Thomsons To Perform

Christi and Steve Thomson will be playing with the Plainview Chamber Orchestra Monday, March 2 in a Pops Night concert in Plainview High School Auditorium. Program time is 8:15 a.m.

Mrs. Thomson, music teacher at Hart Elementary School, will be playing the violin. The Longhorn Band director will play the trumpet.

The orchestra will play selections from "Oliver" and "The Wiz" along with themes from "Star Trek", "Pink Panther" and "M.A.S.H.". Other numbers will be "A Fifth of Beethoven" and overture from "Funny Girl".

Travis Thornton, Plainview native, will be guest artist.

Thornton attended Wayland College two years, singing in their concert choir. He began singing professionally at 19 and started his own band in 1977 and won the Plainview Jimmy Dean Talent Show last year. Appearing with him will be his wife, Amy and Keith Longbotham on guitar.

Tickets may be purchased at Gabriel's Department Store or at the door the night of the performance. They are available for $5 for adults; $2.50 for students.

Grain Sorghum Conferences Slated Feb. 25-27 In Lubbock

Lubbock will be the scene of one of the most detailed grain sorghum conferences ever held. The Twelfth Biennial Grain Sorghum Research and Utilization Conference will be held at the Lubbock Hilton Inn from Feb. 25-27. Registration will begin at 7:30 a.m. on the morning of Wednesday, Feb. 25.

There will be over eighty specialists covering almost every aspect of sorghum production and utilization. Reports on the latest research that has been completed will be reviewed. Also to be included is the research that is currently underway, and the new problems that have recently been discovered where researchers should direct their attention.

The first session Wednesday, Feb. 25, will be a general session which is designed for the general public, farmers and press. Each session chairman will summarize, introduce briefly, and explain the work that will be covered in more detail during his respective program.

There will be a small registration fee charged to defray the costs of the Convention. For more information, contact Grain Sorghum Producers Association at 763-4425.

Coat Lost

A man's sheepskin lined, Western coat was lost Friday, Feb. 13 in the Hart gym. A collection of keys was contained in one of the pockets.

The keys are important to only the owner of the coat. He would give the coat to the finder..if the keys are returned.

Further information in this matter may be had by contacting Andy's Grocery and Market, 684-2289.

Incumbents File For Re-Election

Only two persons have filed candidacy in the school board election slated Saturday, April 4. Incumbents Neoma Wall and Harold Bob Bennett have announced their bids for re-election.

Deadline for filing as candidate is March 4. Absentee voting will be available March 16-30 for those persons planning to be out of town election day.

To be eligible to serve as a candidate for school board, a person must be a resident of Hart Independent School District and a qualified voter.

Six Weeks Test Schedule Told

Six weeks test schedules have been announced by Superintendent Ted Averitt. Exams will be given Feb. 25-27.

Wednesday, Feb. 25, tests will be given for all seventh period classes. Second, fourth and sixth period classes will take tests Thursday.

Friday's schedule includes examinations for first, third and fifth period classes.

Little Dribblers Sign-Ups Held

Some 55 little boys signed up for Little Dribblers in meetings held Feb. 4 and 11. Officers were elected, dads were named coaches and some drafts made.

Practice sessions will be held after school and Saturdays. Games are to be played Mondays and Tuesdays from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. Admission to games will be 25 cents per person. A concession stand will be operated for popcorn and Cokes.

All interested persons are invited to attend the games and watch the boys play.

Athletes Sold For Funds To Benefit Proposed Track

Athletic students, auctioned Friday evening as "slaves," added $420 to the track fund. The fund now totals $3,347.

The slave auction is the second such money raising project conducted by the youth for the benefit of the track fund.

Track facilities, now existing, are little more than a grassy field. The low area, at the south edge of the school property, holds water when it rains.

Track season is often interspersed with light rains which turn the track into a muddy wasteland.

Spring winds also whip loose dirt into the eyes of track competitors, adding further discouragement to participation.

The track will be completed as funds come in and is expected to be a two or three year project before the "dream" facility is complete. It may be used by persons in the community for jogging, running or walking.

Persons interested in making a donation to the fund may do so at Farmers State Bank or the business offie at Hart schools.

For Public School Week Event Plans Continuing At School

Plans are continuing at Hart schools for the annual observance of Texas Public School Week, March 2-6. Open house festivities and a band concert are planned for Thursday, March 5.

Hart school bands will present a concert beginning at 7 p.m. in the high school gym. Open house will follow. Student Council members will serve as hosts and hostesses. Refreshments will be served by the home ec classes.

Stationed in their rooms, teachers will greet parents and other visitors. Samples of students work may be seen in elementary home rooms.

Teachers in Hart High School and Junior High will also be in classrooms. For the conveniece of visitors, these rooms are announced. Carolyn Rowland, room 10; David Turner, room 9; Gaynette Turner, room 8; Su Cox, room 7; Rita Upton, room 6; Ken Hoskins, biology room; David Knox, chemistry room; Lula Mae Hanes, Library; Anna Ortega and Brenda Campbell, room by homemaking department; Cynthia Walker, CVAE lab; Don Sanders, CVAE Shop (new building); David Batson, art building; J.V. Wescott, room 1; Carl Neinast, photography room; Jim McBroom and Kathey Fisher, room 2; Monty Upton, room 3; Anne Burkhalter, room 4; and San Browning and Eddie Hooper, room 5.

MRS. KEN HOSKINS

Cook Of The Week

Favorite recipes are shared this week with Hart Beat cooks by a young homemaker and educator, Mrs. Ken Hoskins.

Melanie and Ken taught last year in Groveton and came to Hart in August. He is head basketball coach and assistant football coach. Melanie teaches fifth and sixth grades social studies.

Born and reared on a farm north of Olton, Melanie graduated from Olton High School and met Ken while they were students at Howard Payne College. She graduated from Baylor University.

Melanie's parents are Mr. and Mrs. James Cowart whose parents and grandparents were early day settlers in the Olton community. She has an older sister and brother, both married.

Avid sports fan by nature, Melanie enjoys rooting for her husband's teams. They also share a woodworking hobby, making small crafts such as names. Melanie draws the pattern and Ken cuts them out; together they stain the finished projects.

Melanie enjoys making bulletin boards in her classroom into exciting interest centers for her young students. She enjoys almost all crafts and likes needlecrafts.

The young Hoskinses are Baptists.

RIPE SWEETNESS

The riper the banana, the sweeter it is because the starch content has turned to sugar. The fruit is softer and ideal for use in baked products, says Cass Ryan-Crowe, a foods and nutrition specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

MRS. GUY CLIFFORD SCOGGIN

Denise Houston-Guy Scoggin Say Twin Ring Vows Saturday

Wedding vows were solemnized Saturday evening in Main Street Church of Christ in Olton for Miss Denise Annette Houston and Guy Clifford Scoggin.

Officiating the twin ring ceremony was Don Jones.

Parents of the couple are Mrs. Maenette Houston of Olton and Mr. and Mrs. Duane Clevenger.

Spiral candelabras, decorated with greenery, flanked a greenery entwined arch candelabra, with a large blue satin bow at the center. Blue satin bows marked the family pews.

Piano selections of traditional wedding music was presented by Mrs. Gaylia Davis, aunt of the groom. She accompanied her daughter, Vivian Bennett, as she sang "Longer." Neil and Iona Baldridge and Dee Gannaway, uncle and aunts of the groom, sang "If" and "The Wedding Song."

The bride wore a formal gown of candlelight silk organza fashioned with empire bodice enhanced with pearls and re-embroidered Alencon lace. Her long, sheer bishop sleeves were accented with lace motifs and caught at the wrists with deep lace cuffs closed with tiny satin buttons. The fitted bodice was styled with a lace edged Queen Anne neckline.

Panels of matching lace embellished the full skirt. Encircled with scalloped lace, the hemline swept to a chapel length train.

Her veil of silk illsuion, edged with scalloped lace, fell from a pearl encrusted lace headpiece. Venise lace motifs were sprinkled over the chapel length illusion.

Keeping traditions, her attire was "new." She carried, as "something old," a handkerchief which had belonged to her maternal great-grandmother, the late Mrs. Ann Pavelka. She "borrowed" a diamond necklace from her mother and added the traditional touch of blue. She carried, in her shoe, a penny coined in 1964, the year of her own and the bridegroom's birth.

She carried a cascade arrangement of blue carnations, white roses and clusters of blue net and pearl hearts with candlelight satin ribbons tied in love knots.

Dana Houston was her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaid was Kristie McNeely. They wore gowns of baby blue lace fashioned with scooped necklines adorned with deep flounces of pleated lace outlined with lace edging. Blue satin ribbons accented their waistlines and pleated skirts which fell carpet length. They carried long stemmed blue silk mums with matching ribbons.

Guests were registered by Sharissa Hamby at a table laid with beige lace over blue. An old-fashioned high button ceramic shoe held blue silk flowers with baby's breath accents.

Gary Clevenger, brother of the groom, was best man. Chris Clifford, cousin of the groom, was groomsman. Guests were seated by Brent Hamby of Olton, cousin of the bride, and Scotty Clevenger, brother of the groom.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Houston wore a street length dress of aqua chiffon with white corsage. Mrs. Clevenger chose a street length dress of mauve qiana with blue corsage.

The bride presented red roses to her mother and the mother of the groom at the beginning and conclusion of the ceremony.

A reception was held in fellowship hall. The bride's table was laid with a floor length cloth of beige embroidered eyelet. Crystal hurricane lamps with white tapers flanked the bridal bouquet at the center. Frosted with candlelight tint, the wedding cake was topped with a miniature bride and groom. Wedding cake, punch, nuts and mints were served from crystal and silver appointments.

Presiding at the bride's table were Sharla Nicholas of Lubbock and Sharissa Hamby of Levelland, cousins of the bride, Kelly McNeely of Olton and Donna Davis, cousin of the groom.

Rice bags were distributed by cousins of the bride, Aimee Plymell of Odessa, Jill and DeAndra Dennis of Kress and Crystal Hamby of Olton.

Members of the houseparty were Mmes. Buster Nicholas, Cecil G. Smith and Floyd Light.

For a wedding trip to Lubbock, the couple wore matching ensembles of grey corduroy slacks with black velour sweaters. They are at home in Hart.

The bride attended Olton High School. Scoggin attended Hart High School and is presently engaged in farming.

A rehearsal supper was held Friday evening in fellowship hall with Mrs. Light assisting the groom's parents as hosts. A Valentine theme was used.

HAS SURGERY

Glenda Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Wilson, had surgery Friday morning in Nichols Hospital in Plainview. She is reported to be doing fine.

Cotton Maid To Make Tour

Maid of Cotton Karie Ross will travel to the People's Republic of China as part of a worldwide tour to promote U.S. cotton exports, the National Cotton Council has announced.

Chinatex, the purchasing organization for all raw cotton used in China, issued the official invitation. During her visit, March 26-29, Karie will meet with textile industry and government officials. She will be accompanied by Tour Manager Diane Deaton and John Maguire, Cotton Council International Far East director. China is the single largest overseas customer for U.S. cotton.

In addition to China, the tour -- set for March 26-May 20 -- will take Karie, a Clinton, Okla., native, to Japan, Korea, Hong Kong, Singapore, Thailand, India, Italy and Spain. During March 1-15, she will visit major cities in Canada.

Her visit to Japan will highlight the 25th anniversary of CCI's cooperative advertising with the Japan Cotton Promotion Institute and will be marked by special receptions and promotional activities.

IN OKLAHOMA

Mrs. J.B. Allensworth was dismissed Saturday from Central Plains Hospital and went to Ardmore, Okla. Wednesday for further treatment.

RECEIPTS IMPORTANT

Senior Citizens Invited As Interns For Week In May

Senator Lloyd Bentsen said Wednesday he is looking for older Texans to work in his Washington office as Senior Citizen interns for one week this May.

"Every day in this country 5,000 people celebrate their 65th birthday," the Senator said. "Our senior citizens have unique skills to offer and a wisdom that comes only with age."

Bentsen asked that any interested Texans, age 65 or older, write to his office.

The intern program not only offers these Texans valuable information on how Congress and the federal bureaucracy work; it also provides a forum for the mutual exchange of ideas on the problems of aging, Bentsen said.

This is the fifth consecutive year that the Senator has participated in the Senior Citizen Intern Program. The senior interns will take part in working sessions with cabinet and agency officials, White House briefings and congressional committee hearings, all related to the problems of aging.

The program is also a great opportunity to share ideas with concerned senior citizens from around the nation. As an added bonus in the 1978 program, a female intern from Texas married a male intern from Kansas.

This year the program will be conducted May 11-15. Any Texans interested in becoming a Bentsen senior citizen intern for 1981 should write to the Senator at the Russell Senate Office Building, Washington, D.C., 20510.

HOUSEHOLD CHANGES

At the end of the 1970's, about 14 percent of all households were headed by women--an increase over the 1960's of about 57 percent, reports Diane Welch, a family life education specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

On The Hard Court

VARSITY

Suzahn Rowland was high scorer with 16 points in Tuesday's 42-57 loss by the Lady Longhorns to Springlake-Earth.

The Horns captured a 48-46 thriller over S-E back of Derek Rich's 24 points. Chad Black scored 14.

"Our boys played a super game," said Coach Ken Hoskins. "They never gave up and kept fighting to the very end. We did a great job handling their full court press, something that has hurt us in previous games. Benny McLain played an exceptional game, getting down court and setting up the offense."

"I'm proud of our kids and their efforts," Hoskins said.

Friday's action brought victories on the home court as the fems defeated Kress 58-41 and the Horns captured a 62-40 win.

Suzahn scored 14 points; Linda Washington, 12 and Grace Bonsal, 10.

Rich and Black combined for 25 and 20 points, respectively, in the Horns victory.

"We, no doubt, played our best game of the year," said Coach Hoskins. "Our kids played with real intensity and determination. Our win, coupled with Farwell's loss to Springlake-Earth, allows us to enter the District Tournament Feb. 19-20."

"I am really proud of our youngsters for their achievements throughout the year. They have continually improved all season and they deserve to be in the tournament."

The Horns were expected to play Vega or Bovina Thursday night at 8:30 p.m. in Hereford LaPlata gym.

JUNIOR VARSITY

Lori Sarabia was leading scorer Thursday in the JV fems' 33-51 loss to Springlake-Earth.

JUNIOR HIGH

Eighth grade girls took an 18-8 win Monday over Kress. Lupe Macias was leading scorer with 8.

Winding up the 1980-81 season as co-champions, eighth grade boys lost 22-36 to the young Kangaroos. Each team boasted 9-1 records.

Omar Longoria was leading scorer with 10 points.

Mary Mapp was leading seventh grade scorer with 5 points as the seventh grade girls lost to Kress.

The seventh grade boys lost a heartbreaker, 15-14," reports Coach Jim McBroom. "The Shorthorns fought back from a 11-6 score at the end of the third quarter to 11-10 in favor of Hart with two minutes left in the game. Kress went into a stall and we were unable to steal the ball and try and take the lead."

Area Consumer Trade Fair Set April 4 In Plainview

Committee members have set Saturday, April 4, as the date for the Panhandle Area Consumer Trade Fair here, jointly sponsored by Wayland Baptist College and the South Plains College Regional Occupational Center.

Open free of charge to the general public, the Fair will be housed at the ROC, located at 708 Yonkers, from 9 a.m. until 4 p.m. that day, according to Bob Wallace, assistant professor of vocational education at Wayland.

"The purpose of the Fair is to open communications between the consumer and those who build, produce or sell products in the area," Wallace explained.

The Fair will feature a variety of booths representing companies which produce motorcycles, economy cars, storm windows, paint, insulation, truck accessories, automotive parts, energy-efficient fireplaces, solar heating units, wind energy products, cabinets and other items.

No selling will take place, Wallace explained, but factory representatives and businessmen will be on hand to answer questions which visiting consumers might have.

Steering Committe members for the Fair are Wallace, Dan Shockey of the ROC; Howard Hatch, Hatch Automotive; Roy Kiser, Kiser Automotive; Lyndell Burleson, Higginbotham-Bartlett Lumber Co.; Johnny Mc Donald, Tucky's Automotive; and Jimmy James, 84 Lumber Co.

For more information, contact Wallace at 296-5521.

Senior Citizens Meet Tuesday

Senior Citizens will meet Feb. 24 for their regular monthly fellowship in fellowship hall of First Baptist Church.

Golden Ages Quartet of Hereford, composed of Homer Garrison, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Boyers and J.B. Nowlin, will furnish the program.

All interested persons are invited to bring a dish of food and join in the fellowship.

BROTHER VISITS

Mr. and Mrs. Wilburn Brooks of Clovis came Saturday to visit his sister and family Mr. and Mrs. Glen Wilson and Glenda in Plainview at Nichols Hospital.
