Congo Parliament Session Is Sought

By PETER GROSE
LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP)—The drive to "reconvert" the Congo's Parliament was bogged down today in frantic and second thoughts despite persistent U.N. attempts to restore Democratic government in the year-old republic.

Manufacturing for influence and political gain, Leopoldville politicians threatened to kill the momentum built up last month when President Joseph Kasavubu announced the reopening of the national legislature after over two months of non-parliamentary government.

Kasavubu, Premier Joseph Ileo and his ministers were plagued by growing fears that voting in the Parliament might go against them.

Top has never received a parliamentary vote of confidence. Diplomatic observers give him little chance to survive once the Leopoldville assembly.

Another obstacle to the reconvening of Parliament came Tuesday from the Katanga capital of Elisabethville, where the provincial assembly refused to ratify Kasavubu's pledge that Katanga deputies would participate in the Leopoldville assembly.

The Katanga legislature rejected all the agreements Tshombe signed providing for closer cooperation between his secessionist state and the central government.

The developments were a blow to U.N. negotiators who have worked intensely for weeks to get Parliament back into session to elect a government representing all factions.

Biggest Rain Recorded In El Paso Area

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The skies opened up before dawn in El Paso Wednesday, leaving the city drenched with 1.54 inches of rain.

The downpour came in six hours to 2 a.m., lowering the temperature to 67 degrees.

Thousands crowded the coastal areas on the July 4 holiday were treated in spectacular weather displays. A violent squall at Galveston and a tornado that dipped to the ground harmlessly near Katy, 23 miles west of Houston.

Elsewhere Texas was mostly sunny and hot with only a few isolated showers. The mercury touched 100 degrees at Presidio.

Galveston holiday throngs watched in awe and wonder as a huge water spout whirled southward over the Gulf, pulling sea water aloft in a vicious black funnel cloud. The phenomenon was visible for half an hour but caused no damage. It was the largest seen in Galveston in 15 years or so.

Kitty Kendall, Galveston News reporter, said the water spout was "ebony black" and shaped like an inverted mushroom.

"It frightened some people and fascinated everybody," she said.

The tornado 2 1/2 miles northwest of Katy dipped briefly to earth in a pasture and then dissipated.

Rain totals included Galveston 36 inch, Lufkin 64, Houston 13, Alpine 06, Abilene 03 and Beaumont 02.

Another warm day with scattering of thundershowers was in prospect for the whole state.

A long range forecast said similar conditions could be expected through Sunday, except that cooler air will move into the northern parts of Texas at the weekend.

At sunset, skies generally were clear across the state and most temperatures were in the 70s.

Five Youths Are Killed In Road Crash

GONZALES, Tex. (AP)—Five youths died early today when a heavy truck smashed into a parked panel truck in which they sat as their driver helped a motorist change a tire.

Two other youths were injured. All were from this South Central Texas town.

The crash occurred on fog-shrouded U.S. Highway 187, 9 1/2 miles south of here shortly before dawn.

Two of the youths died instantly. Three others died later in a Gonzales hospital.

Martinez Siller, 17, and Julian Aguerre, 16, died as the trailer truck plowed into their parked vehicle.

The other dead were Gilbert Martinez, Joe Navarro and Val Centillo.

The injured are David Camarillo and Sito Gonzalez.

The youths were on their way to work on a nearby poultry farm.

The driver of the panel truck, Tommy Wilson, escaped unhurt. State police said the panel truck was parked along the highway while Wilson helped a motorist change a tire.

The motorist, whose name was not learned, and the driver of the trailer truck, Tommy Cantu Trevino of Austin, also escaped unhurt.

Castro Raps Embargo On U. S. Exports

HAVANA (AP)—Fidel Castro claims the United States is trying to force Cubans to go hungry by embargoing food exports to Cuba.

In a nationwide television-radio address Tuesday night, the prime minister accused the United States again of economic aggression and said the Soviet Union had offered Cuba 100,000 tons of food to make up for a U.S. shipment of 12 carloads that was stopped last week.

Castro did not explain the circumstances of the embargo on the food shipment. A Florida court ordered the shipment seized to help satisfy a $429,000 bill the Cuban government tourist agency owes a Miami advertising agency.

Castro called the food seizure the latest act of "imperialist aggression" and announced Cubans would have to cut down on fats until production can replace U.S. supplies. Cuba has depended on the United States for most of its food, but Castro said Cuba would buy no more U.S. lard, imports of which, he said, had run to $20 million a year.

The prime minister announced that Cubans who normally consume about 400 pounds of fat per person annually, would be rationed one pound of oil and one pound of lard a month.

Castro also complained about the seizure of a Cuban twin-engine passenger airplane in Miami Monday. The plane, hijacked in flight by some of its passengers, was seized when it landed to be applied toward the Miami debtors' judgment. Three Cuban crop-dusting planes that landed in the Florida keys also were seized for the same reason.

Castro termed Adlai Stevenson's recent tour of South America as President Kennedy's special envoy a vain effort to build up an aggressive anti-Cuban front.

Miss Bacall, Robards Wed

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Thwarted by legal red tape in previous attempts to wed, actor Jason Robards and actress Lauren Bacall, widow of Humphrey Bogart, are man and wife today.

They were wed in a civil ceremony Tuesday in the Mexican coastal town of Ensenada.

But the newlyweds couldn't enjoy a honeymoon—because Robards had to appear for work at a studio today. Instead they motored back to Hollywood.

Robards, a New York stage actor, and Miss Bacall first tried to marry last month in Vienna but were unable to provide legal proof of Robards' eligibility.

Another attempt was frustrated in Las Vegas last Saturday night. The marriage bureau said the refusal of a license was related to the Mexican divorce of Robards' second wife, Rachel, obtained May 22 in Juarez, Mexico. Nevada honors come, but not all Mexican divorces.

Robards divorced his age as 38, Miss Bacall 36.

Hemingway Made No Concessions

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP)—Ernest Hemingway's people "confronted death as something not to be postponed as Hector in Homer's Iliad did when he stopped running to face Achilles, armed but without hope."

Hemingway said 26 years ago, long before illness overtook him, "I must write because if I do not, I am certain amount 'do not annoy' the rest of my life."

It is a reasonable guess the prospect of years of invalidism, or at least marginal vitality, took the joy out of life for him.

This may be too simple for future analysts seeking the meaning of the shotgun blast which killed him last Sunday. You can almost read them now.

That his concern with death, which dominated all he wrote, meant he was obsessed with fear of it and that he sought to bury it in the years by writing, is a character for character to inevitable doom—a substitute for himself.

The literary pigeon-fanciers who like cooing or a message mailed him. But he was no soothsayer, he used words like rocks, and in the beginning he had no message.

Maxwell Geismar once wrote that Hemingway's people "act as if thought is unthinkable." This was true. He was an artist, writing about the muscles of the heart, not the capillaries of the brain.

The muscles got tired as he grew older. His best work was his early work: the short stories, "The Sun Also Rises," "A Farewell to Arms," some parts of "Death in the Afternoon," some parts of "To Have and Have Not."

It was downhill after that—although for him was up on the mountain for most of his contemporaries—as if he had listened too much to the critics who wanted a message, who said he had no social consciousness.

In those early days he showed "The Sun Also Rises" to have? He was an artist writing about man in trouble as he saw them, without moral judgments. He had one measuring rod to write "truly." It was his own word. He knew what happened to writers who listened to critics. He talked about them in "Green Hills in Africa"—if they believe the critics when they say they are great then they must believe when they say they are rotten and they lose confidence.

He began to have a message in "To Have and Have Not" in 1937. He was angry. He was angry because his father 70 had died with five springs in his back. He was angry because the sudden, brutal switch of Henry Morgan to murder because someone film-flamed him.

Now he made Morgan an example of a class struggle, a grotesque distortion. Hemingway put a moral bone into "For Whom the Bell Tolls" and then ruined it altogether by making his movie talk as people never talked.

His prize-winning "The Old Man and the Sea" was simply an allegory about man's warring struggle against the unceasing universe.

But no one can ever really understand—perhaps feel, a better word—what Hemingway really meant to American literature unless he was alive and young in those middle 1930s when Hemingway's work began.

The words were full of literary frauds and second-raters who played it cute and safe, wrote strictly for bucks, suffered from Victorian anemia or pumped out sex-stockers which disappeared in the garbage can.

There were some honest men writing like Theodore Dreiser and Sherwood Anderson, who tried to cut new roads with stories about the world as they saw it themselves, but Dreiser was clumsy and Anderson was sentimental.

Then Hemingway, who used his ears to listen and not to keep his hat off his chin, broke through to write about talk as it spoken and life as it is. He wrote to write and not for money. He made no concessions.

He did it with enormous skill. He tried to cut new roads with stories and emotion. He created a yardstick by which those coming after him had to be measured. At his worst he was a giant.

Perhaps the future will decide his greatest contribution was not his style (which sometimes became a caricature of itself) or his ear (which wasn't always good) but his honesty about all in a field where it's a cinch to cheat.

Suspect Nabbed By Former Policeman

HOUSTON (AP)—A suspected burglar was in jail today after a former Houston policeman caught him wearing his stolen shoes.

James Hanks Jr., 46, the ex-officer, said he noticed the 32-year-old man wearing black and white shoes in a cafe Tuesday.

Hanks questioned the man a tussle ensued and a billfold fell from the man's pocket.

The billfold turned out to be Hanks' too—complete with identification cards.

Hanks said the items were stolen from his home Sunday.

The suspect denied the burglary. He said he bought the clothing—including suits and coats—from a man named Joe for $150.

Starts Fight With Police After Slaying

WESTPORT, Conn. (AP)—A young advertising agency employee walked into police headquarters Tuesday and started a gun battle with police a short time after his father was shot to death. He was injured critically by police bullets.

The gun play between Brendan McLaughlin, 26, an ex-Marine and former art student, and the police took place a short distance from the house where McLaughlin's father 70 lay dead with five springs in his back.

Brendan just lost his mind. Mrs. Eugene McLaughlin said later of her son.

Police said McLaughlin began firing at two officers in the station, wounding patrolman Donald Bennett, 28, in the hip.

He then aimed his .45 pistol at desk officer Andrew Chapo, 35, who said "Don't be a fool. Put that gun down," making sure that his words carried over the police radio transmitter.

McLaughlin turned and fled with Chapo and the wounded Bennett in pursuit. McLaughlin was trapped outside in the police parking lot as cruisers, alerted by Chapo's words over the radio, converged on the station.

In the gunfight which followed, McLaughlin was felled by bullets in the stomach and chest. Chapo was hit in the hip.

The body of Eugene McLaughlin, a retired industrial engineer, was found by a police officer checking neighbors' reports of gun-fire coming from the house. The neighbors told police they saw the younger McLaughlin running from the house shortly after they heard the shots.

The ad was where the hole is. Roundest, and for page after page before and behind it, there was news... important, well-written news.

The ad contained news, too, but news of a different sort. It might have announced a new brand of clothes dryer, a neighborhood TV service, a business opportunity, or a new way to make biscuits. The subject doesn't matter.

The point is, this news was of immediate and personal importance to the person who clipped it. It flagged her attention because it dealt with her needs.

Picture At Wimbledon Is Jumbled

By ROBERT JONES
WIMBLEDON (AP) — Take an Indian, an Australian, a Briton and an all-American boy from St. Louis. Shuffle well and it's anyone's guess who'll be marching off with the Wimbledon men's tennis crown on Friday.

The shuffling-up is on the All England Club's famed center court today, when Ramanathan Krishnan of India meets Aussie Rod Laver, runner-up a past two years, and Chuck McKinley, the 5.8 bundle of energy from St. Louis, meets Mike Sangster, the tough and brassy Briton.

Whether he gets to the final or not, Chuck has served notice that Australia's virtual stranglehold on the Davis Cup—they've won it nine times in the past 11 years—may be ending soon.

Even the partisan British hometown boy in the semis for the first time in 23 years—agree that Chuck is the personality of the 1961 Wimbledon, with two other U.S. youngsters, Dennis Ralston and Chris Crawford, not far behind.

Australia still has Neale Fraser, Laver and Roy Emerson, veterans of so many Davis Cup clashes. But Fraser, the ousted champion, has hinted he may be retiring soon, and Laver may land in Jack Kramer's pro net if he wins this year.

But if the future looks bright for the U.S. men, it has a gloomy look where the girls are concerned. For the second year in succession, no American girl has reached the semifinals here.

Karen Hantze, the teen-ager from UCLA Vista, Calif., was the only U.S. seed this year—and she lost to Rene Schuurman, the unseeded, bouncy brunette from Durban, South Africa, in an upset in the quarter-finals Tuesday.

That gave the girls' semifinals Thursday a British-South African look. In one, Rene tested Britain's No. 1 player, towering Christine Truman, who reached the last four for the second year running by beating second-seeded Margaret Smith of Australia.

In the other, top-seeded Sandra Reynolds of South Africa, last year's runner-up, plays Angela Mortimer of Britain. Sandra lost the first set but then recovered to beat little Yola Ramirovich of Mexico in the quarter-finals. Angela, also a former runner-up, won a two-set victory from the baseline against Vera Sukova, the Czech girl who has been playing Wimbledon for the past five years but never got to the last eight before.

Roby's Tigers encountered another snag here Tuesday in their battle for an out and under League title as the Red Sox came alive in the late innings to edge them out 6-5 in an eight-inning contest.

Trailing by 4-5 going into the home half of the eighth, the Sox rose to the occasion and chased over a pair of tallies, with singles by Keith Moreland, Darrel Aldridge, and Kenny Welborn sparking the door-die rally.

Welborn was the leading hitter of the day with three singles, while Tommy Shelburne popped a single and double to give added impetus.

Larry Randolph and Joe Jones each landed doubles for Roby for the other extra-base hits of the contest.

Keith Moreland hurled for the Sox until the eighth, when Gerald Bullard took over by hitting Jerry Neves, Bob Waddell, and Bill Ashton shared pitching chores for the Tiger nine.

In the second game of the after-noon, the Dodgers came through to knock the props out from under the Sports by 4-7 in another game which went eight frames.

Donnie Newman was the winner in that one coming on in the final inning in relief of starter Jerry Owens. Blake Roberts, who charged over for J. N. Wall, was charged with the loss.

Corby Fox paced the winning platoon attack with a single and a double in four trips.

For the Sports, Wall was tops of the last six innings after taking over for J. N. Wall, who charged with the loss.

Williamson also tripled in the fourth of the losing cause.

Indianapolis Creeping Up
By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Indianapolis Indians swept a doubleheader from the Dallas-Fort Worth Rangers 2-1 and 2-0 Tuesday to clip a full game off Louisville's American Association lead.

The league leaders ran into a 10-7 loss in the first game at Omaha, then rebounded with a 16-3 victory.

Houston and Denver swapped victories, the Buffs winning 2-1 then losing 4-0.

Don Rudolph picked up his 10th triumph, yielding six hits to the Rangers. Greg Jancich had a one-hitter in the nightcap.

Houston's Jerry Nelson worked a four-hit spell against Denver to earn the decision. Al Penhance whitewashed the Buffs in the nightcap, allowing eight hits out stranding 13 Houston runners.

Male Ego Bolstered
HOUSTON (AP)—Byron Nelson and Jackie Burke teamed Tuesday to defeat the nation's two top pro women golfers—Mickey Wright and Betsy Rawls—one up in an 18-hole match here.

The match was played on the Piney Point Golf Center's nine-hole, par 27 course.

Burke, who won the $53,000 Flint, Open Monday, shot a 2-under-par 52 for medalist honors.

Miss Rawls was second with an even par 54.

Nelson was two over par and Wright had no card, picking up two holes on which she hit out of bounds.

Swim Meet A 'Rousing Success'

Perfect weather conditions enhanced the picture at the Towle Park Pool Tuesday, and an overflowing and appreciative mass of townspeople turned out to witness a local swimming meet as part of the July Fourth holiday festivities.

There was competition offered for both boys and girls of all ages, and a healthy turnout of young folk bulged the slate of activity.

In addition to the swimming and diving competition, the crowning of Miss Towle Pool was accomplished, with County Judge J. Ray Martin making the presentations.

Miss Paula Avant was the winner, while the first runner-up title went to Linda Rees and the second runner-up recognition to Judy Lemons.

Comic diving capped off the meet, the amusing display of slapstick being staged by Joe Robinson, Darrell Aldridge, and Mokey Hale.

Giants Blanked By Braves; Cards Win

Don Jones of the Little League Braves had the Giants, who are perched up at the top of the standings, eating out of the palm of his hand Tuesday, as he blanked them by 3-0 with a brilliant one-hit mound job.

Giants first sacker Gary Bailey led off the fourth by rapping out a single, that being the sum and substance of it for the losers.

Lozer Bill Greif also chucked a most creditable game, as he gave up just three hits to his foes, one of those being a second-inning leadoff double by Brave centerfielder Dennis Harmon.

Jones struck out 10 and Greif 8 during the course of the contest. In other action of the day, the Cardinals stormed to seven big runs in the first two frames, then held on to emerge with a 7-6 triumph over the Cubs.

FL Athletics Continue To Set Pace
The Palm League Athletics chalked up another one Tuesday, their twelfth in 14 starts, by outdistancing the Indians to the tune of 11-6.

Base hits were a dime a dozen during the slugfest. Charles Brownlee, with three safe blows, topped the A's at the plate, while mates Randy Owens, Eugene Davila, and Thomas Cain each collected a pair of bingles.

John Thomas and Randy Mitchell drove out two angles apiece to top the losing onslaught, while Smith was the winning pitcher and Paul Glover the loser.

The second game of the day went to the White Sox in another high scoring affair, 14-13, over the Yankees.

Sox slugger Jackie Cantrell led all batsmen with three singles and a double in four trips to the plate. Winning pitcher Randall Keller and Rick Merick each singled twice for the Sox, also, and Harvey Brewering pitched to boost the effort.

Snyder Stars Split Holiday Twin Bill

Snyder's City Softball All-Stars, smarting from an opening, nine-inning 5-4 clipping as handed them by the strong E. C. Smith Construction outfit of Big Spring, came storming back Tuesday night atop the good right arm of Lonnie Crosby, by registering a 3-0 nightcap victory.

Crosby allowed only two bingles over the entire game, both of which, ironically, were collected by opposing pitcher Thomas.

The Snyder nine had just three singles for the night, but they were timely ones. Held hitless until the sixth inning, they erupted for a pair of insurance runs with the aid of the three hits as punched out by Jimmy Allen, Ken Holt, and Kenneth Drake.

A three-run outburst in the first inning wasn't enough for the Snyder stars in the opener, however, as they dropped the extra-inning affair by the aforementioned 5-4.

Polly Nepper went the distance for Snyder to be charged with the defeat. He gave up six hits, with Marion Treadway leading the attack on him with a triple and single and Buck Drake chipping in a pair of singles to keep the ball rolling.

For Snyder, four hits were all that were landed against winning hurler Franklin, one of which was a leadoff third inning triple by Jim Wesson.

Eloy Benitez was credited with the win, as he allowed six hits over the span. Wade McCarty proved to be the chief thorn in his side, as he doubled and singled in three appearances.

Red Winder relinquished his base knocks, with Loyd Potts doubling and singling to pace the attack. Don Laster also powered out a two-bagger for the winning nine.

The Little League White Sox cleared still another hurdle in their quest for the loop title here Tuesday, as they applied the white wash to the Indians 11-0, while the second-place Athletics kept pace with a narrow 6-5 victory over the Yankees.

Robert Golden supplied the arm that quelled the Indian bats, a double by Bobby Clardy and single as hit by Alon Patterson being the only safe blows as landed by the Tribesmen.

Meanwhile, the Sox got to loser Tommy Woodridge and reliever Kent Noble for eight safeties, with Max Moreland and Johnny Ganga each pounding out a double; and pair of singles to lead this onslaught.

Golden struck out a total of 11 during his five-frame stint. In the other American League game of the day, the Athletics leaped out to a 4-0 lead after two innings, then had to hold on for dear life to finally take home a 6-5 victory.

Junior Editors Quiz on MUSIC

QUESTION: Who decided that there are eight notes in an octave of music?

ANSWER: The ancient Greeks got to work on music and devised a method of writing it. The pioneer was the famous philosopher and social leader, Pythagoras, born in 582 B. C. We do not know if he was his own idea, but we know that he laid the foundation for modern music writing. The Greeks based their musical ideas on the "tetrachorde", a series of four tones. There were different tetrachorde but the most important was called "diatonic" and can be represented by the notes E, D, C and B. Frequently two tetrachorde were joined, producing what was called an "octave" of eight notes. Going a step farther they joined two octaves into what they named, "the complete system"; the notes did not have single letters but long Latin names. During the eleventh century the Italian, Guido d'Arezzo, revived the Greek idea of the octave and laid the foundation for the modern use of the scale.

FOR YOU TO DO: Try to play something on a piano without using the thumb or little finger of each hand. It seems almost impossible to play at all! If you then realize that it was Bach who first started to use the thumb and little fingers you will see how much he contributed to music, besides the tuning of the piano and organ and his own magnificent compositions.

(C. S. Salvesen of Wyckoff, N. J., wins $10 for this question. Write yours on a postcard to Junior Editors in care of this newspaper.)

Contest Taking Shape For Presidency Of New Church

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A brisk, two-way contest shaped up today for the presidency of the newly constituted United Church of Christ, its highest administrative office.

Rank-and-file forces put the Rev. Dr. James E. Wagner of Philadelphia into the race, challenging a nominating committee's choice, the Rev. Dr. Ben M. Herberster, of Norwood, Ohio.

The balloting comes this afternoon, a day after the constitution of the new 2-million-member denomination was declared in effect.

It unites the Congregational Christian Churches and the Evangelical and Reformed Church, the first merger in the country of denominations of different national origins and ecclesiastical structures.

Enactment of the constitution climaxed 21 years of preliminary steps.

Delegates moved quickly to elect Maino Supreme Court Judge Donald W. Webber as moderator, the church's top titular officer, who serves for two years. The conflict came on naming the more powerful, continuing executive.

Both Presidential candidates were drawn from the E. and R. wing, a church that Dr. Wagner, 61, has headed for eight years.

But a nominating committee by-passed him Tuesday in naming Dr. Herberster, a parish pastor.

From the floor, the Rev. Thomas D. Garner, of Nazareth, Pa., rose to nominate Dr. Wagner, declaring that the new church needs "the benefit of his continued dynamic leadership and invaluable experience."

"What is probably most important, he is an established and respected figure in ecumenical circles," the Rev. Mr. Garner added, noting Dr. Wagner's leading role in the National and World Councils of Churches.

Supporters of Dr. Herberster rallied to the microphones. He is "a man of God whose strong faith will sustain and carry us forward in the future as it has in the past," said the Rev. Dr. Vere Loper, of Berkeley, Calif.

He said Dr. Herberster, as co-chairman of an executive council, charted the church merger, had "saved our church" by reconciling disputing factions at one point when negotiations faltered.

The contest reflected, in the background, a question of whether the past leadership of either of the two churches should be continued for the united body.

Dr. Wagner and the Rev. Dr. Fred Hoskins, of New York, the Congregational Christian chief executive, had served as co-presidents of the new church in its formative years.

However, Dr. Hoskins removed himself from consideration, announcing last month he had accepted a professorship at Chicago next Jan. 1.

The nominating committee, headed by Dr. Arthur D. Gray,

No Winner In War, MacArthur Says

By DON HUTH

MANILA (AP)—General of the Army Douglas MacArthur told the Philippine Congress today scientific advancement in the development of military weapons "has destroyed the possibility of war being a medium for the practical settlement of international differences."

"Global war has become a Frankenstein to destroy both sides," said the 81-year-old leader of World War II and the Korean War.

"No longer is it a weapon of adventure—the short apt to international power. If you lose, you are annihilated. If you win, you stand only to lose."

"No longer does it possess even the chance of the winner of a duel—it contains now only the germs of double suicide."

MacArthur's appearance before the cheering Congress was the high spot of the third day of return to the Philippines after 15 years. Filipino enthusiasm for their World War II liberator continued without letup.

The old soldier once more in effect criticized former President Harry Truman and other political leaders during the Korean War.

head of Talladega College, Ala., said its choice had been "difficult one" in picking Dr. Herberster.

"We have considered all aspects of the situation," he said.

The passing over of Dr. Wagner was "not an adverse judgment on the past," said the Rev. Dr. Fred Meek, Boston. However, he supported Dr. Herberster, saying he "knows when to lead and when to follow."

Theodore Schwalm, of Lancaster, Pa., backing Dr. Wagner, said he had the "background and experience" to lead the new church.

"His stature is second to none, not only in the denomination but in the ecumenical world."

The Rev. Samuel Schmiechen, of St. Paul, declared that Dr. Wagner has "the most intimate knowledge" and "comprehensive grasp" of the new church's problems, and would provide "a continuity of leadership and a stabilizing influence."

Besides electing Judge Webber as moderator, the meeting also named the Rev. Dr. Stuart E. Anderson, of Berkeley, Calif., and Mrs. Alfred C. Bartholomew, of Lancaster, Pa., as assistant moderators.

Nominated without opposition and thus assured of election were the Rev. Fred S. Buschmeyer, of Washington, D.C., as church secretary, and Charles H. Lockyear, of St. Louis, as treasurer.

The new church's constitution assures the autonomy of local churches, a long-honored tradition of Congregational Christians, and provides a pyramid-type government for regional and national agencies, an E. and R. characteristic.

Israel Fires 1st Rocket Into Space

JERUSALEM (AP) — Israel fired its first successful rocket into space today, the government announced.

The rocket, a meteorological type, was fired from a secret installation on the Mediterranean. The government said the firing was a "complete success."

The complete government communication announced.

"At 4:41 a. m. today a successful attempt was made to send a meteorological rocket into space from the Mediterranean shore. The rocket was planned, built and fired by a crew of Israeli scientists and technicians. About 30 purposes of the experiment were achieved."

Government spokesmen said the firing was witnessed by Premier David Ben-Gurion and other officials.

The purpose of the experiment was to obtain information on conditions in the stratosphere and ionosphere, the spokesmen said.

The rocket, the "Shavit II" Meteor II, used a solid propellant-fuel developed in Israel.

Shavit II is multi-staged, but official sources declined to say exactly how many stages it has.

It weighs from 350 to 600 pounds and is capable of reaching a maximum altitude of 50 to 60 miles.

The final stage of the rocket exploded a cloud of sodium at its maximum height, enabling scientists to determine prevailing conditions at that altitude.

Spokesmen said the rocket did not contain radio transmitting equipment.

Israel is the seventh country to send a meteorological rocket into space. The others are the United States, the Soviet Union, France, Britain, Italy and Japan.

None of the Arab countries are believed near a similar stage in technology. Reaction from them is sure to be critical, since they regard themselves at war with Israel.

Blasts Rock Dock Area

RICHMOND, Va. (AP)—Exploding gas tanks sent flames racing through a section of the city's dock area early today.

Balls of flame rose 200 feet into the sky and the fire for a time threatened the area. The blaze appeared to be dying down after more than three hours of battling by more than 300 firemen.

One man was seriously injured. Six homes burned. About 30 children plus adults were evacuated to a nearby school.

The explosions occurred at the dock of the Crown Central Petroleum Corp. where a barge with 450,000 gallons of petroleum products was unloading.

Two hours after the fire started, P. R. Kirtley, a Crown employee, walked into the fire wearing an asbestos suit and turned valves on the barge pipe lines which permitted gas to flow into the river.

The tug towing the barge burned and sank. The barge floated free momentarily.

Corregidor and Bataan and those who had taken to the hills to fight as guerrillas against the Japanese.

Delinquent Boys Want Tight Jeans

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP)—Night after night some of the boys at Kentucky Village asked their supervisor for needle and thread.

The supervisor was puzzled why so many boys had rips in the leg seams of their blue jeans. Then he learned the reason: The jeans simply were not tight enough to conform to teenage standards of proper dress.

Now the boys have lost interest in mending. Officials at the home for delinquents have ordered the jeans sent to the girls' ward, where the mending is done.

Hemingway's Son Is Due For Service

KETCHUM, Idaho (AP)—The family of author Ernest Hemingway today awaited the arrival of his son Patrick from Africa before holding simple graveside services at the public cemetery here.

The family said Patrick had telegraphed he expected to arrive sometime today. On that basis the funeral was tentatively set for 10:30 a. m. Thursday.

The Rev. Robert J. Waldmann, who will officiate at the service, said Hemingway was entitled to burial rites of the Catholic Church "although he was not as good a member as some others."

Hemingway was converted to the Catholic faith after his second marriage.

"As far as I know, he did not leave or reject the church officially," Father Waldmann said. The priest said the church did not intend to pass judgment on Hemingway's membership. He said the simple rites were "due to the family's request which we are following."

The priest also said the church accepted the ruling of authorities that Hemingway died Sunday of a "self-inflicted gunshot wound in the head." Officials made no determination of whether the shooting was accidental or otherwise.

"We will not go beyond the ruling of the authorities," said Father Waldmann.

Odd Jobs Man Is Captured By FBI

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — He was on the FBI's most wanted list for a cruel murder. But to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bloom the fugitive captured in their home "was just like one of the family. Trusted like a brother."

Still shocked that the odd-jobs man they took to their hearts was not the person he represented himself to be, the Blooms nevertheless promised Tuesday to aid him.

When they knew as Bryan Brenton was, in fact, Kenneth Holbeck Sharp, 29, sought since 1952 on a charge that he shot and killed a 75-year-old service station attendant during a holdup in Chicago.

When the FBI took Sharp into custody Monday, Bloom said, he was babysitting for the three Bloom children, boys aged 2, 4 and 8. He was just like one of the family. The kids miss him already.

The FBI said Sharp, considered possibly deranged, had been in Philadelphia for five years. He worked for three years as a pin-boy in a bowling alley Bloom manages.

Laid off when the alley was converted to automatic pinsetters, Sharp went to work in a service station Bloom operated. "I trusted him like a brother," Bloom said. "Some weekends would have $400 at the station. We never missed a thing."

The station closed six months ago and Sharp moved in with the Blooms while working at odd jobs.

"The kids loved him immediately. He would take them swim-

Soviet Radio Behind Times

LONDON (AP)—Moscow radio today broadcast four 10-minute-old news items, including a report of Soviet Premier Khrushchev's arrival in Finland.

While Khrushchev kept in his Moscow bed, an early morning newscast told of his welcome to Finland by President Urho Kekkonen. The visit was last September.

The newscast included three other September news items; U.N. Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjöld welcoming news that Khrushchev would attend the General Assembly; the arrest of Congolese political leader Jean Bolikango, and the winning of gold medals by Soviet athletes, at the Rome Olympics.

"It looks as though someone picked up an old file tape by mistake," said an official at the British Broadcasting Corporation's monitoring station. "I understand it has happened once before."

Library Believes In Speed Reading

WIRRAL, England (AP) — A reader wrote the local librarian complaining that a book he borrowed had been stamped by error for return on the same day.

"Admittedly," he wrote, "the book is entitled 'How To Speed Up Your Reading' but this is ridiculous."
