THAT SKYROCKET BAND

The Wellington High School band performs its marching routine Tuesday, October 25 at UIL marching contests in Canyon. The band received a II rating from judges. Comments included the following: "...a fine marching group...some very precise and sharp marching...very impressive looking band."

Wellington PTO Halloween Carnival Sat.

Ghosts and goblins, mostly in small sizes, will roam the halls of Elementary School and mingle with the crowds attending the annual Parent-Teacher Organization Halloween Carnival Saturday night, Oct. 29.

Entertainment will begin at 6:30 p.m. and continue for several hours.

The PTO sponsors the carnival each year as a fund raising event, and all proceeds will go to pay for some improvement project at Elementary School. The project will be selected later in the year and carried out at a time that it works in with the new elementary school construction.

There will be all kinds of home-made sandwiches, brownies, ice cream, and other goodies will be sold in the cafeteria, said Mrs. Don Hendrix, one of those working with the carnival.

Games, a spook house, a fishing pond, cake walk and other Halloween entertainment will be on tap.

Overall chairman is Mrs.

Kenny Brown, PTO president with Mrs. George Barton as carnival chairman and Mrs. Charles Floyd, ticket chairman.

Each room mother is responsible for the event in her room.

Other mothers and fathers have volunteered to work in the rooms with the fun events, or in the cafeteria.

Near the end of the evening, a microwave oven will be given away.

At some point, the boy and girl with the best costumes will be picked and each will receive a prize.

There will be other surprise events, the chairman said.

The events for which each class will be responsible, along with the room mother, include: Kindergarten, Mrs. Joe Tarver teacher, morning group, washer toss, Mrs. Zeldon Jenkins room mother; afternoon group, fishing pond, Mrs. Darrell Colson.

First grade: Mrs. Bill Estes room, hat off the pumpkin, Mrs. Elmer Keller room mother; Mrs. Jack Campbell's room, the spook house, Mrs. Elvis Sain room mother;

Second grade: Mrs. Walter Camp's room, basket toss, Mrs. Raymond Fike room mother; Miss Lennie Morgan's room, golf, Mrs. Benson Long, room mother;

Third grade: Mrs. Gus Barton's room, cake walk, Mrs. R.L. Mabery, room mother; Mrs. Dan Henard's room, dart game, Mrs. Ronny Hill, room mother;

Fourth grade: Mrs. R.B. Tucker's room, bean bag,

Mrs. Eugene Vernon room mother; Mrs. Claude Savage room, Tic-Tac-Toe, Mrs. Charles Floyd room mother.

Fifth grade: Mrs. Lynn Carter's room, table games and hot dogs, Mrs. Eddie Davis, room mother; Mrs. J.I. Morgan's room, pumpkin turn, Mrs. Bill Anders room mother.

The public is urged to attend and support this event, which is the major Elementary School affair of the year.

Skyrockets Meet Memphis Friday In Crucial Game

The District 2-A Championship--That's what's happening Friday night.

The Wellington-Memphis confrontation is not the last game of the season, but for both teams it is the crucial game. This year, it will be played at Cyclone field, and Memphis hopes to turn this to an advantage.

The Cyclone is the defending 2-A champion, and has been picked by both the Texas Football Magazine and Top of Texas Football to win again this time.

This season's statistics give Wellington an edge. The Skyrockets will go into the game with only one loss, to Class AA Childress. This was a game they could easily have won had luck been a little different.

Memphis has lost two games, to Crowell and Lubbock Roosevelt High. However, they defeated Childress.

"It's going to be a real even game and the team that wants to win most and makes the least mistakes is going to be the district champion," predicts Head Coach James Williams.

Looking back on the Rockets 7-1 record so far this year, Coach Williams reminds that "those don't mean anything till Friday night."

Memphis has more returning lettermen than any team in District 2-A.

"Everybody knows about their all-state running back Kirk Fields, the outstanding player last year when he gained 1,500 yards rushing and scored 22 touchdowns. They also have an outstanding linebacker in All-District Kenny Martin, a senior," said the Wellington coach.

Ricky Guy, a 6-5 senior, makes an excellent target for the quarterback and has the ability to hold on to the ball.

Fullback Rodney Hall, also a senior, was all-district in 1976 and is highly regarded for both his running and blocking abilities.

Wellington coaches are concerned about a bruised left knee and leg which Richard Garcia received in practice Monday. He was working out Tuesday, but he was not at full speed, and coaches are hoping

Quail Teams Open Season on Nov. 1 on Mobeetie Court

With lots of determination and much good humor, Quail High School basketball teams are practicing for their season that opens against Mobeetie Tuesday, Nov. 1.

The second teams Quail meets are the Arnett Indians, both boys and girls, on Thursday, Nov. 3. The Mobeetie game will start at 6:30 p.m., the Arnett game at 7:00. Because they do not yet have a new gymnasium, the Quails and Bobwhites will play all games of their 1977-78 schedule on their opponents courts, Coach Tommy Thornhill said.

This year's teams have many distinctions.

They are practicing on an outdoor court, which Quail teams have not done on a regular basis since the mid-1930s.

There is a difference. This basketball court is on a concrete slab. The others were dirt courts.

One thing is unchanged, however. Both teams have their old uniforms, saved from the tornado that destroyed their gymnasium on the last day of classwork.

"People picked up the uniforms and took care of them for us," the coach said.

Every student in high school is involved in basketball, Thornhill pointed out.

The Bobwhites have 12 players--all but two high school girls. Those two act as manager and statistician. They are Pam Needham and Lessie Allen.

The Quails have 14 players--and the three boys who do not go out on the court alternate at manager-statistician duties. This trio includes Donnie Lewis, Bill Kennedy and Charles Arthur.

Seven of the 12 Bobwhites are letter players. Team members are, seniors: Crissie Torrez, Melissa Guthrie, Karen Caldwell and Barbara Needham, who comes from Corpus Christi and did not play basketball last year.

Juniors are LeAnn Marcum and Donna Langley; sopho-

VFW Has Lite-A-Bike Project on Saturday

Glynn Moore Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, will hold a

Lite-A-Bike campaign Saturday October 29, and in which they are urging that all youngsters who do not have their bicycles marked with reflector tape to bring them in.

This will be held on the parking lot by the Donut Shop, at 10th Street and West Avenue, from 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m., according to Tony Stephens, post commander.

There is no charge.

"We especially urge boys and girls to bring their bicycles in before Halloween," Mr. Stephens said.

"Although this is primarily a youth project, everyone who rides a bicycle is welcome to come by and have reflector tape put on."

Members of the VFW and Auxiliary will be at the parking lot to carry out the project.

Man Wanted For Murder Arrested Here

A south Texas man was arrested Wednesday, Oct. 19, at the home of relatives in Wellington on a murder warrant from San Antonio.

Chief Deputy Richard Keller identified the man as Frank M. Guzman, about 33.

He was arraigned that same day before Mrs. Beatrice McKinney, justice of the peace, and his bond was set at

Norwood To Crown Queen

Samnorwood will crown its carnival queen Saturday October 29, to end an evening of fun and festivity, plus a turkey dinner.

The annual Samnorwood PTA Halloween Carnival will start with the dinner in the school cafeteria, served from 5:30 to 8:30 p.m.

The junior and senior classes will be in charge of a series of games, scattered through classrooms in the building or on the campus. There will be a cake walk, dart throw, spook house, football throw, basketball throw, fishing pond, milk can throw, and table games. The sponge throw will replace the dunking board of other years.

For pre-schoolers and elementary grade children there is an added entertainment--a costume contest in the gymnasium at 8:30 p.m.

Prizes will be awarded in the gym at 8:45 and at 9:00 the coronation ceremony begins. This also is in the gym.

Each class or room has nominated a prince and princess, from whom the carnival queen and her escort will be chosen. Junior High and elementary grades also selected dukes and duchesses.

These include:

Seniors: Princess Tonya Kincannon and Prince Johnny Oldham.

Juniors: Princess LaRinda Braun and Prince Jody Knoll.

Sophomores: Princess Ravena Graves and Prince David Tarver.

Freshmen: Princess Sally Kincannon and Prince J.D. Ray.

Eighth grade: Princess Jackie Henry, Prince Steve Knoll, Duchess Rose Barker and Duke Dale Tarver.

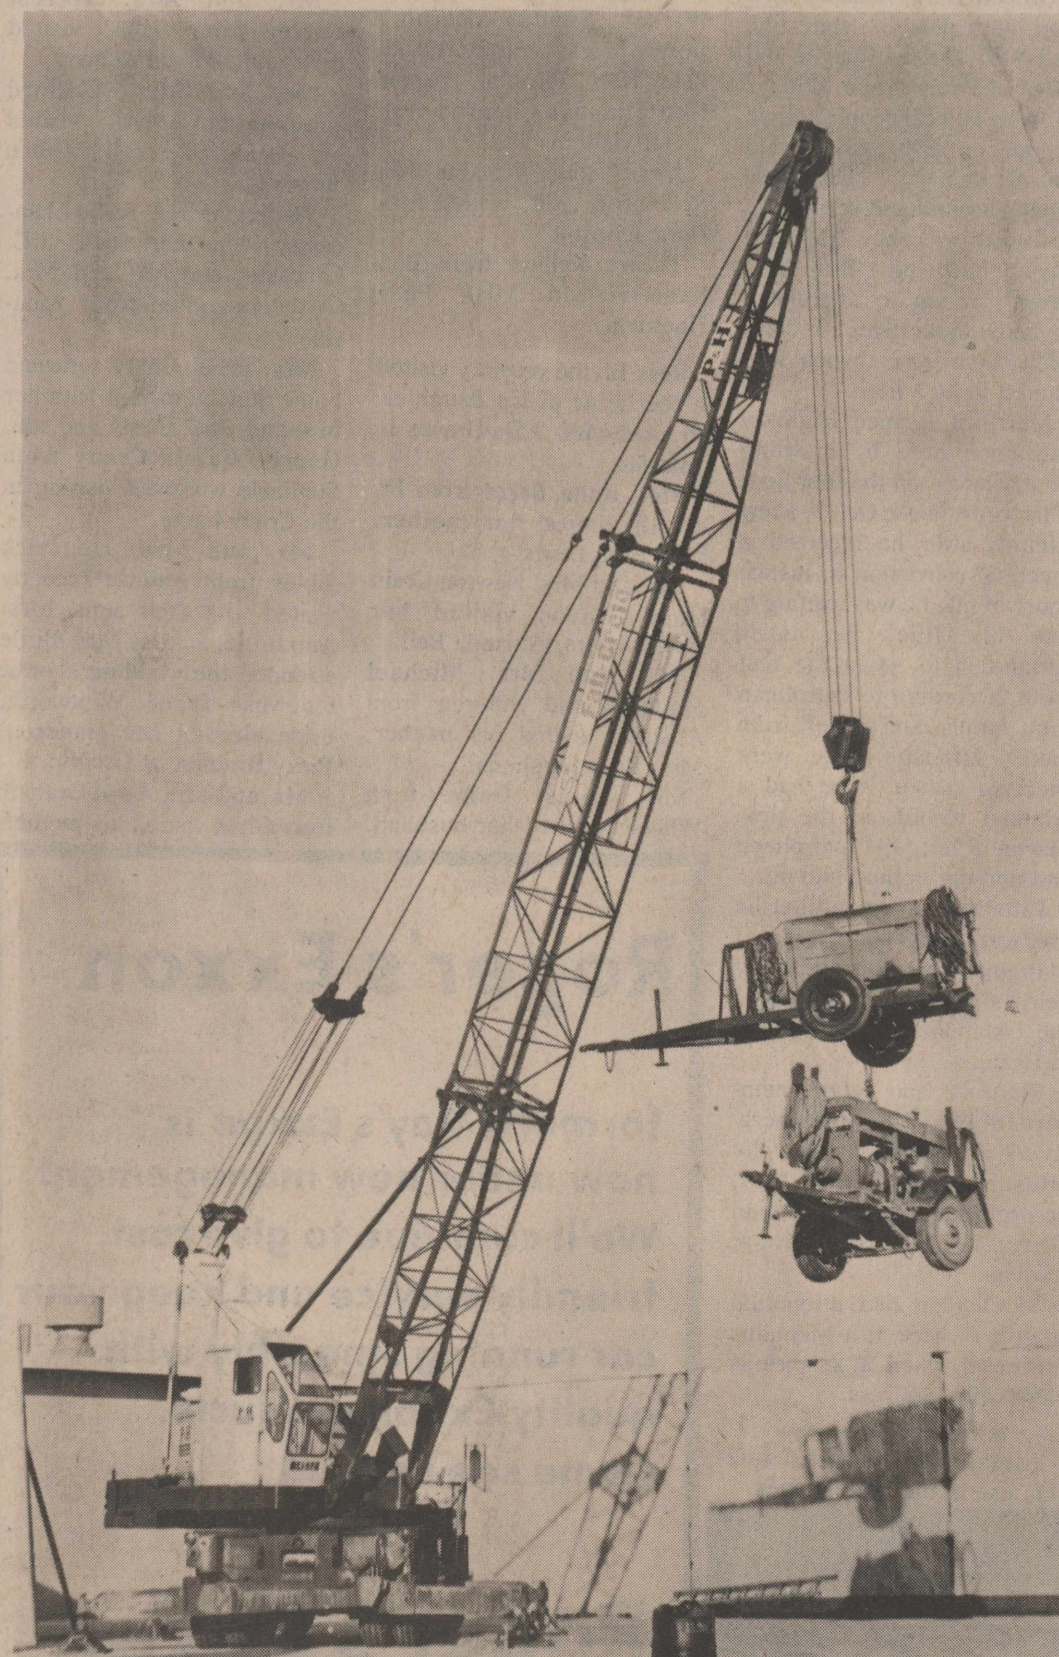

Seventh grade: Princess Crystal Breeding, Prince Scott Peoples, Duchess Beth Green and Duke Tony Carter.

Mark Barnes' room: Princess Sandy Henard, Prince Scot Martindale, Duchess Tanya McCulley and Duke Carlos Stinson.

Mrs. Bonita Myers' room: Princess Leslie Brandvik, Prince Jim Henry, Duchess Kim Morris and Duke Craig Brown.

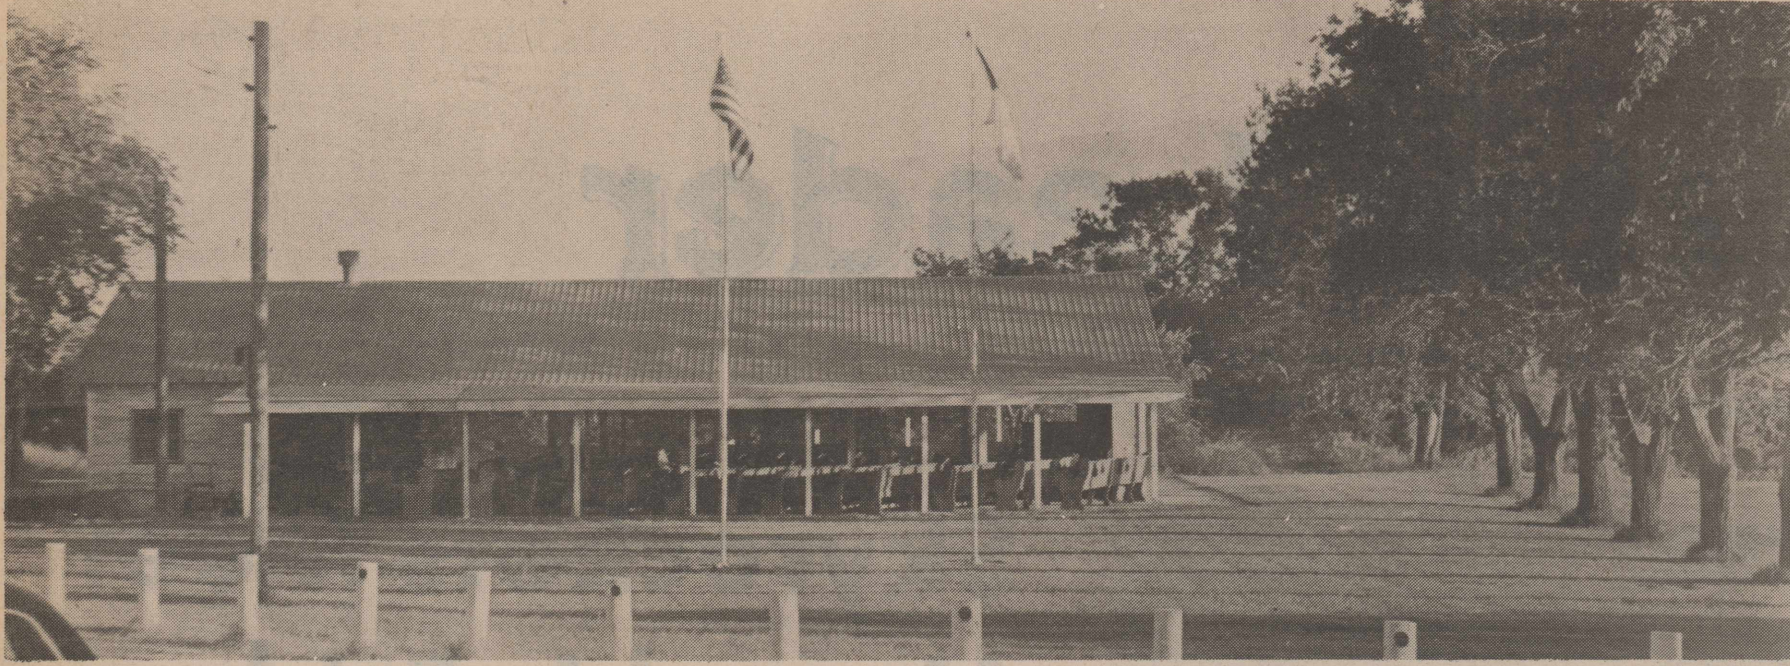

Mrs. Donna Messer's room: Princess Jo Ann Henry, Prince Shane Wischkaemper, Duchess Karla Morris and Duke Paul Bell.

Tickets for the turkey dinner are $3.00 for adults and $2.00 for students. All proceeds from the carnival are used by the Parent-Teacher Association for school improvement projects, and this is their principal money-making event.

SKY-HIGH PARKING

Each evening as work ends at Wellington Elementary School construction site, the Fab-Crete Construction Company crane picks up these two welding machines and raises them for the night. Construction Supt. George Smutt told Supt. E.W. Clement the company began doing this in other towns to prevent vandalism. He added that there has been no attempted vandalism here. Shadows at lower right are on the inside of the east wall.

REMODELING PLANNED

Panfork Encampment Plans Will Be Discussed Sunday

Sunday, Oct. 30, will be the time of three special events for the congregation of First Baptist Church.

On the statewide level, "Top O' the Morning" is the theme of Sunday School High Attendance Day.

The goal for the Wellington church is 387, said the Rev. Mickey Fugitt, pastor.

During the worship service, First Baptist will be among the 74 churches and missions of the Top of Texas Area to take a special offering to go toward the salary of a full time camp manager to be employed at Panfork Encampment north of Wellington.

At the same service, the church will receive a special presentation for the sanctuary. The nature of this will not be revealed beforehand, said the pastor.

At a recent meeting, the board of directors of Panfork Encampment voted to employ "Considering we don't have a gym and are practicing on concrete, I'm real pleased with their attitude and the way they are approaching it," said Coach Thornhill.

"I have never coached girls before and their intensity of work has been real surprising to me. I just think with the type of situation, we could have a lot of reason to think up excuses. But we're not going on excuses. We are going to do the best we can, and if we do the best we can the winning will take care of itself," said the veteran of 17 coaching seasons.

No Trace Yet of Jail Escapees

Law enforcement officers have no leads on the whereabouts of two prisoners who crawled through a vent 9 x 14 inches--the size of a cinder block--to escape from county jail Thursday, Oct. 20, Sheriff John Rainey said Monday.

He identified the two as Paul Martinez, about 23, who was returned from Canyon Tuesday, Oct. 18, after escaping from highway patrolmen here on Oct. 5, and William McClendon, 26, who was being held for Hall County.

McClendon was under nine $1,000 bonds from Hall, Childress and Hardeman Counties which resulted from an incident earlier this month, Sheriff Rainey said.

After getting out, the two apparently took a 1972 Oldsmobile belonging to Kendrick Oldsmobile Co., less than a block from the jail. The car was found abandoned in Quannah Friday, about a block from where a 1964 car was stolen. Sheriff Rainey said the car taken here had enough gas to travel approximately 60 or 70 miles. He was told the keys had been left in the ignition by a prospective customer. The car is at Quannah to be checked for fingerprints.

FBI investigators at Tyler told Sheriff Rainey Friday they believed the description of two men who robbed an East Texas bank that day matched that of the men wanted here.

The two were in the jail run-around, where the vent was located, Deputy Richard Keller said shortly after their escape was discovered. It led into a hot water heater closet which had a door to the outside, he said.

Sheriff Rainey set the time of their escape at 8:30 p.m. As he returned to the jail after being away, he was notified the men were gone by Ivory Darton, the only other prisoner being held.

In addition to all local law enforcement officers and the highway patrol, officers from most surrounding counties worked here through the night.

Included were the sheriff and police chief from Memphis; highway patrolmen from Childress, the Wheeler county sheriff and a deputy, a Shamrock policeman and constable; and Special Deputy Kenneth Martindale of Samnorwood, as well as the Greer county sheriff and an Oklahoma State trooper.

Officers from Hollis set up a road block near the state line on US 62. Texas Ranger Bill Baten of Pampa came Friday. "A lot of local people helped us out on their CBs" said Sheriff Rainey. "They were driving around and notifying us of anything they thought might help us. But they weren't trying to apprehend anybody themselves. I don't think there was anyone who wanted to be a hero."

Martinez escaped Highway Patrolmen here by crawling out a window, on the first floor of the court house Oct. 5, a few minutes after he received a speeding conviction in justice court. While he was waiting to pay his fine, he asked permission to go to the rest room, according to Patrolman John James, and he left from there. Although they were checking to see if he had a criminal record, at the time Martinez left, the patrolmen had nothing to hold him on.

Later they were notified he was wanted for jail escape at Mangum, where he was being held for an earlier escape from the Oklahoma Prison Facility at Granite.

Martinez and other members of his family formerly lived at Quail, where he attended school about 1969, according to Deputy Julian Torrez. His parents now live at Canyon.

McClendon had attempted to give a check at a Memphis business, when a suspicious clerk called officers.

Engagement rings came into use in the Middle ages.

Plans Announced for Thanksgiving Service

The county's traditional Thanksgiving service will be held Wednesday, Nov. 23, under sponsorship of the Ministerial Alliance.

This will be in the sanctuary of First Baptist Church and will begin at 7:00 p.m., said the Rev. Ken Johnson, president.

A Thanksgiving musical, Harvest, will be presented by the choirs of First Baptist Church. All age groups will take part, beginning with the youngest children who sing together. Glen Mize, music and education director, will be in charge of this presentation. Others taking part in the program were announced by Rev. Johnson, who will preside.

The Rev. Darrell Feemster, pastor of Samnorwood Baptist Church, will be the song leader and the Rev. Nathan Mulder, pastor of Faith Baptist Church, will give the invocation.

Taking the offering will be the Rev. James Boswell, First United Methodist Church, while the Rev. Jeff Messer, Quail Baptist Church, will give the benediction.

The offering taken at this service is used by the Ministerial Alliance for emergency aid to transients.

Dr. Saied Heads Hospital Staff

Dr. V.C. Saied, a specialist in anesthesiology, has been elected president of the medical staff of Wichita General Hospital, Wichita Falls.

Dr. Saied, who is the son of Mrs. Mack Saied, Sr., and the late Mr. Saied, and a brother of Mack Saied, Jr., earned his bachelor's and doctor of medicine degrees from the University of Texas.

He is a fellow of the American College of Anesthesiology and is certified by the American Board of Aesthesiology.

He has served on various committees of the staff and has worked repeatedly with a group of physicians and nurses who travel to Mexico to repair harelip and cleft palate deformities, primarily in children.

In 1880 Collingsworth County had a population of 6.

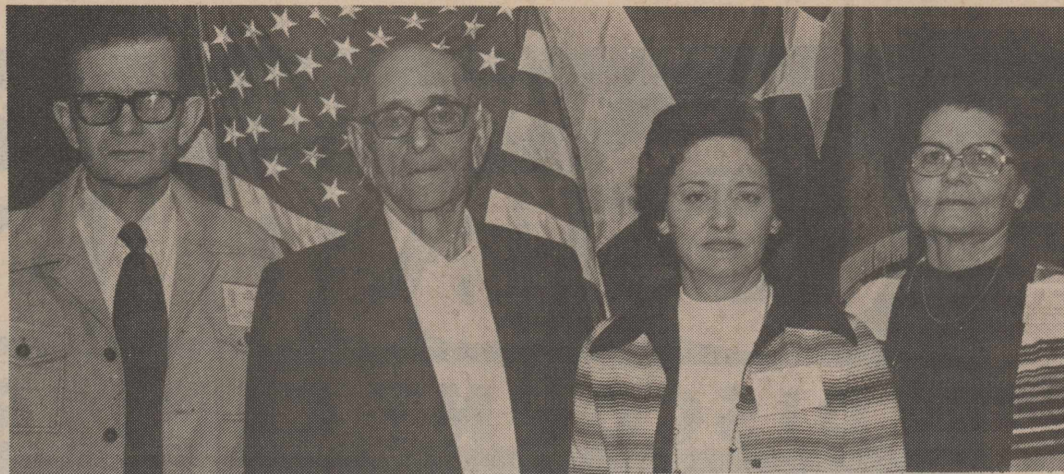

Pastor, Singer Holds Revivals

Glen Mize, music and education director of First Baptist Church, is directing a singing during a revival at First Baptist Church, Hedley, this week.

Dr. Paul Watkins is preaching and the pastor is the Rev. Lewis Ellis.

The Rev. Mickey Fugitt, First Baptist Pastor, and Mr. Mize conducted a revival at First Baptist Church, Wheeler, from October 16 through 23.

Visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W.A. Gollighugh Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. John Roy Gollighugh and granddaughter, Shelly, of Amarillo, Mr. and Mrs. W.F. JUDGES ATTEND SEMINAR

Eighty-six justices of the peace from the West Texas area attended a 20-hour Texas Justice of the Peace Training Center seminar Sept. 20-23 in Amarillo. The training center, which serves the entire state of Texas, is headquartered at Southwest Texas State University. Judges attending the seminar included, left to right, M.O. Weatherly, Precinct 3, Donley County, Hedley; Carroll Lewis, Precinct 2, Donley County, Clarendon; Jackie Cartwright, Precinct 1, Armstrong County, Claude; and Beatrice McKinney, Precinct 1, Collingsworth County, Wellington.

Buy Firewood With Care- A Cord is Several Things

With winter weather just around the corner, homeowners will soon be making preparations for sitting by a glowing fireplace. But these dreams of a warm fire and a cozy fireplace may go up in smoke if the wrong type of wood is purchased, cautions a forestry specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

"Since firewood purchases are not covered by consumer protection laws, it is the responsibility of the buyer to shop and choose the right type of wood," points out Bill Smith.

"Price comparisons may be difficult since firewood may be sold by the standard cord, the face cord or the truck load," he adds.

A standard cord is 8 feet long, 4 feet wide and 4 feet high, or 128 cubic feet. On the other hand, a face cord measures 8 by 4 feet on the face of the stack, with the wood cut into smaller pieces. The face cord measures about two-thirds less than the standard cord.

"The best way to compare prices is to calculate the cubic feet of wood. Measure the stack and multiply the length by the width and by the height," suggests the forestry specialist.

Following this advice will also keep the unwary buyer from making a mistake out of what appears to be a bargain. Cubic feet measurements should also be used on truckloads of firewood.

"Certain types of firewood also burn better than other," says Smith. "Hickory, white oak, red oak and pecan are excellent kindling but produce only short-burning fires."

A combination of softwood for kindling, hardwood for heat, and fruit or nut wood for aroma will make shopping around worthwhile, contends the forestry specialist.

"Always choose dry, lightweight wood over green wood," says Smith. "Drier wood can give up to 20 per cent more heat than moist, green wood."

Additional information about various types of firewood is provided in a publication, "Buying and Using Fireplace Wood," available at any county Extension office.

Hale Families Visit Through Tennessee

Mr. and Mrs. E.S. Hale, Jr., with their four children and families, -17 altogether- have returned from a week's vacation that took them as far as eastern Tennessee.

The group, traveling in two pickups with campers and three cars, included Mr. and Mrs. E.S. Hale, Mr. and Mrs. James Hale, Scotty, Stacy, Jennifer and Steven; Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Hale and Millie; Mr. and Mrs. Victor Garza, Victory Lynn and Michael; and Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Blanton.

They visited Shiloh Park, Tenn., then went on the Natural Bridge and Rock City. At Points Park, they saw the site of the Civil War "Battle Above the Clouds," and nearby Ruby Falls. They also visited the home of Sam Davis, 17-year-old Confederate youth who was hanged by Union soldiers suspecting him of being a spy.

In Nashville, they visited The Heritage home of President Andrew Jackson, and the nearby Tulip Gardens, then saw the Country Music Wax Museum and took a steamboat ride on the Columbia River, past the homes of a number of country music stars. Their final stop in Nashville was at Opry Land.

In Memphis, they saw Elvis Presley's home and at Jackson, the house where Casey Jones lived.

They were away from Oct. 3 to 10.

Kiwanians See Resuscitation Demonstration

A demonstration on cardiopulmonary resuscitation was given following the Kiwanis Club luncheon Friday, Oct. 21.

The narrator was Marshall Peters, vice-president of the Collingsworth Volunteer Ambulance Service, assisted by Mrs. H.H. Bowen, temporary coordinator, and long-time member.

They brought with them Resusa-Ann, a teaching mannequin, to show Kiwanians how two people, working together, can revive a person unconscious from a heart attack or other situation involving both heart and lungs.

Mr. Peters explained each step and why it was that thing done. He also explained when resuscitation should not be given.

Both speakers are registered Emergency Medical Technicians, and Mr. Peters is an EMS instructor.

Family Night At First Baptist Church Thursday Nov. 3 Covered Dish Supper 6:00 p.m. The Cruse Family Singing at 7:30

The Cruse Family

Jacksonville, Texas

"To God be the glory,
Great things he has done.
So loved he the world,
That he gave us his son."

"What greater message is there for a world in despair?"

The Cruse Family of Jacksonville, Texas sing and speak this message in every concert and church service they're in. Through music, through the spoken word, the unique ministry of this Christian family reaches out to the lost while lifting and strengthening the Christian.

The Cruse Family has led in revivals and evangelistic services in many churches across the United States. They've led and participated in crusades at the association and county level. Most recently, their music and gospel presentation has generated an enthusiastic response at concerts on college and university campuses. They appear several times each year at the Grand Ole Opry and are recording artists for World Records of Waco, Texas.

SAVE ON FUEL BILLS! Sizes to fit all fireplaces

THE PRESENT FIREPLACE
This illustration portrays how the present fireplace functions. When you are up close one side of you is roasting... and the other side is freezing. In addition it is rapidly drawing all room air up through the chimney together with the heat generated by the fireplace. This is known as fireplace "draw". According to a University of Illinois study 90% of all fireplace heat escapes up the chimney.

Call Fred Hankins after 8 p.m., Cherokee Inn, Rm. 35, Thurs. & Friday nights. (Oct. 27 & 28)

A CONVECT-O-HEATER FIREPLACE
Here room air is forced through the heating chambers. The air is heated by contact with the hot metal and then circulated to all parts of the room - even adjoining rooms. The force of the heated air being expelled from CONVECT-O-HEATER overcomes fireplace "draw". This increased fireplace efficiency will SAVE MONEY on your HOME HEATING BILL and will PAY for itself in FUEL SAVING ALONE.

Hospital Must Install New Sprinkler System

A new sprinkler fire protection system must be installed in Collingsworth General Hospital, a Medicare survey team has told Charles Floyd, administrator. However, the board of directors can ask for up to 18 months to complete the work.

Mr. Floyd, in his report to the board at its regular meeting Monday, Oct. 24, said this was the major deficiency found in the hospital by the survey team.

Otherwise, the report was considered good.

The administrator has begun inquiries as to the cost of a sprinkler system. No one at the meeting had any idea what this could amount to but they guessed it would be "plenty."

The sprinkler system is necessary because of the two-story section built in 1952. The sprinkler system presently in the hospital does not meet the life safety code requirements, for a two-story building.

The survey team included Robert B. Price, Zone supervisor for hospital certification and consultation, State Department of Health Resources, which is the intermediary of Medicare in Texas, and Dr. Juanita Carell, zone supervisor for the Dallas area.

Due to the length of the hospital corridor, a smoke door or barrier must be put in. Mr. Floyd said this will be placed where the old and new hospital sections join in both the east west halls. An exit door will be cut into the west wall. This proposal was already in the long-range improvement plans, as is a door to be placed at the top of the stairwell. A door which would be fire resistant up to one hour must be placed between the kitchen and other areas.

Another deficiency listed was the location of the liquid oxygen storage area only four feet from the property boundary line, rather than the required five feet. The options here are to buy an additional one foot of land or build a line of eight fire wall 6 feet tall and ten feet wide at the back of the storage area.

Several other deficiencies were already scheduled for correction, are in the work now being carried out by George Ford of Pampa, the hospital's engineer, or can be taken care of quickly.

The only major deficiency listed in the health survey was lack of an adequate number of professional nurses to meet minimum requirements to insure that a registered nurse is always immediately available for bedside care and to supervise nursing care.

This has been corrected by hiring Mrs. Susan Henry, R.M., of Shamrock. Mr. Floyd told the board. Mrs. Henry, who has 10 years nursing experience, was director of nurses in Shamrock Hospital until she and her husband moved to another town. They have now returned to Shamrock to live.

"Everything else can be corrected with a pencil and paper," Mr. Floyd said. "There is no way we could have gotten off better."

The hospital board elected several months ago to seek Medicare accreditation rather than the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Hospitals, after a survey team from the latter organization made it clear that it would not approve the present building.

The board was also told of the proposed rules for national health planning, as they relate to hospitals and as they are proposed by the Health Resources Administration of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare. Hearings will be held through Nov. 22, and then the proposed legislation will be acted upon by Congress.

If this becomes law, it will restrict hospitals to four rooms per 1,000 population. This would limit Collingsworth General to 20 patient rooms. There are now 28. On the night of the board meeting, the hospital had 23 patients, and there is no epidemic. The guidelines would also require 80 per cent occupancy year around, Mr. Floyd told the board.

In order to continue an obstetrical unit, a hospital would have to deliver 500 babies per year. Mr. Floyd said after the meeting that the Amarillo hospitals are probably the only units that could meet such a requirement.

These are only two of the proposed requirements.

The hospital administrator said he would be glad to discuss the implications of this piece of legislation with anyone interested, and he urged that people who use this hospital voice their objections to the Office of Planning, Evaluation and Legislation, Health Resources Administration, Center Building Room 10-22, Hyattsville, Maryland, 20782.

The hospital board took no action to officially protest this action, as have some small hospitals in the Panhandle.

In other business, the administrator said he has trimmed between $60,000 and $70,000 from the 1978 budget.

This budget, given tentative approval at the last meeting since Oct. 1 was the beginning of the new fiscal year, was officially approved Monday night without any discussion.

Skyrocket Band Takes II In UIL Marching Contests

Wellington High School's Skyrocket Band received a II rating Tuesday, October 25 at UIL marching contests held at West Texas State University's Kimbrough Memorial Stadium in Canyon.

Ratings are given on a I to V scale, ranging from superior to poor. The II rating that the band received represents a rating of "excellent," Jamie Larson, band director, said.

"I'm very proud of the band," Larson said. "They've done an outstanding job all year long, and although we didn't come out with a first division rating, we've built a lot of pride, tradition and character, and I look for many good things to happen for the band in the years to come. The people of Wellington should be extremely proud of their young people."

The three-judge panel's comments included the following: "very impressive looking band...very spirited...a fine marching group...some very precise and sharp marching..."

Participating in the marching contest were Sharee Bailey, Cheryl Birkey, Renesa Cardwell, Kandi Ford, Karen Goforth, Gary Isaacs.

Lesa Johnson, Jennifer Pendleton, Wanda Thomas, Terri Thomason, Melanie Watts, Robert Burba, Richard Burba, Lynda Brooks, David Conant, T. MRS. DAVID WEEKS

Miss Hamilton, Mr. Weeks Marry in Panhandle Church

Miss La Dona Hamilton, yellow crepe-satin dress with flocked organdy overskirt. The flower girl was Ricki Ward, cousin of the groom, and Timmy Branch, cousin of the bride, was ring bearer. Wedding music was presented by Daniel Wiseman of Panhandle, who also accompanied Mrs. Carolyn Rapstine as she sang. The couple shared in the lighting of a memory candle, using a Bible which had belonged to the bride's great great-grandmother. Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton received wedding guests at a reception in the fellowship hall.

The bride's table was covered with a pale blue cloth having a white lace overlay. Silver candelabras holding blue tapers, with an arrangement of blue baby's breath at the base, was the centerpiece. Crystal appointments were used. Guests were served by Miss Sandy Stearns, Miss Francene Harecklerode, Mrs. Jerry Floyd and Miss Cathy Austin.

Miss Coffee, a sophomore home economics education major, is a 1976 graduate of Wellington High School. There she was a member of Who's Who, FHA, band, Ko-Shari, Beta, and was elected class officer and class favorite. She is a member of ACU's Big Purple Band, the Home-Economics Club and the Soccer Club.

1924 Study Club Opens Year With Luncheon in Childress

The 1924 Study Club kicked off a new year on Thursday, October 6, with a luncheon at K-Bobs Restaurant in Childress. Mrs. Chester Fires, president, greeted the members and guests, who were introduced by Mrs. Kent Clark. Mrs. Boyd Derryberry offered grace, after which the luncheon was served. Mrs. R.C. McNett introduced the guest speaker, Mrs. Hugh (Jean) Burchett, a Childress author, who has been published in newspapers around the state as well as in religious publications. She presented several of her humorous articles for the 1924 Club members. Her homespun humor has something for everyone.

Wood-Burning Heaters Back

Wood burning heaters are back, says Sue Young, housing and home furnishings specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System. These heaters--the best quality are of heavy gauge sheet metal lined with firebrick--may help to answer your heating and energy needs, especially if you have access to relatively inexpensive supplies of wood. Besides supplementing their heating systems, Texas families can enjoy the warmth that only a wood burning heater can give, says the specialist.

Prices for wood heaters begin at around $200.00, they are now on the market in attractive designs and are much more efficient than the traditional masonry or more modern freestanding fireplaces. Airtight wood heaters burn more slowly and evenly and the fire does not flare up when wood is added. When the heater has a flat baffle system, more heat is radiated into the room and not lost up the chimney.

Frontier Folk Medicine Skit Featured for 1924 Study Club

The 1924 Study Club met Thursday, October 20, in the Heritage Room of the Wellington State Bank. A skit about frontier folk medicine was presented by Mrs. Kent Clark and Mrs. Bill Beall. Written by Mrs. Beall, the skit was taken from several publications as reference as well as a "Doctor Book" belonging to D.E. Scott.

This book was originally owned by James A. Scott (1834-1904) an ancestor of Mr. Scott. The other publications used as source material belong to Mrs. B.B. Martin of Dodson. Mrs. Chester Fires, president, directed the meeting and the club collect was read by Mrs. Sandy Covey. The minutes of the last meeting were read by Mrs. Boyd Derryberry, secretary, and the treasurer, Mrs. Rodney Kane, gave a finance report. Both were received and approved by the membership.

It was reported that the pecans to be used in a fund raising projects are in and ready to be picked up and sold. Additional fund raising and other projects for the coming year were discussed. Mrs. Rodney Kane, hostess, served dessert and punch to Mrs. Fires, Mrs. Derryberry, Mrs. Covey, Mrs. Beall, Mrs. Clark, Mrs. R.R. Crawley and Miss Hattie D. Wells.

Home Demonstration Members Attend Rural Homemakers Day

Ten representatives from Collingsworth County Home Demonstration Clubs and this agent attended Rural Homemakers day, October 20, 1977 at the Villa Inn in Amarillo, Texas. Rural Homemakers day is an annual event sponsored by the Womens Division of the Amarillo Chamber of Commerce. Lorri Gallimore, President of Womens Division Amarillo Chamber of Commerce, welcomed the guests and introduced the first guest speaker, Mr. Robert Kalbfleisch, Fashion Coordinator, Sakowitz. Mr. Kalbfleisch presented an informal program on accessories. The second speaker was Becky Culp, Area Clothing Specialist, Texas Agricultural Extension Service, presented a demonstration on pants fitting. Rural Homemakers Day ended with a noon luncheon and a speech on "The Expanding World of Credit for Women", presented by Peter A. Dallas, Senior Vice President, First National Bank of Amarillo, Texas. Those attending the event were Mrs. Cecil Masten, Mrs. David Peters, Mrs. L.W. Wells, Mrs. James Reynolds, Mrs. James Masten, Mrs. L.C. Sweat, Mrs. Jimmy Breeding, Mrs. Rex Peoples, Mrs. A.V. Lowrie, Mrs. Bill Hill, Mrs. T.C. Fike and County Agent Miss Jean Chandler.

Boneless brisket is a thin, flat, less tender piece of meat which has been boned. This less expensive cut of beef can be successfully barbecued, roasted or cured and sold as corned beef, Mrs. Mary Sweeten, foods and nutrition specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System, says.

Pathfinders Study Africa

Pathfinders of First United Methodist Church met Monday evening, Oct. 17, in the home of Mrs. Rodney Kane. After a short business meeting, Mrs. James Boswell gave a brief outline of the life of a former missionary in Africa, Elwyn Hulet.

Both he and his wife were educational missionaries to Liberia, and three members of the Wellington United Methodist Women heard him speak in White Deer recently. They are at home on furlough this year and Mrs. Hulet is getting her master's degree from Texas Tech.

Afterwards, Mrs. Andy Henard presented the second part of a study course on Africa, "Torment to Triumph in Southern Africa," by Louise Stoch and Don Morton, detailing the involvement of the Methodist Church there.

Those attending were Mrs. Dwaine Binford, Mrs. Larry Henard, Mrs. Robert Owens, Mrs. Johnny Holton, Mrs. Dan Henard, Jr., Mrs. Glenn Thomas, Mrs. Andy Henard, Mrs. Jerry Lewis, Miss Jean Chandler, Mrs. Boswell, Mrs. Lynn Emmert, Mrs. Covey, Mrs. Gary Killian, and Keli Ann, and the hostess, Mrs. Kane.

Mrs. Rufus Sweat Speaker at Belles Lettres Opens Year

Mrs. Rufus Sweat, who returned recently from a 30-day tour of 10 European countries, was the program speaker as Belles Lettres Club opened its year's activities Tuesday, October 18. Mrs. Charles Cason was hostess.

Mrs. Sweat described the beauty of the countries and discussed their cultural differences.

In charge of the business session was Mrs. Dick Richards, president. Mrs. Cason led the collect and members answered roll call with a scripture. Refreshments were served to Mrs. Earl Alexander, Mrs. A.B. Clark, Mrs. Bryan Denley, Mrs. W.F. Harbin, Mrs. F.A. Hatch, Mrs. Richards, Mrs. Joe Thompson, Mrs. Sweat and the hostess, Mrs. Cason.

UDC Plans Military Awards Program at Childress Sunday

The Childress Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, will bestow 5 military crosses of Service in a program Sunday, Oct. 30, at Calvary Baptist Church, Childress. The program will begin at 2:00 p.m.

Real Daughters, women whose fathers were Confederate soldiers, will be honored, winners of the student essay contest will be recognized, according to Miss Tops Gilreath of Memphis, president.

Three Military Crosses of Service, for World War II, the Korean War and War in Vietnam, will be bestowed posthumously upon Joseph Woodrow Murray, who grew up in Wellington.

A retired chief warrant officer in the Army, Mr. Murray died last year.

His crosses will be received by his brother, Frank Murray of Hedley. He was also a brother of Mrs. Dalton Vaughan of Wellington. His parents were the late Dr. and Mrs. F.H. Murray.

He was a direct descendant of Capt. Francis M. Murray of the 1st Tennessee Cavalry.

Other recipients of the Military Crosses of Service will be Arvene Bellah, World War II veteran; and Mrs. Allen Bingham, World War II.

Mrs. B.B. Martin of Dodson and Mrs. C.E. Voyles, UDC members, will act as recorder of crosses.

Real Daughters to be presented are Mrs. C.B. Johnson, Mrs. J.M. Patterson and Mrs. B.E. Rushing. During the ceremony, Mrs. L.W. Wells will stand in for Mrs. Rushing, who is 95 years of age.

The Rev. Burl Bumpus, pastor of Carey Baptist Church, will be the program speaker and the youth choir of Calvary Baptist Church will sing.

Miss Maudie Coffee and Mrs. C.O. Bodine of Wellington will register the guests.

The public is invited, said Miss Gilreath.

Put People At Ease

COLLEGE STATION—Putting people at ease is an art, says Dorothy Taylor, family life education specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System. Some people appear warmer and more responsive, but it's no accident, the specialist says.

We all can learn to put people at ease, Miss Taylor offers these suggestions:

-Use your voice to respond to people. A mere nod seems to withhold messages.

-Don't talk too much or too little. If quite, shy people talk more, others will respond. Talkative persons may want to just summarize and not tell the whole tale.

-Use "I" in your conversations. If you open up, you invite others to share themselves.

-Think (and talk) positive. Nobody can gossip or recall tragedies.

-Laugh at yourself. When you share a "put-down," others recognize their own shortcoming and warm to you.

-Show your feelings in your face. A "mask" turns people off.

-Make eye contact when you talk. It lets others know you're tuned in and interested.

-When you disagree, attack the idea, not the person. Say, "I disagree with your idea," not "You're wrong!"

Communication is a skill that needs constant attention. We open or close doors on opportunity just by the way we express ourselves.

Excelsior Continues Artist Study with Renoir Program

Mrs. Robert Barjenbruch was hostess on Thursday evening, Oct. 20, as Excelsior club members continued their study of great artists.

Mrs. Barjenbruch also presented the program on the French artist, Pierre-Auguste Renoir.

The artist characterized his own work: "Like a child, I paint before nature with an artless soul and the instinct of my fingertips," she told the group.

He was not an intellectual artist, but a man who presented the world afresh, consonant with himself, his soul and his ability.

"Renoir began as a craftsman, as a porcelain painter, and took the path of diligence to great art and fulfillment," said Mrs. Barjenbruch. "Renoir is known for his quality and work-up of color in his pictures. He took up painting in Paris at the age of 21. He was with out means, but his early training helped him get jobs, so he could study painting."

He was born in Limoges—the city famous for its fine porcelains,—February 25, 1841. His father, a poor tailor, moved the family to Paris hoping to make a better living. Renoir had to go to work at the age of 10 years in a porcelain painting workshop. His 5 years at this gave him a light touch with a brush, and a sure eye for the selection and combination of colors.

"In his later years, Renoir suffered from rheumatism, which eventually confined him to a wheel chair. His ailment affected both the man and the artist equally. He mastered this life with humor. As for his art, here is no longer any complicated directing of the gaze. His works of the last ten years, up to his peaceful death December 3, 1919 at the age of 78, are completely devoid of weight. They are no longer earthbound, but seem to be from another sun-bright world," said Mrs. Barjenbruch.

"Renoir worked hard throughout his life, and now that he was confined to an invalid's chair, he worked harder than ever. He had been thrifty with his time in order to be able to create the great number of masterpieces.

"Red, in all its many nuances, surges across his pictures, mixes with green and white, to form a wild maelstrom of color which seems about to swirl out of the frame. His paintings were a song of praise to nature, her riches, beauty and fertility, and these three things remained Renoir's main themes until the day of his death," concluded the speaker.

During the business session, members voted to buy a group of children's books for Collingsworth County Library.

Present at the Thursday night meeting were Mrs. E.F. Bartlett, Miss Rama Camp, Miss Bonnie Willis, Miss Hattie D. Wells, Miss Dorothy Robertson, and a visitor, Mrs. Violet Potter, and the hostess, Mrs. Barjenbruch.

Mrs. White Quail Hostess

The Quail Friendship Club met Thursday afternoon, October 20, in the home of Mrs. Virgie White.

Mrs. White and Mrs. Mary Clay presented the program.

Members present were Mrs. Roy Peggram, Mrs. Clay, Mrs. Jennie Oatman, Mrs. John Bishop, Mrs. Orbie Hartman, Mrs. White, Mrs. A.L. Robinson, Mrs. Pat O'Hair, Mrs. Ira Morgan and guest, Mrs. Georgia Cleveland.

Trio at DKG Conference

Three Wellington members of Gamma Kappa Chapter, Delta Kappa Gamma, attended the area XI conference in Amarillo Saturday, Oct. 15.

Mrs. Jack Lowry, Mrs. Rufus Sweat and Miss Maudie Coffee joined other members of the international honorary organization for teachers to observe its golden anniversary.

Frances Watkins, area coordinator, presided.

The keynote speaker was Luella Merrett, chairman of state achievement awards and immediate past state treasurer. Her address, "... and I will Leave a Trail," followed the salad luncheon in the cafeteria of Bonham Junior High School, where the meeting was held.

Program numbers included "Golden Gift and Golden Anniversary," a panel headed by Dr. Panze Kimmel, area representative; "Project North America" by Joan Moore of Iota Zeta Chapter; "World Fellowship" by Florence Sawyer of Plainview of Gamma Iota Chapter.

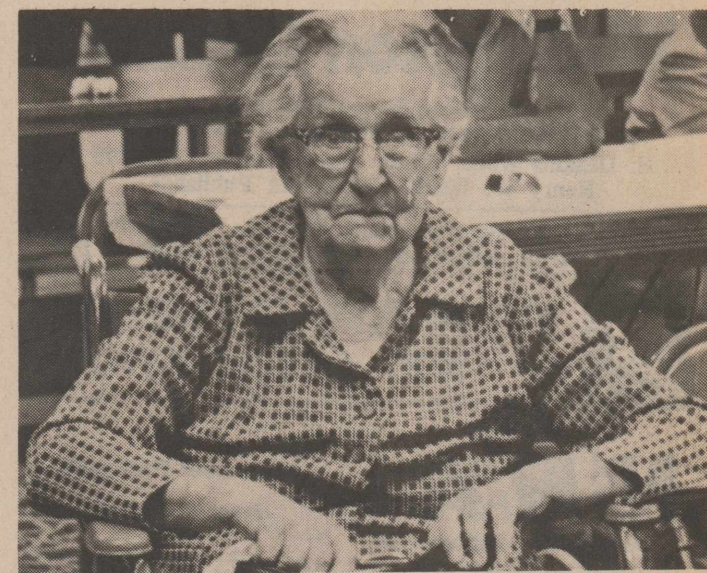

A discussion of membership followed. Chairmen of each of these groups from the various chapters met immediately before the salad luncheon in the cafeteria of Bonham Junior High School, where the meeting was held.

UMW Duo At Allison

Mrs. James Boswell and Mrs. Cecil Masten were guest speakers at a meeting of United Methodist Women at First Methodist Church, Allison Wednesday, October 19.

They discussed work of the church Women.

This was a UMW sub-district meeting of the Pampa District.

MRS. S.L. MAXWELL

Mrs. S.L. Maxwell Celebrates 95th Birthday at Party Sunday

Mrs. S.L. Maxwell was honored with a celebration on her 95th birthday at the home of a son, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Maxwell.

Mrs. Maxwell is a long-time area resident and lived for many years in the Salt Fork-Lillie area northwest of Wellington.

She is now a resident of Thomas Nursing Center.

Joining her for the celebration were these children, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Maxwell and Mr. and Mrs. C.A. Wright of Amarillo, Mrs. Bessie Cook of Lufkin, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Maxwell, a daughter-in-law, Mrs. Lela Maxwell; and these grandchildren were present: Mrs. Anita Baker of Ft. Worth, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Maxwell, Gerald and Melissa and Mr. and Mrs. Mike Maxwell, Serena and Michelle of Amarillo, Mrs. Edna Paige of Ft. Worth, Mrs. A.J. Fires, and Jerry Maxwell.

Two visitors joined the family group, Mrs. Jessie Bledsoe and Mrs. Lena Martin.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights

by Lyndell Williams
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN—Two more well-known Texas names are now on the definite list of candidates for statewide office.

Former State Insurance Board Chairman Joe Christie, who served in the State Senate from El Paso 1966-1972, announced for U.S. Senate in the Democratic primary.

Mark White Jr., a Houston lawyer who has been serving as Gov. Dolph Briscoe's secretary of state since 1973, entered the Democratic race for attorney general.

White's resignation opened another sought-after appointed position. A long line of applicants for the secretary of state's job formed quickly outside Briscoe's door.

Christie, 44, will meet U.S. Rep. Bob Krueger of New Braunfels, 41, in the senatorial primary. The winner will take on veteran U.S. Sen. John Tower in November 1978.

White, 37, collides with Price Daniel Jr., 36, 1973-74 Speaker of the House and son of former Gov. Price Daniel in the attorney general's race.

State Republican Chairman Ray Hutchison, meanwhile, formally resigned his position and reportedly has signed on a campaign consultant to make a race for governor.

James Baker III of Houston has filed forms with the secretary of state indicating an interest in running as a Republican for attorney general.

Enrollments Are Climbing

Texas college and university enrollments are up nearly four per cent over last fall. The total is expected to reach 720,679 compared with 696,005 in 1976.

Senior college campuses reported increases ranging from less than one per cent to 45 per cent. Thirty seven private senior colleges grew 2.1 percent to about 73,200.

Public community college enrollments on 56 campuses total 304,966—up 4.6 per cent over 1976. Private junior colleges declined 2.8 per cent.

Barnhart New GOP Head

Ray Barnhart of Houston was elected chairman of the state Republican party 37 votes to 26 over Collin County Judge Nathan White of Plano.

Morris Atlas of McAllen was appointed by Gov. Dolph Briscoe to the Texas Alcoholic Beverage Commission to succeed R. L. Thornton Jr. of Dallas who resigned.

Briscoe named 20 members to the Greater South Texas Cultural Basin Commission.

Commission Sets Hearing

The Railroad Commission ordered a December 16 hearing here on Arkansas Louisiana Gas Company's proposal to increase gas service rates in environs of 28 East Texas cities by 55.47 per cent.

Cities in the Arkla service area are Atlanta, Avinger, Bloomburg, Daingerfield, DeKalb, Douglassville, Gilmer, Hooks, Hughes Springs, Jefferson, Leary, Linden, Lone Star, Maud, Mt. Pleasant, Mt. Vernon, Naples, Nash, New Boston, Omaha, Ore City, Pittsburg, Queen City, Talco, Uncertain, Wake Village, Winfield and Winnsboro.

Texas Courts Speak

The Court of Criminal Appeals heard arguments on constitutionality of the new Texas death-by-injection law governing future executions of condemned criminals.

A steel buildings firm lost a $331,400 death benefits suit filed against the company by families of two men killed in a collision with one of its trucks near Austin a decade ago. The Supreme Court upheld lower courts.

The high court rejected a $52,500 damage suit in which a mother claimed a monkey's bite crippled her young daughter's finger and retarded her musical abilities.

Attorney General Opinions

It is unlawful to take shrimp from any water in Chambers, Galveston, Harris and Victoria counties within a mile of a city by use of trawl, Atty. Gen. John L. Hill held.

In other recent opinions, Hill concluded: A city hall memorandum collecting information comparing wage rates in public and private employment is exempt from disclosure under the open records act. However, if a city possesses raw data on salary rates of private positions which do not reveal that the city staff has determined that those positions are comparable to the city fire-fighting positions, the raw data must be revealed.

Short Snorts

Dr. Robert B. Sheldon was removed as superintendent of Rusk State Hospital following an investigation. Dr. Robert M. Inglis, San Antonio State Hospital superintendent, will assume additional duties as acting superintendent at Rusk.

The Railroad Commission approved $8.6 million in land reclamation bonds to cover surface damage at three of the state's largest lignite strip-mining sites—Big Brown near Dallas, Martin Lake in Panola County and Monticello in Titus and Hopkins counties.

The School Land Board and other boards for lease will hold an oil, gas and sulphur lease sale in the General Land Office February 7.

Building construction is continuing to boom, and 177 new and 196 expanded manufacturing firms were reported

Dodson People Show Us What One Town Can Do

If you haven't been to Dodson in the last few weeks, it is well worth your time to go. Drive along its main street, from the curve in FM 338 at the west edge of town, past the business section, to the Nazarene Church on the east edge. It is now a pleasant view.

Then drive along the streets where Dodson people live. There probably isn't a cleaner town in this part of Texas.

Dodson residents looked at their town a short time ago and did not like what they saw. From town hall and city council meetings, came an effective clean-up that covered the entire town and involved almost everyone who was physically able to get out and work.

On the first Saturday, the area along FM Highways 338 and 1642 through town were cleaned—the part that out-of-towners see when they drive through.

They have worked every Saturday since that weather permits.

Residents cleaned their own lots. Vacant lots were cleaned. Farm equipment parked in town is now in orderly rows.

The county road department sent machinery to grade all the dirt streets and clean out bar ditches, the first time this has been done in a number of years.

Permission was given the city to tear down several delapidated buildings. An old grease pit was filled in.

Now a park is to be developed on vacant lots in the center of the business area. With justification, everyone is mighty proud of their town now.

What the people of Dodson have done could be done in every small town in Texas. Because everyone volunteered time and work and trucks to haul off debris, it cost almost nothing.

A sign at the edge of town says Dodson has 239 people. Be assured, they are taking care of this town.

'Round 'n 'Round

Seems like we've heard that song before...but the U.S. Department of Agriculture is a slow learner. It always seems to come as a surprise to people in Washington that stockman-farmers in the Panhandle-Plains areas sometimes plant (and use) winter wheat for purposes other than growing wheat.

Prohibiting the grazing of diverted wheat acreage strikes a hard blow at a depressed farm economy which the USDA is ostensibly aiming to help by requiring the acreage to be diverted in the first place.

The purpose of setting-aside wheat acreage under the farm program is to reduce the amount of wheat which will be grown for market next spring. That's fine.

And in order to qualify for the support programs which the government will provide to help keep wheat growers financially afloat, wheat growers are required to take 20 percent of their wheat acreage out of production to help (hopefully) bring production back into line with demand. That's logical.

But from the farmer's point of view, wheat can be taken out of production by using its winter growth for grazing cattle as effectively as by plowing it up and leaving the field bare. That seems logical to the farmer, who needs to use his land for cattle production as an alternative to grain production. But it never seems to penetrate the bureaucratic Washington mind where the regulations are dreamed up.

So the regulations which are aimed at helping the farmer wind up hurting him.

And it has all happened before, time and again, and it always seems to come as a surprise to Washington. Maybe, if enough pressure is brought to bear and enough public clamor is raised from the plains of Texas to be heard on the banks of the Potomac, the regulation will be amended as it has been amended before...and farmers will be allowed to use their set-aside acres for feeding cattle without penalty.

But will they ever learn?
It reminds us of an old song from a few decades ago, which ran "The music goes round and round, and it comes out here." The song got to be a considerable aggravation too.

Senator Tower Here For Meeting Nov. 3

United States Senator John Tower of Texas will be in Wellington on November 3 from noon until 1:00 p.m. at the directors' room of Greenbelt Electric Cooperative, Don Tarver, Collingsworth County Republican chairman, announced today.

"This will be an informal town meeting with Senator Tower", Tarver said. "The Senator will make a few short remarks, then throw open the meeting with questions from anyone attending. He will especially be interested in hearing from farmers and ranchers regarding the agricultural crisis."

"Senator Tower is a key leader of the Senate, ranking sixth in seniority among GOP lawmakers. He represents a large number of conservatives in Texas both Republican and Democrats."

"This will be a rare opportunity for farmers, ranchers and agricultural-related businessmen to sit down face to face with one of our U.S. Senators and present first hand the facts of just how critical our economy is in Collingsworth County," Tarver said.

The senior Texas senator's trip is scheduled following the expected date for Senate adjournment. If the Senate-House conference committee on energy's report is delayed, there is a possibility Tower may be required to remain in

Livestock Sale Rules Change On November 1

AUSTIN--New federal regulations to insure that persons receive payment for livestock they sell on a cash basis have been adopted and will become effective Nov.-1, states Texas Agriculture Commissioner Reagan V. Brown.

The new regulations clarify amendments to the Packers and Stockyards Act (P&S) which became effective Sept. 13, Brown said. He pointed out that those amendments require that payment for livestock purchased on a cash basis must be made by the close of the next business day. They also require that livestock, inventories, sales proceeds and proceeds receivable of packers be held in trust to insure payment, he said.

"The new regulations will go far towards insuring that producers are protected against unscrupulous packers, market agencies and dealers," Brown stated. "However, the rules do not affect livestock purchases by producers or feeders, unless they also operate as a packer, meat agency or dealer."

Washington for debate and key votes on the legislation.

In that event, the constituent meetings will be rescheduled immediately for another week in late November or early December.

In his third term, Tower is top-ranking Republican on the Senate Armed Services Committee and second-ranking GOP member of the Banking, Housing and Urban Affairs Committee. He is a member of the Senate Ethics Committee and also served as the chairman of the Senate Republican Policy Committee. He ranks sixth in seniority among Republican members of the Senate.

Junior Varsity Drops Game to Clarendon Thurs

The Skyrocket Junior Varsity dropped a game to Clarendon 12-6 at Broncho Field Thursday, Oct. 20.

Neither team scored during the first half.

Wellington scored first in the third period, when Tim Anderson took the ball over on a four yard run. The pass for extra points was no good.

Clarendon made its first touchdown in the third quarter also, on a run from one yard out. The bronchos couldn't make the extra point either, and the game was tied 6-

In the last quarter, with three minutes to go, Clarendon scored again, this time on a fake punt of 85 yards. The pass for extra points was no good and the game ended 12-6.

Vandals Ruin Highway Lights

Vandals destroyed all of the yellow flashing lights on the four miles of highway construction along FM 338 west of Wellington Friday night, Oct. 21, Sheriff John Rainey reported.

Several of these were where bridges are being extended, and the ground has been dug away to the edge of the pavement, the sheriff said. "This makes it extremely dangerous for the driver who is not aware of the condition at those points," Rainey declared.

Ivan Dement, Inc., is the contractor on this project. The vandalism occurred although the sheriff's department patrols this stretch of road regularly.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kenney of Skellytown are visiting their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Nash and sons.

Quail Junior Teams Open Play Nov. 3

Quail Junior High basketball teams will play their first games Thursday, Nov. 3, meeting Kelton on that team's court. Game time is 6:30 for all games.

Like the high school teams, junior high boys and girls will play all games away from home, said Cochah Clovis McCary.

"Even though we are without a gym facility, I feel my teams will go and do the best job possible," he said. "Both teams are capable of putting out an effort of winning. They are under the leadership of upperclassmen which are all experienced ball players."

Playing on the junior high girls team are Carla Arthur, Robbie Guthrie, Linda Kennedy, Lori Marcum, Kim Morgan, Pam Sullivan, Brenda Baker, Lisa Byrd, Mary Sanchez, Debbie Kennedy, Sally Sanchez, Mary Torrez, Becky Barton, Kellie Branum, Margie Ingram and Becky Sanchez.

Their playing schedule includes these games:

Thursday, Nov. 3 Kelton.
Thursday, Nov. 10 Lakeview
Thursday, Nov. 17 Hedley.
Thursday, Dec. 1 Estelline.
Thursday, Dec. 8 Clarendon
Thursday, Friday, Saturday, Dec. 15, 16, 17 Estelline Tournament.

Thursday Dec. 22 Estelline.
Thursday, Jan. 5 Lakeview.
Monday, Jan. 9 Samnorwood.

Thursday, Friday, Saturday, Jan. 12, 13, 14 McLean tournament.

Thursday, Friday, Saturday, Jan. 19, 20, 21 Lakeview tournament.

Thursday, Jan. 26 Hedley.
Monday, Jan. 30 Samnorwood.
Thursday, Jan. 2 Kelton.

Doug Bergvall, Craig Bergvall and Kassie and Kathy Trimble all spent the weekend in Denton with Mr. and Mrs. Rick White and sons. Mrs. Doug Bergvall returned home with them after a week's visit in the White home.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Haralson were in Canyon Wednesday and Thursday of last week to visit their son, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Haralson, and their new son, Bradley.

Mr. and Mrs. James McDanel were on vacation last week and enjoyed the fall foliage of the Ozarks.

Firecrackers-Clarendon Play to 6-6 Tie Thursday

Wellington 8th Grade Firecrackers tied Clarendon 8th Grade 6-6 in a game played at Bronco Field Thursday, Oct. 20.

The two teams went into this game tied for leadership in Junior High District 2-A and came out of it still tied. Wellington has one more game this season, with Memphis, while Clarendon has yet to play Shamrock and Memphis.

The Thursday night game was not as close as the score sounds, however, as the Firecrackers crossed the goal line four times in the second half of the game, only to have the touchdowns called back on penalties, according to Coach Bruce Dollar.

Clarendon scored on first possession of the ball, on a 20 yard run. The try for extra points was no good.

Wellington was able to move the ball, and once in the first half got it to the one-yard line, but couldn't go in and the ball went over on downs.

After halftime, the Firecrackers took the kickoff on their own 30 yard line, and halfbacks Kenneth Warren and Raymond carrying the ball, brought it to the Clarendon 10. Warren scored from there.

"I thought our boys played as good a game as they have played all year," Coach Dollar said.

The first time Wellington and Clarendon met, the Firecrackers won 22-20.

Rockets Take Easy Win Over Bronchos

Wellington's Skyrockets rolled to an easy 41-13 victory over Clarendon Friday, October 21 to leave their season mark at 7-1 and their district record at 2-0.

The Skyrockets scored 20 points in their first three possessions and fans knew it would be a long night. The Wellington defensive team didn't allow Clarendon a first down until the closing moments of the first half when a penalty moved the ball past the marker.

A Clarendon fumble early in the first quarter handed the ball to the Rockets on the Broncho 11 and it took Ricky Jones just two plays to follow the Wellington line in for the first score of the night. Baldo Nevarez kick was good.

Clarendon fumbled on their next series and turned the ball over on the Rocket 43. In a key play Arnie Ingram followed fine blocking by Charles McIntosh and the Rocket backfield down to the 18. From there it was Ricky Jones to the 3, then in for the score. The kick failed and it left the Rockets ahead 13-0.

The Rockets next moved in 5 plays from their own 39 to Clarendon's 7 where James Thomas carried over left side for the score. Nevarez kick made it 20-0 with 4:14 remaining in the first quarter.

Fancy running by George Darton and Carl Taylor's passes to Robert Powell and Arnie Ingram keyed the next Rocket drive that died on the Clarendon 5. But 3 plays later Clarendon fumbled on the 8 and the Rockets recovered again. Taylor connected to Jon Sessions in the end zone, and Nevarez's kick left the score 27-0.

Wellington recovered another Clarendon fumble on the Clarendon 45 and a Carl Taylor pass to Robert Powell and a Rickey Jones effort moved the ball to the 27. From the 27 Powell headed down the right sideline and jumped a foot to catch Taylor's pass and come down inside the end zone. Nevarez's kick set the score at 34-0.

In the closing moments of the first half offside and face mask penalties helped Clarendon move the ball to the Rocket 15. Four tries later Billy Gardner bounced off 6 would-be tacklers from the 4 yard line to put Clarendon on the board. John Hall kicked an extra point to end the half 34-7.

On the Rockets first possession in the 4th quarter George Darton displayed some nifty running for 45 yards to set up the Rockets final score. From the 9, the Rockets fumbled but Robert Powell recovered the ball in the end zone for the final score. Nevarez kicked his fifth extra point of the night to make the score 41-7.

In the closing minutes Clarendon put together a passing attack that ended with a 16-yard Gary McClellan pass to Irvin Thomas for the Bronchos second score. A kick failed, and the score stayed at 41-13.

Four Couples Meet In San Francisco

Proof again--it's a small world.

Mr. and Mrs. C.A. Winton were walking across the lobby of the Hilton Hotel in San Francisco last week and when Mrs. Winton heard someone yell "Mattie Winton". It turned out to be a home-folks reunion when the Wintons discovered Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Cudd, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Nall and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lynn Bartlett who were all vacationing last week in San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Winton were in California for a 4-day all-expense-paid Shaklee supervisors' convention. In addition to tours of the city, the Wintons saw Alcatraz Island, the Golden Gate and Oakland Bay Bridges, the Oakland Raiders football field and a Good Year tire factory. They returned to Wellington Sunday.

Davis Named WNMU Player Of the Week

Silver City, N.M.--Runningback JESSE DAVIS and safety Weldon Nelms have been selected Western New Mexico University Players of the Week by head coach Jim Walker based on their performances during last week's 29-16 Mustang loss at Westminster.

Davis, a freshman from Wellington, Texas picked up 171 yards on 26 carries against the Parsons to assume the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference rushing leadership with a 101.8 yards per game average. Davis has picked up 509 yards for the season and at his current pace would break the magical 1000 yard rushing barrier.

Nelms, a junior from Plains, Texas, racked up 9 tackles from his safety spot and was instrumental in holding the NAIA's reception leader Rex Macey to just 4 catches for 80 yards, both figures far below Macey's seasonal average.

Mrs. J.D. Coleman Heads Bee

The 1978 director of the Collingsworth County Spelling Bee is Mrs. J.D. Coleman, a member of the local chapter of National Retired Teachers Association.

The date will be announced. Mrs. Coleman will be in full control of planning and conducting the county bee.

The work list used, "Words of the Champions," is available for 30 cents from the Amarillo News Globe, Spelling Bee Editor, Box 2091, Amarillo, 79166.

Valerie Van Pelt was the 1977 Collingsworth County senior champion and Billy Chandler the junior champion. Students in the four-state area assigned to the Amarillo News Globe for sponsorship of the annual Spelling Bee contest may now compete for a $200 scholarship from West Texas State University, in addition to the all-expense paid trip to Washington D.C. for two, for the National Spelling Bee, according to Gene Parker, director of placement at the university and Bee coordinator. WTSU co-sponsors the annual spelling bee with the Amarillo newspaper.

Rules for competition are established by the national sponsors, the Scripps-Howard Newspapers, under the direction of Jim Wagner.

Defendant, Greeting:
You are hereby commanded to appear by filing a written answer to the Plaintiff's Petition at or before ten o'clock A.M. of the first Monday after the expiration of forty-two days from the date of the issuance of this citation, same being Monday the 21st day of November 1977, at or before ten o'clock A.M. before the Honorable 100th Judicial District Court of Collingsworth County, Texas, at the Court House of said County in Wellington, Texas.
Said Plaintiff's Petition was filed in court, on the 30th day of September A.D. 1977, in this cause, numbered 4936 on the docket of said court, and styled, R.L. Templeton, et al Plaintiff, vs. John S. McConnell, et al Defendants.
The names of the parties to the cause are as follows:
R.L. Templeton, et al are Plaintiffs and John S. McConnell, et al are Defendants.
A brief statement of the nature of this suit is as follows, to wit:
Suit in Trespass to Try Title with Plaintiff's claim being based in part on adverse possession, and concerns the title to Lot Nos. 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, and 18, all in Block 31 of the Original Town of Wellington, Collingsworth County, Texas, as shown by the recorded map or plat thereof, as is more fully shown by Plaintiff's Petition on file in this suit.
If this citation is not served within ninety days after the date of its issuance, it shall be returned unserved.

Seventh Grade Wins 36-6 Over Clarendon

Wellington seventh graders crossed the goal line six times to take their 36-6 victory over the Clarendon team Thursday, October 20. The game was played there.

Clarendon had first possession but couldn't move the ball and Wellington took over on their own 30. They drove it down to the Clarendon 40 when Johnny Garcia took a quick pitch and ran it all the way for a touchdown.

Wade Williams then threw a pass to Darren Hall for the two points after TD.

Garcia scored again in the second quarter on an 18 yard sweep around left end.

Again, a Williams to Hall pass was good for two points.

With only two minutes left in the half, Dru Lacy took the ball up the middle for 8 yards to score, after the entire offensive had moved it from midfield.

Coach Ronnie Glenn sent in a number of replacements for the remainder of the period. With 36 seconds remaining on the clock, Clarendon threw a quick-out pass to the team's tall end, who caught the ball, cut back across the field, then broke for 40 yards and a touchdown. This left the halftime score 22-6.

Wellington received the kickoff on Clarendon's 15, then John Paul Munn scored on a reverse, then followed this up with the two-point conversion.

As Wellington came into the fourth quarter, the team drove the ball down to the one-yard, then quarterback, Wade Williams took it in for the final score.

"We played a real good game," declared Coach Glenn.

"We intercepted two of their passes, Darren Hall one and John Paul Munn the other, and we completely shut down their running game."

CHAMPION AND TROPHIES

Twelve-year-old Jay Jones is the new West Texas champion in mini-man motorcycle racing. He won the title Saturday at Lubbock and received the tallest trophy. Others were won during the 6-race series to determine the champion.

Jay Jones Wins Title In Mini-Man Racing

A trophy that was chin-high to its winner was presented Saturday, October 22, to 12-year-old Jay Jones, recognizing him as the new West Texas State Champion in mini-man motorcycle competition. He had passed his opponent in mid-air on a jump to win the race and the title.

The ceremony came at the end of a hotly contested race at the moto-cross track set up in Texas Tech Coliseum in Lubbock. Jay also received a first place trophy as winner of the mini-man event.

Already a 6-year veteran of motorcycle racing, he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Auther Jones. He races out of the Big Bluff Moto Cross Track operated by his parents and his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Jake Maxwell.

"How did he like the indoor track?"
"The curves are tighter," Jay said. "I had to go over a bridge and on a short straightaway and then over two jumps."

It was on one of these jumps that Jay went by Morris Troxwell of Amarillo to win the race.

Tuesday-Nov. 1: Turkey roll (sliced) with cornbread dressing, broccoli spears, carrot sticks, fruit, sweetened rice, bread, and 1/2 pint milk.

Wednesday-Nov. 2: Hamburger on a bun, onion, mustard, pickles, lettuce and tomatoes, cheese slice, tater tots-catsup, apple half, and 1/2 pint milk.

Thursday-Nov. 3: Barbecued chicken, whipped potatoes, tossed salad, fruited jello, hot rolls-butter, and 1/2 pint milk.

Friday-Nov. 4: Teacher's Meeting

Joel Ross on Law Review

Joe Ross, a second year student in Texas Tech University Law School, has been named to the staff of the Law Review this year.

He also serves as vice-president of the Environmental Law Society, which is presently coordinating a symposium on the energy outlook for 1978. This will be campus-wide.

Ross is also doing research with the U.S. Department of Agriculture Forest Service. His law fraternity is Phi Alpha Delta.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James R. Ross of Quail.

Petroleum accounts for nearly two-thirds of the tonnage handled in Texas ports.

Brick Face Planned For VFW Building

Final preparations are being made to face the Veterans of Foreign Wars building with brick, the post commander, Tony Stephens, announced this week.

The footing has been run and the bricks are on order.

At the same time, Mr. Stephens said that renovation of the center section interior has been completed, and work will begin on the west wing soon. That wing contains the kitchen and dining room. The center section is the public room, while smaller rooms and the VFW Club room are in the east wing, which was renovated earlier.

Walls were paneled in the west and center sections, windows were removed and a number of improvements were made.

Mr. Stephens again pointed out that the VFW building is available to youth groups for dances, parties and other gatherings at no charge.

There will be a dance for the general public Saturday night, November 12, with a live band, the post commander adds. "Everyone over 18 is invited," he added.

A business meeting of the VFW Post and Auxiliary unit will be held Thursday, October 1, the regular meeting night. Members of both organizations are urged to attend so that business may be discussed and social activities organized, according to Mr. Stephens.

Judge and Mrs. Raymond Horn of Salem, Illinois were guests of his uncle, Roy Horn, last Wednesday. He is a district judge over nine counties in Illinois.

City Employees Get Licenses

Two employees in the city's water and sewer department have been licensed by the Texas Department of Health Resources, City Manager Glen Taylor said.

Eddie Davis was certified as a waterworks and sewer operator, and Douglas Green was certified as a waterworks operator.

Both recently attended an operators school at Memphis, conducted by the Water Supply Program, Division of Sanitary Engineering, Texas A&M University.

In late November, Davis will attend a chlorinator's school at Canadian, and Green a sewer operators school at Lubbock.

These men received Class D licenses, which are effective for two years. By the time these expire, both will have attended additional courses to qualify as Class C operators.

City to Receive Reimbursement

The City has received notice that it will receive $2,136 from the Environmental Protection Agency, which represents the final payment on the sewer reimbursement grant, according to Tiny Taylor, city manager.

The total for which the city was eligible was $16,500 and application for this was possible because of the efficient type of sewage disposal system which was installed several years ago.

MEL PHILLIPS

DEMOCRAT

FOR STATE SENATOR

MEL PHILLIPS is an energetic businessman who is working hard to be your new State Senator.

Mel was born on November 13, 1945, in Lincoln, Nebraska, where his father was stationed while serving in the Army. The family returned to Texas when Mel was a year old. His father, M.E. Phillips, is a wholesale car dealer, and his mother, Alvina, is a Licensed Vocational Nurse.

Mel Phillips has lived in Amarillo for more than 30 years. He started school at Lamar Elementary, attended Coronado Elementary, Austin Junior High and graduated from Amarillo High School in 1964. While in school he was active in football and track.

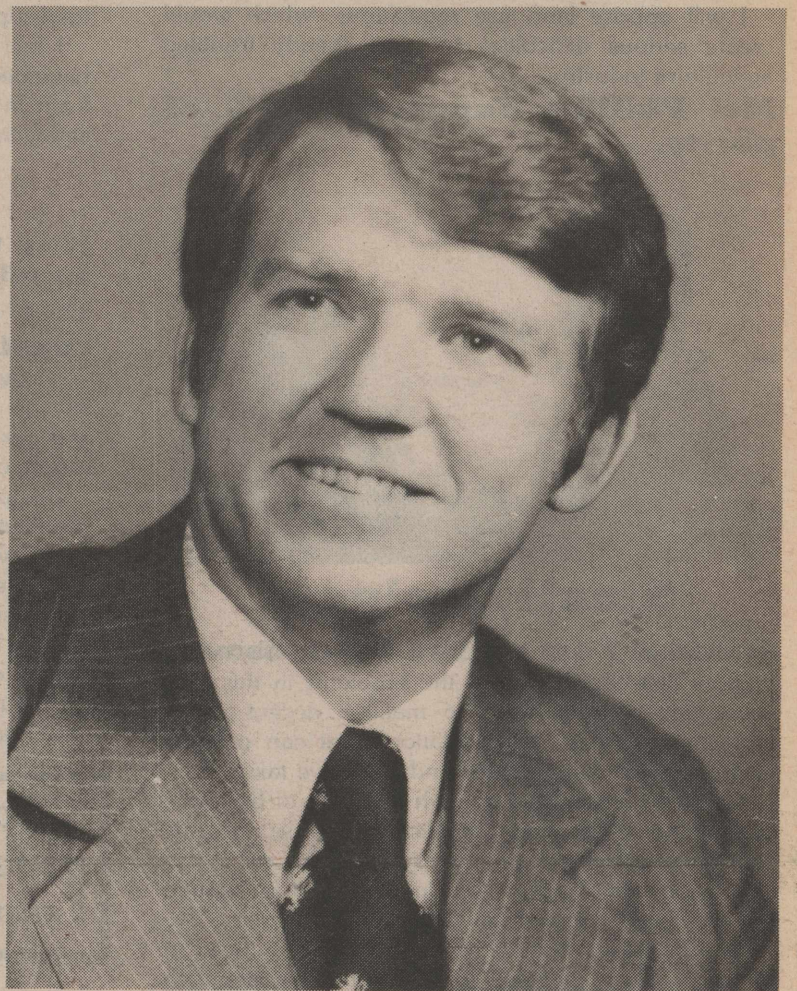

The summers of his boyhood were spent helping his father, and working on his uncles' farms on the South Plains near Hale Center and Halfway, plowing, irrigating, and hoeing cotton. He knows first-hand the long hours and hard work that are necessary in farming.

Mel went to Amarillo College for a year before transferring to the University of Texas at Austin, and during each summer while in college he worked as a switchman on the Santa Fe Railroad in Amarillo, Pampa, and Borger. In 1968 he graduated with a degree in Government, and then enlisted in the U.S. Navy.

While at the University of Texas he had met Rebecca Ann Bentsen of McAllen, and they were married in December of 1969.

Mel earned his Navy wings and then was stationed in Washington, D.C. While at the Pentagon he received computer training and became a systems analyst, and also did post-graduate work in Business Administration at George Washington University.

While still in the Navy, he invested in prime development land near Durango, Colorado. Following his release from active duty in December of 1972, Mel and Becky returned to Amarillo. For two years they spent a considerable amount of time each summer in Colorado, developing two subdivisions at Lake Vallecito and starting a small construction company. They have farm land in South Texas, and are now renovating property on Polk Street in Amarillo.

Mel and Becky have one daughter, Abby, who was born in Amarillo in 1974. They are members of the First Presbyterian Church, where they attend Sunday School together and he serves as an usher.

Mel's interest in serving his community and his State is reflected in his civic activities. He is a Trustee of the Don Harrington Discovery Center, a Director of the Amarillo Child Care Association (the Children's Cottage), and a member of the Governing Board of the Texas Arts Alliance.

Mel is a life member of the Order of DeMolay, having served as West Texas area Master Counselor. He is also a member of the Kiwanis Club; Water, Inc.; Ducks Unlimited; and the Amarillo Historical Preservation Society.

Becky is a member of the Amarillo Art Alliance and attends all the Children's Cottage Board meetings with Mel. As members of the Art Center the family enjoys the exhibits and classes offered there.

Mel Phillips is devoted to his family, his church, and his community. And he is dedicated to making sure that the Panhandle and the whole State of Texas will continue to be the best place in the world to live, work, and raise a family.

Above all, Mel Phillips is a man who knows how to get the job done, and get it done right.

Vote for Mel Phillips. We need his experience, good judgment and common sense approach in Austin.

Because The Panhandle's Worth Fighting For.

WHAT MEL PHILLIPS BELIEVES

Farming & Ranching

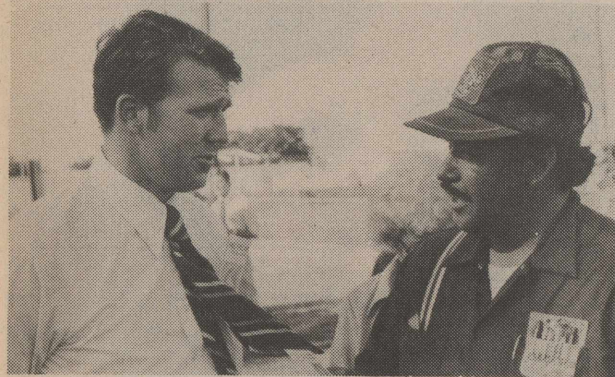

As your State Senator I will fight for the best interests of agriculture because our producers of food and fiber in Texas need all the help we can give them to offset the harmful effects of the farm policies created in Washington, D.C.

I will support creation of a West Texas Water District that could deal directly with other states having an excess of water.

I will oppose land use regulations, which would create serious difficulties for our already troubled agriculture industry.

Mel Phillips Supports 100% of parity.

Small Business

Because I am a small businessman, I know first-hand some of the problems in this area — putting in long hours to make a decent living; government rules and regulations that can only be understood by bureaucrats; and excessive taxes.

The long hours may go with this type of business, but unreasonable and complicated regulations that reduce your profit can be stopped. The rules and regulations that apply to business should be written in clear, easily-understood language.

And because I believe taxes should be reduced in Texas, I have pledged to introduce legislation to remove the State sales tax from your utility bills.

☆ No State Income Tax

☆ No Gun Control

☆ No Slush-Fund Retirement Plan

Education

I strongly believe that our children are our best investment.

Teaching is a full-time job with extremely long hours that demands unique and dedicated professionals. To guarantee that our children continue to receive the best instruction available, I will work hard for salaries that allow good teachers to stay in teaching. In order to attract and keep the good professional teachers it is time to make sure they receive our total support.

I feel that many recent experiments in technique have been merely detours, not short-cuts to learning. I am in favor of the "back-to-basics" trend seen recently in selection of textbooks at the State level.

Energy

It is wrong for us to be forced to supply oil and gas to the East while they refuse to drill off their own coast.

Texas is blessed with abundant energy resources, but we must ensure that our farmers and ranchers and our cities have the energy they need before we supply other states.

Our producers of energy are vital to the economic health of the Panhandle and the State as a whole, and I will continue to support their efforts to have prices set by a free market economy rather than by bureaucrats in Washington, D.C.

And because the various forms of solar energy are the only long-term answer to the energy problem, I will support research and development projects in this area.

"I have personally written this paper so you will know where I stand on the issues."

I am opposed to any state income tax, personal or corporate. It is better to stop the rampant growth of our State government than to follow in the footsteps of New York. Too many taxes weaken an economy. One of the reasons the Texas economy is so strong is that our low taxes make Texas an attractive place for industry to locate.

I oppose any government attempt to register or otherwise restrict our Right to Keep and Bear Arms. I will vote against any attempt to take away this right, because Gun Control does not work.

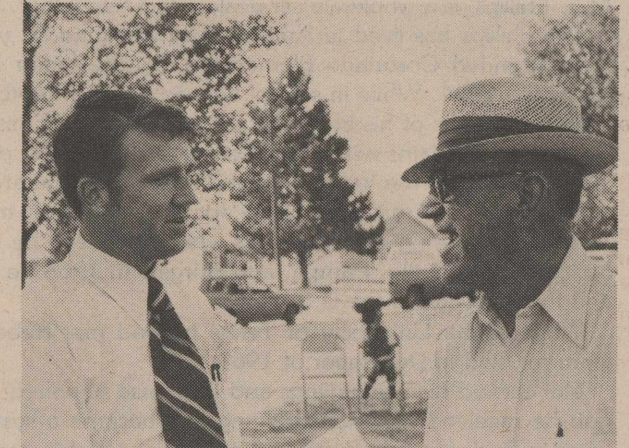

I am opposed to the "Slush Fund" retirement plan Texas Legislators set up for themselves without the consent of the voters. In May 1975 the Texas Legislature created a retirement plan under which they become eligible for benefits after only 8 years. The benefits are based not on a Legislator's salary but on the salary of a State District Judge, which is FIVE TIMES as much. After eleven years the retirement benefits are greater than the salary a Legislator receives while serving in office. This plan favors only Legislators. No other state employees are covered by it, and certainly no similar plan exists in the private sector. I believe this Slush-Fund Retirement Plan is unfair to the taxpayers of Texas. I will work to have the details of this plan submitted to the voters for your decision.

Senior Citizens

I oppose mandatory retirement for those who want to continue to work.

And I will work for passage of the Generic Drug bill as it was introduced in the last session of the Legislature.

Although one of my opponents voted against this bill, it is my belief that better communication about what drugs are being prescribed is to the benefit of both doctor and patient, and could certainly result in lower prescription costs for the patient in many cases. And the savings in tax dollars could be substantial in the case of patients who receive medical aid.

Vocational Education

"Training people to work in jobs where the demand is great and the supply limited" best describes the tremendous accomplishments of the Vocational Education system.

This concept has my full support, and as your Senator I will work hard to insure full funding and expanded opportunities for the training of skilled workers and craftsmen.

Why You Should Vote For Mel Phillips

LOWER TAXES

Increased State spending means higher taxes.

Last year Texas had a $3½ BILLION surplus. That is $291 for every man, woman and child in the state. If your elected officials had held the line on state spending our taxes could have been significantly reduced.

Mel Phillips believes that excess tax dollars should be returned to the people.

How?

1. By removing the state sales tax on your utility bill.
2. By increasing the inheritance tax exemption so family farms and businesses can be left to your children and not sold to pay taxes.

I strongly believe that the people of Texas know better how to spend their money than do bureaucrats in Austin.

Mel Phillips For State Senator

The Panhandle is often regarded as foreign territory by lawmakers from Houston, Dallas and San Antonio and it's important that we send the best possible representative to Austin.

Our choice for the job is Mel Phillips.

Phillips says he wants to use recently passed "Sunset" legislation to half the growth in state spending, and we believe he means it. We also believe a newcomer to politics (this is Phillips first race) is more likely to vote against increases in state appropriations than someone who has spent time in Austin as a legislator and has grown accustomed to the ways of state bureaucrats and lobbyists.

Lawyers have dominated the ranks of the legislature for years and many have rendered distinguished service to the state. But the state government and the people would be better served by a wider representation of professions amongst the legislators. A few farmers and ranchers would be good medicine. And Phillips is not a lawyer. He's an independent businessman with interests in ranching, development and construction.

The Miami Chief Thursday, Sept. 15, 1977

A lot of us today are skeptical of those who run and hold political jobs. Some candidates promise to do a number of things while soliciting our votes, but turn their attention to other interests when elected, I guess most of us are looking for an honest, common man aware of and willing to try to do something about all of our needs in the Panhandle. We are tired of fakers, pretenders, hypocrites, or whatever label you might want to include. We are looking for a man of his word. I think this feeling prevails not only on the state level but also on the federal level.

We found Mel Phillips easy to talk with, sincere, interested in the job he felt qualified to do. He comes from a working family and seems to understand the needs of all the people.

Mel Phillips Brings Issues

Mel Phillips, an Amarillo real estate developer, campaigned in Borger Saturday for the job of state senator, 31st district—that promises to be a free-swinging contest in October or November.

Phillips says the laws must be written in language the people can understand.

"I believe that most people want to be independent, and they resent having to consult a lawyer about every detail of their business and personal lives. The complicated language so frequently used in our laws reflects the influence of the bureaucracy rather than common sense."

"The State budget has grown from $3.7 billion 10 years ago to over $16 billion today. Unless we stop the rampant growth of Texas government the least that will happen is that there will be a State income tax. I oppose any State income tax and will strongly oppose increased State spending that would necessitate the tax," he said.

"I have found the people of the Panhandle are quite concerned the legislature passed a retirement plan for themselves without allowing the people to ever vote on this issue. To make matters worse, this slush fund retirement plan is tied to the salary of a district judge. A legislator could receive on retirement almost three times as much as his salary while in office," he explained.

Phillips says he is the only candidate in the senate race who refuses to accept money from the Austin lobby because he wants to represent only the people of the Panhandle.

"When I go to Austin my only obligation will be to the people of my district. But because I am not taking lobby money I need even more help and support from average men and women who want their elected officials to base their votes on the merits of each issue, rather than being swayed by the desires of groups who may have given five or ten thousand dollars to their campaign."

Phillips said he has also limited his campaign contributions to no more than $1,000 from any one individual or group.

"I have realized that this district needs to have a mobile district office. A mobile office will make it possible for me to serve my constituents much better. This close contact between the people and their elected representative will be my major goal while in office."

Sudan Beacon News

..... Mel Phillips is eager to seek answers to our special problems here on the high plains and in doing so, feels confident that he can serve the entire state while in office. Some of Mel's views are strongly in step with most of the opinions expressed by so many Panhandle residents. He feels laws should be written so that they are easily understandable by the average citizen; unnecessary state expenditures should be eliminated, government interference in our daily lives should be reduced; Panhandle schools need many improvements; and the Panhandle needs a stronger voice in Austin. Don't really mean to be on the stump with a speech, but this man really did impress us.

Melvin Phillips

Senate candidate would cut legislative goodies

Melvin Phillips, an Amarillo real estate developer, campaigned in Moore county last week for the job of state senator, 31st district—that promises to be a free-swinging contest in September and October.

Phillips, who has a family connection with U.S. Senator Lloyd Bentsen, is running on a program of limiting special benefits voted for themselves by Texas legislators.

He argues against a retirement system the Legislature set up in recent years that qualifies a legislator a retirement based on a district judge's pay, after only eight years in the Legislature.

"It's no surprise that the legislature keeps raising the pay of district judges," the candidate declares. "They are raising their retirement every time the judges' pay goes up."

"And who ever heard of the retirement for one office being based on the salary of another?" he adds.

The special benefits that legislators have provided for themselves leave them vulnerable to other persons seeking special legislation, Phillips contends.

The legislator would have established expiration times for all state agencies, with the requirement that the agencies justify their purpose and budgets anew at expiration time. "This would eliminate agencies whose purpose has expired and limit government bureaucracy, that is growing in Texas."

Phillips argues for less government in everyday matters, with reductions in state spending which, he points out, has quintupled in the past 10 years....

Why You Should Vote For Mel Phillips

You can learn a lot about a candidate by seeing how he finances his campaign.

I stated at the beginning of my campaign that I would refuse any and all money from the down state lobby, and this is what I have done. If a candidate cannot say NO to the lobby when he is running for office, do you really think he can say NO to their demands for more spending after the election is over? I think not.

When I am elected my only obligation will be to the people of my District, not to the organized special interests.

NO LOBBY MONEY

MOBILE DISTRICT OFFICE

Because this Senate District is larger than many States, I believe it is in our best interest to use a Mobile District Office to insure that all the people have more contact with their Senator. The Mobile Office will, on a regular schedule, visit each city in Senate District 31. Either Becky or I or my top assistant will be available to discuss any problem or pending legislation. This type of personal contact will bring State government closer to you and give you a better chance to make sure I know how you feel on the issues.

Mel Phillips Listens To The People

To the People of the 31st District:

I entered this race for the State Senate because I believe it is possible to have less government and lower taxes, but it is possible only if you will help.

My candidacy is unique in several important ways.

- 1. I am the only candidate to refuse any and all downstate lobby money. Because I am saying NO to the lobby during the campaign, I will be free to say NO to their requests for increased spending of our tax dollars.
- 2. I am a businessman, not a lawyer. At the present time $\frac{2}{3}$ of our Legislators are from one occupation — they are lawyers. I feel strongly that other points of view also need to be represented in Austin.
- 3. At the time this was written, I was the only candidate who had stated he would refuse to accept the benefits of the Texas slush-fund retirement plan that the Legislature created for itself in 1975. When your elected officials vote themselves this kind of fringe benefit with your tax dollars, I know they are not fighting inflation. Government starts inflation, and, if you will help me, I will fight inflation by working hard to reduce State spending.

I ask for your prayers and your help. If government is going to reflect your views, it is time to elect a Senator willing to fight for your interests.

Looking forward to working with you and for you, I am

Yours truly,

Mel Phillips, Jr.

"I strongly believe in West Texas and our way of life. If you agree I hope you will join in this campaign."
