PASTURE MENACE—Grub worms, working beneath the surface, are causing extensive damage to pasture land southeast of Perryton. Tom Penn, left, and county agent Hood Willis are inspecting a patch about postcard size that produced more than 16 of the worms. Virb Conley first noticed the damage to his pasture about three weeks ago, and now there are dead spots of grass all over it.

Common Grub Worms Destroy Pasture Land In County

If it's not one thing, it's another. Greenbugs and cutworms stripped Ochiltree county wheat fields for the past two years, but until lately, the pasture land has been doing fine. Now there are grub worms destroying the pasture land.

Virb Conley, who ranches southeast of town above Wolf Creek, noticed some dead spots in the pasture about three weeks ago and when the spots appeared to be growing larger, investigated and found swarms of the fat, white grub worms eating everything under the surface.

County Agent Hood Willis took a number of the worms to Lubbock last week when he went to the 4-H Club meeting, and Texas Tech entomologists identified them as the worm that produces the common variety of brown beetle known as the "June Bug."

The worms eat not only the grass roots, killing the rich pasture, but also kill tough quinine weeds and all other vegetation.

An examination last Friday disclosed that a patch of ground

Over Inch of Rain Received This Week

Rains on Saturday, Sunday and Tuesday nights brought the total moisture for the Perryton area this week to 1.05 inches. On Saturday night, .17 inch fell; another .87 inch came Sunday night; and .01 inch fell Tuesday night, according to the official gauge measured by H. T. Cutter. The rains are delaying planting of grain sorghums, although the moisture is of great benefit to those fields which were planted early.

Rural Telephone Outlook Is Brighter After Meetings With Phone Companies

Cooperative To Take Over Rural Areas

The way has been paved for rural telephone progress by the North Plains Telephone Cooperative in a five county area as a result of two meetings this week with telephone company officials.

Both the Southwestern Bell, serving Canadian and Gruver, and the Southwestern Associated serving Spearman, Perryton and Booker, have agreed to certain defined areas around each town they serve, leaving the way clear for the cooperative to service the rural areas.

A general agreement was made to leave 1 1/2 miles around each town to the companies, since they have existing facilities in that area.

Both company's spokesmen stated that their companies did not have, at this time, any rural telephone development scheduled. There have been no funds set up for rural lines, and no program made.

The North Plains Telephone Cooperative is now waging a membership drive, seeking at least 200 more applications for rural telephone service. There have been 300 applications filed in the area.

Dan Archer, attorney for the cooperative, said that an application for a RTA loan has been in Washington for nearly 10 months and that it appears that

Herald Publisher Is Canadian Guest On Annual Ontario Tour

Herald publisher Van W. Stewart left Tuesday for Windsor, Ontario, to join a group of 25 American newspaper men in the eighth annual Ontario Tour, sponsored by the Canadian government.

Each year the Ontario government plays host to a group of American newspaper editors and publishers and the participants are selected by various state press associations, from weekly or daily newspapers.

The 1951 invitation was extended to one representative from each of the 25 states selected. The tour starts on June 14 and ends on June 24.

The western group assembles at Windsor and the eastern group will meet at Buffalo, New York. Both groups will be flown to Toronto, arriving at the Malton airport together and then on down town for the official welcome from the Ontario government.

The major part of the tour will be made in chartered motor coach, with rail, water and air transportation utilized when necessary. Overnight stops will be made in Toronto, Bigwin Inn, Kirkland Lake, Ottawa, Brockville, Lindsay and Niagara Falls. The tour will cover about 2,000 miles of the Ontario Province from the fruit belt in the south to the great gold producing areas of the north. Opportunities for various sports and fishing will be given.

All expenses of the tour are handled by the Ontario government.

A complete photographic record will be presented each member of the tour and in addition a color motion picture of the entire tour will be provided on a loan basis. Stewart said that he would secure the film as quickly as possible and have it available for civic clubs, if they desire.

The Herald publisher is the first Texas publisher to attend the tour, according to the Minister of Department and Travel of Ontario. He was president of the Texas Press Association last year, and is now chairman of the executive committee of the TPA.

MAP RURAL PHONE AREA—Representatives of the North Plains Telephone Cooperative and the Southwestern Associated Telephone Co. are shown above mapping out areas each is to serve in giving rural service in this area. At the meeting, held Tuesday, it was decided that the company would continue to serve rural patrons in an area approximately two miles around Perryton, Booker and Spearman. Shown above, left to right, are James Davis, district manager, and William H. Thomson, Dallas, of the Southwestern Associated; Ira Harbour, NPTC director; Dan Archer, NPTC attorney; and Coy McDonald, A&L Division, REA, Lubbock.

Plenty of Beef Found in Local Markets, But Supply May Dwindle, Butchers Say

For the present, at least, Perryton housewives have a wide choice of beef from well-stocked market cases, a Herald survey this week reveals. This is in sharp contrast to the beef situation in other places, particularly cities, where there is practically none to be had.

All of the local meat market operators contacted this week said they have plenty of beef now, but that the supply will get more scarce later on. Most of the beef sold in Perryton is supplied through local slaughtering, and it is the large packing houses that are out of beef.

Those that depend on packing houses have been cut down drastically on their meat supply.

One reason there is plenty of beef is that there is not nearly so much of it being sold. Without exception, local markets reported that when beef took the big rise in January, before OPS sales slumped in a hurry.

Every market in Perryton is selling beef below the OPS ceiling price, and only a few meat cases have cuts marked up to the OPS ceiling. With the slump in beef sales, Perryton customers are turning more to poultry and pork, both items being in plentiful supply.

The market operators had the following comments to make on regarding the beef situation:

Ray Stranske, Ideal: "We have plenty of beef now, but they say we will have less later on. We don't sell as much beef as we did, because it went too high in January. The working man can't afford the high priced cuts, and usually buys the cheaper cuts, along with poultry and pork."

Carter Burkhardt, Bryan's: "We have been fortunate in keeping plenty of beef on hand, buying it all locally. If the local supply is cut off, we will be hurt, because we don't have any quota from the packing houses. The high prices, even though well below OPS ceiling, has hurt beef sales. We sell lots of pork, poultry, lunch meat, etc."

Bob Drake, Best Way: "We get our meat from a packing house and so far, have had no trouble in getting all we need. When beef took the big rise in January, our sales dropped off, like every other market. We are selling below the OPS ceiling, but the price is still too high for lots of customers. Our pork, poultry, cured ham, sausage and other types of meat picked up when the beef sales dropped off."

Tom Slack, Slack's Market: "We have plenty of beef, and also have a large enough slaughterer's quota to supply our customers. If we can get the beef locally, the way the OPS has it set up, a butcher can't make anything killing local beef and grading it and selling it according to the OPS. For that reason, we haven't come anywhere near our beef quota yet. Our beef sales dropped off in January, anyway, when beef took the big rise."

Clyde Snyder, Townsend's: "We have plenty of beef on

Golf Tourney Is Scheduled For June 24

The first Invitational Golf Tournament for Perryton in many years will be held at the local course on Sunday, June 24. If the weather is good, approximately 130 golfers are expected.

Attractive trophies have been secured for the winner, runner-up, and consolation winner in each of the five flights. These trophies will be put on display next week by the Perryton Country Club, Inc., sponsor of the tournament.

Golfers are expected from Hooker, Buffalo, Shattuck, Booker, Guymon, Liberal, Hugoton, Borger, and many other towns in this area, plus practically every player in Perryton.

The entry fee has been set at $2, and play will get under way at 7 o'clock Sunday morning.

The winner of the championship flight will be determined by medal score in three rounds of play. For the other four flights, the first and second rounds will be match play, and the winners will be decided on the low score in medal play for the third round.

The public has been invited to watch the tournament. The final rounds will be played on Sunday afternoon.

It's Against the Law To Burn Up Autobahns

By RICHARD K. O'MALLEY

FRANKFURT—The days when Allied personnel could go careening down West Germany's autobahns without getting a ticket are gone.

White patrol cars of the U. S. military police make careless driving and speeding just as much a hazard for the driver as traffic police at home.

Hitler's superhighways—four lanes of smooth pavement—have always been a temptation to drivers with heavy feet. But America's highway patrol in Germany is putting on the heat.

During 1950 highway patrolmen drove 2,437,000 miles, enough for five trips to the moon. That means patrols were out for 160,000 hours on 19,700 separate patrols, which spells disaster for the traffic law violator.

The patrolmen handed out tickets to 29,350 violators, and of these 13,950 were charged with speeding.

Their activities are not confined to American or Allied personnel—24,500 German drivers got tickets, 11,140 charged with driving too fast.

But the mobile military policemen are not confined to holding down traffic violations. During the past year they arrested 1,730 Allied civilians and soldiers for offenses other than traffic violations, and they took in more than 3,000 Germans.

In order to see that dangerously equipped automobiles don't get on the road, they made 3,400 spot road checks.

The highway patrol boys were on their toes in the problem of stolen automobiles, too. Statistics show that they recovered approximately $133,000 worth of stolen cars and $11,500 worth of other private property. They also confiscated $119,800 worth of illegally operated automobiles and $6,400 worth of contraband.

BINDWEED—This is bindweed, the plant that has choked out thousands of acres of rich Ochiltree county wheat land and which is now spreading at an alarming rate. The plant puts down tap roots from 18 to 30 feet and lateral roots to 60 feet, and it is a long, hard process to kill it.

SUCCESSFUL KILL—This spot in a field owned by Horace Glasgow, about 14 miles southeast of Perryton, was once a solid mass of bindweed. By working constantly on it since 1945, Glasgow finally has it killed. He used the intensive cultivation and spraying method. Shown above are county agent Hood Willis and Paul Loffin of the Herald staff.

GOOD RESULTS—To keep bindweed from spreading into fields, wheat growers have had to try and kill the weed in the bar ditches. Here Vernon Schultz, north of Huntton, has applied heavy doses of Borascu along the ditch adjoining his field and has achieved good results.

PARTIAL KILL—This plot of bindweed ground has been killed by applications of Borascu, a form of Borax, which leaves the ground sterile for about six years. This plot is on Vernon Schultz farm north of Huntton. Schultz has sprayed a carload of Borascu on his land.

STERILE GROUND—This plot of ground will be sterile for about six years, but has no bindweed on it after applications of Borascu by Vernon Schultz. Borascu is being used more instead of salt, since the cost of application is about the same, and salt leaves the ground sterile for about 25 years.

An acute shortage of sheep-herders is said to be a major factor in the decline of wool and lamb production of the United States.

Mrs. Guy Widmer, Carlisle, N. M., visited here a few days, enroute to St. Louis, Mo., to be with her daughter, Mrs. B. J. Bolin, who is seriously ill.

Sheriff and Mrs. Ray Phagan left Monday for San Antonio, where he will attend the annual convention of the Texas Sheriff's Association.

Bindweed Spreading to Thousands of Acres Of Wheat Land; 145 Farmers Fighting It

In addition to the insect problem, wheat growers of this area are faced with a constant fight to preserve their land from bindweed, a plant that has taken several thousand acres of wheat land out of cultivation in the past few years in Ochiltree county.

Bindweed first became a menace only a few years ago, but now county agent Hood Willis estimated that there are 5,000 acres of land infested with it in this county now.

Bindweed spreads rapidly, apparently needs no water, and because of its deep root system, is extremely hard to kill, even with modern sprays. The fastest way is to kill the land along with the bindweed through the use of salt or Borascu.

It takes 22 tons of salt per acre to kill the weed, and it takes 16 pounds of Borascu per square rod.

It can be killed by the intensive cultivation and spraying method, but this takes longer. By plowing the bindweed every two weeks and spraying in between plowings, it can be eventually killed. There are 145 farmers in the county now engaged in the fight against bindweed, which gives an indication of how serious the weed is.

Bindweed is now growing in John Daniel Is Graduate of New Mexico U.

Among the one thousand members of the 1951 graduating class of New Mexico University was John C. Daniel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Daniel, who received his BBS degree. Ceremonies were held on June 4 in the college stadium with Dr. George Boaz of John Hopkins University giving the main address.

John was co-chairman of the University Rodeo the past year and was a member of the University Rodeo traveling team. He and his wife, the former Miss Betty Pugh, will make their home in Spearman this summer.

profusion along the highways, in bar ditches, and along the railroad right-of-way. Seed from these patches can easily spread to adjoining cultivated fields and then the farmer has a long struggle to get rid of it.

There are some fields in the southwest part of the county that have had to be nearly abandoned for wheat purposes because of the rank growth of bindweed. The bindweed can be used for pasture, however, and livestock seem to like it and thrive on it.

Bindweed is spread from one plot in a field by several methods. Cattle on wheat pasture can scatter the seed by walking through the bindweed; combines scatter it when they harvest through a bindweed patch; and it can be scattered by plowing.

Here's 180 Horsepower... on regular grade gas—Now!

NEW YORKER NEWPORT

It's always interesting to hear about future-looking experiments with new super engines to run on new super-octane fuels...someday.

But it's even more interesting to hear today's real life, on-the-highway talk about Chrysler's new super-performing FirePower engine. FirePower takes any regular grade gas you care to buy . . . and adds its own 180 HORSEPOWER Here's the new Hemispherical Combustion Chamber that's the heart of Chrysler FirePower. Its new, designed-in "mechanical octanes" make regular grade gas do what best premium grades can't do in any other engine you can drive today!

new mechanical octanes to the power-giving octanes of the gasoline itself. The result is 180 horsepower performance such as no other passenger car built in the U.S. today can equal.

If you haven't driven Chrysler FirePower yet, your Chrysler dealer invites you to do so now. It's the most revolutionary engine in 27 years. It offers highway satisfaction and safety such as you've never known.

And it's a sounder engine other ways than any other on the road. Its new design keeps it almost completely carbon-free. It is smooth and quiet . . . but also rugged and strong and free from need for great attention and repair.

Now remember that this same new Chrysler offers you the new Hydramatic power steering . . . plus the amazing new rough-road stability of Oriflow shock absorbers . . . plus Water-Proof Ignition, and Vacuum-Ease Chrysler Cyclebonded super-brakes . . . then come see what we mean when we say the car of your tomorrow is right here for you to drive . . . today, and for years to come!

VA Answers
Questions on Cut-Off Date

Veterans Administration today answered several questions veterans have been asking most frequently about the July 25 cutoff date for starting GI Bill training.

The July date applies to World War II veterans discharged before July 25, 1947—and this includes most who served during the war. Veterans discharged after the 1947 date have four years from their discharge in which to begin training.

Many veterans have asked whether the filing of an application for training before the cutoff date is sufficient to enable them to train afterwards.

VA's answer is no. A veteran actually must be in training by the cut-off date in order to continue afterwards. VA said it will consider a veteran to be in training, even though he has temporarily interrupted his course for reasons beyond his control, such as the summer vacation.

A veteran who had once started a course and now cannot resume it because he has returned to extended active duty is also considered to be interrupted for a reason he cannot control.

Other veterans, in school under the GI Bill during the regular school year, have asked whether they will be required to attend summer school in order to return to class this coming fall, after the cut-off date.

Those veterans need not attend summer school, VA replied.
Their summer vacation will be considered an interruption which is normal to all students—and therefore beyond their control—and they will be permitted to resume training this fall in the same field of study.

A number of veterans who have had GI training some time in the past have been asking hand, but we would be in bad shape if we had to depend upon the larger packing houses. We use local beef animals and have a large enough quota to supply the demand, if we can get the animals. Our beef sales have dropped off, and I think some of the blame can be laid to the radio continually emphasizing how high beef is. Actually, it has been the same price since January, and we have never sold it anywhere near the OPS ceiling price."

the CCC automatically, that agency usually absorbed the warehouse costs.

Farm Storage Allowed
On warehouse storage loans, storage charges of 11½ cents per bushel will be deducted from the initial loan rates. Loans on wheat stored on the farm will be made at the full support rate.

Warehouse storage deductions decrease according to the time the loan is in force. The longer the farmer delays his application for his PMA loan, the less the warehouse storage charges will be.

For wheat going into storage before September 3, the deduction will be the initial 11½ cents per bushel. Wheat placed in storage after September 3 will receive periodic decreases until April 10, 1952.

Loans will be made on farm stored wheat at the full rate, but no storage payment will be made if the wheat is delivered to CCC in satisfaction of the loan. Previously, the farmer received storage payment on his wheat.

the loan will be granted. Any community that desires rural telephone service through the cooperative must be "signed up" solid, Archer said.

The meeting with Southwestern Bell was held in the district courtroom Monday afternoon, and was attended by men from Gruver and Canadian in addition to the NPTC board of directors.

W. R. Thomas of Dallas, representing Southwestern Bell, said that the only successful rural line was one built according to standard specifications, and discounted the use of the carrier system over REA lines, or the stringing of phone line on REA poles.

He said Southwestern Bell was willing to let the cooperative pick their area and build rural lines. However, he pointed out that the company wanted the immediate area around each town as their "community of interest." First he defined this as a "mile or so," then said five miles.

James H. Davis, district manager, and William H. Thomson of Dallas represented the Southwestern Associated in the meeting held Tuesday morning. Also present, besides the NPTC board of directors and spectators, was Coy McDonald, A & L Division, REA, Lubbock, and E. G. Ammons, A & L Division, REA, Stephenville.

In this meeting, Davis pointed out that the reason rural lines have not been built is that they are unprofitable. He said the company had not been able to build all the facilities in towns of their area that are needed. However, about 10 per cent of the subscribers of the company are rural, Thomson said.

The Southwestern Associated is serving rural customers in this area, Thomson said, and had planned to put on more in the future. However, he said that the company would be willing to map out an area around the towns of the area, where rural service is being given, and let the cooperative have the rural lines. This area was roughly defined as 1½ to 2 miles.

Small Native Grasshoppers on Increase Here

Small grasshoppers have appeared in large numbers in Ochiltree county, but thus far, no migratory hoppers have been observed, according to county agent Hood Willis.

There are plenty of the native grasshoppers, however. Willis recommends the use of chlordane or toxaphene spray to kill the hoppers. The spray is quite effective and should be used in fence rows and on the city, he said.

The grasshoppers are destructive when they eat the most valuable crop, a small quantity of bran is available at this method.

Now that you're buying "for keeps"—

Buy the newest new car of them all!

As every thoughtful person knows: the car you buy today is a car you should be proud to own "for keeps!"

In times like these, it's actually extravagant to buy a lightly built car that begs for frequent trading.

That's the big economy reason why so many far-sighted buyers are now taking the easy step up to their first Packard.

And here's what they enjoy: Exclusive, award-winning beauty to keep it distinctive, regardless of its age. A lastingly new brand of performance from America's highest-compression engines... and Packard's exclusive Ultramatic Drive. A matchless combination of gentle smoothness and firm, road-hugging safety with Packard's famed Limousine Ride. All backed by the greatest durability record in motordom.

Of all the Packards built, in the last 52 years, over 50% are still in service!

Retail Service Businesses Must File Price List

All businesses offering retail services to the public—from auto repairs to either repairs—must file a list of ceiling prices before June 15, the Lubbock district Office of Price Stabilization reminded today. The address is 1202 Texas Avenue, Lubbock, Texas.

On the same date, lists of ceiling prices must be posted where customers can plainly see them, OPS added.

These requirements are called for by Ceiling Price Regulation No. 34.

It applies to all service trades—barbers, dry cleaners, laundries, washateria, shoe repair shops, beauty shops, service stations, parking lots, etc.

Operators of such businesses need only to write down a list of the highest prices charged for each service between December 1950, and January 25, 1951. They must mail one copy to the Lubbock district OPS office at 1202 Texas Avenue, Lubbock, Texas, and display another copy in the place of business.

Any questions regarding this regulation should be addressed to the district OPS.

Meanwhile next Monday, June 18, ceiling prices of beef must be posted for all consumers to see in retail meat shops, the district office at Lubbock reminds all butchers and consumers.

At the same time cuts must be

"No Man Can Serve Two Masters"

PREACHING TO HIS DISCIPLES, Jesus said:

"No man can serve two masters; for either he will hate the one and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon."

"Therefore I say unto you, Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more than meat, and the body than raiment?"

"Behold the fowls of the air: for they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; yet your heavenly Father feedeth them. Are ye not much better than they?"

"Seek first the kingdom of God, and His righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you. Take therefore no thought for the morrow: for the morrow shall take thought for the things of itself. Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof."

Hope "Cappy" Told Where To Get Off

"Cappy" Fisher—who just retired after thirty-five years as a railroad conductor—was telling about a salesman who was often one of his passengers.

"That man was so busy," says Cappy, "he used to bring a dictaphone on the train to catch up on his letters. On one trip he'd been rushing around so much he'd forgotten to bring his ticket. Left it on his desk."

When Cappy started to tell him not to worry about the ticket, the salesman busts out with "Who's worried about the ticket? It's just that now I don't know where I was going to get off."

Cappy might have been our leg, but from where I sit we get so wrapped up in ourselves we often forget we're going. Some folks narrow their eyes when neighbors right in the glass of beer now and then forget that just as the on stream and oil, democracy on freedom and tolerance

OLD FORT HENRY—Sightseeing is a popular attraction which annually draws hundreds of thousands of visitors to the Province of Ontario, Canada. One of the popular points is Old Fort Henry, near the City of Kingston. Here, every day during the summer season, young men dressed in uniforms which were current a century ago, re-enact some of the drills which were in vogue when Fort Henry was a defense bastion between Canada and the United States along the historic St. Lawrence River. Old Fort Henry will be visited by a group of 25 United States newspapermen who are touring Ontario as guests of Department of Travel and Publicity of that Province. Van W. THE TEXAS POLL

Texas Voters Cooling Off On Harry Truman, Late Poll Shows

By JOE BELDEN
Director, The Texas Poll
AUSTIN, Texas—If Harry Truman were the Democratic candidate, and if the presidential election were being held today, the Republican Party could well walk off with the richest plum of the "Solid" South, the State of Texas. The enthusiasm with which Democratic leaders recently announced they will seek Truman as a candidate again may get a slight chilling when they read the figures below, particularly those showing that the President gets less nods than even Senator Robert Taft—"Mr. Republican" himself.

General Eisenhower, General MacArthur, and Senator Taft of Ohio, received more votes than the President in the latest "trial heats" conducted among eligible voters by The Texas Poll. Texas, sixth largest state and most important in the South with its twenty-three electoral votes, could be a decisive factor in the 1952 election should it go Republican. Only once has the state deserted the Democratic Party, when it voted for Herbert Hoover against Al Smith.

Results of the May survey comparing Truman's popularity as a candidate with that of Eisenhower shows that since the beginning of the year a huge number has flocked to the General's side. Compared to a year ago, the change has been even more dramatic—from a plurality of 42 per cent favoring Truman May 1950, to a majority of 61 per cent favoring Eisenhower in May 1951. Up until the latest survey, Eisenhower's increases had been coming from among previously undecided voters; since February the general has been biting heavily into the ranks of consistent Truman supporters.

It goes without saying that the President's firing of MacArthur has undoubtedly had a major influence in these changes. MacArthur himself does well as a possible Republican candidate, nearly two-to-one favorite over Truman.

Here are the results of the three trials on which a representative sample from the Texas electorate was asked to vote:

"Suppose the Republicans name General Eisenhower as their candidate for President in 1952, and the Democrats nominate Truman again, for whom would you vote?"

	May 1950	Nov. 1950	Feb. 1951	May 1951
For Truman	42%	40%	41%	25%
For Eisenhower

Undecided, no answer 18

The same question asked about Truman and Taft:

	May 1951
For Truman	33%
For Taft	38%
Undecided, no answer	29%

Note that nearly three out of every ten are undecided on Taft versus Truman. In answering this last question, many people remarked to the Poll interviewers, "There's hardly any choice there." "What a choice!" and the like. So, although the results indicate the depths to which Truman's popularity has sunk, it is obvious Taft is by no means strong in Texas. The Truman-Taft pattern revealed above is reminiscent of the 1948 Truman-Dewey polls and the final voting.

Tells Horrors That Came With Dope Habit

(AP) Newsfeatures

PITTSBURG — Did you ever wonder what it would be like to take dope?

Here's how one drug addict described his horrible ordeal during a two-month-long binge on heroin. Haggard and stooped, the 21-year-old former athlete said he became an addict after meeting other addicts and a drug peddler while working at a used car lot.

"Before I knew it I was on the stuff," he said. "It calmed me. In fact, it numbed all the organs in my body. I was immune to pain. After six or eight hours, though the stuff would wear off and my nerves would be worse than ever."

"I discovered the only thing that could help was another shot. The more I took the more I needed and the worse my nerves got. Pretty soon I began to feel other symptoms."

"For instance, I couldn't sleep. I got addicted to sleeping pills too. I lost my appetite. The first thing I got up in the morning, I had to have some. While the stuff was working I would sulk and want to be by myself or in the company of other dopeheads.

"When the effect wore off, the torture started. Pain would hit me in the back first, then my stomach would roll around like jelly. I'd get diarrhea."

"Then I noticed I was getting immune to the dope. I was taking 10 capsules a day but no matter how many I took, the pains and nausea began coming more frequently."

"I asked my brother to help me. He took what was left of it. Then heroin and god rid of it. Then my family called a doctor."

"I'm through with the stuff. I'm going to take treatments and

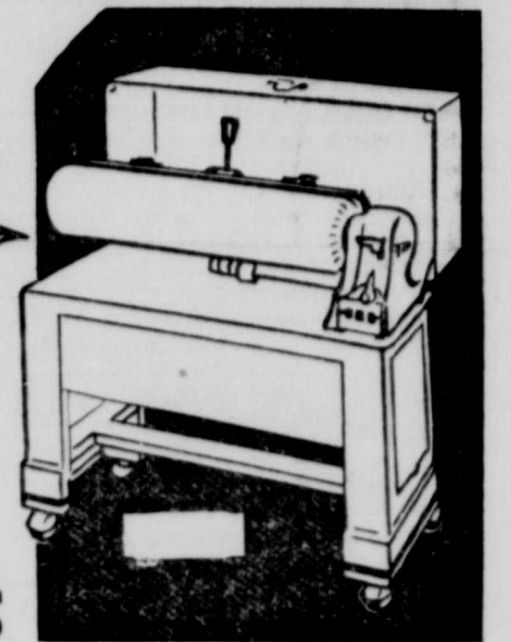

I've been told I can be cured. "I'm telling this story so others won't kid themselves, as I did, into thinking they can handle any kind of narcotics."

"Calfcade"

DES MOINES (AP)—It was a busy 24-hours on the Babe Sheridan Farm at Gambrell one day recently. In those 24 hours, 18 cows gave birth to calves.

The cows were purchased as range animals by Sheridan last winter. The 18 calves will be fed for market while the cows will be kept on the farm, Sheridan said.

THESE folks are enjoying something that's being pioneered by Buick.

It's freedom from the blinding glare of bright summer sunlight.

It's freedom from hot laps—caused by the sun's rays beating down through the broad expanse of windshield.

These freedoms trace to a new feature you may have noticed in '51 Buicks—a new kind of glass! with a cool, soft, blue-green tint, in every glass area of the car, front, side and back.

Buick engineers tell us that this "Buick first" reduces glare 18% over conventional glass—cuts sun heat as much as 45%—and Buick engineers are very conservative fellows.

(Optional at extra cost—available on most models. (Not presently available in California and Massachusetts.)

This glare-and-heat-reducing Easy-eye glass is factory-installed at moderate extra charge. It gives you a built-in transparent "sun visor" right in the windshield—and it also dulls the dazzle of oncoming headlights at night.

As we've said, this is something Buick owners were the first to enjoy. It takes its place with such exclusives as the valve-in-head Fireball Engine—coil springs on all four wheels—the firm power linkage of torque-tube drive—and the magic of Dynaflo.*

As we've also said—rather modestly—"Smart buy's Buick."

Come in soon and find out what an understatement that really is.

*Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice. *Standard on ROADMASTER, optional at extra cost on other Series.

NO OTHER CAR PROVIDES ALL THIS:

DYNAFLO DRIVE* • FIREBALL ENGINE
PUSH-BAR FOREFRONT • WHITE-GLOW INSTRUMENTS • 4-WHEEL COIL SPRINGING TORQUE-TUBE DRIVE • DUAL VENTILATION
DREAMLINE STYLING • BODY BY FISHER

Rest In Pieces

The Herald is currently running an editorial cartoon each week drawn by Virgil Parch, familiar magazine cartoonist, and distributed by the Travelers' Insurance company. It is presented as part of a continuous traffic safety education campaign.

A tombstone with the letters "RIP" is drawn in each picture. One shows Parch's idea of the grim reaper grabbing out a motorist who will "Rest in Pieces" if he exceeds the speed limit. Another shows an inebriate holding a cocktail shaker filled with gasoline and whiskey. Children are warned what will happen to them if they play in the street. Road hogs get their bit of advice.

The cartoons, with the familiar characters with prominent noses and chins and bristly hair, are funny, in a way, but the message they bring is not funny. It deals with death, the ever increasing kind that happens on the highways.

It reminds us that we are all eligible to "rest in pieces" if we don't obey the traffic rules and laws. Traffic accidents must be stopped by the drivers and pedestrians who cause them.

Wolf Creek Philosopher Will Join Nation In Postponement

(Ed. note: The Wolf Creek Philosopher has joined the defense effort, in his own peculiar fashion, his letter this week reveals.)

Dear editor:

I was reading in a paper this afternoon which I'd been carrying around in my pocket several days, never have believed in getting in a hurry, if you haven't heard it before, news is fresh whether you run into it thirty minutes or thirty days after it happens, although this ain't always true of gossip, where Defense Mobilization Director Charles E. Wilson has called on the nation to put off all "postponable" projects for the duration of the defense emergency, so materials and energies can be channeled into the defense effort.

Now he didn't give a detailed list of the projects which ought to be postponed, but I have a good many out here which I have been postponing for several years and I would like for the Defense Director to know I will fall in line with his program and continue postponing them and as a patriotic gesture run in a lot of new ones. This country ain't gonna be unprepared on my account.

I read somewhere one time where Mark Twain said he always put off answerin his mail for six months and it would surprise you how few letters then needed answering, and I have found the same thing to be true out here on my farm. For example I postponed plantin about 80 acres of wheat last fall after I ran out of gasoline and seed too, and it didn't hurt a thing because the wheat that I did plant just made a meal for greenbugs and I would have been just as well off to put in the time I spent plantin wheat in meditation. I never did get around to breakin my garden early this spring, and it certainly wouldn't do any good to do it now. On cold wet winter nights last year I occasionally stayed inside the house and postponed milkin my cow, and a man who thinks he can go back and make up for them postponements now just ain't familiar with milk cows.

However, in spite of the postponements, the cow seems to be doin all right, gives a full two quarts at every milkin, don't seem to be holdin a grudge against me, and I figure my garden will produce about as much this year as any other.

If I postpone sendin in any money to renew my subscription to the Herald, just keep sendin it, postpone stoppin it. After all, if I'm gonna do my part by postponin for defense, you ought to do yours.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Q. After the July 25 cut-off date, will I be permitted to change fields of GI Bill study?

A. You may change fields of study only for reasons satisfactory to VA. Such reasons include unsatisfactory progress in your present course through no fault of your own, or evidence that the new course would be more in keeping with your aptitudes and previous training.

Q. I am an on-the-job trainee under the GI Bill. I understand that next Fall I will be required to take a supplemental correspondence course along with my job training. May I do so despite the fact that the cut-off date will have passed?

A. Yes, so long as the correspondence course is considered an integral part of your on-the-job training course.

Q. I completed pre-medical training under the GI Bill, but I won't be able to get into medical school by the July 25 cut-off date. What must I do in order to be admitted after that date?

A. You must provide VA with evidence that you applied for admission to medical school each year, after you finished your pre-medical training. If you do this, VA will consider your training interrupted for a reason beyond your control, and will permit you to go ahead with your professional training whenever a school has room for you—even though that happens to be after the July 25 cut-off date.

Q. I expect to receive my AB degree in the Spring of 1952—after the July 25 cut-off date. May I continue with graduate work in the same field the following Fall?

A. Yes. But you must apply to VA for a Supplemental Certificate of Eligibility some time before your undergraduate degree.

From The SIDELINE with HAROLD HUDSON

The boss left this week for a trip to Canada, representing the state of Texas in a group of 25 newspaper men from 25 states who are guests of the Canadian government. This is a distinct honor, not only for the Herald, but for Perryton.

The Canadian government is going all-out on this tour, which will begin on June 14 and end on June 24. They sent Van several questionnaires, asking him about his hobbies, interests, what type of hotel room he likes, etc. They said that if he wanted to take pictures, they would furnish a camera and film and process them for him.

If he wants to play golf, they will furnish the clubs and balls; if he wants to fish, they will furnish the equipment. He was advised that if he wanted to travel by rail, car, bus, plane and boat in touring the scenic wonders of Canada.

More about this trip is found in another story in this issue of the Herald.

We noticed the other day where Americans have gone a long way toward the old Socialist dream of sharing the wealth. In 1929, five per cent of the population had 34 per cent of the wealth, but today the five per cent has only 18 per cent. It was pointed out that even the Soviet Union or her satellites cannot "point to so vast a democratization of the distributive process in their own countries."

We just happened to notice in a newspaper this week where President Truman is scheduled to speak over a nation-wide network Thursday night and plans to call upon American citizens to pull together in the defense effort. This is all the advance notice we saw, and this story was buried deep inside the paper.

This is a far cry from the New Deal days when the late President Roosevelt used to hold his "fireside chats." In those days, millions of listeners gathered to hear the president. President Truman has made a number of radio speeches during the past few months that went practically unannounced and unnoticed.

This, we believe, stems from a total lack of confidence in the leadership of our nation today. We were taught in our history books that President Warren Harding had a corrupt administration, fostered by weak leadership. That administration can't hold a candle to this one.

While the American people are sold on the idea of the defense effort, and in most cases are ahead of the administration, there is a certain lack of confidence in what our leaders are saying.

This stems from the several national scandals, of course. People can't forget the RFC scandal, involving more money than the famed Teapot Dome scandal, and the case of the five per cent, which include General Vaughn, the President's military aide.

We can't forget Secretary of State Dean Acheson's upholding of a convicted Communist and traitor, Alger Hiss, and his many other actions which indicate he is not entirely in sympathy with our form of government.

The President stubbornly supported Ambassador to Mexico Bill O'Dwyer, after the Kefauver committee had tied him securely to organized crime in America. The Administration has refused to cut the cost of government despite the fact that government costs, excluding defense spending, have grown astronomically, and are now 170 per cent over 1940.

For these, and other reasons, American people are not very enthused about tuning in to hear the administration, even if it happens to be the President of the United States.

Some observers believe the pattern of Panhandle weather is changing. Summers used to be dry and hot, but for the past few years they have been wet and cool. Wheat crops used to be made on the moisture from winter snows and spring rains. For the past few years there have been no heavy winter snows, and the moisture started in May, continuing to September.

If this is a permanent change in the weather cycle, winter wheat may go out of the picture as a crop and spring-sown crops will take the place of wheat.

We read the other day where the Department of Agriculture has 2,200 men working on research in the United States, but only one of them is engaged in research on the control of greenbugs. This in spite of the fact that the greenbug has destroyed millions of bushels of growing wheat the past two years. Give 'em time. They may assign another man on greenbugs in another year or so.

Crocodile Foster Family

MELBOURNE (AP)—Two young Ballarat sportsmen are about to become "foster-fathers" to 30 man-eating crocodiles.

Bill Rowe and John Hutchinson brought the crocodile eggs from Queensland. Four have already hatched, others are cracking.

Hutchinson said they would take care of the young crocodiles in a special pool, with infrared ray heating, keep them for a few months, then give them to zoos.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Slack and family visited relatives at Vernon last week end.

Dan Duryea Is Lawyer Crook In Western Film

Dan Duryea is pictured as an honest young man, driven by circumstances beyond his control to a life of crime, in "Al Jennings of Oklahoma," which comes to the Ellis on Sunday and Monday.

Dan is an honest but hot-headed young lawyer, who kills the man who murdered his brother. In his flight from a posse, Dan and another brother, Dick Foran, join a gang of rustlers.

Duryea soon takes over the leadership of the group. Later, he and Foran establish an honest business in New Orleans, where Duryea is about to marry Gale Storm. Circumstances force the brothers back to lawlessness, and a framed trial puts them behind bars.

However, he is released from prison, apparently free to lead an honest life.

Bowery Boys Fouled Up In Army Picture

Those zany lads of the screen, the Bowery Boys, are at it again, this time as new army recruits who break up a spy ring.

Their new picture, "Bowery Battalion," comes to the Pertex on Sunday through Tuesday.

The picture rolls along at a satirizing tempo, as the new army recruits find themselves spending almost as much time in the guard house as elsewhere on the army base. For a while, it appears they will be more of an army liability than an asset; but this thought disappears soon after their old enemy, Louie Dum-browski, appears at camp in the uniform of a major. He carries the secret of the lethal hydrogen ray—and, as a result, is the target of a spy ring.

When the major is kidnapped, the Bowery Boys, without the formality of being granted permission to do so, slip from the base and go in search of their friend. They find him trussed and being tortured by the spies who want to drain information from him. From this point, the film speeds to an exciting close.

Motor Vehicle Inspection Act In Effect Soon

AUSTIN—Homer Garrison, Jr., Director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, has announced that preliminary plans are under way for the administration of the State's new Motor Vehicle Inspection Act.

Recently passed by the 52nd Legislature and signed into law by Governor Allan Shivers, the act is designed to enhance traffic safety by removing unsafe motor vehicles from the highways, will become effective 90 days after the adjournment of the 52nd Legislature.

According to Garrison, an additional period of about 60 days will be required to complete the organizational details of the inspection division which, by law, will fall under the supervision of the Public Safety Department.

Garrison stated that garage owners and other individuals interested in making application for official inspection stations in their areas may do so by writing directly to him at Austin. The proper application blanks will be mailed to those making inquiry as soon as they are available. Those selected will be subject to a thorough examination of facilities and equipment and will be instructed in inspection standards. Garrison further stated that no testing devices have yet been approved and that it was not advisable for applicants to purchase such equipment until his Department has set up the official standards for such devices.

MEADVILLE, Pa. (AP) — Have you ever impishly dreamed of seeing your banker, doctor or other professional man getting his hands dirty at some manual job? If so, you should have been at the William Gates Service Station in this small town recently. Nearly 50 professional men took over the duties of attendants for a full day.

On that eventful day you could have watched a prominent dentist filling gas tanks instead of cavities. Or you could have overheard a former patient say to his doctor:

"Better check the oil, Doc. And oh yes, would you wipe the windshield, please? It's a little dirty."

The project was a campaign designed to raise funds for youth activities of the Meadville Exchange Club. All profits from the sale of gasoline was turned over to the club.

TEXANS IN WASHINGTON

By TEX EASLEY
(P) Special Washington Service

WASHINGTON (P)—Schemes to tax only the rich and reduce prices may sound wonderful, says Rep. W. R. (Bob) Poage of Waco, but they just don't hold water.

The congressman gave his views in answering some 30 constituents who sent him a petition protesting soaring living costs and asking "that prices be rolled back to pre-Korea levels."

The petition, one of many said to be in circulation throughout Texas for submission to congressmen, says:

"We also urge that new taxes not be placed on low income families, and suggest that needed revenue be secured from corporations with their record profits and from high income families who are not carrying their share."

Poage replied that "the tendency of the hour is to feel that we can cure any problem by passing a law." In his opinion, he added, the time has come to get at the fundamental cause of inflation—lots of money in circulation and not enough things to buy with it.

He said he favored across-the-board freezes on prices and wages at the outbreak of the Korean war. Since that wasn't done another approach must be tried.

"The simplest and most effective attack on inflation would, it seems to me, be for everyone to work longer at present hourly rates," he continued.

"If we increased the work week by only four hours we would increase production by 10 per cent. The workers would have more money, but there would be more things to purchase."

As to the age-old ideas of soaking the "have-gots," Poage said:

"It is a mistake to believe that we can raise the funds simply by additional taxes on corporations or the 'rich.' The total corporate income in the U. S. is only about 20 billion dollars per year—less than one-third our governmental expenditures. We now take approximately one-half of this income."

He then noted that personal income taxes already are high, up to 87 to 90 per cent of an income above $80,000 yearly. Those who make such incomes account for only a relatively small percentage of the total national income, he observed, and

HOUSE OF COMMONS—Canada's governmental structure is a trifle puzzling to most residents of the United States, but one local resident who should be well posted on the answers to all your questions is Herald Publisher Van W. Stewart, who is presently visiting Ontario as a guest of that Province's Department of Travel and Publicity. During the tour of Ontario which is being enjoyed by 25 representatives of as many State Press Associations, the American guests will be visiting the House of Commons in Ottawa, seat of Canada's federal capital, and also the Parliament Buildings in Toronto, pictured above.

At the latter place, it is expected that Prime Minister Leslie M. Frost of Ontario will extend an official welcome to the visitors on behalf of the people of Ontario. The ten-day trip being enjoyed by the newsmen will take them through the rich agricultural lands of Southern Ontario, the wealthy gold mining areas of the north, as well as the military training camps where soldiers and airmen will stage special parades for the visiting group.

added:

"There is no easy way to carry the tax load. We all must share it."

Belgians Prefer Foreign Broadcasts

BRUSSELS (P)—Belgians prefer foreign, commercially-sponsored radio programs to their own government-controlled radio.

A recent survey by an opinion-testing organization showed that the most popular station with Belgians is Radio Luxembourg. This station broadcasts exclusively commercially sponsored programs in French, Flemish and English.

Rubble Marks Site of Early Smelting Furnace

ZELLENOPLE, Pa. (P)—Almost hidden by spring foliage in a wooded section near this western Pennsylvania town is a pile of rocks which marks the site of one of the nation's first iron-making furnaces.

The rockpile is all that's left of the once famous Bassenheim furnace. It was built in 1813 by Baron Frederik William Dettmar Basse in an effort to recoup a fortune he lost in the Napoleonic Wars.

The baron failed to regain his fortune and the furnace was abandoned in 1827. The baron returned to Europe and died there in 1836. Now the remains are almost rubble.

Creep Feeding Pays Dividends To Stockmen

COLLEGE STATION—By creep feeding their beef calves, livestock men can add as much as 100 pounds of weight per head by weaning time, according to U. P. Thompson, assistant extension animal husbandman of Texas A. & M. College.

A "creep"—an enclosure with openings large enough for calves to enter but too small for older cattle—is inexpensive and easy to build. This arrangement gives calves access to additional feed.

Specifications for building a practical creep feeder and suggestions for locating it are given in a new Extension Service circular, Circular 289, also gives suggested rations for feeding suckling calves and directions for starting the calves on feed.

Thompson points out that an important advantage of creep feeding is the better condition of the cows at weaning time. They are not suckled down so much when the calves receive additional feed.

In addition to being heavier and having more finish, creep-fed calves grow out more uniformly in size and condition. There is little shrinkage at weaning time.

Creep-fed calves usually sell for a higher price per pound than calves that are not creep-fed.

Thompson recommends that livestock men consult their county agent about creep feeding calves this spring and to also pick up a copy of Extension Circular 289, "Creep Feeding Beef Calves."

In the United States about 43,000 people are admitted to hospitals each day.

POWER-PACKED
-and then some!

THERE are a lot of reasons you can expect a new GMC to keep hauling a lot longer than any other truck you can buy.

First is the fact of horsepower. Whether it's a gasoline-powered 1/2- to 2-tonner with horsepower unbeaten in its class, or one of the new heavy-duty Diesels—you can't beat a GMC for "go!"

But the extra value you find in these great trucks doesn't end at the power plant.

There's the smooth GMC Synchro-Mesh Transmission linked to a sharp-shooting drive line, pouring every ounce of power back to the rugged rear axle. And the solid way horsepower becomes wheel-action—you know there's extra depth of truck performance engineered right down through the broad-shouldered frame of a GMC!

And standing guard over these long-time trucks are husky brakes with more area than most—the surest, easiest steering ever devised to direct a pay load home—all controlled from a spacious "Six-Footer" Cab that's Weathersealed for a lifetime.

GMC's are made in the widest variety of engine-body-chassis combinations to meet any trucking need. And the prices? No better buy anywhere! Come see for yourself.

Summer Days Are Hard on Young Infants

AUSTIN, Texas — "Being a baby is a real hazard in either winter or summer but much can be done to avoid or at least lessen some of these hazards that are associated with hot summer days," declared Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer. Summer is the season in which death from intestinal disorders has in the past exacted its greatest toll.

"To guard the infant against such danger, care must be taken that his food, especially milk is pure and kept safe. If there is any uncertainty concerning the water supply, the baby should drink only water which has been boiled and cooled and kept covered. The baby and all his food must be protected against flies. Baby himself and all the things which he comes in contact should be kept as clean as possible. Plenty of fresh air and sunshine are essential for the best health of the infant. The baby's body should be gradually exposed to the direct rays of the sun; bathing with exposure of only part of the skin surface for three to five minutes and slowly increase the area of skin and time once or twice daily.

"Care must be taken to keep the baby free from prickly heat by keeping the skin clean and not too warmly dressed or covered. If the baby is comfortable, he will get his usual amount of sleep and will eat and develop normally. In case the child shows symptoms of any abnormal conditions, the family physician should be consulted at once."

A recent survey showed that in the United States one out of three women work; one out of three U. S. workers is a woman, and one married woman out of four works.

Tech Raiders To Meet Two Bowl Champs

LUBBOCK—Two "bowl" champions are on the ten-game schedule Texas Tech's Red Raiders face this fall.

Texas A. & M., winner of the Presidential Cup game, and West Texas State, Sun Bowl titlist, head the card. The Red Raiders engage three Southwest Conference schools, four fellow Border Conference members, two Missouri Valley teams, and a Skyline Seven entrant.

To prepare the Red Raiders for this slate, Tech has hired practically an entirely new coaching staff.

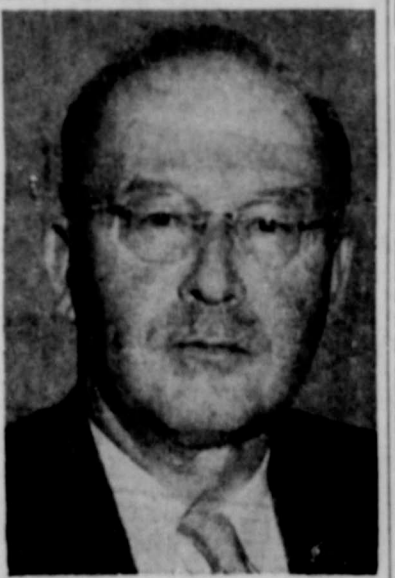

DeWitt T. Weaver is head coach. Formerly associate coach at Tulsa University, he was All-Southeast Conference guard for the University of Tennessee.

Assistant coaches are W. A. (Babe) Wood, former teammate of Weaver's, more recently assistant at Wake Forest; Jack Mitchell, Oklahoma University All-America quarterback, Tulsa assistant last year; Wyatt Posey, ex-Georgia star, line coach at Yale last year; Wade Walker, Oklahoma's All-America tackle, who was North Carolina State assistant; and Bobby Goad, All-Big Seven end at Oklahoma, who coached Chickasha (Okla.) High School last season.

Polk Robison, head basketball coach, will also continue to be chief scout. George Scott, last year's freshman coach, is trainer.

Texas Tech's schedule—West Texas State, Sept. 22, here; Texas A. & M., Sept. 29, Dallas; University of Houston, Oct. 6, Houston; Texas Christian University, Oct. 13, here; Baylor University, Oct. 20, Waco; University of Arizona, Oct. 27, here; Texas Western, Nov. 3, El Paso; Tulsa University, Nov. 17, Tulsa; New Mexico University, Nov. 24, Albuquerque; Hardin-Simmons University, Dec. 1, here.

Visitors in the Bill Traylor home Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cummings and son Mike of Tulsa and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Cummings of Panhandle.

WANT-AD BUILDER—Gordon K. Bush (above), publisher of the Athens (Ohio) Messenger, realized the power of the little want-ad when he built a plant for his newspaper exclusively from want-ad revenue. Bush will tell Texas newspaper publishers how he did it, when he addresses the 72nd Annual Convention of the Texas Press Association in Dallas, June 15-16. His father was publisher of the Athens Messenger, and Bush grew up in the business. Realizing that his newspaper would one day outgrow its housing, revenue from the classified ads was set aside to provide a new building. In 1925 the new plant was constructed, with that money alone, and is the only newspaper plant in the country so financed.

HAIL DAMAGE—Property damage totaled several hundred thousand dollars in Wichita Falls when stones the size of hen eggs fell in the business district. Few windows on the top two floors escaped destruction.

THINGS YOU SHOULD KNOW ABOUT "SLIPPED DISCS"

While Chiropractors agree that surgery may be desirable in extreme "slipped disc" cases, there is a preponderance of evidence that "slipped disc" is a catch-all phrase often used to explain many back ailments, that in reality are caused by vertebral subluxation.

The outward symptoms of a "slipped disc" case and one which is the result of a vertebral subluxation (slightly displaced vertebra) are often the same. The Science of Chiropractic has specialized in the treatment of such spinal conditions for more than fifty years and has developed methods which have afforded relief to many "back-sufferers" without resort to surgery. This fact is attested to by the results of a recent nation-wide survey involving thousands of cases.

If you suffer from frequently recurring low back pain, which may extend into the legs or if you have been told that you have "slipped disc", consult a Chiropractor and have him examine your spine.

The Chiropractors today are licensed by the State of Texas, and are required to meet high educational standards.

The drawing here shows the normal position of a disc and a "herniated disc." The intervertebral disc consists of an outside capsule which normally is a tough white fibrous tissue holding an elastic pulpy mass. It functions as a shock absorber, and holds the vertebrae apart. The disc allows great flexibility of the spine, but at the same time helps hold the vertebrae in good alignment. You will notice in the drawing how a part of the disc has the appearance of being "squeezed".

CAUSES

- The three most probable causes of true rupture of a disc are:
1. Great traumatic force, such as a fall.
 2. Pathological weakness of a disc resulting from diminished nerve energy supply.
 3. A combination of the two above conditions.
