High Court Set To Open Busy Session

By PAUL M. OYST
WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court reassembles today to begin a new term which could be one of the busiest and most difficult in the tribunal's long history.

By tradition, today's session was limited to brief opening formalities. After a week of conferences, the court will announce next Monday which of many new appeals it will hear, and then will start hearing cases already scheduled.

The justices face a docket crowded with appeals already numbering nearly 1,000. Veteran observers say this is an all-time high.

In its last term the court agreed to hear 100 appeals—another high—in the argument sessions beginning Oct. 10. Listening to these arguments could occupy the justices up to mid-March.

Included in the 100 appeals due for final decisions are cases in such sensitive areas as state birth control laws, Sunday blue laws, use of union dues for political purposes, refusal to serve a Negro passenger at a segregated bus terminal restaurant, and tailoring of a city's boundaries to eliminate Negro voters.

Once again the court tackles the constitutionality of a requirement that the Communist party must register with the government as a subversive organization dominated by the Soviet Union, and of a clause of the Smith anti-Communist law making it a crime knowingly to belong to an organization that advocates violent overthrow of government.

Among appeals filed during the court's vacation months these questions were raised:

May Maryland bar from public office persons who do not believe in God? (Maryland's highest court said the state may.)

Does Bible reading and recitation of the Lord's Prayer in public schools violate the U.S. Constitution? (A special three-judge court in Philadelphia said it does.)

Does the President, under congressional authorization, have power to order nuclear weapons tests? (The U.S. Court of Appeals here says he does.)

May federal courts block construction of an atomic energy plant on the ground of inadequate findings as to public health and safety? (The U.S. Court of Appeals here said they may.)

Contract On Paving Let
The Scurry County Commission here today authorized paving contract to Lubbock Pavers for 1,794 miles extension of Thirtieth Street to the rodeo grounds.

The bid of $17,686.08 was the lowest of four bids opened by the county this morning.

In other business the court discussed with city engineer Bill Kimzey the additional cost added to the West Thirtieth Street paving project by the extra work entailed in smoothing bumps in the Dalton Drive and Thirtieth Street intersection. Kinzey told the court the city had no additional funds to take care of the expense.

Solon Raps Scientist For Refusal To Identify Helpers
By JOHN CHADWICK
WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Thomas J. Dodd, D-Conn., today accused Dr. Linus Pauling of posing as a martyr in refusing to name those who helped him get signatures of 11,021 scientists opposing nuclear testing.

Dodd is vice chairman of the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee, which demanded the names of Pauling's helpers. The Nobel prize-winning scientist has asked the Supreme Court to uphold his refusal to name them. Dodd issued a statement defending the subcommittee's action and saying the group has not yet even discussed citing Pauling for contempt of Congress.

Denying that any infringement of academic freedom or the right of petition was involved, Dodd

May the Navy bar a civilian short-order cook from a gunnery on simple notification that she did not meet security requirements? (The U.S. Court of Appeals here said it may.)

Does a radio operator who refuses to say if he is a Communist party member have the right to renewal of a Federal Communications Commission license? (The U.S. Court of Appeals here ruled he does not.)

Must the State Department give a passport to Rep. Charles O. Porter, D-Ore., to make a study of conditions in Red China? (The U.S. Court of Appeals here said members of Congress were not exempt from State Department passport denials.)

Ike Lists Conditions For Summit Session
By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower held the door open today for a return to summit diplomacy if Soviet Premier Khrushchev will take steps to "pave the way for useful negotiations."

Eisenhower rejected, however, a neutralist proposal put forth at the U.N. General Assembly last week for an immediate conference between himself and Khrushchev. He said that the record of Soviet behavior since the breakdown of the Paris summit conference May 16 gives no promise that a meeting between the two would yield productive results.

"I would not want to participate in a mere gesture which might convey a thoroughly misleading and unfortunate impression to the peoples of the world," Eisenhower said.

Eisenhower's views were set out in a letter sent late Sunday to five neutralist leaders now attending the General Assembly meeting in New York—Prime Minister Nehru of India and Presidents Sukarno of Indonesia, Nkrumah of the United Arab Republic, Tito of Yugoslavia and Nkrumah of Ghana.

He told them that he understands and sympathizes with the motives they had in asking the General Assembly to call for a meeting between himself and Khrushchev. Their formal resolution is awaiting U.N. action.

In blunt, no-concession sentences, however, he went over the record of recent Soviet maneuvers not only in the United Nations but on such world issues as Cuba and the Congo and said this record provides no basis for believing that a meeting now would be successful.

Eisenhower noted that he had pledged many times that he would go "to meet with anyone at any time if there is any serious promise of productive results."

But he said he saw no such promise in a meeting now with Khrushchev.

If the Soviets seriously want to reduce tension, he said, they can take action in the United Nations or elsewhere—as in a resumption of disarmament negotiations or by the release of two American airmen held in the Soviet Union—to "pave the way for useful negotiation."

Eisenhower said he was prepared to have U.S. representatives, including Secretary of State Christian A. Herter, meet with Soviet officials to discuss measures for reduction of tension.

"Should such exploratory discussion reveal that the Soviet Union is prepared to return to the path of peaceful negotiation with some prospect of fruitful results then I personally would be prepared to meet and negotiate with a representative of the Soviet government and with the heads of other governments as their interests were involved."

Eisenhower's letter was reported by diplomats to follow an outline of the Soviet position agreed on at a conference at the White House Sunday morning with British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan and Prime Minister Robert G. Menzies of Australia.

The letter apparently was designed to serve at least two major purposes.

First, Eisenhower wanted to set forth his position to the group of five prior to the Assembly action on the resolution.

Second, the letter evidently is intended to show that in the face of Khrushchev's hostile behavior toward the United States and the Western world, there is no weakness in the United States attitude toward the pressures he has sought to exert.

Pauling refused, saying he did so as a matter of conscience, morally and justice. He contended it would only expose his fellow scientists to reprisals by the subcommittee.

Dodd emphasized that the subcommittee "is not investigating Dr. Pauling's viewpoint on nuclear testing." He said that while he regards Pauling's general position on the issue as mistaken, it is widely held and in some measure coincides with the Eisenhower administration's position.

"Given this situation," Dodd said, "it is preposterous to suggest that the subcommittee could or should inflict reprisals—doubtful propositions in view of the fact that many of those who collaborated with Dr. Pauling were nationals of foreign countries."

Soviets Rebuffed By India's Nehru

By REILMAN MORIN
UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—Premier Nikita Khrushchev today challenged Dag Hammarskjöld to resign as U.N. secretary-general, but the Soviet leaders' drive to change the structure of the world organization received a powerful blow from India's Prime Minister Nehru.

Khrushchev threatened to ignore U.N. decisions unless the organization's structure was changed and the secretary-general's job abolished.

At the same time, he dashed neutralist hopes for a new Khrushchev-Eisenhower summit meeting.

Nehru attempted in his policy speech to the 98-nation General Assembly to revive these hopes.

He also lent his powerful voice to defense of the present U.N. structure. He conceded there might be some defects in the U.N. setup, but added: "Even so, we wish to proceed slowly and with agreement and not to press for any change which would involve an immediate amendment of the charter and the raising of heated controversies."

The change Khrushchev seeks—a three-man, veto-wielding executive instead of a secretary-general—would require a charter amendment. Thus, in effect, the Indian prime minister, a highly influential leader of the neutralists, was opposing the Khrushchev proposal.

Nehru also refused to be dismayed by the responses of both President Eisenhower and Premier Khrushchev to the proposal of five neutral nations that they meet face to face once again. The President has said there was nothing in the Khrushchev performance to indicate a summit meeting would be fruitful.

Khrushchev, in a singularly restrained delivery of a prepared speech to the assembly today, did not mention the neutralist resolution. But he said he might sit down indefinitely without results unless there was a desire on the part of Eisenhower "to come to agreement."

But Nehru, one of the five signers of the neutralist resolution, said its intent had been to inspire efforts "to open the door for future consultations, not only between the two eminent individuals who were mentioned in the resolution, but to the world community."

Nehru said Eisenhower had not entirely ruled out a meeting. "The door is still open for consideration, and the President has expressed his deep anxiety to help in the lessening of international tensions," Nehru said.

The U.N. said Hammarskjöld would reply to Khrushchev at the opening of the afternoon assembly session.

Khrushchev today did not mention the five-nation neutralist resolution calling for the new summit meeting.

"Some say that Khrushchev and Eisenhower should be locked in a room and kept there until they reach agreement on disarmament," he said. "But this, of course, is naive. We may as well together indefinitely, but if no desire to come to agreement is evinced by the President and particularly by those quarters which back him, no smoke will come from the chimney, as is the tradition when a Pope is elected."

Khrushchev reserved his harshest fire for Hammarskjöld.

"Mr. Hammarskjöld has always been biased with regard to the Soviet Union," he said. "He has upheld the interests of the United States and other countries of monopoly capital. The events in the Congo where he played a really deplorable role was but the last drop that filled the cup of patience to the overflowing."

"To avoid misinterpretation I want to reaffirm that we do not trust Mr. Hammarskjöld and cannot trust him. If he himself does not trust us enough courage to resign, so to say, in a chivalrous manner, then we shall draw the conclusions from the obvious situation. It is not proper for a man who has flouted elementary justice to hold such an important post as that of secretary-general."

Khrushchev wants a veto-wielding three-man executive to replace the secretary-general.

Khrushchev said that in present day conditions it is not possible to choose a single man for the office of secretary-general who could take into consideration the interests of the Communist states, the neutral nations, and the Western alliance at the same time.

Khrushchev rejected the idea of a meeting with President Eisenhower unless there was what he called a desire to reach agreement on the part of the President.

Some say that Khrushchev and Eisenhower should be locked in a room and kept there until they reach an agreement on disarmament, but this, of course, is naive," he observed.

Bardot Out Of Hospital
NICE, France (AP)—Brigitte Bardot today left the clinic where she has been under treatment since a suicide attempt on her 26th birthday last week.

The sexy movie star, appearing wan, wore polka-dot slacks, a black blouse, dark glasses, and a white scarf around her head.

It was her first appearance since she was brought into the clinic suffering from an overdose of sleeping pills and razor cuts on her wrists. The story is that she had been brooding about the unhappiness of her second marriage.

She departed for an unannounced destination after photographers took a few pictures. No reporters asked any questions, and none followed her when she departed. Brigitte's mother appeared to the press Sunday night to let her daughter alone.

Judge Is Named To Hear Clerk's Trial
FORT WORTH (AP)—District Judge W. F. Oxford of Stephenville has been named to hear the criminal case against Tarrant County District Clerk Gene Smith.

Selection of Judge Oxford was announced Monday by 17th District Court Judge Jack M. Langdon, jurist in charge of administrative details for district judges here.

Smith, indicted on three counts of compelling his employees to make contributions to his 1958 political campaign, was due to go on trial Oct. 17 in Criminal District Court No. 2.

The Kremlin chieftain started off Saturday with a free-swinging speech at the General Assembly. His Sunday report included seven hours of diplomatic appointments, mostly with African leaders, a cocktail party given by the Guinean delegation, and two meetings with newsmen.

Khrushchev has no announced appointments later than Tuesday. Several government heads are slated to leave this week, starting with Yugoslav President Tito Tuesday. However, U.S. security men, who have lost several bets on Khrushchev's departure date so far, said they have not yet received a departure notice from the Soviet.

Khrushchev kept mum on this point Sunday. He did say he would be back next year. Then he turned this into a joke, saying he planned to return to go trout fishing.

The demonstrations that greeted Khrushchev after his Sept. 19 arrival were clearly running out of steam. Glen Cove, a suburban community of 21,000, greeted his second weekend visit with nonchalance.

The start of the 1956 General Assembly was delayed until Nov. 12, or after the election. The meeting in 1952 started Oct. 14, which was before the November balloting.

Johnson said he had queried Asst. Secretary of State William B. Macomber Jr. about this year's actions, and quoted a letter from Macomber that an effort at postponement had been considered and rejected.

Macomber confirmed that the department had considered the possibility carefully, but said the State Department did not want to "ask a world body to hold things up just because one country is having a presidential election."

He said the department would have supported a delaying move if some other nation had raised the issue.

Johnson contended that if it were not necessary to postpone talks by Khrushchev, Cuba's Premier Fidel Castro and others, "I don't know why Sen. Kennedy should be silent." He said the times and the American people "need to know the facts."

It looks like they want to cover up these issues, and I think that's a part of the Republican strategy," Johnson said. "I think that they want to hide the failures behind Mr. Khrushchev's talk."

Johnson said U.N. sessions were postponed in both the 1952 and 1956 election years, but that the decision this year was that there was no serious risk to this country in going ahead with the meeting on schedule.

Neither Candidate Now Has A Commanding Lead In Race

By STANLEY MEISLER
WASHINGTON (AP)—Neither Richard M. Nixon nor John F. Kennedy now has a substantial lead in the race for president. Experts rate the states with the big votes as tossups.

At this stage, Nixon, the Republican candidate, apparently has more electoral votes in his pocket than Kennedy, the Democratic candidate.

But Nixon's lead is slim and his total far from a majority. These are the conclusions that emerge from a survey of 50 states just completed by The Associated Press.

To create its image of the election battle, the AP culled observations from its political writers, key party leaders, and veteran newspaper analysts. Various polls were taken into account.

The survey showed that Nixon seems to be leading in 22 states with 161 electoral votes. Kennedy seems to be leading in 14 states with 123 votes.

The difference is only 38 votes, and neither man comes within 100 votes of the 269 votes needed to win the presidency.

The survey rated six of the largest states—New York (45)

Ill. (32), Pennsylvania (32), Ohio (25), Texas (24), and Michigan (20)—among the tossups, although there was some indication Kennedy had an edge in Ohio and Texas.

If either Kennedy or Nixon could take all or most of these 178 votes, he probably would win the election.

The data were collected while observers were trying to weigh the effect of last Monday's television debate on the voters. Some sources said they thought Kennedy had gained ground because of it.

There were some indications Kennedy's Roman Catholic religion was hurting him, particularly in the South, somewhat in California and Illinois, and increasing in Arizona.

The issue seemed to be waning in North Carolina and Oklahoma.

Airman Knocked From Trestle

DEL RIO, Tex. (AP)—A train knocked Airman T. C. Brian E. Foster from a railroad trestle 60 feet to the bed of Devil's River Sunday killing him.

Foster, 19, of Nevada, Minn., apparently froze on the trestle when he saw the train coming. Companions said. His friends said he was not supposed to be caught on the trestle.

He was rescued by a train crew at the Air Force Base here. He and the train crew were returning to the base. The two friends elected to walk across the bed of the almost-dry river.

PROHIBITION HAS FAILED US AGAIN!

Time after time, and year after year, when anyone in Snyder proposes that the citizens be given an opportunity to make the sale of alcoholic beverages legal instead of illegal, the professional prohibitionists have said VOTE DRY!

It seems like the main thing they really want is for the people to VOTE DRY, because they sure haven't MADE IT DRY or KEPT IT DRY.

Our public officials and enforcement officers have TRIED HARD, but NOBODY can ENFORCE PROHIBITION. The Federal Government couldn't do it, so how can we reasonably expect our small force of law enforcement officers to do it?

JUST HOW "DRY" IS SNYDER?

2,548 CASES OF INTOXICATION IN A PUBLIC PLACE filed in our City Court, between 1956 and Sept. 1960.

89 DRIVING WHILE DRUNK cases in the same period.

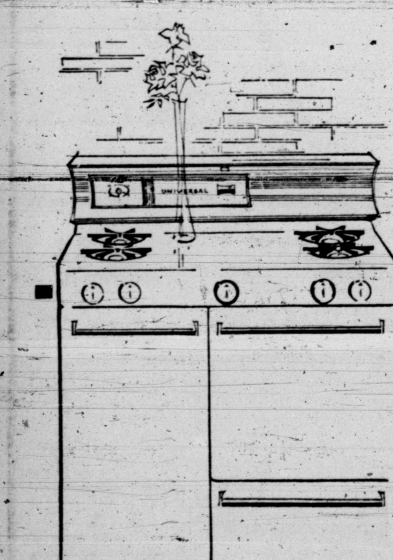

169 CONVICTIONS for possession, transportation, and sale of alcoholic beverages in Scurry County in this same period.

Everyone in Snyder is interested in good law enforcement. The election results will NOT change the personal habits of anyone. It gives Snyder a FREEDOM OF CHOICE... our own choice to rid our community of what mistakenly is called Prohibition and the lawlessness it breeds.

LEGAL SALES AND LOCAL CONTROL IS THE SENSIBLE... WORKABLE WAY FOR SNYDER.

Kennedy Leading In Popcorn Poll

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—Democratic nominee John F. Kennedy is leading in first returns from the presidential popcorn poll, which has not missed since it was started in 1948 by Nashville popcorn promoter Jim Blevins.

The report issued by Blevins Sunday shows Kennedy leading with 53.7 per cent of the returns.

The votes are cast by popcorn buyers across the country who indicate their choice by selecting containers imprinted Nixon or Kennedy. Blevins said there are now 20 million "ballots" in supermarkets and theaters.

The sales are tabulated by Blevins' staff here.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to "shrink" hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain—without surgery. In case after case, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction (shrinkage) took place. Most amazing of all—results were so thorough that sufferers made astonishing statements like "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®)—discovery of a world-famous research institute. This substance is now available in suppository or ointment form under the name Preparation H®. At all drug counters.

Mama's Old Divided Skirts Are Suddenly Back In Style

BY INEZ ROBB

Ever since Norman Norell flabbergasted the nation's fashion press by introducing culottes, or the one-pants feminine suit, for street wear, they—the culottes—have had an all-too-familiar look. They just weren't all that NEW, it seemed to me. But it wasn't until yesterday, when my curiosity finally nagged me into going through a pile of old family pictures, that I suddenly realized why this brand-new fashion seemed so reminiscent.

Why, Norell's sensational culottes (and I don't mean to take the sheen off his creative genius) are just Mama's old, divided skirt brought up to date after a half-century or more!

In the treasure trove of family pictures are a half-dozen of Mama, young and pretty as a picture, in the divided skirt that she and her generation of young ladies in the West wore when they went horse-back-riding.

In that day the divided skirt concealed the awful fact that women had legs and were, in effect, wearing a version of pants. As Mama stands by her horse, one gets the impression that she is wearing a circular skirt. It is, for his day, cut daringly short—about ankle length, at which point it was met by the tops of Mama's riding boots.

That divided skirt freed women kind from the necessity of riding side-saddle and permitted them to ride, astride without offending the modesty of the rider or the public. Later that divided skirt became the trademark of the professional cowgirl who competed in the annual fall roundups or rodeos around the Western circuit. The skirt was still full, so that once out of the saddle, there was no bold suggestion of legs.

Avert Strike At Convair

FORT WORTH (AP)—A possible strike at Convair, which builds the B-58 jet bomber, was averted Sunday when the International Association of Machinists Lodge No. 766 accepted the firm's latest contract offer.

O. D. Wright, a union spokesman, said the vote for acceptance was 2,253 for and 351 against. Between 9,000 and 10,000 union workers are affected.

Union members voted several weeks ago authorizing leaders to call a strike if agreement on a contract had not been reached by today.

The contract calls for an immediate pay hike of three cents an hour and freezes into base pay a six-hour hourly cost of living adjustment.

Wright said the major issue was the company's agreement to the setting up of a committee of union and management representatives to discuss the combining of some jobs that are now separate.

Under the new two-year contract, affected employees will receive $1.82 to $3.20 an hour. The previous pay scale was $1.79 to $3.17.

Although a slave state, Delaware did not secede from the Union in the Civil War.

Columnist Learns More From Mail

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail.

The common cold is nothing to sneeze at. Americans have about 15 million severe colds a year. In 1959 respiratory infections were responsible for 41 per cent of the 153 million work days lost because of disease.

You think you have "troubles"? The French artist Renoir had arthritis so bad he had to tie the brushes to his fingers to continue painting. Some of his best work was done this way.

Everyone knows the whale is the largest mammal, but do you know what is the world's smallest fish? It is the goby, native to the Philippine Islands, and is less than half an inch long when full grown.

Real estate news? Doris Duke bought the old Rudolph Valentino estate in Beverly Hills.

The future is bright? By 1970, according to the estimates of some economists, there will be 25 million American families with annual incomes of more than $7,500 after taxes.

The mouse may be a nuisance in your home, but he has a real financial value to mice ranchers.

These now raise nearly 25 million annually for scientific experiments.

One of the housewife's forgotten heroes was a department store janitor named James Spangler. Because the dust stirred by brooms made his asthma worse, he invented the first successful vacuum cleaner.

Our quotable notables: "I don't want to own anything, that won't fit into my coffin," comedian Fred Allen once said. (But he left an estate of more than a million dollars.)

Have you recently discovered you can't go to sleep unless you use a higher pillow than you used to? If so, better tell your doctor. This sometimes is a sign of heart disease.

Sign in a Manhattan office: "The older our liquor, the younger our wife looks."

Sign in a Manhattan office: "Work hard — the job you save may be your own."

Wives of the week. Actor Walter Slezak says: "There are a lot of horror shows on TV. They aren't supposed to be horrors. They just turned out that way."

Worst pun of the week: "When a light bulb goes out," asks Lisa Kirk, "is it at its watt's end?"

Our great natural resources: The United States now has more than 31 million amateur musicians, a 51 per cent increase in 10 years. (Included as a doubtful cultural asset: half a million harmonica players.)

Information to paste in your scrapbook. Someone has figured the average man shaves off 50 million pieces of whiskers in his lifetime.

It was Ortega y Gasset who observed: "Life must be dedicated to a destiny in order to have meaning."

Little Damage Is Caused By Bullet

DETROIT (AP) — Stanley Naiman, 32, a filling station attendant, was shot and robbed over the weekend.

The station lost about $300, but Stanley was lucky. The bullet hit a ring of keys in his pocket, rolled down his pants leg and landed in his shoe.

A little liniment fixed him up.

Cadena, Bruns In Top Pee Wee Efforts

As has become the mode in Boy's Club Pee Wee grid clashes, Saturday's action was highlighted by a pair of contests which were tight as a new drum.

David Cadena, a relentless young dynamo in the Frog secondary, led his mates to a hard-fought 18-16 triumph over the Bears in one of the featured games. He accounted for all of the Frog point production by tallying on touchdown scrambles of 42, 41, and 60 yards, scoring markers in each of the first three quarters.

His 173 yards gained on seven carries gave him a most respectable 24.7 yard-per-carry average and the distinction as top running back of the day.

In the other clash as reeled off, the Hotshots came alive in the third period of play to chase over a pair of touchdowns and grasp a 6-0 halftime advantage as held by the Colts in winning a 14-6 tilt.

Delbert Bruns churned his way to both shot touchdowns on runs of 11 and 37 yards, and was the top runner on the field during the just with 109 yards on 11 lugings for a 9.9 per-carry average.

Large Slate Of Games Due

A side-slice look at this week's local grid calendar reveals that Snyder fans will see this Thursday be treated to a look at two of the three in action elevens still surviving on the home front.

It is the 7th, winner of its two initial trys, will open the week's activity here with a Thursday clash against Sweetwater beginning at 5 o'clock. That game will be followed by Travis 8th and Sweetwater, who will tangle in a 6:30 battle. Travis 8th has also been victorious in both of its early-season outings.

On the road Thursday will be Travis 9th, which will engage Sweetwater in an 8 o'clock contest, and Lamar 7th, which will be in Big Spring for a 4 p.m. just a Big Spring 6th. That game will be followed by Travis 8th and Sweetwater, who will tangle in a 6:30 battle. Travis 8th has also been victorious in both of its early-season outings.

Friday night Breckenridge will be here for an 8 o'clock match against Snyder's Tigers in a game which will be unfilled in Tiger Stadium. A pair of undefeated sides "Tigers" will not put their perfect marks on the line the same night when Hermle's Cardinals hit the road for Wylie and Gail's Cougars travel to Southland.

Capping off the week's slate of games will be two Saturday affairs. In Lamesa for a 7:30 tilt will be the Snyder Bees, who downed Sweetwater the past Saturday by 20-0. That game here be the junior high field in Lincoln Hill whose surprising Trojans have whipped Big Spring by 22-0 and were edged out, 30-22, by powerful Lubbock Dunbar in their two tests to date. They will entertain Lamesa in a game set for 8 p.m.

Not seeing action this week are Lamar 8th and 9th and the Ira Bulldogs.

'Northpaws' Given Nod In Opener

By JOE REICHLER

Associated Press Sports Writer

PITTSBURGH (AP)—A right-handed pitching duel between Vernon Law of Pittsburgh and Art Dittmar of New York was forecast today for the opening game of the 1960 World Series Wednesday between the National League champion Pirates and American League champion Yankees.

Law was officially named by Danny Murtaugh Sunday after the Pirate manager was assured that the 20-game winning right-hander had completely recovered from a slightly sprained right ankle. The injury hampered his work in a series tieup against Milwaukee last Friday.

Another encouraging note to Murtaugh was a report from Dick Groat, concerning the left wrist he fractured last Sept. 6. The Pirates' captain and shortstop, who Saturday made his first start in over three weeks, rapped two hits and fielded faultlessly, reported no ill effects.

Conference Bulges With Top Contests

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF

Associated Press Sports Writer

Arkansas and Baylor hook up in the most meaningful game of Southwest Conference football this year but major interest will center on the storied Texas-Oklahoma clash at Dallas.

Arkansas pulled into a favorite's role last week by toppling Texas Christian 7-0 while Baylor was indicating it should have a similar rating by its 7-3 triumph over Louisiana State, although the Golden Bears have yet to play a conference game.

The Texas-Oklahoma game, which will pack 75,000 into the Cotton Bowl at Dallas as usual, was started 61 years ago and there have been 54 played. It again will send pupil against teacher as Darrell Royal tries for his third straight victory over Bud Wilkinson, under whom he played his college football at Oklahoma.

For the first time in years both teams will have already dropped a game before the battle in Dallas. Oklahoma was trounced 19-3 by Northwestern in its opener but last week edged Pittsburgh 15-14. Texas took a 14-13 licking from Nebraska in its starter. Last week the Longhorns whipped Texas Tech 17-0 in a conference game.

There are two conference tests on the week's schedule along with three important intercollegiate tussles.

Texas Christian and Texas Tech get together in the battle of the beaten at Fort Worth while Arkansas and Baylor, the last undefeated, united team in the conference, go a long way toward determining the championship.

Rice meets Florida at Miami and Southern Methodist tangles with Navy at Norfolk in accompanying intercollegiate games to the Texas-Oklahoma melee. The league could lose all three and fall behind in the warfare with outside foes. It now has a 7-6 record as the result of the Baylor triumph over LSU and Rice's 10-7 conquest of Tulane Saturday.

Rice probably will be the underdog to Florida, which beat Georgia Tech 18-17 last week. Georgia

3A Undefeated Ranks Thin Down Slightly

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Class AAAA schoolboy football campaign shuttles into October with an abundance of top games featuring the fifth week of activity.

Three games match unbeaten, untied teams and another sends ninth-ranked Graham against Class AA powerhouse Stanford.

Heading the list is the Kilgore-Jacksonville tussle at Kilgore. The Bulldogs, rated No. 1 in the state, shattered Huntsville's perfect record 19-12 Friday night and Jacksonville bowled over Corsicana 14-0 for its fourth straight triumph. The game is the District 7AAA opener.

El Campo and Port Lavaca, ranked seventh and eighth, tangle at El Campo, both sporting 4-0 records. Judging from last week's performance, the game should be a high-scoring affair. El Campo cut down Alvin 49-6 while Port Lavaca was nailing San Marcos 30-13.

Two other, unbeaten, Pharr-San Juan-Alamo and San Benito, clash at San Benito. Pharr clobbered Harlingen 44-8 Friday and San Benito toppled Edinburg 14-0. Both victors are members of Class AAAA.

Graham, 2-1, was idle last week while Stanford, 4-1, stomped rival Brady 33-8.

Six teams fell from the unbeaten ranks Friday, leaving the perfect record list at 18.

The 18 are Phillips, Monahans, Carrollton, Hurst-Euless, Richardson, McKinney, Garthage, Kilgore, Jacksonville, Silsbee, Jasper, El Campo, Bay City, Seguin, Kingsville, Port Lavaca, Pharr-San Juan-Alamo and San Benito.

Unbeaten but tied are Andrews, Robstown and Bonham.

Sweetwater, ranked second and beaten only by Abilene of AAAA, takes on another of the big boys in Odessa Permian this week. The Mustangs clipped Big Spring of AAAA 18-6 Friday.

The most notable setback of the weekend came at Brownwood where the third-ranked Lions were beaten 26-22 by Temple.

Titans Tip Texans

By JACK CLARY

Associated Press Sports Writer

Al Dorow and Frank Tripuka, a pair of old pro quarterbacks who splashed through football's fountain of youth when they joined the American Football League, have their teams atop the loop's two divisions today.

Dorow, who played for Washington and Philadelphia in the National League, and Toronto in the Canadian Football League, passed for four touchdowns Sunday, and gained 281 yards in the air, as his New York Titans defeated Dallas 37-35 to gain the top rung in the Eastern Division.

Denver, the surprise of the AFL moved into permanent possession of the Western Division lead with a 31-14 lacing of Oakland as Tripuka fired two touchdowns passes to end Lionel Taylor.

Los Angeles won over Buffalo 24-10 in the other scheduled game. Boston and Houston were idle.

In the National League, quarterback George Shaw threw four touchdowns passes for the New York Giants as they beat St. Louis 35-14. Cleveland won over Pittsburgh 28-20. Baltimore crushed Chicago 42-7. Green Bay defeated Detroit 28-9 and San Francisco conquered Los Angeles 13-9. Washington was idle and Philadelphia beat Dallas 27-25 last Friday night.

Dorow, the former Michigan State star, did most of his work in the first half when he rolled up 272 yards and all his TDs. Still, a 32-yard field goal in the last period by Bill Shockley was the final difference. Dorow broke a 7-7 tie midway in the first period with a 26-yard scoring toss to Don Maynard. He hit Shockley with a 3-yarder and Dave Ross for 37 in the second period for touchdowns and Dallas never could catch up. Dorow's first scoring toss went to end Art Powell for 36 yards. Dorow also scored from the 1-yard line in the third period.

Dallas' scoring was divided among Cotton Davidson, who also passed 8 yards for a TD to Chris Burford, Bo Dickinson, Abner Haynes and Johnny Robinson.

Tripuka, also an 8-year veteran of the NFL and Canada, got scoring help from tackle Bill Yelverton, who ran 20 yards for a touchdown with an intercepted pass, and from Dave Rolfe's 57-yard scoring gallop. A crowd of 18,372 watched Denver's AFL home opener.

Los Angeles used the forward pass in reverse, intercepting four Buffalo aeriels, two by linebacker Paul Maguire that helped produce touchdowns. Bob Clatterbuck's 11-yard TD pass to Dave Kousser followed the first and Howie Ferguson's two-yard burst for the second. Ben Agajanian's field goal came after the another interception.

Richie Lucas' 36-yard TD pitch to El Dubeen produced Buffalo's only touchdown.

Note Of Harmony Enhances Picture

DALLAS (AP)—The Dallas Texans of the American Football League again bested the Dallas Cowboys of the National Football League in attendance the past weekend but the most significant news is the fact that pro football is helping college attendance.

That startled the collegians as well as the pros but the records show that 11 home games in the Southwest Conference have drawn 343,681 this season compared to 289,366 for 10 games last season.

There are three professional football teams in Texas—two in Dallas and one at Houston. Seven of the eight Southwest Conference members are in Texas, the other in nearby Arkansas.

Friday night only 18,500 turned out to see the Cowboys lose 27-25 to the Philadelphia Eagles. Sunday 37,500 were present when the Texans lost to the New York Titans 37-35. The margin this week was 19,000. Last week the Texans bested the Cowboys by about 10,000.

But there has been an attendance boom in the Southwest Conference except at Southern Methodist University, which has yet to play a home game. SMU is in Dallas and will have to compete directly with the pros when it does begin playing at home.

Veteran observers say that to their amazement pro football has reacted just the opposite from what was expected. It has created more interest in football as a game and the crowds have been larger as a result.

PADEN SPEAKS ON ROMAN CATHOLICISM

This special lecture will be given by Cline Paden, evangelist, on Tuesday evening, Oct. 4, at 7:30, at the building of the 37th. St. Church of Christ. He will discuss such topics as:

● Papal Infallibility

● Separation of Church and State

● Does the Catholic Church Believe In

And Approve of a Free Use Of the Bible?

● What Does the Catholic Church Think Of Our Public Free Schools?

This is not to be a political speech, Mr. Paden has spent the last several years in Catholic dominated countries, and is well qualified to bring us up-to-date information. He will examine these things in the light of God's Word, that men might see the threat to our freedom of religion and the danger to our American way of life.

Religion As Issue Rapped

CORPUS CHRISTI, Tex. (AP)—Members of the First Christian Church of Corpus Christi, were told Sunday they should not vote against a presidential candidate "simply because of his religious affiliation."

Dr. W. C. Caver Harrison told his congregation, one of the largest Protestant groups in the city, in a sermon entitled "Is Religion Relevant?"

"I feel I should make an affirmative statement in regard to the entire matter. We as Americans should resist strongly all attempts to make religious affiliation the sole basis of the voter's choice of candidates."

"It is a vicious practice, against all true American tradition, to set class against class, race against race, or religion against religion. These are the words of a statement recently issued by more than 100 American religious leaders—Protestant, Catholic and Jewish. I concur heartily."

"We must, however, keep in mind at all times that the religious faith of a man is very relevant to his fitness for public office, and to the conduct of the affairs of his office."

"Religion is relevant to life; it is relevant to all your choices. To consider a candidate's religious faith on the lack of it is most certainly the duty of any conscientious voter."

Crippled Plane With 153 Aboard Land
CHICAGO (AP)—"I only thank God that the power failure came once we had altitude. If this had occurred during take-off, 153 persons probably would have died."

Hans Mueller-Nalbach, Lufthansa German Airlines captain, was talking with reporters Sunday after he landed an airliner with two of its four engines out and 143 passengers and 10 crewmen aboard.

Shortly after a pre-dawn take-off for Frankfurt, the two engines of his huge Boeing 707 failed and Mueller-Nalbach circled precariously over Lake Michigan for nearly an hour, jettisoning 77,000 pounds of fuel.

He then returned to O'Hare Field and made a smooth landing. "They say that once in his life, a captain really earns his pay. Last night was my turn," said Mueller-Nalbach, a veteran of 22 years of flying.

Suspect In Murders Wants To Marry
KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—Clarence Leon Raby, 27, wants to get married even though he faces trial on two murder charges.

He and Lela Mae Mashburn, 24, were told they must get permission from Sheriff Glad Woodward. Woodward said he saw nothing to interfere but that he would discuss the matter with the prosecutor.

Raby was on the FBI's most wanted list when he surrendered in August. He is charged in the robbery-slaying of Frank Keith, an Andersonville merchant, and in the shooting of Union County Deputy Sheriff Ben DeVault, who was killed in the manhunt that followed.

Air Force Starts Jet Passenger Run
MCUIRE AIR FORCE BASE, N.J. (AP)—U.S. Air Force jet passenger service begins tonight when 166 persons cross the Atlantic in a single airplane.

The Military Air Transport Service's inaugural flight is to start at 10:30 p.m. when a Trans World Airline Boeing 707 takes off for Frankfurt, Germany.

The nonstop flight will take about 7½ hours.

TWA has contracted to make 47 such round trip flights during the last three months of 1960.

Pair Slain In Prison

REIDSVILLE, Ga. (AP)—Two convicts were stabbed to death and two others were wounded early today in an outbreak of violence at the big State Prison here.

The riot was quelled quickly when guards rushed to the barracks after hearing shouts and then cries of pain.

Dead were: Gordon Rex Andrews, 22, serving seven years from Bleckley County on burglary convictions; Gerald Frost, 22, under sentence totaling 13 years from Glynn County for a long string of burglaries.

The wounded: Tommy Gay, 26, under sentence for robbery by force; John David Williamson, 19, serving burglary and auto theft sentences.

Jack Forrester, state corrections director, said preliminary investigation indicates that only the four were involved in the violence. He said they used crude knives fashioned from kitchen instruments.

Hodges Rites Set In Anton

Funeral services for Mrs. Jennie Hodges, 77, of Littlefield were to be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Primitive Baptist Church in Anton. Mrs. Hodges died Saturday evening in the Medical Arts Hospital in Littlefield where she had been hospitalized since Wednesday.

Rev. Riley Dale of Lubbock was to officiate with burial to be in the Snyder Cemetery late this afternoon. Local arrangements are under the direction of Bell Funeral Home.

Car Pool Replaced With Regular Bus

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla. (AP)—Starting today, 13 mothers here have replaced their haphazard school car pool with a bus, driver and regular schedule.

The mothers decided recently they were tired of hauling 33 children to grammar school and kindergarten each day. So they bought an ancient school bus for $550 and hired a driver.

City and state education officials approved the idea. "Someone was always being late or having car trouble," said Dr. Sylvia Richardson, one of the mothers. "And on icy winter mornings, I just don't like to drive much less with a load of kids."

Items Stolen From Cars On Lot Here

The Snyder Police Department reported several items taken from cars at Mack's Car Lot on the East Highway sometime over the weekend.

Mack McCormick, owner of the lot, told officers that a battery and generator were taken from a 1953 Ford and a fan belt was taken from a 1952 Chevrolet. He also said a hole was knocked in the radiator of a 1952 Ford.

Lone Star Welders Speeds Up Round-The-Clock Service

Lone Star Welders, 705 Avenue S, has announced a faster night service for their customers with a welder in the yard at all times. For the past several years the owner, Mrs. Ruby Smith Hickman, has had a welder on call and decided that the delay in getting one to the yard was too inconvenient for her customers; so she arranged for a welder to be on call in the yard at all times.

Founded in 1949 by the late D. O. Smith, the business boomed with booming Snyder, offered oil field welding in the field or in their shop. This spring the business

CHECK-OFF—T. E. Blalock of McAlister Van Lines, Inc., 1604 Twenty-fourth Street in Snyder, checks one of the huge Overseas Household Goods Containers that has just traveled all the way from France to McAlister's. With the use of these containers, McAlister's, with its affiliates, is able to safely schedule shipments of the most fragile items of furniture anywhere in the world.

New Concept Of Moving By McAlister's Proves Smooth

When containerized movement of fragile furniture and personal effects was first proposed, it was felt that damage on a large scale would be almost unavoidable. But now, after several years experience, the OVERSEAS HOUSEHOLD GOODS LIFT VAN, combined with careful and complete wrapping of every piece of furniture that goes into the van, has made this one of the most efficient means of shipping household goods long distances.

It is now used for not only overseas shipping, but for shipments consigned to Canada, Alaska and Mexico.

McAlister Van Lines, Inc. has packed and shipped Lift Vans to a number of overseas points, including most countries in which the U. S. has military bases, as well as several Central and South American countries. The shipments to South America have been principally for families of oil company employees assigned to remote locations there.

The completeness of the service is unique. McAlister performs all pre-packing services in the home, safely preparing each item for loading. The Lift Vans are then loaded carefully, each item being wrapped before being placed in the large container. After each Lift Van is full, it is sealed and placed to prevent the entrance of any moisture during its many handlings on its overseas journey. Finally, each container is strapped with heavy steel binding which not only strengthens it but also minimizes any possibility of illegal pilferage.

The Vans are then moved by moving van, ship, and sometimes even ox-carts, depending on the destination, directly to the front door of the owner's new residence thousands of miles away. Through service by McAlister's dependable affiliates, the furniture is carefully unpacked and arranged in the home, completing a moving service which a few years ago was considered impossible.

Whether moving across Texas, across the nation, or across an ocean, you can rely on McAlister to handle your household goods move in a manner you'll approve. Call Bob McAlister or T. E. Blalock at HI 3-6337 for any information you might need regarding packing, moving, or storage.

You'll be glad you did!

Man Is Slain On Square At Denton

DENTON, Tex. (AP)—A former mental patient died in a blaze of gunfire on the courthouse square here Sunday night after he fired three shots at officers.

The victim, T. J. McFarland, about 30, had come to the court house to demand the return of guns taken from him several years ago when he was sent to a state mental hospital.

Doctors found six bullet wounds in his chest.

None of McFarland's bullets found their mark. One bullet from the gun fired lodged in the door of a passing automobile, but the occupant was uninjured.

The shooting occurred as college students and others attending Sunday night movies were in the business district which is centered around the square.

McFarland died a few minutes after an ambulance rushed him to a hospital in handcuffs.

Justice of the Peace W. A. Riggs returned an inquest verdict of justifiable homicide in self defense.

At an inquest held shortly after the shooting, Constable Bill Carter testified he had driven McFarland to Denton from Sanger, 15 miles north of here, after McFarland accosted him in a cafe.

At McFarland's request, the constable radioed Sheriff Wylie Barnes, they were en route to Denton but could not tell why because McFarland was listening.

"He told me that if he didn't get those guns there was going to be trouble," Carter testified at the inquest, held half an hour after the gun play.

Barnes, roused from sleep at home, went to his courthouse office unarmed and the only weapons there were locked in a vault.

"After they pulled up in Carter's car and stood there talking," the sheriff said, "I figured something was up, so I ducked out another door and ran to the police station up the street."

Barnes returned with Police Sgt. James Cochran and Patrolman Cecil Aaron—both, like the sheriff, carrying pistols—and Patrolman Spencer Miller, armed with a shotgun.

The gunfire broke out moments after the four arrived.
