

After Two Years Aboard LST

"Mom's Cooking Is Still Best"

Donald Edwin (Don) Goss, 20, is at home after two years spent on active duty with the United States Navy in foreign waters — off Vietnam.

Goss was, until his recent discharge, member of the crew of the USS Washoe County, LST (Landing Ship Tank).

In January he received a commendation from his commanding officer naming Goss "Man of the Month" for the Washoe County in January.

"While working in the Deck Department, you have proved to be a competent leader," the commendation reads.

"Your enthusiasm toward your work and the efficiency with which you have accomplished this work have set an example of excellence for your fellow shipmates. Your earnestness, cooperative attitude, and devotion to duty have earned you the respect and admiration of all hands.

"Your willingness to work and the interest you have displayed in your work have been in the highest tradition of the United States Navy. Well done," the commendation concludes.

Goss, who was graduated from Colorado High School in 1966, enlisted in the USN Reserve Corps in February, 1966. His basic training at San Diego, Calif., followed in June and July, that summer. He went on active duty March 1, 1967, left the West Coast for Japan March 24, 1967.

The Washoe County LST is home - ported in Yokosuka, Japan. It is currently in dry-dock for repairs.

Stops enroute from Japan to the South Vietnam coast included Okinawa, Guam, Wake, Korea, and Subic Bay in the Philippines. Goss also had liberty on shore, twice, at Hong Kong, and on one brief occasion at Da Nang.

Mostly, the Washoe County operated "Up and down the coast of South Vietnam delivering vehicles — tanks, jeeps, trucks — and personnel from both the Army and the Marine Corps," Goss said Thursday.

And mostly, Goss has spent the last two years aboard his ship, the flat-bottomed LST which plows through the waters sometimes listing from side to side at a 45 degree angle. Goss was one of the luckier sailors in his crew, he thinks. He never got sea sick, though some of the longtime crew members did, just at first.

Food from the galley was "Pretty good considering the size of the Washoe County and the small galley," he said, adding with a shy smile, "But not as good as my Mom's." He is openly glad to be home with his parents Mr. and Mrs.

T. J. Goss, II, and younger brothers John and Jim. Oldest Goss son, T. J. Goss III, is in the Army stationed at Fort Hood.

High point of adventure while he was away was a hot gun fight on the Bode River when the Viet Cong fired on "swift boats" on patrol. The Cong ambushed five PCF's, Goss said, and the Washoe County crew boats were launched on the Bode to help rout the enemy hidden along the banks.

Goss, qualified pilot of the Washoe's small boats, volunteered to go along. "It was an experience," he said simply in summing up the action which made headlines in American press releases.

Now, at 20 and his military service completed, Goss hopes to complete his college education. He and his brother John, 18-year-old Colorado High senior, plan to attend the same college next Semester. Don is most interested in English and History courses.

Meantime, he and John are hoping for summer jobs in Yellowstone National Park. One thing about the Yellowstone regulations for student employees is the source of some amusement to Don Goss.

"You cannot have a car unless you are 21," he grinned. And the sailor with two years in Vietnamese waters will not be 21 until July.

Unpacking Their Offices

County Agents Janice Miller and Bobby Lemons pause from unloading the usual boxes of gear and supplies while moving their offices into the new air-conditioned brick annex at Mitchell County Courthouse. The $40,000 building houses the agents and county auditor offices.

Agents, Auditor Staffs Move Into New Annex

Friday was moving day for county employees to occupy the just completed office annex building at Mitchell County Courthouse.

The new annex, built by Lawler Construction Co. of Lamesa for the low bid of $39,900, will house six offices, three storage rooms, a duplicating room and a hall.

Mitchell County Extension Service agents, Miss Janice Miller and Bobby Lemons, will occupy two offices with a smaller office for their secretary Mrs. J. D. Hill.

Dwain Feaster, county auditor, and Mrs. Julius Smith, assistant auditor, will each have an office and will have a supply room for added space.

Storage rooms are to be used to store supplies for the sheriff's department and for the janitor.

Designed by Harvey Allen, Lamesa architect, the new annex has floor space of 73.6 by 48 feet.

It replaces the old "Little White House" on courthouse square, small building of four offices in need of extensive repairs.

Originally built as a home for the sheriff, the "Little White House" was razed before construction of the new annex began at the site.

Exterior walls are of brick and stucco in harmony with the renovated courthouse and the county jail. Interior walls are paneled.

County Commissioners let the contract last Nov. 13. The annex is the latest step in the county's pay-as-we-go remodeling and renovation program for court buildings.

Open house for public inspection will be announced by the Extension Service with women's club to be co-hosts.

Meantime visitors are welcome to see the new offices, said County Judge Elmer Martin.

No Delivery For Mail Monday

Colorado City Post Office will be closed Monday in observance of President Richard Nixon's declaration for a day of mourning in tribute to former President Dwight Eisenhower.

There will be no delivery service on city or rural mail routes and no window service of any type in the post office Monday, according to Postmaster A. M. Morris.

Receipt and dispatch of mail, however, will be on regular service into and from the post office and special delivery will be provided.

In respect to former President Eisenhower, who succumbed to a heart ailment Friday, all flags at postal installations will be flown at half-staff for the 30-day period ending April 26, 1969.

Sunrise Services Easter Morning

Easter Sunrise Services at 7 a. m. Easter morning, April 6, will again be sponsored by the Mitchell County Ministerial Alliance with First United Methodist Church to be host church.

People of all faiths are invited by the Ministerial Alliance to attend the early morning traditional service, said Rev. Jimmy Law, pastor of Calvary Baptist Church, who made the announcement.

"This will be an important meeting that will be directed specifically to providing the most efficient tools for contacting prospective industry and selling Colorado City as a partner to industry," said Don Benson, Chamber of Commerce president.

John Billings, chairman of Merchants Committee, has announced that 39 of the decorative lamps, with bright red strands to circle poles, have been ordered.

Merchants will pay $72.15 for the lamp sets, said Billings.

The Chamber Committee has had one set up for display at the corner of 2nd and Elm near Anthony's.

Just after Thanksgiving the new decorations will be put up from Western Auto Corner at 1st and Walnut St. to 6th and Walnut with decorated poles to be located at the Bridgford Dental Clinic and Corner Drug.

Veterans Spark Cast Playhouse April Season

"Paint Your Wagon," musical comedy to be staged by Colorado City Playhouse April 4, 5 and again April 11 and 12, has a cast sparked by Playhouse veteran performers.

To open Friday night in the Colorado High School auditorium directed by George Womack with Bob Newman directing the music, the production will have Tandy Curlee in the lead role of Ben Ramson.

Curlee had singing roles in both the "Fantasticks and Li'l Abner." He also played in "Under The Yum Yum Tree, and in Mister Angel."

Don Richard of Lorraine, who will sing the part of Julio Valveras, first won Colorado

"This is an element we must contend with," Benson said, "and this coordinating meeting Monday morning with the 'task force' chairman will be a major step toward meeting certain deadlines."

Those who will be in the Monday session are John Russell, chairman of finance "task force," J. S. Sadler Jr., chairman for sites and buildings; Bob Reilly and Bobby Lemons, co-chairmen for community attitude; J. S. (Jay) Craddock Jr., chairman for taxes; R. D. Bridgford, chairman for industrial fund development; J. W. (Bill) Randle, chairman for labor; Larry Kinard, Chamber industrial committee chairman and head of brochure work; James McMath, chairman of coordinating community government relations.

New Yule Decorations

Lamps Ordered For Downtown

Advance plans for C-City Christmas decorations and sales promotions are well underway with Merchants Committee of the Chamber of Commerce in charge.

Merchants Committee has also announced a holiday promotion with five color sets to be given away. Drawings will be each Saturday during the season with adults only eligible to register for the free prizes.

Working with Billings are Truman Bodine, director representative, Mrs. Lacy Boles, Tom Trewhitt, Mrs. Bill Carter, Sam L. Majors Jr., Luke Thomas, J. C. Britton, Henry Bilberry, Willie Landau, Charles Henderson, Joe Leonard, and L. J. Taylor, committee members.

Eldon Mahon Named To Address '69 Class

Eldon Mahon of Ft. Worth has accepted an invitation to make the chief address here, May 27, for commencement exercises at Colorado High School.

Mahon, United States Attorney for the Northern District of Texas, has notified the graduating seniors of his acceptance of their invitation to speak.

Ronnie Witten is senior class chairman for commencement program plans.

Graduate of Lorraine High School, Mahon holds his bachelor degree from McMurry College in Abilene and received his law degree from University of Texas at Austin. He is now a member of the board for McMurry College.

Mahon began his life as a public official as Mitchell County attorney. He later served for 13 years as district attorney for the 32nd judicial district before his election to the office of 32nd Judicial District Judge.

In Colorado City, he was a Democratic Party leader, a lay leader for First Methodist Church, and was active in civic affairs.

Mahon resigned as district judge to accept a position as an executive from Texas Electric Service Co.'s legal and public relations department. He then returned to private practice in Abilene, joining the law firm of Mahon, Pope and Glandon in August 1964.

He and his family moved to Ft. Worth after his appointment by President Lyndon B. Johnson to the post of United States District Attorney.

Speaker for the commencement sermon, Sunday, May 25, will be the Rev. Harland Birdwell of Big Spring.

The religious services are set for 5 p. m., May 25, in All Saints Episcopal Church with a number of focal ministers to take part on the program, said Wallace Price, Colorado High School principal.

Rev. Birdwell is a former pastor of All Saints Church here.

Business Poll Eyes Bank Americard

City National Bank of Colorado City is conducting a survey among merchants here to test interest in Bank Americard.

The local bank is investigating the possibility of the all-purpose credit card, BankAmericard, which is in use in this area at Abilene, Midland, San Angelo and Lubbock.

Opinions are requested from merchants concerning the feasibility of the all-purpose card issuing here.

Merchants are being polled by mail. Letter from the bank to local merchants outline merchant benefits — problems and cost of credit checking, billing and credit losses.

Cost to merchants is also detailed in the letter, along with an invitation to merchants to ask questions and a blank for indicating interest in a meeting about BankAmericard.

Cost to merchants is listed as a one time sign-up fee of $25 at time membership is established, imprinter rental fee of $5 for each imprinter required per year.

Discount rate of 6 percent is charged on all sales and deducted when sales drafts are deposited, and 1 percent of sales returned, making a net discount cost to merchants of 5 percent on BankAmericard.

BankAmericards are honored by 300,000 merchants from coast to coast the bank's letters notes.

Whether the card plan receives additional study or is instituted here will depend considerably, of course, upon the interest and comments found in the poll of local firms.

Some merchants view the plan as an assist to small businesses which do not have customer credit facilities through franchise agreements or other business sources.

LETTERS TO EDITOR

Dear Editor:

The incumbent school board members' campaign message tells voters that we should not upset an "agreeable" board. We should not stop progress. Does agreement guarantee progress?

We all know that a first principle of democracy is the right of a minority to peaceful dissent. We all realize that the influence of a minority is important to a governing body.

A school board is a governing body. If there is no dissent, maybe it is because the minority is not being heard.

WHAT'S AT STAKE FOR YOU?

Just Your Children's Future... That's All!

POLICIES FOR YOUR COLORADO CITY SCHOOLS ARE DECIDED BY THE SCHOOL BOARD MEMBERS YOU ELECT FOR COLORADO INDEPENDENT SCHOOL DISTRICT.

THAT'S THE REASON OUR SCHOOL BOARD ELECTION, SATURDAY, APRIL 5, IS IMPORTANT.

Look Up,
Not Down!

YOUR CHILD... his or her's educational development depends tremendously upon the men and women you elect to that board.

Elect a board member who creates turmoil and dissension, not understanding and YOUR SCHOOL AND YOUR CHILD suffer.

Elect a board member who will tear down instead of build, then YOUR SCHOOLS AND YOUR CHILD'S FUTURE is hobbled... and slowed to a crawl while others move ahead.

Elect a board member who seeks election with a personal axe to grind or with selfish motive, then YOUR SCHOOLS AND YOUR CHILD are penalized, shoved back instead of forward.

COLORADO CITY SCHOOLS ARE ON THE MOVE FORWARD. THEY ARE NATIONALLY RECOGNIZED. THEY ARE PROGRESSING IN A BALANCED EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM FOR THE GOOD OF OUR COMMUNITY AND OUR CHILDREN.

SURE, THEY NEED TO BE BETTER. EVER SO. AND, OUR SCHOOL BOARD IS WORKING WISELY - WITHIN THE LIMITS OF OUR OWN ECONOMIC CAPABILITIES - TO MOVE AHEAD, TO IMPROVE OUR SCHOOLS, TO BETTER EQUIP OUR CHILDREN.

THEY ARE ACCOMPLISHING THE JOB SO EFFECTIVELY, THAT SCHOOL LEADERS FROM ACROSS THE STATE AND THE ENTIRE NATION ARE TAKING NOTE. TRAVELING FROM AS FAR AS MICHIGAN TO LEARN TO BETTER ADVANCE THEMSELVES.

Getting The Job Done!

MRS. KENNETH COWAN and TOM REES are now members of our school board. They have key roles in this overall progress which benefits us all. They are dedicated to the principles we cherish and admire.

They build, instead of tearing down. They listen and work for better education for all. They are above the selfish personal interest which hurts others. They create understanding and cooperative effort instead of dissension and bickering.

BE SURE YOU VOTE SATURDAY, APRIL 5, TO RE-ELECT THESE TWO LEADERS, MRS. KENNETH COWAN AND MR. TOM REES, DEDICATED AND EXPERIENCED SCHOOL BOARD MEMBERS.

Miss Terry Ann Myers Becomes Bride of Larry Randall Smith

First United Methodist Church Saturday evening was setting for the marriage of Miss Terry Ann Myers to Larry Randall Smith of San Antonio.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. J. R. Fuller of 1225 Cedar Street.

Mr. and Mrs. George R. Smith of San Antonio are parents of the bridegroom.

Ralph McCune of Austin read double ring vows in the eight o'clock ceremony.

Large commodore panels formed a background for the church altar. Gardenias and wild smilax lined the chancel rail and were entwined on Gothic columns. A topiary tree of gardenias marked each side of the prie-dieu.

Wild smilax encircled candelabra trees. Bridal aisle pews were accented with corsages tied with satin roping.

The bride was given in marriage by her stepfather, J. R. Fuller.

She wore a candlelight gown of pure silk organza over peau. The empire waist, fashioned with a scoop neckline and brief sleeves, was accented with scalloped re-embroidered Alencon lace enhanced with loops of tiny pearls and crystals. Alencon lace with loops of pearls and crystals overlaid the straight skirt. Her tubular train was chapel length.

Her chapel veil of imported English illusion was attached to a Dior bow of organza and lace studded with tiny seed pearls.

She wore a pearl necklace and carried a bouquet of stephanotis and gardenias.

Miss Judith Taylor of Stamford was organist and harpist. She presented traditional wedding music at the organ and played harp accompaniment for Miss Ingrid Hiterius of Stamford as she sang "Wedding Prayer".

Miss Judy Myers, the bride's sister, was maid of honor. Mrs. Mike Mundy of Lubbock was matron of honor.

They wore long dresses of heaven blue Saki silk fashioned with deep V-necklines defined by tiny double ruffles. Ruffles also edged the three-quarter length sleeves.

Attendants wore head circlets of mixed pastel flowers matching informal Flemish bouquets.

Bridesmaids were Miss Anne Elliott of Lubbock, Miss Pam Patton of Dallas and Miss Linda Mickler of Stamford. Brides-matron was Mrs. Dennis Boswell of Lakewood, Ohio, cousin of the bride.

Brian and Bradley Poole of Dallas, twin cousins of the bride, were ring bearers.

Gary Wilcox of Dallas was best man.

Groomsmen were Clint Smith, of Greenville, brother of the bridegroom; Kurt Papp of Austin, Bill Brosseau of Dallas, Bobby Henry of Dallas and Barry Dowd of Abilene.

For a honeymoon trip to Las Vegas, Nev., the bride chose a coral costume of Alaskae with matching shoes and white accessories. Her corsage was of white cattleya orchids.

They will be at home in Austin.

The bride attended University of Hawaii, Southern Methodist University in Dallas and will graduate from University of Texas at Austin in August.

She is a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma social sorority and a elementary education major.

Her husband, a physical education major, plays varsity basketball at UT, is president of "T" Association and a member of Texas Cowboys. He is affiliated with Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity.

MAKE YOUR GEMS SPARKLE

Even though you are undoubtedly very busy during this season, we who love gems and jewelry have one simple request to make of all those who wear these items. That is, to keep them as sparkling clean as the day they left our store. Diamonds, especially, need frequent cleaning since they have a natural affinity for grease. This is a characteristic of the stone, and not a fault of these exquisite jewels.

Diamonds are quite easy to clean by dipping them briefly in a good jewelry cleaner solvent. If none is available, a bit of ammonia water will do the trick, or even your regular liquid detergent. Gold jewelry needs a cleaner especially for the metal, plus a professional polishing at least once a year. Colored gemstones require more knowledgeable care. Most important is to keep them neatly separated from your harder diamonds and metals, for softer gems are easily scratched.

There are fine pearl cleaners for your cultured pearls, but also, it is a good idea to check the thread on which they are strung for signs of wear and accumulation of makeup. If worn frequently, you may need to have them professionally cleaned and re-strung twice a year. This is excellent protection for your fine pearls, since worn and soiled thread can easily break.

When dining out, or even sitting under the lights of your Christmas tree, it is a lovely thing to see the soft glow of gold, and the pristine brightness of fine gems. Their grooming should be as meticulously looked after as that of your person, for they are a living and beautiful part of you. Remember, we offer professional help to you at any time to keep your fine pieces in good condition. See us soon.

CONVERSATION CORNER

WAS WATCHING high tide on the ocean — not at the seashore but on television.

As always, the sight of waves rolling in brought that nostalgic longing to sit by the sea again.

And then, . . . took to musing how it is that everything good in this world can be bad, even fatal to the human race.

All the forces of nature, majestic as they are, can be deadly.

Water, so refreshing to drink. . . so necessary for cleanliness. . . so beautiful in a sea or lake or river to sail, can be a killer. People sometimes drown in it.

And there are storms at sea.

FIRE which warms a home and cooks the food can char a body.

Gentle winds which cool the face have distant relatives which can blow a house down.

The very air we breathe can be polluted by all the fevered activities of man.

Electricity which lights and powers the world can kill a careless tinkerer. . . or a man strapped in a chair because of his crime.

So it goes. . . on and on.

MAN'S finest discoveries and inventions can be turned against him.

The automobile can be a death machine. A silver-winged plane can fall.

Add to those, weapons patterned solely for destruction. . . arrows, spears, axes, knives. . . guns, rockets, flame throwers, atomic bombs. . . and you can see the frightening picture of evil on earth let loose by the hands of man.

ON THE other side of the picture it is equally true that man is capable of bringing great good from the bad.

One can look with great pride on the good wrought by men working with the bacteria, the virus, the crippling diseases, malnutrition, affliction.

Even those who know the hideous potential of atomic energy defend its good possibilities for peaceful progress. And the atom was split into a design to kill.

ANSWER to the awful responsibility incumbent on man for using the good for good, and turning the bad to good, too, lies in the incentive deep in the human heart.

If the dream be good — life, the preservation of life, the betterment of life, then good will triumph, ultimately.

If the dream be evil. . . then it shall come to pass that man will continue to prove he can conquer everything in his world except his own bitterest enemy — himself.

HEAR TELL that our Nell Pickens Holman has been initiated into the Honor Society at Angelo State College.

Nell, who is to receive her degree in elementary education at ASC in May, is wife of Charles Holman, daughter of Mrs. J. M. Pickens.

She is also mother of Dolores (Mrs. Danny) Fisher, Bill, and Jim Bob Holman. She began her college education after her children began to grow up.

SEEN LATELY here and there places were Margaret Oyler. . . Clem and Frances Myers. . . Sammy Majors. . . Ruth Barnett, wife of Joe.

Pete Warren was over this way from Big Spring. Did you see the big photo of Pete and Virginia, former Citizens, in the Sunday issue of the Big Spring Daily Herald?

Saw Mrs. Hobie Gundrum on the shopping scene. . . Mozelle Callender (Mrs. George) too.

Ruby Cawthron was on a quick trip to the Colorado Drug lunch counter. . . Spied Ron Stephens at the Down Town. . . Glenn and Mae Dunn. . . Mrs. H. L. Lockhart. . . Ben and Margaret Sparks.

HEADED for Cooperas Cove this weekend is the T. J. Goss III family.

Object of the trip is first meeting between T. J. II, his wife Audrey, Don, John and Jim and the new Goss grandson T. J. IV.

Did you know that Mary Jo Hill, wife of J. D. Hill Jr. is to start work as secretary in the County Extension Service office beginning Tuesday? Mary Jo has been employed as a teacher's aid at Hutchinson Elementary School.

She follows Betty (Mrs. J. C.) Garrett as secretary for Janice Miller, HD Agent, and Bobby Lemons, County Agent.

FAMILIAR FACES belonged to Kenneth Rogers, new manager at Lone Wolf. . . John Billings, Anthony's manager. . . and Sefton Pickens manager for the Chamber.

Talking twosome was made up of Bill Randle and Willie Landau. George Womack was an office dropin. . . So was Bedford Dulin. . . and Mrs. Sam L. Majors, Sr.

Bonnie Summers (Mrs. Charles) stopped by for a chat. . . Caught a glimpse of Bim Carlock on Walnut St. . . and Mary Erwin at the Villa. . . Evelyn Rose on 2nd St.

Isabel (Mrs. Harry) Ratliff was on the downtown scene.
