RESULTS OF TREE PLANTING CAMPAIGN GRATIFYING

Lamesa and Dawson County's campaign for more trees, sponsored by the civic department of the Lamesa Chamber of Commerce is going forward with most gratifying results, according to information from J. D. Dyer, Chairman of the central committee, and according to our observations of the number of trees being carried from our local nurseries for planting. S. L. Forrest, V. B. Wilson and Mrs. J. R. Weaver each report very heavy sales of Chinese Elms and other shade trees and miscellaneous nursery stock, and several truck loads have been delivered by other nearby nurserymen.

A wonderful lot of work is being done on the highways out of Lamesa, with the Stanton Highway probably being in the lead at this writing. Lamesaites are invited to drive out on this road and see what is being done. While hundreds of trees are being set out inside the city limits, it is feared that Lamesa is not quite keeping pace with the rural communities. Among the rural schools that have covered their grounds with trees are: Ballard, Bartlett, Fivemile, Mt. Olive, Sunset, Lakeview at Sparenberg, Mungerville, Wilson, Hancock, Patricia, Klondike, Eason, Fairview, and others. Lamesa Public Schools are also doing considerable planting.

Although the season for planting shade trees is shortening, there will still be thousands put out in Dawson county. There could not be a finer time. The moisture is ample, prices are right, everybody has the spirit, and our spacious plains furnish unlimited places to put them. Let's keep it up.

Mrs. Philip Yonge, Mrs. R. R. Townsend, J. E. Barron, G. M. Roberts and J. D. Dyer constitute the central campaign committee.

City Forester of Fort Worth Delivers Lecture Here

In keeping with previous announcements Mr. R. C. Morrison, City Forester for the city of Ft. Worth gave an illustrated lecture at the Palace Theatre at 10:00 A. M. Wednesday of this week. His subject was "Making the Most of Our Environments" and, despite the rainy weather and the epidemic of flu a large crowd was present to hear him and thoroughly enjoyed the message he brought. It was both entertaining and educational. Four cardinal points he emphasized as essential for a community to improve to the fullest its environments were cleanliness, a live civic organization, a definite and practical plan to build by and to, and cooperation in the development of the regions as a whole. After his morning lecture he attended the Lions Club luncheon and addressed that body. He also visited Lamesa's park and at the Forrest home while here. Mr. Morrison came to Lamesa at the invitation of the Lamesa Chamber of Commerce and under the auspices of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce and the Fort Worth Chamber of Commerce. He is making a tour of West Texas in the interest of the Five Year Beautification program being sponsored by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce and is the first of a number of such men they plan to supply for lectures to this region. He went from here to Post.

AN EDITORIAL

The following articles concerning Judge Garland's Cotton Acreage Reduction Plan were published in the Abilene Reporter-News and the Lubbock Avalanche Journal. It is hard for the Courier to understand why Abilene is more anxious to cooperate in this matter than the nearby city of Lubbock. However, it doesn't require any unusual amount of intelligence for the average citizen to observe that there is considerable difference in the reports below. The report carried in the Abilene Paper is more complete and far less misleading than the one published in the Lubbock paper. It appears that the Lubbock paper would have the people believe that Judge Garland is a hired attorney, devoting his time to this important matter purely for financial reasons, when as a matter of fact, nothing could be further from the truth. As far as the Courier is able to learn, financial gain, or individual publicity did not enter into the situation at all as far as Judge Garland was concerned.

Furthermore, it is alleged that certain individuals or organizations in Lubbock are sponsoring a movement for the purpose of raising five cent cotton profitably. Basing their claims on the fact that due to favorable farming conditions in that section, it makes it possible to raise cotton for a profit at this price. To a large number of citizens in Dawson county this sounds like a fairy story. Does any farmer in Dawson County believe that he can make a profit raising cotton to sell at five cents a pound?

Lubbock the Courier feels that the cotton farmers of the South are deeply indebted to you for the wonderful cooperation you have shown in this matter. We Thank You!

Garland Cotton Acreage Reduction Plan Endorsed by Dawson Growers

(Special to Reporter-News)

LAMESA, Feb. 27—As a test of the cotton acreage reduction plan offered by Judge J. E. Garland through the Lamesa Chamber of Commerce to the cotton co-ops, bankers, and the federal farm board, Judge Garland spoke to cotton growers of Dawson County in the district court room here this afternoon. After the plan was explained in detail the body voted unanimously in favor of it.

"Briefly," Judge Garland explained, "the plan is to let the farm board secure option on all holdover cotton which is estimated at seven million bales and contract same to cotton growers of the south at a price slightly above present levels for fall delivery. On the agreement they would cultivate three acres for each bale so contracted and plant nothing at all thereon."

Judge Garland further explained that this plan would keep down over production of any crops planted in 1932 and that it would retire about twenty one million acres of cotton land this year, and this would mean a sharp advance in the price and at the same time would insure all growers so contracting one third of a bale per acre on the lands cultivated vacant.

Sharp criticism was voiced by Judge Garland of the leading daily papers of the country in that they had not seen fit to fight the farmers' cause in this plan or any other. He further charged that the leading dailies of the country have failed to publish his plan in detail.

All objections to the plan that had been offered by Carl Williams, cotton member of the federal farm board, were answered by Garland with the assertion, "The Federal Farm Board is looked on by our farmers as the one big business institution of the nation that can if it would, give relief. This plan is as good, and we think better, than the 'plop up every third row of cotton' suggested last year by the farm board, but because this plan was not taken to the board seems desirous to sponsor my plan which is admittedly workable."

A full file of correspondence on this topic between the local chamber and Carl Williams was discussed at the meeting.

Nelson Baby Meets With Fatal Accident

Ethlyn Nelson, nineteen month old baby of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Nelson was drowned in a tub of water last Friday afternoon about 1:30 o'clock. Mrs. Nelson was working in the yard among her flowers, and the baby was with her, disappearing for perhaps only ten minutes. The mother turned from her work and found the baby near her head submerged in the water. First aid was given until doctors arrived. Every effort was put forth to restore life but no indication of heart action was ever discernable.

Funeral services were conducted at the Presbyterian Church Saturday afternoon at three o'clock by Rev. R. L. Surface. "The Lord is my Shepherd, I shall not Want" and continuing with the reading of the Twenty Third Psalm was used as a Scripture lesson. A pure innocent babe is a rose bud from God's garden transplanted on earth to teach us a lesson in faith, explicit love, and happiness, this babes mission having been fulfilled God called her back home before her life was disturbed by sin and sorrow. Rev. Surface continued with "and a little child shall lead them."

Mrs. Carl Rountree sang, "Some Time We'll Understand." Other musical numbers were rendered by a special choir lead by Mrs. A. G. Barnard.

The chancel rail of the church altar was banked with floral sprays, bespeaking of long and lasting friendships of the Kelly and Nelson families.

Little Ethlyn was the youngest granddaughter of W. R. Kelly, pioneer resident of Lamesa.

TO THE VOTERS OF PRECINCT THREE, DAWSON COUNTY.

In asking for your vote and support for the office of commissioner I will say that I have been a resident of the county for seven years and feel that I am qualified and can handle the affairs of our precinct in a manner that will meet with your approval.

Any way I will endeavor to handle same in a very economical way which we all know from our individual experience it is necessary that this be done during these depression times of course I do not think we could cut our expenditures below the necessary amount to take care of those things that we must have. But leave off all those that can be left off and make a special effort to get our taxes down to where they can be paid.

There surely is some way by which this can be done. We all know our own expenses have been cut. Why not Taxes? Any way I would like to have your support and influence and if elected this will be my aim, an economical administration.

S. J. JORDAN, Candidate for Commissioner Precinct Three.

TO THE CITIZENS OF THE CITY OF LAMESA:

Two years ago I was selected by the voters of this city as one of their Commissioners and I feel that it would not be out of place to bring to them an account of my stewardship, and if they approve my services and see proper to retain me for another two years they may expect the same service. This office being purely a business matter for the people I shall not indulge in the praise or ridicule of any person. In the year of 1928 and 1929, being the period just ahead of the present term, there was collected in taxes for all purposes $75,692.33. After having distributed this sum to various funds there was still an indebtedness of the general revenue fund (mostly to local people) of approximately $10,000.00, showing thereby that about $86,000.00 had been spent the preceding two years.

During the two years of my incumbency the total tax collections have been $57,429.52. We used $10,000.00 to pay off the overdrafts of the previous two years, and we have been able to operate all departments of the city government to date with the remaining $47,429.52 and the city on its operating expenses had paid up to date no overdrafts. It will be seen that during my service the expenses for the two years have been reduced $10,000.00. It is true that we have failed to use funds for some of the purposes heretofore, but in this I have been conscientious, among the expenses we have failed to make is $900.00 that the city spent in 1929 in an effort to prosecute the workmen who were erecting a church. I have not elected to have my photograph made at the cost of the city, nor have I seen fit to operate my automobile at the cost of the city. During my administration no collections have been made from our citizens who desired to improve our town by building or repairing. Of course this reduces the revenue to some extent, but I do not believe in exacting a charge from those who are building up our city and as long as I serve I will oppose a charge by the city for a permit to improve it and to its tax values.

Owing to the general depression and the fact that some of our best citizens have had so much taxes to pay in the past years, they have not had the money to pay all their taxes during the last two years. I believe it would be cruel to put extra burden on them in the way of interest and penalties, especially so when we are not over drawn and are meeting the city's expenses as they accrue. So I favor letting them pay these delinquent taxes as they can do so without extra hardship or pressure and I will labor to hold expenses down so that the tax burden will be made as light as can reasonably be done. Our citizens will compare with those anywhere in meeting their obligations when not hindered by circumstances beyond their control. With this in mind I believe it would render an extra hardship on one property tax payer to take off the reasonable charge for sewer service. If this charge was shifted from the users of the sewer to the tax payer in general it would probably cost them more than at present. Some perhaps have overlooked the fact that under the present system only those using the sewer are charged, a considerable number of the people of temporary residence who pay no other taxes. If they were allowed free service the tax payers would have to make up for it. I believe that occupied buildings should pay this service, as it is hard any way for owners to carry vacant buildings and if the cost of the sewer service was put on the tax payers in general the owners of vacant buildings would have their proportionate part of the sewer charge to pay when they were getting no returns on their property. In this I may be mistaken and I am always open minded to hear the other side of the question.

If my services have been satisfactory and it is your will that I continue to serve you I pledge myself to do so to the best of my ability and any consideration shown me in the present election will be very gratefully received.

Respectfully,
J. R. WILLIAMS,
Candidate for Commissioner City of Lamesa.

Lesson for March 6

JESUS WASHES HIS DISCIPLES' FEET

LESSON TEXT—John 13:1-17. GOLDEN TEXT—Even as the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Jesus Washes the Disciples' Feet. JUNIOR TOPIC—Jesus Performs a Humble Task.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Jesus Dignifies Lowly Service. YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Spirit of Christianity.

I. Christ's Amazing Love for His Own (vv. 1-3).

Jesus was fully conscious of what was immediately before him. He knew that the cross with all its shame and anguish was upon him. He knew that his disciples would shamefully forsake him in a few hours. He knew that one of that number would be the instrument in the hands of the Devil in his betrayal. He was fully conscious of his deity. He knew that all things were in his hands. Despite all this, he displayed great patience and manifested untiring love. He did not withdraw his love from them because of their weakness and the shameful failure which he knew would soon be made manifest. He not only loved them to the end of his earthly ministry, but loved them unto the "uttermost." "Loved to the uttermost" means that he bestowed upon them his love even to the extent of taking their place in death.

II. Christ Washing the Disciples' Feet (vv. 4-11).

This act was symbolic of his amazing love for his disciples. Jesus did not regard his hands too holy to do this menial service.

1. Steps in this service (vv. 4-6).
  - a. He rises from supper.
  - b. Laid aside his garments.
  - c. Took a towel and girded himself.
  - d. Poured water into a basin.
  - e. Washed his disciples' feet.
  - f. Wiped them with the towel wherewith he was girded.

These steps symbolize Christ's entire work of redemption. His rising from supper represents his rising from his place of enjoyment in the heavenly glory. His laying aside his garments symbolized his putting aside his vestiture of majesty (Phil. 2:7, 8). His girding himself symbolized his taking the form of a servant (Phil. 2:7). The water in the basin—his cleansing blood. His washing of the disciples' feet—his actual cleansing of them through his Word (John 15:3; Eph. 5:26). His taking his garments again—his returning to his place and position of glory.

2. Peter's impetuosity and ignorance (vv. 6-9). When he realized what the Lord was doing, he refused to have his feet washed. When he realized the peril of refusal, he desired to be fully washed. He went from one extreme to another.

3. The significance of this service to those who participate in it (vv. 8-11).

- a. It is a spiritual cleansing (v. 8). Fellowship with Jesus is only possible as we are continuously cleansed from our sins. The cleansing here is not the washing of regeneration, but that of sanctification. Even those who are regenerated need the continual cleansing of Christ's blood in order to have fellowship with him. He that is regenerated; that is, washed in the blood of Christ (symbolized by water baptism), does not need a repetition of the act, but he needs the cleansing of sanctification (symbolized by the washing of the feet).
- b. A badge of brotherly affection (v. 14). This act showed his abandonment to the service of his disciples. This is a lesson that is much needed today. True love is tested by the service it renders.
- c. A proof of humility (v. 15). This was a lesson much needed by the disciples, and much needed by us all today. They had just been disputing as to who should be the greatest in the kingdom. Thus their selfish ambition was expressing itself. On every hand we see expressions of pride, vanity, and even arrogance, in those who are professed followers of the lowly Jesus.
- d. Equalization (v. 16). As the disciples were thus served by Jesus Christ, their vain ambitions were rebuked. To enter into this service in the Spirit of Christ is to encounter a leveling of humanity.

III. An Example for Us (vv. 14-16). Christ the Lord of all became the servant of all, and his disciples are under solemn obligation to follow him in their service to others. This obligation rests upon his lordship (v. 14).

GEMS OF THOUGHT

Full redemption removes remorse. Christ can change sadness to gladness.

Sin is like a river which begins in a quiet spring and ends in a stormy sea.

Jesus on earth—his path, his spirit, his ways—is the measure of our walk and obedience.

BARRON SAVES FARMERS AND POULTRYMEN THOUSANDS OF DOLLARS ON CHICK STARTING MASH AND LAYING MASH

EUREKA BRAND CHICK STARTER AND LAYING MASH, is an honest feed, honestly built and honestly priced, every protein requirement, every mineral requirement and every vitamin requirement has been honestly met according to the most advanced knowledge of poultry nutrition. Only the best of clean pure wholesome ingredients go into EUREKA feeds, and they are mixed fresh every week.

Q. WHY are animal proteins preferred to vegetable proteins, such as linseed, soy bean and cottonseed meal, in the building of poultry feeds?

A. This is what Mr. W. H. Brokaw, director of Nebraska Agricultural College says: Vegetable proteins do not contain or break up into the necessary AMINO ACIDS required for digesting and utilizing feeds. Some are quite laxative in effect and some are said to affect egg quality.

Q. WHAT ANIMAL Proteins are recommended?

A. Again Mr. Brokaw answers: MEAT & BONE MEAL and DRIED OR FRESH SKIM MILK or BUTTER MILK.

Q. WHY is it necessary to use yellow corn in poultry feeds, instead of white corn or maize?

A. YELLOW CORN must be used to furnish a VITAMIN A factor. White corn does not contain VITAMIN A and Maize very little if any. VITAMIN A is necessary for GROWTH & HEALTH.

Q. WHY is ALFALFA MEAL recommended for poultry feeds?

A. ALFALFA supplies VITAMIN A factor, essential minerals and acts as a laxative and is a substitute for greed feed.

Q. WHY is it best to use COD-LIVER OIL in chick starter feeds?

A. The COD-LIVER OIL is the richest known source of Vitamin D. The feeding of Cod-Liver Oil prevents leg weakness, commonly called rickets. Promotes Growth and Health. Vitamin D deficiency prevents the utilization of essential minerals even if they are present in abundance.

Q. What rate of growth can be expected from EUREKA brand CHICK STARTER, as compared with the best ready mixed commercial feeds?

A. Equal to the very best commercial chick starter, not to mention the material reduction in the cost of raising chickens.

Q. WHAT RATE OF EGG PRODUCTION can be expected from EUREKA brand LAYING MASH, as compared with the best ready mixed commercial laying Mash?

A. EQUAL to any, and will exceed most ready mixed commercial laying mashes, for the simple reason, that the supplementary proteins are built up with the correct amount of DRIED MILK POWDER and MEAT & BONE MEAL, and is a complete ration when fed to your flock on the basis of 50 percent Mash and 50 percent home grown grain.

Q. WHY was it VITALLY necessary for BARRON to build a Poultry Feed?

A. BECAUSE HE IS VITALLY interested in the poultry industry, having invested thousands of dollars in the hatchery business, and realized that the FARMER must make money out of his poultry, if he is to make a success of his hatchery business, therefore it was vitally necessary for some one with a thorough knowledge of poultry nutrition to build a good honest poultry feed, and sell it at a price that the Farmer and Poultryman could still make a profit out of his Friers and Eggs.

Q. WHY WAS IT NECESSARY FOR BARRON to build the very best Poultry Feeds that it was possible to build?

A. BECAUSE of his HATCHERY INTEREST, he could not afford to sell you chicks, or hatch your chicks at his hatchery and then sell you a CHICK STARTER feed that would not successfully grow chicks as rapidly as any chick starter feed on the market or a Laying MASH that would not give you the biggest egg production.

Q. IS NOW A GOOD TIME TO GET INTO THE POULTRY BUSINESS?

A. YES. The best opportunity you will ever have, you can now produce a good flock of laying pullets for about half what you could two years ago, and a flock of quality birds will make you a profit every year, regardless of conditions, in fact poultry was the only farm product that actually made a profit the past year.

When general conditions begin to improve and the laboring man gets back to work, there will not be enough hens in the country to supply the demand for eggs, and the man who looks ahead and prepares to take advantage of this opportunity, will reap a rich reward. Keep your flock up to standard.

HATCHING FEES, per one hundred eggs .....	$2.00
CHICKS, per hundred .....	$7.00, $7.50, and $8.00
EUREKA BRAND LAYING MASH, per one hundred pounds .....	$1.65
EUREKA BRAND CHICK STARTER with Cod-Liver Oil, per hundred lbs. ....	$2.25

Vocational Training

By Pearl P. Gibson
Health, the capacity to acquire knowledge, opportunity for education and work are the greatest gifts life has to offer to humanity.

The youngster, reared in atmosphere of eager striving for intellectual development holds a decided advantage over the one who matures in the home of smug learning. It is character building, satisfaction.

Education is more than book and character strengthening. Copying as it must, years of time, the student learns the value of persistent effort. Learns to watch for and appreciate the milestones of his own progress. Learns to stick" each year until he has reached the goal set for him even against his own inclinations very often. His advancement must be paid for with his own effort, others can only offer him the opportunity.

Life is a heckler. At some place along the way" it will turn "thumbs down" and then it is up to the individual to meet the crisis. At such times—position, front shame, show or any other flimsy barrier will not suffice. The vision must be broad enough so that one may see beyond present affluence or calamity and truly estimate values. Reputation is too often but the passing whim of his worst enemy or best friend, but there is no power, save that supreme power of death itself that can keep you from starting tomorrow to rebuild what today has destroyed. Courage and character count.

The lowliest act of trained ability is endowed with dignity. A trained mind strengthens worthwhile attributes, ignorance but weakens them and places the weakling at the mercy of whatever leader that comes along.

The path of life lies through shade and sunshine. It is an existence of give and take, of prosperity and depression. Today he is down, tomorrow up. Opposition must be overcome in every step of progress. Adult education is coming to be as important as youth's impulsiveness.

We can not learn for others but we can create an atmosphere of such eager endeavor that every one is enticed to do his best. We can make our county outstanding in intellectual development and trained ability. These attributes are not exclusive to city or town, but are limited only by the mental horizon of the individual.

Why should not Lamesa have a school for vocational training, where those who are tied by home duties may spend what spare time they have in acquiring special training in lines they like, and where students who finish high school may have an opportunity to find their work and get a start before entering the diverting life of college? A preparatory school from which all colleges would be glad to receive those who are graded and classified, ready to fit into their places in college. Such a school would in-
