BIG ROCK

Heavy equipment moves a large piece of gypsum rock Tuesday on a hill of the new Panfork Road. Construction crews have encountered the rock formation on all of the hills which had to be cut to grade level. All rock removal has been accomplished with mechanical rippers, and none has had to be blasted with explosives. All rocks have now been removed from the roadbed and crews are completing rock removal this week from slopes. Dirt work on the roadbed should be

Red River Ups Its Water Rates

The Red River Authority of Texas, which makes possible the rural water systems of almost all of the Red River Basin in Texas, has notified its customers of a rate increase which will become effective August 1, 1985 and will be reflected in the August 31, 1985 billing.

Much of rural Collingsworth County receives water in farm steads, ranch homes, and part of the livestock water from the Red River Authority.

Notification of the rate increase came in a letter sent to each customer by Ronald J. Glenn, general manager of the Red River Authority of Texas. Collingsworth customers were receiving their letters this week.

Glenn explained that each system within the Red River Authority must maintain its own financial integrity and produce a stable cash flow. In other words, each system must stand on its own feet from a financial standpoint.

Glenn announced the new rate schedule which has been proposed for District 16, covering Collingsworth County, Childress County north of Red River, and part of Hall county.

The proposed new rate will have a minimum base of $28 per month with 1,000 gallons of water. Demand Block 1, costs $2.75 per 1,000 gallons for the next 5,000 gallons: Demand block 2, $3.10 per 1,000 gallons over 6,000 gallons.

The existing includes: minimum base: $20 per month with 3,000 gallons; demand block, $1.00 per 1,000 gallons over 3,000 gallons.

The Dodson system, which includes southeast Collingsworth to a point one mile north and 5 miles west of Wellington, as well as Childress and Hall County portions within the system, has not had a rate increase since it went into operation in 1976, John Green, District 16 manager, pointed out.

The Samnorwood System received a rate increase two years ago, which includes northwest Collingsworth from a mile south of the county line to Salt Fork River, and from the Hess Ranch at the northeast corner of the county, eastward to Aberdeen.

Green explained that although all systems within the Red River Authority are receiving rate increases, the amount of the increase varies with the individual system's cost of operation.

The cost of water service to the consumer will be in proportion to the quantity of water each uses. The Authority has selected the Increasing Block Consumptive.

The Red River of Texas provides water for rual areas from the Texas-Louisiana state line at its easternmost point, westward along the course of the river basin to Carson County, the farthest northwest point the authority covers. The southernmost point is Knox County.

District 16 includes 5 systems: Samnorwood, Dodson, Club Lake in Southwest Collingsworth near Memphis; Plaska-Friendship and Northeast Memphis in Hall

Work Begins Mon. on 1985-86 City Budget

Wellington City Council members, Mayor Ralph Owens and City Manager Glen Taylor will begin work on the City budget for the 1985-86 fiscal year.

In their July 1 meeting, on the first day of the 1985-6 FY, council members discussed with Taylor means by which the city can operate in the black during the next 12 months without cutting services to Wellington residents or raising taxes. Concern was expressed that services to the elderly not be cut.

At its meeting Monday, the city manager will present a profit and loss statement, a statement of fixed expenses and some suggestions of loopholes that can possibly be plugged

At that point, work on the 1985-86 FY budget will begin.

"'Right now, by the time we pay our fixed costs, we don't have a lot left to operate on," Taylor told the council. "I want you to tell me what you want me to do about cutting costs."

No action was taken in the July 1 meeting, but in discussion, councilmen were opposed to any cuts in services to the people, especially anything that would bring an added burden to the elderly on fixed income. They did, however, look at an increase in trash collection and sewer rates by $1 per month per customer, which would bring in from $12,000 to $13,000 per year. A $2 increase would double that.

They continued their study on hospital-medical insurance for city employees with lower premium rate but the same coverage as their present policy.

It may be possible to save as much as $16-$18,000 on this item alone.

The council did not favor an increase in taxes, as this already brings in only a small portion of the city's income. Wellington's tax rate of 25 cents per $100 valuation is one of the lowest in this part of the state.

One of the loopholes the council will look at is a possible charge for the use of the city landfill to all those who do not presently pay the sewer-trash collection fee, that is, anyone who does not have a water meter.

At present, those outside the city limits can haul all sorts of garbarge and rubbish, including dead animals, to the city landfill without charge. Such items are covered by a city employee on the day they are dumped.

No capital improvements are foreseen such as the fire station, city barns and shops, tennis courts resurfacing, new carpeting in the community center (the present carpet is wearing out), that have enhanced the city in recent years. There will be fewer regional and state meetings for administrative personnel.

Ranchers Warned of Cyanide Poisoning

Weather conditions this summer have made cyanide and nitrate poisoning of grazing cattle a possibility in Collingsworth County, D.V.M. Mark Fires said this week.

Before cattle are turned in on Johnson grass or haygrazers, the feed should be tested, Fires said.

Ranchers and farmer stockmen should bring a 4-inch diameter bundle to be tested, Fires said.

Summer heat is now causing plants to be under stress, Fires said, and they normally form and concentrate cyanide and nitrate when they are under stress. Cattle grazing on the plants risk the possibility of poisoning.

Symptoms of the poisoning in cattle are staggering, nervousness and uncoordinated movements.

Fires also reminded horse owners that all horses need yearly boosters of vaccine against equine encephalomyelitis or sleeping sickness.

Heavy rains in June in Collingsworth County have helped hatch a large mosquito population, and mosquitoes transmit sleeping sickness between horses and from horses to humans.

Still Time to Enter Tennis Tournament

The first ball in Wellington's annual invitational tennis tournament will be hit across the net at Ellison park at 8:30 a.m. Thursday, July 11.

Lynn Bartlett, tournament director, said interest is high in the division for players 14 years and under. This includes many of those who were on the Wellington junior high tennis teams during the last season. There are fewer entries in the division for those 18 years and under and in the open divisions.

There is still room for anyone wanting to play in the mixed doubles which will be played Sunday.

Bartlett reminded, however, that those wanting to participate in the tournament may enter any time up to the hour for their division to begin play. This will give late comers an opportunity to play in what has developed into one of the most popular open tennis tournaments of the lower panhandle.

Entries have been received from Memphis, Childress, Borger, Amarillo, Lakeview and as well as Wellington, Bartlett said.

"We'll have a lot of regional and state qualifiers and district champions from this year's teams. We'll have others who have been champions and qualifiers from the last few years, back to 1977," said Bartlett, indicating the quality of this year's tournament.

Besides Wellinton's teams, the entire Memphis tennis team is due to come, including Catherine Farris, who represented the region in the state tournament.

Some of the older players will come from Lakeview, where tennis has been a way of life in that small town.

Bartlett announced the divisions and starting times:

-Singles, 14 years and under begin at 8:30 a.m. Thursday, July 11.

VFW Post Honored, Bowen Elected Dist. 13 Officer

Honors came recently to Glynn Moore Post, No. 6439, Veterans of Foreign Wars and to one of its members. New officers were elected and took office July 1.

The Glynn Moore Post was named an Honor Roll Post for Texas in 1985. Its selection was based on completing a number of requirements set by the Department of Texas. The post reached a membership quota of 139, fourth largest in District 13 according to M.W. Paschall, outgoing commander.

It also met requirements, passed inspections, members attended district meetings, hosted district officials and meetings, had an active youth program, observed Loyalty Day, carried out the Poppy Day activities, as well as other programs of the organization.

Play Ball

Softball Tourney Begins Friday

The annual three-day Wellington Invitational Slow Pitch Softball tournament will be played at Marian Airpark Ball Park Friday evening through Sunday afternoon, July 12-14, according to Kathy Fincher, who is helping with plans.

The entry deadline is Wednesday night, therefore brackets have not yet been drawn and times of the various sessions have not been set.

Mrs. Fincher said there will be a Friday night session, starting at 7 or 8 o'clock and lasting until 1 or 2 a.m. or until all first round scheduled games are played. There will be other sessions Saturday morning, Saturday afternoon and Saturday night. The finals will be played Sunday afternoon. Again, starting times of these sessions will not be known until the brackets are drawn, Mrs. Fincher said.

Trophies will be given to the first, second, third and fourth place winners with individual trophies going to first and second place teams. A gift certificate will be awarded to the man selected as most valuable player.

Eleven teams have entered so far and there will be a limit of 16, according to Mrs. Fincher. Anyone wanting to know game times or other information should call Mrs. Fincher at 806-447-2234.

Teams that have entered so far are from Pampa, Borger, Childress, Shamrock, Amarillo, and Wellington.

Reeves, Hurst, Keys Go on C-C Board

Three directors to serve two-year terms on the chamber of commerce board were elected in the board meeting Monday, July 8. Don Reeves and Lyn Hurst were re-elected and Mark Keys of Wellington State Bank was named as a new member.

A theme was selected for the County Fair Parade Friday, September 6: "Go and Grow with Collingsworth."

Charles Darter, president, said that a goal of at least 20 decorated floats has been set. This is an addition to all other categories in the parade.

There will be a division of out-of-county decorated floats this year, and several have already been promised for the fair.

For the first time, also, the chamber of commerce will have a decorated float.

Darter emphasized that because of the time element, those planning to have floats should begin work now, allowing the necessary time to plan the floats, secure materials and do the actual decorating.

Lyn Hurst was nominated for a place on the Private Industry Council if a vacancy occurs. The council administers the Job Training Partnership assistance for the Panhandle.

Margaret Vines, secretary, announced that the plans are complete for the Defensive Driving Course to be held Saturday, July 13, in the Heritage Room.

This is a one-day 8 hour course, 8 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Jack Peeples of Pampa will be the instructor.

It is not too late for anyone wanting to take this course to sign up.

Those desiring to enroll or needing more information should contact Mrs. Vines at 447-5848.

Purchase of a new electric typewriter for the secretary's use was approved.

His face still lights up when he remembers the thrill of going into Tokyo Bay.

Bowen has been Veteran's Service Officer since 1972.

Bowen's wife, Ann, has served as secretary-treasurer of the Auxiliary unit.

They have two children, Jan, the wife of Bill Tyler of Olney, and Reece Bowen, of Canadian, a Hemphill County deputy sheriff.

The Samnorwood System includes the old Samnorwood rural water system built a number of years ago to serve those areas in the north part of the county not having potable groundwater. It was one of the early rural water systems of this part of the state.

Increased Hunting License Fees Due

AUSTIN - Resident and non-resident Texas hunting licenses will cost more in 1985-86 as a result of action by the Texas Parks and Wildlife Commission last week.

The most dramatic increases were for non-resident hunting licenses, with the general non-resident license price raised from $100.75 to $200 and the non-resident small game license from the current $37.75 to $75.

Staff members told the commission that the increased fees bring the cost of Texas non-resident licenses more in line with those in other states, and especially those states which provide the bulk of hunters visiting Texas.

All the increases will be effective Sept. 1, 1985. Licenses for the 1985-86 seasons will be available from department offices and retail outlets by August, officials said.

Other license fees increase are: resident combination hunting/fishing, from $12 to $15; resident hunting, $8 to $10; resident hunting exempt, $5 to $6; hunting duplicate, $5 to $6, and temporary non-resident fishing, $7 to $8.

The $8 resident fishing license fee will remain unchanged for 1985-86, as will the $15 non-resident annual fishing license. However, staff members said additional revenue is expected from a $5 saltwater fishing stamp and a $5 freshwater trout stamp authorized by the Texas Legislature this year.

Roadway Markings Give Directions

Do you know the difference between a broken white line and a broken yellow line used on highways?, asks the Department of Highways and Public Transportation.

A normal broken white line is used to delineate or outline the edge of a travel path where travel is allowed in the same direction on both sides of the line.

A normal broken yellow line is used to delineate the left edge of a travel path where travel on the other side of the line is in the opposite direction.

This broken yellow line is often used as a center line of a two-lane, two-way roadway, where overtaking and passing is permitted.

Collingsworth County Agent Report

CONTROL WHITE GRUBS IN LAWNS

White grub control in lawns is important during the summer season.

May of June beetles are emerging from the soil and starting to swarm in late evenings. Females are laying eggs and white grub worms that hatch will soon be feeding on roots of bermudagrass in home lawns. Once grubs begin feeding, control measures should be taken.

Treatment time varies with the particular area of the state and ranges from early July in South Texas to mid-August in the Panhandle. Homeowners in Collingsworth County will need to treat between July 15 and August 15. Timing of application is critical for adequate control.

White grubs in excessive numbers can heavily damage lawns. Check for white grubs by cutting a square foot section of sod with a shovel and examining the roots and soil to a depth of 4 inches. Examine at least one square foot of sod for 1,000 square feet of lawn area. Chemical treatment is needed if there are more than four grubs per square foot of sod.

Diazinon, Dursban or Dylox provide adequate control and should be used at recommended rates given on the chemical container label. The granular form is easier to apply and to wash into the soil than liquid or spray formulaitons. After using granules, drag the grass with a tow sack or water hose to knock them down to the soil. Then apply enough water to soak the granules into the soil.

Apply diazinon sprays at the rate of 25 gallons of water, including the insecticide, per 1,000 square feet to wash the insecticide into the soil. Wetting the lawn before spraying also helps. Always keep children and pets off the treated lawn until the grass is dry.

The key to white grub control in home lawns is proper timing of chemical applications and getting the insecticide through the grass to the root zone where grubs are feeding.

Trio in Washington, Over July 4 Holiday

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Colwell and their nephew, Gaylon Cochran of Dodson returned Sunday night July 7, after a trip through 12 states and July 4 spent in Washington, D.C.

They were at the Mall, where many holiday concerts are held, and Mrs. Colwell called it a mad-house, due to the crowds. Some of the leading singers were there to celebrate the 4th and to perform. Their fees were donated to charities.

On July 3, they had visited Mt. Vernon, home of President George Washington, and other points of interest in that area. They consider this one of the highlights of the trip.

They also visited the Smithsonian Institution, and were especially impressed with that part devoted to the space program. They saw the Hope Diamond, largest in the world. They went to the Capitol and White House and could see the grounds and exterior, but because of the great numbers of tourists the interior portions usually open to visitors were closed.

Along the New Jersey coast, they waded in the Atlantic Ocean. It was beautiful country, Mrs. Colwell said.

They visited Delaware and Maryland, and returned through Ohio, Illinois, Missouri and on home, stopping at many interesting places along the way.

"We have never traveled where there was so much Fourth of July traffic," said Mrs. Colwell. Altogether they traveled more than 4,000 miles.

A bridge engineer named Hubert Cecil Booth devised the first vacuum cleaner in 1901. He was the first to determine that it was easier to clean by sucking dirt than by blowing it around.

Proof that America had an early love for chocolate lies in the fact that the country's first chocolate mill was erected in Massachusetts in 1765.

Two Future Farmers Attend Short Course

Two Future Farmers of America from Wellington were among the 70 boys and 4 girls who recently completed a three-day workshop in farm electrification, sponsored by Southwestern Public Service Company (SPS).

C.H. Campbell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kirby Campbell, and Lance Stephens, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tony Stephens, completed the course and competed for an expense-paid trip to the 1985 FFA National Convention.

The workshop, which was north of Amarillo June 10-12, attracted FFA members from Texas and New Mexico. Area One FFA officers -- an additional three boys and two girls -- assisted at the workshop.

The students learned applications of electricity for farm use, such as wiring buildings, assembling and using electric controls, and construction of electric motors.

SPS primarily provides electricity service to a population of more than one million in the Panhandle and South Plains of Texas, eastern and southwestern New Mexico, the Oklahoma Panhandle, and southwestern Kansas.

Tons of hazardous pesticides, paints, cleaners and solvents stored in basements and garages may be the country's biggest hidden pollution problem. A regional government agency in Seattle estimates there are more than 100,000 pounds of the banned pesticide DDT stored in the Seattle suburbs alone. Some 25 states are setting up toxic waste collection points to help combat this problem.

Sesquicentennial Cookbooks Set by Extension Homemaker Clubs

The Extension Homemakers Clubs of Collingsworth County have announced they are compiling a cookbook as their Texas Sesquicentennial project.

Mrs. Bill Hill is Texas Extension Homemaker Association (THEA) chairman for this county and also the cookbook chairman.

Recipes are already being accepted, and Mrs. Hill urges that they be turned in as soon as possible.

"This is a county-wide project, not for THEA members alone.

"We urge that you share your favorite recipes of yesteryear or the present." Mrs. Hill said.

"We would like to have recipes of your mothers and your grandmothers, or other early recipes, perhaps some that the pioneer women brought to this county when they moved here.

"On the other hand, we want your good modern recipes. Home Demonstration Club-Extension Homemaker Club membes have always been known for their fine cooking...these are the kind of recipes we want to preserve."

Recipes should be mailed to Mrs. Bill Hill, Rt. 2, Box 1, Wellington, Texas 79095 or to Nancy Janes, Extension Agent, Court House, Wellington, Texas 79095.

"We urge you to begin getting your recipes together immediately," said Mrs. Hill.

The cookbook will contain 400 recipes, all of them from county women. The copy will be sent to the printer as soon as this number is reached.

The first printing will be 800 books.

"No ads will be sold to finance this cookbook," said Mrs. Hill. "We feel that the merchants are hit enough to buy ads as it is. We are relying on book sales altogether for financing."

There will be 12 sections in the book:

-Appetizers, relishes and pickles.
-Soups, salads and sauces.
-Main dishes and casseroles.
-Meats, poultry and seafood.
-Vegetables.
-Bread, rolls, pies and pastries.
-Low calorie dishes.
-Cakes, cookies and confections.
-Desserts, pies, cakes, etc.
-Beverages, sandwiches, miscellaneous.
-Cooking hints.
-Foods of Yesteryear.

The six Collingsworth County Extension Homemaker Clubs are Lillie EHC, Midway, Samnorwood, Fresno, Dodson and Wellington.

Straight Talk

Many people have questions about funerals and funeral prices.

We want to answer those questions.

The cost of a funeral varies a great deal from family to family, depending on the type of services and merchandise selected. You choose what you want and what you want to spend.

There are many factors which affect the price of a funeral. Caskets, for instance, vary from several hundred to several thousand dollars in price. Outer enclosures also vary in price. We offer a wide variety of outer enclosures, including concrete, fiberglass and steel vaults and pine and concrete grave liners. Other factors which affect funeral prices are cash advance items which are charged for services rendered by those outside the funeral home, such as opening and closing the grave, funeral notices, and certified copies of death certificates.

In other words, we have a funeral to fit the need of every family.

We'd like to answer your questions about funerals, so come by or give us a call and let us show you the differences in funerals and funeral prices. That way you'll be able to make a well-informed decision when the need arises in your family.

We're proud to be able to offer the very best services and caskets at competive prices, and we invite you to come by or call us and compare.

The establishment earlier this year of the Collingsworth County Endowment is one of the most positive things that has happened in our community in a long time.

The possibilities are limited only by our vision and imagination.

The Endowment operates under the auspices of the Amarillo Area Foundation. That means that the services of the Foundation's professional staff are available to fill out the paperwork and IRS information that's necessary each year. It also means that the staff's advice is available to people who wish to give gifts more complicated than cash, such as real estate, real property, life insurance policies, mineral interests or royalties or stocks or bonds.

The assistance of the Amarillo Area Foundation allows our local community to benefit from donations which might otherwise have had to go to a large institution which had the resources and skill to manage such a gift. Previously the community had no mechanism organized to receive, for example, a farm or ranch. Now a person who wishes to leave a permanent memorial or gift to benefit the local community can do so. The income from that donation can be used each year by the community, either for purposes designated by the donor or for needs that may arise here in the future.

And the Endowment will prove an asset to the community for cash gifts. Cash gifts made to educational institutions or national charitable organizations leave the community immediately and never return. Cash gifts made to the Endowment will stay in local financial institutions in Wellington. The interest that the gift earns will be available each year for local projects. But, just as important, the corpus or principal stays in the local financial institution and helps strengthen it and the local economy.

Perhaps the best thing about the Endowment is that it is locally controlled. No expenditures will be made from the Endowment without the approval of a 7-member board of local citizens.

The Endowment committee has selected the new combined school-county library as its first project, and a fund has been set up for that purpose at both local banks.

But the Endowment is not limited to the library project. There are many possibilities. Someone might wish to give a permanent fund, the interest of which might be used each year to finance, for example, Little League activities. Another donor might wish that the income from his or her donation be used for the work of a local church. Someone else might simply wish to create an undesignated memorial fund within the Endowment which would be used each year for community projects as they arise.

Funds could be used for community improvement, scholarships, economic development, cultural programs or almost anything that anyone can think of.

The Endowment offers us a chance to do things for our neighbors and for ourselves that would not have been possible otherwise. It's a big step in the right direction for our community.

STATE CAPITAL HIGHLIGHTS

By Lyndell Williams
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN—Economy-minded state officials were joyful last week when the Navy announced it would build the much sought after homeport for a new battleship at Corpus Christi.

The Houston-Galveston area, which had survived cuts to make it to the final three, will also get several attendant ships in its area as the U.S. builds a 600-ship Navy.

The Texas Legislature this spring appropriated $25 million for improvements to the Corpus Christi base site to help lure the Navy base to the Lone Star State.

Jobs and money from the Navy construction are expected to spill over to the entire state, including annual spending of $174 million and 7,140 permanent jobs for a total economic impact for Texas of one-quarter of a billion dollars.

Specifically, the Navy will put the battleship USS Wisconsin, a missile carrier, a missile destroyer, a minesweeper and aircraft carrier at Corpus Christi.

Defense Dollars Here

And a Defense Department report indicates other Pentagon spending in Texas will total more than $32 billion this year, second only to California.

Some $2.2 billion will pay for petroleum refining and related services, and $2.1 billion for crude oil and natural gas, a boost to that slumping industry here.

Saturn Project

Meanwhile, Texas still awaits word on whether General Motors Corp. will select this state as the site of the new Saturn plant.

Other state legislatures still in session are developing their incentives to GM, which will probably make the announcement sometime in mid-July. The Texas Legislature approved a package of service incentives which included new roads and transportation facilities. Sherman, Texas is thought to be a prime site.

U.S. Sen. Phil Gramm, though, said last week that a lack of positive signals from GM is discouraging.

But GM officials said when a decision has been reached, they will personally notify top officials of some three dozen states before making a public announcement.

Election Runoff Set

The governor set August 3 as the date for the election runoff in the First Congressional District in northeast Texas.

Results from the June 29 vote had Republican Edd Hargett out front with 42 percent and Democrat Jim Chapman in second place with 30 percent of the vote out of an eight-man field.

Both sides are calling themselves underdogs in this important vote which analysts are considering a test on Democratic defections to the Republican Party.

Political Jockeying

Another Republican has surfaced who might run for governor, this one from Houston, where the key to victory may lie.

Jack Rains, a wealthy lawyer, businessman and Aggie said he has financial commitments which would enable him to campaign if former Gov. Bill Clements does not. Rains was appointed by Clements to the Veterans Land Board.

Rains said other candidates are either too new to the GOP or not broad-based enough to win. "If you're going to beat Mark White, you've got to beat him in Houston," he said.

That strategy is becoming more accepted by political analysts who remember that Houston was the only area that White took away from Clements in defeating him in '82. Its large population, its economic troubles and its huge turnout of swing voters make it perhaps the most crucial county, election-wise, of this decade.

South African Visit

House Speaker Gib Lewis visited South Africa last week, a guest of that nation's government. With him is close friend and ally, State Rep. Charles Evans.

Although no one has revealed the purpose of the trip, which is presumably paid for by South Africa, Texas black officials have criticized the trip, particularly Houston state Sen. Craig Washington.

Washington is a foe of South Africa's policy of racial separatism, and some of his bills designed to ban the spending of state dollars in that nation's businesses have failed in the House.

Senator Bill Sarpalius Reports

CANADIAN RIVER AIDED

AUSTIN — Few rivers hold sway over a region like the Canadian River does the Panhandle.

The river not only is the major tributary running through the High Plains; it also is a recreational attraction. And, the Canadian's single biggest chore may be feeding Lake Meredith, which serves as a primary water supplier for Amarillo, Lubbock and other High Plains towns.

Residents of District 31 long have recognized the importance of the Canadian River to their area. Only the Ogallala aquifer itself can claim similar stature in West Texas.

The Legislature also may be beginning to recognize the importance of the Canadian as two major pieces of legislation concerning the river were passed during the recent regular session. One could help make the Canadian a purer river, the other could end a longstanding dispute about its boundaries.

Senate Bill 863 was the first of the two measures to pass, and it could have the most immediate impact. S.B. 863 gives the Canadian River Municipal Water Authority, which operates Lake Meredith, permission to use state water quality and enhancement funds outside the state when desalinating the river.

Permission to use the money out of state clears the way for water authority officials to go into New Mexico and remove salt from the Canadian River before it crosses the border into Texas. The end result will be salt-free water flowing into Lake Meredith and a purer water supply for the High Plains.

All that remains to cinch the deal is the state money. Once such money becomes available, the project can begin, and a major desalination project can be implemented without passing the cost along to local water users.

The second Canadian River measure wasn't a bill unto itself; it was a part of the General Appropriations Bill, and it funds an extensive survey of the Canadian River basin. Such a survey hopefully will determine what land along the basin belongs to the state and what belongs to private land owners.

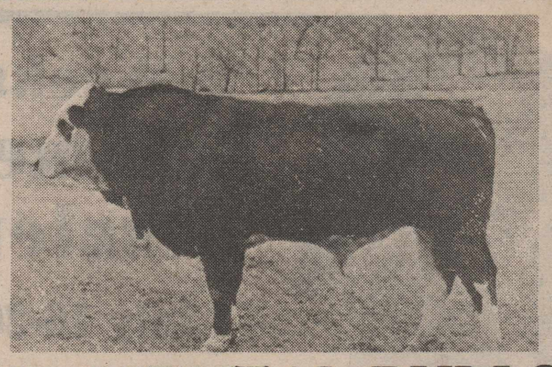

The difference between public and private land was much clearer in the first half of the century, when many of the deeds along the Canadian were issued. The river, as is its want, has shifted course in the intervening years and no one can tell for sure what belongs to whom.

Many people agree the best way to settle the dispute is through an extensive survey, so we worked with Land Commissioner Gary Mauro to see that an additional $300,000 is given the General Land Office for a survey.

Under an agreement between Mauro, our office and Sen. Ray Farabee, D-Wichita Falls, the land office survey team first will survey the Canadian, then make a study of the Red River in Farabee's district. The shifting of the Red River has caused a dispute concerning the border between Texas and Oklahoma.

With a little luck, the ownership question along the Canadian and Red River hopefully can be solved within two years. Once boundaries are exactly determined, the possibilities, especially for the Canadian, are endless.

The public lands could become part of an expanded recreational facility. There would be less of a question about where hunters could practice their sport and where they couldn't. We won't know for sure until the survey is completed, but things are looking up for the Canadian River.

BOOK NEWS

A former Loco woman, Zelma Stephens Davis, of Lubbock, has published her second volume of poems, "Life in Verse."

The book will be on display in this area for the first time at the Loco-Arlie reunion on August 4. She attends the reunion regularly.

Mrs. Davis was born in Harmon County the 9th of 10 children of a farm family. She is the mother of three daughters and has been a nurse 14 years.

In 1969 she published her first book, "Poems from Everyday Living."

She has donated several copies of the new book as door prizes for the August 4 reunion.

"I plan to be there and my sisters and brothers are coming," said Mrs. Davis.

Zelma Davis' poems cover a wide range of subjects--a father going to war as he talks to his small son, an Apollo space flight--religious poems, christmas poems and everyday happenings. They are written in a style that most people in this area enjoy.

This is a soft cover book in rich yellow, with matching pages. The book was edited by LaDonna Watson, the poet's daughter, and printed by Keels Publishing Co., P.O. Box 699 in Lubbock.

Half of this first edition has been sold.

Youths Attend WTSU Gifted-Talented Week

WTSU - West Texas State University hosted the third annual Summer Institute for the Gifted and Talented in three sessions during the month of June. Students ages 9-11 participated in two sessions which took place June 9-15 and June 16-22. The third session, June 23-29, was for students ages 12-14. Attending Session III from Wellington were Dennis Cudd II, Mycal Garcia and Michael Turner.

The program, partially funded by a grant from Rockwell Fund, Inc., gave students the opportunity to participate in classes in mythology, science, math, art, creative dramatics, and living biographies. In addition, the students chose elective classes from chess, creative problem solving, puppetry, story telling, world culture, racquetball, swimming, and golf.

Further, sponsors of the Institute planned extra activities such as a tour of the Amarillo Art Center, a tour of the amphitheater plus a viewing of the "TEXAS" production, a lesson in graphoanalysis, and a lecture on relaxation and stress-reduction. One of the highlights was a workshop with Robert York, world-class juggler.

At the end of each session, all students received certificates, and awards were given for outstanding performance.

The Institute will hold a similar program on Saturdays, September 21 through November 16, from 9:30 a.m. until noon.

Collingsworth County Agent Report

by Nancy Janes

THRISTY? DRINK WATER!

Whether you're a summer athlete or spectator, you'll probably reach for something cool and refreshing to relieve the heat and quench your thrist. But the best way to get relief, is not with any commerical product.

The American College of Sports Medicine (ACSM) recommends water as the thrist quencher. The body needs water during exercise, since water losses greater than 3% of your total body weight can result in decreased strength and endurance.

*Drinks high in carbohydrates (like soft drinks) delay the rate at which fluid leaves the stomach, thus increasing absorption time. If you do drink a sweet soda, fresh fruit juice or commercially prepared athletic tonic, the best thing to do is to dilute it with water.

* Drinks high in sodium increase the amount of water your body loses. Only under extreme circumstances, such as when your water loss during exercise equals 6 pounds or more, should you worry about replacing sodium and other nutrients. Even then, you should be sure to include adequate amounts of water.

* Alcohol may be a part of many summer sports activities, but it does nothing for quenching a real thrist. When it comes to restoring your body's water balance, an alcoholic drink does just the opposite. It's a diuretic, so it increases the amount of water the kidneys excrete. Thus the more alcohol you drink, the more fluid you lose.

* Other substances in a beverage can effect the way water is used. Caffeine, theobromine and theophylline, found in cola and tea also has a diuretic effect, increasing water loss.

What all this means is that water is still number one for quenching the thrist of athletes and spectators alike.

Lt. Mark Terry Participates in Global Shield 85

Second Lt. Mark A. Terry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bobby E. Terry of 4716 60th Street, Lubbock, Texas, has participated in Global Shield 85, an exercise involving U.S. Air Force, Air Force Reserve, Air National Guard, Navy and Marine Corps units, and elements of the Canadian forces.

The exercise, coordinated by the Air Force Strategic Air Command (SAC), was designed to enhance readiness and the ability of SAC to carry out orders should deterrence fail.

He is a 1975 graduate of Shamrock High School.

His grandmother, Carmen Terry, resides on Rural Route 3, Shamrock, Texas.

Mrs. Bobby Terry formerly of Wellington, will be remembered as Jocille Gray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H.S. Gray. She and her husband moved to his home town, Shamrock when he retired from military service, and more recently they moved to Lubbock.

What's Coming

With sharp eyes and a good telescope it is not difficult to see what's coming one's way. But what can we know of the coming future? Will it bring rain or shine, sickness or health, prosperity or poverty, war or peace? Will the future reveal the next scientific marvel to be as horrifying as the atomic bomb or as helpful as penicillin? No man can say what will come, but one thing we do know about the future, and that is — Who is coming — God! The same God who laid out the universe and gave each of us life is still in command and will come bringing our future. It is secure in His hands for those who trust Him.

EVERYONE IN THE CHURCH THE CHURCH IN EVERYONE

Is something wrong with your life — an inner restless dissatisfaction? The answer to every human problem comes only from God our Maker. He alone can forgive and reassure.
Through the church God has committed the provision and proclamation of His forgiveness and redeeming love. Without a church relation no one is securely related to God. Everyone should be in the Church and the Church should be in everyone!

BRUNSON

Brunson is Owens Auto Salvage Employee of Month

Owens Auto Salvage Employee of the Month for July is Rob Brunson, who has worked at the business for a little more than a year.

Brunson and his wife, Diania live east of Wellington.

He is employed in auto-body work and he remarked that he took this job because he likes to work on cars. Before coming here, he was employed at Danny Hill's Body Shop in Vinson.

Brunson, 21, was born at Alamagordo, N.M. His parents, Fred and Nota Brunson now live at Vinson, Okla.

He graduated from Mangum, Okla., High School in 1983.

His wife is the former Diania Sue Dobbs of Mangum, and they have a six-weeks old daughter, Jennifer.

While living in Vinson they were active in the Baptist Church.

Brunson is a member of the Oklahoma National Guard, with a rating of Specialist 4 in the 171st Field Artillery Battalion, a unit of the 45th Division. His unit is headquartered in Mangum and in June he attended the annual National Guard two weeks camp at Fort Sill.

Robert Owens, owner of Owens Auto Salvage began the Employee of the Month program earlier this year, to recognize those employees who are doing outstanding work at their jobs, and whose skills are making a contribution to the company.

Hay Destroyed in Two Blazes Here Recently

Sixteen large round bales of wheat hay belonging to Gary Starkey were burned on the night of July 4. They were near the large barn on the farm belonging to his father, Oran Starkey, located on Highway US 83. Each bale weighed 1500 pounds.

The fire was first seen by J.D. Sheer, secretary of the Wellington Volunteer Fire Department about 10 p.m. as he returned from an outing at Salt Fork River.

"It was a tiny blaze when I saw it first," he said. "I went to Allsups (on Highway US 83) to turn in the fire alarm and when I got back, the whole shooting match was on fire. It went up in a hurry."

Sheer said he had received reports of someone shooting fireworks at the location and it is believed that caused the fire, this ignited the hay.

Firemen were called back to the scene at 7 a.m. Friday when the fire blazed again.

An undetermined number of bales belonging to Troy Gene Thomason were lost in a blaze at his farm located near the northwest corner of the town section Sunday night, June 30.

Thomason did not know the number of bales he had but it was estimated that approximately half were destroyed before firemen could bring the blaze under control. Gray said.

Bill Sarpalius Named to Federal Agriculture Body

AUSTIN - Lieutenant Governor Bill Hobby recently reappointed Senator Bill Sarpalius to the National Conference of State Legislatures Federal Assembly Committee on Agriculture and Food Policy.

"The State-Federal Assembly serves to keep us informed and provides two-way communication between State and Federal Governments. The Committees of the State-Federal Assembly are an important part of the overall legislative functions.

"Senator Sarpalius' reappointment will be completed when the 70th Regular Session of the Legislature convenes."

Megacities may go "up" rather than "out" and farming "green space" will move up to the city.

Although the anteater is officially designated as a mammal, it seems to be part bird, mammal and reptile. The beast, classified in 1884 as a mammal, has a long, skinny beak like a bird, lays eggs like a snake and has a pouch like a kangaroo. It also eats dirt.

Where you place birdseed for wild birds can be just as important as what you place in the feeder. Cardinals, for instance, seem to prefer a tabletop on which to eat sunflower seeds in the shell, while mourning doves fancy eating sunflower seeds off the ground.

NOTICE OF INTENT TO IMPLEMENT RATES

General Telephone Company of the Southwest in accordance with the Public Utility Regulatory Act and the Rules of the Public Utility Commission of Texas gives notice of its intent to implement new exchange access rates for the provision of shared tenant and tenant resale services.

These proposed rates are applicable to customers of General Telephone Company of the Southwest, excluding hotel/motel customers, who provide local exchange telephone service of General Telephone Company of the Southwest to their tenants or patrons on a resale or shared use basis. This resale or sharing arrangement is normally provided utilizing a customer-provided PABX or other similar stored control switch capable of common control processing or other features commonly associated with a PABX "Smart" switch.

These proposed rates are designed to recover costs on a usage basis for local exchange telephone service access and are identical to General Telephone's "Optional Measured Service" rates. The monthly access rate will be $28.95 per trunk line and the usage rates are as follows:

Over	Up To and Including	Band	Set Up	Full Rate Period Each Minute
0	7 miles	A	$ .025	$ .015
7	14 miles	B	.035	.021
14	21 miles	C	.050	.030
21	28 miles	D	.070	.042
28		E	.090	.054

As this is a new service offering, we are unable to determine the number of customers who may be affected. Currently, there are no known prospective customers. Until any customer utilizes this new offering, there will be no effect on the revenues of the telephone company, and in any event, the telephone company does not expect revenues to be affected by more than 2½ percent. These proposed rates, where applicable, will provide tariffed local exchange access to customers who then will provide shared or resale services to tenants.

These proposed rates have been suspended by the Public Utility Commission of Texas and will become effective as proposed or modified by order of the Commission on a date to be determined by the commission.

The proposed rate schedule is on file with the Commission for public inspection and is also available at any business office of General Telephone Company of the Southwest.

Persons who wish to intervene or otherwise participate in these proceedings should notify the commission as soon as possible. A request to intervene, participate, or for further information should be mailed to the Public Utility Commission of Texas, 7800 Shoal Creek Boulevard, Suite 400N Austin, Texas 78757. Further information may also be obtained by calling the Public Utility Commission Consumers Affairs Division at (512)458-0223 or (512)458-0227, or (512)458-0221 teletypewriter for the deaf.

Former Norwood Woman Dies in Okla. Explosion

A former Samnorwood area woman, Mrs. Dale Bradley Ludolph, was one of more than 20 persons who died in the explosion that leveled a fireworks factory near Mansford, Okla. Tuesday, June 25. Mrs. Ludolph was a company employee.

Funeral services were conducted Saturday, June 29, at Mansford Christian Fellowship Church in Mansford.

She was a niece of Pat and Winnie Bradley and Susie Bradstreet, all of Shamrock. She lived with Mr. and Mrs. Bradley while attending Samnorwood High School two years, graduating in 1953.

Alverna Dale Bradley Ludolph was born at Dozier December 17, 1935, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C.F. Bradley and attended school at Wonder and Mitchell, Oregon, and Lakeside and Hoover High School, in California, before coming to Samnorwood.

Survivors include her husband, H.C. Ludolph; four sons and their wives, Brad and Brenda Ludolph, Kenneth and Shela Ludolph, Henry Ludolph and Scott Ludolph; four grandsons; her mother, Mrs. Sula Bradley of Sheridan, Wyoming; four sisters, Patsy McKenny, LeVanna Melton, Lauretta Scotee and Mary Beth Young.

Area relatives attending the funeral were Paul Bradley, Don Bradley, H.P. and Marilyn Bradley, Roy and Linda Hall and family, Etta Lou Hudson and Susie Bradstreet, all of Shamrock;

Also Gussie Cornell, L.B. and Bernell Cornell and family, Wilma Deanfarr, Smokey and Davis Harvey, Barbara and John Kelmartin and family, Jay and Novilla Bryan and Nella Jo Parker. Debra Sabee and children and Dianne Sullivan.

A sister, Alice Bradley Vann, was killed in a car wreck near Roswell, N.M. in February.
