

BIBLE SCHOOL STORIES FOR TWO YEAR OLDS -- Mrs. Buster Nicholas has the rapt attention of her two-year-old class when it's story time at the Main Street Church of Christ. Vacation Bible School closes Friday.

Olton Baseball Association To Present 'I Remember Mama'

A delightful evening's entertainment is on hand Thursday, June 18 for area residents when the curtain rises on the two-act comedy, "I Remember Mama."

Olton Baseball Association is sponsoring the performance which is set for 8:30 p.m. in the high school auditorium. Proceeds of the play will be used to finance the summer baseball program. More than 200 boys are benefited in the summer program.

Cast of the play includes Mrs. Glen Singletary as the lovable and wise Mama and Garland Ruthart as Papa, who sacrifices his pipe and tobacco to save money to send their son to high school.

Sarah Smyth is Katrin, the eldest daughter who wants to become a writer; Nels, their only son, is played by Steve Andrew; Jan Scruggs is Christine and as Papa says, "the stubborn one." Leisa Collins plays Dagmar, the baby of the family who would like to make a home for every cat, dog, rabbit or horse.

Mama's timid, spinster sister Trina is played by Mrs. Percy Parsons. Trina falls in love and wants to marry the also timid Peter Thorkelson "of the funeral parlor." David Howton is cast as Thorkelson.

Mrs. C.B. Johns and Mrs. Gene Trotter play Mama's sisters, Jenny and Sigrid. Disliked by the children, Aunt Jenny is "bossy" and Aunt Sigrid is "always whining and complaining."

Uncle Chris, played by Earl Spruiell, is the "head of the family", with a fondness for Mama and her family. He is delighted to learn that he frightens the aunts.

Bub Holt is the eloquent-tongued Mr. Hyde, the boarder who reads aloud "such wonderful books -- Charles Dickens, Longfellow and Fenimore Kipling."

Others in the cast are Arne, James Cross; Dr. Johnson, Earl Robertson; Jessie, Mrs. Jess Parker; Florence Dana Moorhead, Mrs. W.T. Hall; Barbara Aigaki and Dona Sorely, nurses; Margaret Thomas, Dorothy and Sherree Coleman, Madeline.

Tickets are on sale now by baseball players and will also be available at the door. Admission is one dollar for adults and fifty cents for students.

Miss Ida May Powers directed the choir this year and accompanied the girls to Austin.

Competition is very keen in the state contest with approximately seven to ten percent earning Division I ratings.

The group visited the Capitol and University of Texas campus while they were in Austin and enroute stopped to visit in Abilene and see the zoo.

Some Families Eligible For New Housing

Many families are eligible to buy a new three or four bedroom home with a down payment of only $200.00, but are not taking advantage of this opportunity because they are not aware of the provisions of Section 235 of the National Housing Act.

"Financial help is available to enable low income families to buy their own home," according to Tom Yager, president of the Lumberman's Association of Texas, "but many are not familiar with this program. To get complete details on the provisions of this section of the National Housing Act," Yager advised, "see your local lumber dealer."

The program offers assistance in the form of monthly payments by the Department of Housing and Urban Development to the lending institutions to reduce interest cost on a market rate home mortgage insured by FHA if a homeowner cannot afford to make a conventional loan.

Wayland Band Clinic To Be Held Next Week

The fifth annual Wayland Summer Band Clinic will be conducted June 15-19, according to R. C. "Chief" Davidson, director of the Wayland Band and Executive Director of the clinic.

Registration will be held Sunday, June 14 from 2-4 p.m. and again on Monday morning beginning at 8 a.m. in the Band Hall on 6th Street.

Fee for the clinic is $17.50 for the five-day session. Gerald Hamphill, head of the music department at Phillips University, Enid, Okla., will serve as clinician and will teach cornet. Other faculty members will be J. W. King, recently hired by Canyon High School after 17 years at Hale Center, French horn; Gary Zook who is leaving Canyon for a similar position in McAllen, will be in charge of the woodwinds section; Bill Woods, Levelland, twirling; Davidson, clarinet; Fred Stockdale, Olton, percussion; and Jerry Starkes, Springlake, and Jim Swafford, Floydada, both teaching low bass. A Friday night concert at 8 p.m. in Harrell Memorial Auditorium, with all students attending the clinic performing, will conclude the week's activities.

Band students from throughout the Panhandle-West Texas area are expected to attend the clinic.

First Wheat Cut In Area

The first reported cutting of wheat in this area was announced Wednesday afternoon by High Plains Seed and Grain Company.

A partial load of the golden grain was offered to them by Wilton Bodkin who farms northwest of the city.

One Board Member, Four Teachers Resign

Resignations from teachers and from a school board member were accepted in Monday night's business of the board of trustees.

Action included the discussion of the National Honor Society constitution, financial aid for a handicapped child, the band budget, the CVAE program for junior high, reports from the superintendent, summer maintenance and the superintendent's position.

In an effort to answer complaints that were voiced at the board meeting last month, high school principal Joe Turner appeared before the board with a copy of the National Honor Society's constitution.

Questioned was the manner in which the students are chosen. Turner explained that Olton High School was in compliance with the method set out in the constitution.

He said that "no fewer than seven teachers including the principal can select the members. But also stated in the constitution is the fact that the entire faculty may be used in the selection."

"The entire faculty is used here," he stated. "Also there can be only 15 per cent of the senior class eligible for the NHS and only 10 per cent of the junior class and five per cent of the sophomore class."

The members are chosen from a list of students who have a grade average of 85 or above. This list is given to each teacher and he judges them on basis of leadership, service and character along with the scholastic ability.

The board agreed that they would not advise any changes in the method of selection, since the school was using one of the methods suggested in the constitution. They voiced the opinion that it might be done more secretly however.

Resignations of Mrs. Gloria Nelson, who has moved to Memphis and Mrs. Charlotte Schultz who will be moving to Amarillo were accepted by the board as were those of Mr. and Mrs. James "Dub" Farris, who will be moving to Odessa.

A member of the board, Elmer McGill, also submitted a letter of resignation. No one was appointed to fill his position.

In behalf of the six-year-old daughter of the Budd Gunters, the board agreed to pay the tuition charge to an Amarillo school which deals with handicapped children.

The child, who is hard of hearing, has been attending the school for several years, but now that she has reached the school age, the board agreed that since such facilities were not offered here, it was the school district's responsibility to pay the tuition to such a school. Cost for the tuition is $350. The board agreed unanimously.

The next item on the agenda was the band budget, submitted by band director Fred Stockdale.

He sought the approval of the purchase of four replacement musical instruments and four new ones, plus new sheet music.

The board approved the budget, with the replacement instruments to be taken from this year's budget and the other items to be carried into next year's budget.

In the CVAE program discussion, Supt. Ray Schultz told the board that the Hart schools had been approved by the state for the same type program for which Olton had been approved and that Jack Burkhalter would like to work as vocational counselor with both schools, devoting half time to each.

The board agreed to the arrangement. Schultz also told the board that it had been arranged for the girls who will be participating in the CVAE program on the seventh grade level to be taught by Mrs. Baumgardner, while Mrs. Mackey would teach the eighth grade girls.

Average daily attendance report was 986 at the end of the school term. A total of 75 students have been lost since the beginning of the year.

Discussing summer maintenance, Schultz told the board that he felt like the inside of the junior high building was in need of paint.

"There are about 17 rooms, four restrooms, halls and Carl McClure's office," Schultz said. "It hasn't been painted since 1964 and we have budgeted for maintenance about $4600 if you think it should be done."

The board agreed to accept bids on the work.

In other business, Schultz told the board that the vocational agriculture teacher, Larry Manuel had passed his physical and had joined the National Guard. He will have to serve only four and a half months, plus a summer work camp of two weeks.

Schultz said he felt like the board should know this because if he was called up during the school year, he would have to have a substitute.

Discussing a student who was seeking to graduate with only three years attendance in high school, Schultz told the board that they were in compliance with state accreditation rules.

Terry Snider, who lacked two credits being graduated this year, asked permission of the board to attend summer school at Plainview and to be allowed to take a correspondence course also. The board agreed that as long as it was state approved that it was okay with them. Finally, Dan Gregory stated that he felt like the present school administration should be allowed to submit an application for the superintendent's position, if they so desired.

In the called meeting in which Supt. Ray Schultz offered his resignation, the board had agreed they would seek applications outside the school system, and instructed Schultz to advise the administrators of their decision, which he did.

However, Monday night, Gregory said that he misunderstood the intentions of the board, thinking that although they would be accepting applications from outside the system, present administrators would be automatically given consideration for the position, provided they were interested in it.

After a lengthy discussion, the board agreed that they would have to stand by their decision made earlier. They said if the applicants were not of the caliber they were seeking, however, present administrators would still be considered.

Emergency Vehicle Radio Purchase Okayed By Council

A comparatively light agenda greeted the city councilmen Tuesday night when they gathered for the regularly scheduled meeting.

First on the agenda was the discussion of group hospitalization for the city employees. A representative from an insurance firm located in Plainview met with the council and explained his company's benefits and costs.

Councilmen agreed that no action should be taken on such insurance until they sought to find out how many of the employees would be interested. Also they said they'd like more time to study the plan.

Next action was that of appointing an assistant fire marshal. Joe Chester was unanimously approved for the position.

Discussion of the radio in the emergency vehicle then followed. Fire Chief Tom Smith told the council that a radio repair man had told him that the radio was beyond repair.

He said that they had asked Joe Chester and Wayne Cole to look into the cost of a new radio. Chester then told the council that they had found a Motorola 25 watt transistorized mobile unit for $556, including installation.

The council okayed the purchase of the radio and agreed to pay half the cost, with the fire department paying the other half.

The old radio will be sold to Parsons Funeral Home for $20 to be used as parts for one of their radios.

Another item up for consideration was a unit for lighting the city hall in case of a disaster. The unit can be purchased at the Army Surplus Store in Lubbock for a nominal fee, Chester told the council.

Councilman Vernon Nixon suggested that a study be made of the needs of the city in the case of said disaster before making any decision. Council agreed.

Attention then turned to the request which was made at the last council meeting concerning financial aid for the Olton Recreation Center.

Joe Hall, the city council's representative on the board of directors, told the council last month that the ORC were seeking help from the city, but the council tabled the request until a further study could be made.

Tuesday night, the council agreed that the board of directors of the ORC should meet with the council and present their problems to them for mutual discussion.

In other action, the board told city Water Superintendent Orian Hackler to begin the installation of new larger lines south on Main Street from the Henry Cavett home as well as to six homes located near the Bill Dickinson residence.

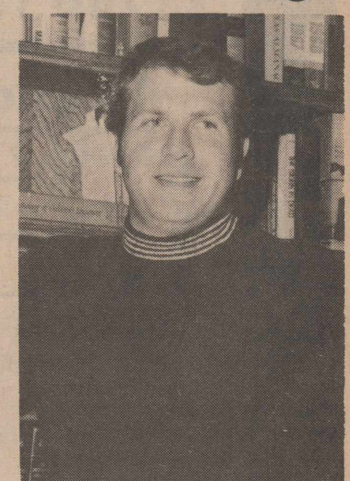

Final action was the grant of a pay raise for Elton Avery, night watchman, who has served his probation period set by the council at the time of his employment. He was given a $25 raise, making his present salary now stand at $425 per month.

JACK WOLF

We Apologize For Our Goof

A goof is a goof is a goof.... Until it comes to Olton Swine Breeders Association and Olton Sheep Breeders Association. And then it's absolute mayhem!

For instance, last week we carried a story (?) about the Olton Sheep Breeders sale. Or at least we tried.

Seems it turned out "Olton Swine Breeders Sale" and we even had them giving a lamb away.

And that wasn't enough.... we even got the price wrong for the sale of the top lamb.

So we'd like to correct our mistake. Olton Sheep Breeders Association held its tenth annual sale Saturday, May 29 with a net sale of $9800.

Three hundred forty three lambs were sold with the top lamb going at $69.

Officials of the Sheep Breeders Association expressed their appreciation to all buyers and local supporters of the sale.

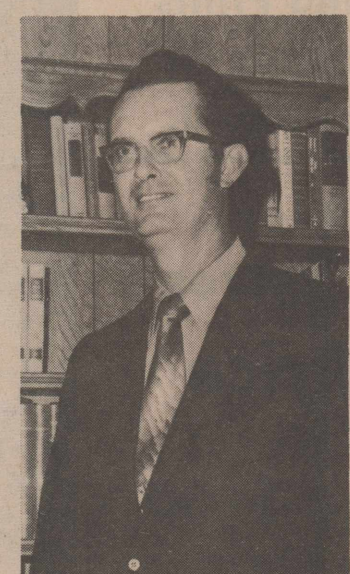

County Historical Survey Holds Special Meeting

In an effort to preserve history the local Historical Committee has obtained several historical medallions for Lamb County; has recorded interviews with early day pioneers; and has published and distributed early day maps of the county in the form of place mats. Currently they are procuring pictures of all Lamb County judges to be hung in the Court House.

Representatives present from Olton at this meeting were Commissioner A. J. Spain, and Mmes. George Bohner and Paul Burrus.

Dear Sue:

Since many of our Olton friends were concerned about my husband's illness, I'd like to say a big "Texas". Thank You for the beautiful cards sent and the many prayers. The prayers gave our whole family strength for these times. B. A. had successfull back surgery on May 12 and came home May 25 after a 31-day stay in the hospital. He is regaining strength quite fast. Doctor's orders are complete rest with no responsibility for another six weeks. When our boys get out of school June 12 we'll leave town for a three week rest for the whole family.

We do appreciate being remembered by the "Home Folk" even though we are 1200 miles away. Thanks.

Sincerely,
Pauline Dickenson

My Debt To My City

My City owes me nothing. If accounts were balanced at this date, I would be the debtor. Haven't I, all these years, lived within the limits of the City and shared all its benefits? Haven't I had the benefit of its schools and churches? Haven't I had the use of its libraries, parks, and public places? Haven't I had the protection of its fire, police and health departments? Haven't its people, during all this time, been gathering for me, from the four corners of the earth, food for my table, clothing for my body, and material for my home?

"Hasn't this City furnished the patronage by which I have succeeded in my business? Hasn't it furnished the best friends of my life, whose ideals have been my inspiration, whose kind words have been my cheer, and whose helpfulness has carried me over the greatest difficulties?

"What will I give in return? Not simply the taxes which cover so small a part of what I have received. I want to give more; I want, of my own free will, to give enough that I can rightfully say, 'This is my City,' so that I can take pride in 'my City' so that I can take pride in its prosperity, in the honors which come to its citizens, and all that makes it greater and better.

"I can do this only by becoming a part of the City - by giving to it generously of myself. In this way only can I, even in small part, pay the great debt I owe to my City."

MRS. VAN BRIMHALL

Cook Of The Week

Family favorites are the recipes shared this week by Mrs. Van Brimhall, our Cook of the Week and an Olton resident for almost a year.

Lois and Van Brimhall moved with their family to Olton just one day before school began last fall. Van, a veterinarian, is assistant manager of Olton Feedyards. The family had lived in Roswell, N. M. for six years prior to their move here.

The Brimhalls have four children, Mike, the eldest, is living in Rockford, Ill. Bill and Patti are students at Olton High School; Bill is a senior and Patti, a sophomore. Lisa, the youngest and the one who wants to be a veterinarian like her dad, will be in the fifth grade.

Lois grew up in a small town near Fresno, Calif. Her father was a vocational agriculture teacher. Van grew up on the South Plains. His parents homesteaded land when the famed Slaughter Ranch was divided. He went to California after graduating from high school at just 16. Van put himself through college and vet school.

Just recently, the family moved into their new home southwest of the Recreation Center. A home in the country gives them the opportunity for the animals they enjoy - including a mare named Nancy. The children's horses are named Freckles and Peanuts.

Lois loves horseback riding and the family is keenly interested in the Riding Club which is presently being organized. A member of the United Methodist Church, Lois just last week helped with Vacation Church School, working with a class of third and fourth graders. She provided an especially entertaining craftwork for the class. Small scraps of sheep skin, dyed in vivid colors, were used to create flowers and other decorations on burlap wall hangings.

Cooking is another of Lois's hobbies. She likes to add her own touches to recipes and does not hesitate to make substitutions if she runs short of an ingredient. Her recipe for Stroganoff is one which she adapted to suit her family's tastes.

Seeking suggestions from her family for the recipes she shares with Enterprise cooks, Lois was advised to submit the Stroganoff, a favorite of her husband, and the recipe for Sweet and Sour Meatballs.

BEEF STROGANOFF

1 lb. lean Sirloin steak or round steak, sliced about 1/8" thick, 2-3" long. Roll in flour and saute in small amount of oil until lightly brown. Set aside. Thinly slice 1/4-1/2 lb. fresh mushrooms and saute in skillet, adding oil if necessary. When mushrooms are limp, chop 1" large onion into skillet and saute until limp. If fresh mushrooms are unavailable, at this point add 1 can drained mushrooms. Add meat, 1 c. water, 2 bouillon cubes, 1 tsp. Worcestershire sauce, salt and pepper. Simmer until tender - about 20 minutes for sirloin, 1 hour for round steak.

Add 1 c. sour cream and just heat, do not boil. Serve over noodles or brown rice.

Brown 1 cup white rice in small amount of hot oil over hot fire, stirring constantly. Add 2 1/4 c. boiling water, 1/2 tsp. salt, pepper and simmer 20 minutes.

SWEET-SOUR MEATBALLS

Saute in butter, 1 large green pepper, 1 small onion, chopped. Add 1 large tomato, peeled and chopped, 6 slices pineapple, chopped. Add 1/2 cup vinegar, 1/2 cup bouillon or stock, 1/2 cup pineapple juice, 1/2 cup sugar, 1/2 tsp. salt, 1/4 tsp. ginger, 2 tablespoons cornstarch made to a paste with 1/4 cup water. Simmer until thick. Pour over meatballs and simmer 20-30 minutes.

MEAT BALLS

2 lbs. hamburger
3/4 c. finely ground cracker crumbs
2 eggs plus enough evaporated milk to make 1 c.
1/4 c. finely minced onion
1 T. dry parsley flakes
1 tsp. each celery and savory salt
1/2 tsp. garlic salt
1 tsp. salt
pepper

Mix well and shape into balls about 1 inch in diameter. Brown in skillet.

Discipline Is Topic Of Lesson

Woman's Missionary Council met Monday afternoon at the Assembly of God Church. Topic of the lesson was "Discipline - A Way to Serve."

Mrs. Leslie Kennedy discussed "Discipline of Thought" and showed how it involved discipline of mind, heart and will. She read Proverbs 23:1 and Philippians 4:8. Mrs. DeVurn Mandrell talked of "Discipline of Purpose", reading Matthew 6:33. She brought out individual and family discipline of purpose.

Miss Leta Bell's subject was "Discipline of Practice". She showed how Christian service is made increasingly effective by practice.

Mrs. Gene Davis spoke on "Results of Discipline".

Accompanied by Mrs. Nolan Holland Mrs. Ethridge Reaves and Mrs. Billy Austin sang "When The Saviour Calls I Will Answer".

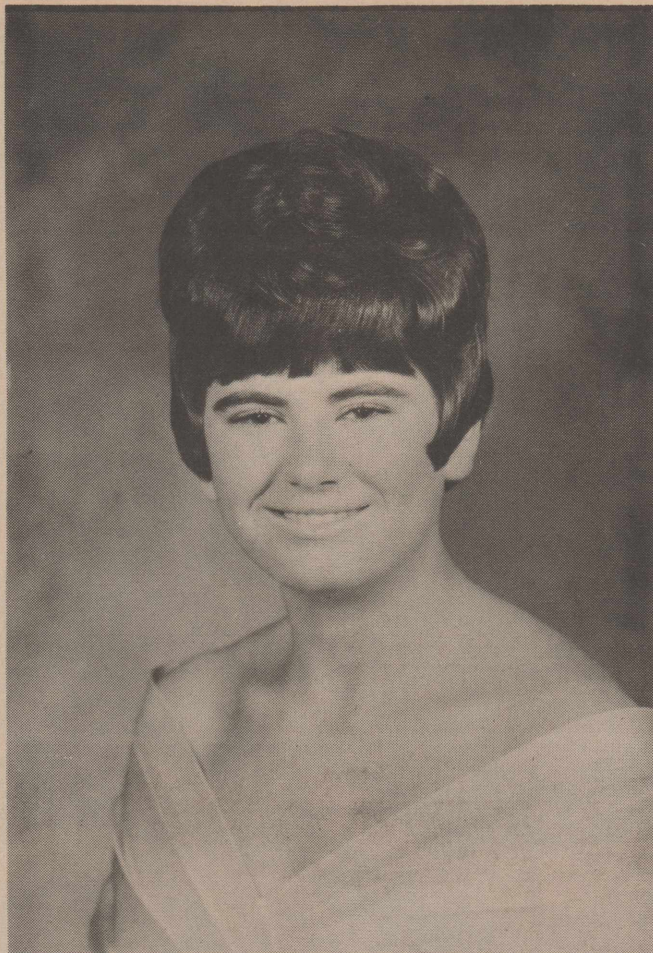

Mrs. Charles Meyer and Mrs. Marlin Edwards were also present for the meeting.

The Missionettes entertained Sheri Austin, Boyd Holland and Jayson Reaves while their mothers were at W. M. C. Quilla Edwards told the story. Pam Reaves did drama acts. Vickie Kennedy played the piano accompaniment to songs led by Sheri Kennedy. Quilla Edwards served cookies and pops.

You've been spending too much on weeds in cotton!

If you've been just cultivating, or using a chemical weed killer and not getting the control you need — either way you've been spending too much. There's a better way to get good weed control, and spend less. It's with Caparol® 80W — your partner, the weed-killer — band applied, at planting. In just one trip across the field, you plant your crop and put Caparol on in a band. This keeps the weeds out of the rows. Then, all you do is cultivate the middles. Don't spend too much on weeds in cotton again this year. Apply Caparol, in a band, at planting.

Muleshoe Wins Sr. Babe Ruth

Sherman Agency played host to Muleshoe Saturday night in Babe Ruth Park for their first home game. It was the first senior division baseball game to be played in Olton since American Legion play was dropped in 1964.

GIRL SCOUT Troop Talk

Sandee Coleman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Coleman and Lana Myers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Parley Myers, are serving as unit counselors this summer at the Girl Scout Camp at Rio Blanco. Both are 1970 graduates of Olton High School. They completed counselor training last summer to qualify for the work this summer.

Girl Scout counselors serve as a "member of the family" for the girls attending one and two weeks camp. They are leaders and must be dependable and courteous.

More than "baby sitters", counselors work with 80 to 100 girls helping them to experience, learn and enjoy every minute of their stay at camp. A good counselor sets an example for her young charges and must be a friend to each camper. She makes them feel welcomed and gives them the confidence that they have something to contribute toward making the camp a success.

The most important requirement is that the counselor must be a mature person with a philosophy of life worth sharing. She is expected to do one thing really well - it might be anything from singing to swimming.

Camp Rio Blanco offers a well rounded program of activities, including swimming, hiking, arts and crafts, nature studies, folk lore and outdoor cooking.

They will be at camp about two months.
