Party Assured Solid Control Of Senate

Easier Relations With House Due For President

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9—Late returns from Tuesday's election today delivered to the Democrats a plurality of at least 49 members in the House, building up the most impressive party gain in that body since the first Roosevelt victory in 1932.

Democrats maintained firm control of the Senate. Five hot undecided contests obscured the exact size of its majority.

The Democratic gain in the 453-member House apparently assured President Roosevelt an easier relationship with this body where often in recent months Republicans and anti-administration Democrats have joined to control important legislation.

241 Democrats Elected

The latest returns showed this House lineup:

Democrats elected 241.
Republicans elected 179.
Minor parties elected 2.
Seats still in doubt 13.

Four of the undecided House seats are in Missouri and will not be decided until tomorrow when absentee ballots are counted.

This contrasted with the present hair line House division of 214 Democrats, 212 Republicans and four minor party members. There now are five vacancies, due to death and resignations.

Senate Strength In Balance

Races being fought out right down the stretch in Missouri, Nevada, New Jersey, Ohio and Pennsylvania will determine whether Senate Democrats can sustain their strength of 58 members. Tuesday's elections already have assured them of 55 seats, compared to a sure 35 to be held by Republicans, and one by a Progressive.

Here is the picture as final returns are awaited:

Missouri: Gov. Forrest C. Donnell, Republican, led Democratic Attorney General Roy McKittrick by 3,033 votes with 113 precincts unreported and service votes still to be counted.

Nevada: Senator Pat McCarran, Democrat, pulled to a 3,033 lead over Republican George W. Malone with only 49 precincts out.

New Jersey: Only 17 voting units remained to be heard from when H. Alexander Smith, Re-

FDR Is Gaining In Michigan

DETROIT, Nov. 9 (AP)—A recheck of 81 Wayne county precincts by the board of canvassers indicated today Governor Thomas E. Dewey's lead over President Roosevelt for Michigan's 19 electoral votes had been slashed to 1,657 votes.

The county board of canvassers, checking what they said were previously uncounted presidential votes in the 81 precincts, announced the tally showed 31,432 votes for President Roosevelt, 17,998 for Dewey.

Adding these to previous unofficially tabulated Michigan returns, the revised total would be: Roosevelt 1,045,389, Dewey, 1,047,446.

Thirteen Precincts Remain

Thirteen other Wayne county precincts remained to be checked by the canvassers at a meeting tomorrow.

Basing his prediction on normally heavy Democratic majorities in these missing precincts, in Detroit and environs, E. Cyril Bevan, Democratic national committeeman from Michigan, forecast that they would tip the state into the Roosevelt column, possibly by less than 5,000 votes.

The Wayne (Detroit) precincts being rechecked today and tomorrow were those in which inexperienced election workers Wednesday "lost" an estimated 50,000 votes from the presidential totals by neglecting or failing to consolidate their tally sheets.

Popular Vote Margin Is Slim

Roosevelt Edge Less Than 3 Million, Narrowest Of Any Race Since 1916

(By The Associated Press)

President Roosevelt's fourth term victory, sweeping in the electoral vote, was won by the smallest popular vote margin since 1916, the nearly complete returns indicated today.

With 44,391,849 votes reported, the President's edge over Gov. Thomas E. Dewey stood at 2,867,319: Roosevelt 23,629,951 and Dewey 20,761,898.

The President was leading in states with 413 electoral votes and Dewey in states with 118, but where Michigan's 19 votes eventually would wind up was in doubt although Dewey held a slight lead.

Nearly 5 Million In 1940

Four years ago the President won by 4,938,711 over Wendell L. Willkie in a total popular vote of 49,815,312. In 1936, he defeated Alf Landon by over 10,000,000 and in 1932 won from Herbert Hoover by more than 7,000,000.

Hoover's margin over Al Smith in 1928 exceeded 6,000,000, Calvin Coolidge won over John W. Davis in 1924 by more than 7,000,000 and Warren G. Harding defeated James Cox in 1920 by over 7,000,000.

Woodrow Wilson's margin over Charles E. Hughes in 1916 was only 591,385.

Nation "Binds Up Wounds"

Meantime, the nation bound up its election wounds and settled down to a let's-get-on-with-the-war attitude.

"Let us unite to win the war and to achieve a lasting peace" was the solemn request of Mr Roosevelt as he prepared to return to Washington from Hyde Park. This was the attitude, too, of Dewey.

Conference Expected

Mr. Roosevelt's vote of confidence will still be fresh as he heads into an expected talk before Christmas with Stalin and Churchill.

Governor Dewey of New York, who philosophically accepted his defeat for the presidency, could take pride in the fact that the indicated popular vote margin by which he lost is the smallest in 28 years

He made plans for a vacation in Georgia, a state which incidentally almost doubled its Republican vote over 1940. Indeed, the southern Republican vote increased sufficiently to start New Orleans partisans to start talking of a strong two-party system in Louisiana.

Conduct Of U. S. Election Is Praised

Churchill Advocates 'Big Three' Meeting

LONDON, Nov. 9. (UP) — Prime Minister Winston Churchill indicated today that he, President Roosevelt and Premier Josef Stalin might meet again soon and said the Allied armies on the northwestern front "will presently move into Germany for the final struggle."

President Roosevelt's re-election "vastly improved" the prospects for another Anglo-American-Russian conference, and it is "high time" for the big three leaders to meet again, Churchill told a lord mayor's luncheon audience at Mansion house.

The belief persisted generally in London that Mr. Roosevelt might be preparing to leave the United States very soon for a meeting with Churchill and Stalin. It was heightened by the prime minister's optimistic remarks today, coming after his recent statement in Commons that he hoped for such a conference before the end of the year.

Speaks Only Briefly

Churchill spoke only briefly of the present and prospective status of the war in Europe. He dismissed the outlook for its end with the assertion that "no one can be blamed for hoping that victory may come to the Allies and peace may come to Europe in 1945."

But an implicit suggestion of approaching offensives was contained in his observation that with the great port of Antwerp at the disposal of the Allies the armies on the northern flank "presently" will drive into Germany.

The Allied advance after the

FDR Pledged To Broad Plan

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9. (AP) — The fourth successive Roosevelt administration will take office January 20 pledged to the most comprehensive program in any nation's history.

And the President just reelected along with a stronger Democratic Congress than he has enjoyed for several years can get down to work immediately on that program without waiting for the routine inaugural ceremonies on the capitol plaza.

As outlined by Mr. Roosevelt in the recent campaign, the administration policies of the future will point mainly to these general courses:

1. An "orderly" reconversion to civilian production in due time.

To Speed Domobilization

2. Demobilization as rapidly as is permitted by military necessity.

3. A world security organization with America's representatives endowed in advance with "authority to act" in halting aggression.

4 America at peace, though kept "prepared" for any threat to peace.

5. A post-war economic goal of 60,000,000 productive jobs in a nation freed of war-time controls over wages, prices and production.

Although the President is due back in the White House tomorrow, foreign policies and international security probably will await another conference with Churchill and Stalin.

Vast Construction Seen

Domestically, the administration program looks ahead to a demand for "well over a million homes a year for at least ten years." Such

Methodist Session Opens In Sweetwater

SWEETWATER, Nov. 9 (AP) — Over 500 persons are expected to attend the annual Northwest Texas Methodist conference now in session here.

Special meetings were held yesterday. Bishop Charles C. Selecman and district superintendents conferred. Later a board of evangelism luncheon was presided over by the Rev. Frank Beauchamp of Abernathy.

The conference formally opened last night with a sermon by Dr. Allen W. Moore of the First Methodist church, Dallas. Ray H. Nichols of Vernon presided over a laymen's dinner.

Sermons today will be delivered by Dr. Warren E. Johnston of Fort Worth. Dr. Marshall Steel of the Highland Park Methodist church of Dallas will speak Friday and Dr. Eugene B. Hawk of Southern Methodist university will deliver the ordination sermon Saturday.

Appointments will be read at a final session Sunday.

Eisenhower Gets Ovation In Speech To Belgian Parliament

BRUSSELS, Nov. 9. (AP)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower told the Belgian parliament today that the Allies were fighting "an enemy who understands only one thing —force—and we intend to apply force to the utmost."

The Allied supreme commander received a tumultous ovation as he entered the packed chamber of deputies to address both houses.

Eisenhower was accompanied by top Allied Army, Navy and Air force commanders including Lt. Gen. Omar N. Bradley and Air Chief Marshal Sir Arthur Tedder.

"We are sensible of sacrifices you have made," Eisenhower said, "and as far as possible consistent with military operations I pledge that you will get everything we can bring you. I only ask that you understand we are doing our best."

The general's promise of aid was interpreted as indicating his concern over the current shortage of civilian supplies in Belgium, where the bulk of the people face the prospect of a heatless and hungry winter.

Premier Hubert Pierlot in a voice ringing with emotion, said to Eisenhower:

"General, you launched the greatest battle of all times and

Small Nations Seek Equality In Aviation

CHICAGO, Nov. 9 (UP) — Latin American delegates to the civil aviation conference have drafted their formal proposal to give small nations equality in the postwar international aviation organization, it was learned today.

The United Press learned the Latin Americans, with mandates from their respective governments, will propose establishment of an international aviation assembly with equal voting power for all members and an interim council of 15 members "freely elected by the assembly."

Their plan, offered as an alternative proposal to the United States' draft for a 15-member council which apparently would be dominated by America, Britain and Russia, does not specify the makeup of the council.

In electing the council, however, the assembly would seek to "give adequate representation therein to those countries that have attained largest development in the field of international civil aviation and to various existing regional areas."

There is no provision for weighted voting, as in the American proposal under which the U. S., British Commonwealth and Russia would have two votes each, China, France and Brazil on vote each, and rotating members, with one vote each, as follows: Three from Europe, two from the western hemisphere and one from Africa-Asia.

Latin Studies To Be Discussed At Meet

AUSTIN, Nov. 9. (UP)—Problems and new angles of teaching Spanish and Portuguese in colleges and public schools will be discussed here Nov. 11 at a conference sponsored by the National Education association, the Austin chapter of the American Association of Teachers of Spanish, and the Institute of Latin-American studies.

Among leaders for sessions at the University of Texas will be Dr. C. W. Hackett, director of the Latin-American affairs Washington, D. C.; Mrs. Eloise Quarles, Waco; Prof. J. Lloyd Read of San Marcos; Dr. J. R. Spell and Dr. Aaron Schaffer, university professors, and John Gunstream, state director of radio and visual education.

Bombers Clear Path For Drive

Nazi Front Line Positions Lashed

(By The Associated Press)

LONDON, Nov. 9—More than 1,300 American heavy bombers pounded German front line positions in the Metz area today to clear a path for the Third army fighting toward the German frontier.

The bombers swept over the battlelines at levels lower than usual. Hundreds of divebombers struck the area both before and after the Flying Fortresses and Liberators attacked.

Perhaps 500 fighters escorted the heavies.

The main attack was timed for about mid-morning and was carried out in muggy overcast weather, crews reported. No German interceptors were encountered and flak was not heavy. Pathfinders marked the targets, but some bombers were able to lay their explosives visually.

Snow Blankets Battlefield

An air force statement described the objectives simply as "tactical targets in the Metz area."

Crews flew in 45-below-zero temperatures part of the way and said some of the battleground was blanketed with snow. Front line troops presumably were pulled back during the attack, as they were at St. Lo.

The aerial bombardment of western Germany went on today with an attack on objectives in the Ruhr by a force of escorted RAF Lancasters.

No Targets Named

No targets were named, but the attack probably was aimed at further crippling Nazi communications lines to the front. Two bombers were lost.

The German radio reported another flight of bombers approaching the Reich from the south. By mid-morning several Nazi stations, including Cologne, had gone off the air.

A small force fo RAF Mosquitos attacked Hannover and other objectives in western Germany during the night without loss.

Nazi Oil Plants Hit

A damaging double-barreled blow was struck at German synthetic oil plants yesterday at Merseburg and Homberg at a cost of six bombers — five American and one British.

Two of about a dozen German jet-propelled fighters were shot down.

One RAF fighter was lost and 42 U. S. fighters failed to return, but most of them were reported to have landed in France because of the weather.

RAF rocket-firing Typhoons yesterday blew up a German headquarters building near the Reichswald forest southeast of Nijmegen.

Ferrying Commander At El Paso Killed

EL PASO, Nov. 9. (UP)—A full military escort was to accompany the body of Lt. Col. L. C. Larsen, 47, to Los Angeles today.

Col. Larsen, former engineer for the city of Los Angeles, was killed yesterday at Midland, when his twin-engined fighter plane crashed during a take off.

He was commanding officer of the ferrying division of the air transport command unit at El Paso municipal airport.

A veteran of overseas duty, Col. Larsen was deputy group commander in the South Atlantic wing of the air transport command with headquarters in British Guiana from July, 1942 until March, 1943.

Ickes Follows Custom; Submits Resignation

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9 (AP) — Interior Secretary Ickes told his news conference today he had submitted his resignation to President Roosevelt as he had done after previous elections.

Asked if he had any reason to believe the resignation would be accepted, Ickes smiled, replied "I don't know," then added as an aside: "This man Dewey said he was coming down here to fire me anyway."

He had no other comment on the resignation, a customary cabinet action following election day.

Typhoon Halts Weary Yanks On Leyte

Reinforced Enemy Forces Also Held Up By Cold Rain

Weary, water-soaked American infantrymen fought in a raging 100-mile-an-hour typhoon on the slippery ridges of northern Leyte island today against fresh Japanese soldiers whose arrogant new commander boasted he would demand "unconditional surrender" of Gen. Douglas MacArthur.

Mud-soaked Yanks were temporarily stopped in their Philippines invasion, more by the blinding storm than by the reinforced enemy.

Heavy Action Due In East Prussia

Big Russian Drive Believed Imminent

(By The United Press)

LONDON, Nov. 9. — Fighting along the 1,800-mile eastern front settled down today to a battle for position as the Germans reported the Soviet army was preparing for a great winter offensive, possibly the last of the war.

While Moscow for the third consecutive day reported no major changes on the front, Berlin said the Soviet offensive was "directly imminent" with the heaviest action probably centered in East Prussia.

Gen. Ivan D. Cherniakhovsky's Third White Russian army has been posed along a 95-mile front from 15 to 20 miles inside East Prussia for several weeks and a Berlin military spokesman said the Germans had learned that he had promised to renew his offensive in the "very next few days."

REDS SAID IN BUDAPEST

LONDON, Nov. 9 (AP)—The Paris and Brazzaville radios said tonight that Russian tanks and troops had crossed the Danube and broken into Buda, the part of Budapest on the west bank of the river.

Paris said fierce street fighting was in progress. Previous reports have placed the Red army in Pest, on the east side of the river, but official Moscow reports have not claimed entry of the Hungarian capital.

Meet Fierce Opposition

Moscow communiques have reported only local fighting in East Prussia since Cherniakhovsky's forces encountered the fiercest opposition of the war as they pushed along both sides of the main railway to Konigsberg, capital of the outlying German province.

The battle for Budapest also slackened off as Marshal Rodion Y. Malinovsky regrouped his Second Ukrainian army for a final assault on the Hungarian capital, gateway to Germany proper.

Scattered tank battles were re-

Regents To Be Named Soon

AUSTIN, Nov. 9 (AP)—Gov. Coke R. Stevenson said today he hoped to announce next week the names of three new University of Texas regents to replace those who resigned following the discharge of Dr. Homer P. Rainey as university president.

At his press conference the governor revealed that he had planned to make the announcements today but said in answer to a question that one prospective appointee was hesitant about accepting.

Members of the board who resigned were Chairman John H. Bickett, jr., of Dallas, H. H. Weinert of Seguin and Dan J. Harrison of Houston. Although three other members were reported as considering resigning, none has done so, the governor said.

To Continue Discussions

The governor said he would continue to discuss the university situation with interested groups and disclosed that he had granted a request for a conference today by Malcolm Wallace of Dallas, student body president, and Jimmie Fogartie of Longview, student body officials. The purpose of the conference was not disclosed.

Students continued their campaign in support of Rainey with a radio program originating from here last night, and broadcast over the Texas state network. Dr. Blake Smith, pastor of the University Baptist church and president of the university religious workers association, spoke for them. Tonight at 9:30, on the same chain, Robert Lee Bobbitt will bring the views of an ex-student. He is member of the executive council of the ex-students

Mahon Urges Organization Of Farmers At Meeting In City

Stressing the need for farmers to be organized, Congressman George H. Mahon addressed a meeting of the Lubbock district of Texas Farm Bureau federation this morning in Lubbock hotel.

As agriculture is making much progress it is necessary for farmers to band together in an organization so that they might solve their problems much easier, he said.

"In Washington, where I spend most of my time, I have no way of knowing what is going on down here in Texas unless I have someone to turn to and ask about the problems of the people here. An active farm bureau organization solves that problem. I must know what is going on if I am to work for farmers' legislation.

Agricultural Problems Vary

"Agricultural problems vary throughout the nation. No two sections will have the same problems so we cannot isolate one agricultural section from another. Organizations from all sections can get together and present their problems and solve them.

"I have great faith in the future," he said, "although there are some things which do not look so bright. There will be great

Forces Doubled In Drive Aimed Toward Rhine

Heavy Bombers Lay Carpet Of Explosives In Unusual Move; Enemy Line Sags At 4 Points; U. S. Campaign Spread Near Metz

(By The Associated Press)

LONDON, Nov. 9. — Lt. Gen. George S. Patton's third army infantry jabbed into a yielding Nazi line at four places along a snowy 50-mile front today in an attack supported by 1,300 U. S. heavy bombers which laid a carpet of explosives on front line enemy positions in the Metz area.

The Third army chieftain threw in three more American divisions in the move toward the Rhine, doubling the forces employed in the jumpoff attack yesterday, and extend[ed] operations to the north of the fortress city as well as to the south.

Berlin's radio commentators declared Patton, striking from just below the Luxembourg border to the Rhine-Marne canal east of Nancy, was signalling the prelude to "the big offensive" aimed at bursting open "the historic gate to the Palatinate which was chosen by Napoleon as the marching route for his battalions and regiments."

The Fortresses and Liberators, timing their blow at mid-morning, synchronized their attack with hundreds of divebombers which hit the same area, and swept to unusually low levels to pinpoint their targets.

Air Blows Unusual

It was one of the few times the heavy bombers have flown against tactical targets in the theater. A notable previous strike was in the St. Lo breakthrough in No[rman]dy in July.

Pilots said snow blanketed many of the battle areas.

Front line dispatches said Patton sent two divisions into action north of Metz this morning and that fresh progress had been made in the area of Berg, just below the Luxembourg border. A third division joined the three which attacked south of the city yesterday on a 25-mile front and gained up to three miles.

At least 16 villages were captured in the combined advance of the Third and Seventh armies, with two Third army corps, the 12th and 20th, in action. Several of the villages had been previously captured however, and relinquished in the face of counter attacks.

Attack Spreads

South of Metz the attack [spread] all the way from Chemi[ery] miles south of Metz and fou[r] east of the Moselle, to the Ch[ate]-Salins area where the dou[ghboys] hammered a mile-deep [gap] north of the Rhine-Marne [canal] at a point 20 miles east of [Nancy] and an equal distance w[est] Sarrebourg.

The Germans said the "Americans are making feverish preparations for a new offensive in the Aachen region" also and were seeking to eliminate German artillery observation posts by dropping smoke canisters on them. Artillery fire was intensified on both sides, the Germans said.

In Holland where the first snow of the season fell last night, Field Marshal Sir Bernard L. Roosevelt Pledges Support To UNRRA

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9 (AP) — President Roosevelt today declared his determination that "the sacrifices of liberated peoples shall be rewarded" through supplies needed "to start life over."

In a letter to Director Herbert H. Lehman of the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation administration on the first anniversary of that organization, the President said:

"This government has endeavored in every way to support you and your staff to the fullest limit of our ability. This has not always been an easy task in the face of the pressing and staggering demands which the fighting of a deadly war on many fronts has placed and will continue to place upon our resources of manpower, of supplies and of transportation.

"But we are determined that the sacrifices of the liberated peoples shall be rewarded and that, to the extent we have it in our power to help, these people shall promptly receive the clothing, food, and other supplies which they need to start life over."

Director Lehman, who is leaving for London soon, told a news conference today that UNRRA would deal with the authorities in effective control of any liberated territory regardless of whether they were a recognized government.

Total Vote In Texas Fails To Set Record

DALLAS, Nov. 9 (AP) — Texas' greatest presidential vote, which smashed balloting records in many of the larger counties, failed to set a new state-wide high, Texas Election bureau statisticians report.

They believe the Texas vote for president will total about 1,075,000, which will mean that between 80 and 85 per cent of qualified citizens cast ballots. That figure was topped in the first primary of 1940 when the total was 1,189,290.

The bureau's latest tabulation accounted for 953,082 votes, and showed the following standings in the presidential contest:

Democrats 686,266; Republicans 160,460; Texas Regulars (anti-Roosevelt) 104,927; Socialist 463; Prohibitionists 716; America Firsts 250.

Allied Squeeze Play In Europe Shaping

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
Associated Press War Analyst

The way military operations are developing in Europe it looks as though the Allies were getting set for simultaneous offensives in both west and east — a squeeze attack calculated to achieve a quick kill through terrific pressure.

Along with the evidences of General Eisenhower's preparations for a big drive, it's now reported that the Red armies are massing in strategic sectors of their long front.

The Soviet armies may strike at several places. A highly important prospect is held out in the Berlin assertion that the Russians are preparing to hurl an attack from their bridgehead on the west bank of the Vistula in southwest Poland, in the sector of the railway cities of Krakow and Tarnow.

At this point the Red armies are standing only about 100 miles from the border of German Silesia, which is the closest they have come to Germany proper. This is one of the natural routes into Naziland, and when the Russians start their offensive there it presumably will have as its objective a quick invasion on the direct route to Berlin.

Building for a big offensive often is comparatively slow and methodical. General Eisenhower has for days been ironing out his front at lumpy spots in preparation for the onslaught. This has accounted for the violent fighting on the United States First army front southeast of Aachen in the Huertgen forest area.

Fitting into the broad picture is General Patton's attack with his Third army on a wide front in the Metz sector. The Germans say this attack is aimed at breaking into the Saar valley just inside Germany—which remains to be seen.

Capital Dusts Off Welcome Mat Again For 'The Champ'

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9 (AP) — The capital dusted off the welcome mat for its first citizen today.

With only 24 hours notice, local leaders buzzed around on details of a homecoming celebration for President Roosevelt.

The presidential train arrived at 8:30 a. m. (EWT) from Hyde Park, N. Y. This announcement made before hand by the White House staff was a rarity considering that the chief executive's movements are guarded for security reasons.

This homecoming for the "champ" is becoming a tradition. In 1936 and 1940, huge throngs packed the plaza at Union station, bands played and flags waved.

It is a triumphal procession, much like an inauguration, the President riding in an open car from the station to the White House. He had a few words of cheerful greeting from his automobile at the station four years ago, and a big broad smile all along the route.

The Washington Post touched off the first homecoming with an editorial of suggestion in 1936 and the response was instantaneous. Repeated again in 1940, the Post once more said in today's editions:

"Let's do it again."

After attending Hermleigh school and North Texas Agricultural college, Arlington, he took Air Corps training at Stockton, Calif. His wife and five-month-old son are with him in Pueblo, Colo.

Dallas Woman Admits Marrying 6 Soldiers

DALLAS, Nov. 9 (AP)—A 24-year-old Dallas woman was lodged in the Dallas jail today after admitting that she had married six soldiers since 1939 without having divorced any of them.

The woman, Mrs. Jessie Frances Mason, alias Mrs. Betty Lillian Wright, made her admission yesterday at an arraignment before U. S. Commissioner John Davis on charges of illegally receiving government allotments from the last two of her husbands.

Wherever you eat— BALANCE YOUR LUNCH with FRESH FRUITS and VEGETABLES

"JUST BABY AND ME"

The noonday lunch is most often neglected by the busy housewife. A raw vegetable salad, a quick-cooked vegetable or two, milk and bread, with fresh fruit for dessert, require very little time and are easy to prepare. Whether you eat at home, in a restaurant or other eating place, be sure you get plenty of vitamin-rich fruits and vegetables.

THE WORKINGMAN'S LUNCH

Variety in the lunch box is easy to achieve when you use plenty of fresh fruits and vegetables. Crisp lettuce and celery, whole red ripe tomatoes, carrots, a big bunch of Grapes, a bright red Apple, or a juicy Pear ... These fresh fruits and vegetables add freshness and life to the lunch box—and full food value!

LUNCH TIME AT SCHOOL

Children grow fast and play hard ... and every bite they eat must be full of food value. For strong bones, good teeth and a healthy body, include plenty of "protective" fresh fruits and vegetables in their luncheon menu. For a better lunch, wherever you eat, follow the luncheon menu pattern.

Have a "Coke" = Ahoy, mates

... or keeping up the good work

Faster and faster the ships go down the ways in the wartime shipbuilding program. From sunny California to the coast of Maine, workers have learned that the pause that refreshes helps everybody do more work and better work. Have a "Coke" says a hard-working shipbuilder to his mates. It's a little minute long enough for a big rest. Whether in a shipyard or in your own living room, Coca-Cola stands for the pause that refreshes,—has become a symbol of friendly relaxation.

Coca-Cola — the global high-sign

"Coke" = Coca-Cola
It's natural for popular names to acquire friendly abbreviations. That's why you hear Coca-Cola called "Coke".

Connally Speaks At WTCC Convention

ABILENE, Nov. 9 (AP) — Sen. Tom Connally (D-Tex) said he would like to lead a fight for an organization that would enforce world peace "with iron and steel."

Sen. Connally predicted another conference similar to the Dumbarton Oaks conference would be held soon to construct the framework of a peace organization and said he hoped it would be able to agree on a treaty that "will enforce peace in the only language aggressors know—with iron and steel."

"I hope I shall be able to lead the fight for ratification of such a treaty," he told the 27th annual convention of West Texas Chamber of Commerce directors meeting here.

On domestic matters, Sen. Connally told the delegates representing 145 towns in 132 counties that frontiers for pioneering in many fields await the American people, especially those of Texas and the Southwest.

Policies Get Approval

During business sessions earlier yesterday representatives of West Texas towns gave final approval on policies and work programs which had been presented and discussed in eight regional meetings.

Nine planks of the program were discussed at a session conducted by M. C. Ulmer of Midland, president. All were adopted, but at a night meeting a plan which would have authorized the editorial board of the organization's publication to sponsor a $2,000,000 state appropriation to advertise Texas nationally was rejected.

E. W. Hardin of Amarillo was elected president; G. A. Simmons of Lubbock was named first vice president; Hamlin Y. Overstreet of Texico, N. M., second vice president; Malcolm M. Meek of Abilene was named treasurer and D. A. Bandeen of Abilene general manager. H. C. Custard of Cleburne succeeded Hardin as third vice president.

Among the plans approved yesterday were the following:

A permanent public expenditure and taxation bureau will be established by the organization to finance programs and reduce public expenditures in federal, state and local affairs.

The West Texas Chamber and its freight rate equality federation will seek legislative appropriation to file suit in U. S. Supreme court to secure equality for Texas in transportation charges if not equitable freight rate is granted in cases now pending before the Interstate Commerce commission.

Backing for a general broadening of the national social security program to embrace all workers including those in the armed forces, and financed on a 50-50 basis by employers and employes.

Efforts to seek support of state representatives on the state fiscal control bill, the city and county budget bill, the redistricting bill and the scholastic attendance school appropriation bill.

Endorsement of the free enterprise system and a reduction in taxes.

The convention is in session at general headquarters of the organization here.

Three Seriously Hurt When Bomber Crashes

GALVESTON, Nov. 9 (AP) — A bomber burst into flames in flight here yesterday and crashed, seriously injuring three men.

One of the crewmen was thrown clear, and was critically hurt. A second, also hurt, crawled from the plane but finding that the pilot was wedged in the wreckage, went back to help.

A civilian who saw the crash aided him in extricating the pilot, who was unconscious.

Galveston Army Air field officials said both the civilian and the crewman who saved the trapped pilot would be recommended for citations.

Regulars Win In One County

DALLAS, Nov. 9 (U.P.)—Washington county, in Southeast Texas, was the only county in the state giving the newly-formed anti-Roosevelt Texas Regulars a majority in Tuesday's general election, according to an analysis of the county-by-county unofficial tabulation by the Texas Election Bureau.

The county—of which Brenham is the seat—polled 2,102 votes for the unpledged Regulars, 1,487 for President Roosevelt, and 534 for Gov. Thomas E. Dewey.

The runnerup race for counties between the Republicans and Regulars gave the GOP nearly a two-to-one advantage. Republicans had led in 163 counties, the Regulars in 86, and there were tie votes in three counties—Archer (127), Rains (149) and Rockwall (98).

GOP Leads In Seven

Six of the seven counties voting a Republican plurality form an almost complete circle around Bexar county (San Antonio) that polled a heavy Democratic vote.

Reading clockwise, they were Medina, Bandera, Kendall, Gillespie, Comal and Guadalupe. The seventh Republican county was Kenedy, in deep South Texas.

However Bexar county gave the Republicans the heaviest vote of any other county in the state.

Here is the way the five largest counties voted:

Bexar	34,667	23,375	1,636
Dallas	60,888	20,617	7,806
Harris	49,776	7,301	13,910
Jefferson	22,140	4,526	2,373
Tarrant	24,893	2,747	6,400
Totals	188,364	58,566	32,125

Miscellaneous facts and figures: Dallas county gave President Roosevelt the heaviest vote—60,888. Bexar county gave the Republicans the heaviest vote—23,375. Harris county gave the Texas Regulars the heaviest vote—13,910. Counties as yet unreported—Atascosa, Loving.

India Not Worried About U. S. Election

NEW DELHI, Nov. 9 (AP)—The first editorial comment on President Roosevelt's reelection came today from the strongly nationalist Hindustan Times, edited by Mohandas Gandhi's son, Devadas, which said:

"As far as India's own immediate interests are concerned it was all tweedledum and tweedledee, for neither the Democrats nor Republicans are in the least worried about the freedom of this country. Both party platforms maintained scrupulous silence about India."

GEORGIA ENSIGN KILLED

WINNSBORO, Nov. 9. (AP)—Ensign Roy B. Smith of Augusta, Ga., was killed instantly near here Tuesday when his naval plane crashed and exploded. His body was forwarded to Shreveport, La., where he was stationed, yesterday.

NEW PURSE DODGE

CLEVELAND, Nov. 9. (U.P.)—Bystanders who thought of stopping a man racing toward a waiting automobile with the purse of Mrs. Maud Markoules hesitated when they heard him say the woman was his wife and "she is trying to hold out on me." Mrs. Markoules, a waitress, later said she had never seen the man before.

Mother, Mix Your Own Cough Syrup. It's Fine

Quick, Comforting Relief. Saves Money. Easily Mixed.

This well-known medicine, mixed in your own kitchen, costs little, but it gives delightful, swift-acting relief from coughs due to colds. It takes but a moment to prepare—it's so easy a child could do it. It saves real money.

Make a syrup by stirring 2 cups granulated sugar and 1 cup of water a few moments until dissolved. No cooking is needed. Or you can use corn syrup or liquid honey, instead of sugar syrup.

Then get 2½ ounces of Pinex from any druggist. Pour this into a pint bottle, and add your syrup. Thus you make a full pint of really splendid cough medicine and you get about four times as much for your money. It never spoils, lasts a family a long time and children love its taste.

And for quick, blessed relief, you'll say it is truly wonderful. It has a remarkable action. It loosens the phlegm, soothes the irritated membranes, and helps clear the air passages.

Pinex is a special compound of proven ingredients, in concentrated form, well-known for its prompt action in coughs and bronchial irritations. Money refunded if it doesn't please you in every way.

Every 17 seconds (day and night) a vitally needed car is junked

THE DANGER LEVEL in number of automobiles in use is rapidly approaching. Out of 30,000,000 cars, 6,000,000 or one in every five have already disappeared from the highways. And of those remaining, more than 5,000 every day go to the scrap heap!

Says the Office of Defense Transportation: "Private automobiles must perform three-fourths of the essential local wartime transportation service ...Street cars, buses, and rapid transit lines can haul only a small share, approximately 25 per cent of the essential load."

Care For Your Car For Your Country is no mere catch-phrase, no slogan to be heard and forgotten; but a solemn warning that you must do your part as a patriotic American to prevent the threatened crisis in transportation.

To help make your car and your tires last longer and go farther, enlist the aid of your Phillips 66 Service Man. He is ready and waiting to help you.

At least once a week, give him the opportunity of checking air pressures...inspecting for nail holes, cuts, and bruises...examining tires so that he can warn you when re-capping is imperative.

At the same time, he will inspect the battery, air filter, and cooling system. And at regular intervals be sure to have him lubricate every friction point specified by the maker of your car . . . and make either the seasonal or the recommended every-sixty-day oil change.

Every Phillips 66 Service Man shares with you the responsibility of guarding that part of America's mileage which remains in your car and tires. So get Phillips Car-Saving and Tire-Saving Service at any Phillips 66 Shield . . . the sign of famous Phillips 66 Gasoline and Phillips 66 Motor Oil.

Tea Is Given For Rebekahs

First Baptist Rebekah class members enjoyed an hour of reminiscences at a tenth anniversary tea given Wednesday afternoon in the annex.

Mrs. J. A. Barton gave the class history; Dr. C. E. Hereford, pastor, related incidents of his early years as a minister and of his first years serving the Lubbock church and J. D. Riddle, director of education, told of organization of the class under his sponsorship.

Mrs. C. N. Hallmark sang "I Love A Little Cottage" (O'Hara), "Morning" (Speaks) and "Thanks Be To God" (Dickerson).

A mass of yard flowers was used in decorations. The name "Rebekah" was spelled out in bachelor buttons on the refreshment table where Mrs. Jessie Riek, teacher, presided.

About 35 were present.

Maurer-Judd Wedding Is Read In Army Chapel

The marriage of Miss Bernice Judd, daughter of Mrs. Lucy Judd, 1901 Twenty-second, and Lt. F. A. Maurer of Buffalo, N. Y., is being announced by the bride's mother. The candlelight double ring ceremony was read Oct. 31 in the post chapel of Hobbs Army Air field with Chaplain Martin officiating.

The bride wore a blue wool suit and black accessories with a corsage of gardenias. She was attended by Miss Marie Chism.

Best man was F/O Earl Cole.

Lt. and Mrs. Maurer will be at home in Tampa, Fla. after a wedding trip to Dallas, Chicago and New York.

Pimples Disappeared Over Night

Yes, it is true, there is a safe harmless medicated liquid called Kleerex that dries up pimples over night. Those who followed simple directions and applied Kleerex upon retiring were amazingly surprised when they found their pimples had disappeared. These users enthusiastically praise Kleerex and claim they are no longer embarrassed and are now happy with their clear complexions. Don't take our word for it, use Kleerex tonight. Only $5c. If one application does not satisfy, you get your money back. There is no risk so do not hesitate. Sold and recommended by Mark Haley Drug Stores. Adv.

Visitor Talks At Luncheon

Nita Jo Vernon, civilian worker on the line at South Plains Army field, was guest speaker at luncheon for South Plains Woman's club at the officers club Wednesday afternoon. Parts of planes, miniature hangars and gliders and dolls dressed in coveralls were table decorations.

It was announced that the club is rated first place on the woman's page in "Air Force" magazine as outstanding in twenty groups affiliated with the Central Flying training command.

Club members bought war stamps and bonds to further the Sixth War Loan drive.

Memorial Tea Held By UDC

Seventy-five guests attended a traditional memorial tea honoring Stephen W. Wilkinson for whom the United Daughters of Confederacy chapter was named Wednesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. J. S. Johnson, 2002 Broadway.

Mrs. W. O. Stevens greeted guests and presented them to a line made up of Mesdames Marion Leftwich, J. H. Hankins, G. W. Blair and Johnson.

Mrs. H. O. Waters played a medley of southern piano selections.

Mesdames A. W. Evans and Johnson, former presidents of the chapter, presided at the punch bowl and were assisted in serving by Mesdames P. E. Collette and Dan Blair. Assisting in hospitalities were Mrs. R. P. Reese and Miss Mamie Crump

At its next meeting, a covered dish luncheon, the chapter members will wrap Christmas gifts.

Club Meetings Are Reported

Projects for the postwar era were discussed at a luncheon meeting of the Lubbock Business and Professional Women's club at the Lubbock hotel Wednesday noon. The club voted to accept membership in the City Federation.

Announcement was made by Mrs. Vera Chapman, president, of the appointment of Mrs. Edith Mann as director of education and vocational chairman. Members voted to support Dr. Minnie L. Maffett, past president of the National Federation, to serve on the board of regents of the University of Texas. It was also voted to have all the meetings of the club in the Hilton hotel. A club Christmas party was scheduled for Dec. 13 to be at the Hilton Hotel with Miss Elsie Link as chairman.

In behalf of the Lions club, Jack Douglas, a guest, urged attendance for the "Passion Play" to open Saturday, Nov. 18. Mrs. Ruth Seveland gave a farewell talk. She plans to leave Nov. 15 for Tacoma, Wash. where she will join her husband, S. Sgt. Ed O. Seveland.

Mrs. Charles E. Colfon and Miss Ruth Davis were accepted as new members. Miss Mary Elizabeth Morgan, who has been on sick leave since May, was present.

New Members For State Board Selected

AUSTIN, Nov. 9. (U.P.) — Gov. Coke R. Stevenson said today that a slate of new members to fill four vacancies in the state prison board had been worked out.

He did not announce any of the appointments and probably will not do so until acceptances have been received for all the places.

PARIS VISIT RUMORED

LONDON, Nov. 9 (AP)—A British foreign office spokesman, when asked today whether Prime Minister Churchill and Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden would be accompanied to Paris by any other officials, replied: "No, unless President Roosevelt goes along."

Personals

Mrs. H. R. Lankford, 2018 Eighth, has returned from Temple where she had been a patient at Scott and White clinic.

Democrats Due For 25 Governorships

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9 (AP) — Democrats unseated Republican governors in five states, but nearly-complete election returns today gave GOP leaders something to cheer about too.

They showed that Republicans had overturned Democratic administrations in two states, while electing GOP executives in six others which gave popular majorities to President Roosevelt.

In Connecticut, Illinois, Minnesota, Montana and Delaware—Republican incumbents were re-elected. And in New Hampshire, Republican Mayor Charles M. Dale of Portsmouth successfully bucked the Roosevelt tide to win the gubernatorial test.

Demo Total Seen As 25

Of the 31 governorships at stake in this election, the Democrats appeared to have won 15, one of which is close enough however to still be called doubtful. This would give them a total of 25 in the nation to 23 for the Republicans, as against the previous line-up of 26 Republicans and 22 Democrats.

The doubtful state is Utah, where Democratic Governor Herbert B. Maw was leading Republican J. Bracken Lee by less than 1,500 votes on the returns from 833 out of 870 precincts.

Republican executives were displaced in Ohio, Massachusetts, Missouri, Idaho and Washington. Republicans captured Indiana and North Dakota from the Democrats.

Demo Wins In Indiana

In Indiana, Ralph F. Gates, former Republican state chairman, defeated United States Senator Samuel D. Jackson to become the first Hoosier GOP governor since 1932. Another Democratic senator, Mon C. Wallgren, ousted GOP Governor Arthur B. Langlie in Washington.

The Republican governors who survived the Roosevelt sweep that carried their states were Dwight H. Green, Illinois; Raymond E. Baldwin, Connecticut; Edward J. Thye, Minnesota; Sam C. Ford, Montana, and Walter W. Bacon, Delaware.

New York and Philadelphia have been the capital of the United States, in addition to Washington, D. C.

Old Congress Faces Packed Schedule

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9. (AP)—Floor managers laid down today a hard pre-Christmas schedule for the retiring Congress, to set the stage for 1945's debates on the shape of world organization for permanent peace.

The dying 78th Congress which provided the sinews for the giant American war machine convenes for its last sessions at noon Tuesday. It gives way to the 79th on January 3.

Before the 78th passes into history it must deal again with the President's war powers, social security and a host of other far-reaching measures.

The war powers legislation, under which the President derives authority for rationing and other emergency functions, expires December 31, unless action is taken.

Social Security Action Due

A hike in the social security tax, from 1 to 2 per cent against employers and employes, is scheduled for January 1. The increase has been stayed by special acts of Congress and Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich) is ready to propose again to forestall the increase.

In addition to these tasks, Speaker Rayburn (D-Tex) laid down this program for the house:

1. Completion of action on a bill, passed by the Senate, for a three-year postwar highway construction and improvement program. The legislation authorizes the federal government to spend $1,475,250,000.

Crop Insurance Considered

2. Consideration of a measure to resurrect the federal crop insurance program—now being liquidated because Congress last year refused to finance it. Both Republican and Democratic platforms declared in favor of crop insurance, since.

3. Opening of hearings on legislation to revive the bituminous coal administration, designed to prevent price cutting in the soft coal industry. Congress rejected such a law last year.

The Senate has on its docket a House approved bill for flood control and rivers and harbors improvements.

Taxes probably will loom large as an issue soon after the lawmakers reassemble, for the staff of experts employed by Congress is scheduled to report on its planning for a post-war system of levies designed to stimulate private enterprise.

Farmers' Meeting

progress in agriculture in the future, but many problems will present themselves with this progress. It will take the brains of all of us, working together, to meet these problems. There is no problem we can not solve if we work together."

Farmers' Needs Cited

The congressman was introduced by J. Walter Hammond of Tye, president of the state federation.

Preceding Mahon's address, R. G. Arnold of Auburn, Ala., representing the American federation, spoke of the two greatest needs of farmers today. These are: Materials and equipment to produce a good crop, and a fair price at the market place for farm products.

President Hammond was scheduled to speak on the afternoon program which opened at 1:30 o'clock.

Approximately 75 farmers and members of various agricultural agencies attended the morning session. W. R. Tilson of Meadow, state director from this district presided.

Gen. Eisenhower

you won it . . . You conquered in three weeks what was occupied by the enemy during 52 months. Belgium, for the largest part, was liberated in eight days."

After a rousing farewell, Eisenhower and his aides went to the tomb of Belgium's Unknown Soldier and stood at attention in a driving rainstorm while a bugler sounded "The Last Post."

Stevenson Urges Demos To Unite

AUSTIN, Nov. 9. (UP) — Gov. Coke R. Stevenson in an after-election statement today urged Democrats to get together and people of all parties to support President Roosevelt in efforts speedily to win the war.

Stevenson said the President will have his "continued" support along that line, reserving the right of private opinion as to activities that contribute to that end. The Texas governor has been a critic of rationing as operated by the national administration.

72nd Criminal Trials Nov. 20

Judge Dan Blair of 72nd district court has set the week of Nov. 20 for trial of felony indictments returned Wednesday afternoon. District Attorney Burton S. Burks said.

The judge and district attorney have a busy period immediately ahead. There will be a grand jury impaneled Monday in Crosby county, one at Levelland Thursday, and a criminal trial week commenced in Crosby county Nov. 27.

Wednesday's grand jury, of which Charles R. Bacon was foreman, had been recalled after having returned several bills earlier in the August term. It was discharged upon its request, after reporting 13 true bills, all except one of them charging felonies.

Improvements Asked

The grand jury made recommendations that petit jury quarters and accommodations in the courthouse be improved, pointing to deficient bath and toilet facilities and to inadequate ventilation. Judge Blair informed the jury he would pass on its recommendations to County Judge G. V. Pardue and to the commissioners court and to individual commissioners.

Defendants who had been arrested and charges:

Frank Counts, charged in two bills with theft over $50—theft of a four-wheel trailer and of a saddle and bridle, all from George C. Leftwich.

Theft Of Automobile

James Alexander, theft over $50—and automobile from Mrs. Nell Chambers.

B. F. York, passing a forged instrument, a $25 check signed "W. E. Jorden" and presented to Mann's cafe.

Zeno Green, a negro, technical burglary of a private residence at night by discharging shotgun into the building. State charges he did so with intent to commit murder of Callie Fisher, a negro woman.

Ignacio Armenta Manriquez, murder with malice of Manuel Garcia Aug. 20, by shooting him with a gun.

W. M. Birdwell, swindling over $50—receiving $300 June 7 from Citizens National bank after falsely representing his right to mortgage property. He is contesting extradition from California.

J. H. Loyd, violation of uniform narcotic drug act—obtaining from a pharmacist 12 1/16th grain dilauded tablets (derivative of opium) by falsely representing to a physician here his father was suffering of cancer and in pain.

Other charges involving defendants not under arrest were for murder, theft over $50, desertion and, the misdemeanor, negligent homicide.

News Briefs

Mrs. Edward Czerwiec of Route 5, Lubbock, is the mother of a daughter, weighing 6 pounds 9½ ounces, born at 8:33 a. m. today in Lubbock General hospital. The father, Lt. Czerwiec, was killed Aug. 16 in the Aleutians.

Recovery of two Lubbock automobiles, one here and one "on the railroad track" between Roscoe and Sweetwater, "cleared all local car thefts of the last few days," police said this morning. A machine owned by J. A. Winfrey was found here, and one belonging to the Mac Austin company of 2809 Ave. H, was recovered near Roscoe. A Sweetwater car was stolen soon afterward, causing investigators to link the two happenings.

Billy Reed, about 12, of 2520 Elm, was slightly injured about 7:20 o'clock this morning when an automobile brushed his bicycle in 300-block College avenue. The boy suffered several abrasions.

construction would be privately financed for the most part, with the government stepping in where needed.

New highways, parks, thousands of new airports, planes, new low-priced cars, hospitals and health clinics — all these are on the construction charts for checking the usual job-slackening after wars.

Business Expansion Due

Other Roosevelt pledges for the future:

1. A merchant marine big enough to meet expanded world trade.
2. Easier business taxes to spur industrial development.
3. Special capital and credit for small business, with every facility to buy government-owned plants, equipment and inventories.
4. Collective bargaining must be the main reliant for pay adjustments.
5. Elimination of poll taxes.
6. Expansion of the TVA idea into similar developments for Missouri, Arkansas and Columbia river basins.

Baptist Missionary Group Hears Reports

DALLAS, Nov. 9. (UP) — Delegates to the 44th annual session of the Baptist Missionary Association of Texas today heard reports on missions, the women's auxiliary, Sunday school and training departments and temperance in the closing sessions of their two-day meeting.

Yesterday the association heard reports that its junior college at Jacksonville was free of debt and that plans were under way to build a new dormitory for boys at Texas Baptist orphanage at Waxahachie.

Elected to the presidency of the BMA was the Rev. George C. Henry, San Antonio, while other officers included the Rev. J. W. Harper, Gallatin and the Rev. A. L. Meador of Corsicana, vice presidents; the Rev. Roy B. Flippo, Amarillo, and the Rev. Loyd Harper, Dallas, recording secretaries.

The Rev. C. B. Stanley of Waxahachie was renamed manager of the orphanage and the Rev. E. D. Keller of Italy secretary of missions.

Texas Officer Among Injured In Wreck

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 9. (UP)—The Southern Pacific company has announced a partial list of the 83 persons injured in the derailment of the transcontinental Challenger passenger train near Colfax, Calif., yesterday, which killed nine others.

Military personnel, as announced by Col. William H. Smigh, medical officer at Dewitt General hospital, included Buel Bledsoe of Fort Worth, Tex. Bledsoe is in the Navy.

Amazing results shown in improving the Looks... boosting VITALITY!

1—Promote the flow of vital digestive juices in the stomach

2—Energize your body with RICH, RED BLOOD!

Improper diet, overwork, undue worries, colds, the flu or other illness often impairs the stomach's digestive functions and reduces the red-blood strength.

A person who is operating on only a 70 to 75% healthy blood volume or a stomach digestive capacity of only 50 to 60% normal is severely handicapped.

At such times Nature needs extra help to restore its balance and function properly. Undigested food places a tax on the system...insufficient blood strength is a detriment to good health.

If you are subject to poor digestion or suspect deficient red-blood as the cause of your trouble, yet have no organic complication or focal infection, SSS Tonic may be just what you need!

SSS Tonic is especially designed (1) to promote the flow of VITAL DIGESTIVE JUICES in the stomach and (2) to build-up BLOOD STRENGTH when deficient.

These two important results enable you to enjoy the food you do eat . . . to make use of it as Nature intended. Thus you may get new vitality . . . pep . . . become animated . . . more attractive!

Build Sturdy Health and Help America Win

Thousands and thousands of users have testified to the benefits SSS Tonic has brought to them and scientific research shows that it gets results—that's why so many say "SSS Tonic builds sturdy health—makes you feel like yourself again." At drug stores in 10 and 20 oz. sizes. S.S.S. Co.

Rodeo Title May Go To Sweetwater Man

BOSTON, Nov. 9 (AP) — Louis Brooks of Sweetwater, Tex., world's all-around champion cowboy in 1943, jumped into the lead for this year's title last night at the 12th annual world's championship rodeo at Boston garden.

Brooks, who also was the champion saddle bronc rider last year, won the steer wrestling event and took a third in the saddle bronc riding.

Homer Pettigrew of Fort Worth, all-around champ in 1941 and best steer wrestler for three of the past four years, tied for first with Juan Salinas of Encinal, Tex., in the wild cow milking contest.

Other first place winners included Howard Brown of Dublin, Tex., barback bronc riding; Bill Breen of Tucumcari, N. M., calf roping, and Johnny Chapman of Saginaw, Tex., wild Brahma bull riding.

IN FLANDERS FIELDS

In Flanders fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row,
That mark our place; and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly
Scarce heard amid the guns below.

We are the Dead. Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved and were loved, and now we lie
In Flanders fields.

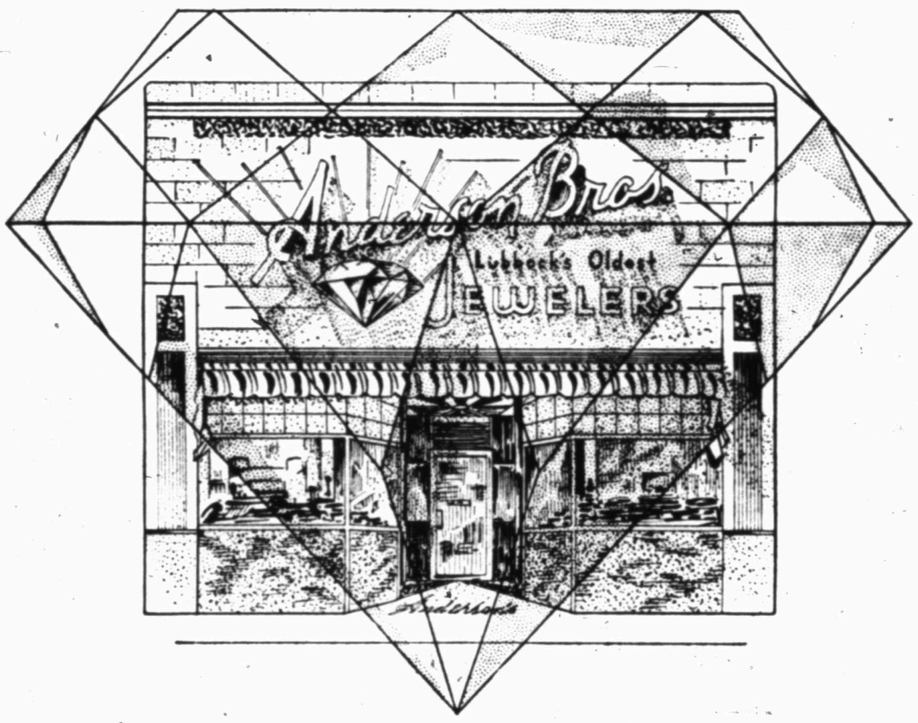

Take up our quarrel with the foe:
To you from failing hands we throw
The torch; be yours to hold it high
If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders fields.

GOP Defeat Laid To War

ALBANY, N. Y., Nov. 9. (AP) — Giving evidence of feeling that he was licked by the war and not the Democrats, Gov. Thomas E. Dewey went back to his desk in New York's historic old state capitol today to begin a new role as a defeated candidate who remains the titular head of his party.

Although the vanquished Republican presidential nominee declined public comment on the national election results, his supporters left no doubt that Dewey believes the single factor which gave President Roosevelt a fourth term victory was that a majority of Americans did not want to change administrations while the world battlefronts still are flaming.

Looks Relaxed

Looking relaxed and fresh despite an almost sleepless night of analyzing election returns and talking by telephone to party members all over the nation, the governor told a news conference in New York City yesterday that he was "very happy over the high confidence" the people had expressed in the state government by returning a solid Republican majority in both houses of the legislature.

This firm party grip loomed large as a factor in the future plans of the 42-year-old former candidate who universally is expected to seek reelection to his state office as a possible prelude to another try for the presidency in 1948.

The Deweys, who came home last night from New York City expect soon to depart for a rest. They may go to Sea Island, Ga.

Church Man Warns Against Vengeance

HOUSTON, Nov. 9. (AP)—Ordination service for deacons and elders will be conducted by Bishop A. Frank Smith at the Texas Methodist conference tomorrow

"When hostilities have ceased, we can either have peace or vengeance but we cannot have both." Dr. Roy L. Smith of Chicago, editor of the Christian Advocate and principal speaker of the conference, told that body yesterday.

The religious editor said he was not appealing for a soft peace for Germany and Japan, but he was appealing for a soft peace for the American youth who have fought a hard war. Dr. Smith is speaking daily to the conference.

Dr. Robert S. Goodloe, professor of church history in the Southern Methodist university divinity school, addressed the conference yesterday and later conducted a forum for young preachers.

Quadrennial committees were appointed yesterday.

Two groups of ministers were admitted to the conference — one on trial and the other group was taken into full connection with the conference.

Crucial Contests Texas Schoolboy C

Plainview To Meet Amarillo

BY HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Editor

Conference games in four districts headline the most important week-end of the season in Texas schoolboy football.

Of the 49 contests 41 are district affairs, with fifteen of the sixteen sectors having battles counting in the championship race.

One district championship is due to be determined barring a startling upset. Sunset can sew up honors in the Dallas area by beating or tying North Dallas Friday night. There is nothing to indicate the Bisons won't turn the trick.

District 1 has a standout game with Plainview at Amarillo. They are the only unbeaten teams in conference play.

Down in district 9—the old oil belt — Breckenridge's Buckaroos meet the only team given even an outside chance of stopping their march — the Brownwood Lions.

Longview Plays Tyler

Over in the piney woods, Longview plays Tyler in the first of three battles that will determine the championship of district 11. Marshall, the favorite, takes on winless Texarkana. Longview and Tyler are undefeated in conference play and Tyler is unbeaten and untied for the season.

The sensation of the state race continues to be Abilene, which bounced back from two defeats to become feared by all of them. Abilene today ranks No. 10 in Texas, pushing up from No. 19 in this week's sports writers poll.

San Angelo still is No. 1, Waco No. 2 and Highland Park (Dallas) No. 3, but Austin has replaced Amarillo in No. 4. Amarillo is fifth and behind the Golden Sandies in order are: No. 6, Lufkin; No. 7, Vernon; No. 8, Sunset; No. 9, Port Arthur.

This week's schedule by districts:

1. Saturday: Plainview at Amarillo (conference), Lubbock at Pampa (conference), Brownfield at Borger (conference).

2. Friday: Seymour at Electra, Olney at Wichita Falls (conference), Graham at Quanah (conference).

3. Friday: San Angelo at Big Spring (conference); Saturday: Sweetwater at Odessa (conference), Lamesa at Abilene (conference).

4. Friday: Austin (El Paso) at Albuquerque, N. M., Mesa, Ariz., at El Paso High, Ysleta at Deming, N. M.

5. Friday: Denison at Gainesville (conference, Paris at Bonham (conference).

6. Friday: Denton at Highland Park (Dallas) (conference), McKinney at Sulphur Springs (conference).

7. Thursday: Paschal (Fort Worth) vs Fort Worth Tech (conference); Friday: Amon Carter-Riverside (Fort Worth) vs. North Side (Fort Worth) (conference); Saturday: Poly (Fort Worth) vs. Arlington Heights (Fort Worth) (conference).

Loser To Bow Out Of District 1-AA Race

Westerners Facing Showdown Battle In Pampa Saturday

Coaches J. Mule Davis and Dixie White continued to hand out plenty of hard work to the Lubbock Westerners Wednesday afternoon as the team nears the showdown battle Saturday afternoon with the Pampa Harvesters at Pampa.

Very few of the critics in West Texas gave the Harvesters much hope in the pre-season doping of the teams, but in recent weeks, the club has shown about as potent a ball club as there is in the race.

TICKETS SELL FAST

E. J. "Pinkey" Lowrey, athletic director of Lubbock schools, said Wednesday night that ticket sales for the Armistice day game at Pampa were selling fast, and urged fans to get their tickets here if they wanted choice seats. The tickets will remain on sale until Friday afternoon at the principal's office at Lubbock High school.

Like the Westerners, Pampa has lost one game, and the loser Saturday afternoon will bow gracefully out of the picture as a championship contender. Pampa showed plenty of power against the Amarillo steamroller last week, and the mighty Sandies had to take to the air to beat them.

The only direct comparison of the two teams comes from their respective games with Brownfield's Cubs. Both Pampa and Lubbock defeated the Cubs by about the same margin, and both found the Cubs were far from a pushover. Pampa won 35-6 over Brownfield, and Lubbock followed a week later, and won 20-0 .

The Pampa offense has been stopped only twice this season, that by the favored Sandies last week, and Oklahoma City Central, one of the toughest teams in Oklahoma, in a September game.

Pampa Offense Strong

Pampa has scored 181 points this season to 46 for their opponents, in winning four and losing three. Compared to this, the Westerners have scored 122 points to 26 for their opponents in winning five and losing two. But the Westerners have never been held scoreless, and none will deny that the schedule faced by the Lubbock club has been one of the toughest in the state.

The Westerners have been working long hours for the past two weeks, and trying hard to break a midseason slump that dropped them from the state ranking of the teams that had found the club as high as third place at one time in the year.

Wednesday's workout was another drill on the same pattern of those followed for the past two weeks.

Armour's Takes Lead In Bowling League

Armour's moved three full games into the lead in the City-Commercial league race Wednesday night at the Plamor alleys by sweeping three games from the runnerup Lions club. Hub Laundry took over undisputed second place by winning one game from the Optimists club.

In other games, S. & Q. Clothiers won two from Coca-Cola and DeKalb Oilers won by the same margin over Meads Bakery.

Scoring honors for the night were divided, with Bob Glass getting the best series of the night with 579 pins while Glen Welch had the best single game with 223.

Pecan tap roots usually penetrate three to six feet deep.

SPAAF Plans Aerial Attack

Game Set Saturday With Ft. Bliss

The Winged Commandos of South Plains Army Air field have shown the world they have a potent passing game, and they are expected to trot it out in full force Saturday night against the Gunners from Fort Bliss.

Despite setbacks by five strong opponents, SPAAF's air-minded crew has chalked up an impressive passing record which is looking better every game.

New Formation Clicks

Running from a new short punt formation, the Commandos passed more and better than ever before against Southwestern university in Georgetown last Friday night. Paul Campbell tossed 23 of 24 passes SPAAF attempted and registered completions on 12 tries for 140 yards.

A new end, 190-pound Ed Schuknecht, emerged as a stellar receiver for Campbell's bullet passes. Pitchin' Paul fired five straight passes at the lanky fellow and Schuknecht, ex-high school gridder from Saginaw, Mich., snagged three of them for considerable yardage.

Coupled with 104 net yards rushing, the Commandos' 140 yards through the air enabled them to outgain the Pirates in total net yardage 244 to 207, and first downs were seven for SPAAF and six for Southwestern.

Travels Far In Air

SPAAF has rolled up a total of 758 yards in five games via the aerial route, with a pre-game average of 151 yards passing.

Oddly enough, SPAAF's greatest yardage passing—250 yards—was gained against the team which beat the Commandos the worst, Amarillo Army Air Field, which thumped out a 53-13 win. In that game, SPAAF had 11 completions out of 23 attempts.

SPAAF passes go all distances. In the Amarillo game Campbell threw one to Gene LeRoy for about a six-inch gain. Another pass-lateral from Campbell to Tom Leach to Claude McClanahan carried 83 yards for a touchdown.

Campbell has thrown forwards for 15 and 12 yard touchdown gains; Joe Eager threw Doug Wakeland a 70-yard touchdown heave in the LAAF game.

With Campbell, McClanahan, Eager and Ray Cagni pitching, SPAAF has a record so far of 49 completions out of 96 attempts, a percentage of .510.

Using their new short punt formation, unusually well adapted to pass plays, SPAAF hopes to sharpen its attack in the air and put an edge on its ground offensive also.

Statistics on SPAAF passing:

Against	Passes Att.	Passes Comp.	Yds. Pass.
TCU	13	7	57
NTAC	16	11	160
LAAF	20	8	151
AAAF	23	11	250
S'western	24	12	140
Totals	96	49	758

Average per game—151; average gain per pass—15.5 yards.

Junior High Grid Battle Set Today

Pairings of teams to battle for the city junior grid championship will come out this afternoon when Coach Roy Morris' Purples clash with Coach Russell Wimberley's Whites at 4 o'clock on the junior high field. The winner of this game will play Coach Bob Parker's Reds for the title.

The offensive minded Purples will be favored this afternoon, but the Whites refuse to concede the victory before the final whistle.

In the season's play, the Whites have played scoreless ties with the Reds and Tahoka, beat Petersburg 21-7 and the Blues 6-0, losing only to Sundown, 13-6.

The Purples are undefeated, but played 6-6 ties with Petersburg and the Reds. The Purples won 25-0 over the Blues, 12-7 over Tahoka and 19-13 over Sundown.

Petersburg Juniors Down Plainview, 14-12

PETERSBURG, Nov. 9. — For the third time this season, the Petersburg Juniors rolled over the Plainview Bulldog Pups here yesterday afternoon, winning a 14 to 12 victory.

Petersburg did all its scoring in the second quarter with sweeping end runs bringing the touchdowns and line smashes the extra points. Conklin scored the first touchdown on a 35 yard gallop and Bob Fowler ran ten yards for the second. Ben Case plunged over for the game winning extra points.

Petersburg reserves played the last half, and Blair of Plainview, one of the stars of the game, scored both counters for the visitors in the last half.

Shot Reagan and Simley Wiley stood out on the defense for Petersburg.

Horned Frogs Get 11 New Gridders

FORT WORTH, Nov. 9. — The Texas Christian university Horned Frogs took a new lease on life this week with the arrival of eleven new grid stars in the Navy V-12 shift at the school. Ten of the new players come from Arizona State Teachers college at Flagstaff and the other from Ohio university.

The new men from Arizona include Bob Reedy, a fast, elusive 150 pounder who is expected to be a great help to the Frogs. Others from the same school include Joe Berch, Dee Logan, Paul Desaulets, Tom Davenport, Bill Ranbolt, Hugh Kerby, Herry Kengry, W. G. Adams, R. F. Meckall. The new arrival from Ohio U. is Louie Frigiano.

Coach Meyer carefully watched the work of these new men for reserve linesmen to spell the TCU first string forward wall in the Tech game.

Tailback John Haddaway, who took over the "chuking" duties for the Frogs last week against Chatham Field and tossed two aerials for touchdowns, sparked today's session on passes.

CUB GIVEN DISCHARGE

CHICAGO, Nov. 9. (U.P.)—Thomas "Mickey" Livingston, the Chicago Cubs' top catcher in 1943, has been given a medical discharge from the Army and plans to play with the Cubs next year, Jim Gallagher, Cubs general manager, said today.

Wednesday afternoon was another "overtime" period at Tech stadium, as Coach Dell Morgan worked the Red Raiders until dark to prime them for Saturday's battle with the powerful TCU Horned Frogs at Fort Worth.

Coach Dell Morgan opened the workout with a rough scrimmage session to prepare the fast striking Red Raider offense, then tapered off with another long defensive drill against the TCU razzle-dazzle.

Jim Taylor, star wingman from Sweetwater, worked out with the club Wednesday afternoon, after being sworn into the Navy on Tuesday. Taylor is awaiting his call to report to the Navy at Memphis, Tenn., within the next few days, but expressed a belief Wednesday that he would not be called until next week.

May Miss Game

Whether he will get the chance to play against the TCU club on Saturday will depend on his call from the Navy. Taylor hopes to make the TCU game his last for the duration.

Morgan said Wednesday that the Red Raiders would have one final tough drill today, then would leave early Friday morning for Fort Worth. The club plans to eat lunch in Seymour Friday.

The Friday workout will be held in either Jacksboro or Fort Worth, Morgan said.

The Red Raiders continued to be at peak shape for the game, and came through the rough workout Wednesday without any injury. Walter Schlinkman, the Red Raider fullback who was the star of the Rice game last week, said Wednesday that his side injury still bothered him some, but that it was improved.

Dupre Wins 20 To 0 Over Bean Eleven

The Dupre Dogies continued to romp along undefeated and untied in the grade school touch football league race, winning 20-0 over the Bean Bronchos Wednesday afternoon.

After battling on even terms through a scoreless first half, the Dogies took the lead in the third quarter when Norman Lindsey passed to Dick Lowrey for the first touchdown.

In the final period, Lindsey passed to Bill Davis for the second touchdown, then Lindsey kicked the extra point. Just before the game ended, Lindsey again passed to Lowrey for a touchdown, and when the kick for extra point was blocked, Lowrey scooped up the ball and ran it over for the final point.

Carl Ince, who shows promise of being a great broken field runner in future years, was outstanding for the Bean eleven.

GRIDDER DRAFTED

BROOKLYN, Nov. 9 (AP) — Cecil Johnson, the passing arm of the Brooklyn Tigers of the National Football league, left yesterday for his Paris, Tex., home to report for induction Thursday into the armed service.

TO CLOSE SEASON

ARLINGTON, Nov. 9. (AP) — The North Texas Aggies will close their football season at Stephenville tomorrow night in a game with the John Tarleton college Plowboys.

Prohibition Proposal Loses In Nebraska

OMAHA, Neb., Nov. 9 (U.P.) — The bitter, summer-long controversy between wets and drys, studded with requested court martial proceedings and threats of syndicated bootlegging activities, ended at the polls Tuesday when voters defeated the proposed prohibition law by a thumping majority.

Tallies from 1,833 of the state's 2,026 precincts gave:

For 114,105; against 338,984.

Only one county voted to put the proposed initiated law on the statute books. The other 92 counties turned it down.

The size of the "no" vote made it apparent that Nebraskans were convinced that prohibition would not prohibit, feared additional or larger taxes to replace moneys lost in liquor tax revenues, and resented submission of the proposed law when a large percentage of servicemen were out of the state.

Despite the overwhelming defeat, Harold Wilson, state director of the allied dry forces, professed to have won the scrap "beyond our greatest expectations." The effort, he said, was intended to be educational solely. And in that respect, it had succeeded.

Unicameral Proposal Holds Slight Lead

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Nov. 9 (U.P.) — Affirmative votes on a proposal to create a unicameral legislature for Missouri held a diminishing lead today over negative votes on the basis of unofficial and incomplete returns from Tuesday's balloting.

With 2,878 of the state's 4,543 precincts reported, the vote was: For 271,680, against 241,201. This gave the affirmative a 30,479-vote edge.

The proposal — patterned after the Nebraska one-house system—received its heaviest support in populous cities where returns boosted the affirmative votes into a 51,000 vote majority over the negative.

However, later out-state returns consistently cut that margin and there was a possibility that the rural vote would defeat the proposal.

REPUBLICAN LEADS

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Nov. 9. (U.P.)—Latest unofficial returns in the race for U. S. senator with 4,504 precincts reporting out of 4,543 in the state gave Donnell (R) 732,325 and McKittrick (D) 721,413.

AIRCRAFTS, RAILS TILT UPWARD

NEW YORK, Nov. 9 (AP)—Selected aircrafts, rails and specialties tilted upward in today's stock market although many leaders displayed notable rising reluctance.

Wishful thinking regarding possible generous year end dividends brought some transportations into popularity. Elsewhere, individual business situations were helpful. Liquors came to life partly because of indications another "holiday" would be granted the distillers to manufacture beverages.

Trends, spotty at the start, remained irregular near the close. Dealings were relatively slack throughout. Transfers topped 700,000 shares.

At peaks for 1944 were Hiram Walker, up about 4 points; Boeing, United Aircraft, Glenn Martin, Grumman and Beech aircraft with advances running to a point or so. In front were Pepsi-Cola following approval of a 3-for-1 stock splitup; Socony, on the first extra dividend since 1937; Santa Fe, Atlantic Coast Line, Schenley, Distillers Corp. and Sears Roebuck. Occasional laggards were U. S. Steel, General Motors, U. S. Rubber, American Can, Standard Oil (NJ) and U. S. Gypsum.

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, Nov. 9 (AP)—The cotton futures market continued its upward movement today as aggressive mill, New Orleans and commission house buying met only scale up hedge selling. December liquidation, anticipating first notice day in that month on November 28th, was readily absorbed through covering operations.

The market was strengthened by the CCC announcement that its purchase program to support the staple at parity level was operating through the entire belt. Early announcement on the cotton export subsidy was anticipated.

Futures closed 5 to 35 cents a bale higher.

Soviet Drive Seen

ported from just outside Budapest to Tokaj, 110 miles to the northeast, where Malinovsky's northern forces were spread along the Tisza river for another thrust against the capital.

Nazi Thrust Wiped Out

The Soviet communique said the Germans attempted to establish a bridgehead over the Danube river at Baja, 84 miles south of Budapest, but were wiped out after reaching the east bank of the river. Hundreds of enemy dead filled the river bank after a brief but furious battle, Moscow said.

The Germans meantime apparently were continuing defense preparations inside the city. Hungarian reports reaching Ankara said the central railway station in Budapest was blown up, killing many and injuring hundreds. The Hungarian Nazi government, however, warned the city's inhabitants, the reports said, that stations, bridges and telephone exchanges would be blasted if the need arose.

A Budapest broadcast at the time urged the populace "not to lose its head" if "one or two tanks" might reach the city's outskirts, explaining that such things happen in present-day mobile warfare.

The German Transocean news service reported that Nazi forces had evacuated the town of Hammerfest, at the northern tip of Norway, in the face of the Soviet drive through Norway from Finland.

NAZIS WITHDRAWING

LONDON, Nov. 9 (AP)—The German high command said today German forces had evacuated the Strumica valley in southern Yugoslavia "according to plan." The withdrawal apparently was a continuation of the retreat from Greece.

U. S. War Casualties Top Half-Million

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9 (AP) — American battle casualties have passed the half-million mark.

Secretary of War Stimson said today that Army casualties reported through Oct. 28 total 437,356. The latest Navy list accounts for 71,839, giving a grand total for both services of 509,195, based on notices which have gone to next of kin.

The Army casualties reported today:

Killed 84,811; wounded 243,054; missing 55,011; prisoners 54,480.

The Navy casualties: Killed 28,599; wounded 29,442; missing 9,311; prisoners 4,487.

Typhoon Halts Fight

surrender of Singapore he told the British commander "all I want to hear from you is 'yes or no.' I expect to put the same question to MacArthur."

Infantry Holds Offensive

Infantrymen of the 24th division, who have been fighting since they landed in the Philippines Oct. 20, made no gains but still held the offensive. They fought an uphill battle against Japanese from four divisons, three of them recently landed on Leyte. The Nipponese held ridges dominating the narrow, twisting trail leading to their Ormoc base, 15 miles to the south.

Although advance units of his division were in position to look down on Ormoc town in clear weather, Maj. Gen. Fred Irving said it would take a strong attack to break through the powerful, well-entrenched Japanese force blocking his path down the valley.

Supplies Are Needed

More ammunition and supplies are needed to make such an assault.

Japanese artillery harassed the American's tenuous, mucky supply line. So little material got through that some Yank units were forced carefully to husband meager stores of food and ammunition.

Artillery played a dominant role as the storm grounded planes and rain was so thick it was impossible for infantrymen to see the enemy.

Air action quieted in the face of the typhoon, but not before American Pacific and Philippines forces destroyed more than 48 Japanese planes, damaged a destroyer, sank a freighter-transport, and raided 15 island groups from the Volcanos to the Dutch Indies.

Eleven Japanese planes raided Saipan and Tinian in the Marianas, whence Tokyo said the 20th air force was sending Superforts northward. Adm. Chester W. Nimitz said the raiders lost three planes and caused no damage. Tokyo previously claimed 20 U. S. aircraft were wrecked.

Japs Said Using Gases

Chinese military leaders, who have often accused the Japanese of using war gases, said the Nipponese were using "large quantities" of poison gas in the suburbs of Kweilin, key to Kwangsi province.

Tokyo radio reported five Chinese divisions were putting up a strong defense from "snug shelters behind natural caves in rocky mountains" surrounding the city. Broadcasts said each strong point had two months supply of food and ammunition.

Chinese reports said the invaders continued to advance toward Liuchow, U. S. air base city from the east and south, but that four assaults were repelled 26 miles northeast of Lieuchow.

Tokyo claimed Japanese columns were within nine miles of Liuchow and the Chinese high command indicated one spearhead was only 15 miles away.

Chungking said a Chinese force in North Burma, in a surprise move midway between advanced Allied points at Bhamo and near Katha, crossed the Irrawaddy river 82 miles south of Myitkyina and occupied Shwegu.

Bond Assumption Law Proves Satisfactory

AUSTIN, Nov. 9. (U.P.)—After studying the financial report of the Texas board of county and district road bond indebtedness today, Gov. Coke R. Stevenson said he considered the present "bond assumption" law is working satisfactorily and will need no change at the next session of the state legislature.

Disputes over terms of the road bond assumption act forced the governor to call his only special session of the Texas legislature.

The bill worked out in that session provides that the state shall service approximately $112,000,000 of bonds that were issued by counties and by road districts for roads and used in roads that have become a part of the state highway system.

The state expenditure for the purpose is limited to the income from one cent of the four cents a gallon tax on gasoline. In recent years this has been ample for the purpose.

Effect Of Frost On Vegetation Watched

A heavy frost—perhaps the first "killing" frost of the fall—lay on vegetation this morning, when a low temperature of 34 degrees was registered.

Crop authorities were watching the effect of warm sunshine this afternoon to determine the full effect of the frost on plant life.

The season's first frost, light, was Oct. 12.

Service Vote Counted Gives FDR Majority

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9 (AP) — President Roosevelt polled about 67 per cent of that part of the service vote counted separately and thus far reported.

The popular vote in the nation, including some soldier ballots, gave Mr. Roosevelt 53.2 per cent of the vote and Governor Thomas E. Dewey 46.8 per cent.

It is impossible to tell how the soldier vote as a whole divided, since it is being counted separately in only a few states. And in states where service ballots were segregated returns are yet far from complete. In some instances the final count will not be available until Dec. 5.

All of the figures now available are from states carried by Roosevelt.

The returns showed—Roosevelt 288,176; Dewey 139,988.

Hitler Fails To Make Speech On Holiday

LONDON, Nov. 9 (AP) — Berlin broadcasts indicated today that for the first time the greatest of Nazi party holidays will pass without a speech from Adolf Hitler.

Last night was the eve of the abortive 1923 Munich beer hall putsch, and it has been the custom since Hitler's rise to power for high ranking party members to meet in Munich with him and renew their pledges of faith in the fuehrer.

But the German radio announced that because of the Reich's "total mobilization" the celebration would take place "at a later date" not specified. It appeared that no speech would be forthcoming from Hitler.

Flying Bombs Kill Five: Many Injured

LONDON, Nov. 9 (AP)—At least five persons were killed and scores injured during the night when flying bombs crashed in residential areas in southern England.

London was alerted for the first time in three days.

A number of the missiles were shot down over the east coast in a fierce sky display.

The German radio—which yesterday proclaimed that the Nazi's new "V-2" rocket projectile already has been launched against London—declared today that attacks with this weapon will be stepped up. Other secret weapons of great explosive power also will be unleased, a Berlin broadcast declared.

Republican Candidate Wins In Vote Recheck

BUFFALO, N. Y., Nov. 9. (U.P.)—The Erie county election board announced today that a recheck of tally sheets showed Rep. John C. Butler, Republican from the 44th congressional district, had defeated Leon A. Dombrowski, Dem-ALP, by 276 votes, instead of losing by 410 as indicated by an earlier count.

Glenn J. Shultes, secretary of the board, said the vote announced by the Orchard Park town clerk yesterday was in error and that Butler had received a majority of 1,300 in that town, instead of only 632.

The revision placed Butler ahead, but both candidates withheld claims pending further recheck of the balloting.

Japs Imperil Major U. S. Base In China

CHUNGKING, Nov. 9. (U.P.) — The last major American air base in southeastern China was imperiled today by a powerful Japanese thrust that carried 65 miles west of besieged Kweilin to within 15 miles of the U. S. 14th Air force station at Luichow.

A Chinese communique said reinforced Japanese armored units occupied Liukiang, 35 miles northeast of Luichow, yesterday and pushed on against stubborn Chinese resistance.

Bitter fighting was reported continuing at Kweilin, where the encircled Chinese garrison fought off repeated attacks by Japanese tanks and infantry from all sides of the city.

Too Bad! Stalin's Speech Offends Japs

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 9. (AP)—Premier Marshal Stalin's speech this week in which he branded Japan an "aggressor nation," surprised and offended the Japanese people, Domei, Japanese news agency, reported today in a radio broadcast.

The broadcast, recorded by the Federal Communications commission, said that the Russian premier's address has become the "central topic of discussion of all Japan . . . but government circles are refraining from making any comments."

LONDON, Nov. 9. (AP) — The Netherlands government has informed Britain it reserves the right to claim a "suitable part" of adjoining Prussia in compensation for damage caused by the Germans in Holland.

Churchill's Speech

rush through France was inevitably halted by the stiffening German resistance, Churchill said, and the interval has been used to move up supplies and reinforcements for the "final struggle."

Victory is assured, he said, but it will require "every scrap of strength" the three great powers can muster to crush the desperate opposition which can be expected.

Churchill said another meeting of Mr. Roosevelt, Premier Josef Stalin and himself "might easily abridge the sufferings of mankind and stop the fearful process of destruction which is now ravaging the earth."

Glad Roosevelt Won

"I feel free to express, on personal grounds, the very great joy it gives me to know that my wartime and intimate cooperation with President Roosevelt will be continued in the months that lie before us," Churchill said.

"I am sure that everybody will be moved by the sportsman-like manner in which Governor Dewey, in the moment of his defeat, offered his congratulations to his opponent and pledged his party to work wholeheartedly for the world cause."

He praised the way the United States election was conducted without disturbing Anglo-American friendship, and lauded both parties for holding the Allied interests "high above the dust of partisanship."

Election Called Example

"America," he said, "has given an example to the world of how democratic institutions can be worked with the utmost vigor and freedom without injury to the permanent interests of the state."

Churchill warned that "we must be very careful ourselves to avoid mixing ourselves up in American political affairs" and thanked the British Parliament, press and public leaders for "the care and restraint which have made all potential indiscretions die upon their lips."

Turning to Britain's own politics, Churchill said "it seems almost certain" that the country will have its first general election of the war in 1945, and I am sure that it will be conducted by all concerned with all the liveliness and robust vigor which will gratify the political emotions of our public without destroying that marvelous underlying unity and sense of brotherhood which has long existed in this country and has reached its highest degree among the perils from which we have been delivered."

To Open Port Soon

The Allied victory in Southwest Holland, opening the Schelde estuary, will "very shortly place the great port of Antwerp at the disposal of the northern flank which will presently move into Germany for the final struggle," Churchill said.

But he added that the full might of the three great powers, "every scrap of strength they can give," will be required to crush the desperate resistance which can be expected from the Germans during the coming great operations.

Sketching the topics he discussed at the lord mayor's luncheon a year ago, Churchill said the events of 1944 have surpassed those of 1943 by far, with Rome, Athens, Paris and Brussels liberated and all of Adolf Hitler's satellites turning against him.

May Now Reap Vengeance

"They who have been driven so far against their interests, against their honor, against in many cases their inclination, have had a chance to turn upon the slave driver, and may now reap the vengeance which is due them," he said.

Observing that the Allies now stand on German soil both in the east and in the west, and that "from the air there rains down upon the guilty German land a hail of fire and explosion of ever increasing fury," Churchill added:

"We have had our own experience and we know how severe the ordeal may be, but I can assure you that we have not suffered one-tenth of what is being meted out to those who first started and developed this cruel and merciless form of attack."

association.

"In the absence of a satisfactory and reasonable explanation (for the dismissal of Dr. Rainey), it is inevitable that rumors, ugly and harmful, should arise," Dr. Smith said. "Already we are hearing such rumors. Let me mention two."

Referring to one, that Rainey "wants to admit negro students into the university," Dr. Smith said:

"I have Dr. Rainey's word for it that he has never entertained the idea that such a thing should take place, now or in the future. He is deply interested in high standards of education for the negroes, but within their own institutions and not in the University of Texas."

Rumored A Communist

Dr. Smith continued:

"Another rumor given as a possible explanation of the action of the regents is that Dr. Rainey is a Communist or that he has communistic leanings." Dr. Smith then quoted from an address by Dr. Rainey recently at Christ church in New York City:

"'Democracy is caught between two of the most virulent forms of revolutionary government that the world has ever seen — communism on the left and fascism on the right. That democracy is threatened by them there can be no doubt. When this war is over, Russian youth are going to be fanatical in their enthusiasm for modern Russia. Our youth must be embued with a comparable faith in, and loyalty to, the traditions and values of our way of life'."

University Has Cooperated

He said that under Dr. Rainey's administration, "the university has cooperated fully with every government agency that has investigated the matter and without a single exception, the university has received a clean bill of health."

The regents, in dismissing Rainey, said officially that he had not carried out policies of the board and had made statements reflecting on the motives of board members. Rainey has charged that the regents encroached on his administrative functions and had attempted or imposed "restrictive measures" during his administration.

The governor previously said he had received a larve volume of mail concerning the university administrative row and estimated, in response to a question, that 60 per cent of it favored Rainey's position in his differences with the board concerning the scope of authority as between him and the board. The remaining 40 per cent, said the governor, commended the action of the regents.

and were attacking an enemy bridgehead 1½ miles long and three-fourths of a mile deep.

The U.S. First army was slowly regaining some of the ground lost this week southeast of Aachen to strong German counterattacks.

The Allied communique said the Americans were advancing slowly against heavy enemy pressure in the area south of Vossenack and southwest of the town of Hurtgen against "very heavy resistance." West of Schmidt, which the First army reached before being thrown back, enemy pockets are being mopped up, the announcement said.

Minor Gains Scored

The Third army divisions which attacked this morning near Metz made minor gains. Opposition ranged from light to moderate.

The 19th division crossed the Moselle river in two places north of Metz. Another fresh division, still unidentified in dispatches, established a bridgehead over a Moselle tributary also above the city.

The Fifth division pushed across the Seille river and occupied the town of Cheminot, 10 miles due south of Metz and five miles northeast of Pont-A-Mousson on the Moselle, which was captured by the Americans recently after several unsuccessful attempts.

Patch's Troops Gain

Below the Third army zone, Lt. Gen. Alexander M. Patch's Seventh army captured Mi[illegible]ville, 29 miles southeast of N[illegible] and two miles beyond Reh[illegible] which was taken last week-[illegible]

Patch's troops also won Baroques, within 3½ miles [illegible] Dia, first town in the Saales which leads northeastward Strasbourg on the Rhine.

Reports from the Third [illegible] front indicated the Germans had not yet caught their balance from the first shock of the assault and there were no counterattacks and rush of reserves which normally might be expected.

Weather Unfavorable

Patton's men, however, were fighting across a sodden terrain in the fact of worsening weather.

German commanders had a tough day yesterday. Allied [illegible]tical air squadrons attacked [illegible] demolished German headqua[illegible] and command posts all the [illegible] from north of the Reichswald [illegible] posite the northern tip of the [illegible]lied front in eastern Holland, the outskirts of Metz.

Altogether eight other comm[illegible] posts were strafed and bombed.

The specific location of the attack north of Metz was not immediately disclosed.

Possible jumping off points for the two new divisions thrown in there, however, included recently cleared Maizieres-Les-Metz, six miles north of Metz and 1½ miles west of the Moselle, and newly captured Berg, 22 miles northeaest of Metz and three miles from the French - German - Luxembourg boundary corner.

CAN'T KEEP GRANDMA IN HER CHAIR

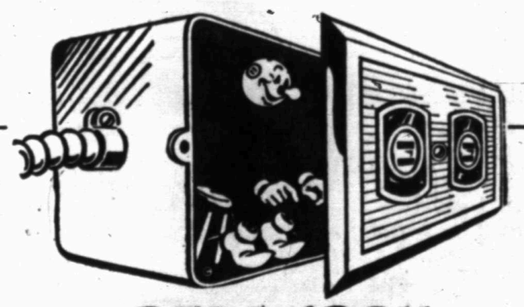

She's as Lively as a Youngster—Now her Backache is better

Many sufferers relieve nagging backache quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys. The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the excess acids and waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day.

When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

FDR Gets Back Into Routine

HYDE PARK, N. Y., Nov. 9. (AP) —President Roosevelt swung back into the complex duties of his office today, his administration policies endorsed by the voters who chose him to head the government for another four years.

"We have again demonstrated to the world that Democracy is a living, vital force," the President said in a statement issued 14 hours after his victory over Gov. Thomas E. Dewey became certain.

He said the election "demonstrated . . . that our faith in American institutions is unshaken; that conscience and not force is the source of power in the government of man.

"To that faith let us unite to win the war and to achieve a lasting peace."

Spends Leisurely Day

The President will return to Washington tomorrow.

He arose late yesterday and, except for working a while on correspondence, gave himself an easy day on his estate. He went for an automobile ride with his former law partner, Henry C. Hooker, had a quiet dinner and went to bed early.

Huge bundles of telegrams and messages were carried to the Roosevelt estate yesterday after it became apparent that the chief executive had been re-elected for a fourth term.

Presidential Secretary Stephen T. Early said many of the messages said the President's re-election meant that "isolationism is dead" in this country.

Japanese Accused Of Using Poison Gas

CHUNGKING, Nov. 9 (AP) — Chinese military authorities asserted today that the Japanese had used "large quantities" of poison gas in an attempt to overcome Chinese resitance at the Kwangsi province capital of Kweilin.

The attempt failed to dislodge the defenders, "who held their positions grimly," the authorities said. Earlier the Chinese high command reported "violent attacks" by the Japanese in the eastern, northern and southern suburbs of Kweilin.

Japanese columns continued their advance on Liuchow in southern Kwangsi province from the east and south, but the Chinese repelled four assaults on their positions astride the Hunan-Kwangsi railway 36 miles to the northeast, the high command said.

Forced Liability Insurance For Drivers Is Considered

BY JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9 — If you're fed up on politics, you can argue about this:

Should an auto driver be compelled to carry liability insurance before he has an accident? Or should he be compelled to prove he can pay damages only after he has an accident?

This problem may bob up in a number of state legislatures next year. Here's the story:

The national conference on street and highway safety, back in 1926, helped draw up a "uniform vehicle code." This was a model traffic law recommended to the 48 states. More than 40 have adopted it in whole or part.

Code Reviewed Frequently

Every few years the conference—made up of representatives of federal, state and local motor vehicle authorities and of private organizations interested in traffic and safety—has reviewed the code.

This was done to bring it up to date to meet changing conditions.

Now the conference's committee on uniform traffic laws and ordinances has done another reviewing job.

The conference opposes compulsory liability insurance for auto drivers. One of the reasons: That it forces safe drivers to take out insurance because there are bad drivers.

License Suspension Proposed

Prior to its meeting this month the committee had proposed:

That a driver—convicted of a major traffic offense or against whom a court judgment had been rendered for an accident—would suffer suspension of his license until he had paid the judgment or made provision against future liability by taking out insurance.

More than 40 states had adopted this code in one form or another.

You see what this means: A driver didn't have to prove financial responsibility until he had a bad traffic record or lost a court suit.

Slight Change Favored

But now the committee wants to change that a bit. What the committee says now is this:

Not only a driver who causes damage—but the person whose car is damaged—must show financial responsibility after an accident.

For instance: Suppose you left your car outside your house. A drunken driver smashes into it. Would the drunken driver be allowed to wait until he was found guilty or ordered to pay damages to prove himself able to pay the damages?

No. You—the innocent victim—and the driver right after the accident would suffer suspension of license if you couldn't prove financial responsibility.

You can argue: Doesn't this arrangement put an unfair burden on the safe driver?

For instance: You make $10,000 a year. You're a safe driver. You've never had an accident. And you've never had insurance. But if you had an accident, you could pay whatever damages were found against you.

But here's John Jones. He makes $18 a week. He has no money in the bank. And he has no insurance. He couldn't pay any damages against him. He drives an old jalopy. He drives into your parked car.

Have To Post Bond

After that happens—before Jones is convicted or ordered by court to pay damages—you have to post a bond showing you can pay damages although in this case you know you were innocent.

And Jones, who really doesn't care whether his driver's license is revoked, not only doesn't have insurance but doesn't bother to post bond. In other words: You're stuck. So the irresponsible driver would fare better than the careful motorist.

The various groups which make up the conference will try to make state legislatures—most of them meet in 1945—see things their way and pass laws accordingly.

There'll probably be sturdy fights in the legislatures—if they listen to this proposal at all—before anything is done about it.

Explosion Kills One Soldier, Injures 4

PARIS, Nov. 9 (AP)—An unexplained explosion killed one soldier and injured four others, one critically, here yesterday.

The explosion took place in a parking space for motor vehicles, public relations officers said.

Pvt. Kenneth E. Brewer of Reading, Pa., was killed and Pvt. Robert W. Keith of Dallas was gravely hurt. Others injured were Pvt. William E. Kirschbaum, Paris, Tex.; T/3 Amos W. Calhoun, Pleasant Plains, Ill. and T/4 Kenneth J. Miles, Tucson, Ariz.

Work Of PAC To Continue

NEW YORK, Nov. 9 (U.P.) — Sidney Hillman, chairman of the CIO's Political Action committee which did yeoman work in getting out the vote for President Roosevelt, especially in industrial areas, said today that the work of the PAC would continue.

At the committee's headquarters here, Hillman said the national vote was "a stunning repudiation of the anti-labor isolationist and defeatist element who based their campaign on bigotry and prejudice" and said he was proud of the PAC "contribution to the happy result."

Political observers were generally agreed that the PAC, target of bitter Republican attacks during the campaign, played an important role in organizing the CIO vote and urging members to go to the polls.

Hillman Strong Influence

Hillman was a strong influence in the American Labor party in New York state which polled a record-breaking 450,000 votes for Mr. Roosevelt.

John L. Lewis—who endorsed Wendell Willkie in 1940—and lent at least moral support to Gov. Dewey in this campaign, again backed the wrong candidate, election results from the anthracite and bituminous fields of Pennsylvania and West Virginia proved.

The highest estimate of the strength the United Mine workers president wielded in this election came from Judge John S. Fine, Luzerne county Republican leader, who claimed that 25 per cent of the northeastern Pennsylvania county had swung to Dewey.

Roosevelt Majority Lower

In adjoining Lackawanna county, the 1940 Roosevelt majority was down from 16,000 to 11,000, but other factors may have been responsible.

In western Pennsylvania, Fayette county, heart of the bituminous field, gave President Roosevelt 34,619 votes to Dewey's 20,134. In the 1940 election, the President polled 41,960 votes to Willkie's 23,908. The loss between elections was 3,648, but there were still a few precencts to be counted.

In West Virginia, President Roosevelt and Governor-Elect Clarence W. Meadows, Democrat, swept the coal mining counties by a two-to-one majority.

Youth Center To Start Regular Recreation Schedule Tuesday

A regular schedule of recreation and entertainment will be opened at Lubbock's Youth center for teen-agers with a party at 7 o'clock next Tuesday night.

Temporary plans now are set up so that the center will be open for teen-agers two week nights, Tuesdays and Thursdays. Plans are to work into a full time program later.

Committees Announced

Committees as announced Wednesday by Mrs. Grace Dyess, superintendent of recreation for the city, are composed of high school and college students as well as independent groups.

These young people under the leadership of Miss Julia Wilbanks, center director, will be responsible for equipping the center for full-scale operations. They will scout Lubbock for furniture, game equipment, snack bar equipment, magazines, lamps and funds. Anyone wishing to make gifts to the center may call city recreation offices or the center, 'phone 7551. These gifts will be picked up by students.

Committee members are: "Bucket Brigade," responsible for decoration, Earl Lockhart, chairman; "Secondhand dealers," furnishings, Jerry LeMond, chairman, and committee members Bobby Thompson, Bee Bailiff, "Wistie" Reed, "Blondie" Martin, James Hall, John Hampton, "Buzz" Parkhill, Joe Dean Payne, Leslie Morrisset, Harley Matthews, Roland Nichols, Herbert Puryear; "Midas and Lucre" (the finance committee) Maxine McCollum and Fred McDonald, co-chairmen, and Jane Elliott, Moyona Cardwell, Bogan Sneed, Fern Shipley, Joan Massey, Jo Ann Epps, Burnett Hunter, Jim Kilpatrick, J. T. Holt, William McMillian, Joyce Dean Jones; "Saw and Hammer Gang," construction, Elmer Reed, Bob Hutto, Robert Landers, Tom Cone and Dan Roulston; "Hungry Hounds," the snack bar committee, Jean Parkhill, chairman, and Bettye Cobb, Sylvia Whitacre, Betty Quinlan, Margie Allen, Anna Lou Gibson, Dorothy Black, Frances Dalmasso, "Boo" Ponce, Billy Hall, Jimmy Patterson and Dan Burkhalter.

At a recent meeting attended by more than 150-teen-agers, it was agreed that the Westerner World, high school publication, and the city recreation council should accept proposed names for the center from Nov. 11 through 5 p. m. Nov. 20. A prize will be awarded the originator of the winning name.

Cravens Well Shows Oil

Enough oil to indicate a possible new discovery has been tested in the Seaboard Oil company of Delaware and Stanolind Oil and Gas company's No. 1 Lula Mae Cravens, wildcat oil test about nine miles north of Lubbock in section 16, block D of the DL&SV survey, according to unofficial but informed oil observers.

The project is reported to have taken a drillstem test to a botton at 6,116 feet in the lower Permian lime.

No detailed information on the test has been released. However, it is understood that a small amount of free oil and some oil and gas cut drilling mud was recovered. No formation water appeared in the investigation.

Coring Under 6,116 Feet

Last report said the development was coring ahead under 6,116 feet.

The operators had revealed that cores had been taken from 6,066 feet to 6,116 feet. Some of the sections in that horizon had showing of oil staining and saturation. Unverified reports had some slight indications of water in one streak of core but no water was reported on the drillstem test.

Navy statistics show that an average of 87,000 telephone conversations are made involving construction of one destroyer.

"We'se used it fo yeahs - But never wid dis effect!"

Sure! Many a new and enthusiastic user of Admiration Coffee faced the same situation in recent months. The brand of coffee she'd been using suddenly, almost overnight, began brewing up a bitter, acid cup. And in its wake inevitable family explosions occurred.

HAS YOUR BLEND "CHANGED"?

What happened is easily explained. Her old standby "changed." Cheap, inferior, bitter-tasting coffees were substituted where better coffees were used before. Why? Well, to "save" on ceiling prices. There's no scarcity of good coffees. It's just a plain case of adulteration.

THE WAR HAS CHANGED SOME COFFEES

But the war hasn't changed all coffees. Admiration is still today, as it was 25 years ago, a unique blend of choice, expensive coffees, roasted to the peak of flavor and freshness. Today, tomorrow, next month, and years from now it will be the same heart-warming, appetite-cheering blend. Thousands throughout the Southwest are as loyal to Admiration as they would be to an old friend. As indeed it is. Buy a pound today and give it a one-week trial. You'll understand with glowing satisfaction, right at the first sip, why this superior blend commands by far the greatest sale of any coffee in the Southwest.

Warning Issued On Real Estate Boom

BY CHARLES C. HASLET
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9 — A warning sign has been hung out by the Department of Agriculture.

The department admits it has no legislative program to back up its campaign to prevent a disastrous land boom such as followed the first World war, but it is carrying on an educational campaign throughout the nation anyway.

It is cautioning farmers and non-farmers, lending agencies, banks and real estate dealers to help keep land prices from further inflation.

Values Due To Decline

It contends that current values are above levels that can be sustained by production over a period of years.

The Farm Security Administration says:

Some farms, regrettably, are being bought by speculators, who are not interested in farming or in living on a farm, but only in the profit that can be made by selling the land for more than they paid for it."

Secretary Wickard's office reports that land prices throughout the country already are above normal and in some places have doubled during the last two years.

There has been a tremendous rise in land prices in the citrus, tabacco, corn and wheat belts and in the Pacific northwest. The increase has not been so great in the Atlantic and New England states.

"Critical" Period Seen

The Bureau of Agricultural economics says that the year or two following V-E day in Europe is likely to be the "critical" period of the World War II farm real estate market. In case a high degree of optimism and enthusiasm develops, BAE says, "all conditions essential for a full-fledged land boom are likely to be present shortly after the end of the European war."

Secretary Wickard's office has talked with insurance companies and banks and found they are "looking at the problem soundly." But the department is somewhat worried about the increasing number of loans being made by wealthy individuals.

Foreclosures Feared

If farmers buy with small down payments at inflated prices, the department fears they may lose their farms at foreclosure sales when prices drop, just as many were lost at the end of the boom following World War I.

One development "disturbing" the department is that workers in war plants and some businesses are buying farms without seeing them, just to have a place to go after the war ends. They often get misrepresented, over-priced land.

For the long run, the Farm Credit Administration (FCA) advises, it is best to base your plans on returns from crops and livestock about like those of 1933 to 1940, when there were some lean and some fat years. Then figure out what such a farm would be worth normally, whether the soil is productive, water supply good, roads, power, telephone and school bus service available and taxes reasonable.

A reasonable allowance also should be made for family living expenses, miscellaneous odds and ends and some savings.

And the department wants you to look at a farm before you buy it, so you will know what you are getting. It doesn't want a wave of foreclosures a few years hence.

The "Bad Lands" of North Dakota is a weird region of lonely ridges, isolated buttes and deep gullies with many strange formations of rock and earth.

Yanks' Laughs At French Girls Are Brought To Abrupt Halt

BY HAL BOYLE
Associated Press Staff Writer

WITH THE AMERICAN SEVENTH ARMY In France, Oct. 27 (Delayed) — Life along the front:

"These French girls are hard to figure out," said the soldier from Wyoming.

"Yeah," said the soldier from Kentucky.

"Lot harder than those gals we knew in Italy."

"Yeah."

"Take those gals in Italy. All you had to do was to say you was going to marry them and take them to America and you was the same as the king. Nothing they wouldn't do for you."

"Yeah," said the soldier from Kentucky.

French 'Gals' Different

"But these French gals — you tell them you are going to take them to America after the war and that don't settle anything. They are what you call 'difficile'. That is French for 'difficult'."

"Yeah," said his buddy.

We had picked up the two soldiers in our jeeps as we passed through a small French village in which they had been stationed some time before. They had revisited their girl friends and were returning to their camp. The soldier from Wyoming was a short, stocky blonde boy of twenty, lively as a cricket. His friend from Kentucky was a few years older, dark featured and solemn faced.

"My girl's name is Rolande," said Wyoming. "She's the prettiest blonde I ever saw. She's only 18. She don't speak English and I don't speak enough French to notice. But we can talk along all right when we are alone. When her folks get to talking to me, though, I get all mixed up and can't understand them. They don't use the same words as my girl—else they use them too fast."

Girl Is Jealous

"My girl's named Francelle," volunteered Kentucky. "I seen prettier girls since I come overseas two years ago — but not around here."

"Is your gal jealous?" asked Wyoming.

"I'll say," said Kentucky.

"First thing mine asked me was who was doing my laundry for me now. She used to do it for nothing."

"Mine, too."

"When I get back home I am going to marry me a nice farm girl," mused Wyoming.

"Can't Beat Farm Girl"

"That's right," said Kentucky. "You can't beat a good farm girl."

"Rolande thinks she's going to live in Wyoming after the war."

"Yeah and Francelle thinks that she's going to live in Kentucky."

They looked at each other and laughed so hard the tears ran out of their eyes. They slapped each other's backs and laughed and laughed as the jeep sped them down the road away from Rolande and Francelle.

"Francelle gave me a couple of presents," said Kentucky. He held out a small bottle of cheap perfume and both soldiers smelled it and laughed again.

Finds Hundred Franc Note

"She also gave me an envelope and told me to open it when I got back to camp," said Kentucky. "Let's see what is in it."

He tore open the cheap white envelope. He shook it impatiently—and a soiled and crumpled hundred franc note slipped from the envelope and into his hands.

Wyoming looked at the crumpled bill in his friend's hand. He stopped laughing.

"She knew I was broke," said Kentucky uncomfortably. He carefully screwed the top back on the perfume bottle and put it in his pocket. His fingers played nervously with the hundred franc note. He looked at it again.

"Maybe," he said, "she may live in Kentucky after the war."

"Maybe," said Wyoming.

RETIRES TWICE

CHICAGO, Nov. 9. (U.P.) — Col. Philip R. Crippen, 67, personnel director of the Chicago police department, has retired from the force for the second time in four years. He retired the first time in 1940, when he reached the compulsory retirement age of 63, but resumed his duties with civilian status because of the manpower shortage.

PROVES HE'S 36

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., Nov. 9. (U.P.)—When his draft board listed his age as 26, a New Bedford registrant wrote that he was 36 and: "This is borne out by my school records, employment files, hearsay, list of birthday cards and gifts, wrinkles, lack of teeth, gray hair, general appearance and recurring fatigue."

Thanksgiving Menu To Feel Pinch On Some Food Items

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9 (AP) — You're beginning to think now, aren't you, of whipping up that Thanksgiving dinner?

Here are your prospects, outlined by the boss of the nation's pantry, the War Food administration:

Turkey — There won't be any over-supply in spite of an expected record production. The military services want a lot more turkey than last year. Near the turkey-raising areas there'll probably be enough to meet demand. Elsewhere, there may not be enough.

Onions, beets, rutabagas, carrots—don't expect trouble here. There's a good supply.

Beans: You'd better look for the canned kind. The supply is pretty good. There'll be few fresh beans.

Cranberry Crop Short

Cranberries: The crop, short, is only about half of last year's. Mostly you'll have to use fresh cranberries. The canned berries have gone largely into the war services.

Potatoes: A little short for November.

Peas: You'll be able to get practically no fresh peas.

Cabbages: Not so good. They won't be plentiful.

Turkeys again: Last year we produced 466 million pounds of turkey, dressed weight. This year the production will be about 500 million pounds.

But, last year the military services took 35 million pounds. This year, being larger than last year, they're taking 60 million pounds.

Farm Policies Due To Hold

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9 (AP) — President Roosevelt is expected by farm leaders to standpat—at least 'til war's end—on present farm policies and the top personnel in farm and food agencies.

A heavy out-turn of votes for Thomas E. Dewey in Tuesday's election in midwestern farm states will lead to little if any change, in wartime farm programs, farm price supports and food rationing, say agricultural leaders both in and out of the administration.

Wickard Due To Stay

Capital observers expect Mr. Roosevelt to retain Claude R. Wickard as secretary of agriculture at least until the war emergency is over. Likewise Marvin Jones is expected to be kept on the job as war food administrator until that agency is liquidated.

Re-election of Mr. Roosevelt apparently re-assured return to AAA crop control programs when the war ends and the demand for American farm products reduces markets. The AAA programs may be supplemented by plans for subsidizing consumption by low-income consumers.

CANNED BEER IN WAR

CHICAGO, Nov. 9. (U.P.)—If all the beer cans made by the Continental Can company so far this year were placed end to end, they would reach from New York to Denver—but not into any civilian homes or taverns. The company is making millions of beer cans, but the entire output is on Army and Navy contracts.

Port wine is named after the town of Oporto, Portugal.

Stocks Of Fuel Oil In U. S. Decline

NEW YORK, Nov. 9 (AP)—The American Petroleum institute reported today that stocks of light fuel oil dropped 228,000 barrels in the week ended Nov. 4 from the revised figure of the previous week to a total of 48,477,000 barrels from the revised figure of the preceding week to a total of 63,444,000 barrels.

Daily average crude oil runs to stills decreased 88,000 barrels to 4,570,000.

The week's production of heavy fuel oil was estimated at 8,570,000 barrels against 8,985,000 the previous week and 8,256,000 a year ago.

Total finished and unfinished stocks of gasoline were 78,409,000 barrels against 79,058,000 the week before and 68,674,000 a year ago.

Refineries operated 93.1 per cent of capacity with runs to stills at 4,570,000 barrels of crude oil daily compared with 94.9 per cent and 4,658,000 barrels in the previous week.

Daily average gross crude oil production dropped 21,000 barrels to an average of 4,719,900 compared with 4,389,250 a year ago.

Mormon Bishop Wins In Congress Race

RENO, Nev. Nov. 9 (AP)—Berkeley Bunker, a young Mormon church bishop running on the Democratic ticket, defeated Rex Bell, cattle-rancher husband of former Film Actress Clara Bow, in the race for representative-at-large from Nevada.

Incomplete returns today from Tuesday's balloting gave Bunker 30,997 votes and Bell, a Republican, 18,355.

Some doctors claim smoking raises the blood pressure, but hunting something to smoke these days results in something near to complete prostration!

THE American dollar doesn't buy much more than half what it did in more stable eras of the past, but we in this country don't know anything about monetary troubles.

According to reports received in New York financial circles, many parts of the Orient are in a state of almost complete monetary chaos. Sinister elements are reaping handsome profits from counterfeiting old currencies, as well as the new war-born ones. Gen. Douglas MacArthur, when he liberates Manila, will have a first-class fiscal mix-up to solve as well as continue his relentless drive against the Japs.

And, U. S. financiers are told, worse scandals will be unearthed when United Nations forces retake Burma and the Straits settlements.

To understand conditions, one must remember that before the war all sorts of mediums of exchange were used in the Philippines, China, India, Burma, the Netherlands East Indies and Hong Kong.

French Indo-China had French bills and coins. India operated on rupees, annas and pices. Hong Kong relied on the Hong Kong dollar, a special note printed by the Hong Kong and Shanghai Banking corporation. Burmese money was made in India. Other currencies were the Straits Settlements dollar, Dutch paper and coin employed in Queen Wilhelmina's sprawling islands and innumerable units in China.

When the Japs took over, into this jumbled financial field barged various Nipponese banks of issue with their new monies. Among them are a branch of the Yokohama Specie bank and other institutions especially created for occupied territories. They all circulate their own kinds of money, supposedly after calling in previous ones.

As the result of all this confusion, crooks of all races are running printing presses overtime. They are cleaning up fortunes through the gullibility of the natives and the wildcat inflation in Chungking's provinces which has driven the prices of "real" money sky high.

Just how this mess eventually will be cleaned up is a question which must be worked out only by co-operation of the better financial brains of the United Nations.

We saw in the paper the other day where the U. S. had 28,000,000 automobiles at the time of Pearl Harbor but that since then, 3,500,000 have been worn out.

We never thought we'd live to see the day when pedestrians outlasted cars in this country!

SOMETIMES The Plainsman wonders if we moderns aren't just a bunch of thoughtless Esaus, swapping our brithright for a mess of pottage.

We have become so organized and civilized and, in some respects mesmerized, that we've gotten all mixed up in the matter of satisfactory—or contented — living.

The idea came to us the other night when we were reading an article about all the new gadgets which are going to "make life more worth living" in the post-war world. A push of a button in those days, we understand, will solve almost every problem and fill almost every need. Folks are beginning to believe that the "brave new world" to come is going to be so wonderful that all they'll have to do is lie around and enjoy themselves.

Yes, there will be gadgets galore in the postwar world and most of us will enjoy some of them.

Static-less radio sets, television, mechanical dishwashers, lawnmowers, rugbeaters and super-duper freezing units will be great stuff. So will new typewriters, on which columns such as this may be written by use of the voice, instead of the fingers. So will all the other new scientific wonders which will be transferred, after victory, from the laboratory to the factory's production line.

But the trouble is, all these things will cost money—a good deal of money.

And in order to get the money with which to buy them, the average citizen is still going to have to "work like everything" — maybe harder than ever before.

LET'S take a look at the animals of the forest, centering on the deer as an example.

The deer lives as animals are supposed to live. He does only as much work as is necessary to feed and shelter himself. The rest of the time, he does what he pleases. He romps, he relaxes, he sleeps, he enjoys the scenery—he has a good time.

Other animals do, too. They don't have to exert every brain cell and every sinew most of their waking hours. They find enough to eat and drink; they eat and drink what they want. They find a sheltered place to rest, or sleep —and they're through for the day.

They're "dumb animals!"

Well, how "dumb" are they, aside from the fact that they can't talk as we do? Not so "mentally dumb" as man, maybe, who as time goes on works harder and harder to get more and more "civilized gadets" which are supposed to make life easier for him. That's a "vicious circle."

After all, man is an animal. He cannot be otherwise biologically classified.

So maybe he's making a mistake in not taking a leaf from the books of other animals, and getting along with as little essential effort as possible.

Maybe it would be a good idea if people tried as hard to see how little they can be happy and contented with as they do to see how much they can pile up, with the same happiness and contentment as their goal.

We know a man who makes $100,000 a year by virtue of working like the very dickens all the time. He's happy, too. Unusually happy. But we've always had a hunch that he'd be happier, and would live longer, if he were making, say, $3,600 a year and working less than half the hours he does now.

ONE of the things that made George M. Cohan famous was his recitation of a piece called "Life's A Very Funny Proposition, After All."

We think of that verse every time we get to pondering on life as the moderns live it. Right now we're thinking of one part of it that fits the picture.

It goes:

("We're) hurried and worried,
Until we're buried—
And there's no curtain call.
Life's a very funny proposition
After all."
Could be, could be.

DUE to Jap seizure of most of the world's raw rubber producing areas, we in this country, as everyone now knows, have been making synthetic rubber from oil. But the Japs, who are "long" on rubber and "short" on oil, have been reversing the process and reports, via neutral nations, say the Nips are making synthetic oil from rubber.

There is no good reason for doubting the report, since it is logical to believe that "necessity is the mother of invention" in the Oriental, as well as in the Occidental, world.

Feminine Viewpoint

BY RUTH MILLETT
(Copyright, 1944, For The Journal)

A RECENT study made by the National Nursing Council for War service shows that by July 1, 1946 there will be a national shortage of 129,000 registered professional nurses.

MILLETT

With the nurse shortage what it has been through out the war, wouldn't it be a good thing to consider, while we are talking of compulsory military training for American youth, some scheme whereby American girls would be compelled to have a year or two of nurses' training—or even a set-up for such training with the service a voluntary proposition.

It seems as though that would be more sensible than a feminine West Point-Annapolis to train women officers for the armed services as has been proposed, or even any other type of program devised to give girls a chance to serve their country for a year.

Of course, regular nurses' training isn't completed in a year—but in that length of time girls could be given a foundation for nursing that would make them capable of working efficiently under the direction of a registered nurse.

There would—if such a plan were in effect — always be a group of girls ready, in case of war, to serve their country.

ALWAYS NEEDED

AND if the girls never had to put their training to use in hospitals, it would make them better able to care for their own families through the years. If anything is to be done to train the girls of America to serve their country as most people now feel our boys should be trained—nursing seems to be the best bet.

Wars can be fought without women soldiers, sailors, or marines—even though they have given splendid service in this war.

But it would be hard to fight a war without women nurses to care for sick and wounded on the battle fronts and the civilian population at home.

Today's Journal Editorial

A WELL-TRAINED DIPLOMATIC CORPS

Rep. J. William Fulbright, who next January will succeed Mrs. Hattie Caraway as a U. S. senator from Arkansas, is internationally-minded. He favors a world organization in an effort to preserve the peace and close co-operation between the nations of the earth in many other fields, as well. Yet he does not expect that all international problems can be worked out without preparation at home in all the countries involved. In other words, he favors "starting at the bottom and working up," and one way he suggests in this regard is to "open up" the U. S. diplomatic service so that the best men available may have an opportunity to serve their country.

Mr. Fulbright wants to raise salaries in the diplomatic corps, so that the field may be remuneratively inviting to our young men of diplomatic bent. We agree with his idea, because now it is almost necessary that an American in diplomatic circles have a sizeable outside income in order that he may meet expenses and keep up appearances involved in his work. Because the diplomatic service hasn't paid as much as it should, the field has been barred to able, intelligent young men not fortunate enough to have money of their own. As a result, the nation hasn't been able to take full advantage of its resources along this line.

But we would go a little farther than Mr. Fulbright. In addition to paying salaries and expenses sufficient unto the service involved, we would see set up in this country a sort of "West Point" for the diplomatic service, open to all aspirants and without political tinge. Thereby, we would have chosen, on a basis of merit, young men from all over the country and would train them, academically and otherwise, over a period of years so, when they were ready to take up diplomatic work they would be fully prepared to handle their jobs.

The diplomatic service of the U. S. should be a career in itself. It should be a career open to all young men capable of adopting it, without regard to the financial status, or the political power, of their families.

It should be set up whereby promotions, with fitting increases in salary, automatically follow outstanding performances and where proven ability and adaptability will count most.

There is no doubt that as time rolls along, intercourse between nations will be more general and more profound than ever before. In order that our country may be represented to the highest degree, we should even at this late date gives the matter the fullest of cognizance and study.

From the humblest attache in the least important diplomatic station to our most powerful ambassador, the United States, in the future, should be represented by able men, carefully prepared for such service.

Senator-elect Fulbright has suggested a step in the right direction. We hope his colleagues in the Congress will not only take that step, but go the whole way in giving our country what it should have in the way of a diplomatic corps—and that means the very best available to us.

Some Prominent Guesses Miss The Mark

Washington Merry Go Round

BY DREW PEARSON
Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9 — A lot of people have tried their hand at predicting the war's end, including this columnist. Some were high-up officials, some private prognosticators. Some were pretty good, some pretty bad. Here is a cross-section:

Rep. Earl Wilson, Indiana Republican, in June, 1943, got an average compilation from 140 congressmen that the war would be over in October, 1944.

Admiral William F. Halsey, who predicted "complete, absolute defeat for the Axis in 1943," was asked again, on Dec. 13, 1943, and "wasn't so sure when the war would be over."

Gen. "Hap" Arnold, chief of the Air Forces, on Feb. 14, 1943, predicted "the German war will be over by Feb. 14, 1944."

Jim Farley, on Jan. 20, 1943, "The war will be over this year."

Gen. Levin Campbell, Jan. 15, 1943 — "The war will be over in about two years. Artillery will gain as a factor in the war."

Herbert Hoover, Nov. 6, 1943—"Certainly we are now in the last stages of the war."

Raymond Moley, Nov. 8, 1943, predicted end of the war "earlier than envisioned by the administration."

Senator O'Mahoney, Wyoming Democrat, Jan. 2, 1944: "The most conservative Swedish observers do not believe that Germany can endure beyond next June."

TOO MUCH OPTIMISM

Sun Fo, president of the legislative Yuan of China, Jan. 2, 1944 — "Germany will be knocked out between the spring and summer of this year."

Henry Ford, March 20, 1944, predicted war would be over in two months.

Senator McKellar of Tennessee, July 21, 1944 — "The Red army will be in Berlin in 60 days. The war will be over on all fronts in six months."

Senator Thomas, Democrat, Oklahoma, July 28, 1944 — "I don't see how Germany can last through the rest of this year."

Congressman May, Democrat, Kentucky, July 28, 1944 — "Germany will capitulate by Dec. 1."

Under Secretary of War Patterson, July 29, 1944 — "We are now entering the beginning of the last phase of the war in Europe."

General Chennault, July 21, 1944 — "I think Germany will be defeated within this year. Japan will be defeated six months afterwards."

General Montgomery, July 17, 1944 — "If we do our stuff properly, we shall have Germany out of the war this year."

Congressman Cannon, Democrat, Missouri, June 17, 1944—"There is general belief that the German Armies will collapse not later than the first or second week of September."

Winston Churchill, June 19, 1944 — "The months of this summer may, by the victories of this Allied campaign, bring full success to the cause of Freedom." General Eisenhower, bidding farewell to Algiers, Dec. 27, 1943, predicted that the Allies would win the European war in 1944.

POSTSCRIPT

ONE of the last things Wendell Willkie wrote, shortly before he died, resulted in a friendly debate with his old friend, Josephus Daniels, Woodrow Wilson's Secretary of the Navy.

Writing a guest column for John Temple Graves, Willkie told how, having been an ardent Democrat and booster for the League of Nations in 1924, he went to the Chicago Democratic convention in 1932 to work for the nomination of Newton Baker. But at Chicago, he found that Garner, McAdoo and Jim Farley had got together and no subject interested them less than the cause of world co-operation.

So Willkie concluded with this "Postscript to an Epilogue:"

"After these experiences and after the Democratic party in the middle thirties began to violate the very essence of Wilson's philosophy of government — 'Government should serve society, by no means rule or dominate it. Government should not be made an end in itself; it is a means only . . . The state exists for the sake of society, not society for the state' — I left the Democratic party — or, perhaps, the Democratic party left me."

A few days later, Josephus Daniels, also wrote a guest column for John Temple Graves, which carried this reply to Willkie:

"I claim a woman's privilege of making the postscript the most important part of a letter. As a disciple of Wilson's ideal, Franklin Roosevelt urged a solemn referendum on the League of Nations when he was candidate for Vice President in 1920. That was the year when the people voted for Harding and normalcy.

This year Roosevelt incarnates the Wilson spirit and his election is the only guarantee of an organization that will insure the permanent outlawry of war. If we fail to secure an effective world organization to end war this time, the robot will look like a child's toy compared with the destructive weapons which will be used if another war curses the world.

PENICILLIN

WPB, which controls production of penicillin, says more of the wonder drug is being produced in a single month now than was produced in the entire year of 1943.

And for once, America has an important drug which is not all wrapped up in monopoly.

In fact, penicillin is being made by several companies which are not drug manufacturers. One of these is a mushroom producer. Explanation is that in producing mushroom spores, this company has become expert in the same processes of fermentation required in making penicillin. Another non-drug company is Charles Pfizer of Brooklyn, whose regular business is making yeast. The fermentation skill involved in that industry has made Pfizer the best U. S. producer of penicillin as things stand today.

Still another producer is Commercial Solvents, whose manufacture of Butyl and ethyl alcohol involves fermentation.

The balance of the penicillin producers are drug companies but, even in this group, there are cliques with the sport of animosity and quarrelling which does not go with monopoly.

The Bureau of Agricultural Economics estimates that production of penicillin by the end of this year should be about 200,000,000,000 units a month, indicating a new source of annual income of $50,000,000.

Ernie Pyle Meets Sgt. Buck Eversole, Who Is A Real Soldier

Sergeants Are The "Backbone" Of The Army!

(EDITOR'S NOTE: Ernie Pyle is resting following his service with frontline troops in Europe and next plans to go to the fighting zones of the Pacific. While he is on leave The Journal will publish here some of Ernie's earlier articles, not previously printed in Lubbock, upon which first was built the mutual esteem between Pyle and "GI Joe.")

By ERNIE PYLE

IN ITALY, February, 1944—Buck Eversole is a platoon sergeant in an infantry company. That means he has charge of about 40 frontline fighting men.

He has been at the front for more than a year. War is old to him and he has become almost the master of it. He is a senior partner now in the institution of death.

ERNIE PYLE

His platoon has turned over many times as battle whittles down the old ones and the replacement system brings up the new ones. Only a handful now are veterans.

"It gets so it kinda gets you, seein' these new kids come up," Buck told me one night in his slow, barely audible Western voice, so full of honesty and sincerity.

"Some of them have just got fuzz on their faces, and don't know what it's all about, and they're scared to death. No matter what, some of them are bound to get killed."

Carries Heavy Load

We talked about some of the other old-time non-coms who could take battle themselves, but had gradually grown morose under the responsibility of leading green boys to their slaughter. Buck spoke of one sergeant especially, a brave and hardened man, who went to his captain and asked him to be reduced to a private in the lines.

"I know it ain't my fault that they get killed," Buck finally said. "And I do the best I can for them, but I've got so I feel like it's me killin' 'em instead of a German. I've got so I feel like a murderer. I hate to look at them when the new ones come in."

BUCK himself has been fortunate. Once he was shot through the arm. His own skill and wisdom have saved him many times, but luck has saved him countless other times.

One night Buck and an officer took refuge from shelling in a two-room Italian stone house. As they sat there, a shell came through the wall of the far room, crossed the room and buried itself in the middle wall with its nose pointing upward. It didn't go off.

Another time Buck was leading his platoon on a night attack. They were walking in Indian file. Suddenly a mine went off, and killed the entire squad following Buck. He himself had miraculously walked through the mine field without hitting a one.

Missed Getting Binoculars

One day Buck went stalking a German officer in close combat, and wound up with the German on one side of a farmhouse and Buck on the other. They kept throwing grenades over the house at each other without success. Finally Buck stepped around one corner of the house, and came face to face with the German, who'd had the same idea.

Buck was ready and pulled the trigger first. His slug hit the German just above the heart. The German had a wonderful pair of binoculars slung over his shoulders, and the bullet smashed them to bits. Buck had wanted some German binoculars for a long time.

THE ties that grow up between men who live savagely and die relentlessly together are ties of great strength. There is a sense of fidelity to each other among little corps of men who have endured so long and whose hope in the end can be but so small.

One afternoon while I was with the company Sgt. Eversole's turn came to go back to rest camp for five days. The company was due to attack that night.

Buck went to his company commander and said, "Lieutenant, I don't think I better go. I'll stay if you need me."

The lieutenant said, "Of course, I need you, Buck, I always need you. But it's your turn and I want you to go. In fact, you're ordered to go."

"Stalls Off" Departure

The truck taking the few boys away to rest camp left just at dusk. It was drizzling and the valleys were swathed in a dismal mist. Artillery of both sides flashed and rumbled around the horizon. The encroaching darkness was heavy and foreboding.

Buck came to the little group of old-timers in the company with whom I was standing, to say goodby. You'd have thought he was leaving forever. He shook hands all around, and his smile seemed sick and vulnerable. He was a man stalling off his departure.

He said, "Well, good luck to you all." And then he said, "I'll be back in just five days." He said goodbye all around and slowly started away. But he stopped and said goodbye all around again, and he said, "Well, good luck to you all."

I WALKED with him toward the truck in the dusk. He kept his eyes on the ground, and I think he would have cried if he knew how, and he said to me very quietly:

"This is the first battle I've ever missed that this battalion has been in. Even when I was in the hospital with my arm they were in bivouac. This will be the first one I've ever missed. I sure do hope they have good luck."

And then he said:

"I feel like a deserter."

He climbed in, and the truck dissolved into the blackness. I went back and lay down on the ground among my other friends, waiting for the night orders to march. I lay there in the darkness thinking—terribly touched by the great simple devotion of this soldier who was a cowboy—and thinking of the millions far away at home who must remain forever unaware of the powerful fraternalism in the ghastly brotherhood of war.

Citrus Shipments From Texas High

DALLAS, Nov. 9 (U.P.) — Citrus shipments from Texas producing areas continue to exceed last year's movement for the same period, the War Food administration reported today. Rail billings of both oranges and grapefruit through last week were double those for the comparable period in 1943, with carlot mixed shipments fifty per cent greater. The increase in Texas movement reflects this year's larger crop, which is expected to be 14 per cent greater than last year on grapefruit and 6 per cent greater on oranges.

In spite of reduced competition from Florida fruit as a result of the recent hurricane, prices on Texas citrus continue to work gradually lower as supplies increase. Nevertheless, occasional quotations on best quality offerings still reach the ceiling.

Two States To Ban Closed Shop Rule

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Nov. 9. (U.P.)—The controversial "freedom to work" amendment, which would prohibit the closed shop and maintenance of union membership contracts in Arkansas, apparently had been approved today with nearly half of the state's precincts reporting.

Returns from 1,055 of the state's 2,067 precincts showed 63,704 votes for and 54,269 against the measure.

Specifically, the amendment provides that no corporation, individual, or association shall "enter into any contract, written or oral, to exclude from employment members of a labor union, or persons who refuse to join a labor union, or because of resignation from a labor union."

The measure provides also that no person shall be compelled "to pay dues to any labor organization as a prerequisite to, or condition of employment."

CLOSED SHOP MEASURE LEADS IN FLORIDA

MIAMI, Fla., Nov. 9. (U.P.)—Passage of the proposed constitutional amendment which would outlaw the closed shop in Florida appeared assured today on the basis of returns from most precincts.

With 1,005 of the state's 1,496 precincts reported, the vote stood at 104,655 favoring and 95,544 opposing the measure.

CALIFORNIA VOTERS REJECT BAN ON CLOSED SHOP

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 9. (U.P.)—The "right to work" initiative was being defeated by approximately 4 to 2 today following tabulation of returns from 11,763 of California's 14,841 precincts.

The vote was: Yes 841,722; no 1,275,975.

Roosevelt Praised In Chinese Papers

CHUNGKING, Nov. 9 (AP)—The official Central Daily News today hailed President Roosevelt as "indispensable, not only to the United States but to the world."

"The world needs him in the war against aggression and the building of an edifice to safeguard permanent peace," the Chinese paper said.

The newspaper Ta Kung Pao said "Roosevelt led the world crusade against aggression and laid the foundation for victory of the Democratic nations." It added "mankind waits for this extraordinary man to accomplish greater and more extraordinary deeds."

Relief At Last For Your Cough

Chronic bronchitis may develop if your cough, chest cold, or acute bronchitis is not treated and you cannot afford to take a chance with any medicine less potent than Creomulsion which goes right to the seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ laden phlegm and aid nature to soothe and heal raw, tender, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes.

Creomulsion blends beechwood creosote by special process with other time tested medicines for coughs. It contains no narcotics.

No matter how many medicines you have tried, tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Creomulsion with the understanding you must like the way it quickly allays the cough, permitting rest and sleep, or you are to have your money back. (Adv.)

GI Jamboree To Tour Area During Sixth War Loan Drive

A "G.I. Jamboree" show composed of wounded war veterans, service entertainers and an Army band will make a tour of the South Plains area during the Sixth War Loan drive, scheduled to begin Nov. 20 and continue through Dec. 31, Henry Reeve of Menard, national co-chairman of the War Activities committee of the Motion Picture industry, announced at a regional luncheon Wednesday in Hilton hotel.

The luncheon, attended by War Loan chairmen and theater men of the South Plains, was fifth to be held in Texas in advance of the bond sales campaign by Reeve, who is also regional chairman of the committee which is being spearheaded by independent theater operators.

Plans Are Outlined

Reeve outlined briefly plans for the campaign and told of the work of theater men in making past drives successful. The Sixth War Loan drive, even though it runs concurrently with the Christmas shopping season, must be put over the top greater than ever, Reeve said.

"Emphasis in the drive will be placed on the 'peace on earth' theme of the Christmas season," Reeve said.

Reeve read a letter a young corporal from his home town had written his former employe after the battle of Cassino in Italy.

"Why Can't You Buy Bonds?" the letter was headed. "If you feel you can't buy war bonds, why don't you do this: write your reason down on a piece of paper and mail it to a friend or relative of yours on the fighting front; one of the boys on the fighting front facing the hellfire of modern war, your son or neighbor who may be lying, his body torn, on a bloodstained battlefield, and tell him why you can't."

Bond Rally Premieres

Besides the "G.I. Jamboree" rallies, theaters of Texas plan bond premieres as in the past, free movie days and children's matinees. Dec. 7 has been designated as free movie day over the state and theater patrons will be admitted free upon the purchase of a bond that day.

Charlie Smith of Plainview, regional War Finance chairman, declared:

"One of the biggest things we've got to fight in this Sixth War Loan drive is the attitude of our people that the war is about over . . . Even though we haven't been in a foxhole or had to crawl over bodies of our comrades to jump into an open sea, we've got to do our part in this war and that means we've got to buy bonds and sell bonds."

Jamboree Schedule

The "G.I. Jamboree" unit coming to this area will be comprised of personnel of various Army camps who are entertainers and of wounded war vets who will sell bonds in street rallies through the area. Schedule of the tour is as follows:

Wednesday, Nov. 29, Ralls, Floydada and Plainview; Thursday, Nov. 30, Littlefield, Levelland and Brownfield; Friday, Dec. 1, Tahoka, O'Donnell and Lamesa and Sat., Dec. 2, Post, Slaton and Lubbock.

Joe H. Bryant, Lubbock theater man, presided at the luncheon. Others present included: B. J. Edwards and Marshall Mason of Post, Pat Boone, W. J. Chesher and C. O. Stone of Littlefield, W. L. Pearson and Herschel Crawford of Slaton, Francis W. Faris of Dallas, C. F. Motley, Clark Abbott, Neil H. Wright, C. C. Caldwell, Parker Prouty and C. W. Ratliff of Lubbock.

Demo Victories Said Sign Of Confidence

LONDON, Nov. 9 (AP) — The Times said in an editorial today that "comfortable Democratic majorities" in the U. S. Senate and House of representatives "are a striking testimony to Mr. Roosevelt's hold on the confidence of the American people."

"Crude attempts to invoke the 'Communist' bogey—whether in the form of Mr. Roosevelt's alleged subservience to Marshal Stalin abroad or to Mr. Hillman's Political Action committee at home—seem to have conspicuously missed fire," the Times added.

"Buy A War Bond TODAY"

TWIN JOY—Finding a long-lost birth certificate in a Bay City, Mich., orphanage sparked the joyous embrace pictured above. As infants, Pfc. Edward Skinner and his twin sister, Virginia Humbier, were inmates of the orphanage. Each was adopted, and until discovery of the certificate, 22 years later, neither knew the other existed.

Cowboy Entertainer Is Elected To Senate

POCATELLO, Idaho, Nov. 9 (AP)—Cowboy Entertainer Glen H. Taylor strummed a guitar and crooned unsuccessfully in two previous U. S. Senate campaigns. He switched to a sedate campaign this time was elected.

The former operator of a theatrical road show ,who became a sheet metal mechanic in San Francisco after the war started, doesn't belittle his "cowboy" experience, however. He claims he was the first of the cowboy singers to enter politics.

"I was the first to start, but the last to get elected," he laughed, recalling his two previous campaigns lost to Sen. John Thomas, Republican, banker and livestock raiser.

Taylor, raised in Idaho's primitive area, said he intended to become an actor but switched to politics because "I thought I could do a better job than some of the fellows sent back there."
