Over 2,000 Expected At MHS Open House Sunday

MHS Senior Class To Present Comedy

The Senior Class of Memphis High School will present the comedy "Gramercy Ghost" by John Cecil Holm on March 16 and 18 at 8 p. m. in the new Memphis High School Auditorium. It was announced this week.

Members of the Senior Class said "Gramercy Ghost" is one of the most unusual plays ever presented at the high school. They extend a cordial invitation to everyone to come see the play.

Reserve seat tickets are $1.00; general admission 75 cents and children under 12 years of age, 50 cents. Persons may secure reserve seat tickets by contacting Cris Campbell or Mary Ann Lemons. Phone 259-2881 or 259-2256.

The play opens when Margaret Collins (played by Mary Ann Lemons) who is the servant of Amelia Bullock, is willed a house and $5,000 a year by her former employer. In the same will Miss Willard (played by Cris Campbell) a codicil named Nathaniel Coombes, Nancy and her fiancée, Parker Burnett, (played by Randy Driver) are mystified because it seems no one knows who or what Nathaniel Coombes is.

Charley Stewart (played by Larry Gaston), a newspaper reporter, comes to the house to do an article on the late Miss Bullock. While Charles is gone to get the ginger ale for Nancy, Nathaniel Coombes (played by David Rose) appears. It is learned that he is the ghost of a soldier killed in the Revolutionary War and is doomed to stay at the spot where he was killed because of an undelivered message. The spot where he was killed was the house of Amelia Bullock.

From then on the story gets complicated by the fact that Nancy is the only one that can see Nathaniel and two other ghosts (played by Bobby Carroll and Sport Weddel) who come to take Nathaniel up to heaven.

City Council Tues. Passes Ordinance Governing 'Quitting Business Sales'

The Memphis City Council passed an ordinance and handled several items of public importance at the regular March session Tuesday night.

The council discussed at great length the advisability of adopting building codes for the City of Memphis. Chief topic of discussion was the National Building, Plumbing and Electrical Code.

After the discussion, the council instructed City Attorney Robert Montgomery to meet with local plumbers to discuss with them the probability of future adoption of a plumbing code for Memphis.

The Council opened bids at the meeting and accepted the low bid of $5,750 from Carpenter Equipment Co. of Amarillo, for an Allis-Chalmers motor grader.

Mayor H. J. Howell, reported to the council that the Memphis Fire Department has purchased a new fire siren which will be erected in the northwest portion of the city between 16th and 17th streets. There has long been a need for a siren in this portion of the city, as many times, fire siren and tornado alert siren signals are not heard by residents.

Over 2,000 persons are expected to tour the new facilities of Memphis High School Sunday afternoon during Open House and formal dedication of the new building, school officials announced this week.

"Since our auditorium can only seat about 800 persons, those interested in attending the dedication should arrive early if they want a seat," a spokesman for the school said.

The afternoon's activities begin at 2 p. m. with a 30-minute concert by the Memphis Cyclone Band, under direction of Darryl Phillips.

State Senator Jack Hightower of the 30th Senatorial District, will deliver the dedicatory address. Senator Hightower is a former Memphian and his mother, Mrs. W. T. Hightower, is a local resident. The senator is a graduate of Memphis High School.

Supt. A. E. Greer will give remarks concerning the building. L. J. Kennon, president of the board, will make the formal presentation of the building, with appropriate appreciation remarks being made by Gerry Knight, president of the Student Council, Hubert Dennis, an ex-student, and Principal C. E. Voyles.

Tickets Still Available For Style Show Fri.

A few tickets are still available to the Atlatenean Club Style Show and dinner which will be held Friday night at 7 p. m. in the Community Center, Mrs. L. C. Martin, who is in charge of ticket sales, announced today.

Persons who desire tickets are requested to call Mrs. Martin, Mrs. W. C. Dickey or Mrs. H. J. Howell at West Texas Utilities Company, downtown.

In addition to the models and firms listed last week in the Democrat, several others have been added this week. Mrs. Mary Lee Fields will present three models in the show. They are Jane Dunbar, Laynette Spicer and Karyn Smith. The M & M Shop will also have models in the show. Macchelle and Tonya Tucker will show children's dresses from that shop and Miss Susan Sturdevant will model spring hats.

The style show presented each year by the Atlatenean Club, is one of the highlights of the Easter season in Memphis, and this year's social will be no exception.

"Pearls of Hues" is the theme for the show. A delicious meal, cooked by members of the club, will be served preceding the fashion show.

Good Start Seen In Church Campaign

The city-wide church and Bible attendance campaign got underway last Sunday, according to reports from pastors and ministers Tuesday afternoon. Most of the churches showed a marked increase in attendance over the previous week.

The seven churches participating in the campaign had a total attendance of 1144.

To add a little enthusiasm to the campaign, the Ministerial Association had a short parade last Sunday afternoon. The parade, composed of a Memphis fire truck, several cars, decorated with flowers and signs, assembled on the Community Center parking lot.

It was led by Police Chief W. T. Tucker and followed up by County Sheriff Elmer Neel. The parade passed through the downtown section twice and circled through the residential area.

The participating churches reported Monday on individual attendance. The Assembly of God Church had 62; First Christian had 76; First Methodist had 200; Church of Christ had 165; Travis Baptist had 224; First Presbyterian had 35; and First Baptist recorded 382.

The churches are attempting to increase week-by-week, aiming for a goal of 1,500 on Easter Sunday, it was announced.

Rev. Tom Posey, speaking for the local ministers, said, "To my knowledge, this is the first such city-wide emphasis in the history of Memphis. I think the people of Memphis are becoming aware of its negligence in Bible study and worship."

The campaign is entering its second week and is the desire of each church that every citizen in Memphis attend faithfully his or her own church.

Texas Public Schools Week

The Texas Public School system, established 113 years ago, has been a rich training ground for the youth which has helped make our nation great in the fields of government, art, science and technology. In the White House, in museums, in the oil fields and now in outer space, Texas Public School graduates have pioneered new frontiers for the nation and the world.

Since this is Texas Annual Public Schools week, we have cause to examine this Texas tradition. In recent years, there has been a school house revolution as Texas educators experiment with flexible new methods and educational techniques but the basic premise remains the same; that a nation's future strength depends on the trained potential of its youngest citizens.

This is a year of critical issues and crucial decisions in education. It is important that we, as parents and voting citizens, acquire an understanding of what the schools are trying to achieve and the methods used pursuant to this goal. It is no longer enough for Johnny to learn to read—he must learn how to apply his rational powers to new kinds of situations. In short, the parent, the school, the child form an important education triangle based on mutual understanding.

We can fulfill our obligation in this educational triangle by being an active participant in Texas Annual Public Schools week.

Here in Memphis, we, as citizens, have a special obligation this year. We should attend the Open House and Dedication of the new high school building from 2 p. m. until 5 p. m. Sunday afternoon, March 12.

It is appropriate and fitting that the open house ceremonies for the new high school building should be observed during the observation of Public Schools Week. During this special week, parents receive a complete understanding of the education process by attending actual classrooms of their children. It is a rewarding experience to see our schools in action.

Parents of Junior High Students in Memphis should especially be happy with the move made into the old high school building, out of the old junior high building. The building now housing the junior high is a vast improvement and allows many additional facilities, such as a junior high gymnasium, junior high band hall, and facilities for vocational training for both boys and girls, as well as auditorium, science, and visual aid rooms.

When we visit our schools we are helping in the development of better education by understanding and cooperation. This is why we have Public Schools Week.

Indoor days offer the do-it-yourselfer time for taking care of the many "little things" that need doing about the home or workshop. Whether it's a major project like building a new den or rumpus room, or some small task such as replacing a weak board, painting or refinishing a favorite piece of furniture, it's good to know that you can get not only materials but helpful advice from local merchants. You can get lots of good advice and helpful suggestions from your local retailer. What Other Editors Say

Daylight Saving Time

If you have any firm ideas about Daylight Savings Time for Texas this summer, you'd better get your two cents worth in with your State Representatives pretty quick now. Personally, we are "again" it on general principles, but we're not going to loose any sleep over it.

In this section of Texas, however, where we're pretty close to being in the Mountain Zone anyway, we've got more daylight that we really need anyhow... and setting the clocks back an hour to postpone sundown isn't the smartest thing in the world. In July and August when the temperature starts hitting the sizzling century mark every day, most folks are pretty happy to see the sun go down and wouldn't object if it happened a little sooner instead of an hour later.

If they make the days any longer, some of us are going to be leaving a broad track in the dust before they're over.

The sorriest argument we've heard in favor of Daylight Saving Time for Texas is the one from the TV networks, who warn that all summer programs will be on Daylight Saving Time whether we go along or not and "prime time" shows will be hitting us in midafternoon if we drag our heels on the Daylight Deal. If the prime time shows are no better this summer than in previous years, that won't be a very bitter pill to swallow.—The Canadian Record.

About Getting Folks To Beat A Path To Your Own Doorway

Advertising has come under attack recently from many fronts: from Federal egg-heads, from disgruntled consumers, from college economists. The attacks have become so vicious, we feel obligated to answer some of their charges and malicious statements. First, advertising is the prime mover of America's economy. It informs the public of new products, new services, new improvements. Much of our wealth and comfort is attributable to advertising. Without it, the demand for goods would slow up, competition would wither and new products would sit on the shelf until they became dust-covered.

We hear that advertising is a donation. This makes us do a slow burn, for nothing is further from the truth. Advertising gets results. If it didn't, America's largest companies wouldn't pour millions of dollars into advertising each year. These companies are operated by hard-headed businessmen, who look carefully at their expenditures. They advertise because it gets results. They advertise their new products, their improvements, their special features. In return, they stimulate the interest that brings the potential buyer into the marketplace.

Do you think for a minute that

No Fuss or Bother,
 Just Drive Up and Holler!

Blum's Drive Inn

General Motors or Ford advertise just to be making donations? Not on your life; they plug away every week to keep up interest in their products. Within recent memory, one of the best engineered and designed cars was the Tucker. Earlier, motorists like the Pierce-Arrow, the Stutz, the Marmon and others whose names have vanished.

Before World War I, Fairy Soap was the largest seller on the American market. Demand became so great for Fairy Soap that the manufacturers dropped their huge advertising program with an eye to making a bigger profit. They figured Fairy Soap was so well known it would carry itself. They were wrong.

Other far-sighted manufacturers stepped in with appealing advertising campaigns and took over the market. Fairy Soap today lies in the graveyard alongside the Gold Dust Twins, Saint Jacob's Oil, Melon's Baby Food, Dolly Varden Chocolates, Omar Cigarettes, Maxwell automobiles and many others that died a natural economic death due to lack of advertising.

You might build, or sell the world's best mouse trap. But if no one knows about it, that path to your door will be covered with weeds and your mouse traps will rot in your storeroom.

And you should best advertise your mouse trap regularly. For the guy that wasn't in the market today, just might find a mouse in his house tomorrow... That's the reason the biggest companies advertise continually. They never know when folks are going to be in the market for a car, or a refrigerator, or another carton of soft drinks.—Morton Tribune.

Once nematodes get at your cotton, yields go down and so do profits. But with FUMAZONE® 86 soil fumigant applied at only 1 to 2 gallons overall an acre, you can take care of root-knot, sting, meadow and other nematodes—those microscopic, worm-like soil pests that attack plant roots, suck away profits. FUMAZONE 86 soil fumigant increases yields up to 1/2 bale an acre. Many High Plains farmers just like yourself tell us that's exactly what happened to their yields after their soils were treated with FUMAZONE 86. It can be applied right from the drum. No mixing, no diluting, no nozzles clogged with foreign material. You can use the chisel method, the plowsole method or inject FUMAZONE 86 into your irrigation water. Could you ask for greater flexibility? Sure you could. So here it is. Apply FUMAZONE 86 before planting, at planting or after planting. It's the only type of soil fumigant that can be used on living plants. Ask your Dow farm chemicals supplier about it. ## Farmers Union Local Organized in Turkey Area

Recently farmers in the Turkey area organized the Hall County—Turkey Farmers Union Local, and the date have over 60 members. The announcement was made early this week by Elmer Lacy, president of the Local, who stated, "We hope to contact more farmers and ranchers as soon as possible."

Pres. Lacy listed the following facts about Farmers Union: Farmers Union is influential; it puts in direct contact with the people high in national and state government who can get us better farm prices and make the present programs work in our interest.

Mr. U. is farmer controlled. Its members are producers, and it doesn't have to listen to buyers, processors or other non-farmers in writing its program. Farmers in writing its program. Mr. U. is constructive: It guided the Cotton Research and Promotion Program through the Congress so farmers could vote on this important program. It is a positive organization and works with other producer groups.

Mr. U. is outspoken: It speaks against unfair administrative rulings that cut prices, and process unfairness in grading and classing. It has opposed government sales of stocks in competition with farmers.

Mr. U. involves its members: It has and will continue to sponsor Washington "Fly-In" trips for its members to enable them to present grass roots views on local problems. A cotton "Fly-In" will be held April 4 through 6.

Mr. U. hope there will be some Hall County farmers participating in this Lacy stated.

All the above makes Farmers Union a great, fighting force for farmers, and it deserves the membership and support of more people who make their living farming," Lacy added.

Section 7. Declaring an Emergency.

Focus of attention in our community is on the dedication and opening of the new High School Building here next Sunday. It is scheduled for 2:30 p. m. and those who like the kind of music Memphis' fine High School Band can render will be in the auditorium before 2 o'clock. The program is well-planned, and a former student, Jack Hightower, will give the dedicatory address. This is a should be, but the adults have not visited the new educational facility will have an eye-when they tour the building after the program is ended. They will see one of the finest educational plants to be found here. As they tour the building, the impression will be made that here is the place where boys and girls will receive their education in this community, in a place where every child has been provided for. To get the knowledge which teachers can give. Pre-arrangements are that a huge crowd will be at the new building Sunday afternoon.

Another important gathering is held at the Community Center next Thursday night when the rural people who own and the Hall County Electric Co. hold their annual session. The barbecue dinner at 6 p. m. starts the evening, followed by entertainment and a full program. Just watch our rural roads pack the Community Center for this annual event.

Marion O. Thompson (I call him "Brother") along with a few other people in this city is reported to be doing well after undergoing eye surgery at St. Anthony's Hospital in Dallas. Here may think we have hospitals mixed up—but Ed-Eddie Foxhall (brother) is a patient in St. Claude John's. Seems he was scheduled to enter Northwest Texas Hospital. His sister, Martha, had room reserved there as well as a room across the street at a hotel. Then she learned that they were taking eye surgery patients to Northwest. So, Edwin had to change hospitals. He is in Room 503 for those of you who would like to send him a card or call him.

Have just read in a trade journal the fact that we move in our sleep an average of every 15 minutes. Since I weigh 175 pounds, and change position four times an hour, I am moving 700 pounds an hour. After spending eight hours in bed, I have moved 5,600 pounds. So, that's the reason I'm so tired every morning.

According to information we have received, all proceeds from this year's Style Show, sponsored by the Atalantean Club, will be donated to Friends of the Library Chapter. The Friends is a new organization in Memphis. Their goal is a long-range program to improve Carnegie Library. Tickets are $2.50, and a few are still available. The delicious home-cooked food the club serves is worth the admission price—and I know. Don't forget that there are door prizes, a beautiful style show—in addition to the food. The show is Friday night.

A friend recently wrote these words: The only thing a man can be paid for is what he produces. After this wise thought, we read further, and saw this: "Whether a person prizes health or wealth most highly depends on which he doesn't have. Now re-read the above."

The Minnesota Newspaper Association recently published the following under the title, "Rules for Newspaper Writers":

1. Don't use no double negative.
  2. Make each pronoun agree with their antecedent.
  3. Join clauses good, like a conjunction should.
  4. About them sentence fragments.
  5. When dangling, watch your participles.
  6. Verbs has to agree with their subjects.
  7. Just between you and I, case is important too.
  8. Don't write run-on sentences they are hard to read.
  9. Don't use commas, which aren't necessary.
  10. Try to not ever split infinitives.
  11. Its important to use your apostrophe's correctly.
  12. Proofread your writing to see if you any words out.
  13. Correct spelling is essential.

Social Security Helps Replace Lost Id. Cards

If you lose your Medicare identification card, the social security office will help you secure a replacement, according to Travis C. Briggs, district manager of the Amarillo social security office.

Briggs said that his office would need to know your full name, your claim number if you have it, birth date, and mailing address.

Hospitals need the card to verify that a patient is enrolled in the Medicare program and to use in requesting payment from Medicare for their services to the patient.

No one should delay in securing needed medical attention because their card is lost or misplaced, as the hospitals can secure the claim number from the social security office in an emergency.

The Amarillo social security office is located at 1006 S. Adams, telephone DRake 6-5151, and is open Monday through Friday from 8:15 a. m. until 4:30 p. m. Thursday evenings the office is open until 7:30 p. m.

Local Troops To Observe Girl Scout Week March 12-18; Activities Planned

The week of March 12-18, 1967 marks the 55th Anniversary of Girl Scouting in the United States. The Girl Scout program began in 1912 when Juliette Gordon Low, the founder of Girl Scouting in America, gathered together a troop of 12 girls. From this number, this force has grown to more than three million Girl Scouts and two-thirds million adults, volunteers and professionals.

Special activities are planned in Memphis to commemorate the birthday of Girl Scouting. Each of the five troops has been busy preparing for this week. Brownie Troop No. 101, leaders Mrs. Robert Proctor, Jr., Mrs. Esibel Chavez and Mrs. Billy Lockhart will attend the Travis Baptist Church; Junior Troop No. 77 and leader Mrs. Billy J. Talley, will attend the Church of Christ; Junior Troop No. 184 with leader Mrs. W. H. Dean and Mrs. Ronald Wilson will attend the First Baptist Church; Junior Troop No. 185 with leaders Mrs. Chas Chambliss and Mrs. G. D. Hall will attend the Assembly of God Church, and Cadette Troop No. 80 and leader, Mrs. Elmont Branigan will attend the First Methodist Church on Girl Scout Sunday, March 12, 1967. Neighborhood Chairman, Mrs. Kenneth Bachman will accompany Troop No. 77.

Citizenship Day of Girl Scout Week is Tuesday, March 14. On this day special Flag Ceremonies are planned at the various schools. All students in the schools are urged to participate in paying tribute to the importance of being citizens in the United States of America.

The eighth annual Girl Scout Cookie Sale will begin Monday, March 13 and continue through March 24. Through this sale troops are able to make money for their troop treasuries, to help raise the money for building their own establishment camp and to help with the 1967 camping program. The Scouts are offering a variety of assorted cookies, vanilla butter flavor, cookie mints, chocoroon and butter-nut roundup cookies which sell for 50 cents per box. Each troop retains $1.20 per carton of the amount of cookies sold.

The climax of Girl Scout Week will be the annual Father-Daughter Banquet to be held at the Community Center on Friday, March 17. The Scouts and their leaders plan the banquet with the assistance of the Committee Mothers. The program will include all the troops and special invitations have been sent out to the fathers and adults who have been active in the Scouting program during the past year.

An all-out effort is being made to make this week an eventful one which will include Girl Scouting in as many events as possible. Troop No. 184 will place a display in the window of Branigan Jewelry during this week. The community of Memphis is proud of the number of girls Scouting serves here and the local support is appreciated by the adults working with Scouting as well as by the girls active in the five local troops.

Henry Gregory Attends Session On Watersheds

Henry Gregory, work unit conservationist of the Soil Conservation Service, serving the Hall County SWCD, returned Tuesday from Stephenville, Tex., where he participated in two days of in-service training concerning watershed development.

He attended a field review of watersheds at Grandbury, Tex., Monday, and Tuesday he toured the Bosque Watershed, near Stephenville.

The Bosque Watershed has been approved for construction at an approximate cost of $3.5 million, and will contain about 28 structures, he reported.

Gregory said that he requested permission to attend this in-service training so that he could familiarize himself with procedures for the Lakeview Watershed project and require before final approval was given by the Soil Conservation Service at the national level in Washington.

Our next step following the completion of the survey work will be to complete a watershed management plan, which the sponsors must complete within the next few months, as the survey will be completed this month," Gregory said.

"I feel the in-service training will help me give better assistance to the sponsors of the Lakeview Watershed in drawing up the management plan," he said.

Hall Farmers Petition Washington To Be In Federal Crop Ins. Program

About 200 Hall County farmers have sent a petition to Sen. Ralph Yarborough asking inclusion in the Federal Crop Insurance Program, John Moore, on the staff of the Amarillo Daily News, reported Wednesday.

Calling this an expression of "overwhelming interest," the Senator forwarded the petition Tuesday to John Luft, manager of the program, with a request for favorable consideration, the news release stated.

In his letter, Sen. Yarborough reminded Luft that when he (Luft) appeared before the Senate appropriations committee last year he stated that when new counties are being selected for the program, preference is given to those showing strong interest.

Yarborough also recalled that Luft had promised to do all he could to bring Texas participation in the Crop Insurance Program up to the national average of 50 per cent of all counties. In Texas, only 25 per cent of the counties are included.

Agriculture is extremely important in Texas, with more people earning a living in this industry than any other, Sen. Yarborough added.

A spokesman for the senator said the petition will enable Luft to start collecting actual data and other material used in evaluating a county's eligibility for the program.

gas broiling. The flame inside eats up the smoke. And you broil with the broiler door closed with gas. Your kitchen stays cooler and cleaner. See the modern, automatic, economical gas ranges now on sale at gas appliance dealers and LONE STAR GAS.

Turkey Seniors To Be Among 80,000 Tested By Governor's Committee

About 80,000 High School Seniors of Texas will have a chance this spring to take a parting critical shot at their school and their teachers, and they may be making a constructive contribution to the future of education when they do it.

Among the 80,000 will be seniors of Turkey High School, for that school system is the only one in Hall County which has been selected as a sample school district for the Governor's Committee on Public School Education.

This chance will be provided by the Governor's Committee on Public School Education which has contracted for tests in April to measure what the students have learned and how well they can use what they have learned. The results will be related to a massive data-gathering project to produce the best picture ever assembled of a statewide educational system. Committee Chairman Leon Jaworski, Houston attorney, says.

Appointed by Gov. John Connally a year ago, the Committee is to submit by Sept. 1, 1968, a long-range plan designed to make Texas a national leader in public education.

The opportunity for the student to evaluate his school and his instructors through answering a questionnaire along with the test is unique in the senior testing field. Most tests for seniors are designed primarily to show the student's college ability. The tests which will be administered by the nationally known American College Testing Service for the Public School Education Committee will be broader in scope and offer the advantage of being free, in lieu of the usual cost of approximately $4.50. They will be given to all seniors in the 296 High Schools within the 128 school districts chosen as the base sample, not just to those believed to have college ability.

The tests may offer the student with high potential, who could not afford to go to college, a chance to continue his education with a special scholarship. Results from the test will be used to assist this student in contacting agencies offering such scholarships.

Another unique aspect and advantage of the test is that it will provide information to help evaluate and improve Texas Public School education. There will be no effort to make individual, personal comparisons. The privacy of each individual will be protected as he merges into groupings which will form the basis for comparisons.

No comparisons of individual schools or school districts by name will be published by the Governor's Committee. But the individual school system will receive a unique benefit from the test in that the results will be returned to the district for its own use in evaluating programs and improving counseling services.

Now the tests are in the final stages of preparation, and 80,000 seniors, who have been told what to do for 12 years by teachers, are going to have a chance to "talk back" constructively and, perhaps, influence future drastic changes in the Texas school system.

Supt. Greer Is Interviewed On Accreditation

Superintendent of Schools A. E. Greer, in an interview Wednesday afternoon, gave his impressions of the Texas Education Agency's accreditation team inspection of the local school district.

Visiting the local district Wednesday were three employees of the Texas Education Agency, Mrs. Irene Westmoreland of Austin, Miss Werna Harrison of Austin, and John Reidener of Lubbock.

The purpose of the inspection is to see if the local district meets TEA requirements, it was pointed out.

"The team will send us a written report about their findings as soon as it can be drafted," Supt. Greer said. "The inspectors do make certain vocal observations throughout their visit, and these are usually included in the written report."

The Memphis superintendent said the team was very complimentary of the new High School facilities and pointed out the need for additional equipment as the only criticism.

"They didn't have a lot to say about the Elementary Schools except to point out the need for further training aids in certain classes."

"We were expecting to receive a lot of criticism about the Junior High School plant for we have not been able to do all that needs to be done there yet; and the team wasn't very complimentary about what they saw," Supt. Greer said.

The need for better lighting, improved facilities for physical education, not enough electives on
