

FINE LIVESTOCK SHOWN AT CLUB SHOW SATURDAY

Although time was limited in preparing for a 4-H Club show this year, the exhibit Saturday of last week was one of exceptionally good livestock including the entries and other animals on display. Schleicher county can well boast of its fine breeding stocks, as was evidenced by the boys' efforts, not to mention many of the fine herds and flocks of various kinds maintained over the area.

Other than the 4-H Club entries Saturday were 11 head of breeding Herefords from four ranches were on exhibition although there was no judging for ribbons. From the Case Ranch, two bull calves and two heifer calves; from the Pat Martin ranch, two bull calves, from the Baugh Brothers ranch two bull calves and from the J. H. Wagley place there were two herd bulls.

In the 4-H Club show supervised by County Agent Jack Welch the following placings were awarded by County Agent J. T. Davis of Mertzon, who judged the show:

The only Rambouillet ram lamb entered was shown by Earl Loyd.

Sauer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Sauer, is here for a two-week furlough following his dismissal from a General Hospital at Pal Springs, Calif., where he has been since he returned to the States from three years spent in the Pacific theatre of war, where he had served with a Medical Detachment rendering first aid to wounded. He served on Marshall and Siapan. Private Sauer went overseas in Feb., 1942.

Supt. and Mrs. C. A. Reynolds are the parents of a daughter, born Friday morning, Feb. 23 in a San Angelo hospital. The baby weighed 7 pounds and 5 ounces, and has been named Roseann.

AIRPORT RECEIVES APPROVAL OF CAA

"The Eldorado Municipal Airport is now one of the best ports, with a possible exception of an Army field port in Coleman, that is to be found this side of Fort Worth," stated Guy Lavender, Flight Officer of Love Field, Dallas, and a former automobile agency manager in Eldorado.

Lavender made the statement following landing on the local runways after the field had been made ready after several years work by local enthusiasts and following an inspection and approval of the Civil Aeronautics Administration by a Mr. Turner, inspector for the CAA, who approved the field with the comment to Chester Wheeler, "You now have a field to take care of passenger and freight flying post-war, and with additional improvement made in the meantime, it will be excellent."

The port has three runways, two of them being 2,400 feet long and 200 feet wide, while the third is 3,200 feet long and 200 feet wide.

Prior to CAA inspection, members of the Lions Club had painted wooden post markers at the end of the field a bright orange and the rock markers running parallel with landing strips white, while runways were maintained and improved.

Temporary designation of the field calls for daylight operations, and a permanent designation is now in hands of CAA for approval and is expected to be approved before the present designation expires on March 16. Two new gates for the port are being donated by Mrs. C. C. West and are to be hung by Fred Watson. One gate will accommodate vehicles, while the other is smaller for pedestrians.

Wheeler and Whitten have just closed a purchase for a two-place Aronca Trainer powered by a 65-horse Lycoming engine and plan to place the plane on the local port as soon as they can arrange to erect a hangar. Possibly other light craft will be purchased in the near future by other enthusiasts. Gasoline storage tanks and pumps to care for plane servicing has been arranged for and will be installed on the field following permanent designation of the port.

Mrs. O. M. Reynolds of Trinidad, Colo., is making a three-week visit here with her son, C. A. Reynolds and family.

Local Man Rounds Out 27th Year With Life Insurance Company; Record Investments In Savings By Texans Is Report Of Company

A record investment in savings on the part of Texans is indicated in the forty-second annual report to policyowners of Southwestern Life Insurance Company released here this week by C. F. O'Donnell, president, showing the largest business gains in the company's history since 1928.

Insurance in force at the close of 1944 gained $31,709,407 for a total of $481,718,273. Assets now total $108,940,511, a gain of $10,751,769 over assets reported at the close of 1943.

Mr. O'Donnell announced that the company had invested more than $50,000,000 in United States government securities since Pearl Harbor. This, he said, was pursuant to the policy of investing all new premium money in such bonds adopted by Southwestern Life Insurance Company at the start of the war.

Mr. O'Donnell's report noted an expanding interest in pension plans in Texas, through which both large and small business enterprises are providing retirement income for their permanent employees. In this connection, he said that since entering this field, the Southwestern Life Insurance Company has underwritten pension business on more than 60 of the 104 plans adopted in Texas.

While military deaths were high, overall statistics compared favorably with the company's five-year record, due to lower civilian mortality, Mr. O'Donnell said. Death claims paid during the year under policies on persons in the armed forces of the nation amounted to $474,858 and the Company has $65,500 insurance in force on persons reported missing in action, and $25,500 on persons reported as prisoners of war.

Mr. O'Donnell expressed satisfaction with the 1944 production of the local agency, and said that more than 140 members of the company's agency organization and home office personnel are in the armed service of the United States. Of the original number entering the armed service, three have been reported missing in action, and two have lost their lives while in training. "The company," he said, "is conscious of the great sacrifice they are making, and is deeply proud of them."

We are glad to announce we are going forward in a very good way with the religious emphasis that we planned for this week. We are finding a good response on the part of many of our people. And do appreciate so much the fine and splendid co-operation we are having in every way. We enrolled last Sunday evening in different groups 65, and no doubt when the week is over we'll have 60 or more awards. Another good feature about the special emphasis this week is we are led by Rev. and Mrs. Earl Allen from Brownwood. Brother Allen is our Associate District Missionary of District No. 16, and is doing splendid work everywhere he goes; and we feel fortunate to have him and Mrs. Allen with us

LONELY?
You'll never know...

It's the waiting that gets you down... thinking... will you ever get home again?... why don't they write more often... did Dad ever get over that heart trouble... is your best girl still waiting... will you ever get a job again...

And then, something saves you.

Like the day the Red Cross field man got a cable that your Dad was well.

And the time Red Cross girls came up with doughnuts, coffee and million-dollar American smiles.

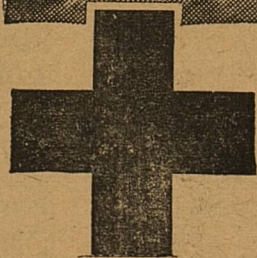

Then Christmas came. And the Red Cross girl at the club made you trim a palm leaf Christmas tree, and you all had presents and sang the old carols, out there in the hot tropic night.

Maybe it doesn't sound like much. The Red Cross does a lot of bigger things... such as collecting blood plasma for the wounded... sending food packages to prisoners of war... clothes for bombed-out kids.

But to us, home seems just a little nearer, because your Red Cross is with us.

Americans: To keep at the side of your fighting men, your Red Cross must have funds. Contributions from you are the only source of income. Millions of our men are still far from home. They need your Red Cross... they must have it.

Keep your
at his side

More Honorable Than The Star and Garter

The American people are notorious "joiners." Social prestige and business prosperity are sometimes more easily attained by membership in fraternal and civic organizations.

The Red Cross roll call offers none of these advantages—it is an organization whose members have associated themselves together for the sole purpose of lightening human suffering.

Here are but three of the things you are supplying when you join this great organization:

1. Surgical dressings for the wounded.
2. Blood plasma, without which many men could not live.
3. Food, clothing, and recreation to those gaunt men behind barbed wire—our sons, and sons of our friends and neighbors.

Can you envisage any other order half so honorable—half so worthy? Dig deep, folks! In this lifetime, no greater opportunity for loving kindness, mercy, and benevolence will be offered you.
