U.N. Council Vote Orders End Of War

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The U.N. Security Council demanded today that India and Pakistan order a cease-fire in 48 hours.

The council voted 10-0 in a postmidnight session to adopt a resolution in those terms strengthening its unanimous cease-fire appeals of Sept. 4 and 6, Jordan abstained.

The resolution, sponsored by the Netherlands, gave an implied warning to Communist China to stay out of the India-Pakistan fighting. It called on "all states to refrain from any action which might aggravate the situation in the area."

EXTENDS ULTIMATUM
Peking has extended until Wednesday an ultimatum to India to dismantle China-Sikkim border fortifications or face "grave consequences."

Security Council delegates had stood by for more than 15 hours while J.G. De Beus of the Netherlands wrenched agreement on the wording from the United States, the Soviet Union, Britain and France.

U.S. Ambassador Arthur J. Goldberg, council president for September, helped De Beus in the negotiations and telephoned President Johnson at least once.

WAY OPEN
The resolution did not contain what Secretary-General U. Thant had suggested — an implied threat to invoke coercive provisions of the U.N. Charter unless India and Pakistan complied. But it left the way open for such action if the council deems it necessary.

Stronger than the two previous resolutions, it asked Thant to help "ensure supervision of the cease-fire and withdrawal."

It also asked him to "exert every possible effort to give effect to this resolution," and to report back.

CONSIDER STEPS
The resolution said that, after a cease-fire and withdrawal, the council would consider "what steps could be taken to assist toward a settlement of the political problem underlying the present conflict."

It called on India and Pakistan to utilize all peaceful means to this end.

Mixed Stocks
Swing Upward
NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market advanced moderately in active trading early this afternoon.

Interest was high in some speculative issues that were favorites last week. A few blue chips showed good gains.

The market was mixed at the opening and then turned upward.

Johnson Daughter Starts To College
WASHINGTON (AP) — Luci Johnson did just what a lot of brand new freshmen do the day they start college: She forgot her beanie.

But the President's daughter remembered in time to dash back upstairs at the White House and grab the little gray and navy blue hat that's a must for freshmen at Georgetown University.

SPORTS CAR
Then she dashed off to orientation today at the School of Nursing, driving her shiny sports car with the Texas license plates.

The 18-year-old offered a deal to newsmen: If they'd stay away from the university campus and let her have some privacy, she'd stand still for pictures and interviews on her first day. She even offered to serve coffee and doughnuts, which she did.

Dressed cool fashion, in a navy blue jumper, a long sleeved shirt with blue pin stripes, she admitted she was "pretty worried" about the courses she'll take. Zoology is one of them.

"TIME WILL TELL"
As for the nursing career for which she's training, Luci said "whether it will like me or I'll like it time will have to tell."

Red Chinese Now Firing, India Reports

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — Prime Minister Lal Bahadur Shastri declared today Communist Chinese troops are firing across the Indian frontier in two sectors and that Peking is out to dominate all of Asia.

The Chinese, though pretending they want peace, have started firing in the Sikkim area on the eastern front and in the Ladakh region of Kashmir State on the western front, Shastri said.

DOMINATE ASIA
China's "basic objective," Shastri said, "is to attain a position of dominance in Asia." The prime minister declared that notes and protests from Peking make it clear that "What China is looking for is not the redress of grievances, real or imaginary, but some excuse to start its aggressive activities again, this time in collusion with its ally Pakistan."

PLEDGES DEFENSE
If China persists, Shastri said, "We shall defend ourselves by all the means at our disposal." Socialist leader Nath Pal jumped to his feet and demanded to know whether Indian units on the China frontier had been ordered to fire back.

"I would merely wish to say we will resist them; we will fight them," Shastri replied. Shastri made no reply to the resolution passed earlier today by the U.N. Security Council in New York, demanding India and Pakistan end their war within 48 hours.

CHINESE TROOPS
India's Defense Ministry announced earlier that Chinese troops had moved close to "all the passes" on Tibet's border with Sikkim, an Indian protectorate, and that Pakistan also is massing troops on India's eastern frontiers.

The ministry said latest reports indicated "Chinese troops have come quite close to all the passes on the Sikkim border. In some cases, they have been seen to be digging it."

The Chinese were seen in two new areas, the ministry said. It identified them as the Hot Spring and Fukche areas of the Ladakh region of northeast Kashmir State.

pointed out there would be discussion to do.

That's "not a completely frightening thing," she replied, because she'd experienced some of this in high school.

Regular classes for Luci start Thursday at Georgetown. Sunday she attended a convocation and reception for parents and students to get acquainted. The President and his wife did not attend.

A Secret Service agent has to go to school with Luci, as with her sister Lynda, 21, a history major going to her first classes at the University of Texas today.

World Tension Drapes Start Of Assembly

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The 20th session of the General Assembly undoubtedly will accomplish more than the paralyzed 19th session, but the odds are against any breakthrough on disarmament, peacekeeping or other key issues.

The new session opening now will return to normal voting procedure, but international tension remains high, and the atmosphere is not favorable for resolving East-West deadlocks.

The assembly is the main deliberative body of the U.N., and usually meets three months a year.

HAVE IMPACT
The Viet Nam conflict is expected to have a significant impact, even though the question is not among 105 items on the agenda.

The undeclared war between India and Pakistan, while being handled by the Security Council, also is affecting crisis.

Those who have followed disarmament discussions at U.N. headquarters and at Geneva see little reason for optimism on this long-time problem.

The most pressing problem, perhaps, is to find a formula for handling future peacekeeping operations. After weeks of private negotiations and public discussion, the big powers seem to be as far apart as ever on two major points: Financing, and defining the respective roles of the Security Council and the assembly in peacekeeping.

BETTER PROSPECT
There doesn't appear to be any better prospect that the assembly will achieve positive results on issues such as the Cyprus conflict, South Africa's controversial policy of apartheid (racial segregation), Korea and Tibet.

From a long-term view, the big problem is to restore some of the prestige lost when a threat of U.S.-Soviet confrontation tied up the 19th session. This threat was lifted in August when the United States, announcing it bowed to the will of the majority, abandoned its insistence that members two years behind in paying U.N. assessments must lose their assembly vote.

'Anywhere' Includes Viet
DA NANG, Viet Nam (AP) — The weary U.S. Marine platoon had just fought its way out of a Viet Cong ambush when it got the word in the field: "Word received from Saigon. Your shipment in the mail."

The shipment: two quarts of vodka, a fifth of bourbon, a pint of scotch, a bottle of pink champagne and a bottle of screwdriver mix.

A Navy hospital medic with the Marines, Larry Freeman, placed the order from a calendar put out by Al Rustice's liquor store in West Babylon, N.Y. The calendar which Freeman picked up while on home leave, said, "We deliver anywhere."

The liquor arrived in Saigon Friday and was being flown to Da Nang, 380 miles away.

Lt. Donald McCloskey of Santa Barbara, Calif., said he planned to let the platoon have the liquor when it returns to Da Nang from the field.

"It will be held for a special occasion — one that doesn't affect their marksmanship," he said.

Rustice sent the liquor free and threw in an assortment of cheese dip, salted nuts, potato chips and a box of cigars. He added a quart of scotch for the company commander. An airline agreed to pick up the freight costs.

Long Winter
For Colorado
DENVER, Colo. (AP) — Skiing never is very far from the minds of Coloradans, especially those who depend for a living on dollars spent by winter visitors.

Floods in June and wet, cool weather in July cut sharply into the state's summer tourist season, although there was a big pickup in August.

Now Clarence Hockom, manager of the Colorado Visitors Bureau, and other authorities say there may be some compensations — the ski season may be longer than usual this winter.

Early Morning Crash Kills Four In Family

CAR IN WHICH FOUR DIED AND THREE WERE INJURED
Wreckage of 1958 sedan which crashed south of town sometime last night.

Three Others Injured In 1-Car Wreck

Four members of a San Antonio family died, and three others were seriously injured in a one-car accident, 4.5 miles south of Big Spring on US 87 sometime last night.

The wrecked car, at the bottom of a ravine spanned by a culvert, was found around 7 a.m. At that time, officers said, the engine in the car was completely cold and rigor mortis had set in on the bodies of the dead. The wreck could have occurred as early as midnight, officers estimated. Traffic is light on Sunday nights on US 87 south, particularly after midnight, patrolmen said.

BAPTISMAL RECORDS
Arvin Henry, highway patrol officer, who investigated the accident, said baptismal records found in the car indicate that the dead are:

Mrs. Maria Estrella Rodriguez Coronado, 24; Alicia Coronado, 7; Maria DeRosaria Coronado, 5; and Enrique Coronado, 1. Their bodies are at the Nalley-Pickle Funeral Home.

In Cowper Hospital and Clinic are:

George Coronado, 26, unconscious and suffering from severe shock and possible internal injuries; Maria Ester Coronado, 7, possible internal injuries and cuts; Olivia Coronado, 4, broken left arm and broken left thigh, facial cuts and bruises.

SAME PLACE
The tragedy occurred at the same place the county had its other multiple death accident of this year. This fatality occurred March 21, and two elderly Hereford women died in the accident. The four deaths today brought the rural death toll to 11 and the city traffic fatality total to 4.

Henry said that the Coronado family was traveling north in their 1958 model car. The car left the lane in which it was traveling, crossed the slab, travelled 145 feet, plunged 51 feet in the air across the ravine spanned by the concrete culvert, and rammed into the embankment on the northwest side of the crossing.

The car, with all the dead and injured inside, with the exception of the father, seems to have been in the ditch for several hours unnoticed.

An unidentified passerby saw the wreck and called Jess Slaughter, justice of the peace about 7 a.m.

Big Spring Ambulance Service brought the dead and injured to town.

IN SAN ANTONIO
Henry said that it appears the family lived at 5414 Ergill, San Antonio, but this has not been confirmed. He has asked that the priest of the church which issued the baptismal papers be contacted in an effort to locate the residence of the family.

The highway patrol officers found no driver's license for Coronado. His billfold contained a selective service registration card, three $1 bills, a handful of photos, and a few miscellaneous receipts and other papers. The mother's purse had the Ergill street address.

The car had a 1965 Minnesota license plate. At the time Coronado registered for selective service, he was living at 709 US 90.

Martin Will Enter Race
AUSTIN (AP) — Secretary of State Crawford Martin said today he will run for attorney general next year.

Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr said Saturday he will run for the Senate seat held by Republican John Tower.

Another possible candidate for attorney general is state Sen. Franklin Spears of San Antonio. Martin is a native of Hillsboro. He was in the state Senate 14 years, then lost a bid for lieutenant governor in 1962. Gov. Connally appointed him secretary of state in 1963.

Rain In All Parts Of State Forecast

By The Associated Press

Showers and thundershowers threatened in all parts of the state Monday in the wake of turbulent weather which spawned torrential rains Sunday.

Forecasts called for a chance of showers or thundershowers in all sections of the state Monday, Monday night and Tuesday.

Rains of up to eight inches caused flooding at Crowell and Paducah in Northwest Texas and caused some highways in the area to be closed. Severe weather alerts were issued for the Northeast corner of the Panhandle and for Palo Pinto County in North Central Texas for a time Sunday.

4-INCH RAIN
A normally small stream north of Quanah, Groesbeck Creek, swelled to 500 feet wide in some places and heavy damage to croplands was reported in Hardeman and Foard counties.

TORNADOES HIT
The violent weekend weather included tornadoes Saturday at Peggy, in Atascosa County in South Texas, and near Ropesville on the South Plains. Damage was estimated at $5,000 at Peggy.

Rain estimated at five inches fell at Peggy during turbulent weather there and a number of points reported heavy weekend downpours. These included 3.82 inches at Antelope in Jack County, Childress 2.61, Mexia 2.52, Brownfield 2.0, Wichita Falls 1.80, Florence 1.72, College Station 1.55, Washington 1.53 and scores of points reported lesser amounts.

Lubbock reported 1.33 inches of rain between 6 and 7 a.m. today. It had .71 of an inch before 6 a.m.

OTHER LISTINGS
Other late rain reports included Gainesville 3.25 inches, Springtown 1.90, Sherman 1.83 and Bridgeport 1.48.

The highest temperatures in the nation Sunday were recorded in Texas: 100 degrees at Cotulla and 99 at Laredo and Presidio.

Lows today ranged from 61 degrees at Amarillo to 79 at Galveston.

The nation's weather picture continued to be a portrait in contrasts this morning, as summery breezes hovered over the East and arctic winds raked the Rockies.

Temperatures dipped into the upper 20s this morning in the central Rocky Mountains while some areas reported snow flurries. Casper, Wyo., recorded an inch of new snow Sunday.

IN 40s

Readings in the 40s prevailed from the northern Rockies to the central Plains. In the south-eastern portion of the country, morning temperatures were mostly in the 70s.

Temperatures ranged from 30 at Lander, Wyo., to 83 at Corpus Christi Naval Air Station in Texas.

Temperatures in the Southeast generally were above 90 Sunday afternoon.

FLASH FLOODING

By shortly after midnight a six-hour rainfall accumulation at Oklahoma City measured 1.06 inches. Chanute in southeastern Kansas had 1.58 inches and the eastern Iowa community of Ottumwa had 1.60 inches. Cedar Rapids reported 1.04 inches.

Heavy rains Sunday in south-western Oklahoma caused flash flooding. At Altus Air Force Base 4.07 inches of rain fell. Hobart, Okla., had 3.04 inches. In a 24-hour period ended Sunday, Crowell, Tex., recorded 8.29 inches of precipitation.

TURBULENT WEATHER
An apparent tornado struck the Neenah and Appleton, Wis., areas Sunday, damaging homes and other structures. A cement block building housing a volunteer fire department was destroyed.

A tornado swept through the Oklahoma City suburb of Del City. Many homes were damaged slightly.

No injury to cotton was reported by farmers. Pastures will be aided by the moisture in all sections.

Rural Power Project Financing Stirs Row

WASHINGTON (AP) — Supporters of the 30-year-old Rural Electrification Administration are engaged in a struggle over future financing of rural power projects.

At issue is the question of whether rural power cooperatives and other local power borrowers should continue to depend wholly on the federal government for funds needed to set up new systems and to enlarge and expand existing systems.

Since the mid-thirties, when the rural power program was started by the Roosevelt New Deal, the rural projects have depended almost completely on federal loans. More than $5 billion in loans have been made — at 2 per cent annual interest with the principal payable over 35 years.

ANOTHER SOURCE
But government leaders — including President Johnson, Secretary of Agriculture Orville

L. Freeman and REA Administrator Norman M. Clapp — are telling backers of the REA program that the time has come when they must seek some of their financing elsewhere, because of federal budgetary problems.

In recognition of this governmental position, the National Rural Electric Cooperative Association, a private organization of REA power project borrowers — has come up with proposals for a supplementary financing system, enlisting private lending funds. The present government loan program would be continued, with its aid limited largely to new borrowers and established ones not yet in strong enough financially to absorb costs which would be involved in private financing.

GROUPS OPPOSE

But there are groups within the REA movement which oppose this plan. A leader is the National Farmers Union, which has its main strength in the Great Plains and Rocky Mountain areas. These groups are insisting the NRECA take a firm stand in demanding that the federal government continue the present REA loan program, but on a greatly expanded basis.

Leading the effort to get the REA borrowers to go along on a supplemental financing plan — which would, of course, require borrowers to pay a higher interest rate on private funds than the government charge — is Clyde T. Ellis, general manager of the NRECA ever since its formation in 1942. Ellis is a former congressman from Arkansas.

"SLOW STARVATION"
Clapp has told REA backers that "to just stand pat with what we have in the way of capital resources is, in my judgment, only a ticket to slow starvation for the program."

Clapp has in mind the fact that loan funds made available by Congress in recent years have fallen short of needs of rural power borrowers in their efforts to enlarge systems to meet increasing needs of rural sections.

Guild, Paper Resume Talks

NEW YORK (AP) — Representatives of the American Newspaper Guild and the New York Times resume negotiations today after making the first reported progress in settling the five-day strike-shutdown.

Both sides agreed as a session broke up after midnight that they had moved slightly closer to agreement on a pension plan, one of four major issues in the walkout.

The negotiators planned to meet at noon for further study of a guild proposal and Times' counter proposal on the pension issue.

The 2,200 editorial, business and maintenance guild members struck the Times Thursday morning. Newspapers belonging to the Publishers Association of New York City suspended publication in support of the Times.

The New York Post, which is not a member of the association, has continued to publish.

Gauges Have Heavy Catch

Heavy rain fell in scattered spots this morning, but some areas received none.

Heaviest falls in the county were reported on the Wilkinson ranch, west of Big Spring, and in the Gay Hill area, where measurements of better than one inch were reported.

The measurement at the Big Spring Experiment Station at 8 a.m. was .46 inch, running for that gauge. TESCO switching station in northeast Big Spring showed .17 inch, the VA hospital area .30, and College Park area .30.

A half inch fell on the Wallace ranch, northeast of Big Spring about nine miles, but Leiland Wallace said Wildhorse Creek was running big which indicated heavier rains above.

Other measurements reported were: Lomax .60 (1.10 for the weekend), Elbow .10, Trinity Memorial Park .25, Coahoma, good shower; Moss Creek Lake, sprinkler; Fairview area .50, Luther, .70, Ackerly .40, Knott .50, Vealmoor .30, and Vincent from .50 to .70.

No injury to cotton was reported by farmers. Pastures will be aided by the moisture in all sections.

College Board Receives Alert

AUSTIN (AP)—Gov. Connally advised the new Coordinating Board on Texas College Education today to be wary of a growing threat of institutionalization in Texas schools.

Connally spoke to the first meeting of the Coordinating Board of Texas College and University System, which was created by the legislature. It went into business Sept. 1.

The board held its first work session after hearing Connally. "First of all, I would remind you that neither monumental buildings, nor winning football teams, nor spacious dormitories, nor expansive campuses, nor anxious administrators, nor ambitious plans ever taught a college student," Connally told the board.

"GREATEST RISK" "Faculties teach... teachers teach."

"The greatest risk you face is an institutionalized system, with each college or university grasping for its own ends without regard to the needs of the people of the whole state, and perhaps without awareness of those needs.

"You will be cultivated, caajoled, coddled, even brainwashed by those who would wish you to take an institutional, regional or partisan view..."

BOARD RESPONSIBILITY "It is your responsibility to determine educational questions according to educational measures and standards. You should leave politics to the politicians and administration to the administrators," he said.

"Always keep in mind that yours is the opportunity to implement an educational policy that will give Texas young men and women a quality of education superior to any in the nation—and we must never be satisfied with less," Connally said.

Tropical Storm Far In Atlantic

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Tropical storm Carol, third of the season, boiled up far out in the Atlantic Ocean today but forecasters say the chances are the storm will never reach the United States.

"When a storm forms this far east the chances are good it will not reach the United States," said forecaster Gilbert Clark. "I won't say it isn't possible but it's less likely than if it had formed further to the west."

Tropical storm Carol was about 1,550 miles east of San Juan, P.R., and about 2,550 miles east-southeast of Miami early today, moving west-northwest at 14 miles an hour.

Highest winds were estimated at 55 m.p.h. near the center, with gales whipping 150 miles to the north and 75 miles to the south.

Ships in the expected path of the storm were advised to exercise caution but no land areas are threatened for the next 24 to 48 hours.

Long-Confined Prelate Backs Religious Liberty

VATICAN CITY (AP)—Long-imprisoned Josef Cardinal Beran of Czechoslovakia backed a declaration on religious liberty today and said the Roman Catholic Church "apparently was suffering in his Communist-ruled homeland because of past sins against Protestants."

The 77-year-old prelate, released last February from 16 years in confinement in Czechoslovakia, was warmly applauded as he stood before the Vatican Ecumenical Council to address it for the first time.

"PRINCIPLE CONFIRMED" Cardinal Beran said the principle that every man has the right to worship according to his conscience was confirmed by his own experience.

The Czech cardinal spoke at a debate continued on a controversial council draft declaration on religious liberty. A vote had been expected today, but so many of the 2,200 council fathers still wanted to speak that a vote seems unlikely until later in the week.

MULL AMENDMENTS An approval vote doesn't mean the religious liberty declaration is finished and decreed. Instead, the text becomes frozen from any major changes while a subcommittee of the Vatican's Christian Unity Secretariat looks over suggested amendments made in council speeches or in writing.

No suggestion that runs counter to the spirit and basic principles of the declaration can be accepted, however, under council rules. Later in this fourth and final council session, the declaration will go back to the bishops for chapter-by-chapter voting and a final over-all vote before Pope Paul VI and the entire assembly can make their decree.

Klan Leader In Brief Stop

BEAUMONT, Tex. (AP)—The Ku Klux Klan Imperial Wizard, Robert Shelton, visited here Sunday for about an hour, but did not make a speech as planned. Shelton, who is from Alabama, talked with a local Klan member and then left town.

The Imperial Wizard addressed about 200 persons at a rally in a pasture northeast of Houston Saturday night and talked to a larger gathering Friday night at a rally near Crockett.

In both speeches he accused the National Council of Churches of being "a Communist front organization."

Some Klansmen wearing robes attended both meetings and a two-foot cross was burned at each.

C-City Planning Homecoming

COLORADO CITY (SC)—Colorado City High School ex-students will honor Mrs. Andy Prather, Austin, class of 1955, at the annual homecoming game in Colorado City Friday.

Mrs. Prather, the former Beth Newell, will ride in the Homecoming parade and will be presented at halftime, together with the Homecoming Queen for 1965. The game will be with Merkel.

Following the game, the exes will meet at Civic House for refreshments and to elect officers. Mrs. John Morgan is president. Plans are under way for an all day meeting of exes, later in the year, on Dec. 26.

Political Blocs Will Realign In Dominica

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic (AP)—The return of ex-president Juan Bosch, announced for Sept. 25, may polarize national political sentiment.

Conservative elements are expected to line up behind another former president, Joaquin Balaguer, and liberals around Bosch.

Political leaders believe these alignments stem from the April revolution and the peace settlement brought about by the Organization of American States.

It is contended that while the OAS formula did not immediately restore the Bosch constitution, as the rebels demanded, it opened the way for his return to power, or at least that of his Dominican Revolutionary Party by calling for new elections.

RIGHTIST SETBACK

This, in turn, is being regarded as a setback for rightist factions who ousted Bosch in 1963. Corruption, nepotism, violent repression and political favoritism which marked the de facto regimes that followed Bosch have tended to discredit the traditional conservative leadership in the country—all except Balaguer, who was out of the country from his ouster in January, 1962, until the past spring.

Some believe the lack of conservative leadership will swing rightist and even middle-of-the-road followings to the diminutive former president, whose political tutelage came under dictator Rafael Leonidas Trujillo.

ONE REASON

One reason for this, political observers believe, is that much anti-Trujillo sentiment has been neutralized by a fear of Bosch because of the large following he commands among leftists, moderates and extremists. Those who overthrew him say they did so because he was leading the country to communism.

Balaguer is one Trujillo collaborator who emerged with a measure of respect because of his reputation of honesty. Leftists, on the other hand, fear his election would mean a return to conservative influences that would oppose social reforms they feel the country needs.

Lack of leftist leadership also seems to be a factor in the re-emergence of Bosch.

Elections are to be held in three months.

LITTLE DOUBT

There is little doubt that Balaguer will be a candidate. His Reformist party has been active in the interior among farmers and peasants. It is said Balaguer will count on financial support among business enterprises, including U.S. operations.

There is still a question about Bosch's candidacy, however. Some party leaders have expressed private doubts about his administrative capabilities as shown in his seven-month tenure.

As an alternative they mention Antonio Guzman, businessman and farmer who emerged as a leader during the OAS peace negotiations. He was the presidential choice of a White House task force.

Cong Dead Mount In Bloody Contest

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—U.S. paratroopers killed 155 Viet Cong in bloody fighting near An Khe over the weekend, military authorities said today.

An officer who came here from the fighting area 250 miles to the north said 100 Viet Cong bodies were found today in a trench. They apparently were victims of air strikes that saturated the operational area in support of paratroopers of the 101st Airborne Brigade.

JUNGLE HUNT

The report came while the 101st "Screaming Eagle" troops kept up sporadic contact with the Viet Cong Monday and paratroopers of the 173rd Airborne Brigade continued their hunt for Viet Cong in the jungles and rubber plantations around Ben Cat, 30 miles north of Saigon.

While American paratroopers were in action in two widely separated areas, spokesmen said U.S. Strategic Air Command B-52 bombers again pounded a suspected guerrilla stronghold in still a third region, the Mekong River delta south of Saigon.

With the American military commitment in South Viet Nam growing steadily, there appeared to be a definite stepup in the current school year.

U.S.-initiated actions designed to carry the war to the Viet Cong.

CONG ELEMENTS

The 173rd Paratroopers now have been operating for almost a week in an area just north of Saigon that long has been denied to government forces by a strong Viet Cong element.

Seven Viet Cong have been killed, three wounded and 25 captured so far in the 173rd Operation, which is supported by Vietnamese, New Zealand and Australian troops, a U.S. military spokesman said.

American losses there were described as light by military authorities. Earlier it had been reported that the 101st had killed 55 Viet Cong and captured 12 in the fighting 17 miles northeast of An Khe. Four were said to have been killed Sunday night. Then later it was announced that an additional 100 bodies had been found.

CASUALTIES LIGHT

Casualties for the 101st also were described as light. In another highland action, elements of the newly arrived 1st Cavalry Division Air Mobile killed two guerrillas Sunday night as the Viet Cong probed around the paratroopers' base camp at An Khe. American losses were called light.

A flight of B-52 bombers hit a target in Vinh Vinh Province 90 miles south of Saigon in the 28th reported strike by the planes in the war. It was the second strike in two days in the delta.

U.S. authorities said Air Force planes flew a record 524 strike sorties over North Viet Nam in the week ending Sept. 17. The previous high was 463 sorties, flown during week ending Sept. 10.

Released Convict Back Behind Bars

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—A 27-year-old ex-convict found himself behind bars a day after his release from prison—this time on a charge of raping a 12-year-old girl.

Richard Suarez Zepeda was captured Sunday by the girl's 53-year-old mother, who armed herself with a butcher knife when she returned home with two older daughters and found a front window screen cut.

The mother told police Zepeda approached her and her 19-year-old daughter when they left their house early Sunday morning to pick up a 15-year-old daughter who works at a drive-in restaurant.

ASKS FOR RIDE

He asked her for a ride, the mother said. She carried him a few blocks, let him out and drove on to the restaurant.

When she got back she found him in an upstairs bathroom with her nude 12-year-old daughter, she said.

He ran downstairs but she and the two older daughters cornered him and held him prisoner until police arrived, she said.

New Orleans Flood Toll Inching Up

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—The death toll continues to inch upward as Hurricane Betsy's flood waters recede and salvage and cleanup workers move in.

Two drowned New Orleans residents were found in a city flood area Sunday, boosting the state's total to 78.

GUARD DWINDLE The National Guard had reduced its emergency force to 291 today. There were 2,700 Guardsmen in disaster areas after the hurricane struck 10 days ago.

The Red Cross reported 7,614 evacuees remained in 11 shelters, with another 8,000 being fed by mobile kitchen units.

At Baton Rouge, 85 miles up the Mississippi River, an Army diver, working blind in the muddy water, resumes his painstaking bare hand inspection of a sunken barge loaded with deadly chlorine.

CHLORINE ABOARD

The barge, with 600 tons of chlorine aboard in four steel tanks, was sunk by the hurricane in 60 feet of water near the Louisiana State campus.

GETTING UP NIGHTS FEELS OLD

After 24, common kidney or bladder irritations often occur and may make you tense and nervous from too frequent passages both day and night. Secondly, you may lose sleep and suffer from headaches, backache and feel old, tired, depressed. In such irritation, CYSTEX usually brings fast, relaxing comfort by curbing irritating germs in strong, acid urine and by analgesic pain relief. Get CYSTEX as a preventive. And better still.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Special)—For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain—without surgery.

In case after case, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction (shrinkage) took place.

Most amazing of all—results were so thorough that sufferers made astonishing statements like "Piles have ceased to be a problem!"

The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dynex®)—discovery of a world-famous research institute. This substance is now available in suppository or ointment form under the name Preparation 110. At all drug counters.

Baldwin Organs, Pianos At Whites

White Music Co., 1903 Gregg, is the place to buy your pianos and organs in Big Spring. Les White is the owner and operator of the music store.

Eat At Sands Restaurant For Fine Food

You get fast service, but then you can sit and talk as long as you like, when you eat at the Sands Restaurant in the 2900 block of US 80 west.

The reason is that experienced owners and operators are now in possession of both the restaurant and the motel. They live at the motel and are always available for information regarding groups, clubs, family gatherings, wedding parties or any type meeting where comfortable space and good meals are wanted.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Risetter, experienced operators, have purchased the facilities outright and are in charge. They formerly owned and operated restaurants in Iowa and came to Big Spring when the Sands property became available.

The restaurant has been re-finished inside, following a fire of several months ago, and presents an inviting appearance, with refrigerated air conditioning to keep patrons comfortable during the summer, and with central heat for winter comfort.

"We can easily handle dinner groups up to 100 people," Mrs. Risetter says. "A telephone call to AM 4-5583 will get information about reservations, menus and time for serving. This will insure meals being prepared and served on time, and will not result in cold meals or 'half-cooked' meats."

The Sands Restaurant features regular meals with steaks, chops and sea foods. There are regular short orders for working people, sandwiches and special orders with good home-cooked pastries.

Cockroaches Are Very Prolific

The plague of housewives, the cockroach, often has over 100 offspring, and they multiply again in a matter of days. No wonder so many smart housewives are getting Johnson's No-Roach, the brush-on liquid roach control that gives safe, round-the-clock protection.

Wide Acceptance Of Yamaha Cycles

Yamaha International Corporation, counted as one of the top 10 companies in financial strength in Japan, now has more than 750 Yamaha dealers in the United States, one of whom is Bedell Brothers in Big Spring. The firm is located on Birdwell Lane just south of Snyder Highway.

Yamaha manufactures more than a dozen lightweight sports-cycle models of motorcycles, each designed to provide the greatest dollar value in its respective class. It is the most complete lightweight line, from a high performance model to a fast and powerful sport model. There is a Yamaha sports cycle for every conceivable use, including economical, safe, everyday transportation, sportsmen's models for trail riding and ready-to-race competition models.

Auto and Motor Sport Magazine awarded Yamaha its 1964 Safety and Engineering Award in recognition of achievement in design, safety features, engineering advancement and production of the 80cc "Rotary Jet 80" sportcycle.

Yamaha products have been so widely accepted in sports and transportation circles in the United States that the company has built the most modern and completely-equipped distributing facility for motorcycles in the nation today.

Bedell Brothers also carry the increasingly popular English

New Shows On TV Are Sad Attempts

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV - Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Nobody ever makes a bad show on purpose, or so we are constantly assured by television's producers, directors and stars. After a look at the assortment of new shows over the weekend, one can only conclude that a lot of people in the television business are accident-prone.

It is more merciful to ignore the worst stumbles — CBS' "The Smothers Brothers Show" which had its premiere Friday night, and NBC's "I Dream of Jeannie" Saturday.

Along with NBC's "My Mother the Car" seen earlier last week, these alleged comedy-fantasies are undoubtedly the saddest specimens among the 33 new network programs.

With a few exceptions, the new entries of the 1965-66 season make the good old days of the roller derbies and professional wrestling seem positively scintillating.

15 NEW SHOWS

Among the 15 new shows presented between Friday and Sunday were three for which high hopes were held — CBS' "Hogan's Heroes," NBC's "Get Smart" and ABC's "The FBI."

Each one was a disappointment. "Hogan's Heroes" — a Friday night show — is set in a jolly German POW camp run so smoothly by a slick American colonel that happy soldiers break into the camp instead of out of it. If our former enemies were as stupid as portrayed, it is a wonder the Nazis ever got out of that Munich beer hall.

"Get Smart" is a broad burlesque of James Bond. A little of this goes a long way — and even a single half-hour watching Secret Agent 86 stumbling over his own feet seemed quite a long way.

The FBI received a polished production from action-adventure specialist Quinn Martin with help from star Efrem Zimbalist Jr. as the top agent. But beneath the trappings, it was just another of those cops and robbers potboilers we have seen over and over through the years.

In spite of careful supervision by the Federal Bureau of Investigation, the Television G-men, frankly, didn't act very bright in handling the case Sunday night.

COURTROOM WHIZ
Another well-produced hour show was CBS' "Trials of O'Brien" which has a lawyer-hero who drinks shaving lotion, shoots craps, is behind in his alimony but a whiz in the courtroom. Star Peter Falk plays O'Brien as if he were doing a not very good imitation of James Cagney in an old movie.

It wasn't all bad, though. There was NBC's "The Wackiest Ship in the Army" Sunday night — an amusing and adventurous sea yarn with Jack Warden and newcomer Gary Collins establishing a Flagg-Quirt relationship in fighting the Japanese. NBC's "Convoy," another sea yarn, seemed like an attention-holding show although this reviewer saw only the second half of the first program. The third of NBC's sea-going shows was "Mr. Roberts," which seemed very much like "Ensign O'Toole" of yesteryear which at the time reminded us of the play and movie "Mr. Roberts." "The Loner" on Saturday night got off to a fighting, shooting start which, one supposes, is what a Western is supposed to do.

Vicious Dog Pack Hunted

SHAVOX, Md. (AP) — A huge, snow-white German shepherd dog that roams the pine forests near this Eastern Shore village has become a legend in his own time.

Leading a pack of wild dogs that numbers variously from 15 to 25, he has destroyed chickens, hogs, countless dogs and cats and an untold number of deer.

Harry Powers, dog control officer for Wicomico County, said he's been after the pack for more than three months.

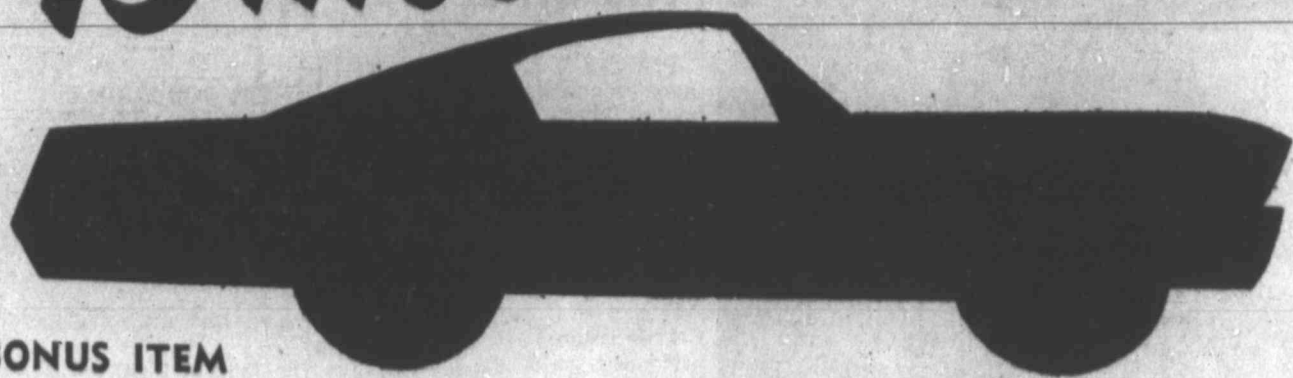

"I've dropped six of them and Ray has gotten four more. They hang up back in the woods behind here."

"They've got into some pigs down there and they've killed any number of dogs. They'll attack anything that gets in front of them — human or animal either one."

"I'm just afraid they're going to get a kid."

The second producer, for the newly-opened Brookings, North-west (Cisno) pool, was reported today when Apache Oil Corp. No. 1 G. Wright flowed 140.58 barrels of 43 gravity oil, plus 34 barrels of water, in 24 hours through a 9-64 inch choke.

Operator drilled to 9,129 feet and set 4 1/2-inch casing at 9,129 feet. He perforated at 9,058-60 feet. Tubing pressure was 810 pounds per square inch, and gas-oil ratio was 980-1.

Location was staked 660 feet from the south and east lines of section 31-33-3n, T&P survey, seven miles southeast of Ackerly.

Charged In Shoplifting

Cornelio Silvas, charged in Peace Justice Jess Slaughter's office with shoplifting, is in county jail today, accused of trying to take from Avant's Grocery, 510 N. Lamesa Drive, some bottled beer Sunday, police said. The owner of the grocery held Silvas after he said he attempted to walk out of the store without paying for the beer, until officers arrived.

There were four other thefts reported Sunday. Tom Blewett said $50 in cash was taken from the Furniture Barn's cash register late Saturday or early Sunday morning. Officers said entry was made through a rear window of the store at 815 W. 3rd. The window is barred, police said, but the bars are spaced at eight-inch intervals.

Tommie Lee Mitchell, 626 NW 4th, said he gave his hat to another boy to hold while he and some other older youths were playing baseball in the 800 block of Aylford. When he looked up, he said, the boy and hat were gone.

Fourteen tubes of highly inflammable and toxic model glue were taken from the Lewis No. 3, 503 Lamesa Drive, between Saturday and Sunday, officers said. A carton containing more tubes of the glue was found jammed in the front window of the store, which was broken.

Statue Looks The Other Way

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — She may be curious, or she may be restless, but the lady on top of the old Arizona State Capitol isn't about to be anchored in one spot.

The statue of the lady holding a torch originally was placed on the Capitol dome as a weather vane.

Unfortunately, the prevailing wind usually turned the lady so her posterior was presented to the front of the building.

She isn't used as a weather vane any more, but she still won't face to the front all the time.

Floyd Williams, the building superintendent, is forced occasionally to turn large set screws which hold the lady in place. A few days later, the prevailing wind has her rear facing Phoenix again.

"I'm going to keep turning the screws instead of anchoring her down," Williams said. "A real strong desert wind, instead of turning our lady around, might blow her off the building."

Young Chaplin Wins Round

LONDON (AP) — Michael Chaplin, 19, son of Charlie Chaplin, won a temporary court injunction today stopping publication of his ghost-written autobiography, "I Couldn't Smoke the Grass on my Father's Lawn."

Judge George Waller said he was "wholly lacking in sympathy" for the young Chaplin, who is seeking a permanent bar on publication of the book.

"I have to bear in mind that he is an infant and may require protection in spite of himself," the judge added.

The autobiography was written by two British journalists who approached young Chaplin after he was reported living on public relief as a bearded beatnik last spring. Michael encouraged the project for three months and then turned against it at the 11th hour, saying he suddenly realized it would be "damaging and disloyal" to his parents as well as "assassinating" his own character.

Barbara Stanwyck In TV Series Debut

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — "Well, somebody had to stay home and see that the cattle got fed," commented Barbara Stanwyck as she gazed about "The Big Valley" and found all her co-stars gone.

Where had they disappeared to? The four of them — Richard Long, Peter Breck, Linda Evans and Lee Majors — had been sent to the four corners of the United States to drum up attention for the hour-long color Western, which has opened on ABC. Personal appearances are a ritual for television stars; the Hollywood Reporter counted 100 of them on the road during this crucial premiere week of the 1965-66 season.

"Does it do any good?" mused Stanwyck. "I guess so. Anything that attracts attention to a new series can be of help. Good reviews might help, too, but not much. Bad reviews don't hurt, either."

"By the time the review appears in print, the viewer has seen the show already. He is just as liable to be defensive about a rap, figuring, 'That show wasn't as bad as all that.'"

"In the end, it's the viewers themselves who decide whether a show is a hit or not. They don't need any help to make up their minds."

What happened? "We started off great, then the next week we were preempted by the Nixon-Kennedy debate," she explained. "Five weeks later we were again preempted by a debate. I met someone in the Market in Beverly Hills who said, 'Too bad your show was canceled.'"

"It wasn't, but lots of people thought so. Unless you can hook them in the first six-eight weeks, you're dead."

ON TIME
While her youthful costars were touring the country, Stanwyck was putting in her 16-hour-plus day on "The Big Valley."

She is on the pro's pro among film actors, always on time with her lines learned. She almost springs onto the set when called, and was even saying "sir" to her director, Paul Henreid.

But even the Stanwyck energy is not boundless, she confessed. "I'm up at 4:30 in the morning to be in the studio for make-up and hairdressing at 6:30," she said.

"We start shooting at 8, and if we're lucky we finish at 7 or 8 in the evening. But if we're on the sixth and last day of a show and still haven't finished, the shooting may extend to midnight."

"I keep arguing that it would be better to shoot a seventh day, but I don't seem to be getting my point across."

Lions To Honor Teachers Of Coahoma Schools
COAHOMA (SC) — The Coahoma Lions Club will honor teachers in the Coahoma School System with a barbecue at the Coahoma City Park today, beginning at 6:30 p.m. This is an annual affair of the club and is also a ladies night. Wives of members will be guests along with the husbands or wives of teachers.

Also on the agenda for the evening will be the presentation of the Outstanding Coahoma Citizens Award to some individual judged to have made outstanding contributions to the community during 1964-65.

A number of presentations to members of the club also will be made during the meeting, for outstanding contributions to the club.

Nicklaus Posts New Record Of Money Won In Golf

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — What's next for Jack Nicklaus, now that he has won more money in a single golf season than any other man?

Fewer tournaments a year, for one thing. And he would like, someday, to be recognized as a great golfer, maybe the best this country has produced.

These reflections by Nicklaus came minutes after he won $6,000 with rounds of 69-68-68-68-67 in capturing the Portland Open Championship Sunday. That boosted his season's earnings to $134,045. The previous high was Arnold Palmer's $128,230 in 1963.

Big Job Ahead For Steers Robbins Predicts Today

The stage for the Friday night clash between Big Spring Steers and the Portland Steers is set for their first two games and Snyder lost his first two. But the local eleven was shut out 13-0 by the visitors. "We are going to have to work hard to keep that from happening again this year," coach Don Robbins said this morning. He pointed out it will be the first home game for the Steers this year, and the first out-of-town game for the Steers. This also gives Snyder an edge.

Torre Argues, Lanier Scores

By The Associated Press

"Fair is foul, and foul is fair. Hover through the fog and filthy air."

But as the air became slightly colored while Milwaukee's Joe Torre and umpire Billy Williams argued the Shakespearean concept of foul and fair, Hal Lanier of San Francisco didn't hover anywhere.

He raced home from first base with the tie-breaking run and helped the Giants to a 4-2 victory over the Braves Sunday.

The triumph was the Giants' 16th in the last 17 games and kept their National League lead at 3 1/2 games over the Los Angeles Dodgers.

The play in dispute cropped up in the eighth inning after Lanier led off with a single in a 2-2 game. Jim Davenport bunted down the first base line, and first baseman Joe Torre decided to let the ball roll, thinking it would go foul.

When he finally grabbed it, he thought the ball was foul, but Williams ruled differently. Without calling time out, Torre angrily threw the ball to the ground and jumped into an argument with the umpire.

Lanier didn't stop to listen. By the time Torre picked up the ball, Lanier was at third. By the time Torre realized what he had done, Lanier was across the plate and the Giants led 3-2.

Elsewhere in the NL, the Dodgers whipped St. Louis 5-0, Cincinnati edged Houston 4-3 after losing 8-6, Pittsburgh nipped Philadelphia 1-0 in 10 innings and New York beat Chicago 8-6.

Ron Ferranowski rescued Claude Osteen in the ninth inning and saved the Dodgers' second straight shutout over St. Louis. Osteen, 15-14, didn't allow a Cardinal past second base while the Dodgers built their lead with the help of homers by Jim Lefebvre and Wes Parker.

Tommy Harper's homer in the Cincinnati seventh inning broke a 3-3 deadlock in the nightcap. The Reds had taken a 3-2 lead on Leo Cardenas' homer in the sixth, but the Astros tied it in the seventh on a single by Eddie Kasko and Lee Maye's double.

Pittsburgh's Bob Veale, 17-11, allowed the Phillies only one hit in 10 innings—Tony Taylor's two-out single in the sixth. He also struck out 12, breaking his own team record for strikeouts in one season. Roberto Clemente singled across the only run of the game.

Crow Leads Bear Rout

By The Associated Press

John David Crow's analysis of football is strikingly simple. "There's not too much to football when you boil it down," the San Francisco running back says. "The quarterback hands you the ball, and the other nine guys knocked the other side down."

Sounds simple but Crow's 49er teammates weren't making much progress in their National Football League opener Sunday against Chicago. John David, who had been sidelined with a broken left hand, watched from the bench as San Francisco struggled through the first period without ever passing the mid field stripe.

The Bears were leading 3-0 when San Francisco Coach Jack Christianson decided to let Crow show his teammates what a really simple game football can be.

John David, who came to the 49ers from St. Louis in exchange for defensive back Abe Woodson, combined on a razzle-dazzle option play, taking a pitchout from John Brodie and tossing 16 yards to Monty Stickles at the Bear 33. Moments later he rambled 18 yards into the end zone for the 49ers' first TD.

Six touchdowns and a field goal later San Francisco had a 52-24 rout of the Bears wrapped up. Four of the 49er TDs came on Brodie passes, two to Bernie Casey. The point total was the highest ever for the 49ers in the NFL.

In other openers, Detroit blanked Los Angeles 20-6, Green Bay routed Pittsburgh 41-9, Philadelphia upset St. Louis 34-27, Cleveland downed Washington 17-7, Baltimore whacked Minnesota 35-16 and Dallas wrecked New York 31-2.

The Lions protected a slim 3-0 lead for three periods against Los Angeles, then broke loose for 17 points in the final quarter. Mike Plum pitched two touchdown passes and Detroit's defense never let the Rams past the Lion 45.

Green Bay trailed 9-7 at the half against Pittsburgh as Mike Clark booted three field goals for the Steelers. But the Packers came roaring back in the second half. Bart Tarr completed 17 of 23 attempts for 226 yards and two touchdowns.

Halfback Tim Brown, who resisted Eagle Coach Joe Kuharich's attempt to convert him into a flanker during the training season, scored two TDs leading Philadelphia's upset of St. Louis. Brown caught seven passes for 129 yards and gained 50 more running.

Cleveland's defense throttled the Redskins and had Washington shut out until the last two minutes of play. Frank Ryan accounted for both the Browns' touchdowns with scoring pitches to Walter Roberts and Gary Collins.

Johnny Unitas had two of his first four passes intercepted by Minnesota as the Vikings jumped off to a 10-0 lead, but Baltimore's defense jelled and gave Unitas plenty of time to rally the Colts back.

Dallas' defense completely stifled New York and Don Meredith's quarterbacking kept the Cowboys in command. Dallas capitalized on a fumble for one TD and a 27-yard punt set up another as the Cowboys grabbed an early 17-0 lead.

Billy Joe Wins Duel On Field

By The Associated Press

If there's one thing better than having Cookie Gilchrist's number, it's having his line.

Billy Joe has it — and made the most of it Sunday, easily gaining more yardage than Gilchrist in their herded duel and helping the Buffalo Bills whip the Denver Broncos 30-15 in an American Football League game.

It was the first meeting between the two fullbacks since they changed teams in an off-season trade and started playing a number's game.

Gilchrist told the Broncos he preferred No. 2 to the No. 3 Joe had worn because "I want to be one better than him." Joe made no public pronouncements at Buffalo but did not take Gilchrist's old No. 34 jersey. Instead he took No. 33.

That little skirmish obviously wound up in a draw, but Joe came out on top on the field, gaining 48 yards in 14 carries for a 3.4 average while grabbing four passes for 36 yards, including one touchdown. Gilchrist, meanwhile, was held to 26 yards in 12 attempts, a 2.2 average.

And Joe said the difference was having Gilchrist's line.

"The big difference is in the line," he explained. "A fullback can't do a thing without a good line in front of him. Cookie's going to find out there's a difference in the line in Denver and the one in Buffalo."

Gilchrist may have admitted it when he said:

"We were off a little on our timing. Their defense was filtering through on us. We sort of fell down on our blocking assignments. But Billy Joe did a real good job."

So did George Blanda, a 16-year pro veteran who passed for 298 yards and three touchdowns as Houston walloped Buffalo 31-10 and remained in a tie with Buffalo for the Eastern Division lead. San Diego kept its record unblemished in the West by downing Oakland 16-7.

In a Saturday night game, Kansas City defeated New York 14-10 as $400,000 quarterback Joe Namath made his debut for the Jets.

Zorro Aims For MVP, Leads Twins Step Closer

By The Associated Press

Zorro is leaving his mark on the American League. But it's not a Z, it's MVP.

Zorro is Zoilo Versalles, the driving force behind the American League leading Minnesota Twins, who reduced their magic pennant clinching number to three Sunday by walloping Washington 8-1 for their ninth victory in the last 10 games.

And as the Twins continue to close in on their first pennant, Versalles continues to improve his standing as a contender for Most Valuable Player honors.

As a matter of fact, the 24-year-old shortstop has hit at a .348 clip since Aug. 1, lifting his over-all mark to .278.

Versalles, who hit the Twins' only homer in the last seven games against the Senators Saturday and stroked three singles and drove in two runs Sunday, leads the league in runs scored with 121 and doubles with 43. He is second in the league in hits with 171 and in triples with 10.

Meredith May Have His Berth

DALLAS (AP) — He wasn't spectacular about it and sometimes his passing was quite mediocre but Don Meredith appeared Sunday to have survived the test-to-have-thrown-aside-the-fan-made-challenge-of-rookie Jerry Rhome.

There had been much said about it. Many expressed the opinion that the former Tulsa passing great should be starting quarterback for the Dallas Cowboys and that Meredith, a five-year veteran, should take a back seat.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With TOMMY HART

A half dozen members of the San Angelo Lee Junior High ninth grade team, which meets Runnels here Thursday, played with last year's ninth grade unit while still in the eighth grade.

Luvien Flores, who quarterbacked the Runnels team last Thursday in the absence of John Patton and Lee Harris, bids fair to make a fine athlete for the varsity Steers.

He's possessed with a good pair of hands, will probably wind up as an end.

L. L. (Red) Lewis, the HCJC track mentor, lost ace pole vaulter Kenneth Walker, of White House, Tex., who defected to Stephen F. Austin College after lavishly praising the school and its athletic facilities, but he may be better off in the long run.

Walker's departure left Lewis with an extra scholarship and he signed both sprinter Jimmy Jasper and Roger Hill of Dallas Samuel High School.

Had not Lewis been able to pipe the two on board as a tandem, they probably would have gone to Victoria Junior College. Previously, North Texas State University coaches thought they had the two in tow.

Jasper is a 9.5 sprinter who copied the century dash in last spring's Class AAAA State meet. He was timed in 9.6 at that time.

Hill is a boy who can run the quarter, the half and the mile. He's been timed in 48.5 in the 440, in 1:55.0 in the half and has finished the mile in 4:25.8.

Jess DeWees, a brother to the former Big Spring links pro, C. A. DeWees, recently quit as pro at the Brownwood Country Club. He was succeeded by Ronnie McGraw, assistant pro at the Abilene Country Club the past nine years.

It shouldn't have surprised too many people when Tulsa blew the University of Houston off the field in their recent nationally televised football game in the Astrodome.

Tulsa graduated only 11 players off last year's great squad and all 11 of those signed pro football contracts.

Mike Bridges, a tackle on the Runnels Junior High football team here, is a brother to the former Steers regulars, Preston and Bud Bridges.

When Denver City knocked off Brownfield, 32-7, in football recently, it was the 100th win teams had achieved under coach Don Orr.

Orr has also had head coaching tenures at Graham and Irving. Orr, who has passed up numerous chances to leave Denver City for jobs at bigger schools, has been head man of the Mustangs for eight years. During that time, his clubs have averaged a little better than ten wins a year—with 56 in all. His Denver City clubs have lost 14 games, five of which came in playoff contests.

Big Springer Charley Johnson, now the St. Louis Cardinal quarterback, says the play that gives him the most trouble comes on third- and long-yardage situations.

"Everyone in the stadium knows what it is going to be," he explains. "The receiver can usually get clear, but getting the ball to him is a problem."

Johnny Unitas of the Baltimore Colts says, however, that the short ones distress him. Adds he:

"On these you have less margin for error. When you throw long the receiver can speed up, or slow down, depending on how the ball is thrown."

Blanda Sparkles In Houston Win

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Timeworn quarterback George Blanda, feeling the pressure of the three touchdown passes thrown last week by understudy Don Trull, decided Sunday he'd keep his first-string status by throwing three touchdown passes of his own.

For icing he kicked four extra points and a 45-yard field goal, thus accounting for 25 of Houston's points in a 31-10 American Football League victory over Buffalo.

Griffin Holds High Average

Bobby Griffin, senior halfback, leads all ball carriers among Big Spring Steer players after two games with an aggregate gain of 188 yards in 16 carries for a hefty 11.8 average.

Joe Jaure, who has also carried 16 times, is second with 112 yards for a seven-yard average.

Van Tom Whatley is the only Steer passer to complete a pass. He has made good on eight of 21 tosses for gains totaling 143 yards.

Big Spring has made 33 first downs in the two games, compared to 17 for the opposition, and has total gains of 643 yards, compared to 333 for the two opponents.

State Violence Toll Up To 35

By The Associated Press

Violence claimed the lives of 35 persons in Texas over the weekend. Twenty-three died in traffic accidents which included one smashup which killed five.

The Associated Press violent death count began at 6 p.m. Friday and ended at midnight Sunday.

The victims included:

A Corpus Christi youth, Rodolfo Gonzalez, 18, was killed Sunday when struck by a hit-and-run driver. A taxi cab driver aided police in the apprehension of the driver.

FLOYDADA RESIDENT

A two-car head-on collision near the South Plains town of Cone Sunday took the life of a Floydada woman and injured five other persons. Killed was a 28-year-old Wanda Holcomb Probasco.

Two South Texas fishermen, Franklin Wilkinson, 29, of Port Lavaca, and Glen Dale Moses, 19, of Olmita, drowned Sunday in Keller's Bay near Port Lavaca.

A two-car smash-up in Lampasas in the hill country early Sunday killed five people and critically injured a sixth, all from Lampasas.

Killed were Leora Ivey, 50; Jerry Glenn Ivey, 16; Jimmy Wayne Ivey, 21; Carolyn Jenette Stephens, 17; and Sammy Bagley, 18.

Taken to a Temple hospital with critical injuries was Roy Weeks, 18, also of Lampasas.

SOUTH TEXAN

George Earl Thompson, 27, of Beaumont, was killed Sunday when his pickup truck and a car collided on US Highway 60 about two miles north of Beaumont.

Archie Lee Winfrey, 17, was killed by a car as he walked along a Beaumont thoroughfare late Saturday night.

Bill Johnson, 67, of Orange drowned Saturday when a boat in which he was riding hit a log and overturned in the Sabine River.

Thomas N. Crocker of Houston, was killed in a two-car collision near the small East Texas town of Joaquin Saturday. One other person was injured slightly.

Anderson Gillum, 59, a Houston construction worker, was killed Saturday when a car went out of control and hit a tree at Wallace. Two other persons suffered minor injuries.

SHOT TO DEATH

R. T. Mottu, 17, was shot to death in an apartment near Houston early Sunday. Murder charges were filed against Vernon Posey, 19, in connection with the slaying.

Lippie Lee Edmond of Route 1, Chappel Hill, Washington County was fatally injured when he fell from a truck near his home Sunday. He died of head injuries several hours later in a Houston hospital.

Willie Anderson Blackburn, 30, of Mosier Valley in eastern Tarrant County was killed Saturday in the crash of an automobile.

Steve Dohnalik, 25, of Marak community near Cameron, picked up a fallen electric power line on his farm Saturday and was electrocuted.

Ollie Donnell, 26, of Wichita Falls, was fatally shot in the chest Saturday outside a Wichita Falls tavern.

AUTO OVERTURNS

Fidel Dillalando, 29, died Saturday when his car flipped over north of Weslaco in the lower Rio Grande Valley.

Two men in a pickup truck were killed Saturday morning near Pecos when the truck overturned. They were Socorro Aguilar Ortega, 25, and Ramon Segovia, 37.

Tracey Irwin Younggren of Port Stockton died Saturday when his car was in collision with another near Monahan. He was 16.

Ray Nelzen Jr. of Cuero was killed Sunday in a head-on two-car collision at Cuero. Two other persons were injured.

Robert Cruz Vaquera, 29, of Sabinal was killed Sunday when his car left State Highway 76 and plunged into a ditch near La Pryor in Zavala County.

Romantic, Mystical Sikkim Focal Point In Asian Conflict

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — Until now, Sikkim — pronounced sic-em — has been known primarily as a faraway land where Hope Cooke, former New York and Washington, D.C., socialite, married into the royal family. She took her seat as queen beside the throne of Chogyal — temporal and spiritual leader — Palden Thondup Nangy.

It is on Sikkim's soil that the two Asian giants threaten to resume their fighting after the three-year calm following their border war in 1962.

Unfortunately for Sikkim, it is those same twisting valleys that could provide Communist China's army with a "mountain highway" to the throat of India. India realizes — as its former British colonial rulers did long ago — the strategic importance of these passes. Sikkim has been placed under New Delhi's protection and the Indian government has responsibility for the Himalayan land's defense and foreign affairs.

ROMANCE, MYSTICISM

Sikkim, with its beautiful mist-shrouded mountains and twisting valleys, is a school-girl's idea of Eastern romance.

passes about 163,000 people who scratch out a living on 2,744 square miles of land — much of which is vertical.

NATIONALISTIC, PROUD

But the chogyal is intensely nationalistic and proud, and often tugs with New Delhi over his rights as sovereign.

New Delhi would like to call him a maharaja or prince, indicating he is something less than a sovereign ruler. He would prefer king but has settled for chogyal, something in between but acceptable to both sides.

The chogyal's family are Buddhists of Tibetan origin and the majority of his people are Nepalese in background.

Thus Sikkim has no particular blood connection with India. It is just that Sikkim and India need each other.

Sikkim is 70 miles from north to south and 40 miles from east to west of stunning, rugged beauty.

From the heat the dust of the Indian plain, travelers ascend in a short time to Sikkim's cold and dizzy heights.

The mountains milk the clouds, and rainfall varies from 40 inches annually to a 240 inches in some areas.

There is only one important city in Sikkim, the capital at Gangtok, with a population of about 50,000.

Erhard And Party Win Election In Germany

BONN, Germany (AP) — Chancellor Ludwig Erhard and his Christian Democratic party kept their leadership of West Germany in an election triumph for the chubby government chief.

The voters decided Sunday that after 16 years of Christian Democratic rule they wanted more of the same. The turnout was 86.9 per cent of the eligible voters.

BRANDT SETBACK

The election results, giving 15,392,973 votes to Erhard's party, disappointed the challenging Social Democrats and their chancellor candidate, Mayor Willy Brandt of West Berlin. His party tallied 12,711,726 votes.

Although Erhard's party won the biggest share of the votes, 47.6 per cent, it did not get an absolute majority and is certain to continue its coalition with the Free Democrats.

The Free Democrats cornered 9.5 per cent of the popular vote, compared with 12.5 per cent in 1961.

CONTINUE POLICY

Erhard told a nationwide television audience: "We are determined to continue our present policy which has won the voters' approval."

LUDWIG ERHARD

This means continued strong support for the Atlantic alliance, the Common Market and business-oriented domestic policies.

It also means a trip to Washington for Erhard to confer with President Johnson. Erhard has said he would carry it out "as soon as possible."

Chicago Publisher Funeral Tuesday

CHICAGO (AP)—The sudden death of Marshall Field, 49, publisher and philanthropist, continued to evoke expressions of sorrow today as the family prepared for Tuesday's funeral.

The publisher and editor of the Chicago Sun-Times and the Chicago Daily News, died in his sleep Saturday evening of a heart attack at his Chicago home.

FUNERAL SET

The funeral will be at 3 p.m. Tuesday in the Fourth Presbyterian church. Burial will be in Graceland Cemetery.

President Johnson sent a telegram Sunday to Field's widow, Julia Lynne Templeton Field, whom he married in 1964. It read in part:

"Marshall Field was in the front rank of those Americans whose life has been spent in keeping this nation informed. His charity and his purpose will not be forgotten by those who felt the influence of his good works."

Expressions of sympathy included those from Wes Gallagher, general manager of The Associated Press and Paul Miller, president of the AP and Gannett Newspapers.

"GREAT LOSS"

Gallagher said Field's death "is a great loss to journalism, not only in Chicago, but throughout the country."

Field's great-grandfather, Marshall Field I, founded the Field department store in Chicago and compiled a vast fortune.

In 1945 Field began working for the Chicago Sun, founded by his father, Marshall Field III.

He later worked for a year with the New York Herald Tribune. He rejoined the Sun in 1947 when it became the Sun-Times in a merger with the Chicago Times.

In 1950 Field succeeded his father as editor and publisher. He bought the Chicago Daily News from Knight Newspapers Inc. in 1959.

Field also was a director of Marshall Field & Company, chairman of Field Enterprises, Inc., and publisher of the World Book Encyclopedia.

Quads Follow Fertility Drug

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Ten months ago Alice Pigge took a fertility drug — not to become pregnant but to cure a woman's disorder.

Today she has quadruplets.

Her first children, two boys and two girls, were born 2 months prematurely Sunday at Los Angeles County General Hospital.

BABIES CRITICAL

The babies, weighing a total of nine pounds and listed in critical condition, were placed in incubators.

Mrs. Pigge, 5 feet 2 and of average build, was reported in fair condition but cheerful — and insisted on having her hair combed before interviewers dropped in. She is a Mississippi Negro resident of Los Angeles.

Dr. Milton Smale, the hospital's chief resident physician in obstetrics, said that last November Mrs. Pigge had taken the drug clomiphene citrate on the advice of her attending physician, Dr. Richard Taw, who operates the hospital's bleeding clinic. The medication corrected her irregularity.

In January she became pregnant.

"The drug may have caused the multiple births, as it has done in other cases," Dr. Smale said. "The possibility that it did not is in the fact that she took the drug in November but did not become pregnant until January."

CAUSE OVULATION

He said the medication is used in treating irregularity but is best known as a treatment for infertility. "It is primarily a drug used to cause ovulation," he said.

A Swedish woman who bore quadruplets last July had received the same hormone, Dr. Smale said, and a New Zealand woman who had quintuplets had received the drug.

General Hospital records list Mrs. Pigge's husband as James Pigge and say the couple is now separated.

California Firefighters Try To Save Imperiled Homes

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — With 207,000 acres of Northern California grasslands, woods and timber in charred, smoking ruins, firefighters battled on today to save houses under threat from two fires. The weary, ash-grimed men struggled with a broad-fronted fire that had burned 16,000 acres in Chiles Valley in high and steep country in Napa County

Congressional Revolt Vowed If Union Shop Bill Pressed

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress, speeding past another of its hoped-for adjournment dates, plunges into a busy week today with no let-up in sight.

There was a time when the members thought they would be home by mid-September; now the optimists talk about mid-October, but not very loudly.

A prediction that President Johnson may run into a congressional revolt came Sunday from Sen. Allen J. Ellender, D-La., and Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen said Congress wouldn't get home for a long time if the administration brings up its proposal to repeal Section 14B of the Taft-Hartley Act. The section allows states to ban union shop agreements.

Interviewed on CBS' radio-television program "Face the Nation" Dirksen said, "I don't like to use the word filibuster. But if 14B is pushed out, I can assure you there is going to be extended discussion."

"WILL REVOLT" Ellender, in an interview

WHITE'S
THE HOME OF GREATER VALUES

202-204 SCURRY

transcribed by Radio Press International, said that if President Johnson "continues to send us a lot of legislation, that is controversial and that would have the effect of keeping us here to Christmas, some of us I'm sure will revolt."

The Senate has scheduled action on two of the major bills of the session — a revision of the immigration laws and a $3.2 billion appropriation for the foreign aid program. Both have cleared the House in different forms.

The House hopes to act on 17 bills, most of them of a minor nature. One, however, is a $2-billion authorization for construction of 144 river, harbor and flood control projects.

Also on the House agenda is a bill that would require the Alfred I. duPont estate in Florida, which owns a complex of banks and industries, to divest itself of its nonbanking properties.

Despite the sweeping nature of the proposed changes in immigration policy, little trouble is anticipated in getting Senate approval.

IMMIGRATION CEILING
The main controversy — whether to impose an immigration ceiling on the Western Hemisphere — was fought out in committee. A ceiling of 120,000 was written into the bill and there apparently will be no effort to remove it.

The issue was strongly contested in the House, which at the administration's insistence kept a ceiling off. The administration quickly capitulated to advocates of a ceiling in the Senate, however.

The main effect of the bill would be to end the 41-year-old system of basing immigration on the nationality of applicants. Instead, those countries

Bakery Strike Hits Big Firm

HOUSTON (AP) — American Bakery and Confectionary Workers Union members employed by the National Biscuit Co. in Houston and 13 other cities struck Sunday.

The strike affects plants in Atlanta, Fairawn, N.J.; Philadelphia, York, Chester and Pittsburgh, Pa.; Chicago; Denver; Portland, Ore.; Oakland, Calif.; Buffalo, N.Y. and here. Shipping depots in Harvey and Broadview, Ill., near Chicago, were also affected.

The union said 8,300 members are affected.

outside the Western Hemisphere, which are now assigned individual quotas, would be treated equally under a total quota of 170,000.

In view of the collapse of administration efforts to block a Western Hemisphere ceiling the House is expected to accept the Senate version when conferees meet to work out a mutually acceptable bill.

FOREIGN AID

DEAR ABBY
Handling Salesmen

DEAR ABBY: Maybe you can help me with a problem. When a salesman comes to my door and I see him first, I don't answer the bell. My husband says this is dishonest and I should see what they have to sell and then if I don't want any I should say so firmly. But you know how some of these characters are. If they ever get their foot in the door, you can never get rid of them. What do you say?
ANNI-BELL

DEAR ANNI: I say your husband must be a salesman.

DEAR ABBY: Please tell me how to convince a gentle, lovely 14-year-old girl (our daughter) that it is not important to be popular NOW. That the sexy girls she envies so much are not the kind to aspire to be. That the loud and brassy actions she tries to imitate are not the desirable ones. That being one of THE crowd (the ones who "make out" and are sought after by the boys) is nothing to be proud of. That trying to dress and look older than she is is a mistake.

She cries to me that she does not know how to "flirt" and attract the boys like some of the "real neat" kids do. Why do girls today believe that if they aren't "sexy" and popular at 14, their lives are ruined? What do you say, Abby? DISTURBED

DEAR DISTURBED: It is perfectly normal for a 14-year-old girl to want to be popular NOW. And since most girls that age think that being "sexy" will bring them popularity, they try to dress and act sexy. No mother can convince her 14-year-old daughter that that kind of popularity will not last; that the 14-year-old easy "make-out" is passed by when a nice boy wants the company of a nice would give the administration $92 million less than the House appropriated for foreign aid, a marked departure from recent years when the Senate was counted on to restore deeper cuts made by the House.

Backed up on the House calendar are three bills that threaten difficulties for the leadership — one increasing the minimum wage to $1.75 an hour and greatly increasing its coverage, one granting home rule to the District of Columbia, and one granting big pay raises to federal workers — including members of Congress. Still in committee is the highway beautification bill on which the administration is demanding action.

girl; that a girl has only one reputation and she should guard it carefully; that she can get into serious trouble pretending to be more experienced than she is. Don't expect adult thinking from a 14-year-old girl. Mother. She is using 14-year-old mentality because she is only 14! Continue to instill in her high moral standards and her values will change, just as did yours and mine.

DEAR ABBY: I am a grown (?) woman who made a donkey out of herself at a party recently. I drank too much and aired my husband's and my personal problems in an argument with him. He wants me to leave him because he feels we are ruined socially. I am sorry and have told him so a dozen times. I have begged and cried and pleaded, but he won't even listen to me. I would like our friends to know that I can behave properly. But most of all I want my husband to be proud of me. What can I do, Abby? I am now a teetotaler. SORRY

DEAR SORRY: One swallow does not make a summer. Neither should one unfortunate scene destroy a marriage. If you are now a teetotaler and sincerely want to show your friends that you can behave properly, you deserve another chance. Quit groveling and apologizing. Act like a lady and hope your husband has the grace to forgive and forget.

Ideas On How To Win Viet War Are 'Way Out'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Air-foet-high with barbed wire at the top and a patrol-type road-way would make a handy way to check on where and when the North Vietnamese make their way into South Viet Nam.

A New York doctor said he would like to see "soldiers' uniforms and helmets...be wrapped into a one-way mirror, so that they will reflect their environment and become so to say invisible."

Such letters — some typewritten, some hand scrawled — arrive at the office of Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara and others also go directly to the various armed services.

Although some of the ideas are bizarre, many appear carefully thought out. All evidently are sincere.

WAY OUT
No matter how odd an idea may seem, its author gets a thank you letter from the Defense Department. Some of the writers obviously realize their ideas are way out. One of them wrote, "I won't mind if you smile."

A random check of the letters indicates people would like to give the military professionals a hand in rooting out and killing elusive Viet Cong guerrillas and protecting Americans from harm.

A San Diego, Calif., man wrote: "Where it is impossible to see the Viet Cong, wouldn't it be a good idea to drop tons of extra sharp tacks. Saturate the ground with these tacks?"

Another man, from Huntington, Calif., thought of collecting rattlesnakes from around the U.S. West and "scattering them all over North Viet Nam in elephant grass where the Viet Cong are mostly likely to hide."

OIL SLICK
One man outlined a plan to lay down an oil slick on the perimeter of a swamp, then follow up with itching powder, water soluble glue and yellow dye to "make the swamp untenable."

A Davenport, Iowa, man told McNamara: "I keep thinking that a chain link fence about 12

IRS Commissioner Against Wire Taps

DALLAS (AP) — The U.S. Commissioner of Internal Revenue said here Sunday he doesn't approve of wire tapping in fighting organized efforts to violate tax laws.
