Traffic Accidents Lead The List With 11; Several Fatal Shootings Reported

(By The Associated Press)

At least 18 persons died violently in Texas over the week-end, eleven in traffic accidents.

A car crashed into the caboose of a parked freight train at a Missouri Pacific crossing in Odem Sunday, killing two women. They were Mrs. Ruby Hart, 29, of Refugio and Mrs. Geraldine Dehm, 29, of Woodsboro. Mrs. Hart's husband, Herman, 33, was critically injured. # Five Persons Die In Crash Of B-26

(By The Associated Press)

RIVERSIDE, Calif., Oct. 17—A B-26 light air force bomber from Wichita Falls, apparently lost in fog, crashed into high tension wires near here last night, killing five persons.

Four of the bodies, one a civilian, were recovered from the wreckage. The aircraft, which did not burn, sprayed gasoline around the area, making it hazardous to search for bodies. Police said the body of a fifth man, known to be aboard, was not found but believed there was no chance he survived.

Crashed Into Ravine

The bomber was en route from Williams air force base in Arizona to Long Beach, Calif., when it hit the 42,000-volt wires. It crashed 300 feet into a ravine in th hilly section.

The plane was due at Long Beach at 5:03 p. m. PST, but the wreckage was not discovered until 9:30 p. m., by power company crews seeking the cause of an electric blackout.

Names of victims were not disclosed pending notification of next-of-kin.

The plane was on a routine training flight from its home base at Sheppard field, Wichita Falls, Tex. It refueled at Williams.

Later Sheppard field said the civilian aboard was Ralph Jones Lane, about 60, an engineer with the air installation squadron at Sheppard field. Lane's wife lives in Seymour.

Sheppard officials said March air force base in California is handling the investigation and disposition of the bodies.

CHICAGO, Oct. 17 (U.P.)—A pair of stick-up men fairly cleaned out Dr. Rollie Harrison.

He told police the gunmen took his wallet containing $500, a $350 ring and his watch.

Then, he said, one of them noticed his shoes, tried them on and kept them. The other took a fancy to the doctor's spectacles and appropriated them for himself.

Harrison said he was glad they apparently didn't care for his taste in clothes.

Stork Wins In Atlantic Race

SHANNON AIRPORT, Ireland, Oct. 17. (AP)—The stork raced an American Overseas Airlines pilot over the Atlantic ocean today—and the stork won.

A baby boy was born to Mrs. Darinks Parker of New York City, while the Constellation droned at full throttle 400 miles from Shannon. Both the mother and child were reported well. The baby's weight was given as four pounds.

Taken To Hospital

When the crowded transport made its regular stop here the mother and child were taken by ambulance to nearby Ennis hospital.

The plane was enroute from New York to Frankfurt, Germany, by way of Ireland.

The 20-year-old mother, a GI bride from Bavaria, was quoted as saying: "I hadn't expected the baby for another month and a half." Her husband, still in the U. S. army, is stationed at Weisbaden, Germany.

Stormy Record Will Be Issue In '50 Voting

Republicans Score Democrats' Action On Domestic Bills

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17 — The 81st Congress is nearing the end of its first session with its disputed record certain to be a major political issue next year.

Its leaders hope to adjourn sometime this week after more than nine months of almost continuous session.

Depending on how you look at it, its record is either very good of very bad.

Presidential Secretary Charles Ross has described the record of the 81st as "rather remarkable," a summation in which Democratic congressional leaders generally concur.

Record Disputed

Republicans can't see it that way. Only yesterday Senator Wherry (R-Neb) said Congress under the Democrats has been "poorly organized and weakly led." He added that campaign pledges of President Truman had turned out to be empty promises.

Congress this year has followed the leadership of the President generally on foreign matters. It has differed sharply with him on some domestic legislation and has flatly rejected him in some major cases.

Senator Myers (D-Pa) said yesterday that the record is good domestically as well as foreign. On the domestic side he cited passage of bills on housing, rent control, government reorganization, crop insurance, public works planning and hospital aid.

Probes Conducted

Wherry noted that the 81st has created the worst appropriation jam in the history of Congress. Even today, more than three months after the start of the 1950 fiscal year, Congress hasn't finally appropriated for the needs of the military establishment for the year which began July 1.

It has conducted some of the more interesting investigations in recent years, such as the Senate's probe of five-percenters and the House inquiry into navy-air force

Light Showers Are Reported In Area

Intermittent rain showers continued to fall over widely scattered sections of the South Plains at 2 o'clock this afternoon, but no heavy precipitation had been reported.

The U. S. weather bureau station at Municipal airport had recorded only .01 inch at 2 o'clock this afternoon. A heavier rain fell 10 to 15 miles west of the airport but no measurement was made.

Hobbs, N. M., had received .08 late this afternoon. The heaviest showers seemed to be centered in southeastern New Mexico. As far east as Big Spring only a trace of rain had been reported early this afternoon.

Temperatures were expected to go no higher than the middle 60's today and tomorrow, but night-time temperatures would be held in the middle 50's by cloud layers, weather bureau observers said.

Mercy Killing Follows Accidental Shot

Boy Shoots Brother Second Time To Eliminate Misery

(By The United Press)

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 17—A 15-year-old boy deliberately shot and killed his younger brother to put him out of his misery as he screamed in pain from an accidental gunshot wound, police reported today.

Richard Elliott killed his brother, Robert, 10, with a .32 caliber revolver last night as the younger boy lay writhing on the floor of their West Los Angeles home, officers said. Robert was wounded in the head by a bullet accidentally discharged from the same weapon.

"I couldn't stand to see him suffer like that," Richard told police.

Detectives said Richard told them he and his brother were watching a wild west television show. When it was over he took out a gun he had bought from a high school friend for $6 and showed it to Robert.

Richard's finger struck the trigger, sending a bullet into his brother's head, police said. The boy fell to the floor,

FURTHER INCREASES EXPECTED

Employment Boost Is Noted In Area

A decided upturn in employment in the Lubbock area was noted today by B. T. O'Connell, manager of the Texas Employment commission, who estimates total employment at 25,750, or an increase of 750 over last month.

O'Connell's office expects a further net increase of approximately 550 during the next two months.

Concurrently with a sharp rise in total employment figures, local unemployment has shown a decrease from 950 to 700 during September, chiefly because of the demand for workers in the cotton fields.

"This year the harvest season is exerting more influence on the labor market and adding more weight than usual to the employment side of the scale," O'Connell commented.

"As a result, unemployment is expected to hit a new low in Lubbock county for the fall months."

Labor Surplus Decreasing

"This is a welcome situation, for local economy is only just now recuperating from the slump of last winter and spring. Hiring was remarkably low during the summer months and employers in general seemed to be reluctant to start fall hiring. It was evident that local unemployment was on the increase for a time.

"This situation has been checked at least temporarily by the beginning of the harvest season."

The increase in employment has been general in nature but has been most noticeable in construction, wholesale and retail trade and service establishments.

The surplus of local labor has been decreasing during the past month. Supply and demand probably will become more nearly balanced during October and November than at any other time during the year, O'Connell believes. A demand for 550 additional workers during the next two months has already been made evident.

Harvest Boosts Trade

The effect of the cotton harvest on non-agricultural employment was explained by O'Connell. It is estimated that 100,000 workers will come into the South Plains area for the harvest. This will stimulate trade, thus causing a demand for non-agricultural workers.

"The South Plains area has on order more than 20,000 Mexican nationals for cotton harvest, and there is already a demand for a number of Spanish-speaking salespersons to take care of Mexican trade," said O'Connell.

Aluminum And Other Plants Join Walkout

U. S. Government Gravely Concerned Over Growing Feud

(By The Associated Press)

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 17—America's strike idle neared the million mark today as 16,000 CIO members struck nine plants of Aluminum Company of America.

The aluminum workers joined 480,000 striking steelworkers and 380,000 striking soft coal miners.

More thau 55,000 workers in allied industries have been laid off.

Some steelworkers' members in the fabricating steel industry—which makes everything from hairpins to refrigerators—struck during the week end. Other fabricators' contracts expire from now until mid-December.

No Sign Of Peace

There's still no sign of peace in labor's biggest conflict since the end of World War II.

The government is gravely concerned. The walkouts threaten to knock post-war economy into a cocked hat.

Secretary of Commerce Sawyer said yesterday the steel strike will idle five million persons if it runs to December 1.

So far, President Truman has kept on the sidelines. His mediators are pounding away at the problem—but with little success.

The mediators tried to head off the steel strike three times. Now they're trying to get industry leaders and steelworker president Philip Murray back to the bargaining table.

Pensions Big Issue

"It's in the lap of the gods," Murray said yesterday as he discussed possible strike settlement in a talk at Bethlehem, Pa.

Pensions are the big issue in the Aluminum company strike, jut as they are in the steel strike.

Murray insists industry pay the entire cost of a pension and insurance program—exactly as the presidential fact finding board recommended. Big steel has offered to pay the 10-cent package recommended by the board—but not unless the steelworkers contribute too.

Big Aluminum Company of America, which makes 50 per cent of the nation's aluminum, says it met the steelworkers' demand for six cents for pensions and four cents for insurance.

The company said negotiations collapsed Friday night over the union's refusal to accept a provision that the proposed pension

Four Injured In Home Fire

Four persons were burned, two seriously, at 5 a. m. today in a butane gas explosion at a farm home seven miles north of Lorenzo.

Wiley W. Roberts, 41, was seriously burned while saving the life of his nine-year-old son, Leon, who received the full force of the blast.

They were taken in a Marr Funeral home ambulance from Ralls to St. Mary's hospital here after they had failed to find a physician available at Ralls.

Burns Severe

Attendants said Roberts will not be able to walk for three or four months because of severe burns on the soles of his feet. His son suffered third degree burns on his ankles and lesser burns on various parts of his body.

Mrs. Roberts, who suffered minor burns on her hands and arms, said her son had accidentally kicked open a gas jet while sleeping on a pallet on the floor.

"The blast awakened my husband and me," she said, "and to our horror, we saw flames enveloping the sleeping togs and bedding of Leon."

STEAMER CAUGHT IN CROSSFIRE

Chinese Reds Try Amphibious Operations Along East Coast

CHUNGKING, Oct. 17 (AP)—Canton slipped quietly into the widening orbit of Red China today, and nationalists asked "where next?"

Some quarters predicted twin communist drives to knock out the government once and for all—one against Chungking, the new nationalist capital; the other against Kunming nearly 400 miles southwest.

The Reds already threatened several minor nationalist positions along the east coast. Official reports said the communists in a big amphibious operation established a beachhead on the northern corner of Amoy island, about 300 miles northeast of Canton. About 1,200 others landed at Kulangsu, between Amoy and the mainland.

(The British steamer Anhui, carrying 1,400 passengers, was caught in the crossfire of an Amoy artillery duel yesterday. It returned to Hong Kong with three Chinese dead and 24 wounded.)

U. S. Officials Arrive

The government source said only a small number got ashore at Amoy and were being wiped out. Similarly, at Kulanksu, 200 were taken prisoners and the remainder "annihilated."

Three U. S. representatives arrived here today—first foreign diplomats to reach Chungking since its reestablishment Saturday as the capital. A chartered plane brought U. S. Charge d'Affaires Robert Strong; second secretary Robert Rinden and supervisor of communications Lawrence Norton. Attaches of other countries are expected to follow.

Press dispatches reported that Gen. Hsueh Yueh, governor of Canton's Kwangtung province, and other high officials of the provincial government had arrived at Hainan island.

There was no mention of Gen. Yu Han-Mou, nationalist military commander of Kwangtung, rumored to have gone over to the conquering Reds.

Life Unchanged

(Chinese telegraphic advices in Hong Kong said more than 20,000 communist troops have entered Canton. Advance units walked in Saturday. The nationalists fled.

(Life went on almost unchanged. Busses were running. Shops were open. All newspapers, excepting the Kuomingtang (nationalist party) Central Daily News, were publishing. But commodity prices rose. Rice was selling at 70 dollars Hong Kong per 133 pounds. A week ago it was 40.

(The communist news agency said a lone nationalist plane strafed Canton yesterday, killing and wounding an undetermined number of civilians.)

The swift Red advance and capture of Canton lessened in the public mind the prospects that Chungking can hold out if the Reds invade Szechwan province.

The easy communist conquest of northwest China—where Moslem General Ma Hung-Kwei had been expected to put a hard fight—enables the Reds to divert as many men as needed for the Szechwan job.

The nationalists now control five provinces—Szechwan (Chungking); Sikang, Kweichow; Kwangsi and Yunnan (Kunming) and bits of a few others—the southern part of Shensi, for example.

The nationalists have been reduced to three widely separated centers of resistance: Chungking, with some 175,000 troops guarding the approaches; Kweilin, where Gen. Pai's 200,000 troops represent the nationalists' best force; and Formosa, Chiang Kai-Shek's island fortress, 100 miles off the east coast.

The Nationalist Central News agency reported that Senator H. Alexander Smith (R-NJ) flew to Formosa aboard General MacArthur's personal plane and "exchanged personal views on the far eastern situation" with Generalissimo Chiang.

Prehistoric Bones Found In Arizona

FLAGSTAFF, Ariz., Oct. 17 (U.P.)—The white sandstone walls of Slate Creek, southwest of Prescott, have yielded a number of prehistoric bones.

Included in the find were the remains of a small animal of the camel species, dating back several million years.

The bones were uncovered by a paleontological expedition sponsored by the Museum of Northern Arizona of Flagstaff and the Arizona State Museum at Tucson.

In addition to the camel, a primitive horse and a dog-like animal, dating back more than a million years, were discovered.

Directors of the expedition said they believed the discoveries would help date strata formed centuries ago on the Colorado plateau.

Rites For Fire Victim Today

Services were to be conducted at 4 p. m. today in the First Baptist church at Breckenridge for James C. (Jake) Stephens, 35, who died in flames that gutted his one-room house east of the Tahoka highway on Forty-eighth street about 12:45 a. m. Sunday.

Rev. Truman Aldridge was to officiate. Burial was to be in Breckenridge under direction of the Sanders Funeral home of Lubbock.

Survivors are two daughters, Letha Ann, 17, and Phyllis Jean Stephens, 15, both of Breckenridge; three sisters, Mrs. T. J. Vallas, sr., 1811 Eighteenth; Mrs. Herbert Schlittler of Crane and Mrs. E. E. Parkhill of Fort Worth, and three brothers, F. J. of Houston, R. L. of Dallas and Melvin Stephens of Fresno, Calif.

Other Fires Reported

Firemen believe a faulty stove or a cigaret may have caused the fire which took Stephens' life and caused $1,500 damage.

Three other weekend fires pushed the fire loss here past the $3,000 mark and resulted in slight burns for another man.

Fire caused an estimated $1,500 loss to an unoccupied three-room house owned by C. Martin, 30 yards east of Myrtle drive, and two blocks south of East Broadway about 2:30 a. m. Sunday.

S. B. Upton received slight burns on his arm about 1:50 p. m. Sunday when he reached through flames to turn off escaping gas in a minor blaze at 1709 Ave. N.

Firemen answered a fourth call at 6:15 p. m. Sunday at a house at the rear of 2307 Ninth, owned by Joe Ferris. The blaze apparently began in a chair from a cigaret and was under control when the firefighters arrived.

BY LEIF ERICKSON
AP Staff Writer

ABOARD THE USS ELDORADO, Oct. 17—(AP)—The "Miki" invasion fleet on its way to recapture Hawaii from "aggressor" forces averted attack by "enemy" submarines yesterday for the second straight day.

Two "aggressor" subs were claimed sunk by hunter planes with the 96-ship task force only two days out from California in the biggest overseas maneuver since the war.

Thus far the "enemy" undersea craft have not been able to deliver a torpedo attack on transports loaded with Second Infantry division troops from Fort Lewis, Wash.

Attack Bomber Used

Rear Adm. B. J. Rodgers, task killer planes and destroyers in eluding his undersea "enemy."

Advising Rodgers was Cmdr. John S. McCain, Jr., of North Carrollion, Miss., who skippered subs in the North African invasion against the Japanese. He is the son of the lat famed Adm. John S. McCain, who commanded carrier task force 58 against the Japanese.

A Douglas Skyraider flying from a jeep carrier caught an "aggressor" sub surfaced at dawn. bomber satisfied "Miki's" umpires its attack destroyed the sub.

Weapons Not Described

Capt. Carl F. Stillman, chief naval umpire, observed that such hunter-killer planes could employ weapons far more lethal than submarines.

ordinary depth bombs against

Stillman did not describe the weapons.

A navy-manned Flying Fortress from Miramar Naval Air station sank an "aggressor" sub Saturday with a similar attack.

Security from attack by greatly improved submarines, McCain observed, is the most dangerous problem the U.S. Navy has to contend with.

EAT PLENTY AND TAKE OFF UGLY FAT

When you buy Barcentrate, you buy a preparation for taking off weight. You do not pay for any printed diet or for vitamins to fortify you against weakness while on a starvation diet. You need never know a hungry moment while taking this preparation. Barcentrate is the original grapefruit juice recipe for weight reduction.

Just go to your druggist and ask for four ounces of liquid Barcentrate. Pour this into a pint bottle and add enough grapefruit juice to fill bottle. Then take just two tablespoonfuls twice a day. That's all there is to it.

If the very first bottle doesn't show you the simple, easy way to take off ugly fat, return the empty bottle for your money back.

Lost 56 pounds

Here is what Mrs. L. J. Bryant, P. O. Box 56, Whitewright, Texas, wrote us:

"I want to tell you what Barcentrate has done for me. I weighed 268 pounds when I started taking it. I now weigh 212.

"I have taken my dress size down from size 50 to 44 and never felt better in my life and everybody tells me how much nicer I look than I did.

"I am still taking Barcentrate as I want to get my weight down to 145 or 170 pounds."

FIRST COMPLETIONS SET DEC. 1

Community Of Rental Units Rising In Southwest Lubbock

A new community is rising on the southwestern outskirts of Lubbock to help fill a severe need for additional rental units, and a small army of workmen is now rushing it to completion with greatest possible speed.

The project is Modern Manors, a 293-dwelling unit village being constructed at a cost of $2,511,000 by a series of corporations controlled by Robert E. Maxey, Homer G. Maxey, Lee Fields, and Harold Blank. The site is between Forty-second and Fiftieth streets, Adams and Monroe avenues.

Apartments Near Completion

The first 75 apartments will be ready for occupancy Dec. 1, corporation officials estimated today. These are known as the "Corporation D" houses. Many are ready for application of asbestos siding in the vicinity of Fiftieth and Adams.

Homer Maxey estimated that applications for apartments will be taken as early as Nov. 15, but more definite information will be released later. Until that time, no applications for apartments are being taken.

It is expected that the units will be completed at the rate of eight a day after Dec. 1, thus filling a void of long standing in Lubbock's rental housing market.

Shopping Center Planned

The office of Robert E. Maxey, general contractor on the project, announced that construction will begin today on a shopping center at Forty-second and Adams avenue to serve the huge community.

The shopping center will contain space for nine retail businesses.

Approximately 350 men, including those employed by the general and sub-contractors, paving and utilities contractors, are working on the job.

Many innovations in construction methods are being employed to save time and money on the job. For example, a cutting yard has been established on a railroad siding at Thirty-fourth and Ave. K.

Some Prefabrication Used

As the lumber arrives on freight cars, it is cut to size and in some cases prefabricated on the spot, so that it is ready for erection when it arrives on the job.

In another case, a "mixermobile", mobile concrete mixer unit of high capacity, is being employed to mix large quantities of concrete on the site. This is supplemented by concrete from transit-mix trucks.

Caliche base has been laid for paving on the curving streets and hot-topping will be completed this fall.

The 293 apartments will be contained in 133 buildings, taking the form of duplexes, triplexes and quadruplexes. The architectural design is modern, with low roofs and overhanging cornices.

Hardwood Floors Provided

The interior floors will be of hardwood blocks, laid on concrete slabs. Each building will be different, to avoid, insofar as possible, the impression of a mass-housing project.

The buildings will have asbestos siding and roofing, and landscaping will be done by the corporation.

Steel kitchen cabinets will be installed throughout. Stoves, refrigerators and venetian blinds will be furnished. Payne forced-air heating units will be installed. Interior walls will be textoned. Sixteen separate laundry buildings will be built.

The housing project was designed by Chas. E. Armstrong of Fort Worth. The shopping center was designed by the Butler-Brasher company of Lubbock. Utilities and paving were designed by Parkhill, Smith and Cooper of Lubbock.

TO BE READY DEC. 1—The apartment buildings above are among those of "Corporation D" of the Modern Manors project near Fiftieth street and Adams avenue. These are to be ready about Dec. 1. After that date others will be completed at the rate of eight a day. (Staff Photo).

Field Is Reduced In Tech Beauty Contest

A field of 99 Texas Tech beauties vying for the privilege of exemplifying campus beauty in this year's annual, was cut in half Sunday by judges from various divisions in the school.

Only 46 girls remain, after a group of men students representing the Arts and Science, Engineering, Agriculture, and Business Administration divisions, and the athletic, publications, and student council groups studied photographs of the entrants Sunday afternoon in the auditorium.

The field will be cut to 16 next Sunday, with judging to be done by Homer D. Grant, Mrs. R. L. Douglas, and C. W. Ratliff. Half of that number will be chosen by some nationally known figure at a date yet to be announced.

The eight winners will be given two page layouts in "La Ventana," the school annual. Names of the 46 girls are being withheld pending the completion of checking on eligibility requiremepts.

The "Mason and Dixon Line" actually was surveyed by two Englishmen, Charles Mason and Jeremiah Dixon, in the 18th Century to settle territorial disputes between the proprietors of Maryland and Pennsylvania.

Duck Crossing Road Causes Car Pile-Up

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Oct. 17 (AP)—A white duck waddled onto a busy highway.

Four cars piled up end-to-end. Three-year-old Linda Peters, riding in one of them, was slightly hurt.

The duck got across without a ruffled feather.

Child Gained And Lost On Same Day

Camden, N. J., Oct. 17—(AP)—Life and death came to the Rocco Gamble family within several hours.

Gamble's 21-year-old wife gave birth to their first son yesterday morning.

Returning to the home of his mother-in-law, Mrs. Lulu Dickinson, to announce the birth, Gamble was told his oldest child, Charlotte May, 3, had been struck by a truck.

The child died shortly after the 21-year-old father returned to the hospital.

The Gambles have another daughter, one-year-old Roseann.

Singapore Bill To Hit Aussie Policy

SINGAPORE, Oct. 17 (AP)—A measure has been presented to the Singapore government as retaliation against Australia's deportation of Asians. The Progressive Party handed in a draft bill intended to keep out immigrants whose country does not accord reciprocal immigration privileges to the citizens of Singapore.

The proposed measure would apply to countries within the British Commonwealth of Nations because "some of these countries have preferred to admit aliens rather than British subjects on purely racial grounds."

French Leader Forms Cabinet

PARIS, Ot. 17. (U.P.)—Socialist Premier Jules Moch has formed a new coalition government and will present it at once to President Vincent Auriol, authoritative sources said today.

Moch was able to form the new Popular Republican Party (MRP) bowed to an ultimatum and agreed to join the coalition on Moch's terms.

The coalition was expected to include the same three parties—Socialist, Radical Socialist and MRP—that formed the government of former Premier Henri Queuille.

Moderation Assured

Moch issued an ultimatum last night that he would form a purely socialist government unless the Radical Socialist and MRP parties accepted his wage-price program without change.

He gave the two parties until noon today to accept or reject the ultimatum. The Radical Socialists announced they would accept last night and the MRP finally gave in at the deadline at noon today.

Agreement of the two parties assured France of another moderate government, at least for the time being.

Moch's program included a plan to lower the prices of food and other important items in the workingman's budget. He also planned a system of tax concessions for low-paid workers which in effect would establish a minimum wage of 15,000 francs ($42) a month.

MRP party leaders objected to the prospect of a minimum wage floor and a return to collective bargaining between workers and employers.

All MRP deputies in the national assembly were called into a meeting this morning to debate the question. The deputies agreed 35 to 7, with 10 abstentions, to support Moch's program as the price of participating in the new government.

Worried Wife Says It's Wrong For Husband To Take Unmarried Girl Worker To Dinner

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: Bob and I have been married 14 years and we have one child, 13 years old. Bob is a good provider, doesn't drink and never goes out, and I had always trusted him; so you can imagine the shock I got recently, when another person informed me that Bob was seeing a single girl after he got off work.

I asked Bob about it and he admitted it; but he said all there was to it was an occasional dinner together after work—they work at the same place—and he didn't see anything wrong with that. However, I think it was wrong because he is married, and because the girl told this other party that she is in love with Bob. As to that, Bob says if she is, she has never let on to him.

Usually that sort of thing doesn't stop at just having dinner together, and when I mentioned this to Bob he just laughed and said that Libby is a very nice kid and that she didn't mean anything to him. But if she doesn't mean anything to him, why would he take her to dinner? He never takes me out to eat. We always eat at home.

I want to know if it is all right for a married man to take other girls out to dinner? Bob hasn't promised that it won't happen again; and how can I ever trust him again? There will always be fear in my heart.

Signed: A. P.

MAN KNOWS WELL ME'S DOING WRONG

DEAR A. P.: From the secular viewpoint in white collar circles of modern society, doubtless it isn't rated a crime against propriety for a married man to dine in public with a single woman occasionally, either by chance or prearrangement, if they have some impersonal basis for friendship — as, for instance, working together. In our times, since women work so much with men, it is being done more or less—and nobody hanged for it, apparently.

However, on the other hand, any married man normally sensitive to rules of fair play governing honest married behavior knows in his bones, without being told, that dining with a single woman has entered the field of wrong-doing if he chooses not to mention it to his wife, or if he feels a need to be elaborately "casual" in referring to it, or if the shared intent of diners is to evoke or encourage "heart" interest.

From what you say of Bob's responses to your questions, it seems evident that he was on the defensive against his conscience before gossip reached you about his seeing Libby after work. Also, that he feels consciously guilty of unfair play, perhaps to both women, in the goings-on. But because temptation to ally seems stronger than his will (if any) to resist, he clings dishonestly to a self-extenuating argument that he doesn't do anything downright wrong in just having dinner occasionally.

MAN'S FALSE AIR SHOCKS HIS WIFE

AS I SEE the picture, it is the obstinate whitewash aspect of his current attitude, an elusive falsity of character new to him, a refusal to see straight and recognize errors and dangers—it is this dismaying change in Bob that causes you to feel sick with shock and anxious uncertainty, as if you never could trust him again.

Thus I think it ill becomes him to treat your worry lightly, as if it were a product of your imagination mostly; and the purpose of these remarks is to help him remove the blinders from his eyes.

For advice: 1. Bob ought to face the fact that his traffic with Libby's infatuation is bad for all concerned. 2. You and he should turn over a new leaf and have dinner dates together to break the monotony of "eating in." It is an old political axiom that you can't beat something with nothing—and a practical antidote to his recent pattern of seeing Libby after work is to get dressed up and, with his consent, meet him yourself for pastime occasionally. # Methodists Decide To Change Proposed New Church Location

With the aim of having a new church building available as quickly as possible, the first Methodist church congregation Sunday afternoon voted to change location of its proposed church plant from the south to the north half of the block owned by the church and to utilize the present structure.

A new sanctuary seating 1,250 persons will be built on the west end of the block owned by the church between Broadway and Thirteenth and Ave. M and Ave. N.

To Face Broadway

The sanctuary, facing Broadway, will be located alongside the present church building, which will be converted into an educational building. Both will be of gothic architecture. They will take up the entire Broadway side of the block. Under the original plans, the church would have faced Thirteenth street.

The sanctuary will be situated on the site now occupied by the church parsonage. Another parsonage will be obtained on a site not yet decided.

The estimated total cost of construction of the sanctuary and gothic "face lifting" of the present building is $750,000, or one-half million dollars less than the original estimated cost of $1,250,000 for construction of a completely new church plant.

Design Followed

The plan will conform to the original design so far as possible. On the outside, it will be almost identical to the original design drawn for the new plant. On the inside, some changes will be made in the educational building plan so that the present church structure may be used.

In the Sunday meeting, attended by approximately 350 members, authority was given to the building committee to build a parsonage in keeping with needs of the church in another location.

It was brought out Sunday afternoon that the committee will employ a church architect from approximately 20 architects in the nation who specialize in church architects.

Members of the building committee are W. G. Alderson, chairman, Paul Hardwick, Dr. M. C. Overton, C. H. Hamilton, W. G. McMillan, J. H. Felton, R. P. Fuller, Roy Furr, M. B. Hilburn, C. E. Maedgen and Ruel C. Martin.

Will Raise Money

The building committee will observe its intention of waiting to start construction until money to pay for it is in the bank, it was stated following the session. A total of approximately $337,000 already has been placed in the building fund and the church will seek to raise the remainder in the next few months.

The total needed may be available by April 1, allowing construction to start next spring if architectural plans are ready and other preliminary work completed.

The building materials, design or building methods will be no cheaper than those used in construction of the originally designed plant. The cost will be less only because the present structure will be used, said church representatives.

Construction of the sanctuary will be the first stage of the building program. McMillan said in the Sunday meeting that, "The construction of the first unit of the sanctuary can be accomplished without a member so much as walking under a scaffold."

The originally planned tower will rise from the sanctuary, and in it will be located the carillon for which arrangements already have been made. A church committee has been assured the one of the carillon will carry 16 miles.

The chapel of the church will be located on the east end of the block on a site obtain by removing the present steps to the auditorium and also the foyer.

Sculptured Hairdo For Fall Gives Choice Of Styles

By BETTY CLARKE
Associated Press Staff Writer

Hairdressers seem shy about predicting new hair styles for fall. Most of them don't go too far out on the limb, however, in reminding us that hair will be short. As a matter of fact hairdos remind one of the flapper era more everyday. It is just a question of how short you can wear your locks.

You have a choice of several styles:

The closely cropped all-over hairdo which resembles the old feature cut.

A short-on-the- sides, long-in-the-back arrangement for the girl who likes her short hair to look long.

Short upsweep on one side, short close crop on the other, elegant for evening wear.

Short, short hair that is shingled in the back, a variation of the old boyish bob, except now it has curl.

Little sculptured coifs that show the wearer's head to advantage are now on the horizon and in complete harmony with the uncluttered look of this year's fashions, says M. Louis, who designed them — smart for the girl who wants to give her short hairdo a new look.

One is parted low on the right side clear to the nape of the neck, then swirled forward toward the face in deep sculptured waves that mold and cling to the head. The ends are left free to turn back into soft ringlets.

THE LADY'S COIFFURE . . . It's a shining helmet of hair, short and sculptured to the wearer's head. In harmony with this year's fashions says designer M. Louis.

BACKVIEW . . . Hair is parted low on the right side clear to the nape of the neck, swirled forward toward the face in deep sculptured waves that mold and cling.

County Federation Program Presented In Shallowater

Talks on flowers, travels and education and a musical program were presented at a semi-annual meeting of the County Federation Saturday at the Shallowater clubhouse. A covered dish luncheon was served in the new addition to the club.

Mrs. John Redwine presided. Welcome was given by Mrs. H. G. Preston, with response by Mrs. W. O. Stevens.

Roll call was answered by club representatives giving brief forward looking reports of the year's programs.

Mrs. Godeke Presides

Mrs. H. F. Godeke, program chairman, presided for the program which was opened by a talk on the history of flower arrangements given by Mrs. John V. Powers. She showed how flower arrangements were started in the Old World and have influenced modern design and displayed various types of arrangements.

Mrs. Pearl Watson gave a travel talk on her trip to Scotland, England, France and Italy last summer and described the university where she and 100 other teachers attended classes at Lausanne, Switzerland.

After lunch Ishmael Hill, assistant superintendent of schools, spoke on. "The Provisions and Effects of the Gilmer-Akin Bill."

A musical program given by Shallowater residents included a negro spiritual by C. H. Brown; two duets, "Whispering Hope" and "Forever and Ever," sung by Glenda Ann Reed and Glenda Ruth Sport and piano selections by John Evans.

Rev. Secil Ottinger, pastor of the Shallowater Methodist church, asked invocation at the luncheon. The last number was a humorous reading by Miss D'Ruth Hopping, a Tech student.

Lubbock Woman Is To Attend P-T Meetings

The representatives will attend the State Fair of Texas Friday, that day being designated as "Parent-Teacher" day.

Fort Worth Cafe Is Robbed Of $421

FORT WORTH, Oct. 17. (U.P.)— A whispering bandit entered the B&B coffee shop here early today and took $421 at gunpoint from Mrs. John J. Losero, cashier who was alone in the front part of the cafe.

Mrs. Losero said a waitress, cook, and dishwasher were in the cafe kitchen when the man entered and asked for cigarets. He then pulled a gun and whispered to Mrs. Losero to give him all the money from the register and the safe.

The gunman then fled down a street and disappeared into an alley, Mrs. Losero said.

Mrs. Tom J. Settle, former Lubbock resident, is a patient at Immanuel hospital in Omaha, Neb., where she recently underwent major surgery.

Doctor Sees 1949 As Heaviest Polio Year

ATLANTA, Oct. 17 (AP)—A prediction that 1949 would be the most devastating year in the recorded history of polio was made today by Surgeon General Leonard A. Scheele of the public health service.

In a speech before health officers from 48 states, Dr. Scheele predicted total cases by the end of the year would be between 40,000 and 45,000, or about half again the 27,680 cases of 1948.

The surgeon general told the group, opening a two-day conference at the communicable disease center of the public health service, that there had been a marked upward trend of poliomyelitis since 1943 He added the end isn't in sight and that new knowledge is urgently needed in the fight to control the dread disease.

Minor Violations Of Law Are Reported On Increase In City

Lawlessness, chiefly of a misdemeanor classification, showed signs over the weekend of a seasonal acceleration, law enforcement agencies said.

A 17-year-old negro girl was under investigation of juvenile officials in connection with the ice-pick stabbing of Mary Washington, 16, a negro girl who had a knife at the time of the altercation, according to officials.

The victim was taken to a hospital for treatment of three wounds. Her condition apparently was satisfactory.

Thefts Are Reported

Several thefts were reported.

Andrew Phillips of Idalou said two batteries were taken from irrigation well houses of that section.

A 1940 green Chevrolet coach, license AM 312, was reported stolen from George C. Yardley of Lorenzo.

Lubbock police said Morrow Thomas Hardware store at 1402 Ave. G reported a burglary, but nothing apparently was removed from the place. A box of washing powder was overturned and tracked over the floor.

Major breakin under investigation was an early Sunday morning job at Lester's Jewelers, 1010 Broadway, in which eight watches valued at approximately $300 were lifted through the broken glass of a show window.

Manager of the store, Maurice A. Cooper of 2516 Thirty-second street, told police that eight wrist watches had been taken.

Service Station Entered

Don Samford, of 2804 Thirty-sixth street, called police at 6:45 a. m. Sunday to report that the Samford Service station at 1529 Nineteenth street, had been burglarized, probaby during the previous night.

Between $5 and $6 in silver from an unlocked cash register appeared to be the only loss, Samford said. The premises gave no evidence of having been ransacked.

Entrance was gained by knocking a hole large enough for a man to enter in a plate glass window at the front of the filling station.

Wayne Kelly called police Sunday to report theft of a tire from 412 Fourteenth street sometime Saturday night. He said the tire was valued at $125.

L. A. Clements told police that an auto radio and a horn rim with a total value of $65 had been stolen from his car.

Police found what appeared to be the work of pranksters when they came across a pile of about 50 automobile gas tanks caps in the 2700 block Nineteenth street early Sunday morning. The gas caps apparently had been taken from cars parked around the Texas Tech campus during the Tech-Baylor football game Saturday afternoon.

Ring Reported Lost

E. J. Curlin of 311 Seventh street asked police Sunday afternoon to be on the lookout for a ring valued at $200 which he reported was lost on Oct. 4. He described the ring as yellow gold with a ruby stone in the center flanked on each side by a small diamond.

Other developments Sunday included posting of bonds by two men charged with felonies.

Faustino Leon Garcia, 34, who was arrested Saturday by Lubbock police, posted $2,000 bond on a charge of possession of marijuana. The complaint was sworn by City Detective Lee Rice, jr., before A. W. Salyars, assistant district attorney, and filed in the court of D. W. Robertson, justice of the peace.

In another case, Willis Everett Bear, 29, of the 1400 block Ave. F, posted $1,000 bond on a charge of child desertion. The complaint was sworn by Mrs. Wilma Bear and filed in the court of Robertson.

W. T. Helbert, who lives northeast of Acuff community, left Sunday for Chihuahua, Mexico, where he will pick up 150 Mexican national workers to pick cotton on his farm, the Texas Employment commission said today. He is expected to return with the workers about Tuesday.

Clifton Haynie and S. A. Hamilton, Lubbock life underwriters, are attending a training school in Dallas today through Friday as guests of Southwestern Life Insurance company.

Mike Irish, 3, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Irish of Abernathy, was reported in an improved condition today by attendants at St. Mary's hospital, where the youngster was taken Saturday night after falling from a car about a mile north of New Deal on the Plainview highway. The boy received deep scalp lacerations and possible chest injuries when he fell from the back door of the moving car.

Woodrow Lampkins Johnson, 29, negro of 2503 East Ave. B, was taken to Lubbock Memorial hospital at 7:15 p. m. Sunday with a deep laceration of his forehead after being hit by a bottle wielded by a negro "friend." Johnson said he did not wish to press charges against his assailant. He was being held overnight at the hospital for observation.

Drs. Roy and Fern Earsley, 2120 Main, have returned from Brownwood, where they attended the annual convention of the Texas State Chiropractic association.

Appearance bond of $600 was posted this morning by Borden Franklin (Lefty) Fowler, about 34, charged with illegal possession of a pistol; bond of $500 by Daniel Shelton Hall, 39, charged with drunk driving.

SEE, IT'S ALL IN THE WAY YOU LOOK AT IT . . . The optical illusion above is no magician's trick. No mirrors, no leases, no trick photography—everything is just as it appears to the naked eye. Yet, one man appears to bea giant and the other a dwarf. When they change places the illusion is reversed. It's all part of some experiments in human perception being carried on by phychologists at Princeton University, Princeton, N. J. The illusion is produced by a distorted room, which appears to be rectangular but isn't and has a slanting floor. Both men are standing in a corner, but in each case the "giant" is only eight feet from the camera and the "dwarf" is 16 feet away. The crooked room is just one of the optical illusions being used by Dr. Merle Lawrence has a new book on the subject.

Sales Expert Advises Jaycees That Seller's Market Thing Of Past

Burritt S. Mills, industrial and sales engineer, today told Jaycees "now is the time to get off the gravy train and board the work train."

Speaking at a luncheon meeting in the Hilton hotel, Mills said "the days of the seller's market are over."

"For the past eight years the consumer has been pushed around unmercifully," he pointed out, but now the situation has changed to a buyer's market."

"No longer can a businessman show indifference to his customer," Mills explained, "because the competitor across the street has the same goods to offer."

Survey On Courtesy

Mills said he completed a survey recently of 200 West Texas stores to find that personnel in 46 per cent of the establishments didn't even have the courtesy to greet him or ask him what he wanted."

"When a person enters your place of business, he is half sold before he comes in or he wouldn't be there," Mills said, "but he will leave quickly if he is shown indifference. He might se sold some small article but he won't ever come back." Mills added, "but how many businesses can last on that basis?" he asked.

Dr. L. B. Millsap, chairman of the circus committee, said the Rogers Brothers circus netted the club between $600 and $700 last week.

Norman Igo, chairman of the membership committee, awarded Jaycee pins to 17 new members.

R. S. Wilkinson presided.

William the Conqueror, who defeated the English in 1066 at the Battle of Hastings, brought with him smiths skilled as horseshoers and armorers.

Marine Chiefs Claim Army Is Trying To Cut Combat Power

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17 (AP)—Gen. Clifton B. Cates, commandant of marines, protested to Congress today that there is finagling in the Pentagon to turn his famous fighting corps into a "police force."

The army high command, Cates told the House armed services committee, is trying to wipe out "the combat power of the marine corps" and take over for the army the historic role of the corps as sea-to-land assault forces.

Army Grabs Funds

He said the army had grabbed all the money for amphibious training so that this year the marines will not even be able to practice their specialty.

As for the marine aviation, Cates said he has heard "rumors" that the air corps wants to take it over but has seen "nothing concrete on it."

Campaigns ribbons of two wars splashed across his chest, Sates appeared before the committee accompanied by a former marine commandant, retired Gen. A. A. Vandegrift.

Law Is Cited

When Cates got through blasting the army high command, Vandegrift took over but in milder terms.

Each reminded the lawmakers pointedly that Congress specifically wrote into the 1947 unification law safeguards for the marines in the role as specialists in amphibious warfare.

And Vandegrift said that Congress seldom, if ever, has been in error in attempts to reform the military and keep it "the servant of the people."

"The great weakness of any military system," he said, "is that it can not reform itself."

Chairman Vinson (D-Ga) assured the two generals that Congress isn't going to let anyone destroy the marine corps.

TO STAND TRIAL FOR 29 MURDERS

Ilse Koch Released By U. S.; Rearrested By German Police

AICHACH, Germany, Oct. 17 (U.P.)—Ilse Koch, 42, the sadistic torturer of the Buchenwald concentration camp, walked from an American military prison today, but minutes later landed in a German jail charged with 29 murders.

The dumpy, alleged collector of lampshades made from the skin of tatooed Buchenwald inmates was freed from Landsberg prison at 7:20 a. m. (1:20 a. m. EST).

West German state prosecutor Johan Ilkow immediately read a warrant for her arrest under German law charging her with murdering 29 persons and assaulting hundreds of others at Buchenwald. She then was hustled into a small green patrol wagon for the 40-mile ride here from Landsberg.

Violence Was Feared

Originally sentenced to life, the strawberry blonde's sentence was reduced to four years by former American Military Governor Gen. Lucius D. Clay in a review of her trial.

Forty American soldiers and Polish guards armed with carbines and pistols stood guard as the widow of the Buchenwald commandant was led from prison. Possible violent action against the widow by 4,000 Jewish displaced persons in the area had been feared.

But there was no crowd and no incidents. Only a few passersby stopped to watch the proceedings.

"This is your big day of liberation," a reporter said. "How do you feel?"

"This is not a day of liberation," Frau Koch replied grimly. "It is the darkest day of my life."

Life Term Possible

The aging widow with the yen for romance was free only 10 minutes.

She willingly posed for photographers but then snapped at reporters:

"What you have been saying about me is untrue."

Frau Koch had no opportunity to see her three children, the youngest of whom was conceived while she was supposedly in solitary confinement at a Dachau jail in 1947.

When she goes on trial for murder, probably in February next year, the German prosecutor will charge her with grabbing a pistol and participating in the murder of 29 Jewish inmates. She faces a possible life prison term. A death sentence is banned under the West German constitution.

Irish To Face Tough Elevens

NEW YORK, Oct. 17 (AP)—Notre Dame and Army, two longtime rivals who decided to quit feuding with each other, towered like a pair of colossi over the college football world today with no immediate downfall in sight.

Since they don't collide, who is to stop these new, powereized editions of Fighting Irish and Black Knights of the Hudson being compared with some of the greatest machines of the past?

Notre Dame has the tougher schedule but it should cause little trouble to the team that manhandled highly-rated Tulane Saturday at South Bend, 46-7.

Irish Get Rest

In breaking the backs and hearts of the Dixie powerhouse, the fourth-ranked eleven in the country, Frank Leahy's athletes ran to 32 their string of defeatless games.

The Irish rest this week before tackling Navy Oct. 29 in Baltimore. Then come Michigan State, North Carolina, Iowa, Southern Cal and Southern Methodist in an awesome row.

Army, meanwhile, hurled the "hump" of its schedule a week ago when it smashed Michigan, the defending national champion, 21-7. The Cadets won their fourth of the campaign Saturday by blasting Harvard, 54-14.

Both the Irish and Cadets rolled up astronomical scores as if jealously defending their No. 1 and No. 2 positions, respectively, in the national standings, rated weekly by the Associated Press poll.

The Cadets, who now have only Penn and Navy as serious threats to an unblemished campaign, have an unbeaten skein of 15 games.

With the Irish and Cadets riding the top again, there is bound to be strong outside pressure for an early renewal of their annual game.

Top Teams Listed

While Notre Dame and Army were improving their national stature, the sectional pictures were getting into sharp focus with the list of unbeaten, untied major teams reduced to 13.

These emerged after the first month as the top teams in their sections:

East—Army, Cornell.

Midwest—Notre Dame, Minnesota.

Southwest—Oklahoma, Baylor, Rice.

South—North Carolina, Kentucky.

Far West—California.

Minnesota's Gophers established themselves as the likely guest team in the Rose bowl by routing Ohio State, 27-0, for their fourth straight triumph.

Their big test will come Saturday when they play Michigan at Ann Arbor. The Wolverines are smarting under two straight setbacks that fractured a 25-game winning streak.

Michigan was one of the victims of "black Saturday" that saw Southern Methodist, UCLA and Villanova rocked from the unbeaten ranks in startling upsets and resurgent Navy battered down by Wisconsin.

Rice Beats Ponies

The Wolverines bowed to Northwestern's twice-beaten Rose bowl champions, 21-20. The defeat, following on the heels of the Army debacle, may knock them clear out of the first ten.

Rice, with Tobin Rote throwing thre touchdown passes and scoring another, shattered Southern Methodist's winning habits, 41-27. Santa Clara stunned UCLA, 14-0. Tulsa squeezed out a 21-19 victory over a Villanova team that had won four straight.

The California Bears nailed a strong bid to the Rose bowl by whipping Southern California, 16-10. The Bears play Washington this week and then tackle UCLA Oct. 29 in the game that should tell.

Cornell, not on Army's schedule, emerged as one of the powers of the East by subduing Yale, 48-14.

Oklahoma, rated the third best team in the country, kept its escutcheon clean by rolling over Kansas, 48-26. Baylor is unbeaten in the Southwest conference, beating Texas Tech Saturday, 28-7. Rice has lost only to Louisiana State.

North Carolina, paced by Charlie Justice, and Kentucky took over the front spot in the South after Tulane crumbled before Notre Dame. North Carolina won over Wake Forest, 28-14. Kentucky racked up its fifth in a row, beating the Citadel, 44-0.

Rice Meets Texas In Crucial Tussle

By ED FITE
United Press Sports Writer

Rice Institute's rejuvenated Owls and the pass-happy University of Texas Longhorns meet in Austin Saturday in the top Southwest conference game of the week end and will pare the loop lead tangle by at least one team.

The Owls, Longhorns and Baylor's surprising Bears shared the lead today after the first full round of title play marked by Rice's palpitating 41-27 upset of defending champion Southern Methodist.

With pre-season favorite SMU out of the way, at least temporarily, observers were looking forward today to a possible "championship" game Nov. 26 when Rice and Baylor collide at Houston.

Texas, of course, resting easily on its laurels after staging a whirlwind comeback to defeat Arkansas 27-14 Saturday, may not think along those lines.

Rice Is Favored

But, Coach Blair Cherry's Longhorns definitely will be the underdog when the two smack head-on before nearly 70,000 fans at Memorial stadium this week.

It will be the passing of Paul Campbell against the explosive Rice offense that mixes the Tobin Rote-to-Froggie Williams passes with the brilliant running of Bobby Lantrip, Sonny Wyatt and Van Ballard behind a viciously-charging front line.

And, the all-around potential power packed into Coach Jess Neely's senior team should be too much for a Longhorn team that boasts little of a consistent ground game punch.

Baylor Meets Aggies

Baylor, meanwhile, will seek to continue its victory siege against conference opponents by tackling the hapless Texas Aggies at College Station — and should do so with comparative ease.

The Bears brushed by Texas Tech 28-7 Saturday while the Aggies bowed to Texas Christian 28-6 at Fort Worth.

The rest of the league takes on intersectional foes with SMU's joust with high-riding Kentucky at Dallas headlining that portion of the slate.

TCU meets Mississippi in a night game at Fort Worth and Arkansas journeys to Nashville against Vanderbilt.

Randall Clay held to his individual scoring lead with two extra points against the Porkers to give the Texas halfback 54 points, while Don Logue of Arkansas notched one touchdown to hold second place with 36.

Rice's James Williams, scored 22 points against SMU to jump from nowhere into third place at 32 points.

Rice Favored In SWC Chase

HOUSTON, Oct. 17—(AP)—The Rice Owls found themselves in an unfamiliar role today—favorites in mid-October to win the Southwest conference football championship.

Usually they don't start playing for keep's until November.

Ever since Jess Neely came here from Clemson to coach Rice in 1940, the Owls have been known as the best of the best in the last month of the season. Then they run up big scores, ruin other team's chances.

Getting into condition has been one big trouble. The weather here in September is so hot and humid the boys just can't get in enough work. It's late October before they are on an even basis with other teams of the conference.

But this year it was different. The team members took the thing in hand. They couldn't do much about the weather but they could do something about themselves.

During the summer, two of the team veterans—Center Gerald Weatherly and End James (Froggy) Williams—did some letter writing. The letters went to all the returning footballers. Each was commanded to get ready for the season. And the boys did. They worked on their own during the month of August and reporting for practice Sept. 1 they were the best conditioned Rice squad ever to come to Neely.

Owls Top Ponies

The boys got together, decided they were a senior outfit and that it was time to win a title for the old man.

Saturday night the Owls made a giant strike toward that championship when they beat mighty Southern Methodist 41-27 at Dallas. Showing what their conditioning meant, they came back in the last half to lick the Methodists going away. They were behind 14-6 at the half.

Said Weatherly after the game: "To tell you the truth, we just decided we liked this Cotton bowl dressing room. We want to come back on the first of January.

He meant win the conference championship and be host team in the Cotton bowl.

STANFORD MAN CHAMP

AUSTIN, Oct. 17 (AP)—Jesse N. Woody, Stanford, Tex., won eleven matches to take the Ada Zilker Robinson pistol shoot held over the week-end. It was his second straight victory. Mrs. Aline Riley of Shreveport, La., won the women's competition.

SAN ANGELO WINNER

VERNON, Tex. 17 (AP)—A 90-yard goal shot in the last 30 seconds by Mortie Mertz gave San Angelo a 10-9 polo decision over Vernon yesterday. Harold Barry had tied the score for Vernon earlier in the sixth chukker.

Traditional Lubbock-Amarillo Clash Scheduled Friday Night

This week's non-conference football contest between the Lubbock High Westerners and Amarillo Sandies looms as the top schoolboy tussle in the state.

The Westerners will put their undefeated record on the line once again Friday night at Amarillo against the once-beaten Sandies—who have not tasted a defeat at the hands of a Lubbock football team since 1939.

Odessa turned the tables on Amarillo two weeks ago, but since that time the Sandstorms have snapped back with a 35-12 victory over Forest of Dallas.

Tickets On Sale

Tickets for the Sandie-Westerner game go on sale today at the athletic office of Lubbock High school, and E. J. Lowrey, athletic business manager, reported that 2,652 adult reserved tickets were received out of 3,000 ordered and will be sold at $1.50 each. Another 1,000 student tickets go on sale late in the week.

Chances that a special train will be run to Amarillo are excellent, and a Santa Fe spokesman said last week that if 175 persons gave intentions of going by train the special or specials could be arranged.

Special Train Proposed

Price of round trip tickets for the trip would be $6.33 cents, with children under 12 admitted for half price. Tentatively the special would leave Lubbock at 3 p.m. Friday, making the return from Amarillo approximately one hour following the game. An expected 4,000 persons are expected to make the trip with the Westerners, and it was thought that the special train would lessen the chances of a traffic accident.

Last Friday the Lubbock eleven ran across its toughest opponent of the season, managing to defeat Pampa's Harvesters, 33-20, in a non-district tile.

This ran the Westerner string to five straight victories this year, with previous wins over Childress, Nort Side, Plainview, and Vernon.

The Sandies have displayed a powerful attack also, defeating Denton, Abilene, Paschal of Fort Worth and Forest last week, losing only to Odessa.

The last time a Lubbock football team defeated the Sandstorm was in 1939, and this year the chances of winning seem better than ever. Coach C. R. Pattison has a well-balanced attack, and each of the squadmen plays alert football. The team is in fine shape, and after stiff workouts this week should be ready to play 48-minute ball.

Coach Pattison can be expected to bear down the early part of the week with contact work and long drills on pass defense which proved leaky last week against the Pampans.

Although but seven of 15 passes were completed by the Harvesters, the ones that were found the Westerner defense napping and one touchdown heave was made with the defensive man nowhere near the receiver. Two passes were intercepted, however.

Sandies Rated Major Threat

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Editor

Texas schoolboy football enters the crucial stretch this week. From top to bottom the teams will be playing for keeps as conference warfare touches all except two districts in Class AA.

The big game of the week won't be a conference affair at all. It matches two of the state's eleven undefeated, untied teams.

Wichita Falls, rated around the top in the big ten of Texas, and Highland Park (Dallas), just a few notches back, get together at Wichita Falls.

Lubbock In Danger

At least four are likely to fall from the unbeaten, untied class. One will be either Wichita Falls or Highland Park. Another might be Lamesa, which goes against tough Pampa. A third could be Lubbock, which takes on Amarillo. Then Galena Park might take the jump in a game with Galveston.

Other teams with perfect records are Ysleta, Grand Prairie, Henderson, Marshall, Port Arthur and Corsicana. Port Arthur and Corsicana don't play this week. The others appear destined to retain their places with comparative ease.

John Reagan of Houston and Baytown are undefeated but have been tied. Reagan plays Brownsville and Baytown engages Texas City. Reagan might run into trouble.

HANSON WINS MEET

FORT WORTH, Oct. 17 (AP)—Beverly Hanson of Indio, Calif., upset medalist Marlene Bauer, Los Angeles, yesterday to win the 14th annual Women's Texas Open golf tournament 3 and 2.

The geographic center of the United States is in north-central Kansas.

Southwestern Junior Loop Leaders Tangle

(By The Associated Press)

The first of a two-day showdown comes this week in the Southwestern Junior college conference football race.

Two unbeaten leaders—Tyler and Kilgore—get together at Tyler Saturday night.

Lamar of Beaumont, the other undefeated, untied team, takes on twice-beaten Tarleton State at Stephenville.

San Angelo goes to Paris Friday night and Schreiner will meet Arlington State at Kerrville Saturday night.

Last week found Kilgore trampling Arlington State 33-7, Tyler licking San Angelo 27-0, Tarleton State downing Schreiner 12-0 and Lamar whamming Paris 38-13.

Lamar leads the conference race with four victories and Tyler has three, and Kilgore two.

GOAL LINE STAND—John Moreton, Texas Christion university fullback, is stopped without gain on the one-yard line by Jim Flower, Texas A. & M. line-backer, in the first period of the TCU-Aggie game in Fort Worth. Two plays later TCU scored its first touchdown. Aggie players are Halfback Robert Schaeffer (45), back Clarence Lawson (38) and back Charley Royalty (20) come in to help make the stop. Loop Championship May Be Determined

Minnesota, Michigan Tangle In Important Weekend Game

CHICAGO, Oct. 17—Minnesota would like nothing better than to take the Western conference championship along with it to the Rose bowl.

After stunning Ohio State 27-0, the Pasadena trip appears almost a cinch for the undefeated Gophers.

Minnesota now invades Ann Arbor for its traditionally bitter "little brown jug" battle with Michigan. Victory would set up Coach Bernie Bierman's gang for its first conference title since the 1941-1942 national championship heydays.

Holds Special Interest

This slam-bang affair, by far the most important on a Saturday card of four Big 10 engagements, should be of special interest to the Pacific coast. Out there they want their Rose Bowl representative to face nothing but the best from the Big 10—the champion.

Under the three year clause in the two league's bowl contract, Northwestern went last time although it was runner-up to Michigan for the crown.

Face Tough Foes

They probably will get what they want if Minnesota defeats Michigan. But the Gophers still will face a tough stretch drive. They meet three conference opponents—Purdue, Iowa and Wisconsin—at home in Minneapolis and tangle with the revived Panthers at Pittsburgh in an intersectional corker.

Although Michigan was upset 21-20 by twice-beaten Northwestern Saturday in opening its conference campaign, all speculation must be cast aside when the Wolverines and Gohpers collide. Many a time the favorite on paper has been erased and in the rivalry which started in 1892 and has become one of the hardest fought in the country.

Minnesota has not tumbled Michigan since winning 16-14 in 1942.

Gulf Coast Elevens To Face Rough Foes

(By The Associated Press)

Gulf Coast conference teams, their chests protruding over a grand-slam last week, continue their battle with the Border and Lone Star conferences Saturday.

University of Houston will have its hands full. The cougars meet the fast-moving Hardin-Simmons Cowboys at Houston.

The other members appear due to triumph.

Hardin, undefeated and untied, plays East Texas State at Commerce; North Texas State takes on Sam Houston State at Huntsville and Trinity battles West Texas State at Canyon.

Last week Hardin strapped Southwest Texas State 19-6, North Texas State licked Stephen F. Austin 25-6, University of Houston nosed West Texas State 14-13 and Trinity beat Sul Ross 20-14.

It is believed that the number of big game animals in the United States is increasing.

Sale Of Davis Is Announced

The sale of shortstop Nelson Davis to the Boston Braves for an undisclosed sum has been announced by the Lubbock Hubbers, and the shortstop will report to the Hartford, Conn., club of the Eastern league next year for spring training at Myrtle Springs, Va.

If Davis is not retained by the Hartford club he will return to the Hubbers, and if he is kept then two players will be sent from the Hartford training camp to the Hubbers.

While with the Hubbers the past season Davis played in 140 games, compiling a .311 batting average, getting 193 hits in 621 times at bat. He scored 132 runs and batted in 124 others, slamming 31 home runs, five triples and 37 doubles.

LARSEN COPS TITLE

DALLAS, Oct. 17 (AP)—Art Larsen yesterday beat a fellow townsman, Earl Cochell of San Francisco, 1-6, 6-3, 6-4, 6-4 to win the singles title in the Dallas Country club tennis tournament. Jaroslav Drobny and Vladimir Cernik of Czechoslovakia defeated Larsen and Cochell for the doubles event, 3-6, 6-3, 6-3, 6-3.

Ticket Sale For Bouts Pushed

Henderson To Meet Ortega

Apparently everyone except Mr. John Q. Fan is ready for Tuesday night's Henderson-Ortega fight card at Chapman fieldhouse.

Both main eventers, Bill Henderson and Manny Ortega, are primed and ready to go in their ten-rounder. So are the preliminary fighters, who will help complete the 32-round program.

Chapman fieldhouse, with seating arranged to accommodate as many as 2,700 fans, is ready.

But so far the public just hasn't "gone for" the program. Advance ticket sales have been unusually slow, VFW representatives reported Sunday, and a tremendous boom from now until fight time will be needed to keep the venture out of the red.

Ortega's Record Good

Considering the quality of the main event, the public's reluctance is a bit puzzling.

Off his record, Ortega, who arrived here Sunday, will be perhaps the toughest opponent yet faced by Henderson. The spindly-legged El Paso clouter, for several years one of the Southwest's best mittmen, is in top physical condition for this bout, according to his manager. Alkie Nicholson. If this is so, the match promises to be a real pier-six slugfest, since both Ortega and Henderson are known to favor a boring-in, attacking style of fighting.

Henderson, at an expected 130 pounds will enjoy a four- or five-pound weight advantage. In view of Ortega's record, he may need it.

Lost 6 Of 51

According to Nicholson, Ortega has lost only six of his 51 pro fights. On the victory side of the ledger, he has whipped such aces as Manuel Ortiz, current world bantam titlist; Tony Olivera; Jackie Callura; Jock Leslie; Bobby Jackson, and Pittsburgh Jackie Wilson. He holds a draw with Luis Galvani, Cuban bantam champ now rated as one of the world's best in the 118-pound division.

Ortega has lost to Leslie, Baby Gonzlaes (twice), Chico Rosas, Harold Dade and Memo Valera, Nicholson said.

As an amateur, Manny achieved his greatest glory in 1944, when he won national Golden Gloves 118-pound title as a member of the Chicago team which met New York's champions in the annual inter-city GG matches. Ortega won two state Gloves crowns during his amateur career.

Henderson, who will be after his 27th win in 29 pro starts Tuesday night, also breezed through a light workout Sunday. As usual, the Levelland lightweight is near peak physical form.

Henderson and Ortega have met only one common opponent, Baby Torres of El Paso. Ortega polished off Torres in two rounds, while Henderson turned the trick twice —once in three rounds and again in four heats.

Ed Sides, representing the sponsoring VFW Post No. 2466, announced Sunday that Charley Forbes, Brownfield, will meet Billy Cornelius, Oklahoma City, in a four-round preliminary Tuesday night. This match is being substituted for the Billy Brackeen-Sam Inagio bout, which has been cancelled.

James Faces Brown

In the eight-round semifinal, Lubbock's Gene James, undefeated as a pro heavyweight, meets Dickie Brown of Amarillo in a return match. James decisioned the Amarilloan in a close one here several weeks ago.

A six-round feature bout pits Leonard Duncan, Hale Center, against Dick Smith, Oklahoma City, in the middleweight class.

One other four-rounder will be staged. Originally, it was to have matched Charley Neff, Petersburg, with Tony Olivas of El Paso. However, Olivas' handlers announced this weekend that they were passing up the bout because Neff had not made the 130-pound weight stipulated in the contract. Local officials Sunday were seeking a suitable replacement for Olivas.

Tickets for the card were to be on sale today and Tuesday at the Hilton hotel, Hub Clothiers and City Club gym, all in Lubbock, and at Talley's Barber shop in Levelland. Prices are $3.50 ringside, $2.50 reserved and $1.50 general admission.

Advance sales have been unusually slow, VFW officials said Sunday, and plenty of seats still are available in all price divisions.

Profits from the program will be divided between the Lubbock Goodfellows fund and Girlstown, U. S. A.

Basketball Drills Will Start Today

(By The Associated Press)

Basketball edges into the picture in the Southwest conference today but won't receive much more than a cursory glance. The start of the season is a month and a half away.

Baylor comes up with the top prospects as usual with six senior lettermen although minus a star it had been expecting—James Owens, who passed up his final season to play professional basketball.

Lettermen returning are Bill Dewitt, Odell Preston, Bill Srack, Bill Hickman, Don Heathington and Gerald Cobb.

Texas A. and M. also has six lettermen but only one is a real veteran. He is Bill Turnbow who's been at it three seasons. Other lettermen are Wally Moon, Jewell McDowell, John Dewitt, Jack Miller and Sydon Hrachovy.

Arkansas, Southern Methodist and Rice each comes up with five lettermen.

At Arkansas they are Bob Ambler, Jim Cathcart, Bob Williams, Norman Urice and Gerald Hudspeth.

Between the Lines by Joe Kelly

Lubbock football teams go back to the gridiron today and there's a suspicion existing that there's a lot of work to be done. The Westerners didn't look very sharp in beating Pampa, which showed little fear of the vaunted strength of the Lubbock team. Tech probably turned in its best game of the year against a team that was favored to win just about as it pleased. But Coach Dell Morgan is faced with a lot of work preparing for an Arizona team that is coming along and getting better every week. As for Damon Hill, his team's loss to Abilene may or may not knock it out of the state championship race.

Second guessing can be so much fun, mainly because your team always will win that way. If so and so had done such and such . . . If such and such hadn't happened and so and so had done this or that . . . If they had done and the opposition had done . . . Etc. It's an easy way to try to get around the facts that this actually did happen and that's the way it it. If Tech had gotten one more block on a couple of occasions, ball carriers might have gone all the way. If Ike Stuver hadn't tripped once, he might have gone all the way. If ends, on two or three occasions, had gotten into the open, Tech might have scored. Those are offensive ifs that mean nothing, since it didn't turn out that way. The ends didn't get in the clear, Stuver did trip and there weren't the blocks at two or three occasions.

On the defensive side, if Tech had been able to put up a pass defense, Adrian Burk wouldn't have been able to complete 16 of 23 attempts. If Tech tacklers had gotten through the line a minute sooner, they'd have tackled ball carriers behind the line. If Tech ends hadn't been blocked out on plays around end, they'd have made tackles. If Tech had had the manpower and ability, man for man, They'd have held Baylor But Burk's receivers did shake into the open, Tech tacklers didn't get ball carriers behind the line —often—Tech ends were blocked out on end runs and Tech didn't have the manpower, man for man, that Baylor had. Put them all together, they spell DEFEAT, D-E-F-E-A-T.

The Raiders, we thought, turned in one of their best performances of the year, if not the best. Baylor is one of the better teams in a Southwest Conference that is power-laden this year. Coach Bob Woodruff has, according to a Baylor man who has been following Bruin fortunes for over 20 years, the best team he has ever seen in the Waco institution. We can believe him. The Bears are big in the line and they move well. They charge hard, block hard and well. The backs are shifty and what impressed us most was the fact that they run hard, in addition to their speed. And in Adrian Burk they have one of the finest passers we've seen in a long while.

We can't agree with Coach John Barnhill of Arkansas that he is the greatest living passer we've ever seen. We've seen Sammy Baugh and we'll stick with him, thanks. But Burk was calm, cool and poised. He also shook off the solid tackling Tech was doing to keep on chucking his aerials. He had the ability to pick out his receivers and lead them just right on all but one occasion. Of course Bob is smart enough to have set up his attack around Burk, but at the same time to throw in some running attack. That keeps the defense split and makes it almost impossible to concentrate on one phase of defense. You can't be rushing a passer to death if there's the threat of a hard runner coming at you. And if you tighten your defense for the running, the passer has you at his mercy.

We don't know if Bob Woodruff is a perfectionist or not, but we do know that he insists on sharp timing in all phases of his gridiron activities. Friday afternoon, as we stood beside him in Jones Stadium, we noticed that he carried a stopwatch and, while talking, timed his kickers getting the punts off. Every now and then he'd call out that they weren't getting their boots off fast enough. The same was true of his passers. It's fine attention to detail work like that that is putting the Bears up there in the money and making a name for Bob. A 33 years of age, he apparently has an unlimited future ahead of him. Certainly the Bears will make life miserable for a lot of teams in the SWC race, even if they don't come out on top. And we doubt if they do.

Tomorrow night Bill Henderson faces the biggest hurdle he yet has met aside from Jean Mougin. The Levelland product faces Manny Ortega, one of the classier boxers in the ring and one of the better known. If he can get past Manny, Bill may be on his way to much better things, providing that he does the job in an impressive way. He can't afford to fight the cautious, bumbling fight that he did against Mougin in the second outing, nor can he become lax and allow Ortega to find the range with what has been termed one of the best right hands in the ring. It should be a great scrap and we hope Bill wins it. We also would like to see Gene James fight a great fight against Dickie Brown, who made him look so bad the last time they met. It's a good fight card, on the surface, and deserves your attendance.

Hubbers Beat Oil Belt Nine

For the second week in a row, the Lubbock Hubbers downed Denver City's Oil Belt playoff winners in an exhibition baseball game. The game was played at Rosenthal field before 200 persons, with the Hubs coming from behind to win, 4-3.

Hurling for the winners was Bob Clodfelter, and he gave up five hits in besting the efforts of Hooks Epperson, who was touched for nine safeties.

Denver City Scores

Denver City got off to a fast start in the opening frame, scoring two runs when Doc Keel walked and came home on Jake Gist's home run into the wire above the left field wall.

The Hubs came back with a single run in the third when Bob Marquis' high fly ball fell into centerfield for a double. Manager Jackie Sullivan singled Marquis home with the run.

The Gassers bounced back in the fifth inning with one run on Tommy Hilton's triple and Keel's single through shortstop, but Lubbock tied it up with two runs in the bottom of the fifth. Sullivan was safe at first on Shortstop Jackie Cook's error, and Don Moore sent an Epperson pitch over the centerfield fence.

The Hubbers put the game out of reach in the eighth when Nelson Davis singled, was sacrificed to second by Mike Dooley, reached third on Buster Hutchins' single and scored on Royce Mills' single to left.

Denver City got two men on in the ninth, but Hilton grounded out.

The Gasser lineup included Hilton, cf; Keel, 2b; Gist, 1b; Landreth, c; Cook, ss; Jones, 3b; Lewis, lf; Davidson, rf; Epperson, p.

Quarterback Club To Hold Meet Tonight

This week's meeting of the Lubbock Quarterback club will be held tonight at 8 in the Lubbock Hotel, with all three local coaches definitely on the spot after two defeats and a close shave featured weekend football locally.

Coach Dell Morgan, whose Texas Tech Red Raiders took it on the chin at the hands of Baylor; Coach Damon Hill, whose Dunbar High school Panthers absorbed a beating in Abilene; and Coach C. R. Pattison, whose Lubbock High school Westerners had a narrow escape from Pampa, will be the main speakers.

Bill Collins, president, has appointed a special entertainment committee for tonight and they are expected to spring a surprise at the meeting.

Play of the week awards also will be announced.

Play Opens In City Tourney

The City Open Golf tournament was scheduled to open play today, and before the end of the week each entrant will have played two matches.

Final qualifying rounds Sunday ran the total number of contestants to 63, and medalist was Dick Jennings with a five-under-par 66 for the 6,233 yard course.

Also shattering par 71 was Kay Bradshaw with 68. Third low was Chick Trout with 73, and R. J. Dempsey and Fred Hinson fired rounds of 74.

The golfers will make their own matches. Scores must be turned in by Sunday night so that pairings for the following week can be made.

Consolation rounds will be played in each of the three flights. There are 32 men in the championship flight, and the first flight has 16 golfers, with 15 in the second flight.

Finals in the tournament will be played on October 31, and a dinner for contestants will be held November 1. Entrance fee was $5, and all profits of the tourney go to the Girl Scouts.

League Vote Turns Down Schepps Plan

DALLAS, Oct. 17 (AP). — Corpus Christi will stay in the Rio Grande Valley league unless Sherman-Denison leaves the Big State league, Owner George Schepps said today.

Sherman-Denison, it was revealed at the fall meeting of the Bib State circuit here yesterday, owes some $18,000 and must pay this by Nov. 7 or surrender its franchise.

Schepps had proposed that he place Corpus Christi from the Class D Rio Grande valley league in the Class B Big State and shift his Greenville club in the Big State to the Class C East Texas league.

But Big State league club owners voted that he couldn't do it. Now his only chance is for Sherman-Denison to default. This, Dr. Vernon Tuck, president of Sherman-Denison, said isn't likely.

Schepps said the Rio Grande Valley league would go to Class C with Corpus Christi remaining in it.

The Big State league, among other business transacted, re-elected President J. Walter Morris at an increase of $1,200 a year in salary (he now will make $4,800), re-elected vice-president Gilbert Tindall of Greenville and raised the salary of secretary T. L. Rodrigues from $125 a month to $200.

McMurry To Battle ACC Team This Week

(By The Associated Press)

Brad Rowland, setting a torrid pace in Texas conference scoring, is one of the chief reasons the McMurry Indians will be favored to move past what may be the last big barrier in their path to a second straight championship.

The Indians face Abilene Christian college this week at Abilene.

Rowland scored two touchdowns in his team's 39-14 victory over Texas A. & I. last week to boost his total for the year to ten.

The defeat dropped A. & I. from the undefeated, untied ranks.

ACC tuned up for this week's big game by polishing off the University of Tampa, 38-14.

In other games last week, Howard Payne beat Austin college, 19-12, and Southwestern downed Daniel Baker, 28-0.

This week, Southwestern meets Howard Payne; Austin college plays Southwestern Missouri Teachers and Texas A. & I. takes on Daniel Baker.

Southwest Texas To Open Title Defense

(By The Associated Press)

Southwest Texas State is hoping for a new lease on life when it opens defense of its Lone Star conference football title Saturday against Stephen F. Austin at Nacogdoches.

The defending champion Bobcats haven't fared too well in pre-conference play, having won one, lost three and tied one.

Hardin college rolled over the Bobcats, 19-6, last week, while North Texas dropped Stephen F. Austin, 25-6.

In other games involving conference teams, Sam Houston State bombarded Brooke Army Medical center 83-0, and East Texas State felled University of Corpus Christi 14-7.

Sophomore Jack Kyle, Sam Houston halfback, tallied 21 points to take the individual scoring lead with 45.

Non-conference games Saturday pit Sam Houston against North Texas in Huntsville and East Texas against Hardin college at Commerce.

Congressmen Seek Compromise On Farm Price Support Bill

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17—Two senators suggested today that House members may be handling farm legislation so as to allow a sag in farm prices early next year.

The senators, Democrat Elmer Thomas of Oklahoma and Republican Young of North Dakota, are members of a Senate-House conference committee which has had a hectic time trying to patch up differences on a new farm measure. Lack of agreement is one of the things holding up adjournment of Congress.

No Comment Given

Thomas and Young reasoned that House members of the committee might go through with a let-supports-sag plan in order to force senators to go along with a higher-level price support program later in 1950.

There was no comment from the House members. Rep. Pace (D-Ga) limited himself to saying:

"I do not regard the situation as hopeless. There are 14 sincere members of Congress trying to work out their differences, and I still believe they will."

If these 14—members on the conference committee—do not get together and no bill is passed, then the Aiken act of the 80th Congress will go into effect in January. This eventuality was the basis for the senators' talk of a possible deliberate drop in the supports, since the Aiken act in some cases would permit lower levels.

Meeting Is Called

The conferees called a fifth meeting today for another effort to get a compromise after a reported agreement Saturday blew up with a bang.

The main dispute centers around the level of government supports for cotton, wheat, corn, rice and peanuts, five of the six so-called basic crops. The sixth, tobacco, already is assured of top level supports at 90 per cent of parity if growers continue to approve marketing restrictions as they have in the past.

Parity is a computed price intended to give a farm product the same relative purchasing power it had in a past favorable period.

Plan Is Disputed

The House bill would continue for another year the existing support levels of 90 per cent of parity, Installed during the war stimulate farm production.

The Senate bill would continue supports for most of the basic crops at the 90 per cent level for next year. But after that it would allow them to drop as low as 75 per cent of parity if supplies grew large.

For several hours Saturday conferees agreed to allow 90 per cent supports for all basic crops whenever farmers were forced to cut their planting and reduce their marketing in order to qualify for government benefits.

But Senate Majority Leader Lucas (D-Ill) and Senator Anderson (D-NM), author of the Senate bill and former secretary of agriculture pulled the rug out from this agreement after studying it further.

Strike Idle

plan be subject to any future adjustments in federal social security laws.

Murray Answers Lewis

Murray says the aluminum company's pension proposal "would have led to a reduction in the company's pitifully inadequate retirement payment to its old employes."

There was little, if any picketing, at ALSOA's plants.

Murray said he has been out of touch with U. S. conciliation director Cyrus Ching and added the steelworkers are "prepared for an enduring struggle to win the security to which every human being is entitled."

During the weekend Murray gave a yes and no answer to UMW president Lewis who wants to set up a whopping fund to battle industry.

Lewis proposed the AFL and the UMW join in setting up a $2,500,000 weekly war chest to help the striking CIO steelworkers.

Murray replied that his steelworkers, "and I am sure other equally minded affiliates of the CIO, stand prepared to join the United Mine workers and the AFL to pool their resources for the common defense and general welfare of the labor movement."

But Murray didn't specifically mention Lewis' proposal.

The soft coal miners have been idle since September 19. They quit after their pension and welfare payments were suspended. Lewis said some southern operators quit paying 20-cents-a-ton royalty payments required by the contract which expired last June 30.

An hour and four minutes later Hennessy called in with the news that the baby was born.

When it became apparent that the stork was winning the race, Mrs. Parker was taken into the crew compartment of the plane. A fellow passenger, Dr. Fred Henschel of New York City, attended her. The doctor was assisted by Stewardess Mary Jane Hinckley, 28, of Millville, N. J., a registered nurse.

There were 36 passengers aboard the plane.

Daily MARKETS

Stock Market

MARKET IS LOWER

NEW YORK, Oct. 17 (UP) — Activity in television shares featured a lower, moderately active stock market today.

The television group, a leader Saturday, dropped with the general market early in the day. Losses ranging to more than a point were noted in all the issues. They rallied substantially and some scored small net gains late in the session.

In the main list, selling went ahead for the first half of the session on predictions by Secretary of Commerce Charles Sawyer that unemployment would rise to 5,000,000 by Dec. 1 if the steel strike is prolonged to that date. Wall Street has paid no attention to the steel situation for some time on the belief the strike would be short lived.

Steel shares had losses running to more than a point but the leaders were better than the main group. They dipped fractions. Motors at their lows were down a point or more in the top issues. Rails had a severe setback, and the industrial list as a whole received its worst drubbing since Sept. 20 when strike and currency devaluation news took its toll.

Cotton Market

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, Oct. 17 (AP) — Cotton futures were lower today under moderate pressure of local selling and hedging. New crop deliveries held steady in early dealings on the belief that Congress will eventually adopt 90 per cent of parity loans on basic 1950 crops. Offerings were absorbed principally through mill buying.

The American Cotton Shippers association reported that Japan had entered the market for 80,000 to 90,000 bales of United States cotton for November through January shipment, with prices to be based on the May, 1950, futures.

Hedging pressure was associated with the peak harvesting period for the 1949 cotton crop.

Walking Club Formed As A Protest To Increase In Transit Fare In Chicago

CHICAGO, Oct. 17 (INS)—A Chicago alderman and one of his constituents sought to learn today just how incensed the municipal transit riders of the 44th ward are over increased fares.

With elevated fares up to 17 cents and trolley and bus fares to 15 Alderman Joseph Bermeister and Matt L. Quinn have organized a walking club.

Bermeister said it was Quinn's idea and he believes it is a fine one.

Said Quinn, 65-year-old hardware dealer:

"We're planning to have people walk whenever its humanly possible rather than pay these fare increases.

"Perhaps we'll make it so loop workers can organize into teams and march to and from their places of employment.

"We've got to bring home to those transit officials the injustice of those fare increases."

Murder Suspect Is Caught Near Vernon After Long Search

VERNON, Oct. 17 (AP)—Antonio Gonzales, 38, hunted since 1945 on a charge of murder in the death of his sweetheart in Brownsville, Tex., was captured on a farm 11 miles west of Vernon late yesterday.

Vernon Police Chief Walter Suttle saw the farm laborer in the city. The chief checked his files and found a picture and description of Gonzales in a March 1948 copy of a detective magazine.

"No," says Esther. "I don't be-Brownsville in 1945. He was charged in the murder of Miss Daisey Lee Goosby on Feb. 17. In June 1945 the FBI entered the case and filed a complaint at Lubbock charging Gonzales fled the state to avoid prosecution.

Offered No Resistance

Miss Goosby was shot in her home in Brownsville. Before she died from the bullet wound she told police Gonzales shot her after she told him she would have nothing more to do with him.

Gonzales was captured by officers headed by Texas Ranger Jim Geer. Officers said he had a long bladed knife but offered no resistance.

The five-foot-two-inch laborer had been in the Vernon area of north Texas intermittently for four years. He was married to a Vernon woman and was living with her and two children at the time of his arrest.

Rain In Mexico Isolates Town

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 17 (UP) — Torrential rains today cut the Mexico-Guatemalan border town of Suchiate off from the rest of the republic.

The downpour washed out highways, the railroad and flooded the airport, forcing cancellation of all traffic in and out of Suchiate.

According to press reports from the border town, the Suchiate river rose so rapidly engineers feared it would damage or destroy the international bridge.

Low-lying sections of Suchiate already have been evacuated.

Crop Damage Heavy

The rains, which have been falling since last week, continued today and the weather bureau could see no immediate end to the precipitation.

Damage to coffee and banana crops was reportedly heavy.

Reports from Tuxtla Gutierrez, capital of the border state of Chiapas, said at least one train was derailed near Tapachula when it hit a slide on the tracks, but there were no fatalities in the accident.

There have been no confirmed reports of deaths attributable to the rains and floods. The newspaper Excelsior, however, said "reliable sources" reported the entire village of Amatenango was swept away by flood waters from the Grijalva river. "The losses are incalcuable," Excelsior reported, "as it is known that many lives were lost." Communications with Amatenango have been cut since the rains began.

Kidnap-Robbers Are Sought In Chicago

CHICAGO, Oct. 17 (UP) — Two kidnap-robbers, who only went to church to learn how the collection money was handled, were sought today by police.

Walter Treichel, assistant treasurer at the suburban Oak Park First Congregational church, said the pair kidnaped him yesterday as he left the church with the collection.

After a ride of several blocks, the men pushed Treichel out of the car but kept the market bag containing the $500 from the church.

The familiarity of the bandits with Treichel's movements led police to speculate that they had attended the services for some time to learn how the money was handled.

Probe Of Texarkana Phantom Killings Renewed After Rusty Pistol Is Found

TEXARKANA, Oct. 17 (AP)—A rusted pistol was found in a field yesterday near the scene of the first phantom killings in 1946.

The finding stirred further investigation.

Constable A. S. (Red) Harrington received the gun from the father of a ten year old girl. The child said she found the weapon in a clump of grass a quarter of a mile from the scene of the first double shooting. Harrington said the gun was a .32 or .38.

The murders began March 26, 1946, when Polly Ann Moore, 17, and Richard Griffin, 29, were slain in a parked car. They were shot with a .32 caliber weapon.

On April 14, Betty Jo Booker, 15, and Paul Martin, 17, were slain in a similar fashion. On May 3 Miller county farmer Virgil Starks was slain with a .22 calibre rifle. His wife was shot twice in the face but recovered.

German Princess Due To Arrive In Amarillo Tuesday

AMARILLO, Oct. 17. (AP)—Princess Cecilie of Germany—now plain Mrs. Clyde Harris of Amarillo—is expected here tomorrow.

The granddaughter of the late Kaiser Wilhelm of Germany will trade a castle for an apartment waiting for her.

She and Harris were married last June 21 at Hechingen, Germany, in the ancestral fortress home of the Hohenzollerns—Prussia's ruling family for hundreds of year.

Met In New York

Harris came back to Amarillo to make a home for his bride. She arrived in this country the first of this month, and was met in New York by her husband. He is an interior decorator.

Harris met the princess in the summer of 1945, not long after the war ended. He was a captain in the army and working with the U. S. military government in Darmstadt.

"We knew each other for a year," he later related. "Then I went home to Amarillo in 1946."

For three years the couple corresponded. He went back to Germany last May.

Plans Were Made

"We made our plans after I got back to Germany," he said.

Harris left Amarillo Sept. 26 to be in New York Oct. 2 when his bride was due aboard the Queen Elizabeth. He said he had been trying to get ship reservations for her since her entry into this country was cleared in July.

Some 100 wedding gifts from his friends and relatives were waiting in the Amarillo apartment.

He said they would live in a four-room apartment until their French provincial home is built.

Sheriff's Deputies Seize Marijuana

Elmo Stewart, 32, a Shallowater negro, was all set for the harvest season—and he didn't intend to use a cotton sack, the sheriff's department charged this afternoon.

Stewart was arrested by Sheriff's Deputies Earl Horton, Frank Mitchell and Tom Cannon, who raided his premises in search of beer and found instead two gallons of what they charge is marijuana.

At $1 a cigaret fashioned from the weed, Stewart would have made far more money than he could have made in the fields, it was conceded.

He told Mrs. Olive Fluke, who set bail of $1,000 on a charge that Stewart "acquired a quantity of marijuana without having paid a transfer tax," that he had paid $90 a pound for the four pounds of the narcotic drug.

The complaint was filed by Sheriff Grady Harrist at request of government narcotic agents who were busy in court in North Texas.

Ambassador To Be Replaced By U. S.

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia, Oct. 17 (UP)—Cavendish W. Cannon, U. S. ambassador to Yugoslavia, will be replaced soon, it was reported tonight on the eve of his departure for the London conference of American envoys to eastern Europe.

An unimpeachable source said Cannon was advised of the State department's plans at least three weeks ago and was promised a "good" new assignment.

Despite the unexpected shift in American diplomacy at a critical time in the Balkan situation, Cannon was expected to take part in the London conference in order to pass on his store of information on communist tactics and the position of the Yugoslav government in its test of strength against Moscow.

Although Cannon has been ailing for some months with a circulatory condition, there was some reason to believe Washington has not been entirely satisfied with a certain aspect of the ambassador's presentation of the official U. S. views here.

Nazis In Prison Are Said Too Expensive

BERLIN, Oct. 17 (UP) — Ernst Reuter, lord mayor of West Berlin, complained today that Rudolf Hess and the six other high Nazis imprisoned at Spandau are costing the city too much money.

Reuter asserted that the cost to West Berlin of maintaining the seven war criminals in prison was 450,000 marks (107,000) a year. He asked the city's western commandants to meet with him to discuss cutting expenses.

Texas' Water Problem Slated For Next Legislative Session

AUSTIN, Oct. 17. (AP)—Promise came from two lawmakers today that the next legislature will grapple with Texas' water problems to forestall surrendering state water rights to the federal government.

The promise was voiced by House Speaker Durwood Manford and Senator John Bell of Cuero before the fifth annual session of the Texas Water Conservation association.

Another speaker charged that the interior department and bureau of reclamation are being carried to the "bow-wows" by a "few self-styled super-duper executives in Washington who think they know more about what is good for our people than the people themselves."

Bill To Be Introduced

The cautions against federal control came simultaneously with prophecy of Dallas consulting engineer General Henry Hutchings, jr., that an increased supply of fresh water can build East Texas into a world-great industrial empire "beyond imagination."

Senator Bell told the association he will again introduce in the next legislature his plan for state financing of needed water development projects. The plan, calling for issuance of state bonds up to $200,000,000, died in the last senate without going to the house.

He cautioned that Texas should solve its own problems rather than turn the problems along with rights to the water to the federal government.

Program Said Stalled

Association general manager J. E. Sturrock charged that "the heat is on from the White House to completely control the land and water resources of this nation through federal authorities."

Sturrock said the reclamation program in Texas is stymied and will continue to be "because the people of Texas are not going to surrender their water rights to this federal bureau and be told how much land they can irrigate."

Speaker Manford called water the state's number one problem in pledging aid of the legislature in grappling with it.

Houston Extortion Suspect Ruled Sane

HOUSTON, Oct. 17 (UP)—An examining physician found Raymond Chambers sane today, indicating that the slow-talking former Harris county deputy sheriff must stand trial on a federal charge of trying to extort $50,000 from oilman Glenn McCarthy.

Judge Glenn Merry announced the findings of Dr. Abe Hauser, specially named psychiatrist who examined the 42-year-old Shamrock hotel janitor.

Chambers was arrested last Tuesday when it was revealed that McCarthy received a threatening note Oct. 3, demanding $50,000 "or I will kill you and your children."

A lunacy charge was filed against the man the following day, and he was held in a hospital psychopathic ward for observation.

Chambers was released in the custody of his attorney, Joe Ed Winfree, jr., and was free on bond in the extortion charge.

Winfree said Judge Perry had not set a date for formal hearing on the lunacy charge.

Lumber Ship Burning 180 Miles Off Coast

SEATTLE, Oct. 17. (AP)—Coast Guard headquarters reported today the Panamanian lumber ship Salina Cruz was burning furiously above decks 180 miles due west of Grays Harbor, Wash., today, and the crew of 17 had abandoned ship aboard two lifeboats.

The Coast Guard said the report came from a Port Angeles-based PBY which arrived at the scene about 12 noon (CST). The coast Guard said it did not know whether the big seaplane would attempt to land.

Attempts were being made to locate any other vessels in the area and request them to proceed to the 1,343 ton freighter. The cutters Balsam and Bering Strait were enroute to the vessel.

The vessel sent a distress call at 9:05 a. m., while a fire was raging in the engine room. It was not known whether the freighter was carrying any lumber.

Scurry County Radio Station Is Approved

Man's Fatal Hanging Recorded As Suicide

FORT WORTH, Oct. 17 (UP)—A suicide verdict was recorded today in the hanging death of Jack L. Allison, 52, Oklahoma City drug salesman.

Police said Allison left a family dinner at a cafe here last night and went to the home of a sister, Mrs. Lee Holloway, sr. His body later was found hanging by a rope from a garage rafter at the sister's home.

ago, they left for New York in Clark's car. Last Wednesday, Clark was found robbed and shot to death in an Illinois farm field. He had been dead about five days.

A few days before the body was found, Hawkins was seen in the Panhandle driving Clark's automobile. Officers chased him unsuccessfully.

He abandoned the car Saturday, fleeing afoot from the cafe after he failed to catch Miss Groves, a waitress. She was eating breakfast when he entered and ran through a back door before he could reach her. A cook stopped him in the kitchen long enough for her to get away.

Placed Under Guard

Miss Groves was placed under guard.

It marked her second encounter in ten days with Hawkins, whom she has known for more than a year. Sheriff W. L. Stout said he believed Hawkins "is after her because she told him she's through with him."

Ten days ago, Miss Groves said, Hawkins kidnaped her after pistol-whipping and robbing her escort when they left a dance near Vega, Tex. She said Hawkins forced her to accompany him to a tourist cabin.

She later escaped by knocking him unconscious with a fire extinguisher. He was charged with robbery by assault.

The Senate has flatly rebuffed President Truman on two major nominations for appointive office. That of Mon C. Wallgren as head of the National Security Resources board never got out of committee and the choice of Leland Olds for a third term on the Federal Power commission was rejected on a vote of 53 to 15.

There has been no conclusive action on the President's request for broadening of social security, repeal of the Taft-Hartley law, federal aid to education, and civil rights—all key domestic issues.

But the 81st Congress still has another year to go and its record may be altered substantially a year from now.

Prosperity Crust Thick Now Compared With 1929 Period

By SIGRID ARNE
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17—Just how thick is the crust of our comparative prosperity right now? Is there a depression right below the surface?

The National Planning association (NPA) says the crust is pretty thick compared to 1929 and that any depression need be no more than a temporary lull.

NPA is a non-profit, non-political agency here that makes studies of national problems through committees of business men and labor and farm leaders.

Speculation Curbed

It has just done a study that compares 1929 and 1949 business soundness of the country.

Here are the high spots:

In 1929 private debt ($161.9 billion) was nearly twice what the nation was earning that year. National income then was $87.4 billion. Now private debt is $17.2 billion, only 85 per cent of the $225 billion we are earning this year.

In 1929 speculation was running riot, and brokers had loans out that totalled $6.5 billion. Now brokers' loans are less than half a billion.

In 1929 bank loans were $43 billion, half as much as what we earned that year, and those loans represented 78 per cent of the money in circulation. Now bank loans are $47 billion, only a fifth of what we are earning this year and only 28 per cent of the money in circulation.

Bank Failures Few

In 1929 there were 659 bank failures, and many more followed between 1930 and 1933. Only five banks have closed in the past five years, and bank depositors are insured by the government for any losses up to $5,000.

In 1929 the money we had saved, cash and bank deposits, totalled $55 billion, and there were no government savings bonds. Now you and I are holding down bank deposits of $165 billion and hold government savings bonds worth $48 billion.

In other words, NPA says, if business fell off now and great numbers of people suddenly lost their jobs there should be less actual distress and hunger than in 1929 and 1930.

Even if banks and brokers felt they had to call in their loans, and people had to pay up, fewer people would be strapped, and there would be more money on hand to keep business running.

Weapons Available

More people would still have savings to pay the rent and the grocery bill.

But NPA thinks government and financial men have learned since 1929 that it is perhaps better to increase the public's buying power when a depression threatens, than it is to let prices drop in the hunt for new buyers.

Government has one weapon to do this, NPA reminds. It lies in the federal reserve system, which is a little academic for the ordinary joe, but which can affect his well-being quite quickly. In the face of a continuing slump in business it can tell banks that they can reduce their reserves. Immediately, the banks can use the released money to extend loans and credit and again new money flows out into business channels.

NPA thinks it would be unnecessary to let a business slump blow into another full-scale 1929.

All In A Lifetime — Things To Worry About

Mexico Bans Canasta Because Of Gambling

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 17.—(U.P.)—It is against the law to play canasta in Mexico.

A government decree today banned large gatherings in private homes for canasta parties because there was too much gambling on the card craze, the interior ministry said.

Gambling is illegal in Mexico except for licensed horse racing and the government's national lottery operated for the benifit of the poor.

Terry Paving Projects Set

BROWNFIELD, Oct. 17 Spl.)—Twenty-three miles of Terry county roads are scheduled for paving improvements in 1950 at an estimated cost of $7,500 a mile, County Judge H. R. Winston has announced.

The paving will be included in thre separate projects. One project of three and one-fourth miles will afford an all-weather cutoff from the Levelland highway to the Seagraves highway via the cemetery road, which is already improved.

A total of $18,322.81 for this project is available to the county through a surplus in the State Board of County and District Road Indebtedness. The State Highway department has agreed to put up 25 per cent of this amount to be spent by the county, and also provide an engineer and build the road.

Projects Are Listed

Another project of eight and one-third miles is from Union, in southeastern Terry county, east to the county line and a connection with an improved road to O'Donnell. A fund of $30,000 for this improvement has been allocated Terry county through a state appropriation for such roads.

A third project is for two and one-half miles west from Union to the Brownfield-Lamesa highway, and for nine miles from the Johnson farm-to-market road to the Wellman farm-to-market road. Funds for these projects are provided through a federal appropriation.

Estimates on how long U. S. coal and oil will last yary from thousands of years to less than 100.

Voluntary Security High In Midwest

CHICAGO, Oct. 17 (U.P.)—Voluntary social security programs cover a large percentage of the workers in the Midwest, a recent survey here shows.

The Research Council for Economic Security polled 3,965 firms reporting on 1,960,773 employees in the metropolitan areas of Chicago, St. Louis, Pittsburgh, Twin Cities, Detroit and Cleveland.

The findings were published under the title, "The Midwest Survey of Employee Benefit Plans."

The poll showed more than 75 per cent of the workers have life insurance, and more than 70 per cent have prepaid hospitalization plans. Almost 50 per cent have taken out surgical benefit plans.

Of the nation's total industrial worker census, about 32 per cent are employed in the Midwest region. The figures obtained in the survey cover 15 per cent of this number.

About 40 per cent of the workers come under some sort of pension or retirement system. Many of these are administered by trust companies, the report said.

In most cases, the employer pays about 50 per cent of the cost, except for the prepaid hospitalization plans.

"The scope of voluntary employee benefit plans will play a major role in determining whether public or private enterprise is to be responsible for providing economic security for the American people," the report said.

Mexican Youth Promotes Good Neighbor Policy During Forced Landing Of Plane

OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 17 (AP)—Dolores, a Mexican lad, adheres strictly to the good neighbor policy.

That's what a young Oklahoma City National guard flier says about him.

Lt. James Risner made a forced landing recently about 150 miles south of the Mexican border.

He made it to Tampico on horseback and by truck. Before he left he asked Dolores to keep an eye on the plane until he got back.

Dolores took him for his word. Two weeks passed before army officials ordered the stranded plane picked up by a cargo plane.

When the six-man crew reached the beach-ridden fighter plane, Dolores popped out from the shade of the wings.

He'd been there 14 days. The airmen learned that friends brought him food and drink while he kept his promised vigil.

Keeping up their end of the good neighbor policy, the Americans gave the lad army clothes, a few trinkets from their plane and $4 in American money.

He was mumbling happily when they left, Risner related.

Biggest clam shells weigh as much as 500 pounds.

OIL PROGRESS WEEK • OCTOBER 16-22

This Week ...
take a look at the industry
behind the service station where you buy gasoline

This is Progress: This automatic drilling rig is being developed by Humble engineers. Operated by a regular drilling crew, its automatic features make drilling easier, safer and quicker.

As an average American, you probably take it pretty much for granted that the oil industry will supply you with dependable gasolines and motor oils for your car.

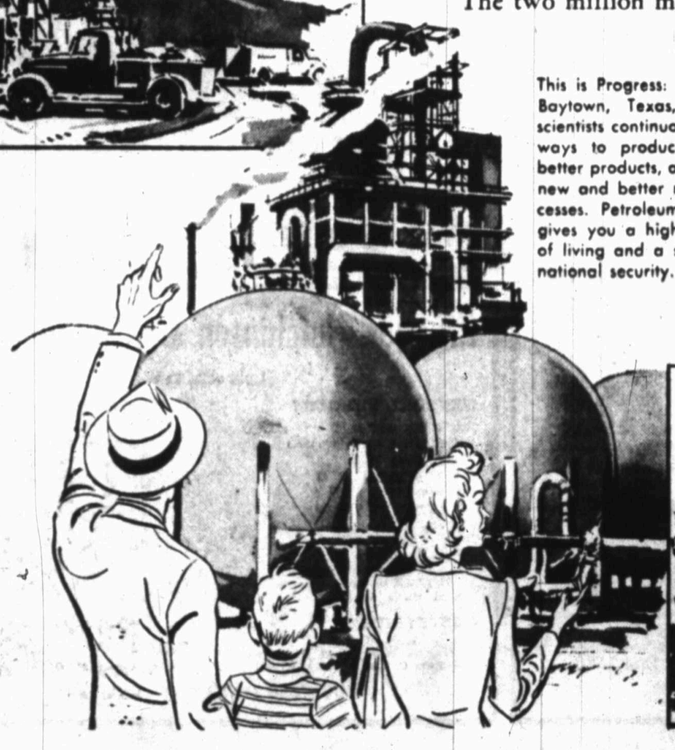

Your confidence is well placed. In the 90 years since the Drake well "came in" in Pennsylvania, oil has progressed from "rock oil", a medicine advertised as good for man and beast . . . through an age of kerosene, when petroleum fueled the lamps of the world . . . to the great industry which today supplies you not only with gasoline and motor oil, but also with heating oils . . . with rubber . . . house paint . . . insecticides . . . detergents . . . plastics . . . cosmetics . . . solvents . . . a list of products too long for printing!

This is Progress: The search for oil frequently leads Humble geological and geophysical crews into such isolated areas that a helicopter is used for surveying and for transporting men and equipment.

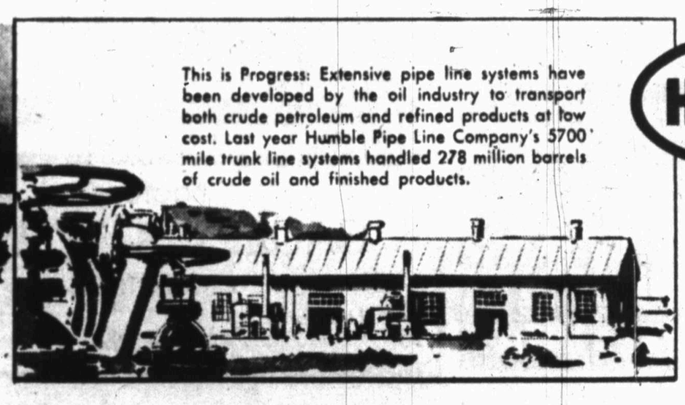

This week, October 16-22, the oil industry specially marks the great progress made since 1859—progress evident in the scientific methods used in the search for oil; progress in the production and conservation of oil; progress in oil refining and the development of new petroleum products; progress in distribution which makes oil products available to every American.

The two million men and women of the industry are proud of its accomplishments; at the same time, they recognize an obligation to you as the customer whose needs have made progress possible, and to the nation which provided the encouragement of an enterprising spirit along every step of the way. In the discharge of that obligation, the oil industry looks at today's progress in terms of your needs for tomorrow.

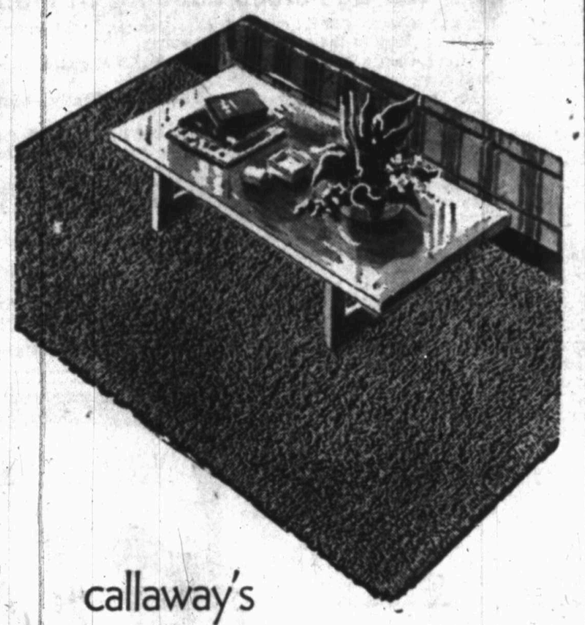

This is Progress: At Humble's Baytown, Texas, refinery, scientists continuously explore ways to produce new and better products, and to devise new and better refinery processes. Petroleum's progress gives you a higher standard of living and a strengthened national security.

HUMBLE OIL & REFINING CO.

This is Progress: Extensive pipe line systems have been developed by the oil industry to transport both crude petroleum and refined products at low cost. Last year Humble Pipe Line Company's 5700 mile trunk line systems handled 278 million barrels of crude oil and finished products.

Failure Turns Into Success

GREELEY, Colo., Oct. 17 (U.P.)—Paul Martin's business failure diverted the 36-year-old truck driver into an apparently successful venture of hauling fresh salmon 3,400 miles by highway from Alaska to midwestern United States.

The Coloradoan's truck line, one of the longest in North America, is just getting started.

It doesn't include much more than Martin and his truck as operating personnel and equipment.

But he figures he has a lot of potential assets, chief among them a vast untouched market for his wares.

The Greeley man discovered it is easy to sell fresh salmon in Colorado. A load he delivered to his home town of Greeley was purchased by individuals and stores almost as soon as he arrived on his first long truck jaunt from Alaska.

Martin's Alaska-Colorado salmon-hauling concern was inspired by his failure to secure trucking contracts in Alaska, where he had gone several months ago.

Alcan Highway Helps

Desperate after he was unable to find hauling jobs, Martin said he decided to take his big new truck and drive it home over the Alcan highway.

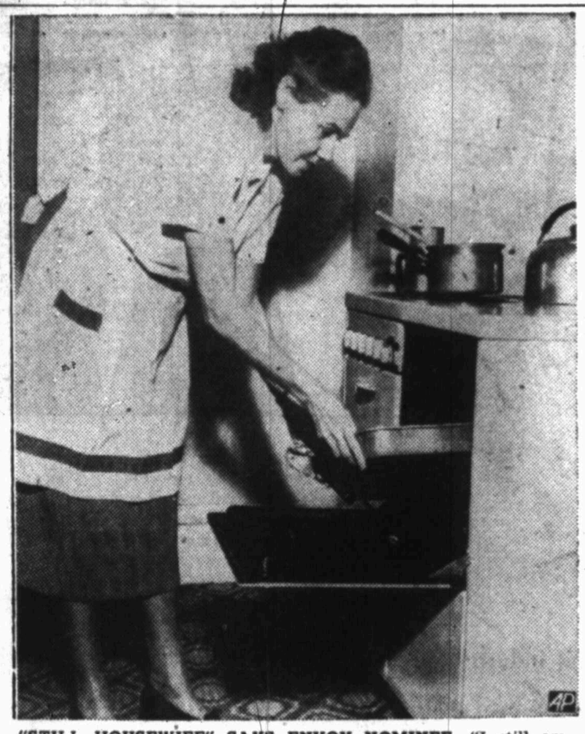

Before starting his trip to the States, he bought enough fresh frozen salmon to fill a refrigerator trailer.

The eight-day trip home, he said went off without difficulty. The Coloradoan said the excellent condition of the road was one factor which induced him to launch his fish-trucking business.

Martin said friends warned him he would find no market for fresh salmon in the United States. But he had no trouble disposing of his load. Martin's main worry now, he says, is getting enough fish to fill his orders.

More Students Seek Advanced Degrees

NORTHFIELD, Minn., Oct. 17 (U.P.)—The Carleton College placement service director says college graduates aren't as satisfied with getting a mere B. A. as they used to be.

Dr. Leith Shackel says that from 1947 to 1949, Carleton graduates going into business and industry dropped percentage-wise from 36½ to 27, while the percentage of those going after higher degrees jumped from 30 to 42.

Dr. Shackel said educational requirements in many fields of work have been raised, and students plan when they start college to get higher degrees.

Luxury House Sales Reported Lagging

CHICAGO, Oct. 17 (U.P.) — The sale of high and medium-priced homes is dropping off, but there has been no let-up in the demand for low-priced homes, according to the U. S. Savings and Loan League.

The league's committee on trends and economic policies said that as a result of the lag in sales of high-priced homes, buyers have "an ever-growing number of homes from which to choose."

The committee also found that prices have dropped on both high and medium-cost homes "with the most pronounced cuts coming in the luxury-type class."

"However, prices continue to hold their own on low-cost homes," the committee said.

It said that the average time that houses for sale remain on the market is somewhat longer than it was at the first of the year.

The committee said it found indications of stiffening buyer resistance in the fact that there "is already an over-supply of high-cost new homes."

"However, this is the only group for which this condition has taken place," it said. "The supply of medium-cost homes is practically normal, but there it no excess."

Church Building Is Finally Completed

MANSFIELD, O., Oct. 17 (U.P.) — Members of the First Church of Christ Scientist have begun to worship in the church auditorium after holding services in the basement for 24 years.

The congregation lacked funds to complete the building when it was started in 1925. The project is about complete at a total cost of $125,000.

Israeli Soldiers Find Strange Mosaics In Valley Of Ayalon

JERUSALEM, Oct. 17 (U.P.)—In the Biblical valley of Ayalon where Joshua fought five kings, Israeli soldiers in the thick of another battle came upon a floor of strange mosaics.

It was last year during the fierce battle for Latrun that exploding shells uncovered the mosaics. The find was reported to the Department of Antiquities and early this year Israel's best-known archaeologist, Prof. E. L. Sukenik, excavated the site.

Next to the discovery of the Isiah manuscripts. Prof. Sukenik considers this the most important find in recent years. For after digging was completed late this summer, Prof. Sukenik had found a Samaritan synagogue dating back to the 4th century A. D.

He uncovered a complete mosaic floor in one of the courtyards on which was inscribed whole verses from the Old Testament. So far one of the verses in the Samaritan script has been deciphered by Prof. Sukenik's staff. It is a verse from Moses' song (Exodus 15:1) sung after the children of Israel were saved from the Egyptians.

"Then sang Moses and the children of Israel this song unto the Lord and spake, saying, I will sing unto the Lord for he hath triumphed gloriously; the horse and his rider hath he thrown into the sea."

Well Preserved

Prof. Sukenik considers his discovery "unique" for until now only parts of pieces of Samaritan mosaics of this period have been found. The floor is believed to be the earliest of its kind that has been well preserved.

But the strangest part of the find is that it should have been there at all. It was not believed that the Samaritan sect had lived as far west as the Valley of Ayalon, which is in the coastal plain of Palestine within the boundaries of the ancient tribe of Dan.

It was here that Joshua ordered, "Sun stand thou still upon Gideon; and thou Moon in the Valley of Ayalon." (Joshua 10;12.)

Joshua needed the extra time "until the people have avenged themselves upon their enemies." (Joshua 10:13.)

The Samaritans for more than 2,600 years have been considered a sect differing from the Jews.

Their ancient home is Shecham, near Nablus, in the center of Palestine. It was there on Mt. Gerizim that they built their own temple a century after the Jews of Jerusalem refused to let them help rebuild the second temple in the Holy City.

One of the mosaics found by Prof. Sukenik depicted two candelabras flanking Mt. Gerizim. It was this mosaic that identified the synagogue as Samaritan.

The Samaritans, who claim to be the descendants of the tribes of Israel, are vanishing because there are few women among them.

Toward the end of January, 1944, and for the first time in history, representatives of the Samaritan community came down from Mt. Gerizim to Jerusalem to meet their Jewish brothers. The delegation consisted of five bearded, turbaned priests, clad in the traditional robes. Their assistants wore tar-bushes.

Prayed For Jews

They came to join in prayer for persecuted European Jewry and to bring news about the remnant three of the lost 10 tribes of Israel—Ephraim, Manasseh and Levi—which never left Palestine's soil.

Before the Palestine War there were about 250 Samaritans left. Of these, only about 25 were women. Many had married Tel Aviv Jews and been assimilated.

During the Palestine War the Samaritans were cut off from Israel. They lived in the heart of the Arab "dangerous triangle."

Nevertheless, the Arab Mayor of Nablus protected them. They were allowed to carry out their traditional sacrifices of the paschal lamb last Passover on Mt. Gerizim.

Since the end of the fighting, a number of Samaritans have been allowed to infiltrate the Israel lines.

But the "last of the Mohicans" are hopelessly scattered now. It is doubtful whether they ever will gather again to live in their own community.

THE QUESTION

What rules do you think should be followed for good health?

THE ANSWERS

JOHNANNA ZOURNAS, 1628 Eighteenth, daughter of Mrs. T. Zournas: "We were studying today not to go swimming in places not sanitary and not to go in swimming out of season. You can catch polio and other diseases so easily in places that are not sanitary."

BOB WHITE, 1806 Ave. K, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. White: "Keep clean and come to school tidy. Do not play around dirty places; do not play in alleys and other places like that. Dirty places carry germs. Don't play around strange dogs either, because the might be mad."

JUDITH BOYD, Route 7, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Boyd: "We have been studying about the kinds of foods you should eat. You should eat plenty of eggs, milk, meat, fruits, and vegetables every day. You need lots of vitamins, too."

JAY VAUGHN, Plaza Apartments, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Vaughn: "Wash your hands before you eat, and when you come in from play, so that you won't get germs in your food. Don't drink out of cups that other people use. When you go to the show, don't sit too near the front, because you might ruin your eyes."

Shell collecting as a hobby is gaining new enthusiasts. One hundred thousand different species of shells are known today.

JANE CRUMP, 1621 Twenty-second, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. C. Crump: "If you are outside and get real hot, don't cool off too quick. When you have a cold, stay in bed and drink fruit juices. Stay away from trash cans and other places where there are germs."

FRANCES PLUNKETT, 1803 Ave. D, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Plunkett: "You should always eat three meals a day, and never stay up too late at night. Get 9 or 10 hours sleep and eat 3 meals a day to keep you in good condition. Drink fruit juices or milk for breakfast."

Oil Progress Week Opens At Levelland

LEVELLAND, Oct. 17 (Special)—Oil Progress week was to begin today with a parade through downtown Levelland, led by high school bands from Levelland, Whiteface, and Sundown.

The week, Oct. 16 to 22, is being sponsored by local oil companies and the Lions, Rotary and Jaycee organizations here.

The parade was to feature all phases of the oil industry: discovery, production, transportation, refining, wholesale, and retail. Murray C. McNichol is chairman of the parade committee. Tommy McSpadden, L. L. Cox, and Sam Billingsley, are members of the committee. George C. Price was to be parade marshal.

Activities during the week will include an open house at the Standolind gas plant near Sundown Tuesday and Wednesday. Tuesday night the Lions, Jaycees, and Rotarians join in sponsoring an Oil Progress banquet.

GOOD EXCUSE

CHICAGO, Oct. 14 (AP) — An eighth grade lad arrived at Hawthorne school a half hour after classes had begun. He handed this note to the teacher: "Dear teacher, this boy was on my streetcar and we were 30 minutes late due to an accident at Madison and Paulina streets. (Signed) Motorman C. N. Smith."

Cost Of Pork Leads Decline

(By The United Press)

A heavy run of hogs to market this summer sent the price of pork chops tumbling 10 cents at butcher shops in the last month, a United Press survey showed today.

Pork roast has declined almost 10 cents a pound, reports from 20 cities showed.

Bacon, however, resisted the downward trend and beef has remained steady.

New Three-Year Low

The big shipments from the bumper spring pig crop sent Dun & Bradstreet's wholesale food price index to a new three-year low. Agriculture department experts said they expect all types of meat except lamb to be plentiful through 1950, with prices relatively lower.

Throughout the nation, newspaper food writers and nutritionists urged housewives to buy pork to save money.

Center cut chops were 20 cents a pound cheaper in Chicago than a month ago and 18 cents cheaper in Philadelphia. At Boston, chops dropped from 99 cents to 75 cents. At Los Angeles, prices dropped 10 cents.

Minneapolis reported that pork roast was down four cents, Washington eight cents, Kansas City and New York 10 cents.

Averages Are Given

Averages of prices quoted today and a month ago in the 20 cities showed:

| | Today | Month Ago |
|---|---|---|
| Center cut pork chops | 72.2 | 84.5 |
| Pork Roast | 56 | 65.4 |
| Grade A Bacon | 67 | 63.8 |
| T-Bone steak | 94.5 | 96 |
| Rib Roast | 70 | 68.2 |
| Chuck roast | 58.7 | 56.5 |

The American Meat Institute predicted that per capita consumption of pork would increase 45 per cent during the last three months of this year to an annual rate of 84 pounds per person.

Increase Predicted

The institute predicted that farmers next year will produce 12,000,000,000 pounds of pork, 12 per cent jump over this year's expected production of 10,700,000,000 pounds.

Beef production next year is expected to hit 9,600,000,000 pounds compared with this year's output of 9,500,000,000 pounds and a 1939-41 average of 7,425,000,000 pounds.

Veal production is expected to hold steady at 1,300,000,000 pounds for 1949 and 1950. Lamb, also expected to hold at the present annual production of 600,000,000 pounds, is far under the 1939-41 average of 890,000,000 pounds, however.

Church Drive Is Approved

Members of the First Presbyterian church Sunday unanimously approved a program calling for a new $200,000 church building and a remodeling of the present building into an educational building.

The program was unveiled last Monday at a special banquet at the church, which was attended by about 30 church members, who were very enthusiastic over the project after it was explained to them, said Dr. Jack M. Lewis, pastor of the church.

Fund-Raising Drive Planned

A fund-raising campaign will get under way Nov. 6 and will last about a week, announced Dr. Lewis.

To cost approximately $200,000, the building would accommodate 700 in its auditorium. The present building is to be remodeled into a modern educational building, cost of which is included in the $200,000 figure.

The church has been in the present structure since 1925. Seating capacity at present is about 550, including balcony, the pastor said. He said one of the principal objections to the old building is the height of the steps into the auditorium. The new building will eliminate this, he said.

Probable Location Given

The new building probably will be erected directly west of the present structure at Fourteenth and Ave. N, and would include a wedding and funeral chapel.

Architect for the building is Henry Steinbomer of San Antonio, who has presented Dr. Lewis with a scale model of the proposed new building.

Dr. Lewis said construction would begin as soon as contracts could be let after the close of the fund-raising drive.

PROGRESS IS REPORTED IN CHURCH FUND DRIVE

Considerable progress in the drive for $300,000 to help finance new St. John's Methodist church building, is reported by the Rev. Hubert H. Bratcher, pastor if the church.

The drive, which began in September, and will continue until Nov. 19, is being met with enthusiasm by the congregation, he said.

Preliminary plans for the edifice were laid out at a recent spe-

Sports Celebrities Are In Attendance

Champ Diver Zoe Ann Olsen Wed To Ex-California Star

OAKLAND, Calif., Oct. 17. (AP)—The sweethearts of sports were married yesterday.

Diving Champion Zoe Ann Olsen, pretty and 18, and big, blond Jackie Jensen, 22, former football star for the University of California and now a baseball bonus player, were wed in Oakland's First Presbyterian church.

Some 1,000 guests and spectators overflowed the small church, which was brightly lighted for newsreel and television cameras. Jensen's former football teammates were ushers. His coach—benign, Lynn (Pappy) Waldorf—was among sports celebrities in attendance.

Zoe Ann, formerly of La Porte City, Iowa, is the national women's AAU diving champion. She has won 14 national diving honors. Jackie, a $75,000 bonus player for Oakland in the Pacific coast baseball league, was sold last week to the New York Yankees.

They met in 1944 at the Athens athletic club swimming pool, where Jensen was a lifeguard. After a honeymoon—destination undisclosed—the couple plans to reside in Oakland.

BENNY IN HOSPITAL

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 17 (U.P.) — Radio comedian Jack Benny was hospitalized today for removal of an obstruction from his nasal passage. Benny entered the hospital last night following his Sunday-night radio broadcast. He expects to be out by Wednesday.

Atlantic Hurricane Reported Dying Out

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17 (AP)—A small hurricane which sprang up this weekend in the Atlantic ocean grew weaker today and was expected to die out about noon (E. S. T.)

The center of the disturbance was reckoned about 250 miles northeast of Bermuda just before last midnight. It was moving east northeast at about 20 miles an hour.

The weather bureau reported winds of hurricane force, 75 miles an hour, at the center of the storm, with gale force blows—55 to 60 miles an hour—extended out 500 miles west, 300 miles north and 100 miles east and south.

The storm offered no threat to land but shipping in its path was advised to use caution.

Greek Rebels Claim Fight Not Finished

By L. S. CHAKALES
Associated Press Staff Writer

ATHENS, Oct. 17.—Communist-led rebel forces, staggered by the government's recent big drive on last strongholds near the Albanian border, announced by radio today they have stopped the civil war but won't lay down their arms.

The Greek general staff reported monitoring the rebel radio announcement which came as United Nations moves to settle the Greek-Balkan conflict neared a climax.

War Minister Panayotis Kanellopoulos declared, however, he wasn't impressed by the rebels' announcement they had stopped fighting. He said: "It merely admits an accomplished fact—the complete defeat and disappearance of communist bandits from Greek soil."

Outside Aid Charged

"The guerrilla army remains intact, strong and on the alert," the rebel broadcast heard here this morning declared. "We have not laid down our arms. We have just stopped the bloodshed in Greece."

Greek government officials and U. S. army observers here say the rebel radio is located at Bucharest, Romania. The United Nations special commission on the Balkans, established to report on fighting in Greece, has charged that communist Albania and Bulgaria have been actively aiding the Greek guerrillas.

Yugoslavia, the U. N. commission reported, stopped aid last summer after Premier Marshal Tito's fight with Russia and her satellites deepened.

UN Talks Underway

For nearly a month negotiations have been going on in the United Nations assembly meeting at Lake Success, N. Y., seeking to get Russia and her communist satellites to withdraw active aid from the guerrillas.

(In Prague, the press agency Ceteka reported the "Free Greek radio" announced that guerrilla fighting had been stopped temporarily because of the United Nations negotiations.

Ceteka said the proclamation declared that "the general assembly of the United Nations, on Soviet suggestion, is discussing the Greek question in order to solve it in a peaceful way."

Same Old Story

("The temporary halt of military operations does not mean that the Greek democratic government and the Greek people have renounced its fights for independence and freedom of the country," the Ceteka report continued. "Monarcho-fascists are wrong if they assume from this proclamation that the fight is finished and that the democratic army ceases to exist.")

Aside from Kanellopoulos' remarks, Greek officials declined to comment publicly on the rebel announcement. But they said privately it was no different from scores of other similar offers of truces and reconciliation during the last two years. Always the rebels have insisted that they be allowed to retain their arms and participate in the government.

One official declared it was part of a Soviet maneuver to reestablish the communists as a legal party in Greece and use the rebels as a fifth column for a future uprising.

Two Killed In Wild Shooting

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Oct. 17 (U.P.)—All he did, ex-paratrooper Floyd Greer said today, was ask his landlord to turn on the heat because his baby was sick.

But the simple request started an argument which so enraged the landlord that he shot and wounded Greer and the baby, killed Mrs. Greer and then committed suicide.

Authorities Puzzled

Authorities were puzzled today over just what caused landlord Francis E. Cheney, 53, to go wild with a pistol. They were inclined to believe that he went berserk when the Greer's mentioned their child's illness, because he himself had been sick.

The grief-stricken 25-year-old Greer, suffering from wounds in the neck and shoulder, choked out his story to Detective J. R. Norrell.

He said that he and his wife noticed that their year-old son, David, appeared to be ill yesterday morning, so he went to Cheney and asked him to turn on the heat.

Cheney, a postal money order clerk, at first agreed to do it and even offered to call a doctor, Norrell quoted Greer.

Flew Into Rage

But Mrs. Cheney began arguing about it, Norrell said, and Cheney suddenly flew into a rage. "He just went mad over the idea of sickness," the detective said. "I suppose it was because he had been sick himself. He didn't seem to be mad at Greer or the child."

Cheney grabbed a .32 caliber

RUSSIA NAMES NEW AMBASSADOR

Other Red Nations Expected To Recognize East Germany

BY DANIEL DE LUCE
Associated Press Staff Writer

BERLIN, Oct. 17—East Germany's links with Moscow will be forged by Gregori M. Pushkin, the tight-lipped Russian diplomat who helped transform Hungary into a Soviet satellite.

This became known yesterday when Russia and the 10-day-old east German regime completed the exchange of diplomatic missions. Pushkin will head the Soviet group, and Rudolf Appelt, German communist evonomic expert, will be the top-ranking man in the German mission in Moscow.

The Soviet Union was the first power in the world to grant legal recognition to the new communist-dominated east German state. Communist China, Poland, Czechoslovakia, Hungary, Romania and Bulgaria are expected to follow Moscow's lead soon.

POW's May Return

The Soviet-licensed ADN News agency said Chinese Communist leader Mao Tse-Tung, in a message to Chancellor Otto Grotewohl and President Wilhelm Pieck, had warmly welcomed the creation of the east German state.

The east German government is a rival of the west German republic at Bonn, which was set up with the approval of the western allies. Each regime hopes ultimately to extend its jurisdiction over all Germany.

Many western diplomatic representatives in Moscow expressed belief there is a possibility the Soviet government soon will announce the withdrawal of its occupation troops from east Germany and conclude a peace treaty.

Tens of thousands of German war prisoners are expected to be returned to Germany in the next few months by Russia. Probably many of these prisoners are supporters of the new east German government.

Resistance Smashed

Pushkin has the rank of ambassador in the Soviet foreign service—a rank he will carry with him to his new post.

In four postwar years he had helped Hungarian Communist boss Matyas Rakosi and other Moscow-trained revolutionaries break Hungary's largest party, the small holders, and smother Catholic resistance in a dominantly Catholic country.

The unchallenged power of the Soviet army to swallow up Hungary if she wavered from obedience to Moscow, was the ace Pushkin played consistently against intimidated Hungarian politicians.

It will be no novelty to Pushkin to find that many Germans have a deep-seated enmity toward the Soviet Union. Many Hungarians had the same feeling — but they got a Communist government anyway.

Appelt, who will head the German mission to Moscow, is a longtime Communist follower who collaborated with the Soviet military administration and rose to become deputy chief of the east German economic commission.

Victim Of Collision Still In Hospital

LEVELLAND, Oct. 17. (Special)—Of 11 persons injured in a car-pickup collision here Thursday, only Mrs. H. T. Goley, sr., of Blossom, remains in the Phillips-Dupre hospital here today.

John David Goley, 7, most seriously injured in the accident, was released Sunday, along with Robert Goley, 8, and Vivian Justice, 18, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Justice of near Levelland.

Mrs. Goley's condition was described as "good."

State Fair Has Six Days To Set Record

DALLAS, Oct. 17 (AP) — The state fair of Texas has six days to set an attendance mark of two million or more.

Yesterday, 234,765 persons saw the fair to push attendance for eight days to 1,349,526. That's 218,000 more persons than attended for the same period last year.

Fair officials expect an attendance of 200,000 today—negro achievement day.

The four college of the Texas A. and M. system put on a two hour show yesterday and Chancellor Gibb Gilchrist, who heads the system, spoke briefly.

A six-man volunteer team of firemen from Cockrell Hill walked away with a gold trophy that proclaimed them North Texas' champion pump team. They hooked a hose onto a hydrant, ran out 60 feet of hose and began squirting water on an imaginary fire in a time of 18.5 seconds.

Dual Shooting Ruled Murder And Suicide

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 17 (AP)—A verdict of murder and suicide was written today across the deaths of a self-styled Columbus preacher and the man who accused him of stealing his wife and teen-age children.

Dead were Bruce Rose, 41, father of three children, and Frank Carson, 63, who was a great-grandfather.

Rose shot through a window and killed Carson yesterday while Carson was talking over the telephone to Rose's estranged wife, Maida. Rose then reloaded his single-barreled shotgun and turned it on himself. Before he died, he told Deputy Sheriff Willard G. Kredel he shot Carson "because he stole my wife and children."

Coroner John H. Richardson returned the murder-suicide verdict.

Carson was estranged from his wife. He is survived by four children, five gran children and a great-grandchild.

Deputies said they were unable to find any certificate authorizing Carson as a minister of any recognized denomination.

Wife Sees Pilot Husband Crash In Flame And Smoke

FORT WORTH, Oct. 17—(AP)—Joe Ray Kemble crawled away from a burning light plane his wife saw spin to earth.

"I don't know how I got out of that plane," the army reserve liaison pilot told her yesterday. "I guess the Lord helped me."

Kemble was on a routine training flight and was making his landing approach when the plane went into a spin and caught fire.

Mrs. Kemble and their two children were at Tussel field waiting for Kemble to land.

"I saw him spin down," she said. "I could see the flames, and then I saw the puff when he hit."

W. P. Robertson and his wife saw Kemble crawling through a barbed wire fence. They drove him to the hospital where he was treated for burns on the face and lower legs and for a scorched face.

That Girl on Broadway says if you always pursue the policy of telling the truth, people will trust you, but they won't like you!

"Accident statistics," writes one of our readers in a letter to the editor, "show that it is as dangerous to stay home as it is to travel on the highways."

Maybe so. Maybe so. But getting killed in a home accident is usually cheaper!

SOME reader—no doubt one of the fairer sex—sent this in and it's pretty good. Wish we could tell you who wrote it.

ESSAY ON MEN

Men are what women marry. They have two hands, sometimes two wives, but never more than $1 or one idea at one time. Like Turkish cigarets, they are all made of the same material only some are better disguised than others. Generally speaking, they may be divided into three classes, Husbands, Bachelors, Widowers. A bachelor is an eligible mass of obstinacy, entirely surrounded by suspicion. Husbands are of three types; prizes, surprises, and consolation prizes. Making a husband out of a man is one of the highest forms of plastic art known to civilization. It requires science, sculpture, common sense, "Faith, Hope and Charity" . . . mostly Charity!

It is a psychological marvel that a small tender soft violet-scented thing like a woman should enjoy kissing a big stubby-chinned, tobacco-and-bay-rum scented thing like a man.

If you flatter a man you frighten him to death. If you don't you bore him to death. If you permit him to make love to you, he gets tired of you in the end. If you don't, he gets tired of you in the beginning.

If you believe him in everything, you cease to charm him. If you believe all he tells you, he thinks you are a total fool; if you don't, he thinks you are a cynic.

If you wear gay colors, rouge and a startling hat, he hesitates to take you out; but if you wear a little brown beret, and a tailored suit, he takes you out and stares all evening at a woman in gay colors, rouge and a startling hat.

If you join in his gaieties and approve of his drinking he swears you are driving him to the devil. If you don't approve of his drinking, and urge him to give up his gaieties, he vows you are a wet blanket. If you are the clinging vine type, he doubts whether you have a brain; if you are a modern, advanced, intelligent woman he doubts whether you have a heart. If you are silly, he longs for a bright mate; if you are brilliant, he longs for a playmate.

Man is just a worm in the dust . . . he comes along . . wiggles around for awhile . . . and finally some chicken gets him!

"I never pay any attention to national statistics on unemployment," snarled the Office Grouch yesterday. "If my brother-in-law's still working, I know boom times are still here!"

IT'S PRETTY easy to get "burned out" on anything—no matter how good it may be—and this is as true of special "health weeks" as it is of anything else, especially if financial drives are staged in connection with the observance.

The American public rarely is able to pick up a newspaper, or tune in a radio set, without being advised that special emphasis is being laid to fighting one or the other of our more frequently encountered diseases.

We hear and read a lot about polio and what to do about it; about heart disease, tuberculosis, cancer and, more recently, about diabetes.

As a result, we get a little touchy on all these subjects. We do a lot of wisecracking about them and, in all honesty, most people get bored from time to time.

Never-the-less, we need to be educated in the matter of our own health and the public's health, as well. And, bored, or touchy, or not, these very "weeks," and financial drives, have brought forth good fruit in the past. They promise to bring forth more in the future.

The first, big, nation-wide fight on any one disease was waged—and still is being prosecuted—against tuberculosis.

Educational methods first were broadly employed in fighting the "white plague" or "lung disease."

Therefore, it is interesting to note that tuberculosis, No. 1 American killer in 1900, today ranks in seventh place as a cause of death.

TO be sure, campaigns against polio and cancer can't be expected to do as well as that staged against tuberculosis until the medical profession knows a lot more about those two killers and maimers than it does today. But even so, drives against them will bear fruit. Early diagnosis of cancer often is the difference between life and death for the victim and early treatment goes a long way in beating—or helping to beat—infantile paralysis.

On the other hand, heart disease—now our No. 1 killer—can be vastly combatted by educational and other campaigns. Many people are on the verge of having heart attacks and don't know it. The quicker they go to a doctor and the sooner they take his advice, the better off they are. The same thing is true in the case of diabetes, which, since 1900, has risen from below the first 10 of our fatal diseases to present Place 9.

So the next time you get bored by being told that this is "Fight Such-and-such a Disease Week," remember that such efforts may have saved—or prolonged—the life of some friend, or some relative.

Remember, when you make a contribution, that your gift may help save or prolong the life of some other friend—or even of one of your own children, or grandchildren.

INCIDENTALLY, it is interesting to note the changes that time, better medicine and education have wrought in the matter of causes for death in the United States during the present century.

A recent comparison of the 10 leading causes of death in the U. S. since 1900 paints the following picture:

In 1900, the causes stood—1. Tuberculosis; 2. Pneumonia; 3. Diarrhea; 4. Heart disease; 5. Nephritis; 6. Violence and accidents; 7. Cerebral hemorrhage; 8. Cancer; 9. Bronchitis; 10. Diphtheria.

Now the causes stand—1. Heart disease; 2. Cancer; 3. Violence and accidents; 4. Cerebral hemorrhage; 5. Nephritis; 6. Pneumonia; 7. Tuberculosis; 8. Premature birth; 9. Diabetes; 10. Arteriosclerosis.

BY DREW PEARSON: NAVY OFFICER ADVISED A-BOMB DELIVERY CHIEF HOPE FOR NATION

Admiral Denfeld Once Okayed B-36 Bomber Plans

WASHINGTON.—It's a tough job for Mr. John Q. Public today to make head or tail out of the welter of headlines and accusations hurled for and against the B-36, the navy and the atomic bomb.

PEARSON

However, to keep the record straight, here are some statements made by some of the same admirals before the B-36 controversy got so hot:

Statement No. 1—Made by Adm. Ralph A. Ofstie to the House armed services committee last week was that the A-bomb was inhuman, barbaric and should not be used.

Statement No. 2—Made by the same Admiral Ofstie one year before, June 30, 1948, at the aviation Writers' association in New York—the atomic bomb is the "main shot in our armament locker. The delivery of the atomic bomb both should be and probably is a major consideration today in the war plans of the air force and of naval aviation."

Statement No. 3—Naval testimony presented before the armed services committee last week was that the a-bomb would do little damage a short distance from the target and that its importance was being overemphasized by the army, air force and secretary of defense.

Statement No. 4—Early in 1948, Adm. Dan Gallery wrote a memo which for about a year became the navy's textbook in its battle against the air force. The memo read:

"The next war will be a lot different from any previous one. It seems obvious that the next time our Sunday punch will be an atomic bomb aimed at the enemy capitols or industrial centers and that the outcome of the war will be determined by strategic bombing. The war will be won by whichever side is able to deliver the atomic bomb to the enemy, and at the same time protect its own territory against similar delivery.

"I think the time is right now," continued Admiral Gallery, "for the navy to start an aggressive campaign aimed at proving that the navy can deliver the atomic bomb more effectively than the air forces can.

"If the navy makes delivery of the atomic bomb its major mission, and if we develop the proper ships, planes and tactics, the navy can become the principal offensive branch of the national defense system — the branch which actually delivers the knockout blow."

Navy Faces Obsolescence

Significantly, Admiral Gallery also stated:

"It has been assumed, at least implicitly, that the next war will not be much different from the last one. This wrong, and if we stick to it the navy will soon be obsolete."

Following the Gallery memo, the navy did stage an all-out fight to take over the delivery of the a-bomb. This was what the controversy over the super-airplane carrier was all about. Two vitally important conferences were held to decide this question, and the first meeting, the famous Key West conference called by Secretary Forrestal March 11, 1948, decided the following two basic policies:

1. Strategic bombing, in other words delivery of the a-bomb, should be re responsibility of the air force.

2. Anti-submarine warfare should be the responsibility of naval aviation.

This latter point has received scant attention, but there was quite an argument over whether the navy or the air force should battle submarines, since most of the sub-patrol work in the recent war was done by land-based planes, and the army with the civil air patrol had a notable record. But the navy won out on this, and there was no further argument.

ARGUMENT continued, however, regarding the delivery of the atomic bomb. Despite the decision taken at Key West, the admirals persisted. They were so persistent that another conference was called by Forrestal at Newport, R. I., Aug. 20, 1948, to rehash the same thing.

Once again it was decided that the air force should be responsible for delivery of the atomic bomb. But even then, the admirals' revolt persisted, and Secretary Forrestal, desperately anxious for harmony, finally called in Eisenhower as umpire.

It has only been since that time that the admirals have shifted their tactics and argued that the a-bomb was inhuman, barbaric, ineffective and not a decisive factor in time of war.

Meanwhile the Bikini report, which tells the story of the bomb's effectiveness, continues to be hushed up by the navy. Scientists say privately that its findings are so sensational as to make surface warships almost useless.

Eisenhower OK'd B-36

Statement No. 5—Admiral Denfeld joined the other chiefs of staff in ok'ing continuation of the B-36 program.

This is one of the most significant and least known of the backtage maneuverings between the air force and the navy. Here is what happened.

Louis Johnson, assuming the office of defense secretary in late March, found that a certain number of B-36's had been ordered and that the final order of additional B-36's had not gone through. Therefore, he asked Budget Director Pace to write a letter to General Eisenhower, a copy of which was sent to the joint chiefs of staff, asking whether the rest of the B-36 program was to proceed.

Eisenhower's answer, by telephone, was that there was no need to reconsider the matter. Simultaneously, the joint chiefs of staff unanimously ruled—and this included Denfeld—that the B-36 program was to go ahead.

Statement No. 7—By Chairman Carl Vinson of the House armed services committee last April: "Persons within the national military establishment on the government payrolls are endangering the national security through their effort to sell the public their own particular views regarding air power."

Chairman Vinson's committee has now become quite a sounding board itself with almost every word cabled to Moscow.

BY RUTH MILLETT: TO THE LADIES

The Feminine Viewpoint

IN her new book, "Male and Female, a Study of the Sexas in a Changing World," Margaret Meade, the anthropologist, uses a phrase that any young couple considering marriage would do well to think about. The phrase is "the capacity to grow."

MILLETT

A young couple in love may seem to suit each other perfestly. But whether or not that suitability lasts through the years depends a great deal on what Dr. Meade scribes as the "capacity to grow at something like the same rate."

So the young man who is considering marrying a certain girl should not only consider what she is like today but try to determine whether or not she has the capacity to grow into the kind of wife he will need ten years from now.

And the girl who is in love with a young man should make the same kind of estimate of his capacity to grow."

For, as Dr. Meade points out, today we not only hear the phrase "He outgrew her" but with increasing frequency "She outgrew him."

BREEDING UNHAPPINESS

MARRIAGES in which one partner far out-grows the other sometimes end in divorce. But more often they just become unhappy marriages.

The husband so far out-distances his wife that they come to have little in common, and aren't even able to enjoy the same friends or to work for a common goal.

Or the wife finding herself married to a man with little ambition takes over the reins and gives her children the chance she is determined they shall have, with Papa just a hanger-on.

Often when parents object to a marriage, it is for the reason that the parents feel the young man or woman they object to doesn't have the capacity to grow. But they dont' phrase the objection clearly—and the son or daughter they are trying to influence doesn't get the point. Margaret Meade's phrase may help such parents make their criticism clear.

Shooting Victim In Critical Condition

LEVELLAND, Oct. 17 (Spl.) — Mrs. Leo Nichols, 28, remained in an extremely critical condition in Phillips-Dupre hospital here today after being shot in the chest Friday night at her farm home south of Whiteface in Cochran county.

Hospital attendants said this morning that Mrs. Nichols had shown a slight temporary improvement, but the gain was not sufficient to take her off the critical list.

Her husband, Leo Nichols, 37, charged with assault with intent to murder in connection with the shooting, remained in county jail here.

Although charged, Nichols has not yet been taken to Whiteface for examining trial and setting of bond.

Floyd Humphreys, chief deputy sheriff of Hockley county, said that Nichols probably would be taken to Whiteface today for that purpose.

KIDDING the stereotyped, high-sexed "historical" novels that have been cluttering up the book counters in recent years has become a rather standardized procedure itself, but the Columbia Jester's parody includes a meeting of hero and heroine that I particularly enjoyed.

The battle of Bunker Hill is raging full blast when a beautiful blonde, her skirt in tatters, and her sweater clinging tightly to her voluptuous body, staggers out of the monument and into the arms of Fortitude Jones, the Gary Cooperish Colonial lieutenant who has been educated by Chief Lone Wolf.

Fortitude gently strokes the blonde's hair. "There, there, Mary," consoles her. "Every thing will be O. K. now." "How did you know my name is Mary?" she counters. "We never have met before." "It's written all over your face," he croons, gently erasing the pencil mark from her forehead. "But enough romancing for the mo. I have to disperse a British army or two. May I say 'boo' in your boudoir when I've run the dastards through with my trusty blade, Mary mio?" "Yes—and don't be undulate, Fortitude," says the blonde, undulating, "but just for the record—my name is Beatrice."

Candy Trade's "Sweetest Day" Bigger Dodge Than Mom's Day

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—I aim to abandon my customary ill-humor today, because today is Sweetest Day in 200 cities and also by proclamation by Mayor O'Dwyer, and I will just be consarned if I will go around acting churlish on a day that is set aside by the merchants for me to be sweet on.

If time permits I may have a chat with Pegler, too, to see if I can't get him to loosen up and smile a little, because a day to be sweet on is a cherished thing and I don't want to make those candy manufacturers unhappy. Also the quantrillion other merchants who have set aside this hallowed eve to peddle a few dry goods and such on what is termed "the only gift-giving day between Father's Day and Christmas."

RUARK

I will just ignore the sordid commercialism in one of the brochures on Sweetest Day, which says, quote: "All you need to do is cash in on Swtetest Day," because by cracky if I am going to be sweet I will be sweet all the way, just like Louise Baer, newly-elected Sweetest Woman of the Year is sweet on her own time, and this once I ain't kidding.

It's Another Dodge

No matter what the book says, such as "it's easy. Any advertisement on gift merchandise can be promoted as Sweetest Day merchandise." I will go for Guy Lombardo being the sweetest orchestra leader because he has earned it if only on age, and I will even hold still for Earl Wilson as the sweetest author although I always thought Truman Capote had that one hands down.

You can see how this sweetness is already infiltrating so I ain't going to tell you that is about the same kind of cold commercial dodge as Mother's Day and all the other days, including Don't-Cut-That-Corn, It-Never-Drew-a-Knife-On-You-Day, or even the special weeks, such as Pray-Do-Not-Assault-That-Cold-With-Penicillin, Baccilli-Have-Got-To-Live-Also week.

Oh, stay sweet as I am, Sweet Leilani, my Sweeter than Sweet and confidentially I hate candy.

LET me see. Mary Pickford is now the sweetheart of Sweetest Day, which I guess I gotta like if I intend to stay saccharine, but jeepers, she's been playing that role a long time and maybe we could do with a little updating on it. I mean she ain't no boobysoxer, no matter how well you like Charles (Buddy) Rogers, and if I weren't being sweet I would render a sermon on people who put nicknames like (Buddy) in (parentheses) like that. I was called Buddy, once, by a few chosen enemies, and it was bad enough without (parentheses).

Oh, sweet, and lovely, sweeter than the roses in May, and sell that surplus, or we will name another day.

Who can quarrel with charity, and Sweetest Day dispenses a lot of same, and in this new-laid benevolence I will not quibble over Durante as the sweetest comedian, because the bugle is my boy and if you can call a man sweet in a non-sissy sense Durante is the man.

Sweetening The Pot

But what makes Loritz Melchior the sweetest tenor? Or Ezra Rachlin—I quote—"chosen for broadening the scope of classical music through his outstanding development of the Austin (Texas) symphony orchestra"—the sweetest conductor? I know sweeter tenors and sweeter conductors on relief. Whoa. I forgit my role.

Kiss me sweet and kiss me gentle, kiss me on my sentimental. Or simple and dimple.

You might want some reporting. Sweetest Day kicked off as a shill for the candy trade and has since gotten so good that it may run Mother's Day into the gutter as a hot gimmick to unload goods. Who wants to fight that? The wars of tomorrow are won in the selling fields of sweetin'.

It occurs suddenly that there is no nomination for sweetest columnist of the year, possibly on the grounds that unsweet columnists would knock the choice. This is inconceivable in a democracy, and anyhow, I think I won it walking.

Sweet is the word for me...

Today's Journal Editorial

LET'S EVERBODY GUESS!

Rep. Marshall Bell of San Antonio predicted the other day that a State income tax will be levied in Texas "after the next session of the Legislature," which is expected to hold a special meeting in January.

Mr. Bell happily is just guessing, which is a game that anyone can play. So we'll take a hand and guess that such a tax won't be imposed by the next or any Legislature unless and until the attitude of the vast majority of Texans is changed radically on the subject.

True, the Legislature has the speficif power to levy a State income tax under Article 8, Section 1, of the Constitution.

But the Constitution could be amended. And a too persistent effort to saddle Texans with an income tax might result in a demand which could not be ignored for an amendment which would strip the Legislature of authority to impose such a levy.

WAR ON MIDDLE CLASS CONTINUES

Anxious Czechs Searching For Friends Snatched Up By Reds

BY NATE POLOWETZKY
AP Staff Writer

PRAGUE, Czechoslovakia, Oct. 17—"She's not here. Try Pankrac prison."

The dejected couple stepped out of the queue at the police station and continued the hunt for their daughter—just one of the thousands arrested in the last two weeks by communist government police.

The scene was repeated hundreds of times yesterday as anxious and weeping Czechs searched for relatives and friends snatched up in the Red crackdown reportedly aimed at liquidating the middle class and nationalizing small business.

One Big Prison

In this case, the missing girl's parents took their food package and went on to Pankrac prison, Prague's biggest prison overlooking the city. Even before they got into the taxi the driver knew where they wanted to go. Czechs carrying food packages these days are taking them to imprisoned friends.

"I've taken hundreds of persons out to Pankrac this week," the cabby said. "Everybody is looking for someone else. These are crazy times, impossible days. Everybody is frightened. Last night I saw four overcrowded police riot cars arriving at a police station with arrested people.

"You know my opinion? The republic of Czechoslovakia is one big prison."

Package Searched

At Pankrac prison the girl's parents squeezed through the crowd to a policeman sitting before a list of names. The policeman told them their daughter was there and the food package would be accepted.

After another long wait they reached the reception desk and handed over the package. It was opened and thoroughly searched. Written messages were destroyed.

"All right, that's all," the policeman said. "You can bring another food package in two weeks."

The parents turned away. Others moved up in the queue.

Arrests are widespread. Roman Catholic sources reported yesterday that Msgr. Svec, canon of Prague's ancient St. Vitus cathedral, was among the latest churchmen seized. The reason for his arrest was not known. It was believed, however, it may have been because of opposition to the government-sponsored church control bill.

Even athletes are not immune. Czechoslovakia wrecked its world champion amateur hockey team by firing three leading players on the ground they were "politically unreliable."

Two Area Residents Injured Sunday In Traffic Accidents

Two South Plains residents were injured, neither seriously, in separate Sunday traffic mishaps near Lubbock.

Mrs. Dee Wilks, 42, of Olton, received lacerations and bruises about the head and chest when a car driven by her husband, 42, crashed into a telephone pole on the Littlefield highway about 5½ miles northwest of Lubbock shortly before 10 a. m.

Brought to Lubbock Memorial hospital by a passing motorist, Mrs. M. M. Dubose of Littlefield, Mrs. Wilks was released after treatment.

Skidded Into Pole

The Texas Highway patrol said Wilks was driving toward Lubbock on a stretch of road under construction when he swerved to avoid another car going in the same direction and skidded into the pole.

In the other mishap, Miss Rena Noack, 27, of Spur, received a laceration on her right arm and bruises about the head, when the car in which she was riding was in collision with a truck on the Idalou highway near Lubbock at 4 p. m. Both vehicles were headed east.

Miss Noack, brought to West Texas hospital by a passing motorist, was dismissed after treatment. She was riding in a 1946 Plymouth with her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William David Blair, Jr., also of Spur.

The 1941 Ford truck was driven by Vernon Howard Black, 52, of McAllen. According to investigating patrolmen, Black swerved to the left when a car ahead of the truck made a right turn, resulting in the collision with the side of the Plymouth driven by Blair.

Damage to the car was estimated at $400, while the truck was only slightly damaged.

Green Is Expected To Refuse Lewis Plan To Help In Strike

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17. (U.P.)— Most labor leaders today expected William Green to reply with a polite "no, thank you" to John L. Lewis's proposal that AFL unions help finance the CIO steel strike.

At the moment, Lewis and the United Mine Workers are independent of both the AFL and CIO.

Green, a former coal miner himself, is not as angry at Lewis as some AFL leaders who have tangled with Lewis in the past, so he may temper his reply to the Lewis plan for a $2,500,000 weekly war chest.

Idea Endorsed

The proposal was made by Lewis in a letter to Green. CIO President Philip Murray, running the steelworkers' strike, stepped up Saturday with quick endorsement of the idea that unions "pool their resources for the common defense and general welfare of the labor movement."

That wasn't exactly what Lewis was talking about. He suggested that at least nine AFL unions were rich enough to join with the United Mine workers in contributing $250,000 a week each towards the steel strike.

Murray, in a carefully worded statement, also suggested that the steelworkers to the last man would "lend help and assistance to the mine workers."

Lewis' critics said he was making "a grand stand play" to boost the morale of his own miners, who have been on strike since Sept. 19. The union, although it had more than $13,000,000 in its treasury at last report, pays no direct strike benefits. Miners at St. Michael, Pa., telegraphed Lewis that "we believe a kitty should be raised to alleviate poverty in the mining fields first."

Doubtful Of Plan

Most of the 15 AFL executive council members will attend a dinner here Tuesday night. Some said Green might put off a decision until after that session.

All available AFL leaders said they were doubtful of Lewis's proposal. They called it a "publictiy stunt" and said that if he meant it, the UMW boss could have called a unity meeting before making the proposal public.

Lewis and the soft coal operators are due to resume their contract discussions at Bluefield and White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., Tuesday afternoon.

No progress was reported in last week's government-watched negotiations.

The Federal Conciliation service appeared inclined to allow only about one more week before recommending White House intervention.

Conciliation Director Cyrus S. Ching, back from New York where he has conferred for three days with top officials of Bethlehem Steel company, was preparing to call other steel company spokesmen into private talks this week.

Terry County Asking $34,000 For Airport

BROWNFIELD, Oct. 17. (Special)—The Terry county commissioners have authorized County Judge H. R. Winston to file a preliminary request of $34,000 in federal aid funds for construction of a new airport in Brownfield.

The county's action represents another step in efforts to secure adequate airport facilities here in order to benefit from commercial air transportation. The project is being sponsored by the Brownfield Chamber of Commerce, with other civic groups cooperating. These include the junior chamber of Commerce, which has under way a program of educating the public to the needs of an airport and the value to the community of commercial air transportation.

Jack Robeson, Civil Aeronautics authority management engineer of Big Spring, has addressed the Brownfield Lions and Rotary clubs in the project's interest.

revolver and fired at Greer, who was holding the baby in his arms. Greer was wounded twice, only slightly, and one of the slugs passed through the baby's arm.

Carrying the child, Greer ran to a drugstore for help and called police.

He got back to the house just as officers arrived. They heard shots and inside they found Mrs. Greer lying dead on the bedroom floor, shot six times.

In the living room, lying face down, was Cheney. He had shot himself.

cial meeting of church members Monday. More than 420 were present to hear the principal speaker, Dr. Kenneth Pope, pastor of the First Methodist church, Houston, and to help make plans for construction of the new church.

The new building will cost $600,000, but half the money is expected to come from sale of the present property, receipt of $75,000 from the Texas Interconference Commission on Students' Work, and the borrowing of the remaining amount, the Rev. Mr. Bratcher said.

Father Charged With Assault Shoots Self

JEFFERSON, Md., Oct. 17 (AP) —Harold W. Carder, 36, shot himself to death early today as state police tried to break in the door of his barricaded bedroom to arrest him on a charge of raping his 14-year-old daughter.

State Police Capt. Charles W. Magaha said Carder's wife and daughter swore out the warrant after doctors at Frederick Memorial hospital examined the girl and found she had been raped.

When three state troopers went to Carder's home, he ran upstairs and locked and barricaded the door. As the troopers tried to force their way in, he shot himself with a .22 caliber target pistol.

A freight conductor with the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, Carder was the father of four children.

Tibet Fears Chinese Communist Invasion

NEW YORK, Oct. 17 (AP) — Newscaster Lowell Thomas says ancient Tibet would welcome U. S. Aid if the Chinese Communists tried to "free" that country.

Thomas arrived yesterday by plane with his wife and son, Lowell, jr.

The comentator was on crutches, having broken a thigh bone last summer in falling from a horse on a Tibetan mountain pass.

The Chinese Communists, Thomas said, announced recently in Peiping that they planned "shortly to free Tibet." The Communists consider Tibet an outer province of China, he said.

The remote country has an army of only 10,000. Thomas said there now is a chance that a U. S. mission could be set up in Tibet for the first time in history.

Warning Issued On GI School Payments

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17. (AP)— The Veterans administration issued a warning today to World War II veterans planning to go to school under the GI bill with a certificate of eligibility issued before Nov. 1, 1949.

It advised such students to "make sure the school is permitted by law to offer training to veterans at government expense."

The law prohibits payment of veterans benefits unless the school involved has been in operation "on its own" for at least a year, and unless it has been approved by an appropriate state agency.

Byrnes Says He May Enter Governor Race

SPARTANBURG, S. C., Oct. 17 (AP) — Former Secretary of State James F. Byrnes says he may run for governor of South Carolina on the principle of states' rights.

But his statement yesterday did not refer to the states' rights platform on which Gov. J. Strom Thurmond of South Carolina ran for the presidency last year.

Breaking silence on his political plans for the first time since he resigned from the cabinet two years ago, Byrnes told the Spartanburg Herald in an interview at his home here:

A "very important question (is) whether one as governor could secure the cooperation of other governors in arousing the people of the nation to hold the line against further encroachments upon the rights of states."

Byrnes has recently been critical of what he called a trend in federal government toward a welfare state. He will address the southern governors conference at Biloxi, Miss., on Nov. 21.

Federal Control Of Big Crater Favored

FLAGSTAFF, Ariz., Oct. 17. (U.P.) —World-famed Meteor Crater may be designated a national monument if members of the Flagstaff Chamber of Commerce have their way.

The chamber suggests that the scientific and scenic attraction 40 miles east of here on Highway 66 be placed under federal supervision.

The chamber points out that plans are being made to mine silica on the rim of the privately-owned crater, believed to be the largest in the world. This would mar forever the crater's beauty and scientific value to the state, chamber members complain.

They also object to plans of the University of New Mexico, which has gained exclusive rights to make scientific surveys in the area.

Huntsville Stadium Largest In Prisons

HUNTSVILLE, Oct. 17 (U.P.)— The largest stadium ever built for use of prison inmates is located within the walls of the state prison here.

The stadium, incomplete, now seats 30,000 persons. It will hold 40,00 0when completed. It was built and paid for by the prisoners.

Growing turkey broilers to supply fried turkey has developed as a farm specialty in the United States.

IMMIGRATION BARRIERS DISPUTED

Senate Approval Of Revised DP Proposal In 1950 Urged

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17 (AP) — The citizens committee on displaced persons wants the Senate to pass next January the now-shelved DP bill "as it stands."

The legislation to bring in additional thousands of homeless Europeans to America, said this private group, should not be "mutilated and emasculated beyond recognition as the apparent attitude of Senator McCarran would portend."

The committee statement was distributed from New York last night by Earl G. Harrison, chairman. Harrison urged Senate passage of the House-approved Cellar bill "as the one measure that can liberalize the discriminatory DP act of 1948."

Lobby Attacked

The Senate voted Saturday night, 36 to 30, to send the measure back to its judiciary committee. It recommended return of the bill next January 25.

Chairman McCarran (D-Nev) of the judiciary committee, now traveling in Europe, had urged that the Senate take no action this year. He said the objectives of the bill, written by Rep. Celler (D-NY) is to destroy immigration barriers and flood the country with aliens.

During debate on the bill, Senator Cain (R-Wash) criticized the citizens committee headed by Harrison as a powerful lobby. Its statement last night said that among backers of legislation to amend present law were the AFL, the CIO, the U. S. Chamber of Commerce, and major religious groups.

Truman Backs Bill

President Truman also backed the bill. He charged that existing DP legislation is "anti-Catholic and anti-semitic." McCarran, himself a Roman Catholic, denied this charge.

The bill would raise the number of European war refugees who can enter this country from the present 205,000 in two years to 339,000 in three years.

For practical purposes the Senate gave the bill an unofficial standing about third among next year's Senate issues.

Leaders have promised a House-approved oleomargarine tax repealer will be the first to see Senate action in the second session of the 81st Congress. They also have put civil rights legislation on the list for speedy attention when Congress returns.

Saturday's victory for critics of the displaced persons bill was discounted by Senator Myers of Pennsylvania, the assistant Democratic leader.

He told reporters he thinks that when the Senate takes it up again the bill will get overwhelming approval.

He added that many of those who voted to shelve it temporarily did so, not because they were against the bill, but because they wanted to speed the adjournment of Congress. Opponents had threatened lengthy talks which might have put off quitting time for several days.

Senator Ives (R-NY), a supporter of the bill, said it may be next March or April before proponents can get it up again.

Although Mr. Truman made the present DP law—passed by the Republican 80th Congress—an issue in last year's campaign, both major parties were represented on both sides of the effort to revamp it.

Senators Dulles (R-NY), running in next month's special Senate election in his state, and Senator Taft (R-Ohio), running for re-election next year, hurried back to Washington to vote against the motion sending the bill back to committee. The motion was offered by Senators Cain and Eastland (D-Miss).

On the showdown vote, 17 Democrats joined with 19 Republicans to send the measure back to committee. Sixteen Democrats and 14 Republicans opposed that action.

"Flying Baseballs" Reported By Group

Flying saucers have given way to "flying baseballs."

So reported five Lubbock residents Saturday who said they saw what resembled two silver shining baseballs speeding through the air near Gladiola, N. M.

R. E. Mays, one of the spectators, said the balls shot from a plane which was flying so high the group could not see it. They could see its tail smoke and hear it as it traveled off.

Mays said the sight occurred about noon and that the "silver baseballs" traveled northeast after being discharged. No one in the group could guess what the objects were. They didn't believe them to be the flying saucers so many people have claimed to have seen since 1947. Others in the group declined to give their names.

The daring plan to forge a new link between the Atlantic and Pacific oceans by means of a ship-carrying railway across the Isthmus of Tehuantepec, in southern Mexico, would shorten the distance traveled by U. S. intercoastal shipping by at least 1600 miles.

U. S., England And France Favor German Entrance In Proposed Europe Federation

By J. J. MEEHAN
United Press Staff Writer

FRANKFURT, Oct. 17. (U.P.)—Germany soon may be accepted as a member of the proposed Federation of Europe, possibly now near realization after centuries of dreams.

Officials of two major Western nations, and a leading statesman of a third, have proposed that the budding republic of West Germany be accepted by the rest of democratic Europe.

Winston Churchill has taken the lead by asserting that all Germany outside the Russian Zone of Occupation be accepted by the Council of Europe within the next few months. Churchill made his statement at the Council meetings in the French city of Strasbourg.

Other officials backing Churchill's views are the United States and French High Commissioners here. The backing of the "Big Three" probably will go far in allaying fears of the German "black sheep of Europe" still strong in the minds of Europeans who remember Hitler's legions pouring across their frontiers.

U. S. High Commissioner John J. McCloy said he believed German participation in the European Council "highly desirable" but added that Germans should not be hurried into formal collaboration with other West European nations "unless they (Germans) want to."

French Cautious

Although there was French reluctance to follow Churchill's proposals at Strasbourg, Andre Francois-Poncet, French High Commissioner for Germany, said that he also backs Germany's joining the rest of non-Communist Europe.

"We hope to make Germany a democratic institution in order to let it participate as a free nation in the European Federation," Francois-Poncet stated. "It is our desire that Germany—located as a vital part of the center of Europe—will become a part of the new Europe."

McCloy refused to be drawn out on details of Germany's participation in a European Council but pointed to certain difficulties so long as the Allies control Germany's foreign affairs.

The U. S. High Commissioner—and boss of Marshall Plan funds here—stated, however, that he will press for German representation on E. C. A. (Marshall Plan) planning boards. McCloy said he wanted Germans "to have their day in court the same as other countries."

Victim Found Shot Three Times And Bludgeoned With Axe

Third Man Killed As Moonshine Feud Breaks Forth Anew On Tennessee's Daisy Mountain

DAISY TENN., Oct. 17 (AP)—Daisy mountain's moonshine feud bids fair to take its place with the famed Hatfield and McCoy squabble in southern mountain history.

Spawned during a dispute over the making of corn whisky and fanned by bitter hatred, the feud flamed anew over the weekend. Another man was killed on the lonely mountainside—the third to die since the hill country war began two years ago.

Police found William L. (Boots) Parker lying on a muddy slope of the mountain Saturday night, shot three times and bludgeoned with an ax.

Officers Dedouble Patrols

Officers have redoubled patrols on the mountain but have met with the same tight-lipped silence that greeted them after the two previous deaths: No one knows anything about the slaying.

"It's hard to get those people on the mountain to talk," says Sheriff Frank Burns.

Evidence has been sparse whenever one of the mountaineers has been tried for a killing. Several persons rcently wre indicted on murder charges in the first two deaths. Three trials were held and all were acquitted.

For a while it seemed there would be peace on the mountain. A representative of each faction appeared on a nationwide radio broadcast (We The People) last December and proclaimed an end to the feud. It evidently didn't take.

Parker was the brother of Theodore (Pap) Parker, reportedly the leader of one of the factions, who is now serving 18 months in a Kentucky prison for transporting illegal whisky. There are plenty of relatives and friends to take up the battle if they choose.

Two Others Dead

Chief Deputy Swafford said the Bell brothers are thought to be members of the Parker faction, but that he believes Parker's death is more than a family affair, that it is connected with previous feud activity.

The first death in the feud was that of Samuel David Wilcox, 26, cut down by rifle and shotgun fire from ambush as he drove along a Daisy mountain road last year.

George Trusley, a restaurant operator, was the second feud victim to die by gunfire.

The trials on the first two murders had barely ended several weeks ago when the feud boiled over again. Several houses, a restaurant and an automobile were raked with gun fire, but no one was injured.
