Home Service And Junior Chapters Discussed At Meet

Strong Red Cross chapters geared to maintain top effectiveness in aid to servicemen now in the readjustment period after the war were urged here today by representatives of the American Red Cross midwestern area office, St. Louis, who conducted an institute for chapter leaders in the Settles Hotel.

Discussions were conducted by Miss Lydia Schwartz, home service, and Miss Lou Eskridge, Junior Red Cross. Presiding was R. W. Whiskey, local Red Cross chairman. Appearing on the luncheon program were County Judge Jas. T. Brooks, who addressed the group, and personnel of the Big Spring Bombardier School who presented entertainment numbers. Miss Schwartz said that servicemen's requests for Red Cross aid in home and family problems come from overseas at the rate of 1,000 to 1,500 a day, not to mention the thousands of other requests handled from camps in this country.

"Prompt chapter investigation any report, no matter where the family is, constitutes the Red Cross obligation to the servicemen," said Miss Schwartz. The requests from overseas usually are cable to chapters by Red Cross field directors when men are back of the lines for short rests after being in combat areas. They get to worrying about things at home and want word within a few days, before they have to return to action again.

"The Red Cross does not like to see any man go back into the danger zone without answer to his inquiry about home. But it takes an efficient home service setup in every chapter, no matter how small, to guarantee quick answers to this vital morale service."

Miss Schwartz pointed out the growing load upon Red Cross chapters arising from the drafting of fathers and the discharge of wounded men. Questions about family allowances arise as fathers go into service. Men with disability discharges seek advice on claims for government benefits, vocational rehabilitation, and general readjustment to civilian life.

"Chapters must be prepared to serve these men in every community, now and for years to come," said Miss Schwartz.

Sixty percent of Texas' school population was enrolled in the Junior Red Cross last year and the objective this year is 100 percent, Miss Eskridge informed her section of the conference. Her suggestion to chapter leaders were pointed to the enrollment-for-service campaign of the Junior Red Cross scheduled throughout the nation November 1 to 15.

"Through their wartime projects, Junior Red Cross members in Texas have provided their part of a national total of more than 9,000,000 comfort and recreational articles for members of the armed forces," Miss Eskridge declared.

"As part of their home front program Junior Red Cross members carrying on their work in the schools, hold first aid, water safety, accident prevention, functional swimming, and nutritional certificates."

Notes

MARY WHALEY

Envy is one of the most peculiar of human traits but perhaps one of the most understandable ones too. Everyone envies someone else for something they have something they do, or something they are. And in return, the envious one is the object of envy of someone else, if they only knew it.

A girl can envy other girls for a number of reasons. Money, clothes, social position, appearance. Yet if this girl could peer into the heart and mind of the one she would like to be, she would find the same emotion there. For no one is completely satisfied with his lot in life.

Men envy other men for their money, position, past or future and yet if they knew this object of envy well, they would find he too is longing for something else.

World figures who call kings, presidents and ambassadors by their first names are looked upon with awe by some who wish they were in their shoes. Yet the man or woman of affairs may secretly long to be the king, president or ambassador. Or perhaps, just wish to be an ordinary citizen with ordinary friends and ordinary business.

To know a person who is completely satisfied with his position in life would be a glorious experience. But this person is yet to be allowed to grow to maturity. Only little children are free from envy.

150 Rentals For Freezer Lockers

The 150 mark in locker rentals had been passed Wednesday, a combined report from the two banks and the chamber of commerce, receiving agents for the advance deposits, showed. These payments were being made to the Big Spring Locker Plant, which company proposes to install a freezer-locker plant with sharp freezing unit to accommodate 650 lockers.

Before priority applications can be made, however, there must be a total of 401 locker rentals paid in advance. All funds thus deposited have been ordered placed in escrow at the banks by Marvin Sewell, long time Big Spring resident and meat dealer who has let contract to construct the plant.

Prices of the locker for one year vary from $10, $12.50 to $15 and $20.

Naphthalene Works On Mice And Moths

Flake naphthalene or "moth flakes" is a protection against both mice and clothes moths but for different reasons. Mice dislike the "fragrance" of the flakes, while moths die from the fumes.

As the flakes evaporate, they give off a vapor which, if sufficient, kills moths. So wool and fur are safe from moths if stored in tightly sealed trunks, chests, or closets with plenty of flakes to fumigate the interior. A few flakes scattered in open closets or bureau drawers, even if they give off plenty of odor, will not disturb the moths.

Mice, on the other hand, have a keen sense of smell and particularly object to the "mothball smell", according to government biologists. At this time of year mice from outdoors come in to cellars and attics, flakes scattered over and around stored mattresses, upholstered furniture, clothes, books, and bags of seed are good and cheap insurance against mice.

Country Butter Now 10 Points

Point value of country butter now is 10 points per pound, the Office of Price Administration has advised. On creamery butter the point value currently is 16 points per pound. At the same time the OPA announced a one-point-per-pound increase on most cuts of pork. Center loin, chops, and spare ribs were hiked two points per pound.

Food Locker Plant Being Financed

Very good progress is being made toward the financing and planning of the Big Spring food locker plant. That is as it should be, for this is a war measure no less than any other of the war industries. First, the frozen food plant preserves food without loss of essential vitamins; and, second, it encourages the production of food to enable the community to feed itself.

There never has been a time when all of our people needed to be well fed more than at the present. In this all out war time each individual, whether in the military forces or the civilian home front, is either a help or a hindrance toward winning this war. "The U. S. needs us strong." We cannot be strong without well fed healthy bodies.

Food produced at home and stored in the frozen food locker does not add to the burden of our transportation system. The question of cost does not hold people back from producing food for home use. And experience has shown that people who are supplying their own tables with needed food of their own production are the most dependable producers of food for sale.

But now the next step in the building of the Big Spring food locker plant is to be taken by the people who will use. Locker rentals must be deposited in the bank to guarantee that it will be used, before the necessary priority to build it can be secured from the government. There need be no delay, if everyone will act quickly. On the other hand, practically every locker plant in the country has all their lockers rented. These may all be rented while you are delaying to put up your rental money. While it is a large plant, still there is only enough lockers for one out of six families in Howard county to have one.

Farm Bureau To Hold Meeting

Howard County Farm Bureau will hold its annual meeting Saturday, October 30, at 2 p. m. The session will be in the district court room in Big Spring. The principal business will be the election of officers and delegates to the state convention which convenes on the 15th of November. However, any business whatever may be considered at the annual meeting, said J. A. Bishop, president.

Howard County Farm Bureau now has over 300 members and it is the plans of its leaders to make it the foremost county farm organization of the state.

THE PROGRESS OF MATERNAL AND CHILD HEALTH

Part 11
Many thousands of babies are sacrificed each year in the United States because they are not even privileged to be born alive. During 1941, 75,133 infants were still-born; in 1940, 73,688 and in 1939, the number was 73,467. These figures would equal the population of a large city and they exceed by far the present population of our three health unit counties.

An special study of a large number of stillbirths in hospitals revealed that more than half (56%) died before labor; the remainder (42%) died during labor. Premature birth, birth injury or congenital malformation is usually the cause of death of a stillborn infant who dies during labor. Here again, the importance of good prenatal care and delivery care in prevention of stillbirth is very evident.

Many thousand stillbirths can be prevented each year. Those lives should not be sacrificed if they are preventable.

Selectees Leave For Induction

A number of white men on the October call were shipped Thursday morning to induction centers for processing, the local Selective Service Board announced today.

Most of the men were volunteers for the navy Seabees and the group contains a number of transfers to this board from other counties. Henderson Crockett, negro, left Thursday for reception center at Fort Sill. He was an enlisted reservist on the October colored call.

The area and population of India are roughly equal to those of the whole of Europe, excluding Russia.

Liquor Violations Filled In Reeves

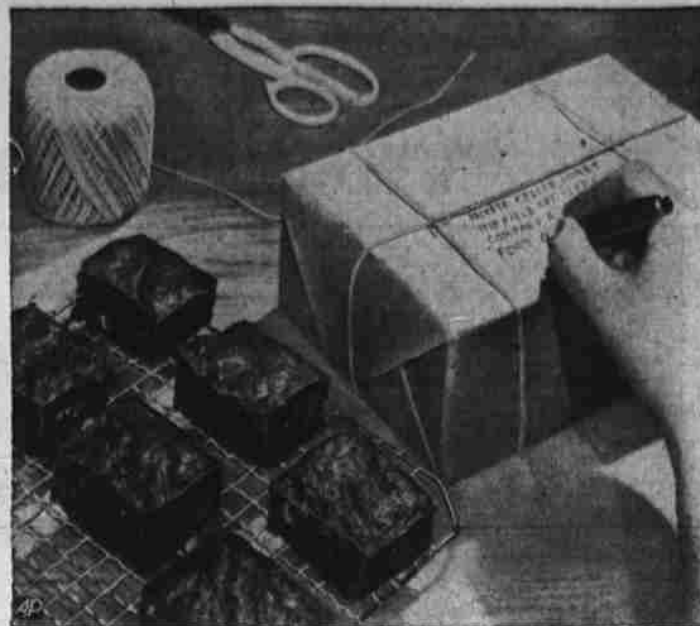

Two cases of liquor law violations were filed in Reeves county, Big Spring district of the Liquor Control Board, on Sunday, Supervisor Wallace Law said Wednesday.

John Bird was charged with possession of untaxed liquor after his apprehension in Pecos. Son Wright, negro, was charged with sale of liquor on Sunday and was fined $100 and costs in Reeves county court after he pleaded guilty.

The woman, twice divorced, was charged with forcing her children to sleep on the floor so the iceman could have a warm bed.

Surprise Boxes Of Home-Made Goodies Go Swell With Boys And Girls At Camp

BRAN FUDGE SQUARES: A-1 with the Army.

By MRS. ALEXANDER GEORGE, AP Food Editor

Keep the home fires burning for soldier and sailor boys and girls in training camps, by sending them boxes of home-made goodies.

Members of the family, old and young, will enjoy taking a hand in fixing up a box of home-made cookies, cakes and confections. Friends and neighbors often like to contribute delicacies to a package of treats for Johnny or Mary, so give them a chance.

Youngsters with appetites like to have CHOCOLATE BROWNIES, chewy NUT BARS and squares of spicy MOLASSES CAKES. And these are all good travelers. They can be packed snugly without breaking and keep well when enclosed in plenty of waxed paper.

Soft SOUR-CREAM COOKIES, their tops flaked with chopped candied fruits, grated sweet chocolate bits, can be tied in packages of four or five cookies and wrapped firmly in waxed paper for safe traveling.

FILLED COOKIES appeal to most youngsters away from home. Roll out rich sugar cookie dough on a floured board. Cut out large cookies. Spread with a creamy date, raisin or maple cream filling and cover with more cookies. Press edges of cookies with fork to keep in the filling and prick the tops with the initials of the recipient (this adds fun to the box). Bake as usual. Filled cookies are substantial and keep well.

BRAN FUDGE SQUARES

2 squares unsweetened chocolate
 1-3 cup shortening
 1 egg
 1 cup sugar
 2-3 cup flour
 1-2 cup bran
 1-2 cup chopped nuts
 1 teaspoon vanilla
 1-2 teaspoon salt

Melt chocolate and shortening over hot water. Beat egg well, add sugar and continue beating until light and fluffy. Add chocolate mixture. Stir in flour, bran, nuts and flavoring. Pour into greased, square baking pan, making layer about 1-3 inch thick. Bake in moderate oven 25 minutes. When cool cut in squares.

FIG AND DATE BARS rolled in chopped salted peanuts add a gay touch to the box. See that these bars are of ample size.

WHAT DO YOU LIKE ABOUT COFFEE?

Freshness?

TRUE ENOUGH— for it's vitally important! Freshness preserves the various qualities that are blended into a fine coffee. Admiration's robust, delightful fragrance, always pronounced when a package is opened, is achieved by careful blending. This type for aroma, that for strength, another for richness, and so on. Together they produce the mellow, exquisite flavor you enjoy so much in Admiration and in Admiration alone. Moisture, varying temperatures, absorption of odors, handling, and delay from roasting oven to coffee pot—all cause deterioration in freshness. To prevent any such losses, Admiration provides two strong, fail-proof safeguards—Tbermalo-Roasting and The Lamo film Package.

TRIPLEX PACKAGE Lamofilm

Lamofilm is really four packages in one. The inner-liner is made of two sheets of grease and moisture-proof paper bound together with a patented, rubberized cohesive. Tear a piece of it and hold briefly over a match. The sheets when heated will separate. The inner-liner is contained in a lithographed paper bag—a third protection. Then the whole package is wrapped in moisture-proof cellophane, which in turn is heat-sealed. No air can get in. No freshness can get out.

In these days of intense activity and extra effort, a cup of Admiration at mealtimes, in-between periods, parties, or on other occasions gives just the right lift to appetite and spirit! The piquant, lingering flavor, the taste of richness, the elusive aroma, combine to make a beverage that's truly the Cup of Southern Hospitality. Here's coffee satisfaction that never varies! One cup after another and each is always a good cup.

War News Eloquent Argument That WAC Does Need Women, WAC Recruiter Says

A story in Tuesday's Herald ... some of the reasons why women said they had not enlisted in the military branches for women. Lt. Mary F. Goldman, WAC recruiter, tells why she thinks women are more needed in military service than in civilian life.

... (Ed.)

"If the nation's women, or more particularly the Big Spring women, are refraining from joining an Armed Service on the grounds that they are not needed, they have only to read the war news to become convinced. It could hardly be termed pseudo-patriotism to remark that the 70,000 dead boys ... are to be replaced. The appeal is hardly glamorous, to tell the women that their job as a service woman is vitally necessary to speed in victory.

"The Herald poll showed that the women contacted were using as their excuse the fact that their jobs in civilian life were more important. Had they said 'important,' there could have been no argument, but 'more important'—NO—there is nothing MORE important than saving the lives of our boys and getting them home quickly. That should be the one and ONLY goal of every true American. After that is accomplished, then we'll have time for the 'important' things.

"The fine thing about the WAC is that it is the means whereby women may be taken out of civilian jobs that are not vital and put into all-important spots in the military. As a member of the WAC, they are not constricted by civilian ties, but may be sent quickly to points where their help is desperately needed to replace a man.

"The government of the United States has realized that the nation's women are a necessary factor to the armed services. To that end they have appropriated sufficient funds to properly equip and train the women for the essential jobs. It is not for we 'small fry' to say that the Government is all wrong."

Approval Needed For Truck Areas

Truck operators in the nation are now forbidden to inaugurate new truck operations or extend present routes or delivery areas without obtaining prior approval of the ODT, John W. Reed, district manager of ODT in San Angelo announced Thursday.

The amendment forbids any motor carrier to increase his mileage by extending his operations into areas or over routes not now served. The order effects all truck operators performing over-the-road, local cartage and pick-up-and-delivery operations.

Any carriers, private, contract or common which desire to extend operations or establish new ones must first obtain approval of the ODT. However, in the case of private and contract operators, prior approval is not required for a change in routes within a delivery area provided the change consists of a consolidation of existing routes or the substitution of a new route for an existing one. If the new routes do not consist of an enlargement of a delivery area or an increase in mileage.

To obtain approval of extension of mileage, the carriers will be required to show that the new service is necessary to the war effort or to the maintenance of essential civilian economy.

"All operators will have a right to appeal a district manager's decision," Reed said, "but I hope that operators will not request permission to extend their routes or areas unless they themselves are convinced that the additional truck mileage is unquestionably necessary to the country's welfare."

Jury Hung In Cosden Suit

After two hours deliberation, jurors in Howard county court Wednesday failed to agree on a verdict in the case of Cosden Petroleum Company versus Al P. Groehl, suit for debt, and were dismissed by county judge, James T. Brooks.

In the case of E. E. Matthews, charged with driving while intoxicated, a jury found him guilty and fined him $50 and costs. Jurors were W. I. Broadbent, Alex K. Miller, E. S. Crabtree, J. M. Bucher, R. E. Lee, and W. A. Brimberry. Jurors were dismissed Wednesday afternoon and court was set for November 16th.

Tires Discussed By OPA Officials

A conference with district OPA officials was held Wednesday night at the Chamber of Commerce office with members of the local tire panel and representatives of the oil industry when more tires for oil industry for wildcatting purposes and proven leases were discussed.

J. Doyle Settle, Lubbock district rationing officer, Alton M. Reeder, and C. E. Stock of El Paso, were among the officials here for the conference. They were enroute to Sweetwater where they will conduct a district meeting today.

Settle told the local men attending the conference that a better grade of retread rubber for passenger cars was in prospect in the near future. The new type of retreads will be camel-back retreads such are now used in truck retreads.

Also discussed were possibilities of getting more tires for the oil industry following a government plan of encouraging wild cat oil wells, and working proven leases. The officials told that the retread situation is looking better but that the tire situation was in worse shape and would continue so until synthetic rubber production proved itself.

The men complimented the local ration office on the biggest improvement in a year of any other office in the district.

Purported Heirs Attack Land Title In South Texas

HOUSTON, Oct. 28 (AP) — An attack by purported heirs of four Spanish grandees upon title to South Texas oil and grazing land worth millions of dollars is being studied by Federal Judge Allen B. Hannay.

Judge Hannay said it would be two weeks before he could wade through voluminous briefs, motions, answers, two international treaties and the Texas Declaration of Independence—all filed or cited in two civil suits—and reach a decision of plaintiff's motion for summary judgment.

The motion was filed by D. B. and R. Tuck Chaffin and E. Garland Brown, Corpus Christi attorneys, for Dimas Ygnacio Ybarra Amaya and others, residents of Camargo, Tamaulipas, Mexico. Defendants include the Stanolind Oil and Gas Company, The Southern Minerals Corporation and the Robert Driscoll ranch in Nueces county.

The plaintiffs allege that the Nueces river and not the Rio Grande was the southern border of the Republic of Texas and that all the land between those rivers was ceded to the United States by Mexico in the treaty of Guadalupe-Hidalgo.

Declaring they inherited 32,440ths of approximately 20 leagues of land granted by the Spanish government in 1806, the plaintiffs contend the clause in the Hidalgo treaty guaranteeing "inviolable property rights" to Mexican nationals applies to the "ceded" land, including the holdings they claim.

The defendants have denied that any part of Texas was ceded by the treaty ending the Mexican war, that only parts of New Mexico, Arizona and California were ceded.

In one brief, Stanolind attorneys said: "The defendant is expected to argue that the treaty of Velasco was never ratified by Mexico because Santa Anna had lost power when he returned home. To say that the boundary established by the treaty of Velasco was not the Rio Grande would be to say that Texas did not win the battle of San Jacinto and its independence."

Yearlings And San Angelo Kittens To Play Here Friday

The Big Spring Yearlings may play a game here Friday at 3:30 p. m. against the San Angelo Kittens, John Dibrell, athletic director, announced Thursday.

Wayne Matthews, Yearling coach, has booked a game with the Concho Cats, but there was a possibility that it might be postponed to avoid possible conflict with the evening game between the Steers and Tahoka.

However, unless there is some announcement to the contrary, the Kittens will be here Friday afternoon. It will be the fourth game of the season for the Yearlings.

Livestock Market Is Slightly Stronger

Butcher yearlings commanded up to 11.00 while stocker steers and heifers each were bid to 10.50. Volume of hogs through the ring was light but prices were stronger at 14.10.

McNutt Queried By Senate Committee

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28 (AP) — Paul V. McNutt, chairman of the War Manpower Commission, was called before the senate war investigating committee today for an investigation of what Senator Truman (D-Mo) termed the continued "wasting and hoarding of manpower."

While the hearing was ordered specifically on charges of manpower wastage by the North American Aviation plant at Dallas, Tex., Truman said McNutt would be asked generally to "explain his methods of dealing with the manpower problem."

Here 'n There

Mrs. W. H. Bagley heard from one of three sons in service Wednesday. Nolan Bagley, Sic, put back into port after two months at sea and wired his mother. Of course she had high hopes he would get to come home, but then came a telephone call Thursday. He was putting right back to sea. However, Mrs. Bagley was happy for it was the first word from him in two months. Last week she had her first letter since May from another son, Pfc. Felton, who is with the coast artillery in Alaska. A third son, Cpl. Richard Bagley, who was in the coast artillery, has been a prisoner of the Japanese since the Philippine campaign. Come Nov. 11, it will be exactly two years since she has had direct word from him.

W. J. (Billy) Garrett is carrying his hand in a sling for the reason the hand is now minus the end of one finger. Helping Dr. O. E. Wolfe doctor some cows he somehow got his finger caught in a rope. John Masters, often the target of some of Dr. Wolfe's jokes, cried out when he saw Garrett: "Bill, stay away from him. There's no telling what he'll do."

Howard Smith, AOMSc, who has been in Florida as an aerial gunner in the navy, is visiting with his mother, Mrs. Felton Smith, a few days while enroute to a new station in Washington state.

There is an old saying that "you can't get all the coons up one tree," but Fletcher McKinnon doesn't believe it. The other night he heard his dogs barking beneath a shoulder high Chinese elm. Thinking they had a cat cornered, he spotted his flashlight on the tree. There covered four blinking raccoons. Fletcher has the hides to back up his story.

Sammy Burns, formerly an employee of Lee Hanson's before he entered the army five and a half months ago, is home for a short visit with his mother, enroute from Camp Wolters to a new station.

John Stiff, stationed by the Seabees in Rhode Island, has been here for the past week visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Stiff. To tell the truth, he says, it gets plenty cold, what with salt spray being whipped by a gale in 20 below weather.

Jendo Turner, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Flora Rogers, were over Thursday from Stanton. She has been in California working until recently. Her husband, Leo Turner, has been shipped overseas in the Pacific area as a Seabee.

A man from Knott paid a $15 fine for affray in city court Thursday. The other party, released to appear at 9 a. m., wasn't able to be up and about. The fight occurred near the Crawford.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Langley, Vealmoor route, have heard from their son, Sgt. Vernon Langley, who has been seeing plenty of action. Vernon could not say where he was, but the implication was plain. "I have been seeing a lot of fire works and I don't mean July 4 fireworks. It has been the real thing this time," he wrote, and added, "There are a lot of beautiful mountains and streams here and the water is just like ice." What puzzled him was that he couldn't mention his army, but that folks back home could hear broadcasts about what he couldn't tell.

Navy Trainees Save Children From Fire

AUSTIN, Oct. 28 (AP) — Three Navy V-12 trainees stationed at the University of Texas were credited today with saving the lives of two children in a fire here.

Dead in the blaze which swept an apartment yesterday was a Thomas Holohan, Jr., three months old son of Lt. and Mrs. Thomas Holohan. Lt. Holohan is stationed at Camp Hood. Injured were Mrs. Holohan, who aided in the rescue; their two daughters, Sandra, 18 months and Patty, 4; and Eugene Sappington, district fire chief. All suffered severe burns.

The naval cadets who went into the burning building to bring Sandra and Patty to safety were A. Fricke of Manitowish, Wis., T. K. Freeman of Santa Cruz, Calif., J. P. Kenesly of Pacific Grove, Calif.

Justice of the Peace Mace Thurman said his investigation showed that the fire apparently started from a bathroom heater.

Slav Partisans Beat Back Nazis

LONDON, Oct. 28 (AP) — Gen. Josip Broz' (Drug Tito's) peoples liberation army has smashed back German tank attacks in Montenegro and other partisans have inflicted heavy losses on German units in sharp fighting only 10 miles from the northern border of Albania near Kolasin and Berane, a communique issued over the free Yugoslavia radio said today.

The communique also said that former Yugoslav General Djukanovic and 30 other officers described as Montenegrin quislings helping the Germans have been captured and another 21 killed, including a "traitor" named Stanislau.

Eisewhere on the Yugoslav front partisans broke through the German lines to capture the town of Skofja Loka, northwest of Ljubljana, where they destroyed a large textile factory and railway line, derailed a German military train and severed all postal communications with the Ljubljana area.

Wall Street

NEW YORK, Oct. 28 (AP) — Utility preferreds pushed up in today's stock market but light profit taking in recently strong specialties such as the liquors tended to shift most leaders to the minus ranks.

Prices began to slip here and there after a fairly steady opening. Transfers were around 800,000 shares due to early sizeable blocks of low-priced issues which were virtually unchanged.

Stock touching peaks for the year or longer included senior shares of Electric Power & Light, American Power & Light and J. I. Case common. In front most of the time were Consolidated Edison, Sears Roebuck, Oliver Farm, Philip Morris, Du Pont and Austin Nichols "A."

Among losers were Schenley, American Distilling, Distillers Corp.-Seagrams, National Distillers, U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, Chrysler, U. S. Rubber, Santa Fe, Chesapeake & Ohio, Douglas Aircraft, Eastman Kodak, U. S. Gypsum and Westinghouse.

from where I sit... by Joe Marsh. Ned Buxton was home on furlough last week. And you ought to see the fuss the town made over him. Seems like almost everybody wanted to give a party, or a testimonial dinner, or stage something special in the way of celebration. Of course, Ned acted grateful. But he told me later all he really wanted was to sit down with a few old friends, enjoy a glass of beer or two, and talk about old times again. I guess that's how many soldiers feel. They don't want a lot of fuss made over them, with formal celebrating and such. What they really like are the simple pleasures—one of Mom's home-cooked meals, visiting with friends over a glass of beer—enjoying things that mean home and comfort and security. From where I sit, our biggest job, apart from helping win the war, is making sure those things are waiting for our men when they come back home for good.

Meet the Stars

With Luis Rosado

Have you ever met the guy next door? I don't mean as a casual acquaintance, but the guy with whom you have gone with on a double date—or the guy to whom you talk to as though he was your brother. That's the sort of a guy Bill Carter is—or at least you feel that he is that kind of a guy when you meet him—and after you meet him you are quite sure he is. When you meet Bill, you meet a rather tall (6 ft. 2 in.) young man of 25, with broad shoulders, light brown hair and a good-natured handsome face. His speech is kind of lazy and so is his gait. He looks like a guy you have met before or read about, or better still like the guy you always imagined never did anything but have a good time—yet within your self you know that his fun wasn't in the usual common manner. For Bill's life has been anything but a good time.

To begin with, he was born in Liverpool, England of English-Irish descent, arrived in New York when he was a small boy. His education was attained between New York and England. At 16, Bill was practically able to light cigars with dollar bills—not that he inherited any money—but through brain work. He and a friend conducted a tour for tourists in New York that proved a very profitable business.

That was all right, but Bill was looking for something more colorful. He could swim very well. To his eager ears came word that Billy Rose was going to start something called the aquacade at the New York World's Fair. Bill applied, because he thought the work might be amusing. Little did he know that Billy Rose would feature him in the new type of entertainment. Show business was in his blood, since he comes from a long line of stage people on the Carter side of the family. Bill learned a lot while he was with the aquacade, so much so that when he came to the West Coast someone talked to him about entering the movies. Bill was willing to try it—it was different.

Then it happened. That little man with the miniature mustache was raising too much gloat over his success in conquering the world. Bill joined the fight. He and a group of courageous lads made up the first American ambulance unit to hit the African front. But driving ambulances wasn't for Bill. He got himself transferred to the British Infantry. The fall of Tobruk found Bill a prisoner of the enemy with bayonet wounds in his neck and broken ribs. The will to live won over the enemy. Bill and two other prisoners managed to escape by swimming out into the Mediterranean.

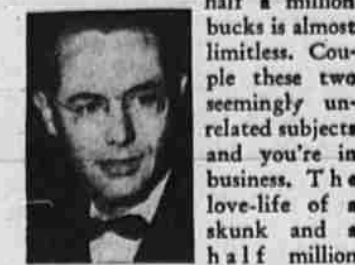

Back in New York, thanking his lucky stars that he was alive, although he was temporarily invalidated by the war, Bill started a new life. First by taking a wife. That was something that happened—not just all of a sudden, for he had known the girl for quite a while. Nancy Deere Wiman is her name, but to Bill it is more than a name as he remembered this beautiful girl even when his scatterbrain tried to deviate from such things as romance.

Hollywood discovered Bill. It wasn't an accident, since Bill had met an agent in previous years who had talked to him about a screen career. This time it became a reality when Columbia studios took a look at the personable young man and signed him on the dotted line. His first picture, "My Kingdom for a Cook," has been received enthusiastically by preview audiences. So enthusiastic fact that the studio doubted it, thinking that Bill had stooges in the audience sending cards in praising his performance. They were convinced when another preview was held without the knowledge of anyone at the studio. The reception was greater. Bill doesn't fail to air his gratitude to Charles Coburn for his help and to Marguerite Chapman for her cooperation in their scenes.

On the Sets

With Irwin Allen

The love-life of a skunk is required reading nowhere except in skunk schools. And the number of laughs a guy can have with half a million bucks is almost limitless. Couple these two seemingly unrelated subjects and you're in business. The love-life of a skunk and a half million bucks worth of laughs could get together only in Hollywood. And get together they did.

Irwin Allen

Offhand, being of sound mind, you wouldn't hesitate in giving a snap judgment to the extent that "Dr. Paul Joseph Goebbels, His Life and Loves" would hardly make digestible screen fare. And yet there's a guy in this town who's ready to bet a half million bucks that you're wrong. As a matter of fact, the dough's already up because the picture, costing just about that much, is almost finished. W. R. Frank is a guy with an idea. Guys with ideas can be bought by the dozen at less than wholesale rates. But guys with ideas and the dough to back them up are worth a listen. So, listen we did.

Frank is an exhibitor. An exhibitor is an owner of one or more theatres. Frank owns seventeen of them. An exhibitor is also the keeper of a pet peeve. The peeve is exhibiting pictures that aren't quite up to your standard. So you decide to become a producer and exhibit your own pictures. It's a cycle that happens almost every day. But rarely is it fully realized.

Frank decided that even skunks have a love life and that people would pay to see such a picture. The picture carries its own insurance. If people won't come to be entertained, they'll come to boo. Surprising how people will pay just for the sake of booing, but they do. Alfred Zeisler and Herbert O. Phillips wrote the screenplay based on their actual experiences in Germany. Zeisler is also the director. Zeisler is also Hitler. Believe me, the number of laughs a guy can have on half a million bucks is limitless. You can make your friends writers, directors and Hitlers. And to top it off if you're not satisfied with just being the producer and the eventual exhibitor, you can be an actor too. Frank plays a small role also.

The odds are excellent that Frank will make a fortune with his love-life of a skunk. And even if he doesn't, there's no limit to the number of laughs he'll get for his half million bucks. Never know laughter could be that expensive. But then prices are going up on everything.

Cobina Wright, Jr., has taken time off from picture to become a mother—and she is very proud!

After enjoying a big Broadway success, Rosemary Lane returns to Hollywood, for more sunshine and relaxation.

"A LADY TAKES A CHANCE"

RKO presents Jean Arthur and John Wayne in a romantic comedy with Chas. Winninger, Phil Silvers & Cy Kendall.

When does a lady take a chance? Is it when she tries to follow her instinct or when she falls in love? These questions are answered cleverly and humorously in RKO's "A Lady Takes A Chance." Jean Arthur is the lady. She works in the vault department of a bank, rather an unromantic atmosphere. But she is soon to change that routine. She is about to embark on a two weeks vacation, which according to the advertisement promises "Romance, Adventure, Wonders of the West and Fourteen Breathless Days." The trip is miserable until she goes to a rodeo and romance is thrown at her when John Wayne is bucked off his horse right into her lap. From then on it's a series of situations heavily on the humorous side. Then Jean gets the idea that John is the man for her, starts making all sort of planning. However, John sees himself as an almost married man, tells her he's not going to get hooked and walks out on her. But later he weakens and gives in—you see he has had time to think how much he loves her.

Jean Arthur, long recognized as one of the top comedienne of the screen, adds another hit performance to her record which is very brilliant.

John Wayne plays his first comedy role and he does a swell job. His response to this new type of characterization promises to be a new milestone in his very successful career.

Charles Winninger plays Wayne's pal and his adventures will keep you roaring. Phil Silvers, Mary Field, Grant Withers, Grady Sutton, Hans Conreid and Don Costello appear in chief supporting roles.

Director William A. Seiter, whose forte is comedy, has done it again with his work in "A Lady Takes A Chance."

In "The Girl From Monterey," PRC has neat entertainment. It's a story about boxing with a hands-across-the-border theme.

A Mexican youth is brought to New York by his sister, who is a dancer and singer in a night club. She guides his boxing career until he reaches the point where he has to fight a title holder. The title holder is in love with her and when the Mexican fighter is influenced to break training she thinks that her sweetheart is responsible. But all ends well, with the two fighters giving up their career after the big event and join the armies of their respective countries. Armida plays the sister, giving a neat performance and delivering several songs. The fighters are Terry Frost and Anthony Caruso. Jack La Rue, Edgar Kennedy and Veda Ann Borg lend strong support.

Speaking of Glamour

By Frances Scully

TOPS IN TOPPERS
Tops in toppers, and tremendously popular with Hollywood stars, are those influenced by our Allies and our own military styles—past and present. Together they include inspirations from the Chinese, the Russian, the Dutch, the Mexican, the American officer, and good old John Paul Jones.

Frances Scully

The Russian influence is evidenced in a stunning new fall and winter pillbox selected by Jane Wyman, Warner Bros. player to be seen soon in "Princess O'Rourke." It is of short-cropped black caracul, is higher and thicker than the usual pillbox, and is worn in a forward pose after the tilt of the Russian Cossack hat. A smart drawstring bag as a companion piece makes the ensemble smart for daytime suit wear. For after-hours, Jane ornaments both hat and bag with jeweled clips, her favorite pair composed of cabochon emeralds surrounded by pinwheel "streaks" of diamonds.

To wear with a white lamb sport coat, young Joyce Reynolds, has chosen a charming Dutch bonnet of Kelly green velvet. Around the base of the crown are stitched felt flowers in red, yellow and blue.

A large beret of black hatter's plush, adapted from the Chinese coolie hat, is a fall hat choice of Alexis Smith. It has a squared bumper edge trimmed with tiny scallops of handmade black lace. A pair of jade hatpins are set toward the left front for accent.

Black satin is used for Ida Lupino's John Paul Jones tricorne which she wears with a dressy suit and black satin gloves. A round satin cord bands the crown and ends in brilliant tips.

Earlines have entered the fashion news. Instead of pendants, large or small, buttons and such, which have long held sway as ear adornments, ear jewelry has now swung to the reverse and the latest decorations now extend upward.

Earlines are particularly effective with the latest upsweep hair dress with the full ear exposed.

Among the first actresses to wear earlines is Barbara Britton Paramount starlet seen in "So Proudly We Hail," who has adopted a pair of silver earlines set with two tiny emeralds.

Q: Melvin Ingram, Montaboo, Texas—Would you please send me the life history of Randolph Scott?

A: Randolph Scott has played in some forty-two motion pictures and he has now decided that his favorites were the westerns, like "The Desperados." Scott was born in Orange, Virginia on January 23. After going to Georgia Tech and the University of South Carolina he decided that he wanted some excitement. Just at that time the first World War broke out and Randy enlisted. When he returned he spent a couple of years on his father's plantation, then headed west with the intention of becoming an actor. When Scott reached California he enrolled at the Pasadena Community Playhouse. After appearing in a few plays there he was signed to do a picture, since then he has been working steadily. His 6 ft. 2 in. of height and 185 lbs. adapt him well to outdoor films. He has hazel eyes and light hair. Scott is now under contract to Columbia, but will next be seen in Universal's "Corvette K-225."

Lufkin, Marshall Tilt In Schoolboy Spotlight Friday

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Editor

Lufkin and Marshall, rated with the top six in the Texas schoolboy gridiron parade, get together tomorrow night at Lufkin in a game that takes the spotlight for the week although there will be crucial conference battles in four districts.

In addition to matching undefeated, untied teams the Lufkin-Marshall joust will determine the power of East Texas in the state playoff between sixteen district champions starting the week after Thanksgiving.

Otherwise interest rests on important conference games in districts 2, 3, 5 and 15.

In District 2 Vernon and Childress clash in a battle expected to furnish the eventual champion. Vernon is a heavy favorite over Childress, although the latter is unbeaten in conference play. Amarillo crushed the Bobcats while Vernon gave the Golden Sandies a very interesting evening indeed in recent inter-district struggles.

San Angelo's mighty Bobcats tackle the first of two strong challengers for the District 3 crown when they meet the Odessa Brones at Odessa. Sweetwater, undefeated and untied, will be the other, San Angelo playing the Mustangs Nov. 10.

District 5's first major battle is between Denison and Paris Friday night at Paris. Denison is undefeated while Paris has dropped a couple of games, but the Wildcats will be tough for their traditional foes, who have shown strong signs of slipping.

District 15's championship is due to be on the line when Austin battles Brackenridge (San Antonio) at Austin. These two teams are rated tops in the district and Brackenridge offers a rugged hurdle indeed for the defending state titlist.

There are 51 games on the week's schedule in Texas with 34 of them conference affairs. Here is the schedule by districts:

1—Friday: Plainview at Brownfield (conference), Pampa at Lubbock (conference), Shawnee, Okla., at Amarillo.

2—Friday: Childress at Vernon (conference), Burkburnett at Quanah (conference), Electra at Olney (conference).

5—Friday: Denison at Paris (conference), Sherman at Galveston (conference), Durant, Okla., at Bonham.

6—Friday: Greenville at Arlington (conference), Highland Park (Dallas) at Denton (conference), Sulphur Springs at McKinney (conference).

7—Thursday: Amon Carter-Riverside (Fort Worth) vs. Arlington Heights (Fort Worth) (conference); Friday: Fort Worth Tech vs. Masonic Home (Fort Worth) (conference).

8—Friday: Crozier Tech (Dallas) vs. Forest (Dallas) (conference); Saturday: Adamson (Dallas) vs. North Dallas (conference).

Player Shift May Change Loop Chances

By The Associated Press
The big exodus is here. This is the week when trainers pack their bags for transfer from—or to other—Southwest conference schools.

Out of the jumble may come a football championship for Texas A. and M. The Aggies didn't have any naval trainees to begin with and because the boys are so young will not lose many to the army.

But not so the other teams of the conference.

For instance, Texas loses Joe Parker, one of the finest ends in the country. Parker goes to Galveston medical school. Southern Methodist sees Billy Shaw, regular guard, depart for Great Lakes. Ed Cloud, center, has received his Marine orders. Bill Squires, triple-threat back, is being transferred to Texas Christian but isn't certain whether he will play football there.

Texas Christian is hardest hit with seven players departing, including four regulars—Harry Gardner and Doug Carter, backs, and Billy Hale and Dick Smith, halfbacks.

Rice is losing its fine tackle, Charles Malmberg.

Less Moore, Aggie wingman, was called to the army this week but that has been the extent of A. and M. losses. Arkansas has already lost back Ewell Thompson, Nathan Hudson and John Tull to the service and guard John Carpenter will enter the Navy next Monday.

North Texas Agricultural College will find its football team virtually wrecked, losing 22 men including Pete Stout, star quarterback; John Bond, smashing fullback; Clarence McMin, line halfback, and such fine linemen as Doyle Caraway, Harold Crossen, Jim Reed, Burnie Smith and Jim Wright.

Southwestern also is hard hit with Jackie Field and Ken Matthews the touchdown twins; tackles Zuehl Conoly and Bubo Barnett; guard Les Proctor and center Jack Sachse to be among the missing next week.

Texas Tech doesn't lose a single man. There is only one boy as old as 18 on the squad and he is classified 4-F. Tech has no naval trainees.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
NEW YORK, Oct. 28 (AP)—Stirring the embers in baseball's hot stove, Danny Litwiler, who hasn't buried his memories of the world series in his winter job as teacher of general science, physical education and health and basketball coach at Ringtown, Pa., high school writes: "You must admit we can play better ball. Put us in the same league as the Yanks and they could never catch us." That might be true, but it also might be that the Yanks wouldn't catch 'em because they'd be going in a different direction.

... Jimmy Johnston, who seldom has a good word for boxing commissioners, takes time out to regret the resignation of Tris Speaker as chairman of the Cleveland commission. "He was one of the few commissioners who ever applied the rules with common sense," says J. J. J. "He knew his job was to regulate boxing and that's all he tried to do."

Can You Beat 'em
Couple of high school grid feats that will be hard to beat: Mike "Tiny Tim" Roussos, New Castle, Pa., tackle, kicked a 35-yard point-after-touchdown on a muddy field during a recent game. His team drew a 15-yard penalty on the first attempt and that's how far the ball actually traveled.

... In Richmond, Va., 15-year-old Osborne "Sonny" Ashworth of St. Christopher's high, threw just three passes against Benedictine and all three clicked for touchdowns.

Today's Guest Star
Al Del Greco, Hackensack (N. J.) Bergen Record: "It might interest musicians among the readers to know that Howie Nelson (Tenafly high griddier) is the brother of Ozzie Nelson, who used to strut his stuff at Rutgers. Ozzie now is wanted by the gendarmes as one of the murderers of 'Pistol' Packin' Mama'."

Service Dept.
Ensign T. R. Dawson, all-southwest guard at Texas in 1938, recently resigned his commission to become an aviation cadet—and at the same time lost his place on the Del Monte pro-flight football team. ... Capt. Charley Erbstar California quarterback of two decades ago, has acquired an impressive staff as coach of the Hickam Field, Hawaii, team. His assistants include Maj. James Stacey, ex-Oklahoma and Lions' tackle; Capt. Ed Henning of Texas and Illinois; Capt. Raymond Hyman of Dartmouth and Lieut. Ted Staffler of California.

Fans May Catch Sight Of 1944 Steer Gridders

Big Spring fans may get to see their 1944 Steer football team in action Friday against Tahoka if the old dope bucket doesn't start doing a dipay-doodle.

By all odds, Big Spring should be able to handle the Bulldogs and if this proves the case in the early stages of the game, Coach John Dibrell will most assuredly yank those lads who may not be back next year. For one thing, he wants to give his youngsters more experience than his charges this year have had; for another, he doesn't want to run the risk of getting some of his mainstays boogered for the all-important San Angelo game on Nov. 11.

Pete Hudgins is apt to play a whale of a lot at end, and if things go right, Dibrell may even use some of the Yearling talent such as Joe Bruce Cunningham, who shows promise of being as rugged a defensive end as the Steers have had in a long time.

Ed McConnell, who some say is the hustlingest aspirant out, will get to play considerable at tackle although this is his last year. It will be a fine tribute to Ed's spirit. Alvin Mize and Billy Underhill also will be at tackle a great deal. At guards, Leo Rusk may be found instead of in the backfield, for Dibrell may move him to the line next year. That being the case, Rusk will be one of the best forwards in the entire district. Others to see service include Tommy Clinkcales, Harry Middleton, Ike Robb. Bob Wright probably will play a great portion of the game at center.

Too much shifting in the backfield won't be possible for two potential backs, PeeWee Simmons and Ike Davidson aren't eligible this week. PeeWee lost out when he had a tonsillotomy, but he's making his work-up right along. John McIntosh and Bob Sisson will see considerable service. Pete Cook may run from fullback instead of end.

Early in 1942 it was estimated that there were more than 21 million refrigerators in American homes.

San Angelo Star—Milton Rathbone, 151-pound mainstay of San Angelo's undefeated high school football team, has averaged over 50 yards on his touchdowns runs this season—and he has made ten of them. He is the keyman in a fast-breaking T formation and seldom carries the ball, but when he does he uses his speed to leave the opposition flatfooted. He runs 100 yards in ten seconds. But not only is Rathbone a fine runner, kicker and place-kicker but he also is quite a passer. He pitched three for touchdowns in a 71-6 rout of Lamesa.

Cub Field Day To Be Held At City Park

Saturday will be field day for Cubs—and for all youngsters of nine to 11, inclusive, who wish to participate.

H. D. Norris, field scout executive, announced the day long program at the city park and said that competition would be between dens and packs. Other lads who are interested in Cubbing but who are not members are invited to attend.

Those who do not have transportation are to meet at the First Presbyterian church Saturday at 10:30 a. m., and those who have ways are to meet at the softball field in the city park. Each boy is to bring his lunch, for there will be a continuation of games and contests in the afternoon until the program is complete.

Ramblers Meet Mexican Squad

SAN ANTONIO, Oct. 28 (AP)—The Randolph Field Ramblers, underhanded powers of Texas service football, branch out into international play Saturday night when they meet the No. 1 team south of the border—the University of Mexico.

No one expected to have more than an average team this year; some of the colleges took them on as "breathers." But three days before the Ramblers opened the season one Glenn Dobbs arrived. He had been sent to the field for ground duty when he was turned down as a cadet because one eye was too much out of line with the other.

Dobbs was an All-American at Tulsa University last year. He's been an All-American with Randolph, too, carrying the Ramblers to five straight victories.

So they got ambitious, scheduled Mexico N. and announced they'd also like to meet some high-powered team in a post-season game.

This Randolph-Mexico game is due to bring out a crowd of 20,000 fans. The game is a natural for San Antonio—a town with a large Latin-American populace, steeped in Latin-American history, and surrounded by eight large army camps and air bases.

The Mexico eleven is coached by B. A. Hoban, former Harvard player. Football south of the border now is challenging baseball and bull-fighting for favorite sport honors.

Angoff Retains Title Crown

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 28 (AP)—Sammy Angoff is still the lightweight champion, and the very last fellow to dispute it today would be Luther (Sluggo) White, Baltimore negro, who got the boxing lesson of his life last night in 15 rounds.

It was one of the most interesting and unusual fights ever held here. As the boys started the fourth round a generator failure plunged the Hollywood baseball park into darkness. It was an hour and seven minutes before electricians repaired the trouble.

The crowd sat good-naturedly through the interim without any marked display of displeasure. The boxers retired to their dressing rooms after waiting in their corners for the first half hour, blankets piled over their bathrobes to shut out the cold night air.

When the fourth round got under way again, 10 seconds had been pared from it. That was the elapsed time from the instant they rushed from their corners and indulged in one exchange before the arcs went out.

Angoff was complete master of the situation. He went out in the first round to steal the play from the fast-punching White. He danced away and around the negro and came back to deliver any number of hard, delayed left and right uppercuts. This tireless smashing had a marked effect on White over a long period of time, and in the fourteenth and fifteenth he seemed on the verge of being knocked out.

First with the Truth

The Balkans!

Risking capture and death, Daniel De Luce, veteran Associated Press war reporter, stole into the Balkans and came back with the first eyewitness accounts of events there in two and a half years.

Getting the truth out of Axis-held countries is nothing new for De Luce who has had to flee before German, Italian and Japanese forces in Poland, Czechoslovakia and Burma during this war.

De Luce returned to the European continent recently with British invaders of southern Italy and drove 100 miles through No-Man's land in a jeep to make the first contact between the British 8th Army and the American 5th Army at Salerno.

"It is a privilege to be a war correspondent," De Luce once wrote, "and no reporter shrinks from taking the chances of his assignment."

De Luce, typifying AP correspondents the world over, has kept his word since the war began.

Editorial - - - Hitler's Slave Problem

Reports sifting through neutral countries out of Germany indicate Hitler's biggest headache now are the 12,000,000 foreigners brought in to do war work of various types. They include many Frenchmen, Russians and Italians, and reports say that as the going gets rougher for the Luftwaffe and the Wehrmacht some of these slave laborers become more and more difficult to handle. Sabotage is on the increase.

Hollywood— Aurora Sister Of Carmen, But Is No Miranda

By ROBBIN COONS HOLLYWOOD — Aurora, just Aurora, is a pretty lady from Brazil who wants to avoid "confusions" and so insists on being Aurora, just Aurora—with never a dash of Miranda.

"Eef I am Miranda too, then they put it outside the theaters, and people come in to see Carmen, and then they see me and they are disappointed," she explains. "Eef they come to see Aurora, they may not like me but they will not be disappointed that I am not Carmen."

Aurora has been avoiding "confusions" for two years in Hollywood now, turning down offers that were based on cashing in on the Miranda name. She has made one film for Disney — "I was Keessed by Donald Duck in It" — but "Phantom Lady" is her first acting assignment. She is playing the role of the song and dance star. And she will be billed as Aurora.

"Carmen and I, we used to sing together in Brazil," says Aurora. "We were singing at the Urca, a casino in Rio de Janeiro, when Ty Power and Annabella came to Brazil and saw us. Then the Shuberts came, and saw Carmen. I was not singing then, I was on a vacation. So they asked Carmen to come to New York, and Carmen wanted me to come too, but I said, 'No, no, no, I am married, and my husband and I, he is an aeronautical engineer, we come to America on our honeymoon. He works now at Lockheed, and we all live here together—my husband and I, and Carmen, and my mother.'"

Aurora's debut in pictures will not bring another beauty in fruit-and-vegetable turbans to the screen. The sisters used to do their singing in Brazil in conventional evening dress, and Carmen's "Souze American Way" costumes were strictly New York stage — adapted from the native dress of the Bahia country.

the symbol of the tension inside those lofty pillars. Here was the nerve center of a world at war. Within the great doors sat men who decided when the bombers would unloose their loads on Germany, when the fleet would strike in the Pacific, whose son and whose brother would sail out of an unnamed harbor for an unnamed battlefield. Here weary men from the suffering countries of Europe described the agony of their people to the president of a free land.

"Just looking at it sort of gets you, doesn't it?" said a man to the woman with him on the street car platform next Sally. "Yes, people may kid about patriotism, but that's what you feel when you look at it."

She had decided to look first over in Anacostia for her office in the southwest section, and Anacostia would be convenient. Old-time Washingtonians turned up their noses at Anacostia, but it was a part of the city made flourishing and active by the tremendous influx of war workers. It was pretty too, for Pennsylvania Avenue ran uphill there at a sharp angle overlooking the river.

"We will be very deferent, Carmen and I," says Aurora. "Carmen is so full of life, and I am not so. I like more to sing than to dance, and I like to sing with much sentiment. We have many beautiful songs in Brazil, and I will sing these."

Quiet, soft-spoken Aurora looks a little like Carmen, but she's not in the same league as a perpetual motion machine. This may or may not be a handicap for Aurora — but then Carmen has never been keessed by Donald Duck.

Washington Daybook— Jap Propaganda Forces Action On Philippines

By JACK STINNETT WASHINGTON—In spite of the fact that Japanese propaganda provides a lot of snickers (boys back from the Pacific tell me that they listen constantly to the Nip radio for first the good American dance band music, but secondly for the laughs they get out of Jap efforts to discourage or frighten them) the Administration had to make two major moves recently to block it.

In the first instance the Jap beat us to the draw and badly. No sooner had President Roosevelt asked Congress to give him the right to establish Philippine independence the moment the time is ripe instead of waiting for 1946, than Tokyo announced the immediate independence of the Philippines.

That is a laugh, but don't think it isn't an effective propaganda weapon. By merely relaxing some military regulations over the Philippine civilian population and tossing the ball to puppet leaders, they can create a semblance of independence that might leave many civilians there with little heart for seeing their islands again a battleground.

The second move to cut out a Jap propaganda cancer came when, with Administration urging, the House Rules Committee cleared the way for a vote on the Magnuson bill, which would repeal the Chinese exclusion act.

No single move by our government or statute on our books has provided the Japanese with such an effective propaganda weapon as the act by which the Chinese, out of all the peoples in the world, are forbidden entry to these shores and of course denied the right of naturalized citizenship.

Both editorially here and among supporters of the Magnuson bill on the hill, the Chinese exclusion act has been deplored as one of the most antiquated and unfair laws on the books. Its inception was, perhaps, almost a humanitarian measure, for it came when western employers were importing Chinese coolies by the boat load. They were virtually slave labor and in some sections so upset wage scales as to reduce American labor to pauperism.

Those were the lush days of immigration. Immigration quotas have been shaved and shaved until today, if the Magnuson bill passes, as most observers are positive it will, the Chinese under present quotas could enter only at the rate of 105 a year.

In view of this and of the damage the act has done in our relations with our ally, it is difficult to see how there could be strong objection to its repeal.

Capital Comment -- 'Closed' House Is Fiction

By GEORGE STIMPSON Herald Washington Correspondent Cornelius Hite, said to be the last Confederate veteran in the District of Columbia, died this week at the age of 101.

"The management has been directed to strictly enforce the long standing house rule that all members must write and sign their restaurant check BEFORE the waiters can serve them. By order of the Board of Governors of the National Press Club."

Senator Tom Connally attended a meeting at which the responsible agencies of the government and representatives of the oil industry asserted that after Army and Navy needs are deducted the current available supply of gasoline left for civilian uses is only about 60 per cent of normal for that purpose.

Speaker Sam Rayburn: "Evidently a quorum is not present. The Doorkeeper will close the doors, the Sergeant-at-Arms will notify absent members, and the Clerk will call the roll."

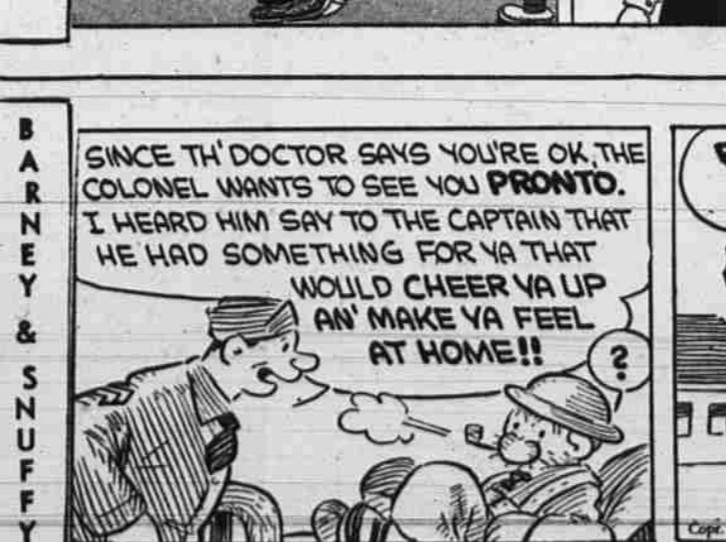

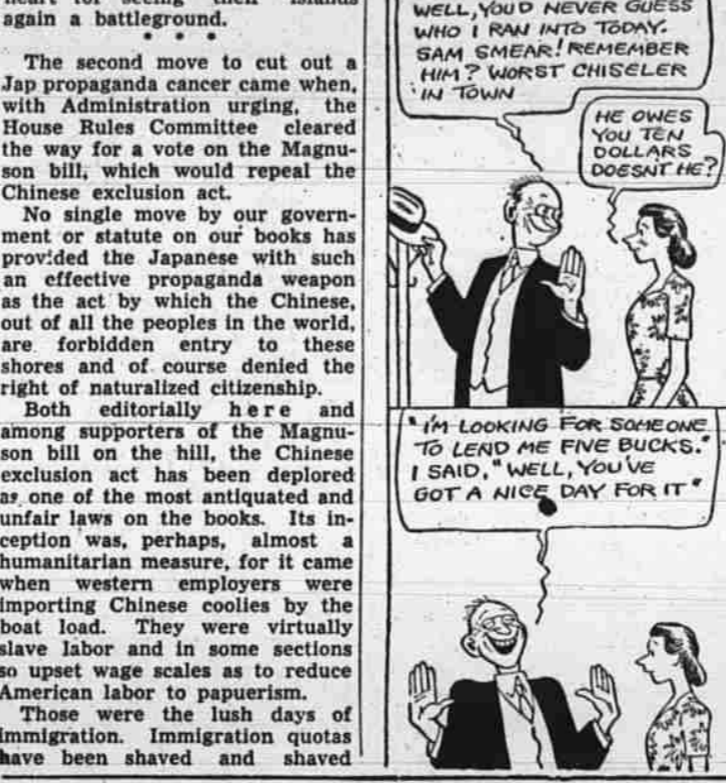

Hon. O. C. Fisher of Texas: "Mr. Speaker, the Auxiliary of the Veterans of Foreign Wars recently conducted a timely and spirited nationwide essay contest on the subject of 'United We Win.' Young people from every state in the Union participated. I take pride in learning that two weeks ago the national winner was announced as 15-year-old E. E. (Pat) Murphy, Jr., of my home town of San Angelo, Texas. For that signal honor and accomplishment young Murphy was awarded the first prize of $1,000, which he immediately invested in a war bond. The essay is timely and thought provoking. I ask unanimous consent that it be printed at this point in the Congressional Record."

Congressman Dick Kleberg inserted in the Congressional Record a statement by Roy Miller, vice president of the Navy League of the United States and Texas state chairman for Navy Day. "Once again," says Roy, "we are privileged as American citizens to observe Navy Day, which annually occurs October 27 on the birthday of that great American, the late Theodore Roosevelt, who deservedly is recognized as the father of the modern American Navy. Organized over 20 years ago, the Navy League of the United States has justified its existence by its constant and persistent advocacy of a Navy large and strong enough to protect our country and to safeguard the traditions and principles which constitute the foundations of our national life."

filled with respectable rooming houses. But she wasn't doing any better here. She had walked for miles up and down streets, up and down steps of houses inspecting shabby rooms. Worst of all there was a gnawing worry inside her that threatened to dislodge the milk shake. What if I can't find a room? I won't have any place to stay. And I haven't money enough to get home.

Desperately she opened the paper once more. The address of the top caught her eye. Sally had skipped it because it was another share-out-room ad. But she was standing almost in front of the exact number. Just to find sleeping quarters anywhere was a vital necessity. She climbed the millionth pair of steps. A friendly-faced girl with curly black hair opened the door of 4B a crack, and said in a swift sentence, "eight dollars a week, half a double bed, no housekeeping privileges, share the bath with six others, don't come in if you're over thirty."

The tight ball of worry broke suddenly as Sally laughed. It was as unreal as Mack Sennett humor, but it was friendly. In a flash Sally accepted, and was accepted. "Typical government girls, that's what we are," said the curly-haired girl perching on one end of a brass bed that absorbed a quarter of the room. The talk moved swiftly back and forth among the four girls. Where do you come from, where do you work.

In a haze from weariness and relief, Sally thought how like a sorority this was. The girls had sized her up, and hadn't black-balled her. She belonged. Room hunting was over.

Open Today—

Even circus troupes have their troubles, and this is the explanation for a delayed opening of the VFW-sponsored Donovan Bros. Indoor circus, which made its first performance at the city auditorium at 2 p. m. Thursday. There will be others at 8 p. m. today and matinee and evening shows Friday as the VFW uses its share to apply to the debt on its home at Ninth and Gollad. Wednesday a big transport broke down and only part of the show was here for the scheduled evening performance, which VFW officials thought wise to cancel. Among many acts in the circus is Baghdad (above) a rare performing camel.

MANY NEVER SUSPECT CAUSE OF BACKACHES

This Old Treatment Often Brings Happy Relief

Many sufferers relieve nagging backache quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys. The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the excess acids and waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about six pints a day. When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backaches, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 60 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

City Dads Firm On Liquor Ordinance

City commissioners, in their semi-monthly meeting Tuesday evening, stood pat on a city ordinance which zones the areas in which beer and liquors may be retail.

They rejected an application to sell beer on premises fronting on the Gail road. Application had been made on the grounds that the road was a highway. The city ordinance restricts beer and liquor sales to the downtown district, a small area in the Mexican section and to establishments on highways. However, the highways are explicitly set out as US No. 1 and 87.

At the meeting, reports were heard on the League of Texas Municipalities convention in San Antonio. B. J. McDaniel, city manager, Mayor G. C. Dunham and J. D. McWhirter, city secretary, explained that the meeting was long on discussion of current as well as post-war problems. Everywhere, said McDaniel, city officials were confronted with garbage disposal problems brought about by sharp increases in population and shortage of manpower and equipment.
