WAYNE PRYOR, CINDY HARRIS & MARSHA BEESLEY

Classic Creations Is Cisco CofC Business Of The Week

Classic Creations, located at 108 West 8th, is the Cisco Chamber of Commerce Business Of The Week.

Marsha Beesley, owner, is a jewelry technician. She attended Paris Junior College and majored in jewelry technology. The business opened in their present location in June of 1986.

Also working with Marsha is Cindy Harris, the general manager for Classic Creations. Cindy has worked with Marsha since they opened. Cindy said she had previously worked for Haltom's in Fort Worth for five years.

Wayne Pryor, who has just recently finished a course in jewelry technology at Paris Junior College is now a jewelry technician at Classic Creations. He began work there last week. Wayne is from Cisco.

Marsha said they have all been trained to create custom jewelry and do all types of jewelry repair. They are also trained in stone setting and casting. She said they are able to take old gold, such as class rings or old wedding sets and melt them down and create a new ring set. All of the creating and repair work is done in their store.

Classic Creations are also in charge of doing jewelry repair work for several stores in the Big Country area. Marsha said they also receive work orders from Lake Tahoe, New Mexico and Louisiana.

Marsha said they carry inexpensive jewelry priced under a $100. Customers can also order any type of retail jewelry from a Classic Creation cataloge. Marsha said someone can bring in a picture of a jewelry piece and Classic Creations can design that piece. "And we also carry loose stones for the customers to choose from," she said.

Cindy said they will be going to 'market' in the near future and they plan on purchasing gold and gift items for this year's Christmas season. She said they will also have jewelry boxes and several pieces of jewelry.

Classic Creations are open Monday thru Friday from 9:00 a.m. till 5:00 p.m. Their phone number is 442-1140.

The old Altman's store has been sold to Becky and Charles Stephenson. Becky is the owner of the Twice Around Shop, located across the street from the Altman's building.

Becky said they will be opening a store in that location. The name of her new business will be Yesteryear Antiques, she said.

Wayne Chandler of Pat Maynard Real Estate handled the sale.

Bill Philpott brought in a large print of a "Peanuts" cartoon last Thursday at the Cisco Rotary Club meeting. One character was saying "What do they do at Rotary Sir?", and the other character answered "I think they have lunch and insult each other."

Everyone enjoyed the cartoon.

We received the following letter last week. It read:

"Dear Sir.

"I get a great pleasure out of reading about my old Home Town - Cisco. Born, raised and receiving my primary education in Cisco, I have fond memories of my early life there. I'm glad the preservation of the Hilton Hotel is finished. No one knows more than I about the Hilton. Every single week of my early life I visited the Hilton, the park, the Depot. I can remember everything. My regards to my ex-school teacher Lela Latch- to all my school mates still in Cisco. Thank you for your Cisco news. I shall visit Cisco soon.

We have a new copier at The Press now, a SAVIN 7015Z, and we can make copies for the public again. It is really a fancy little thing. It can enlarge or reduce or make a copy darker or lighter and in some cases the copy looks better than the original.

So when you have to have copies made, be sure and stop by The Press to have them made. We still only charge 25 cents a copy.

We also have this new fangled typewriter, the Panasonic KXE-603. You can type out a sentence and read it before it is typed on the paper, to check for mistakes.

We are selling them now, and the one we have on display sells for $625.00. It originally sells for over $1,000. So if you get a chance, stop by The Press and we will show it to you.

Last Thursday night, we saw the play "The Fantasticks" and we really did enjoyed it. When the play was over and everyone was congratulating the actors and actresses, everytime I said the play was fantastic, everyone would laugh.

When I finally realized that fantastic was the name of the play, I felt kind of silly.

But that word does describe the play. It really is a fantastic play.

Cisco City Council Members Are Presented Revenue Saving Ideas

City Manager Mike Moore, presented three primary points to help generate revenue for Cisco to the City Council meeting held last Tuesday evening.

City taxes will be raised up one cent from 54 cents to 55 cents for next year. Mike said this will generate approximately $8,000 a year for the city. He said the average tax bill will increase about three to four dollars.

Mike said they are also looking at increasing the sanitation pickup charge to $2.00 per customer.

This will be the single largest fund source for the city. Mike said this increase will generate approximately $35,000 a year for the city. He said this will be better than a tax increase, because more than just the homeowners will be effected.

The third area Mike presented to the council that will bring in more revenue is to increase the franchise fees. They are considering a new franchise fee for Lone Star Gas Company. They will be asking Lone Star to increase their franchise fee from two percent to four percent. Mike said this will bring in $7600 a year for the city.

Mr. Moore said he thought about increasing the city sales tax, but the new tax increases from Austin will be able to help the city. He said there will be a state tax increase on garbage collections that will have to be sent to the state, interstate phone calls and local telephone service.

Mike said this is the third year in a row that tax revenue is down. The revenue is down 18 percent from last year. Mike said he hopes Cisco can just hold on until somehow the economy picks up and more revenue comes into our town.

There had to be $64,000 taken out of last years budget. Mike said they will cut back in six city departments. The fire department and parks department cutbacks will help to save $1300 to $1400 a year.

Mike said the street department, the police force and the administrative departments have all taken cuts. Mike said that he proposed that the City will not buy any new equipment, and try to cut back on maintenance.

Mike said the city employees will not receive a raise for the third year in a row. The city employees are all hard working people, he said. They have all doubled up on their work to help the city's budget problems. Most of the employees are grateful to have a job now and they will continue to work hard. Mike said he deeply believes that the employees deserve a raise. He said they will be do a good job, even with the cuts.

The city council will review the final budget on their next meeting that will be held August 11, and will hopefully approve the financial report at that time. They will also look at increasing the santitation fee to become effective September 1, 1987. The increase will show on the customer's October bill.

In other matters the council decided not to renew the insurance on the Williamson Dam, because of the nature of the cost raise. Mike said the insurance cost went from $5,000 a year to $18,000 a year. The coverage would pay 80 percent of the 5 million dollars coverage.

Mike said the city decided to wait and see if the Tort reform bill passed by the State of Texas will have anv effect on the insurance coverage.

The council accepted the resignation of council member Bill Roberts. Mike said they accepted the letter with reluctance and the council members, and the Joe Wheatley, mayor wished him the best of luck in his new position in Maybanks, Texas.

Since Mr. Roberts term has less than one year and more than three months, Mayor Wheatley will have to appoint someone to fill Mr. Roberts vancancy and bring it before the council members to be voted on.

Mayor Wheatley had not choosen anyone for this position at the time of this writing.

CJC Play "The Fantasticks Considered A Fantastic Play

By Wanda Hallmark

My husband, my sister-in-law and I went to see the play "The Fantasticks" last Thursday night and we throughly enjoyed ourselves.

Mary McGrew, who plays Luisa, really did a wonderfu. job of acting and singing. She has a beautiful clear voice that harmonizes well with anyone else she was singing with. And her facial expressions and movements during the play are able to make you believe that she is a 16-year old girl. She played the cute, spoiled, imaginative and beautiful daughter of Belomy.

Belomy was played by Frank Spangler Jr. This was Frank's first time at acting in a play. Frank has played the drums and guitar for the CJC plays "Annie", "I Do, I Do" and "Foxfire". Frank also has a wonderful voice and he played the part of Belomy very well. I hope that he will be in future plays at the Dinner Theatre.

Bill Austin, Jr., played El Gallo the bandit. This is Bill's fourth season with the CJC Dinner Theater. Everyone in the audience enjoyed his strong baritone voice and his narration of the play and his acting, especially his death scene. Bill looked every bit the bandit dressed in black, with a black cape and a black hat.

Joe Ochoa, plays Matt, the 20-year old boy who is in love with Luisa. Joe plays his part very well, including the part where he has to fight the bandits to protect his loved one. When Luisa and Matt sing together their voices seem to harmonize so well. He also played in the summer production of "Foxfire" here at the CJC Dinner Theater. Joe will be attending Cisco Junior College this next year.

Clint Cottom plays Huycklebee, Matt's father. Hucklebee and Bellomy are really friends who pretend to be enemies to make sure their children will marry. Clint and Frank sign and dance together quite a bit in the play and each time it is 'fantastic'. They make a great comedy team.

Mortimer and Henry, played by Dixon Seider and Fred Mullimax, also make a great comedy team. Both men are from the Cisco area and have played in several dinner theater productions. They have really funny parts in the play especially their entrances and departures on stage. And Dixon's death scene is also hilarious. But one of the funniest parts of the show was their costumes in the second act of the show.

Kim Allison played the mute and I kept watching her to see if she smiled and she never did smile during the show. She has to be a fine actress to be able to do that while watching this show.

Glenda Young, the director for "The Fantasticks" did a wonderful job of directing the play. I have heard from other people how talented Glenda is in acting and directing, and she has

Abilene Man Sentenced 50-Year Prison Term

A 30 year old Abilene man was sentenced to 50 years in the Texas Department of Corrections and fined $50,000 by 91st District Judge Jim R. Wright Thursday.

Cecil Ray Bryant was sentenced by the judge after he pled guilty on July 20 to charges stemming from a January 13 arrest by D.P.S. Trooper Richard Treece. Bryant was arrested and charged with possession and manufacturing amphetamines and with possessing a chemical used to make amphetamines. He was also charged with illegally carrying a weapon, a misdemeanor.

Bryant's arrest occured during a routine roadblock on Highway 6 south of Eastland. His pickup was headed south when Trooper Treece stopped him.

Treece reported that as he approached Bryant's vehicle to check for insurance and driver's license he became suspicious of an odor coming from the pickup. He then saw what appeared to be amphetamines and drug lab equipment in the back of the truck. Two other Troopers, Steve Tone and Larry Melson, stepped over and verified the find and the subject was placed in custody.

After the D.P.S. Narcotics office in Abilene confirmed the find, Bryant was booked into Eastland County Jail.

Officers siezed about 60 lbs. of phenylacetone, which is used to make amphetamines.

The value of the drugs, which could be produced from the material siezed is around $2.5 million wholesale and street value could be from two to three times that amount.

Bryant's sentencing was for aggravated possession of a controlled substance, phenylacetone, over 400 grams.

New State Tax Rate To Affect Many New Areas Here

Governor Bill Clements signed a bill passing the largest tax increase in the history of the state of Texas last July 22. State officials modified the tax structure to make a $5.7 billion tax increase during the 1987 Legislature's regular session.

This bill broadens the state sales tax to include, interstate telephone calls, local telephone service, custom computer software, data processing, food purchased by common carries such as trains or airlines, garbage collection, private club memberships, janitorial and cleaning services, non-residential repairs and remodeling, landscaping, lawn services and surveying, exterminating, security services, credit reporting, information services, certain transportation and installation charges, insurances services and other miscellaneous services.

The sales tax broadening will require cities to impose the sales tax (whichever rate applies) on muncipal bills for garbage collection. For example Cisco now charges $7.00 per month for garbage collection, and after September 1, Cisco will be required to add to the bills a sales tax of six percent. The tax collected must then be remitted to the comptroller.

Some of the other taxes that will be increased are: Cigarette tax will be increased from 20.5 cents; State hotel-motel tax will be raised from four to six percent; and increases the state sales, use and rental tax on motor vehicles from five to six percent.

In summary, the tax bill, largely because of the broadened sales tax base–represents a significant victory for Texas cities at a time that revenue is desperately needed to balance municipal budgets. The sales tax increase and the broadened base are effective October 1, 1987; the remaining sections of the bill are effective September 1, 1987.

Computer Technology Fights Against Cancer

Computers play a role in nearly every aspect of modern life. The most advanced computer technology is now allowing some scientists to peer into the innermost workings of cells, where cancer begins.

Dr. Robert Rein of Buffalo and Dr. Ramaswamy Sarma of Albany are both project directors for the National Foundation for Cancer Research (NFCR).

Dr. Rein uses his computer to study the intricate molecular biology of the cancer process by building visual models. He creates three-dimensional pictures of carcinogens, drugs, proteins and pieces of DNA, and with the help of a pair of cardboard-and-cellophane "3-D' glasses, Rein is able to envision how they all might fit together.

By observing how these substances interact, he is drawing a blueprint for hundreds of future anti-cancer drugs.

His NFCR colleague Dr. Sarma uses a new research tool called a nuclear magnetic resonance spectrometer, which measures signals from atoms within molecules. The information is fed into a computer, which creates "pictures" and enables Sarma to detect changes in a molecule's shape, particularly a DNA molecule.

This knowledge is important, because to learn what controls the expression of cancer, we first have to know the effect of mutation, or change, on the structure of the DNA molecule.

The National Foundation for Cancer Research is a private, non-profit organization based in Bethesda, Md. With the help of donors nationwide, it has allocated more than $50 million to basic cancer research over the last decade.

Campbell-Swan Repeat Vows In Olney Church

Amy Benita Campbell and Phillip Jeffrey Swan repeated wedding vows Saturday, July 18 at 3:30 p.m. in the First United Methodist Church. Rev. Paul Ganther, minister of the First Christian Church of Olney, officiated.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Luren Campbell of Olney and Lester Swan of Eastland and the late Mrs. Swan.

Arched and spiral candelabra, holding white tapers entwined with lemon leaf, spathiphyllum and oriental peach buttercups, accented with Sonia ribbon, provided the background for the altar and the unity candle. Columns containing blush fushia bushes and jasmine plant completed the altar decorations. Pew markers were bows of peach satin centered with flowers.

The bride, given in marraige by her father, wore a designer gown of shimmering white satin with a princess bodice featuring a sweetheart neckline outlined with seed pearls. The d'Angleterre lace with needlepoint details applied on a point de gaze background covered the bodice and was accented with pearls and handbeaded, embroidered medallions. The short, ball gown style sleeves were adorned with hand rolled roses. The full skirt swept into a cathedral length train featuring cut-outs appliqued with d'Angleterre lace, embroidered scallops, medallions and hand rolled roses. A matching seed pearl sweetheart bandeau held her fingertip double veil of illusion.

She carried a colonial bouquet of pearls and oriental peach carnations accented with lace and tied with white lace ribbons.

Mrs. Obelea Rue of Olney, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Nancy Holt of Olney and Kelly Lunn of Seymour and junior bridesmaid was Rebecca Rickett of Archer City, cousin of the bride. They wore peach taffeta dresses with off the shoulder necklines, puffed sleeves and featured a wrap skirt which was knee length in front and flowed into a full length back. Their headpieces and colonial bouquets were of stephanotis, gypsophilia and buttercups.

Amanda and Cindy Hooper of Olney were flower girls and Austin Woodard of Wichita Falls was the ring bearer.

Bobby Swan of Eastland, brother of the groom, served as best man. Groomsmen were Randy Swan, brother of the groom, Michael Jordan and Shane Bowles, all of Eastland.

Candelighters were Lonnie Rue of Olney and Stori Stallcup of Wichita Falls.

Music for the ceremony was provided by Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Key, organist and pianist. They also accompanied Beverly Bryson who sang "A Wedding Song", "Together As One" and "The Wedding Prayer".

Brandi Bryson registered guests.

A reception was held in the fellowship hall of the church. The bride's table was covered in white eyelet trimmed in peach ribbon and satin rosettes. A silver candelabra held white tapers. The three tiered cake was topped by a miniature bride and groom in a gazebo and was set off by four island heart-shape cakes held by four cherubs. The bridesmaids bouquets provided accents between the island cakes.

The groom's table featured a silver centerpiece of four swans holding daisies and roses. The German chocolate cake was centered with the groom's initials. The table was covered with a peach and gray cloth and held a silver coffee service.

Members of the house party were Jane Woodard, Dee Ann Woodard and Doris Lemond of Wichita Falls, Patty Bruhn of Dallas, Ellen Cox of Archer City, and Inez Neelley, Johnnie Cuba, Lana McQuerry, Lorene Custer, Margaret Hooper, Jo An Key, Dorothye Rue, Alice Key, Jamie Stennett, Lisa Lewis and Angela Nix of Olney.

Rice bags were distributed by Jourdan Rue, niece of the bride, Jamie Schlegel, Anita Hooper of Olney and Kelly Woodard of Wichita Falls.

Families of the couple hosted a western style dinner following the rehearsal Friday evening in the fellowship hall of the church.

The bride is a graduate of Olney High School and attended Cisco Junior College. She is employed by the Texas Department of Highways and Public Transporation in Archer City.

The groom is a graduate of Eastland High School and is employed by the Texas Department of Highways and Public Transportation in Seymour.

Following a wedding trip to Dallas, the couple will be at home in Olney.

National Arbor Day

Foundation Offers Free Trees

The National Arbor Day Foundation is giving ten free trees to each person who becomes a Foundation member during August 1987.

The free trees are part of the Foundation's effort to promote tree planting throughout America.

A Colorado Blue Spruce, White Flowering Dogwood, Pin Oak, White Pine, Red Maple, Birch, American Redbud, Silver Maple, Red Oak, and Sugar Maple tree will be given to members joining during August. The six-to-twelve inch trees will be shipped this fall at the right time for planting between October 15 and December 10. They will be sent postage paid with enclosed planting instructions.

These trees were selected to provide benefits every season of the year: lovely spring flowrs, cool summer shade, spectacular autumn colors, and winter berries and nesting sites for songbirds, according to the Foundation.

The National Arbor Day Foundation, a nonprofit organization, is working to improve the quality of life throughout the country by encouraging tree planting. The Foundation will give the ten free trees to each member contributing $10 during August.

To become a member of the Foundation and to receive the free trees, a $10 membership contribution should be sent to TEN TREES, National Arbor Day Foundation, 100 Arbor Avenue, Nebraska City, NE 68410, by August 31, 1987.

Holy Rosary Catholic Church

Holds Vacation Bible School

Holy Rosary Catholic Church in Cisco conducted Vacation Bible School for 67 children from Cisco, Eastland and Ranger in July.

VBS Superintendent Janelle Schrader said the week-long program, "God's Promises," was a huge success and she hopes next year's is even more successful.

The Bible School ended with a celebration of a Children's Liturgy at Mass on Friday. Students read Scripture, offered the gifts and provided music for the service. They also made a "praise tower" and a special banner which they displayed at the service.

Afterward, a luncheon was served the Bible School students and to parents and special guests.

Mrs. Schrader also thanked VBS teachers and their assistants. They were Cindy Bilby, Delma Elizalda, Teresa French, John Pitzer, Cindy McCulloch and Ana Walker, teachers; and Gloria Alvarado, Anna Flores, Leonor Soto, Manuel Hernandez and Alma Abila, assistants. Mrs. JoAnn Vestal was organist and pianist.

The children attending were from the Holy Rosary parish in Cisco, St. Francis in Eastland, St. Rita's in Ranger as well as several out-of-town visitors including one from El Salvador.

Area Catholics Attend Celebrate '87 Recently

July 18-19 eight area Catholic youth and four adult sponsors attended Celebrate '87 in Muenster, Texas.

Celebrate is an annual Catholic youth convocation in the Diocese of Fort Worth. Some 561 high-school aged youth and 100 sponsors attended.

Everyone chose to attend four of the forty workshops offered at Celebrate. Topics included Self Esteem, Finding God in Secular Music, Aids - A Topic For Life, Meditational Prayer, Faith Life in High School, Spiritual Growth, Fundraising for Youth Groups and How to Raise Parents (part 1 and 2).

Garry Mauro, who is the only Catholic elected to a statewide office, spoke on his faith and how it affected him as commissioner of the General Land Office of Texas.

Mauro, who played football at Texas A&M University, told how he had lived his faith convictions and urged the youth to "Get involved."

"You can make a difference," he said.

The workshops concluded late Saturday evening and were followed by a concert and the personal testimony of Christian rock singer Tom Franzak.

Frankzak was followed by a two-hour dance and then a late-night snack. The evening worship was held at 2 a.m. Sunday.

Later Sunday, Celebrate '87 concluded with a general session and Sunday mass.

Wayne Romo, a seminary student from Fort Worth, was master of ceremonies. Wayne is the brother of Cheryl Romo, who graduated from Cisco Junior College in May.

Youth attending from Cisco's Holy Rosary Church were Anna Flores, Anna Sauceda, Teresa Gaeta, Gloria Alvarado and Leonor Soto. Also attending were Shawnell Dool of Eastland's St. Francis Xavier, Jason Pattenaude of Ranger's St. Rita's and Rachel Flores of Strawn's St. John Church.

Adult sponsors attending were Mike Wallen, Ana Walker and Paul Walker of Cisco and John Pitzer, a seminarian from Ranger.

Stewart To Present Art Work At Hilton Center

Dale Stewart, Cisco's resident bronze sculptor, will present his art work at the Conrad N. Hilton Memorial Park and Community Center on August 1-2, 1987. Mr. Stewart's works will be on display in the upstairs lobby from 3-7 p.m. Saturday, August 1, and 2-5 p.m. Sunday, August 2.

His most recently completed project was a life-sized bust of Willie Nelson, which he presented to the famous singer in San Angelo on June 7, 1987. Nelson was pleased with the likeness, and there are plans for a copy of the bust to be raffled at the next Farm Aid Concert in September.

Other portraitures which Stewart has done include Conrad N. Hilton, on display at the Mobley Hotel; and the late Oliver F. Fauss, a Houston minister. The Fauss bust was presented publicly at Greater Bethel Tabernacle in January, 1987.

Other subjects include wildlife and western realism. Stewart's horned toad "Old Rip" won first place at a miniature art show in Baltimore, Maryland, in 1986. Copies of that sculpture are now on display at the Eastland County Courthouse and the Homer Garrison Museum in Waco. "The Challenge," a sculpture of a Sioux Indian Chief, won a spot in the Texas Society of Sculptors Sesquicentennial Celebration in Austin in 1986.

Stewart, son of Tom Stewart and the late Ollie Stewart, is a native of Coleman County and has been sculpting full time since 1986. He gives God the glory for this artistic talents and is thankful for the doors of opportunity that have been opened.

The public is invited to view Mr. Stewart's interesting and artistic works of bronze.

Chad Eaton of Ovalo and LaDawn Little and a friend, Jennifer were visitors at the Kokomo Baptist Church on Sunday morning. Leona Wilson, Helen and Woodrow Browning and J.L. Morrow rendered the special music at the evening services.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Wood and Barbie of Waunetta, Neb., Mr. and Mrs. Gene Wood and Dawn Measheller of Odessa, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbourne Wood and Mrs. Floyd Wood of Carbon, Mrs. Ollie Rollins of Indian Mountain visited during the weekend with Mrs. Albert Hendricks. Bro. Joe O'Neal and Mrs. Bill Joiner also visited in the Hendricks home.

Kevin, Jason and Corby Rodgers of Brownwood were recent visitors with their grandmother, Mrs. Odis Rodgers.

Lance, Layne and Lenny Morrow of Plains visited last week with Mr. and Mrs. J.L. Morrow, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Norris, Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Pack, Cory and Lacy and Mr. and Mrs. James Norris, Jana and Jodi. Mr. and Mrs. Larry Morrow attended a business meeting in Kerrville on Thursday and Friday and came back by here to pick up the boys. They spent Friday night here and left for home on Saturday.

Mrs. Berneice Rodgers was a dinner guest of Mrs. Mamie Little at the Little cabin at Lake Leon on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Jordan were in Abilene on Thursday evening for a visit and dinner in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roddy Miles, Joe and Sheri with Robert and Diane Miles of Abilene, Mrs. Mary Miles of Abilene, and her sisters, Mrs. Saradel Hart of Houston and Mrs. Minnie Marie Lenoir of Mart.

The Jimmy Hamptons attended the races at the Abilene Speedway on Saturday night, and the spotlight was on Jimmy as he drove his '57 Chevrolet around the track to take the trophy girl of the night, Dee Dee Patterson, to present the trophy to the winner of the trophy dash. A different car is featured each race night. Congratulations to Jimmy.

We didn't get to the races on Saturday night, but received some good news, and some bad news. Joe Miles and Robert Miles each placed second in their respective heats and Robert places 7th out of 20 cars in the A feature race. Joe led several laps in first place in the A feature until he broke a tie-rod and couldn't finish the race, so that was very disappointing. There was a comforting time for him when a man and his son came to the pit area where Joe was loading his car and asked for his autograph and congratulated him for driving so well. Beginning this Friday night, the races at the Abilene Speedway will be held on Friday night instead of Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. D.C. Bell of Denver City and Mr. Jim Lewallen of Floydada spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Jordan.

Recent visitors with Mrs. Dora Garrett were Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Lasater of Gorman, Mrs. J.B. Blancet, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Little and grandsons, Cody and Jarad. Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Little, Cody and Jarad and Mrs. Dora Garrett went to Arlington on Sunday afternoon to take the boys to meet their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tim Fails in their new home. The Familsy family have just moved from San Antonio to Arlington.

Ben Rollins visited with Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Jordan, Mr. and Mrs. D.C. Bell and Jim Lewallen on Sunday afternoon. Nancy Hendricks visited with the Jordans on Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Dora Garrett visited recently in Eastland with Mrs. Ora Mae Jordan and they attended the musical at the Valley View Lodge.

Mrs. Randy Lewis of Alma visited on day last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D.F. Eaves.

I've Been Wrong Before

By Gordon S. Clark

THROUGH THE LOOKING GLASS or ALICE IN WONDERLAND is less a fairy story all the time. The queen who kept saying, "Off with their heads," has her equal among too many of our people today. The cartoon readers contributed to called THERE AUTA BE A LAW was supposed to be a funny. It refelected peoples daily frustrations in trying to live in our complex society. Or is this truly a society any more?

The Department of Justice (don't bust your skull trying to define Justice) states that we need 200 more prison beds EVERY DAY. WOW.

There was a day in "merry old England" when what we call-pettit crime was often a hanging offense. That doesn't fit our "more sensitive natures" today. Then they began transporting prisoners out of those packed prisons and dumping them on distant shores. Georgia was established as a debtors colony. Today those hopelessley in debt would include too many of our people and besides most of those inhospitable wilderness are claimed by folk calling them Home Sweet Home. I read that a great number of people in Siberia wouldn't want to live elsewhere. If you doubt that report about Siberia which was once considered an exiles living death then tell us why Eskimos not being fenced in never migrated further south?

Man can become accustomed to almost anything. A lot of Yankees are even surprised to find they find Texas liveable (though some natives wish they hadn't.)

With "crime on the increase" we might want to know why it outstrips the percentage of population increase. We will wonder about it but do nothing.

First but far from foremost, though we have less hanging offences than England when she tried to dump prisoners, we have vastly more laws, thus more "crime". The need for more control of human (and inhuman) activity can to some extent be due to simple population pressure. Like body order, the closer we are packed the more chances of offense. Some just get used to it. Nevertheless, with people more distant there may be fewer bumping into you and producing the impulse to shove them. Bees and ants by nature are socialized but man far less so and going counter to nature invites trouble.

Drugs were not a problem in old England but there must be a reason why otherwise rational human beings would turn to something they know is more than risky but often deadly as well and often leading to loss of liberty. Maybe they place less value on their life than they should and just maybe they believe that "liberty" is only relative and hardly worth the effort some must put forth to maintain it. Maybe they only want to escape the pressure of modern living. But how many realize where the pressure comes from? It certainly isn't all due to population pressure. Somehow that song about "The More We Get Together the Happier We'll Be" has a doubtful ring.

Do any other than the human animal so desperately desire to escape BEING? Are we so tantalized by the advertising and ballyhoo of things beyond our reach that we turn to crime, self destruction, never ending noise and entertainment, weird and not so weird religion, or burn ourselves out running after a dollar?

A satisfied person does not turn to crime but modernism depends on DISSatisfaction. Unfortunately, human nature is easy to make dissatisfied. They see and they want. Wanting easily leads to being IN want. Of what are you truly "deprived"?

The Plain People (Amish, Menonites etc) are less wanting modern "conveniences" and seem to enjoy their work. True, many of their people are lured away by the bright lights and noises but a solid percentage stick with what many would consider Dullsville.

Did you ever watch those bugs the size of the end of a pencil swirl madly about on the water? They zip about like people rushing to they know not where.

Maybe if you could learn exactly what happiness is, be certain those who seem to have it really do, and be sure it can be made to last, you might cut crime.

A person with hungry family may steal but the old Communist line that want is the greatest cause of crime is disproved by over two generations of their absolute rule in Russia where their Gulags never lack for inmates. More crime originates in artificial wants than real ones, the want for what someone else has even though we do not need it or the desire for power we honestly could not handle properly even if we had it. That desire to direct the lives of others by those whose direction of their own lives proves so flawed is a cause of both crime and war.

Greed is never satisfied not is lust more than temporarily. The power hungry will never be "filled". False answers are heard everywhere. But crime marches on.

Ideas in conflict lead to people in conflicts. But why should I insist on inflicting my belief on others. Cetainly I dont want them interfering in my persuits and I don't want them dictating to my family. (Family won't let me run them so why should I let anyone get away with what I can't?)

The world is great and unmanagable but your world is only as wide as you can see at a time and you should be able to handle that small bit.

Of population pressure what can one say. If one mention birth control, eugenics etc church and other organiztions cry out against it. If wars have ceased to kill off excessive numbers, medical advances have reduced losses due to epidemics, and famine has been temporarily checked in many places then except for massive slaughters of Russia with the artificial famine or of Southeast Asia and China as in Cambodia and the "cultural revolution", it would seem then that we must reconcile ourselves to less space and less of almost anything else you can think of.

When Adam, Eve, Cain and Able were the only people on record Cain bashed Able. Y'know what? That is statistically about like the last report I heard saying that about one in four people will be victims of violent crime.

Plans Being Finalized For Roaring Ranger Day

The Ranger Chamber of Commerce has been making plans for Roaring Ranger Day and has also met with the merchants to discuss merchant promotionals which will take place during the week of September 21 through Roaring Ranger Day, September 26. Dr. Pepper is offering a trip for two (airfare and lodging) to Las Vegas. There will also be a cash prize given away which will be donated by participating merchants. Persons shopping at participating merchants in Ranger during the week of September 21-26 will be given entry blanks to be completed and the winning entry will be drawn on Roaring Ranger Day, September 26.

There is a lot in store for everyone who attends Roaring Ranger Day. To begin with, a street dance will be held the night before, on September 25. And, of course, the big parade will start the day off on Saturday, with KTAB's Charlie Jordan as Grand Marshal. A 2K and 10K run will be held, along with a Pet Show, Ugly Truck Contest, and many more events. The annual Lions Club Cowboy Breakfast will be held early Saturday morning, and as usual there will be live entertainment throughout the day. There will be more events announced as the day grows nearer.

Booths are available for food and crafts, or for whatever wares you might like to show or sell. Make sure you contact the Ranger Chamber of Commerce at 647-3091 as soon as possible to reserve a booth.

So, mark your calendar– Roaring Ranger Day, September 26, 1987. Make plans to attend the annual event for a day full of fun and excitement.

Giant 'Price Rollback' Cuts Prices On Items

(LUBBOCK) - Furr's Supermarket and Super Duper food stores announced today that they are instituting a far-reaching "Price Rollback" campaign.

The "Price Rollback" is a move from the two regional grocery giants to consolidate their buying power and reduce overhead expenses with the aim of easing the economic pressure being felt through the region. Nineteen stores, located in San Angelo, Abilene, Sweetwater, Ballinger, Clyde, Coleman and Winters will participate in the joint venture.

The rollback is being facilitated by joint advertising and consolidation of warehouse facilities to a single central location. Each store will retain its individual identity – even compete with each other for business! But, the products of each store are purchased under the same name, in one order, forcing suppliers to offer competitive rates for their products. The combined buying strength of 19 stores is powerful. Instead of ordering one truckload of items, the group now may command 19 loads; enough product purchasing power to demand the attention of any supplier!

Historically, the method adopted by Furr's/Super Duper has merit. The same basic idea formed the old "Farmer's Grange" organization more than a century ago in a successful effort to pool farmers' buying and selling resources.

The grocery group is making the most sweeping changes ever in their price structure. They project nearly 1,000 products will fall to the price chopping axe this week. This means a massive change in the structuring of "basic" grocery prices throughout the 19-store group. Furr's/Super Duper economists predict the average customer with a family of four could realize savings as great as $45 per month or more on their overall grocery bill. "And that's a conservative estimate!" states one product buyer.

Furr's/Super Duper officials were quick to point out they are the only chain risking expansion during poor economic times. "We've created jobs, improved local economies and are lowering the cost of the most basic item on any family's budget – the cost of groceries."

There have been critisims concerning store buy-outs, but a company representative replied, "That's silly. No other food chain has expanded during these depressed times. We bought out a lot of stores, but the stores were in poor economic shape. Their customers faced escalating prices as the facility kept trying to bail itself out. Now they are part of our family of stores and doing just fine."

The additional stores serve another major purpose. As the chain grows, the buying power of the group increases dramatically. Furr's/Super Duper claim they will soon be able to demand, and get, preferential treatment in almost every area of their grocery operation, from dairy products to meat!

Shoppers in the region are sure to enjoy the Furr's/Super Duper Price Rollback. The promise of nearly 1,000 price reductions is terrific news, indeed! It's the first bright spot we've seen on a gloomy economic horizon, and it's very welcome!

Notes On Northview

By Jackie Kincheloe

Recreation is a vital aspect to any institutional setting. Whether in the form of basic leisure time activities or a variety of special events to places like Six Flags and the State Fair, recreation is another aspect of normalization in the ICF-MR setting. Recreation for our clients is provided by several methods. At the inital 30-day staffing and then each annual staffing, the interdisciplinary team assesses the client's ability to utilize leisure time. When weaknesses are noted, a specific goal is written to provide training in that area. Part of leisure activity involves specific hobbies such as fishing, needlework, and gardening. A client who expresses an interest in a hobby area may receive a goal to increase their skill and knowledge of that hobby. Athletics comprise another aspect of recreation. Northview has many clients who participate in a variety of Special Olympic sports. Training for Special Olympics is a year-round activity involving trips to the local track as well as local, regional, and state competitions.

All people love music and our clients are no different. Dances are held weekly. Northview also has a choir – Middleground – that practices on a regular basis. The choir has performed at several area churches. Whenever possible it is arranged for bands or musicians to come and perform.

Cookouts are a favorite summer activity. These are often held on the weekends with staff doing the barbecuing in the facility back yard. Summer is also the perfect time for watermelon feasts.

A variety of special events are planned on a year-round basis. Groups of clients go to Six Flags and Sunshine Day at the Texas State Fair on an annual basis. Each client gets treated to dinner at the restaurant of his or her choice for their birthday. Trips had been arranged for clients to go to Abilene to the movies. The facility also plans annual camping trips to a local lake. Swimming is a cooling summer activity and clients get an opportunity to go swimming. During the fall, hayrides are popular.

In planning our recreational activities, creativity and enthusiasm is the key. Our clients love to do new things and go to exciting and interesting places. It is our job to examine what's available in the area and schedule as much as possible utilizing all possible resources. Recreation is another way for Northview to show how staff cares for their clients. We appreciate the community's including us in special events that have taken place in the past and hope that groups will continue to remember us in the future. Thanks to all the businesses, clubs, churches, and individuals who continue to make our clients welcome in the community.

Wedding Bells

Ziehr - Griffin

Mangum Baptist Church, Carbon, Texas, was the setting for the marriage of Carol Anne Ziehr and Robin Lee Griffin on Thursday, July 9, 1987 at 7:30 in the evening. Bro. Dwaine Clower officiated.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ziehr of Cisco. The grooms parents are Mrs. Ruby Griffin of Tulsa, Okla. and J.D. Griffin of Carbon.

Vows were exchanged before an altar spray of yellow roses, lavender daisies and white glads.

Wedding music was played by Mrs. JoAnn Rust of Cisco.

Matron of Honor was Tammie Ziehr of Eastland, sister-in-law of the bride.

Best man was George Casey of Cisco, cousin of the groom.

The bride given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of satin overlaid with chantilly and crimpled lace accented with a Queen Ann's collar. The bodice was trimmed with simulated seed pearls. The skirt of the gown was attached with a chapel length train. Her fingertip veil was accented with lace inserts. Her bouquet was an arrangement of yellow roses, white carnations and lavender daisies sprinkled with baby breath.

Her attendant wore a yellow formal gown and carried a long stem yellow rose.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony. The three tiered wedding cake was served by Mrs. Martin Reich, aunt of the bride. Mrs. Alton Maples, friend of the bride, served punch. Nancy Stewart, sister of the bride registered gifts.

The couple is living in Eastland following a wedding trip to Tulsa, Okla.

THE PROMISE

As we cross the chilly Jordan
And our life will be no more.
Will there be someone to lead us,
Or will we go there all alone?

In my house are many mansions
The Lord has told us so.
I go to prepare a place for you
To be with me forever more.

The trials and troubles of this world
Suddenly seem so small.
When we cast our eyes on Jesus,
Life all seems so worth while.

Let our light so shine for Jesus,
That others then may see,
That His mercy and His goodness
Is with a person such as me.

A noisy American cornered a Frenchman and criticized him for his politeness. "There's nothing to it but wind," he sneered.

"There's nothing in a tire but wind," answered the Marshall politely, "but it makes riding in a car very smooth and pleasant."

For some the ways of life are rough. The going is for many people a matter of ceaseless pain. You can make it easier or harder for them.

Why don't you ask the Lord to fill the tire of your life with His love, that you might make the way smooth and pleasant with words of graciousness and deeds of gentleness?

No one is too big to be kind and courteous. But some are too little.

FIRST UNITED METHODIST

The stained glass window in which Jesus is carrying a lamb with several sheep following him will be the subject of the Rev. Ken Diehm's sermon Sunday morning at the First Methodist Church. The pastor has been preaching a series of sermons based on scenes shown in the windows.

Mr. Diehm suggested reading John 10, Luke 15:3-6, and Ezekiel 34 in preparation for the series.

–Ann Jillian

A lot of women are so afraid of breast cancer they won't practice breast self-examination or ask their doctor about a mammogram. And that's what frightens me.

Take it from someone who's been through it all: Life is just too wonderful to give up on.

But to enjoy it, you do have to give up being afraid to take care of yourself.

Nutrition Program

There is a little book entitled "Did You Know" that is devoted and filled with trivia. One section of it is devoted to Texas growth in population. In 1980 we had 14.2 million people in Texas. The forecast for the year 2000 is 20.3 million. A major question arises from this population growth: "What is the growth implication on health care needs for our state by 2000?"

The Senior Centers are provided to assist the elderly with their problems and to provide a nutritious and well balanced diet. Why don't you call 442-1557 and advise the registrar that you are attending the next luncheon?

Programs for the week were: Janet Thomas, county extension agent, presented her monthly nutrition program. This program is most helpful to everyone. Musical programs by Cliff Andrews, La Rue Broussard, Lois Holder, the Senior Citizens Band accompanied by Gerald Parks, Senior Citizen Choir accompanied by Billie Wood. Birthdays and anniversaries were honored. Blood pressure by Mable Thetford.

Menus for the coming week are:

Wednesday-- Macaroni cheese and ham, lettuce, tomato and carrot salad with French dressing, Lima beans, canned fruit, cookies, roll, butter and milk.

COACH RICK FRAZIER and his Cisco Junior College football coaching staff will leave Sunday, Aug. 2, for Childress where they will be in charge of the East team in the annual Greenbelt football all-star game there next Friday night.

Members of the all-star squads were selected from among senior high school players by a committee. The West squad will be coached by the staff of the community college at Dodge City, Kansas.

"We'll be pretty busy," Coach Frazier said. "We have five days in which to prepare for the game."

After next week, Coach Frazier and his staff will begin final preparations for the beginning of fall practice at CJC Aug. 21st. Members of the staff include Coaches Chuck Lawrence, Rick Hoffman, David Johnson and Tony Thiverault.

COACH BUDDY Sharp of Cisco High School's Loboes and three members of his staff were in Fort Worth this past week attending the annual Texas High School Coaches School. Saw a report in the papers that over 5,000 coaches from over the state attended the event ... Coach Rick Hoffman represented the CJC staff at the school. Other CJC coaches were busy in summer school.

The all-star football game last Tuesday night was won by the north team, which included Jason Rattan, son of the Cleattus Rattans of Cisco, who was one of the game's stars. Jason played quarterback and did a fine running job. He will be at Texas Tech this fall.

Representing Cisco High School at the school were Coaches Sharp, Rusty McLeskey, Brian McCullouch and Hershell Jones ... Mr. Jones' employment as a CHS coach is due to be confirmed at the next meeting of the school board.

PRINCIPAL Bob Lindsey of elementary school underwent surgery at Hendrick Hospital in Abilene last Tuesday and returned home on Thursday. And he's due back on the job this coming week ... Work is progressing very nicely on the new school building at the elementary campus. And it is scheduled to be ready for use when school bells ring next month ... Doug Bromley, music director at First Baptist Church, and his missus were due to be in Waco for a three day music clinic at Baylor University.

"HILTON'S TEXAS Connection" is the title of a nice article that appeared in the Houston Chronicle's magazine section recently, and a Houston friend sent a copy of it to Mrs. Winston Heidenheimer of Cisco.

The article deals primarily with the Hilton School for Hotel and Restaurant Management at the University of Houston. And it tells the Conrad Hilton story from the day he took over the Mobley Hotel in Cisco. The school opened in 1969 and has over 1,400 graduates. A recent gift of $16 million by the Hilton Foundation is upgrading the school to the point that it will be No. 1 in its field.

A picture with the story shows Mr. Hilton made in 1902 when he was the traveling manager of the Hilton Trio (a singer, piano player and violinst).

When we ran into Mrs. Heidenheimer, both of her hands were swelled due to wasp stings. She had gone to the golf course to charge the batteries on their golf cart when wasps attacked.

VACATIONING IN Cisco for ten days or so are Mrs. Lee (Lynn) Wallace and two children, Brad and Anna, of Fayetteville, North Carolina. They're visiting her parents, the Marshall Joneses, and Lee's mother, Mrs. Forbes Wallace.

Driving to Texas is pretty easy from North Carolina, reports Lynn. There is only one right turn in the 2,000 miles or so. They head south from Fayetteville on I-95 and turn right on I-20 in South Carolina.

Lynn recalls that a couple of years ago she missed that one turn and was 45 minutes deep in Florida before her husband, who had been napping, awoke and determined their position.

A GROUP OF 16 oil supply sales people held a meeting last Tuesday night at Ken's Restaurant, and a party of about 100 people met there one night the previous week ... Local flags flew at half mast several days as a tribute to the Secretary of Commerce who lost his life in a horse riding mishap last weekend ... Mr. Curt Covert, local rancher, reported that their son, Jeff, who is a a U. S. Marine, is due home soon from duty at the U. S. Embassy in Haiti. His next duty assignment will be in Hawaii, Curt added.

MISS JANICE Woolley, daughter of the Dick Woolleys, was in College Station this past week taking tests and attending to details of registering as a freshman this fall at Texas A&M University. The Woolleys planned to take furniture and the like there this weekend to outfit an apartment that Janice and Jamie Walker of Eastland will occupy. Miss Walker, a CJC graduate, will be a junior there this fall ... The board of directors of the Hilton Community Center attended to routine business at a meeting Friday, July 24.

OUR REPORT elsewhere in The Press last Wesnesday had a mistake in reporting results of the 1st flight in the Par-Scot-Scram golf tournament last weekend.

According to the official scoreboard, there were three teams tied for 1st place with scores of 208. They were Cates and Cates of Eastland, Mike Comeron and Kinny Parrish of Breckenridge, and Tim Jones and O. L. (Robby) Robinson of Cisco.

Judge Bailey Speaks To Cisco Noon Lions Club

The U. S. Constitution that was adopted in Philadelphia 200 years ago has withstood the tests of time and has been the real cornerstone of the nation's foundation, County Judge Scott Bailey told the Cisco Lions Club in a talk last Wednesday noon at their weekly luncheon.

Speaking on invitation of Program Chairman E. L. Jackson, Judge Bailey passed out copies of the Constitution and described the conditions under which the document was written and adopted. The Bill of Rights, which is part of the document, offers protection for every citizen of the country, he noted.

"This document that guarantees our freedoms and mandates that one and all be treated alike and fairly is worth defending," Judge Bailey said. "It is worth fighting for and dying for as many had done in the wars over the years."

Zone Chairman Jerry McBeth reported on a district meeting that he and Club President Roy Dennis attended in Seymour last Saturday. He said the district has a goal of increasing membership by at least two per cent during the coming year, and he urged local members to take a part in the drive. The program included lectures on the duties of various officers of district clubs.

Chairman Ivan Webb reported that advertising sales were underway for the 1987 Benefit Bowl football game that will be played Sept. 19th in Breckenridge between Cisco and Ranger junior colleges. He asked club members to complete their sales by Aug. 5th.

President Dennis announced that the club's board of directors will meet Tuesday at 7 a.m. at the Traditions Restaurant.

Guests present were Steve Claunch of Abilene, Leigh Callarman of Cisco, John Byers of Abilene and Andrew Sheppard of Cross Plains.

Cisco Rotary Club Meet Thursday At Traditions

The Cisco Rotary Club met Thursday for the weekly meeting at Traditions Restaurant. President Jerry Morgan, presided over the meeting. Ken Diehm gave the invocation.

Members of the club decided to begin making and accepting memorials to the Rotary Club Scholarship Fund in memory of Vandell Weathers. Mr. Weathers, who passed away last week, was a Rotarian.

Bill Reynolds asked the members to make a special effort to be at all of the future meetings. He said he knew this was the summer slump, with vacations and all, but he would like for the club members to be present when possible. He also asked each club member to encourage one another to attend the meetings.

In the past there have been 80 to 90 percent attendance, but Mr. Reynolds said that lately the attendance has been close to the 66 to 67 percent mark.

Jack Martin asked the Rotarians to help support the Cisco schools and come out and help with a workday to be held at Chesley Field in the near future. The seats at the football stadium are being replaced. Mr. Martin said they have already had one workday, but there was not a large turnout. He said the date would be announced later on this month.

Bural Chambers will be in charge of next week's program.

David Bell, Rotarian from the Abilene downtown club, was a guest at the meeting.

Cisco VFD Respond To Grass Fires

A number of grass fires, including several caused by a railway car wheel "hot box," were extinguished by Cisco and Eastland firemen last Wednesday and Thursday, according to a report by Fireman David Gill.

Firemen went to the railroad right-of-way near the Jammie Fry place west of town at 11:25 a.m. Wednesday. Grass north of the tracks in the Lake Bernie area caught fire but was extinguished without property damage.

At 12:05 p.m. Wednesday, fire broke out on the right-of-way in the Fee Ranch area northeast of town. There was no property damage.

Three hours later, firemen were called by the Eastland Fire Department to help with several blazes along the railroad right-of-way west of Eastland. Eight firemen and two trucks worked with Eastland until the fires were under control around 9 p.m. Wednesday. Mr. Gill said there was no property damage.

At 11 a.m. Thursday, firemen went to the Kendrick Dairy area east of Cisco to help put out a grass fire. Several other blazes were put out near the Eastland city limits, Mr. Gill said.

A railroad car with a "hot box" was taken off of a train at Ranger, firemen said.

HELPING HANDS– The Cisco Boy Scout Troop #287 did their good deed for the day last Tuesday. The Boy Scouts were at the Gaslight Apartments to carry out the food commodities for the citizens of Cisco who received them. The Boy Scouts were not allowed to be paid since this was considered strickly volunteer work. Shown in the above photo are, (left to right front row) Bryan Kitchens and Daniel Kitchens; (left to right, back row), Alan (Goose) Kitchens, James Lewis, David (Ingy Monster) Ingram and Billy Boykin. This is a newly formed Boy Scout Troop. They held their first official meeting on Monday, July 27. (Staff Photo, courtesy of Cotton's Studio).

New State Of Texas House Bills To Increase Fines For Traffic Violations

At the present time when a person receives a traffic violation ticket in Cisco, they may take a defensive driving course and show the city secretary proof of attendance, and the ticket will be taken off that person's record.

The State of Texas passed House Bill 273 this year and as of September 1, 1987, this act authorizes a court to require a person requestiing a detensive driving course to pay a fee not to exceed $10.00.

Ginger Johnson, city secretary, said before this bill was passed, the city would do the paper work at no charge, but now there will be a $10.00 charge to drop the ticket off that person's record.

Ginger said that it will be most important for a driver to be able to show proof of insurance at the time when a police officer asks for it. She said that now when a person is stopped by a Cisco police officer, and asked to show proof of insurance, and they cannot do so, they are charged a fine of $95.00. She said that $85.00 goes to the City of Cisco and $10 to the sent to the State of Texas. When that person brings in proof of insurance, the $85.00 fine is dropped.

The State recently passed House Bill 1294 and effective September 1, 1987, the State of Texas will also require that the person who receives the ticket to pay $85.00 to the State of Texas plus pay $85.00 to the City of Cisco. The total fine for no proof of insurance will be $170.00.

If they are able to bring in proof of insurance, the $85.00 fine for Cisco and the $85.00 for the State of Texas will be dropped, but the City will charge a $10.00 fee for the paperwork.

NOW! PRICE ROLLBACK!!

Dear Friends and Neighbors,

Big news, folks! Are you ready for some real, honest-to-goodness savings? We (the employees) are thrilled to announce our store's Price Rollback program! Almost 1,000 grocery items will be reduced — really reduced — thanks to our Price Rollback!

It has taken some heavy duty work, but now, with 19 participating stores in our family of supermarkets, we finally gained the clout to pull it off! We have built the buying power and ordering power to match the big boys — and we're not afraid to use it!

Buying power! That translates into one thing for you: Savings! Big savings. Everyday savings. Savings you can depend on every time you visit our store. The Price Rollback won't be a dream anymore. When you come into the store on Wednesday, you'll be facing a whole new world of grocery savings. A bright new world of low priced, high quality grocery products for you and your family.

The Price Rollback makes us proud to be a part of the Super Duper family of food stores. Any other store might never have mentioned the discounts and savings they received by combining orders, warehousing and advertising. The "extra" savings could have been pocketed. But we don't work that way — and it makes us proud to be a part of the family.

Price Rollback is for you! We know times are tough. Between unemployment, low wages, higher and higher living expenses and a whole list of other financial woes, folks are having a real hard time just making ends meet. And groceries are always a major cost for any family. And we're DOING something about it!

Come on in on Wednesday and see for yourself. Prices will have dropped all over the store on almost 1,000 items. You won't believe it until you see it and experience it for yourself. Price Rollback isn't a store "special" or a gimmick. It's a real, honest-to-goodness move to put groceries back within reach of the average family — and we're proud to be a part of it. Price Rollback — we are doing something about the high cost of feeding a family! Drop by on Wednesday. We'll look forward to serving you.

The Next Best Thing -

.....to a clear conscience and a good night's sleep is the feeling of security in owning your own home with a clear title. Pecular to the real estate field, values are based on land and the improvements thereon, if any. But values on these are based on the title. The title then becomes the most important item to be considered when purchase of real property is contemplated. So be careful to buy good title based on an abstract of title or a policy of title insurance.

Dance-A-Thon To Benefit Cystic Fibrosis To Be Held

Jammie Gentry of Ranger has officially been appointed chairman of the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation's Dance-a-thon in Ranger.

"The Ranger Dance-a-thon is one of many held nationwide. Combined, these events raise millions of dollars to fight cystic fibrosis," Mrs. Gentry said. "I hope the residents of Ranger and the surrounding towns will give their all to support this national effort," Jammie added.

Jammie Gentry is 24 years old. She is married to Jackie Gentry and has one daughter, Jessica. She owns and operates The Dance Studio, home of The Jammie Dee Dancers. She has resided in Ranger 5 years and has had her studio for 5 years.

According to Mrs. Gentry, the money raised from the event will help fund research to determine the genetic causes and treatments for cystic fibrosis, the nation's number one genetic killer of young people. Cystic fibrosis is an incurable disease which primarily affects the lungs and digestive system.

Thanks to money raised in previous dance-a-thons, this past year saw tremendous strides in cystic fibrosis research. These advances have brought the cure to cystic fibrosis within sight.

This year, Cystic Fibrosis Dance-a-thons are being held nationwide in honor of Alex Deford, who died of cystic fibrosis in 1980 at the age of eight. The story of Alex's short, courageous life will be told on an ABC-Television movie airing this April.

To become involved in the Ranger Dance-a-thon, contact Jammie Gentry at 647-1308 or 647-3391 in Ranger.

Gordon Spot

By DeMarquis Gordon, County Agent—

Several Eastland County small grain producers have been grazing stocker cattle during the fall and winter. This can be a source of added income for wheat producers and those who grow rye as a winter cover crop on peanut land.

Those who graze stocker cattle and those who are considering this enterprise will benefit by attending an area-wide stocker cattle program on August 13th, at the Hamilton Livestock Commission Company located five miles north of Hamilton on Highway 281. The program begins at 8:30 a.m. with registration, with the first program of the day at 9 a.m. The program will conclude at noon.

Danny Phillips, Hamilton County Extension Agent and former Eastland County Extenston Agent, is coordinating the program. Three speakers are on the program to discuss such things as cost effective practices of the stocker business, cattle health, and cultural practies to increase amount of forage for grazing cattle. For more information on this meeting call our office.

It seems that for the last several years cattlemen have been breeding and selecting for bigger cows. However, big cows may not be the most efficient producers in a beef cattle herd.

Although big cows generally produce the heaviest calves, their maintenance cost may outweigh the benefits of the extra pounds of beef. A recent demonstration in South Central Texas showed that cow maintenance costs need to be considered along with the age of cows in coming up with an efficient herd.

Some 200 Santa Gertrudis cows aged two to 12 years were used in the study. Both cow weights and calf weaning weights were recorded and compared between cows of different age and weight groups.

The heaviest cows (1201 to 1700 pounds) weaned the heaviest calves at an average of 552 pounds. Medium-weight cows (100 to 1200 pounds) weaned calves that averaged 539 pounds while the smallest cows (less than 1000 pounds) weaned calves averaging 506 pounds.

These figures show that the medium-weight cows produce calves 33 pounds heavier than calves from the smallest cows but only 13 pounds lighter than calves from the heaviest cows. This indicates that the medium-weight cows out-performed the smallest cows and did almost as well as the heavy cows.

Furthermore, the heavy cows required about 18 percent more energy and 13 percent more protein on a daily basis than did the medium-weight cows. This extra input yielded only 2 percent more beef in the form of the weaned calf.

Thus, a cattleman must decide whether or not he wants to maintain a cow that needs that much extra input for such a meager increase in calf weaning weights.

Records from the study, also, showed that as cow age increases, calf weaning weights decreased. The youngest cows weaned calves at 548 pounds while the oldest ones weaned calves weighing only 517 pounds. This points out the importance of keeping younger cows and culling older ones.

All in all, cattlemen should make good use of records in determining the weaning weights of calves from various classes of cows and should use this information to make management decisions to increase herd efficiency.

Valley View News

Things here at the Lodge are in full swing for a busy summer. We have some new faces around here and we're proud to announce they are: Jerry Underwood our new Administrator, Linda Barrack, our new Assistant Administrator, and Cassie Rasco our new Food Service Supervisor. We would also like to welcome two new residents, Ann Peacock and Velra Trout.

Our Activity Department also has some new volunteers. Kathy Ball has started a Craft Class with our residents, which has really turned out to be a great success! Edith Wompler has started having a Song Fest which is a delightful treat.

We'd like to wish all our special Birthday People a Happy Birthday, they are: Viola Basham, James Harris, Mary Lynn Schell, Thelma Pipkin, Jo Awalt, and Inus Stubblefield.

Our "Resident Council" voted and elected "Faye Haile" LVN as "Employee of the Month." Congratulations Faye, on a job well done!

I'd like to share this with the public:

"Come Visit"

You say you can't do anything. Can you read? Good. Read to me. My eyes aren't what they used to be.

Can you write? Good. Write a letter or a card for me. My hands are shakey.

Can you sing? Good, Help me with the words and I'll sing along.

Can you tell me about your job? I was a nurse once myself.

Can you listen? Wonderful. I'm starved for conversation.

Can you make an angel food cake or zucchini bread or angel biscuits, or fudge?

They aren't on the nursing home menu, but I remember how good they were and I would like to taste them again.

Do you play checkers or dominoes or rummy? Fine, so do I. But there is never anyone who has the time. They are understaffed around here, you know.

Do you play the violin or the flute or the piano? My hearing is poor, but I can hear any kind of music. Even if I fall asleep, you'll know I enjoyed it.

Once we were somebodies, just like you. We were farmers and farmers' wives, teachers, nurses, beauticians, judges, stockbrokers, electricians, postmen, bankers and sheriff's, and maybe a few outlaws, too. We're not all senile - just old and needing more attention than our families can give us. This home, whatever its name, is "home" to us and you're an invited guest. Please come. The welcome mat is always out - not just on Christmas and Thanksgiving.

I hope you will keep this article and read it again in January, February and every other month of the year. We'll still be here and our needs will be the same.

Eastland Fireman Attends Training School

COLLEGE STATION-Jim Hughes, volunteer fireman of the Eastland Volunteer Fire Department of Eastland, Texas is attending the 58th Annual Texas Firemen's Training School, July 19-24. The school, attended by nearly 2,000 students representing about 750 cities from more than 25 states, is being held on the Texas A&M University campus this week.

Firemen can choose their course at the school from a listing including Fire Fighting, Fire Prevention, Fire Department Officer Training, Fire Department Pump Maintenance, Specialized Fire Protection, and Disaster Rescue Training.

Fireman Hughes is being sponsored by Eastland County Farm Bureau and Texas Farm Bureau Insurance Companies by contributing toward the cost of the school. Since volunteer firemen are interested in attending this school to help do a better job of fire fighting and fire prevention, 100 County Farm Bureaus and the Texas Farm Bureau Insurance Companies in the statewide program have sponsored 100 firemen at the school.

"The Farm Bureau Insurance Companies believe Volunteer Fire Departments have been very effective in reducing the amount of loss involved by fire in rural areas," said President S.M. True, Jr. of Plainview. "It is our hope in sponsoring this program that the firemen will help the Eastland Volunteer Department to better serve the residents of Eastland County."

Local Returns From Mary Kay School

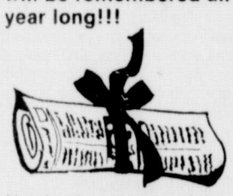

Barbara Purcell of Cisco, an independent Skin Care Consultant for Mary Kay Cosmetics, has just returned home from three days of intensive sales and product training in Dallas as a participant in Mary Kay's 1987 National Seminar.

More than 25,000 independent skin care consultants and sales directors flocked to Dallas between July 16 and July 29 to attend one of four consecutive three-day meetings. In keeping with the company's commitment to recognize outstanding business women, this year's multi-million dollar seminar was appropriately entitled "Success Express!"

To enable Barbara, who joined Mary Kay in 1985, and has just recently moved to our area, to continue building her Mary Kay business in the months ahead, dozens of specialized classes were held each day in product knowledge, Color Awareness, sales training, business management, customer service, and other valuable tools for business success.

Mary Kay Cosmetics, Inc. is an international manufacturer and distributor of premium skin, hair and body care products, cosmetics, toiletries and fragrances. Barbara will be conducting special skin care classes to introduce new products and glamour techniques.
