Field Tests Are Scheduled In Kent Area

Four new field tests have been announced for drilling in Northwest Kent County.

General Crude Oil Co. of Abilene and associates are to drill the No. 6-6 Percy Jones Estate, tract 1, in the Salt Creek field 10 miles northwest of Clairemont. Location is 1,980 feet from south and east lines of section 6, John Rodman survey. Projected depth is 7,200 feet.

Honolulu Oil has filed applications for three projects in the Casey-Canyon sand field 15 miles northwest of Clairemont. The first to be started is the No. 2 Newman Brothers, 660 feet from north and 597 feet from west lines of section 2, J. B. Ward survey.

Operations are to start by October 10 on the No. 3 Newman Brothers, which will be 660 feet from north and 1,790 feet from west lines of section 2, J. B. Ward survey. The No.4 Newman Brothers, which will start by October 20, is 2,017 feet from north and 660 feet from east lines of the same section and survey. All the projects will drill to 6,300 feet.

SCURRY COMPLETION

Lone Star Producing Co. has completed the No. 2 H. H. Eiland as a one location south and east extender to the Kelley-Snyder field nine miles southwest of Snyder.

The well was finaled for a daily flowing potential of 409.44 barrels of 42.5-gravity oil plus 17 per cent water. The completion test covered a 24-hour period with the flow through a 24-64th-inch choke and a gas-oil ratio of 638-1. Tubing pressure was 235 pounds, with a packer set on casing.

The production is through perforations at 6,573-762 feet which had been acidized with 500 gallons. Top of the pay was at 6,700 feet.

Drillsite for the project was 467 feet from north and 1,667 feet from west lines of section 176-97-H&TC.

HOCKLEY FIND

Great Western Drilling Co. of Midland and Carl Hoblitzelle of Dallas have found a show of oil and gas in the Wolfcamp at their No. 1 G. R. Bean, Central Hockley County wildcat.

A drillstem test was run from 8,553-588 feet with the tool open four hours and 10 minutes. Recovery was 5,740 feet of free gas in the drillpipe, 270 feet of free oil and 90 feet of heavily oil and gas-cut drilling mud. There were no signs of formation water. Flowing pressure was 150 pounds, with shutin bottombole pressure after 30 minutes 2,100 pounds. The prospector is now making more hole. It was started to drill to 10,800 feet for a test of the Pennsylvanian.

The project is four miles east of

Louisville Is Hit By Storm

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—A three-phase rain and wind storm, one of the most violent of the century here, lashed the Louisville area yesterday and last night. The winds hit velocities up to 57 miles an hour. Four and a half inches of rain fell in 15 hours. Property damage was heavy.

The Weather Bureau said more rain will fall in the next 48 hours.

Water ran six to eight feet deep in some low-lying streets at the height of the storm about 3 a.m. today. At least 10,000 telephones were knocked out of service, and 4,000 were still out this morning. Hundreds of homes were without power during the night. Louisville Gas & Electric crews expected to restore complete service by nightfall.

Lightning set several homes afire. Trees were down throughout the city, blocking traffic and snarling communications and power lines.

CONVICTS RECAPTURED

Don Gulovsen, 25, left, and William R. Burman, 25, are shown just after their capture near the Nevada State Prison. The two, along with another convict, broke out of prison early Friday in a milk truck. A guard, held as hostage, was killed in a hail of bullets. The pair was picked up in a hilly area near Carson City.

Powell Faces Probe By Jury

WASHINGTON (AP) — Atty. Gen. Brownell today ordered a special grand jury convened here to investigate "possible bribery and other criminal conduct" in the federal housing program.

Brownell directed specifically that U.S. Atty. Leo A. Rover "present evidence of the activities of Clyde L. Powell," who resigned as assistant commissioner of the Federal Housing Administration last April 13 during congressional investigations of alleged irregularities in the agency.

Brownell announced also U.S. attorneys in all other districts across the country are being directed "to present to grand juries as soon as material is available full testimony concerning criminal conduct uncovered by the administration's FHA investigations in their districts."

He said Warren Olney III, assistant attorney general for criminal prosecutions, was sending out these instructions.

Congressional investigators have asserted that numerous builders in various parts of the country made millions of dollars in "windfall profits" by getting FHA-insured loans on apartment projects which exceeded the actual cost of the projects.

Brownell's announcement made reference to this in relation to Powell. It said:

"While assistant commissioner, Powell had charge of the rental housing program which operated from 1946 to 1950. This program resulted in windfalls to speculators exceeding 51 million dollars alone in the 285 cases reviewed by the special investigations office set up by the present administration in FHA."

The department announcement also asserted:

'Powell, who entered FHA in 1938 rose to assistant commissioner despite knowledge of (sic) the former administration of an arrest record, including conviction for jewel theft."

Powell, when called before the Senate Banking Committee during its investigation of FHA, declined to answer questions. He pleaded the Fifth Amendment to the Constitution which provides that a man may not be forced to give evidence against himself.

The Banking Committee put into its record a statement that Powell had a criminal record.

Powell's attorney, Daniel B. Maher of Washington, later filed a formal statement denying that the committee's statement of his record was correct.

The justice department declined to say exactly when the grand jury will convene here. However, it was learned that Powell was served with a subpoena last Friday for a grand jury appearance Oct. 6.

The FHA has undergone a sweeping reorganization in recent months. Reputed irregularities in its operations have been under FBI investigation since last year.

Atomic Data For Germany Under Study

WASHINGTON (AP)—The proposal to make West Germany a full-fledged member of the European defense system raises the problem of how much atomic weapons information the United States would then give her.

France is reported to want definite controls set for re-creation of a German armed force if West Germany should be taken in as a member of the 14-nation North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

The United States has adopted a policy — and amended a law to support the policy — providing for the exchange of information with allies on the effect of nuclear weapons. The intention is to inform allies only on the blast, heat and radiation effects of various atomic weapons, without disclosing details of design. But the mere detailing of effect can carry significant hints about the nature of the weapons themselves.

The proposal for this exchange of information originated with the American military about three years ago, at a time when NATO forces were just beginning to be formed and well before there was any concrete plan for arming West Germany. It received the support of the Atomic Energy Commission and in the last session of Congress the stringent terms of the 1946 Atomic Energy Act were modified to permit an exchange of information of nuclear weapons effect.

The military, including Gen. Omar Bradley, former chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, contended that allies of the United States in Europe could not make tactical or strategic plans for defense without having some indication of what to expect from atomic attack by an enemy or atomic weapon support of ground forces by the United States.

This became especially important with the subsequent appearance in the American arsenal of tactical-size atomic bombs, atomic artillery and guided missiles with atomic warheads for use on the battlefield.

A Soviet announcement last week of another atomic weapon test explosion points to the speed with which Russia is racing against the United States lead in the atomic weapons field—a lead which AEC chairman Lewis L. Strauss said yesterday is being maintained.

This rivalry between the world's two great atomic nations emphasizes the question of giving basic atomic weapon schooling to the nuclear weapon "have-not" nations, including France and Germany, both geographically close to Russia.

An article in the latest issue of the Air University Quarterly Review, publication of the Air University at Maxwell Air Force Base, Ala., says the European allies are becoming alarmed over the prospect of being a battleground for atomic war between the U.S. and U.S.S.R.

The article was written by Dr. Robert Strausz-Hupe, professor of political science at the University of Pennsylvania and currently lecturing at the Air War College.

Mendes-France Calls For New West European Pact

MISS NORWAY WEDS

Mona Stornes, 19, Miss Norway in a recent Miss Universe contest at Long Beach, Calif., is met at Los Angeles by her new husband, Sandy Young, 29, producer of a TV western variety show, as she arrived from Las Vegas, Nev. Miss Stornes broke her contract with a Hollywood nightclub by being absent and might be subject to deportation, an Immigration official said. However, inasmuch as she married an American, her husband could petition for a new visa and she would be allowed to remain in the U.S. during the negotiations.

Says Plan Would Aid NATO Cause

STRASBOURG, France (AP)—Premier Pierre Mendes-France called today for a new West European defense pact which he said could reduce French opposition to West Germany's entry into the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

The new organization, he said, could have a "degree of supernationality"—meaning some of the elements of a superstate.

It was partly because the six nation European Defense Community had too much supranationality in it, he added, that is was defeated in the French Parliament.

Mendes-France spoke before the Council of Europe, made up of parliament members from the council's 15 nations.

The job of the new organization, which the French leader described as a changed and enlarged version of the Brussels pact of 1948, would be to set top limits to the armies and armaments of all member countries.

Any discrimination, he said, would be only on a "geographic and strategic basis."

"Questions have arisen," he said, "about the admission of West Germany to NATO. Once the organization that I have described is set up, the resistance to that in France would be greatly diminished."

The United States and Britain have been pressing for West Germany's entry into NATO since the French National Assembly killed the EDC plan which would have enrolled West Germans with the troops of France, Italy, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg in a unified army.

France has been reluctant to agree to West German membership in NATO and it was clear today the premier would like to delay it until after his projected organization is set up.

His forum, the European Council's Assembly, was described by one member today as a consultative body that nobody consults. Its 132 delegates can do nothing without the unanimous approval of the upper House, a council of Cabinet ministers. Though the council is formed on international parliamentary lines, it has no law-making powers.

The Assemblymen were a little flattered at the attention from the French premier, a little disappointed that West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer had not come to make the picture complete.

As partisans of a supranational EDC, most of them could accept Mendes-France's ideas only as a second-best solution.

In advance of the Premier's speech, usually well informed sources here said his plan calls for something like this:

1. Approval of the British proposal to expand the five-nation Brussels defense alliance of France, Britain, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg to include West Germany and Italy. The seven nations would be pledged to come to one another's aid in case of an attack.

2. This group would set limits on German rearmament as well as on the armies the other members keep on the European continent. By limiting all the nations, the French hoped to meet the German demand for equality in any setup.

3. The European alliance would not actually control the various national armies; that job would be left to the 14-nation North Atlantic Treaty Organization, which includes the United States and Canada.

4. The new European alliance would not be a supranational organization like the European Defense Community which the French Assembly torpedoed. But decisions would be taken for the group by a council of representatives, on which no one nation would have a veto.

Reports from Washington said Mendes-France was ready to join the British and the Americans in bringing West Germany into the North Atlantic alliance provided Britain and the United States maintain troops on the continent for a long period and as long as satisfactory controls are put on German rearmament.

Mendes-France sent his proposals over the weekend to the six other prospective European allies as well as to the United States and Canada. The foreign ministers of all nine nations will meet in London Sept. 27 in a determined try at finding some defense arrangement to substitute for EDC.

Chinese Reds Face 39 More Charges

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Laying new groundwork for its annual fight to bar Communist China from the U.N. General Assembly, the United States has accused the Peiping regime of 39 "warlike acts of piracy" against ships and planes of seven nations.

Chief U.S. Delegate Henry Cabot Lodge Jr. distributed the charges against the Chinese Reds as a prelude to the final session of the eighth General Assembly here this afternoon (2 p.m. EST) and the opening tomorrow of the ninth Assembly.

The list cited 27 attacks on British ships or aircraft, climaxed by the shooting down July 22 of a British airliner off Hainan Island in which three Americans and seven other persons were killed or were lost.

"My purpose in making public this list," Lodge said is in accompanying statement, "is to show that the Hainan shooting was no isolated incident but part of a pattern of constant aggressive pressure against the free world."

There were five incidents involving the United States, including the seizure of the small yacht with the three Americans released only last week; two involving Denmark; two involving Panama, and one each involving Norway, France and Portugal.

The list offered the British, Danish and Norwegian delegations — whose governments have recognized Red China — new occasion for voting in the Assembly to keep out Peiping's representatives.

Lodge and the U.S. delegation were alert to head off any attempt by the Soviet Union or any other Red China backer to reopen the seating question today or to morrow.

Mrs. Vijaya Lakshmi Pandit, sister of India's Prime Minister Nehru and outgoing Assembly president, prepared only a brief statement about the work done by the closing eighth session. No test of the China seating question was in prospect, but Mrs. Pandit in a radio interview yesterday reiterated her belief Red China should be seated now.

The U.S. delegation, backed by Britain, was confident it could head off any such move for the rest of this year.

United Fund Panel Meets

The special committee to make nominations for directors of the proposed united fund organization here was to meet at 3 o'clock this afternoon at the Chamber of Commerce office to complete its work.

The committee was charged at a citizens meeting several weeks ago to nominate 20 persons for the posts. A constitution and by-laws committee, however, has provided in proposed rules of the fund for 30 directors so, this committee was expected to nominate that many persons.

Both committees will report back to another citizens meeting, which has been called by the Rev. Ronald Hubbard, chairman of the chamber's civic affairs committee, for 7:30 o'clock Thursday night in the district courtroom. Representatives of various fund-raising organizations and other interested persons have been urged to attend the meeting to hear reports of the committees and consider the proposals.

At the last citizens meeting, all fund-raising groups in the county were represented.

The initial election of directors, as proposed in the constitution, is for 10 to serve three years, 10 two years, and 10 one year. Thereafter, 10 directors would be elected each year to serve three-year terms.

Members of the nominating committee are Mr. Hubbard, Lee Stinson, Myron Roe, T. D. Wiman, Jr., Ross Hemphill, Nolan von Roeder, Edgar Taylor, and Mrs. P. W. Cloud.

Constitution and by-laws committee members are Renal B. Rosson, Mrs. E. N. Baker, Hicks Allen, the Rev. Glenn Ricketts, and Lyle Deffebach.

500 PERSONS AT PICNIC HIT BY FOOD POISONING

NEW ULM, Tex. (AP) —Upwards of 500 persons were stricken with food poisoning after eating barbecue and potato salad at a volunteer fire department picnic here yesterday. Doctors said the potato salad probably caused it.

At least 42 remained hospitalized today in five surrounding towns. None was in serious condition. The hospitals reported they treated and released about that many more.

No deaths were reported.

Five doctors from nearby communities rushed here, following an emergency call, to treat victims on picnic grounds. Many of the ill were placed in private homes after hospitals became filled.

Dr. C. I. Shult of nearby Columbus said:

"When I arrived people were doubled up and laid out all over the grounds. We set up behind a nearby home and started giving hypos to ease their pain and relax them. None seemed seriously ill, and that was about all you could do for them.

"There were at least 500 affected on the grounds, and no telling how many more who had left earlier and gotten sick on the way home. We treated between 250 and 300 on the grounds. The rest went home or to hospitals.

"I gave more than 150 shots myself and was there six hours."

Shult said probably bacteria in the potato salad, which was prepared in advance of the picnic, caused the poisoning. He said victims suffered from "terrific pain, acute vomiting and diarrhea."

"Such poisoning is seldom fatal because affected persons usually get rid of everything," he said.

An estimated 2,500 persons from the surrounding Southeast Texas area turned out for the noon barbecue, an annual affair which raises money for the volunteer fire department in this village of around 250 persons. The first call for doctors went out about 4 p.m.

Shult said motorists arriving in New Ulm reported cars carrying people from the picnic "lined up on the highway and stopped, with people lying sick beside the road."

Patients were taken to hospitals at Columbus, Sealy, Brenham, Bellville and Lagrange. Early today the Columbus hospital had nine poisoning patients, Sealy eight, Brenham five, Bellville 14 and Lagrange six.

Shult said all would probably be discharged later today.

H. J. Stupzenbecker of Waco, a native of New Ulm, attended the picnic. He said he thought the potato salad was to blame because his wife and a woman companion, both of whom ate it, got sick while he did not eat potato salad and was not affected.

City Budget Hearing Set For 7 O'Clock

An open hearing on the city budget for the fiscal year beginning Oct. 1 will be held at 7 o'clock in the city hall tonight.

At the budget hearing held last year no one appeared to discuss or examine the budget.

This year's budget is similar in most respects to last year's budget, although capital outlays for equipment purchases and expansion programs are smaller this year than last due to an increase in the amounts to be paid on bonded indebtedness. Anticipated income to the city this year will be slightly higher than last year's income, according to the budget.

Burglars Take Jewelry

DALLAS (AP)—Burglars apparently had made good today their escape with $15,000 to $20,000 worth of jewelry stolen from the Highland Park apartment of J. A. R. Moseley, an investment man. The thugs entered the apartment Sunday while the family was at a country home near Richardson.

Fair Weather Endures

Continued fair weather over the week end brought Snyder a maximum temperature of 98 degrees Sunday and 97 degrees Saturday. A low temperature of 71 degrees was recorded overnight by Mrs. D. P. Strayhorn, weather observer, with 74 degrees registered at 7:30 this morning.

WEATHER

NORTH CENTRAL and WEST TEXAS: Clear to partly cloudy this afternoon, tonight and Tuesday; no important temperature changes.

EAST and SOUTH CENTRAL TEXAS: Partly cloudy this afternoon, tonight and Tuesday; no important temperature changes. Moderate to fresh southerly winds on the coast.

Man Listed From City Is Reported Killed

A man listed by Colorado authorities as a Snyder resident has been killed in a traffic accident there, the Associated Press said today. He was Victor H. Fuchs, 20, who was killed when a car in which he was riding rolled 102 feet off the side of a mountain road near Del Norte, Colo.

The driver of the car was listed as Kenneth M. Lynch, 21, Olney, Tex., who was injured. They were said to have been returning to Texas from a fishing trip. The accident occurred Saturday.

A check of tax records and other records here this morning failed to furnish additional information on Fuchs. A Kenneth Lynch of Snyder said he did not know of the other Lynch.

Burglar Starts Fire

DALLAS (AP)—One of the Luby cafeterias was damaged by a $17,500 fire early today. Police said a Negro youth admitted setting the place afire during a burglary.

Parliamentarian Knocks Out Item In McCarthy's Defense

By JOHN CHADWICK

WASHINGTON (AP)—Charles L. Watkins, the Senate parliamentarian, has upheld the validity of an elections subcommittee that issued a report critical of Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis) early in January 1953.

One of the accusations brought against McCarthy in support of a pending resolution to censure him is that he was contemptuous of the elections subcommittee and declined its invitations to testify about his financial affairs and other matters.

McCarthy, in defending himself before a special senate committee now considering the charges, questioned whether the elections unit was "a valid committee" because of the manner in which a vacancy on it was filled late in November 1952.

Testimony on this point was taken from Watkins at a closed hearing last Friday. The transcript made available to newsmen today, shows that Watkins said the vacancy was filled in accord with Senate precedent and custom.

One of the witnesses called by the special censure committee at its public hearings was Sen. Hayden (D-Ariz), former chairman of the Senate Rules Committee, parent body of the elections subcommittee.

He testified that on Nov. 20, 1953, Sen. Monroney (D-Okla) resigned from the subcommittee. Hayden said he appointed himself to fill the facancy so as to give the subcommittee a quorum or majority of its original five members, since two others had resigned previously.

McCarthy said it was his opinion that the chairman of a committee could only "nominate" subcommittee members, and that they had to be confirmed by the full committee.

He said he attached "much importance" to the point because, he maintained, the only time he was requested to appear before the elections subcommittee — as distinguished from being invited — was after Monroney's resignation.

If it took the full Rules Committee's approval to make Kayden a member of the subcommittee, McCarthy said, there was no valid committee after Monroney's resignation.

Hayden disagreed, but McCarthy asked the special committee to inquire of the Senate parliamentarian "whether or not there was actually a committee after the 20th of November; whether the chairman of the full committee has the right to appoint himself as a member or whether that would take committee action."

Watkins, the Senate parliamentarian since 1935 and a Senate employe for almost 50 years, was asked a set of questions worked out by the special committee with McCarthy's lawyer, Edward B. Williams.

The testimony was taken in the office of Sen. Watkins (R-Utah), chairman of the Censure Study Committee, and the parliamentarian said that Hayden had the right to appoint himself to fill the vacancy. He said he based this on the only precedent he knew of, a case occurring in 1912.

He also testified that, generally speaking, he thought the chairman of a committee, "under custom at least, has the power and the right to appoint members of a subcommittee without submitting them to the full committee."

Sen. Watkins asked parliamentarian Watkins, "in a quasi-judicial proceeding such as an expulsion matter, can a subcommittee file a valid legal report when less than half of its members have heard the evidence?"

"I would think so," replied the parliamentarian.

The charge that McCarthy showed contempt for the elections subcommittee was among five main groups of charges on which the special committee held public hearings, concluded just a week ago.

The committee now is working on its report to the Senate, and Sen. Case (R-SD), one of the members, said it might be ready in time for the Senate to be called into session a week from today to consider the censure resolution.

The resolution asking the Senate to condemn McCarthy's conduct was introduced by Sen. Flanders (R-Vt), who contended the Wisconsin senator had tended to bring the Senate into disrepute.

In a new letter to the study committee, made public last night, Flanders said McCarthy's tactics "appear to parallel those of the Communists." There was no comment from McCarthy.

Republicans Start Heavy Campaigning

By The Associated Press

Top Republicans, led by President Eisenhower, headed into a week of heavy campaigning today, apparently eager to douse the optimism voiced by Democrats at their Indianapolis campaign kickoff.

The President will leave his Colorado vacation headquarters Wednesday for a three-day Western speaking tour calculated to boost GOP chances in the Nov. 2 election for control of the next Congress.

Also for the Republicans, Vice President Nixon and House Speaker Martin of Massachusetts resume campaign barnstorming today after a Sunday layoff.

Democratic leaders, leaving Indianapolis yesterday after the party pep rally, made no secret of their optimism.

Adlai E. Stevenson, the party's 1952 presidential candidate, sparked the session with an address Saturday night.

Stevenson said America "is ready for a fresh start." He accused the Republican administration of "giveaway government" and of allowing an "alarming deterioration of our world position."

Nixon, resting in Minneapolis yesterday, took time out for a news conference at which he disputed Stevenson's major contentions. Nixon said Stevenson has made no constructive suggestions of his own on world issues.

"The people are entitled to know what Stevenson's actions would have been in these cases," Nixon said.

Stephen A. Mitchell, the Democratic national chairman, told a party audience in Cleveland last night that "the Democratic tide is rolling." He said the GOP's loss of the Maine governorship a week ago has put it in a "mood of desperation."

Another Democrat, Sen. Kerr of Oklahoma, said yesterday in Washington he thinks the administration's farm program alone will cost Republicans control of Congress.

Secretary of Agriculture Benson, however, said Saturday at Olney, Ill., he is "not impressed" with such claims.

Two big labor groups made political pronouncements yesterday. The three top officers of the CIO United Steelworkers Union, in a report on the eve of the group's Atlantic City, N. J., convention, contended Eisenhower broke his pledge to the workingman and heads an "antilabor" administration.

In Los Angeles, the Executive Council of the American Federation of Labor said the GOP "promptly fulfilled" campaign promises to business but "campaign pledges to labor and the farmer have been brazenly broken."

Eisenhower will address the AFL convention in Los Angeles Friday. The President is slated for three other talks this week, including a major political speech in the Hollywood bowl Thursday.

'Muscle Engine' Under Study By Prize-Winning Scientist

By ALTON L. BLAKESLEE
Associated Press Science Writer

WOODS HOLE, Mass. (AP) — Here in the laboratory of a Nobel Prize winner you see a piece of dead rabbit muscle brought back to "life."

The strand of muscle tenses, contracts and performs work when it is bathed in a potent chemical. Then it relaxes when it is touched by a second chemical.

This means man has solved a few secrets of how our muscles work, of how all living things manage to create motion.

But this seeming miracle in the laboratory is only a beginning to Dr. Albert G. Szent-Gyorgyi. He wants to know precisely how chemicals —from the food we eat and air we breathe — create motion, "the most fundamental sign of life."

Exactly what kind of engine is muscle tissue? What kind of fuel does it use, and how? How do different muscles — the muscles of the heart, the arms, or a woman's womb — differ in their mechanism or operation?

That knowledge could aid in combating heart disease, high blood pressure, muscular afflictions, perhaps reduce the tragic loss of unborn babies through miscarriages.

This Hungarian-born scientist with blue eyes and tousled white hair, who won a Nobel Prize for his work on vitamin C, is on the trial of answers.

And Dr. Szent-Gyorgyi is impatient to get along with his studies—so much so he's just ordered a $40,000 scientific instrument, a spectrograph, without enough funds to pay for it.

"Maybe I will go to jail," he shrugs, "but I need it in my work. Somehow I hope we will find ways to pay for it."

In 15 years of research on the muscle engine, Dr. Szent-Gyorgyi found that muscles contract because they contain two special proteins, actin and myosin. When these two come together in the presence of the energy-supplying enzyme, ATP, the muscle contracts.

ATP means adenosine triphosphate. It is the "gasoline" which runs the muscle engine. Enzymes are accelerators of chemical reactions.

Dr. Szent-Gyorgyi and Dr. L. Lorand of Szent-Gyorgyi's group also have isolated another enzyme, ATP-CP, which makes a muscle relax.

From a refrigerator, Dr. Lornad took a thin, transparent strand of muscle obtained from a long-dead rabbit, and placed it in a beaker containing a salt solution. It lay long and straight. When a few drops of ATP were added, the string of muscle coiled and shortened to one-fifth its original size.

He put another, thicker strand of muscle in a device so the muscle remained taut, but could pull on one end of a delicately balanced lever. When the muscle was bathed in ATP, it tensed, pulling measurably on the lever. When ATP-CP was added, the muscle relaxed, the lever swung back to its original position.

"So now we know that actin and myosin come together and ATP makes the muscle contract," said Dr. Szent-Gyorgyi. "But still we are only describing the machine. We must learn how the engine is all put together, then we will know how it works.

"Only then can we really understand the muscle in health and in disease, and perhaps learn how to overcome disease.

"We must study smaller and smaller pieces of the engine. We have split one piece, myosin, into two pieces, and split one of those parts into still smaller pieces, hoping to learn how it all works."

The potent eye of the electron microscope is one aid, showing tiny fibers of which muscles are made.

"Research is four things," Dr. Szent-Gyorgyi says. "Brain with which to think. Eyes with which to see. Machines with which to measure. And fourth, money. It is brains and eyes which are most important. You can have too many machines, so many you fail to use your brains and eyes. A few weeks ago I saw no need for a spectograph. Now I know I cannot live and work without it."

So he ordered it.

What great or useful things may come from solving the puzzles of the muscle engine?

"Benjamin Franklin flew a kite to learn some basic facts about electricity, long before anyone dreamed of electric lights. When someone asked him what good the new knowledge was, Franklin replied: 'What good is a baby?'

"Who can say what we will learn. It is not possible yet to make any promises. We can only agree with Franklin: 'What good is a baby?'"

Troops Guard Polls In Alabama Town

By REX THOMAS

PHENIX CITY, Ala. (AP)—Phenix City voters who once felt the clammy grip of racketeer rule elect a new city commissioner today under the protective guns of watching National Guard troops.

And during the day, a racket-busting grand jury ending a two-week recess was to resume its investigation of widespread vote frauds in another election, the Democratic primary last May.

Two heavily armed National Guardsmen, part of the military force that has taken over law enforcement in once-wicked Phenix City under limited martial law, were assigned to patrol each of the city's 11 voting places from 8 a.m. when the polls opened until they close at 6 p.m.

They were ordered there by Gov. Gordon Persons to show "the rest of Alabama and the nation that Phenix City can have an honest election."

Only one seat on the three-man city commission was at stake, that of the veteran Commissioner A. L. Gullatt who declined to seek re-election.Mayor Elmer Reese and Dr. Seth Floyd, the other two members, hold over.

Reese is already under grand jury indictment for wilful neglect of duty because of the wide open gambling which flourished in the notorious Chattahoochee River dens in the lush days before the slaying of crime-buster A. L. Patterson brought on the present cleanup.

Five candidates ran for Gullatt's place on the city governing body which pays $155 a month for the part time work it requires. They are Tom Corley, Judge John A. Freeman of the Russell County Inferior Court, Grover F. Harden, Dr. Clyde M. Knowles and Wade H. Marlowe.

Meanwhile, the emergency grand jury which has already written 559 indictments in the first two phases of its vice purge came back to hear the first of perhaps 100 witnesses under subpoena. A source close to the jury, said the witnesses, whose names haven't been disclosed, have been identified chiefly with the election complaints.

One Escapee Is Recaptured

BUCHANAN, Ga. (AP)—A convict who escaped from the Atlanta Federal Penitentiary Wednesday was captured near here last night but his partner in flight remained on the loose.

A posse of officers led by Sheriff L. P. Allen followed track dogs from an automobile left in a field and found Charles F. Stegall hiding in an abandoned house.

He surrendered without resistance and was brought to the Haralson County Jail here.

A little later, officers reported, their dogs appeared to be on another "hot trail" in the vicinity of the house where Stegall was seized, about three miles north of here.

This gave searchers hope that George Ellis, another convict who escaped from the penitentiary with Stegall, also was in the neighborhood and might be captured shortly.

Special Agent John K. Mumford, in charge of the Federal Bureau of Investigation office in Atlanta, said it was planned to return Stegall to the penitentiary today.

Deakins Rites Set Tuesday

Funeral services for Edward Marion Deakins, 76, a former Snyder businessman, will be held at 3:30 p.m. tomorrow in the Bolger Funeral Home chapel.

Mr. Deakins died Saturday night at Pitts Hospital in Floydada. He had lived in Floydada for the last four years. Mr. and Mrs. Deakins moved from Snyder in April, 1950, to take over management of a Quanah hotel which they had purchased. They had owned and operated the Manhattan Hotel here for about 25 years.

Liquor Case Up For Trial

Three Negroes and three white men composed a county court jury this morning, before which Vernon Clay, Snyder Negro bootlegger, was being tried on a charge of illegally possessing liquor.

The charge filed April 29 alleges that on or about April 24 Clay possessed large amounts of whisky, wine, and beer for purpose of sale in a prohibited area.

Two other Negroes who were arrested at the time the sheriff's department raided Clay Bros. Hotel and confiscated the liquor on April 24 were used as state's witnesses in the trial.

They were Sammy Riggins, about 18, and his brother, Jesse James Riggins, about 21. They were held in jail about five days, being released when they made sworn and signed statements that the liquor belonged to Clay.

Negro jurors in the case were Bill Miles, John Baker, and Charles Hunter. Other jurors were Austin Higgins, J. H. Kimmel, and E. E. Hataway.

Representing Clay on the trial was his attorney, Pat Beene. Prosecution was by Wayland G. Holt, county attorney. Judge Edgar Taylor presided. The state's evidence was still being presented at noon.

British Zoo Finally Gets Its Polar Bear

By COLIN FROST

LONDON (AP)—Aurora, an American polar bear with sex appeal, won the right today to work her wiles in Britain.

After a hectic two-hour conference today, top officials of the government board of trade decided to lift the ban on Aurora's entry and let her in. Aurora was shipped here as too hot to handle from a Chicago zoo, where she stirred up five male polars to a fighting passing of rivalry.

She came as a free gift to Manchester's Bellevue Zo, but the Board of Trade barred her entry into the country on her arrival aboard a freighter.

While her case was debated, lonely Aurora languished on the freighter, tied up at London docks.

Gerald Iles, Bellevue Zoo superintendent, called the Board of Trade ban "fantastic" and sped from Manchester this morning to protest. Just to show he meant business, Iles brought along a special van to bring Aurora to her new home.

Said Iles: "It's not as though we were paying dollars for her—she's a free gift."

The Board of Trade had said earlier: "Polar bears are not essential imports so they are banned. As we do not allow commercial zoos to buy polar bears in America, we cannot allow them to accept them as gifts. That might lead to abuse."

Robert Dean, director of the Chicago zoo, who called the ban "a shocking, dirty outrage, an affront to the people of Chicago."

Explaining the trade board's change of heart today, an official spokesman said: "We have, for the first time, got the full story. Since it is now quite clear the bear came here as a gift, we have decided to cut right through the red tape and let her come ashore."

Whereupon Iles sped to the docks to get Aurora.

Moss Case Is Before Board

WASHINGTON (AP) — An Army security board convenes in secret today to hear the case of Mrs. Annie Lee Moss, twice suspended from her civilian job during investigations.

Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis) brought up the name of the Negro woman and summoned her as a witness during hearings he held earlier this year on what he called coddling of Communists by the Army. A woman who once worked as an undercover informant for the FBI in the Communist party testified she knew an Annie Lee Moss as a Communist. But she said she could not identify Mrs. Moss by sight.

Mrs. Moss has declared that "I am not a Communist, never have been a Communist and have no Communist leanings or sympathies." She said there are other residents of this city with the same name. Some of McCarthy's committee members, including Sen. Symington (D-Mo), suggested it might have been a case of mistaken identity.

Released From Hospital

Mrs. C. L. Banks, who became ill while attending services at the Twenty - fifth Street Church of Christ yesterday morning, was released this morning from Battenfield Hospital. Mrs. Banks was taken to the hospital in a Bolger ambulance.

Benny Seeks Sum Of Money

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Jack Benny, who said sale of a multimillion dollar entertainment corporation gave him "a chance to make some money for the first time in my life," awaits a court decision on how much of the money he can keep.

U. S. Judge Stephen E. Rice took the case under submission after the comedian appeared at his tax appeal hearing Saturday to explain that he sold the corporation "against my own judgment."

Benny owned 60 per cent of Amusement Enterprises, Inc., which was sold to the Columbia Broadcasting System for $2,260,000. He tried to convince the government his share of the sale should be listed as capital gain instead of income.

Tax on the capital gain is 25 per cent; tax on the sum as income would run up to 75 per cent.

Benny said the corporation's earnings shouldn't be considered salary because he considered himself a "fictitious character."

"I am not as stingy as I am on the radio," he said. "I am not as cowardly as I am on the radio. I am nothing I am on the radio." He even admitted he was 60—instead of 39.

Send your questions to "Helps for Homemakers," Snyder Daily News, or call 3-5405.

Traditional Boston Cream Pie can be made quickly these days with the help of bought cake, a package of one of the new instant puddings and semi-sweet chocolate. While the dessert may not have all the nuances of flavor that come from doing all the work yourself, it is mighty good and will save you lots of time and energy when you are having company and time is short.

QUICK BOSTON CREAM PIE

1½ cups cold light cream
1 package vanilla instant pudding
1 baked 8-inch cake layer
½ of a 6-ounce package of semi-sweet chocolate
1½ tablespoons butter or margarine

Pour cream into mixing bowl. Add pudding mix and beat with rotary beater 1 minute, or until well mixed. Let stand until set—about 5 minutes. Split cake crosswise into two layers. Stir filling and spread between layers. To make frosting, place chocolate over hot (not boiling) water and stir occasionally until partly melted. Remove from heat; add butter and stir until smooth. Spread on top of cake. Chill 1 hour before serving.

British Actress Discovers Hollywood Is Wacky Place

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Sometimes it takes an outsider to make you realize that Hollywood is basically a rather wacky place.

Our visitor is Miss Joan Greenwood, volatile British actress who is here to make her first Hollywood movie, "Moonfleet." Here's her reaction to the town:

"I used to think Hollywood would be quite a normal place, because I had many friends who lived and worked here. They gave me the impression everything was ordinary and businesslike here. But it seems to me like the Hollywood of legend. It's a fabulous place."

One thing she can't quite get used to is the shade of her hair. There's a good reason for that: It changes every day.

"Oh, they've tried everything," she remarked. "When I came here, my hair was a little lighter than my normal ash blonde, because I had been swimming in the south of France. It was slightly blue-tinged because of a rinse.

"They decided my hair would have to be changed for the picture. First it was a yellow shade, then mauve, then a bright orange, then a lavender.

"It was very disconcerting to wake up in the morning, brush my teeth and then be startled by my hair. I never knew what to expect. And each shade would put me in a different mood. The orange made me feel giddy, the mauve gave me a depressing mood and the yellow made me look on everything with disdain."

Miss Greenwood, a small girl with a very British way of expressing things, had orange hair on the day we lunched together.

"One thing I can't get used to here," she added. "Nobody walks. You step out of a stage and a studio limousine is waiting to take you wherever you want to go, if only a few steps.

"The English love their walks, you know. I have taken only one since I arrived. I decided to walk from the hotel on Sunset Boulevard to Wilshire Boulevard. I met no one along the way. A man even turned his sprinklers on me. And several cars stopped to ask if I didn't want a ride. When I told them I merely wanted to walk, they thought I was crazy.

Miss Greenwood said she found much to admire in Hollywood, from cucumbers to coffee.

"The fruits are wonderful," she enthused. "I love the figs and the grapes, also the cucumbers. I think the lettuce is not too good. Sort of soft and spongy, like cabbage. But the tomatoes—wonderful.

"I love the coffee. But the tea—abominable! It must be the water. And I can't abide tea bags. You get the taste of cloth in your tea."

Dodgers Could Lose National Loop Title To Giants Tonight

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

This can become the gloomiest Monday night in Brooklyn's long baseball history.

For tonight the Dodgers' two-year reign as National League champions can come to an end. And barring a major miracle, the new champions will be Brooklyn's most hated rival, the New York Giants. Milwaukee was eliminated yesterday, losing 7-6 to the St. Louis Cardinals.

To make matters even wor.., The Dodgers' burial can take place right in their own back yard, Ebbets Field, with Sal Maglie, an old Dodger killer, acting as chief executioner. Southpaw Johnny Podres will oppose him.

The situation before the start of the final three-game series between the interborough rivals is this:

The Giants' magic number is two. One New York victory and one Brooklyn defeat will do it. Thus a Giant triumph at Ebbets Field would officially stamp them as World Series rivals for Cleveland's newly crowned American League champions. Rain caused postponement of yesterday's Giant-Philadelphia game at the Polo Grounds.

Even if they lose all three in Brooklyn, the Giants can still capture the pennant by either beating Philadelphia twice in four games left with the Phillies, or winning once provided Pittsburgh can beat Brooklyn in one of their three final encounters.

It was the last place Pirates who set the Dodgers up for the knock-out. Until recently the Dodgers' best friends, the Pirates stunned the Brooks yesterday, inflicting a 1-0 defeat to drop them 5½ games behind the pace-setting Giants.

It was a former best Friend—first name Bob—who deserted the Dodgers. The young righthander in his entire career had won only 1 of 11 decisions with Brooklyn. But he handcuffed the Brooks with six hits to become the first Pittsburgh pitcher to shut out the Dodgers since Fritz Ostermueller did it in 1947.

It was Pittsburgh's fourth straight victory over the Dodgers in the last two weeks. Prior to that, the Pirates had played dead for Brooklyn, losing 12 of the first 15 games this season and 20 of 22 last year.

Victim of Friend's shutout was Russ Meyer, whose five-hitter went to waste. An error by the usually reliable Carl Furillo in right field paved the way for the lone run. Preston Ward singled to right in the fourth inning and raced all the way to third when the ball rolled through Furillo's legs. Ward scored on Frank Thomas' long fly to center.

The Cardinals overcame a 6-0 deficit to drop the third place Braves eight games off the pace with seven left to play. Harvey Haddix, fifth Card pitcher, was credited with his 18th triumph when Stan Musial doubled in the ninth, was sacrificed to third and scored on Bill Sarni's fly. The Cards pulled even in the eighth after two homers by Eddie Mathews (Nos. 38 and 39) had helped the Braves build up a 6-0 lead inside four innings.

A sacrifice fly enabled the Cincinnati Reds to nip the Chicago Cubs 7-6 in 10 innings. The Reds tied the score at 6-6 with two in the ninth and won in the next inning when Roy McMillan's long fly drove Nino Escalera home from third.

The Indians, refusing to let up, streaked to their 10th straight victory, defeating the Detroit Tigers 4-2 on Hank Majeski's three-run homer in the first inning. Mike Garcia registered his 19th triumph and the club's 108th of the season, only two short of the American League record of 110 set by the 1927 New York Yankees.

Scoring all their runs in the eighth, the Yankees came from behind to defeat the Philadelphia Athletics 4-2 for their 100th victory—the greatest number of games the Yankees have won in any of the six years under Casey Stengel. Gil McDougald's three-run homer was the big blow.

The Boston Red Sox moved past Detroit into fourth place, whipping Washington 6-2 behind the six-hit pitching of Mel Parnell. It was the third victory, all against Washington, for the veteran southpaw, who was out most of the season with a broken finger. Parnell holds a 24-4 lifetime record against the Senators.

Gil Coan drove in two runs with four hits to lead the Baltimore Orioles to a 5-1 victory over Chicago's White Sox. Duane Pillette and Bob Chakales combined to limit the White Sox to three hits.

Sophs Leading In Southwest

DALLAS (AP)—Sophomores lead in four departments and are crowding the leader in another in first statistics of the Southwest Conference football campaign.

Bobby Jones, the Baylor fireball, tops in passing with five completions in 10 throws for 140 yards and two touchdowns.

Del Shofner, another Baylor leads in pass receiving with two catches for 117 yards and one touchdown.

Jim Swink, the talented Texas Christian sophomore, is out front in scoring with 13 points.

Swink also is second in rushing with 78 yards, just 12 yards behind the leader, Delano Womack of Texas, who has 90 yards on 13 runs. Swink has the top average—26 yards in three carries.

Jones is the total offense leader with 172 yards. He picked up 32 running in the game with University of Houston Saturday when he passed for 140.

Ray Taylor of TCU, a junior, is the leading punter. He averaged 50 yards on five boots. Bill Long of Texas is second with 46.

Billy Hooper, Baylor senior, is second in passing with 52 yards on four connections in eight throws. Jim Amyett, Baylor junior, is second in pass receiving with two catches for 44 yards.

Baylor is the total offense team leader, the Bears having run up 462 yards in shattering University of Houston 53-13 Saturday. Defensively, TCU leads, allowing the opposition only 121 yards per game.

Arkansas and Southern Methodist haven't yet played a game and do not figure in the statistics.

James D. Norris, president of the International Boxing Club, owns the Spring Hill Racing Farm Stable at Paris, Ky.

By DALE WALTON

Season ticket sales for home high school grid games got underway this morning and will continue until noon Friday.

The ducats cost $5 for the four home games, which will have Snyder matched with Bowie of El Paso, Vernon, Plainview, and Breckenridge.

They're on sale in the office of Forrest Beavers in the courthouse.

HARRIS LEADS

Someone from Breckenridge usually leads district grid scoring, and one of the team members of the Buckies is already leading this year. He is Clyde Harris, who made two TDs and five extra points against Wichita Falls for a total of 17 points. Sweetwater's Frank Smith is second with 14. Doyle Chapman of Lamesa is next with 13.

Tied up for fourth are last week's leaders, who didn't play Friday night. They are Snyder's Gerald Crawford and Big Spring's Frosty Robison, each with 12. Catching them was Jake Sandefer of Breckenridge. Next is Tommy Oehrlein of Levelland with nine.

Those with six points are Jack Spikes and Jimmy Bennett of Snyder, Conrad Alexander, Doyle Fancher, Frank Jones, and John Middleton of Lamesa; Travis Shafner, Tommy Evans, Mack Freeman, James Becton, and Joe Kennedy of Levelland; Don Staggs and Bobby Bryant of Plainview, Dick Carpenter and Jerry Cramer (a tackle) of Breck and Bubba Meyer of Sweetwater.

Kenneth Bartlett of Lamesa has three points, while Glenn Jennings of Big Spring and Doyle Williams of Plainview have two each. Snyder's Steve Blair and Frankie Minton have one each.

TOUGHEST LOOP

If there was ever any doubt, Snyder coaches are now certain that the Tigers are in the toughest class AAA league in the state.

Head Coach John Conley saw Levelland romp over Brownfield last Friday night, and he is convinced that the newest entry in District 1-AAA will cause trouble. Roy Carter, who had watched Vernon lose a narrow 9-0 decision to Wichita Falls a week earlier, accompanied Conley to the Levelland-Brownfield game. Carter had been impressed with Vernon, declaring that the Lions could have scored at least a couple of touchdowns against Wichita Falls, except for some bad breaks.

After Friday night's game he decided Levelland looked stronger at this stage than Vernon.

Hal Battle saw the Breckenridge-Wichita Falls game last Friday night. The Buckaroos put on such a powerful exhibition that Battle couldn't find words to express his wonderment.

Carl Coleman, the Big Spring coach, told Conley Saturday night that he would much rather play Lubbock than Plainview, despite the fact that the Westerners won handily over the 1-AAA entry Friday night. Coleman, who saw that game, noted that the Westerners got most of their points on runbacks of kicks.

"I fell like I could do something about stopping that, but I don't think it will be easy to stop Lonnie Holland of Plainview," Coleman moaned.

Arizona Has Utah Next

PHOENIX (AP)—The University of Arizona Wildcats are on the spot this week as they take time out from Border Conference play for an intersectional football clash with Utah, power from the Skyline Conference.

The Wildcats are fresh from an easy 58-0 victory over New Mexico A&M in last Saturday's conference opener. But they'll find the host Redskins a tougher nut to crack despite their 7-6 setback at the hands of Washington last week.

And star sophomore Art Luppino and the rest of the Wildcats will have the psychological problem of trying to impress upon Border Conference champion Texas Tech that they can also run against the tough ones.

Tech, scheduled against West Texas State in one of two conferences contests this week, definitely impressed the Wildcats last week. The Red Raiders from Lubbock crushed Texas A&M 41-0 at College Station to gain revenge for the only setback they suffered last season.

West Texas, meanwhile, was falling 19-18 to McMurry at Canyon, Tex., the only Border team to lose to a non-conference team. Hardin-Simmons impressed with a 21-14 victory over Tulsa at Tulsa, Arizona State (Tempe) came from behind to beat Hawaii 28-14 and Texas Western rolled past Sul Ross 35-14.

Arizona's visit to Salt Lake City is for one of two games between Border and Skyline clubs. Tempe goes to Provo, Utah, to meet Brigham Young Friday night.

Hardin-Simmons travels to Las Cruces, N.M., to meet the Aggies in the other conference game Saturday, and Texas Western entertains McMurry at El Paso.

Texas Loop Records Are Still Perfect

By The Associated Press

Texas Conference teams risk perfect records this week in a fight against outside opposition.

All three teams won their opening games last week, Howard Payne beating McNeese State 38-7, McMurry edging West Texas State 19-18, and Eastern New Mexico, a new member, beating Southwestern State of Oklahoma 13-6.

Saturday Howard Payne meets Sam Houston Sate of the Lone Star Conference, McMurry tackles Texas Western and Eastern New Mexico tries Southwestern Kansas.

Conference Play To Start In Gulf Coast

By The Associated Press

Championship play starts early in the 3-member Gulf Coast Conference.

Trinity and Midwestern meet at San Antonio Saturday night in the opening conference test of the season.

Trinity started the campaign last week by licking Southwest Texas State of the Lone Star Conference 27-7, while Midwestern trounced Morningside of Iowa 28-6.

North Texas State, which lost to Mississippi, 35-12, doesn't play this week.

Schedule Getting Rougher For Grid Teams Of District 3A-1

Football games for District 3A-1 are getting rougher as they go along, and several rough ones will be featured Friday night as most district teams play in their second games of the season.

Snyder, which rested during the past week end, will host Bowie of El Paso, which is favored to win its district. Sweetwater, which Saturday night tied Fort Worth's Northside, will be at Abilene to meet the highly-classed Class AA power.

At Big Spring will be Stephenville, and Breckenridge will host Brownwood. Lamesa will go to Seminole, while Levelland will be at home to take on Littlefield and Plainview will have El Paso High at home. Pampa will be at Vernon.

So far this season, Plainview, Lamesa, and Vernon are the only teams in the eight-squad district which have lost games. Plainview fell to Class AAAA Lubbock 34-14, Lamesa to AAAA Midland 12-7, and Vernon to Wichita Falls of that class 9-0. Lamesa, the only team in the loop which has played more than one game, came back last week to beat El Paso high 33-20.

Each team has three non-district games to play before the conference schedule begins. Non-district opponents remaining: for Snyder, Bowie (EP)- and Jefferson (EP); for Big Spring, Stephenville and Ysleta; for Breckenridge, Brownwood and Abilene; for Lamesa, Seminole; for Levelland, Littlefield and Phillips; for Plainview, El Paso High and Amarillo; for Sweetwater, Abilene and San Angelo; for Vernon, Pampa and Lawton, Okla.

B Team Is 22-0 Loser

The Snyder High School B grid team Saturday night fell to the Big Spring B 22-0.

The two teams played a rough ball game, with Big Spring breaking loose three times to score, once on an 80-yard run by a halfback. The other two runs were shorter.

The Snyder team, coached by Jack Dillon, threatened by getting inside the Big Spring 20 about four times, once as close as the 12, but it couldn't break through from there.

One pass was completed from Tommy Pritchard to end Larry Dickson as the gamed ended. It was a 30-yard aerial that put the team on the Big Spring 17.

Pritchard and Bobby Pollard were outstanding in the backfield, while Dickson and center Joe Reaves headed up the line.

The B team will host Lamesa at 7:30 o'clock Saturday night.

Walter J. Travis won the U.S. Golf Association Amateur title three times, was medalist six times.

WT-NM Series Is Tied Up In 2nd Game

By The Associated Press

Pampa and Clovis, who finished one-two in the West Texas-New Mexico League this year, shift their playoff struggle to Clovis for the next three days. The final series is tied 1-1.

Clovis knotted it Sunday when pitcher Ernie Sadler doubled in the winning run in the top of the ninth, giving the Pioneers a 3-1 decision.

Pampa and Clovis matched single runs in the first inning, then settled down to a scoreless battle until Sadler doubled in John Warren with the winning run. Sadler later scored on a Pampa error.

Sadler had little trouble with Pampa after the first inning, hurling a well-spaced seven-hitter. He had some minor worries with a pair down in the ninth, but Ruben Phillips relieved in time.

Jonas Gaines went the distance for Pampa.

Brennan's Team To Get Test Saturday

By ED CORRIGAN

NEW YORK (AP)—It won't take Terry Brennan, the rookie Notre Dame football coach, long to find the potential of his first Irish machine—just one game, in fact.

The 26-year-old Brennan, who looks like Joe College himself, sends his squad against the University of Texas Saturday. The Longhorns are rated one of the top teams in the Southwest Conference, and they looked very good, indeed Saturday in winning their opener from Louisiana State, 26-0.

Brennan has a rather thin squad and has commented that his main problem will be to develop a power back and to get some reserve strength in the line. He isn't a prophet of gloom as was his predecessor, Frank Leahy, so until he shows that he is joshing, he must be taken seriously.

Notre Dame was rated the top team in the country in the Associated Press' pre-season poll of sports writers and sportscasters.

After last week's preliminary Skirmishes, all of which followed form, this Saturday presents the first big afternoon of action in the new season.

Michigan State, co-favorite with Illinois for the Big Ten championship, plays Iowa in the NCAA's national television game of the day. While this one should go to the Spartans, off the advance dope, Iowa appears capable of making it close.

Oklahoma, perennial challenger for the mythical national title, plays Texas Christian at Norman. The mighty Sooners warmed up to their task by dropping California, 27-13 last Saturday—and doing it by taking advantage of errors, the mark of a champion. That should spell bad news for TCU. The Frogs looked good beating Kansas 27-6 in their opener.

The remaining teams voted by the experts most likely to succeed figure to come through the weekend unscathed. Maryland, another contender for the national throne, has an open date, after flexing its muscles with a 20-0 triumph over Kentucky.

Illinois has a more difficult assignment in Penn State. The Nittany Lions have been tabbed the class of the East in some pre-season forecasts. A better line on the merits of both clubs should come after this one.

Georgia Tech, 28-0 victor over Tulane, has a date with Florida, while UCLA, which could win the Pacific Coast title again, plays Kansas. The Uclans rode over San Diego Navy 67-0 Saturday. Wisconsin and Mississippi, who round out the pre-season Top 10, go against Marquette and Kentucky, respectively.

East Germans Set To Export

By TOM REEDY

LEIPZIG, East Germany (AP)—The Leipzig Trade Fair, which closed this week, made it evident that the East has something to export this year for the first time since the war. Moscow wants trade and is pushing for it.

The fair managers boasted that you could buy anything you saw. That included giant drill presses, lathes, optical instruments, precision tools, Russian and Czech automobiles, weaving machines, silks, wines, porcelain and pottery, engravings, lace and needlework, pilsen beer and russian brandy, vodka and champagne.

The Soviet pavilion was jammed with machinery, operating for the public. A giant statue of Stalin which once dominated an entry to the pavilion had given way to a twin statue that appeared to depict Lenin as the teacher and Stalin as the pupil; Stalin was half an inch shorter than Lenin.

The Red China pavilion was the second largest. It offered silk brocades, fine rugs and tapestries—and drill presses, lathes and motorcycles. A bronze bust of Mao Tze-tung was in the center of the hall.

The East German government announced that business contracts for the equivalent of nearly 400 million dollars were signed during the 11-day fair.

Chief Takes Second Wife

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP)—Indonesian President Soekarno, a good Moslem whose religion allows him four wives, has taken his second. Wife No. 1 and the young republic's feminists are furious.

Sources at the presidential palace said the 54-year-old president, a pioneer leader of the Indonesian revolution, had married a Mrs. Hartini, a divorcee and mother of five children, in a Moslem ceremony last June.

Mrs. S. Kartowijoni, chairman of the women's organization Perwari, said Soekarno's beautiful 29-year-old first wife, Fatmawati, had not agreed to her husband's second marriage and is ready to seek a divorce. Fatmawati and the president have four children.

Mrs. Kartowijoni, whose organization has been campaigning against polygamy among Indonesia's 78 million people, said Soekarno's example "pierces the hearts of women's organization members striving for justice for married women."

The feminist leader summoned women's clubs to a protest meeting.

Mrs. Helen Knowland, wife of U.S. Sen. William Knowland, rushed to a hospital from their Piedmont, Calif., home. A maid at the home called the ambulance, saying Mrs. Knowland was in a coma. Doctors said she had a mild cerebral seizure.

Proof that the rush of business for Christmas has already started in Snyder is the above display of pictures at Craft Studio, located just west of the West Texas State Bank, ready for Christmas delivery. Not Too Early For Yuletide Pictures

Although there are still many shopping days left before Christmas, it is time to have Christmas pictures made if best results are to be obtained in the most memorable of all Christmas gifts, a leading studio owner here, said today.

Jack Craft, owner of Craft Studio & Camera Shop, Snyder's oldest photographic studio, said that much time is required to properly finish portraits and that last minute rush jobs, although they can sometimes be done, are often not as good as portraits made when plenty of time can be devoted to proper handling of the photographic processes.

Craft Studio is located just west of the West Texas State Bank.

"We have already finished many portraits that are framed and stored for Christmas delivery," Craft said.

One of the items the Craft Studio is specializing in is life-like oil color portraits in the 11 by 14 inch size.

Craft's oil color portraits have many outstanding features which distinguish them as the finest examples of the photographic profession.

One outstanding feature of Craft's oil color portraits is that the coloring oils are carefully rubbed into the emulsion of the heavy tapestry photographic paper used so that the color becomes an actual part of the picture, not just a coloring on the surface.

Special chemicals are also used in the developing of the prints. The chemicals used are acid neutralizers and print softeners.

The acid neutralizers completely neutralize the developing process so that the prints never fade or turn brown with age insuring twice the usual life-time of pictures, Craft said.

"This new acid neutralizer truely makes the pictures life-time possessions," he said.

The print softener used in the finishing process makes the prints soft and flexible so that the surface of the print never cracks or breaks as is true with many pictures, he said.

Maine In Center Of Political Spotlight

By RELMAN MORIN

PORTLAND, Me., Sept. 18 (AP)—A large and uncertain image, shaped like the state of Maine, flashed across the nation's political radar screens this week, and today observers everywhere are wondering what it portends.

Was it just a flying saucer, disembodied and void of importance? Or does it, as the Democrats claim, herald the dawn of a new day for them?

Last Tuesday, rock-ribbed Maine elected a Democratic governor for the first time in 20 years.

The voters sent Republican Sen. Margaret Chase Smith and three GOP representatives back to Washington, but gave them smaller margins of victory than they have had in other years.

And in the state legislature, which remains predominantly Republican, the Democrats gained by four seats in the Senate, and 10 in the House.

Although it was a state election, the Republicans injected President Eisenhower's name, and said the results "will have great significance nationally."

So what's the meaning today?

"Absolutely no national importance," says the defeated governor, Burton M. Cross. "Purely local issues decided the election."

"It shows that 'Eisenhower' is no longer a magic name," says Frank Coffin, state Democratic chairman. "It's definitely related to the national picture."

"We got a damn good licking," says Fred C. Scribner, GOP national committeeman. "We weren't able to get across the point that the President was an issue in the campaign."

"I think it hurt the President," says lanky Edmund S. Muskie, who won the governorship.

While the post-mortems are going on in Maine, political leaders all over New England — and especially in pivotal Massachusetts—are trying to gauge the effects on their own races this year.

The Bay State's Republican governor, Christian A. Herter, who is up for re-election, commented cautiously, "we're studying the results. If they indicate a national trend, it can be very significant here."

His Democratic opponent, Robert F. Murphy, says happily, "of course it represents a national trend."

In addition, the Democrats claim the election is having immense national value in terms of encouraging their organizations in every state.

In the past, the "Maine formula" has often been used in an effort to predict what will happen in national elections. You take the percentage of the GOP vote in the state, subtract 10, 15 or even 20 per cent, and presumably that will give you the Republican percentage for the whole nation.

However, since the Maine election, in Republican eyes, was decided entirely by local factors, they are not taking much stock in these calculations today. One New England newspaper, answering the Democratic claims, commented succintly, "As Maine went, so went Maine."

Pope Cancels Regular Speech For Sunday

CASTELGANDOLFO, Italy (AP)—Pope Pius XII, suffering from fatigue, canceled a speech yesterday to the hundreds of pilgrims who flocked to his summer residence for the Pontiff's regular Sunday audience.

He appeared only briefly on the balcony to bless the cheering throng.

The Vatican announced he did not speak, as is his custom, "because of a slight indisposition."

Church officials disclosed last week that the 78-year-old Catholic leader has been tired by a heavy work schedule.

Immunity Law Causes Lot Of Spies To Do Some Thinking

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP) — If you were a wartime Soviet spy and had a choice, which would you take: A life of freedom for telling what you know or possible imprisonment and death if you refused to talk?

It's a choice some men are probably trying to make right now behind the doors of a federal grand jury room here.

The Justice Department reportedly is guiding a grand jury investigation, looking toward indictments and trials, of four alleged wartime spy rings among former government workers.

The maximum penalty for wartime spying is death, no matter how long after the war a man is found guilty. Former spies must have had some sleepless nights since the war, thinking about it.

The government now has a new weapon to use against any spy rings. It is the immunity law, passed by Congress this summer. This law permits the government to call in an individual, even a onetime spy, and tell him:

"We know you were a spy. If you tell us what you know, we may be able to convict the higher-ups in the ring. If you do tell us, we promise you will never be prosecuted for what you did."

If he accepted the immunity offer and talked, the ex-spy's life thereafter would be free of worry about prosecution. At the same time he'd be helping his country.

If he refused to talk, having been promised immunity, he could be indicted for contempt of Federal Court. How much time would he have to serve in jail if tried and found guilty? That's up to the judge.

More than that: If he preferred silence to immunity, some of his co-conspirators, should they in turn be offered immunity, might talk about him. They might talk enough to convict him of wartime spying.

FBI Chief J. Edgar Hoover said a week ago this immunity law already is having an effect on Communists. He said they are coming by themselves to the government with offers to talk.

Until now one of the government's worst stumbling blocks in trying to unravel the Communist conspiracy was the Fifth Amendment under which individuals with information had an excuse for silence.

A wartime spy, called before a grand jury, knew that anything he said — that is, the actual words — never could be used against him if some day the government wanted to bring him to trial for spying.

But while the government could never use his exact grand jury testimony against him, it could use that testimony as a lead to other evidence which could be used to try and convict him.

So an ex-spy was always able to say: "I refuse to answer any questions because the Fifth Amendment says a man can't be compelled to say anything which some day might land him in jail."

To get around this, Atty. Gen. Brownell asked Congress to pass the immunity law.

But there is still an unanswered question about the immunity law itself: Is it constitutional? That is, does Congress have the right to say a man can't use the Fifth Amendment?

No doubt the first individual who is offered immunity but still refuses to talk and lands in jail for contempt, will test the constitutionality of the immunity law with an appeal to the Supreme Court.

Some witnesses now may be refusing to answer on the chance the Supreme Court will decide the law is invalid and they don't have to talk.

Tornadoes Hit Pennsylvania

DUSHORE, Pa. (AP) — Three hit-run tornadoes struck near three communities in North Central Pennsylvania last night, knocking down power lines, damaging roofs and causing extensive damage to at least two farms. No casualties were reported.

State police at the Dushore Barracks said the storms "seemed to set down on two farms and then take off again."

They left behind a splintered woodshed and silo, levelled pig pens and fallen trees. One cow was killed.

The weather bureau at Harrisburg said state police reported the three tornadoes through its station at Williamsport. A spokesman said the bureau had no information of its own about the storms.

An American Airlines DC6, carrying 74 passengers on a flight from Chicago to New York, reported running into turbulent weather over western Pennsylvania. The plane turned back and landed at Cleveland after baggage was spilled from racks onto seats and two women suffered minor injuries.

Another plane, a Trans Canada Airlines flight from New York to Toronto, returned to Idlewild Airport after its pilot said he was unable to get around thunderstorms in Pennsylvania and New Jersey.

Ask Release Of Soldiers

HEIDELBERG, Germany (AP) — The U.S. Army today identfied two American soldiers arrested by the Czech Communists and said the State Department is negotiating for their release.

The men were listed as 1st Lt. Richard H. Dries and PFC. George Pisk. Their home addresses were not immediately available.

They were scooped up by a Czech border patrol near Eslarn, on the German-Czech border last Friday. Czechoslovakia's Red government in a protest note to the U.S. Embassy in Prague admitted last night it was holding them and claimed they were arrested on Czech territory "while photographing military installations and carrying out observations with field glasses."

The Army previously said the men were cruising along the border in an official capacity "to see what they could see," but that they were on West German territory when picked up.

A third soldier accompanying Dries and Pisk was some distance away when the Czech soldiers and their snarling guard dogs swooped down. The other American escaped and reported the incident.

The Army said Dries was in civilian clothes at the time because he was an interrogator who interviewed persons in the border area. Pisk was in uniform.

An Italian government spokesman says Foreign Minister Attilio Picconi, above, has insisted on resigning so that he can personally direct the defense of his jazz pianist son Piero against accusations that the youth was deeply involved in Italy's explosive Wilma Montesi scandal. The party girl was found dead on a beach after a wild party 17 months ago near Ostia, Italy.

10,000 Children Get Gamma Globulin Shots

ROCK ISLAND, Ill. (AP) — In an attempt to halt the march of polio, some 10,000 Rock Island school children yesterday were inoculated with gamma globulin, the nation's largest mass inoculation this year.

So far this year, 37 polio cases have been reported in the city and another 41 in Rock Island County. In 1953 there were 14 city cases and 7 county cases reported.

Assassins Hit Twice

PARIS (AP) — Assassins struck twice in Indochina over the weekend. Laotian Defense Minister Kou Vora Vong was shot dead in Vientiane, Laos. Two other anti-Communist officials escaped gunmen's bullets in Hanoj.

Lee S. Ford, 46, president of the Hammond Brick Co. in Grafton, W. Va., is shown as he appeared at arraignment on charges of violation of the Federal Reserve Act. The FBI said Ford cashed a series of checks totaling $444,197 at the First National Bank of Fairmont, W. Va., which were not charged to his account. The bank was closed after Bernard Barrett, described as a kind-hearted cashier, was charged with allowing customers to pile up bad checks.

Substitute Teacher Target For Ambush

By SAUL PETT
(For Hal Boyle)

NEW YORK (AP)—With a deep bow to their courage and a prayer for their peace of mind, this little tribute is dedicated to those unsung heroines who leave the safety of their homes and knowingly walk into an ambush.

I'm thinking of substitute school teachers.

A friend of ours subbed in the 6th grade the other day. The class tittered. Hours later she discovered the cause—a note passed from conspirator to conspirator. It said:

"What dunk (sic) did they dig this one up from?"

Most substitute teachers these days are housewives. It's been years since they taught, even longer since they went to teachers college. Being rusty and being temporary, they are naturally unsure of themselves. The children, of course, are a big help.

"The little darlings," said our friend, "are just waiting to trick you, to taunt, to smirk, titter, connive against, confuse—particularly to confuse—to undermine, to have fun with, to exploit—particularly to exploit.

"They put out feelers. They keep testing you for weak spots to see how much they can get away with. The pressure is always on. And the worst thing you can do is to appear uncertain. That opens the floodgates."

While the sub is worrying about how she looks and whether the mob will like her, she reaches into the regular teacher's desk, feeling like an intruder. She pulls out the seating plan. Ordinarily, the troublemakers are separated. Today, she finds things changed. But each one of the sweet little liars insists that's his regular seat.

The sub writes on the blackboard. A boy in the back asks her to rewrite the fourth word. Another asks about the last word. Teacher begins to worry that her handwriting has gone to pot. Another request for a rewrite. Then a giggle. Then teacher catches on.

In the lower grades, especially, kids are contradictory. They love to break the rules. They also love to heckle the sub for not following the rules.

One day in the first grade, our friend passed out lined paper for a spelling test. A girl asked, "should we fold the paper down the middle?" The sub studied the permanent study plan for the answer. It wasn't there.

Being cautious in her ignorance, she said brightly, "Well, how do you usually do it?"

Suddenly bedlam. Thirty hands wave wildly. Thirty throats shout 30 different versions. And, working quietly under the diversionary storm, Johnny near the window kicks Walter in the shins. Walter tries a headlock on Tommy and Tommy innocently brushes Helen's gym shoes off her desk.

Patino Leaves Kidnap Count On Police Book

By GEORGE A. MCARTHUR

PARIS (AP) — British hotel scion Jimmy Goldsmith says he will leave his kidnap charge on the police books even though his multi-millionaire in-laws, the Bolivian Patinos, have returned his frail 4-month-old daughter Isabela.

Obeying a court order, the Patinos sent the baby to Goldsmith's apartment yesterday, four days after he charged "unknown persons" had abducted her soon after he returned from a business trip to West Africa. He had left the infant with her grandmother, Mrs. Antenor Patino.

Despite the young father's still pending charge, it appeared likely the French police would happily let the matter fade out now that he has his child back.

Dorothy Cockbill, the British nurse who was with the little girl all the time she was in the custody of the Patino family, was to tell her story to police today. Goldsmith has charged the Patinos threatened her with instant firing if she tried to contact him. She was not allowed writing paper and not allowed to telephone him, he said.

Goldsmith charged the Patinos moved the child to three different hiding places although she suffers from anoxemia, a serious shortage of oxygen in the blood.

In seeking custody of the child, Mrs. Patino said she needed a woman's care. The judge, awarding the baby to her father, noted that Goldsmith's mother had "happily agreed" to live with the baby and care for her.

Little Isabela has been in delicate health since her premature birth last May just after her mother, 18-year-old Isabela Patino, had undergone a brain operation. The mother died shortly after the baby was born.

Tito Spurns Bid To NATO

By ALEX SINGLETON

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia (AP) — President Tito says Yugoslavia should spurn any invitations to join NATO because the Atlantic pact "is increasingly assuming a political hue — a struggle against communism."

"We are painted a Socialist hue," he told a rally in the Slovene village of Celje yesterday, and "there is no place for us in a bloc which has an anti-Socialist tendency."

He added, however, that cooperation with the North Atlantic Treaty Organization was possible and would be continued by his government. In addition to receiving Western military aid, Yugoslavia is allied in a mutual defense pact with Greece and Turkey, both NATO members.

Referring to his Communist regime's relations with Iron Curtain countries, Tito said he would "gladly accept any gesture of good will" by Russia.

Yugoslavia has been at odds with the Soviets and their satellites since Tito broke with the Cominform in 1948, but he has remained a staunch Communist.

(American informants in Rome pointed out that the Yugoslav leader's apparent overture to the Kremlin did not indicate a switch in policy as he has made similar statements before. The sources said Tito has not softened toward Moscow, but actually has turned his back on recent Russian friendship gestures because he feels the Kremlin still wants to interfere in the internal affairs of nations which come into its orbit.)

Sweden's Governing Parties Lose Ground

STOCKHOLM (AP) — Sweden's governing coalition of Socialists and Agrarians remained solidly entrenched today following weekend local elections but both the government parties lost some ground.

The Conservatives, the country's third largest party, scored the largest gains. The Communists held steady, in last place with only 4.9 per cent of the 3,701,541 ballots cast.

Prime Minister Tage Erlander in a statement said the outcome in the voting yesterday would "bring no change in the policy of the Swedish government."

According to ancient superstition, white heather brings good luck.

Neopolitans Looking For Good Times Ahead

NAPLES, Italy (AP) — Catholic Neopolitans looked forward to good times and rejoiced today following an announcement that the hardened blood of the city's patron, St. Januarius, had turned to liquid on his birthday, as in centuries past.

The blood is kept in two silver phials in the Naples Cathedral.

Thousands crowded into the cathedral yesterday as priests removed the containers from a silver safe and placed them at the altar. They announced that the blood softened 38 minutes after the ceremony opened.

For four centuries, the church says, the blood has flowed three times a year — on the first Saturday of May, Sept. 1 and Dec. 16. Only three times it remained hard. This was before a bubonic plague in 1527, a cholera epidemic in 1884 and the 1944 eruption of Vesuvius.
