How Far Can You See?

How distant is your horizon?

That depends on your point of view... where you are when you look. Of course, the higher you are the farther you can see. Jesus said, "Friend, come up higher."

He wants you to see better... to see the world's misery and needs through His eyes. He wants you to see one-third of the earth's population going to bed hungry every night... one-fourth of the world existing on less than the average American spends for cigarettes and alcohol. Are you guilty?

God wants you to look at the world as He does. He wants you to see the people of other races and nationalities as He sees them... your neighbor, around the world, as your brother. Maybe you need to go to church Sunday and let Him take away the dimness of your eyes. He can open up new horizons for you to view. He wants you to do something about your own shriveled soul and for the souls of His people throughout the world.

You can see farther when you look through Jesus.

YOU IN THE CHURCH
THE CHURCH IN YOU

Character is a by-product of the church. It is here that young and old alike are showered with benedictions that fortify and influence for a better citizenship and a stronger democracy. In the church the ministerial arts of molding religious character. Statesmen today declare that the church alone can furnish leadership to handle the affairs of state in these perilous times. Then we with our children should go to the church of our choice on Sunday. "You in the Church and the Church in you" form a combination for good. Be a regular CHURCH-GOER and a daily BIBLE READER.

LORAINE HIGH SCHOOL CHEERLEADERS — Loraine High will send these girls to promote spirit next fall when the Bulldogs take the field. They are Karen Givens, Rita Troutt, Sharon Sanford and Rhonda Oliver. They were in the cheerleaders school at Snyder High during the past week.

IRA JUNIOR HIGH — From l to r, Jan Kruse, Neva Payne, Debbie Sterling and Gay Galyean will be spirit makers of Ira Junior High School next year.

DEAR ABBY: I am 13 years old and my mother will not let me shave my legs. It seems every girl at school shaves her legs and some even slip behind their mothers' backs to do it.

I don't want to go against my mother, but I wish she'd let me. The kids at school call me "Square," "Oddball," etc. I pretend I don't care, but I do. And anyway, my knee socks don't go together with all my clothes. So what should I do?

HAIRY

DEAR HAIRY: If you want to shave your legs because all the other girls do, it's not a good enough reason. If you are really "hairy," ask your mother to take a good look at your legs and to be reasonable.

What a pity that when a girl reaches the age where her legs need shaving, her mother is at the age where she needs glasses.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: I have been keeping steady company with a girl who is 24. I am 26 and we have a lot in common. We've talked about getting married but that's about as far as it's gone.

She says you never know a person until you live with them, and she doesn't want to get married until she is SURE it will last. She suggested that either I move in with her, or she move in with me for about 3 months.

That way we can find out for sure how we get along. My folks drive up here to see me every once in awhile as they live only 80 miles from me, and I am sure they wouldn't approve of that kind of set up.

Actually, I am not so sure I do myself. In a way it makes sense, but in another way it doesn't. Can you help me straighten out my thinking?

FIFTY - FIFTY

DEAR FIFTY: Tell her you aren't that kind of a boy. If she wants to live with you, she'll have to marry you.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: I am a divorced man, 56 years of age who would like to remarry. The trouble is, all the women in my age bracket are either divorcees living on alimony, or widows living on social security.

Before a man can discuss the economic facts of life with a woman, he has to know her pretty well, and this means spending a lot of time with her.

He can't come right out on their first date and ask if her financial security would be forfeited should she remarry, can he? My question: Is there a shortcut to finding out these things about a woman?

STUMPED

DEAR STUMPED: No. Go ahead and ask her. That would be the acid test. If she has the urge to merge, she'll be glad to talk dollars and sense with you. If not, you can save a lot of precious time, and proceed to the next prospect.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: In our town, when you are invited to a party, I am told the hostess expects to be called a day or so later to be thanked.

It seems to me that a sincere "thank you" on departure from the party is sufficient evidence of appreciation.

And if it was a large party, the hostess will have plenty of cleaning up to do on the following day, so why should she be annoyed answering a dozen or more phone calls to accept repeated thanks? What is correct?

PUZZLED

DEAR PUZZLED: When a hostess has gone to considerable effort to entertain, the gracious guest will send a written note repeating his thanks. (It's not necessary, but it's nice.)

There is always a chance that a phone call may be an intrusion, but I think the hostess who would resent being "annoyed" with repeated thanks is in the minority.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "S. O. S. IN SILVER SPRINGS": Sorry, but I don't buy that saying, "As you have made your bed, so must you lie in it."

If you discover that the bed you made is giving you a pain in the back, and it's possible to get out of it and make it over, do so. People who needlessly sleep on "mental" lumps must enjoy the punishment.

SMASHUP — Sammy Lee Davis, 1106 Thirtieth Street, was driver of this 1954 model Buick when it was in an accident with a 1963 model Oldsmobile operated by Mrs. Polly Ann Wadleigh, 3305 Fortieth Street. The mishap occurred at 8:21 p.m. Friday at Nineteenth Street and Avenue M. William T. Wadleigh, 15, son of Mrs. Wadleigh was treated at Cogdell Memorial Hospital for minor lacerations and released.

Rare Cranes Increasing

LAUREL, Md. (AP) — The world's known whooping crane population now stands at 45 with birth of two rare birds in Department of the Interior incubators.

Dr. Ray Erickson, director of the Bureau of Sport Fisheries and Wildlife Research station here, said the baby cranes were hatched Friday and are doing well.

In a bid to increase the species, U.S. and Canadian wildlife specialists last week took five eggs from whooping crane nests in Canada's Northernmost Territories and flew them to the research station for hatching.

Erickson said he's maintaining a 24-hour watch on the two baby cranes plus the three unhatched eggs.

Two Share Lead After 2nd Round

By CHARLES C. CAIN

GRAND BLANC, Mich. (AP) — Long driving Bob Goalby, his disposition as changeable as the thunderstorms which swirled over Warwick Hills Golf Club Friday, shared the halfway lead in the $100,000 Buick Open with Tommy Aaron.

The chunky Palm Beach, Calif. pro showed flashes of his old temper Friday as he fired a 73—on over par—for a 142 total that left him in a tie with Aaron whose hot putter kept him in contention for the lead.

Goalby led the first round with a three-under-par 69 over Warwick Hills, 7,126 yards. He was intent on building that lead as he went out in a two-under-par 34 Friday.

Then disaster struck. His short game fell to pieces, and soon he was arguing with the fans and disciplining his caddy as well.

A one-hour delay caused by thunderstorms and subsequent electrical storms failed to dampen the enthusiasm of the nearly 12,000 spectators who tramped over the soggy fairways.

Goalby appeared to be in the driver's seat until he tackled the seventh hole on his incoming nine after playing the back nine first.

Jeering Pickets Greet Governor

By GARY GARRISON

LAREDO, Tex. (AP) — An estimated 100 booing, chanting, stomping pickets shouted their displeasure with Gov. John Connally Friday night when the Texas chief executive arrived to address one of the state's largest Mexican-American organizations.

Connally surprised the ranks of pickets, who gathered to express their support of a strike in Texas Lower Rio Grande Valley by farm workers and the Texas Rangers' part in the year-long dispute. He put out his hand for handshake after handshake as he walked down the pickets' ranks.

Most of the pickets came from labor organizations here and at Rio Grande City, the focal point for the Valley strike.

There were no incidents and Connally smiled broadly as he walked past the jeering assemblage and into the Laredo Civic Center. One picket, holding an anti-Connally sign, nearly dropped it when Connally stopped to shake his hand.

Connally spoke to an estimated 600 persons at an installation banquet for Council No. 12 of the League of United Latin American Citizens (LULAC). He did not "single out the Valley union, the California-based United Farm Workers Organizing Committee, but warned against what he called "itinerant, paid purveyors of division."

"There are those who would enter into our midst from elsewhere and attempt to mislead us under separate and false banners in different directions," Connally said.

The mostly Mexican-American audience inside the civic center gave Connally three standing ovations.

Two prominent labor figures were among the demonstrators. Cesar Chavez, national director of the United Farm Workers Organizing Committee, AFL-CIO, and Roy Reuther, citizenship and legislation director for the United Auto Workers Union, walked with the pickets. Neither carried a sign.

Lutheran's Behmann Takes Golf Title

DAVENPORT, Iowa (AP) — Unheralded John Bohmann of Texas Lutheran College was an easy winner of the NAIA golf championship Friday.

The 20-year-old sophomore playing in his first national tournament, won the individual crown by five strokes. He fired a 72 in the closing round for a 12-hole total of 286.

Jim Filipiak of Eastern Michigan was second with 291.

East Texas State finished ninth in the team championship competition.

Trainer Arnold N. Winick gained his eighth Gulfstream training title with 21 victories during the 1967 meeting.

Pink Ladies Ok Library At Hospital

The Woman's Auxiliary Board to Cogdell Memorial Hospital had a called meeting Tuesday to consider the placing of a pictoral portable library in the hospital for the use of the patients.

The meeting was called by Mrs. Norene Ball, president of the auxiliary.

The library will contain 100 beautifully bound books in highly diversified fields, such as sports, animals, travel, fiction, mysteries, westerns, religions, nature, history, literature; art, hobbies, etc.

The library will be placed on a steel book cart and will be taken to rooms of patients. A patient may check out any book in the library at no charge. Books must be checked in before patients who check them out leave the hospital.

All books will contain five or more permanent, attractive advertising inserts. The auxiliary board, with the approval of Cy Miller, hospital administrator, voted to place the library in the hospital as another service of the "pink ladies" to make the patients' stay in the hospital more pleasant.

The Hospital Auxiliary is a volunteer organization. Its sole function is to assist the hospital personnel and patients in any way. Persons who can give a few hours of their time each week to help the hospital and patients are invited to join.

Beef Salad Sandwiches

2 cups finely chopped or ground roast beef
¼ cup finely chopped green pepper
1 tablespoon finely chopped onion
½ cup shredded raw carrot
¼ cup catsup
¼ cup mayonnaise or salad dressing
12 slices wheat bread, crusts removed
¼ cup butter or margarine, melted
1 (10½ ounce) can condensed cream of mushroom soup
½ cup prepared sour cream

Combine beef, green pepper, onion, carrot, catsup and mayonnaise. Spread about 2 tablespoons meat mixture over center of each bread slice, starting at one corner and continuing to the opposite corner. Roll remaining corners of bread up and over filling; secure them with toothpicks. Place sandwiches on a greased baking sheet, open side up. Brush melted butter over sandwich tops. Toast in a hot oven (400 degrees F.) for 8 minutes, or until browned. Heat undiluted soup over medium heat, stirring to keep smooth. Add sour cream and reheat to serving temperature. Ladle ¼ cup mushroom sauce over each serving.

Yield: 6 servings — 2 sandwiches each.

Cow's milk, either as fresh, pasteurized, or evaporated milk, has been the basis for successful infant feeding in countries for centuries.

Nut-Brown Date Bars

½ cup (1 stick) butter
¼ cup granulated sugar
1 1-3 cups sifted flour
½ teaspoon baking powder
¼ teaspoon salt
2 eggs
1 cup firmly packed dark brown sugar
½ teaspoon vanilla
2-3 cup cut-up pitted dates
1 tablespoon grated orange rind
½ cup medium-fine chopped walnuts

Cream butter and granulated sugar; with a spoon, work in 1 cup of the sifted flour. Pack into buttered square cake pan (8 by 8 by 2 inches). Bake this base in a moderate (350 degrees) oven until lightly browned — about 25 minutes. Meanwhile sift together the remaining 1-3 cup flour with the baking powder and salt; set aside. Just before base has finished baking, beat eggs until thick and ivory color; gradually beat in brown sugar, then vanilla; fold in the sifted flour mixture, dates, orange rind and walnuts. Spread over hot baked base and return to 350-degree oven until firm and brown — about 30 minutes. Cool on wire rack; cut in bars. Store in tightly covered tin and the base of these bars will stay delightfully crisp for a couple of days.

Important Introduction To Folk Art

AMERICAN FOLKPAINTING. By Mary Black and Jean Lipman.

This book might well take over the field as a key introductory work for anyone's adventure into the whole subject of primitive and folk art in America of the pre-photographic era.

Its chief value lies in the carefully arranged sequence of 86 color plates and 146 black and white illustrations, catching the main significance of the folk art theme.

The text is by Mrs. Lipman, who has written other book on this subject, and Mrs. Black, who formerly was in charge of the Rockefeller collection at Williamsburg and now is director of the Museum of Early American Folk Art in New York.

There are examples from the prime collections — Mrs. Rockefeller's, the Karolik in Boston, the Webb in Shelburne, Vt., the Garbisch in Wahington and New York, as well as those in museums in Worcester, Mass., Hartford, Conn., Yale, Harvard, and many historical museums.

The book is a good key to some painters who have been treated more fully in other publications — from John White of the 16th Centruy to Grandma Moses and Pittsburgh's John Kane of the present century.

The text makes no pretension at being profound, and is mainly a running commentary on the illustrations. Its weaknesses may be minor. It barely touches on such manifestations as fractur work, which has been well covered in other, specialized texts. It concentrates on the seaboard states, because the earliest example came from from there; perhaps some day there will be a little attention to what may have happened beyond the Alleghenies.

The fact remains that this is a prime survey of the era in which self-taught American artists flourished.

Hialeah's 1968 racing dates include 40 days from Jan. 17 through March 2.

ENGAGEMENT — Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Wiseman announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter Beth Wiseman to Roy L. Miller, Clairemont Route, Snyder. Vows will be exchanged on July 22 at 8 p.m. in the Sudan Church of Christ. Roy is now employed by Dallas Power and Light and the couple intends to make their home in Dallas.

Southwest Book News

By ROBERT E. FORD
Associated Press Writer

-THE SUNNY SLOPES OF LONG AGO, Edited by Wilson M. Hudson and Allen Maxwell (Southern Methodist University Press, $5.95)

"The Sunny Slopes of Long Ago" is another in the Texas Folklore Society publications, a group of stories about the Southwest.

They range from such subjects as "Cowboy Lingo" to a discussion of whether Billy the kid was a hired gun or a hero.

None of the stories are very repetitious of stories that are well known.

Especially recommended is "The Cowboy: His Cause and Cure" — an analysis of why anyone would select that job and stay with it. Change the wording to "career serviceman" and the reason will fit also.

There is a great deal in the book for the hard-core clan of J. Frank Dobie fans.

The editors, Wilson M. Hudson and Allen Maxwell, have been associated with the Texas Folklore Society for many years. Maxwell is on the University of Texas faculty, while Maxwell is director of the Southern Methodist University Press and book editor of the Dallas Morning News— The AP

TRAVELERS IN TEXAS 1761-1860, By Marilyn McAdams Sibley (University of Texas Press, $5)

Dr. Marilyn Sibley of the faculty of Houston Baptist College sifted through the writings of untold numbers of travelers to produce "Travelers in Texas."

Virtually all of the report is taken from the stories of persons who were in Texas only temporarily either as tourists or on business.

It is obvious that all those surveyed visited portions of the state that had been civilized for those days.

Almost universally, the visitors praised Texas as a land of beauty and of great potential.

Many commented on the status of slavery in the state. In general, the comments were that the Negroes were treated better in Texas than in other states, and that there was a great deal of anti-slavery sentiment. Texans already were disputing whether it was more economical to own slaves or to hire free men to do the work.

Dr. Sibley includes an extensive critical essay on the sources she used.—The AP

THE PILL CONSPIRACY, By George Johnson (Sherbourne Press, $4.95).

"The Pill Conspiracy" is billed as an expose of the pharmaceutical industry, starting with the manufacturers and ending with one individual who "pops" a pill into his mouth, to use a term much liked by the author.

However, it falls considerably short of an expose, for the author rationalizes much that he finds wrong with the industry so that it is no true denouncement.

Some of the things he finds wrong are that both manufacturers and druggists charge too much, that too many drugs are produced for doctors to really understand them and must act on the assurances of the manufacturers, that some doctors are indifferent to the cost to the patient, that manufacturers' research is too concentrated on finding ways of circumventing the other fellow's patent, and that government regulation is not all it should be.

To virtually all these denunciations he provides rebuttals of a sort.

At the same time, the book his highly valuable as an insight into what makes the drug business tick.

The author, George Johnson, is a veteran writer of books and articles and is owner of a St. Louis advertising agency.—The AP

Pork Shoulder Roll Sometimes Skips Cooking In Water

"Is smoked pork shoulder roll, the cut that tastes like ham, always simmered?" asks a homemaker.

No, it's not always cooked in this way, although it's rather common practice. It may also be placed on a rack in an open, shallow pan and roasted.

A slow oven (325 degrees) is used as well as a meat thermometer. The thermometer registers 160 degrees for doneness. This cut may be covered with a glaze, made with brown sugar, mustard, fragrant cloves, and flour to make it cling to the meat.

Glazed Boneless Shoulder Roll
2 to 3 pound pork smoked shoulder roll
½ cup brown sugar
1 tablespoon flour
½ teaspoon mustard
2 tablespoons vinegar
2 tablespoons whole cloves

Place shoulder roll on a rack in open roasting pan. Insert meat thermometer so the bulb reaches the center of the meat. Do not add water. Do not cover. Roast in a slow oven (325 degrees) until thermometer registers 160 degrees F. Allow 35 to 40 minutes per pound for roasting. About 30 minutes before meat is cooked, remove from oven. Mix brown sugar, flour, mustard and vinegar. Spread on pork roll and stud with cloves. Return to oven to finish cooking to set glaze, about 15 minutes.

Dilly Tomatoes

3 large firm tomatoes
2½ tablespoons butter melted
½ cup fine day breadcrumbs
¾ teaspoon dill seeds
1-3 cup grated cheddar cheese

Cut washed tomatoes in half crosswise; make a scalloped edge on each by using a long paring knife to cut through to center of tomato, slanting the knife for each scallop. Place tomatoes, cut sides up, on a baking sheet. Mix butter with breadcrumbs and dill seeds; place 2 tablespoons of mixture on each tomato half; top with cheese. Bake in hot (400 degrees) oven for 10 minutes. Makes 6 servings.

Use Dried Beef, English Muffins For Quick Pizza

When a hungry horde of teenagers crowds the kitchen in an all-out search for something solid, let them make their own pizza with convenience foods. They'll label you "real cool."

Variety is unlimited when it comes to pizza. Have on hand either the packaged dried beef, refrigerated or the glassed type. Mushrooms, tomato paste and chopped ripe olives all come canned. English muffins might be in the freezer or refrigerator; so would the Mozzarella cheese.

The dried beef does not need to be snipped but it does make for easier eating if it's cut with kitchen shears. All ingredients are simply mixed and spread on halves of English muffins to be broiled.

Pizza da Scapoli
2 jars (2½ ounces each) dried beef
1 can (6-ounces) tomato paste
¼ teaspoon oregano
1 clove garlic, finely chopped
½ cup chopped ripe olives
½ cup minced onion
1 cup grated Mozzarella cheese
1 can (4 ounces) mushroom stems and pieces
4 English muffins
2 tablespoons butter or margarine

Combine dried beef, tomato paste, oregano, garlic, ripe olives, onion, cheese and mushrooms. Mix lightly. Cut muffins in half and spread with butter or margarine. Spread mixture on cut surface of each muffin half, covering entire cut surface. Place on broiler rack. Insert broiler pan so that the top of mixture will be 4 inches from the heat. Broil 6 to 8 minutes. 4 servings.

Girl Flies To Mother

LOS ANGELES (AP) — After flying to Los Angeles with money saved from her 50-cent-a-week allowance, a young Texas girl broke into sobs as her mother and sportscaster father fought for her custody in court.

Diana Cardenas, 14, had left her father, Rene Cardenas, in Houston where he broadcasts the Houston Astros' baseball games in Spanish. She had flown to join her mother, Mrs. Monica Styles, 31, who divorced Cardenas, 39, in 1957 and is now married to nightclub comedian Herkie Styles.

A judge ordered Friday that Diana be returned to her father.

Mrs. Styles was granted full costody of the girl at the time of the divorce, but reportedly later gave physical custody of the girl to Cardenas.

The parents agreed Friday to have Diana return to Houston with her father while he accepted service of a court order to show cause why the child shouldn't remain with her mother.

Designer Features Veiled Nudity

By JEAN SPRAIN WILSON
AP Fashion Editor

NEW YORK (AP)—With what he calls veiled nudity, Rudi Gernreich has dealt a blow well below and above the belt to the lingerie industry.

As far as anyone could see—and that was to the hipline—the manikins that closed the fall collection Friday wore nothing at all under their diaphanous dresses with skirts that became opaque only from the hip on.

But if the California designer is not lopping off tops—as he did once with swim suits—he is slicing off the bottoms.

"I have no controversy about skirt lengths," said the wavy-haired man in his mustard-colored jacket, "as long as they are 12 inches above the knees."

Indeed, most of his show was devoted to costumes proving that the dress is deadlong live the belted tunic instead.

Most of the time his models with their long legs swathed to the hips in black patent leather looked like pages from King Arthur's Court. Sometimes, possibly for wearing when the maiden aunt comes to visit, the models demonstrated tiny drindls that added length by fitting under their thigh-high tunics.

"By adding half an inch to a jacket it becomes a full length coat," Gernreich commented at one point as manikins paraded in deep-piled embroidered velvet dandy jackets and vest, satin shirts with ruffled wrists and belled trousers. A minute later the girl was back in nearly the same fish-tailed jacket and matching stockings.

Still later in the show the satin shirt appeared without the rest of the outfit, now worn over leggings—still another example that nobody really need bother about a skirt at all anymore.

Aged Osteopath Asks For Freedom

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Dallas osteopath Robert V. Spears, 71, serving a prison term in California, for abortion, asked a federal court Friday to give him his freedom.

Spears, once linked to the suspected bombing of an airliner that went down with 42 persons aboard, filed a petition in U.S. District Court charging that the FBI tricked him into pleadng guilty to a car theft charge.

Spears was arrested in 1960 at a desert hideout northwest of Phoenix. He was charged with interstate automobile theft while federal officials investigated the 1959 crash of a National Airlines plane that went down in the Gulf of Mexico.

Legislature Leaves Labor-Both Pleased And Unhappy

By GARTH JONES

AUSTIN (AP) — The 61st legislature left Texas labor leaders both bragging and cussing.

The state's first industrial safety bill was passed after 20 years of effort led by the Texas AFL-CIO. Jobless benefit maximums were increased from $37 to $45 weekly. A dues deduction bill for city employes was approved. State and local governments were told to discard any hiring practices that discriminate against any race, religion, color or national origin.

However, the much discussed state minimum wage died after one unfavorable vote in the House and no floor action in the Senate. Collective bargaining for city bus drivers was killed in the House. Efforts to increase workmen's compensation payments, to repeal the so-called right-to-work laws, and to improve working conditions for migrant laborers died in committees.

The AFL-CCO also suffered defeat when it unsuccessfully opposed the city sales tax bill, the consumer credit code and annual voter registration.

"The leadership of both houses were under public pressure to meet the challenge of the times —minimum wage, constitutional revision, liquor by the drink, annual sessions, a tax bill, adequate workmen's compensation and unemployment compensation.

But private pressures were too great, said Roy Evans, secretary of the Texas AFL-CIO. "They put off everything they could until a special session or until 1969."

Hank Brown, president of the state AFL-CIO, said labor's primary objectives in the next legislative session would be a state labor management relations act, prohibition of importation of strike-breakers, and a state labor department.

Labor's efforts to get a state minimum wage bill provided some of the most sensational developments of the session. Church and Latin - American groups also played prominent parts.

The minimum wage drive began last July 4 with a migrant laborers march from Rio Grande City. And 400 miles later on Labor Day thousands of supporters jammed Austin to see the marchers reach the Capitol steps and establish a sentinel post.

Speakers vowed the sentinels would stand fast until the legislature passed a minimum wage bill. The post was manned eight hours a day, five days a week, mostly by two workers whose homes were in the Lower Rio Grande Valley.

The AFL-CIO said it helped to finance the demonstration in an effort to call public attention to the workers' needs.

The sentinels remained through the opening of the legislature but silently disappeared soon after a scheduled public hearing on the minimum wage bill was cancelled because of a Senate filibuster.

Late in the session the Senate and House versions of the bill were finally cleared for floor debate by committees. The Senate bill remained on the Senate calendar the rest of the session without any vote or action on it.

About a week before the legislature adjourned a compromise bill appeared in the House. It lowered the suggested minimum wage scale from $1.25 to $1 an hour, with only 80 cents for temporary farm workers. It would apply only to farmers and ranchers who had five or more employes not covered by the federal wage and hour law.

At one of the last debate sessions in the house, the request was made that the compromise minimum wage bill be taken up for debate and a vote.

This bill would help perhaps half a million Texans who need help, said supporters.

UN Ready To Write Off Sanctions

By MAX HARRELSON

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Most U.N. diplomats are ready to write off as a failure the economic sanctions voted six months ago in an effort to topple the white minority government in Rhodesia.

"The sanctions are having no effect whatsoever on the Rhodesian situation," says Ambassador Joseph Ben Mwemba of Zambia, who reflects the views of many African countries.

"Zambia is the one that has no oil."

The British cling to the hope that economic pressure will force the downfall of the Ian Smith regime and that all that is needed is more time. They stand virtually alone, however.

Reports from inside Rhodesia indicate that the government is feeling the pinch, but there is no sign of any major opposition to the Smith regime.

Effectiveness of the sanctions has been undermined by cheating and by open defiance on the part of some key countries.

Some of Rhodesia's former trading partners, such as Zambia, are feeling the pressure as much or more.

The United Nations has done nothing to carry out its obligation under the charter to aid countries which suffer undue economic hardship by joining in sanctions.

The sanctions, imposed by the council last Dec. 16, were the first mandatory penalties ever ordered by the United Nations.

The Security Council faces growing demands for a reappraisal of the sanctions policy and there is little doubt it will have to meet soon to consider possible enforcement measures.

It will be asked either to take action against the governments not complyng wth the sanctons resoluton or to order the use of military force to overthrow the Smith regime. It seems unlikely that either course could win approval.

The ineffectiveness of the U.N. penalties can be attributed mainly to the refusal of important trading countries to comply.

One of Rhodesia's neighbors, South Afrrca, has ignored U.N. communications regarding compliance with the sanctions resolution and has continued openly to supply oil and other essentials to Rhodesia.

Other supplies are flowing into Rhodesia from Portuguese Mozambique.

A U.N. report issued in mid-May quoted unconfirmed South African reports as saying Rhodesia had imported enough oil from Mozambique to stockpile against two years of sanctions.

One of Rhodesia's biggest problems is getting rid of its 200 million pounds of tobacco produced in 1966-67. Because of the embargo, the Smith government has resorted to secret sales and has set up elaborate security arrangements to protect the identity of buyers. The secret sales take the place of public auctions previously used.

Time is on the side of the Smith regime, many U.N. observers believe. The longer the sanctions are in effect the more they will be evaded and the more the Rhodesian government will be able to find substitutes for essential items. There also will be increasing pressures on the countries applying the sanctions.

A Junior Editors Quiz About OLD IRONSIDES

Did "Old Ironsides" really have iron sides?

* * * * *

ANSWER: "Old Ironsides" is a nickname for one of the most famous ships in American history: the U.S. frigate Constitution. Frigates were fighting ships of the general shape shown by the silhouette above. Fast and light, they could carry from 30 to 50 guns and were well able to represent the dignity and importance of the new nation on the high seas. The Constitution, 204 feet long, was launched in Boston in 1797. From the start, this was a remarkably successful ship. During 1803 and 1804, the Constitution battled the Barbary pirates in the Mediterannean Sea and was undamaged. During the War of 1812, the Constitution won a tremendous battle with the British Guerriere and became world famous. Seeing cannon balls bouncing off the American frigate's sides, an English sailor is supposed to have exclaimed: "Her sides are made of iron!" Actually, iron was not used on warships' sides until later. The Constitution's sides were made of oak, a remarkably strong wood. This wonderful old frigate is still preserved at the Boston Navy Yard.

CHARLIE BRUCE relaxes after a hectic week which proved to be the most successful one ever at the Snyder Country Club. Bruce promised more of the same for next year.

SNYDER OPEN SUCCESS

Bruce Rates Top Tourney

By Terry Williamson

Charlie Bruce, a tall, red-headed golf pro of the Snyder Country Club, sat slightly relaxed with his feet propped up on his desk Friday reminiscing over the most successful golf tournament in the history of Snyder, and he calmly said, without much thought, that "it is only the beginning."

The Snyder Open began way back in December when Bruce began compiling a list of famous athletes that later would stir national headlines into action, as one of the most impressive gathering of notables began hacking away at the Snyder golf course only a week ago.

Instantly the question arises, "How did he do it?"

It all began last summer when Bruce managed to get Frank Broyles and Darrell Royal to play in a Snyder tournament. This came about after many Snyderites kept teasing Bruce about his staunch loyalty to the University of Arkansas.

Neither Broyles or Royal set the golf course on fire. In fact, they may not have even been mediocre as far as golf is concerned, but it had Snyder golf fans buzzing.

Thus, an idea was born. Bruce threw away the rules of gathering top golfers for his tournament, and the result put Snyder on the map.

With his acquisition of Joe Namath, Donny Anderson, Charlie Johnson, Bob McLeod, etc., etc., Bruce had sports writers across the country scratching their heads.

In New York, they were desperately wondering how Snyder, Texas, got Joe Namath without paying him a dime. Headlines appeared in California, and now Sports Illustrated wants the full story from start to finish.

The golf played wasn't particularly good, but the names were out of this world, and people paid to see them. If the weather had been somewhat better, the gallery could have been in the thousands.

"When you get one big name like Joe Namath, it gives you a snowball effect, and then you have very little trouble in getting others to come," Bruce said.

"I had a little trouble getting Namath because it takes an Act of Congress just to get to talk to him, but when he found out I was a golf pro, the door opened, and he was all for the idea even in the beginning. It was just a matter of keeping him," Bruce said.

Now that the tournament is over, heads have turned toward next year, and Bruce has promised even a bigger and better Snyder Open. "With this year's success, we'll have more athletes than we can shake a stick at."

Broyles, who was weathered in at Arkansas failed to make it this year, but Bruce has already received a telephone call from him, asking if he could be included in next year's performance.

Bruce reported that he already has promises from Royal, Namath, Bear Bryant, Bud Wilkinson, J. T. King, Charlie McClendon, Johnny Vaught, John David Crow, King Hill, Don Meredith, and many more for next year's extravaganza.

The golf scores may never make any heads turn, but you can bet many sports editors across the country will have pencil and pen in hand. In fact, UPI and AP want to set up a press conference on the site.

Sonics Hold First Spot

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Mick Sinnerud kept Amarillo from dropping into a tie with El Paso for first place in the Texas League.

The shortstop doubled in the winning run in the 12th inning Friday night and the Sonics beat Austin 12-11 to hold onto a one-game bulge over the Sun Kings.

Sinnerud's double was not the only thing working for the Sonics. Nate Colbert had walked and stolen his 13th base of the season to get in position to score.

El Paso edged Arkansas 3-2 as Paul Jaeckel pitched a seven-hitter and batted in a run. Jose Arcia clouted a homer in the first inning but Jaeckel then shut the door until the eighth.

Meanwhile, the Sun Kings got the decisive run in the fifth when Gordon Avery dumped a double and scored on Jim Spencer's single.

Albuquerque got a 5-0 lead in the first two innings and held on to beat Dallas-Fort Worth 5-3. Unbeaten Mike Kekich pitched eight-hit ball and posted his fifth victory against no defeats.

Cards, Sox In FL Wins

The Cardinals defeated the Giants 12-7 and the White Sox slipped past the Indians 8-7 in Farm League action Friday.

The Cardinals scored six runs in the fourth inning on hits by Nicky Neves, Walter Caddell and Doug Nall to easily capture their fourth win of the year. The win moved the Cards into a first place tie with the Giants. Both teams have a season record of 4-2.

Hits by Rickie Williams, Rod Head, Tim Collier, Rickie Howell and Bill Hill also gave the Giants six runs in the fourth inning, but they could only manage one other run in the third.

The White Sox scored a single run in the sixth inning to break a 7-7 tie when Paul Villaneuva scored the winning run.

For the White Sox, it was only their second win of the season. They stand 2-4 on the season. The Indians are 2-3 after Friday's game.

Villaneuva scored on a hit by Michael Simpson. Villaneuva had a home run in the fourth, and collected three hits in the game.

Cards, White Sox In LL Victories

The Cardinals scored three runs in the first inning to insure a 5-2 win over the Giants, and the lowly White Sox surprised the Indians with a 4-3 victory, in Little League games played Friday.

The Cardinals broke a 2-2 tie in the fifth inning when Jeff Richardson doubled with two outs, followed by three walks and a hit by Allen Knight.

The Giants had taken a lead in the third inning when Bobby Burleson and Randy Dryden scored on a double by Tommy Gardner.

Twins Fire 1965 Manager Of Year

By LEW FERGUSON
Asosicated Press Sports Writer

ST. PAUL-MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Calvin Griffith dumped Sam Mele as manager of his Minnesota Twins Friday and thrust on the shoulders of veteran minor league manager Cal Ermer the task of rallying the sputtering American League club for a run at the pennant.

"I still think this team can win the pennant," Griffith said. "I'm not going to criticize Mele, he's done a great job. But I thnk it was time for a change, and I think new leadership can provide the spark to get us going."

Although the move caught Twins players and fans alike by surprise, Griffith said he had been considering a change since mid-season last year. And the Griffith organization had eyed Ermer as managerial timber for more than 20 years.

"At one time last year, I had certain things on my mind," Griffith said. "Then the club turned around and started winning. I think there has been — accumulation of things. There were things that should have been done that weren't done."

Mele took his ouster calmly, and expressed no bitterness. "Even though I've been fired, I have nothing but respect and admiration for Calvin," he said. "I've always been treated fairly by him."

The deposed manager said he has no plans for the rest of the season.

Mele said his six-year record with the Twins "speaks for itself." Under Mele, who took over the Twins' field reins on June 23, 1961, when Griffith fired Cookie Lavagetto, Minnesota had a 522-431 record for a winning percentage of .548. Mele's Twins won the A.L. pennant in 1965, finished second in 1962 and 1966 and third in 1963.

Mele was American League Manager of the Year in 1965. Ermer, 43, who first served as a player-manager for the Griffith organization in 1947 at Charlotte, N.C., when he was 22 years old, was called up from Minnesota's Triple-A farm team at Denver in the Pacific Coast Leaue. He was starting his 15th season this year as a minor league manager.

"It is indeed a great challenge," Ermer said before donning a uniform 20 minutes before assuming command for the Twins-Baltimore game Friday night.

He then watched the Orioles bomb four Twins pitchers for 14 hits in an 11-2 drubbing.

SOUTH SAN GRABS BASEBALL CROWN

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Corpus Christi King, which did something that seldom comes to a three-year-old school — win a state championship — and South San Antonio, which has made winning titles a habit, are kingpins of Texas schoolboy baseball.

King beat Abilene Cooper 1-0 Friday night to take the Class AAAA crown and finish with a gaudy 32-3-1 record for the season.

South San Antonio won its seventh title in eight trips to the state tournament in Class AAA and its seventh in 10 years as it whipped Beaumont Forest Park 3-0 on the no-hit pitching of John Langerhans, a lefthander who also batted in two runs.

And it was farewell to the coach who made South San Antonio what it was—Cliff Gustafson, who next spring will be coaching the University of Texas.

Lefthander Steve Nelson pitched two-hit ball and Neil Butler singled in the only run of the game as Corpus Christi King grabbed the big title.

Pitching was the key—the King hurlers, Burt Hooton and Nelson, together allowed only two hits in 14 innings. Hooton had worked a no-hitter in the semifinals in pitching King to a 2-0 decision over Houston Lee.

South San Antonio won its 39th straight game in knocking over Forest Park for the Class AAA crown. The Bob cats didn't lose a game and had 45 victories in a row counting a carryover from last year.

Langerhan drove in Casey Sanchez with a sacrifice fly in the first inning and that was enough to win. But South San Antonio added two in the fifth.

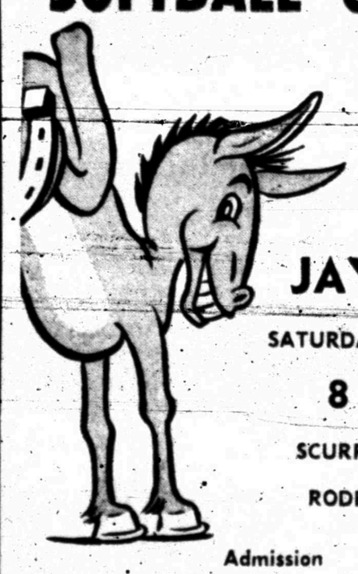

Tyler beat Houston Lee 1-0 for third place in Class AAAA with Mike Carter driving in the lone run with a double in the sixth. Las Vega scored two unearned runs in the eighth inning to beat Odessa Ector 6-4 for third place in Class AAA.

'Bear' Bares Plans

HOUSTON (AP) — The new American Basketball Association team in Houston has signed Don "Teddy Bear" Kruse, a 6-8 Kilgore Junior College standout who finished his varsity career with the University of Houston.

Kruse, the No. 10 draft choice of the National Basketball Association Los Angeles Lakers, became the eighth player to reject the established circuit and join coach Slater Martin's crew.

Braves, Clippers In Teenage Wins

Bobby Clardy pitched a no-hit shutout as the Snyder Clippers slipped by the Colorado City Texans 1-0 in an extra inning game, and the Braves downed the Sports 7-4 in Teenage League action Friday.

Clardy struck out 17 C-City batters as the Clippers won their fourth game of the season without a defeat to mar their record. He struck out the side four different times in the eight inning game.

The Clippers won the game in the eighth inning when Clardy won his own game by hitting a squeeze bunt driving in Roy Hunter, who had doubled to lead off the inning.

Hunter doubled twice in the game to lead Clippers batters at the plate. His other hit came in the fifth inning, but failed to score when Ronnie Parker, who also pitched a fine game, struck out two to end the inning. Parker struck out 14 batters in the losing cause.

Clardy's win marked the fourth great pitching performance by Clipper hurlers, who have given up only one earned run this season.

The Braves scored four runs in the fifth and three runs in the seventh to take their win over the Sports.

William Harrison and Neal Starnes led the Braves with key hits as the winners managed to score seven times with the aid of only three hits.

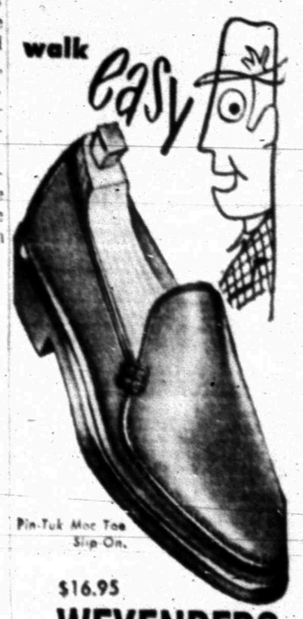

The Sports scored four times in the first inning with hits by Don Light and Zurn Jenkins, but couldn't hold on to the lead.

The Braves stand 1-1 on the year, and the Sports dropped their fourth game in a row without a win.

Here's why MALATHION LV CONCENTRATE is the No.1 ultra low volume boll weevil insecticide!

- PROVEN EFFECTIVENESS. Used on millions of treatment acres of cotton over the last 3 years, Malathion has given better than 95% weevil control at the U.S.D.A. registered rates of 8 to 16 ounces per acre.
- LOW HAZARD. Malathion has the lowest oral and dermal toxicity of any cotton insecticide. (Clinical Handbook of Economic Poisons U.S. Public Health Service).
- BROAD REGISTRATION. In addition to the U.S.D.A. registration for control of thrips and boll weevil on cotton, Malathion is the only ultra low volume insecticide registered for use on 20 food and forage crops and beef cattle at 2 to 16 ounces per acre. (U.S.D.A. registered number 241-110)
- FREEDOM FROM DRIFT RESIDUE WORRY. Drift residues to adjacent food or forage crops or cattle present no problem at recommended rates.
- ALL-SEASON USAGE. Malathion has given outstanding control of boll weevil on cotton when used early for over-wintering weevil, later in the season for subsequent broods and up until killing frost in diapause control.
- ECONOMICAL. Cost of material alone does not establish true economy. To the cost of material per acre must be added... proven effectiveness in 3 years of commercial use... low hazard to the applicator and all target areas... broad registration, permitting application even on beef cattle... freedom from drift residue worry... and all-season usage on cotton from emergence to frost. These advantages PLUS low per acre cost makes Malathion LV Concentrate the No. 1, economical, ultra low volume insecticide for boll weevil control.

London's Once Staid Auntie Is Swinging Teeny-Bopper

By LAWRENCE MALKIN

LONDON (AP) — The announcers used to read the news over the radio in such dignified accents that they seemed to be wearing tuxedos — and sometimes they were.

The British Broadcasting Corp. was so cautious and smug that it was nicknamed "Auntie." But barbed satire, uninhibited drama and frank discussion panels have put Auntie into a miniskirt.

The BBC was formed in 1927 to exploit the new medium of radio. The government charted it as an independent corporation and appointed a part-time board of directors. Set owners paid an annual license fee—now $14 for radio and TV—and the money went to the BBC without any parliamentary strings. From the start, the BBC has been financially and politically independent. But it also has had to attract and hold an audience: no listeners, no license fees.

So long as the BBC had a monopoly, the viewers had to take it or leave it.

In 1955, however, the BBC felt the first blast of competition. The Conservative government approved commercial television, which put entertainment first, and BBC audiences dwindled.

A government commission later warned the BBC against segregating listeners into upper, middle and low-brow mentalities and told it to act like a mass medium. It was also urged "to sharpen and improve" its light entertainment programs.

The recommendations released the latent energies of talent the BBC had been storing up. Director-General Sir Hugh Greene had adopted a policy of hiring young producers, directors and writers and putting them into creative teams. One of these teams, working entirely on its own, came up with the famous—and, to some, infamous—satire show, "That Was the Week That Was" to the consternation, and delight, of listeners.

Experiment spread into other fields, most notably drama. The "Wednesday Play" series, which specializes in a type of semidocumentary, has dealt with the mods-and-rockers' life of South London, the problem of abortion, and the plight of the homeless.

This season's hit, "Cathy Come Home," told of a young mother whose children were forced into an orphanage because of the housing shortage. The play's impact forced several town councils to change their policies, and the Daily Mail commented that "Cathy" had done more to help Britain's homeless than anything done in Parliament for years. Indicative of the change in the BBC is the fact that the play was turned down by the drama department three years ago as too depressing.

In the field of comedy, the BBC has won grudging admiration from its commercial rival, Independent Television. A secret memorandum from ITV headquarters recently admitted: "This category (light entertainment) is not, as it once was, one of marked strength compared with the BBC. The position of comedy is worse. ITV undoubtedly has the resources, both creative and financial, yet the BBC shows appear to have more polish, more originality, and to be better scripted."

Most daring of this year's comedy shows is "Till Death Us Do Part," which concentrates on Alf Garnett, a lumpish cockney whose prejudices run against "the blacks" and in favor of the royal family.

Red Cross Seeks Help In Making Gifts For Troops

Wanted: Volunteers to help bring Christmas cheer to the fighting men in Vietnam.

Sound early? Not really. For these gifts — by personal testimony from military men—must be prepared now, and they will be handled under Red Cross sponsorship.

The Christmas gifts will be hand-made ditty bags, with a collection of personal items in each.

The Scurry Co. chapter of the American Red Cross has issued an earnest appeal for helpers — individuals, women's club groups, merchants who might help with merchandise, and others who would gave a bit of cash — to help complete and fill the handy personal cloth bags.

The Red Cross regards this as one of its most ambitious projects of 1967. The local unit is one of nearly 1,400 Red Cross chapters across the country to join in the Shop Early - Vietnam 1967. Nationally, the goal is to make and fill at least 525,000 gift bags.

The program is because of the need for this service. Mrs. Sis Jones, executive secretary of the local chapter, said "a similar program last year was received with enthusiasm by servicemen in Vietnam. The hundreds of letters of thanks from men in every military rank testified to its popularity."

The bags, red or green in color, will be made of cotton material sturdy enough to withstand the tropical heat of Vietnam and remain serviceable for their owners personal effect after the original contests are used.

"Each bag we fill will contain a card identifying the chapter and names of cooperating clubs and agencies," said Mrs. Jones.

Each gift bag should contain a variety of small items, which might include the following:

1. Ballpoint pens
2. Paperback books
3. Plastic soap case
4. Small packages of writing paper with self-seal envelopes
5. Small address book
6. Plastic toothbrush holder
7. Terry cloth washcloth (other than white)
8. Nail clippers
9. Plastic cigarette case
10. Comb
11. Pocket games
12. Mailing-size voice tapes (reels of 3 inch tapes — 150 foot length).
13. Small tins of nuts or candies, vacuum packed
14. Windproof type ciragette lighters
15. Small plastic snapshot holders
16. Small kitchen size and sandwich type plastic bags
17. "Wipe and shine" packet shoe polish.

These are among the many personal and recreational items desired by the men in the far off country, and removed from any source of supply.

It is specified that no liquids, glass containers, combustibles, food or any kind of item that would melt or deteriorate in heat should be included. The Red Cross can help with instructions on this.

The Red Cross will welcome contributions, specifically marked "Vietnam Gifts" and will apply such money to obtaining articles as outlines above.

First work must come, however, in the sewing of the ditty bags. The Red Cross has full instructions on how to do this, and will welcome an opportunity to talk to groups or to leaders who would supervise making of the bags.

For more information call Sis Jones at HI 3-3851 of HI 3-5260.

BOB COVEY

Bob Covey Wins Waring Scholarship

Bob Covey, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Covey, Jr., Route 2, has won a musical scholarship from Fred Waring, nationally-known orchestra leader.

Bob, a 1964 graduate of Snyder High School, auditioned with Fred and his Pennsylvanians last spring when the "name band" appeared in Abilene. He recently was notified that he is the only student in Texas to win a scholarship.

The scholarship is for a music school which will be conducted in Shawnee, Pennsylvania, for one month beginning July 19. Bob sings tenor, and he is a music major at Southwest Texas State College in San Marcos. He will be a senior next year.

While a student at Snyder High School Bob was a member of the Black and Gold band. He plays several musical instruments, including the saxophone, bass fiddle, clarinet, bassoon and piano.

With a life-long interest in music he plans to teach the subject following his graduation from college.

The Coveys have two other sons — Bill, 17-year-old Snyder High School student; and, Chris, 12-year-old Travis Junior High School pupil.

New Mexico Hunt Ends With Arrest

BERNALILLO, N.M. (AP) — Reies Tijerina, object of a giant manhunt which included tanks and the National Guard, was arrested with two other men at a state police roadblock south of Bernalillo today.

Tijerina is the leader of the group which allegedly raided a rural northern New Mexico courthouse last Monday, shot two police officers and took two other men as hostages.

Tijerina, 40, who had vowed to fight to the end, was armed with a loaded .38 caliber automatic but offered no resistance when arrested by three state policemen. He was taken to Santa Fe and jailed under heavy guard.

Officers said that with Tijerina in the car were his son, Hugh Reyes Tijerina, 19, and Uvaldo Velasquez, 47, of Youngsville, N.M., an employe of the anti-poverty Home Education Livelihood Program—HELP. They also were jailed.

A service station operator at San Ysidro, northwest of Bernalillo, telephoned state police dispatcher Frank Wallace at Albuqueque that a car stopped and the driver bought $2 worth of gas. The operator said he saw a man who he believed was Tijerina get out of the car and get a drink of water from a hose.

Wallace dispatched state police Lt. Jess Sosa and officers Arthur Sedillo and Tony Gonzales to the scene and they made the arrests at 12:47 a.m.

A search by about 500 men of a 2,500-square mile area of the Carson National Forest this week failed to turn up any of the most wanted leaders of the group, which is called the Confederation of Free City States. The group contends its members are heirs under old Spanish land grants to millions of acres in the Southwest.

The courthouse raid followed by minutes a court appearance of seven members of the group on charges of extortion and unlawful assembly. The charges stemmed from their threats of an armed showdown regarding their land claims.

County Employee Charged As Bookie

PITTSBURGH (AP) — A county employe was charged Friday with booking numbers bets in the county office building.

City detectives said they arrested Norman C. Mahford, 37, last Friday after a chase through the building. They said he dropped an envelope containing 54 bets totalling $147.

Mahford, a registrar in the Allegheny County Bureau of Elections, was ordered held for trial under $2,000 bond Friday. Election Bureau Director Will E. Alton said Mahford has been suspended pending disposition of the case.

Recalls 1 Million Coconut Cream Pies

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP) — A Missouri firm is calling back about a million coconut cream pies because they may contain salmonella contamination, the Food and Drug Administration said Friday.

The pies are distributed by the F. M. Stamper Co. of Moberly, Mo. An official of the firm said contamination was only suspected and there is no way of telling how many pies might be contaminated. He said a substantial number of pies were being recalled voluntarily.

The FDA announcement in Washington said the salmonella bacteria was found during an inspection of the plant.

Seminoles Win Battle In Court

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Seminole Indians, losers in a bloody battle more than a century ago that ended with their eviction from their Florida homeland, have scored what could be a very profitable victory in court.

A U.S. Claims Court ruled Friday the Seminoles have established their legal ownership of almost all of Florida.

The court said the Indians must be paid for 32 million acres—a decision that could cost the U.S. government about $40 million. The court's unanimous decision still could be appealed to the Supreme Court.

When the United States got Florida from Spain in 1821, the Seminoles hunted and fished over most the land. They were forced to occupy a four-million-acre reservation two years later and awarded $152,500 for the 28 million acres they lost.

The Indians rebelled when the government later tried to move them to an Oklahoma reservation. Joined by runaway Negro slaves, they battled federal trops for seven years, killing 1,500 U.S. soldiers.

No treaty ever was signed. But 3,824 Semonolies and Negroes finally were sent to Oklahoma while other Indians fled into the Florida Everglades. An estimated 1,300 Seminoles now live there.

The government argued the Indians originally owned only a small part of Florida. But the Claims Court said actual possession need not be proved to show they had rightful title to most of Florida.

Artists Urged To Prepare For Show

Amateur artists throughout the Snyder area are being urged to begin planning their entries for the Diamond M Foundation Amateur Art Show.

The show has been set for Oct. 22-29, and artists from a 50-mile radius of Snyder will have paintings competing for prizes totalling $1,000 to be awarded by the Diamond M Foundation.

There will be three divisions in the show: portraiture, landscape and still-life. A grand prize will be awarded for the best entry in the show, plus first, second and third prizes in each division.

The show committee has defined an amateur artist as one who does not hold the position of professor, is not employed as an illustrator, or does not have steady income from his art.

Paintings and drawings in any medium will be accepted. However, only original works may compete. No class work or copies will be accepted. There will be an entry fee of $1 per picture and all paintings must be framed and ready for hanging, with no nails, strings or wet paint.

Also, each entry should have an entry blank attached to the back with the artist's name, address, division, and price if for sale.

A committee is already working to arrange for highly-qualified jurors to judge the show.

Further information may be obtained from Mrs. Rosalie McGlaun, Chairman of the Diamond M Foundation Art Show Committee, 1200 Twenty - fifth Street, Snyder; or from Mrs. Liz Bell, Route 2, Box 333, Snyder.

Ventriloquist To Perform For Teens

Tad Corbet, sought after speaker and ventroloquist from Levelland, will be the featured speaker at "Teensurama" Monday night at the First Baptist Church.

"Teensurama" is a four-day program especially geared to teenagers, and First Baptist Church is offering it in lieu of a daytime Vacation Bible School for teens. All teenagers are invited to attend at 6 p.m., Monday through Thursday. A snack will be served each night.

Corbet received his bachelors degree at Baylor University and continued studies at the New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary. He is now serving as Baptist Student Union director at South Plains College in Levelland.

Pitcher John (Blue Moon) Odom of the Kansas City Athletics likes No. 13 and that's his uniform number.

Guard Plans Exercise

AUSTIN (AP)— Texas National Guardsmen will put their minds to work this week on simulated problems that could occur if Texas ever received a nuclear attack.

The five-day "exercise Ever Ready III" starts Monday.

Emphasis will be on how guardsmen can help civil authorities with such problems as traffic control; evacuation of the injured from high radiation areas and care of the sick and injured.

The exercise will test concepts used by the Texas Area Command, headed by Maj. Gen. Thomas S. Bishop, state adjutant general. The command would control military forces in supporting civil defense in case of an actual attack.

Col. Thomas G. Hicks, Austin, is excercise director.

New Drivers License To Require Mug Shot, Prints

By ROBERT HEARD

AUSTIN (AP) — After the first of next year, you will be "mugged" when you renew your driver's license.

And "printed" too if you are making your first application for a license.

Nobody in the Department of Public Safety knows yet what kind of photographic equipment will be used when you are told: "Smile, you're on DPS camera," but they know the picture will be in glorious color.

And while you are smiling, better cross your fingers, too.

Under the new driver's license law passed by the 60th Legislature, if your license number ends with 0, 2, 4, 6 or 8 every cashier who asks you for identification over the next four years is going to see that picture.

Even if the last number is odd, you are going to have to live with the picture in your billfold for two years.

After this staggered inauguration, all operators' licenses will expire on their owners' birthdays—for easier remembering—every four years.

Commercial and chauffeur licenses also will get a staggered start: one-year renewals on the owners' birthdays for those ending with odd numbers, two-year renewals for the others. After that, all will be renewable every two years.

It will be difficult—and illegal—to alter the picture or substitute another because the license will be sealed in clear, deathless plastic to give posterity a chuckle.

You will only think the reason for the plastic is to preserve unsullied the ghastly purity of your countenance at the moment before you thought the picture was going to be taken.

Do you wonder if the photographer will arrange the lighting to emphasize your good points? Not exactly.

If you do not like your "mug shot," there is one way you can be sure nobody will ever see it. Don't drive.

Perhaps the idea of being photographed by law enforcement officers offends you.

Then you will be even more offended — if you are making your first application for a license — when they roll your thumbs on an ink pad and then onto your application for a license.

Console yourself with the thought they will do the same thing to your grandmother, if she is making her first application.

And if she gets convicted of driving without a license, the judge must send that information to the DPS together with a set of all her fingerprints.

You better drive.

The DPS has the authority, but not the money or personnel, to require thumb prints of everyone applying for a renewal, too. DPS spkesmen say they may get around to that in a few years.

License fees will be double, but so will the time they are good for, so there is no real change.

Drivers under 21 will get "provisional" licenses of a different color than licenses for adults.

The color has not yet been selected. Blue might not be bad, at least for those youngsters who drive a blue streak.

All you middle-aged, baldheaded men, take heart. No more will package-store owners embarrass you through long scrutiny of your license. They will know you are old enough by its color.

Presidential Ball Planned

AUSTIN (AP) — Sponsors of the second annual Presidential Ball of the Southwest announced a new togetherness program Saturday.

Members of the President's Clubs in five Southwest states may bring their wife or husband to the June 16 dancing in Austin for just the price of one $1,000 annual membership, the announcement said.

Last year it cost $1,000 a person, including wife or husband, for the Houston dinner which had an attendance of about 1,000.

Headquarters for arrangements said there have been reservations for about 1,200 with a total of about 1,500 expected for the dinner and ball next Saturday night in Austin Memorial Auditorium.

President Johnson is expected to attend.

Invitations to the Democratic party fund raising affair have been sent to President's Club members in Texas, New Mexico, Oklahoma, Arkansas and Louisiana.

The Green Bay Packers lost only two games last season, one at home and one on the road.
