Aransas Pass' Former Mayor Is Re-Elected

R. N. Garrett, former councilman and mayor of Aransas Pass, was re-elected to the office Tuesday, defeating Mayor Moreland Bexley by the vote of 593 to 481.

Garrett carried three of the four members of his ticket into office with him. Only R. C. "Jimmy" Thwing, running with Bexley, was re-elected.

J. M. Attaway, former city councilman and owner of City Machine Shop, led the field of 11 candidates for the four council posts with 642. Others elected for two-year terms were: J. T. Buckmaster, shrimp boat owner, 529; Thwing, 526 votes, and W. W. Brooks, owner of T&R Vendors, 452 votes.

Vote totals for other candidates were: Glen Ellis, 433; Bruce Albers, candidate for re-election, 400; Frank Flores, 369; Charles Ford, candidate for re-election, 324; Bill W. Howe, 191; A. B. Melancon, 171, and Robert Herndon, 136. Bexley's ticket, composed of Thwing, Ford, Albers and Flores, was committed to adding shrimp boats and other marine equipment to the city tax rolls.

The Garrett ticket was regarded as the "no boat tax" slate. In a newspaper advertisement last week, the group announced it believes shrimp boats should be taxed but only in an amount commensurate with services rendered by the city to the boat owners.

The advertisement further stated that a $30,000 boat that is away from port three-fourths of the time should not pay a tax equal to a $30,000 business that receives city services continually.

B&PW Style Show Outstanding Success

The B&PW style show at the Sandollar Colony Room Saturday night attracted a capacity crowd and was an outstanding success.

The unique thing about this year's event was that not only women's fashions were displayed by Suttles Dress Shop but also men's wear were presented by The Sea Chest.

Mary Lake Segler, B&PW president, opened the program with the following talk:

"Our theme this year is 'The Sun and Sea.' This style show is given each year to benefit our scholarship fund. We want you to know how much we appreciate your supporting this cause.

"Many people have worked very diligently to make this evening possible and I want to express special thanks to several of them. Our first thank you goes to Mrs. Ruth Gwynn who owns the Sea Shell Shop. She very generously loaned us all the lovely decorations you see on the tables. Elsie Hawes and her committee have done an outstanding job of decorating.

"Also, special thanks to: The Aikins Carpet Service who installed the beautiful shag carpet on the runway—to Mrs. Barbara Taffini and her staff here at the Sandollar for preparing the 'delicious' dinner we are about to enjoy—to Lola L. Bonner who will narrate our show—to Kenneth LeBlanc who is playing the beautiful background music—to Mrs. Frances Bailey and Mrs. Marilyn Bennett who will be our vocalists this evening—to all the lovely and handsome models who will be showing the fashions—and a super 'thank you' to all the local merchants who so generously donated the fabulous door prizes which many of you lucky people will win tonight. These prizes will be given out (Continued on Page 8)

Goose Island Improvements In

All improvements at Goose Island State Park have been completed and the park is now open for visitors, Bill Williams, park superintendent, announced yesterday.

Williams said that with the completion of the improvements, an entrance fee of $1 will be charged, including use of the boat ramp.

Mayor D. R. Hiller made a first call on the new Touch-Tone service which began April 3 for residents of Rockport.

According to Miss Virginia Hill, manager for Southwest Bell, the equipment for the new Touch-Tone service is housed in the newly constructed central office at 215 N. Pearl.

In order to provide Touch-Tone service, a change in the sound of the dial tone was necessary since the previous dial tone was not acceptable with tones used in the new service. The new dial tone is slightly lower than before.

With the newer type of switching equipment which has been installed, there is an absence of clicking sounds while dialing. This silent dialing may lead some to think the telephone is dead, but it is actually selecting the path to the called number through the new and quieter equipment.

Directory Assistance is now reached by dialing 411 and Telephone Repair Service can be reached by dialing 4102 to report a phone out of order.

Cub Field Day Set for April 17

The Den Chiefs and the Dads will help put on the Field Day.

Alpha-Omega Players to Be Here

As everyone knows, things were great in the Garden of Eden. Then there was the apple incident, and things quickly got worse. But whose fault was it really? Eve's? Adam's? Or was it that fast-talking snake? Mark Twain has the answer in this fast-paced enactment of the first people in the world.

Under the sponsorship of the Ecumenical Youth Fellowship, (Methodist, Presbyterian, and Catholic Youth), the Alpha-Omega Players of Dallas, Texas, present "The Diary of Adam and Eve," adapted from the short story by Mark Twain.

The production of "The Diary of Adam and Eve" is directed by Drexel H. Riley, executive producer of the Alpha-Omega Players, and will be presented at the VFW Hall in Rockport under the sponsorship of the Ecumenical Youth Fellowship at 8 p.m. Sunday, April 18. Bank Initiates Two Innovations

In a continuing effort to make banking a more pleasing experience and to speed up service for customers, First National Bank recently has put into effect a number of innovations, according to Charles LaBounty, executive vice president.

One window has been set aside to take care of customers needing a special type service, including payments on bank loans, purchase of bank drafts, cashier's checks and travelers' checks.

This provides prompt and skillful service for special needs and at the same time takes some of the pressure off the sometimes-long lines at regular tellers' windows.

In addition to the special window innovation, each teller has been supplied with a small "Long Wait" sign which she places on her counter when she starts to service a customer whose needs will require some time to handle, such as multiple deposits, extensive change requests and so forth. This device alerts customers to the probable delay and permits them to move to another line if this seems desirable.

"We know that no one likes to wait in line for a long period, whether in a supermarket or a bank," LaBounty said. "Our experience with these two innovations indicates they are helping to improve service. Everyone seems to like them, including both our customers and our staff members."

NEWCOMER in speculation on the 1972 Democratic presidential nomination is Rep. Wilbur Mills (D-Ark.), powerful chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee.

We're close to a cure for leukemia.

A whole crop of kids are alive and well 5 years or more after getting a new kind of drug treatment for leukemia. And each year, the children who get leukemia have a better chance of cure than those of the year before.

The American Cancer Society plays a vital part in this exciting work. So, when our volunteer comes to your door this month, be generous. Especially if you have children. Or grandchildren.

Try Trout . . .

Austin—If you haven't tried Gulf trout already, this spring would be a good time to become familiar with this tasty fish, also known as the spotted trout, speckled trout or spotted weakfish.

As the names imply the grayish silver fish has spots, lots of them on its back.

Because the species is abundant during the spring, this time of year would be the most economical time to try trout.

Trout is economical and delicious, and it is, like other fish, a high-protein food with plenty of vitamins and minerals.

And if you are calorie conscious, fish has an extra bonus—only 310 calories per generous serving.

Try the following trout recipe with a tossed salad and a green vegetable to round out the meal without rounding you out.

Texas Trout with Low-Cal Stuffing

3 pounds dressed Gulf trout or other dressed fish; 2 fish weighing 1½ pounds each would suffice

1½ teaspoons salt
Low-cal stuffing
2 tablespoons cooking oil;

Clean, wash, and dry fish. Sprinkle inside and out with salt. Stuff fish loosely. Close open with small skewers or toothpicks. Place fish on a greased bake-and-serve platter, 16x10 inches. Brush with oil. Bake in a moderate oven, 350° F., for 40 to 60 minutes or until fish flakes easily when tested with a fork. Remove skewers, serve with lemon wedges. Serves 6.

Low-Cal Stuffing

¾ cup chopped onion
1½ tablespoons butter or margarine
2½ cups chopped, peeled apple
½ cup chopped celery
½ cup chopped parsley
2 tablespoons lemon juice
¼ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon thyme;

Cook onion in butter until tender. Combine all ingredients and mix thoroughly. Makes approximately three cups stuffing.

Cancer of six sites—breast, colon-rectum, lung, oral cavity, skin, and uterus — offer the greatest opportunities for saving lives. Preventive action, early diagnosis and prompt treatment are the life-saving keys, says the American Cancer Society.

Spice CABINET

HORSERADISH SAUCE

1 cup (½-pt.) heavy cream, whipped
½ cup prepared horseradish
1 tablespoon prepared mustard
2 teaspoons vinegar
1 teaspoon Angostura aromatic bitters

Blend ingredients and chill. Spoon over sliced hot boiled beef. Makes 8 servings.

FIX-IT TIP

Locks require powdered graphite rather than oil. Ordinary oil will gum up locks. Graphite generally comes in a container which, when squeezed, will puff out a small amount of the dust. Apply to latch and keyhole at least twice a year.

"Look at the stuff they're giving us," he thundered: "A mistress who kills her lover because he wants to return to his wife; a Park Avenue debutante who goes to Greenwich

"Now, then," he asked, "any questions?"

"Yes," came a voice from the audience. "Where's it playing?"—L&M Magazine.

Cub Scouts

Pack 49 held their regular monthly meeting, March 23, at Live Oak School cafeteria.

Using the theme Cowboys and Indians the Cubs dressed as cowboys, Indians, and some in uniform slowly marched in at the beat of tom-toms circling a campfire in the center of the room, with the American flag held above the circle, the cubs led in the Pledge of Allegiance. Everyone joined in singing "Home on the Range" and "Comin' Round the Mountain." Den No 2 gave an unusual skit. In their meetings they made a large poster with two Indian sign language messages. David Kubiak and Bradley Reininger read the messages.

Den No. 4 and Den No. 1 combined their efforts to put on a very enthusiastic Indian Rain Dance. One of their Den mothers, Mrs. Alton Evans, said she hoped everyone had closed their windows.

The January Rocket relay trophies were given to Clay Evans, Timmy Frizzell. Cups to Brian Rinwald, Patrick Frizzell, Bryan Evans, Louis Naro.

Tillman Frizzell and James Crusier were presented appreciation gifts and their wives lovely corsages. The two families were thanked for their help in keeping the pack going. Jim Morgan has volunteered to be cubmaster and was introduced to the parents.

The totem count gave Den No. 4 the totem pole for the next month. They had the largest number of parents present, and cubs in attendance. In closing, the cubs formed the Living Circle and James Crusier read an Indian prayer.

The Webelos mothers served punch and cookies from a lovely table arranged by Mrs. Carr, Mrs. Setterbo and Mrs. Fizzell.

Pirates Have 6-6 Record

The Pirates of Rockport-Fulton go into the Easter break with a record of 6-6 after losing to powerful Flour Bluff by a slim 2-0 margin last week at Pirate Field.

The Hornets combined one hit with three Pirate errors in the top of the first inning to jump out ahead 1-0. The Pirates' offense added runs under and over; regular batters, 2, 3, 4 years and actually selecting the pitcher; grade mares, 14.3 hands to the called number through and over, and tiny tots children, 8 and 9.

The Pirates could manage only two hits off of Spalding, while Nava was permitting only 3 safeties. Steve Arispe and Willie Rinche had the Pirate hits.

The loss of Nava, who went all the way, brings his season's record to 3-4.

The Pirates' hitting looks like this: (through 12 games): Rinche, .333; Nava, .323; Arispe, .302; Wright, .258; J. Garcia, .231; Landrum, .231; Schendel, .214; Setterbo, .206; Lyro, .167; Flores, .133; Tom Garcia, .111; Dominguez, .000; Tony Garcia, .000; Chernosky, .000.

Pirate pitching shapes up this way: Arispe, 3-1; Nava, 3-4; Wright, 0-1; Tom Garcia, 0-0; Tony Garcia, 0-0.

Long before moving to Texas, my wife was a photographer and I was a reporter and we both worked for the Peoria (Ill.) Journal-Transcript.

About once a week we looked forward to an assignment that took us to Chillicothe, about 30 miles from Peoria, where the Santa Fe Super Chief train made a brief stop.

Generally, one or more movie stars would be aboard this train, en route from New York to Hollywood. Bernita would take a picture of the movie personality and I would do the interviewing.

Some of the widely known show folks we met and visited with were Jimmy Durante, the late Marie Dressler, Cornel Wilde and the late Dick Powell.

Miss Dressler was extremely gracious and down-to-earth. When we introduced ourselves, she said, "Sure, I'll pose for a picture but please give me a minute to fix up a bit."

Powell was amiable, willing to talk about anything, and I recall he said he was tired of singing in all his movies and that he wanted to have some serious roles.

Wilde had long, wavy hair, was wearing fancy clothes, and held on a leash a beautiful greyhound.

Durante was absolutely the silliest guy I ever met. I'd ask him a question and he'd hold his hat above his head and get that funny look on his face, and say something like "Ah, cha cha." That's all.

How do you write a story about a guy who says nothing but, "Ah cha cha?"

The ancient Egyptians had many drugs. One unearthed papyrus parchment listed 511 prescriptions used in 1550 B.C. Most, however, were worthless.

While women applicants to medical schools have increased more than 300% since 1930, there still are relatively few. Approximately 7% to 8% of all medical students today are women.

A plan for computer-assisted eye examination devised at the University of California at Berkeley may be able to double the number of patients a doctor will be able to test. The number could be tripled if only the patients didn't blink.

Priest-physicians of ancient Persia used various herbs to combat what they thought were disease demons, or "druques", the origin of the word "drugs."

The notation "b.i.d." in prescription short hand is a Latin phrase, bis in die, which means "twice a day."

Bona is certainly to be complimented for helping our club boost its scholarship fund in this manner. Our chairman has asked that special recognition be given to Viola McNorton and Marie Tong. Their services in preparing the show have been invaluable.

"This year we have a very special treat for you. Not only are you going to see the latest in ladies fashions, but the latest in men's fashions as well. One of Rockport's newer businesses, The Sea Chest, is joining with the Suttles Dress Shop in presenting the show. You are in for a treat! At this time, I would like to introduce Mr. and Mrs. Jack Battle, owners of The Sea Chest. The men's fashions you will see tonight have been furnished by them. We certainly appreciate their joining with Mrs. Suttles to help our scholarship fund.

"To The Rockport Pilot for all the wonderful publicity—my personal thanks to all the B&PW Club members who have worked so hard to make this evening possible.

"Our narrator for the evening is a very gracious and charming lady. Without her, the show just could not go on! The Rockport Business and Professional Women's Club is proud to present Miss Lola L. Bonner, prominent local attorney."

C of C Happenings

With president R. L. Eckman presiding, the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce held its monthly luncheon meeting Tuesday noon at Duck Inn.

Main item of business was approving the budget to cover expenses for the coming year to enable the Chamber to carry out numerous projects to promote commercial, cultural and civic activities in this area.

It was announced that representatives of the C of C will participate in the "Sparklers" event at Houston April 15, sponsored by the Corpus Christi Area Tourist Bureau. At this affair, leaders from the Rockport area will have the opportunity to meet industrialists and businessmen from the Houston area to point out the attractions of Rockport.

Also, it was voted to send Mrs. Loyce Landrum, secretary-manager of the local C of C, to the April 22-23 convention of the Chamber of Commerce Managers and Secretaries Association of South Texas at Sea Island Hotel, South Padre Island.

Attending the luncheon meeting were Eckman, Mrs. Landrum, Louise Brisbin, John P. Mitchell, Jr., Mrs. J. W. "Tony" Harden, Vernon Kleypas, Roy Rogero, Bob Mosier, James H. Sorenson, Jr., Mrs. Juanita Wagley, John Kinsey, Port Little and Bill Kelsay.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Glass furnished refreshments for the hospitality program for visitors stopping in at the C of C Building this week.

VA Explains Educational Benefits For Certain Eligible Widows and Wives

P. J. Mims, Veterans Administration Regional Office Director at Houston, reported 175,000 widows of veterans who died of service-connected disabilities and 65,000 views of veterans totally disabled in services for generally up to 36 months of educational benefits.

He noted that 8,324 widows and 1,868 wives have already received such benefits, with December 1970 as the peak month when 4,582 were in training. The number of participants is expected to go even higher in the upcoming spring school semester.

Wives of veterans with service-connected total and permanent disabilities, and widows of veterans or service-men who die of service-connected causes are eligible under a law which became effective Dec. 1, 1968.

He also pointed out that Public Law 91-584, the prisoner of war bill signed last December, made a small number of additional wives eligible for educational benefits.

Mr. Mims urged wives and widows interested in educational assistance to contact their nearest VA Office, or their local veterans service organization representative.

Letter to the Editor

The Aransas County Navigation District has granted the dredging permit which will surely RUIN the Connie Hagar Wildlife Sanctuary and Fishing in Little Bay: Are these elected representatives of the county PROUD of this accomplishment?

1. When a prominent influential proponent can support and be so facetious as to venture an observation that "we should move out and leave it to the birds," it seemed to be another way of calling the opponents "Pigeons"—and we'll be lucky if any come in to replace the innumerable varieties of birds we will lose.

2. When this same person so glibly refers to the study of the Bartholomew Associates (which cost the taxpayers a bundle by the way) as recommending a balance of various factors including economics, ecology, etc., the "balance" referred to in truth works out like the "butcher with his thumb on the scale."

3. When the Moderator, who clearly showed his having already made up his mind, refuted the simple truthful facts of one of our best State Marine Biologists who stated that the area to be dredged is a breeding ground for shrimp, etc., it looks just plain "fishy."

The main theme of the Bartholomew report stressed that Rockport's future rested in Tourism and yet the Navigation Board, supported by at least one of our city officials, in one swoop knocks a main attraction of Tourism right out of the tub. What do the local planners plan to do to offset the loss of this "Refuge" and fishing attractions?

Doesn't this smack of the goose gobbling his own golden egg?

Willard E. Haynes,
732 Copano Cove Road

Savings on Interest on Home Loans Guaranteed By Veterans Administration

For the third time in less than three months, the nation's veterans and service-men are beneficiaries of substantial savings on interest on home loans guaranteed by the Veterans Administration.

P. J. Mims, director of the VA Regional Office in Houston, noted payments on a typical loan, as a result of the latest reduction to 7 per cent effective February 18th, would be about $21 per month less than they were before they were reduced from the peak 8.5 per cent interest rate last December.

During the life of the loan, savings would amount to approximately $7,500.

Mims explained that these savings are based on the average $24,600 loan on new homes, and the average $20,000 loan on an existing homes over a 30-year financing period. Mortgage interest rates were reduced from 8.5 to 8 per cent last December 2, from 8 to 7.5 per cent on January 13, and from 7.5 to 7 per cent on February 18.

The Regional Office Director commented that after the reduction of the interest rate to 7.5 per cent in January, there was an immediate response from veterans who wanted to own their own homes.

Rebekah Lodge News

Noble Grand Joyce Bailey opened the Rebekah Lodge meeting April 1. There were three guests: Doris Milton and LaVerne Ademons of Aransas Pass and Vera Douglas of Ingleside.

Lawrence McLester was reported ill in a Taft hospital. Zoe Heath is convalescing at home.

The commission of Vera Douglas for district deputy president of district 59 was read. She presented this year's program for the Rebekah assembly president, Lucille Whitney, and assisted in planning the program for the president's visit here on May 8.

Ora May and Martha Munday served a delicious dessert after the meeting. Joyce Bailey won the flower fund gift.

W. W. LEACH DIES

Funeral services were held Saturday in Mineola for Walter William Leach, 75, who died April 1 in a Taft nursing home after a long illness. Burial was in Sand Springs Cemetery.

Leach had lived in Rotan 40 years prior to moving to Rockport two years ago.

Surviving are three sons, Walter Leach, Jr. of Rockport, Charles Leach of Dallas and Lowell Leach of Ecuador; one daughter, Mrs. Billy Barrow of Shepherd; a brother, Lovell Leach of Rotan; 10 grandchildren and one great-granddaughter.

AMERICAN CANCER SOCIETY

Cub Scouts

As a community awareness project, Den 1, 2 and 3 of Pack 340 picked up litter last week.

Dens 1 and 3 cleaned the Rockport Beach area. They filled their sacks so full of plastic, glass and cans that they could hardly drag them to the trash barrels that are provided at the picnic areas.

This project left cubs with a feeling of pride in having aided this community in the fight against pollution and showed them how important it is for everyone to "Stash that Trash" on outings.

Roger Dominguez, Carmen Buehano, Ronald Dominguez, Bobby Stevens, Andy McMillan, Benny Flores, Richard Dominguez, Steve Russ, Tony Tilves, George Solis, Bobby and Scotty McMillan, Tony Chavez, Wade Evans, Dane Peterson, David Garcia, Brad Bloomer and Joe Black also worked hard.

Mrs. Richard Dominguez and Mrs. W. L. Stevens assisted the den mothers.

Most experienced fishermen learned early in the game that no two bodies of water are alike. In fact, that goes for areas too. Even the Texas coast, with all its water, has many personalities.

A good fisherman can catch fish in most any water. This is mainly because he takes a good look around before he ever casts a lure.

Texas is blessed with many fine lakes, all stocked with game fish. Basically they are the same species—bass, crappie, catfish and bream.

There are several species of bass. In most Texas lakes and ponds, it is possible to take the large mouth black bass, up to seven or eight pounds.

But, the abundance usually goes to the white or sandy. The Kentucky spotted bass is in the minority in most lakes of Texas. In fact, there are many fishermen who apparently don't recognize a Kentucky.

There are also several species of catfish. But catching these fish is another thing. What works fine in some impoundments, or even streams, doesn't work in others.

Naturally, there is a difference in the fishing of East Texas and West Texas. In the East Texas pine timber area even the water is different. Although fairly clean, it still has a dark color, caused by the tannic foliage. In that area the lakes are generally devoid of rocks, but many of them are loaded with dead timber.

Because there is so much timber in these lakes there are many floating logs. Usually they hang up in some of the brush. Naturally, the brush, trees and logs make an ideal habitat for fish of all species.

Needless to say, such water must be fished differently. Underwater lures are difficult to use because of the multiplicity of brush on the bottom of the lake. On the other hand, many fishermen are finding that plastic worms work wonders in this water, when fished in the approved manner with a slip sinker and weedless rigging of the work.

But when you get out of this blackland country, through the cross timbers and into central and west Texas, fishing is entirely different. It too is difficult to fish. There are many rocks, ideal cover for fish. There are deep canyons leading into the main body of the lake and water backs up into these canyons. Such tributaries are the spawning area for white bass. Blacks like this water, too.

These lily pads of the East Texas waters are absent, but much of the water is covered with algae. This is hard on the fisherman, but the covering of the green stuff does provide some protection from the hot sun for the fish. So, fish hide there.

Naturally, the best bet for fishing is to know the water. But if you don't know it, then take time to study the impoundment. Try to learn something of its personality.

Most of the lakes have maps, some of which show the various depths of the water. Get one of these maps, then try to stay on the curves.

Better yet—get yourself an electronic device—commonly called the fish finder.

Remember, however, that this equipment does not suffice unto itself. You must pay attention to the things around you. This is what makes fishing worthwhile. Furthermore, it adds not only to your enjoyment but to the number of fish on your stringer.

Prizes awarded at Lillian's Danceland Saturday night were two free passes won by Errell Haskins of Ingleside and Mrs. Utah Hamilton of Rockport. Free breakfasts were awarded to Mrs. Claudia Bateman and Monte Raylor of Houston.

Fly's wings vibrate 330 times a second.

On-the-Job Training Program

Many Texas employers have indicated an interest in participating in the Veterans Administration on-the-job training program according to P. J. Mims, Houston VA Regional Office director. As of Mar. 20, we have received 225 responses from employers in the Houston area who wish to set up a VA sponsored training program, Mims added.

Recently the President's national "Jobs for Veterans" Committee, headed by James F. Oates, Jr., contacted employers across the nation in the interest of veteran's employment.

Mims said those Texas employers desiring to set up a VA on-the-job training program are being contacted with information and assistance on procedures for establishing state accredited training programs. Under this program the VA can pay GI benefits to the veteran in addition to the trainee salary he receives from his employer.

CHURCH OF CHRIST

The church of our Lord is not a denomination, and has no head or headquarters on earth. Christ, the head of His Church ascended up on high 30 A.D. The church of Christ therefore has no headquarters on earth.

CHRISTENDOM divided into denominations is a tragic misrepresentation of Christ. Christ cannot be the head of 250 bodies presenting diversities of names, doctrines, and church governments. Christ is not author of confusion.

Where is the head of your church? Where is its headquarters? Can you find in Scripture the name and teachings of your church? These questions should be answered by every sincere heart. May I help you? By Don E. Griffith

Letter to the Editor

Dear Mr. Kinsey:

I read last week's Pilot newspaper pertaining to some comments by a Mr. Henry Pope of Canyon, Texas. I would like to take this opportunity and apologize to all the winter tourists for his insulting remarks.

His views are personal, antiquated and biased. The people of Rockport are always happy to see tourists any time of the year. If it wasn't for the winter visitors, the local economy would certainly suffer.

Just ask any of the owners of different businesses here, and at least 99 per cent appreciate seeing the arrival of these people from various states with their friendly smiles and pleasant personalities.

I noticed he quoted the following sentence, "The bird-watcher tourists come here with a fifty dollar bill and a new pair of striped overalls, and when they go back home, they ain't changed either."

I'd suggest he worry about changing his own clothes when he returns home, and not worry about the Rockport tourists.

I'd like to say "I've never seen a birdwatcher in striped overalls. They are usually financially well to do, and spend their money freely, and are some of the nicest people, worth knowing."

It seems Mr. Pope is anti-birdwatchers, anti birds, and anti Kay McCracken.

Three cheers for Kay McCracken who is a personal friend. At least, she speaks what she thinks and so do I.

Yours truly,

Dr. Leonard Goldman,

Rockport.

Taxpayers Ask IRS

This column of questions and answers on Federal tax matters is provided by the U. S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service to taxpayers. The column answers questions most frequently asked by taxpayers.

Q—I operated my own business last year, but didn't make much money from it. How much income can I earn before I have to file a tax return?

A—If you have net earnings from self-employment of $400 or more, you must file a Federal income tax return and you may have to pay a self-employment tax.

The Tax Reform Act of 1969 liberalized the filing requirements for single wage earners and in some cases for married wage earners by increasing the amount of income required before a return need be filed. However, even if a return would not have been required based on his total income, a taxpayer still must file if his self-employment income was $400 or more.

See the instructions for Form 1040 and Schedule C (Form 1040) for more details.

Q—Each year I hear of cases where refunds are delayed because taxpayers make errors on their returns. What are some checks I can make sure to avoid an error and get my refund faster?

A—To insure the prompt processing of your return, you should check the following before sending your return: (1) Recheck all your mathematical computations; (2) Be sure you used the correct table or tax rate schedule and added the surcharge to your regular tax; (3) Be sure you used the peel-off label that came on the cover of your tax package (If you don't have the label, write name, address, and Social Security number in the spaces at the top of the front of Form 1040); (4) Be sure that your return is signed and dated; joint returns must have the signatures of husband and wife; (5) Be certain all W-2's

INTELLIGRAM

How are you on recent events? Complete the following six statements, checking your answers with those below to find out.

- 1—The state visit to Europe of (King Bhumibol of Thailand) (Emperor Hirohito of Japan) marks the first time in his country's 2,600-year history that a reigning monarch has left the country.
- 2—In a referendum, (Liechtenstein) (Switzerland) denied women the right to vote.
- 3—The battle for Hill 431 in southern Laos was one of the few large-scale (artillery) (tank) clashes in the Vietnamese war.
- 4—The wave of terrorist bombings reached Washington with a blast in the (Capitol) (White House).
- 5—Preliminary statistics indicate that following the end of TV advertising, cigarette consumption has (declined) (risen).
- 6—By winning the Professional Golfers Association championship, for the second time, (Jack Nicklaus) (Arnold Palmer) became the first man to win all four major golf titles twice.

Count 10 for each correct choice. A score of 60 is excellent; 50, good; 40, fair; less than 40, poor.

and supporting documents are attached.

Q—A few months ago a ring that cost a little but had great sentimental value to me was stolen from my home. Since the ring meant so much to me, can I take into account its sentimental value in claiming a theft loss?

A—No, the law does not recognize sentimental value as a factor in determining the amount of the loss. Your loss from the theft of the ring or other personal property is its cost, or fair market value, whichever is less. The loss is reduced by any insurance or other recovery and that part of the remainder that exceeds $100 is deductible if you itemize.

Q—My wife and I were divorced this past October. Can I still file a joint return since we were legally married most of the year?

A—No, if you are divorced by a final decree on or before the last day of your year, you are considered single for the entire year unless you remarried.

Q—I was laid off from my job several weeks ago after working for the firm for several years. Is the severance pay that I received taxable?

A—Yes, severance pay is considered compensation for services and is taxable. In addition, lump-sum payment for cancellation of an employment contract is incorrect in the tax year it is received.

Q—Last year my husband won $50 in a photography contest. Must he report this as income on his tax return?

A—Yes. If you win a prize in a contest, such as a raffle, beauty contest, door prize, and the like, the prize is taxable. Taxpayers should also remember that prizes and awards given in goods or services must be included in income at their fair market value. Of course, if you refuse to accept a prize, it is not included in your income. An award or bonus given employees for their achievements in work or for adopted suggestions is also taxable.

Q—When can I expect to get my W-2?

A—Employers are required to issue W-2 statements on 1970 wages paid and taxes withheld to their present employees by the end of January. Since this falls on a Sunday, the deadline for employers to issue these statements is Feb. 1.

Anyone who left a job before the end of the year should have received a W-2 within 30 days after his last pay check.

Maryland has the only state flag bearing a coat of arms.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Sir:

Mr. Henry Pope's letter in the issue of your paper really set my adrenaline flowing!

He is confused about our birdwatchers, our birds and the need to maintain their feeding grounds.

He is also confused about the "$50 dollar bit" he heard someone say.

Just to set the record straight; as I am an eleven year motel operator I can say (with some authority) that birdwatchers are and have been some of our preferred guests.

1. They never complain and demand we show them the birds.

2. They are quiet, polite and really appreciate our little waterfront town.

3. They don't expect anything and are happy to see and verify the many different birds.

So all things considered, I think birdwatchers and what they stand for, are an important aspect of our local economy. Hurray for Connie Hagar and her reputation... and the people who come to see her and our birds.

As to Mr. Pope's statement about our financial conditions, I can only say: If we don't like the way things are, we can move wherever we choose. In fact the hustle and bustle of a large city is the reason most people move to Rockport. We did.

We're for progress such as: a face lifting in our downtown section; better facilities for boats; new recreational facilities for our tourists and our young people.

But we like our birds. We like our climate. We like the way things are or else we would leave.

That's about it, Mr. Editor.

Cordially,
Carl Duckworth, President
Rockport-Fulton Beach
Tourist Association.

P.S. I failed to mention our excellent fishing. We like that, too.
