Start them early at your house. Miss Home-maker of 1980 deserves the best. Cooking with dependable, efficient, economical electricity from the Lone Wolf Electric Cooperative means cooking at its best.

YOU CAN buy it, if you care to, according to labels like Music to Dream to To Dance to To Romance Music to Remember by as Weep with. Now this column is going to be a column to contemplate to while sitting under the bare trees.

Ah, what martyrs we women are! And have been since Eden. There is no slightest doubt that Eve used a supple twig from that fig tree to roll up her hair. That Heaven.

TRIED to recall, just for fun, all the most tortuous things women have endured to come up with.

First one recalled was a simple hair, a maiden and always brought with her in virgin blue-ribbon school out in the country and complained it felt because her house had electric lights which gave her hair to heat her curler, and there was no fitting mirror in the kitchen. Whole thing looked like an agonizing process.

NEXT memory has to do with hair curlers. Women would the front part of their hair with curlers, then went around in dust on hair curlers until time for the party.

After that, there were those flat metal curlers with clips. They must have felt pretty awful. In fact, Time we got to college short hair, then called "bobbed" was in the picture and some women had curlers in their hair with the electric curling iron. All the girls in the Bay lor dorm had one.

NEXT came the Marcel wave and all our girls started going to the beauty shop. Every Saturday.

That same year, the wonder of the world of women and the curse of the purse of men came into being. It was the permanent wave machine.

First one took half a day and the hairdresser in history ever thought up a more severe punishment. Heaven bless whoever thought up the machineless wave, anyhow.

THERE was a season or so when everybody went to get "finger-waved."

Hairpins, bobbypins, waving lotion. Then came the roll.

Governor Connally Reviews Progress

Governor John Connally re-mitted on Education Beyond viewed steps of progress for The High School, which our Texas under his administration is evaluating the state's educational resources and laying out a blueprint of the future.

The Governor also accented increased industry for Texas and point out that 317 new plants were built in the state last year, second only to New York. He pointed out that the state's new Texas 65 Health Plan provides low cost medical care for aged as a result of legislation passed last year. More than 50,000 elderly Texans enrolled in the plan the first thirty days.

In addition to the statewide half-hour program, Governor Connally also has revived his popular "Coffee With Connally" series inaugurated two years ago. The 3-minute informal program is scheduled in stations throughout Texas in most areas on NBC stations during the Today show.

HOW I QUIT SMOKING

"I've been a heavy smoker for a long time, more than I care to admit, smoked so much my throat would quit once. Then I met a cute little lady who sold me a stick of JAY ADAMS CHEVROLET. It was a real treat. Well, I had their special valve and ring job and believe me, I feel better. Performance and gas mileage picked up so much my owner decided to quit too. All you gotta do to kick the habit is call the boys at JAY ADAMS CHEVROLET and get their treatment."

have found them to be most hospitable. The people impress me as being industrious and thrifty.

Next week my assignment takes me to Sydney, capital of New South Wales with a population of over 2,181,200. This was the first settlement in Australia and is the main port. It is the fourth biggest city in the British commonwealth after London. Noted for magnificent Port Jackson, Harbour Bridge and Taronga Zoo.

I will also spend a week in Cooma which is farther South, and so will be colder. It is Autumn here and already quite cold at night. Before returning to Sydney we will attend a great central Crusade Rally on May 10 at Melbourne. This is the capital of Victoria, with a population of 1,907,366. It is famous for the Botanic Gardens, the Melbourne Cup, and world famous national art gallery. I will be traveling 3,000 air miles within Australia, on my assignments and have been told that I will be seeing the best parts of Australia. People everywhere are eager to hear about life in the U.S.

H. W. Bartlett.

OFFICIAL NOTICE

Gatherings of more than 5 persons for the purpose of religious worship are henceforth prohibited

If you woke up one morning to find a notice such as the above plastered around town, even those Americans who are among the "Great Indifferent" might soon react with alarm. And they would be wise to do so. Freedom of worship should be a jealously guarded privilege. But like any privilege which we don't respect by its use, it can be lost.

Restrictions of this privilege are unthinkable to every American. But failure to take advantage of this privilege is widespread. When was the last time you and your family enjoyed the right to worship?

Revival Set At Church Of God

The Rev. F. C. Dyer will be evangelist for revival services at the Church of God beginning Sunday evening at 7:30. Revival will be conducted each evening at 7:30 for the next two weeks, supported by the pastor, Rev. T. J. Christ. The church is located on the corner of East 18th and Hemp Hill Streets. The public is invited to attend the services and hear Rev. Dyer.

Mobil Employees Honor L. R. Brown

Employees of the Lubbock District of Mobil Oil Company recently hosted a luncheon in Snyder in honor of L. R. Brown. Brown will retire from the company after 27 years service on Friday, May 1. He is a lease operator in the Silver area, and is a long-time resident of Mitchell County. Pictured with Brown (Seated fourth from the right) are left to right, back row, R. L. Ashley, Jim Finnegan, Ted Dethon, Mett Ratliff, E. L. Garrett, Roy Bell, Bill Allen, Kay Lewis, Phil Berry, Carl Teffertiller, J. M. Moore and Hugh Elledge. Front row, left to right, are Paul Harris, Emmett Lee, Basil Hanks, C. H. Samples, Brown, M. M. Keeble, Harold Wilson and Ross Rochelle.

Lee Brown Retires From Mobil Oil Co.

L. R. (Lee) Brown of Silver will end a long career in the oil fields of this area when he retires on Friday, May 1, after 27 years in the employ of Mobil Oil Company.

Brown joined the company as a roustabout in 1936 and followed that occupation for nearly a year. He was then promoted to lease operator, the job he has held ever since.

REMOVE WARTS!

Amazing Compound Dissolves Common Warts Away Without Cutting or Burning. Doctors warn picking or scratching at warts may cause bleeding, spreading. Now amazing Compound W penetrates into warts, destroys their cells, actually melts warts away without cutting or burning. Painless, colorless Compound W, used as directed, removes common warts safely, effectively, leaves no ugly scars.

The Browns have one son and one daughter, both working in Dallas. They plan to make their home in the Dallas area following his retirement. Brown was recently honored by his fellow workers in the Lubbock district with a luncheon in Snyder. He was presented with a gift from the men by Carl Teffertiller. He received a retirement plaque from F. H. Samples, District Superintendent from Lubbock, and a retirement emblem from H. R. production foreman.

DURING TUMBLEWEED FESTIVAL

4-Hers To Sponsor Float In Parade

Committee was appointed at the Monday meeting of the Mitchell County 4-H Club to obtain a float for the club to be entered in the Tumbleweed Parade.

Chairman of the float committee is Karen Marricle.
Members are Charles Ray Watlington, John Tiller, Dolores Hulman, Robert Cooper and Susan Hock.

During other business club members who will attend the Leadership Workshop in Levelland, June 16-18, were announced. They are Sharon Byrne, Miss Marricle, Miss Holman, Miss Hock, Watlington, John Hill, Cooper and Tiller.

Record books have been entered in a contest for an expense paid trip to the State Leadership Laboratory in Brownwood. Members submitting books are Mary Beach, Jean Compton, Miss Hock, Tiller, Cooper and Dwayne Stubblefield.

Program was presented by 4-Hers entering the District Elimination in Lubbock on May 9. Miss Compton and Kay Lindsey gave a team demonstration on electricity. An estate demonstration was the team project of Woody Anderson and Jim Dockery. Miss Hock presented a speech on 4-H Club work.

Tommy Marricle presented the club with a crop hail insurance policy during the meeting in the Medallion Room of Lone Wolf Electric Coop.

Junior-Senior Banquet Here

Japanese lanterns, peach blossoms and tendrils of ivy were among the decorations used to depict "Oriental Gardens," theme of the Junior-Senior Banquet of Colorado
High School last weekend.

The annual banquet was held in the cafeteria of Primary School Saturday at eight o'clock in the evening.
All senior students were guests of the junior class for the affair.

Following the invocation by Floyd Morris, high school principal, a menu of such oriental delicacies as Pagoda Supreme, Tokyo Delux and Geisha Sunrise, was served.

Reggie Noble, junior class president, was master of ceremonies for the evening. He introduced Skipper, Warren, class vice-president, who welcome members of the senior class and other invited guests.

Response was given by Melvin Morgan, president of the senior class.

Program included songs,
prophecies and pantomimes.
Martha Putman, junior student, sang "All the Things You Are" and "Let My Song Fill Your Heart." Class prophecy was read by Cal Girvin. Part of the prophecies were done in pantomime by a number of sophomores dressed as oriental waiters.

Benediction was spoken by Frank Wilson, superintendent of schools.

Guests entered the banquet room through a door hung with bamboo curtains. A water fountain was placed to the side of the door on a mat of green grass. Flowers hung from the white basin with strands of ivy decorating the background.

were suspended from the arch above the stage and, in line above the head table. An arrangement of iris in shades of lavender, white and yellow adorned the speaker's stand.

The banquet tables were centered with delicate vines of ivy the length of each table.
Fans of ivory and bright colors were placed intervals atop the ivy. Peach blossoms and arrangements of small Japanese lanterns completed the table decorations.

The East wall of the cafeteria featured a mural, eighteen feet in length. An oriental street scene of coolies pushing various types of carts, under a sky of blue inter-persed with white clouds, in-lent the final touch to the theme, "Oriental Gardens."

Dancing followed the evening's program to the music of the Scorpions, a combo from Snyder.

Japanese (?) Waiters At Banquet

Lately, there has been little time for reading in the Dickson home. The campaign has been a family project. Throughout the six counties of the 80th District, Temple and Kathy have become a familiar sight, walking the streets together, talking Temple's campaign for Representative to the people, visiting folks in all walks of life, in their homes, businesses, on their jobs and farms.

Even the girls have taken an active interest in the race, even to the extent (to Kathy's horror) on one occasion of securely gluing Dickson placards to their walls. Their standard greeting has become, "Will you vote for my Daddy?" And to to Daddy, as he leaves in the mornings, the question is always, "Are you going to ask someone to vote for you?" Temple Dickson and his family would like to serve you in Austin. They take this opportunity to ask you for your vote.
