Nature Staged Magnificent Pre-Easter Snow Review

In what is hoped to be the last appearance of the season, King Winter offered a magnificent presentation to the people of Perryton on the morning of March 26, when they awakened to a pre-Easter review of nature's most glittering, dazzling study in white. The above pictures were made possible through the courtesy of Carl Ellis, Perryton banker, one of the finest photographers in the Southwest. Upper right is the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Shotwell; lower left is residence of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Holland; tree scene center right is courthouse lawn with building barely discernible in background; the three other shots were made in the city park.

Grasshoppers May Again Menace Crops

Farmers are becoming concerned by the probability of extensive damage by grasshoppers to wheat this spring according to the office of the county agent. Eggs were laid in the fields in enormous numbers last fall and apparently have survived the winter in good shape.

One farmer reports finding 14 egg pods in one square foot of ground. This means more than 1,000 hoppers per square foot if most of the eggs hatch.

It was reported that a good supply of sawdust is on hand in the county and supplies of poison and bran will be available on short notice. The situation is being closely watched for developments with the view of starting the control campaign as soon as it appears necessary.

Showers Bring .03 Inch Moisture Tues.

Light thunder showers here Tuesday started April off with .03 of an inch of moisture as re-ordered by Jack Allen, keeper of the government rainfall gauge. The rain was spotted and was not general over the county with some portions receiving no moisture at all and others receiving slightly heavier showers.

Thus far in '41 more moisture has been received in this vicinity than during the same period for many preceding years according to the records.

Here's How to Figure Gross Weight Under New Texas Truck Load Law

AUSTIN, April 3—The overall gross weight allowed by the new Texas truck load limit law is 38,000 pounds, which includes the weight of the vehicle and the load, according to Lynn B. Shaw, general manager of the Texas Motor Transportation Association. However, Shaw said that this does not mean that all trucks may be operated with a gross weight of 38,000 pounds.

In order to determine the authorized gross weight on any vehicle or combination of vehicles, the first thing to do is to measure the distance in feet between the front axle and the rear axle, and then add 40 and multiply this sum by 700, Shaw explained.

For instance, using an ordinary four wheel vehicle, if the distance between the front and the rear axle is 12 feet you add 40, which makes 52. Multiplying this by 700 gives you 36,400, the total gross weight for which this particular vehicle may be registered.

If it is a truck-tractor and semi-trailer combination, it will be necessary to measure the distance in feet between the front axle of the truck-tractor and the rear axle of

Paint Festival Friday, Saturday

The double feature prize contest to be held this Friday and Saturday at the Browning Hardware on Main street is a brand new idea. Lowe Brothers Paint Festival scheduled on that date features a combination local and national prize contest, the first of its kind ever offered by a dealer in nationally known paints.

Everyone is cordially invited to the Paint Festival. There will be lots to see and lots to learn. There's a free gift souvenir for everyone, but there's no obligation to buy anything. As a matter of fact, the purpose of Lowe Brothers Mello-Gloss Festival is to show the newest and brightest ideas in modern color styling as interpreted by experts in home decoration.

As for the double feature contest, it's simple and easy to enter. Feature No. 1 of this contest is the local award of a Mello-Gloss Stylizer Kit. This kit contains all the necessary materials to give an average room a complete going over. The color combinations available in the kit have been developed through the cooperation of top-flight decorators.

Feature No. 2 is the extra appeal of national cash prizes totaling $1,135.00 which will be broken down in substantial prizes. To win either the Stylizer Kit or one of the big national cash prizes simply be in the Browning Hardware this coming Friday and Saturday and see the demonstration. Then write a statement of 25 words or less on the free entry blank which will be supplied for the purpose. Judges in the local contest will be local people. The contest is open to anyone except employees of Browning Hardware and their families.

Winners of the national contest will be selected by impartial national judges not influenced in any way by Browning Hardware or Lowe Brothers Paint Co. After the local winner has been selected, his or her entry blank is automatically entered in the national prize contest. Entries, of course, will be judged on the merit of statements submitted. In the event of a tie duplicate awards will be made.

● Missouri Ave. Club

The rose holds a warmer place in the hearts of the people than does any other flower," stated Mrs. George Cooper, program chairman, at the regular meeting of the Missouri Avenue Home Demonstration club, Friday afternoon, March 23, in the home of Mrs. Fred Huston.

Roses have figured in the literature of all ages and all nations. They are grown and loved by the rich and poor alike. Varieties may be found adaptable to most soils and climates. Roses thrive in ordinary garden soil but many are grown in hotheouses since the rose is the most popular winter cut flower. Several varieties of wild roses have been appropriated by florists and improved by breeding and selection to provide roses for special purposes and special places.

Mrs. Huston, recreation chairman, provided some special games, carrying out the April fool motif. Then she measured the grins and presented the winner on each side with a small handy tape measure. It was found that Mrs. Slaughter and Mrs. Ackley had the largest grins present.

Mrs. L. M. Woodward and Miss Eula Copeland were guests. Members present were: Mesdames H. J. Wilson, Albert Ackley, J. S. Slaughter, George Cooper, E. W. Witt, D. D. Shanks, Ecton Lawrence and the hostess, Mrs. Huston.—Mrs. Albert Ackley, reporter.

"A sunny location, free from surface roots of such trees as elm, poplar, willows and maples and well protected from hard winds should be selected for a plot for a rose garden," stated Mrs. A. N. Dowers, at a meeting of the Perryton Home Demonstration club in the home of Mrs. Delta Davis, Wednesday of last week.

Pati planting of roses is considered best for the Panhandle area. Any time between November 15 to January 1 is considered a good time to plant. It is essential that roses in the Panhandle be given winter protection and this can be applied by pushing the soil around the bush in late autumn. Water freely in early winter after plants are put to bed. Avoid watering in late winter and early spring, allow them to dry out and avoid early freezing. These were statements made by other members of the club.

Mrs. Lake Patton had charge of the recreation period and a short quiz on important dates in history was enjoyed. Those present were: Mesdames Lewis Buchner, A. N. Dowers, Ernest Oyer, M. F. Hethcock, B. B. Lee, W. L. Philyaw, Lake Patton, Garland Redfern, Ike Sharp and the hostess. Visitors were Mrs. C. E. Reeder and Mrs. L. O. Kimbrough.—Mrs. Lake Patton, reporter.

H. D. Agent Suggestions

April is the month for carrying out yard beautification plans that have been made from time to time throughout the year according to Miss Elizabeth Huffhines, county home demonstration agent.

A home landscape should be a planned unit providing the most beauty, comfort and convenience of care. A basic plan should include windbreak protection, building repairs, provision for the disposal of trash, conservation of rainfall and well placed drives and walks. When this foundation has been laid shade trees and grass should be planted to frame the home and show it off to the best advantage.

With a foundation of this sort, shrubs and flowers may be added from year to year to complete a charming landscape.

Trees may be grown without irrigation in any county in Texas. That goes for shade trees, windbreaks, and trees grown as ornaments, says Miss Huffhines.

But she admits there's a trick to it with the secret of success being in properly collecting and storing rain water in the soil for the spring and summer terraces and contours should be made so as to collect and hold moisture which falls during the summer and fall months.

Pruning, she says, is chiefly cutting away undesirable wood. Many of the shrubs which bloom early grow from several shoots and sprouts. This makes pruning a comparatively simple task.

A few of the oldest shoots should be cut off each year at the ground. This relieves the plant of the old and rough branches. They soon are replaced by a new growth of sprouts. Also it often is desirable to shorten long and awkward looking branches.

One of the important things about shrubs is that they will grow and soon cover up mistakes. Thus the gardener is given a chance to observe and do better next time.

INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

We Face the Same Battles

The International Uniform Sunday School Lesson for April 6. Text: Acts 1:1-12

FROM the Gospels we turn now to six months' study in the Acts and the Epistles, continuing the story of the founding of the Christian church.

It is Luke, the beloved physician, whose story of the earthly life of Jesus is the fullest and most picturesque, to whom we are indebted for the further story of the events following the Resurrection. The source of this story is very properly called "the Book of the Acts," for it is essentially a story of action.

In the Epistles we find a discussion of matters of doctrine and the problems that arose in the early church, but here we have the record of events, the story of how the Christian church took root in various communities.

JESUS had charged His disciples to remain at Jerusalem following His Resurrection and Ascension, until they should receive the baptism of the Holy Spirit.

His promise was that they should receive power, and that they would become witnesses for Him both in Jerusalem and to the uttermost parts of the earth.

One can hardly conceive of a more stupendous venture than for a little band of disciples, whose Master had been crucified and who were still subject to great persecution, to set before themselves the goal of conquering the whole world with their faith and with the ideals of the Christian religion.

Yet, history has vindicated the faith of these disciples, and it has fulfilled the promise that Jesus gave of power to all who would go forth to witness and serve in His name.

WE live in a world of strange contrasts. Today a great part of humanity is involved in war. And yet, we see Christianity as a world-wide religion, living today as it lived in past ages alongside earthly powers of tyranny and wickedness.

It means that battles which we had supposed to be won have to be fought all over again, but as valiant Christian soldiers we must pledge ourselves to live and, if need be, die for the faith, just as these disciples did of old.

If we have their faith, their vision, and their courage, there can be no question regarding the outcome. And we can receive power through the Holy Spirit just as did the disciples, if we are willing to undergo the discipline of preparation, consecration and prayer.

April Is Safest Time to Prune Roses In Order to Maintain a Shapely Bush

GARDENERS, it's time to roll up your sleeves, sharpen your pruning shears, and start on your annual task of pruning your rose bushes. For the average gardener, intelligent pruning early each Spring will bring best results.

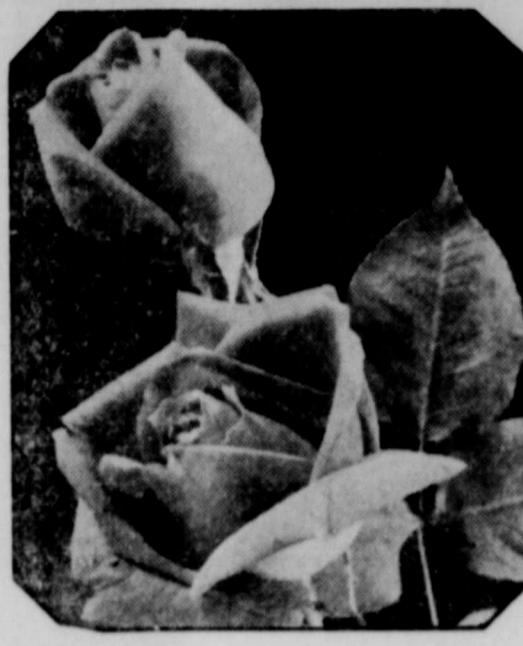

Early April is generally safe for pruning rose bushes in northern states, since danger of severe cold should be past by now. A sharp pair of pruning shears, that will cut clean and will not tear or crush the stems, can be used to real advantage in your garden.

The amount and type of pruning varies according to the class of rose and the results desired by the individual gardener. Pruning stimulates growth, so it isn't necessary to cut a vigorous variety as hard as a moderate grower.

In pruning, remove all the dead and diseased wood at the base. Old wood is subject to disease and is unproductive. Pruning keeps the rose bush young, productive, and shapely.

Cut out and burn any canes which are thickly covered with scale insects. Cut out all suckers which arise from the wild root below the point where the plant was budded. Suckers can be distinguished by the difference in the color and thorniness of the canes.

Pruning of climbing roses should be delayed until they have finished flowering, except for removal of dead or diseased wood.

Woman is Paid Club Salary Sat.

Mrs. Maurice Waggoner was named president of the Community Service Club here in the weekly election Saturday and was paid a salary of $75.00. Mrs. Waggoner's name appeared at the first ballot and records disclosed that dues of ten cents for the week had been paid.

To receive a salary if elected to office the person must have paid dues during the current week.

Officials announced that the salaries for next Saturday are $25 at the first ballot and if a second is needed $50.00 may be paid to some eligible person. If no one qualifies then salaries will be carried over until next week.

The Community Service Club is sponsored by the Pierce Johnson Post of the American Legion and all profits are used for charity purposes. Elections are held in the Legion hall.

Mrs. Dean McCutcheon returned home Wednesday from the Shattuck hospital where she recently underwent an operation.

Record Beards

Frank B. McMurry, biologist at the Wichita Mountains National Wildlife Refuge in Oklahoma, is not sure what the world's record for the length of a wild turkey's beard is, but he has seen a beard that ties the longest record he knows.

A 15-pound crippled turkey taken on the Refuge carried a beard 12 1/2 inches long. It is 2 inches longer than any measured before on that area and the same length as one reported from North Carolina not long ago. Some turkey, we'd say!

Tackle Saver

Hooks and artificial baits by the thousands are lost by becoming snagged on submerged logs and other debris. As a tackle saver and a cuss preventer, we've found the following effective: Fasten a strong rubber band between bait and line. Ordinary heavy bands will do for small fish, but an inch wide band cut from an inner tube should be used on rigs for large fish.

Now when your bait snags, pull the line taut, then let go. The fully stretched rubber band, upon being suddenly released, will snap back and automatically loosen the snagged bait.

Nowadays a necessity is almost any luxury you see in the home of a neighbor.

Christian Science

"Unreality" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, April 6.
The Golden Text is: "Charge them that are rich in this world, that they be not high-minded, nor trust in uncertain riches, but in the living God, who giveth us richly all things to enjoy" (1 Timothy 6:17).
Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Blessed is the man that trusteth in the Lord, and whose hope the Lord is" (Jeremiah 17:7).
The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Even eternity can never reveal the whole of God, since there is no limit to infinitude or to its reflections" (page 517).

Respect British in Feeding French

The British blockade must be broken to feed the hungry thousands of unoccupied France, Vice-Premier Darlan has decreed. Unless the French get quick help from the United States, Admiral Darlan, with the voice of Hitler and Pierre Laval echoing somewhere in the background, says France will use its fleet to convoy supply ships from all parts of the world and will fight any effort of the British to maintain its blockade. It is clear the French fleet will be wielded as a club over the British government's head, and for Darlan, Laval and others who have lost no love on the British, falling in line with German policy is no hard task.

President Roosevelt has said the French plight has been exaggerated, but now a survey reveals that real food shortages have come to exist. America's officials have been sympathetic if not generously active in this problem of feeding Europe's hungry millions. The Red Cross has secured passage through the blockade for several shipments of medicines and food and now the use of frozen French funds in this country to buy wheat from the United States has been suggested as a workable solution, if the British would agree.

Because they have been hesitant in releasing the blockade for apparently so worthy a cause as feeding hungry people does not mean the British are stupid in their demands. The British must have guarantees. The French fleet must not be used. Distribution of the food must be supervised by neutral authorities. Heretofore, a high percentage of cargoes disembarked at Marseille have been conscripted for German and Italian needs, figures show. It is likely improper administration of the Hoover plan to which the British object.

If the Hoover plan is finally satisfactory to the British, it should in turn, be satisfactory to the strong United States faction which regards with distrust any plan that might aid Hitler.

But if, after a trial, unseem or expected flaws are found in any plan to aid the French, all attempts to feed the French should be cut off. The British have a total war on their hands. The task of the United States for the present, is solely to aid the British and help win their war. If all plans to feed suffering nations are found unworkable at the moment, United States should be expected to fall in line with British policy. With the enactment of the Lend-Lease Bill, the United States wholeheartedly declared itself for that policy.

Lutheran Church Improvements

A number of renovations have been put into effect at the Lutheran church in the last few months, according to Rev. H. M. Duesner, pastor. New fixtures and equipment have been added to the interior appearance. Improvements are being made in the yard.

A full set of pews, donated by Frank Wolff, has been installed. Other items donated by members are: stained glass paper for the windows by L. O. Seeding, an aisle rug by the women in the congregation, a velvet dossal curtain as a background for the altar by the Young People's Society, four evergreens by Dan Nitschke and Dean Kinsett, a table by O. W. Heidrich. The latest addition is a beautiful silk American flag, together with stand, gold silk cord and gold eagle ornament, donated by Carl Philipp. The screens of the church have also been painted green.

Last fall, the congregation began putting in a lawn in front of the building, and placed 18 spruce shrubs about the church. A project to surround a portion of the church property with a decorative fence is now being sponsored by K. A. Schade.

Mr. and Mrs. O. I. Smith, Canyon, are spending a few weeks in the home of their daughter, Mrs. Glen Ragan.

Dispelling the Fog

By CHARLES MICHELSON
Director of Publicity, Democratic National Committee

From now on, we may look for some surprising stories in the newspapers. Such a time as this breeds all manner of rumors and, in the nature of things, these usually cannot be confirmed or contradicted, as the case may be, from any official source. For example, there recently has been printed a more or less detailed list of munitions and other things supposed to be on their way to England or some other country that is resisting the aggressions of the totalitarian powers. Obviously, our government is not going to announce either the items of such shipments or the times of their dispatch, for of course it hasn't any intention of making it easy for the Nazis to intercept the aid to Britain or Greece, or wherever the things are going.

As this letter is being written, the papers are full of the story that a big German submarine is on its way to the western side of the Atlantic, presumably with the idea of catching vessels laden with the materials provided for in the lend and lease bill. It may be true, or it may be a false alarm. The newspapers credit as the source of the story the British Embassy, which brought the comment from Senator Wheeler that it was a deliberate attempt to "frighten the State Department and the American people." Naturally, if Lord Halifax received such information he would impart it to our government, with perhaps an explanation of how the story had reached him. Without any positive knowledge, the logical surmise would be that it came from one of the British Intelligence bureaus. Even if that were the source, it would not be any guarantee of its accuracy, for the informant may have gotten a wrong steer from some undercover representative or it may have been planted by some of the Hitler folks with the idea that the report might delay or head off some of the aid expeditions. Another possibility is that the Nazis may have considered such an enterprise and later called it off. Whatever the facts may be, the British might be expected to pass the information along to us, for in times like these even sensational rumors cannot be ignored.

Scaphheads of Another Day — It will be remembered that in the first World War there were almost daily scare tales of American transports being torpedoed, but when the fog was lifted it developed that no American transport had encountered a hostile U-boat. The newspaper reporters covering the emergency on the Washington front must send their newspapers what they gather if the alleged news comes to them from quarters that they deem reliable. Nobody, for example, thinks that the tale printed last week concerning the supplying of 90 or 100 vessels—torpedo boats and freighters—was invented by the writer. In this particular instance it was possible to contradict the story because at the time it was written no selection of the sort of ships to be passed to the British had been made. Doubtless the needs of the British—particularly for cargo boats—was being canvassed and ways and means were being studied. Somebody evidently got wind that such a survey was under way and translated the prospect into an accomplished fact. The newspaper men are bedeviled by two circumstances: first, the governmental necessity of keeping secret information that might be detrimental to the anti-Axis cause and secondly, by the reporter's duty to his publication to furnish such information as he gathers to his newspaper. On the other hand, the government, shunning any approach to censorship and vitally concerned with preserving the freedom of the press, can neither head off such publications nor correct them if they are erroneous.

The Unsolved Problem — On the whole, the newspaper men generally have handled their "problem" very well. Comparatively few important blunders have been made and a vast number of violent tales have never been sent, because they could not be verified, and furthermore, because the Washington correspondents themselves realize that however good the story, if it interferes with our governmental policies, it should not be printed. However, from now on, there is bound to be a multitude of scare-heads and big type stories that may or may not have a legitimate basis. It is not a comfortable situation but there isn't anything that can be done about it. When a newspaper editor gets a hot story at midnight, with the likelihood that the rival newspaper across the street has the same story, he is more likely to accept the judgement of the Washington correspondent as to the truth of the tale than to accept the humiliation—a very real humiliation in the newspaper world—of being scooped by the rival sheet. Priests no great harm results, for the powers across the sea that scan the American newspapers—even these—have been educated to the knowledge that they cannot always bank on the accuracy of what they read.

Snappy Duds

Tra-la-la. Spring has sprung, the grass is ris. Wonder where them Snappy Duds is? The muddy weather last week was really a good indication of spring, don'tcha think? A little birdie told me there sure were a lot of novelty lapel pins around so I looked and I found several.

Ruth Day has a cute one. It is a little fish in a fishbowl—which she wears pinned on her coat. Willie Rae and Elaine McCarter must have been real nice to someone. Anyhow, they really do wear some cute spoons on their coats.

Now I know Spring is here. Mrs. S. N. Henry has a cluster of red cherries Tra-la-la. Nadine Esterline wears two spoons crossed on her coat.

Mary Frances Calhoun has some awfully pretty sky blue berets, which she wears in the midst of her curls.

For a pretty hair bow, look up Winona Allen. It is the pastel shades of peach and orchid.

Oh yes, have you seen all these Who's Who pins? They are very pretty and really something to be proud of. Wilma Holland, Bob Holt, Sammie Black, George Hohmann, Ruth Ann Urban and Wilbert Hart are the proud owners of these pins.

And who was that I saw running around with a safety pin on their coat lapel? I bet they thought they really had something there. Well—maybe they did.

Ruth Ann Urban has an awfully cute shell bracelet. Wonder where she got it?

Cleo Faye Turner has an awfully pretty Bernberg sheer blouse, with long full sleeves. It is white with a blue pin stripe and it has crystal buttons down the front.

Well, I guess that's all the little birdie told me, so—so long, till next week.

Perseverance

"If at first you don't succeed, try try again." Haven't we all heard that ever since we were "knee high to a grasshopper"? Our mothers said it to us when we were little and were trying to build block houses which always tumbled after the second story; teachers told it to us in our first years of school and playmates were always quoting it.

Honestly now, have you ever stopped to think about it? I mean seriously. I always took it as a tried and proven rule and let it go at that; but it really has more meaning. Men, great men, through the ages have been practicing it faithfully.

Charles Goodyear tried, worked, and failed in his attempt to make rubber into a useful substance for many years; but did he give up? No indeed, something kept urging him on, until finally in 1839, he discovered the process of vulcanizing, which revolutionized the world. Now he could have chuckled the whole thing in the wastebasket, so to speak, shrugged his shoulders, and remarked, "It just can't be done."

By sticking to it, trying new ways, experimenting with materials, he finally found the way.

Lincoln, our 16th president, failed many times before he attained his height of fame. He ran for office after office and was defeated time and time again; but he kept trying. What would have been the result, if after failing to get about five offices, he had given up and decided to become a farmer?

I think that some of the most beautiful examples of perseverance we have today are some of the paralytic children who have learned to walk. We read of it every day; some boy or girl thinks enough of life and what it has to offer to make some effort to obtain the most of this old world.

See what perseverance means? Let us apply it to our every task; school work, home work, everything. Don't let it be said that this generation failed to heed that old adage.

DEPENDABILITY

ON the 18th of April, 1775, Revere and Dawes rode forth to warn the countryside of the approach of the British. The Colonial "Minute Men" could be depended on to defend their homes!

The men of our staff can be depended upon always to render sincere personal interest, and helpful service. Correct appointments imbue a ceremony with quiet simplicity.

Speech Class Three Plays Monday Night

The Speech Class of the Perryton High school will present three one-act plays Monday, April 7, 8 p. m. in the auditorium, with Miss Verna Harris directing. Plays for Monday night are: "The Whole Truth," a comedy; "Family Jars," comedy; and "Trifles," a mystery.

The winning play will be entered as a contest play from Perryton in Pampa at the District meet. Miss Harris directed two plays last month, and everybody knows what to expect from her plays.

An admission of 15 and 25 cents will be charged. The proceeds will be used to defray the expenses of the cast to Pampa.

Music Department Concert, April 1

The musical organizations, consisting of the junior high band, Ranger Band, and the Cappella Choir, gave a concert Tuesday night, April 1, featuring the content music they will play in the Annual Regional One Competition Festival, to be held in Amarillo this weekend, April 3, 4 and 5.

Money from admissions went toward paying expenses to Amarillo, also to help pay for awards to be given at the end of the year.

Miss Verna Harris announced Wednesday, that this year's senior play has been chosen. The play, "Mountain Mumps," a three act farce, will be presented May 15. Tryouts for the twelve parts have been set for early this week.

This play seems to have been a success wherever it has been presented. Typical of the many favorable comments made about it at places where it has been presented are the following: "The audience enjoyed 'Mountain Mumps' very much and many other favorable comments have been made. The best ever." "Never a dull moment are typical comments—High School Yale, Mich.

The Sports Mixup
Well, folks, I guess it's about time we tell you more of how the volley ball team is progressing. If it weren't for Polly Freeman I don't know what we'd do. She tells me she is "Master" of volley ball playing.

Mr. Kelley doesn't approve of Studie's knocking the ball out of bounds during a game. I think "Gracie" and Lois have her bribed so they can touch the ball once during practice.
I hear a rumor that maybe we will get to have tennis this year. After all, anybody who couldn't play on those courts is a "pansy." If you remember, we won second in doubles at the tennis tournament at Pampa last year.

Young Douglass Gives Book Review

"The Prisoner of Zenda" is an action packed story of politics in one of the European countries. The story centers around Rudolf Rassendyll, who is making a trip to the King's coronation in Purtiliana. When the King is doped and unable to make the trip to his coronation, Rudolf is persuaded to take his place. While he and the King's faithful servants are gone, the real King is kidnapped by his brother, Black Michael, who vies for his crown and bride-to-be, Rudolf continues to play king until the plot is uncovered. In this way neither the fake King nor Black Michael can expose the other unless he exposes himself first.

Rudolf then falls in love with Princess Plavia who is supposed to become the King's bride, and when he realizes he cannot marry her, he goes in search of the king. He finds him a prisoner at Black Michael's castle of "Zenda," and risks his life to rescue the King. He is wounded in the battle and chases Michael's lieutenant into the woods nearby. There he is found by Plavia and he tells her of the plot and how he is impersonating the King. She then says she loves him, not the king, but since her duty is to her country she must marry the king and forget him. He then returns to England to live a life of ease and peace.

Of the many good books "Gracie" reads, "So Big" is her favorite. "Gracie" is the literary editor of the school paper, and an outstanding member of the girls' volley ball team. She stated that she had learned more from English than any other subject, and her favorite subject is speech.

Teacher of the Week

His height is 5 feet, 9 inches, brown hair, green eyes, and isn't married, can you guess who it is? Why of course it is Chester McLeroy.

Mr. McLeroy was born at Timpon, Texas. He spent his last year of high school at Center, Texas, where he graduated from high school. His college education was received at Stephen F. Austin at Nacogdoches, Texas, and at East Texas at Commerce, Texas. In college his major was agriculture and his minor was industrial education.

He is one man out of a hundred that likes any kind of food. I don't guess he would be so hard to cook for. As for his favorite car, he drives a Ford, but he said he couldn't say which was his favorite car, so we won't tell on him. His favorite sport is baseball and favorite color is red.

Mr. McLeroy has been with our school one year, in which we have learned to know him very much. He teaches manual training and general science.

We, the Seniors

Ona Grace Francis was born on April 1, 1924, in Perryton, Texas. "Gracie" as we know her is very popular among the students, due to her friendly personality and happy disposition.

Of the many good books "Gracie" reads, "So Big" is her favorite. "Gracie" is the literary editor of the school paper, and an outstanding member of the girls' volley ball team. She stated that she had learned more from English than any other subject, and her favorite subject is speech.

Shade of the Hat

Spring, spring, beautiful spring! If I were Swedish I'd get out my bagpipes and play you a spring song. Isn't spring wonderful? There is something about it that just makes you want to sing at the top of your voice. As you probably have already discovered, I like spring.

Our band is really "going places." They won a trophy at Shattuck for taking second place in the entire contest.

Speaking of winning things; our Hi Y boys brought home a banner from Plainview which they won for their attendance record. This attendance was judged on the number of miles the boys had traveled to get to the conference.

A surprise party was given last Wednesday night, March 26, to honor Francis Mae Dodson and Kathleen Allen on their birthdays. Those present were Kathryn McLarty, Lois Todd, Wilma Holland, Ona Grace Francis, Mary Jayne Pritz, Jackie Adams and the honorees.

Bob Schuster, H. D. Hearn and Jimmie Lea Landrum were home last week-end. Bob H. D. and Jimmie Lea are attending Texas Tech at Lubbock.

The manual training department seems to be going in for accidents now. Melvin Price cut his fingers in a saw last week.

The Hi Y boys told me that Plainview was the best host that they have ever had. Those boys must have really enjoyed their conference if I'm to judge by all the good things I have heard them say.

A program was given in the High School auditorium last Tuesday night by the orchestra, chorus, the Junior and Senior High bands. They gave the selections that will be used as contest numbers at the Texas School Music Competition-Festival which is to be held at Amarillo on April 2, 4 and 5.

Finish Work On Annual

At last the successful annual of '41 is off to the publishers. The annual has been a success in all ways. On the publication side it is successful, due to the splendid work of business manager George Hohmann and assistant manager Irvin Williams.

There are many "improvements" made on the annual this year. Eight full pages have been added, a new type of photography is used throughout. The annual will cost one dollar on delivery about May 15.

From the financial standpoint the annual fund is better than ever before. With all expenses paid there will be a balance of $50. Thirty-five dollars of this will go for a type-writer for the El Sombbrero and the Ranger staff in the future.

Large Crowd Sees The Junior Play

The Junior play, "The Rose of El Monte," was presented March 27, with Mrs. Willard McSpadden and S. N. Henry, Junior class sponsors, directing. A large crowd enjoyed the entertainment.

The sponsors stated that total receipts were $114.75. After all expenses were paid, $108.60 was clear. This money will be used to finance the Junior-Senior banquet.

Reduce Texas WPA Workers

SAN ANTONIO, March 29—Employment on WPA projects in Texas will be reduced by 8,200 workers, effective April 1, bringing down the total number of jobs provided by the Federal agency in this state to 83,500. It was announced today by State Work Projects Administrator H. P. Drought.

The Texas employment reduction is in line with national WPA employment cuts, scheduled several months ago to go into effect during the spring and summer months. Other quota cuts are expected in May and June, Drought said.

National defense projects, currently employing 16,071 Texas WPA workers, will be undisturbed by the employment reduction, Drought stated, these projects having priority over other types of WPA work. Because of the vital necessity of keeping all national defense projects fully manned, it will be necessary in some areas to suspend temporarily or curtail activities on other important local projects, he explained. "In no instance, however, will work be stopped on any project until a useful unit of it has been completed."

"In various parts of the state, national defense projects which are now employing many workers will be completed within the next few months," he said, "and those workers will be seeking other jobs. Similarly, when seasonal agricultural employment terminates in various parts of the state, farm workers will be looking for other jobs."

District employment quotas for April were set tentatively as follows: Marshall district, 11,824; Dallas district, 14,200; Houston district, 9,135; Fort Worth district, 10,338; Waco district, 8,400; Austin district, 5,800; San Antonio district, 9,668; Laredo district, 3,000; Amarillo district, 2,580; Lubbock district, 2,735; San Angelo district, 4,100; El Paso district, 1,400. Jobs for 220 additional workers are provided by the operation of the central warehouse and headquarters projects.

The Library Corner

Are you interested in the romantic history of our Southwest? A new book at the library, "The Longhorn" by J. Frank Longhorn, tells about the Texas Longhorn, the breed that made more history than any other breed of cattle the world has ever known. This is their story and that of the men the Longhorns brought into being—the Texas cowboys. In this rousing chronicle the great days of the Longhorn live again for those who remember the freedom of a "big country" and are part of our local heritage for those of us who do not. The book has 43 drawings by Tom Lea, the distinguished Texas artist, and 16 pages of photographs. It is one of the most beautiful books of the year.

Would you like the help of authorities on child psychology and training? We have books on this subject dealing with younger children and with adolescents.

Are you bothered by problems of correct social usage? The library has two books on modern etiquette. Would you like to know something different to do at your next party? You can find two big books with hundreds of games and stunts in the library.

Have you often wished you knew more about the good music you hear on the radio? In the library you can find a Musical Encyclopedia for reference and a book telling the stories of great operas and their composers.

Would you enjoy exploring that important branch of our literature, the drama? The Fine Arts Department of the Sorsolis Club has just given four books of plays to the library and a complete history of the drama of the western world, since its beginnings three thousand years ago in Greece, to the most important recent productions on Broadway.

Or do you like most to relax and forget a worried present with a book of travel, romance, adventure, or mystery? The library will try to meet all your moods. If it does not have a book you think it should have, please mention it to Mrs. Winter and she will put the title on her request list, for consideration by the book purchasing committee.—Reporter.

HOW DO WE KNOW?

Although Attorney General Gerald Mann has ruled that the so-called Fair Trade Act will repeal a most important section of the sacred Texas anti-trust laws, sponsors of the misnamed retail price-fixing act have not yet withdrawn their bill and reports are they will push it if it strips the consumers of Texas of every bit of protection they now have against price-raising exploitation. If one section of a dam is blasted, the flood rushes through. If one section of Texas' carefully conceived anti-trust laws is invalidated, who knows how much price-rigging and exploitation will ensue?

Barnett Rites To Be Friday

George Barnett, age 80, a pioneer resident of Beaver County, Okla., passed away Wednesday night in the Perryton hospital where he has been a patient several weeks.

Funeral arrangements are not complete but will probably be held in the Perryton Baptist Church, 1:30 p. m. Friday afternoon, and the body taken to Liberal, Kans., for burial.

Mr. Barnett was born in Virginia and lived there and in Kentucky as a lad, coming to Texas when a young man. He worked as a cow puncher in the early days of this country. In the early '90s he settled on a ranch on the Palo Duro and in 1901 filed on a homestead in the Blue Mound community, where he has since made his home. He was known far and wide for his generous hospitality. He was healthy and active up to February 22 when he fell on the ice and broke a hip.

His wife and a step-daughter preceded him in death by several years. He is survived by one son, George H. Barnett, daughter-in-law and one grandson.

"TERR" survey, Moore County, 15 miles southeast of Dumas. The site has been purchased but plans have not been completed for the contract let for the new plant. This will be done within the next six weeks, according to J. G. Dickinson Jr., who heads the Amarillo office of the company.

The new compressor station will be powered by four 1,000-horsepower Cooper units. The Pritch plant of the company has 15 1,250-horsepower units, all Wirthingtons.

On the plant location will also be constructed complete plants for the extraction of gasoline and moisture.

The 26-inch line will extend for a distance of 17 miles and will parallel the company's 24-inch line for a distance of 16 miles and will connect with it at several points. The new station and pipeline will have a capacity of 37,500,000 cubic feet of gas per day.

The increase in the quantity of gas to be produced by the Texoma Company is the result of the expansion of the Natural Gas Pipeline Company of America, which is the company to which Texoma sells the natural gas which it produces. The Natural Gas Pipeline Company has recently extended its system by constructing 124 miles of 20-inch pipeline in the state of Illinois to serve a number of communities which do not now have natural gas. These communities include Rockford and Waukegan, as well as a number of towns and cities in the northern part of Illinois. It is expected that the requirements of these new markets will be as much as 50,000,000 cubic feet per day.

Natural Gas Pipeline Company of America is also increasing its main line capacity. Its construction will amount to about 370 miles of 26-inch pipeline and 22 miles of river crossing pipeline, the latter to be double lines. The new construction will parallel and loop a portion of the company's present 24-inch pipeline.

Natural Gas Pipeline Company of America plans to extend its new 20-inch pipeline into the state of Wisconsin to reach other markets not now served with natural gas. The Wisconsin area in which service is planned includes such communities as Milwaukee, Madison, Kenosha and Racine. It is estimated that the area to be served in Wisconsin will require as much as 100,000,000 cubic feet per day. Delivery of this quantity of gas will require additional construction by Natural Gas Pipeline Company of America and Texoma Natural Gas Company.

The pipe contract for the new line and loops went to the A. O. Smith Corporation, C. A. Foreman of Kansas City, Mo., has the construction contract for Kansas and Nebraska and all river crossings and has already started work in those areas.

The new plant in Moore County will eventually employ about 40 men and houses will be built on the site for their families.

the semi-trailer, add 40 and multiply by 700. As an example, Shaw pointed out that if the distance between the first and last axles of the combination is 24 feet, you add 40, which makes 64. Then multiply by 700, which gives you 44,800, the total gross weight. However, the act provides that the gross weight shall not exceed 38,000 pounds, so in this instance you could not register the vehicle for more than 38,000 pounds.

Shaw cited such examples, but the explanation applies to any vehicle or combination of vehicles. In each instance you add the number 40 to the distance between the first and last axles, and multiply by 700.

The law also provides that the gross weight shall not exceed 18,000 pounds per axle where low pressure tires are used, or 16,000 pounds per axle where high pressure tires are used; and such gross weight shall not exceed 9,000 pounds per wheel if low pressure tires are used, or 8,000 pounds where high pressure tires are used.

Furthermore, the weight shall not exceed 600 pounds per inch width of tire upon any wheel concentrated upon the surface of the highway and using high pressure tires, and a greater weight than 650 pounds per inch width of tire upon any wheel concentrated upon the surface of the highway and using low pressure tires." Shaw said the tire width referred to means the tread of the tire as stated by the manufacturer.

CCC To Have Open House

In commemoration of the eighth birthday anniversary of the Civilian Conservation Corps the local Camp 2874 will hold "open house" to the public Sunday, April 13, according to Lt. L. T. Col, commanding officer. The program, to be announced later, will include a full day's activity opening with a field trip for interested parties in the morning and will close with an inspection of the camp between the hours of 1:30 to 4:30 p. m. The public is invited and will be shown through the camp.

By executive order of the President, the CCC was brought into national existence April 5, 1933, and throughout the nation the anniversary will be celebrated beginning March 29 through April 17.

Over 135,000 Texas boys have been selected as enrollees during this period and over 440,000,000 have been returned to their dependents. The federal government has expended over $100,000,000 to care for Texas boys alone.

The CCC has at the present time over 275,000 enrollees manning 1,500 camps and has graduated 2,500,000 youths at a cost of $2,800,000,000. This expenditure has been well repaid with the building of 118,492 miles of truck trails, 6,000,000 erosion check dams, 84,737 miles of telephone lines, 101 radio stations, 24,969,767 rods of fence, and 68 airplane landing fields in addition to planting 2,060,403,000 trees.
