

Hee Haw's Lulu Roman Is Coming To Cross Plains

Editor's Note: The following article was written by Mrs. Alan (Pill) Key about the upcoming E.M.S. Day planned for Cross Plains on Saturday, Nov. 6.

Get your overalls on and ya'll come! A celebrity is coming to our little town and she's country!

Lulu Roman of Hee Haw will be featured at the E.M.S. Talent Show, Saturday, Nov. 6. She will sing some country and western, some gospel, do some comedy, and will present her personal testimony. If you haven't heard this testimony, you should! It's great! There will be some local talent that will also perform and the E.M.S. will demonstrate some techniques everyone needs to know! It's going to be a very fulfilling night. Don't miss it!

There have been a number of businesses to donate cash to the E.M.S. for the expense of getting Lulu here so that all the money raised selling tickets will be clear profit for the E.M.S. I would like to thank these businesses and urge everyone to support them! They are: Joe and Delma Coppinger (personal donation), N. L. and Ann Long (personal donation), Southern Savings & Loan, McNeel Insurance, Cross Plains Grain & Peanut, B&D Drilling, Cross Plains Discount, Citizens State Bank, Pan-cake Drilling Company, Nell Bowden (personal donation), Higginbotham's, all with $50.00; Triple S Roustabout $100.00, Rafter K, Odom's Restaurant, Cross Plains Auto Supply, Mike's Wrecking, Dillard Texaco $25.00, and Johnson's Dry Goods $15.00. Key Well Service is making a $200.00 donation in the memory of my father, Neal M. Dillard. Any other business that would like to make a donation contact me at 725-7243 or Paula Kelley at 725-6442.

Lulu's agent suggested that we sell the tickets for at least $6.00, which might sound high to some of you but they sell for $8.00 to $10.00 in larger towns. All of the proceeds of the tickets will go to the E.M.S. for the purchase of a new ambulance!

I don't know whether you are aware of it or not, but Sunday afternoon the E.M.S. was making a run and broke down this side of Abilene. All I can say is, "What if it had been you or your family in there and every minute counted?" Don't panic yet, it is in working order again, but we do need a new one! Everyone can help by turning out for E.M.S. Day. You'll be giving and having fun at the same time! Buy your tickets now. There is a limited supply. We are giving the people of Cross Plains

Club who accepted $1.00 donations on two half-beeves to earn the money. The beef was donated by an unnamed benefactor and it was processed and wrapped without charge by Cross Plains Frozen Food Locker here. Drawing for the winners was held at halftime of the homecoming football game Saturday, Oct. 16. Winners were Clark Odell and Doyle Clawson.

Late Tally Lifts Buffaloes To 12-7 District 8-A Win

A touchdown with less than two minutes left in the game gave Cross Plains Buffaloes second District 8-A victory and that of the season at Evant last Friday night.

Trailing 7-6 from early in the second half, Cross Plains took a punt from the host Evant Elks as the clock wound down in the fourth quarter. Buffalo Halfback Tommy Johnston rambled 45 yards for an apparent go-ahead touchdown. That fine performance was called back on a clipping penalty. In the same series, after a third down pass failed, Buffs faced fourth down and 25 for a first.

Quarterback Dennis Koenig was chased out of the pocket attempting to pass then threw a 47 yard pass to End Ronald Hilburn at about the 10-yard line. A roughing the passer penalty moved the ball to the Evant five. Koenig scored on the third try with 1:25 left in the game. A run was not successful on the conversion try but the Herd owned the 12-7 margin of victory.

At the game's outset Cross Plains took a punt after kicking off to Evant and mounted a 66-70 yard drive to the Elks three. At that point Evant recovered a Buff fumble.

After Evant punted Cross Plains again started a drive. In the first part of the second quarter Buffalo Koenig scored on a 27-yard option play. Kick failed on the conversion attempt.

Evant took the lead in the third period when Evant covered a Bison fumble at the Herd's 45. On third play Elk Allan Manning ran 30 yards for the touchdown, and Darrin Standard kicked the point for the go-ahead 7-6 score.

In the statistics battle Cross Plains collected 13 first downs to 12 for Evant. Bisons rushed for 205 yards while the Elks got 157. Passing yardage favored the Buffs 59 to 49. Cross Plains drew 4 penalties for 35 yards, and Evant had two for 20 yards. Each team punted four times Cross Plains averaging 31.2 and Evant 35.

Individual yardage was reported as Dennis Koenig 85 yards, and Tony Apple and Tommy Johnston 64 yards each. Leading Buffalo tacklers were Scott Taylor with 14 and Mike Newman 12.

A tough Blanket team is scheduled to be in Buffalo Stadium Friday night for a 7:30 p.m. District 8-A contest. The Tigers are highly respected this season, and dropped a 14-12 decision to Gorman last week-end.

MITE FOOTBALL SWEET-HEART—Miss Beth Wood was crowned Cross Plains Junior High School Football Sweetheart at halftime ceremonies of the Cross Plains-Evant game last Thursday. She was elected by members of the Mighty Mite team, and was escorted by team captains for the ceremonies. The 13-year-old eighth grader is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Wood. Miss Wood is active in band, basketball, music and dance.

SENIOR CITIZENS MUSICAL DELAYED TO NOVEMBER

The regular monthly musical sponsored by the Senior Citizens was scheduled to be held Friday, Nov. 5, but has been postponed to November 12.

Dessa Higgins, who works with the musical apologizes for the change of time, and hopes that no one will be inconvenienced. "The circumstances just can't be helped," said Mrs. Higgins, "but the musical should take place at regular time next month."

GOSPEL MISSION PLANS HOMECOMING ON TUESDAY

A homecoming has been planned at the Gospel Mission in Cross Plains for Tuesday, Nov. 2, starting at 7 p.m.

It was also announced that due to the change in time, regular meeting time on Wednesday and Sunday has been changed to 6 p.m.

"Please come on out and enjoy the musical with us on November 12", she said.

Clock Changing Time Again Saturday Night

It's that time of year again when the nation changes time.

Most of the United States will revert back to Standard Time early Sunday morning, Oct. 31, and finally getting back that hour's sleep lost about six months ago.

If local residents don't want to be an hour early for Sunday School, church services, work or whatever on October 31 (Halloween) they should run clocks back one hour before retiring for the night.

Federal statutes call for most of the nation to spend about six months on Daylight Savings Time in an effort to conserve fuel during the warmer months.

Senior Class Plans Halloween Carnival

The Senior Class at Cross Plains High School will sponsor a Halloween Carnival Saturday night, Oct. 30.

Plans call for doors to open at 7:30 p.m. and close at 9:30 at the Multi-Purpose Center where booths will be set up, and at the Christian Youth Center where the class plans to have a spook house.

A spokesman for the class stated Tuesday morning that there will be no admission charge at the Multi-Purpose Center, but each of the games will be 25 cents. Included in the games will be fishing, cake walk, dart throw, bingo and pie throw.

EVANGELICAL METHODISTS SET COLONIAL OAKS RITES

The Evangelical Methodist Church will be in charge of the regular Sunday afternoon services at Colonial Oaks Nursing Home October 31 at 3:30 p.m.

General Election Set For Tuesday

Texas will go to the polls next Tuesday, Nov. 2, for General Election, picking persons to represent them at level varying from United States Senator to the precinct positions.

There has been "get out the vote" campaigns in various parts of the state, but no more than a moderate turnout is expected. Number of voters going to the polls in Callahan County could be light, due to the fact that there are no local or area races, and there were no write-in qualifiers. Hot senate and state races could bolster voter turnout over the state.

Polls will be open from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. across Texas.

Four parties with candidates will be represented on ballots, and there will be six proposed amendments to the Texas Constitution to be considered.

A check with Darlene Walker, Callahan County Clerk, revealed that 23 persons had been in to vote in person via the absentee method, and another 16 ballots had been mailed out. Absentee voting in person will stop at 5 p.m. Friday, but mail ballots will be accepted until voting time.

Cross Plains eligible voters, each of who will have an orange colored registration which should be presented when voting Tuesday, will mark ballots in the City Hall. Mrs. Bill (Katie) Kilgore will be the election judge.

Voting precincts judges and place to vote across the county are as follow.

Precinct 1, Baird, Jon Hardwick, Community Center.

Precinct 2, Clyde, Leo Dixon, Lions Club Building.

Cross Cut Cemetery Nets $130 In Gifts

Memorial gifts have added $130 to the treasury of the Cross Cut Cemetery Association during the past few days, according to O. B. Byrd, secretary for the cemetery organization.

Judy Byrd made a $100 contribution in memory of Allie Hounshell, Chris Hounshell, Bud Hounshell and Bart Thomas, according to the secretary. Two other donations were reported as Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Hounshell $20 in memory of Allie Hounshell, and Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Hounshell $10 in memory of Allie Hounshell.

Cross Cut Cemetery Association was chartered to oversee funds collected and invested in interest bearing securities providing permanent care for the burial grounds.

Gifts may be sent to the Cross Cut Cemetery Association in care of Mr. Byrd on Route 2, Cross Plains, Texas 76443. Donations will be acknowledged in columns of the Review periodically.

TRICK OR TREAT DUE HERE SATURDAY NIGHT

Consensus seems to show that trick or treaters will be out in the community Saturday night due to the fact that Halloween falls on a Sunday this year. Persons are being asked to expect the children one night early this year.

BLOOD PRESSURE CLINIC SET AT CENTER ON THURSDAY

A blood pressure clinic will be held at the Multi-Purpose Center on East 8th Street in Cross Plains Thursday, Oct. 28, from 10 a.m. to 12 noon. Anyone wishing to have their blood pressure checked may do so during the appointed hours without charge.

6th Proposed Amendment Change Briefly Explained

Editor's Note: Following is the last of a six-part series concerning proposed amendments to the Texas Constitution, giving arguments for and against its adoption at the general election November 2. This information was provided through the courtesy of State Representative Joe C. Hanna of Breckenridge, who represents Callahan County. The study was done by the Texas Legislative Council.

AMENDMENT NO. 6

"The constitutional amendment increasing the maximum interest rate allowed on state general obligation bonds to a weighted average annual interest rate of 12%.

Arguments For:

1. The 12 per cent rate ceiling is necessary to sell bonds that have already been authorized by voters of the state. The current six per cent interest ceiling is too low for the state to sell bonds in the current bond market, and it does not appear that, in the near future, the interest rates will fall low enough to permit the authorized bond to be sold.

2. Bond interest rates are set by the bond market and not by the state. This proposed amendment does not increase interest rates; it only permits the state to sell previously authorized bonds in today's market.

Arguments Against:

1. The expenditures for which the proceeds of bonds affected by the proposed amendment will be used can be postponed until interest come down to a reasonable level. Payment of interest at rates above six per cent a year is too costly.

2. Payment of interest at increased rates contributes to the inflationary process. If inflation is to be controlled, the state must bite the bullet and not increase its debt by selling more bonds.

United Methodists Plan Revival Oct. 31 - Nov. 3

First United Methodist Church in Cross Plains will be in revival four days, beginning Sunday, Oct. 31, through Wednesday, Nov. 3.

Services are scheduled at 7 p.m. each evening, Sunday through Wednesday. "Everyone is invited to attend any or all of the services," said Rev. Bill Reed, pastor of the host church, located at North Main and George Scott Streets.

Evangelist for the revival will be Dr. Gaston Foote of Fort Worth. "He is a widely known preacher and teacher of the gospel," said Rev. Reed, "and we feel honored to be able to have him in our church for this revival."

Dr. Foote has served as pastor of churches in Amarillo, Little Rock, Ark., Montgomery, Ala., Dayton, Ohio, and spent 20 years as pastor of the First Methodist Church in Fort Worth. Since June 1972, he has been Professor Brite Divinity at Texas Christian University.

Having studied at five universities, he has written six titles during the span of 1953 to 1967. In addition to being an exchange preacher to two countries and a guest preacher for the U. S. Air Force in three far-flung places, he has served as delegate to jurisdictional, General and World Conferences. He is an editorial writer for the Fort Worth Star-Telegram and was named Distinguished Alumnus of Southern Methodist University.

Antlerless Permits Available Friday

Texas Parks and Wildlife Department will issue antlerless deer permits for Callahan County on Friday, Oct. 29 from 8 a.m. to 12 noon and from 1 to 5 p.m. in the county courthouse at Baird.

A map with the antlerless deer permit issuance compartments and issuance rates will be posted in the county courthouse and at the Justice of the Peace office in Cross Plains prior to the issuance date. To qualify for permits, a landowner must own or control acreage equal to at least one-half of the permit issuance rate of the compartment where the tract is located.

After the opening of the hunting season, permits will only be available through the Austin office and will not be issued by local department personnel. Landowners or their agents are urged to pick up permits on the scheduled issuance dates.

Rowden Sector News

By Mrs. N. V. Gibbs

We are having typical fall weather, cool mornings and warming up in the afternoons. One-half inch of moisture was gauged last week from early morning clouds.

Saturday, Oct. 30, is the regular monthly supper and visitation at the Community Center. Be there at 6:30 p.m. with your supper. We welcome guests, too.

Those visiting in the Gene Mauldin home Saturday were his uncle, Mrs. Russell Dye and her guest, Mrs. Dorothy Holstead of Houston spent Friday in Breckenridge with Mary Sayre and Ed and Betty Sayre.

Those visiting in the Raymond Gibbs home were Gaston Wylie and Mr. and Mrs. Garland Wells of Baird. Also Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy West of the community.

Mrs. N. V. Gibbs and Judy Steele were in Abilene Monday and stopped by West Texas Medical Center to visit Walter and Esther Rose who are medical patients there. They are both improving. Mrs. Rose entered the hospital last Tuesday after suffering a light stroke in her home in Cross Plains.

Mr. Rose underwent surgery the same day. Mrs. Curtis Springfield spent part of last week with them in the hospital. On Sunday, Bruce and Barbara Rose of Fort Worth visited.

TO THE VOTERS OF CALLAHAN COUNTY

For most Americans, the good citizen is a person who contributes actively to the political life of the nation, rather than just passively complying with its rules.

On November 2nd we will again go to the polls to vote our convictions as a citizen of this great Nation. Although we do not have a contested local race, we do have important races in our State and Federal Governments.

The local Government is an arm of the State and Federal Government, therefore it is certainly important that we take part in selecting the individuals we desire to represent us.

I encourage all eligible voters of Callahan County to exercise this privilege guaranteed by the Constitution of the United States.

Sincerely,

MACK KNIFFEN

Callahan County Judge

State Capital HIGHLIGHTS

By Lyndell Williams

As the 1982 campaign season moved into the final stretch last week, the statewide races began to get even hotter than they have been.

Gov. Bill Clements and his Republican colleague Sen. Bill Meier, candidate for attorney general, have already dredged up old charges of drunk driving and obstruction of justice against their Democratic opponents. Now, agriculture commissioner candidate Fred Thornberry has leveled what could become criminal charges against his Democratic opponent Jim Hightower.

Thornberry, who was hand-picked by the State Republican Party to replace original GOP agriculture commissioner candidate Donald Hebert, has alleged "gross irregularities" in the campaign contributions and expense reports filed by Hightower.

Thornberry campaign staff members say Hightower reported no contributions or expenses during the period from May 2 to Aug. 4. They also contend that nearly $10,000 collected at the Washington, D. C., fundraiser also were not listed in the report filed by Hightower in late September.

Hightower campaign manager Kristin Ozmun says the discrepancy was caused by the sudden resignation of Hightower's campaign treasurer in May. A new treasurer did not take over until early August.

Ozmun says all expenses and contributions from the May-August period were reported in the September statement but, at the direction of the Secretary of State's Office, were listed from the date the new treasurer was hired.

As for the fundraiser proceeds, Ozmun says those funds were not turned over to the Hightower campaign until last week and, therefore, were not in hand at the time the report was filed.

Thornberry's staff has filed a complaint against Hightower with the secretary of state and has threatened to take the matter to Travis County District Attorney Ronald Earle.

Attorney General's Race
 Meanwhile, Democratic attorney general nominee Jim Mattox got some help, but not an endorsement, in his race against GOP nominee Meier.

The Texas Consumer Association blasted Meier for his "anti-consumer" attitudes.

"Bill Meier will protect the loan sharks, the phony land developers, the utility companies and the lemon car dealers," charged TCA president Rebecca Lightsey.

Lightsey also contended that Meier has spent his legislative career trying to destroy the consumer protection laws he would be charged with enforcing as attorney general.

While Meier was criticized by the consumers group, however, he did collect the endorsement of an anti-crime organization. Meier has stressed his support for anti-crime laws during the campaign.

Even though the consumers criticized Meier, they stopped short of endorsing Mattox or Libertarian Katherine Youngblood who also is in the race.

Teacher Survey
 Some 37 per cent of Texas' classroom teachers are thinking of quitting, according to the results of a survey released recently.

The survey, conducted in cooperation with the Texas State Teachers Association, showed that one in three Texas teachers are close to quitting because of low pay, stress and frustration.

The survey was based on responses from 319 classroom teachers selected randomly from the membership rolls of TSTA. It was designed by three college professors.

The results also showed that some 29 per cent of the teachers hold second jobs during the school year.

Even though the teachers said they were contemplating leaving the profession, the current economic conditions are expected to delay many from doing so, at least until the economy gets better.

Researchers who conducted the survey—and a similar one in 1980—say the average teacher salary has risen in the past two years from $14,113 to $17,351.

Anti-Crime Proposals
 Gov. Clements has unveiled the new anti-crime package he will push in the Legislature next year, if he gets re-elected.

Clements was very successful pushing his War on Drugs package through the Legislature in 1981.

The new proposals include even tougher laws to control drugs and a crackdown on drunk drivers.

Clements also has proposed closing loopholes that permit criminal defendants to abuse the insanity defense, allowing the introduction of evidence discovered by police officers in the course of action taken in the good faith and reasonable belief that their action was legitimate and requiring defendants to allege defects in indictments before trial or else waive the right to appeal a conviction because of faulty indictment.

Clements' proposals were released just a day before a special traffic safety task force appointed by the governor handed down recommendations for strengthening the state laws on driving while intoxicated.

Several leaders of the anti-drunk driving group Mothers Against Drunk Drivers have endorsed Clements for re-election because their efforts to crackdown on DWI suspects.

MADD has proposed mandatory prison time for drunk drivers, raising the legal minimum drinking age to 21 and tightening loopholes that allow DWI suspects to plead guilty to the lesser charge of public intoxication or be granted deferred adjudication to keep the DWI conviction off their records.

Clements has not given any specifics of how his proposals should be implemented.

Bromeliads Make Extra Nice Plants For Inside

Bromeliads (air plants) are fine house plants, for they combine near indestructibility with bold handsome foliage and exotic flowers. Relatives of the pineapple, they are succulent to the extent that most of them have a natural cuplike reservoir for holding water deep in the center of the leaf formation, enabling them to go for fairly long periods without water at their roots. They grow well in almost any environment, and prefer semi-shade.

Some bromeliads, like orchids, are epiphytes, anchoring their roots to trees, but not taking their nourishment from them.

Probably one of the most popular bromeliads is the zebra plant with its striped and wavy leaves. They are metallic bronze-brown with irregular silver bands.

Other plants have green leaves superbly striped with a variety of colors from creamy white to deep crimson. Flowers are usually borne on stiff, long stems and range from light yellow to reds, purple and blue bracts and flowers.

Potting soil is usually any rich, fluffy and porous mixture, such as: 1 part coarse builders sand, and 1 part leaf mold, peat moss or humus. Add a generous sprinkling of crushed flower pots for drainage, and a little charcoal to keep the mixture from souring. Fill the container one-third full of gravel before adding the potting soil mixture. Place in semi- or filtered sunlight to maintain good color. Water from above by filling the center cups of the plant. Soil should be soaked then allowed to become almost dry before watering again.

Plants are propagated by carefully separating the baby shoots from the parent, taking plenty of roots. The young plants should be about 6 months old before separation.

Bromeliads are usually pest free, but if scale insects do appear, scrub off with a stiff tooth brush dipped in soapy water, then spray well with clear water to rinse. Never use insecticides on air plants.

Ex-Burkett Pastor Honoree At Stephenville Recently

Editor's Note: Following is a re-print of a story from the Coleman County Chronicle about Rev. Milton E. Baty of Stephenville, former Burkett pastor, who was honored recently as Stephenville's Senior Citizen of the month. The article first appeared in the Stephenville Empire-Tribune.

A Baptist minister for some 47 years, Rev. Milton Earl Baty will soon reach his goal of preaching for 50 years. Rev. Baty is the Town and Country Bank Senior Citizen of the month for September.

Rev. Baty was born in Bosque County on December 30, 1907 but moved with his parents to Prairie Valley near Whitel. A student at Hillsboro Junior College and Tyler Commercial College, Rev. Baty received his pastoral training at Denver Bible Institute in Colorado.

He married Tommie Lue Hicks of Hillsboro and the couple took over their first church in Bosque County. "We waded the Brazos River carrying our baby son," remembers Rev. Baty, "and then walked 2 1/2 miles to the church. The Batys waded that river frequently until Odis Auten, father of Mrs. Reece Jones, offered to transport them back and forth in his boat.

During his years in the ministry, Rev. Baty has served with churches in Erath, Hill, Comanche, Taylor, Parker and Coleman counties. He served on the Executive Board of the Baptist Convention of Texas for three years and as camp Trustee for the Heart of Texas Baptist Encampment near Brownwood.

His last official church was in Comyn, but poor health forced him to leave there in May of 1981. Despite a number of serious illnesses, Rev. Baty still takes an active part in the ministry. He was elected chaplain for the Community Nursing Home and brings a devotional each week.

The Batys have two children, four grandchildren and recently greeted their first great-grandchild.

First Baptists Will Show New Graham Film Sunday

"The Living Word," a new film produced by World Wide Pictures, will be presented by the First Baptist Church at 1045 Main Street, on Sunday, Oct. 31 at 6 p.m. The showing is free, and open to the public.

Featuring narration by Billy Graham and Cliff Barrows, the film weaves together Scripture passages, great works of religious art, music, and some of the most stunning color footage ever filmed in the Holy Land. The film touches the heart and mind of the viewer with its relevance to twentieth-century mankind.

Rich in visual beauty, and enhanced by a powerful, original, musical score, "The Living Word" brings the pages of the Bible to life in a fresh new way.

The Reverend Burlie W. Taylor, pastor of The First Baptist Church, is extending an invitation to all to attend. "The Living Word" is an outstanding film for anyone who has unanswered questions about just what the Bible means to us today. The producers of the film feel the real beauty of the production is not so much the color photography, which is truly memorable, but more the clear way in which it explains what the Christian faith really is. God has a plan for us, set in motion at the moment of Creation, and it's still being realized today. The film aims to help each viewer discover that plan, and to see how our lives fit into that plan.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Champion and Calvin had dinner Sunday for Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Clark and Larry Copeland of Abilene.
