

Algerian Guerrillas Say Heavy Fighting Going On

By MICHAEL GOLDSMITH ALGIERS, Algeria (AP) — Algerian regular army forces loyal to Ahmed Ben Bella smashed into guerrilla defense positions 75 miles from Algiers on Saturday and heavy fighting was in progress, the guerrilla command here announced Saturday night.

and at Ain Boucif, Sidi Aissa and Ain Hejina—three guerrilla-held outposts 75 miles southwest of the capital on the main east-west highway. Municipal authorities in Boghari said in a telephone conversation that machine gun and mortar fire could be heard clearly south of that city.

conclusion and that regular army forces had pulled back from attack positions in the barren hills outside Algiers. Ben Bella's Political Bureau had called on the 45,000-man regular army and loyal guerrillas to move on Algiers and restore order.

known to be poised south and west of the dissident guerrillas' territory. New conciliation efforts had begun. Tension eased in Algiers. Both sides observed a kind of tacit truce in the psychological warfare they have waged with news conferences and warlike communications for more than a week.

surrounding territory under the Wilaya's control. The announcement denied reports that the guerrilla command was planning to arrest the bureau members and occupy their Algiers headquarters. Ben Bella and most of the bureau members were outside Algiers in territory controlled by loyal forces — the 45,000-man regular army plus some guerrilla units.

WIND DAMAGE AT LAKE THOMAS—A small twister Friday night which caused a waterspout as it crossed the lake also damaged this large carport at the Lake Thomas Lodge. No injuries were reported, and damage was relatively light. It was believed the twister may have dissipated much of its strength in forming the waterspout.

Cold Front Spawns Storms, Brings Rain

Spawmed by a cold front moving through Friday night, violent thunderstorms raked the Snyder area. A small tornado was reported at Lake Thomas, 17 miles southwest of the city, at 6:45 p.m. Friday. According to Russell Jones Jr., operator of Lake Thomas Lodge, he first noticed a thin white cloud resembling an aircraft vapor trail. It quickly assumed a snake-like motion, and approached the lake from the northwest.

SNYDER AREA OIL

Fenix & Scisson, Inc., of Abilene No. 1, J. A. Tate has been completed as an east offset to the one-well Southwest Towle (Pennsylvanian) field of Scurry County. It flowed 159 barrels of 40-gravity oil, plus 10 per cent water, daily through a 24-64 inch choke a net flow rate of 7.148 bbls. per day.

up water from the lake, with the waterspout reaching 100 to 150 feet in the air. Several guests of the lodge took shelter in a cellar, others in a concrete block building, and others, caught outside, lay in ditches or on the ground. Jones described the twister as making a "hissing and swishing" noise as it bore down on the main lodge building. Just before striking the main building the funnel seemed to turn south, and went between two cabins, uprooting trees and picnic tables as it went. One large picnic table had still not been found late Saturday morning. Two parked cars were moved several feet by the force of the wind, and a large carport was thrown to the ground. An official 2.7 inches of rain was recorded at the pump station near the lodge, although several gauges in the area registered over three inches during the downpour that accompanied the storm.

'Rainmaker' Quits While He's Ahead

By WICK TEMPLE LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)— Homer Berry, self-styled rainmaker extraordinary, chalked up another $600 to his bank account Saturday, formally retired from rainmaking and said he was going on to bigger things.

At Least 39 Are Killed In Typhoon

By ROY ESSOVAN HONG KONG (AP)—Typhoon Wanda swooped down on this refuge crowded British colony Saturday and in a few nightmarish hours left at least 39 persons dead, 13 missing, 397 injured and more than 10,000 homeless. Rescuers were still digging into flooded and demolished homes late Saturday night leared the death toll could be doubled before their grim task was completed.

Action Urged By Goldberg

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Labor Arthur J. Goldberg appealed to Congress in a Labor Day statement Saturday to pass a battery of pending measures that would "improve individual security, increase jobs and speed up economic growth."

Body Found By Farmer

MIDLAND, Tex. (AP)—A farmer operating a stalk cutter uncovered the decomposed body of a man Saturday five miles east of Stanton in Martin County. The head had been severed and was five feet from the torso. The man wore winter clothing, causing officers to theorize that he had been dead a year or longer. The feet were wrapped in surgical bandages.

UF Slates Ballot On Constitution Change

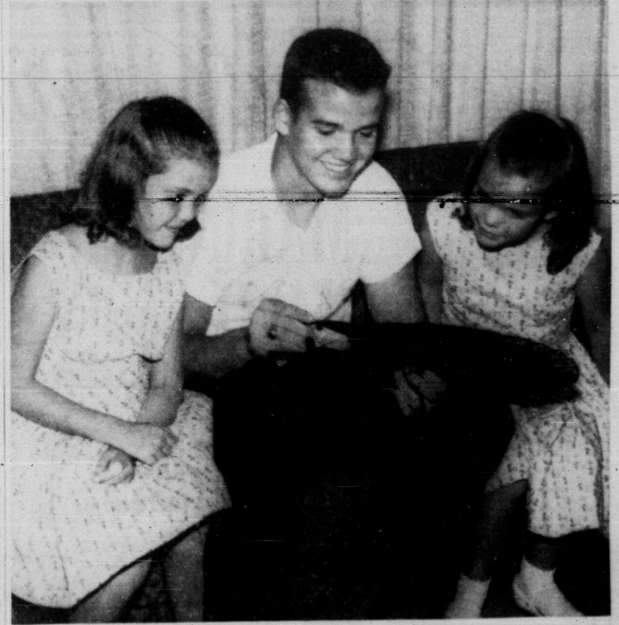

The Scurry County United Fund has scheduled a vote on a proposed change of its constitution to insure that all designated contributions to its campaign will go to the agencies specified by the donors.

Division Chiefs For Drive Named

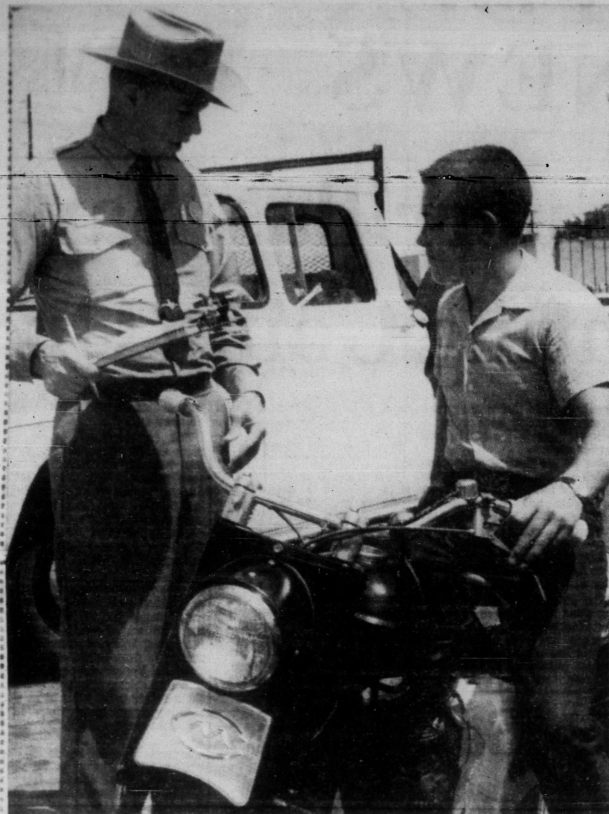

Plans for the 1962 Scurry County United Fund campaign took a big step forward during the past week with appointments of division heads by E. H. Williamson, general campaign chairman. Williamson announced the following division chairmen:

Rotan Okays Water Plan

ROTAN—The final major hurdle was cleared Friday in Rotan's effort to arrange for a water supply through Snyder. Voters of the area approved a $900,000 bond issue and at the same time authorized the City of Rotan to sign a contract with the Rotan Municipal Water Authority to purchase water.

TWO LITTLE SISTERS were all ears and eyes as their big brother, Tommy Shelburne showed them souvenirs of his visit to Cremona, Italy. They are pictured just moments after his return Friday evening from the two-month visit sponsored by American Field Service. Judy, left, and Jan, right, inspect an Italian fan and a miniature violin. The violin is a symbol of Cremona since Stradivari lived there. During his visit Tommy visited Milan, Genoa, Venice, Verona and Lake Como. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lesley Shelburne of 202 Thirty-second Street.

A SIZEABLE INCREASE in the number of requests for licenses for motor scooter operators has been noticed in the past few weeks. David Fulks, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Fulks, 308 Thirty-second Street, prepares to take his drivers test from Joe Scott, DPS drivers license examiner. Seventeen licenses to the nearly 25 applicants have been issued in the past two weeks. A new school board ruling prohibits the students from bringing scooters onto school property, and peace officers have been checking scooter operators for licenses more thoroughly following a rash of accidents several weeks ago. Young Fulks passed his test on the first try.

Evidence Reported In Cuban Firing

By LEWIS GULICK
WASHINGTON (AP)—Authoritative sources said Saturday the U. S. government has strong eyewitness evidence of Cuban shooting at a U. S. Navy plane Thursday, but no photographs.
Prime Minister Fidel Castro described as absolutely false Friday's White House announcement that two small vessels—believed to be Cuban—fired at the U. S. patrol craft in international waters, 15 miles off Cuba's northern coast.
State Department press officer Joseph W. Reap stood by the White House announcement and denied Castro's renewed charge of aggressive designs by the United States.
Authoritative informants gave this account:
The two-engine Navy patrol plane, manned by three reservists, was on a routine training flight Thursday afternoon when it spotted the two small ships on its radar.

The United States has been keeping a close watch for Soviet shipments to Cuba, and the American plane swooped near for a closer look.

It was at this point that the Navy fliers believe they were fired upon. But when they reported the incident higher U. S. authorities at first were skeptical. The plane had not been hit. One of the crewmen said he had heard the sound of the guns on the craft but this claim was doubted by investigators because of the noise created by the plane's piston engines.
Also, the U. S. plane was not outfitted with photographic gear, and the crewmen presented no pictures of the shooting. And the guns were not using easily seen tracer bullets, the fliers acknowledged.

Loren, Ponti Back Where They Started

MILAN, Italy (AP)—After some emotional ups and downs, actress Sophia Loren and producer Carlo Ponti appeared today to be right back where they started—assertedly married in Mexico, allegedly bigamous in Italy.
An attorney for the film couple started the loop-the-loop Friday by declaring that a Mexican judge had voided their 1957 Mexican proxy marriage and therefore the couple could not be brought to trial on bigamy charges against them in Italy.

Miss Loren, on location near Pisa, was "visibly satisfied" by the news, her secretary said. She then came word from the judge at Ciudad Juarez, Mexico, that he had made no such decision and implied that when he ruled on the case next week it will go the other way.

If in Rome it is considered that the marriage is illegal because Ponti, under Italian law, is still married to his first wife, from whom he was divorced in Mexico, it is something in which the Mexican law has no interest, said Judge Carlos Urraga Munoz. After this report, Miss Loren's secretary said the actress could not be reached. Nor was Ponti available for comment.

Bigamy charges were brought against Miss Loren and Ponti because Italy does not recognize divorce. Ponti divorced his first wife in Mexico in 1954. Miss Loren had not been married.

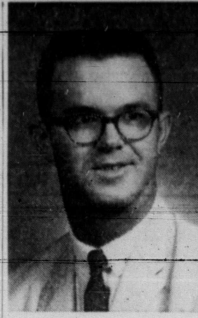

Japan Votes To Pay U. S.

TOKYO (AP)—By overwhelming voice vote, Japan's upper house approved today a bill paving the way for payment of $90 million to the United States for postwar aid. The lower house approved the bill Aug. 23.

The bill was one of the most controversial issues in the current Parliament. The Socialists opposed it, contending U. S. Aid during the immediate postwar period constituted relief grants.

The bill calls for payment of the U. S. aid debt in 30 installments over a 15-year period. It is expected to be ratified by the Japanese government by mid-September.

Total amount of aid under the postwar programs was estimated at $2 billion but the $90 million repayment figure was agreed upon in negotiations by U. S. and Japanese officials.

DONALD JOE MAY

Gets Degree From Tech

LUBBOCK—Donald Joe May of Hermleigh received his Bachelor of Science Degree in mathematics from Texas Tech here recently. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond May, who attended the summer commencement exercises at Tech.
Mrs. John Perry of Temple, his grandmother, also attended the exercises. He is also the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. G. O. May of Sweetwater.

May plans to continue work toward his Masters Degree this fall at Tech, and has accepted a position at that school as teaching assistant in math.

Kennedys On Yacht Outing

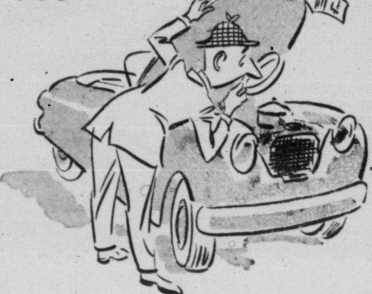

NEWPORT, R.I. (AP)—Under a cloudy sky, President and Mrs. Kennedy boarded the presidential yacht Honey Fitz Saturday for a short outing on the waters of Narragansett Bay.

The President took his in-laws along for lunch aboard. Joining the "floating party" were Mr. and Mrs. Hugh D. Auchincloss, the stepfather and mother of Mrs. Kennedy, and the latter's half-sister and half-brother, Miss Janet and Jamie Auchincloss.

The presidential family was together again for the first time in nearly a month. Mrs. Kennedy and Caroline flew home Friday from Italy, after a visit with Mrs. Kennedy's sister, Princess Lee Radziwill.

The President is to remain here over the Labor Day holiday.

OUR VIEW

Labor Day Is Pivotal Point; The Politicians Are Coming

Labor Day is a pivotal point on the calendar. Traditionally it approximates the opening of school terms and in other respects signals the advent of autumn despite the fact that the calendar officially changes the seasons some two or three weeks later.

In the business world, Labor Day is an important milestone. It is supposed to signal the end of the "summer doldrums" and mark the beginning of a faster pace which usually endures through a Christmas season climax.

Every four years Labor Day also marks the beginning of intensive campaigning for the office of President of the United States. In some states, every two years it marks the beginning of all-out campaigning for state offices, and this year Texas joins the latter parade with a two-party contest for governor.

Thus, our state this year should be interested in activities of the national nonpartisan Fair Campaign Practices Committee. Every two years the national chairmen of the major political parties sign a Code of Fair Campaign Practices. The code condemns personal abuse, character defamation, rumor-mongering, appeals based on racial and religious prejudice and all other unethical practices. Moreover, it calls for public repudiation of individuals using them.

The committee handled 64 serious smear complaints in 1958 and 38 in 1960. It expects to handle more this year, and Texans should be interested in the fact that the committee already has been alerted to the probability of smear tactics in the fall campaign in this state.

D. D. Hardee Gets Degree At Cornell

DUNN—Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Hardee of Dunn have been informed that their son, D. D. Hardee, was recently awarded the Master of Science degree in entomology at Cornell University, Ithaca, N. Y.

At the same time, Hardee, a 1956 graduate of Snyder High School and a 1960 graduate of Texas Tech, passed his qualifying examination, a stringent oral test to determine if a candidate is qualified to continue graduate research toward a Ph. D. degree.

At Cornell, Hardee's research program is centered upon studies of the biology, ecology and control of insects infesting grass and forage crops and studies of residues of insecticides applied to these crops. While at Cornell he has attended and spoken at several scientific meetings, including those held in Ithaca, Baltimore and Philadelphia.

Hardee and his wife, the former Patricia Ann Gage, a 1958 graduate of Snyder High School, are managers of a large apartment house in Ithaca where Mrs. Hardee is also employed as secretary and bookkeeper. They have a son, Steven, 2½.

Scurry County, the leading county in Western Texas in fertility of soil and area of tillable agricultural lands. Opulent in opportunities, especially to deciduous fruit growers of modest means, there being an abundance of cheap lands of proven adaptability for profitable fruit culture with ample water easily available for irrigation purposes. A 10 acre orchard and garden home preferable to a large farm however fertile. Less toil and trouble, greater revenue, and easier living and an assured competence and of-time fortune, in Scurry County orchard homes that are easily obtainable. Snyder, the county seat, a prosperous city plethoric with future promise.

The city should evolve some sort of plan to more quickly get the fire fighting forces in operation when the alarm is turned in. Mr. Chapman, who manipulates the hose wagon lives some distance from town and necessarily it takes up valuable time for him to get to the station and get the apparatus to work. If the city would keep a trained team and a driver at the station, it would not take more than three or four minutes to hitch up and get to a fire and thereby the saving of property would soon more than pay for the equipment.

Texas motor vehicle owners will find one thing new when they get their new inspection stickers. That is the sticker itself. The new sticker is a drymount decal designed to adhere to windshields regardless of weather conditions.

Col. Homer Garrison Jr., director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, has reminded that the new inspection stickers are available now, and the best time to get one is early in the season. There are over five million vehicles in the state to be inspected, and there are 5,000 official inspection stations.

SP. 4 WAYNE RAMSEY

Snyderite Is Promoted By Army

DUGWAY, Utah—Wayne Ramsey, 24, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Ramsey, 3708 Austin Avenue, was recently promoted to the rank of Specialist 4th Class. He is currently serving with the Army at Dugway Proving Ground.

Spec. Ramsey, doing duty in the Manpower management branch of the Dugway Personnel Administration Division, now holds the equivalent to the rank of E-4 or Corporal, the difference being that a specialist specializes in a given field and a corporal usually has men in his command.

Before entering the service in September of 1961, Spec. 4 Ramsey worked for Gulf Oil Corp. in Midland. After completing training at Fort Carson, Colo., he was immediately assigned to Dugway Proving Ground. He is a 1956 graduate of Snyder High School and attended Odesa Junior College for 1½ years.

Ramsey, one of Dugway's top soldiers, is assigned to Headquarters Detachment and was selected as runnerup to the detachment Soldier of the Month for July. He now resides with his wife, the former Charlette Ipson, in Salt Lake City, Utah.

Two Mishaps Are Logged In City

Two accidents were reported by the Snyder police department Friday evening. There were no injuries in either mishap.

At 4:06 p.m. a 1962 Ford driven by Dinah Ray McKinnon was involved in an accident at Avenue S and Twenty-fifth Street with a 1958 Chevrolet driven by Jerry Jackson. The McKinnon car suffered damage estimated at $35 and the Jackson car was damaged in the amount of $76.

At 7:14 p.m. an accident occurred east of the Big Spring Highway on Thirty-seventh Street. Involved were a 1957 Ford driven by Norma Maynard Early and a 1962 Chevrolet driven by Loyd Richards of Colorado City. Damage to the Early car was estimated at $150 and to the Richards car at $15.

ON THE BEACH AT WAIKIKI—Daily News staff member Dick Roberts and Mrs. Roberts are shown on the Honolulu beach during a three-week visit to Hawaii. The couple toured four of the islands during their vacation there.

Hawaiians Take Pride In Their Statehood

(Editor's note—Staff member Dick Roberts returned from vacation this week. We asked him to write a few of his observations on his Hawaiian holiday.)

By DICK ROBERTS

The sound of bulldozers and power saws and trucks and hammers has replaced the ukulele as the most-heard sound in Hawaii.

That is the impression one receives when he makes his first visit to the 50th state. But even through building and business are booming, the old traditional friendliness and hospitality of the "old" Hawaii is still in evidence almost everywhere.

In only one area, in the Sheraton hotels, did we find an attitude of not being welcome. It's conceivable that since the chain took over the hotels which had belonged to the Matson Navigation Co. they may have imported Mainland personnel. And, if so, maybe in time these people will learn that honesty, courtesy, and politeness are the ways of the islands. It may even happen before they lose their customers.

But nothing that people can do can ever completely destroy the charm of the islands. The perfect climate, the beautiful scenery, the unbelievably blue ocean, will remain. And probably the "Aloha" way of life of the natives is too deep-rooted to ever be destroyed. With the island natives "Aloha" is more than just a word. It's a way of life. And it's a way of life that needs to be preserved.

No one can ever become an expert on anything in three short weeks. But one can get a fair idea of what's going on, and absorb a lot of "feel."

Hawaii offers escape. Escape from ordinary scenery and ordinary places, and even ordinary people. There's something exciting about our newest state.

And speaking of being a state, there has never been anyone any more proud of being citizens of a state than are the Hawaiians. They attribute every good thing that has happened since statehood to the fact that they are Hawaiians. The legislature meets in what was once the state dining room. Incidentally the Ilii Palace is the only royal palace on American soil.

Of one thing we can be sure. There are no better Americans, regardless of their racial background, than the citizens of Hawaii.

Economically the islands have an uphill road ahead. Military spending in the state tops all other sources of income by a wide margin. Because of advances in technological warfare and weapons the large garrisons maintained in the islands are ever withdrawn. It will be a major blow.

Second in importance is the sugar cane industry. Contrary to popular belief on the mainland, the banning of Cuban sugar has hurt, rather than helped, the Hawaiian economy. The reason? Quotas of beet sugar growers on the mainland have been increased and more than compensated for the lost Cuban imports. Thus the island sugar, because of transportation costs and high labor costs in the fields, is being undersold by mainland sugar producers.

Pineapples, until recently, were the third largest revenue producer for the islands. But again, increased labor costs have made the farming of many acres unprofitable.

Disagree On Liquor Law

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—Oklahoma marked its third anniversary of legal liquor Saturday with the state Liquor Board director and a prominent dry leader in sharp disagreement on effects of prohibition repeal.

Ross McLennan, executive secretary of Sooner Alcoholic-Narcotic Education, says repeal has failed. Roy Parham, director of the control board, disagreed.

McLennan asserted "The liquor industry laughs at the constitutional amendment which prohibits all liquor advertising except one sign in front of each liquor store" and he said the licensing of private clubs violates a prohibition against open saloons.

Parham said repeal has brought "much more respect for law and order." He said before repeal 740 bootleggers held federal stamps to sell whisky in dry Oklahoma, and this "has been reduced by 95 per cent."

The earliest European playing cards were made exclusively for the nobility. They were painted by hand.

able, and pineapple canneries are closing. Competition from cheaper labor areas such as Mexico and the Philippines are putting the Hawaiian pineapple industry in a tight spot.

The tourist industry has supplanted pineapples as the third largest source of revenue in Hawaii. And this market is cultivated wisely and with great skill. Often tourists make the accusation that Hawaii is "too commercial." Of course it is commercial. It has to be to handle the crowds of visitors. But so far at least, there is no "penny arcades" and Coney Island features. So really, what's wrong with commercialism if it gives the visitors what they want?

Because of the crowded vacation facilities on Oahu, the other islands, principally Maui, Kauai, and the "Big Island" of Hawaii are developing resort areas. Each island has a different character, and even though many are within sight of each other, there is a definite difference in soil, climate, produce, and natural features. As to which one is best, it's hard to say. Each island has its violent supporters, and it all depends on what a person wants.

The climate is perfect. Soft warm breezes along the beaches; cool breezes with brisk nights at the upper elevations. The climate changes very little throughout the year, so if one wants to change his climate, all he needs to do is go up or down the hills.

The usual comment heard about many places catering to the tourists is, "It's a wonderful place to visit, but I'd never want to live there." That's not true about Hawaii. More often than not the comment is "What a wonderful place to live!"

Disagree On Liquor Law

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—Oklahoma marked its third anniversary of legal liquor Saturday with the state Liquor Board director and a prominent dry leader in sharp disagreement on effects of prohibition repeal.

Ross McLennan, executive secretary of Sooner Alcoholic-Narcotic Education, says repeal has failed. Roy Parham, director of the control board, disagreed.

McLennan asserted "The liquor industry laughs at the constitutional amendment which prohibits all liquor advertising except one sign in front of each liquor store" and he said the licensing of private clubs violates a prohibition against open saloons.

Parham said repeal has brought "much more respect for law and order." He said before repeal 740 bootleggers held federal stamps to sell whisky in dry Oklahoma, and this "has been reduced by 95 per cent."

The earliest European playing cards were made exclusively for the nobility. They were painted by hand.

the chances are that jet airliner service from the Mainland has had more to do with their violent economic growth than has statehood, but don't say that out loud over there!

Today's Hawaii is studying harder to learn about George Washington and John Paul Jones than he is the history of the islands themselves. The man-on-the-street's knowledge of the days of the monarchy in Hawaii is quite limited, and if today's trend continues, will become even more so. But you can bet he knows his American history!

The irreverence with which they treat their sovereigns of days gone by is shown by the fact that the governor has his offices in the old bedroom of Queen Liliuokalani in the Ilii Palace. The legislature meets in what was once the state dining room. Incidentally the Ilii Palace is the only royal palace on American soil.

Of one thing we can be sure. There are no better Americans, regardless of their racial background, than the citizens of Hawaii.

Economically the islands have an uphill road ahead. Military spending in the state tops all other sources of income by a wide margin. Because of advances in technological warfare and weapons the large garrisons maintained in the islands are ever withdrawn. It will be a major blow.

Second in importance is the sugar cane industry. Contrary to popular belief on the mainland, the banning of Cuban sugar has hurt, rather than helped, the Hawaiian economy. The reason? Quotas of beet sugar growers on the mainland have been increased and more than compensated for the lost Cuban imports. Thus the island sugar, because of transportation costs and high labor costs in the fields, is being undersold by mainland sugar producers.

Pineapples, until recently, were the third largest revenue producer for the islands. But again, increased labor costs have made the farming of many acres unprofitable.

Old Days Recalled By Western Star

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer
HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Ken Maynard relaxed under the awning outside his trailer home and talked about the old days.

"There was Tom Mix, Buck Jones, Hoot Gibson and me," he recalled. "They called us the Big Four of the westerns. We had two things in common: We were all range cowboys and we had all come to pictures from wild west shows."

Ken's voice had a touch of sadness. This week he buried Hoot, whom he had known for 40 years in Hollywood. They had ridden the range together in a co-starring series. They worked hard and played hard; in the 1930s they cracked up in a plane during air races.

"Hoot was hurt pretty bad in that crash," the old cowboy said. "But he got over it. What really banged him up was a horse he was riding in a show in Buffalo. It reared up and fell on him. Hoot had a bad back after that happened. A lot of these old injuries come back to haunt you."

Ken is knitting a broken shoulder and is once again rehearsing his roping tricks. He hopes to get back on the rodeo circuit before the season closes.

How did he break his shoulder? "I should say that my horse slipped," he said with a hearty laugh. "But it was a darn fool thing—I fell off the top of the trailer."

Ken and his wife Bertha live in a cozy trailer near the center of San Fernando, 15 miles north of Hollywood. They recently sold their Valley home and are living a less encumbered life, for a while at least.

Now a well-padded but still powerful 67, Ken spends many weeks of the year doing his roping act at rodeos and fairs. "Once I had 13 straight weeks of bookings and I never left the state of Texas," he said. He was born in Mission, Tex.

A world's champion roper and bronc rider, he was starring in Ringling Brothers-Barnum and Bailey Circus when Fox brought him to Hollywood in 1922.

"I didn't know it at the time, but they brought me out as a kind of club to keep Tom Mix and Buck Jones in line," he said. "The boys were giving the studio trouble about options. Fox never used me, so I got out. I didn't have much trouble getting a job."

He became a star immediately and for 20 years appeared in one western series after another. His peak salary was $3,000 a week, but he netted as much as $8,000 a week when he was operating his own company.

Tower Sets Conference

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. John Tower, R-Tex., said Saturday he will confer with Army officials next week concerning the proposed use by Ft. Hood, Tex., troops of a large area of privately-owned lands in Texas for maneuvers.

Tower said he has received protests from landowners who say Army officers have served notice selective condemnation proceedings will be initiated if they do not obtain voluntary easements for the planned October maneuvers.

He said he will ask the Army to explain whether use of the land is necessary in the national interest, and if so urge that owners not only be recompensed for damages done their property by tanks and trucks but that they be paid for use of the lands.

Doug McClure In A Quick Change

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer
HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Clever lad, Doug McClure. Bounced from "Checkmate," he has landed on his feet—or in the saddle, you might say.

Doug is the good-looking blond who supplied some youthful comedy as the junior "Checkmate" sleuth. When the series failed to solve its most important case—how to avoid a cancellation—Doug went right into the revolutionary new "Virginian."

What is so revolutionary about another western? Well, this one is 90 minutes. Doug admitted the only 90-minute regular filmed series yet attempted, though CBS did make some "Playhouse 90's" on film to spell the live ones.

"The Virginian" stems from the old Owen Wister classic, three filmed as a movie. Strange are the ways of television: the series will have McClure playing Trampas, the villain to whom the Virginian grieved. "When you call me that—smile!"

"He had a gunfight at the end of the picture," Doug admitted. "Obviously we can't do that; I'd lose my job. The character of Trampas has been changed to make him less of a villain and more of a lovable rogue."

Actually the new show is a return to the outdoors for Doug. His first series was an hour western, "Overland Trail," which he and William Bendix traveled for a short season.

TWX Circuits In Dial Conversion

Several Snyder business firms took part in the first nationwide dial conversion in the history of the telephone industry at 7:30 p.m. Friday when teletypewriter exchange service was changed to dial from manual operation.

The change involved eight teletypewriter here. Snyder firms use the service, known as TWX, to send printed messages to other offices here and in distant cities.

The TWX users here include Texaco, Inc., Service Pipe Line Co., Lion Oil Co., Humble Oil and Refining Co., SACROC Unit, West Texas State Bank, Standard Oil Co. and Sunray DX Oil Co.

Henceforth TWX attendants for Snyder users with the service will dial direct to any of the 60,000 teletypewriters in the nation-wide system. In the manual system formerly used, TWX connections were made by telephone company operators.

"With the new service, calls between machines are dialed just as telephones are," said G. G. Strickland of Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. "Connections can be made in about one-third the time previously required."

A nationwide TWX information center in St. Louis serves the dial network. Customers can dial the center direct and get the numbers they need. Telephone operators in 16 regional centers assist customers with collect, conference and other calls they cannot dial direct. Regional assistance centers at Dallas and St. Louis serve customers in Southwestern Bell's territory.

Basin Rig Count Rises

Drilling activity in the Permian Basin area logged another gain last week according to Reed Roller Bit Company's Friday survey.

There were 243 rotary units making hole in the basin, compared to 235 the previous week.

Fisher County was still the "hot spot" in this area with 13 rigs running compared to 11 the week before. Scurry County's rig count remained unchanged at four, as did Borden County's at one.

Lea County, New Mexico, continued to set the drilling pace for the basin with 36 rigs running. Other more active counties included Andrews and Ector with 15 each and Crane with 14.

Water consumption by factories, farms and homes has jumped more than 12 per cent in the last six years.

Local Firm Gets Award

A 10-year record for outstanding customer service has earned national recognition for the King and Brown Frigidaire dealership in Snyder.

W. P. King, partner of the local firm, has won the top service award of Frigidaire division of General Motors, the special 10-Year Award of Merit Plaque.

The award was made by Lewis Davis, service representative for Frigidaire Sales Corp., Frigidaire's distributing organization in this area. Brief presentation ceremonies were conducted Friday.

In making the award Davis pointed out that King and Brown had to qualify for 10 consecutive years by meeting the rigid standards for appliance service established by Frigidaire service headquarters in Dayton, Ohio.

King and Brown, 1915 Twenty-fifth Street, has been a Frigidaire dealer for 32 years. Ray Lampson is the service manager, heading a staff of three.

August Makes Its Exit In Downpour

August made its exit in a downpour, but didn't help its rainfall entry on the official weather records.

The .95 of an inch recorded on the official gauge Friday night is credited to the Sept. 1 entry in the weather log, since the 24-hour period involved in the official records ended at 7 a.m. Saturday.

Nevertheless, August could lay claim to 1.36 inches, all of it coming in the early stages of the month. The month's production increased the rainfall total for the year to 10.74 inches. The August rainfall was slightly below the 50-year average for the month, which is 1.58 inches. This is the first month since May this year when the rainfall fell below average. However, the first five months of the year were far below average.

ROUGH AND TUMBLE—Plenty of action was available for a group of rain-drenched fans in Seminole Friday night, when the host team took on Snyder in a practice scrimmage. The culmination of one play is pictured above (Tigers in white jerseys), while at the right a pair of unidentified players reach high in an attempt to bring down an aerial. (Photos by Smallwood)

Tiger Gridders Impressive In First Scrimmage Battle

By JERRY JACKSON
News Sports Editor

SEMINOLE—Snyder's Tigers fared admirably in their first test of strength here Friday night, submerging (that's the word for it) the Seminole Indians in a practice scrimmage by two touchdowns to none.

Rain drizzled down continually during the hour-and-a-half battle, so that both teams had ample opportunity to test their water wings throughout the evening.

Each team ran four offensive series of 15 plays duration each, starting on their own 20-yard line for each series. When a team lost the ball either on downs, by fumble or pass interception, it was shuffled back to the 30, from which point the series was completed.

A number of encouraging factors came out of the scrimmage from a Tiger standpoint. The Bengal line was quicker and more mobile on both offense and defense, opening up holes on the former and stopping its foes on the latter, especially when the chips were down.

The running game displayed by Coach Horrace Bostick's charges also showed up extremely well, with towering Jimmy Wilson being the man-under responsible for both scoring drives. He directed the final one on the second series run by the team, then followed up in the next series for the other.

Dalton Walton called signals on the first offensive series, then split duties with Jim Marcum on the final one.

Estimated net yardage gained show Snyder to have picked up 50 yards on the first series, 72 on the second, 77 on the third, and 57 on the fourth for a total of 256. All of that yardage with it is exception of 40 yards was by the ground route.

The Indians showed a net gain of 154 yards for the night, 32 of which were via the airlines. The passing game, of course, failed to get a fair shake due to the wet conditions, with Snyder hitting on three of 12 and Seminole on five of 14. Both clubs had one aerial pilfered, also, and both lost the ball by fumble twice.

Snyder's first scoring drive started simply. Four running plays netted 13 yards before a bad pitch-out lost five and a pass sailed over the head of an intended receiver. A two-yard pickup later, though things went into high gear, when appreciable gains by halfbacks Jimmy Taylor, Tom Kincaid and Gail Potter gained a total of 45 yards and put the Tigers within striking distance. On the fourth play run from there, Kincaid bulled over for the touchdown from two yards out.

Snyder struck paydirt on the next series of downs, capitalizing on steady running and a timely pass for the marker. Wilson pinpointed Taylor on a screen pass to the left, and he scampered for a 25-yard gain before being hauled down.

Veteran fullback Bob Pena tallied the touchdown on one of the finest runs of the night, swivel-hipping his way home over left tackle from 14 yards away.

Tight Tiger defenses throttled the Indians' meal ticket—fullback Hicks—for the most part. He was stopped cold the greater part of the time before he could get past the line of scrimmage, and only the latter part of the evening did he manage to pick up any appreciable yardage.

A pair of Tiger ends sustained knee injuries during the clash—juniors Edward Schulz and Billy Stewart—but neither are thought to be serious enough to sideline either boy. Schulz was forced to miss Saturday morning's workout, however.

This weekend will find Snyder performing at home in a practice scrimmage against Midland High. It will be held in Tiger Stadium either Friday or Saturday night, as final negotiations on the date were still pending here yesterday.

Pee Wee Football Rosters Revealed

The Scurry County Boys Club announces that its Pee Wee football program is in "full swing" following division of registrants into four teams Friday. League play will begin September 18 and will continue through October 25.

Tuesday afternoon has been set as the time when uniforms will be issued to the various team members. Emphasis has been placed on the fact, too, that it is not too late to sign up, and any grade school boys aged 10-12 desiring to participate in the program may do so by registering at the Boys' Club.

The league schedule has been broken down into two rounds of play. Included in the first round are: Sept. 18—Hotshots vs. Frogs; Sept. 20—Bears vs. Colts; Sept. 25—Bears vs. Frogs; Sept. 27—Colts vs. Hotshots; Oct. 2—Frogs vs. Colts; Oct. 4—Hotshots vs. Bears.

The second round, Oct. 9—Frogs vs. Hotshots; Oct. 11—Colts vs. Bears; Oct. 15—Frogs vs. Bears; Oct. 18—Hotshots vs. Colts; Oct. 23—Colts vs. Frogs; Oct. 25—Bears vs. Hotshots.

All games are to be played on the Central Elementary field, and will have starting times of 4:45 p.m.

The four team rosters are as follows:

BEARS

FROGS

COLTS

HOTSHOTS

Colavito In Starring Role For Detroit

DETROIT (AP)—Hank Aukure, with timely hitting and defensive support from Rocky Colavito, pitched the Detroit Tigers to a 2-1 victory over the Chicago White Sox Saturday.

Colavito drove in the Tigers' first run with a sacrifice fly in the third. In the sixth, he felled Chicago's first scoring opportunity with a leaping catch against the left field fence. It robbed Camilo Carreron of an extra-base blow that would have produced a run.

All Kaline's single scored the second Detroit run off loser Jay Herbert in the seventh.

HAD THEIR FILL OF THE PHILLIES

Desperate .45s Recruit Professional 'Hex Man'

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—If the Phillies feel a chill running down their backs Monday and Tuesday they can't blame the weather.

It will be a combination of rabbit feet, horseshoes and the whammy of a pro whammy maker.

The Houston Colts, who meet Philadelphia on those days, arranged the two-day demonstration of magic in an effort to avoid humiliation. For never in modern baseball history has one major league team won all the season's games from another.

And the Phillies are just three games away from placing such a record in the book.

The Colts and the Phillies meet in a two-night doubleheader Monday and a single game Tuesday night to end their season series.

The teams have met 15 times and the Phillies have taken every game.

The Colts have hired a professional jinx man, and Houston pitcher Dick Farrell will wear No. 13 on his uniform, shifting from his usual No. 43.

All fans who carry horseshoes, four-leaf clover or rabbit's foot to the opener will be admitted for half price.

The hex man, young Kid Dugan of Hot Springs, Ark., is full of optimism about the Colts.

"There ain't no cinches on anything," Dugan said, "but I want to tell you something. I got more going for the Colts in this series than I ever had before. I got one Philly player picked out—and I mean I have put the triple whammy on him. He's dead now and don't know it."

Dugan said he had heard Phillies Manager Gene Mauch plan to sign his No. 1 pitcher, Art Mahaffey, against the Colts in the Monday opener.

"I got nothing against him (Mauch), but I am really giving my very best stuff to the Phillies because I love Houston and Galveston. I have friends here. Mauch may not know it, but his luck has run out on him."

Concerning Mahaffey, Dugan said:

"I have my Slobotke Stare ready for him. He won't finish the game. And I've been praying for Dick Farrell and he'll have all the lprechauns in Ireland working on his side."

"When I put my Slobotke Stare on the Phillies, their luck will turn all bad," Dugan said. "I am going to make their hitters pop up and their pitchers lose control. The Colts must regain their confidence and know that I am behind them. They can do no wrong."

A number of Houston fans have also written they will be "on hand" wearing certain lucky garments and special charms in an effort to break the Philadelphia jinx.

Dark Granted New Contract

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Alvin Dark signed a new two-year contract Saturday as manager of the San Francisco Giants, with a boost in pay.

The former-star shortstop originally signed a two-year pact for the 1961-62 seasons.

Although salary figures were not reported officially, it was believed he will receive a $45,000 annual salary.

Dark was believed to have received $35,000 on his original pact.

The Giants finished third last season under the rookie-pitcher, who never managed in the minors. The Giants currently stand second in the National League.

Longhorns In Mid-Season Physical Form

AUSTIN (AP)—Coach Darrell Royal ran his Longhorns at a fast pace to open football practice Saturday.

Royal called the 74 prospects "the best looking bunch I have seen as to the physical shape they are in."

The Longhorns went through their first fall workout in 90-degree temperatures.

Weights dropped from 8 to 13 pounds during the morning workout. Starting guard Marvin Kubin lost 13 pounds, tackle Scott Appleton 12. Most, other linemen, and fullback Roy Poage, took off 10 pounds.

Royal ran the Horns through running plays in the afternoon.

The only injury reported, was sophomore reserve Danny Burgess. The tailback came down with a dislocated shoulder.

"What pleases me, Roy said, is that nobody came back fat. They all look like they are in good physical shape, which will make it a lot easier to move fast."

Ponies Report For Workouts

DALLAS (AP)—Sixty-two candidates, including 22 lettermen, answered the call for football practice at SMU Saturday.

Coach Hayden Fry, pleased with the condition of the squad, sent the Mustangs through a controlled scrimmage in the first session.

Two lettermen who had been expected to return were missing—Jerry Rhome, quarterback, who quit because he didn't want to play under a new offense; and Norman Nelson, regular end, who had to drop out because of illness.

Nelson had an inflamed membrane around the heart caused by a virus and his doctor advised him to stay out of football this year.

That means Nelson's football career is over since he is a senior.

The Methodists reported least and hungry with only two of them scaling over 200 pounds. One was Ray Schoene, all-Southwest Conference guard who tips the beams at 221 and will stay there. The other was John Knece, sophomore left tackle, who weighed 205 but will probably cut below 200 with a few workouts.

Fry said he was quite happy with the condition and spirit of the boys as he starts a rebuilding program. He came here from Arkansas to succeed Bill Meek as coach this year.

Birds Best Cleveland

CLEVELAND (AP)—The Baltimore Orioles, helped by Brooks Robinson's 21st home run, took a 6-0 lead on Cleveland's Sam McDowell in three innings Saturday and went on to win 8-2.

Jack Fisher (7-6) limited the Indians to seven hits, including Willie Kirkland's 20th home run, and went the distance.

McDowell (2-7) walked Jerry Adair to open the game and Dick Williams doubled Adair home. Three more walks forced in another run.

Baltimore chased McDowell with a four-run rally in the third inning. Jackie Brandt started it with a double and scored when Luplow dropped Jim Gentile's fly and then threw into the dugout. Robinson's homer scored Gentile, and three singles netted another run.

Laver, Smith Win Handily

By WILL GRIMSLEY
Associated Press Sports Writer
FOREST HILLS, N. Y. (AP)—Rod Laver and Margaret Smith, Australia's top-seeded new-tenth punch, began mopping-up operations with swift straight-set victories Saturday in the National Tennis Championships.

The red-haired Laver, seeking to duplicate Don Budge's grand slam of 1938, toyed with Eleanor Davidson, Israel's No. 1 player, before a crowd of 6,000 in the West Side Stadium. Laver won 6-3, 6-2, 6-3.

Miss Smith, the powerful built Sydney girl who has won every major women's crown this year except Wimbledon, polished off Sharon Pritula, a cute 16-year-old Detroit junior, 6-0, 6-1. It took just 30 minutes.

Advancing with Miss Smith was the defending champion, Darlene Hard of Long Beach, Calif., a 6-3, 6-4 victor over Rita Bentley of England.

Miss Hard was not at all pleased with the way she played. "I was terrible—I could have lost," she said. "I'll meet Jan Lehane of Australia in the next round. If I can beat her, I may be able to pace myself the rest of the way."

While Australia was baring its tennis teeth, the Soviet Union, playing for the first time on the West Side courts, was getting its bumps as well as its bouquets.

Sergel Likhachev, husky Russian from Baku, dropped a two-day, five-set marathon to left-handed Jim McManus of Berkeley, Calif., and figured in the first incident involving visitors from behind the Iron Curtain.

Likhachev complained of a line call in the match which McManus won 6-5, 16-12, 12-10, 6-1, 14-14.

The Russian won two of the first three sets in 3 hours of astringent tennis which had to be called after the third set because of darkness. McManus, a blond University of California student, got a quick jump in the resumption of play Saturday.

In the sixth game of the last set, however, Likhachev blasted a ball down the line which appeared to be good. Lineman Trippy Van Wyck called it out.

The Russian looked at the line man unbelievably. The umpire asked Van Wyck to repeat his decision. "It was out," the lineman said.

Thomas Lewis, a blond good-looking student from Tallinn, gave the Soviet Union its second victory when he polished off Evert Schneider of the Netherlands, 6-1, 6-4, 6-4. Sixteen-year-old Alexander Metreveli won an earlier match.

Fred Stolle of Australia, seeded fifth, got better as his match progressed in disposing of Fin Fin Dag Jagge of Norway 6-4, 6-2, 6-0. Stolle was the sensation of the Eastern grass court circuit and with Laver and second-seeded Roy Emerson gives Australia a triple shot at the men's championship.

The odds, however, are heavy in favor of young Laver, who already has won the Australian, French and Wimbledon titles and needs only the U. S. crown to complete the rare sweep of major championships.

Terry Nabs Win No. 20

NEW YORK (AP)—Ralph Terry pitched a seven-hitter and became the first American Leaguer to register 20 victories as the league-leading New York Yankees defeated the Kansas City Athletics 3-1 Saturday.

Elston Howard snapped a 1-1 tie with a two-run triple in the sixth inning, scoring Mickey Mantle and Hector Lopez with the winning runs.

Bill Fischer was the A's starter and loser. The A's gave him a 1-0 lead in the fourth when Jerry Lumpe hit his 10th homer of the season. The Yankees tied the score in the fifth, Terry driving in the run with one of his three singles.

Fischer, a right-hander, did not issue a walk in six innings, extending his string of innings to 33 in which he has not issued a walk. The major league record is 68.

New York 000 012 006-3 10 0

Fischer, Wyatt (7) and Sullivan; Terry and Howard W-Terr (20-19); L-Fischer (4-7).

Home runs — Kansas City, Lumpe (10).

Cub Rookie Equals Mark

CHICAGO (AP)—Ken Hubbs matched a major league record for second basemen Saturday by completing 73 successive games without an error. It added frosting to the Chicago Cubs' 4-3 victory over the Houston Colts on Ron Santo's two-run homer in the seventh inning.

The 20-year-old Cub rookie equalled the record streak of flawless games set by the Boston Red Sox' Bobby Doerr in 1948. Hubbs surpassed the National League mark of 67 by Red Schoendienst of the St. Louis Cardinals in 1959 on Aug. 15.

Hubbs handled seven chances Saturday to run his string to 389. The listed major league mark for this is 414 by Doerr in 1948.

A ladies day crowd of 12,794 applauded when shortstop Andre Rodgers was charged with a throwing error to Hubbs in a close official call in the third inning.

Rodgers scooped up Al Helt's grounder and rifled it to Hubbs on second. Hubbs just had time to get his glove up but missed it.

The play logically was to first base and Hubbs was surprised by Rodgers' shot at him in trying to force Johnny Temple. George Brunet scored on the error.

Temple drove in two runs in the seventh to put Houston ahead 3-2. Santo's 16th homer then sewed it up for the Cubs. Their other two Cub runs were driven in by Rodgers.

Gunderson Grabs Amateur Golf Title

By DON WEISS
Associated Press Sports Writer
ROCHESTER, N. Y. (AP)—Jo Ann Gunderson, a 23-year-old strawberry blonde from Kirkland, Wash., riddled the Country Club of Rochester course with slashing, sub-par golf Saturday and captured her third Women's National Amateur Championship with a 9 and 8 victory over 17-year-old Ann Baker of Maryland, Tenn.

Miss Gunderson, who won her first championship when she was 18 in 1957 and repeated in 1960, blended her power with remarkable putting in shooting a 2-under-par 70 while building a 6-up lead in the morning 18 holes over the 6,181-yard, par 36-36 course.

The 90-minute break for lunch didn't cool her off a bit on this

Tommy Bolt Takes Dallas Open Lead

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
DALLAS (AP)—Tommy Bolt put on a great putting spurge Saturday to shoot a 5-under-par 65 and pull himself from 15th place into the lead at 36 holes in the $35,000 Dallas Open Golf Tournament.

The tempestuous Bolt, once noted more for throwing tantrums and clubs than his golf, had 10 one-putt greens and would have had a virtually perfect putting day except for a hunk of mud. He said it caused him to miss an 18-footer on No. 11 where he took his only bogey.

His 137 for 36 holes gave him a stroke lead.

Juan (Chi-Chi) Rodriguez, the tiny Puerto Rican, and Paul Bondeson, the long hitter from Illinois, who were colanders of the tournament with 67 after the first round, found the 6,538-yard

Oak Cliff Country Club course suddenly grown into a monster—they soared to 75 and 76, respectively, and fell down with the hungry pack.

Bolt, the 41-year-old former national open champion, hasn't been doing very well this year despite the fact that he no longer throws clubs (he said he quit because it cost too much). He has won only $5,411 and the last tournament he bagged was last year when he took the Pensacola open.

Billy Maxwell, the red-haired Texan who registers from Las Vegas, Nev., shot a 70 to pull into second place at 138. Maxwell had a peculiar round—he would birdie a hole then bogey the next—and he did this three times. He had a 25-foot chipin on 16 for his last birdie.

Bolt was quite confident as he posted his 65 with only half of the field in. "Two 69's will win it," he said, "and I think I can do it."

He had a 10-foot putt on the second hole, a 12-footer on 4, a 9-footer on 5, chipped with 11 in eight inches of the hole on 7 after he had missed the green and got his par, banged a birdie on 10 with a 5-footer, a 15-footer on 12 and got a par on 13 although he missed the green and also parred 15 despite being in the rough and having to hit through trees.

Rodriguez shot himself out of the lead on the very first hole when he was stymied by a tree, hit the tree trying to get at the first ball and wound up with a double bogey. He chipped in for an eagle from 65 feet on 14 for his only good shot of the day.

Bondeson had two 3-putt greens and all in all was definitely off on his putting. He also ran into trap trouble on the second hole. Lionel Herbert and Bill Collins tied for third with 139. The former came through 14 three under for the tournament and was tied with Bolt for first but his putting soured and he wound up with a 71. Collins had a 3-under-par 67.

Home pro Earl Stewart, the defending champion, and Doug Sanders, co-favorite for first money, shot 76 and 72, respectively, and fell well down the list.

This tournament may be setting a record for withdrawals. Twelve pros have quit, four of them today, for assorted reasons, mostly injuries. Bob Bruno, who

'Get Tough' Policy Set In Frogville

FORT WORTH (AP)—The TCU football Frogs will have a new kind of coach this season, it was disclosed Saturday when the 73-man squad took its first workout.

Abie Martin now is a different kind of coach—He's tough.

After two disappointing seasons when he was the indulgent and forgiving type, the veteran coach told his players he is now a strict disciplinarian.

"There'll be no second chance for those who break training rules this season," he said. "One false step and you get the boot. I always thought first of the boy, then the team. Last year I knew one of our seniors was breaking training, but I didn't kick him off the team, because I knew it would hurt him. He stayed and we lost. That's changed. Now we're going to think first, about the good of the team—and winning."

The players applauded the coach.

Reds Blast Giants, 10-5

By JACK STEVENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer
SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Cincinnati's comeback pitcher Joe Nuxhall won his fourth straight without defeat Saturday by hand-cuffing San Francisco while the Reds blasted 16 hits for a 10-5 victory over the Giants.

Vada Pinson returned to the Cincinnati lineup after 11 days resting his injured leg and hit safely in all five times at bat—a double and four singles.

Cincinnati jumped on San Francisco's 17-game winner, Juan Marichal, with four runs on five hits in the opening inning. The Reds nicked him for two more in the sixth inning, including Marty Keough's solo homer.

Called up from San Diego a month ago, the 33-year-old Nuxhall baffled the Giants with his southpaw slants and did not allow a runner to reach third until Harvey Kuenn homered with Jose Pagan on base in the seventh. Kuenn also singled in one of the three ninth-inning runs, when Nuxhall finally needed relief from Jim Brosnan with two out.

Don Blasingame, an ex-Giant, opened the Cincinnati attack in the first with a single. Before Marichal could retire the side, Pinson and Keough had doubled and both Gordie Coleman and Leo Cardenas singled. That was enough to hand the Giant hurler his 10th loss.

World's Population Is Now 3.25 Billion

By A. I. GOLDBERG
UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—With the birth rate doubling the death rate, the world's population has reached an indicated 3.25 billion.

U.N. statistics published Saturday night estimated the world birth rate at 36 per 1,000 population in mid-1961, the death rate at 18 per 1,000.

The baby boom is swelling the world's population at almost five million annually.

At its present growth rate, estimated at 1.8 per cent, the world could touch the 4-billion mark in less than 15 years.

The figures, covered in the annual U.N. Demographic Yearbook and the latest quarterly population statistics report, indicate China may be near—if it has not passed—the 700-million mark.

The yearbook reviewed population figures, birth rates, death rates and marriage statistics for 1952-60.

The two documents brought population estimates generally up to mid-1961. The world figure at that date was 3.06 billion, U.N. officials declined to project an official figure for beyond that.

Central America with an annual rate of growth of 2.7 per cent was listed as the fastest growing area. Southwest Asia was next with 2.6 per cent.

The U.S. population was estimated at 183.8 million in mid-1961, the Soviet Union at 218 million. The latter had a growth rate of 1.7 per cent, the same as the United States.

The U.S. provisional birth rate in 1961 was estimated at 23.4 per 1,000 population, down two-tenths from 1960 and the lowest in 10 years. The death rate was estimated at 9.5, lowest since 1956. This contrasted with the 36-18 world average.

The week began in lethargic fashion, with the Dow Jones beginning to talk about the week-end ahead. Steel production declined in the latest week.

The market had one sharp decline, on Tuesday, and a surprising rally in the final hour Friday. On the other days the market dwelled, with the emphasis slightly more to the selling than the buying side.

The Dow Jones industrial average ended the week with a net loss of 4.56 at 609.18.

Market Cautious Near 'New Year'

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market Sunday stood on the verge of the traditional "business new year"—Labor Day—with more than usual caution.

In the week preceding the long Labor Day weekend, trading dwindled to the lowest total in a month as traders cleared the decks for whatever the autumn season would bring.

The market had one sharp decline, on Tuesday, and a surprising rally in the final hour Friday. On the other days the market dwelled, with the emphasis slightly more to the selling than the buying side.

The Dow Jones industrial average ended the week with a net loss of 4.56 at 609.18.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks fell 1.2 to 225.2.

Both declines were minor. Both averages were up considerably from their closing lows for the year, reached June 26—the Dow industrials from 535.75 and the AP 60 stocks from 200.6.

The market enjoyed a good traditional "summer rally" it now faces the month of September, which has a tradition for being almost always a down month when the major trend of the stock market is down, as it is at present, according to most theoretical standards.

Volatility this week faded to 14,300 shares from 20,493,832 the week before and was the lightest since the week ended July 28, when turnover was 13,914,661 shares.

The week began in lethargic fashion, with the Dow Jones beginning to talk about the week-end ahead. Steel production declined in the latest week.

The market had one sharp decline, on Tuesday, and a surprising rally in the final hour Friday. On the other days the market dwelled, with the emphasis slightly more to the selling than the buying side.

LAMAR JUNIOR HIGH—Mrs. Frank LeFeuvre, president, Mrs. Fred Kizer, secretary, and Mrs. Max West, corresponding secretary.

Pictured on this page are just a few of the parents who will be leading a duo roll for the next nine months. They not only have the job as mother, wife, house-keeper and etc., but will give their time to a vital organization called Parent-Teachers Association. This also includes fathers, who are participating more and more in our local P-T-A. They hold down their various positions as bread winners and fathers, and then play an active part in the education of their children.

The Snyder chapters of P-T-A had an outstanding year last year and it is the hope of each school that this year will be just as successful, if not more so.

The communication between parents and teachers, through P-T-A work, makes for a better understanding between parents and children, and teachers and children.

Not all the officers of the various units were present when the pictures were taken, as some are out of town or on vacation. But this week will be a busy time for all with school starting and activities getting in full swing.

MRS. THOMAS JEFFERSON HILLIS JR.

Trinity Methodist Church Setting Unites Sharon Ann Jones, Thomas J. Hillis Jr.

Miss Sharon Ann Jones of Lovington, N. M. and Mr. Thomas Jefferson Hillis Jr. of Hermleigh, exchanged double ring vows in the Trinity Methodist Church of Snyder on Saturday Sept. 1 at 7:30 p.m.

Rev. Allen Adams, pastor, officiated.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Jones, Lovington, N.M. and Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Hillis Sr. of Hermleigh.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of white peau de soie. The fitted bodice featured re-embroidered Alencon lace. The round neckline and elbow-length sleeves featured a scalloped effect. The skirt designed with a full box pleat in the center front, and cascade of Alencon lace appliques extending the length of the skirt in the front and back. The back also featured a long train.

Her waist-length veil of silk illusion was attached to a crown of pearl orange blossoms.

She carried a white Bible topped with a cascade of queenly white Stephanotis centered by a cluster of white gardenias and touches of ivy.

Miss Sandra Jones, sister of the bride, from Lovington, was maid of honor. She wore a fitted dress with overskirt made from peau de soie in an apricot color. Mrs. Gene M. Weyers of Alpine was matron of honor. Her costume was identical to the maid of honor and they carried identical gold and green cascades of Fugii mums accented with variegated croton leaves.

Mr. Donald Joe May of Hermleigh was best man. Mr. Charles Joe Burk of Eden was groomsman. Ushers were Mr. Charles E. Jones, of Wickert, brother of the bride, and Mr. Carroll Blacklock of Miles.

The altar of the church was centered with an arched candelabra holding yvone crystal cups. Bursts of greenery were used in the background. Flanking the arch were other burning tapers and greenery. White bows and foliage decorated the pews.

Mrs. Virgil R. Mott was organist and Miss Kathleen Mott was soloist.

A garden reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James T. Lowe, 3101 Forty-second Street.

For her wedding trip to Ruidoso, N. M., the bride chose a two-piece wool knit suit, in autumn blue. Her accessories were black. They will make their home at 2101 Seventeenth Street, Lubbock.

The bride is a graduate of Snyder High School and is attending Texas Tech, classified as a junior. The groom is a graduate of Hermleigh High School and a senior Civil Engineering major at Texas Tech.

Out-of-town guests were from San Angelo, Lubbock, Midland, Eola, Monahans, and Alpine. Mr. Arlon Groves of Huntsville, Ala., formerly of Hermleigh, also attended.

There are detailed descriptions of battles in the deserts and the mountains, stories about odd explorers and weird, brutal native customs. In some passages the reader may find the minute accounts of military campaigns a little tedious. But there are many exotic passages that will stir the arm chair adventurer.

Altogether, it is an admirable performance in bringing to life a strange land in a strange time.

Exotic Upper Africa

THE BLUE NILE. By Alan Moorehead.

A companion volume to the author's "The White Nile," this thoroughly researched book encompasses some fantastic scenes and adventures in the exploration of upper Africa between 1798 and the latter part of the 19th Century. It is in four parts.

"The Reconnaissance" is about a quixotic figure named James Bruce, a red-haired 6-foot-4 Scot who penetrated into primitive Ethiopia late in the 18th Century. He was a lone explorer who brought back the earliest modern account of the strange people he found. "The French in Egypt" is a study of Napoleon's temporary conquest of that land, and his visions of many projects that eventually were carried out by others; and particularly it is about the campaign of the French commander Desaix against the Turk, Murad. It was this grueling campaign that carried the French to the upper reaches of the river.

"The Turks in the Sudan" is mainly about little Muhammad Ali, a violent man who brought modern techniques of control to the wild country he dominated. There is a fascinating chapter on Shendi Market, at the crossroads of the trade routes.

"The British in Ethiopia" is perhaps the most fantastic of all these accounts. It tells how the British mounted a tremendous expeditionary force to rescue a handful of prisoners from an utterly insane black emperor named Theodore. There are detailed descriptions of battles in the deserts and the mountains, stories about odd explorers and weird, brutal native customs. In some passages the reader may find the minute accounts of military campaigns a little tedious. But there are many exotic passages that will stir the arm chair adventurer.

Altogether, it is an admirable performance in bringing to life a strange land in a strange time.

Poorly fitted shoes can exact a costly toll in foot trouble in later years. The big danger lies in the fact that you usually have no way of knowing that your child's shoes don't fit properly. Young feet are so flexible that they may adapt themselves to ill-fitting shoes without pain.

But you can depend on us—your Authorized Buster Brown Dealer. We professionally fit every pair of shoes according to the Buster Brown 6-Point Fitting Plan. This is your assurance of proper fitting at all key points—and plenty of growing room, too.

First Methodist Church Is Setting For Gretchen Short, J. D. Richardson Marriage

Miss Gretchen Short and James Douglas Richardson, Jr. exchanged marriage vows in a candle-light service at 7:30 p.m. Saturday, September 1st, at the First Methodist Church.

The double ring ceremony was read by the Rev. Harry Vanderpool. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Rupert Short, 3001 Thirty-third Street, and Mr. and Mrs. James Douglas Richardson, Sr. of Big Spring.

Escorted to the altar and presented in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of white peau de soie and re-embroidered Alencon lace. The molded bodice of lace had a scalloped scooped decolletage, and the short beaded sleeves were complemented by imported wrist length kid gloves. The waist was cinched with a crushed cummerbund of the silk which accented the waistline. Tiny self-covered buttons fastened the back of the bodice. The voluminous skirt was appliqued with the Alencon motifs. It was flat paneled in front with side fullness flowing to a windswept back that fell into a chapel train.

Her elbow length veil of imported silk illusion flowed from a miniature princess crown of seed pearls. She carried a cascade of french-cut mums and stephanotis centered with white gardenias atop a white lace covered Bible, a gift from her maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bulow of Poplar Bluff, Mo. She also carried an heirloom lace and linen handkerchief belonging to her aunt, Mrs. Charles Williams of Monterey, Calif., who carried it at her own wedding and since then has been traditionally carried by all the brides in the Bulow family, including the bride's mother.

Miss Lindie Barclay of Abilene, sorority sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Elene Corford of Brady, Miss Thelma Lew Phillips of West Columbia, also sorority sisters of the bride, and the bride's twin sisters, Deborah and Daphne Short.

The attendants wore identical street length dresses of gold peau de soie saine designed with three-quarter length sleeves, scoop necklines, bouffant skirts, matching pill box hats, dyed-to-match peau de soie shoes, and short white kid gloves. They carried bouquets of broeze mums.

Don Powell of Lubbock was best man. Groomsmen and ushers were Miss Helen Joyce, Judy Huddleston, Mrs. Gerry Springer and Mrs. Sonny Harrell. Susan Rodgers, cousin of the bride, served as junior bridesmaid. Candles were lighted by Misses Jeanie Griffin and Lea Ann Boren, also cousins of the bride. Miss Lila Boren was flower girl. Groomsmen were Mr. Sonny Harrell, Bo Brown, Gene Griffin, E. L. Franklin and Gene Bristo of Vernon.

Wedding music was furnished by Mrs. E. L. Kuhala, organist, and Mrs. Lewis Smith, sister of the bridegroom, who sang "Because" and "The Wedding Prayer." Mr. Rodgers gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a formal gown of white silk mist peau de soie designed by Mrs. Charles C. Miller.

The bodice was of Alencon lace with scalloped bateau neckline and long tapered sleeves. The bouffant skirt was appliqued with flower motifs and deep points of the lace re-embroidered with silk cord and seed pearls. The low waistline was accented in the back with crushed hibiscus roses with a trio of streamers falling over the full chapel train.

Her veil was in tiered puffs of French illusion, held in place by a small pill box applied to match the gown. Her bouquet was of gardenias and stephanotis. The bridal attendants wore dresses of emerald green brocade. They carried bouquets of white roses.

The flower girl's dress was of white net with green velvet bows. The church was decorated with arrangements of English ivy and tall tapers in brass candelabras. For their wedding trip the bride wore a charcoal suit with-leather trim and accessories.

The reception was held at Martha Ann Woman's Club. Mr. Ward is a graduate of Abilene Christian College. His wife attended Texas Tech where she pledged Delta, Delta, Delta Sorority. They will both be enrolled in Sul Ross College this fall.

Nonnie Sue Rodgers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Novis N. Rodgers, and Mrs. John Marcus Ward, son of Dr. and Mrs. Harry W. Ward, were married at 8 p.m. Thursday evening at the First Christian Church.

Rev. Allan Lynch officiated. Mrs. Jimmy Cloud served as matron of honor and Mr. Jimmy Cloud was best man.

Other bridal attendants were Miss Helen Joyce, Judy Huddleston, Mrs. Gerry Springer and Mrs. Sonny Harrell.

Susan Rodgers, cousin of the bride, served as junior bridesmaid. Candles were lighted by Misses Jeanie Griffin and Lea Ann Boren, also cousins of the bride. Miss Lila Boren was flower girl. Groomsmen were Mr. Sonny Harrell, Bo Brown, Gene Griffin, E. L. Franklin and Gene Bristo of Vernon.

Double Ring Ceremony Unites George Ann Beaty And James E. Crowder Jr.

Rev. Roy R. Havens, pastor of Union Methodist Church, performed the double ring ceremony in the Trinity Methodist Church, Friday evening, August 31st at 7:30 which united Miss George Ann Beaty and Mr. James E. Crowder Jr. in marriage.

The altar was centered with three candelabras holding 21 burning tapers. Palms and burst of greenery were used in the background. Also flanking the archway were other burning tapers banked with suburnst of greenery. White bows and foliage decorated the pews.

Bud Crow of Ardon, cousin of the groom, and Bill Traubman of Benjamin seated guests.

Mrs. Gene Brooks of Noyce, cousin of the groom was organist, and Tommy Contella soloist, sang "Because" and "I Pledge My Love."

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lane Beaty of Silver, and Mr. and Mrs. J. Elmo Crowder of 706 Twenty-sixth Street are parents of the couple.

Mr. Beaty gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a gown of pure white silk peau de soie, fashioned with a molded bodice and three-quarter sleeves. The neckline, a softly scalloped bateau, of handclipped Alencon lace was re-embroidered in seed pearls. The skirt, a controlled bell shape had a panel of Alencon lace applique from waist to hem line. The skirt back, a modified pouf, was topped with a flat bow and a self-fabric rose. A double panel of Alencon down the entire back terminated in the chapel length train. Her head dress, a forward tilted half crown of Mather of Pearl leaves, was topped with tiny flat peau de soie roses. Her veil was a floating elbow length pouf.

For something old she wore her maternal great grandmother's brooch, something blue, a garter, something borrowed, white kid gloves from Mrs. Jerry Zubanks, for luck a penny in her shoe, mided the year of her birth.

She carried a cascade of white Cattleya orchid and stephanotis with green touches of ivy atop a white prayer book.

Miss Jan Vestal was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Becky Beaty, sister of the bride, Miss Janie Crowder, sister of the groom.

Attendants wore identical dresses fashioned with fitted bodice and bell-shaped skirts, with matching headpieces and accessories of cerise pink satin. They carried pink sweetheart roses and white feathered carnations centered with a single happiness rose in the colonial tradition.

Earl Lane Beaty of Silver, brother of the bride, and George Crowder, brother of the groom were candle lighters.

Pat Wilburn of Roby was best man.

A reception was held in fellowship hall. The refreshment table was centered with the bride's and attendants bouquets on a reflector. Table appointments were in crystal and silver.

Patsy Ramsey served the three-tiered cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom and decorated with white roses and lily of the valley. Judy Buchanan registered guests.

Others in the house party were Mrs. C. A. Ramsey, Mrs. Thayne Mebane, Mrs. Raymond Robinson and Miss Patsy Mebane.

For traveling the bride wore a sapphire blue suit with black accessories and the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

The bride is a graduate of Snyder High School, a member of Lucky 13 Sports Club and B&PW Club. She was employed by Lone Star Gas Co. Mr. Crowder is a graduate of Snyder High School and a 1962 graduate of Hardin-Simmons University with a degree in Banking and Finance.

They will make their home in Midland where Mr. Crowder is employed by Midland National Bank.

Out-of-town guests were from Anson, Sweetwater, Houston, Gladewater, Silver, and Las Cruces, N. M.

A rehearsal dinner was given Thursday night at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Elmo Crowder, with Mrs. W. R. Gibson and Mrs. Frances Brown, assisting. Rev. and Mrs. Roy R. Havens attended the wedding party.

Boys View Own Vandalism

By VIVIAN BROWN
AP Newsfeatures Writer

What drives young people to vandalism? Pros and cons of that question were discussed recently by a group of teen-agers who had wantonly destroyed property in a private community beach area where their own families swim and picnic.

Bitterness seems to be the only answer to their indiscretions by their own evaluation in retrospect.

"I guess you might say we were all mad at something," explains one contrite 17-year-old. "But why it led us to destructiveness is a mystery. Maybe in some ways it was better that our own families were involved. Strangers would have been harsher with us."

In Bad Mood
The boys are on probation released to their parents for discipline. All were shamed by the deed and were punished in ways that hurt: no liberties, no privileges, no car use, no allowance, "no nothing," as one boy put it. And they agreed their vengeance would be a hard memory to erase in their community.

One boy traces the beginning this way:

"Weeks ago small problems with our families put us all in a bad mood. For one thing we wanted to have a party at the community grounds one evening, and they were agin' it, so we called it off. But it lurked around our skulls, gnawing at us, and every once in a while, we'd bemoan the fun we could have had."

Then various crises developed in each boy's life.

Joe's girl went to Europe for a long vacation; Jeff's father lost money in the stock market and had to renege on his promise of a jalopy; Jimmy was stuck babysitting for a visiting married sister in an emergency; Art was blamed for dropping his father's outboard motor; Freddy couldn't resist food and was less popular than ever with the girls because he was so rotund in a bathing suit.

Don't Understand Why
"Now that we've mull'd the thing over, we figure those are the things that pushed us over the cliff," explains Jeff.

They don't understand what led them to the beach area on that particular night, realizing their parents would be furious. Or who investigated the trouble. Art explains:

"When we got there someone mentioned that we'd get pulverized if we were caught. Someone else said 'Here's what I think of this stupid park,' tossing the trash basket to someone else. Someone said, 'I agree,' picking up a bench and throwing it. Some one raised a picnic table and pushed it down to the water. We all jumped on the table and sat for awhile. Then someone raced up the beach and started dragging another table down to the water. Then we took other stuff and started throwing it in the water."

Only Anger Involved
Jimmy Says:

"I can't even understand how I slept so well that night. Somehow when I got home it was all behind me. I couldn't even associate myself with the episode when the police located me. I couldn't remember how it happened. It didn't seem to have happened to us."

A parent of one boy says: "The horror is there was nothing more than anger involved. The boys don't drink beer or anything like that. They don't even smoke. They are good scholars. How could they have gotten in such a mess?"

One of the boys may have hit the nail on the head when he said: "I guess it was the first time my parents had ever really refused me such a little thing."

When endive is available for salad, give it a partner of cooked beets. Top with sieved hard-cooked egg and serve with French dressing. Use canned beets—the "baby" variety or julienne style.

WHAT'S GOING ON

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Royce Gladson were among the graduation class which held their ceremonies August 25 at S. W. T. S. C. in San Marcos. Mrs. Gladson received her Bachelor of Science degree in education and was a member of Pi Omega Pi, and Alpha Phi. Mr. Gladson received his Bachelor of Arts degree.

Celery-Orange Salad
4 oranges
2 cups diced celery
French dressing
Boston lettuce
Pare oranges so no white membrane remains; slice about 1/4-inch thick and dice—there should be 2 cups. Mix with celery and about 1/4 cup French dressing; chill until serving time. Arrange on lettuce. Makes 6 servings.

LIBRARY NOTES

The beginning of Autumn and pleasant fall days always bring a rush of requests to the Scurry County Library on nature study, the ways of animals, and the wonders of plants.

Many people are finding these days that nature can be a source of never-ending excitement and pleasure and that books can make exploring the outdoors even more enjoyable.

To highlight its materials on nature and natural history, the library this week opened a display captioned "The Wonderful World of Nature."

Among dozens of other books at the library about nature are such titles as "Try Nature" by Robert S. Field; "Beyond Your Doorstep," by Hal Borland; "Journey Into Summer," by Edwin Way Teale; "The Wonders of Life on Earth," by Life Magazine; and "Nature Is Your Guide, How To Find Your Way On Land & Sea & By Observing Nature," by Harold Gatty.

For persons who would like to know more about the ways of animals there are such volumes as "Wild Animals of North America," by National Geographic Society; Will Barker's "Familiar Animals of America," and V. J. Stank's "Secrets of Nature."

People who are interested in developing a hobby or some new activity might enjoy our varied collection of books and materials on birds and bird watching. Such recording of songs and calls of more than 300 species of land and water birds recorded in the field by the Laboratory of Ornithology, Cornell University, which goes along with Peterson's Field Guide Series of books that the library has available. Also Samuel Grimes' book "Album of Southern Birds," Roger Barton's "How to Watch Birds," and others.

Trees and how to know them are covered in such books as "Knowing Your Trees," by George Collingwood; "Field Book of American Trees and Shrubs," by F. S. Matthews; and "Our Trees: How to Know Them."

"World of Nature," by V. J. Stank and "Photographing Your Flowers," by John Patrick Roche are books which describe the equipment essential for this type of photographic work and how to use it for best results.

Beginning September 4th, the library will open at 9:00 instead of at 8:00 in the morning. This will be the only change in the hours at the central library. The Branch Library located at the Lincoln School will be open each Monday, Tuesday and Thursday evenings from 6:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. The Bookmobile will be at Ira School Tuesday, September 4th, at 1:30 p.m.; at Fivanna School on Wednesday, September 5th, at 1:30 p.m., followed by a brief stop in town at approximately 3:00 p.m.; and at Hermleigh School on Thursday, September 6th, at 9:30 a.m.

Generations Recounted For Readers

THE WATER AND THE SOUND, By Gillian Tindall.

Two generations of Parisian life are encompassed in this story.

It is told by Nadia, who had been raised by her English aunt. The legend was that Nadia was the love child of a dissolute French poet called Drodri and a bohemian English girl named Marian, who had gone to Paris as an art student.

So Nadia, a young writer, decides to go to Paris and find out what she could about her dead mother and father. There had been a book about Drodri, produced by a sympathetic hanger-on in the cafe life of Drodri's time, but it obviously was inadequate. Nadia had the notion she might write a book about her mother's part in Drodri's life.

During her investigations Nadia finds a man named Desnois, who had known both her parents. And she discovers a young American painter who must have been her half-brother.

As the story develops, we have two parallel narratives of Nadia's own life and that of her parents, with the threads of both narratives intertwined. It builds to a sharp climax in the midst of a tension that holds the reader's attention. Miss Tindall's book is well written, for an audience of sophisticated readers.

Panned Cabbage And Carrots

1 1/2 cups thinly sliced carrots
1/2 cup water
1 quart coarse knife-shredded green cabbage
2 scallions (green onions), thinly sliced with tops included
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
1/2 to 3/4 teaspoon salt
Pepper to taste

In a 10-inch covered skillet, boil the carrots in the water until almost tender; there should be several tablespoons of water left, if not add that amount to skillet. Add the cabbage, scallions, butter, salt and pepper; mix well and cook gently, covered, until cabbage is as wilted and as tender as you like. Makes 4 servings.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED—Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hayward Hebert of Houston, announce the engagement of their daughter, Susan Shirley Hebert, to Robert Walker Dabbs, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walker Teas Dabbs of 2709 Thirty-fifth Street, Snyder. The wedding date has been set for October 6, in the chapel of St. John The Divine Episcopal Church, Houston. The couple are graduates of Rice University. Susan was vice president of the 1962 senior class, and president of Elizabeth Baldwin Literary Society. Robert received his B. A. degree in 1961 and his B. S. degree in 1962, was a fellow of Wiess College and a member of several engineering societies.

MR. AND MRS. KARSON BIVINS

Peggy Moore, K. L. Bivins Exchange Marriage Vows

Miss Peggy Moore of Snyder became the bride of Karson L. Bivins of Benjamin, in double ring services read August 26th, in the Morningside Baptist Church at 6:30 p.m.

Rev. James Rogers, pastor, officiated.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. George E. Moore, East Highway, and Mr. and Mrs. Leon Bivins, Benjamin.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a street-length dress of Chantilly lace over tulle and taffeta, fashioned with long tapered sleeves. Her finger-tip veil fell from a pearl trimmed headpiece.

She carried feathered mums atop a white Bible.

Mrs. Bivins is a 1960 graduate of Snyder High School and has at-

Baltimore was maid of honor and wore a blue linen dress and carried a colonial bouquet.

Mr. Bivins attended his son as best man. Ushers were Harold Buchanan Jr., David Thompson, and Vernon Moore, all of Snyder.

Mr. Billie Labenske was organist and Mrs. James Rogers soloist.

A reception was held in the home of the bride's parents. A blue and white color theme was carried out in the home decor. Janie Jones presided at the three-tiered cake and Barbara Buchanan registered 60 guests. Others in the house party were Jeannine Thompson, Judy Buchanan, Penny Buchanan, Betty Buchanan and Fern Buchanan.

Comedy Is Fairly Entertaining

THE TWO SUSANS. By William Brinkley. Random $4.95.

Under the heading of "light reading," this farcical concoction of nonsense can qualify as fairly entertaining stuff.

The key to the plot is that a magazine writer named Jason Hightower gets the notion that having a mistress is a natural thing for a young Manhattanite. Without too much difficulty he locates one in his office, a Susan Smithers. She is the terribly intellectual type, a divorcee who has a small son of precocious interests in French literature and a knack of playing pranks on adults. Complications arise from the fact that Jason manages to get involved with another girl in the office, a Susan Hood, who is the exact opposite. She is an uncultured type from Ringfield, Calif., with virginal and almost Victorian ideas about morals.

So this is a study in contrasts between egghead and egg-gathering females in the big city, as seen from the viewpoint of a shallow young roisterer.

For purposes of the plot, Jason manages to lead a double life with these females until the inevitable day when they find out about each other. It wouldn't do to give the solution away, but it is one that gives Jason more than he deserves, and less than he deserves, the dope.

Brinkley squeezes the utmost out of this brittle bit of japey, but sometimes the situations are a little labored. The book may not be as good as his "Don't Go Near the Water," or as snavely bright as his "The Fun House," but after all it's only in fun.

Leaky Sewer Pipe A Lure For Tree Roots, What To Do

A leaky sewer pipe may not excite your own fancy but to the roots of your trees it can be the "fairies of them all."

A loosely-jointed sanitary drain and roots get together like Romeo and Juliet. In the pipe, roots find just what they have been seeking—moisture, air and food. Result of this strange union: a clogged sewer, backflow and a plumber's bill.

F. E. Farrar says few homeowners realize how a small root goes to town once inside a damp pipe. A tiny root can soon develop a vast network of rootlets capable of clogging the busiest sewer. Small wonder the water and refuse goes out sluggishly!

This annoyance arises most often with rural homes or older city houses. If you are among the unfortunates, employ a roto-roto to cut out the main root plug. Then apply copper sulphate regularly about once a month to discourage new invasions.

All trees share alike this desire for occupying sewers. Such fast growers as poplar and willows are justly accused most often, but it is tree nature — any tree — to send roots where free lunch beckons.

Stricter building codes on sewers have cut clogging caused by poorly laid and badly sealed pipe.

tended Sul Ross State College for two years. The groom is a 1962 graduate of Sul Ross State College and a R. A. H. major.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. V. A. Moore of El Paso, grandparents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Beckner of Seymour, Mrs. B. R. Elliott and Cathy, Mrs. M. E. Scott, all of Sulphur Springs, and Miss Margaret McKinney of Balmoreha.

In hot weather, keep water-ground cornmeal in a tightly covered jar in the refrigerator.

Natural Gas Use Soars In 7 Years

By MAX B. SKELTON
HOUSTON (AP)—Home use of natural gas has increased 70 per cent in 7 years.
Gas now heats 41 per cent of all the nation's dwelling units. Industry sources estimate they are gaining more than 4,000 home heating customers a day.

Distributors are confident the future is bright but admit one competitive problem is irritating if not embarrassing. They say too many gas heating furnaces are turned on and off by electricity.

This prompted one distributor this week to call on the industry to set a goal of supplying its customers with their total energy requirements.

Marvin Chandler of Chicago, president of the Northern Illinois Gas Co., advocated such a goal even though conceding electricity, at least at present, is essential to some improvements such as indoor lighting and the operation of vacuum cleaners and razors.

"With total requirements as our goal, we will have to provide electricity as well as gas at the point of use," Chandler told the Independent Natural Gas Association of America convention.

"So it is up to us to find means of converting the energy at the site of its use, at the customers' premises. For all our customers, that isn't easy, but for some the equipment is available now and we should be out selling it. I am referring to gas-burning reciprocating engines to generate the electricity."

Clarence Unneveher, chief of the Federal Power Commission's Bureau of Natural Gas, said the number of residential customers has increased from 20 million to 34 million since 1955.

"In just 7 years, during a period when most of the postwar boom has leveled off in other areas of our economy, natural gas went ahead to increase by 70 per cent," Unneveher said. "I forecast gas will hold its share of the total national energy market well into the 1980s if not beyond that."

Harold Decker of Houston said additions to gas reserves; the last 10 years totaled 181 trillion cubic feet.

"In order to satisfy the expected demand the next 20 years and maintain our present reserves-to-production ratio, we must find about 275 trillion cubic feet," he said. He is president of the Independent Petroleum Association of America.

"This means we will have to find about 50 per cent more gas than we found the last 10 years."

Coroner Revises Suicide Verdict

MOBILE, Ala. (AP)—A verdict of suicide in the hanging of a high school senior has been revised by the county coroner to a finding of probable accidental death.

The body of Wayne Eric Waldo, 18, was found at his home Wednesday hanging by a rope tied to a back porch rail.

Detectives said the boy's mother, Mrs. Mary H. Waldo, told them he was despondent over failing to make the school football team.

Coroner Earl Wert said he revised the verdict Thursday on the basis of a statement by the boy's grandmother that the youth on at least two previous occasions had simulated hanging himself as a trick.

Communists Making New Bid For Power In Chile Ballot

By JOSE M. ORLANDO
SANTIAGO, Chile (AP)—Two years ago the Communists almost won the presidency of Chile. Two years from now they will try again. An interim test of their strength comes Monday when they back a Roman Catholic candidate in a special congressional election.

Seemingly full of confidence, the Reds are making their bid in a traditionally Conservative district.

The candidate they are backing is Sergio Recabarren, 43, a lawyer running in a three-way contest to fill a House seat vacated by the death of a Conservative deputy.

President Jorge Alessandri's right-of-center coalition government is supporting Gustavo Monckeberg, 49, a doctor and conservative who is a political newcomer. The third candidate is Bernardo Leighton, 53, a moderately leftist Christian Democrat and minister of labor and education in previous governments.

The Alessandri government, with a clear working majority in the House of Deputies, is not threatened. But a Communist victory—or even good showing—could give the Reds a propaganda boost for 1964 elections.

Recabarren himself is a member of the National Democratic Party, a former neo-Fascist group which joined the leftist Popular Action Front set up after a Communist-Socialist coalition barely missed winning the 1958 elections.

Predicting a pro-Communist government will take over in 1964, Recabarren says: "Marxist and non-Marxist parties are joined in the common goal of dislodging, by democratic means, the present minority government and satisfying the anguish and needs of the Chilean people."

"Everybody has the duty to participate in this urgent task—the Freemason, the atheist Marxist and the practicing Roman Catholic as well."

The Communist leadership, in supporting Recabarren, has openly declared it aims to establish a regime in Chile patterned after Fidel Castro's Cuba.

Like Castro at the beginning, the Reds in this predominantly Roman Catholic republic claim there is no incompatibility between communism and the Catholic Church.

Recabarren has taken a slightly softer line than the Red hierarchy in an attempt to attract votes of independents but his basic platform follows the Communist line. He wants nationalization of industries, the biggest being the American-owned copper and nitrate industries. He also urges redistribution of wealth among the poor.

Recabarren denounces President Kennedy's Alliance for Progress program as "just a good wish" and declares: "As St. Paul said, hell is full of good wishes."

The contested congressional district covers Santiago City, and is thus a stiff challenge for the Communists. They have shown most strength in the country where poverty has made the people receptive to propaganda.

The Communist party was outlawed 12 years but became legal in 1952. It is a small but well-oiled political machine. The Communists have a majority—but not absolute control—in the leadership of the labor union movement. They get support among university students, young intellectuals and peasants.

There are only 16 Red deputies in the 41-seat House. However, the Communist-backed presidential candidate, Senator Salvador Allende, was beaten by only 24,000 votes by Alessandri in 1958 out of a total ballot of 1.25 million.

Allende is expected to make another try in 1964 with backing from the popular action front.

Jose M. Orlando is chief correspondent in Chile for The Associated Press. He previously was assigned to Havana, after Castro took power, and to Montevideo, Uruguay.

Arab League Delays Action On Dispute

SHTAURA, Lebanon (AP)—The Arab League Council decided today to delay action on the dispute between the United Arab Republic and Syria in hopes tension might ease between the feuding countries.

The council adjourned its special meeting which was convoked by Syria with charges that the U.A.R. was inciting revolt.

Junior Editors Quiz on OASIS

QUESTION: What causes an oasis?

ANSWER: Imagine yourself an Arab. You have been traveling all day over the blistering hot desert, where no plants can grow because of the lack of moisture. You catch sight of a little group of palm trees on the horizon, toward which the wise leader of your camel train is heading. A few minutes later you step out of that fierce heat into the dark cool green of thick palm trees and you see the glimmer of water so marvelously cool and refreshing. You are inside an oasis. What has caused the water to well out in this spot when the surrounding area is so bone dry? There may be a number of reasons. An underground spring may be bubbling up into the oasis pool, or it may be connected with an underground river. Sometimes water running down a mountain side goes underground and then bubbles up in an oasis. An oasis may be a small one as we show here, but again it may be a large area, where people can cultivate trees and crops. There are oases which can support several million people in this way.

FOR YOU TO DO: The next time you drink a glass of cool water, think of that thirsty Arab who gave thanks to Allah as he drank. We should give thanks in our own way for water, one of the most wonderful of nature's gifts.

John Rucybak of Coatesville, Pa., wins $10 for this question. Mail yours on a postcard to Junior Editors in care of this newspaper.

Abilene Church Ceremony Unites Miss Steel And T. R. Green Jr. In Marriage

The Elmwood West Methodist Church of Abilene was the setting for the marriage of Patricia Ann Steel of Abilene and T. R. Green Jr. of Snyder, on Friday evening, August 31, at 8 o'clock.

Rev. Hubert Thomson, pastor, officiated.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Vernon B. Cox, 830 Leggett Drive, Abilene, and Mr. and Mrs. Troy R. Green, 3003 Forty-first Street, Snyder.

Buddy Earle of Childress was organist and Jack Chambless of Abilene was soloist.

The altar was created with seven branch candelabras interspersed with palms. On either side were baskets of white pom pum mums and gladioli. The couple knelt on white satin covered prie die.

Mrs. Rex Caldwell of Abilene was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Delmer Day of Abilene, Miss Ann Thurmon of Breckenridge, cousin of the bride, and Miss Vickie McGlothlin of Abilene, niece of the bride as junior bridesmaid.

Debra Dean Dowell, niece of the bride was flower girl and Hub Phipps Jr., nephew of the bride of Lawton, Okla., was ring bearer.

Candlelighters were Geni Kay Davis of Snyder, cousin of the groom, and Belinda Leigh McGlothlin of Abilene, cousin of the bride.

Attendants wore street-length dresses of flame red taffeta, fashioned with fitted bodices and circular skirt with a scooped neckline. Their headresses were large taffeta bows to match the dresses with short silk illusion veils, and matching shoes. They carried cascades of English ivy and white gladioli.

Jerry Boon Burson of Dallas was the groom's best man. Ushers were Thurmon Andrew of Amarillo, cousin of the bride, Johnny Ross Green of Abilene, nephew of the bride, and Wayne Marra of Big Spring.

Groomsman were David Albin of Spur, Ronald Brewer of Snyder and Bobby Wharton of Rule.

The bride, given in marriage by her stepfather, wore a gown of peau de soie with chapel train and lavishly reemphasized Alencon lace motifs on the scalloped neckline bodice and skirt. Bridal pearls and sequins caressed the motifs. The bow trimmed midriff dramatized the bouffance of the skirt. Long tapered sleeves ended in points over the hands.

Her finger-tip veil of pure silk imported illusion fell from a double crown of seed pearls. She carried a Bible with a cascade arrangement of white roses and stephanotis.

Mothers of the couple wore gardenias and the grandmothers wore white carnation corsages.

A reception was held at the church. The house party included Mrs. Jerry Richburg, Abilene, Mrs. Jerry Dix, Abilene, Miss Linda Clark, Abilene, Miss Sheron Berry, Retan, sisters of the bride Mrs. H. D. Ferguson and Mrs. James Dowell, both of Abilene, and Mrs. Hub Phipps of Lawton, Okla., Miss Gaila Walters of Eastland and Lera Jo Lackey of Avoca.

For her wedding trip to Dallas, San Antonio and Corpus Christi, the bride chose a red silk suit with white shark skin blouse, red pill box hat, white patent accessories, and a white rose corsage from her bridal bouquet.

They will be at home at 4019 Lynwood, Abilene after Sept. 10. The bride graduated from Abilene High School in 1960 and will continue her studies at McMurry where she will be a junior. She is a member of T. L. P. social club was a runner-up for sophomore class favorite, and for totem beauty at McMurry.

The groom graduated from Snyder High School in 1959. He attended North Texas in Denton, and is now a junior Business Major at McMurry where he will continue his studies.

The Groom's parents hosted the rehearsal dinner Aug. 30, at the Holiday Inn.

handkerchief of her grandmother Brattons, in the Bible of her bouquet she wore a cameo ring belonging to her grandmother Martin. Her dress was new, the Bible beneath the bouquet was borrowed from Mrs. Corky Kruse, a blue garter was a gift of the bridesmaid, and she wore a comb in her shoe minted the year of her birth.

She carried a bouquet of Frenched mums centered with a white orchid atop a white Bible.

Mrs. E. L. Emery of Ira, attended her sister as matron of honor.

She wore a pastel blue lace dress, a headpiece of circular blue tulle with satin bow, short white gloves and white shoes. Her colonial bouquet was of white pom pum mums highlighted with blue net.

Theda DeShan of Snyder was bridesmaid and wore an ensemble matching that of the matron of honor.

David Martin of Fort Worth, cousin of the bride, and Billy Grinnett of Snyder, cousin of the groom, were candle lighters.

Ron Dupree of Snyder was best man. Bill Hazel of Snyder was groomsman, and Stanley Martin of Ira, brother of the bride, and Larry House, brother of the groom were ushers.

The reception was held in the Ira community center. The table was laid with a white linen cloth, centered with an arrangement of white carnations and pom pom

Donna Gayle Martin, Jerry B. House Wed In Ira Baptist Church Ceremony

The Ira Baptist Church was the setting for the marriage of Donna Gayle Martin of Ira, and Jerry Brent House of Snyder, August 24th, at 6 o'clock in the evening.

Rev. Marvin Rogers read the double ring ceremony.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Martin, Ira, and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond House, Clairmont Route, Snyder.

The church altar was decorated with four candelabras with greenery and white tapers, flanked by two baskets of white gladioli.

Mrs. J. W. Lewis, organist presented the musical program and accompanied Theda De Shan who sang, "Walk Hand In Hand", and "Now and Forever".

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of silk organza over tulle and taffeta, with Swiss embroidered medallions. The portrait neckline outlined in embroidery and pearls with highlights of iridescent sequins. The gown had a fitted bodice with covered buttons below the waistline in back, long tapering sleeves, with covered buttons, a full sweeping skirt with embroidered medallions in front, and Victorian drape ending in a short chapel train.

Her finger-tip veil was of illusion net, trimmed in an edging of Chantilly lace, fell from a crown of pearls. She wore a string of pearls; a gift of the groom. For something old, a linen and lace mums. Crystal and silver were used in appointments.

Mrs. Jimmy Bryant of Sweetwater, and Carolyn Beckham of Snyder, presided at the three tiered wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom.

Miss Sue Thornhill registered guests.

For her wedding trip to Fort Worth and Dallas the bride chose a beige and white stripe cord, three-piece suit, white blouse, beige hat and shoes, and white kid gloves. She wore the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

The couple are at home at 1700 Virginia Street, Big Spring.

The bride is a 1962 graduate of Ira High School. The groom is a 1962 graduate of Snyder High School, and will attend Howard County Junior College.

Out-of-town guests were from Del Rio, Abilene, Fort Worth, Sweetwater and Hobbs, N.M.

to miss entirely the gentry whimsy of Don Walker's orchestration for the Broadway version. Walker and Broadway musical director Herbert Greene allowed us to imagine what "Seventy-Six Trombones" would sound like if played by that many snub mps. Heindorf, with a heavy hand on the baton, produces the required number, or pretty close to it, and rips our illusions to shreds with a cataclysm of noise.

Mercifully, not all revivals are throttled to death by such inept hands.

The D'Oyle Carte Company, for instance, still manages to mine pure gold from the musical vein that gushed with inspiration for Messrs. Gilbert and Sullivan.

Even a lesser-known work like "Patience" glows with loveliness and grace under the baton of Isidore Godfrey, with the New Symphony Orchestra and the D'Oyle Carte Opera Company and Chorus, on a new London album that also includes all the dialogue.

First produced in 1881, "Patience" opened the new Savoy Theater which was built to showcase the talents of these great satirists. It contains some of Sullivan's most likable music, and its fun filled plot, roasting the pretensions of the Pre-Raphaelite movement in Victorian England, seems applicable to come of today's mass culture binges.

Latest Music Man Isn't Best

By HUGH A. MULLIGAN
AP Newsfeatures Writer

Save your original cast "Music Man" albums, folks. Hollywood has done it again. With heavy hand and ear-splitting sound, they've managed to vulgarize the simple delights of Meredith Willson's charming musical portrait of an Iowa town circa 1912.

Except for Robert Preston's performance as the amiable con-man, a factor that remains constant in both productions, Warner Brothers' sound track album of "Music Man" is inferior in almost every way to Capitol's original cast album of this minor theatrical masterpiece.

Shirley Jones is good, but not nearly as good as Barbara Cook. Buddy Hackett is sadly miscast in the Iggy Wollington role. Hermina Gingold, by grossly overplaying a faint double entendre line in one of the choral numbers, introduces an element of low taste and cheap humor not found in the original.

But the real cannibalization of "Music Man" takes place in the orchestra pit, where noise is substituted for second and where, for apparently no reason at all, a new song, "Being in Love," is substituted for the delightful "My White Knight." The substitute is not just inferior to the original, it's terrible, so bad in fact that it makes you wonder whether Willson had anything to do with its composition.

Ray Heindorf's musical supervision of the sound track puts such a premium on din and clatter as

Solemn Owl Cuts Down Mr. Margolies

MISTER MARGOLIES. By James Yaffe.

A deftly written study of a man who didn't know he was a phoney, this novel has its setting in the New York world of well-to-do Jewish business men.

For 33 years Stanley Margolies had been "Vice President in Charge of Public Relations" for a shoe manufacturing firm run by his brother-in-law Murray Fishbein.

In Stanley's own eyes, he was a man of the world, a debonair lady-killer with fine business connections and excellent taste; a magic creator of important good will for Fishbein's company.

In actual fact, his brother-in-law had been carrying him along in a secure, Stanley was a pompous bore in his social contacts; he was a useless wheel in the company organization and an object of condescending scorn among the shoe buyers. Stanley apparently never had read about the James Thurber character who daydreamed himself into grandiose situations. He was that kind himself.

Years ago Stanley had made a mistake. Murray's son Lester was a serious little boy and Stanley had called him "the Solemn Owl." Lester had developed a fine loathing for Stanley.

So now Lester has grown up and has been taken into the firm by his father, who will do anything to give Lester a free hand. What else could Lester do but get rid of Stanley, the phoney old bore? The story is about Stanley's struggle against the inevitable, his realization of his own shallow character, and his final reaction to that fact.

Yaffe writes well. He manages to make you feel sympathetic toward his ill-starred hero, sorry for his shortcomings and his fate.

Brown Rim Cookies

- 3/4 cup flour
 - 3/4 cup cornstarch
 - 1/4 teaspoon cream of tartar
 - 3/4 cup butter or margarine
 - 1 cup superfine granulated sugar
 - 1/2 teaspoon vanilla
 - 1 large egg
- Sift together the flour, cornstarch and cream of tartar. Cream butter, sugar and vanilla; beat in the egg thoroughly; mix in the sifted ingredients until blended. Drop slightly heaped teaspoonfuls of the dough, at least 2 inches apart, on a cookie sheet. Bake in a hot (400 degrees) oven 6 to 8 minutes, or until cookies have wide rims and centers are still white. Remove carefully with a wide spatula in wire racks to cool. Store these fragile crisp cookies in a tightly covered metal container. Makes about 6 dozen.

MRS. STANLEY PRICE HULEN

Danny Darlyne Callaway, Becomes Bride Of Stanley Price Hulen In Church Rites

Double ring wedding vows were exchanged Friday evening at 6 o'clock in the Colonial Hill Baptist Church by Danny Darlyne Callaway, and Stanley Price Hulen.

Dr. Jimmie Nelson officiated before an altar centered with a brass arched candelabra holding 15 cathedral tapers. Palms and bursts of greenery were used in the background. Also accenting the archway were brass floor standards filled with gold and bronze Fuji mums. Other burning tapers in crystal cups were on either side of the altar. Cocoa satin bows with green and yellow croton leaves accented the pews.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan E. Callaway, 231 Forty-second Street, and Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Hulen, 214 Forty-first Street, are parents of the couple.

Ralph Wesson, organist, accompanied Mrs. Willard DeWitt, who sang "Because," and "The Lord's Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white satin full-length sheath, fashioned with long sleeves ending in points over the hands, chapel length train, rounded neckline trimmed in Chantilly lace appliques and seed pearls. The train was accented with lace appliques embroidered with seed pearls. The gown was made by the bride's mother.

Her shoulder length veil of silk illusion fell from a crown of pearls and orange blossoms. For something old she wore a watch belonging to her grandmother, borrowed a wedding handkerchief belonging to Mrs. Willard DeWitt, and a blue garter the groom's mother made. She wore a penny in her shoe mated the year of her birth. She carried a cascade of queen-white stephanotis and green accents of ivy with a center of ivy florals and white Cattleya orchid, on a prayer book.

Miss Billy Murphy of Abilene wore a brown satin street-length dress fashioned with scoop neck, elbow length sleeves, braided belt skirt and matching shoes. Her pill box hat of brown satin held a bouffant veil.

She carried a bronze and gold crescent bouquet of Peruvian lilies and Fuji mums backed with a contrast of greens and yellows of croton leaves.

Bridesmaids were Miss Pamela Haigwood and Miss Sherene Gladson, both of Snyder. They wore dresses fashioned as the matron of honor only in deep gold satin with matching heels, shoes and shoes. They carried flowers identical to that of the other attendant.

Mr. Hulen attended his son as best man, Terry Lee of Lubbock, and Jerry Fleming of Snyder were groomsmen. Ushers included Bubba Fleming of Snyder, Bob Callaway and Kimmie Callaway, brothers of the bride, and Billy Murphy of Abilene.

The bride's mother wore a beige silk suit with brown patent accessories. The groom's mother wore an avocado silk shantung dress with black accessories. Both wore corsages of Fuji mums and croton leaves.

A reception was held in the home of the bride's parents. The table was laid with a beige cloth over brown underlining. Appointments were in crystal and silver. Miss Sherene Gladson presided at the three tiered wedding cake topped with wedding bells.
