WEATHER FOILS TWO WOMEN FLIERS

COLUMBIA RETURNS AFTER SIX HOUR FLIGHT AND FRIENDSHIP UNABLE TO GET INTO THE AIR

Three planes were preparing today for ocean flights of sensational nature, two of which were foiled this morning by the elements in attempts to get under way across the Atlantic. Miss Mabel Boll, in Charles A. Levine's Columbia, returned to Curtiss Field, N. Y., after a six hour flight toward Old Orchard, Maine, when she with two male companions was turned back by heavy fog, and Miss Amelia Earhart, in the seaplane Friendship, could not get off the water at Trepassey, N. F. Three attempts to take the air were fruitless, and a fourth was to be tried, probably late today. Both are enroute to "somewhere in Europe."

The Southern Cross waited for an ebbing tide on Naselle beach in the Fiji Islands to make the last leg of its flight from the United States to Australia with a crew of four men. In addition to ocean flights there was keen public interest in projected transatlantic non-stop flight of Leo Schoenhair and Harry Tucker, from San Diego to New York, scheduled to start some time today.

Columbia Returns To Curtiss Field

CURTIS FIELD, N. Y., June 7.—After six hours in the air, during part of which time it was lost in the fog, the Monoplane Columbia returned to Curtiss Field today, having been unable to find its way to Old Orchard, Me., on the first leg of a trans-Atlantic flight.

Bible In Schools

SAN ANTONIO.—In the face of active opposition from the floor of the convention, the General Federation of Women's Clubs today passed a resolution urging all members to attempt to introduce the study of the Bible into public school curriculums.

Admits Killing

TULSA.—After killing Fabbia Green, 28, clerk for a sewing machine company, a man who said he was J. B. McNeill, 40, former city jailer, informed an undertaking company and the Tulsa Tribune of the deed by telephone, and disappeared. It was said McNeill and the woman had been living together.

Rule To Stand

AUSTIN.—Governor Moody said Thursday he would oppose any attempt to change the two-year nomination rule at the national democratic convention. Discussing the Jesse Jones boom, the governor reiterated that he personally is willing to submit Mr. Jones to the convention as a presidential possibility, but pointed out that he does not know the wishes of the other Texas delegates.

Florida Is Dry

JACKSONVILLE, Fla.—More than three-fourths of the vote cast in Tuesday's primary tabulated today indicated that Florida's unstructured delegation to the democratic national convention would be "anti Smith" in sentiment. Supporters of the New York governor were running behind the ticket in practically all districts and also in the races for delegate-at-large.

To Keep Thenonow

NEW YORK.—Sam Broadson, owner of the St. Louis Cardinals, today denied that Tommy Thenonow, great shortstop of the Cardinals, was to be traded.

More Evidence In Slaying Is Sought

HOUSTON, June 7.—Additional evidence was being gathered today in the fatal shooting of J. M. Stone, 55, trustee at the Blue Ridge state prison farm Saturday night during an attempted escape, following the discharge last night of W. J. Davis, guard.

Treaty Ratified

RIGA, Latvia, June 7.—The Latvian parliament today ratified a treaty of friendship and commerce with the United States. The treaty was signed last April.

ANTI-HOOVER FORCES COMBINE

ILLINOIS MAN IS NAMED LEADER OF COALITION

FIERY CAMPAIGN FOR "STOPPING HOOVER" GETS UNDER WAY

(By Associated Press) KANSAS CITY, June 7.—The field of opinion to Herbert Hoover completed an organization here today in an effort to prevent him from being nominated in the republican national convention next week. L. L. Emerson, republican nominee for governor of Illinois and a Lowden man, is the generalissimo of the entire anti-Hoover organization. A series of meetings of Emerson was effected at a series of meetings this morning in which supporters of Lowden, Watson and Curtis participated. Mrs. Ruth Hanna McCormick, of Illinois, also a Lowden worker, was named chairman of the publicity committee with instructions to lose no time in placing the aims of the combination before the delegates. With the perfection of the organization the combined field decided also to carry before the credentials committee the fight it lost before the republican national committee when contests were brought for seats on the convention floor. Hoover forces picked up more than sixty pledged votes in the contest, defeating unstructured or hostile delegations. Former Governor Hyde of Missouri has been retained by the combine to press the fight against the national committee's decisions before the credentials committee. It is expected he will round up a corps of assistants to aid in carrying the fight to the last ditch. Must Stop Hoover Quickly The series of meetings, most of which were held in Watson headquarters, had their inspiration in the generally accepted belief among Hoover opponents that unless he could be stopped and stopped quickly the nomination would go to him. The opinion contended that all it needs to do is to prevent the cabinet member's nomination on the first few ballots and then many of his delegates would begin to forsake him. Hoover people, however, claim that their man's support is of the kind that sticks. Clarence F. Buck, Lowden manager, will continue in that capacity but the general direction of the anti-Hoover movement will go to Emerson.

Ranger Would Halt Removal Of Shops

ABILENE, June 7.—Citizens of Abilene are preparing to take measures to prevent the removal of the Wichita Falls Ranger and Fort Worth railroad shops from that city to Breckenridge, as planned by officials of the road, it was reported here today. It was said an injunction might be resorted to should the road begin actual removal of the shops. Citizens of Abilene subscribed $250,000 to draw the railroad to the city in 1919. It was later extended to Breckenridge.

Insurance Ass'n Opens Austin Meet

AUSTIN, June 7.—The Texas Association of Insurance Agents got here today with around 40 delegates registered. State Fire Insurance Commissioner T. M. Campbell presided at the opening session and the morning session was given over largely to the appointment of committees. Fred M. Burton, Galveston, was to make the annual president's address.

Corinth Is Shaken By Tremors Today

ATHENS, Greece, June 7.—The city of Corinth struggling to repair the damage caused in several recent disastrous earthquakes, was again shaken this afternoon. Many houses collapsed and clouds of smoke overhung the town terrifying the populace. A volcanic eruption was believed responsible for the quake.

Monarchy Seen

VIENNA, AUSTRIA.—It was reported today in authoritative Albanian circles that Ahmed Bey Zogu, president of Albania, was preparing to proclaim a monarchy with himself as king.

"QUEEN OF DIAMONDS" READY TO GO

Miss Mabel Boll, 'The Queen of Diamonds,' will attempt to be the first woman to span the Atlantic by airplane. With two pilots, Miss Boll has chartered the plane 'Columbia,' which Clarence Chamberlin flew to Germany last year.

O'Donnell Quiet After Near Lynching Episode

(Special To The Journal) O'DONNELL, June 7.—With Andrew Porrine, young negro, lodged securely behind the bars of the Lynn county jail, at Tahoka, the citizens of this thriving little cotton center have returned to the even tenor of their way and all probability of racial violence, which arose Tuesday night, had been removed. The trouble arose Tuesday night when the negro was lodged in jail here after undue familiarity displayed toward a 12 year old daughter of a prominent citizen here. Approximately 250 persons made a concerted effort to take the negro from the jail but local officers, aided by others from Lamesa and Tahoka effectively halted the attack. Members of the mob hurled sticks and stones at the jail but left for their homes late at night after failing to accomplish their purpose. Charges Are Filed Charges of attempt to rape have been filed against the negro, who, according to Deputy Sheriff B. L. Parker, of O'Donnell, has threatened the child several times, climaxing his attentions Monday when he handed the little girl an insulting note. The child carried the note and her story to her father and the negro fled from the town, only to be apprehended and placed in the jail. Prior to the trouble more than 50 negroes had been making their homes here but practically all of them left when violence was threatened.

NEGRO IS HELD AFTER UNDUPE FAMILIARITY WITH WHITE GIRL

(By Associated Press) CHICAGO, June 7.—One of the occasional tragedies of divorce—the child—became a dominant note yesterday in the suit of Mrs. Anna Katherine Freeman against William C. Freeman, vice president of the National Bank of the Republic. Judge Sabath called the Freeman's son, 12 year old William, Jr., to the stand. "Tell me, William," he said, "did you ever try to have your father and mother make up and not get a divorce?" "Tears came to the boy's eyes, then he broke into sobs. "Yes, I have, Judge," he said. "But they won't listen to me." Judge Sabath studied the court room ceiling a moment. Then he leaned forward and spoke quietly. "I wish you'd try again, Billy." The case involves a "triangle," but the "other party" is neither man nor woman but business for which Mrs. Freeman charges her husband has made her a sacrifice. Freeman, in fighting alimony demands of $750 a month, averred that because of the publicity given the case he has been forced to resign the vice presidency of the bank—the vice presidency which Mrs. Freeman charges he preferred to her. Bank officials were called today to determine if Freeman had been forced out, as he has claimed.

SPECIAL TRAIN TO C. C. MEET IS PLANNED HERE

COMMITTEE MEETS AT CITY HALL TODAY TO LAY PLANS

With the Santa Fe railroad contemplating the running of a "South Plains Special" train to the West Texas Chamber of Commerce Convention which is to open in Fort Worth, June 18, preparations were started here today to assure the train from this section. A meeting of Chamber of Commerce officials will be held this afternoon at four o'clock in the city hall at the call of Tom White, chairman of the "On-To-Fort Worth" committee. Details of the securing of the train and other matters will be decided at the meeting.

Asks Delegation Of 250

"Lubbock ought to have a representation of at least 250 citizens on the train," Mr. White said today. "There should be at least 1000 persons from the South Plains to make the trip as it will be one of the best publicity stunts that has ever been pulled at a convention of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce."

HOLLYWOOD CAFE NEAR WRECKED BY FIRE AND EXPLOSION

(By Associated Press) HOLLYWOOD, Calif., June 7.—An explosion which wrecked the Russian Eagle cafe here a few minutes after a score of film celebrities headed by Charles Spencer Chaplin had fled following an alarm of fire early today injured ten persons, two of whom may die. The blast occurred in the area just west of the studio center. Theodore Loehjinsky, former Russian army general and owner of the cafe, suffered what physicians believed after first examination to be a basal skull fracture, and several head lacerations. His condition was serious. Guest Also Injured Irving P. Strother, a guest, was also believed to have a skull fracture and possible internal injuries. An investigation by the sheriff's office and the county fire warden revealed that at 8 o'clock last night eight candles surrounded by a kerosene soaked strink had been found burning in an attic of the place. A similar contrivance was reported to have been discovered at midnight. Pending co-ordination of these findings the sheriff's office declined to express an opinion as to whether the fire and explosion were accidental or the result of a plot. Several Firemen Hurt In addition to Loehjinsky and Strother, Chief Turner of the county fire department, was injured when the blast blew him through a doorway. Others who were burned or hurt include Captain W. B. Clinger, Lee K. Grogan, Charles Wildley, Carl Reinmuller and M. C. Carson, all firemen. Chaplin and the other motion picture celebrities were warned when the fire started in an adjoining antique shop. They left quickly and it was nearly an hour later when the explosion occurred. This lapse of time was given by inspectors from the office of the county fire warden and the sheriff as the reason for doubting the manager's theory that it was a gas explosion.

Pride Man Dies In Lubbock Hospital

Charles Samuel Jones, 45, of Pride, died in a local hospital yesterday afternoon. Other than his widow he is survived by his parents of Brownfield; two daughters: Lela Cathey of Beaumont, and one son, Leland Jones, of the U. S. army stationed at San Antonio. ## Loot In Detroit Raid Is $14,800

DETROIT, June 7.—The six men who yesterday held up the Detroit News obtained approximately $14,800, the paper announced today. The loot represented less than half the payroll of the paper, a part of which the bandits failed to discover and another part, several thousand dollars, which they dropped in fleeing after the holdup. Discovery in an outlying section of the automobile in which the men escaped after shooting two policemen and an employee of the News, caused police to redouble their search in the belief that the bandits still were in Detroit. Bloodstains were found in the car, substantiating a belief by witnesses that one or more of the robbers had been hit in a street gun battle with policemen. Patrolman George Barstad, shot three times by the robbers, was in a critical condition today.

FILM COLONY STARS ESCAPE BLAST INJURY

PLENTY OF FUN

Rabble, Rich And Poor Gather For G. O. P. Convention

(By Associated Press) KANSAS CITY, June 7.—Jobless gentlemen from who's who seeking work as doorkeepers; favorite son lieutenants with statements; women delegates, committee members and hostesses everywhere; miles of bunting, hundreds of flags and the local "corps of hospitality" functioning, today added to the rush of the republican national convention preliminaries. Among the scores ready to serve as a doorkeeper, or perhaps as an assistant sergeant-at-arms—just to get inside convention hall—was Jones Parker, St. Louis millionaire. But only 40-odd doors have been discovered. The "ask me" force of 5,000 Kansas Citizens will go on duty Sunday morning bearing the legend "ask me G. O. P. I live here." Twenty-three bands and drum bands Monday night, replacing in measure any blare that may have been lost when wild west stage show-ups were banned for biological reasons. Hoover, Currier, is the order in which the candidates of these candidates will march. Home of a democratic presidential candidate will be the scene of several social events. Senator and Mrs. James A. Reed have arranged house parties, informal luncheons, teas and dinners for republican and democratic visitors. Chamber has not decided whether they will go to Houston. Claim for consideration as the party's most consistent convention-goer is being made by E. S. Richardson of Marshallville, Ga.—negro delegate from the third congressional district. Now 69 years old, Richardson has attended every republican convention except one since 1864. He is for Hoover.

BUSINESS MEN APPROVE PLAN

COMBINATION OF CITY WIDE BARGAIN EVENT AND HUNT PLEASES

Combining this year's Treasure Hunt with the City-Wide Bargain Plan has made a decided hit with business men here it was discovered this morning on the heels of Elmer's announcement. Co-operating merchants went on record as enthusiastically approving the plan and were united in the belief that the event would not only be a boon for the stores cooperating but also for the people who take advantage of the bargains to be offered.

The combined Treasure Hunt and Co-operative Bargain event will begin next Monday, June 11, and will continue through seven days, closing Monday, June 18. First announcements will appear in the Avance-Journal Sunday. J. M. Myers, manager of Montgomery-Ward's store here, and Paul Carrier, head of the department store firm, were particularly enthusiastic over the plan as were Elmer L. Grollman, of Grollman's, Walter Myrick, manager of Myrick's hardware store; A. Pennington, manager of the Amarillo Furniture company and B. Sherrod, president of the Board of City Development and of the hardware firm of Sherrod Brothers.

The plan, which was originated in Lubbock and which has been copied extensively over the South, is entirely creative in that it creates business for the firms co-operating in it as of much benefit to the shopper who is afforded outstanding bargains in all kinds of merchandising. This is the third year that the Avance-Journal and the business men of the city have co-operated in the bargain campaign and from indications there will be more firms co-operating, greater bargains offered and more people interested than ever before.

Retail Directors To Session Friday

The directors of the Lubbock Retail Merchants will meet in their regular monthly session at 2:30 tomorrow afternoon. It was announced from the headquarters of the organization today. Several important matters are to be disposed of at the meeting, it was said.

MOM and Their Letters

Dearest child:
I'm very glad you have had a chance to see Judge Kelly, but I hope she has not made you dissatisfied and discontented, just because you can't buy all your clothes in Paris and gad all over the continent.

And I do wish you could consider your marriage a career enough without wanting to be an interior decorator or a chorus girl on the side.

Sometimes I think it would have been a very good idea for you had you really been obliged to earn your living—no attempt to—so—for a few years. Then you would probably know that it is not all as exciting and fine as you think.

You really have had it about as easy as any girl in town, and you made a better marriage than most of your friends—to say nothing of going to the city to live. And yet, you still feel as if you were "taking other people's dust."

When your father and I were first married, I did all the housework, and we did not have the conveniences everyone has today, and I made all your clothes—and made these was no need for my thinking of any career.

I used to think that if I were not so busy, I would love to read more, and study more, and make more of myself. After my marriage, I did not have time to keep up my music, which had always been such a pleasure to me.

It seems to me so foolish on your part, not to cultivate yourself more when you have all the opportunities a large city affords. You have a very sweet voice. I can't understand why you don't take vocal lessons, if you would have so much more to practice. Or why not join some good study classes?

Why don't you study French or some modern language? Then if you have a chance to go to Europe you can enjoy yourself so much more.

I am sure you will look lovely for the party, whether you have a new frock or not. Certainly from your accounts you must be a very chipper young wife. I am glad indeed if things go well, otherwise you might add financial difficulties to the rest of your list.

Do write often and tell me all.

Judging Juvenile Courts Is A Job For Mothers

MEMPHIS, Tenn., June 7.—"Could anyone around here tell me where to locate Judge Kelly?" a visiting lawyer asked his bellhop.

"The little ebony face lit up."

"Judge Camille Kelley, Boss?" the little fellow queried. "Why, Ah knows her, myself, Suh. She's de lady dat gets us culled folks justice," he said proudly.

He was only one of hundreds of Kelley fans in Memphis. For Judge Kelley, the first woman judge south of the Mason-Dixon line when she was appointed eight years ago, has made her juvenile court famous.

What is more, she has made most of the delinquents who appeared before her friendly. Black, white, young, old, whatever the case from a runaway black boy who stole to live, to a white beggar who beat his little daughter because she wouldn't steal, each culprit has a chance to explain his case.

JUDGE KELLEY

They court is in an old mansion

She was a Nurse
"Being a judge is just like being a mother," this dynamic woman with kindly dark eyes and a warm smile, said.

Judge Kelley should know. Born in Memphis, the daughter of the late Dr. A. P. McGee, prominent surgeon, she studied nursing and was made head of a hospital before she met T. F. Kelley, a well known lawyer. When she changed her name, she changed her profession too. While her two boys were growing up, she studied law with her husband.

Now, with both sons grown, one a lawyer and the other a reporter, Judge Kelley has transferred her attention to delinquents.

An Unusual Court
Visiting her court is a sensation in an ordinary life. It is justice in a ball room, literally. For juvenile court is held in an old mansion. Up a winding path under tall elms, through stately porticos, into a spacious ball room with lovely parquet floor, crystal chandeliers, old pier glasses and thins and a line in big pitchers in the deeply recessed windows.

"Now, Mother, tell your story," she said, soothingly. "How much does he give you a week? Now your side, Father. How much do you make?"

Quietly, sympathetically, she gets both sides of the story behind the parents and children bring to her. They talk it out together. Whenever possible she leaves children at home with their parents, at all costs she tries to preserve the home.

After court, she retires into her own study and behind the study behind the ball room. Christ curtains, wicker furniture, flowers all give a home yard. Her big desk looks upon the yard where detained children play on swings and chutes. She keeps a personal eye upon them.

Mother's Problems
"Women should function well as probation judges," she said. "For probation is a contact and women, essentially personal in their attitudes, should be expert in making contacts. The consideration of one side in a probation case is the great conditional liberty and on the other conformances in behavior with the terms imposed. It is the same thing a mother has all the time when she brings children up."

As a member of the National Probation association, Judge Kelley works constantly for more personal touch in probation cases.

In her own home town she has tried this out. Church guilds, the Parent-Teacher association, social clubs who want to help with her work with delinquents, are each given a particular child to see for, furnish reading and personal guidance. She thinks all children will behave better in pretty clothes made for them. She advocates this as an efficacious part of the treatment.

Need Understanding
"What is the use of putting children on probation if you are not going to try to change them for the better," she argues. "A child should be given the very best chance to turn over a new leaf. Understand them, give them a sympathetic ear, place them in a good environment, and you'd be surprised how large a per cent of our boys and girls come out well."

Supervising probation children, calls a mother's understanding and a nurse's knowledge. But it has all the pleasures in it, when the cases turn out right, of a mother whose family makes good and a nurse whose patients recover. It is a doubled edged job that has, I think, far more than double returns in satisfaction when things go right."

Women Are Enforcers Of The Law

If America is to have real prohibition, it is up to women to enforce the laws, in the opinion of Mrs. Henry W. Peabody, general chairman of the Woman's National Committee for Law Enforcement.

Mrs. Peabody pointed out that since Biblical days, progressive women of the past have recognized their duty as law enforcers.

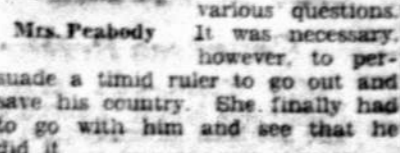

"Deborah is the first recorded law enforcement leader," she said. "Deborah doubtless would have preferred to sit under her palm tree and express her opinion on various questions, if it was necessary, however, to persuade a timid ruler to go out and save his country. She finally had to go with him and see that he did."

Women's home training steels her to the arduous tasks entailed in enforcing any laws. Her trained hand keeps the children under home law. Any man left alone with six lively children for a week might readily modify or repeal the Ten Commandments, sense his personal liberty in both hands and state with deep conviction that "women's place is in the home."

"Man the law giver; woman the law enforcer! That has been the accepted home rule in American life. Why not put it into effect in a democracy where men are making a dismal failure?"

"The best law enforcement official in Washington today is a woman, Mabel Willebrand, assistant attorney general.

"From now until election day, patriotic women are needed to hold candidates to their plain duty of enforcing the law."

Mrs. Peabody

Needle Club Meets On Wednesday

Fellowship Club To Meet Tomorrow
The Fellowship club is to meet tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. The meeting is to be held at the home of Mrs. W. C. Rylander, 1627 15th Street, and Mrs. T. R. Pridoux is to be joint hostess.

Lovely Wedding Is Held At Church

Miss Ruthie Mae Rogers, of Plainview, came the bride of J. C. Davis of this city, last night at 8 o'clock in a beautiful ceremony held at the First Baptist church.

Chlorolis were used to decorate each pew and the altar was a mass of white and blue plants.

Proceeding the entrance of the bride party, Mrs. R. L. McKnight sang "At Dawning" by Cadman, accompanied by Miss Marjorie Mitchell. She also played the wedding march from Lohengrin.

CRIME SURVEY IN CHICAGO IS FACT FINDER

DETAILS OF HISTORY OF WAVE ARE GIVEN FROM EARLY DAY

CHICAGO, June 7.—Two new chapters of a sensational report on Chicago crime were made public today by the Illinois Association for Criminal Justice. They charged the growth of a gambling syndicate which at one time reached into many other cities; and they recited in detail going back to the early 1900's the rule of the underworld and the rise of its overlords.

The association's survey, which has been financed in part by the Carnegie Foundation points to three major conclusions at the end of "this rapid survey of organized gambling."

Has Personal Center
"The first fact," the report said, "is the continuity and persistence of a form of social life organized around personalities who play an important role because of the relationship in the underworld of gambling, vice and crime are personal and feudal, rather than formal and institutional."

"The second fact is that every change in political administration (from 1907 to date) effected a change often amounting to a revolution in the existing order in the gambling world."

"The third fact is that gambling, in resisting attacks of reformers and in meeting new situations created by changes in administration, seems to have become more solidified in organization and more flexible in adaptations to new situations, and more successful in its operations. In other words, it is the ineffective efforts of the community to defend itself against vice and gambling that gives it its organized character."

Reform Is Mere Gesture
"Practically reform in the past has amounted to little more than gesture. New tactics need to be worked out in order to take into account the complexity of the situation."

The survey set forth that the complete life of one man were it known in detail, "would disclose practically all there is to know about syndicate gambling as a phase of organized crime in the last quarter century." That man, said the report, is Alvin Karpis, now a real estate man, and for more than a score of years proprietor of the general news bureau, controlling wires for the gathering and dispensing of race track news in Chicago and principal cities of the United States.

"His alliances with hard wars of violence against competitors," continues the report, "would involve the names of every gambler of consequence in Chicago for this period."
One section of the report was sub-headed "the bombing war of 1907." This was directed at Tennessee, then in the midst of building up a gambling monopoly, the report said. For several weeks' Mont's rivals were accused of fostering a "reign of terror" by bombing a dozen or more places in the first big outbreak of rival gang factions.

Lethargy of Officials
The lethargy of officials in pursuing inquiries into this 1907 warfare was set forth in the report with comment of the newspapers of that day indicating a habit of "omnipotence and officialism."
With the return of the Tammany report noted to that of John Torria, New York east side Tammany graduate and a student in the Chicago levee district.

Torria was held responsible for bringing out Donn O'Bannon, erstwhile leader who was shot to death in his floral shop, "Scarface Al" Capone of the present day and others.

Replacement Value Up In Bridge Case

DALLAS, June 7 (AP)—Replacement values and maintenance and improvement costs were contested in today's hearing before Lieut. Col. J. L. Schley of the United States army engineering corps, in which the states of Texas and Oklahoma seek reduced tolls on four bridges spanning Red River.

Today's hearing opened on the Gainesville bridge. C. M. Stubbs, St. Louis, chief bridge engineer of the Katy railroad, put the replacement costs at $164,250, while the engineers and experts of the two states estimated replacement costs at only $87,165.

OCEAN JUMPS

Bull for her trans-Atlantic flight by Charles A. Levine, who flew in to Germany with Clarence Chamberlin last summer, hopped off from Roosevelt Field at 6:14 o'clock daylight time this morning.

When it failed to arrive at Old Orchard, anxiety began to be felt. Almost exactly six hours after the takeoff the silver monoplane suddenly appeared once more over the Long Island fields and dropped out of the sky to a graceful landing.

Friendship Fails To Leave Water

TREPASSEE, June 7 (AP)—The Friendship made three unsuccessful attempts this forenoon to take off from the harbor here for its projected flight across the Atlantic. The plane was apparently too heavily laden and the wind too light to enable it to rise.

The plane, bearing Miss Amelia Earhart, Boston social worker, as passenger, and Wilmer Stultz, pilot, and Lou Gordon, mechanic, was loosened from its moorings again at 10:30 a. m. eastern standard time and preparations were made for a fourth attempt.

Carrying a full load of gasoline the Friendship rested heavily on the water as it was towed out for the first attempt this morning. The wind was light and shifting and contributed little buoyant force as the motors pulled the heavy craft over the surface.

After the three futile attempts to rise it was decided to wait a little in the hope that the breeze would freshen during the day.

Southern Cross Is Waiting On Beach

SUVA, Fiji, June 8 (Friday) (AP)—The monoplane Southern Cross rested on the sands of Naselai beach today, awaiting the ebb of tide to permit it to hop off toward Australia, the last sea leg of its trans-Pacific flight. The plane was expected to start at 2 p. m. Friday (6 p. m. Pacific coast time Thursday).

An unruly surf prevented the plane from starting Thursday afternoon. When the government steam-

Wreck Costs Only One Life

Although the locomotive was demolished and several cars were damaged, only one life was lost in the wreck pictured here at Johnston, Pa. The fireman of the Pennsylvania passenger train was killed; the engineer was hurled 200 feet from his cab and escaped with serious injuries. Passengers were scared, but nothing more.

er Pioneer arrived at Naselai with 800 gallons of gasoline the work of transporting the drums to shore was rendered difficult and slow by a rough sea. So great was the delay that dark found the plane only partially fueled and the tide coming in.

Decide on Day's Delay It was decided that the Southern Cross would have to wait another day and the plane was hauled above the high water line and made safe for the night.

The craft was completely fueled today and all that remained to be done was uncovering of the three radial motors and warming them up a bit through idle running.

Captain Charles Kingsford-Smith and Charles U. Australian pilots of the Southern Cross estimated that they should cover the 1,762 miles between Suva and Brisbane, Australia, in about twenty hours. They planned to stop at Brisbane and leave Harry W. Lyon and James Warner, American members of the crew, before going on to Sydney, the end of their 7,800 mile air journey from Oakland, Calif.

Lyon acted as navigator during the plane's flight from Oakland to Hawaii, thence to Suva. Warner was the radio man. The arrangements made before the flight started in California were understood here to have Lyon and Warner drop out of the expedition at Suva, permitting the two Australians to continue on to their home land alone.

Mark of Appreciation Blue since arriving at the Fiji Captain Kingsford-Smith changed his mind and announced that as a mark of appreciation for the skill of the two Americans he wanted them to accompany him on to Brisbane as guests of the Australians.

The long flight began at Oakland last Thursday. The plane covered the 2,400 miles to Hawaii in 27 hours and 28 minutes, land at Wheeler Field, island of Oahu, at 12:19 Friday. The fliers took their plane across the channel to the island Kauai on Saturday and started for Suva, 2,138 miles southwestward at 7:50 a. m. Sunday. The flight to Suva was completed at 6:23 p. m. Monday. All these hours are as of Pacific coast time.

SOOTER CLEARED OF MURDER FOR DEATH OF NEGRO

Berry Sooter, Lubbock county farmer, was acquitted on charges of murder in Judge Homer L. Pharr's 72nd criminal district court here Wednesday evening, in connection with the fatal shooting of a negro at the Sooter farm near Shallowater last December. The verdict of not guilty came after less than ten minutes deliberation by the jury.

self defense when he was attacked by the negro. The state in its testimony attempted to prove that the negro was shot by Sooter while standing with his hands in the air after an argument.

The defense was represented by Schenk and Triplett, and Bledsoe and Crenshaw, local law firms, while District Attorney Durwood H. Bradley handled the prosecution alone.

WARDLAW RAPS MOODY REGIME IN TALK HERE

SAYS INCREASE IS SEEN IN TAXES AND THAT PROMISE BROKEN

Stressing an economy program, rapping the administration of Dean Moody as extravagant, and claiming that Governor Moody "has not kept his promise" to the people of Texas, Louis J. Wardlaw of Fort Worth opened his South Plains campaign for governor here last night before a large crowd in the district court room of the Lubbock county court-house.

Taxes Increased

Mr. Wardlaw charged that contrary to Mr. Moody's promise to reduce state taxes that the levy has been increased by approximately $11,000,000 during the administration.

He also advocated a change in state highway department affairs urging division of the state into four parts with a commissioner elected from each and a chairman to be in general charge of affairs to be elected as other state officials are. He said he favored removal of the excitation auto license tax and would replace it with a nominal fee of approximately $3 annually for registration. On behalf of the farmer he said he favors elimination of the tax on tractors and farm machines which are not used on highways, and removal of the "nuisance" taxes in the state.

Using Own Funds

Mr. Wardlaw said he will accept no campaign funds making his race on his own funds and merits, and promised that if elected "I will stay in the state capital and be in attendance at all times on affairs of the state."

He declared strictly in favor of enforcement of all laws, state and national, including the prohibition law, and pledged an honest administration.

ITALIAN SLAVS STAGE VIOLENT DEMONSTRATION

VIENNA, Austria, June 7.—A dispatch to Neue Freie Presse from Agrani (Zegreb), Croatia, today said renewed and more violent anti-Yugoslav demonstrations had taken place at Zara, Dalmatia.

Many Yugoslavians were assaulted and their property damaged by Italians, the report said. Two Yugoslav flags were reported to have been spat upon and torn to shreds.

Italian Embassy In Berlin Stormed

BERLIN, June 7 (AP).—Witnesses of a window smashing episode at the Italian embassy today described it as an anti-Mussolini demonstration.

Stones were thrown from an automobile as it passed in front of the building and five windows were broken. One of the shattered windows was in the ambassador's study, which the ambassador had just entered.

Shouts of "Down with Mussolini!" accompanied the missiles.

The communist organ Rote Fahne today attributed the recent attack to a protest against the recent sentencing of communist leaders in Rome to the penitentiary. The paper said that after the demonstrators fled the ground was found to be strewn with hand bills reading "Down with Mussolini!"

Mr. Wardlaw was to speak at Tahoka this morning, at Snyder this afternoon, and in Sweetwater tonight, closing his tour of this part of the state.

COUNTY SCHOOL HEAD GIVES OUT STATEMENT HERE

To the voters of Lubbock county: I am not unmindful of the fact that just two years ago you elected me to the office of county superintendent of schools. I am very thankful to you for the honor you paid me in placing your trust and confidence in me and my ability to fill the position. I am grateful for the kind words that so many spoke, and the very much needed help that so many gave me. I have tried hard to be of real service to the rural schools, for it is the schools in the open country that I am called to serve. My office is not as much a court house job as it is a traveling school supervising position.

I am of the conviction that we should correlate the work of the schools of the county with those of the city more closely and that there should be a closer relationship between rural schools and business interests of the town.

I think it is poor business policy to neglect to co-operate with your neighbor. I am for Lubbock county and all its schools, and business interests of every type. To the voters I say:

I shall greatly appreciate your careful consideration of my claim to your support in the coming primary. If you think that I am doing my duty and filling the place I hold, then I shall trust that you will vote for me.

W. M. PEVEHOUSE.

tion. The statutes provide that in so far as it is practicable, the county superintendent shall visit his schools four days in the week while they are in session. I try to keep office Monday and Saturday. The other four week days I try to spend in being of real assistance to the teachers and pupils. I do my best to radiate a spirit of peace and good will between all the children and their teachers. I desire above all to earn the lasting reputation of having led the teachers and pupils to higher thoughts of life and living, and to merit the praise of the trustees of the 23 rural schools in helping them maintain good, efficient schools, with well paid, capable teachers.
