Dry Law Repeal Drive Is Taken Up By Senators

LESS DRASTIC MEASURE IS BEING CONSIDERED AFTER GARNER PROPOSAL DOWNED BY HOUSE; GLASS RESOLUTION GIVEN TO COMMITTEE

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—The senate today referred back to its judiciary committee the Glass resolution proposing repeal of the 18th amendment and substituting a ban against the saloon.

This had been suggested as the probable vehicle for early prohibition debate promised in the senate, where both the Republican and Democratic leaders agreed today that the issue will certainly be threshed out this session.

Congressional anti-prohibitionists, stung by defeat in the house, pinned their hopes for repeal on the senate.

Drys jubilant over victory, narrow though it was, rallied for another stand, while others inclined to a less drastic repeal proposal as voted on yesterday sought to play a hand in shaping such legislation.

As soon as the house vote of 272 to 144—six less than the required two-thirds—was made known in the senate, Democrats there grasped the lead of Speaker Garner in attempting to carry out their party's pledge for outright effacement of prohibition with ratification by state conventions.

With senate consideration of this problem due to begin Monday in the judiciary committee, house leaders turned to another Democratic promise—immediate legislation of beer. Garner was hopeful of action by Christmas, the same time as a vote on repeal in the senate was looked for.

Legislation to legalize and tax the sale of 2.75 per cent beer and wines was drafted today by Chairman Collier of the house ways and means committee, as the basis of hearings beginning tomorrow.

Collier explained that while the bill places alcoholic content of beer at 2.75 by weight, this percentage was chosen simply as a basis on which to work.

"It will be for the committee to determine the content desirable," he said.

The same is true of the tax rate, he went on, noting that his bill would levy $5 a barrel on beer and 20 cents a gallon on natural grape

"We're Going To Fight," Tech's President Says Regarding School Plan

16 SHOPPING DAYS TO CHRISTMAS

CONVOCATION IS HELD THIS MORNING OF TECH STUDENTS

"Any educational institution designed especially for a section of country must fit the needs of that country and that's the reason Texas Technological college fits the needs of West Texas," Dr. Bradford Knapp, Tech president, declared before the student body and faculty members in a convocation called this morning for discussion of the proposed plan to make Tech a liberal arts school.

The plan, announced Saturday, proposed to take technical courses from Tech and give them to A. & M. and the University of Texas, making the local school only a "small liberal arts college." It was proposed by a joint organization and efficiency committee of the legislature.

"We're going to fight. We believe in the things we're doing out here. And we believe this great section of the state will rally to our support.

"Why you take an area 175 miles from Lubbock and there's only one other state institution in it while down there, you take an area 175 miles from any school and there are a dozen more institutions in it. Why, they've got so many, they had to put two of them in one town.

"Any institution, no matter how noble it might be, with only a liberal arts course would not fit the needs of West Texas," Dr. Knapp said. "For West Texans are a people who want their children to be useful. They're not afraid of work. They want their children educated for useful lives and ones which will aid in developing this section.

"Let us not be too deeply concerned with any proposed legislation to harm our school," the president continued, citing the law which created the school and the scope and view of those having a part in its establishment. "They wanted a school where the practical things were taught with the emphasis on the useful. I just can't see Texas Tech without any engineering, without any agriculture and without any home economics.

Fitted For Useful Lives

"The great thing they can't see about Texas Tech is that every student is being fitted for a useful life," the doctor continued. "The old-fashioned liberal arts college had no objective. It fitted its graduates only for posts of civic and political importance.

"We've got so much blamed country out here that we've got to prepare some of our folks for the country," he said. He then declared there were more graduates of agriculture from Tech engaged in engineering than the average engineering school.

Must Be Democratic

"Education must be democratic. It must be of the people, it must be near the people. When education gets to a point where all of the thinking must be done by the men of one institution, then it loses

ITALY TO PAY DEBT TO U. S.

MUSSOLINI ACTS AND BREAKS FRONT OF OTHER DEBTORS

(By The Associated Press)

ROME, Dec. 6.—Premier Mussolini disregarded the postponement actions of other debtor nations today, when he decided Italy would pay the $1,245,000 due the United States December 15.

The supreme council of fascism recommended the action—and it is tantamount to definite decision—after the premier himself had addressed the body.

Mussolini joined the other debtors, however, in insisting on debt revisions, adhering to the oftenvoiced fascist policy that the war debt slate should be wiped clean.

Italy also made it plain she regarded debts and reparations as interdependent.

Fifteen Held After Captain Is Killed

LONG BEACH, Calif., Dec. 6 (AP)—Eight women and seven men, passengers or members of the crew of the 110-foot round the world yacht Carma, were booked at the Long Beach city jail as "material witnesses" today in the mysterious slaying of Captain Walter Wanderwell, globe trotter.

Wanderwell was slain last night aboard the vessel after he was called from the dining salon by a man who appeared at a screened port hole and asked for the captain. Companions, with whom he was discussing a round-the-world cruise, found him in his cabin, shot in the back, his right hand covering his face and a bunch of keys dangling from his left hand.

SALES TAX IS PROPOSED BY HOOVER

REDUCTION IN FEDERAL PAY ALSO ASKED

PRESIDENT DELIVERS FINAL MESSAGE TO CONGRESS TODAY

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—A blanketing manufacturers' sales tax covering virtually everything but food, and an additional 11 per cent pay cut for federal employes was recommended to congress today by President Hoover.

In his final message, which did not touch upon the agitated prohibition question, the chief executive asserted three separate efforts to be "necessary foundations to any other action"—balancing the budget, complete reorganization of the nation's banking system, and wholehearted cooperation with other nation's in the economic field.

Says Worst Over

As for the present state of the union, he said that "the acute phases of the crisis have obviously passed," and that the freedom from industrial conflict was greater than hitherto known.

"While we have recently engaged in the aggressive contest of a national election," he added, "its very tranquility and the acceptance of its results furnish abundant proof of the strength of our institutions."

In addition to the manufacturers' sales tax at a "uniform" but unspecified rate, here are some of his farflung proposals for securing the balanced budget which he termed necessary to "fully restored confidence in the future."

Favors Regrouping

Widespread reorganization of the federal government, with executive orders to be submitted "within a few days" for regrouping and consolidating more than 50 federal departments and agencies.

A flat 11 per cent slash in federal salaries, with $1,000 exemption, in addition to the present 8 1-3 reduction under the furlough system.

Reductions in appropriations under those for the present fiscal year of $830,000,000—this to be offset in part by increases in "uncontrollable items" of $250,000,000.

Drastic whittling down of expenditures for public works from $717,262,000 to $442,769,000.

Elimination of certain unnamed payments to veterans arising from "ill-considered legislation."

Raps Banking System

The president, after asserting that measures already adopted had "undoubtedly saved the country from economic disaster," devoted a full section of his message to criticism of the nation's banking system. He declared "widespread banking reforms are a national necessity and are the first requisites for further recovery."

"As a system," he said, "our banking was failed to meet this great emergency.

"It can be said without question

High School, Tech Set Xmas Holidays

The Christmas holidays will begin at Texas Technological college with the close of the fall term, according to J. M. Gordon, liberal arts dean. Examinations are scheduled to start December 16 and end four days later at which time the college is officially dismissed until January 2.

Lubbock public school students will begin observing the holidays on December 22 at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, M. H. Duncan, superintendent of the schools, stated today. The schools will reopen at 9 a. m., January 2.

Armed Men Guarding City Against March

VACAVILLE, Calif., Dec. 6. (AP) — Armed men patrolled Vacaville today after authorities received reports labor agitators heading striking fruit tree prunners planned to march on the town.

The march, Chief of Police O. E. Alley said he was informed, was to avenge the beating of six strike sympathizers by 30 unidentified men. The six men were abducted from jail here yesterday, following their arrest for alleged participation in a strike demonstration, and in addition to being beaten were daubed with red paint.

TESTIMONY ENDS IN MURDER CASE

Testimony in the trial of Ignacio Cervantez, a Lubbock Mexican charged with murder, was completed in 99th district court this morning before Judge Clark M. Mullican. Arguments were to begin at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon.

Cervantez, 32, was charged with the killing of Merced Ortega, 28, also of Lubbock. Cervantez called Ortega from the latter's house soon after midnight of October 30, and Ortega was knifed fatally in a scuffle, investigators said. Ortega walked into his house, possibly 60 feet, and bled to death in a chair.

THREE ESCAPE FROM JAIL

PRISONERS SAW BARS AND FLEE IN TAXI IN LOUISIANA

(By The Associated Press)

SHREVEPORT, La., Dec. 6—Sawing their way through chilled steel bars and using a plated rope made from matresses coverings to lower themselves four stories, three prisoners, Charles Chapman, 33, convicted bank robber, of Oklahoma; Gerald Cramer, 29, New Orleans, and Dan Davis, 17, Alexandria accused of highway robbery, escaped from the Caddo Parish jail here last night.

The men then chartered a taxicab to take them to the municipal airport, but en route, overpowered the driver, J. T. Porath, drove his car to Ida, 40 miles north of Shreveport, where they tied him to a telephone pole, took his car and made their way northward. Porath's car was found in Texarkana early Tuesday morning.

The escape of the men did not become known until Porath, effecting an escape from his bounds, walked half a mile to Ida and telephoned Jailer Joe Leslie.

Sheriff T. R. Hughes was notified and his deputies immediately took up the trial and communicated with surrounding towns, in an effort to head off the fleeing desperadoes, but to no avail.

LAMB COLLECTOR INDICTED TODAY

PLAINVIEW, Dec. 6 (AP)—A Lamb county grand jury today presented an indictment charging Gaston Patterson, former Lamb county tax collector, with fraudulently converting to his own use $1,725.41 of the county's funds.

Patterson resigned his office Nov. 22 after a suit filed by Meade Griffin, district attorney, seeking his ouster.

Heavy Loss Caused In Fire At Dallas

DALLAS, Dec. 6 (AP)—Fire caused damage of at least $150,000 early today to stocks and the building of the Boos-Freedman-Shayn and the Darling Dress companies in the 800 block on Commerce and Jackson streets.

The blaze started in the basement of the building, roared upward through an elevator shaft and broke out on the third floor, and had done considerable damage when two men in a nearby cafe discovered it.

MOTHER FREED ON BOND IN SHOOTING

DOMESTIC TROUBLE IS BLAMED IN SLAYING AT AMARILLO

(By The Associated Press)

AMARILLO, Dec. 6.—Officers said today that domestic difficulties extending over a period of several months led to the slaying of Mrs. May Stewart, 35, by Mrs. Edna Myers, mother of four children, in front of Mrs. Stewart's home last night.

Mrs. Stewart and Harry Myers, husband of the accused slayer, were standing in front of Mrs. Stewart's home when Mrs. Myers drove up with her 17-year-old son, Robert, and opened fire. A short time later Mrs. Myers surrendered to police while Mrs. Stewart was dying in a hospital a few blocks away.

Admits Shooting

"Here is the gun," Mrs. Myers said, as she walked up to the police sergeant's desk. "I just shot Mrs. Stewart. I shot her twice, I think. I tried to get her to quit, and now it's come to this."

A little later Mrs. Myers told District Attorney Edward W. Thomerson that "I bought the gun this afternoon for this purpose, and drove out into the country to see if I could shoot."

The son, a witness to the shooting, said: "I had no idea mother was going to kill her. I didn't even know she had a gun."

Mrs. Myers was charged with murder. She made bond of $2,500. The Potter county grand jury will investigate the shooting Wednesday, Thomerson said.

NOT SAME ONES

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Myers involved in the fatal shooting at Amarillo last night are not the same Harry Myers who formerly lived in Lubbock. The former Lubbock man now operates a cleaning plant at Amarillo, while the husband of the accused slayer is connected with an Amarillo wrecking company.

Meeting Postponed Due To Influenza

Because of the influenza epidemic in the city, a banquet meeting of the Lubbock County Medical society planned for local doctors and their wives has been postponed from tonight until next Tuesday night, it was announced this morning. The meeting is to at the Hilton hotel.

This was to have been the regular December meeting for the doctors and several special guests were invited.

Japanese Advance Halted By Storms

TSITSIHAR, Manchuria, Dec. 6 (AP)—Japanese army headquarters today confirmed the report that the rebel Chinese general, Su Ping-Wen, had fled into Siberia.

At the same time it announced a raging snowstorm has halted the advance of the Japanese force before which Su Ping-Wen and 1,000 of his men fled. The snowstorm stopped the Japanese at Yakeshi, 45 miles east of Hailar.

Robbers Obtain Huge Mail Loot

FROM $500,000 TO $2,000,000 IN SECURITIES TAKEN BY FIVE MASKED BANDITS IN CHICAGO

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, Dec. 6.—Five masked robbers ambushed a mail carrier and his guard in the shadow of the main postoffice at Adams and Clark streets today and escaped with mail sacks containing securities that might be worth $500,000 to $2,000,00.

It was one of the most spectacular daylight robberies in years. Shortly after 7 a. m., the carrier, Fred Voelsch, and Frank stastny as escort stepped from the subway entrance of the federal building and crossed Adams street on his way to make deliveries of registered mail at the Loop banks.

A small sedan containing five men drew alongside. While one remained at the wheel, the other four forced the pair into the lobby of the Edison building across the street, seized the mail sacks and the guard's pistol, jumped into their car and sped away.

In the sacks were 123 pieces of mail for the First National bank and 40 pieces for the First Union Trust and savings bank.

Only the senders knew their contents, and it will be impossible to approximate the loot for several days.

Petitions Made By Hunger Body

DELEGATIONS PRESENT PLEAS TO CURTIS, JOHN GARNER

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.— Under heavy police escort, delegations from 3,000 demonstrators who marched to the capitol in orderly ranks, today presented Vice President Curtis and Speaker Garner with petitions for cash relief to the jobless and for unemployment insurance.

Three departments of justice agents sat in the room with Vice President Curtis as the delegation headed by William Reynolds entered.

"In presenting our petition," Reynolds said, "We represent the needs of 15,000,000 unemployed workers an dtheir dependents, and farmers similarly facing starvation and ruin.

"These requests represent the minimum requirements for life for millions of people."

Reynolds began to say "we haven't much confidence that you,"

"Stop that, no reflection on me," Mr. Curtis demanded.

". . . . that your body will put these demands in effect," Reynolds finished.

Reynolds said he intended to "go back and say to the workers that our message has been delivered."

"Your petition will be delivered; goodbye," said the vice president.

At the house end of the capitol, Garner walked out of his office and said:

"Good morning, gentlemen," and then spying one woman in the group added: "good morning, young lady."

Benjamin spoke for the delegation. He said:

"We request an opportunity for representatives of the unemployed to present their demands before congress. We represent the 3,000 who came here. The previous congress congress and those who make it up do not justify any confidence that this program will be acted on. But we feel that in its presentation at least we have represented their views.

"We would like some statement from you that we could carry back that there would be some relief from their misery—some cash relief this witter aid uaemploymeot insurance."

After Benjamin made his plea, Speaker Garner said:

"I'll taek it under consideration. That is all I ever do when people present a plea, whether they be hunger marchers, senators, or farmers.

"I looked for you at 10:30 o'clock, the time your representative said you would be here. Now it is almost tie for congress to meet, in fact within five minutes. I am compelled to leave you now."

BANK BANDITS ARE CAUGHT

TWO THUGS CAPTURED SINGLE-HANDED BY PANHANDLE MAN

(By The Associated Press)

PANHANDLE, Dec. 6.—Two men, captured single-handed after a 30-mile chase late yesterday by Ed Deahl, resident of the First State bank of Panhandle, were in jail today and Deahl had recovered $3,100 taken at noon yesterday by two robbers who entered the bank.

The men held gave their names as James K. French, 38, and Frank Scrivner, 32, who told officers he was an ex-convict. Both claimed Bristow Okla., as their home.

Three In Bank

Deahl and Oma Cannedy, employe of the First National bank, and Russell Downs, bookkeeper were in the bank when an unmasked man entered and commanded them to get into the vault.

A second man entered but returned to the automobile the robbers had left outside with the motor running. "Don't look at me that way," one of the men commanded Deahl when he observed the banker staring intently at him.

"I'll be seeing you again and it won't be long," Deahl replied. "You can't get away with this."

Continued Alone

As the robbers left, Deahl seized a gun and fired at the car. Joined by Deputy Sheriff M. D. Eagle, he pursued them five miles but Eagle got out to summon Sewell Tharp, another deputy, and Deahl continued alone. Near Borger, he overtook them and as they got out of their car, he commanded them to hold up their hands. By that time the two deputies arrived and the men were taken to jail. All of the loot was found in the car.

"You win, mister," the deputies quoted the man who identified himself as Scrivner as saying. "You almost won while we were at the bank. I could tell you meant business."

Pythians To Hold Roll Call Tonight

Members of Lubbock lodge No. 486 of Knights of Pythias and their wives, and visiting knights and their wives, tonight will assemble inPythian Castle hall, 1318 1-2 Texas avenue, where an annuti roll call will be conducted.

Wives of Lubbock Pythians and members and their wives of lodges at Plainview, Paducah, Borger, and Amarillo will be entertained with an old time Spanish barbecue from 7:30 to 9 o'clock.

After roll call, initiation for the rank of esquire will be conducted. After the barbecue, wives of the Pythians will be entertained in the home of Mrs. Wallie E. Schmid, 2506 Twentieth street.

Donatello was the most important Florentine sculptor of the early Renaissance, who, more than any other, may be considered the founder of modern sculpture.

COURT RULING IS AGAINST FERGUSON

ALLRED CONTENTIONS UPHELD IN APPEALS COURT DECISION

(By The Associated Press)

AUSTIN, Dec. 6.—The third court of civil appeals today ordered dissolved a temporary restraining order given James E. Ferguson and others by a Travis county district court to enjoin the Texas highway commission from awarding any more construction contracts at this time.

Ferguson, ailey Hailey Hardy and John Chamberlain, had obtained the injunction on allegations that the highway commission planned to contract in excess of the highway fund's ability to pay during the current fiscal year which ends next August 31.

Repeal Claimed

It also was contended that the third special session of the legislature impliedly repealed the appropriations voted by the regular session for the highway department and that work it was contemplated to let was not provided for in specific appropriations.

Another contention was that the commission planned to award excessive contracts as a part of a scheme to embarrass the administration of Governor-Elect Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson, wife of James E. Ferguson, the principal plaintiff in the injunction case.

Contentions Upheld

The law question was presented to the appeals court last Saturday, and contentions of JJames V. Allred, attorney general, who prosecuted the case for the highway commission, were upheld in virtually every particular.

Ocie Speer, attorney for the plaintiffs, indicated an appeal would be taken to the supreme court. Fifteen days are allowed in which to perfect an appeal.

When the court handed down its decision, Allred and Speer were engaged in Travis county district court, where the case originated, in a controversy over a setting for a trial of the case on its merits. Decision of the appeals court likely will make it unnecessary for the attorney general to press further for a trial of the case on its merits.

DISARMAMENT IS DISCUSSED TODAY

GENEVA, Dec. 6 (AP)—The statesmen of five nations—the United States, Great Britain, France, Germany, and Italy—gathered today to consider an American plan for immediate preliminary disarmament.

The Davis plan, as it is known, taking its name from Norman Davis, the American delegate to the world disarmament conference, is based on the "necessity for immediate action."

The American idea is to conclude a convention dealing exclusively with disarmament. It would scale down arms immediately and provide a permanent commission to work out other details.

Schleicher Faces First Test Today

BERLIN, Dec. 6 (AP)—General Kurt Von Schleicher, appointed chancellor of Germany yesterday faced the new reichstag in the first test of his authority this afternoon.

In his pocket was a decree of dissolution signed by President Von Hindenburg, his ace in the hole if the hostile politicians should get out of hand.

SUSPENSION ASKED

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6. (AP) — Ferdinand Veverka, minister of Czecho-sloyakia, filed with the state department Monday a second note on debts which specifically requested suspension of the December 15 payment due from the Prague government. This note is an amplification on that country's original appeal for few weeks ago for debt relief.

EINSTEINS ARE GRANTED PERMISSION TO COME TO UNITED STATES ON VISIT

(By The Associated Press)

BERLIN, Dec. 6.—Dr. Albert Einstein and Frau Einstein were advised by the Associated Press this morning that the state department had granted them permission to come to the United States. They said they would leave December 10 as scheduled.

Nobody seemed more surprised than the Einsteins themselves when they were reached by telephone at Caputh and advised that a visa had been granted and the incidents of the last few weeks cleared up.

(The Women's Patriotic corporation of the United States recently objected to the projected visit of Dr. Einstein on the grounds that he belonged to communist organizations, an objection that was forwarded to Berlin.)

The correspondent reached Frau Einstein at the Einstein summer home. "That's splendid," she said, when matters were explained. "From the deluge of cables reaching us last night and this morning Americans of all classes were deeply disturbed over the case.

"The professor and I assure you we were quite determined last night to turn our backs on America forever. Now that the visa has been straightened out, of course, we can leave on the S. S. Oakland as scheduled."

Mrs. Tillman Jones, Post, Miss Elizabeth West Talk Before Legion Auxiliary

Program Is Heard By Legion Women

Mrs. Tillman Jones of Post, past fifth division chairman and present state legislative chairman in the American Legion auxiliary spoke on legislation Monday evening to members of the local chapter of the society in a regular meeting at the Legion hall. Another talk was made on Spanish Christmas customs by Miss Elizabeth West, Tech librarian.

At this same meeting, eight new members were initiated, a program was heard, charity work was planned for Christmas and it was reported that $221 were made on the annual Poppy Day sale.

The eight who were initiated were Mesdames Harve J. Kendrick, John R. Potts, James B. Jones, R. L. Clinkscales, Examae McCrumm'n Herbert Stubbs, Louella Abbott and Margaret Norling. The membership of Mrs. Fred Stahler was transferred from another unit.

To Make Donations

Members are to make donations of canned goods at the next meeting and this will be given away Christmas. The rehabilitation committee will pack a box for disabled war veterans at El Paso, it was announced.

The program consisted of readings by Helen Sanders, piano selections by Donald Kleinschmidt, readings by A. B. Sansom and the talks. Miss West has spent the last two years doing library research work in Seville.

The hostess committee, composed of Mesdames R. F. Huie, Fred Higbee and F. A. Kleinschmidt, served refreshments to those who participated in the program and Mesdames J. Ray Dickey, Tom Carter, Thomas E. Boyd, I. F. Kennedy, George Brewer, W. H. Waln, Thomas Pirtle, Vernon Brown, George Berry, Guy E. Johnston, C. W. Fenton, P. J Quinlan, H. D. Woods, T. A. For A Cough That Hangs On

Say goodbye to that harsh, rasping cough that racks your whole body and keeps you awake night after night.

Two doses of Bronchuline Emulsion will probably check it. A whole bottle certainly will—or you can have your money back.

Bronchuline Emulsion is no sugary sedative syrup. It's a REAL cough medicine. Nothing to upset your stomach—nothing to give you the drug habit.

No matter how your cough has hung on, give Bronchuline a trial. It MUST stop your cough or money back. Mark Halsey Drug guarantees it.—Adv.

FELT GLASS MATS

Something new in table gadgets always pleases the woman who entertainers a lot.

Here is a package of one dozen glass mats, particularly nice because they don't lift up when you start to raise your glass to drink.

They are made from felt. Just cut 12 circles of bright colored felt. It is best to use a compass to outline the circle so that they are true. If you want to be very fancy, you can cut them hectagonal, instead of round, but round is easier. They can be all the colors of the rainbow or all one color.

Mrs. J. D. Welch Has Bible Lesson

Mrs. J. D. Welch taught a Bible lesson at a meeting of the Central Baptist Women's Missionary society Monday afternoon at the church. Mrs. M. M. Meek was received as a new member in the society. Mrs. W. D. Connell was a guest.

Christian Society Meets On Monday

Mrs. W. R. Blake was leader of a program on "Tidings of Peace" Monday afternoon for the First Christian Women's Missionary society. The meeting was at the church.

Mesdames P. H. Bowen, A. O. Thomas and Townsen Waddill led the devotional and Mrs. Paul Morgan played a piano solo. Following a round table discussion on international peace, Alfred Renn, Tech student, talked on "Progress Toward Peace."

Mrs. S. J. McFarland read a poem by Markham.

There were about fifty women present.

Committee In Scout Society Meets

Girl Scouts cleared more than $27 on a sale of cookies last Saturday, according to reports made Monday evening at a meeting of the Community Committee of Girl Scouts at Seaman hall. Mrs. C. C. Crenshaw presided at this meeting at which it was announced that three new troops are to be organized, that a training course is to be offered and that a nursing class is to be arranged for Girl Scouts.

Others at the meeting were Mesdames H. F. Godeke and George Finberg Miss Alma Girand, Dr. Olan Key and S. J. McFarland.

Mrs. J. B McPherson and daughter, Barbara Jean, of Lamesa are visiting here this week as the guests of Mrs. McPherson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Aycock, 2023 Broadway.

MUST WOMEN SUFFER?

Is it their lot to suffer cramps and backaches every month? Certainly not. The tonic effect of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has ended all that for many thousands of women.

Mrs. Schnepper's case is typical. She was always sickly. Tired. Gloomy. "Now," she says, "everywhere I go people tell me how much better I look. I feel like dancing for joy all the time."

LUBBOCK AND SLATON TO OPEN BASKETBALL SEASON THURSDAY

AMOS A. STAGG lives and serves the prescribed three-score and ten, and Chicago university says, "move on, old man." Major Ralph Sasse serves his four-year term at West Point and the Army orders up another coach. And now, Pop Warner beats Stanford to it and hands in his resignation before he's offered it.

Not many Saturdays ago when Stanford went down to one of its usual defeats the student body, players and school authorities offered Pop Warner a standing vote of appreciation and faith. That was easy. Pop had a contract good for five more seasons. But the Indians continued to lose and old Pop, eccentric, wise, clever—but to whom football is getting to be more of a hobby than a business—turned to the gathering wolves and snorted, "all right, you can have me—if you can catch me."

THE passing of Pop from Stanford after his most unsuccessful season there can mean only one thing. They say he has been offered the job of coaching at Temple university, Philadelphia, at a higher figure than he drew down at Palo Alto, but money doesn't mean a backwash to Pop. He's got a gob of it—enough to run him the rest of his life, yet he and his two large assistants crowded into a two-seater of ancient origin and drove to Lubbock for the coaching school last summer, and wanted $20 in advance to allay flivver repair expenses en route.

Texas Tech's hifalutin' football season, terminated abruptly in a defeat by Simmons university, has moved Fred Thompson, our Wichita Falls contemporary, to poetry. It's not the first time the ancient Fred has busted out in rhyme and meter. He's pretty good at it. But because the poem reminds us so much of something we're trying so hard to forget, we're refraining from printing it. However, we are making this special offer: To every bona fide reader of this column we will give, absolutely free, a copy of Fred's poem. All you have to do is write in and ask for a copy. Please enclose $11.54 to cover cost of copying and mailing.

Speaking of poetry and song, here's one we dedicate to the Southern Methodist university Mustangs, who couldn't make their conference games interesting, but who went great guns in intersectional tilts with Syracuse and Nebraska:

Oh, the Mustangs is a funny horse
parley voo;
His neigh is getting mighty hoarse,
parley voo;
He looks like h——on the Southwest lot.
But in an intersectional race he's hot
Hinky dinky parley voo.

Dear old Carnarsie's football team is coming to Lubbock next week. No doubt you think "dear old Carnarsie" is just another college with just another football team. But you are wrong. Old Carnarsie is not just another college. It is, well—it is old Carnarsie, the "forgotten college," and it has a wonderful football team. It's called the Rackety Rax football team. It will appear in Lubbock next Wednesday.

We have a letter asking us to take up the cudgels for dear old Carnarsie from its board of strategy which is listed on the letter-head as follows: "Knucks" McGloin, president; "Brick" Gilligan, coach; "Speed" Bennett, publicity director; Sister Carrie, public relations, and Greta Nissen, professor of sexology. Aw, we wouldn't follow you The Rackety Rax, the Puce and Green, if you please, are coming to Lubbock, but not, thank heavens, in person. It's the latest in the way of football movies. Brownie Akers says the picture is as good as the story.

We've been saving this last paragraph for a good joke, but it escapes us at the moment.

Girl Band Will Be At Lindsey Theater

Direct from the RKO vaudeville circuit and en route to Denver, Mitzi Shelton and her 11-piece girl band will be presented Wednesday and Thursday at the Lindsey theater, the theater has announced. The band recently was in Chicago. It will appear in both matinee and night performances.

"They're rated as the East's finest all-girl band," C. B. Akers, theater manager, said. Members of the band, besides the director, are: Mary Jane St John, piano and accordion; Julia Greenfield, saxaphone and blues singer; Carolyn Morgan, saxophone; Lillyn Kemper, saxophone; Vivian Bordenhaum, trumpet; Monzelle Bruce, trumpet; Cathlyeen Crawford, trumbone; Inez Satley, bass horn; Dorothy Bruce, drums; and Shannon Stantley, dancer.

In the ancient Olympic games discus throwing one of the five exercises of the pentathlon, and it was introduced in the revival of the games at Athens in 1896.

GAME WILL BE FIRST UNDER NEW RULES

PROSPECTS ARE GOOD FOR WESTERNERS THIS SEASON

Lubbock fans will be introduced to the changes in the basketball rulebook Thursday night when the Lubbock High school Westerners meet the Slaton Tigers in a regular contest at the Lubbock High gymnasium.

The contest probably will start at 7:30 o'clock. A very low admission price will be charged.

Game Speeded Up

Outstanding change in the new basketball rules concerns the new "ten second" regulation, which makes it unlawful for an offensive team to retain the ball in its own territory more than ten seconds at a stretch. There are other changes and amendments calculated to speed up the game and make it more entertaining for customers.

Although there is nothing official in the fact that Slaton and Lubbock are to play the opening basketball game, it is likely to be an unusually entertaining contest when teams of these schools meet. Coach Paul Wright is said to be preparing a team he hopes to send to the district tournament as a winner. The team was fairly strong last year, and may be even better this season.

Prospects Good Here

Coach Swede McMurry's Westerners, the starting lineup of which may consist of five-6-footers and better, promises to be the best cage team to represent the school in several years.

Arrangements whereby the Class A schools of the football District 1 in the Texas Interscholastic league may schedule basketball games among themselves and play a double schedule leading to the mythical championship of the district may be made next Thursday when the executive committee of District 1 meets at Plainview in regular annual session.

M. H. Duncan, superintendent of Lubbock public schools, is chairman of the executive board of District 1. He said this morning that the basketball question would come up and that he hopes it might be worked out in a satisfactory manner. Under that play, Lubbock, Plainview, Amarillo, Pampa and Borger would play a schedule corresponding to the usual football schedule.

TROJAN COACH LAUDS IRISH

JONES AND ANDERSON TRADE COMPLIMENTS BEFORE CONTEST

BY PAUL ZIMMERMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 6. (AP) — Coach Howard Harding Jones of the University of Southern California football team likes Notre Dame's grid mentor, and all that, but Hunk Anderson has been a big disappointment.

This was apparent today, four days short of the game here between these two schools, as Troy's head man stirred through a pile of newspapers clippings. He looked up with a heavy sigh and it was apparent the caustic comment Jones sought to help fire his players for the game had not been found.

"Everywhere, it seems," said the Trojan tactician, "Hunk has talked about what a fine team is Southern California, and what a great coach I am and that's all.

"Well, I want to return the compliment. I'm not joking when I say I never have seen a Notre Dame team which wasn't high class and I don't except this one. I frankly feel Anderson has done a splendid coaching job."

It sounded like a speech before the mutual admiration society, but Jones was only warming up to go out and drive his team through another hard practice session for the big struggle with the westbound Ramblers.

YOUTHFUL SLAYER GIVEN SENTENCE

CHICAGO, Dec. 6—(AP)—Charles Bertrand Arnold, jr., 16, high school student who hammered to death his aged step-grandmother, Mrs. Elian O. Saxe, Monday was sentenced to one to 14 years in Pontiac reformatory.

The sentence was imposed on the first of a two count indictment charging manslaughter and murder.

Chief Justice John Prystalski imposed the sentence before a crowded, tense courthoom. Calmest of those affected directly was "Bert."

Defense Attorney Weymouth Kirkland immediately moved to withdraw his client's plea of guilty to the murder charge. The court denied the motion, informing him it might be made later.

Mrs. Saxe's body, the head battered, was found 17 days ago in a cistern at the Arnold home in suburban Riverside.

Babe Didrikson Deprived Of Her Amateur Standing

BY HERBERT W. BARKER
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, Dec. 6. (AP)—An enterprising bit of automobile advertising has deprived Mildred Babe Didrikson of her amateur status.

The world's greatest woman athlete—as most authorities are agreed—was disqualified yesterday from further amateur competition because her name appeared in an advertisement booming the latest model of an automobile manufacturing concern.

It's Mildred's Move

The next move, Dan Ferris, secretary-treasurer of the Amateur Athletic union, made plain, is strictly up to Mildred.

He pointed out that the advertisement, in which Miss Didrikson was quoted in glowing praise of the new model, was a palpable violation of the A. A. U. rules and automatically disbarred the Texas star from amateur competition.

Down at her home in Dallas, Miss Didrikson said it was all a big mistake.

"I let this automobile company make a picture of me," she explained, "but I told them not to use it. They did so without my permission. I do not intend to turn professional before next summer—if then."

Suit Threatened

Col. M. J. McCombs, athletic director for the Dallas Insurance company by which Miss Didrikson is employed, indicated a damage suit might be entered against the automobile concern.

"Our main interest," he said, "is to get Babe reinstated. She not only tells me she did not give anyone permission to use her name but says she has never seen the model car which she is quoted as praising."

Apparently a court suit is the only possible road leading to Miss Didricson's reinstatement. As to that Ferris had this to say:

"If she did not sanction the use of her name, she can prove it by bringing suit against the company for impairing her amateur status. If she wins her suit, the A. A. U. immediately would reinstate her. On the face of things, we cannot believe she did not know her name was being used in the advertisement. Ignorance of A. A. U. rules would not be a valid excuse. A star athlete ought to know the rules of amateurism."

Was Olympic Star

Miss Didrikson was an outstanding performer in the Olympic games, winning the javelin throw and the 80-meter hurdles in new world's record time and placing second to Jean Shiley of Philadelphia in the high jump, who was forced to set still another world's record to win.

At the national women's track and field championship at Evanston earlier in the year, Miss Didrikson, single-handed, won the team title for her home club. She won the broad jump, javelin, shotput, 80-meter hurdles and the baseball throw, tied Miss Shiley in the high jump and placed fourth in the discus throw, for a total of 30 points.

She is one of the country's finest basketball players, an expert swimmer, and lately has shown a decided aptitude for golf.

BABE INDIGNANT AT A. A. U. ACTION

DALLAS, Dec. 6. (AP)—Mildred Babe Didrikson, the boyish looking world's champion athlete who has broken just about every woman's record on the athletic program, either officially or unofficially, was indignant today at the action of the National Amateur Athletic union in declaring her ineligible for further amateur competition. It happened just as she was training to add the art of tumbling to her repertoire.

Secretary Daniel J. Ferris of the A. A. U. in New York announced last night she had disqualified herself as an amateur because her picture appeared in connection with the advertisement of an automobile, published Sunday all over the nation.

Didn't Give Permission

"I let this automobile company make a picture of me," the Babe explained, "but I told them not to use it. They did so without my permission."

She indicated she was particularly peeved because the Golden Cyclones, girls' basketball team of Dallas of which she is captain, hopes to win back the national championship this winter. Col. M. J. McCombs, athletic director of the team, said if the A. A. U. action was final, he would see that a damage suit was entered immediately against the automobile firm which published the advertisement.

In the last few weeks, the Babe has been in training with Marshall Brown, who coached Rowland Wolfe, Dallas youth who won the Southern, National and Olympic tumbler titles this year. Brown says she already is showing surprising ability.

Thomas Wilson Dorr, American politician, was famous as the leader of "Dorr's Rebellion" in Rhode Island.

Ideal Secretary

The most ideal secretary in the country is Miss Mary Wiechelman of Cincinnati, according to the Alpha Iota National Business sorority which held its annual meeting at Washington, D. C., recently. Miss Wiechelman was presented with a cup emblematic of her title.

WARNER TO GO TO TEMPLE

VETERAN GRID COACH AT STANFORD QUITS AFTER BAD YEAR

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 6. (AP) — Temple university, youthful, rising figure in the field of intercollegate football, is to come under the guidance of the veteran coach whose name has been synonomous with the development of gridiron strategy for nearly four decades—Glenn S. (Pop) Warner.

Chartered as a university in 1907, the year Warner began his second term of coaching at the Carlisle (Pa.) Indian school, Temple played its first intercollegiate football in 1925, the year after Warner went to Stanford, the university he is leaving to assume his position here.

Has Notable Record

In eight years Temple, under the leadership of Henry J. (Heinie) Miller, former all-America end at the University of Pennsylvania, has made a notable record with 50 victories, 15 defeats and eight ties, and alumni officials, in signing up Warner, have expressed the belief the school is on the threshhold of a place among the top flight of gridiron elevens.

In coming to this young institution, Warner, when he announced his decision at Stanford university yesterday, said he considered the opportunity at Temple much the same as that offered him a Carlisle in 1907 and Pittsburgh in 1914.

A certain dissatisfaction among Stanford alumni over their team's showing this year—Stanford was defeated four times and tied once—plus a tempting offer from Temple prompted Warner to accept the job here.

It is understood, although no official announcement was made, that his salary is to be $15,000 a year. He was signed a five-year contract.

VEENKER SEEN AS STAGG'S SUCCESSOR

"GRAND OLD MAN" TO SEVER RELATIONS WITH CHICAGO

CHICAGO, Dec. 6. (AP) — With the definite assurance that Amos Alonzo Stagg, for 41 years director of athletics and football coach at the University of Chicago, would not be appointed, reports presisted today that George Veenker, football and basketball coach at Iowa State College, has the inside track as the successor to Stagg.

Thomas W. Metcalf, new director of athletics at Chicago, however, said he has made no definite selection. Metcalf at present is director of athletics at Iowa State, having resigned to succeed Stagg.

Stagg will serve all connections with Chicago when his enforced retirement becomes effective next June. He has refused to accept an honorary post created for him as chairman of the University's committee on intercollegiate athletics. Stagg said he could not accept a position without work and that he would be a "nuisance" in this new position.

"I must have work, and since I cannot coach football I am leaving the university," Stagg added. "I am open for proposals."

Stagg, in refusing the honorary post, gave up a salary equivalent to the amount he is now receiving as director and football coach, reported to be $8,000 ayear. He will retire on his $3,000 annual pension.

CORKING GOOD FIND

DENVER, Colo.—"No hen dropped this," said Patrolman John Wells as he picked up a cork—wet, and reeking of moonshine. Wells, Patrolman Roy Bloxom, and Detective A. L. Colton were searching the chicken coop in the rear of Jimmy Iantorno's home. A thorough revealed a hidden cave containing 25 gallons of liquor. One of the jugs was minus its cork.

Knapp New Member Of Scout Council

Dr. Bradford Knapp, president of Texas Technological college, Monday was elected to the executive board of the South Plains Area Boy Scout council at a meeting in the Hilton hotel. An annual meeting will be in January.

Dean Jas. M. Gordon was named chairman of the program committee, and N. H. Wright of the nominating committee. Scout Executive D. T. Jennings, K. N. Clapp, and W. G. McMillan, board president, are members of a growth committee. Others attending were T. E. Buckner, A. H. Leidigh, C. W. Ratliff, and Dr. F. B. Malone.

The combined seating capacities of New York theaters is more than 860,000.

Thought For Today

I love them that love me; and those that seek me early shall find me.—Proverbs 8:17.

Let pleasure be ever so innocent, the excess is always criminal.—St. Evremond.

Santa Realistic!

Realism, according to the merchants, is the dominant note in Christmas toys this year.

No matter what you buy for your youngster, you can get a pretty exact copy of something that is in daily use in the grown-up world.

If you are buying for your little daughter, you can buy a diminutive electric stove on which she can really cook diminutive meals; or you can buy a doll's house with all the modern equipment of a regular home, or a doll which wears genuine Paris frocks, not to mention beach pajamas and bathing suits.

If you are buying for a boy, you can get a miniature railroad which differs from the kind you yourself ride on only in that it is smaller; you can buy a structural steel set with which a member of the iron workers' union could feel perfectly at home, or a toy store outfit which has a sure enough cash register and a shelfful of perfectly edible canned goods.

All of these things, of course, are fit to make childhood's heart thump madly, and the child who gets a satisfactory assortment of such possessions is a lucky youngster indeed. But to some of us, who grew up in a time when children's playthings were not half so elaborate, this layout seems almost too good to be true.

In the old days, if you were a boy and wanted a toy train, you got one crudely made out of cast iron. It had no tracks, and you pushed it by hand; and, on the whole, you were perfectly satisfied with it. Or, if you were a girl and wanted a toy stove, you got a gadget similarly made of cast iron, and you never dreamed of really cooking anything on it. You just pretended, as your brother did when he chug-chugged his train over the carpet; and usually you were tickled to death with it.

For the power of a child's imagination is something the toy makers frequently overlook. A toy doesn't need to be a perfect copy. Childhood's make-believe can give it attributes its makers never imagined. A toy that looks imperfect in the shop window can become a direct passport to happiness when a youngster's imagination gets busy on it.

Town Being Stolen

ATLANTA—Somebody seems bent upon removing Atlanta gradually from the map.

At any rate the real estate dealers say that six vacant houses are vanishing every week, and they think something ought to be done about it.

George B. Lyle, a member of city council, has agreed to ask that body to authorize appointment of six supernumeraries to the police force, with the specific job of watching vacant houses.

The real estate men say the houses probably are being carted away piecemeal for use as fuel.

Counting 'Em

CHICAGO—Maybe she came from the "Show Me" state of Missouri.

Anyhow a reporter said he found a woman trying to count the hairs on an inch of rabbit skin.

She explained she read somewhere that a scientist said a real rabbit had 46,400 hairs to the square inch and was merely trying to find out if her neckpiece was genuine rabbit skin.

Won By Whisker

TORONTO — A quarter-mile race between Constable Herbert Neill and a goat went to the constable by a goat's whisker. Neill met the goat while making his rounds. For no reason at all, the goat rushed the blue-coat, who sidestepped and went away from there fast, with the goat on his heels. The course ran past street cars, around buses before Neill gained the shelter of a filling station. Humane society men carted the goat away.

Going Up!

FORT SMITH, Ark.—They don't have elevators in the Ozarks.

So, when a group of rural school children come out of the northwest Arkansas mountains to visit Fort Smith next Tuesday a special elevator is to be turned over to them to give them their first rides.

Their teacher, Mrs. Beatrice Cook of Natural Dam, wrote city officials arranging for the visit:

"Only four of our thirty pupils have seen and ridden in an elevator so you can imagine what they would be most interested in doing on their trip to Fort Smith."

The city officials have arranged to commandeer an elevator in a hotel—the tallest building in town—for the sole use of the children.

THIEF IS FORGIVEN

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. — Reverend William E. Clark surely deserves the name of "The Good Man of Vonore." Reverend Clark, whose clothes were stolen recently while he was out distributing Sunday school literature, has completely forgiven the thief. He says that the man who took the clothing probably needs it very badly. He hopes his message will reach the man and eventually lead him to different ways of acquiring things he needs.

It's rather doubtful if Gene Tunney will engage in another campaign. It's hard to keep present-day politics on a high literary plane.

Sales Tax Or Beer Tax–Which Will It Be? One Or Other Seems Certain To Come From Short Session Of Congress

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6. — The sales tax probably will provide a more bitterly fought issue in the short session of Congress than it did in the long session, when the House of Representatives rebelled against its leaders and said it wasn't having any.

One thing seems rather certain: We are going to have either a federal sales tax or a federal beer tax.

Dutcher

The condition of the treasury, which faces a deficit of between one and two billion dollars for the fiscal year despite the new taxes and economies imposed at the last session, guarantees that. If a serious attempt is made to balance the budget it is quite within the realm of possibility that we will be having both beer tax and sales tax.

The outlook is clouded now because, although the last Congress voted against both beer and the sales tax, it is too early to be able to tell how many members who would still prefer beer and a tax on it to a sales tax and how many who abhor the sales tax proposal would still prefer it to a legalization of beer.

In all probability the sales tax fight will develop into a bitter struggle between the progressives and the conservatives, the former seeking desperately to retain the anti-sales tax strength of last session.

But the party leaders are expected to stand predominately for the sales levy. The Democratic House leaders sponsored it at the last session and since that time President Hoover also has recommended it. Quite a few important figures who are worried about federal finances appear to have been weakening in their opposition.

If President-elect Roosevelt declares for the sales tax we probably will have it, so great will his influence be on so many Democratic members. But its advocates are likely to have a tough time smoking the governor out on any such controversial point.

Despite his budget-balancing promises, he is not technically responsible for anything that happens before his inauguration, and he would be the last man to identify himself with any cause which he might fear would prove generally unpopular.

Also, Roosevelt is definitely committed to the beer tax, and although he will not be technically responsible for action on it in the coming session, it hardly seems likely that he would throw his pre-inauguration influence behind the sales tax without demanding a beer tax as well.

Congressmen LaGuardia of New York and Doughton of North Carolina, respectively the progressive Republican and insurgent Democratic heroes of the sales tax revolt in the first session, will be on the job again this winter.

Indications that the full progressive strength will be thrown against the proposal are seen in Senator Borah's recent promise to fight it to the last ditch.

He suggests in preference a bond issue—which would violate the current theory of budget balancing—or a $300,000,000 cut in army-navy appropriations.

And, although he is the last big congressional figure still militant for prohibition and is especially opposed to beer, he says he would prefer "any other alternative" to the sales tax.

The progressives, who generally favor higher taxes on inheritances and large incomes, have just received some solid support in the promise of the American Federation of Labor to "fight as never before" to prevent any attempt in Congress, through the sales tax, to "transfer the burden of taxation from the wealth of the nation to the masses of the people."

NAVY BEANS AND SUGAR TO FILL GUN POWDER SPACE ON OLD CONSTITUTION

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6. (AP) —Gun powder space on the revolutionary day frigate Constitution will be filled with navy beans and sugar when the famous old fighter leaves the Washington navy yard and pokes her nose into the Atlantic tomorrow for a good will voyage to the Pacific.

There will be tons of rice, flour, canned goods tea, coffee, potatoes, bacon, and other staples for the navy crew, and even cranberries, turkeys, sweet potatoes, plum pudding and pumpkins for a traditional American Christmas feast in the heat of the Panama canal.

No Gun Powder

Nary an ounce of gun powder, however, such as the Constitution used in shooting her way to fame in 1812, will be anywhere aboard. Both powdered magazines, forward and aft, which in the reconditioning were built down in the hold exactly as they were when the frigate was in her prime, will be used to store food supplies exclusively.

But there will be plenty of cannon balls, about the size of nice plump grapefruit, painted a shiny black all peacefully reclining in their respective racks to be shown to curious Pacific coast folks interested in the working of Uncle Sam's navy of the long ago.

Nothing Modern

There is nothing modern about the Constitution today, yet little of the original remains. When the school children throughout the country contributed pennies in 1925 for the recondition'ng, the frigate was on the verge of crumbling to pieces. Experts decided it would only be possible to save about 15 per cent of the original. This includes several huge oak beams below the water line, just as sound as the day they were hewed.

But in design, tonnage, masts, and equipment, she is near perfect reproduction—her 44 big guns, cutlasses and all are just as when she started her adventurous career fighting barbary pirates.

The first port of call will be Guantanamo, Cuba, December 15. This will be the first visit of the Constitution to Cuba since a flying trip to Havana in 1855, which, after her return to Boston, ended her active service.

SISTER HEARD IN SEDUCTION TRIAL

NEW CITY, N. Y., Dec. 6 —(AP)— Dorothy Homewood, at the seduction trial of her brother, Sidney Homewood, riding master, testified to intimate love secrets she said Miss Charlotte Gibson, who brought the charges against Homewood, had confided to her.

She told the jury Miss Gibson had declared she had always believed love could exist without sex until she met and was jilted by a man three years ago.

She pictured Miss Gibson as an habitual smoker.

Miss Gibson herself spent 30 minutes on the stand denying she had held the alleged conversations with Miss Homewood.

Homewood is under indictment on a charge of seduction under promise to marry.

One of the principal prosecution witnesses was Dr. Walter Mackellar, New York university teacher, who testified that last July Homewood told him he had agreed to marry Miss Gibson, an expectant mother, and that her parents refused to permit him to do so.

He quoted Homewood as saying he had "often repulsed advances of the Gibson girl."

SHE TOOK NO CHANCES

BOSTON—People may laugh at superstition, but not Mrs. Thelma I. Morrell. The other day in probate court Mrs. Morrell was stepping onto the witness stand in her suit for divorce from Gerald V. Morrell, when she dropped her glove. Looking at the glove, she said: "I don't like to pick it up. It's supposed to be bad luck to pick up your own glove.'" Her attorney quickly stooped and picked up the glove and returned it to its owner. Mrs. Morrell won her case.

Well, the change in postmasters next spring may have one salutary effect. They may put new pens on the desks.

EXTENSION WORK AIDED BY BANKS

Texas is one of the 40 states in which more than 2,600 bankers are acting as key bankers cooperating with state extension services in development of a stronger agricultural program, according to Dan H. Otis, director of agricultural work for the American Bankers association.

"The only states that do not have close cooperation between the banker groups and the extension service are the New England states," Mr. Otis said in discussing his work. "There are about 40 states that are more or less active, with an agricultural program.

"We have 2,600 counties with key bankers. There are over 3,600 counties but not all of these interested in agriculture. There are many with mining or large industrial programs."

Texas not only has the largest area but it has the largest program of agricultural work for its banker's association. The state has 254 counties and in practically every one there is a key banker who works with the extension service, either the county agent or the state work at College Station.

"Georgia is following the Texas plan," Mr. Otis explained. There are a number of states that more or less follow it.

"I am convinced of one thing, since coming to West Texas, that the report that there is a slump in the depression is more or less true. Our natural resources never fail.

"Texas is outstanding in its form of banker's organization working with farmers. Other states are coming more and more to pattern after the Texas plan."

If Al Smith was a little off key when he sang "The Sidewalks of New York" for that benefit in New York he should be pardoned. It's been six months since he was given the pitch at Chicago.

OVER HUNDRED ARE DROWNED

TRIM JAP DESTROYER LEFT UPSIDE DOWN FOLLOWING STORM

TOKYO, Dec. 6. (AP) — The trim Japanese destroyer Sawarabi drifted upside down in the East China sea today, with 104 of her crew probably dead, victims of the treacherous monsoon that blows off the coast of Asia.

The phenomenon known as the burst of the monsoon, or sudden seasonal change in the usually steady wind, struck the Sawarabi and three sister ships 100 miles off Formosa island Monday afternoon.

Wallowed Helplessly

The darkness descended on the destroyer late yesterday afternoon in the midst of the storm, and the sister ships—The Sanaya, the Kuretake, and the Wakatake — lost sight of the Sawarabi as they wallowed helplessly in the troughs of the sea.

The three stood by the Sawarabi, and as soon as conditions cleared early today, picked up 16 survivors from the sea, one of whom later died of his injuries. The skipper, Lieut. Commander Kengo Kadota, went to his death with his ship, so far as the naval ministry knew.

Inside the hull of the Sawarabi, as it bobbled dangerously in the northern entrance of Formosa strait, were believed to be most of the corpses of the officers and men who manned her when she left the Kure naval base in the main island group of Japan Saturday.

Others Thought Lost

This was the guess of the ministry, which learned the 16 rescued were on deck when the storm struck. A few might have been washedoverboard and drowned but it was believed most were below the hatches, which were battered down against the storm. Thus they would either have drowned or suffocated.

The Sawarabi was a 820 ton craft with speed of 31 1-2 knots. She was completed in 1923.

As the navy department swung into action today, more than a dozen craft were either at the scene of the disaster or on the way.

Small hopes was held, however, that any more of the crew would be picked up alive.

Besides the vessels from the Mako and Sasebo naval bases, the Kure naval base ordered the destroyer Shikinami and the special service ship Asahi to the scene. The Asahi is fitted with special grappling apparatus usually employed over sunken submarines. It is hoped the Sawarabi can be righted and he mysterious fate investigated.

High naval officers studied reports of the disaster as the day wore on and were gradually evolving a theory as to why the sister ships suffered comparatively little distress while the Sawarabi itself got into difficulties shortly after the storm struck.

Some were of the belief that the vessel had developed structural defects or a "faulty condition" of some other nature.

Reports indicated the Sawarabi was ploughing head-on into the waves. It was believed possible water had poured in through the funnels and deluged the engine rooms. This would have rendered the craft helpless.

HOOVER MESSAGE

of doubt that our losses and distress have been greatly augmented by its wholly inadequate organization. Its inability as a system to respond to our needs is today a constant drain upon progress toward recovery."

Turning to the field of international relations, the president declared that if the United States is to secure recovery and protection for the future "we must cooperate with foreign nations in many measures." He limited his direct discussion of war debts to the following paragraph:

"The European governments, obligated to us in war debts, have requested that there should be suspension of payments due the United States on December 15 next, to be accompanied by exchange of views upon this debt question. Our government has informed them that we do not approve of suspension of the December 15 payments. I have stated that I would recommend to the congress methods to overcome temporary exchange difficulties in connection with this payment from nations where it may be necessary."

Upon the finding of solutions to international questions, the president said, depends "the preservation of civilization." He added that solutions could not be found except "by honest friendship, by adherence to agreements entered upon until mutually revised and by cooperation amongst the nations."

Grocery News Gives Lubbock Publicity

2-14 GROCERY NEWS

The November number of Radford Grocery News, house organ of the J. M. Radford Grocery company of Abilene, which has a wholesale house in Lubbock, is the Lubbock number. The lead article is "Lubbock, 'The Hub of the Plains' " by Garnet Reeves, publicity manager of the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce.

Pictures of the Radford company's Lubbock house, the Texas Technological college textile engineering building, the Hilton hotel, the Lubbock hotel, laying concrete on a Lubbock highway, cutting sorghum grain sorghums on the Plains, winning hams and bacons in last year's meat show, and the home of M. C. Butler, local architect, accompany the article.

The front cover of the grocery house organ has a picture of a part of the Technological college campus and two of the buildings, and several paragrahps about the institution.

LUBBOCK FERGUSON LEADER SAYS NEW ADMINISTRATION TO BACK EDUCATION

J. A. (Ab) Humphries, local Ferguson chieftain, Monday declared "our program of education will be backed by the new administration with a zeal unheard of in the past six years," and pointed out that the legislative committee proposing that technological and agricultural courses be taken from Texas Technological college was named in the Sterling administration.

Texas Tech "was the conception of James E. Ferguson, though not built in his administration," Humphries declared. "It is just such schools with just such faculty and just such aggregation of students that will receive the whole-hearted support of Gov. Miriam A. Ferguson and her prime minister.

"Instead of making it a school of liberal arts, as suggested in the report of the efficiency committee, it would have been far more consistent to have reversed the order and made it a school of technology and withdraw the liberal arts.

"Texas Tech in all its phases has come to stay and while funds for the support of our state institutions are and will be coming in slowly, yet our program of education will be backed by the new administration with a zeal unheard of in the past six years."

"Tech college has been in existence seven years, and has enrolled more students in that time than some of the universities in the old world have in seven hundred years."

Mr. Humphries charged that "this committee, as also other committees of former legislatures, seeks to kill the goose that lays the golden egg.

"Appropriate thousands for the comfort of convicts, hundreds of thousands for the benefit of the judiciary, and millions for the construction of highways and headquarters on Padre Island in the Gulf of Mexico, but when economy is sought, it invariably happens that some one reaches with bold fists for the small treasury of the youth of the country.

"The childhood and youth of this country has more defense and fewer defenders, more virtues and fewer supporters, more prospects for enriching the horizon of our future and fewer patriots to uphold their program than can be justified in law, morals, or equity."

Mr. Humphries declared that the proposal would "modify, abandon or abolish some of our state schools in the interests, ostensibly economy, but in fact to change the policy from a democratic or Jeffersonian program of distribution of knowledge as now obtains to one centralized in the University of Texas at Austin and in A. and M. college at College Station. This last program will not succeed, and our friends need not worry."

DAILY MARKETS

Cotton Market

NEW ORLEANS REPORT

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 6 (AP)—Cotton opened steady today. Liverpool came in about 4 penny points better than due and sterling was also firmer. First trades here showed gains of 5 to 6 points and the market continued to improve after the start on moderate tradebuying induced by a firmer opening of stocks. January traded up to 5.64 and March to 5.76, or 13 to 15 points above yesterday's close.

Near the end of the first hour the market continued steady, keeping at the highs in moderate trading.

Following the advance of the early trading, cotton became quiet and so continued all morning as traders again appeared indisposed to operate in advance of the government crop report due Thursday.

Prices were maintained near the early highs most of the morning, however, by the firmness of other markets and January made a new high at 5.65, or 14 points above the previous close.

Near noon the market eased 5 to 8 points from the top on a moderate reaction in stocks and some hedge-selling.

A private authority estimated the crop at 12,316,000 bales and the ginnings to December 1 at 11,225,000 bales.

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, Dec. 6. (AP)Cotton futures opened steady, 4-6 points advance in response to higher Liverpool cables and on trade buying. Dec. 5.60; Jan. 5.61; March 5.71; May, 5.71; uly 5.90; Oct. 6.07.

There also appeared to be some covering or rebuying by sellers of late yesterday which was probably promoted by the steadier tone of the opening stock market, and prices worked up a few points after the call with march advancing to 5.79 and with the more active months showing net gains of about 11 to 14 points at the end of the first half hour.

A few additional December notices estimated at about 2,00 bales brought out a little liquidation, but that delivery sold up to 5.61 or 3 points above yesterday's closing quotation. A private report was issued placing the indicated crop at 12,316,000 bales.

ADD BRIEFS

Trading continued quiet later in the morning but prices held generally steady on trade buying and scattering demand which was evidently encouraged by action of the stock market. At midday December was holding around 5.63 and May 5.85, or within 2 or 3 points of the best and 7 to 10 points net higher.

Stock Market

WALL STREET REPORT

NEW YORK, Dec. 6—(AP) —The stock market today quickly recovered the setback suffered late in the previous session, but buying interest waned at the higher levels, and the list eased a little after midday.

After pushing up rather briskly in the first hour, the trend of the market flattened out, and trading again slackened to a snail's pace.

Issues rising about 2 to 3 points included American Telephone, Allied Chemical, American Tobacco "B," Case, Santa Fe, and Johns Manville, while issues rising a point or more included U. S. Steel, New York Central, Consolidated Gas, United Aircraft, and others. General Electric, a firm spot yesterday, rose a fraction, but seemed to run around 15. International Telephone dipped a point, probably reflecting the difficulties over cancellation of its Spanish subsidiary's concession. Safeway dropped more than 2, reflecting dividend uncertainty.

The Lubbock Pastors association Monday elected Rev. O. N. Baucom, below, pastor of Cumberland Presbyterian church, as its president. He will succeed Rev. R. C. Campbell of the First Baptist church.

Rev. O. W. Carter, pastor of Asbury Methodist church, was elected vice-president and the Rev. Jeff D. Welch, pastor of Central Baptist chrch, was elected secretary treasurer. These men will serve for one year.

TURKEY MART IS OPENED IN CITY

With birds selling for about five cents a pound less than in the Thanksgiving market, a Christmas turkey market opened in Lubbock today.

Prices quoted by one poultry house are: No. 1 toms and hens, 7 cents; old toms, 4 cents, No. 2's and light weights, 3 cents. No. 1 toms must weigh 14 pounds or more, and No. 1 hens eight pounds or more.

The chief market will end Dec. 10, but some birds will be bought after that date.

Negro Is Freed On Tampering Charges

Proving that Julia Williams was his wife, Willie Williams, a negro, won freedom when he was tried in county court Monday on a charge of tampering with a motor vehicle.

The car involved was Julia's, and Willie, who represented himself, showed to the jury's satisfaction that the woman was his common law wife and hence the car was partly his. Willie said Julia and he had lived together since 1929; she said she had been his cook for that period. To complicate the case further, the woman said her husband's name was Williams and that the father of her six-year-old son was named Hays.

Sam Samuels was fined $1, costs and sentenced to one day in county jail for theft by Judge E. L. Pitts, Wm. H. Evans, assistant county attorney said. Pedro Charbarraro was convicted of drunkenness and fined. Chebarraro was arrested after allegedly stabbing a Mexican with an ice pick.

Brevities

Suspect Returned—Sam Franklin, charged with burglary of Levine's department store here, was placed in Lubbock county jail Monday, having been brought here from Amarillo, where he was arrested in late November.

Vets To Meet — The Lubbock chapter of Disabled American Veterans of the World War will meet at 8 o'clock tonight in room 212 of the Lubbock hotel, Dr. H. H. Bidwell, the commander, has announced.

Negroes Arrested — Two negroes were arrested late Monday by a negro policeman, who said they had a pistol in their possession when taken into custody.

Theft Charged — Another negro was arrested by police late Monday as a suspect in theft of radio tubes and in selling them. A radio shop operator identified a tube, which the negro allegedly sold or tried to sell, as a stolen tube, police said.

Scouts To Meet——A group of Boy Scouts will assemble at 7 o'clock tonight in the textile building at Texas Technological college to continue study to qualify for textile merit badges. The group first met last Tuesday. Thirty scouts attend. M. E Heard, instructor in textile engineering at the college, is the instrucotr.

Grain Market

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, Dec. 6 (AP—Grain prices averaged higher early today, owing to expectations that unofficial domestic monthly crop reports would make a bullish exhibit. Reports of harvest delays in Argentina were also a strengthening factor.

Opening 1-8-3-8 up, wheat afterward reacted somewhat. Corn started unchanged to 1-4 off and later held near the initial limits.

Doldrums is the name given by sailors to that part of the ocean near the equator in which calms and light baffling winds prevail with hot, sultry air, local squalls, thunder, and rain.

DOCTORS UNABLE TO AGREE WHETHER "FLU" INCREASING OR DIMINISHING

Lubbock doctors last night were not agreed as to whether the influenza epidemic was increasing or diminishing here. One physician said the disease "apparently is increasing and the cases are becoming more severe." Others reported increased severity of influenza cases. Several doctors said the epidemic seemed diminished.

Dr. Jack M. Lewis, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, who was seriously ill at his home at 1310 Avenue N, rested well last night and this morning, Mrs. Lewis said. The attending physician said Doctor Lewis' condition possibly had improved since late Monday. The minister suffered a relapse of influenza.

Twenty per cent, or more than 200 students, of Lubbock High school's enrollment was absent Monday, Principal R. W. Matthews said. He said a large number of the students were suffering of the disease. All teachers were present, however. Supt. M. H. Duncan declared attendance was reduced in about the same proportion at other schools here.

Tech Shows Drop

Less Texas Technological college students called doctors Monday than on last Friday, when 125 received medical attention, Dean Jas. M. Gordon said.

Dr. Bradford Knapp, Texas Tech president, was confined to his home Monday, but it was learned he was not suffering of influenza.

Those Reported Ill

A few Lubbock business and professional people who Monday were ill of the disease were: J. C. Anderson, Mrs. Allie M. Dyer, Claude Grollman, John Denman, Chas. A. Guy, A. B. Davis, Jess Swint, Waymon Godwin, Luther Goswin, Hugh Norman, J. Sam Lewis, Dr. R. T. Canon, J. B. Maxey, J. N. Hartley, S. B. Haynes, C. E. Hunt, Dr. H. C. Maxwell.

One physician said he had 18 or 20 new cases of the disease Monday.

The cases are "fewer, but have more lung involvement now," another doctor said. He said that several persons who had left their beds too soon now were ill of pneumonia.

its democracy. What if all of the school children in the nation had to go to Washington to school?

"I want to see a great University of Texas, a great Texas A. & M. I have no jealousy for either school but I know that it is better for a state as big as Texas to have more educational institutions.

"I believe this institution was established pretty largely of the thirst of the heart of the people of West Texas, an institution which is able to adjust itself to the thinking, the consciousness and the heart of the people.

The president cited the cost of the average student in Tech, declaring that it was lower than any other state institution of its rank except one teachers college and that it was "only a few dollars more than two junior colleges."

Would Not Save A Cent

"I contend that if you were to transfer all the students of Texas Technological college to some other institution, it wouldn't save the state a single solitary cent." He told of making a table of institutions and their costs, selecting 72 from over the nation and declared every one of them exceeded the cost in Tech except one. He said Tech had more students in engineering than seventy-odd of the chief engineering schools of the country.

He said new objectives were continually being made in education and declared that he would like to see students go from Tech with four attributes, namely:

"That they had character. Second, that they should not lose their democracy, the touch of the common people. Third, that they should not be hunting easy jobs and fourth, that they be useful students—not afraid of getting their hands soiled."

He urged students to impress the importance of their school to their parents and seek their support in all of its endeavors.

LIONS TO AID IN SUPPORTING SHOW

Members of the Lubbock Lions club threw the support of their entire membership behind the ticket sales for the Crippled Children's council benefit show Friday night, each member taking five tickets to sell at the club's luncheon in the Hilton today noon.

Neil Wright, interlocutor of the show, spoke briefly on the work of the crippled children's work and the approaching show. Ray Dickey sang a song which is to be given in the show. He was accompanied at the piano by Miss Ruth Ford.

wines made "without the addition of distilled spirits."

The house action was taken by many legislators as the forerunner of a special session next spring after the inauguration of President-elect Roosevelt, but Democratic leaders on both sides nevertheless drove ahead with renewed vigor to make it unnecessary by carrying out the campaign pledges at the short session.

There the immediate problem was largely a question of what form the repeal resolution should take. Three propositions were under consideration: Outright repeal; repeal with protection for dry states; repeal with protection for dry states and also a ban against the saloon.

There appeared to be a growing demand for some provision to protect dry states.

Many senators believe that a resolution repealing the Eighteenth amendment, but giving protection to dry states from neighboring wet commonwealths would secure the necessary two-thirds vote in the senate. A large proportion of them believe it would be impossible to adopt a straight repeal measure.

SHARE MADRID TAXI TRADE

MADRID (AP)—To cut down depression in the taxi trade, cab owners here have given each vehicle a letter denoting a week day which is a forced day off. Arrest and fine is the penalty for any driver caught hustling for fares on his day of non-competition.

LEAGUE EVENT TO BE HERE

DIRECTORS OF COUNTY INTERSCHOLASTIC GROUP GATHER

Directors of the annual Lubbock county Interscholastic league last night in the office of Miss Mae Murfee, county superintendent of schools, decided the 1932 league meet would be conducted March 24 and 25 at Texas Technological college.

Reeves Presides

E. P. Reeves, Acuff superintendent, and chairman of the board, presided. Instructors attending were: Sam Chatham, Miss Mary Steele, both of Idalou; Mrs. Lillian Butler and Miss Hazel Mansker, both of Slaton; K. J. Sides, Hurlwood; M. F. Stephens, Shallowater; H. D. Bentley and Miss Laura Hard, both of Hardy; R. C. McDearman, Carlisle; E. F. Dawkins, Foster; Graydon Ausmus, Center, and Miss Murfee.

Classifications of schools for the contests were decided. Schools with four or fewer teachers will compete in a rural division. Other classifications: Five-teacher schools, lower class B; six and more teachers, upper class B. Idalou and Slaton are class A schools in the league.

Arrangements for the choral contests were made. It was voted that the selection of songs and their rendition be left to the competing schools. Each grammar and each high school may enter a chorus, made up of boys, girls, or mixed.

Mr. Reeves is director-general of the meet. Other directors are: McDearman, declamation; Sides, arithmetic; Bentley, debate; Mrs. D. D. Webster of Monroe, spelling; Ausmus, extemporaneous speech; Stephens, music memory; Dawkins, athletics; Miss Steele, essay; Mrs. Taylor, tiny tots story telling; Miss Mansker, one-act play; Mrs. Butler, choral; Miss Murfee, rural schools; Mrs. Chester Hubbard, art; Miss Hard, picture memory; James Hodge of County Line, Three--R; and Mrs. John Lewis Harral, County Line, wild flower.

Red Exile on Historic Site

Leon Trotzky, exiled leader of the Russian Revolution, is shown with his wife as they visited the historic ruins in Pompeii during their recent passage through Italy, enroute to Denmark where Trotzky made an address at Copenhagen. The red leader, who, with the late Nicholai Lenin, was one of the mainstays of the original Soviet government, has been living in exile in Turkey since he was ousted from Russia by Joset Stalin.

JAIL BREAK IS FRUSTRATED

FIVE - TIMES ESCAPED CONVICT FAILS TO SAW CELL BARS

DALLAS, Dec. 6. (AP) — The attempt of a five-times escaped convict to break out of the Dallas city jail was frustrated late Monday when a bar of his cell was found to have been partially sawed.

Douglas Walsh, superintendent of the police indentification bureau, noticed the sawed bar when he went to the man's cell with a newspaper reporter who had asked to interview the prisoner.

Saw Not Found

A search of the man's cell and clothes failed to reveal the saw used and a police guard was placed at the cell.

The man, a 55-year old giant more than six feet tall and weighing more than 200 pounds, has escaped once from the Texas penitentiary, once from the Oklahoma penitentiary and three times from the Colorado penitentiary. He was arrested here Sunday night as a suspect in a holdup and was identified by fongerprints as a man with a long prison record. Detectives thus far have failed to connect him with the robbery here.

It was expected he would be returned to the Texas penitentiary at Huntsville to complete serving a 25 year sentence for a bank holdup at Harrisburg, Harris county, in 1920. He was serving a life sentence in the Colorado penitentiary at Canyon City when he escaped the last time and was serving a seven-year term in the Oklahoma penitentiary at McAlester when he escaped from that institution. His record dates back to 1911.

RITES FOR KING SCHEDULED TODAY

Funeral services for Joseph King, 97, a resident of Lubbock county 13 years, who died at 9 o'clock Monday night, were to be conducted at 2 o'clock this afternoon at Bynum-Stahler Funeral home by Elder John T. Smith of Broadway Church of Christ. Burial was to be in Lubbock cemetery.

Mr. King's death was attributed to pneumonia, from which he had suffered about five days. He died at the home of a son, John King, about two miles east of Lubbock.

Mr. King, who moved to this county from Mitchell county, is survived by five sons, Robert and John King of Lubbock; Pete King of Putnam; W. J. King, Amarillo, W. D. King, Tacoma, Wash., and three daughters, Mrs. S. J. Etheredge, Memphis, Texas, Mrs. E. C. Clemmer, Putnam, and Mrs. J. C. Price, Hereford.

Attached to a bill of complaint in a suit of $12,059 against former Mayor James J. Walker of New York for clothes allegedly purchased by his wife is a list of 180 items. The complaint alleges that the $12,059 is the balance unpaid of $20,059 purchases from 1928 to 1931. The dress firm suing alleges that of the 180 items listed, 13 were purchased at the Palm Beach, Fla., shop of the concern during the winter of 1931, when Mrs. Walker was visiting there.

REKAB THE MAGICIAN TO APPEAR IN LUBBOCK THIS AFTERNOON, TONIGHT

Children and adults alike will be attracted to Lubbock High school auditorium this afternoon and tonight to watch the tricks of Rekab the Magician, appearing under auspices of the City Parent-Teacher council.

The magician will be presented in matinee and night performances, the matinee at 4:15 and the evening show at 8 o'clock.

To Escape From Box

Rekab was to appear in a packing box escape exhibition this afternoon at 2 o'clock on the corner of Broadway and Avenue J. He was to be handcuffed and nailed in the box from which he was to escape, leaving the box as it was before his escape.

The box, made by employes of a local lumber company, has been on display for the past several days.

Miss Edelle, billed as "the girl with the radio mind," is Rekab's chief assistant. His haunted house illusion is one of the tricks in which Miss Edelle figures strongly.

Tickets for Rekab's performances are on sale at Bowen's Drug store, Bowen's Hilton pharmacy, John Halsey Drug store, and the Sherrod Bros. Hardware company store. Matinee prices will be 25 cents and 15 cents; night 35 and 20 cents.

Net receipts will be used in correcting physical defects of indigent children, the Parent-Teacher council has announced.

Rekab has a company of assistants and a truck load of special effects, scenery, and paraphernalia. His Chinese rice mystery is well known in the Orient but seldom seen by an American audience. The performance is climaxed by an illusion, substitution of a man for a woman.

Applications For Postal Job Open

Applications for the portmastership of Littlefield will be accepted by the United States civil service commission in Washington, D. C., until December 20, the commission announced Monday. The salary is $2,500.

To be eligible for the examination, an applicant must be a citizen of the United States, must reside within the delivery of the Littlefield postoffice, must so have resided for at least two years preceding the date for close of applications, must be in good physical condition, and within the prescribed age limits, between 25 and 65 years. Both men and women are admitted.

Applicants will not be required to assemble in an examination room for scholastic tests, but will be rated on their education and business training and experience. The commission has declared that nothing will be permitted to appear in the report which might even suggest the political affiliation of any candidate. The highest three qualified eligibles, will be certified to the postmaster general, who will select one for nomination by the president. Confirmation by the senate is the final action.

Haskell Cooper Is Freed Of Charges

An instructed verdict of acquittal was returned in the case of Haskell Cooper, charged with driving an automobile while intoxicated, before Clark M. Mullican in 99th district court Monday afternoon.

Burton S. Burks, assistant district attorney, recommended the instructed verdict to Judge Mullican after presenting the state's testimony. Cooper was driver of the machine which collided with a car in which Woody Tudor was fatally injured near Slaton. Slaying of Dr. S. H. Adams, pioneer Slaton doctor, by A. L. Tudor, father of Woody, was an aftermath of the accident. The younger Tudor died on an operating table in the doctor's office August 25. The elder Tudor, convicted of murder with malice, was sentenced to two years in the penitentiary last week.

An appeal has been made for $6,750 to restore the spire of Wren's 234-year-old Church, St. Dunstan-in-the-East.

Demonstrators Get Old Army Clothing

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6. (AP) — Surplus army clothing again is being distributed to the needy, with shoes and socks in greatest demand.

Ranging from doughboy overcoats to heavy woolen underwear, the clothing is made available to charitable organizations at a fraction of cost in accordance with a resolution adopted by the house military affairs committee last winter.

Police and war department officials, noting that army overcoats and shoes make up the dress of some of the demonstrators who have descended upon the capital, assumed that they were supplied by relief agencies.

Soviet Russia's greatest single industrial project under the five-year plan—the immense hydro-electric power station on River Dnieper, known as the "Russian Muscle Shoals"—was officially opened October 10.

FIFTEEN SEEK TO ADOPT "ONE DOLLAR BABY"

DALLAS, Dec. 6. (AP)—Johnny Miller, 4, the "one-dollar baby" who was abandoned in a cafe here Sunday night, today had found a temporary home and fifteen persons in Dallas were asking permission to adopt him.

Bob Jones, Dallas detective who took Johnny away from the man to whom he had been given, placed him in his own home and the boy was quickly transformed from a ragged, dirty and crying child to a spick and span youngster, dressed in clothing of one of the detective's own three children. A fire captain took him for a visit to a fire station Monday and firemen wanting to adopt him as their mascot presented him with toys.

Herbert Frost, in whose charge Jones found Johnny, said a man tried to "sell" the boy to him for one dollar last night and left the baby with him when he declined to "buy" Johnny. The boy was identified as the son of Mrs. Adele Jordan of Denison, who told Denison police she was unable to care for her three children and had left Johnny in the charge of a man who promised to take him to her brother in Fort Worth.

CONVINCING ARGUMENT

HOUSTON, Tex.—W. M. Huey, 42, of St. Josephs breadline, believes the Bible is a "good book" and he's willing to cut a man up to prove it. D. F. Longnecker, 65-year-old worker in the breadline, testified before Judge Scruggs that Huey had threatened him with a razor as a result of their argument about the Bible. "It'll be the Salvation Army for me from noon today on," said Huey when the Judge released him and told him to keep away from St. Joseph's.

ETCC OIL GROUP ASKED TO MEET

LONGVIEW, Dec. 6. (AP)—Captain J. F. Lucey of Dallas, chairman of the oil committee of the East Texas Chamber of Commerce, has issued a call for the committee to meet here Friday at 2 p. m. with directors of the regional chamber.

Royalty owners and all other persons interested in the oil development of East Texas were invited to attend the discussion of the new proration orders issued by the Texas railroad commission, which will place East Texas production on a per well, per acre and pressure basis.

E. O. Buck, petroleum engineer from the railroad commisison, will attend the meeting to answer questions regarding the new order, the schedules and allowables.

Hubert M. Harrison, general manager of the regional chamber, announced the meeting. The East Texas chamber yet has not announced its policy regarding the new proration order and the discussion Friday was expected to have material bearing on the determination of this policy.

Something Every Car-owner Should Know. . . . .

WHEN you start your car in the morning, your oil is in the crankcase. Your oil pump immediately starts pumping the oil.

But it takes several minutes, at the least, for even the quickest-circulating oils to reach all parts of the motor. During that time, your motor turns over 3,000 to 5,000 times!

What happens to the unprotected parts of your motor during that time? Engineers say that your motor undergoes, during that period, half of all the wear it suffers!

Only one oil can give you full protection during the starting period . . Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil! It is the only mineral oil that penetrates and combines with metal surfaces. Other oils drain back into the crankcase during idle periods, leaving parts dry.

A "Hidden Quart" of Germ Processed Oil stays up in your motor and never drains away!

The "Hidden Quart" is always on duty, protecting every part from the second you touch the starter. It protects you from costly starting wear and gives your car longer life.

Like most good oils, Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil is thoroughly dewaxed and circulates freely at subzero.
