Cotton Question To Be Decided Tuesday

More than 1,000 Mitchell County cotton farmers will have a chance to help decide price supports and government authority for 1958 in a nationwide cotton referendum scheduled for Tuesday.

Both owners and operators who are engaged in the production of cotton will be eligible to vote in the Tuesday referendum, according to A.L. Young of Westbrook, chairman of the county Agriculture Stabilization and Conservation Committee.

Three voting places will be available for Mitchell County voters. They will be located at the cotton gin office at Westbrook, the Lions Club Building at Loraine and the ASC Office in Colorado City.

Notices have been mailed by the local ASC Office to all eligible farmers, telling them where to vote in the Tuesday referendum.

The referendum will decide whether or not the U. S. Department of Agriculture will have the authority to enforce marketing quotas on cotton grown in 1958.

If the referendum passes, farmers who overplant their 1958 acreage allotments may be penalized for the excess acreage and may lose their federal price supports on the entire crop.

But in return for allowing the government to levy penalties for overplanting, the nation's cotton farmers will be assured of receiving between 75 and 90 per cent of parity price in government price support loans.

If the nation's farmers refuse to pass the referendum Tuesday, the government will have no authority to enforce marketing quotas on cotton by penalizing farmers who overplant allotments.

But if the referendum does not pass, federal price supports on cotton will be set at only 50 per cent of parity instead of the 75-90 per cent of parity called for under the terms of the referendum.

Exact percentage of parity price to be received by cotton farmers in 1958 somewhere between 75 and 90 per cent of parity will be set by the Secretary of Agriculture if the referendum passes.

Two-thirds of the voting farmers in the nation must approve the referendum before it can pass, Young said.

★ WRECKS CAUSE $300 DAMAGE ★

Two auto accidents in Colorado City this week caused an estimated $315 damage to three vehicles. No one was injured in the two smash-ups.

In a Friday night collision, police reported that a 1956 Chevrolet driven by Kerry Sweatt of Westbrook was involved in a mishap with a 1954 Mercury.

The driver of the Mercury was identified as George Washington Adams of Fort Worth.

Investigating officers said both cars were traveling west on Second St. (U. S. Highway 80) when Adams attempted to make a left turn near the intersecion of Second and Locust.

Sweatt's car reportedly struck the right rear of Adams' vehicle, police said.

In a Tuesday collision at the intersection of Second and Austin, a 1955 Plymouth driven by Samuel Henry Yoakum, 80, of Colorado City was damaged when it was involved with a collision with a 1956 White gravel truck.

The truck's driver was Jacinto Torres Deanda Jr., 23, of Coleman. The truck was not damaged.

Owners of the truck were listed as Texas Trucking Company of Austin.

Officials Will Attend CC Meet Tuesday

Past President Frank H. Kelley and C. L. Root, local director of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, both of Colorado City, have been invited to attend a meeting of the WTCC's board of directors to be held in Abilene Tuesday, according to an announcement by B. E. Godfrey, president of the regional organization.

Godfrey said the meeting, which is to begin at 1:30 p.m., is expected to draw attendance from throughout the 132 county area served by the WTCC.

The agenda for the meeting, Godfrey added will include a review of the organization's work for the past few months and a study of project activity scheduled for coming months.

Godfrey said the directors meeting is one of four regular board meetings held each year.

Dallas Pastor To Talk Here

Dr. W. M. Elliott Jr., pastor of the Highland Park Presbyterian Church in Dallas, will present an illustrated talk on his recent trip to the Far East at Colorado City's First Presbyterian Church Wednesday at 7 p. m.

Dr. Elliott, the son of Dr. W. M. Elliott Sr., pastor of the Colorado City First Presbyterian Church for many years, is the Moderator of the Presbyterian Church, U. S., the highest office in the Presbyterian Church.

FOR WORK PROJECTS

Crawford Names Kiwanis Leaders

Sixteen chairmen have been named to head project committees for Colorado City Kiwanis during 1958.

Mayor Trevor Crawford, incoming Kiwanis president, announced the committee chairmen this week.

At the same time he revealed that Farris Lipps, Col-Tex Refining Company office employe, will be secretary-treasurer for the club during the next year.

Naming of Lipps to the secretary-treasurer's post completes the 1958 officer slate which includes Crawford, Col-Tex engineer as president; Sie Hamm, Colorado Drug employe, first vice president, Lawrence Riddick, another Col-Tex employe, second vice president.

Committee chairmen appointed by Crawford are: Ed Rothwell, boys and girls work; H. I. Berman, Key clubs; Elliott Dixon, underprivileged children; Frank Wilson, vocational guidance; Perry Bowles, agriculture and conservation; Frank Kelley, public and business affairs; Ruddick, support of churches; R. B. Baker, attendance and membership.

Also, Virgil Morgan, house committee; Alton Myers, inter-club relations; John T. Merritt, education and fellowship; Frank Ginzel, laws and regulations; Paul Boston, programs and music; public relations, Joe Bell; Sims Palmer, reception, and Trevelyn Kelley, finance.

Crawford, the incoming president, and Wilson, outgoing lieutenant governor of Division 22, will head a delegation of local Kiwanians to Midland Sunday for an afternoon conference of Division 22 leaders.

A main portion of the conference will be for organization and instruction for committee chairmen in local clubs. Conducting discussions at the conference will be James E. Payne, division chairman for boys and girls work, and Berman, division chairman for attendance and membership.

Wilson will present the lieutenant-governor-elect for 1958, Clyde Davidson. The local school superintendent also will discuss achievement reporting at the general session of the conference in Scharbauer Hotel.

At the Kiwanis luncheon here Tuesday in Civic House the sixth grade choral group of Hutchinson Elementary, directed by Mrs. Jack Johnston. Presented as addition to the chorus were Lois Williams, soloist, and the four choralettes.

AFTER INDICTMENTS

Four Enter Guilty Pleas In 32nd District Court

Four pleas of guilty to felony criminal charges were heard Friday in Judge A. S. Mauzey's 32nd District Court here, following indictments by the Mitchell County grand jury earlier in the week.

In Friday criminal proceedings: Fred Biggers of Colorado City entered a plea of guilty to an indictment returned against him for the Oct. 18 theft of $600 from Andrew Johnson, also of Colorado City.

Biggers was given a five-year suspended sentence, according to District Attorney Eldon Mahon.

Mahon said that approximately $300 of the stolen money was recovered when Biggers was arrested by city officers.

The stolen cash also resulted in bootlegging charges against both Biggers and Johnson in Mitchell County Court.

At the time of the theft, officers said they were summoned by Johnson who reportedly said at first that Biggers had taken $1,000.

When officers arrived at Johnson's home, they discovered several dozen bottles of liquor.

Biggers and Johnson were both fined earlier in county court.

In other district court proceedings, two Salisbury, N. C., men were given five years suspended sentences for the Nov. 26 theft of an automobile from Clyde Bassham, a local auto dealer, Mahon said.

According to the district attorney, the two men—Taylor Henderson Miller and Elmer Junior Bowham—were employed by Bassham to polish cars.

They were arrested by officers at Anson after the theft.

Both pleaded guilty.

Also entering a guilty plea to an indictment for theft was Melvin Lunceford of Colorado City.

Lunceford was sentenced to six months in the county jail for the theft of farm implements from the Heston Redwine farm near Colorado City on May 19, 1957.

Mahon said that Lunceford had been tried once, but the trial—which was held in June here—resulted in a hung jury.

Still facing trial under an indictment by the grand jury is Severiano Arispe Jr., charged with driving while intoxicated second offense.

The alleged offense occured on Oct. 13, Mahon said.

Mahon said that more criminal cases may be heard in district court here week after next.

69-Year-Old Woman Dies; Rites Held

Funeral services for Mrs. Lula Davenport of Westbrook, 69, were conducted Saturday afternoon in First Methodist Church of Westbrook.

Mrs. Davenport died in the local hospital Thursday night after a short illness.

Rev. Joe McCarthy, church pastor, conducted final rites. He was assisted by Rev. R. L. Bowman of Halfway. Burial was in the Westbrook Cemetery under the direction of Kiker and Son Funeral Home.

Pallbearers were Carl Shelton of Knox City, R. O. Lee, W. A. Swafford, Harlan Morgan, E. O. Hudson and C. O. Nix.

Mrs. Davenport was born in Goldthwaite March 29, 1888, and was married to Charles F. Davenport in Oklahoma in 1904. They came to Colorado City in 1930 and Mr. Davenport died two years later.

Survivors include four sons, Angelo Davenport of Big Spring, Tommy Davenport of Cuthbert, Hugh Davenport of Bell, Cal., Guy Eugene Davenport of Westbrook; three daughters, Mrs. B. L. Schafer of Barstow, Cal., Mrs. Kenneth Childers of Colorado, Mrs. H. L. Stokes, of Snyder.

Also, three brothers, John Jamar of Clarremont, Okla., Willie Jarrell of Houston, Eugene Jamar of Ada, Okla., one sister, Mrs. Mattie Holbrook of Ada, 24 grandchildren and 12 great grandchildren.

Rites Pending For 37-Year City Resident

Funeral Rites were pending here Saturday for Claude H. Campbell, 46, who died Friday night after suffering a heart attack.

Campbell, who lived here with his mother at 329 Locust St., had been a Colorado City resident since 1939 and had been employed as a projectionist at the Palace Theatre for several years.

He was born Jan. 15, 1911 at Quitman, Miss.

His father, William Evan Campbell of Colorado City, died Oct. 14.

Campbell, who was single, is survived by his mother and three brothers, Evan Campbell, Colorado City; Lake Campbell, Mason, and Holley Campbell of Fort Worth.

Final rites for Campbell will be under the direction of Kiker and Son Funeral Home of Colorado City.

OFFICERS INVESTIGATE TWO BURGLARIES HERE

Burglars struck at two Colorado City firms Thursday and Friday nights, police reported Saturday.

Herrington Auto Parts at 256 E. Second was the scene of a burglary Friday night. Owner A. A. Herrington told police that $2.50 in small change and two shotguns were taken.

The guns were described as a 16 gauge Winchester pump and a 12 gauge Remington automatic.

Burglars Thursday night found lean pickings at Moser's Produce in the 100 block of Oak St.

The safe at the local firm, owned by Joe and Virgil Moser, was unlocked, but contained no money, police said.

The only item taken from the safe was a green metal box containing only personal papers, according to police.

City authorities were still investigating the two cases Saturday.

Two Producers Top County Oil Picture

Two completed oil wells and a new Mitchell County wildcat near Iatan topped petroleum news in county fields this week.

T-XL No. 2 Mitchell Fee, a county completion, pumped 81 barrels of 24.1-degree oil on 24 hour potential this week.

The well is in the Westbrook field 1,300 feet from north and 330 feet from east lines of section 37, block 29, T-1-N, T&P Survey.

The hole is plugged back to 3,115 feet from 3,150 feet and top of the pay zone is at 2,956 feet.

Perforations extend from 2,956 feet to 3,091 feet.

Finaling for a daily potential of 67 barrels of oil this week was Col-Tex No. 5 Butler, also in the Westbrook field.

The new producer is 330 feet from north and west lines of section 26, block 28, T-1-N, T&P Survey and is three miles north of Westbrook.

Operator fraced with 21,000 gallons before taking potential. Oil tested 15 per cent water.

Total depth is 3,130 feet with production reached at 2,955 feet.

Perforations extend from 2,955 3,066 feet.

Blue Danube No. 1 Foster is a new Mitchell County wildcat located a mile southwest of Iatan.

It is about a mile from production in the Iatan East Howard field and is 330 feet from south and west lines of section 46, block 29, T-1-S, T&P Survey.

Drilling depth is 3,200 feet.

Another Iatan East Howard test, Blue Danube No. 1 Schumacher, cored at 2,571 feet.

The venture is four miles south and west lines of section 15, block 29, T-1-S, T&P Survey.

Practice Alert

A plane spotting practice alert will be held Sunday from 1:30 until 5:30 p. m. at the Ground Observer Corps Post at Westbrook, according to Mrs. Jessie Cuthbertson.

$205,593 Paid Here In County Taxes

Collections of Mitchell County 1957 advalorem taxes for October and November totaled $205,593, according to Tom Glover, county tax assessor.

Glover said that $195,253 of the total amount was collected during October, representing 76 per cent of the 1957 tax roll charge.

October collections this year were slightly above the amount collected during October, 1956.

Glover said that taxpayers may still receive a one per cent discount on taxes paid through Jan. 1, 1958. After that time, beginning in February, unpaid taxes will draw one and one-half per cent interest as a delinquency penalty and will increase a month thereafter, he said.

Glover added that poll tax payments are still running behind schedule in the county.

Only 460 persons had paid 1958 poll taxes Saturday, Glover said.

The county tax assessor pointed out that Mitchell County has a potential voting strength of at least 3,000.

He also called attention to county elections which will be held in 1958.

Poll taxes will remain on sale through Jan. 31.

15 Chapters Will Attend District Meet

A crowd of more than 180 Future Farmers of America is expected to attend a District FFA Banquet at Civic House here Monday at 7:30 p. m.

According to James Trammell, local vocational agriculture teacher and FFA sponsor, representatives from 15 member FFA chapters in the Lone Wolf District are expected to attend the banquet.

Of the 15 chapters, 14 have announced plans to send sizable delegations to the banquets. Only the Westbrook chapter has not yet definitely said whether it will send representatives to the banquet or not, Trammell said Saturday.

Principal speaker at the banquet will be Pete Baker, state FFA vice president from Area VI.

Awards in 15 divisions of agricultural achievement will be presented at the banquet by T. C. Rice, president of FFA Area II, Trammell said.

Welcoming talk will be given by Tommy Hammond, president of the Colorado City FFA chapter.

Other program highlights will include a talent contest, emceed by Jackie Jones of the Colorado City chapter, and a contest to pick the district FFA Sweetheart.

Colorado City's Sweetheart nominee is Gerry Laster, a senior student at Colorado High School.

Melvin Walker of Colorado City, district secretary, will be in charge of the Sweetheart contest, Trammell said.

District officers participating in ceremonies at the banquet will include Ronald Haley, president, Loraine; Jerry Springer, vice president, Snyder; Walker, secretary, Colorado City; Joe Mitchollon, treasurer, Highland; E. L. Duncan Jr., reporter, Roscoe, and Larry Estes, sentinel, Blackwell.

The following awards in various phases of agriculture will be presented to the following FFA chapters:

Snyder Pays Tribute to Supt. Wilson

Snyder Kiwanians paid special tribute here Tuesday to Frank W. Wilson, Colorado City's superintendent of schools.

Tribute and special recognition came at the local Kiwanis luncheon in Civic House.

Rev. John Reeves, president of Snyder Kiwanis, presented a brief case to Wilson in a brief ceremony.

Reeves headed a special Snyder delegation who were here for the ceremony marking the conclusion of Wilson's tenure as lieutenant governor of Kiwanis Division 22. Wilson began his term as lieutenant governor while a resident of Snyder.

"Frank Wilson is one of the finest men I've ever known," Reeves told the Kiwanis audience.

"He is a good Christian man, a good school man," the minister continued, "and if any man has Kiwanis there at

ON 50TH ANNIVERSARY

Open House Fete Compliments Mrs. and Mrs. T. L. McKenney

Mr. and Mrs. Terrell L. McKenney of Iatan celebrated their golden wedding anniversary here last Sunday afternoon at open house in the home of a son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jack S. McKenney.

Sons and daughters of the anniversary couple were hostesses for the affair.

They are Mrs. C. F. Dohoney of LaPorte, Mrs. A. J. Smith of Brownwood, Mrs. R. L. Westbrook of Odessa, Mrs. O. B. Williams of Lamesa, Mrs. S. M. Bowman of Novato, Cal., Rex F. McKenney of Westbrook and Jack S. McKenney.

Presiding at the guest register were two granddaughters, Miss Sue Smith of Brownwood and Mrs. Ed Costello of Odessa.

Serving refreshments of cake, mints, nuts and coffee during the afternoon were Mrs. Dee Davis and Mrs. Bernie Coughlin of Big Spring, Mrs. McKenney's sisters; also, Mrs. George B. Slaton, Mrs. Johnny Bassett of Odessa, Mrs. Will Hines of Westbrook and Mrs. Will Berry.

Reception rooms were decorated with bouquets of gold colored flowers sent by friends of the couple.

Refreshment table was laid with an ecru lace cloth over gold satin. Centerpiece was a bouquet of yellow roses, accented by two gold wedding bells. Gold tapers backed the arrangement. Streamers extending from the bouquet, inscribed with the honoree's names, were caught by small nosegays at the edge of the table.

The silver tea and coffee service used during the afternoon was a gift to the anniversary couple from their children.

More than 200 guests visited the honorees during calling hours.

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. H. S. Little Johnston of Big Spring, Mrs. Thurston M. McKenney of Andrews and Mrs. J. B. Nance of Plainview.

Mr. and Mrs. McKenney, who were both born in Delta County, were married Nov. 30, 1907 in the Westbrook Community.

Mrs. McKenney, the former Susie Little, moved to Mitchell County with her parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Little, in 1900. Her father purchased ranch holdings in the Conaway Community southwest of Westbrook.

Her father built and operated the first cotton gin in Westbrook.

Mr. McKenney came to Mitchell County in 1877 with his parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. G. J. McKenney. Land for the town site of Westbrook was purchased from the elder Mr. McKenney.

The anniversary couple have lived in Iatan and Colorado City intermittently since their marriage. They are now engaged in stock farming at Iatan.

Circle to Assist in Yule Project

Members of the Argent Wulfjen Circle of First Methodist Church Monday afternoon voted to assist the Mitchell County Ministerial Alliance in its Christmas basket project.

Five members of the group were appointed to assist in clerical work during the Yule season.

They were Mrs. E. H. Winn, Mrs. W. H. Garrett, Mrs. E. Putman, Mrs. J. D. Norman and Mrs. L. A. Strain.

The committee was named during a regular monthly meeting of the circle in the church parlor. Mrs. Strain presided during the business session.

Mrs. Putman, courtesy chairman, reported that four cards were sent to shut-ins from during the past month and visits were made by class members.

Mrs. Clarence Collins directed the Bible study "American Jews." Mrs. Garrett reviewed the Christmas story as told in Isaiah. Mrs. Winn presented the reading, "The Shepherd Boy."

Mrs. Collins, Mrs. H. L. Jamison and Mrs. Strain presented a skit in form of a television program depicting the story of how various nationalities came to America.

Refreshments were served to Mrs. Garrett, Mrs. Winn, Mrs. Putman, Mrs. Jake Cheney, Mrs. Jamison, Mrs. Norman, Mrs. R. D. Hart, Mrs. Strain, Mrs. Collins, Mrs. R.B. Long and Mrs. C. C. Berry.

Miss Charlene Franklin Is Bride of C. G. Fisher Jr.

Miss Charlene Franklin and C. G. Fisher Jr. of Kingsville were married in a Thanksgiving Day ceremony in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Holman at 804 East 12th Street.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Franklin Jr. of Route Three.

Fisher, aeronautics trainee second class in the Navy, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Fisher Sr., at 830 East 11th Street.

Rev. James Carraway, pastor of Oak Street Baptist Church, read the double ring vows in an eight o'clock ceremony. The room was marked by a bouquet of white chrysanthemums.

For her wedding the bride wore a street-length dress of blue lace. The strapless bodice was covered with a matching lace jacket, fashioned with brief sleeves and a peter pan collar.

She wore blue rhinestone earrings and carried a white Bible with a bouquet of blue carnations.

For the traditional something old, she wore the bridegroom's mother's wedding band. Her wedding attire served as something new; a garter, something blue. Her Bible was borrowed from Mrs. Holman, sister of the bridegroom.

Miss Yvonne Jones was maid of honor.

She wore a blue lace dress, styled with a rounded neckline, sleeveless bodice and street-length skirt. Her attire was complimented with a white carnation corsage.

Jack Ainsworth of Kingsville served as best man.

The couple was honored at a reception following the wedding ceremony. Bridal table was covered with a lace cloth.

Mrs. Holman and Miss Jones presided at the serving table.

For their brief honeymoon trip the bride wore her wedding attire.

The bride, a graduate of Colorado High School, is residing with her parents until Christmas when she plans to join her husband in Kingsville. She is employed at Max Berman's Department Store.

The bridegroom was graduated from Westbrook High School in 1954.

Guests for the wedding and reception included Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Fisher Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Charles Franklin Jr., Mrs. Holman, Clifford Franklin, Clifton Franklin, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Holman and family.

Also, Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Sr., Mrs. David C. Stubblefield, Mrs. Charles N. Stubblefield, Miss Jones, Ainsworth and Rev. Carraway.

IN WESTBROOK CHURCH

Mary Beth Lewis, Joe Morren Exchange Double Ring Vows

Miss Mary Beth Lewis became the bride of Joe Harold Morren Saturday evening in a double ring ceremony in First Baptist Church in Westbrook.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Wellborn Lewis of Westbrook. The bridegroom is the son of Edward Morren of Westbrook and the late Mrs. Morren.

Rev. L. P. Lee, church pastor, officiated in the 7:30 o'clock rites.

Church altar was centered with a tall basket of white gladioli, flanked on each side by foliage covered candelabra and a basket of white gladioli.

Family pews were marked with white satin bows.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of Chantilly type lace over white bridal satin. The mould ed bodice featured a peter pan collar and fitted sleeves which tapered to points over her wrists. Tiny self-covered buttons extended down the front bodice. The bouffant skirt was ballerina length.

Her veil of tulle fell from a headpiece of sequins.

The bride carried two pink cymbedium orchids with a white Bible. White satin streamers cascaded from the bouquet.

Her carrings served as the traditional something old, her wedding attire, something new. Her Bible was borrowed from her sister, Mrs. Roy Ed Eiler of Abilene.

She wore a blue garter and had a penny in her shoe for good luck.

Mrs. J. M. Watson, pianist, played traditional wedding music and accompanied Earl Cook of Westbrook as he sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer".

Mrs. Elden was her sister's matron of honor.

She wore a dress of ski blue taffeta fashioned similiar to the bride's gown. Her bouquet was a white glamellia surrounded by matching blue net and satin streamers.

Tapers were lighted by Miss Pat Morren, of Big Spring, sister of the bridegroom, and Ovis James. Miss Morren wore a dress styled identically to that of the matron of honor's frock. She wore a pink carnation wristlet.

Donald Gressett of Silver served as best man. James and David Anderson of Westbrook were ushers.

Fellowship Hall of the church was setting for a reception honoring the wedding couple.

Bridal table was laid with a white cloth and marked by a three-tiered wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom. Crystal and silver appointments were used.

Miss Sue Clark of Westbrook and Mrs. Ovis James presided at the punch service.

For travel the bride changed to a two-piece gray tweed suit, complimented by black velvet and suede accessories.

Following their honeymoon trip the couple will reside here.

The bride was graduate from Westbrook High Schoo and is employed by Rhode Cowan Clinic.

The bridegroom, also a graduate of Westbrook High School, is attending classes at Howard County Junior College in Big Spring and is employe of Texas State Highway Department here.

Wedding guests were present from Colorado City, Big Spring, Abilene and Westbrook.

MRS. JOE HAROLD MORREN,
. . .nee Mary Beth Lewis.

SIDNEY M. JONES

15 YEARS SERVICE

This is the 36th in a new series of special Col-Tex presentations recognizing long and valued service of those employes who have been associated with Col-Tex 20 years or longer. Col-Tex is proud of its workers who have contributed their efforts so many years for the company's success.

The Col-Tex family extends out from Colorado City into the oil producing fields of this area, following the network of pipe lines that move crude into the refinery.

Iatan Station, located about 2.5 miles off Highway 80 (to Big Spring), is one of the stations where Col-Tex employes and their families live outside Colorado City. And typical of the pipe line employes there is Sidney M. Jones.

Jones is a gauger for Col-Tex Refining Company's pipe line department. His job includes gauging at both Iatan and Chalk oil fields west of Colorado City.

He has been in the pipe line department — except for Army service — ever since he first went to work for Col-Tex Sept. 31, 1939. Approximately 14 years of that service was as a welder and relief gauger. But since 1956 he has been busy full-time as a gauger.

Jones" is at home at the Iatan Station. For he was reared at Iatan and Westbrook, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Seba Jones. His wife, the former June Shelton, was reared in Westbrook, the daughter of Mrs. Tom Shelton and the late Mr. Shelton, a long time employe of Shell Pipe Line.

Mr. and Mrs. Jones are members of Coahoma's Methodist Church. Both are hunting and fishing enthusiasts. They travel to Colorado every year for trout and deer. From their last hunting trip they returned with six deer. And take it from the man of the house, Mrs. Jones kills just as many deer as he does.

Signed H. L. Pond, Clerk Court Mitchell County Texas.

Holiday Mail Suggestions Listed by PO

Christmas Cards are already beginning to arrive at the Colorado City Post Office, according to S. A. Palmer, local postmaster.

Palmer said Saturday that mail handled this week is well above the average amount of mail processed at the local post office.

To help with mailing of Christmas cards, Palmer said that the post office will supply senders with labels for local and out-of-town bundles of cards.

Separate sacks will be placed in the post office lobby, Palmer said, in order to keep local and out-of-town cards from becoming mixed.

Palmer suggested that return addresses and three-cent stamps be used on cards in cases when the sender is not sure of the correct address of the addressee. If return addresses and three-cent stamps are used, cards will be returned to the sender if the address cannot be located.

He said that hundreds of cards are destroyed each year as undeliverable because of incorrect addresses.

Church Seeks Building Fund

Payne Chapel Methodist Church is conducting a campaign to raise $3,000 for its church program.

The fund will be applied to cancel the Negro church's debt, for remodeling and addition to the church building, according to Rev. Ben Carter, pastor.

Rev. Carter said initial contributions to the fund Saturday had passed the $300. Some firms and individuals are contributing construction materials in lieu of money.

Planned as an addition to the church building at Era and Front streets is a fellowship hall, Rev. Carter said.

ONLY ONE PLACE ON FIRST TEAM

Maddox, Richardson, Weaver, Compton Win Positions on All-District Squad

Sweetwater Mustangs and Snyder, champion and runner-up respectively, dominate the 1957 All District 3-AAA team, the two combining for nine spots on the 11-man first team.

The champion Mustangs placed five while the runner-up Tigers landed four on the all-district first team. Colorado City and Lamesa grabbed off the other two places with one each.

The all-district panel was made up of one coach and one sports writer from each member city.

There were only two unanimous choices, fullback James Parker and guard Pat Gerald, both of Sweetwater, being named on every first team ballot.

The other three Sweetwater players named on the first team were end Pat Fraley, tackle Dickie Woods and halfback Glenn Reed.

Snyder's four all-district players are tackle Bill Phillips, center Bill Rinehart, quarterback Richard Mahan and halfback Bud Morgan.

End Bobby Clement of Lamesa and guard Joe Maddox of Colorado City round out the first team.

Four juniors are included on the first team. They are Fraley, Rinehart, Mahan and Parker.

The closest battle for positions came at quarterback where Snyder's Mahan nosed out Colorado City's Richard Compton, 14-12, on the point system. Two points were awarded for a first team vote, one for a second team.

The maximum point total was 18 since one sports scribe did not vote.

Colorado City and Snyder led the second team balloting with three each followed by Sweetwater and Lake View with one each and Lamesa with one.

Participating in selecting the all-district teams were coaches Elwood Turner, Sweetwater; John Conley, Snyder; Bob Reily, Colorado City; O. W. Follis, Lamesa; and Floyd Elkins, Lake View; and sports writers Ken Newton, Sweetwater Reporter; Buck Francis, Snyder Daily News; Joe Boatright, Colorado City Record; and Aurelia Ramirez, San Angelo Standard-Times.

WOLVES WHIP ECTOR, 54-38

Angelo Cagers Set Here Tuesday Eve

Colorado High Wolves basketball team will carry a 2-0 season record against the San Angelo High Bobcat team when the cage squads square off here Tuesday night in C-City Gym.

The B-team game begins at 6:30 p. m. with the A-game slated to start at 8 p. m.

The Class AAAA Bobcats will be favored over the Wolves.

Colorado City took its second win of the young season Thursday night in Odessa when they whipped the Ector High cagers, 54-38.

The game was close the first half with a couple of points separating the two teams.

Wolves led by one point at halftime.

Midway of the third quarter, Coach Homer Jefferson's cagers began pulling away and held the lead remainder of the game.

Ector used a full-court press in an effort to stop the Wolves' scoring machine.

Four Wolf performers scored in double figures with forward Jimmy Richardson topping the point-makers with 12. Marion Flippin, 6-6" center, was close behind with 11 points. Guards Richard Compton and Don Black each scored 10 points.

Wolves B-team took a convincing 43-17 win over the Ector B squad.

Following Tuesday night's clash with San Angelo, the Wolves will compete in the McMurry College Tournament, featuring the top high school teams in West Texas.

Enlistments Rumor Called 'Unfounded'

Lieutenant R. C. Noll, officer in charge of Navy recruiting for Dallas and North Texas, said this week that unfounded rumors regarding curtailment of enlistments in the Navy are being circulated contrary to facts.

The Navy still is in urgent need of high type young men who can be trained to the requirements of today's modern Navy as it changes to atomic power, Noll said.

Applicants for enlistment in the Navy should contact the Navy Recruiter at the Mitchell County Courthouse in Colorado City on Wednesdays for further details.

COACH OF YEAR—Bob Reily, head coach of Colorado High School, was named the Class AAA football coach of the year by the Abilene Reporter-News. Fred Sanner, Abilene sports writer in charge of the selection, made the announcement Sunday. (Record Staff Photo).
