PAPER PICK UP STARTS TOMORROW

Beginning tomorrow, John William Butts Post, American Legion, will resume the task of salvaging scrap paper.

Hereafter, said Simon Coplin, new post commander, paper will be picked up from all sections of the city each Friday afternoon until further notice.

It was brought out that before the pickup was discontinued — two weeks ago — the amount of scrap placed at curbs or other convenient places for the salvagers was growing less with each succeeding week, which was very discouraging to those Legionnaires who were contributing their time and labor to the rather arduous task.

It should be apparent to everybody that if merchants and householders in large numbers are becoming unconcerned in the still important matter of paper salvage, there will be little or nothing for the pickup men to do.

Men assigned to the work and the territory they will be responsible for is announced by the Legion as follows:

T. E. House, A. Wyatt—First, Second, Third and Fourth streets. Charles Roberts — Fifth, W. L. Phippen—Sixth, Lewis Britain—Seventh, Jim Haynie, E. J. Pross — Eighth and Ninth, Ocie Livingston, Leon McPherson — Tenth, Chick Massey, A. J. Rupe — Twelfth and Thirteenth, Doc Cabaness, Bob Scott — Sixteenth and Seventeenth, Rex Moore — Eighteenth and Nineteenth, Red Milner — Humbletown, Billy Huestis, Dick Cutting, Jess Caffee — Eastside.

LET WORTHES BUY FARM.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor C. Yates and grandson Jimmy L. Yates have bought the Arlington McGinnis farm south of Cisco on the Rising Star road and have moved in. The family is from Fort Worth, where they made their home for many years. Mr. Yates having been a government employee. They are members of the Baptist church. Mr. Yates called at the Daily Press office this morning and ordered the paper sent to him for a year. He expressed a desire to join with Cisco in any and all undertakings that look to the advancement of this area. Mrs. Doris Bouldin, also from Ft. Worth and a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Yates, is now visiting them. Her husband is overseas.

MCCRACKEN IS HOME.

Lt. James P. McCracken arrived in Cisco today on 45-day leave for a visit with his mother Mrs. Elizabeth McCracken and his sister Miss Elizabeth McCracken. Lt. McCracken has served with the army in the Pacific theater of war the past twenty-seven months. He is in good shape physically and some heavier than when he entered the service in March of 1942.

REVIVAL STARTS WELL.

Pastor G. S. Westbrook of the Church of Christ says the gospel meeting that began at that church Monday night started off with a very large attendance, and that there was another large crowd Tuesday night. The speaker is Evangelist C. C. Morgan of Dahlart, who is laying the foundation for a successful revival with such sermon subjects as "God Is," "The Bible" and the "Deity of Christ Jesus."

MACARTHUR HEADQUARTERS IN YOKOHAMA HOTEL; HE CAN SEE JAP PALACE FROM HOTEL ROOF

MACARTHUR HEADQUARTERS, YOKOHAMA, Japan, Aug. 30. — Gen. Douglas MacArthur set up headquarters in Yokohama today as the first 40,000 troops of his occupation army raised the Stars and Stripes over Japan's largest naval base, two airfields and a big slice of the Tokyo plain.

A half dozen or more Japanese towns, some within a few miles of the southern outskirts of Tokyo, were occupied by Allied air and sea-borne forces in their first few hours ashore.

MacArthur, supreme occupation commander, established his headquarters in Yokohama's new Grand Hotel with other top American officers less than an hour after landing at Atsugi airfield from Okinawa.

From the top of the hotel MacArthur could see Emperor Hirohito's palace in the heart of Tokyo. Both Hirohito and the Japanese government now must take orders from MacArthur.

South of Yokohama, Admiral Chester W. Nimitz — MacArthur's partner in the conquest of Japan — and Admiral William F. (Bull) Halsey of Third Fleet fame went ashore at the newly-occupied Yokosuka naval base, formerly Japan's No. 1 navy yard. It already had surrendered formally to Halsey's deputies.

American and British marines and blue-jackets also raised the American flag over three fortified islands guarding the approaches to Yokosuka, Cape Futatabi, seven miles across the entrance to Tokyo Bay from Yokosuka, and the half-sunken hulk of the Japanese battleship Nagato.

The air and sea-borne landings on Japan were carried out under a canopy of 2000 warplanes and the big guns of hundreds of warships in Tokyo Bay and adjoining Sagami Bay.

The troops landed with full combat equipment, but not a shot was fired by either side. Japanese officers were polite and bowing. Civilians were docile.

MacArthur's huge transport plane Bataan alighted on Atsugi airfield, 18 miles south of Hirohito's palace, at 1:58 p. m. (12:58 a. m. EDT). He told newsmen and G. I.'s the clustered about the plane that the surrender plan was "going splendidly."

From Atsugi, MacArthur's party set out for Yokohama in a convoy of Japanese automobiles and trucks. Japanese troops with rifles and sidearms stood every 100 yards or so, with their backs to the road, on guard against any avert act by their countrymen.

Paratroops of the 11th Airborne Division, who will serve as MacArthur's bodyguards, piled in to the Japanese trucks without comment. Japanese officers saluted promptly as the convoy passed.

Yokohama itself was a burned-out shell from American air-raids. There was no resemblance to the great port that once housed nearly 1,000,000 and handled a quarter of the Japanese empire's trade.

Besides MacArthur, Spantz, Kenney, Lt. Gen. Robert L. Eichelberger, commander of the Eighth Army, and Lt. Gen. Ennis C. Whitehead, commander of the Fifth Air Force, set up headquarters in the New Grand Hotel. Gen. Jonathan Wainwright will join them tomorrow. Nearly 150 other officers also are guests in the hotel.

Up to 40,000 troops had landed by sea and air on the southern approaches of Tokyo by nightfall. Others waited aboard ships in Tokyo Bay and at Okinawa airfields to join in the occupation.

They were the vanguard of an occupation army that ultimately is expected to total at least 500,000 troops on the Japanese home islands. The next occupation force is scheduled to land on the southern tip of Kyushu, Sept. 3.

Cisco Lobos to Start Practice Saturday Morning

With the first game of the season only 14 days away, the Cisco Lobos will begin practice for the 1945 season Saturday morning at Chesley Field, says Coach Harold Fischer.

Fischer is anxious to have a full squad from the first day's practice, since the time is short and every moment of practice counts before the curtain lifts on the schedule with the appearance of Cleburne here Friday evening, September 14.

Since quite a number of the squad live in the county, arrangements are being made to provide transportation to and from the field for them. These boys, however, were requested to find ways to Cisco Saturday morning by 9 o'clock, after which transportation will be provided. Noon meals for the boys from the rural sections will be provided, the coach said.

For the first week, morning and afternoon practice periods will be held. Equipment will be issued Saturday morning at the high school gym.

Pre-season prospects promise one of the best Lobo teams in several years. A great deal of dependence is being placed upon the boys from the rural areas who lettered or saw experience last year, as well as a number of new boys who are coming to the squad for the first time.

Short Didn't Have Important Facts; Conscience Clear

DALLAS, Aug. 30. — Important information, available in Washington before the Pearl Harbor attack, was not made available to him at Hawaii, Major Gen. Walter C. Short of Dallas said yesterday.

Short, who was army commander at Hawaii at the time of the Jap sneak attack, made his comment in a formal statement issued after he read a summary of the Pearl Harbor report released in Washington by President Truman.

General Short's statement in full: "On Dec. 7, 1941, I was obeying my instructions from Washington as I understood them, and was acting in accordance with the information which was available to me at that time. A commander must base his decisions on information before him at the time. Although the entire facts are yet to be revealed to me and to the public, the recent statement of the Army Pearl Harbor board shows beyond question that there was available to the authorities in Washington, before the attack, critical information which was not disclosed to me and which was vital to my decision."

Short said he was not aware of the fact that the Army Pearl Harbor board was to be held until after the attack.

Rotary Club Honors Miss Jamison and Mr. LaRoque

Cisco Rotary club began last week another series of perfect attendance meetings, having had thirteen straight sessions with no absentees. Rep. L. R. Pearson of Ranger and F. B. Altman of Cisco and Abilene were visitors today.

The program was a surprise one for those who were to participate. Supt. R. N. Cluck was to have given the program, but he gave way so that a program could be given as scheduled by President W. W. Fewell and others of the committee.

President Fewell announced that two non-members of the club, who were attending for their last time today, would be honored by allowing them to make farewell talks. These persons, President Fewell said, had taken part in all Rotary activities just as though they had been members. They were W. H. LaRoque, who is moving to Donna, and Miss Doris Jamison, pianist, who goes to Fort Worth to work.

Mr. LaRoque was asked to speak first and he thanked club members for all their courtesies during the past three years, during which he had attended all meetings. He said he was not burning any bridges and could come back with the wild geese if the hometown urge became too strong. He is storing his household goods here since Cisco is the center of Texas.

Rotarian F. E. Shepard moved that a rising vote of appreciation be given Mr. LaRoque and Mr. Cluck asked that the Rotary club of Donna be told of his activities here.

Fewell then said that the sweetest part of the program would come with Miss Jamison playing some piano solos, but she, being a woman, chose to talk instead, and this she did in her fine smiling way, saying she had only served as pianist about two years, but that they had been pleasant ones. She said she would miss the club each Thursday.

After some difficulty, the president found the little parking gifts that the club had bought, after Dr. E. L. Graham pointed out where the missing packages were to be found. Mr. LaRoque was presented with a lovely tie and Miss Jamison was given a fine maderia linen handkerchief. After the closing song, the two were extended the best wishes of the club. 15TH AAF IN ITALY.—Master Sgt. Victor R. Lawson, 511 Ninth street, Cisco, Texas, an aircraft engineering technician in the ground forces of the AAF, is on his way back to the United States for redeployment after completing more than two and a half years of foreign service in North Africa and Italy.

He is returning to the states with the 425th P-51 Mustang Fighter Group. This group, veteran of 10 campaigns in the Mediterranean area has the outstanding record of scoring 537 aerial victories over enemy planes on the 587 missions flown during 28 months of combat operations. Twice awarded distinguished unit citations for achievements in aerial combat, the group also credited with the destruction of 250 enemy aircraft, 264 locomotives and 159 motor transports by strafing.

June 2, 1944, the 325th escorted heavy bombers on the first Italy-to-Russia shuttle mission and became the first AAF fighter unit to fly combat operations from a Soviet base.

Sergeant Lawson entered the army air force in November, 1941, and has been overseas since January 9, 1943. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Lawson, reside at the Ninth street address.

PUBLIC OPINION.

By ROBERT QUILLEN.

As this is written, Franco is still absolute monarch of Spain, but the Big Three are tardily greasing the skids for his removal.

Two undersecretaries of our State Department have recently made talks to explain and apologize for our government's long betrayal of American principles. One of them said the department had not known, until recently, how unpopular its support of Franco had been.

It seemed a feeble excuse. If the State Department had no way of learning how the people felt and what they thought, its shrewd members might have guessed. Dictators, destroyers of freedom, partners of Hitler and plotters against America have never been popular with the majority of our people.

Our Aid to Franco.

Our support of Franco, which no official has dared to explain, was inexcusable from the beginning.

When he and other army officers, supported by Hitler and Mussolini, started their rebellion against the Spanish government, they controlled the better part of the army and its equipment.

The government had small chance to survive unless it could import arms. Under international law it had every right to make unlimited purchases in America, and we could not prevent such purchases without becoming an ally of Franco. (No nation can support a rebellion in another without committing an act of war.)

Bogus Neutrality Act.

Though determined to help Franco, our government lacked the moral courage and honesty to do it openly. It was done by subterfuge.

We hastily passed a "neutrality act" to prevent shipping munitions to either side in Spain. The title of the act was a deliberate deception. It may have fooled a few simple congressmen but everybody else knew the purpose of the act was to help Franco.

Under ordinary circumstances, such a momentous change in national policy would have been debated for weeks; but the measure was rushed through under enormous pressure, for a ship was being loaded with munitions bought by the Spanish government. Even so, the ship almost got clear. A government boat, under orders from Washington, overhauled it before it got beyond the three-mile limit.

If We Had Supported Democracy. Thus our government and our people were committed to the support of Fascism, and gave moral support and encouragement to Hitler and Mussolini in the first bloody campaign of World War II. Nobody knows what might have happened if our government had supported democracy instead of Fascism. But this much is certain: By helping Franco and encouraging Hitler and Mussolini, we made ourselves in some measure responsible for all the slaughter and horror that followed.

FRANCE AND AMERICA.

Gen. de Gaulle may get on some Americans' nerves a little, from his frequent visits to this country and his patriotic labors in behalf of France. But he really has a place, and a case, and some important things to say about his country and ours and the present state of the world. His remarks on his arrival from Paris are worth any American's time to clip them and paste them in a book.

They concern two nations which have marched together ever since our own nation existed, upholding freedom for all men. And although France had drifted morally and economically and was struck down in this last and worst war, the spirit of countless thousands of her men was never lost, and they still fought the enemy by serving in the ranks of the Allied Nations. So the general has a right to make this statement, just as Americans have a right to hear and remember it.

"Without you, the American people," he says, "led by your two great presidents—Roosevelt and Truman—there would have been no future for Europe or Asia, but intolerable servitude. Now we have to organize the world to conform to the principles for which we all fought. In this immense task the United States will have to play the leading part. It is France's earnest desire to unite her efforts with yours in a spirit of confidence and friendship. Long live the United States of America!"

These states will indeed live long — never fear — because they are founded upon the solidest rock in the world. But our nation would be lonely without the good will and cooperation of other nations which helped us in our infancy and which now, themselves, need help. Foremost in that honorable list are France, which has always been our friend, and Britain, which in spite of ancient history, long ago redeemed herself by association with free cooperative nations.

CISCO AND THE UNITED STATES PREPARE FOR PEACE-TIME PURSUITS.

As General MacArthur takes over in Japan, the world looks on with abated breath as to what might happen. But Americans are prepared for any eventuality with the greatest display of military power ever marshaled before any conquered country.

At the same time we in this country are getting ready to meet the rapid changes that come with the end of four years of preparation and war on both sides of the world. Millions of people must change their jobs. Soldiers must rehabilitate themselves and we here must meet the changes.

We in Cisco will feel this modification of commercial and private life. We must make adjustments so that the American way of life may continue — yes, march forward to greater achievements for our standard of living.

We must take our places in the forward move. We must not stand still, much less go back. New tasks confront us. Cisco is already marching on. We must watch and see that our city meets every problem as it comes.

There is much cooperation necessary as never before. Every citizen will be called upon to join in the work. Keep Cisco a wonderful place in which to live and a joyous and prosperous place in which to do business.

It's up to us. It is our challenge. Will we meet it?

Talking Is All Right ---

... if you are running for office or courting your best girl but when it comes to buying land or town properties don't let any one talk you out of an abstract. The fact that the seller has owned the land for many years doesn't mean that the title is always good. The safest plan is to get an abstract before you buy. The cheapest property on earth is too high if the title is faulty.

YOUR ADMIRATION PACKAGE IS

than ever!

Have you noticed? Admiration's famed LAMOFILM package once again has the added protection of a heat-sealed, moisture-proof outer wrapper. Right! It's cellophane—back with honors from a distinguished fighting career. War requirements have been relaxed to permit of large quantities for civilian use. Always first with the finest, Admiration naturally is again using cellophane.

This addition gives you triple protection: First in the LAMOFILM inner liner—two sheets of special paper, bonded together with rubber. This makes an airtight, aroma-saving package in itself. Second in the cellophane outer wrapper, which keeps out moisture. Buy a package of Admiration. Observe when you open it how the aroma fills room. That shows a really fresh coffee!
