Board OK's Nimmo contract

The Colorado ISD board of trustees Monday night, following an executive session, approved Supt. Don Nimmo's contract and salary.

Nimmo, formerly assistant superintendent, was picked to replace Dr. Jim Ramsey who resigned.

The board agreed to a salary of $58,501.23 for Nimmo whose contract will expire on June 30, 1991.

Board president Dwayne Harris said the salary is basically the same as Ramsey's.

In other business, high school principal Jerry Reynolds updated the board on a proposed Saturday School designed to keep students in school who have exceeded the number of allowed absences within a semester.

Reynolds said teachers this year have volunteered their time for the program which will be administered on Saturdays from 8 a.m.-noon. State law mandates that students attend a minimum of 80 days per semester, said Nimmo.

The Saturday School would basically be a time for students to study and to make up work, said Reynolds.

Business manager Geneva Findley updated the board on the 1990-91 proposed budget with

Hospital board approves budgets, sets new tax rate

The Mitchell County Hospital District Board of Directors Tuesday night approved the budgets for both the hospital and nursing home for the 1990-91 fiscal year and set the 1990 tax rate.

The tax rate is 29.75 cents per $100 valuation and reflects a three percent increase over the effective tax rate, but is still lower than the current tax rate of 30.45 cents.

The effective tax rate (the rate needed to bring in the same amount of tax dollars) was 28.88 cents, said Jim Bullard, hospital administrator.

Based on a 99.2 percent collection rate, the new tax rate will bring in revenues of $1,536,050, an increase of about $33,000, said Bullard.

The hospital's 1990-91 budget shows projected total revenues of $2.4 million, projected tax revenues of $1.5 million and projected expenses of $3.9 million.

Valley Fair Lodge's budget for the next fiscal year shows total operating expenses of $829,621 and capital purchases of $8,450.

Revenues include $734,129 of patient revenues requiring an operating supplement of $103,942, said administrator Marsha Rickard.

In other business, the hospital approved a rewritten set of medical staff bylaws in order to better comply with Medicare regulations. The bylaws had already been approved by the medical staff. Bullard said the bylaws can be amended at any time.

Joan Merket, director of nursing, reported on her department at the hospital.

Merket said that within the last three to four months, the number of employees in her department has decreased by 12-14, but now the nursing staff is working with a skeleton crew. She said she is in process of trying to hire a few employees.

Merket said that during times of low patient census, the nurses would voluntarily take-off to help reduce expenses.

Iglehart pleads guilty; sentenced to 26 years

Roy Iglehart, 49, Monday pleaded guilty in 32nd District Court to murdering his wife and was sentenced to 26 years in prison.

The plea bargain came just after a jury panel had been qualified.

Because a deadly weapon was used in the murder means Iglehart will have to serve longer before he is eligible for parole.

Iglehart surrendered to Mitchell County deputies on April 6 after he called the sheriff's office to report his wife had been shot at their Lake Colorado City home.

Viola Iglehart, 48, was found lying on a bed when deputies had arrived. She had been shot twice in the head with a .32-caliber handgun.

CISD enrollment down first day

First day enrollment figures for the Colorado ISD revealed a decline of 35 students compared to the first day of classes last year.

Supt. Don Nimmo said that a total of 1,213 students showed up for classes on Monday, the first day of the new school year.

Last year, the first day enrollment figure was 1,248 which climbed to 1,307 after Labor Day, said Nimmo.

Grandparents' brag scheduled at county fair

The annual Mitchell County Fair will open Thursday evening, Sept. 27, for a three-day run.

The fair is held at the County Ag Barn just west of downtown Colorado City on Highway 80. The fair will be open each evening until 10 p.m. and on Saturday, Sept. 29, from 10 a.m.-10 p.m.

E&B Amusement will provide the carnival entertainment. Tickets for carnival rides will be sold in advance at the Chamber of Commerce office, 157 West Second Street. These tickets will be half-price (2 for $1) when purchased in advance. Ticket sales begin on Sept. 1.

"We urge all residents of Mitchell County to begin planning now for your exhibits which you plan to enter in the Mitchell County Fair," said Eltie Walker, chamber manager. "Exhibits for judging are open only to Mitchell County residents."

Entries will be received from 7:30 a.m.-noon on Thursday. Judging will be from 1-6 p.m. that day.

Booths for the fair are available, but on a first-come, first-served basis. An 8X8 booth is $35 and an 8X16 booth is $57. Those interested in reserving a booth should call the chamber office at 728-3403.

One of the popular exhibits in the past, the Grandparent's Brag, will return again this year. There are eight divisions - newborns, one year old, two and three year old, four and five year old, six and seven year old, eight and nine year old, 10 and 11 year old and etc., in advances of two years.

Rangers go to bat for tree program

(ARLINGTON)--Texas Rangers manager Bobby Valentine and Texas Agriculture Commissioner Jim Hightower have kicked off a "Trees for Texas Rangers" campaign as part of a broad-based statewide citizen effort to plant 17 million trees in Texas during the 1990s.

Hightower and Valentine planted two live oak trees in Newell Field, an East Fort Worth Pony Baseball park that was devastated by spring floods. Twenty members of Little League teams that use the field were given trees at the event.

"Trees are more than just shady havens to rest under after playing a hard-fought baseball game," Hightower said. "They also happen to be the most efficient environmental purification technology the world has ever known. If we plant 17 million new trees across our state--one for every Texan--we will not only give new life to places like Newell Field, we will be planting a healthy environment for future generations."

The "Trees for Texas Rangers" challenge calls for Texas businesses and individuals to contribute $25 for every Ranger win for the 1990 season to a "Trees for Texas Rangers" fund administered by the Texas Rangers

Foundation. The donations will be used to purchase trees, which will be awarded to Ranger fans whose mailed-in ticket stubs are selected in a drawing at the end of the season. Valentine and the Texas Rangers will donate other trees to local organizations.

"When the Rangers win, every Texan will win," said Valentine. "I can't think of something better to give to future generations of Texans than planting millions of trees for them to enjoy. I urge all Ranger fans to show their team spirit by contributing to this program and by planting trees on their own."

Valentine's "Trees for Texas Rangers" program is a collaborative effort with Wolfe Nursery and the Texas Department of Agriculture's Trees for Texas program. Since TDA's Trees for Texas program began in January 1990, individuals and groups have pledged to plant 6.5 million trees across the state.

"What has made this country great has been our ability to match the natural ingenuity of workaday Americans with our wealth of natural resources," Hightower said. "But we have been using up these resources at an alarming rate and, in the process, reducing their quality and value to our economy while threatening our way of life.

"While we need to continue pressing for strong environmental laws, we can't be sitting on our hands waiting for Washington to provide solutions to problems it helped create in the first place or for new technologies to bail us out of the hole that old technologies have put us in. We can take matters into our own hands. We have a responsibility to do so. One of the best, easiest and most rewarding things we can do to improve our environment is plant trees," Hightower said.

Rickard presented the July financial statement for the nursing home and Bullard presented the financial statement for the hospital.

Bullard said the hospital had a true operating loss of $45,000 for July, but by adding tax revenues, the hospital had a net income of some $60,000.

Bullard said that the "cash situation" is continually improving with some $155,000 in funds available.

Catharine Morris hosts Baptist women's group

The Susan Everman Baptist Women of the First Baptist Church met Monday, Aug. 13, in the home of Catharine Morris, group leader, who presided over the meeting.

Minutes of the previous meeting were read and the prayer calendar given by Joan Staley, remembering missionaries with birthdays and remembering missionaries who are serving in the Arabian countries.

New officers for the 1990-91 year were elected as follows: Catharine Morris, group leader; Joan Staley, mission support (prayer calendar); Jean Edwards, mission action; Anna Staats and Jean Hardee, mission study; Margaret Bodine, week of prayer program; Mary Lloyd, ministries; Virginia Dearen, reporter; and Doris Carter, Catharine Morris and Earline Sellier, yearbook committee.

Earline Sellier gave a report on the home mission board, commenting on poverty and hunger in the United States.

The program was led by Jean Hardee on "Missions the Range of Strangers". Do we meet the needs of the poor and the wealthy as well as other countries that are in an economic stress.

An update on poverty and hunger in the U.S. reveals that:

The government-determined poverty line in the United States is an annual income of $9,890 or less for a family of three and $12,675 for a four-member family. One of seven Americans lives below the poverty line. This represents 13.5 percent of the population of 32.5 million Americans.

Two-thirds of all poor people are white; rural areas have a higher percent of people in poverty (18.5 percent) than other areas of the country. Fifty-one percent of poor people are children and elderly people. Three and a half million elderly people live in poverty.

Children make up the largest segment of the poverty population. Forty percent of the nation's poor are children, 18 years of age and younger; 1 of 5 lives in poverty; 7 million have no health care; 1 of 5 reaches the age of 18 as a functional illiterate.

A 1990 report by Columbia University's National Center for Children in Poverty stated that 5 million American children under the age of 6, almost one-fourth of all children, live in families below the poverty level. This makes young children the poorest of any age group in American society. Their 23 percent is more than double the number of adults living in poverty.

Seventy-eight percent of those in poverty are women and children. Half of the poor families (51.5 percent) have women as heads of the households with no husbands present. Most female heads of households work outside the home, but typically their jobs pay little, have no health benefits, and offer less opportunity for advancement. Women in the United States earn 69 cents for every dollar earned by men. Sixty-five percent of all minimum-wage-earners are women. A divorced mother's available income drops 73 percent in the first year of divorce, while the father's available income rises 42 percent.

Thirty-seven million Americans have no health-care insurance of any kind.

The Children's Defense Fund, a child advocacy organization, estimates that in the United States a child dies every 53 minutes from the effects of poverty.

The poor people in the United States are the "little people" of the Bible - the very people for whom Jesus came into the world: children, women, the elderly, the sick, the powerless.

Members present were Catharine Morris, Virginia Dearen, Jean Edwards, Jean Hardee, Mary Lloyd, Jessie Mae Merket, Earline Sellier, Joann Staley, Louree Upton and Betsy Aycock.

Junell plans public hearing

State Rep. Robert Junell will conduct a public hearing at 1 p.m. Thursday, Aug. 30, in room 105 of the Reagan Building, 15th and Congress in Austin.

Purpose of the hearing will be to invite public testimony concerning the Colorado-Eavaca Division water master plan.

Against Winters

Wolves look good in scrimmages

After two weeks of two-a-day workouts, the Colorado City Wolves went head to head with Winter Blizzards on August 24 for the first of two scrimmages.

The Junior Varsity began the early season with a shut-out and a victory, 2-0. Quarterback Kelly Ramsey had the first score of the night on a 5 yard run. Not only did Ramsey run the option well, he had an excellent night of passing as he went 7-11 for 135 yards. One of those passes went to WR James Franco which covered 50 yards.

The other score came on a 2 yard run by RB Tracy Lentz. According to J.V. coach, Gerald Epperson, the offensive line played well, as the young men opened up holes for the running backs. "We were very pleased with the outcome," Epperson stated. The defense also played well as the Wolves did not allow any first downs. "We wanted a shut-out, and we got it," said Epperson, "we accomplished our first goal of the season."

As the freshman took the field, the young Wolves also came away with the big "W."

The big play came on a 66 yard touchdown run by Marcus Aguilar. In a scrimmage, the freshman are allowed very few plays, and Coach Todd Pollard commented, "We were pleased with their overall performance." "But we really didn't get a good look," he added.

With the J.V. and freshmen Wolves taking the victories, the Varsity was looking for the clean sweep and did just that by a score of 2-0.

Without starting QB George Ramsey, the Wolves turned to back-up Jeremy Strain to do the honors. Strain fared well throwing 3-6 for 35 yards.

Scoring first for the Pack was RB Robbie Smith. Smith followed the lead block of FB Bobby Silva and excellent line blocking to get the score from 3 yards out, while the second score came from brother, Mark Smith, on a run also from 3 yards out.

"The offensive line played well," said head coach Tom Ramsey. "There weren't many busted assignments which is good for a young bunch."

As the defense took the field, the Wolves were a little passive, but as the scrimmage moved on, the Pack pretty much snuffed the Blizzard attack.

The Blizzards did manage to knock on the door as the offense advanced the ball to the 5 yard line, but the Wolves held their ground and slammed the door shut. Coming up with the big plays were junior, Jeff Potter as he picked off a pass, and Mark Monroe caused a fumble in which teammate Robert Saddler came up the loose ball.

Coach Ramsey was pleased with the performance of the athletes and with the offense. "Each time we were inside the 10 yard line, we scored."

Can Your Child See Well Enough To Learn??

When your children enter school this fall, about 80% of what they learn will come through sight. Yet 4 out of 10 children have vision problems that can inhibit school achievement. Most vision problems cannot be detected by the familiar eye chart test for 20/20 vision. Help make your child's future crystal clear.

Does Your Child...

- Avoid close work?
- Hold reading material too close?
- Show excessive head movement while reading?
- Lose his place while reading?
- Rub eyes frequently?
- Make reversals while reading?
- Often have headaches?
- Uses a finger to maintain his place while reading?

If so, we recommend having your child's vision tested.

NOTES

by BRYAN LIMMER
County Extension Agent-Ag

The annual Mitchell County Farm Tour and the Texas Agricultural Research and Extension Center's Sheep and Goat Field Day are two events that are coming up in early September that will be of interest to local citizens and agricultural producers.

The Mitchell County Farm Tour will be held on Monday, September 10, 1990, at the Colorado City Civic Center. The tour will include several cotton demonstration plots as well as sites showing different soil conservation practices. The tour is sponsored by the Colorado City Area Chamber of Commerce, the Mitchell County Soil and Water Conservation District and the Mitchell County Office of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Two special guests are on the program this year, Representative Rick Perry, Republican candidate for Texas Agriculture Commissioner, and Mr. Charlie Rogers, program administrator for pesticides and groundwater with the Texas Water Commission.

The day will start at 8:00 A.M. with a gathering for coffee and donuts. Mr. Perry will talk at 8:30 A.M. and at 9:00 A.M. the group will load the buses for the tour. After the county tour the group will reconvene at the Civic Center for lunch and to hear Mr. Rogers speak.

The annual Sheep and Goat Field Day will be held on Thursday, September 6, 1990. The event will start at 9:00 a.m. at the Research and Extension Center located eight miles north of San Angelo on U.S. Highway 87.

The morning program will consist of outside tours under the direction of Dr. George Ahlschwede, San Angelo-based Extension Sheep and Goat Specialist. The tour stops will include: "Potential Contributions of the Australian Merino Breed to Sheep Production in the U.S.", "Effects of Supplemental Feeds on Weaned Angora Kids on Rangeland", "Treatment of Individual Mesquite with Herbicide", "Reducing Pearmouth and Other Health Problems in Sheep caused by Prickly Pear", and "Safe Use of Cotton By-Products as Feed Ingredients".

A catered lunch will be served on the Center's grounds following the tour. At this time participants may view the many commercial exhibits.

Elmer Kelton, retiring from the San Angelo based publication "The Livestock Weekly", will be honored for his years of dedication to the livestock industry. Following the recognition ceremonies, Kelton will present a program on "How Will Technology, Environmental Concerns and Economics Change Our West Texas Way of Life?"

Several speakers will present programs the remaining of the afternoon with topics including "New Leadership in the Sheep Industry", "What's Effecting our Weather", and "Looking Ahead in the Sheep and Goat Industries".

The field day will conclude at 3 p.m. with optional tours of the Wool and Mohair Research Lab or the Fourwing Saltbush Grazing trail.

The Field Day is sponsored by the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, and the Texas A&M University System. For further information contact the Mitchell County Extension Office at 728-3111.

CAPPING CEREMONY - April Mitchell of Snyder, daughter of Lyn Hardy of Colorado City and Mike Mitchell of Crane, received a cap during capping ceremonies for Western Texas College vocational nursing students Thursday. Dr. Paul Thompson was guest speaker for the program.

Loraine Personals

by Lois Phillips

By the time you read this the school bell will have called you back to the hill for another school year. I hope each of you will do your very best to make this one of the most successful years in a long time.

This will have to start at the top and go all the way down for this to happen. I hope this will be a happy year for teachers, students, trustees, parents and all workers connected with the school.

Let's all try to make this a happy memory for all the students this year. Anyone of you can encourage your kids and neighbors kids and help them realize school is not such a drag as they thought it was.

I hope we only hear happy things about our school this entire year. Is everybody willing to try? Try a compliment rather than a complaint on every student you come in contact with, whether it is classroom work or on a ball field or ball court. I think if we adults try harder for a successful year, our students will also.

I have just talked to a very happy grandmother whose granddaughter Sherri had just called and visited with her via "Ma Bell" and her crew. She is an exchange student and has three months left on her time.

Inez Webb is the grandmother and Sherri Webb, daughter of Linton Ray and Maz Webb is the granddaughter we are talking about.

Talk about a one track mind, I have one but I guess that is a little better than none at all.

Addie Mahoney spent sometime in Loraine recently and attended the funeral service for Helen Mahoney in Big Spring. Helen was the wife of Cordis Mahoney. He grew up in Loraine and Helen was a Colorado City girl.

Addie has gone back to Corpus to see about some property her grandmother owned. We miss you Addie, hurry and come home to stay.

Last week Chrystene Britton went to Lewisville to visit her daughter Jana Hollaway and daughter Jordan. The husband and father was away on a business trip while Chrystene was there.

Carla Aston of Abilene went down and stayed with Christene, Jana and Jordan from Thursday until Saturday when she and Chrystene returned home.

I hear Kenneth Butler is home from the Mitchell County Hospital and that Danny and Pam were in Dallas to attend a letter carrier's convention. I think that is correct.

Irene Kidd's sister of Abilene is spending time with her this week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hayslip of Midland ate Sunday dinner with her mother Gladys Payne last Sunday.

Sherry Rose and her daughter Angela of Fort Worth spent the weekend with their mother and grandmother Mildred Rose.

Katie Nunley of Hobbs, New Mexico stopped by to visit Mildred Rose while she was here to attend her daughter's-in-law graduation from Snyder college. She is the former Katie Crawford.

Mildred also caught me up on her sons who are in the service while she was on the line. Sidney Rose of Fort Worth is waiting to be called back in the Reserves. He has already been told to get his business in order for his unit might leave anytime.

Sylvester Rose who is an air traffic controller at Sheppard Air Force Base at Wichita Falls, has also been told to get ready.

I need to hear from your son or daughter as to where they are and where they might be going. Thanks Millie for getting yours to me.

Mrs. Rose Ella Smith was entertained with a birthday party on Sunday, August 26 at the home of her son and his family, Ike and Etta Gee Williams.

She is now 75 years old which is not very old. Aunt Rosie, hope you have many more.

Her other children helping were Isaac Williams, Horace Lee Williams, and Mrs. Beverly Y. Penny all of Abilene.

Also Shon, Shea E. and Dainal Penny of Abilene and her many grandchildren. A sister Mrs. Verna Mae Atkins of Loraine, nephew Joe and niece Vickie Atkins of Loraine, another sister Mrs. Juanita Tutt and Mrs. Netia Jean of Abilene.

Granddaughters family Billie and Rita Fay and Dain Robson of Sweetwater, Mildred Rose, Charles McPeters of Florida. After the Happy Birthday song a bountiful lunch of barbecue brisket, beans, salads, pie and cake were enjoyed by all.

Gifts and greetings were given to the honoree and she in turn thanked everyone for the gifts and cards and the food.

I have a letter I need to pass on to you so that you will know what is happening to some of our friends.

Hello Lois, We look forward to the Loraine News in the Colorado City Record each week. Thank you for your time and effort for those of us away from "home" in Loraine.

Jack and I will fly to Houston on Sunday, August 26 for Jack to have his third heart surgery. It's to be in St. Luke's Hospital on Tuesday or Wednesday. Dr. Denton Coolie is the surgeon.

We are concerned but feel he'll do fine with God's help. Our daughter, Jeanie Finn and her mother-in-law, June Finn and cousins Luther and Oneta Biter, all of Odessa plan to be with us.

Roy and Marilyn Hall will meet us and we'll share a dinner and visit a little while. We'll be looking for news of you in Loraine and former friends from Loraine in your write-ups.

Love, Jack & Mary Love Allbright I have their address in Odessa if you would like it: 1702 West 24th Odessa, Texas 79763

Jack, we wish you the very best of luck: May God bless you and Mary Love.

This Roy and Marilyn Hall are people a lot of you will remember. Roy was born and raised here. His parents were Roland and Clara Hall. He is also Price Hall's brother, thought I'd mention that as Price lived here longer than the rest.

The children and grandchildren of Gladys Noel were host to a family dinner honoring her on her 85th birthday recently in the Housing Authority Building in Colorado City.

Mrs. Noel and her late Husband, W. J. Noel were former residents of Loraine where they farmed north of town for several years. They moved to her present home at 1305 Pine Street in Colorado City, 28 years ago.

Her children are Boyd Noel of Lubbock, LaVeda Brooks of Abilene, Dub and Wanda Blankenship of Roscoe, Roy and Mary Helen Price of Loraine, R. C. and Sue Nell Noel of Colorado City, Turner and Vivian Noel of Euless and Bill and Melba Kreidel.

There were 59 attending and were all children, grandchildren, great-grandkids and great-great-grandkids. Good luck for the next several years.

Home Economics HAPPENINGS

By Dana Davenport Mitchell County Extension Agent

Did you know that 93 percent of American families fit patterns other than an employed father, homemaking mother, and two or more children living at home?

The U.S. has changed a great deal from the days when the family farm was a way of life and the family was the source of strength and support for all its members. Today, many parents and children do not see each other all day because of job demands and activities of the children.

What does all this have to do with 4-H, an action program for youths aged 9 (or in the third grade) to 19?

4-H offers many opportunities for the 4-H'er and his parents to join together in working toward a common goal, said Dana Davenport, Mitchell County 4-H program coordinator with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. In 4-H, parents and youth can learn and grow together through a sharing of experiences, communication and work. That's why 4-H is an activity for parents, too.

Because of working together in 4-H, lines of communication are open between parents and youth.

4-H encompasses many different projects, and there is something for everyone's interest and lifestyle. Regardless of the project chosen, one of the most important benefits derived is that of strengthening the bond between parents and their children through communication, through experiences and through work.

4-H offers parents, as well as youth, an opportunity to grow, to develop and to learn. So, 4-H is for parents, too.

If you would like more information about the Mitchell County 4-H program and the variety of programs and projects offered contact the Mitchell County Extension Office at 728-3111, Mitchell County Courthouse Annex.

Public Notice

Southwestern Bell Telephone Company has filed an application with the Texas Public Utility Commission to introduce new optional services - Call Control Options. The initial service areas will be Laredo, McAllen and Austin. Expansion into other service areas will be based on availability. Customers in other areas will be notified when these services become available.

Call Control Options include six new services - Call Blocker, Call Cue, Call Return, Priority Call, Call Trace and Selective Call Forwarding. The features will be available to single-line residence and business customers.

Call Blocker - enables the customer to block incoming calls from a maximum of three specified telephone numbers and/or to block the last incoming call.

Call Cue - enables the customer to automatically redial the last outgoing telephone number dialed. If the recalled number is busy, equipment will monitor the line for a maximum of 30 minutes and will let the customer know when the call can go through.

Call Return - enables the customer to automatically redial the telephone number of the most recent incoming call. If the number is busy, Call Return will continue to dial the number for up to 30 minutes, or until it completes the call.

Priority Call - provides the customer with a distinctive alerting signal, ring or Call Waiting Tone (if the customer has subscribed to Call Waiting), when the customer is called from a maximum of three preselected telephone numbers.

Call Trace - enables the customer to initiate a trace of the last incoming call received. The number, date and time will be recorded by Southwestern Bell Telephone so that the call's origin can be identified.

Selective Call Forwarding - enables the customer to forward incoming calls from specified telephone numbers (maximum of three) to another telephone number.

Wolves ready
against 'Dogs

One of the biggest rivals for the Colorado City Wolves is the Bulldogs of Coahoma, not to mention the Ballinger Bearcats, but for more than ten seasons, the Wolves and Bulldogs have battled on the football field for bragging rights, but mainly for pride and honor. For the most part, this game meant everything for the winning team.

As the 1990 football season gets closer, the two will meet; however only in a pre-season scrimmage. "We had a few open dates, but they weren't interested in playing us," stated Coach Tom Ramsey.

The hard-nosed "Dogs" are looking good in the early season as they defeated the Merkel Badgers by a score of 3-1. Coahoma is extremely quick and is blessed with some size which includes two athletes that weigh in the neighborhood of 280 lbs. and 250 lbs.

As what to expect in Friday's scrimmage, Coach Ramsey is not exactly sure what he will see. "We're going into it (the scrimmage) blind, the only information we have is last year's game film."

"They (Coahoma) are a much improved team," said Ramsey. "we'll have to go into this game with a little more preparation and emotion. I don't ever go into Coahoma, Texas, without being emotionally ready."

In comparison to the Winter's scrimmage, Coach Ramsey will see this scrimmage more as a game type situation. "The first scrimmage is usually low-keyed, but against Coahoma, we'll turn IT up!"
