IDEAL OPENING HUGE SUCCESS

MANY VISIT STORE OPENING DAY: 2,000 PACKAGES FOODS GIVEN AWAY: 1,516 SALES SATURDAY

Hundreds of people of Perryton and vicinity took advantage of the invitation of the Ideal Food Store to visit its spacious new building Friday and Saturday. A record was not kept of visitors for the two days, but a check of the company's cash registers showed that 1,516 orders of merchandise were sold Saturday.

Some 2,000 packages of twelve or fifteen varieties of food products were given away between Friday noon and Saturday evening, according to manager C. D. Freeman. Hundreds of toy balloons were given to the kiddies.

That all orders might be checked promptly and customers otherwise served efficiently, fifteen men were used in the store Saturday. Five are employed regularly.

Visitors were enthusiastic in their praise of the modern building, the new fixtures and arrangement.

Social Security Pays

Twenty-Two Applications Filed For Lump-Sum Payments At Dallas Office

Dallas, Texas—Twenty-two applications for lump-sum payments under old-age benefit provisions of the Social Security Act have been filed with the Dallas office of the Social Security Board since January 1, it was announced by Ernest L. Tutt, manager of the Dallas district office.

Tutt explained that lump-sum benefits are payable now to workers in covered employments who have reached age 65 since January 1, 1937. Death benefit payments are payable to estates of deceased workers who received wages from covered employments after December 31, 1936. Payments amount to 3 1/2% of the wages received by the worker since December 31, 1936, and before he attains age 65 or dies.

"Thirteen of the twenty-two claims already filed originated in Dallas," Tutt said, "two came from Greenville, and one each from Sherman, Bridgeport, Forney, Palestine, Wylie, Spearman, and Grand Prairie."

Tutt urged all persons who believe themselves eligible to file a claim for a lump-sum benefit to communicate with the Dallas office of the Board, located in Room 1530, Allen Building.

AMARILLO TRI-STATE RACES

TRI-STATE FAIR WILL OPEN ITS SPRING MEET MAY 19; CONTINUES THROUGH MAY 29TH

Amarillo, May 13 (Special)—Better horses, a better track, and a lower admittance price to the grandstand will feature what may be the last legal horse race in Amarillo.

The Tri-State Fair's Spring Meeting will be held here May 19 through the 29th, Sunday excluded. The possibility that the state of Texas will outlaw horse racing this summer is being met with pro and con arguments, but the Tri-State Fair Association is taking no part in the controversy.

"We are spending our time improving our track, planning bigger and better meetings, and working constantly toward refinement to do our best to put this great sport on a clean, honest basis," said Mason King, Racing Director.

Famed throughout the country as one of the leading tracks in the matter of fair play for all concerned, the Tri-State's Spring Meeting this year will boast its greatest entry list of thoroughbreds.

Thoroughbreds which have been consistently good performers at Arlington Downs and other major tracks will run at Amarillo. Reason for this shipping of fine stables to the Tri-State is because horse owners find the meeting a perfect fill-in between major meetings.

The track is in perfect condition. Trainers are sending their horses through daily workouts.

Admittance price for grandstand seats will be 40 cents for this meeting. Tri-State officials decided last week. Previously, the price had been advertised as 50 cents.

An offer of the company to pay $10 in free groceries to the customer offering the best slogan for the store is attracting attention. This offer closes Saturday night, May 14.

Miss Pauline Flowers had her tonsils removed at the Perryton hospital Monday.

Local Produce Robbed

Jack Todd's Produce is Broken Into Friday Night and Twelve Chickens Taken

Jack Todd's Produce Co. was reported to have been broken into and robbed Friday night. Twelve large hens were taken from the coops and about three-hundred light leghorns were turned loose. Entrance to the building was gained by tearing away the wire on one of the north doors used for ventilating purposes.

This was the third business house burglarized in as many weeks with the strong probability that all three crimes were committed by the same person or persons. It is hoped that they will be apprehended if another attempt is made.

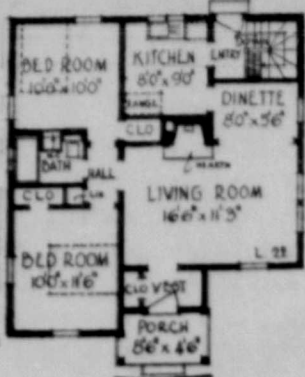

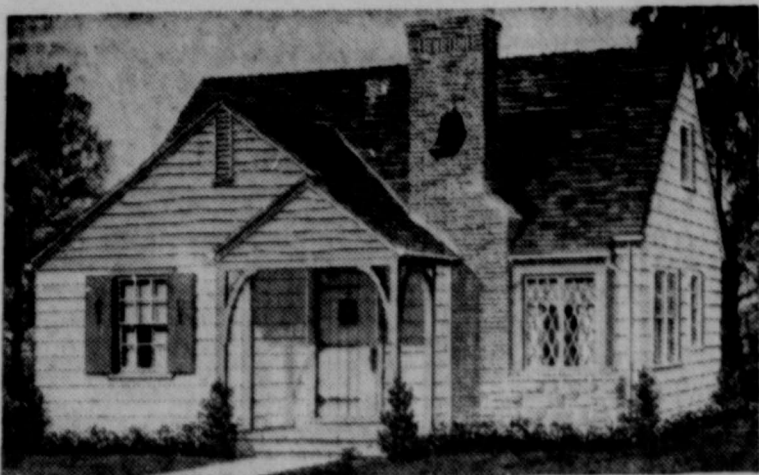

Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Hurn spent Mothers Day in the L. D. Hurn home, Higgins.

EROSION FILM BEING MADE

ACTUAL WORK BEGUN ON FILM DEPICTING WIND EROSION AND ITS EFFECT ON THE SOUTH PLAINS

Amarillo, Texas.—The story of the battle against wind erosion in the Southern Great Plains region is to be depicted in a motion picture to be released by the Department of Agriculture throughout the country this winter.

Actual work on the picture has been started by Gordon Zimmerman, in charge of press and radio, and Reed N. Haythorne, in charge of motion pictures, with the Soil Conservation Service in Washington.

The picture will show wind erosion conditions now existing in the Southern Great Plains region, methods of control now in practice, and the results being obtained under the Soil Conservation Service program.

In depicting conditions, scenes are being taken to show how drifting soil is damaging the farm lands. In presenting methods of soil conservation, scenes will show how grass growth on range lands and the maintenance of stubble on fields prevent wind erosion, and also the value of strip cropping, contour furrowing, stock water ponds, and tree windbreaks. Scenes of fields during the harvest seasons and of pasture lands after the grass growth has been attained will be used to show results obtained through conservation practices.

Scenes from the Panhandle of Texas and Oklahoma, southwest Kansas, eastern Colorado and eastern New Mexico, which compose Region Six of the Soil Conservation Service, will be included in the production.

Harvest scenes of wheat, cotton, corn, grain sorghums and other crops will be taken during the seasons.

When completed around January 1, 1938, the motion picture will be made available through the Department of Agriculture for presentation to interested groups or organizations throughout the country.

Uncle Jim Says

"Grasses and legumes check costly soil losses and help provide cheap feed for livestock."

Texas farmers have learned that soil losses on minor slopes can be prevented by cover crops or by reversing the crop land on such slopes to pastures.

Legumes take nitrogen from the air and make it available in the soil for subsequent crops. Legumes are high in protein and minerals; when livestock have access to legumes, a saving in grain and protein supplement necessary to balance the ration is usually realized.

Many of the clovers have an excellent physical effect on the soil in that their roots penetrate to unusual depths and loosen up the subsoil. One of the direct benefits of this action is that the soil can absorb and store more moisture.

The farmers of Texas are using more legumes. The 1930 census figures show that 394,555 acres were devoted to legumes in 1929; while the 1935 census figures list 773,783 acres of legumes in 1934. The past year saw Texas farmers, in compliance with the Agricultural Conservation Program, plant 1,776,868 acres to legumes.

Pastures which contain a combination of legumes and grasses provide a longer period of grazing and a more balanced ration for livestock; tend to check erosions and soil losses; and build up the soil by adding humus and nitrogen.

The Agricultural Conservation Program contains provisions for carrying part of the financial burden of conservation practices, and offers aid to farmers in the task of improving and maintaining soil fertility.

Hobbs Buys New Well

Former Perryton Man Buys Oil Lease From Straus-Allen Oil Company
L. S. Hobbs, Panhandle independent oil operator, last week completed the purchase of the Straus-Allen Oil Company lease on the east half of the southeast quarter of section 87 block B-2, H&GN survey, Gray County.
There is one light producing well on the lease which Hobbs plans to clean out and deepen. He also plans further development of the tract.
This well was drilled in 1928 and has been on production steadily since that time. It is a small producer at this time but it is in the dolomite pay and reconditioning it may increase the production considerably. It was the first dolomite well drilled in that part of Gray County.—Amarillo News.

CHURCHES

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

"Mortals and Immortals" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist on Sunday, May 16.
The Golden Text is: "They that are in the flesh cannot please God. But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you" (Romans 8:8,9).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following passage from the Bible: "Know ye that the Lord he is God: it is he that hath made us, and not we ourselves; we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture" (Psalms 100:3).

The Lesson-Sermon includes also the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Immortal man was and is God's image or idea, even the infinite expression of infinite Mind, and immortal man is coexistent and coeternal with that Mind" (page 336).

Too Dry to Raise Wheat but not for Taxes

While the weather is too dry to raise wheat the "drys" are raising the taxes. During the last three years they have called two elections at a cost to the taxpayers of Ochiltree County of about $500.00.

After the last election they hired a "highpowered" lawyer to help our county attorney fight the contest the "wets" had filed for which it is said they promised him $500.00 out of the county funds. Then they carried the case to a higher court for which there is no telling how much the mangled and pressed taxpayer will be held up for.

"Believe it or not" but it seems to me that a few of these radical "drys" could serve society and their Spiritual selves better by looking for "beams" to extract at home instead of putting in overtime picking splinters abroad; take stock of their own affairs and put their house in order instead of trying to close up the business of one who, by long hard hours and rigid economy is trying to make a living, pay interest and inflated taxes and serve his fellowman with 10c Hamburgers for a Jitney and 15c beer for a thin dime.

Just why these "drys" seem to delight in raising the taxes time and again and are so set on taking the sale of the beverage off of main street (because it is called beer) and distribute it to the alleys and residences is beyond the grasp of my simple mind. While the licensed dealers are handling legalized beer which the government held non-intoxicating the alley and residence merchants would manufacture and put on sale what is known as "Homebrew" with a real "kick" in it and where the law would find it hard to keep a check on.

SENIOR CLASS PRESENT PLAY

FOURTEEN SENIORS APPEAR IN
"CINDERELLA ROSE" AT SCHOOL BLDG. TUES.
EVE. MAY 18

The senior class is presenting their play "Cinderella Rose", May 18, at the high school auditorium. Perhaps you have seen several plays or other entertainment at the high school auditorium this year that proved very enjoyable to you but the senior play is the play of the year. It is a ten dollar royalty play published by the Walter H. Baker company. The cast consists of the most talented members of the senior class.

The characters are as follows: Cinderella Rose, who is really pretty but appears unattractive and comical because of her clothes and makeup; Imogene Howlett; Alayne, a very pretty girl who is rather selfish and spoiled; Helen Tallman; Uncle Hiram Higgins, a comical looking old man about sixty who is very stingy but good-natured; Harold Hudson; Aunt Cassie Higgins, a sharp-tongued woman, fifty years old, with a singing "Complex"; Vivian Rogers; Bob Shannon, an amateur song writer and very likeable fellow; Lee Kent; Ted Shannon, football star of Cameron College and very good-looking; Clyde Jones; Sammy Simms, a happy-go-lucky freshman; Tom Patton; Angelina Hobbs, a mischievous little girl who lives next door; Sybil Apple; Mrs. Hobbs, her long-suffering mother; Mildred Brillhart; Genevieve Svenson, a Swede cook who is looking for a sweetheart; Idylla Nelson; the ice-man, Wamon Pittman; and the messenger boy, Billy Tindle.

Perhaps a short sketch of the story would make you interested. Rose Higgins a homely girl lives with her aunt and uncle and their lovely daughter. Rose is mistreated continually and because she is in love with Ted Shannon, the college football hero, and the sweetheart of Alayne, her cousin, she revolts.

What happens when she sets her foot down? Well there's a revolution. Aunt Cassie turns to a chunk of ice. A Swedish maiden appears. Twenty-thousand dollars is inherited. By whom? Come and find out on Tuesday night, May 18, 1937, at the high school auditorium.

GIRL SCOUT NEWS

The Tumble Weed and Frog patrols of Troop 1 have met four times. We have planned and had one sunrise breakfast and hike and we are planning another. Saturday morning we put out May baskets. We are going to fix the Scout Garden. Each girl has drawings for two plots which she will be responsible for.

We invite any girls to join our troop that are close to the age of 15 or over.

Twenty-two Scouts belonging to Troop sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary, met at their home in the Legion Hall Friday afternoon, for a lively session. The leaders, Mrs. J. M. Jackson and Miss Eugenia Mitchell, were present.

Four patrols were organized, candy made and work done on the individual flower beds.

The meeting for next week will be held Thursday afternoon, 3:30 o'clock, due to school picnics on Friday.

REV. McCUNG TO ADDRESS JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL CLASS

MEET THE SENIORS

Miss Belle Marie Wright was born at Beaver, Oklahoma, May 1, 1919. She has brown hair and eyes. Her ambition is to be a Home Economic teacher. She intends to attend Hardin-Simmons University at Abilene. Her favorite sport is football and her hobby is collecting recipes. Her favorite dish is cherry pie a la mode.

Benjamin Franklin Crum was born at Perry, Oklahoma, June 19, 1918. He is five feet, eleven and one half inches tall. He weighs one hundred and sixty pounds. He has grey eyes and brown hair. Ben wishes everyone to know that he is not green but that he is graduating a year late because he took off one year to see the world. His favorite food is strawberry-short-cake with an overwhelming majority of strawberries. Ben likes them for dessert after a fresh mountain trout dinner for the major course. His favorite sports are swimming, kodaking, hunting, and taking his girl horseback riding. His favorite pastime is telling jokes over—they can't get the point the first time. The height of his ambition is to inherit, or maybe buy Major Bowes' job. He would be satisfied in offering him a stiff competition. His byword is—"Good-Bye."

ZI BETA CLUB

As we had our last club meeting Thursday, I am taking the privilege of speaking for the whole club to thank the business men of our town for giving their valuable time to help our club. Several business men have cooperated with us to the greatest extent. Each and every member of the club is sorry from the depths of his heart about the accident that happened in Amarillo several days ago. Mr. Roberts helped us in many ways.

The club will continue next year to extend the work it has started this year. Due to insufficient time, we have not accomplished this last semester as much as we had hoped to do.

The club takes this opportunity of thanking Mr. Bush for his helping us in every extent. By his help and the cooperation of the business men of Perryton the club has been able to take trips and examine and watch the working parts of the airplanes.

GIRLS GLEE CLUB

The girls glee club has been practicing on a few numbers to be given in chapel, May 13. Some of the numbers they have been learning are: "Smiles," "Anchors Aweigh," "Bells of St. Mary's," "Moonlight and Shadows," and "When My Dream Boat Comes Home."

Since other activities have intervened, the glee club has not met for several days.

Mothers Honored

The first year Home Economics girls entertained their mothers with a buffet supper, Thursday at 5 o'clock. Four members of the class acted as hostesses. Each guest was given a red rosebud as a favor.

The following guests were present: Mrs. L. W. Austin, Mrs. O. H. Black, Mrs. D. E. Buller, Mrs. Hazel Carlson, Mrs. Ray Chase, Mrs. M. A. Cook, Mrs. S. K. Hill, Mrs. J. Malvin Jackson, Mrs. C. R. Cudd, Mrs. S. B. Lewis, Mrs. Otis McCall, Mrs. Sam Hergert, Mrs. H. R. Russell, Mrs. Irene Janzen, Miss Eugenia Mitchell, Mrs. A. N. Wiebe, Mrs. G. E. Schroeder, Mrs. George Fletcher, Mrs. J. B. Cartwright, Mrs. C. E. McLarty, Mrs. H. H. Balzer, Mrs. H. M. Hawk, Mrs. G. B. Jackson and Mrs. Ray Jennings.

NORTHWESTERN RANGER BAND VISITS PERRYTON

The selections that were played are as follows: "March Heroic," by Holmes; "The Gladiators," by Tuck; "Tannhouser," by Wagner; "Naughty Marietta," by Herbert; "On the Trail" by Grofe. Among the special features on the program was the saxophone quartet and the White sisters trio.

"Don't day dream while driving. Don't cut in an out of traffic. Don't drive in the center of the street."

DRIPPINGS OF THE LEAVES DROPPER

The other day I heard "Queenie" mumbling something. Come to find out she was saying, "Only twenty-four days more until he comes home." I wonder if somewhere in a Military School, a boy, isn't mumbling the same thing.

Leon Morris seems to be giving the senior class queen the rush. He is seen waiting every day, walking home with her.

Virginia Holland was at the show Sunday and it wasn't that Oklahoma Rabbit Twister.

Wamon Pittman and Guy Stewart are up to their old tricks again. You know, that old gag about running out of gas; I think they used the one about the gas line stopping up, Friday night. The nerve of some people's children.

Lillie Mae Hall has a Jewel for a boy friend.

Virginia (the paper seems to be full of Virginia this week, but this is another Virginia) Hogland's pretty brown eyes appeal to that Wilson boy. No es Verdad?

Dean Blank doesn't like week-ends because his girl goes home.

Kathleen Watson has an Oklahoma Rabbit Twister by the ears.

Why do Waldeen Dodson and Wilma Leicht walk to town every day at noon? Could it be that they enjoy two boy's company?

Seems like Irene Wilson has changed from Wheat Belt Quality to Ideal Special.

Is Sybil Apple robbing the cradle or is it a little senior?

Cleo Payne and a boy who played opposite her in a play recently seem to be rehearsing their line.

BEEVER AWARD CHANGED

The Roy Beaver Trophy which has been awarded by the J. C. Beaver family in memory of their son, Roy L. Beaver, has been changed from a purely track award and will, beginning with this year, be awarded to the most outstanding athlete in school for the year. It has formerly been given to the best sprinter on the track team but due to a lack of interest in track work it was decided to make it a general athletic award. The award for this year will be made on the closing night of school, Friday, May 21.

In manager cities the emphasis of the merit system lies in the process of selecting new employees. Municipal employment is, in a sense and should be, a pattern for all employment. Consequently it attracts in manager cities not only those who can serve well but those who only know that steady employment at reasonable hours and pay, and usually accompanied by a pension system, is a great attraction in a stormy economic world. The technical details of the newer manager city charters and of the Model City Charter of the National Municipal League represent the best thought and practice that personnel management in public and private employment has produced.

The Budget

The chart by which the governmental machine is steered through each year is the budget. It is drawn up in tentative form by the manager. He knows the expenditures of each department and bureau for the preceding year. He collects from department heads their ideas about the next year's expenditures. He puts all together and then "cuts and tries" in keeping with the estimated revenue. Then he presents it as a whole to the council. Each member then looks at each item critically from the point of view of a representative of those who must pay the bills and need the service.
The public is always granted special opportunity to make suggestions at "budget hearings." Then, once adopted, it is the sailing chart for a year for each department and bureau unless totally unforeseen circumstances interfere.

In the next article we will deal with the manager as a man and a human being.

POPPY DAY OB- SERVED MAY 29

DISABLED VETERANS RECEIVE EMPLOYMENT MAKING POP-PIES; FUNDS USED IN WELFARE WORK

Poppy Day will be observed in Perryton this year on Saturday,
May 29. Mrs. J. W. Herrell, chairman of the poppy committee of Pierce Johnson Unit of the American Legion Auxiliary, has announced. Extensive preparations for the observance of the day are being made by the Auxiliary women.

"Poppy Day is the day of personal tribute to the men who gave their lives in the nation's defense," explained Mrs. Herrell. On that day everyone can show that they will remember and honor the sacrifices of those who lost their lives in the war. The poppy is their flower, made in their memory by their disabled comrades.

"The American Legion Auxiliary will ask no set price for its poppies.
We want everyone to wear a poppy and to contribute as he is able for the flower. All contributions will be used for the work of the Legion and Auxiliary among the men who lost health and strength in the war, and among the children whose fathers are dead or disabled. The bulk of the money will be expended right here in Perryton."

Making of the poppies has provided employment for many hundreds of disabled men through the winter and spring months. The work not only has enabled them to help support themselves and families, but also has been valuable as occupational therapy. It has been conducted in veteran's hospitals and in special poppy workrooms in every part of the country."

More Mileage to you—
BREAD & BUTTER TO ME

My station is all on its own. My living's got to come mostly from just you people right here. I want your steady trade, so's to build a real growing business. And there's where it helps me a lot, I can tell you, to be selling Conoco Germ Processed oil. You see it makes customers and keeps them for me. It's patented—the only oil that can Oil-Plate your engine. Meaning that a definite part of this oil always fastens direct to every working part . . .
forms a real Plating of oil, which can't run down. Other oils will "dry off" every time you park, but Oil-Plating can't, so you'll never make any hard, grinding starts. And that ends the worst wear of all. Or when you're hitting it up all day, you won't find this real Oil-Plating rubbing right off, like just some plain little drops of oil. Oil-Plating's not thinning out either, nor burning right up. Which gives you mighty solid reasons why Oil-Plating means more mileage from your engine and your Conoco Germ Processed oil.
Besides making customers, I get a kick out of changing you to an oil I can believe in myself, right to the limit.

Another one of those "advertising" salesmen was in Perryton this week preying upon the business and professional men with a crudely fashioned and laid-out form which the promoter referred to as an advertising fan, and solicited "card" advertising for it on the grounds that it was a sound and very timely investment.

It might have been timely advertising, if the item was to be used for a fan, but as to the soundness and profitability of the advertising, we cannot agree with the salesman.

Considering as we do such forms of advertising as this is, is the reason that the Ochiltree County Herald does not even entertain the idea of soliciting advertising of this nature.

We maintain that the policy of this newspaper should be, and we attempt to so conduct it along the lines that we have a commodity of publicity to sell, and keep reselling to the merchants of this city, on the proven facts that legitimate advertising is profitable to the one using it properly.

If we were not permanently located here, expecting the moral and financial support of our business men and readers, we might be tempted to "skin the one who pays" on schemes of this nature. But since we have the interests of the community at heart, we would hate to have to walk up with our hand behind our back to collect for the skinning.

We are not "crying on your shoulder" because someone came in and is taking some publicity money out of town, but we do expect the co-operation of the civic organizations, for the part we play and the actions we take in trying to keep the consumers' money here in Perryton for the benefit of Perryton's merchants and the community in general.

HINTS FOR A NEW HOME

by Mary Talbot

We all love a new home. The biggest thrill in any girl's life, is when she opens the spick-and-span door to the first house that is really hers to have and to hold.

We must admit, though, that there are points we don't like about a new home, too. In the first place, it doesn't look "lived in," the living room presenting a rather starched appearance, and the front hall looking altogether too neat (yes, there is such a thing).

Cultivating a spirit of informality isn't hard. A few of the latest magazines on a little end table, your favorite piece of cherished china or bric-a-brac on the mantel, ash trays carefully scattered about to achieve an air of nonchalance and to please that new partner of yours—and your living room no longer looks like a window in a furniture store.

There are other things besides appearance, too. The breezes that blow in June are not strong enough to remove the olfactory evidences (frankly, odor) of new paint, paste used in wallpapering, the new silencing on radiators, and a dozen other odors that go with anything new, whether it be a house or a dress just back from the cleaners.

We have found a new product, an odorless household deodorant just introduced in drug and department stores, that solves this problem beautifully. A pure white powder, it comes conveniently packed in several different sized cans, ready for making a simple solution.

Spray it in your living room and all through the house twice a day. In an ordinary spray gun, and it will kill that new paint smell, and keep it killed until it has worn off. Simmer it in the kitchen while you're cooking, and the new stove odor will completely disappear. Use it for mopping, for spraying out new closets, and for all those millions of things that will occur to you, whether you want them to or not, after you have spent your first day in the new house. This new product is also different in that it leaves no odor of its own, and many others do.

So—don't apologize—deodorize. Keep your house just the way you would keep yourself right from the start—fresh and dainty, and informal though neat. Then you and the house (the two of you will always be identified with each other, you know) will both be popular until your Golden Anniversary comes along, and after.

TRAFFICSCOPE WARNS ONCOMING MOTORISTS OF APPROACHING CARS

Many automobile accidents occur on the crest of hills, because speeding motorists cannot see oncoming cars on the other side. Engineers often change the road grade to insure safety. Ralph Cooley, former Minnesota highway engineer, solves the problem with his Trafficoscope, which gives drivers a clear view of approaching grade cars invisible under ordinary conditions.

Shelter Belt Survives Drouth

During two of the most severe drouths on record, a portion of the experimental "Shelter Belt" planted by the government three years ago is shown here, in Greer county, near Mangum, Okla. On average 550 of these trees out of every 740 planted in 1933 survived. The shelter belt, extending from Oklahoma to the Dakota, it is hoped, will retard surface drainage and act as windbreaks in the dust area. Ample rain so far this spring is raising hopes that the project will succeed.

Typhoid Fever Evils

This Fever May Be Checked By The Use of Pure Drinking Water and Foods

Austin, Texas—Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, characterized typhoid fever as a National disgrace and an unnecessary evil, while discussing this preventable disease. He said, "Each year about four hundred Texans die of this disease and approximately four thousand are sick with it. The average duration of illness is about six weeks; this means that the disease is responsible for the loss of 168,000 days in Texas each year."

Typhoid vaccine is a harmless solution. This is injected under the skin in the upper part of the arm in three doses, usually at weekly intervals. It ordinarily protects against the disease from two to three years or longer, although one who is definitely exposed to infection should be revaccinated more frequently.

Typhoid fever can be controlled by the use of pure water, pasteurized milk or clean milk, clean foods, proper disposal of sewage, screening against the fly and destroying its breeding places, by search for and care of human carriers, and by the general practice of vaccination.

Certain people, apparently healthy, carry the germs of typhoid in their intestines or urinary tract and cause many cases of typhoid each year through handling food with unwashed hands. They are called typhoid carriers and many cases result from personal contact with these carriers.

In selecting a place for a vacation choose one where you know that the water and milk supply is pure. Be sure that the kitchen and dining room are screened to protect food from flies. When camping it is best to boil water used for drinking, unless you know that it is pure. Clear, sparkling spring water may be polluted by drainage.

ANNOUNCE SCS STATE PROGRAM

PROJECTS WILL BE CONTINUED ON MAINTENANCE BASIS FOR FIVE YEAR PERIOD SAYS FINNELL

Amarillo, Texas May 11.—As Texas farmers gradually assume responsibility for controlling wind and water erosion and for conserving moisture on their land in areas where demonstrations on private lands are being conducted by the Soil Conservation Service in Region Six, these projects will be continued on a "maintenance" basis for approximately five years, according to H. H. Finnell, Regional Conservator.

Active field operations in the entire United States were concluded in 10 areas during the past year and will be concluded in approximately 75 more areas by July 1, 1937. H. H. Bennett, Chief of the Service in Washington, has announced.

Erosion control projects of Region Six in Colorado are located at Black Squirrel, Cherry Creek, Smoky Hill and Springfield. The Black Squirrel project originally was scheduled to go on a maintenance basis on July 1, 1937, but has been granted an extension until 1938. Active field operations on the others will not be completed until after January, 1938.

Under the maintenance program a staff will be retained to complete minor details of work unfinished because of seasonal or other causes. The staff also will assist in making revisions and adjustments in the original cropping and land use plans when necessary, and study the effectiveness of methods being utilized.

More than 550 soil erosion control projects, including ECW project areas, now are being carried forward by the Soil Conservation Service in 43 states.

In many cases, actual work operations on the land can be practically completed within two years. Where this is true, the area is placed on a maintenance basis, and, although responsibilities of the Government do not cease, the work shifts from introduction and application of practices to maintenance. Farmers cooperating with the Soil Conservation Service in the area are expected to assume responsibility for continuing the practices outlined in their cooperative agreements. In carrying on their conservation work they will have, in addition to the assistance of the Soil Conservation Service staff, the aid of the various agricultural agencies cooperating in the program.

In areas where the farmers have voluntarily organized themselves into local soil conservation associations to continue conservation programs, there is assurance that local organizations will assume primary responsibilities for the program and maintain the practices originally outlined. Government activity in these areas will be limited to technical advice and assistance.

In carrying forward its erosion control program on private land, the Soil Conservation Service has entered into cooperative agreements on 1,265 farms of 768,838 acres in Region Six, under which the Service has agreed to furnish farm erosion surveys, technical advice, cropping plans and a limited supply of materials and labor for constructing mechanical devices where necessary, according to Finnell. In turn, the cooperating farmers have agreed to follow the cropping and land use plans over a period of five years and to keep all structures in repair during that period.

TO PLANT TWO MILLION TREES

TWO MILLION TREES ARE TO BE PLANTED IN THE GREAT SOUTHWEST PLAINS THIS SEASON

Amarillo, Texas.—Two million trees and shrubs will be planted in the Southern Great Plains region this season as a part of the program to control wind and water erosion, according to H. D. Peberham forester for the Soil Conservation Service in Region Six.

Plantings already under way, but are being delayed in some areas until more favorable moisture conditions prevail. The planting is being done by the personnel of the twenty-six projects and camps located in the Panhandle of Texas and Oklahoma, southwest Kansas, eastern Colorado, and eastern New Mexico.

Windbreaks for border protection and in some instances planted above the terraces in the fields are receiving much attention. The planting of all trees that conditions will permit are being suggested for border protection where there is sufficient moisture available.

The windbreaks tend to reduce the high velocity of the wind close to the ground, thus curtailing the blowing away of valuable top soil. They also reduce evaporation, and aid in holding moisture in the ground where it can benefit the crops.

Tree site plantings about farm homes are being limited to localities where a wind erosion problem exists. Although no ornamental plantings are made by the Soil Conservation Service, it is pointed out that windbreaks about homes create favorable conditions for the planting of such shrubs and trees which can be obtained from nurseries.

In the area of the Perryton SCS camp, 25,000 trees are being planted this spring, which with previous plantings will run the total for this area up to approximately 100,000.

Only trees that are adapted to semi-arid conditions are being used in the plantings. These include the Chinese elm, the honey locust, and the desert willow, the latter affording protection close to the ground in windbreaks. The black locust also is being used where moisture conditions are favorable. Several other species, including the green ash, Russian olive and Russian mulberry, are being tried out on a small scale.

Trees being planted vary in height from 12 to 24 inches. Three million trees and shrubs were planted in Region Six in 1936, and practically all the trees have more than doubled their height in the one growing season, some species attaining a height of five feet. The mortality rate has been from 15 to 35 per cent, mainly from inferior stock and low vitality when planted.

Muni, Hopkins, Hayward in Sky Drama

The new cycle of romantic dramas with an aviation background gains impetus as "The Woman I Love" takes a place with the major screen opuses of the current season. The co-starring team of Paul Muni and Miriam Hopkins and the featured member of the supporting cast, Louis Hayward, left, form the love triangle, with Muni and Hayward a "team of death" flying over No-man's-land as members of a war time French observation squadron and the two in a cockpit loving the same woman. The crisis comes as Muni and Hayward roar over the front at the second battle of the Marne, the while the one they love awaits behind the lines with fear and hope in her heart. Produced on an imposing scale and revealing in a tensely thrilling manner the innermost thoughts of men in the turmoil of war as well as presenting vivid action scenes and colorful sets behind the lines, "The Woman I Love" offers ideal roles for the principals, the three of whom have appeared in a number of recent outstanding successes. At Ellis Theatre, Thursday and Friday, May 20 and 21.

MANY BENEFITS DERIVED FROM THE MEMORIAL POPPY PROGRAM

The poppy, that little red flower from "among the crosses row on row," which Americans wear each year to honor the World War dead, has become an important means of alleviating the sufferings resulting from the war, according to Mrs. J. W. Herrell, poppy chairman of the Pierre Johnson Unit of the American Legion Auxiliary, who is directing arrangements for observance of Poppy Day here, May 29.

From the poppy each year the American Legion Auxiliary raises approximately $1,000,000 for the relief and rehabilitation of disabled veterans, and for the care of fatherless children of veterans. Mrs. Herrell explained. This money forms the principal support of the vast rehabilitation and child welfare program carried out constantly by the Auxiliary in cooperation with The American Legion.

Women in almost every city and town in the United States take part in the memorial poppy program. The American Legion Auxiliary, with its 425,000 members and 9,000 local units, sponsors the work, aided by women and girls from other groups. Last year nearly 10,000,000 of the little flowers were distributed and this year the number is expected to increase to 12,000,000.

Benefits to the disabled veterans begin long in advance of the distribution of the poppies on Poppy Day. Many hundreds receive employment in making the millions of little crepe paper flowers. Manufacture is started early in the winter and continues through the spring. This year poppies were made for the Auxiliary in 65 veterans' hospitals and poppy workrooms located in 40 different states.

Making of the poppies is directed by the state organizations of the Auxiliary and coordinated through the national organization. The number each man is permitted to make in one day is limited to prevent overtaxing of strength and to spread the work among as many men as possible. The work is a God-send to the veterans employed, who receive little or no government compensation, meaning an opportunity to help support their families or to save a little money for the day when they leave the hospital and begin the difficult struggle to make a fresh start in life.

The mental diversion of making the poppies has been found an excellent way to steady the nerves and occupy the minds of hospital patients. The comforting thought that they are earning money again, often for the first time in years, is of tremendous value to many of these men. Pride of workmanship is taken, with the knowledge that the flowers are to be worn in honor of comrades who died in France.

The idea of the poppy as the memorial flower for the World War dead sprang from Colonel John McCrea's poem, "Flanders Fields," written at the battle front shortly before his death. It was first brought forward in the United States by Miss Moira Michael, of Atlanta, Georgia, who was serving on the staff of the Y. M. C. A. overseas headquarters in New York City. On November 9, 1918, after reading Colonel McCrea's poem, Miss Michael bought and distributed silk poppies to the men attending a Y. M. C. A. conference.

After the Armistice the poppy idea spread rapidly. Poppies were distributed on the streets of Milwaukee during the homecoming of the 32nd Division in June, 1919, and again on Memorial Day of 1920. In August 1920, the Georgia Department of The American Legion adopted the poppy as a memorial flower, and the national convention of the Legion in Cleveland the following month made the poppy the Legion's national memorial flower. The American Legion Auxiliary officially adopted the poppy as its memorial flower at its first national convention in Kansas City in 1921. The poppy is also the memorial flower of the British Legion.

"SHALL WE DANCE" AT ELLIS SUNDAY-MONDAY; STARS, FRED ASTAIRE AND GINGER ROGERS

Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers have topped all their previous efforts in "Shall We Dance," their latest RKO film, which opens Sunday at the Ellis Theatre.

Funnier and faster than their earlier pictures, the romantic aspects and the comedy of the new musical have been definitely stressed, making for greater entertainment values, while the songs and the dance novelties that film-goers have learned to expect in the Astaire-Rogers offerings are present in abundance, and brilliantly conceived.

The story itself is a novelty in the team's annals, for it presents the two favorites, not as struggling unknowns, but as "top" celebrities in their respective fields. Astaire as a famous ballet dancer who goes under a Russian name, Miss Rogers as a revue and musical comedy favorite. His siege to her heart runs into hilarious complications.

The sprightly plot is laid against a glittering background of Paris and New York theatrical life, punctuated with tuneful songs composed by George and Ira Gershwin and with eight spectacular dance numbers, two of these featuring America's foremost ballerina, Harriet Hector, and three with the Astaire-Rogers duo at their sparkling best. One of these is a brilliant roller skating number. Astaire offers a remarkable solo dance in the engine room of a giant liner as one of the real highlights of the film. Another novelty is his dance with twenty girls each disguised as Ginger Rogers.

Knitting Is So Engrossing!

It's a ten-to-one bet that Ginger Rogers will not be able to get away with her pretense of pre-occupation in her knitting, for Fred Astaire has seated himself next to her, in this scene from "Shall We Dance," and Fred's pursuit of Ginger—on the screen—is one of the screen's best traditions, and always has one satisfying end—success! The two co-stars are said to be particularly well fitted in this latest hit with a group of entrancing song-and-dance numbers. At Ellis Theatre Sunday and Monday, May 16 and 17.

"The Woman I Love"

Wartime Romance, Featuring Two of Foremost Dramatic Stars at Ellis, May 20-21

A gripping story of wartime romance, two of the foremost dramatic stars of the screen, some of the most exciting scenes of aerial combat ever filmed, the first picture to delve into the minds and the intimate lives of the men who rode those flimsy structures of wood and fabric high above the Western Front—here are some of the features of RKO Radio's newest film triumph, "The Woman I Love." Scheduled to show at Ellis Theatre, Thursday and Friday, May 20-21.

Co-starring Paul Muni and Miriam Hopkins, the offering stresses not the spectacular air feats of wartime flyers, but their human qualities and their loves and friendships under the distractions of war time. This was the basis of the famous novel, "L'Equipage" by Joseph Kessel, from which the picture was taken.

Many pretentious settings were erected during the making of the picture. Several square miles of land at lonely Point Mugu, Calif., were transformed into a French air base and its adjoining shelltown village, on terrain closely resembling the flat countryside near the Marne.

A complete amusement park in Paris, the interior of a big Parisian variety theatre, a chateau in the Champagne country, whole blocks of Paris streets, were also built and "dressed" with appropriate equipment, furniture, vehicles and other properties, many of which, such as the players' uniforms and the wartime posters on the streets and billboards, were imported from France especially for the film.

The air base comprised half a dozen hangars, and a dozen planes, as well as the barracks, mess halls and other structures, and long leveled runways on which the screen pilots set down the fragile ships and took them up again.

Modern planes are far faster and more sensitive to steering than the crude "kites" of 1918—but modern planes to the educated eye, don't resemble their flimsy predecessors, and many air-minded picture-goers have educated eyes for such matters. The planes used in "The Woman I Love" are the real thing—Spads and Voisins and Caudrons, their antiquated motors replaced by newer power-plants to make them more dependable, and perhaps with new fabric over their wooden-spurred wings, but essentially the same unpredictable and erratic craft to which the aces of twenty years ago entrusted their reckless necks.

What is the "Low-price Field"?

YOU hear a lot about "the low-price field" these days. A good many cars claim to be in it. So whenever the low-price field is mentioned, remember:

Until Ford came, no average American could own a car.

Today all Ford prices are still low—with the prices of the 60-horsepower Ford V-8 $30 to $60 lower than those of any other car of comparable size.

But with Ford, "low price" doesn't merely mean low figures on the price tag. It means much more than that. It means low prices and low costs all the car's long life. Low prices for service—for parts—and, above all, for operation.

Both Ford V-8 engine sizes are economical to operate. The 35 horsepower gives greater gasoline mileage this year than ever, and the "60" delivers the highest mileage in Ford history.

Private owners, cab companies, fleet operators all report that the "60" averages from 22 to 27 miles per gallon of gasoline.

Check and see how much Ford saves you.

DUST BOWL—

ment in good state of repair, together with the necessary funds to operate the same until funds are available for payments under the special practice program.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that we endorse the FEDERAL Report entitled "THE FUTURE OF THE GREAT PLAINS", hereby urging that the recommendations therein contained be put immediately into practice.

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that as a temporary aid to make the present special practice program effective, that the funds payable thereunder be made immediately available by local deposit and disbursement to county organizations seeding shall be considered full designated and that listing and compliance for immediate payment.

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that we urge the immediate creation of a dust bowl authority, to be set up within the area of the dust bowl, definitely defined, and under the supervision of a resident assistant secretary of the Department of Agriculture, with adequate appropriations for the promotion of all operations necessary within the area, which shall be continued as a long term practice or until the present drought condition ceases to exist.

And we further urge that the Governors of the Five States appeal to the Federal Government for immediate authority to proceed with defined action in leasing or buying all non-productive cultivated land, retiring same from agricultural use, further urging that all abandoned agricultural land of good fertility "hat has become a menace to the area, be brought under control and peraled to produce cover crops, retain moisture and prevent wind rosin, further controlling grazing and by proper and effective methods, taking such other and further action as may be necessary to bring all lands under control.

WE FURTHER REQUEST that the several Governors pledge their cooperation to the Federal government, that they confer together and endeavor to secure the passage of such state laws as may be necessary to bring about a uniformity of action and permit an efficient federal management regardless of state lines, for the reason that no one part of the dust bowl area can be controlled unless it is all controlled.

Respectfully submitted: Committee on Farm Practices and Legislation.
