PROPOSALS ON BILLS DRAWN IN DALLAS

FIVE IMPORTANT STEPS IN AGRICULTURAL AID ARE LISTED

(By The Associated Press)

DALLAS, Jan. 28.—Five hundred representatives of six agricultural organizations met here today for the three-day convention of the Texas Farm Bureau federation.

J. E. Montgomery of Tynan, president of the federation, opened the meeting with an outline of a five-plank legislative program for relief of the state's farmers.

The five proposals were:

Enactment of a seed law covering all seed for planting, to protect both producer and purchaser.

A statute to equalize taxes on real estate, revenue to be derived from net income, natural resources, and public utilities.

Completion of a connected highway system, aided by motor fuel and license taxes.

Building of "farm to market" roads by the counties.

Regulation and limitation of bus and truck lines "to protect our roads."

Fritz Engelhard of Eagle Lake, president of the Texas Watermelon Growers' association and members of the state legislature, said a bill would be introduced next week to set up a commission, headed by the commissioner of agriculture, to survey the state each year and prorate the planting of all crops. Penalty for violation of the commission's recommendations would be a tax of $5 to $10 per acre on "excess acreage," he said.

Secretary Mellon Warns Against Cashing Bonus Certificates Of Vets

TREASURER DECLARES ACT WOULD DISTURB FINANCIAL STATUS

(By Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—Secretary Mellon appeared before the senate finance committee today to warn that cash redemption of the soldier's bonus would upset the nation's financial structure and "greatly disturb world equilibrium."

The veteran secretary of the treasury said cashing of the adjusted service certificates, which has been urged as a relief measure, would "seriously retard a business recovery, and so prolong unemployment."

He testified the treasury will close the fiscal year with a deficit, according to present indications of not less than $375,000,000 and that cash payment of the face value of the certificates would cost about $3,400,000,000.

Could Not Sell Bonds

"I can say without qualification," he said, "that the treasury department could not sell $3,400,000,000 of bonds at the present time except on terms which it would be very hard to justify and without complete disorganization of the government and other security markets, with the most serious consequences not only to the public credit but to our entire economic structure."

Continuing, he said, "but serious as would be the direct consequences to the treasury and to the public credit, the indirect consequences to the country would be even more serious." Among the "indirect consequences" he listed:

Immediate depreciation very materially of the price of all United States bonds, the effect of which would be "equivalent to a capital levy on the holders of all United

McKEE HEARING IS SCHEDULED

FEBRUARY 11 IS DATE SET FOR APPEAL OF CONVICTED SLAYER

Hearing on the case of Ira McKee, sentenced to death from Dawson county in June of 1930 for the murder of W. R. Billingsley, Sparenburg merchant, has been set for February 11 before the Court of Criminal Appeals at Austin, T. L. Price, district attorney of Post, announced here last night. Mr. Price was in the city en route to Brownfield to investigate a shooting which occurred in that city Monday.

"I am confident that the higher court will affirm the sentence," Mr. Price said. "I know of no errors in the records upon which a reversal might be obtained."

Slain In Holdup

Billingsley was killed at Sparenburg on May 1, 1930 when he attempted to prevent the holdup of a filling station near his store. McKee was arrested about a month later after officers all over the state had conducted a search for him. He was first lodged in the Lubbock county jail but later moved to Lamesa where a speedy trial was given.

Mr. Price last night said that from 30 to 60 days would probably be required by the higher court to reach a decision.

HOME IN PENNSYLVANIA IS DESTROYED EARLY TODAY

(By The Associated Press)

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., Jan. 28.—Clyde Smith, 53 and six children ranging in ages from 4 to 17 years, were burned to death when fire destroyed their home at Powys, seven miles north of this city, early today.

The mother escaped, badly burned, with a two months infant. A son, 9, also made his way to safety.

The Dead

The dead in addition to the father, are Frederick, 17; Marian, 16; Darfida, 14; Catherine, 11; Max, 6, and Gerald, 4.

The fire was discovered by a railroad engineer when his train passed the house, he blew the engine whistle in an effort to arouse the family, and then continued to Trout Run, a short distance north, and reported it. Just as help reached the burning house, Mrs. Smith, with the infant in her arms, stumbled from the front door. The son, Howard, aged 9, was with her. The mother's night clothing was burned from her body and the baby was also burned. Both are in a serious condition. The son, Howard, was nearly overcome by smoke but escaped injury from the flames.

The father and the other children apparently were trapped in their upstairs bedrooms.

The fire is believed to have been started from an overheated flue in the kitchen.

WAR'S EVASION IS CITED

CONFLICT BETWEEN 2 CONTINENTS SAID TO HAVE BEEN LIKELY

MADRAS, India, Jan. 28—Mrs. Annie Besant, theosophist, today characterized England's offer of self government to India as a move which has averted the possibility of war between Asia and Europe.

"England's generous action in releasing Gandhi and the other nationalist leaders," she said, "has averted the specter of war which has haunted us for many years. In reversing England's former policy MacDonald showed sublime courage. But his action will be ascribed by many to a fear of India rather than to the highest heroism and a desire to do justice. What he has done may change the sullen hostility of India into surprised friendliness."

BARS SAWED, WALL BORED BY COUPLE

JOHN F. HALEY AND CYRUS FROST ARE AT LARGE TODAY

Sawing through a bar in the cell and then digging a hole through the brick wall of the third floor of the county jail, John F. Haley and Cyrus Frost, both being held for action of the grand jury, made their escape from the Lubbock county jail early this morning.

Will Earnest, county jailor and deputy sheriff, who saw the forms of the escaping men, gave pursuit in his night clothes and fired a number of shots at the pair but they managed to elude him and headed towards the Santa Fe railroad yards.

Warning of their escape and description was broadcast immediately by Sheriff Wade Hardy and his deputies.

The escape occurred between 1 and 2 o'clock in the morning. Just how the men secured the saws for the cutting of the bar is not known. No trace of the saws or of the instruments used in breaking through the brick wall was found by officers in their preliminary investigagtion.

Haley was recently returned to Lubbock from his former home, where he had been captured. He was identified as the man who last August held up and robbed the Branch brothers filling station here. Haley was held under bond for the robbery, to await action of the next grand jury.

Recently Haley was indicted by a grand jury in Lamb county at Olton for the alleged holdup of a Littlefield tourist camp. He was returned here for safe keeping.

Frost was being held in a charge of the theft of chickens. He was to face the grand jury also. Officers stated that Frost, who is well known here, has served in the state penitentiary of Texas and also Oklahoma.

MAY MISS HIS BATH, WILL

COWBOY HUMORIST IS HEARD IN CONCERT AT ABILENE TODAY

(By The Associated Press)

ABILENE, Jan. 28—"If this here rush keeps up I'm going to miss my bath this coming Saturday night," said Will Rogers, opening his deferred unemployment benefit matinee here this morning. Starting time had been set for 10:30, but it was nearly 11 when the humorist arrived, after a fast automobile ride from San Angelo. A crowd of 2,000, filling the hall, had been patiently waiting for him, and he got a rousing ovation when he came on the stage, grinning.

Rogers' appearance was preceded by the cowboy band of Simmons university, which gave a 15-minute concert featuring Johnny Regan, trick whip artist, and Will was followed by Chester Byers, champion trick roper, and Jimmy Rogers, singer and guitarist. Rogers is chauffeuring Will in his big high-powered car, and they were to leave at 12:30 for Breckenridge for a 2 p. m. address. An airplane was available here if Will wanted to fly on to Dallas for the night show, but Jimmy Rogers said he would drive the humorist.

Will looked fresh and undismayed at the day's heavy schedule, with three shows and a 300-mile ride on slipery pavement, and kept the crowd roaring at his wisecracks.

Wife Avers Her Hubby's Verses Something Fierce

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 28 (AP)—"I do not drink, I do not curse, nor have I habits that are worse," poetic Frank P. Brice averred, before his wedding bells were heard. Thus Mrs. Brice declared with vim, in seeking a divorce from him.

"But after Frank and I were wed, he changed his tune," the good wife said. "He howled 'I'll guzzle all I can for whiskey is the life of man!' And added to this rhyming feat, were cuss words that I can't repeat.

"His verse, with sweetness once imbued, was just all wet when he got stewed." The court looked down in sympathy, when Mrs. Brice had made her plea. He said "you need not hear it now, for I've annulled your marriage vow."

Motorist Mixed Up On Detours; Rails Are Used

EXCELSIOR SPRINGS, Mo., Jan. 28 (AP)—Otis Reddy explained his use of four miles of Milwaukee railway tracks Monday night as a motor car speedway, but not to the satisfaction of everyone.

"I thought," he told police, "it was just another detour."

Exasperated trainmen of the Southwest Limited, one coach of which damaged Reddy's car after he and a companion moved it from the rails, asserted something should be done.

Officers said Reddy would be arraigned Friday on a charge as yet undetermined.

DENTISTS TO BE ALLOWED ALCOHOL FOR EMERGENCY IN SAME AMOUNT AS GIVEN PHYSICIANS UNDER NEW RULING

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28—Prohibition Director Woodcock said today new regulations probably would be adopted soon permitting dentists to use the same amount of liquor now for emergency allowed physicians.

At the same time, Commissioner Doran of the industrial alcohol bureau, which administers the medicinal whiskey regulations, announced it had adopted a recommendation of the Wickersham law enforcement commision that physicians not be required to enter upon prescriptions for whiskey the ailment for which it is prescribed.

Doran said, however, physicians would be required to enter upon the stubs of their prescription books the ailment and the books acntaining the stubs returned to prohibition authorities.

Before the new rules increasing the allowance of medicinal liquor to dentists can become effective they must be signed by Attorney General Mitchell and Secretary Mellon. Woodcock indicated they had been approved although not finally signed.

Under them the dentists will be allowed to draw six quarts of liquor for medicinal use annually, besides the two gallons of alcohol now allowed for office use each year.

BOSSY'S CUD JUST TOO EXPENSIVE

FARMER BILL LOSES COW AND $350 IN CASH; NO WONDER GLOOM AS THICK AS PEA SOUP!

(By The Associated Press)

BRIDGETON, N. J., Jan. 28.—Gloom as thick as pea-soup hung over the farm of Bill Mattox today for Bossy, a favorite cow, lay dead and Farmer Bill was out $350 in cash, plus Bossy's value on the hoof.

This is the story as gleaned from Bill himself:

He drew $420 from the bank to purchase supplies and, for a day or two carried the money in a canvass bag in hip pocket. Then, after feeding his stock, the bag was missing. His search was without success until he focused his gaze on Bossy, placidly chewing her cud. He saw a part of what had been a $20 bill protruding from Bossy's mouth and sent a hurry call for a veterinarian.

In a little while Bossy's spirit was on its way to the happy hunting grounds for cows and the veterinarian had operated. In one of Bossy's stomachs they found all that remained of Bill's bankroll—a badly mutilated $50 bill, a $20 bill and a tattered canvas bag.

Practical Demonstration Of Skin Care Is Feature Of School Today

DR. MYERS

Doctor Myers' Daily Column On Child Welfare

BY GARRY C. MYERS, PH. D.
Head Division Parental Education Cleveland College, Western Reserve University

MAKE CHILD FACE FEARS OF BABYHOOD

Specific fears are not inherited from individuals nor the race. They are learned.

You and I were born with readiness to respond to shock. Remarkable as your memory may be, you do not recall any experiences of the first day of your life, though you were present. When you were suddenly lowered or quickly raised you threw out your arms in a jerky fashion and you showed a catchiness of breath.

Nurses have observed this from early ages; but when Prof John B. Watson took new-born babies to his laboratory and dropped them on a pillow and announced it to the world many thousand people were much impressed by this "marvelous" discovery of psychology.

Anyway, Mr. Watson set a lot of people thinking. He also exposed a large number of young infants to all sorts of things they were supposed to be afraid of. A few were, many were not. Long before he made his experiments many sensible people had observed that not all infants are afraid of the dark, of snakes and bugs and furry animals, of thunder and lightning and the like. The biographer of Sir Walter Scott, for example, tells of the time when little Walter, before he could walk, was forgotten one day by his careless nurse and left alone out in a thunder storm. When he was found he was lying on his back shouting "bonny, bonny" at the play of lightning.

When my three children were under five or six they and their playmates looked forward to an electrical storm, and from the porch I once heard one of them say, "That was a big one; I hope another one comes like that." The oldest one, 16, says he has no fears whatever of such storms. His sister several years ago saw the flagpole of her school shattered by a bolt of lightning and, for a few months after, showed a little uneasiness during a severe thunder storm. Apparently the incident has been entirely forgotten, for she manifests no discomfort during such a storm. We sometimes wish our youngest lad were a little less "fool-hardy" when Jove wields his thunder bolts.

If your child of three, 13, or 30 suffers from fears while a thunder storm is raging, don't ridicule him. First be sure you are under self-control. If you have anxiety, insulate yourself by wearing rubbers, avoid leaning against the walls or furniture, and engage in some activity which will capture your attention.

Keep the fearful child interested in something also and create an atmosphere of all is well. If at night, get the little child to see the trees and cars outside the window every time there is a flash. Teach him to enjoy the wonders and the beauty of the storm. Watch with the older child a receding storm. Play a game. See who can hear the rumbling longest, or count the greatest number of flashes. It will work; but it may take a lot of self-control and patience on your part.

Dr. Paul W. Horn will be in attendance at a dinner given at the Capitol hotel in Amarillo next Monday evening for the purpose of organizing an ex-students association of former students of Texas Tech college.

PATENTED PROCESS BRINGS OUT FINER FLAVOR IN COFFEE

Controlled Roasting Gives Hills Bros. Coffee Flavor No Other Coffee Has

As everybody knows, the flavor of coffee varies according to the way it is brewed. Especially disappointing is the result when coffee stays on the fire too long or is taken off too soon.

Similar unsatisfactory results can occur in the roasting of coffee. If the blend is roasted too long or not enough there is a noticeable difference in flavor between the two lots. Even with watchful care such variation is exceedingly difficult to prevent when coffee is roasted in large quantities.

Realizing this, Hills Bros. originated and patented a continuous process which roasts coffee a few pounds at a time, instead of in bulk. The quantity of coffee passing into the roaster does not vary. The speed of operation and the temperature remain the same with the result that Hills Bros. Coffee is absolutely uniform and has a flavor no other coffee has.

Hills Bros. Coffee never "goes stale" because it is packed in vacuum. By this process air, which destroys the flavor of coffee, is taken from the can and kept out. Ordinary cans, even if air-tight, do not keep coffee fresh. Ask for Hills Bros. Coffee by name and look for the Arab—the trade-mark—on the can. Sold by grocers everywhere.

Mental And Physical Attitudes With Their Influence On Face Are Topics

A practical demonstration of the care of the skin is to be a feature of the lecture at the Avalanche-Journal Charm school this afternoon at the Uptown Dance Palace. Miss Nancy Earle has chosen as her topic "Face Facts" and her lecture will deal with the mental and physical attitudes necessary in facial beauty.

The demonstration of skin care is to be given by Miss Ura Hatcher, noted dermatologist, who arived this morning. Miss Hatcher has a salon in New York and has cared for the skins of many famous professional people.

Tuesday's school was in the evening and a revue of styles was carried out to demonstrate the lecture given by Miss Earle on "Down Petticoat Lane." A record-breaking crowd filed into the dance hall early in the evening and, when every seat was filled, many stood throughout the time. More than one thousand registered at the door.

Two More Talks

Lectures and demonstrations in the school will continue on Thursday and Friday afternoons. Tomorrow's topic is "Excess Baggage" and the talk will start at 2:30 o'clock. Friday's lecture is one for women only and will end the school.

The influence of mental attitudes on the facial expression will be discussed by Miss Earle this afternoon. One should substitute the principles of work for those of worry and fear; substitute a constructive for a destructive process and apply self-management to the development of a general improvement, she will say.

Charm has a sense of humor—that is, a quality for keeping a sense of proportion in life, which will avoid monotony as an easy sin, Miss Earle says.

In a discussion of the physical side of beauty, she expects to talk on the care of muscles, prevention and elimination of wrinkles and the care of a dry skin.

Five Are Models

Five young women modeled clothing last evening in the showing of styles. They were Misses John Anna Boyd, Johnnye Jo Whitley, Mary Geniece Hardberger, Rosemary Leaverton and Mary Ellen Sargent. The costumes, which went around the clock, beginning with sport frocks for morning wear, and continuing into the evening dresses, were a parade of color. Mrs. Jerome Merrell accompanied at the piano during the evening.

The costumes were used as a demonstration of dressing for personality and emphasized points in the informal lecture given by Miss Earle. Correct costuming for early and late afternoon, morning and evening wear were shown.

Questions which were placed in a box at the registration table were answered by Miss Earle at the close of her lecture. These questions are a feature of the school and are invited daily.

Laws for correct dress and the fitting of a personality into the home were stressed in the talk "The law in dress is appropriateness", Miss Earle pointed out, using her models as demonstrations of costuming acording to types. One should use imagination in dress in order to develop a true personality, she said, and this personality should then be reflected in one's surroundings—one's home.

"A home isn't a place but is a condition," she stated, suggesting that color and arrangement and the expression of the people living within a place are parts of a composite personality which has a tangible evidence there.

Mrs. J. W. Branch Hostess For Party

AIR DOESN'T WEIGH MUCH

WHEN you buy soap, the only way you can tell how much you're getting for your money is by the weight of the package. Size means nothing. A large carton full of soap flakes or bubbles can contain actually less soap than a carton of White King Granulated Soap half its size!

That's because White King Granulated Soap is condensed: it packs closely in the carton, like sugar. And it's absolutely pure and safe . . . for blankets, dishes or lingerie. It's made from fine vegetable and nut oils.

White King Granulated Soap is not only the safest but the most economical soap you can buy. A little of it goes a long way. A teaspoonful to the basin of water, or a cupful to the tub—no more! Your grocer has it.

Styles For Spring Combine Frills Of Elegant Eighties With Daring Of Now

BY ADELAIDE KERR
Associated Press Staff Writer

PARIS, Jan. 28 (AP)—Frills and furbelows of the elegant eighties, combined with the daring sleekness of the Twentieth Century, paraded through the flower decked salons of one of the leading Parisian couturiers last night, an illustration of what smart sophisticates will wear this spring.

From lace edged petticoats showing inches below dark crepe daytime frocks to transparent black lace evening gowns minus an underslip below the knee, the collection contrasted diffidence and sophistication of fifty years ago and today.

Satin evening gowns decked in rows of iridescent fringe, pale pink lace dancing dresses embroidered in white straw and black lace gowns designed over a scant knee length slip were among the outstanding models.

Gowns were cut lower than ever in the back, some of them having no back save a cobweb of brilliant straps across the shoulder blades. Most of them were long enough to brush the floor and were designed with ruffles. They were accompanied by long or three quarter length wraps trimmed in dark fur.

Daytime frocks ranged from trim suits of soft wool and silk in diagonal stripe or a cross barred design to crepe frocks fashioned with a short or three quarter length sleeves and tightly swathed hiplines with the fullness released at the knee in full godets or pleats.

Several demure crepe frocks had ruffled petticoats of cream or pale pink lace showing below the hem. Daytime coats were generally full length, designed on semi-fitted lines and wrapping around the figure. Many were richly furred with lynx or light fox.

Children's Colds Doubly Dangerous With Flu Around

While there is no cause for serious alarm over the development of scattered cases of flu in this locality, health authorities say that extra precautions should be taken to check every cold at the start. Unless treated promptly, colds tend to lower body resistance and may pave the way for an attack of influenza with all its serious complications.

Internal medication should be avoided except on the advice of a physician. Too much "dosing" often disturbs the digestion and lowers the vitality just when the child needs its body-strength most.

Applied externally, Vicks Vapo Rub can be used freely and as often as needed with no fear of upsetting the stomach.

Rubbed on throat and chest, Vicks acts thru the skin like a poultice or plaster, drawing out the tightness and soreness. At the same time, its medicated vapors, released by the warmth of the body, are inhaled direct to the irritated air-passages, loosening the phlegm, and soothing the irritation.

Of course, Vicks two-way action is just as effective for adults' cold-troubles, too.

Don't take chances with colds NOW! Adv.

WOMEN DO NOT TALK MUCH about feminine hygiene .. but they know these facts

Even when they say little, most women know that feminine hygiene is a healthful and necessary part of the toilette. Modern standards of dainty living demand a real, surgical cleanliness.

This much the woman of today does know. But usually she is not so clear about the choice of an antiseptic for the purpose. This question has now been solved by the new preparation called Zonite. This antiseptic is fast replacing caustic poisons such as bichloride of mercury and compounds of carbolic acid. No woman need fear to use Zonite herself or to recommend it to her friends, for it is absolutely non-poisonous. Zonite is as safe as pure water and far more powerful than any dilution of carbolic acid that may be allowed on the body.

All druggists sell Zonite. Get a bottle and read the directions.

Zonite — In bottles: 30c, 60c, $1

NANCY EARLE... famous lecturer on Charm and Health.. recommends Zonite for:

The complexion
Hair and scalp
Teeth and gums
Mouthwash
Finger nails
Breath odors
Cuts and scratches
Bleaching skin
Blisters
Boils and pimples

PAYMENT OF TAXES URGED

SCHOOL BOARD GIVES VIEWS ON SITUATION IN DISTRICT

In a statement issued Tuesday night by the board of the Independent school district of Lubbock an appeal to all taxpayers who have not paid their 1930 school tax to do so, was made on the grounds that the board is in need of money at this time to pay teachers salaries and to operate the school system.

The board explained that it was not empowered to extend time of payment of school taxes, much as it would like to do so at this time. Also, it pointed out that it should not be in the position of asking teachers to wait for their salaries.

Other points stressed in the statement were:

1. More than two-thirds of the money required to operate the Lubbock schools is derived from local taxes.

2. Money to operate the schools from September until the taxes are collected in January is borrowed each year by the board of trustees, and such loans aggregating $80,000 are due February 1.

3. Operation of the schools through the remaining four months of the academic year will require about $100,000, and in addition, about $65,000 has been set aside for interest and sinking fund to handle bonds already issued.

"We know that every taxpayer of this school district has the best interest of the schools at heart, and we know that to continue our schools, the school taxes must be paid," the trustees' statement concluded.

Members of the board of trustees whose names appeared at the bottom of the statement were:

Dr. J. T. Hutchinson, C. E. Maedgen, W. B. Atkins, S. C. Wilson, E. L. Robertson, Neil H. Wright and R. F. Bayless.

"STEEL FISH" ARMED FOR SUB-ICE POLAR TRIP; NEW UNIT IS QUEER-LOOKING AFFAIR; ST ARTS FROM GOTHAM IN APRIL

BY HOWARD W. BLAKESLEE
Associated Press Science Editor

CAMDEN, N. J., (AP)—A ship that is perhaps the strangest-looking most daring ship ever built by man is to be launched here on Washington's birthday.

She is the U. S. navy submarine O-12, rebuilt to sail under the ice of the North pole next summer carrying an 18-man scientific expedition led by Sir Hubert Wilkins.

She looks like a steel fish, humpbacked, round-bellied. Her snub nose is armed with a long horn. She has two queer fins over her back and one under her spike-like tail.

The back fins are a trolley for running under the ice and a jackknife periscope which folds back when she strikes floes. The tail fin is a framework guarding the propeller blades and rudder from ice.

Her back is a pair of steel runners, arching from nose to stern. Under their protection are housed her old conning tower, a new conning tower that can be thrust upward to bore through 13 feet of ice, a diver's chamber and a fixed deck light forward.

There also are two slender, vertical pipes aft, out of which two hollow, boring shafts can be extended upward through 100 feet of ice. There are air intake and exhaust. A trup door in her bottom gives divers a second exit.

Lieut. Commander Sloan Danenhower, who is rebuilding her, will navigate the sub on the polar voyage. But first she will head for the Maine coast for a trial trip under the ice, probably near the mouth of the Kennebec river.

This location is chosen in hopes of finding layers of fresh water, resembling the liquid strata suspected of existing on the surface of the polar sea. Fresh water, a boon to any other crew of salt mariners, is a hazard to the men of a sub.

In completely fresh water, Commander Danenhower says, this submarine would be about 16 tons heavier (that is, less buoyant) than in wholly salt water.

In the little submarine Defender the commander already has learned in the Hudson river what it means to run from salt unexpectedly into fresh water. He went to the bottom when trying to dive.

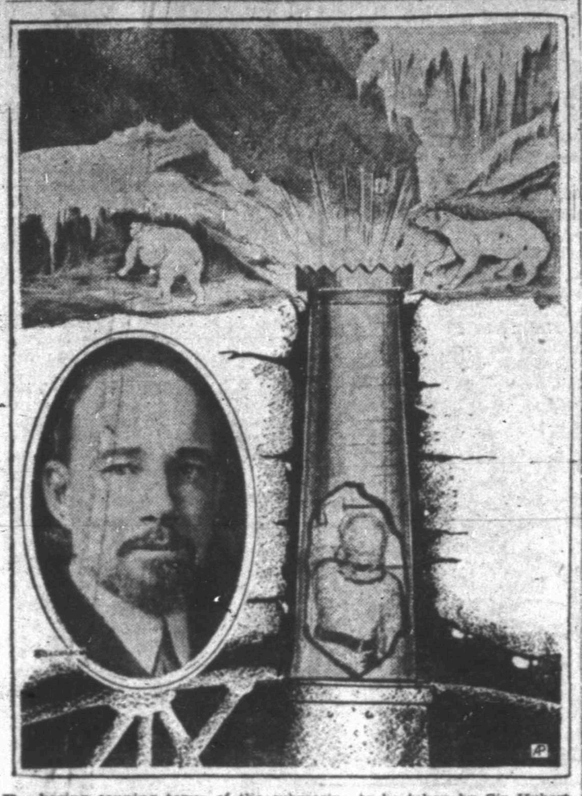

Melting snow is the potential source of polar sea fresh water. Explorers have told Danenhower it exists, and that dead seals have been seen about 20 feet under the surface, lying on top of salt water, but at the bottom of a lighter weight stratum of fresh water.

If the Maine coast is too barren of ice, Nova Scotia or Newfoundland will be tried. No bergs are known in the polar sea, but some may be encountered on this trial trip to test the air-cushioned bumper bowsprit and the reinforced nose.

The trolley will be tested to learn whether it should terminate in a wheel or a runner.

The start from New York is fixed for April, with the route to Bermuda, the Azores, London and then Spitzbergen. There in Advent Bay the main adventure is to begin July 1.

But first, somewhere in her preliminary career, a grandson of Jules Verne will christen the sub Nautilus, after the underwater ship of fiction.

The boring conning tower of the submarine to be taken by Sir Hubert Wilkins (inset) on an Arctic scientific expedition, can drill upward through 13 feet of ice (sketch). The voyage is slated to begin at Spitzbergen—then "under" the North pole to Alaska.

AIR CADETS TO BE FORMED HERE

A Lubbock chapter of the American Air cadets, a group of boys from 8 to 20 years of age interested in making of aircraft models, may be organized by Maynard Jacobson, of Dallas, who is to confer today with chamber of commerce officials, civic club heads and officials of the school system.

The cadet form a national organization, with Col. W. E. Easterwood, well known Texan who is an aviation enthusiast as chairman of the national advisory board. Other well known men belong to the board.

Purpose is to "coordinate the aircraft model clubs of the nation in a practical manner for the benefit of all and the advancement of aviation" it was explained. There are no dues. Kits for making model planes cost 50 cents each.

Each new member is given a card and membership button. He receives other insignia as he advances from class to class. Third class members are known as "aces". Members may compete in local model contests.

The nation has over a million members according to Jacobson. Of these over 100,000 belong in Texas. New chapters in the state include Amarillo, Canyon, Hereford, Pampa, Plainview, Vernon, Wichita Falls and Borger.

Husband Kills Wife, Then Sits Quietly

TERRE HAUTE, In., Jan. 28. (AP)—Lawrence Johnson, 23, struck and killed his 15-year-old wife, Mildred, an expectant mother, with an axe at the home of her mother here late last night, and then sat quietly talking to other members of the family until the slaying was discovered and police arrived to take him in charge.

Police said Johnson told them he killed his wife because he did not want her to have any children.

NOT A COUGH IN A CARLOAD

FORD SMOOTHNESS

The new Ford has more than twenty ball and roller bearings

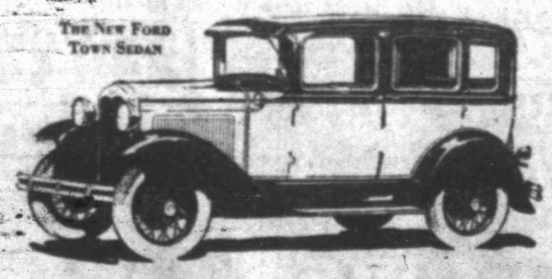

EVIDENCE of the high quality built into the new Ford is the extensive use of ball and roller bearings. There are more than twenty in all — an unusually large number. Each bearing is adequate in size and carefully selected for the work it has to do.

At some points in the Ford chassis you will find ball bearings. At others, roller bearings are used regardless of their higher cost. The deciding factor is the performance of the car.

The extensive use of ball and roller bearings in the new Ford insures smoother operation, saves gasoline, increases speed and power, gives quicker pick-up, decreases noise, and gives greater reliability and longer life to vital moving parts.

Other outstanding features that make the new Ford a value far above the price are the Triplex shatter-proof glass windshield, silent, fully enclosed four-wheel brakes, four Houdaille double-acting hydraulic shock absorbers, aluminum pistons, chrome silicon alloy valves, three-quarter floating rear axle, Rustless Steel, the extensive use of fine steel forgings, and unusual accuracy in manufacturing.

Thought For Today

Now therefore, our God, we thank thee, and praise thy glorious name.—I Chronicles 29:13.

Our whole life should speak forth our thankfulness.—R. Libbes.

Reformation

In criticising the methods followed in American reformatories and houses of correction, William N. Brenner, former chaplain of the Philadelphia county prisons, recently made some remarks that ought to be given publicity from one end of the country to the other.

"The terms 'reformatories' and 'houses of correction' are misnomers," says Brenner. "They accomplish anything but that which their names imply. These institutions are dens of contamination and stepping-stones to the penitentiary and the electric chair. Ex-convicts are returned to prison so rapidly that penal institutions cannot be built fast enough to accommodate them."

Brenner also points out that trainers of wild beasts do much better at "reforming" their charges than the state does in handling criminals, and suggests that this is because the animal trainers use more intelligence in the way they go about their work. If animals, he says, were locked in cells, fed and watered and then left to their own devices—as in the case with convicts—very little would be accomplished.

Those who oppose spending money on prison reform are invited to ponder on those remarks.

Alcohol, Narcotics

From F. X. Eble, commissioner of customs for the Treasury Department, comes the statement that "enforcement of the narcotic laws is far more important than the enforcement of prohibition."

Mr. Eble made this statement before the Senate commerce committee, which was considering a border patrol bill to unify the immigration, customs, prohibition and agricultural patrols which are now operated along the borders by separate divisions of the government. His comparison of the prohibition and narcotic laws was, apparently, incidental; at any rate, he spoke in favor of the proposed measure.

His estimate of the relative values of the two laws may or may not be correct; but why try to compare them at all? Much of the present confusion over prohibition arises from misplaced efforts to make it seem parallel with other regulatory measures. It is in a class by itself, and arises from entirely different conditions than those which lie back of the narcotics laws. The fact should be understood by both wets and drys!

Mr. Fish's Program

Mr. Hamilton Fish seems to be thoroughly alarmed about the extent of the Communist menace in this country. His committee report is the sort of thing that would have created a sensation 10 years ago; and if the country only yawns at it now, that is simply Mr. Fish's hard luck. He was born a little bit too late.

The program which he suggests that this country follow in dealing with the Communists seems to fall into the same category. It is out of date, by rather more than 10 years. It calls for swift and ruthless suppression; and someone ought to point out to Mr. Fish that that has been tried before, with indifferent success.

It was tried, in fact, in Russia, for many years. The Russian program, indeed, was even more rigorous than the one Mr. Fish advances. If suppression could possibly save a nation from radicalism, Russia would have been saved. But somehow it didn't work. It provided just the kind of soil on which communism thrives. That is a point worth keeping in mind.

Many a bootlegger thinks his credit good because of his liquid assets.

It didn't take long before that broken portion of Niagara Falls was mist.

THE PLAINSMAN Says:

That Girl on Broadway says just because a man and woman are married by the justice of the peace is no guarantee they'll have any.

GENTLE rains which visited large portions of West Texas Monday, Monday night and Tuesday will be of great aid to the wheat. The precipitation in this area yesterday was enough in itself to bring out smiles on the faces of merchants and farmers alike, for there is more winter wheat acreage on the South Plains this year than there ever has been before.

If we'll just give this country a chance it'll do all right by us. We must remember that we can't get all the breaks and that we have to accept a knock or two every once in awhile, just to keep the records straight. If we had bumper times always we'd soon grow so accustomed to them that we wouldn't appreciate them at all.

The Plainsman was talking to a Wichita Falls man the other day—a fellow who has recently taken on the West Texas territory for a large advertising concern. Prior to coming to West Texas he had been on the Oklahoma-Arkansas territory and the comparisons he draws would open your eyes in case you're inclined to be pessimistic.

"If I were writing editorials in Lubbock, or anywhere in West Texas", he said, "I'd draw 'em a word picture of what conditions are in other places. I'd get other people who had seen conditions other places and get their testimony. I'd convince people, if it were the last thing I ever did, that they're doggone lucky to be living in a country that has the natural 'git up and git', the resources and the assets this one has. I'd make 'em ashamed that they ever took time off to grumble!"

Having traveled in other parts of the country, The Plainsman agrees with the gentleman from Wichita Falls. We of the South Plains needn't kid ourselves. We all know that the past year did not bring many of us the prosperity and the phenominal return on investment that 1929 brought us. But before we yell 'calf rope' we should take inventory in other areas then be happy that we're as well off as we are, financially.

The telephone company had a serious complaint here the other day. A woman kicked because the phone booths were too tight around her hips.

That Man on Avenue Q says a genius is a person who has the ability and the patience to argue with his wife.

THE Plainsman was at least one South Plains citizen who was glad to see that Clara Bow, in spite of the mean things said about her, had plead for mercy for her former secretary, Daisy De Boe. Somehow or another, this writer has been sympathetic toward the flaming haired film flapper in her recent trouble and is glad to see that, in spite of her alleged faults, she has one of those big hearts you read about.

Maybe it's because The Plainsman enjoys watching the "it" girl do her stuff in the squawkies; maybe it's just a natural feeling of sympathy toward a kid girl who has not yet learned that people enjoy tearing down the idols they themselves have raised. But regardless of the "why" behind it The Plainsman has been with Miss Bow during her recent ordeal and is glad to see that whatever her weaknesses may be, she is not devoid of what someone called "the milk of human kindness".

I have never been able to understand why Miss Bow shouldn't receive love letters and telegrams, just the same as any other attractive girl. I have never been able to see just what bearing Miss Bow's affairs of the heart had upon whether or not Miss De Boe got her money matters all mixed up. In other words, I don't think Clara Bow got a square deal from press and public.

The Plainsman doesn't admire Miss Bow in her alleged 'welching' on gambling debts contracted while in a Nevada gambling hall last summer. Neither does this column condone the actress for her affair with the Dallas doctor who was married—even though he be one of those widely advertised 'misunderstood' husbands. But in the final analysis, Miss Bow is only a kid, and a rather naive, uneducated kid at that, and for these reasons is entitled to an occasional benefit of the doubt.

Somebody, somewhere, somehow happened to say:

"There is so much good in the worst of us,
And so much bad in the best of us,
It rarely behooves any of us
To criticise the rest of us!"

The Plainsman thinks that's a pretty good little jingle for all of us to remember. It fits in the Bow case, anyhow.

Germans in Berlin recently honored the memory of the founder of the postcard. The guess is they wished he were there.

Senator Norris' Proposal To Abolish Electoral College Gains Support From Lea; Would Base It On Popular Vote

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28 — The proposal to abolish the electoral college system of electing presidents, recently advanced by Senator Norris of Nebraska with the promise that he would promote in the next Congress a constitutional amendment for direct presidential elections, also has a vigorous supporter in the House. He is Congressman Clarence F. Lea, a California Democrat, and he has introduced a constitutional amendment which would radically alter the present method.

Lea proposes abolition of the electoral college, but retention by the states of their electoral votes as presently allotted, which would be divided up among the candidates in proportion to the popular votes they received.

"A candidate with a popular majority of two million votes can, through the operation of the electoral college, be denied the presidency in favor of an opponent with two million fewer votes," Lea points out.

Minorities Sometimes Win

"Three times we have elected miority presidents over men with larger votes—in 1824, 1876 and 1888. A system which thus permits the flouting of the will of the people as expressed by a majority is a dangerous system and a defect of government of major importance."

The California congressman says the business of voting for presidential electors rather than actual candidates is needless, inconvenient and cumbersome. He agrees with Norris that the system makes difficult the development of new parties. He says the college is unsuited to a three-party system because it takes a majority of that body to elect a president.

Lea would give the election, under his amendment, to the man who had a plurality of the electoral vote. The winner might be a minority choice, he admits, but he declares that seven of the last 14 presidents have had a minority of the total vote cast.

If the Lea amendment had been in effect, its sponsor says, Andrew Jackson would have been elected president in 1824 instead of John Quincy Adams, Samuel J. Tilden in 1876 over Rutherford B. Hayes and Grover Cleveland in 1888 over Benjamin Harrison. Tilden had a popular vote plurality of about 250,000 and Cleveland of about 100,000.

The electorial college is apportioned to give each state as many electors as it has U. S. Senators and representatives. Lea observes that this gives states with smaller populations a big break because nine states with more than half the population of the country have 18 senators, whereas the other 39 states with less than half the population have 78 senators. But he does not propose to change the method of apportionment.

He stresses, however, the fact that the electoral college vote now, with the entire state electoral vote cast as a unit for the candidate who wins a popular plurality in the state, completely ignores a vast minority vote. In no other instance in the civilized world, he says, are minority votes thus discarded before final computation of election returns.

Would End Deadlocks

For instance, Lea says, New York with the largest population has 45 electoral votes, Nevada, with the smallest, has three. New York has more than 12,000,000 population and Nevada less than 100,000. Suppose one candidate carried New York by 5,000 votes and the other carried Nevada by 5,000 votes. The second man would have exactly the same popular vote in those two states as the first man—the fellow who carried New York—but he would have only thre electoral votes out of it to his opponent's 45.

The amendment would also end possibility of election deadlocks such as occurred in 1800, 1824 and 1876 amid widespread bitterness, Lea adds. There would never be any question as to who had been elected.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Four pamphlets and six articles by Dr. Clendening can now be obtained by sending 10 cents in coin for each pamphlet and 2 cents in coin for each article, with a self-addressed, stamped envelope, to Dr. Logan Clendening, in care of this paper, or Central Press Association, 1436 East Twelfth street, Cleveland, O. The pamphlets are: "Reducing and Gaining," "Hygiene of Women," "Infant Feeding" and "Instructions for the Treatment of Diabetes." The articles are: "Normal Diet," "List of Books for Mothers," "Bed Wetting," "Diet of the Expectant Mother," "Ear Troubles" and "Tuberculosis."

STARVATION WILL RELIEVE APPENDICITIS

The surgeon who pointed out the proper preparatory treatment of appendicitis was Dr. A. J. Ochsner of Chicago. By preparatory treatment I mean preparatory for operation. Dr. Ochsner emphasized the danger of giving cathartics to these patients, and it was his contention that unless they could be operated very early it is safer to starve them, and give no cathartics until the fever and acute symptoms have subsided.

Dr. Clendening

From his work comes one of the most important health rules on earth:

"Never give a person with an acute pain in the abdomen a cathartic."

All acute stomachaches, of course, are not due to appendicitis. But if the stomachache is not appendicitis the cathartic is not needed, and if it is appendicitis it is deadly dangerous. If I had acute appendicitis I would rather go out and fight a mad dog than swallow an ounce of castor oil.

It seems very hard to teach people this. As soon as they get a stomachache they say, "Something I have eaten," and rush pell mell for the medicine closet. If you ever vomit after taking a cathartic when you are ill, for heaven's sake don't repeat the dose. That is nature's way of showing you nothing is wanted in the stomach.

I heard Dr. Ochsner tell once how he found out about the no-cathartic treatment of appendicitis. There was a very rich and otherwise prominent citizen of Chicago in the old days, when aseptic surgery was young, who had frequent attacks of appendicitis. Being of so much importance, he naturally had a great array of consultants.

He was always urged to have his appendix out, but he never would consent, so the consultants, after trying unsuccesfully to make him surgery minded, fell back on the then fashionable medical treatment for the disease.

Dr. Ochsner lost track of him for several years, and then one day he met him walking in the park. In the course of the exchange of greetings the doctor asked him how his appendicitis was.

"You know, I've learned how to cure appendicitis," was the answer.

The doctor averred that he had been trying to find out for a long time and asked what the method was.

"Well, you see, you fellows would give me castor oil and salts and more castor oil all the time. And I'd get sicker and sicker, until finally I got so sick and weak I couldn't hold any of it on my stomach. I began to notice that when that time came around I started to get well. So I decided I would take the last part of the treatment first. Since then, whenever I have an attack I just go to bed, refuse all food, water or salts, and I get well in about four days."

All this sounded sensible, and from it was derived the now famous Ochsner treatment ffor appendicitis.

February 17 a grand ball and coronation will be held in the city auditorium.

Rough Diamond Is Found In California

CHEROKEE, Calif., Jan. 28 (AP)—A rough diamond, estimated by miners to be worth $1,500, was found in the tailings of the old Cherokee hydraulic gold mine here yesterday by a school girl, Cora Jackson.

In the last fifty years, 475 diamonds have been picked out of the hydraulic tailings, but no systematic attempt ever has been made to mine the stones.

Cora's diamond weighs 2 7-8 carats.

In New York

With Swan

Gilbert Swan

NEW YORK, Jan. 28.—Hollywood may be able to dish out large daily portions of gossip about the cinema stars, but Broadway is the street where they count the profits and dole out the expenditures.

Wandering about the Hollywood lots, the impression may exist that coin is tossed about like chicken feed—but back here in little old New York is where they sweat over it. More and more the Wall Street boys keep an eye on the transient currency, and only a few months ago one of the larger money houses sent out for the first time a statistical sleuth to check up on all this talk about lavish waste.

Not many smile when the year 1930 is mentioned in connection with movie profits. However, the screen domos are far from discouraged. It might interest you to take a look at what the movies intend to spend.

All right—from the office of Adolph Zukor comes word that 60 pictures will be made in Hollywood and 17 in the Long Island studios. The sum involved will be $35,000,000.

M-G-M, through Louis B. Mayer, has large plans for making films in foreign tongues and has 52 pictures to be made in English and then in French, German and Spanish. The cost will be somewhere 'around $20,000,000 or more. Universal has $15,000,000 to spend. United Artists will toss out a similar sum. Warner Brothers isn't quite sure what its 72 features will cost, but it will be at least $25,000,000. Tiffany and Columbia have about $10,000,000 each.

R-K-O already has tossed the family shirt into Richard Dix's "Cimarron," and has 34 features in preparation. It will all add up better than $100,000,000—which is quite a lot of money.

AND speaking of movies, now that everyone and his brother have named the 10 best of last year, I find a note from a film trade magazine asking me to send in mine. For no particular reason, therefore, I pass them on—for no other reason, that is, unless to start an argument:

"The Blue Angel," "All Quiet on the Western Front," "The Byrd Polar Expedition," "Laughter," "Tom Sawyer," "Abraham Lincoln," "Street of Chance," "Men Without Women," "The Royal Family," and "Playboy of Paris."

Of the films to trickle in from abroad, and which did not get general distribution through the country, I thought "Storm Over Asia" to be something of a Russian epic. And there was a gay little German music novelty called "Love in Three-Four Time," which drifted into one of the city's little theaters and packed the house for a record run. I doubt if this got very far from New York.

And were this list not limited to 10, I would have to add: "Seven Days Leave," "For the Defense," "The Man From Blankley's," "Journey's End," "Morocco," "The Devil to Pay," "Raffles," "Old English" and "The Dawn Patrol." If "Hell's Angels" does not appear, it is because that very expensive and frequently amazing special carried so clumsy a story against which to project its fine aerial shots.

AS for the performances, I liked particularly John Barrymore as the suave impostor from "Blankley's"; Marlene Dietrich in "Morocco" and "Blue Angel"; Emil Jannings in the latter; Fredric March in "Laughter" and "The Royal Family"; Wally Beery in "The Big House"; Ronald Colman in everything he did; Marie Dressler, almost in everything; George Arliss, ditto, and the youngsters of Tom Sawyer.

To those who have spent honeymoons there it will hardly seem possible that there could ever be a breaking off at Niagara Falls.

THE TINYMITES

STORY by HAL COCHRAN—PICTURES by KING

(READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE)

As Clowny rode, perched high in air, he now and then got quite a scare. One of the husky natives liked to tease the lad with tricks. He'd lift his shoulder pole up high and Clowny'd shout, "Oh my, oh my! I thought that I was going to fall. I hang on pretty slick."

"But, please don't let the long pole drop 'cause I will take an awful flop. And, anyway, I think I've had enough of this for now. Let's call to those out on the stream. I'll make them hear, 'cause I will scream. One of the others can try this. Then they won't start a row."

Then Clowny called out, "Come ashore. A treat for someone is in store." The long canoe slid to the bank and clowny climbed right in. "That filanzana ride was fine. Take your turn now, 'cause I've had mine." "You bet! I'm next," cried Coppy. And he broke into a grin.

Thus, ere the day had turned to night, each happy little Tinymite had had his pole-and-shoulder ride. The whole bunch thought it fun. The natives then were paid real well, as Carpy shouted, 'You've been swell. You've made this trip a big success, when all is said and done."

That night they reached a little town and, at a small hotel, flopped down to get a very restful sleep. At dawn they all were out upon the streets to see the sights. This happy band of Tinymites was always willing to find out what things were all about.

One thing they saw that looked real neat, was groups of baskets on the street, that had been woven very well. And they were strong ones, too. The Travel Man said, "Those are made by all those men. That is their trade. They make their living that way, and fine weaving's all they do."

ILL TO SEEK MUSEUM AID

ISTORICAL INTERESTS PLAN APPROPRIATION FOR BUILDING

(By The Associated Press)

AMARILLO, Jan. 28.—A bill asking $25,000 to aid in the construction of a museum for the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society, on the campus of West Texas State Teachers' College at Canyon, will be introduced before the Texas legislature.

The appropriation will be sought contingent on the raising of a similar amount by people of the Panhandle. The total of $50,000 would be used to construct the first unit of the proposed building. Plans for the completed building call for an expenditure of $75,000.

Satterwhite To Enter It

State Representative Lee Satterwhite, of Odessa, former representative from the Amarillo district, will introduce the proposed bill at the invitation of the society. His plea will be supported by Judge H. E. Hoover, of Canadian, pioneer, lawyer of the Panhandle and chairman of the society's building committee, and T. D. Nobart, of Pampa, cattleman and president of the historical group, both of whom will go to Austin. State Representative C. R. Warwick and Senator Clint Small will support the measure.

Judge Hoover said in making the announcement, they would tell the legislators that the $25,000 to be raised by public subscription can be available by spring, and that the building could be erected during the summer.

To Exhibit Relics

Relics of early days in the Panhandle, collected over a period of many years, are now crowded into the small room in the college building at Canyon. The collection includes many articles that could not be replaced. Old branding irons, spurs, buffalo knives, weapons of Indian warfare, and other relics of the days when the Texas Plains were cattle ranges and a hunting ground for Indians are prominent in the display.

Contributions to the display have come from Old Fort Elliott, Buffalo Wallow, Adobe Walls, Old Tascosa, the Palo Duro Canyon, and famous ranches of the section, including the XIT, JA, IXL, Turkey Track, Flying Pan, Goodnight and Spur. Judge Hoover expressed the belief that the proposed museum would be one of the most frequently visited spots in Texas.

SCHMELING BACK TO BEGIN TRAINING FOR STRIBLING

HIS OWN TRAINER

Maybe he had a little spring training of his own to do. Anyhow, Judge Kenesaw Mountain Landis, pictured here as he arrived at Belair, Fla., the other day, probably was the first representative of major league baseballdom to appear in the south. The national pastime's high commissioner looks strikingly fit in this photo.

MOMENTS TO BE PRECIOUS

BY TED GILL

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla., Jan. 28 (AP)—Tire drills by mechanics promise to play a vital part in the attempt Captain Malcolm Campbell hopes to make here next week on the world's automobile speed record.

Under existing regulations, the veteran British race car driver must make one run with the wind and another against it at an average two-way speed greater than 231 miles an hour to shatter the present mark. Both runs must be completed in a given 30-minute period.

Seconds Count

Every second consumed in changing tires, inspecting the car, replenishing the fuel supply and changing water in the radiator at the conclusion of the first run will be precious.

In 1929, when the late Sir Henry Segrave of England, established the present record his second run was completed 28 minutes after the start of the first.

Rules Covers Wind

The 30-minute rule, specified by the International Race governing body in Paris, was made to prevent a driver from taking advantage of any change in the wind that might increase his average speed. Otherwise, he might make one run with the wind, then wait until it changed in the opposite direction and run with the wind again.

Campbell plans to put his crew of six mechanics through a series of tire drills, holding a stop watch on each, to determine which four can work the fastest in unbolting the tires and installing new ones. Because of the risk that the tires might be cut or worn on the first run, Campbell will install new ones for the second run. He brought 36 tires with him from England, each tested to stand a speed of 300 miles an hour, and plans to put on a new set even after fast preliminary runs.

TEUTON SAYS HE CAN WIN FROM GOB

GERMAN SAYS HE'S FOR DOING RIGHT THING BY COMMISSIONS

BY EDWARD J. NEIL

NEW YORK, Jan. 28. (AP)—His broad face beaming, black eyes shining with pleasure Max Schmeling moved into New York today, genuinely happy to be back in the land that voted him heavyweight champion of the world.

The youthful German with the features of a young Jack Dempsey sailed into Brooklyn late last night on the liner Europa, accompanied by his trainer, Max Machon, a dozen pieces of baggage and a cute little Dachshund named Cecilie, third in the line of Teuton dogdom aristocracy that is rapidly becoming the favorite pet of the New York box fight writers fraternity.

Eager For Work

Max appeared in splendid physical condition, eager to get to work on preparations for his title battle in June with Young Bill Stribling, Georgia's challenger for the heavyweight crown. He was anxious to explain that, regardless of statements in the papers, he has never made derogatory remarks regarding either the New York State athletic commission which recently stripped him of his title, or the German boxing federation with which he has been tilting. He insisted that he wants to fight Jack Sharkey, feels sure that eventually he will face the Boston sailor in a prize-ring, but for the present:

"Cho Yackobs is mine manager. I am der fighter. He manages, I fights. Wass he says, goes."

Sharkey has no one to blame but himself, Max insisted, for the muddled state of affairs that envelopes the heavyweights today, a situation wherein Sharkey, loser on a foul to Schmeling here last June, is recognized in New York state as the outstanding challenger while the National Boxing association, controlling boxing in 27 states, believes that Stribling alone is entitled to a title shot.

"While Stribling knocks out Phil Scott and Otto Von Porat since last I am here," Schmeling argued, "What has Sharkey done? Nossing. Sharkey should have fought as Stribling did. I can not ignore Stribling's record. If I don't fight him the N. B. A. suspends me. If I don't fight Sharkey. New York suspends me.

"Someday I will fight Sharkey again and I will whip him. I know that I would have beat him last June if he did not foul me in the fourth round. I am not entirely recovered from that punch until last October. In the third round I take all he has and they could not even give me smelling salts after the bell. In the fourth I run out, Sharkey sees me coming. He is a changed man. I feel him weaken. He fouls me.

"Ach, what can I do. I know that if I had fouled Sharkey instead of him fouling me I would not be given another chance at him."

Since no site has been chosen yet for the match with Stribling, although the bout probably will take place in Chicago, Schmeling has no immediate plans for a training camp. He starts Feb. 9 on a nation-wide exhibition tour lasting until April 17.

PORTUGUESE GIANT FIGHTS IN CHICAGO

CHICAGO, Jan. 28. (AP)—Jose Santa, Portuguese giant, standing six feet, nine inches and weighing 265 pounds, will make his midwestern debut at the Chicago stadium February 4, meeting Knute Hansen, Kenosha, Wis., heavyweight in a ten-round bout supporting the Canzoneri-Hess match.

Since invading America Santa has been victorious in twelve starts.

BERG RECOVERED ENOUGH TO FIGHT

NEW YORK, Jan. 28. (AP)—Jack (Kid) Berg has recovered his good health and will be able to go through with his ten round bout with Herman Perlick, Kalamazoo, Mich., lightweight, in Madison Square Garden Friday night.

John McGraw Has New Plan For Camp

NEW YORK, Jan. 28. (AP)—The famous master mind of John McGraw has evolved a new system for getting the New York Giants into their training camp on time. A player who is late will be fined one day's pay for each 24 hours of his absence after he is due to report at San Antonio.

A. C. C. MEETS TECH TOMORROW

IN THE REALM OF SPORT

With Collier Parris
Journal Sports Editor

It is pleasing to see the putter-and-spoon men, and women, of Lubbock get ready for a big golf season. It has been a source of wonderment to us why there was no greater manifestation of interest in the links of this fair metropolis of the Plains. We have noticed three modern courses in the outskirts of the city but we have had little news of doings thereon. Save for a one-day tournament or two wherein less than a score of men have puttered about there has been no activity to write of in the last half-dozen months.

The fault has not been with promoters, who have attempted time after time to awaken the golfing public, but with the individuals. Now they seem to show more interest. In conversations with more or less popular club-wielders of the city we have learned that interest is returning, and a little investigation revealed that extensive plans were under way for a great season. We welcome it. Lubbock should be popular as a golfing center. Texas produces some good golfers, and Lubbock contains some potential champions.

Permit us to join the promoters in urging the golfing element of the city to polish the old clubs, buy a bunch of the new balls and enter the fun of the links. First there is a "ladder" tournament. It is not exactly a tournament, for it goes on indefinitely. You play 72 holes (before February 22) and report your score to J. O. Smith at Bowen-Hilton pharmacy. Your name will be placed on a ladder, or a standing. If your score is lower than anyone else's, your name goes to the top of the ladder. If it is higher, to the bottom, or in the proper place. If you stand No. 15 in line, or fifteen steps from the top of the ladder you may challenge No. 14. If you beat him you take his place. In time, if you are good enough, you may ascend to the top.

The ladder will be kept down town where you may see it easily. At any time you have only to look at the ladder to determine your standing and your handicap. A great idea. Now let's se you dubs lose a little lead and get in the running. Half a dozen other tournaments are on the calendar for the spring and summer and there's going to be some fun. Unless you get in the calendar tournament you should not be allowed to take part in the others.

In young Ralph Guldahl of Dallas the state of Texas boasts a golfer who in time may develop into one of the leaders. With one year of professional golf behind him he was headward bound for Texas yesterday with $2,795 as his earnings in competition with the country's leading players. Leo Diegel says that Ralph is headed for places in the golfing world. Guldahl enters the Texas Open at San Antonio today along with Walter Hagen, Gene Sarazen, Al Espinosa, Wiffy Cox, Ed Dudley, Johnny Farrell, and a host of other leaders of the links.

We've about decided that we'd just about as soon be in the "golfing business" as most any other. There's no depression in that line, it appears. So far as is known there is only one man in that branch of the industry. He is George Von Elm, the blond from Salt Lake City. Neither amateur nor professional, Georgie has made in the last six weeks the paltry sum of $8,000 in his business. There's no overhead to that business, besides traveling expenses. He decided to become a business man golfer hardly two months ago and since then has earned an average of $177.78 per day, but he has not worked every day. In three days' time at Agua Caliente last week he won $6,750 and lost the match, too.

Our correspondent from Idalou says he read in the paper where 8,000,000 were engaged in playing basketball, yet he did not see a word about overemphasis of the sport.

Professor Ben Condray, who holds a faculty desk at Texas Tech and a badge acclaiming him a member of the Anvil Chorus, says basketball is the "most ruined" game of athletics now being perpetrated upon the American public, or any other public so far as he knows. We tried to get Dr. Ben's picture but Del Morgan was withholding it for later publication when it is thought that a still greater and even more untruthful outburst shall emit from the professor of economics. The Anvil Chorus, by the way, served as extemporaneous rooting section at the game between Del Morgan's Picadors and the Canyon Yearlings Monday night. Time out was taken a few times to "boo" the referee, Swede McMurray. Prof. H. C. Pender was the other member of the chorus.

HENRY RELEASED

CHICAGO, Jan. 28. (AP)—Frank "Dutch" Henry, who lost 17 and won but two games with the lowly White Sox last year, today was released to the Minneapolis club of the American association.

PRICES CUT BY COUNCIL FOR CONTESTS

ABILENE TEAM TO SEEK TO ERASE DEFEAT ON HOME COURT

Russel T. "Dutchey" Smith, athlectic business manager at Texas Tech, announced this morning that another reduction in prices for admission tickets to Tech basketball games had been made, to go into effect tomorrow night when the Abilene Christian College Wildcats come to Lubbock for the first of a series of two games with the Matadors.

General admission prices were brought from 75 cents to 50 cents about two weeks ago, with an additional 25 cents for chairs on the east side of the gymnasium. Now the price has been cut to 50 cents for any seat in the house. More chairs will be added to the section already standing and patrons may claim them at the regular general admission price. The extra cost has been excluded.

Rather Have House Full

"We would rather see a full house at 50 cents a head than two pair at 75 cents", Smith said this morning.

The Abilene team, one of the usual leaders in the T. I. A. A. basketball race, comes to Lubbock tomorrow with a desire to defeat the Matadors. The Wildcats nurse two injuries at the hands of the local collegiates. Last fall they lost to the Matadors on the local gridiron and two weeks ago they floundered before the onrush of Captain Hodges and his mates on the painted court.

The games Thursday and Friday nights start promptly at 8 o'clock.

KEEPING IT HOT
Stove League Gossip

A lot of the boys this stove league season are chewing the fat about this earned run business. The earned run system of ranking pitchers, you know, was introduced as a cure-all for troubles in selecting the best hurlers. It was supposed to be well night perfect. Now some of the boys have their doubts.

* * *

Pennants are won on victories, they point out, and a good number of pitchers near the top of the earned run list last season were not so high in the games won standing, and vice versa.

In the American league the winner of the most games had also the best earned run record — Lefty Grove of the A's. However, Ad Liska of Washington, ranking second to Grove in the earned run column was tied for nineteenth place in percentages of games won and lost.

The difference is more startling in the National league. Dazzy Vance of Brooklyn led all big league pitchers in effectiveness, allowing only 2.61 earned runs per game, but the Dazzler, just a little better than breaking even, ranked fourteenth in the victory list.

* * *

And then there is Remy Kremer, of Pittsburgh, ranking twentieth in the earned run column, but tied with Pat Malone of the Cubs in most games won, 20.

* * *

Among those who believe the won and lost, earned run or any other method of determining pitching effectiveness are the bunk is Owner Bob Quinn of the Boston Red Sox.

* * *

"The way I judge pitchers," says Quinn (and kindly bend an ear because he knows plenty baseball), "is how they pitch in the pinches, how their courage stacks up in face of bad support, how well they pitch with weak clubs behind them and what judgment they use while on the job. This record stuff is hooey."

SLATON WINS FROM LOCAL QUINTET

WESTERNERS LOSE IN FAST GAME LAST EVENING

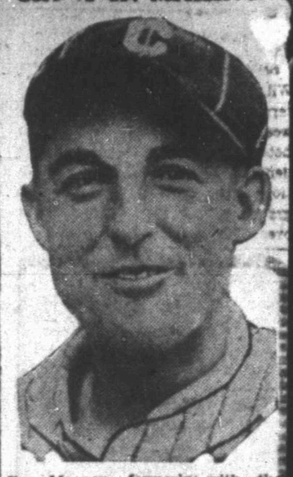

The Slaton High school Tiger cagers made their second invasion of Lubbock within a period of two weeks last night and at the end of an hour's play with the Westerners they were in possession of the heavy end of a 27 to 15 score as a result of their thirst for vengeance after dropping the first game to Lubbock.

There was hardly a doubt of the outcome five minutes after the game had started. When the contest was 8 minutes old or at the end of the first quarter the Tigers had gained a 2-point lead, having scored six points in rapid succession. At the rest period the Tigers had gained an 8-point lead and the margin of leadership increased as the game proceeded.

H. Johnson was the hero of the game with a total number of points equalling Lubbock's final score. He shot seven times for markers from scrimmage and once from the foul line. Poutz, a new comer, was next with three field goals and three free ones. But the work of Dempsey Canon, all-district Class B quarterback who piloted the Tigers to district and bi-district football honors last fall was one of the greatest aids in the Tiger point factory. Canon was in nearly every play, covering the court all at once, and figuring in the fine defensive work of the Tigers.

The Westerners were not in their best shape and had no eyes for the basket. Not too many chances were offered them, but they missed several golden opportunities to score by shooting too hard and too quickly. Gene Brown, center, was the best player for Lubbock. He collected seven points to lead the Westerner scoring, and his work under his own basket was commendable.

Gentlemen:-

Spit is one of the words which we have learned to avoid in polite parlance. But in our distaste for the use of an unpleasant word, there is a likelihood of minimizing the dangers of contamination which this word connotes.

I am, therefore, gratified to see you openly using the word spit in your advertising of cigars.

The ever-present possibility of infection from heedless spitting habits is most vital in any consideration of health maintenance. You may, of course, publish this letter if it will help.

Yours very truly,

Even in most severe cases, itching disappears almost as soon as Zemo touches the tender and inflamed surface. The games, 20 in all this week, will be played at the Texas Tech gymnasium, starting at 5 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. Two games will be played tomorrow.

Four of the schools represented here this week bring both boys' and girls' cage teams. One sends only a boys' team and another a girls'. On Friday and Saturday games will start at 9 a. m. G. G. DAILY MARKETS

Stock Market

WALL STREET REPORT

NEW YORK, Jan. 28. (AP)—Stock prices underwent a sizeable reaction in the earlier trading today. Selling of U. S. Steel, reflecting the fourth quarter earnings statement, broke the quotation more than 2 points and there were similar or slightly larger losses in other representative leaders, including New York Central, American Telephone, American Can, Baltimore & Ohio and Westinghouse.

A few stocks showed independent strength. Abitibi rallied 2 points on reports that it was interested in a large Canadian Newsprint merger. The preferred rose more than 3. Pacific gained 2 1-2 and Norfolk & American Tobacco "B" and Union Western sold about 2 higher. Eastman Kodak and Auburn Auto were the heaviest specialties, losing around 4.

Activity increased considerably. Call money renewed at 1 1-2 per cent.

Cotton Market

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, Jan. 28 (AP)—Cotton opened steady 5 to 7 points higher on a renewal of trade buying and covering with March selling up to 10.47 and July to 10.94.

The advance appeared to be bringing in rather more hedge selling from the south, however, and after the initial demand had been supplied, prices sagged off a few points under realizing. Business was fairly active at the start but tapered off on the setback with the market holding about steady at the end of the first half hour with prices 2 to 3 points net higher.

Trading was comparatively quiet later in the morning, with prices sagging off under some selling of May and July by spot houses presumably against purchases in the south while there was also realizing or local selling promoted by the easier tone of the stock market. March eased off to 10.34 and July to 10.83, making net declines of about 3 to 7 points on the active months and prices were at about these figures at midday.

NEW ORLEANS REPORT

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 28 (AP)—Cotton experienced a steady but quiet opening. First trades showed gains of four points in sympathy with better Liverpool cables than due. The Market continued to improve slowly after the start, owing to trade buying and price-fixing. March trading up to 10.46 and May to 10.70, or five to nine points above yesterday's close.

The market, towards the end of the first hour, eased off one to three points on realizing.

The market continued quiet all morning, with as little disposition to sell as to buy. Owing to some weakness in stocks and lack of buying support, prices eased off gradually to 10.35 to March, 10.59 for May and 11.05 for October, or 11 to 14 points below the early highs and three to six points under yesterday's close.

At noon, the market was quiet and steady, but near the lows.

NEW ORLEANS REPORT

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 28. (AP)—The cotton market opened steady. March 10.46; May 10.69; July 10.93; Oct. 11.15; Dec. 11.32.

Grain Market

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, Jan. 28 (AP)—Influenced by forecasts that quantities of wheat on ocean passage would shortly assume much larger proportions, grains underwent early price setbacks today. Argentina, Australia and Canada were in position to furnish wheat supplies freely to importing countries.

Starting unchanged to 2-8 cents off, wheat afterward continued to sag. Corn opened 1-8 to 1-4 down, and subsequently held near to the initial range.

SHOOTING CASE

the Terry county jail at Brownfield. A charge of assault with intent to murder has been filed against her by Mr. Price and no bond set. The district attorney says he will not agree to release her on bond until the condition of Miss Carr has changed.

No statement has been made by the accused woman who said she wanted to discuss matters with attorneys before making any statement. She was to talk to a lawyer today in Brownfield, it was learned last night.

Walker Released

Walker was released last night by Sheriff Mun Telford and the district attorney on his own bond to appear as a witness before the grand jury next Monday. He had been held as a material witness.

Walker said when released that he wanted to see Miss Carr today. He expressed regret at not being able to go to her in the hospital in Lubbock after the shooting. He was then taken into custody and held in Brownfield as a witness.

The district attorney has expressed the hope that he will be able to get prompt action on the case in court. He anticipated being able to have a speedy trial, probably at this term of court for Terry county.

Couple Separated

The Walkers had been separated for about six months according to Walker. No divorce action had been brought, but Walker declared he believed he had a right to pay attention to Miss Carr. They had gone together for several months.

Mrs. Walker had seen the two before they left Lubbock for Brownfield Monday evening at 6 o'clock, according to Walker. She gave no indication on either of the two occasions that she would do anything according to the husband.

Mrs. Walker fired one shot at Miss Carr as the latter sat in the Walker coupe in front of a Brownfield hotel just after dark Monday night. She had parked her car a short distance from the Walker car.

Baldwin, editor of the Waco Times-Herald, was a last-minute appointee of Governor Moody, who had previously conferred with the incoming governor, Ross Sterling. MELLON WARNING

States government securities."

Destruction of capital values running into hundreds of millions of dollars. Death of the bond market for any other kinds of securities.

Would Destroy Securities

Destruction of the market for foreign securities, which, he said, "not only would interfere with the marketing of our surplus products, —but would also greatly disturb world trade and world equilibrium."

Eventually a deeper depression than the one from which the world is suffering today.

"There is no economic merit in the proposal," secretary Mellon testified. "From the point of view of stimulating business, it is a plan for unmitigated inflation, with the disastrous results of which the world is only too familiar.

Is Serious Impediment

"On the investment side it means the exhaustion of the security markets and the creation of a serious impediment to business recovery both here and abroad.

"To the unemployed it spells further retardation of the day when normal employment will be available.

"From the point of view of the United States treasury it represents complete disorganization of an orderly program for the refunding and retirement of our war debt and a tremendous increase in interest charges.

"To the taxpayer it means the destruction of all hope of the lightening of the load of taxation for years to come and a probable increase in taxes in the very near future.

"How the veterans and their families, who after all are an inseparable part of the American people and whose prosperity and welfare are inextricably bound up with the prosperity and welfare of all, can hope to find relief and improvement in their condition from the universal and destructive consequences which these measures would entail is beyond comprehension."

POPULAR STUDENT TO BE SELECTED

Interest was reaching higher today on the Texas Technological college campus as students anticipated a lively campaign during the next two days when a general election will be held for selection of a "Man of The Year." Balloting in the election will start on Thursday morning and continue through Friday, according to officials in charge.

Mystery today surrounded the possible winner of the coveted title as no nominees have been named and every man student of the college is eligible. Staff of La Ventana, college yearbook, state that due to the fact that almost three-fourths of the school's enrollment is made up of boys, they are this year to be given more recognition than in the past. Winner will be given a full page in the annual publication.

Students will cast their votes for the man they think is the best all-around man on the campus. Voting will not be done on a ballot but on a blank sheet of paper. Name of the man to be chosen will be written on the sheet under which signature of the voter must be attached. No unsigned votes will be counted.

Ballot boxes are to be placed in the east rotunda of the administration building and in the engineering building and every man and woman student of the college is urged to cast a vote.

The public is invited to the program in which virtually all phases of scouting will be touched upon. The pageant was written by George E. Green, who was scout executive at Kansas City, Mo., when the production was a part of the annual meeting there.

According to local scout officials, scoutmasters from other cities in the council have indicated that they will bring troops here for the night pageant program. Parents of scouts are especially asked to be present.

DROUTH RELIEF

given by Mr. Shannon:

"Every applicant for federal loans, when he comes to make application, should have the following information with him:

"1. Accurate legal description of the land, the location and acreage.

"2. List of all debts and mortgages.

"3. An agreement of waiver of mortgages on growing crops with the land owner or with others holding mortgages against it.

"4. A list of the crops grown and acreages for the years 1929 and 1930.

To Charge Small Fee

"A uniform fee of 50 cents will be charged to all persons making application, to defray the cost of notarial work, stenographer hire and incidental expenses of that kind. There will be no filing fee for recording the mortgages and other papers. The government will take care of that."

Members of the county committee besides Mr. Maedgen include J. H. Edwards of Slaton, a business man and Earl Davis of near Lubbock, a farmer.

"Those eligible to receive aid are all persons that have no other way of procuring feed, seed and fuel and oil with which to make their 1931 crops," Mr. Shannon said in response to question as to what persons would be eligible for aid.

Urging Good Program

In connection with the receipt of the samples, D. F. Eaton, county agent, said that the government was urging all persons who receive aid to use the so-called 50-50 cotton and feed program and also the "best quality seed" possible.

It is expected that each applicant will plant 10 acres of certified cotton seed, according to Mr. Eaton. Breeders of certified cotton seed are coming to the South Plains themselves instead of selling through agents, so as to save the commission for the farmer.

"It will be possible to secure a bushel of certified cotton seed of any of the leading varieties for about $1.50 a bushel instead of the regular price of $2 a bushel," Mr. Eaton said. "The breeders are coming here themselves to handle the business. The plan is to have each man plant at least 10 acres of certified seed. That will give him a foundation for future seed cotton."

JONES HEADS DIRECTORS

SPUR MAN REELECTED CHAIRMAN OF BOARD HERE TUESDAY

At a meeting Tuesday in the office of Dr. Paul W. Horn, president of Texas Technological college, Clifford B. Jones, of Spur, was again named chairman of the board of regents of the institution, according to announcement last night.

Other officers named at the meeting included Mrs. F. N. Drane, of Corsicana, and the only woman member of the board, vice-chairman; Roscoe Wilson, Lubbock, treasurer, and W. T. Gaston, Lubbock, secretary and business manager of the school. Others attending the session were Riley Strickland, Amarillo and Thomas Johnson, of McKinney. Dr. Horn and Wyatt C. Hedrick, Fort Worth architect, also were in session with the group.

To Open Bids

Bids are to be opened in the office of W. T. Gaston on February 18 on plans for an addition to the power plant at the college. An appropriation of $20,000 has been made the college for that purpose and plans have been drawn by Mr. Hedrick, designer of a majority of the buildings on the campus.

Funds accumulated by student publications on the campus will be put to use in the near future, according to a plan approved by the directorate. Complete printing equipment will be installed in connection with the school of journalism.

The directors further approved outline of a huge pageant which is to be staged here when the West Texas Chamber of Commerce convenes on May 15 in annual convention.

Total enrollment of 2,228 students thus far this academic year with 1,904 now, attending the college, was reported by President Horn.

Enrollment this year virtually is the same as that of last year and 183 Texas counties are represented, he said. Students at Technological college are from more than two-thirds of the counties of the state, President Horn pointed out in characterizing the school here as state wide rather than sectional in scope.

The financial report showed that the college was not indebted, excepting in the athletic department. The board of directors agreed to underwrite a deficit in that department.

A belief that the athletic department should affiliate with a conference before the end of the year—either an established or new circuit—was reaffirmed by the directors, which agreed that Technological college would pay its proportionate part of the cost of a survey of athletic conditions in the state.

Extension department of the college was reported as self supporting, a similar report was made on the college bookstore and cafeteria.

Charter for the student Memorial Loan fund was approved to meet requirements for the $25,000 student loan fund established by the will of Will C. Hogg, of Houston.

Work Approved

Work done by the pre-medical department of the college was approved.

The directorate also voiced approval of "Alkali Trails" by Dr. William C. Holden, professor of history, and of books by other members of the Technological college faculty.

Next meeting of the college directorate will be held here Commencement day, Monday, June 8, it was decided. Outlining of duties of standing committees was deferred until the next meeting.

GERMAN CLASS TO BE GIVEN AT TECH

Extension courses in German, including beginners' reading and advanced courses, may be given by that department of Texas Technological college it was announced yesterday by J. F. McDonald, director.

So many requests for courses have been made that the director has felt it possible to start the work. If as many as ten will agree to take the work a preliminary rapid readers course in beginners German will be begun, preparatory to preliminary examinations for a higher degree. Class sessions would be twice a week, at a place convenient to all.

An advanced reading course also has been sought. If as many as five will take this course, it will be possible to start one, it was said. Fees for the courses are $10. Persons interested should get in touch with the extension department of Texas Technological college.

In the city proper, the company has 526 stations, so state the officials.

before she steps out....

We hesitate to relate such intimate details of Alice's private life. But Alice has such a radiant personality—such a vivid complexion — such a happy self-assurance!

Now, don't bother reading any further if you are looking for a new and mysterious formula for self-beautification. The truth is, Alice doesn't use anything more than soap, hot water and a bath towel! BUT—she knows how and when to use them — always, before stepping out, she takes time for a dip in the tub.

It's a great mistake to assume that frequent bathing is a lot of applesauce. Even the dullest skin glows when fresh-coursing blood is stirred into activity; when pores are thoroughly cleansed; when left over powders and creams are entirely removed.

Does lack of a convenient hot water supply hamper frequent bathing in your home? If so, by all means do what Alice's parents have done—install a thrifty Self-Action Gas Water Heater and have enough for all your needs—for a few pennies per day per person.

"The Artistic Ability of Your Florist Has a Lot to do With the Success of Your Social Functions," Says Miss Earle.

"You should select a florist who has at least one person employed to oversee and attend to all design work and floral decorations. This one person should possess a natural ability to arrange flowers in an artistic manner

"The person in charge of this work should devote their entire time to the study of flower arrangement. A JACK-AT-ALL-TRADES CAN NO MORE MAKE A SUCCESS OF FLORAL DESIGNING THAN IN ANY OTHER PROFESSION.

"I have seen many a hostess greatly humiliated just because the florist did not know his business and delivered flowers that were not at all suited for the occasion."

We are proud of the fact that we can offer you the kind of service that Miss Earle outlines above.

Mrs. Eubanks does nothing but attend to our design work. She has studied under some of the most expert designers. You are assured of proper appointments in floral designs when your order is placed with us.
