Defense Plans Of The Future Are Proposed

General Urges A Strong Reserve Force For U. S.

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16 — If war comes to America again, the first 60 days will decide the winner, Dwight D. Eisenhower said today.

Eisenhower, now an elderly military statesman, said so in his farewell report as army chief of staff.

The general took a look at matters diplomatic as well as military, however, in writing his final official statement.

Marshall Plan Vital

He saw the European recovery plan fathered by Secretary of State Marshall as vital to "our sister democracies" and to us.

Eisenhower did not mention Russia by name but he said:

1. If the western European countries were to "become the pawns of totalitarianism, America's security would be in dire danger."

2. If the democracies of the Mediterranean area should fall and that corridor between east and west were blocked, "the effects would be instant and catastrophic."

"War, in such case, would be close to us," Eisenhower declared.

Looking down the purely military road, he predicted:

Have Terrifying Weapons

"Because major nations, in the future, will be armed with weapons of terrifying destructive power, a series of lightning blows might conceivably end a future war at its outset.

"In such case, the resulting pease would not be cursed with social chaos produced by widespread devastation of the enemy's land and internal facilities for living.

"A corollary to this is the need for a system of major and alternate or secondary bases around which can be organized, first our own defense against air attack, and next our retaliatory counter-offensive.

Would Be Wide Open

"This concept, featuring as it does the hope that in air power resides the possibility of avoiding long drawn out and costly land operations, nevertheless and inescapably requires the availability of effective land forces; without them, we will have no bases and can seize none speedily. We would be wide open to attack and help-

Five Burglary Reports Made

Five weekend burglaries and several reported cases of thefts were under investigation of police this morning.

Two electric drills valued at $100 were taken from the garage of E. E. Jones, manager of Jones Wrecking yard at 1709 Ave. H. A back door latch was tripped to allow entrance, Jones said.

A .32 caliber pistol and shells for it were taken in a burglary of Charlie Terrell's premises at 207 East Twenty-first, Terrell reported.

Jackets Are Stolen

Three suede jackets, belonging to Jack Davis, Raymond Rogers and J. B. Jones, were taken by burglars who entered Pipkin cleaners, at 1411 Ave. Q by prying tin loose from a window, Norman Sikes, an employe, reported.

At Arnett-Benson Drug store, at 112 North College, intruders took approximately $70 in property, said W. M. Wade, proprietor. Taken were approximately $30 worth of cigarets, two spring-wound clocks, a wrist watch, an electric iron, and two boxes of cigars.

The cash register had been left open, so was not damaged, Wade said.

Marjarie Moon, said her place in Queen City, Lubbock residential section, had been burglarized Saturday night or early Sunday, but there was no reported loss. Someone, she said, broke in a door, pried the back off a juke box, but failed to get a money box installed in the machine.

Pension Plan Changes Urged

Saturday Rally In Commodity Markets Is Continuing Today

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Feb. 16 — Grain prices pushed ahead today sparked by some corn contracts which at one time advanced the full daily limit of eight cents a bushel.

Deliveries of wheat were up as much as 6½ cents a bushel. Oats climbed as much as 4⅜ cents.

New highs for the day were established in some grains after a mid-day falling off.

Others Show Strength

Other major commodity markets showed strength generally and stocks were a bit higher in relatively light trading.

Cotton, which opened between $1 and $2 a bale higher in New York and New Orleans, ranged from $1.29 higher to 10 cents a bale lower in the New York market at noon.

Soybeans, which have dropped hardest since the price break began 13 days ago, were up the eight cent limit today.

Cottonseed oil and hides were slightly higher, but rubber was down a little.

Butter Prices Up

Wholesale butter prices at New York were up as much as 2½ cents a pound and advanced as much as 3 cents at Chicago.

Retail food stores continued to feature lower meat prices, but government and livestock experts warned that shortages due later this year may pull the prices up a bit.

Hogs were about 50 cents to 75 cents a hundred pounds higher at Chicago in unexpectedly light trading.

Economists are watching this week's trading closely for a clue to the final meaning of the break in commodity prices.

Business Recovering

Business everywhere was beginning to recover from the first shock of the price plunge, but leaders still fought shy of long-range commitments wherever possible.

President Truman in an appeal to a mayors' conference opening in New York today sounded a new appeal for a strong fight against the high cost of living. Unless inflation is checked permanently, he said, "the living standards of millions of families will be critically endangered."

Farm Bureau Session Is Underway In City

J. Walter Hammond, president of the Texas Farm Bureau Federation, was among speakers today at a district Farm Bureau meeting at Hotel Lubbock.

He reviewed some of his activities and findings in Washington recently, including reaction of congressmen and other officials concerning proposed agricultural legislation and other vital issues facing farmers.

Hammond also had attended a meeting of the board of directors of the American Farm Bureau federation, representing the southern region on the board, and said action was charted on such issues as a long range farm program, parity, support price levels, and a program to control spread of hoof and mouth disease.

W. R. Tilson of Meadow, district director of the Farm Bureau, was presiding. Other speakers for the one-day meeting, one of a series throughout the state, included R. G. Arnold of Auburn, Ala., director of the southern region, and Dave C. Miehe of Jackson, Miss., executive vice president of the Southern Farm Bureau Life Insurance company.

Members and others interested in work of the bureau were here from all parts of the South Plains. A similar meeting is to be held tomorrow at Amarillo.

Un-American Probe Held Constitutional

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16 (AP) — Investigating powers of the House Committee on un-American activities today, in effect, were upheld by the Supreme court.

It refused to consider an appeal attacking constitutionality of the committee's authority. The appeal was filed by Leon Josephson, a Trenton (NJ) attorney who was convicted of contempt for refusing to be sworn or to testify before a subcommittee of the Committee on un-American activities.

Father Of Quads Says He Isn't Worried

Boy And Three Girls Born To Wife Of Latrobe, Pa., Metal Works Inspector

(By The Associated Press)

LATROBE, Pa., Feb. 16—Quadruplets—the birth that occurs only once in 650,000—were born Sunday to the 26-year-old wife of a metal works inspector.

A boy and three girls, weighing a total of 13 1-2 pounds, were born within five minutes to Mrs. Barbara Wagner Zavada. The babies, whose multiple birth was forecast by x-rays last November, were delivered by Caesarean section.

Dr. J. Wiley Hartmann, chief obstetrician, said the quads and their blonde mother "seem to be doing fine."

"They're fairly big babies and should do all right," he added.

The first infant, a 3 1-2 pound boy, arrived at 12:32 a. m. (CST) just 15 minutes after Mrs. Zavada was wheeled into the operating room at Latrobe General hospital. Then came the three girls, weighing 3 3-4 pounds; 3 1-2 pounds and 3 pounds.

Dr. Hartmann said the girls were identical triplets, born of a single ovum or egg. The boy was born of another egg.

The young mother, who has a five-year-old son by a previous marriage, was in labor six hours when physicians decided to operate. The babies were not due until April.

RENT LAW EXTENSION PROPOSED

Mar. 29 Deadline For Bill Approved

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16 — The House banking committee voted 18 to 5 today to extend present rent controls one month beyond the February 29 expiration date.

The committee rejected successive proposals for extension of 13 months and four months, but Chairman Wolcott (R-Mich) said:

Temporary Measure

"I want it distinctly understood that this was not done with any idea of killing rent controls."

"It is apparent as of today," Wolcott told reporters, "we will continue rent controls at least for a year in some form."

He said the one-month extension was approved on his motion "because we want to look at rents in the light of the changing economic condition. We want to see what effects the stabilizing recession will have on rents."

Wolcott said the proposed 30-day extension will go before the House next week. The idea has gained important converts in Congress. The Senate has not acted.

Proposals Rejected

Wolcott reported that the committee rejected 14 to 6 a motion to continue the rent ceilings to March 31, 1949.

It turned down 17 to 5 another proposal to continue the law to June 30, 1948.

Wolcott declined to predict what form the controls will take after the 30 days expire. He told reporters the committee will go to work on it next month.

LEGISLATION UPHELD

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16 (AP) — The Supreme Court today unanimously upheld federal rent controls.

Justice Douglas spoke for the court. He said "the war power sustains this legislation." Douglas added:

"What ever may be the consequences when war is officially terminated, the war power does not necessarily end with the cessation of hostilities."

The court's ruling reversed a decision by Federal Judge Paul Jones in Cleveland that Congress cannot exercise its war power to control rents when "in fact" the nation is at peace.

HST Will Seek Aid Fund Hike

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16 (AP) — President Truman told Congress today he will ask more money for military assistance for Greece and Turkey.

Mr. Truman gave this word to the legislators in a report on use of the $400,000,000 they voted last year to help the Greeks and Turks resist Communism.

He did not say how much more will be asked.

Menaced By Reds

Last year's fund was $300,000,000 for Greece and $100,000,000 for Turkey.

In a letter sent to Congress with the report on use of this money, the President said Greece has been subjected "to ever higher increasing pressure 'by a Communist minority subservient to "foreign influence."

There was no mention of Russia by name, or of the Russian satellites in the Balkans.

Greek Communist guerrilla forces reportedly have drawn aid from Greece's Communist-dominated neighbors.

Durocher, Laraine Day Officially Wed

SANTA MONICA, Calif., Feb. 16 (AP)—Garrulous Leo Durocher of Brooklyn and Film Actress Laraine Day are legally Mr. and Mrs. Durocher in California today.

They were married for the second time last night. Mormon Bishop William Brown performed the ceremony in the presence of relatives only.

California did not recognize the couple's marriage in El Paso, Tex., Jan. 21, 1947, immediately after Miss Day had obtained a Mexican divorce from Los Angeles airport employe Ray Hendricks in Juarez. Laraine had obtained a California divorce the day before the Juarez decree.

Welder Is Candidate For U. S. Senate

HILLSBORO, Feb. 16 (AP)—Tois C. Myer, 32, Dallas welder, today filed for United States Senator.

The application for a place on the Democratic primary ballot was made by mail to R. W. Calvert of Hillsboro, chairman of the State Democratic Executive committee.

Coverage For More Millions To Be Sought

Program To Cover All Major Risks Is Contemplated

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16 — The Truman administration pleaded anew with Congress today to let more people qualify for old age pensions.

And Rep. Kean (R-NJ) outlined his own plan to add 20,000,000 workers to the eligible list.

The administration went further. It said the government needs a program covering "all major risks to economic independence" including disability and medical care insurance.

Objective Is Outlined

This objective was outlined in the annual report of the Social security administration. President Truman is expected to follow it up shortly with his promised special message on the subject.

Kean has drafted a bill to carry out his ideas. He told newsmen it actually will save the government money in the long run.

His plan is to make the self-employed, including farmers and small businessmen, eligible for old age pensions under the social security system. Domestic workers, farm hands and others would be included, too. So would state and local government workers, if the state so desired.

Cover Millions More

All told, some 60,000,000 people would be covered, compared with the 40,000,000 now.

The social security report favored adding all these people and more it suggested including federal workers as well as members of the armed forces and railroad workers not now covered by their own pension systems.

Both Kean and the Social Security administration suggested boosting the lowest monthly retirement payment from $10 to $20. The minimum is set for persons who have built up small insurance credits because of limited time spent in covered employment.

The administration also proposed a jump in the minimum—from $85 to $120 a month. To offset this, the social security tax would apply to the first $4,800 of annual earnings instead of the present $3,000.

Newswoman Draws Budapest Sentence

BUDAPEST, Feb. 16 (U.P) — American-born Elizabeth Pallos, former secretary to the Associated Press here, was sentenced today to six months imprisonment on conviction of failure to report her knowledge of an alleged conspiracy against the state.

Charles Peyer, former leader of the Hungarian Socialist party, was sentenced in abstania to eight years imprisonment on charges of conspiring against the state.

Prisoner Is Given "Works" By Judges

HOUSTON, Feb. 16 (U.P)—Two Harris county judges today threw a whole set of law books at a 43-year-old three-time ex-convict who pleaded guilty to seven charges.

The convict was Charlie (Red) Morgan.

Here's what the judges gave Morgan—and all in one day:

Two life sentences, a 10-year sentence, and 10 years on each of four charges.

Performs A Good Deed And Lands In Jail

Burglar Trying To Raid Chicago Store Dies In Scuffle With Puzzled Texan

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, Feb. 16 — Arthur Casper can't understand why he had to spend the night in jail.

He'd seen a burglar, scuffled with him and the man was killed trying to escape. But police locked him up, even though one praised him for his deed.

The 19-year-old Bishop, Tex., ex-marine told police he saw a broken front door glass in a grocery store and a man moving furtively about inside.

Police said the youth, now an electrical school student here, told them he pulled out his pocket knife and stabbed the intruder when he tried to escape.

The dead man was identified by police as Edward J. (Six Toes) Dicks, 38.

"We take our citizenship seriously down in Texas," the puzzled Casper told newsmen after he was detained without charge pending an inquest today. "If you see someone committing a crime you try to stop him. But you don't wind up in jail yourself."

Police Captain John Griffin said Casper must be held for the inquest because "we always hold a

17 Persons Claimed In Texas Violence

Traffic Accidents Account For Most But Various Other Causes Take A Heavy Toll

(By The Associated Press)

At least 17 persons died violently in Texas over the week-end.

Traffic accidents accounted for most victims, but others died from shooting, strangulation and electrocution.

Two children taking a bath together at their home in Waco Sunday night were electrocuted when a radio fell into the tub of water. They were Barney Wright, 8, and his sister, Harriet, 6, children of Mr. and Mrs. Harold S. Wright.

Four people died of carbon monoxide fumes in two parked cars in the state.

Lee Arnold Simpson, 28, Sanger, and Miss Imogene Cole, 18, employed as a typesetter at the Denton Record-Chronicle, were found dead Sunday in a car stuck in mud on a sideroad 10 miles from Denton.

The bodies of Carl McClaren, 18, and Miss Evoy Lipford, 17, both of Boyd, were found in his closed car on Highway 114 one mile south of Boyd early Sunday.

In both cases, the deaths were blamed on carbon monoxide fumes.

At Houston, Karl T. Willis, 56, a plumber, was jailed in the death of his wife, whose brutally beaten body was found in a muddy ditch not far from her daughter's home. Willis, held on a murder charge, denied the slaying.

R. D. MacNeil, 43, died Sunday at El Paso of wounds suffered several days ago when a gunman shot him and killed a friend, Maurice Heaton, Los Angeles, on a scenic road near El Paso. The killer escaped.

A young Dallas mother was crushed to death near Italy Saturday night. She was Mrs. Linnie Seabolt, about 26. She was riding in a truck, which was pulling a semi-trailer. It plunged off the road. Her baby daughter escaped serious injuries. Her brother-in-law, driver of the truck, was hurt.

Four Men Killed

Four men were killed Saturday at Tomball in a truck-car accident. They were Fred Neidigk, 35, Magnolia; Ed E. Moyer, 43, Tomball; and Henry Walters and Eugene Byrley.

ULTIMATUM HANDED UN COUNCIL

UN Army For Holy Land Is Demanded

(By The United Press)

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., Feb. 16 —The United Nations Palestine commission will tell the Security council tonight or tomorrow that it must send a UN army to Palestine or risk "dangerous and tragic" consequences for the whole United Nations organization.

The commission will tell the council there is an "urgent" and "compelling" need for an international force to back up Palestine partition and it will ask the council's 11 members to form the force without delay.

Report Nearly Ready

The commission's conclusions were made available to the United Press in the form of a near-final draft of the long awaited report on the violence in Palestine and the problem of carrying out Holy Land partition in the face of the Arabs threat to fight.

Officials working on the report said the commission probably would make no important changes in the draft during a scheduled final reading at a private meeting today.

Its principal points are these:

1. Arabs inside and outside Palestine are conspiring to prevent Palestine partition.

2. The program cannot be carried out without "an adequate armed force" to put down Arab resistance and keep order while Palestine is cut into two independent states.

Opposition Looms

3. Retreat from the partition decision in the face of Arab threats will set "a dangerous and tragic precendent" for the United Nations.

4. Withdrawal of Great Britain after May 15 will provoke "a catastrophic conclusion" to the violent Holy Land problem unless the UN fills the vacuum with an international army.

5. The question of how to assemble, train and equip a UN army and send it to Palestine is left to the Security council, in which the Big Five powers hold a veto and in which there are only six actual supporters of partition—one less than the seven required to approve Security council decisions.

Cost Of Living Is Soaring In France

PARIS, Feb. 16 (U.P) — France was battling the sharpest spurt in living costs since the war today—a spurt which lifted the price of foodstuffs by 20 to 70 per cent since the devaluation of the franc three weeks ago.

For 1,000 francs a housewife could get two pounds of boiling beef, two pounds of carrots, four pounds of potatoes, two pounds of oranges, two pounds of margarine, a quart of red wine, two pounds of bread and half a dozen eggs.

The income of the average French wage earner with a family ranges from 12,000 to 16,000 francs a month.

Bowles Offers Economic Plan

NEW YORK, Feb. 16 (AP) — Chester Bowles, former OPA administrator, today proposed an extensive federal program which he said "can modify, to a major extent, the recession which our past mistakes have made inevitable."

"During the last few weeks," he told the United States conference of mayors, "we have all witnessed what may be the beginning of the second cycle of the old dismal cycle of economic boom and bust."

Nine-Point Plan

To cushion another depression Bowles proposed the following nine-point program "based on our experience in the past":

1. "Tax cuts all along the line . . . the time to cut taxes is when purchasing power is beginning to dry up."

2. "An all-out program of slum clearance and housing," building 1,400,000 homes a year.

3. Continue rent controls "for at least another year or two."

4. Broaden social security payments to include self-employed, domestic help and farm workers.

5. Enact a national health insurance plan.

6. "Once a recession begins, we should move ahead promptly with our plans for the development of the Missouri alley authority, St. Lawrence valley authority, and for similar developments on the other major rivers."

Raise Wage Scale

7. "An all-out program for the building of schools . . . we should extend the priciple of our G.I. bill of rights to enable all of our young people who are intellectually qualified to go to college."

8. Increase minimum wages from 40 to "at least" 75 cents an hour.

9. "Pass the European recovery program without crippling amendments as rapidly as possible."

Britain Opposed To Spain In Aid Plan

LONDON, Feb. 16 (U.P)—A Foreign office spokesman said today that the British government remains firmly opposed to inclusion of Franco Spain in the European Recovery program.

He said neither the United States nor any European country has approached Britain with a suggestion that the attitude be revised.

Passenger Rate Hike Granted Railroads

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16 (AP) — The Interstate Commerce commission today authorized 96 more railroads to raise basic passenger coach fare 13.63 percent.

The authority was given 85 lines generally operating west of the Mississippi river, and to 11 in the southern states.

On five days notice to the public, they may hike basic one-way coach fares from 2.2 cents to 2.5 cents a mile, make proportionate increases in round-trip rates, and increase the minimum coach fare from 10 to 15 cents.

This will bring them into line with higher coach fares set by all eastern railroads last June, and later by most southern lines.

H. P. Berry Is Kidnaped By Lone Gunman

C. W. Green Held; Says He Wanted "To Get Even"

(By The Associated Press)

FORT WORTH, Feb. 16—Police arrested Clarence Weldon Green, 25, here today on charges of kidnaping a Spur contractor.

Green surrendered to police without resistance.

He had been sought since last night when H. P. Berry, 57, was abducted. The abductor forced Berry to drive him to Wichita Falls, then took Berry's car after releasing him unharmed.

Revolver In Possession

City Detective A. C. Howerton said that Green had a .45 revolver and 25 rounds of ammunition when arrested.

Green told reporters and police that he had abducted Berry "to get even" with the contractor. He said that he was under indictment in Dickens county for burglary and that Berry was scheduled to be a witness against him.

The arrested man said that he had been released from the Oklahoma penitentiary seven months ago after serving seven years of a 13-year sentence on three charges.

Wichita Falls police said that Berry had been released unharmed late last night.

Berry, however, told police his abductor had robbed him of a small amount of money and taken his car.

Kidnap Charges Filed

Sheriff C. C. Kimmell said that kidnaping charges had been filed against Green at Spur.

Kimmell said an armed man entered Berry's home and ordered the contractor to "put on your hat and coat and drive me out of town."

The sheriff said the man threatened Berry's wife:

"Keep your mouth shut and no harm will come to you. If you call the police your husband may not come back alive."

Marched From House

Mrs. Berry said the man, who once worked for her husband, marched Berry out of the house at the point of a gun. She said he entered the house at 7:30 p. m.

A car stolen at Sweetwater earlier yesterday afternoon was recovered at Spur and police said they found a suitcase in it bearing the name of Weldon Green.

Abilene police had reported that a man climbed into a taxi

Flood Waters Are Receding

(By The United Press)

A rush of warm air from the Gulf of Mexico broke the month-long spell of sub-normal weather today and reminded the nation that spring was little more than a month away.

Floods, which had driven more than 10,000 persons from their homes, receded swiftly today. Residents of the inundated lowlands began moving back to their homes.

Temperatures Raised

The steady northerly flow of balmy air raised temperatures in the midwest and plains states to their highest readings of the year and many degrees above normal for the season.

The weather bureau said that the mercury would zoom up to 45 or 50 in Illinois and Indiana, with possibly higher temperatures in Missouri, Iowa, Kansas and Nebraska.

Flood Waters Recede

Upper New York and northern New England still had some cold weather left over, however. In the northern tip of Maine, at Caribou, the mercury dropped to 14 degrees below zero.

Flood Waters Recede

All the rest of the country, with the exception of a narrow belt along the Canadian border, was scheduled to enjoy above freezing temperatures.

Meanwhile, people dwelling along the rivers of Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Ohio, Kentucky, Tennessee and Mississippi watched the flood waters recede as swiftly as they had swept across

WHEN we talk about pioneers in this part of the country, we usually are alluding to early day cowmen, operators of the first small businesses, trail-blazing preachers and teachers, and the farmers who came later to "bust out" the sod.

But there are other kinds of pioneers, too—among them the men who early caught the vision of the automobile age and who banded together to lay the foundation for the magnificent Texas highway system of today.

Late the other night we were whipping in from Spur, making fairly good time despite pockets of fog and mist. Because of the latter, we mentioned to traveling companions that it would take fairly close to two hours to cover the 71 miles, or so.

Dr. Clifford B. Jones, who spent nearly three fruitful decades in the Spur country before moving over here about nine years ago, remarked that two hours wasn't bad time. He then recalled some of the incidents in highway routing, marking and paving in the early years of the automobile in West Texas.

Doctor Jones described one trip he made from Spur to Lubbock, almost 30 years ago, in a loblolly caused by three days and nights of rain.

Because he had to make two train connections, first at Lubbock and then at Amarillo, he started from Spur in two Model-T Fords, with two men in each car.

Bill McMillan's African safari was scarcely more equipped for trouble than Doctor Jones' own expedition. It carried gunny sacks, shovels, towropes and even block-and-tackles, together with extra gasoline and oil.

Doctor Jones rode in the head car until it bogged down. Then the second car would be pushed and almost lifted around the stalled vehicle, and he'd take off in it.

He doesn't remember how many times the cars were stuck, or ditched. He does remember, however, that the Spur-to-Lubbock journey—approximately 80 miles, then—took more than 12 hours: from a little before 7 one night until after 7 the next morning.

DOCTOR Jones also told of his being a member of a party which, in 1909, laid out and mapped the Fort Worth-Roswell "highway." In the party, in addition to Dr. Jones, were D. E. Colp, then secretary of the infant "Texas Good Roads association" and later a member of the State Highway and Parks commissions; Homer D. Wade, then manager of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, A. B. Spencer, of Ralls, long a civic worker in West Texas. Messrs. Colp, Spencer and Wade now are dead.

It took the quartet about six days to negotiate the sandy roads and trails between Stamford and Roswell, by way of Lubbock and Brownfield. Nightly meetings were held with good roads enthusiasts along the route. Every twist and turn in the route was "logged" and mapped.

It was undertakings such as this which sparked the interest in highways in the West and this particular trip resulted in Dickens county passing the first highway bond issue—for $12,000—in this area.

Doctor Jones recalls that putting over the $12,000 issue, for graveling a total of three miles, was more difficult to put across than a later $400,000 issue in hard-surfacing roads in Dickens county

ONE thing the public should hear from J. B. Johnston, currently seeking re-election as county tax assessor-collector—and any others who may announce for that office—is how far they'll be willing to go each year toward making it convenient for people to get poll tax and exemption receipts.

Mr. Johnston has made a start in the right direction. This year, with the co-operation of a couple of civic organizations, Lubbock county had five places where poll tax and exemption receipts could be obtained. Four of them were in the City of Lubbock, the other was in Slaton.

As a result of going that far to "make it easy" for people to get set to vote, Lubbock county's number of eligible voters leaped to about 23,000—by far the largest number in history.

But why not go even farther especially in "regular election years?"

Why not make it easier for rural people to pay taxes, too, by "spotting" sub-offices in such places as Acuff, Idalou, Becton, Wolfforth, Woodrow, Shallowater, etc.—or, at least, one community in each of the four parts of the county?

Nothing is quite so much needed, politically speaking, in this area as voting strength.

The way to get the maximum amount of it is to ape the big counties and cities and go after it. More people will make themselves eligible for real, basic citizenship—via the poll tax or exemption receipt—if the task is made easier for them to accomplish. The best way to "make it easy" is to have a lot of places over every county where the transaction can be made.

You can't turn around in Houston at tax-paying time without having at your elbow a place to get a poll tax, or exemption receipt. The same thing is true in Dallas and other cities to a slightly lesser degree. That's why the big cities pack so much political power.

Let's follow suit in Lubbock and over West Texas.

EL PASO, for instance, did a magnificent job this year. In El Paso county, a resident could safeguard his citizenship at 15 (fifteen) different places. As a result, El Paso this year has more than 30,300 potential voters, thousands more than ever before.

Until we of the West muster the strength to make the downstate politicians notice us and respect us, they're going to continue to overlook us and thumb their noses at us.

Let's make a mental note now to get the job done even better in the future.

Ten poll tax and exemption receipt stations, instead of five, would help do a better job in Lubbock county. So would the addition of sub-stations in all the counties of this area.

BY DREW PEARSON: HITLER AND STALIN HAD SECRET PEACE TALKS IN 1943

Nazi-Soviet Truce Proposed Division Of Europe

WASHINGTON — During the war, mysterious reports leaked out of Stockholm that the Germans and the Russians were holding secret conversations in 1943 with a view to patching up a separate peace. U. S. military intelligence did its best to get full details of these conversations, as it was known that the talks were held between Nazi Ambassador Hans Thomsen and Soviet Ambassadress Madame Alexandra Mollontay at a villa just outside of Stockholm.

PEARSON

Since the war, however, the U. S. army has captured the detailed account of these talks, and it can now be revealed that during the summer of 1943, shortly after the battle of Stalingrad, Hitler and Stalin came near patching up a separate peace which would have left the United States and Great Britain fighting the war alone.

The State department has already released the secret talks between Foreign Minister Ribbentrop and Foreign Minister Molotov in November 1940 by which Russia and Germany tried to concoct an alliance, but the documents regarding the second peace attempt in 1943 are still considered confidential.

However, here is the background story of what happened.

Secret Fishing Trip

In the summer of 1943, continued Soviet pressure for a U. S.-British second front across the English channel finally resulted in a secret conference on Manitoulin island in Lake Huron. Roosevelt visited the island on an alleged fishing trip, where he was joined by Churchill and later by Molotov, who flew via Siberia and Alaska to the island.

Molotov was extremely bitter He complained that Allied delay in establishing a second front meant the loss of thousands of Russian lives. The Red army had suffered terrific punishment at Stalingrad. The German army was still far advanced in the Caucasus. Therefore, Molotov demanded that the American and British armies divert the strength of the Nazi military machine by starting a second front at once.

Roosevelt and Churchill replied that to start a second front before the U. S. army was properly prepared might result in a setback which would prolong the war even longer. They also argued that the Russian general staff had agreed it would be difficult to start an operation across the English channel at this time.

However, Molotov remained so bitter and so disgruntled that Roosevelt and Churchill were worried. Simultaneously some inkling of the Nazi-Soviet peace talks had trickled back to them.

IN these talks, Russia had proposed that she be given one half of Poland. To this the Nazis agreed. It was also proposed that Russia take over Iran and have free access to the Indian ocean through the Gulf of Persia. To this the Nazis also agreed.

Hitler, in turn, wanted to keep Bulgaria, Yugoslavia, Greece and Hungary as a part of the German empire. To this the Russians agreed.

However, the conversations broke down on the age-old question of the Dardanelles and Turkey. For more than a century Russia has demanded an outlet to the sea through the Dardanelles. And in the secret peace talks of 1943, the Soviets repeated this traditional demand of the Czars.

Hitler, however, refused. Apparently he wanted Germany to reign supreme over the entire Mediterranean. He wanted no Russian influence in Turkey.

When Roosevelt and Churchill received an intimation of these Nazi-Soviet peace talks and realized Molotov's bitterness over failure to start a second front, they sent Cordell Hull and Anthony Eden to Moscow almost immediately.

In Moscow, Hull and Eden succeeded in smoothing Russian feelings—to some extent. However, Stalin wanted a firm commitment not only as to when the second front would start, but also as to what territory Russia would get after the war—especially in regard to Poland and the Balkans. He was worried about the Atlantic Charter's protection of the rights of small nations and didn't want to be bound by it. Therefore, Hull and Eden agreed that a meeting of Stalin, Roosevelt and Churchill would shortly be held to decide these problems.

This was what led to the Big Three meeting at Teheran.

At Teheran Stalin finally got an agreement regarding the second front—though not until after a tough battle with Churchill. Churchill at first argued that the place for the second front was through the Balkans, the back door to Europe, which he claimed would be easier military territory for an invasion. Probably Churchill also had in mind the fact that U. S.-British armies would then be in the Balkans and would keep the Russian army out.

But Stalin, probably thinking of exactly the same thing, and wanting the Red army in the Balkans, argued that the shortest road to Berlin was straight across the English channel.

Churchill then countered with a second alternative, namely a landing on the Mediterranean coast of France and thence up the Rhone valley to Germany.

Again Stalin was adamant. He wanted the English channel operation or nothing.

Finally, Roosevelt, upon the advice of General Marshall, sided with Stalin. The United States was looking at the second front not from a political viewpoint, but only as a means of winning the war quickly.

At Teheran, it was also agreed that Russia would be given a free hand in Bulgaria, Roumania and part of Yugoslavia (which was more than Hitler was willing to give). Great Britain in turn was to get a sphere of influence in Greece and the Dalmation coast of Yugoslavia. Finally, it was at Teheran that Stalin persuaded Roosevelt and Churchill that the man for them to back in Yugoslavia was Tito, not his Chetnik rival, Mihailovitch.

The latter decision has been regretted almost ever since. But it should be remembered that Roosevelt and Churchill knew of the secret attempts to make a separate Soviet-Nazi peace and were worried.

Market Drop Was Expected, But Its Suddenness Surprised Many

By JOHN W. LOVE
Spedial Correspondent

DES MOINES, Ia., Feb. 16—The corn and hog farmers have had a shock, the big wheat growers talk recession, the cattle feeders are confused. They all say they expected a drop in prices but nobody thought it would be so soon, so swift or so deep.

They admit most of them are safe so far, however. Some of those who bought heavily of stock and corn last fall will be hurt financially but there is no panic in sight.

Guesses On Th Future

Farmers from the prairies and plains came into Des Moines for the annual National Farm insitute over the week-end. They listened to speeches on agriculture and world reconstruction, but the corridor talk was about what's to happen to farmers now.

Following is the distillation of a score of conversations.

Long-established farmers will make little change in their programs this year, but some of the in-and-outers among the cattle feeders will quit. Some dairy farmers will sell their cows and there will be less high-grade beef in the retail market. Three-dollar wheat is gone for a long time, but corn and hogs are oversold and will come part way back.

From Lubbock, Tex., to Alberta, Canada, wheat growers still have large quantities of grain. Many will hold it until they know better what the 1948 crop is likely to be. They have missed the boat, partly because of income taxes and the expectation of a cut in them, but they are in no hurry to sell. A few think there will be another decline in the fall, down to the support levels then if not sooner.

Nobody forecasts a general business recession "provided prices stop about here." Everybody admits some correction in farm products was in order and a few say it was better that it came this month, before higher prices of food in the cities pushed industrial wages up again. They think the new prices will have an effect on pending wage talks.

Buying Continues

Asked about wages, Allan Kline of Des Moines, new president of the American Farm Bureau federation, said: "Anything this spring that would interfere with production or raise prices to the farmers can't be afforded, in view of the decline in commodities. The farmers are interested in leveling off the spiral and stopping inflation all around."

Oscar Heline, of Marcus, Ia., president of the Farmers' Grain Dealers Ass'n., says a few recent sellers of corn already are buying it back. "My son and I are now buying corn and breeding pigs — that's what we thing of the future," he said.

Hogs and pork will be scarcer next fall, according to Mark Thornburg, secretary of the Western Grain and Feed Ass'n. This, he said, is because too many farmers dumped sows on the market recently. He thinks corn about as low as it will go.

1920-21 Repeat Unlikely

Cattle feeders are also in a tight position. Charles Marshall, a cattleman from western Nebraska, believes many in the area between western Iowa and central Ohio will shrink their operations or hold their cattle longer because of the shaking around they've had.

These men and others, including professors from Iowa State college at Ames, said this part of the country couldn't have anything like 1920-21 again for these reasons:

There is 25 per cent less beef on the hoof; land has not lifted in price more than two-thirds as much, bank debt on land is down to a quarter, farmers have far more money in the banks, they have large quantities of savings bonds, and prices can't drop so much because of the support buying the government will undertake if necessary.

Traffic Accident Rate Here Soars

At the present rate of traffic accidents in Lubbock, 1948 will break all previous totals of accidents, Chief of Police Lewis Kittrell said in a talk at the luncheon program of the Lubbock Junior Chamber of Commerce at the Hilton hotel today noon. Kittrell's talk was sponsored by the safety committee of the Jaycees.

"So far this year there have been 203 accidents in which 19 persons were injured," Kittrell said after reveiwing briefly records of past year. In 1946, there were 821 accidents, 139 injuries and seven fatalities and in 1947, a total of 1,196 accidents in which 169 persons were injured and two persons killed. Fines totaled $19,080.50 in 1946 and $28,035.50 in 1947. Fines so far this year have totaled $5,026, Kittrell said.

Out of the 203 traffic accidents this year, Kittrell said 71 charges of negligent collision, ten cases of driving while intoxicated, and ten cases of failure to grant right-of-way had been filed against drivers.

"We're tightening down on drivers more and more every day in an effort to bring down the total number of accidents," he said. He said property loss in traffic collisions was running as high as $500 per case.

Also speaking on National Crime Prevention week, being sponsored here by the Exchange club, Kittrell warned his listeners to be on the alert for suspicious-looking characters and if victims of armed robbery, try to get as complete descriptions of the robbers as possible. He said there had been a steady increase of such cases over the past several months.

Kittrell was introduced by James Morris, program chairman.

Prior to his talk, the Jaycees voted to take over sponsorship of Webster field, softball park, and operate it during the summer months.

Jack Wells of Chicago was an out-of-town visitor at the luncheon and Ray Kinney, Melvin Best and Jack Knight were introduced as new members.

Joe Allison Rites Conducted Sunday

Culprit Repents, Pays $1 For Theft

Conscience must sometimes be a severe taskmaster.

Someone who "lifted" a radio from an automobile on the Eden and Poindexter used car lot at 1004 Ave. K last Friday must have felt a smashing twinge of conscience.

The stolen radio, regular installation in the car, was found on the porch of Eden's home in southwest Lubbock Sunday when Poindexter checked after receiving an anonymous telephone call concerning it. Eden was not at home.

Attached to the radio was an envelope containing a dollar bill and a note explaining the money was to pay for reinstallation of the equipment.

No trace of the culprit was found.

Funeral Rites Held For William Bloys

Funeral services were held at the graveside in Lubbock cemetery Sunday afternoon for Wm Hughes Bloys, 87, who died Saturday at the home of a son, Shirly Bloys, at Plainview.

Mr. Bloys had been a brick mason more than 50 years, and worked on the state capitol building at Austin during its construction He maintained a residence at 1912 Ave. P here, but had made his home alternately with his three sons since death of his wife three years ago, a member of the family said.

Born at Charleston, Mo., Dec. 26, 1865, he married Miss Betty Clodfelter at Leara, Mo. Oct. 16, 1888 They celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary in 1944, shortly before Mrs. Bloys' death. He moved with his family to Paris, Tex., when a boy, and came to Lubbock in 1925.

Survivors besides the Plainview son are two other sons, James Bloys of Donaldson, Ark., and Ben Bloys of Big Spring; four daughters, Miss Josie Bloys of Plainview, Mrs. I. F. Cone of Fresno, Calif., Mrs. E. M. Musgrove of Huntington Park, Calif.; and Mrs. Albert Smith of Long Beach; 13 grandchildren, and two great grandchildren.

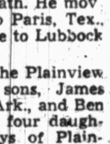

Minister Is Speaker At Club Luncheon

The Methodist view of the communion service, or Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was outlined at the Methodist Men's club luncheon today by Rev. E. H. Crandall, assistant pastor at First Methodist church, in another of a series of doctrinal messages.

He said Methodism does not accept the theory in some faiths that the elements used in the sacrament as the literal body and blood of Jesus, but that they are used as an emblem of Christ's flesh and blood. This, he said, is applied similar to the salute to the flag, which is honored and respected not as cloth and color, but as an emblem of what America represents.

Program was in charge of Sam Leifeste, with Ralph Brock, vice president, in the chair at request of Clarence Whiteside, club president, who had a throat ailment. Invocation was by Fred Atkins.

Comedy In Movies Becoming A Lost Art, Mack Sennett Says

BY BOB THOMAS
Associated Press Staff Writer

HOLLYWOOD, Feb. 16 — "The picture business will have to go back to making entertainment — or else give up."

Mack Sennett, the man who made a nation laugh, was telling his views on the state of the screen.

Too Much Murder

"I see all the pictures that come out. Many of them are terrible; there's too much murder in the films. Where are the belly laughs that we used to put on the screen? Comedy is becoming a lost art. Why? Because there is no training school for comics."

Sennett, once a film titan as a producer of comedies, gave a rare interview in his comfortable apartment overlooking Hollywood boulevard.

He had much to say about how the screen has forgotten the value of movement. He also commented on some of the newer comedians. Red Skelton, he said, is "wonderful," Danny Kaye "amusing." Of Bob Hope: "He throws so many puns at you, you have to laugh at some of them."

Charlie Chaplin, whom Sennett discovered, is "the greatest comedian of all time." But he didn't approve of Chaplin's latest film.

"I told Charlie: 'There are hundreds of actors who can do that serious stuff as well as you, but no one can match your comedy. Why waste your time?'"

Sennett told me he keeps an office in New York and is reissuing his old comedies. "Think of the possibilities in 16 mm and television!" he said. He also plans a feature-length collection of some W. C. Fields and Bing Crosby shorts and others. He showed me the manuscript of a fiction book he had written. And MGM and Warners are bidding for his film biography.

Sennett attributes the eclipse of his comedies not to the advent of sound, but to the double feature. The culprit, he declared, was a theater owner of Providence, R. I., whose customers complained they had nothing to do after the show was out at nine o'clock. So he gave them another picture to keep them happy. The double feature idea spread and finally killed the two-reel comedy, ending a happy and colorful era of movie history.

None Is Injured In Collision Of Cars

Ben Moore, sr., pioneer resident of O'Donnell, and L. J. Hale, veteran mail carrier on a route between Big Spring and Lubbock, narrowly escaped injuries at 10:15 a. m. today when their car was in collision with another two miles north of Wayside.

They were en route to Lubbock when the car driven by Hale and one driven by H. H. Coursey of Wilson were in collision, it was reported here.

State highway patrolmen were sent to make an investigation.

Missing Man No Kin To Local Resident

Paul James, who several days ago was reported as missing, without any trace to date, is not the son of Mr. and Mrs. Preston James, of 1504 Twenty-fifth street.

Mrs. James called the Avalanche-Journal today to say that she has received many telephone calls and other inquiries, one from as far away as California, and asked that it be explained that the missing youth is not her son.

To further complicate the name situation, Mrs. James said she also has a son named Gene, same name as the Gene James who was a Golden Gloves boxer, and that she has a daughter named Wanda, same name as the fighter Gene James' sister.

Police said today no trace had been found of the missing Paul James, who was a taxi driver 23 to 25 years of age, and who disappeared after checking in his cab for the day.

there and forced the driver at the point of a gun to drive him out of town.

The cab driver, W. S. Norris, said the bandit robbed him of $4. 12 miles east of Sweetwater, then got out of the cab and walked off.

Green insisted he did not intend to harm Berry, but the victim later told Ranger Capt. Bob Crowder that he felt the only reason he wasn't killed was the he "out-talked" the gunman.

Green was to be released to Ranger Capt. Crowder for return to Dickens county to face robbery, kidnaping and car theft charges.

After telling police his story in Fort Worth, Green added sullenly:

less to do anything positive about it."

Eisenhower said that on any future day of emergency and mobilization this country would need a ground army of 1,300,000 men. But to maintain a regular army of this size would be "prohibitively expensive," he said. Thus the "only feasible solution is to build the National Guard and organized reserves" to required strength.

News Briefs

Several Lubbock residents attended the state executive committee meeting of the American Legion last week-end in Austin. Those going were George Berry, state commander, and Mrs. Berry; Sid Lowrey, state service officer, and Mrs. Lowrey; A. C. Jackson, chairman of finance, and Chester Hubbard, chairman of the soil conservation committee. Hubbard and Jackson returned Sunday night.

A graveside service was to be conducted at 4 o'clock this afternoon in Lubbock cemetery for Bobby Eugene Mercer, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Bobby D. Mercer of 2311 Texas, Sanders Funeral home reported. The baby, who weighed 6 pounds 2¾ ounces, was born at 6:27 o'clock Saturday night and died at 1 o'clock Sunday afternoon in West Texas hospital.

New regulations regarding reappointment to former rank of former Marines were announced this morning by the Lubbock Marine corps recruiting office. The new policy states that former Marines may be reappointed to their former rank, up to and including sergeant, providing the length of active duty is greater than the time they have been separated from the Marine corps. Those men also may choose their duty station. Married men may be reenlisted, provided they are reappointed to the rank of corporal or above. Married men still are guaranteed the family allowance for the duration of the national emergency, plus six months. Further details may be obtained from the recruiting office, 206 postoffice building, telephone 8171.

A ma's watch was found in 1500-block Twenty-sixth Saturday afternoon by Mrs. Harold Munn of 1514 Twenty-sixth, telephone 2-2310. The watch still was running, apparently having been lost within the last 24 hours. The owner may obtain it from Mrs. Munn by identifying it.

Rehearsal of Lubbock Symphony orchestra is scheduled for 7:30 o'clock tonight in Senior High school auditorium. William A. Harrod, director, said.

Twenty-one representatives of the Texas company were meeting today in a sales meeting at the Hilton hotel. Officials of the company here for the meeting include I. G. Morgan, division manager; H. D. Fowlkes, and Hugh Thompson, assistant division managers, of Dallas; C. D. Hall of Amarillo, state manager; and Ted Brown of Lubbock, zone manager.

Mrs. E. W. Agnew, 74, of 2015 Ave. L, suffered a fractured elbow at 8:42 o'clock this morning when struck by a car that was being backed by Randall Polk of 1919 Ave. L, from Polk's driveway, police said. No charges resulted after a complete investigation by Walter West, police patrolman. Polk took Mrs. Agnew into his car and rushed her to Lubbock Memorial hospital. She was admitted to the hospital.

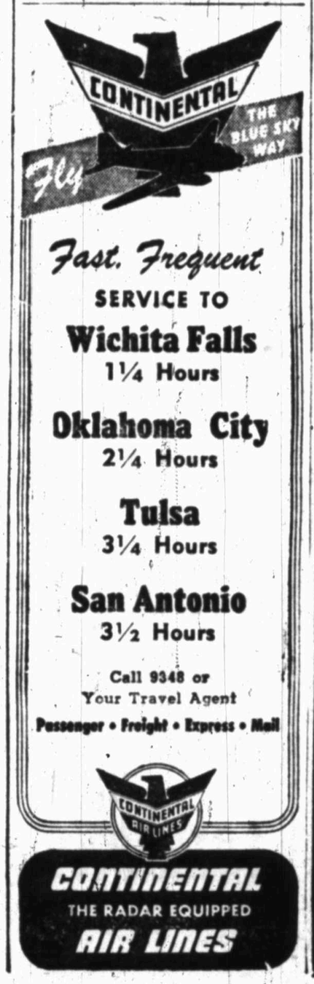

City firemen said damage was light in each of four alarms they had answered Sunday: To KFYO, where a teletype short-circuited wires at 6:17 p. m.; to the 1819 East Ave. B residence of Calvin Quigley, a negro, at 6:37 p. m.; to the residence of Mrs. F. W. Standefer at 3105 Twenty-first, where a motor in a heater had burned out, at 7:17 p. m., and to a residence owned at 219 Ave. F by Joe Telford, at 11:15 p. m.

Miss Louise Shaw of 2916 Twenty-first has returned home from West Texas hospital, where she underwent major surgery Feb. 7.

Texas Nominees For Postmaster Revealed

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16 (AP)—President Truman has nominated these persons to be postmaster in Texas:

Grace G. Sanderlin, Camp Wood; Andrew K. Dennis, Moran; H. L. Riddle, Ovalo; Ambrose W. Caufield, Phillips; Edna Amsutherlin, Selman City.

Burglaries

Ave., informed officials a pair of boots, four shirts, a suit and four pairs of trousers, total value $123, had been stolen from him.

Theft of a $100 air-conditioner from his back yard at 252[illegible] was reported by Dalton Margar.

A fender skirt valued at $10 was reported stolen from T. W. Weathersby of 419 Wolffarth Ave.

Police said they fined one white man $50 for association with a negro prostitute and that a youth, similarly charged, had entered a plea of innocent.

Fined For Disturbance

Another man, they said, was fined $15 for creating a disturbance in the police station, where he had been charged with speeding through an intersection and failing to stop when a police siren was sounded behind him. In addition, he was fined $15 for speeding and $2 on his failure to stop after the warning, officials said.

Police said they had arrested a 31-year-old negro, Vernice Williams, and had fined him $50 on a negligent collision charge and had suspended his driver's license six months in connection with his failure to leave information at the scene of an accident.

They said he was responsible for a six-vehicle "pile-up" early Saturday in the East Broadway underpass. A truck stalled and other cars and trucks stopped behind it. Williams, sixth vehicle in the line, bumped the car ahead of him, causing all to crash against each other, officials said. He fled the scene.

A man listed on official reports as Bill Kelly, 34, was taken early Sunday to Lubbock Memorial hospital for injuries after he, the reports said, had been beaten. A cab driver said someone had told him to take the man to 700-block Thirteenth, his home, but he and the injured man said neither knew the names of those who beat Kelly. Kelly regained consciousness hours after the assault. An investigation had not been compleetd.

Kelly, sheriff's deputies said in their report, was given oxygen when admitted to the hospital.

R. C. Stewart of 118 Ave. H reported theft of a bike.

Fines Are Assessed

The county attorney's department said Ement Goad, about 35, had been fined $1 and court costs for check law violation, Dee Poston, about 25, a woman, $100 and costs on a liquor law violation charge. Earl Lee Arnold, 30, a negro, was fined $25 and justice court costs for failure to leave information at the scene of an accident, and $1 and costs for no operator's license—total assessments being $52.30. Arnold's charges were filed in the court of C. E. Lynn.

Bond of $750 was posted by Ignacio Rubio, a Mexican charged with assault with a prohibited weapon; $500 bond by Herman W. Bush, 36, who pleaded innocent of drunk driving; $1,000 bond each by Charlie Alford Brown, 26, and J. G. Wade, 20, charged with forgery; $500 bond by Pat O'Cordan, 54, of Slaton, charged with drunk driving. W. E. Edwards, 41, of Slaton, was fined $50 and court costs on a drunk driving charge, officials said.

City Marshall Rutledge of Abernathy said he held warrants charging disturbance to a Lubbock man and a Lubbock woman.

B. M. Cole, of George Tucker Pipeline Construction company of Odessa, reported to police that a pipeline beveling machine valued at $300 had been stolen from Twenty-first and Ave. Q.

L. G. Robbins of 3608 Jackscn Ave., phone 2-9843, reported to police he had found a baby buggy.

Texas Deaths

an unusual accident at Arp. He was strangled to death Saturday when two pieces of rope on a swing twisted together and wound around his neck.

At Arcadia, Armand Ray Reifel, 17, a high school gridiron and basketball star, was dragged to death by a horse he was riding Saturday night on his father's dairy farm.

A night watchman shot and killed a man identified as Roy Elliott, 44, in the office of a laundry at Texas City early Saturday. The night watihman said the man was breaking into the place.

Six-year-old June Brown was killed at Llano Saturday when she was hit by a car.

Stock Market

STOCKS MOVE UP

NEW YORK, Feb. 16 (U.P.) — The stock market moved up fractions to more than a point today as buyers re-entered the market for cattle, grains and cotton.

All sections of the stock list shared the recovery, which resulted in a gain of around three-quarters of a billion dollars in market valuations, but Wall Street could offer only one explanation for the demand. Such buying, experts said, was almost a wholly technical reaction to a period of sharply lower prices.

Cotton Market

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, Feb. 16 (AP) — Cotton futures were firm in active dealings today. The advance was influenced by a better tone for grains and reports that the army is endeavoring to speed up a cotton purchase program for Japan. The fact that the cotton textile market and primary spot cotton markets had resisted the recent decline in futures also aided sentiment.

The market dipped at times on profit taking, but the general trend was higher on mill buying, short covering, and some replacement demand.

"excessive speculation" — was a chief topic for discussion at the capital.

The latest defense of the existing speculative system in American markets came from Emil Schram, president of the New York stock exchange. Discussing the securities markets in particular, Schram declared in a radio interview that speculation was an important contribution to the American standard of living, providing industries with funds to build and equip plants.

Skies Fair For Most Of State

(By The United Press)

Skies were fair over Texas today except for a dense blanket of fog from the upper Gulf coast to the Red river valley.

Continued warm weather was forecast for today and Tuesday, after mild temperatures had prevailed during the weekend.

Skies were expected to remain partly cloudy over East Texas, with somewhat warmer temperatures this afternoon, while fair and mild weather was on the calendar for West Texas.

Wink Coldest Spot

Coldest spot in Texas early today was Wink, with 27 degrees, and Laredo reported the high minimum of 54 degrees.

Yesterday's maximums ranged from 54 at Dallas and Galveston to 76 at Presidio.

No precipitation occurred in the state during the last 24 hours, and none was expected from the thin clouds over the eastern part of the state.

Possibility of considerable fog in East Texas early tomorrow was seen by the U. S. weather bureau.

Arab Soldiers Raid Jewish Settlements

JERUSALEM, Feb. 16 (AP) — Jews said hundreds of uniformed, well armed Arabs attacked three Jewish settlements early today in the Beisan valley on the shores of the Jordan.

After a three-hour battle, military units joined the Jewish militia Hagana in turning back the Arabs with many casualties, the informants said.

The attacks started at 4 a. m. against Tirat Zwi, Sde Eliyahu and Ein Hantziv. First reports said a Jew was killed, and another wounded at Tirat Zwi, an Orthodox community.

Jewish sources said the attack showed good planning. The Arab troops appeared to have been well trained.

The Arabs had spoken of Feb. 15 as a possible D-Day for the battle against partition, but Sunday passed without signs of an offensive.

Open House Held At Texas Tech Library

Between 700 and 800 persons attended open house in the library at Texas Technological college Sunday afternoon, A. S. Gaylord, jr., librarian, estimated.

Considerable interest was shown in a special history room which was formally opened Sunday afternoon. The room is to be used primarily for historical material referring to this section.

Many also were interested in microfilm shown on a microfilm reader.

Recent installations, including a $50,000 stack installation, were pointed out to visitors.

Chas. C. Thompson, chiarman of the board of directors, and Mrs. Thompson, who had been invited to stand in the receiving line, were unable to be here.

Lloyd Croslin Back From Naval Cruise

District Attorney Lloyd Croslin has returned from a two-weeks retraining course offered by the 8th Naval district at New Orleans and on shipboard.

A lieutenant in the Naval reserve, Croslin reported to New Orleans Feb. 1. He and other reserve personnel made two cruises into the gulf, aboard destroyers of training squadron 16, and observed new equipment the Navy is showing.

Only three of the nine destroyers in the squadron can be operated, however, "Croslin said, explaining that there is not enough personnel available to operate even the three ships without borrowing from the crews of the others to make a full complement.

Croslin served on an APA, attack personnel auxiliary, when in World War II service.

Bag Worth $50,000 Returned To Owner

HOUSTON, Feb. 16 (U.P.) — A traveling bag containing $50,000 in jewelry and an ermine coat had been returned to a New Mexico woman today after the bag fell from a taxi.

The traveling bag belonging to Mrs. A. M. Baxter of Las Cruces, N. M., tumbled from the taxi last Friday as it rounded a corner in downtown Houston.

Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Starks saw the box fall to the street, and they took it home where they placed it under a bed for safekeeping. They did not open the bag and never knew it contained the jewelry and valuable fur coat.

However, the accident had a happy ending. The Starks left their address with a Southern Pacific station agent. Police informed the surprised couple they had a good size fortune in valuables under their bed.

Pioneer West Texas Rancher Succumbs

SAN ANGELO, Feb. 16. (AP)—Funeral services will be held here Wednesday for A. A. McGill, 93, credited with bringing the first safe, first waterworks and first hearse to Tom Green county.

The pioneer West Texas rancher man died at his home here yesterday after an extended illness.

McGill came to Texas 69 years ago. He was a native of West Virginia.

He financed the building of the original schoolhouse in the McGill district west of here and the present McGill district was named for him.

Survivors include his wife, five sons and three daughters.

Conditional Pardons Granted By Jester

AUSTIN, Feb. 16 (U.P.) — Three men convicted of murder, including one serving a life term, were granted conditional pardons today by Gov. Beauford H. Jester.

Walter Lee Clark, sentenced to life on July 22, 1935 by the Live Oak county district court, was granted a conditional pardon to Harris county. He has been free on reprieves since Sept. 21, 1944.

A second man pardoned to Harris county was F. H. Bates, sentenced in Lamar county district court Jan. 4, 1926 to a 99-year sentence. He was credited with serving 37 years and four months, and has been on reprieve since Sept. 30, 1946.

Both pardons were recommended by the Harris county parole board.

The governor also issued a conditional pardon to Bryant Harley, sentenced by Harris county district court Jan. 17, 1942 to serve 15 years on conviction of murder. He has been on reprieve since Oct. 8, 1945, and was pardoned to McClennan county.

WT-NM Salary Limit Is Raised, Schedule Adopted

LUBBOCK EVENING JOURNAL
SPORTS
PAGE EIGHT, LUBBOCK, TEX. MONDAY, FEBRUARY 16, 1948

Down-in-the-ranks West Texas-New Mexico Baseball league players are going to make a little more in the way of salaries this season, and the clubs are going to have one more man to call on in a pinch.

League club owners, officials and managers, in meeting at the Hilton hotel here yesterday raised the individual clubs' player limit from 15 to 16, and increased the per-month-pay for the 16 from $2,800 to $3,200.

Schedule Adopted

The 1947 league schedule, which President Milton Price said would work out very well for the clubs again this season, was adopted and will be released Feb. 22. With a few exceptions the schedule will require little change.

League play will get under way on Wednesday, April 21 this year and close Monday, Sept. 6. In 1947 the clubs went into action on April 23 and finished Sept. 7. They play the regulation 140 games in 139 days this season where they crowded the 140 into 138 last year.

By resolution drawn by President Price the league paid lasting tribute to the late Sam Rosenthal as a pioneer, a great driving power, and a powerful influence in not only creation of the league, but its elevation to the limelight in the Class C baseball realm.

Hubber Skipper Introduced

Approximately 50 persons attended the six-hour annual session during which Larry Larsen was introduced as general manager of the Lubbock Hubbers. Accompanying Larsen and Mrs. Rosenthal to the meeting was George Schepps, president of the Dallas Rebels, and the man credited with securing Larsen from the office of his father-in-law, George Trautman, on seven months leave to help Mrs. Rosenthal in operation of the club.

The Hubbers open their 1948 home schedule against Clovis on April 21. The two teams tangle the next day, and Albuquerque arrives here for two games on the 23 and 24. The Hubbers play their first road games at Clovis on April 25-26.

Proposal to set the per-month-pay limit, exclusive of the manager, at first, $3,400, which is the maximum set by the national association, and then at $3,000 were voted down. Then Dr. M. C. Kimball of the Borger club offered the motion for $3,200, and it was seconded by Lubbock.

Vice President Named

R. L. Edmondson, veteran of Pampa baseball activities for more than a quarter of a century, was elected a vice president to replace Dr. S. Z. Frazier of Lamesa who has sold his interest in that club to Dan Y. Davis who also was introduced to the baseball leaders during the session.

The West Texas-New Mexico group leaned rather heavily on the veteran Schepps, putting him in an advisory capacity, and he responded in his inimitable way.

On one occasion Schepps failed to come through with his usual quick straight-from-the-shoulder-from-experience suggestion. Albuquerque's Cy Fausett wanted the league to award both a pennant and a governor's cup to take some of the emptiness out of playoffs for teams winning over the regular run only to fall out in the playoff. Nothing was done about it, and Schepps frankly admitted he couldn't say if that plan, or present procedure, was best.

The group was guest of Mrs. Rosenthal at a luncheon in the Hilton.

Conference On Rules

The league also voted to hold a conference for study of national association rules and policies in Amarillo about March 15, and reaffirmed Abilene's award of the all-star game on which no date was set.

The clubs were told they would have to prune their rosters to the 16 limit by midnight, May 5, that the clubs can carry as many as 19 players through the first 15 days, and that the salary limit doesn't apply over that period.

Mrs. Rosenthan, Larsen and Field Manager Jackie Sullivan, also present, said the Hubbers would go into training with the Dallas Rebels in Dallas March 8 and remain there until April 1. On their way home they will meet Borger in San Angelo April 3. Other exhibition games slated include: April 4, Pampa here; April 5, Odessa here; April 9, New York Giants play the Cleveland Indians at Hubber park; April 11, Amarillo here; April 13, Borger here; April 16, Pampa here; April 17, Amarillo there; April 18, Borger here.

Clovis Opens Here

Opening day this year finds Albuquerque at Lamesa; Borger at Pampa; Amarillo at Abilene, and Clovis here.

Among those attending the meeting were: Howard Green, Dr. J. P. Bridges and Bill Chick, all of Abilene; Bob Seeds, E. C. Quigley, George Locke and Putt Powell, all of Amarillo; Dr. M. C. Kimbell, Larry Gilchrist and Jimmy Bullock, all of Borger; J. Harry Wilson and R. J. Schoanig, both of Clovis; H. G. Fausett of Albuquerque; R. L. Edmondson, sr., R. L. Edmondson, jr., Grover Seitz, Bill Behrman and Frank Stalling, all of Pampa; Dan Y. Davis, George Sturdivant, Ross Woodson, Jack Wilcox and I. B. Palmer, all of Lamesa; E. T. Ensey and M. T. Woodward, both of Odessa, and Mrs. Rosenthal, Larsen, Schepps, Sullivan, Royce Mills, W. D. Girand, C. W. Ratliff, Paul Faulkner, Sylvan Skibell and Bob Cone, all of Lubbock.

The managerial lineup for the clubs for the 1948 campaign is: Lubbock, Jackie Sullivan; Amarillo, Buck Fausett; Clovis, John Bottarini; Albuquerque, Herschel Martin; Pampa, Grover Seitz; Abilene, manager to be named; Lamesa, George Sturdivant, and Borger, manager to be selected.

S'West Basketball Heads For Climax

(By The Associated Press)

The Southwest conference basketball race heads toward its climax with Baylor riding high in the driver's seat.

The Bears took over sole possession of first place last week by defeating the University of Texas, 48-39. The victory also stretched their undefeated streak in conference play to nine straight games.

Southern Methodist university plays host to the smooth Baylor five tomorrow night in Dallas. And if the Mustangs can't stop Baylor, just two other teams have an opportunity to try: Texas and Texas Christian.

Texas starts the week's schedule against Rice tonight at Austin. Friday and Saturday it meets Arkansas in Fayetteville.

The Longhorns have a tough task to retain a chance at the title or at least a share of it.

Armed And Assault To Tangle Saturday

MIAMI, Fla., Feb. 16 (AP)—Two of the nation's outstanding thoroughbreds—Armed and Assault—are scheduled to resume an old rivalry at Hialeah race course Saturday in the $50,000 Widener classic.

A questions mark hangs over the long heralded dematch of the two champions, Armed, second ranking money earner of all time and Assault, third on the golden list.

The question mark is Armed.

Like the mighty Casey, Armed has struck out the last three times at bat.

Last Saturday the golden gelding finished third in the McClennan handicap, a length bheind Al Mono and Riskalater. In two previous outings he failed to score a victory.

Assault, which arrived here recently from Columbia, S. C., made a successful 1948 debut by winning a seven-furlong sprint by a head.

Academy Announces "Oscar" Nominees

HOLLYWOOD, Feb. 16. (AP)—Four American films and one British production were nominated Sunday for the best picture award of 1947 by the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences.

"Great Expectations" was the English film named. The American candidates for the coveted "Oscar" are "The Bishop's Wife," "Crossfire," "Gentlemen's Agreement," and 'Miracle on 34th Street."

For the acting Oscars, Ronald Colman, John Garfield, Gregory Peck, William Powell and Michael Redgrave were nominated among leading men, and Joan Crawford, Susan Hayward, Dorothy McGuire, Rosalind Russell and Loretta Young, cited for best performance by an actress.

Lone Star Loop Play Will Begin April 20

BRYAN, Feb. 16. (AP)—The Lone Star league will open April 20 and the schedule will close Sept. 6, directors decided at a meeting here yesterday. Adoption of the schedule was the main item of business.

Between ... The Lines

— By JOE KELLY —

FORT WORTH, Feb. 14—This is a story of a fighter, a fighter with more courage and sheer intestinal fortitude than you will find in the most thrilling story by Horatio Alger.

Frank Telles of Fabens, the 20-year-old Texas Tech student, probably brought the greatest thrill to the Lubbock team that it will get in the tournament. For, even though he lost his only fight, he won something that called for the greatest amount of courage, self discipline and determination.

Frank was born on May 11, 1927, in Fabens, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Andres Telles. Mr. Telles operates a cotton farm and, like many farmers, had lean years along with the good. In addition, there were two brothers and three sisters to clothe and feed, so that Frank learned early to prepare for a fight.

Frank was stationed in California, where he had once worked for a short time in the shipyards. There he followed up his interest in boxing, although he didn't have enough experience to make a team. He sparred at lot, but didn't try to go against the trained fighters in the Navy.

Sixteen months after entering the service, he was discharged and returned to Tech, where he switched from the liberal arts to the engineering department. As a result, he today is a sophomore in college, but a freshman in the engineering department.

Frank's ambition to become a fighter, which had been with him ever since he was a kid, finally made it possible for him to get into the Golden Gloves at Lubbock, even though he still lacked experience.

He signed up, the first time he had been able to get into the Golden mitt classic, and began to work out at Tech on his own. An unknown, he was ignored when the fighters were discussed.

College work had trimmed Telles down from the 165 pounds he weighed in the Navy, to a trim 147¾, which is what he registered when the fighters tipped the scales for the Lubbock fights. This was low enough to put him in the welterweight division, where the heaviest action was to take place.

The youngest Telles boy lived a normal life, attending the Fabens schools and getting a sound training for later life. He began to come into his own in high school, going out for athletic teams and making good.

He earned double letters in football and basketball, while also participating in tracks, where, because there was no opposition, letters were not given.

Telles, weighing between 154 and 158, became a star halfback on the gridiron crew, running from the left side of the backfield. The same story was repeated on the cage club, where he worked from a forward position. In track he ran the half mile and all three sports built a strong body.

He left the school corridors in 1944 and that fall entered Texas Tech as a freshman, but made no effort to go out for sports. He spent one year in the Hub City college, then answered a call from Uncle Sam and went into the Navy.

Telles opened impressively, chilling Billy Mills, the defending champion, in the second round with a dynamite-laden right. Still not taken too seriously, he was paired with the leather-swinging puncher from Petersburg, Clarence Byrd, and the wise boys said that this was where Telles would go out.

Instead, the Fabens boy didn't even wait until the second round, Bo Sexton stopping the fight in the first canto after Byrd had kissed the canvas four times from rights that came from nowhere and exploded with a pop audible over the roar of the crowd.

This set the stage for his championship bout with Earl C. Pollard, a classy fighter marked as the division favorite. The meeting was a good one, but Pollard outpointed Telles with a clever exhibition of fancy boxing.

Bert Kahn, the professional trainer and boxing expert, was impressed with Telles' southpaw fighting and asked him to fight as a lightweight, and there comes the saga of sacrifice and courage that has thrilled everyone connected with Frank.

The limit of the lightweight class is 135 pounds, with one-pound allowance. Telles weighed 148 pounds. So, 12 pounds had to be taken off the slugger between Thursday and the following Wednesday.

Kahn went to work on Telles on Friday, Feb. 6. He worked him for several practice rounds in his rooms at the National Bank building. After he was sweating heavily, he wrapped him in a blanket and dried him off slowly, then it was a lukewarm shower, a few minutes in the electric sweatbox and an ice cold shower.

But that was supervisor work. What about the self-discipline? When Telles left Kahn's Health center each day, he was on his own. A glass of orange juice with a raw egg broken into it, no water, a piece of dry toast for supper, with a cup of tea, no potato, no steak, no milk, nothing solid.

And Frank obeyed both the spirit and letter of the law. Winning became an obsession. The weight started going from his body. He dropped to 142, 139½, 138 and finally, when the team left Lubbock Tuesday morning, 137.

The Tech boy never opened his mouth in complaint, quietly enduring the process termed "drying-out" by trainers. The diet took off all excess weight, but left him physically able to continue fighting.

Tuesday morning, when Kahn asked him about his strength, Frank finally admitted that he was a little weak. So the next antidote was given, an injection of liver extract by hypodermic needle. Precious strength began to surge through his blood again.

Daily workouts, of course, had been a part of the weight-shedding process and they continued in Fort Worth. Tuesday afternoon he had another light workout, a light supper and plenty of sleep.

Wednesday morning he weighed in and the Lubbock team crowded around the scales. Would he make it? The needle shot up, quivvered, then stood still at 136-pounds. He was in.

Immediately he had a steak, but not too much food and liquid right away. Too much right away would be disastrous. A stiff workout, some food and then rest. He gained back some of his lost weight. Finally he was up to 142.

Friday night he fought a boy taller and with a longer reach, reminiscent of Billy Mills. Weldon Arbuckle won't win the tourney, but he beat Frank. He kept him off with his left and when Frank clubbed him with that damaging right, the old power and strength was not there. He hurt his opponent, but he never was able to hand out that knockout punch. The zing was gone.

Telles felt blue and discouraged after the fight, down in the mouth about losing. But his teammates, and everyone who had been associated with him, felt nothing but pride. Everyone had been pulling for him and in defeat he gained more glory than if he had won. He fought with a heart that was as brave and true as the day is long.

He'll be back next year. Better because of his experience this year. He'll be trained, he'll be ready. He won't be a novice fighting trained men; he'll be a trained boxer with a right hand full of dynamite and a damaging left. The welterweight division had better be at its best, for Frank Telles will be in there giving his all again. No one can ask for more of him after his tremendous display of courage and fortitude.

Two Lubbock Fighters Appear In Golden Gloves Semi-Final

FORT WORTH, Feb. 16 (AP) — Championships will be on the line tonight as the state Golden Gloves fight tournament swings into its climax.

Semi-final bouts will be unreeled first, then victors will return to determine titles in all divisions.

Top bout of the evening apparently will come in the semi-final division of the middleweight class. Defending champion Tommy Barron of Dallas takes on Beaumont's knockout artist, J. W. Blankenship.

Barron put one opponent away in just 54 seconds, while neither of Blankenship's two foes have lasted more than two rounds.

In the heavyweight division, Harris Stageberg, former Iowa football player representing the Beaumont team, was given a new lease on title hopes.

Lufkin Man Ruled Out

L. G. Haak of Lufkin, who defeated Stageberg Saturday, turned up with two broken ribs and was ruled out of further competition by doctors. Stageberg will replace him in the heavyweight lists.

Dallas and Beaumont top the contest for team honors. Each has four fighters remaining in the tournament. Any more victories by Stageberg however, will not count toward the team trophy.

San Antonio, El Paso and Fort Worth each have three men remaining in the tournament.

Semi-Final Pairings

Semi-final pairings tonight:

Flyweights: Fred Morales, 112, Temple, vs. Bobby Johnson, 111, Corpus Christi; Homer Martines, 113, San Antonio, vs. Edward (Bunky) Stephens, 113, Port Arthur (Beaumont region).

Mangrum And Demaret To Tangle In Valley Playoff

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Staff Writer

HARLINGEN, Feb. 16 — Those old Texas boys, Lloyd Mangrum and Jimmy Demaret, who are one-two in the money-winning parade of golf this year, meet today for the championship of the lower Rio Grande valley open tournament. First place pays $2,000 and second $1,400.

Debonair Lloyd and fashion-plate Jimmy battled to a tie for first place yesterday, each registering 269 for the 72 holes. This was 15 strokes below par for the 6,045-yard municipal course. Their play-off today is 18 holes.

Demaret, registering from Ojai, Calif., had 65-64-72-68 for the four rounds and Mangrum from Chicago, 68-65-63-73.

Mangrum Has Trouble

Coming into the last hole, Mangrum appeared to have first money in the bag. Demaret already had finished and Mangrum needed only a par on the 18th to take the title. But his second shot hit on a downgrade in the fairway and in trying to get out Mangrum topped the ball. He had to use another shot to get on the green, where he missed a 12-foot putt. He went one over par.

Playing with Mangrum were Clayton Heafner, from Charlotte, N. C., and Al Smith of Winston-Salem, N. C. On the green Smith had a 15-foot putt that would give him a tie for first. Heafner was farther away—about 30 feet. If he sank his putt he also could deadlock for the top. But both missed their putts, and tied for third place at 270.

Ky Laffoon of St. Andrews, Ill., wound up in fifth spot with 271. In a tie for sixth were John Palmer of Badin, N. C., the pre-tournament favorite, and Cary Middlecoff of Memphis, Tenn., with 273 each.

They Name "Czar"

Most of the professionals left today for New Orleans where an open tournament starts Thursday. With them was George Schneiter of Ogden, Utah, the new "czar" of golf. In settling dickering among the pros over the rules of play while they were in the tournament here, the PGA members voted Schneiter full authority to make all decisions with no appeal from his rulings.

At New Orleans, the field will be minus the name of Henry Ransom of Ravinia, Ill., who has been suspended for two weeks by Schneiter for figuring in a fist fight with N. G. Von Nida of Sydney, Australia, during the third round here Saturday. Schneiter said Ransom struck the first blow. The professionals had argued over whether Ransom should take an extra stroke on the first hole because Von Nida said Ransom had swung at the ball before putting.

COPS AUTO RACE TITLE

SAN ANTONIO, Feb. 16 (AP)—Lloy Ruby of Wichita Falls won the Southwestern midget auto racing championship by a narrow margin yesterday.

TEXAS ENTRY WINS

TUCSON, Ariz., Feb. 16 (AP)—Miss Princes, bred by the huge King ranch in Texas, won the world's championship quarter-horse title today.

Ernest Lane's Speedster defeated Miss Bank, owned by D. V. Land of El Paso, Texas, and Pelican, owned by Roy Gill, Tucson.
