Rate Hike Affects Water Customers

Westbrook, Mitchell County Utility Hit

Water users in the Colorado City system felt the pinch of increased service rates this month.

For Colorado City residential users, the water rate increased from $4.50 for the first 3,000 gallons to $6. For 3,000 to 100,000 gallons, 75c is charged per 1,000 gallons. After 100,000 gallons, 70c is charged per 1,000 gallons.

But Colorado City residents were not the only ones hit by the water rate increase.

Major water users within the Colorado City system also have experienced jumps in water bills.

Westbrook Independent School District and Mitchell County Utility, both considered

Saturday Is Blood Drive

A blood drive will be held Saturday (May 19) in the C. C. Thompson Room of City National Bank.

J. W. Hicklin of Root Memorial Hospital said that the blood drive will be to replenish the supply of blood at the hospital.

Hicklin noted that blood contributed will be credited to the hospital.

"We're getting behind in our blood supply and we need some help," said Hicklin.

The blood drive, sponsored by the Ladies Auxiliary of the hospital, will be from 8 a.m. to 10 p.m.

Services Set For Graduates

Loraine School and Westbrook School will hold baccalaureate services today (Sunday).

Baccalaureate services for Loraine High School graduates will begin at 8 p.m. at First Baptist Church of Loraine.

Services for Westbrook eighth grade graduates and senior graduates will be at 8 p.m. in the school auditorium.

major water users, were hit with an increase of about 63 per cent.

Westbrook Independent School District purchases water from the Colorado City system. In turn, the school district supplies water to 23 users. Included in those 23 users is the City of Westbrook.

Ray Mason, city manager of Colorado City, noted that the Westbrook School District is charged $12 for the first 3,000 gallons used and 85c per 1,000 gallons after the minimum. After 97,000 gallons, the charge is 80c per 1,000 gallons.

There are 128 meters which are billed each month by the City of Westbrook. Presently, the base rate is $5 and 75c per 1,000 gallons after the minimum of 3,000 gallons.

Because of the increase charged to the school district, L. M. Dawson, superintendent, noted that rates will have to increase.

Dawson said that he was not expecting the Colorado City rate increase until June, thus the school district has absorbed the rate hike this month, which was about $300.

Dawson has informed the 23 water users on the school water line that the base rate for water will increase 50 per cent.

The base rate will increase from $5 to $7.50. For consumption over the minimum of 3,000 gallons, the rate will increase 60 per cent.

Thus, the charge will be $2 per 1,000 gallons above the base rate.

Gas Supply Decreases While Price Increases

A check of several local gasoline distributors and service stations Friday revealed that so far, area dealers have experienced no severe shortages of the type that have hit California.

Blossingame's Exxon Station on Interstate 20 reported that they had received a shipment of 8,000 gallons on Friday which would last them over the weekend. However, they also said that the price of the fuel had gone up almost every week recently, a fact which consumers are well aware of.

The Exxon station is receiving 80 per cent of last year's allotment. They said that all of the service stations connected with the major oil companies are receiving a specified percentage allotment of what they sold last year. This does not include the independent dealers who may buy as much gasoline as they can afford.

reported that there had been no severe drop in business but that their Sundays had slowed down somewhat.

They said that whereas they had been open from 6:30 a.m. to 8 p.m.

on Sunday, they would now wait until noon to open on Sunday.

They are continuing to remain open from 6:30 a.m. until 8 p.m. on the other days except for Friday when they don't close until 10 p.m.

Frank Conard, a Texaco jobber who supplies gasoline for four area stations, also said that he had had no gasoline shortage thus far. He stated that he was receiving 85 per cent of the gasoline allocated to him last year and he felt real good about keeping an adequate supply.

Conard said that he hadn't had a rise in gasoline prices in two or three weeks but that diesel fuel had gone up 2c per gallon on Thursday.

He added, however, that although the volume of his business had held up, he wasn't making the profit that he had in the past. He said that he thought that gasoline jobbers and dealers had received unfair criticism from people who thought they were making an unreasonable profit when this wasn't the case.

Conard stated that he could raise the prices 5c per gallon more than he has them now and still be within government guidelines.

He also noted that in the past three months his operating expenses had risen $9,000.

Conard admitted that gasoline prices were high but he said that he didn't think they were

My World

By GARRY PEEBLES

I suppose that anyone who writes a column like this has to make himself believe that whatever he is writing is of some value to someone who happens to pick up the paper from his mailbox, his front yard, the newsstand or whatever. He has to delude himself into believing that his composition is wise enough or witty enough for someone to subscribe to the paper for no other reason than to find out what his next immortal lines will be.

The only problem with this is that the columnist doesn't always feel particularly wise or witty unless he happens to be Art Buchwald or Erma Bombeck and I suspect that on rare occasions even they have their off days.

However, judging from what I read in the newspapers (except for the Record, of course) I get the feeling that newspaper columnists aren't the only ones who are frequently lacking in wit and wisdom, especially wisdom, as evidenced by some of the things people do and the abundance of bad news there is these days.

With this thought in mind, I went through a number of newspapers this past week to try and find some news stories that could be called good news.

It was a difficult search and I finally had to settle for some stories which weren't necessarily good news but which didn't involve the latest world crisis.

Perhaps the first story I found is a sign of the times. I'm not sure, but anyway it told of a lady in New York City who was awarded $854,219 by a jury in a lawsuit against her plastic surgeon.

The surgeon misplaced her belly button. According to the woman she had undergone the operation for a "tummy tuck," after the man had promised her "a nice flat belly." Instead she awoke to find that her navel was off center by two inches.

Loraine Continues Trash Discussion

The Loraine City Council, meeting in special session Thursday night, moved a step closer to settling their urgent problem of how to dispose of their local citizen's garbage.

The Loraine councilmembers agreed to go along with a proposal made by the City Council of Colorado City that sanitation workers make a weekly run to Loraine to pick up trash at a cost of $4.50 monthly for each customer. Colorado City customers pay $4 monthly for twice a week trash pick up.

The council also agreed however that negotiations should be made with Colorado City as to some other aspects of the proposed contract such as its length and how the Colorado City workers would handle the garbage generated by Loraine businesses.

The main discussion at the meeting centered around how much of the $4.50 garbage collection fee would actually be paid by the Loraine citizens and how much of it would be absorbed by the city and come out of its tax structure.

Mayor Vance Dickenson made the first proposal that the Loraine customers be charged $2 of the $4.50 and that the city increase its sewer charge for each customer from $2 to $3.

At present, Loraine customers do not pay for their trash collection service. The city is absorbing the entire cost of $1 per customer each month.

Dickenson said that he was reluctant to increase the garbage and sewer fees but said that, "People need to realize that we've got to have more money to operate the city on."

After hearing Dickenson's proposal, councilmember Rev. Fred Witta suggested that the council consider the idea that the city only absorb $1.50 of the $4.50 garbage collection fee and that the remaining $3 be paid by the Loraine citizens.

Witta also suggested that the sewer fee be increased from $2 to $3.

He stated that he had talked to a number of people in Loraine and their attitude had been that if the garbage and sewer collection fee increases were necessary they would be willing to accept it.

Councilmember Mike Stutts stated however that he was very reluctant to go along with any increases because he just couldn't see taking any more money out of the pockets of the elderly people of Loraine.

After further discussion, the council decided to table until its regular meeting the matter of how much of the $4.50 the Loraine customers would have to pay and how much the city itself would absorb.

For a contract to be negotiated with Colorado City for the trash collection, councilmembers felt that several matters would have to be worked out first.

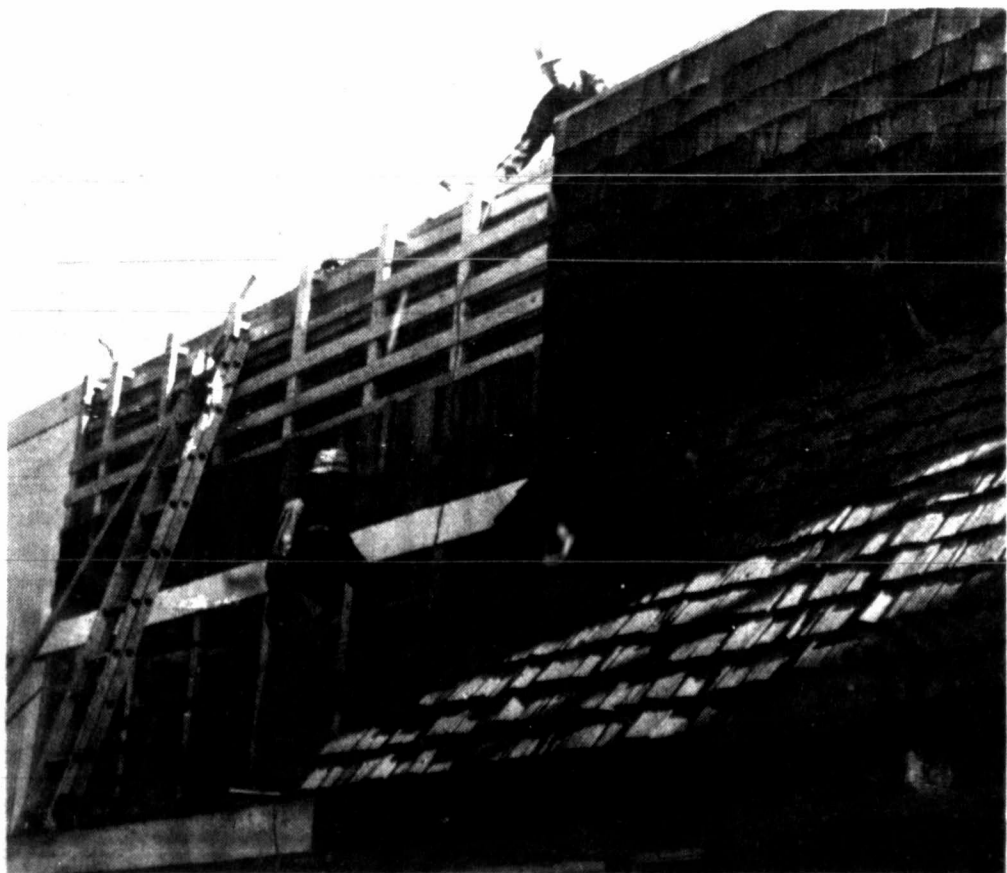

The main item here was how the contract would affect Loraine businesses.

The City Council of Colorado City had said at their last meeting that for their workers to make the run, the trash of all Loraine customers would have to be bagged and placed out in front of their residences near the street.

DR. R. D. BRIDGFORD (right) was one of 41 dentists who received a 50 year award at the 109th annual session of the Texas Dental Association held last week in Austin. Pictured presenting the award to Dr. Bridgford is his son, Dr. Billy Bruce Bridgford. The father and son are in practice together in Colorado City.

REMODELING of the Colorado City Record office has almost been completed as carpenters were working this past week to finish the front decor. Pictured are Doc Ellis, (top of picture), and John Merritt. The remodeling consisted of reworking the former Sanderson Jewelry building so that it could be utilized for newspaper production. Sanderson Jewelry is now located in the former Maniss Supply building just next door to where the jewelry store was located.

The article on Elmer Pickens published in the May 10 edition of the Record contained two errors.

The story also said that his deceased daughter's name was Nancy. The daughter's name was Nelda.

Lewis Finishes Fourth

Colorado High School's three representatives at the state track meet in Austin ran into a difficult time Friday.

J. D. Lewis managed a fourth place finish in the 800 meter run with a time of 1:59.3.

Ricky Sanchez was never able to get going in the 110 meter high hurdle event and finished sixth with a time of 15.4.

Sanchez had also qualified in the 300 intermediate hurdles. He was in third place in that race going over the last hurdle. He tripped on that hurdle, however, fell on the track and finished last.

Ruben Garcia, the defending Class AA state champion in the mile, pulled up lame on the third lap of that race and was unable to finish.

Where Is Your Lord?

Rev. Fred Witta
Pastor First Methodist Church
Loraine

One day as I was driving from one town to another I stopped and picked up a man who indicated that he needed a ride. As we rode along the highway we talked about various things, and when he spoke, his language was colored by quite a few obscenities. He appeared at ease as he spoke, but when he inquired as to what type of work I did and I replied that I was a "Minister of the Gospel," his face turned red and he immediately began to apologize for the language he had used. To this day I equate his attitude as being; when he was in the presence of a minister or the church, he felt that he was in the presence of the Lord, which caused him to feel that at other times he was "per se" not in God's presence. In other words, his God was in specific places, not everywhere.

Now many of us are like that, and if you do not think so, reflect back on how your acts and deeds in church and in the presence of your Pastor differ from your acts and deeds when not there. Certainly, you would not think of displaying the anger with its outbursts of loud language in church, that you engage in at home. Why this reservation, is it not, because we want to put our best sides forward in the presence of the Lord. Indeed we do and so we engage in two rational ways of behavior. We do this over and over again in spite of the fact that the Bible, especially the Gospel Message, makes it quite clear that God is everywhere and that we are to be held accountable for every word we utter and every deed we engage in, whether it is in the presence of the Pastor or in the church or at home or at work or at play. Yes, the Bible tells us that God is everywhere and if we feel that the way we should act in his presence is the way we act in the presence of the minister or in the church building, is it not true then, we should act likewise at home, at work, and at play.

Remember that it was our Lord in his earthly ministry who said "The hour is coming when neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem will you worship the Father for the hour now is when the true worshiper will worship the Father in spirit and truth." Jesus was sent to inform us that this practice of localizing God was wrong, that God was spirit and as spirit was everywhere and that one's acts and deeds, if he or she aspired to an eternal life with God, were to be the same, no matter where he or she happens to be, in church, at home, at work or at play.

members expressed concern as to whether Loraine businesses would be able to bag all of their trash such as their large cardboard boxes. Also since the run will be made only once a week, concern was expressed as to the amount of trash that would accumulate before it was picked up.

The Loraine council members also felt that they should try to negotiate as long a contract with Colorado City as possible to keep the garbage collection rate from increasing.

The thing that brought the question of the garbage collection to the minds of the Loraine Council several weeks ago was an ultimatum by the Texas State Department of Health that the city would either have to dig a new landfill themselves or find another way to dispose of their garbage because the present landfill didn't meet state requirements.

In an appearance before the Loraine Council last week, Ray Mason, City Manager of Colorado City, told them that if they were to decide to dig a new landfill, the initial investment would be about $75,000 and this wouldn't include the purchase of the land.

Mayor Dickenson said Thursday night, that for the present landfill to meet state requirements, it would have to be lined with benzonite which would cost about $1,500 for a 100 foot trench. Dickenson added that besides being too expensive this was out of the question because the present landfill will be completely full within a couple of months.

Colorado City Chamber Of Commerce News

By LARRY WINDERS
The owner of a greenhouse had a gardener who was careful, methodical and a hard worker. In spite of this the plants did not prosper under his care. The owner hired a more experienced gardener. Immediately the plants began to thrive. The first gardener explained what happened; "When I transplanted the flowers, I removed them very carefully from their pots. I disturbed them as little as possible. This new man didn't treat them that way. He was rough with them. He didn't care how much he disturbed their roots. I thought he would ruin the lot, he was so careless in his handling of them." He was silent a moment, then said; "But they are growing." The roots of the plants in the pots were packed tight. The experienced gardener by his apparent roughness, loosened the soil and gave the roots a chance to breathe and stretch. He made growing easier for them by handling them roughly at the start. People handled too gently often fail to prosper. Praise is effective. Gentleness is effective. But there are times when a little shaking up will jar people out of their complacency, will challenge them to make the most of themselves.

We'll Be Happy To Explain Value and Economy For Your Tire Dollar
Every Michelin 'X' tire is backed by a 40,000 mile warranty for tread wear on domestic cars. That's just about twice the mileage you expect from a conventional tire under the same driving conditions. Also, because of its radial design the Michelin 'X' rolls with less road resistance than conventional tires, and that means you can save up to 10% on your present gas consumption (pretty good considering today's fuel crisis.) Plus, every Michelin 'X' tire gives you all the distinctive radial tire advantages over conventional bias-ply tires; smoother ride, easier handling, better traction and firmer road holding. And, they add up to a lot of comfort and safety. Invest in better driving. Stop in and have a set of Michelin 'X' radials installed today.

Joggers To Raise Money For The Heart Association

Many local merchants have "put their money on" a female jogging team composed of Theresa Lain, Beverly Fuller, Hope Fullwood, Judy Powell and Patrice McKinney.

The women will run as far as they can on Saturday for the American Heart Association.

Local merchants and individuals have made monetary pledges per mile run by the female jogging team as well as the male jogging teams.

The event will begin at the lot north of the Villa Restaurant and continue along a five mile route. Participants may quit at any time and transportation will be furnished.

Refreshments will be provided and prizes contributed by local merchants will be awarded.

A grand prize of a portable black and white television will be awarded to the individual turning in the largest contribution.

Chairwoman, Patrice McKinney, states that more participants and sponsors are needed in order to make this event a success.

Since contributions to the Heart Fund from Mitchell County have declined drastically from those in the past a successful drive would be advantageous to Mitchell County because many residents benefit from services funded by the association.

Interested Persons may obtain sponsor sheets from numerous merchants or make contributions by phoning Patrice McKinney at Patrice's Shapin' Up Shop at 728-8474.

Representing the men's team from the Colorado City Wolves will be Mike Beights, Victor Huff, Squeaky Hanks, Kirk Evans, and Scott Cawthron.

Also Ricky Ornelas, Daniel Reyes, David Luera, Fred Salazar and Ruben Garcia.

January sales of Series E & H United States Savings Bonds in Mitchell County were reported today by County Bond Chairman Wayne Shawn to be $2,951.

Frederick, state president of the Mental Health Association.

Since it is not a governmental agency, the association speaks as an advocate for the consumer, representing citizens who need mental health services.

"As citizen advocates, our job is to find out what needs to be done at local, state and national levels and then to work to see that what needs doing is in fact accomplished," said Dick Fredrick.

The Mental Health Association promotes mental health by strongly promoting research into the causes of mental illness and by continuing mental health education programs crucial to preventing mental health problems.

May Is Mental Health Month

Mrs. Rawlin of Westbrook will lead Bellingranger workers in a house-to-house drive during May, Mental Health Month.

"As a voluntary agency, the association works on behalf of the mentally ill and to promote mental health. The association is not a state agency and relies on private contributions such as the money raised by the Bellingranger campaign," said Dick

Happy Family Life Is Important To Children

State Approves Program

A program of highway rehabilitation and improvement involving Mitchell County was approved by the State Highway and Public Transportation Commission.

The program in Mitchell County involves a 0.4 mile section of US 84. The southbound lane of US 84 will be reconstructed and resurfaced from 1 mile northwest of Roscoe to 1 mile south of Hermleigh, which includes the small section in Mitchell County.

The program involving projects across the state will total $238 million. The program includes rehabilitation work, safety improvements and general betterment of US and State Highways and Farm to Market Roads.

A total of 845 projects in 203 counties are involved with more than 72 per cent of the work scheduled for highways. Altogether, the program will result in improvements on 5,253.5 miles of the 71,000-mile state maintained highway network.

Insurance Topic Of Meeting

Mitchell County Commissioners will meet Monday at 1 p.m. to discuss Blue Cross-Blue Shield insurance policies for county employees.

The Commissioners have discussed the matter of insurance at previous meetings. John Snapp, Blue Cross-Blue Shield representative from Abilene, will meet with the Commissioners Monday.

In other business, Brenda Tarter, president of the Mitchell County United Girls Softball Association, will meet with the Commissioners.

As a formality item, the Commissioners will consider approval of the Colorado Independent School District bus routes for next school year.

The meeting will be held at the county courtroom of the Mitchell County Courthouse.

Record elected to print the narrative.)

"A happy stimulating family life is the most important element in a young child's life. The family is the most effective and economical system for fostering and sustaining the development of the child. It makes sense, then, to preserve and support family life and help parents become better mothers and fathers."

"Just as the environment forms the larger world of the child, the family forms the intimate world. From the family come the first opportunities for physical well-being, learning and loving. A family is home—where you first belong, learn who you are. In fact, the family is uniquely equipped for helping make human beings human."

"What is happening to the family? Some say it is falling apart, as evidenced by a declining birth rate, increasing divorces and the demise of the extended family (grandmothers, aunts, etc., who babysit). However, others say no. It is unlikely that a system that has survived for centuries will suddenly disappear. What is more likely is that the family is not dying...it is, however, changing."

"Some data are available in the form of statistics. Statistics are not people—they are only numbers. They cannot convey the pain, the frustration, the despair that many families, particularly children, face because of the changes now taking place."

"I have a few facts concerning those conditions that to me seem alarming:

"The cost of rearing a child to the age of 18 has jumped 50 per cent since 1969. It is now estimated to be $53,605, not including college education."

"One of every five children in Texas lives in poverty."

"Ninety per cent of Texas crime occurs in urban areas where 78 per cent of all Texans live."

"By the time a child reaches 18, he will have spent 15,000 hours watching television, compared to 11,000 hours in school. If he had perfect attendance in Sunday School those 18 years, that would be only 936 hours of Bible study."

"Fifty-four per cent of all mothers with school age children are in the labor force. Overwhelmingly this is because of economic necessity."

"While Texas marriages increased 14 per cent since 1970, divorces increased 60 per cent. Divorce ranks next to death as a traumatic experience for children."

In 1977 divorces affected 81,638 offspring in Texas alone.

"An estimated 4,550 Texas school teachers are assaulted every year."

"In a study of 1,252 children convicted of offenses in Texas, only 4.6 per cent were at the proper grade level in school."

"An estimated 15,604 Texas children will run away from home this year. Three out of five will be females."

"An estimated 79,700 Texas teenagers have an alcohol abuse problem."

"Confirmed cases of child abuse and neglect in Texas tripled in three years. There were 14,685 reported in 1977."

"One of every nine children in the United States lives in Texas. Texas is not only larger and more populated than most states, but its people are relatively young. Five million of the 12 million people who live in Texas are under the age of 18."

"The Associated Press recently reported on a survey designed and sponsored by 'The Foundation For Child Development.' The survey was given to elementary age school children by a large university in the northeast part of the United States. Of the 2,258 children surveyed, 25 per cent of 565 stated they were afraid to go

No Dividends On Lapsed GI Policies

Texas veterans who have been led to believe they are entitled to receive an insurance dividend on lapsed World War II GI insurance policies are being notified they are not.

The only dividend that the Veterans Administration pays is on insurance policies that are still in force from World War II and the Korean Conflict, Jack Coker, Waco VA Regional Office Director, said.

VA is receiving many calls weekly from veterans who have been deceived into expecting dividends on GI insurance that was allowed to lapse years ago.

Coker said the hoax comes up each year in various parts of the country as a result of news stories and reprints of phony application forms which appear in many publications throughout the U.S.

Coker said VA has been paying dividends on policies in force as announced each year and the dividend is paid on the anniversary date of the policy.

There is no need for veterans to contact VA for these payments.

outdoors to play and 66 and two-third per cent (1,505) feared that someone would break into their home to harm them. Can you imagine living in that kind of environment? My own children have complimented their mother and me by saying, 'You don't know how much we appreciated being educated and reared in a small rural community.'

"Here in Mitchell County, regardless of our faults, our assets far outweigh our liabilities and I would not trade places to live with anyone. As far as I know, no child has ever suffered from an overabundance of love and respect and knowing that Mom and Dad are proud of them. And, of course, this works both ways—children should let their parents know they are loved also."

"I began this narrative by saying that 'the most important element in a young child's life is a happy, stimulating family life.' As parents, are we doing everything we possibly can to bring this about?"

CISD Board To Ponder Sandblasting Building

A long standing and much discussed painting and sandblasting project on the administration building on Hickory Street will again be on the agenda at the regular monthly meeting of the Colorado School Board, Monday at 6:30 p.m.

At the board's April meeting the members opened three bids to out of line considering the way everything else had also risen in price.

He finally said that he thought the reason he was selling as much or more gas than before was that the fear of the shortages and station closings were forcing people to buy more to keep their gas tanks as near full as possible.

Conard said that as far as he knew most Texaco stations were staying open the same hours as before, although he had heard of a few of them closing on Sundays.

J&J's Gulf Station on the Snyder Highway also reported that they had had no drastic cut in their volume of business.

They said that they had not cut their hours so far but that it was possible they would have to close on Sundays by the end of May.

Two Colorado City convenience stores which sell gasoline, Colonial and Skinner's, reported that they have not had any cutbacks on the amount of fuel they have received and they have not run out of gasoline at any time.

Both stores said that the volume of gasoline they are selling has not lessened with the increase in prices.

Skinner's said that if anything, their volume has increased. They reported that their last price increase was 1c per gallon about a week ago to 70.9c per gallon.

Colonial said that their price actually went down 2c per gallon to 71.9 about a week ago.

Willis Taylor, operator of two Bell Service Stations on the Snyder Highway, said that right now he was getting all of the gasoline he could use. He stated that he was on a 100 per cent allocation.

Taylor also stated that his volume had increased of late. He added that he was staying open from 7 p.m. to 10 p.m. seven days a week and that right now he saw nothing which would change those hours.

Taylor stated that his regular gas had gone up 1c to 71.9 on Friday, the eighth week in a row that it had risen in price.

paint and sandblast the building but found all of them unsatisfactory. At that meeting, D. H. Kelly of Texas Tank and Tower Painting Co. of Midland made a presentation in which he said that the building would have a suitable appearance after he simply sandblasted it and applied a sealer without a paint job.

The boardmembers were unconvinced that this would be satisfactory, however, and Kelly finally offered to sandblast a small part of the structure for the members to see how it would look.

The board will either have to accept Kelly's April bid Monday night or rebid the project once again.

In other matters, six first grade teachers—Betsy Aycock, Brenda Cleckler, Susan Garcia, Betty Richardson, Susan Scott and Janet Stockton—will make a presentation to the board in which they will discuss what they are trying to accomplish with their children, what some of their problems are and what their greatest needs are in their work.

Athletic Director, Tommy Ramsey will also make a presentation.

Soil Stewardship Week May 20-27

Soil Stewards' Week, which had its origin more than 1,500 years ago, will be celebrated in the Mitchell Soil and Water Conservation District and throughout the United States and its territories on May 20-27, according to an announcement by Jimmy Harrison, chairman of board of directors.

The theme for the 1979 celebration is "Interdependence," a concept endorsed by President Jimmy Carter in his foreword to the descriptive Soil Stewardship Week Booklet. The booklet and accompanying Soil Stewardship Week material is distributed by Conservation Districts to clergymen, lay leaders, civic and educational organizations and individuals interested in participating in the unique celebration.

"Americans have always understood the value of working together to achieve common goals," President Carter said. "We have learned that unity of purpose and mutual dependence are essential to our growth as a society of self-governing people."

"It is especially fitting, therefore, that interdependence... of city and country, of Americans and their resources, and of man and nature... is the theme of Soil Stewardship Week in 1979," the President observed. "Our nation can be thankful for our progress in repairing the damage we have done to our environment. But that is only a start. To achieve greater harmony with nature, we must continue to seek harmony with one another."

The concept of Soil Stewardship had its origins in the special Rotation Days set aside by the Bishop of Vienne, France, following bad weather and earthquakes that brought crop failures and widespread hunger to much of France some 1,500 years ago. The Bishop called upon the people to offer prayers and penance, and to offer humble thanks to their Creator "for priceless gifts of soil, water and sunshine which make all living things possible."

While we are not faced with the immediate prospect of famine or hunger in the United States today, the reasons for Soil Stewardship commemorative activities haven't changed very much, the sponsors. We still need to pause each year to express our thanks for the natural resources of soil, water and air which nurture our people and provide us with daily food and fiber necessary to carry out our daily existence."

Soil Stewardship Week has been sponsored in the United States since 1955 by the National Association of Conservation Districts, in cooperation with the nation's nearly 3,000 conservation districts. Information of Soil Stewardship Week and descriptive material may be obtained through the Mitchell SWCD.

On May 24, the Mitchell SWCD will sponsor a conservation tour and luncheon for area ministers. Rev. Roy Byrd, President of Mitchell County Ministerial Alliance, is co-ordinating Soil Stewardship activities.

Only association members are eligible to play in the June tournament. However, anyone interested in tennis is invited to the meeting.

just around the corner. As the days begin to warm, sun worshippers seek the rays of the sun to begin their ritual of the "bronze age."

Certain rays from the sun will produce a tan, but remember that a sun burn is not necessary for a tan. The increased dispersion of "malainin" in the skin causes the skin to change color.

Certain rays from the sun can improve symptoms of acne and eczema by the drying of the skin.

If the skin is not excessively oily to begin with, this moisture must be replaced after each exposure to the sun.

"Paba" is the most effective ingredient used in any sun screen. Presun and eclipse are products in which paba can be found.

A combination of the sun and the following things can cause an uneven tan, blotchiness and a generally hard to get tan; diuretic pills, birth control pills, saccharin, deodorant soaps, perfume and citric essences such as lemon or such fragrances.

It is wise to begin your exposure slowly. If you must stay in the sun your first experience for any length of time use a sun screen with paba.

After each exposure rinse the oil and perspiration off the body trying to avoid the use of soap or shaving lather, both of which tend to bleach the color of the skin. Use a moisturizer or lotion to replenish the skins natural texture.

She said that because of the mistake, her sense of "self-worth" had been damaged.

The jury awarded her $100,000 for the pain and suffering, $750,000 for loss of earnings from her job and $4,219 in medical expenses.

The surgeon said he will appeal.

There was a story from out of Austin that I found which gives you some idea of what our state legislators are doing these days.

They passed a resolution making the nine-banded armadillo the state animal.

The resolution was introduced by Representative Don Henderson of Houston at the request of a class of fifth graders.

In introducing the matter, Henderson said, "Tenty-two other states have a state animal and it is a crisis situation that Texas doesn't have one too."

He finally said that it should be the armadillo because it has a "skin as tough as a cowboy's boot and when startled, runs away with the quickness of a running back for the Houston Oilers or Dallas Cowboys."

The last story I will mention really is good news, at least to the person involved and his family. It concerns a modern day Rip Van Winkle.

Steven Kubacki, a student at a college in Michigan, turned up missing in February 1978 and was presumed drowned in Lake Michigan. His cross-country skis and backpack had been found near the Lake Michigan shoreline.

Last week Kubacki woke up in a field near Pittsfield, Mass.

He was wearing clothes that weren't his and he said that he remembered nothing about the past 14 months. Strange things do happen.

Finally, to close this column, there will be one other bit of news coming out of Colorado City this week.

Today is Mother's Day in case you had forgotten.

What service does the independent agent provide?

His role as advisor is the independent agent's outstanding service. Insurance is a complex business and the average person cannot be expected to understand it fully. Your independent agent helps you in a wide variety of ways to meet your own specific insurance needs.

It has been said that the independent insurance agent is the third person called in an emergency, right after the police and the doctor. Essential parts of his service include expediting claims and acting as your personal representative with the company.

Protection of your family, home, car and other hard-earned possessions is too important to leave to guesswork. Your independent agent is the professional who can help you.
