a pink dotted Swiss cloth with an overlay of white lace. The memory candle, used in the ceremony, highlighted the table. Miss Rhonda Coleman presided at the gift table.

Laid with a white linen cloth overlaid with white net, the bride's table was centered with a silver and crystal epergne holding pink carnations, white pixeys, rose and gypsophila. A traditional tiered wedding cake and reception punch were served using crystal and silver appointments. Presiding at the table were Misses Debby Beville, Gruver, and Miss Janice Maxwell.

The groom's table was laid with an ecru cloth, cross stitched in brown and edged in brown lace, made by the groom's mother. The table featured a hurricane lamp with crystal globes filled with tropical foliage. Chocolate cake and coffee were served by Mrs. David Duncan of Roscoe and Mrs. Tim Nix of Earth.

Music was provided during the reception hour by Miss Karen Schoppa. Members of the houseparty included Mmes. Tom Davis, Elmer Koenning, Henry Hooper, Vincent Brittain and Robert Schoppa, all of Plainview.

For a wedding trip to Red River and points of interest in New Mexico the bride chose a blue and white checked knit suit, white picture hat and white accessories. Upon their return they will make their home south of Olton.

Rehearsal dinner Friday evening at the Alcove Restaurant was hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Sjogren, parents of the groom.

The bride was a 1972 graduate of Plainview High School. She is a junior biology major at West Texas State University, where she is a member of Delta Zeta Sorority and was named to the Dean's list.

MRS. KENNETH PAUL ROCHEN

Roehen-May Wedding Vows Solemnized Saturday Evening

Miss Marlana May and Kenneth Paul Roehen pledged wedding vows in a candlelight ceremony Saturday evening in the First Baptist Church.

The Rev. John E. Lewis, pastor, officiated the twin ring ceremony before an altar set with a flared candle arrangement with purple and lavender asters accented with baby's breath flanked by spiral candlesticks with huckleberry foliage and tapers of lavender and purple. A kneeling bench completed the nuptial setting.

Parents of the couple are Archie May and the late Elfa Lou May and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence C. Roehen of Pecos.

Jenny Lynn Gunter, organist, presented nuptial selections and accompanied Marlos May, brother of the bride, as he sang "Never My Love," "Whither Thou Goest," "Twelfth of Never" and "Wedding Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of white bridal satin faced with silk organza. Fashioned with natural waistline and full skirt, the bodice featured a stand-up collar edged with lace and large puffed sleeves with wide cuffs trimmed in lace. Small flower appliques of Venice lace, enhanced with seed pearls, adorned the gown.

Venise lace flowerettes edged the satin headpiece which held her three-tiered veil of illusion. Matching lace encircled the veil which swept cathedral length. She carried a tapered bouquet of white Frenched carnations with purple and lavender asters.

She wore a ruby ring which had belonged to her grandmother, the late Mrs. H.E. Akin, for "something old" and "borrowed" perfume, "L'Air du Tempe" from Jenny Lynn Gunter.

Ida May Powers of Plainview, former OHS choir director, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Brenda Roehen of San Antonio, sister of the groom, and Melita May, sister of the bride.

They wore formal gowns fashioned with princess seamed skirts of lavender crepe back satin encircled with deep ruffles at the hemline. Their Empire bodices were designed of pale lavender organza flocked with tiny floral designs of multi-pastels with puff sleeves and shaped necklines encircled with self ruffles. They carried tapered bouquets of purple and lavender asters and baby's breath centered with a purple wedding taper.

David Winholt of Texas Tech University was best man. Groomsmen were Marlos May and Evan Molan of Lubbock.

The groom wore white tux-tails with velvet lapels, black vest and white ruffled shirt with bow tie. He wore a boutonniere of Frenched carnations and baby's breath. Candles were lighted, except for the two at each end of the central arrangement, by Dan Geppert of Fort Worth and Zack Whitely of Dumas, brother-in-law of the groom.

Following the exchange of vows, the couple lighted the two remaining tapers in the central arrangement.

For her son's wedding, Mrs. Roehen chose a formal gown of yellow with white and gold accessories.

A reception was held in fellowship hall of the church. The bride's table was laid with a white dotted Swiss cloth and centered with the attendants' bouquets. The traditional three-tiered wedding cake was decorated with hearts, bells, flowers and the names of the bride and groom. Atop the cake were two tiny doves perched wedding bells, holding a wedding band.

Cake and purple ice punch were served by Mrs. Resa Newton of Abertnathy, Mrs. Jane Geppert of Fort Worth, Mrs. Bettye Molan of Lubbock and Rebecca Hodges.

For a wedding trip to Carlsbad, N.M., the bride chose a pants suit ensemble featuring a turquoise and white seersucker crepe long sleeved jacket, accented with large white buttons, a white turtle necked body suit with bright yellow shell and turquoise pants styled with high waist and flare legs. She wore white leather accessories and a corsage lighted from the bridal bouquet.

The couple will be at home after May 28 at Apartment 103, 229 Indiana, Lubbock.

A Special Memorial Day Tribute To Our Departed Loved Ones

*It singeth low in every heart,
We hear it each and all,--
A song of those who answer not,
However we may call;
They throng the silence of the breast,
We see them as of yore,--
The kind, the brave, the true, the sweet,
Who walk with us no more.*

Summer Cheese Dip

"Cheese" It has been said, "complements a good meal and supplements a bad one." This cheese dip is perfect for summer meals because its cheeses have been seasoned specially to contrast and enhance the crisp, fresh vegetables of summer. The "secrets" are Worcestershire sauce, minced onion and a dash of lemon juice.

The original Worcestershire sauce itself has a completely appetizing aroma and flavor, for in it are combined more than a dozen natural products from as many parts of the world. Keep the bottle handy; it's good in everything except dessert. For instance, the English love to add a dash of tomato juice which might go along with this dip.

SUMMER CHEESE DIP

2 cups (1 pint) creamed cottage cheese
1 cup (4 oz.) shredded Cheddar cheese
1/2 cup finely chopped onion
1/2 cup dairy sour cream
2 teaspoons original Worcestershire sauce
1 teaspoon lemon juice
1/4 teaspoon salt

In a mixing bowl combine cheeses and onion. Blend sour cream with Worcestershire sauce, lemon juice and salt. Add to cheese mixture; blend. Garnish with parsley sprig, if desired. Serve as dip for assorted vegetables. Yield: 3 cups.

MRS. ROY RAIFFORD DANIEL III

Daniel-Dear Vows Pledged In Candlelight Ceremony

In a candlelight ceremony Friday, May 17, in United Methodist Church of Earth, Miss Karen Ann Dear of Springlake and Roy Raiford Daniel III of Earth were united in marriage. Officiating was the Rev. Charles Dunnam, pastor of the church.

The bride is daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J.W. Dear of Springlake. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Raiford Daniel Jr., of Earth, are parents of the groom.

Mrs. Bob Belew, organist, presented traditional wedding selections and accompanied Wayne Anderson, as he sang "More", "The Twelfth of Never" and "Wedding Prayer."

Against a background of greenery, multi-branch candelabras stood in the altar area. Fitted with yellow cathedral tapers, they were entwined with greenery and tied with yellow satin bows. Yellow candles, encircled with daisies and greenery, burned in each of the church windows.

Presented in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal length wedding gown handcrafted by Mrs. Daniel, mother of the groom.

Fashioned along Empire lines with an A-line skirt, the gown of white slipper satin was overlaid with rose lace. The standup collar terminated at the V-neckline in a row of miniature pearl buttons down the bodice front. The buttons were repeated to close the tight-fitting cuffs of the long full sleeves.

Carrying a "blue" handkerchief, "borrowed" from Mrs. Calvin Dozier, the bride also carried a cascading bridal bouquet atop a white Bible which was given to her at birth. As "something old" her grandmother's wedding ring was tied into the streamers of white satin.

Miss Janet Britton of Levelland served as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Misses Darla Dear, sister of the bride, and Kay Russell of Floydada.

Feminine attendants wore carpet length gowns of yellow and white checked gingham designed along Empire lines. Each carried a long stemmed yellow rose. Serving as best man was Greg Slover of Earth. Clifford Daniel, brother of the groom, and Chris Brock were groomsmen. Candlelighters were Jodie Daniel, sister of the groom, and Michael Smith, both of Earth. Ringbearer was Albert Daniel, brother of the groom. Little Audra Neinstast served as flower girl.

Following the ceremony a reception in Fellowship Hall of the church honored the couple. The refreshment table, centered with a floral arrangement, featured a three tiered wedding cake iced in white and touched with yellow.

For a wedding trip to Carlsbad, N.M., the bride selected a yellow and white three piece pant suit.

The bride, graduate of Springlake-Earth High School is a student at South Plains College in Levelland, studying as a medical secretary.

Daniel, also a Springlake-Earth graduate, received an associate degree this month from South Plains College and is currently employed with White's Auto in that city.

CLEANING CAN BE FUN if you have a bunch of buddies to help with the chore. This seems to be the attitude of the junior high students who pitched in to help out in the cleaning of the city during a city wide clean up campaign now in progress. The youngsters picked up trash Friday afternoon in different parts of the city and the city trash trucks hauled away the spoils.

Out of Balance

The average American will spend two hours and thirty-eight minutes of an average eight-hour work day this year earning the money to pay his taxes. He will spend one hour and twenty-four minutes to provide for housing and one hour and one minute to pay for the food he must eat. Mr. Average will spend twenty-five minutes to earn clothing money and thirty-eight minutes for transportation; twenty-three minutes for medical care and nineteen minutes for recreation, with twelve minutes left for the miscellaneous. Congressman H.R. Gross of Iowa says: "There is something mighty wrong with a society in which more of a man's time is taken up in paying taxes than for any other single item."

Mrs. Ottis Neal Patterson Achieves 'First' Honor

Leslie Holladay Patterson presented a research paper earlier this year to the Instructional Communication Division of the International Communication Association (ICA) Convention in New Orleans, La.

A graduate student of Stephen F. Austin State College, Mrs. Patterson was the first communication graduate student to present a paper to a national convention. Papers were competitively judged and selection of her paper, said Dr. W.G. Powers, assistant professor of communications at SFA, "exemplifies a quality piece of scholarship."

Mrs. Patterson's paper investigated the effects of the traditional and learner input approaches to education in student comprehension and attitude toward learning task. (Traditional approach utilizes the teacher-classroom method and learner input approach to education provides behavior objectives, alternate learner activities and self-pacing opportunities.)

The paper validated some of the concepts in use in education today, in particular, learner input, Mrs. Patterson says.

"There is a lot of noise today for innovations in schools, but none of these have been validated," she says.

Results from her research tests indicated that the learner input approach to education was as effective as the traditional method, but within the limits of her experiment, was not more effective.

Mrs. Patterson concluded from her findings that if current trends in education are towards learner decision making, then researchers need to look more closely at them by experimentally validating these methods.

"The paper was extremely successful. There was a favorable reaction from the convention members to experimentally testing teaching methodology, rather than the typical analysis," Dr. Powers said.

PLEASURE

"Dear Mr. Swaim, are pleasures sinful or are they legitimate? Someone recently remarked that everything enjoyable is either too expensive, fattening or sinful."

No, pleasures are not necessarily sinful in themselves. They are sinful if they injure, our Christian lives and testimony in some way or keep us from growing spiritually, but God wants us to be happy, he wants us to enjoy life. God is the one who "giveth us richly all things to enjoy." [1 Timothy 6:17]. When Christ says deny yourself, the meaning is to deny one's ego, and to deny one those things which are, obviously, harmful to the body and to the soul.

Christians, I am convinced, are the happiest people in the world. They have a peace of mind, a joy and a security no one else can possibly know. Anything we have to give up as a Christian is replaced with something of far greater value. "But what things were gained to me, those things I counted loss for Christ. Yea doubtless, and I counted all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord..." [Philippians 3:7-8]. Jesus promises us an abundant life right here on this earth. There are many legitimate pleasures and joys we can know, but true pleasure can only be found after one has established a meaningful relationship with Jesus.

For a Biblical and confidential answer to your question, write Larry Swaim, 985 Ponce de Leon Avenue, NE, Atlanta, Georgia 30306.

Sugar, Spice, And Sage

By Jan Sherman

Hail to the seniors!! Seniors '74! Graduating from kindergarten, elementary school, junior high, high school, or college. Now have I left out anyone? Ah yes, dog obedience school. There! With certificate in hand we begin to prepare ourselves for many things. First thing we'll hear are all the many speeches about what we're about to launch out into. Scarey! Most important thing we want people to know, though, is that we are certainly very mature in all things. Many of you probably are. This, unfortunately does not particularly come upon graduation from anything, but rather with age. It's a tricky thing - maturity, because I have known some very old immature folks and some very young smarties. Herewith I submit an article on maturity. Pin it to the back of your mind.

MATURITY IS MANY THINGS

First, it's the ability to base a judgement on the Big picture-the Long Haul. It means being able to pass up the fun-for-the-minute and select the course of action which will pay off later. One of the characteristics of infancy is the "I want it NOW" approach. Grown up people are able to wait.

Maturity is the ability to stick with a project or situation until it is finished. The adult who is constantly changing jobs, changing friends - and changing mates - is immature. He can't stick with a situation because he is not grown up. Everything seems to "Turn Sour" after a while.

Maturity is the ability to face unpleasantness, frustration, discomfort and defeat without complaint or collapse. The mature person knows he can't have everything his own way. Nobody wins 'em all. He is able to defer to circumstances to other people - and to time.

Maturity is the ability to do whatever is expected of you, and this means being dependable and reliable. It means keeping your word. And bound in with dependability is personal integrity. Do you mean what you say - and do you say what you mean? Responsibility for self action and others.

The adult world is filled with people who can't be counted on. They never seem to come through in the clutches. They break promises and substitute alibis for performance. They show up late, or not at all. They are confused and disorganized. Their lives are a maze of unfinished business. Such behavior suggests a lack of self-discipline, which is a large part of maturity.

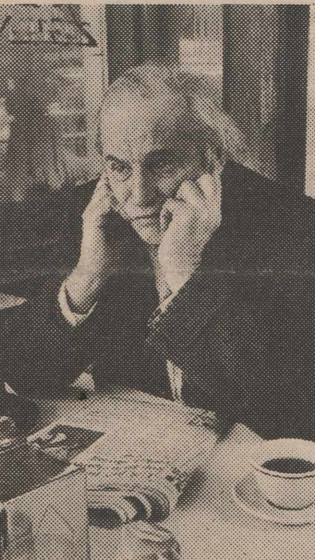

Maturity is the ability to make a decision, and then stick with it, riding out whatever storms may follow. This requires clear thinking, backed with the courage to stand by your position, once you've taken it.

Immature people spend a lifetime exploring possibilities and then do nothing. Action requires courage. And courage means maturity.

Maturity is the ability to harness your abilities and your energies and do more than is expected of you. The mature person refuses to settle for mediocrity. He would rather aim high and miss the mark than aim low and make it.

So there you have one man's opinion of maturity. By George, I think he's got it!

Why should you join the Payroll Savings Plan now? Maybe you'll find out later.

The future can be too late for saving. So if you want security, you'd better start today.

The Payroll Savings Plan makes it easy. Because an amount you choose is automatically set aside from each paycheck to buy U.S. Savings Bonds. That way, your savings build, year after year.

So start today. Because tomorrow, today will be yesterday.

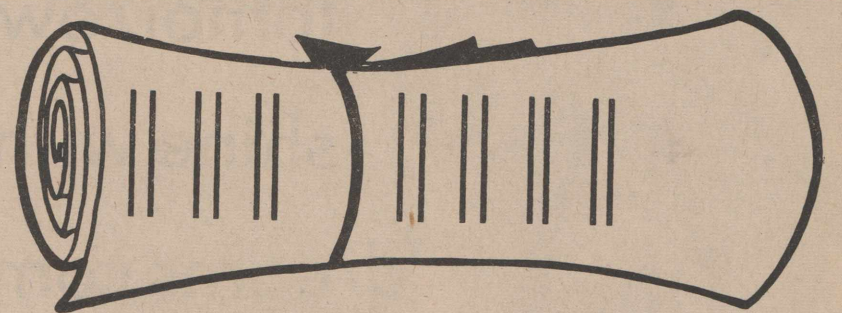

Now E Bonds pay 6% interest when held to maturity of 5 years (4 1/2% the first year). Bonds are replaced if lost, stolen or destroyed. When needed, they can be cashed at your bank. Interest is not subject to state or local income taxes, and federal tax may be deferred until redemption.

future...

Commencement is but the first step toward a full and challenging life for the Seniors, but with their past record of success, we confidently predict they'll set an enviable mark for those who follow them.

Best Wishes to The Seniors!

OLTON MOTOR MACHINE

Write In The Groove

BRYAN ALLCORN AND FREDDY STOCKDALE

Well, parents you say you've seen it all. You've seen a World War, a man land on the moon, a crisis in Washington, and you've seen America's youth looking for something different or meaningful. You've seen them in their fast cars, motor cycles, and their long hair, each one looking to see what the future has in store for them. But, and we repeat, but, have you ever seen 250 kids, (Olton's own youth), representing the classes of '74, '75, '76, and '77, reach into the past and pull out sunglasses, (Shades) bobby socks, pony tails, grease, and dropouts? If you were anywhere within the vicinity of OHS or the city park last Friday, you witnessed one of the best times any OHS student has had while he or she has been in school.

For one day, the world slowed down a little bit as we took a look, or peek, into the "good ole fifties." Depending on their sex, either everybody put on red lipstick or slicked their hair back into a ducktail.

The day really got off to a good start first period when the band set the mood by playing such classics as "Shake, Rattle, and Roll", "Goodnight Irene," and ever-popular "Rock Around the Clock". Dancing was furnished by Tinner's and Apodaca's Beep-Beep-Boppers, Inc.

After fourth period, everyone "kept on trucking" down to the park for a picnic lunch and a few little contests. The first contest was passing the Lifesaver with a toothpick which was won by the "lightning-lipped" seniors. Next came the car stuffing contest which was captured by Jan's (B.O.) Juniors. The third test of skill was the funniest relay we ever saw. The way it works is you sprint about fifteen yards, run around a bat five times, then you drunkenly try to make your way back to your line and throw up. You figure it out. The Juniors pulled out a squeaker over the Sophomores. Moving right along, we come to the egg pitching contest. You and your partner stand about five yards apart and one tosses a rotten egg to the other. If, by some miracle, he happens to catch it without the egg breaking, then they are awarded with five more yards for them to step farther apart and try it again. (You figure it out.) This is really a great sport! It sends chills down your spine to two human bodies struggling against the force of nature, such as the wind and gravitational force. There's just an overwhelming flow of adrenalin in your body when you watch one competitor toss the egg into the air with all the skill and grace of Joe Namath in the process of making a pass. (Take it anyway you like!). Then the egg, disgustingly rotten of course, soaring through the air like a bear. Then the receiver of the toss concentrating his eyes on the egg and straining every muscle in his so-called body to catch it. The toss. The catch. The receiver smiles because he has the egg safely in his hands. But then he suddenly turns pale. He OPENS his hand to find not an egg, but "Eggs Benedict"! Apple bobbing and a pie eating contest followed. Last but not least on the agenda was the "tug-of-war". Out-numbered nearly 25,000 to 1 by the Freshman and the Sophomores, the Juniors and the Seniors lost their preliminary matches. Then came the finals. The finals of the coveted "T-O-W" Champion of OHS Sophomore vs. Freshmen. Freshman vs. Sophomores. Tunney vs. Dempsey. Ali vs. Frazier. Texas vs. Arkansas. A.J. Foyt vs. Al Unser. Mutt vs. Jeff. Who will do it? Well, as fate would have it, the ROPE won!!! The two classes were pulling as hard as they could against each other when the rope decided he was sick of it all and broke in half. "Whack!" Talk about the Great Divide! They separated faster than Sonny and Cher. See what all you missed Parents!

The Junior High and Elementary are not without their glory. Saturday, they had their annual Bike-Hike-Rock-a-Thon to raise money for the Hospital Fund. Not to be outdone, Ferd and Byron got into the act by running the 30-mile course. Alright!!! (so we walked a little bit, big deal!) By the way guys, Pay Up.

Other events that took place this week were:

1. Monday's Student Council meeting. There it was announced that a petition to "relax" the hair code a little bit was in the process of going through the principal and superintendent's offices, before it goes to the school board. Also, the subject of open campus was brought up, and we were asked to pass along the word that no water balloons or water guns be used around town. If something like this happens, this privilege will be taken away.

2. The Speech Club held their annual banquet Tuesday night at the Hayloft Dinner Theatre. They enjoyed a play called "Boeing, Boeing" which starred Nancy Kulp.

3. On Wednesday, there was the Awards Assembly, also known as "Stan and Relda's Goodtime Hour."

If Motorcycles Were Bigger Than...

Well, bigger than motorcycles. Because when you're in your car, you aren't always used to looking for bikes and cycles. If motorcycles were bigger than your car, maybe you'd notice them.

The trouble is, there are a lot of people who depend upon motorcycles for transportation. Their safety . . . and yours . . . depends upon your being alert enough behind the wheel to notice them before it's too late.
