

Mayor Calls City Election

City Councilmen discussed several improvement plans for the city Tuesday night when they met in regular session, but delayed taking action on said projects, awaiting the outcome of the city sales tax election.

One such project tabled was the improvement of water lines and addition of fire hydrants on 9th and 10th streets.

The improvements would include a six-inch water line and four hydrants. Cost of the improvements caused councilmen to delay approval of the project.

Melvin Rape reported on his recent survey of the city in which he determined the number of residential lights needed for the city to have adequate lighting.

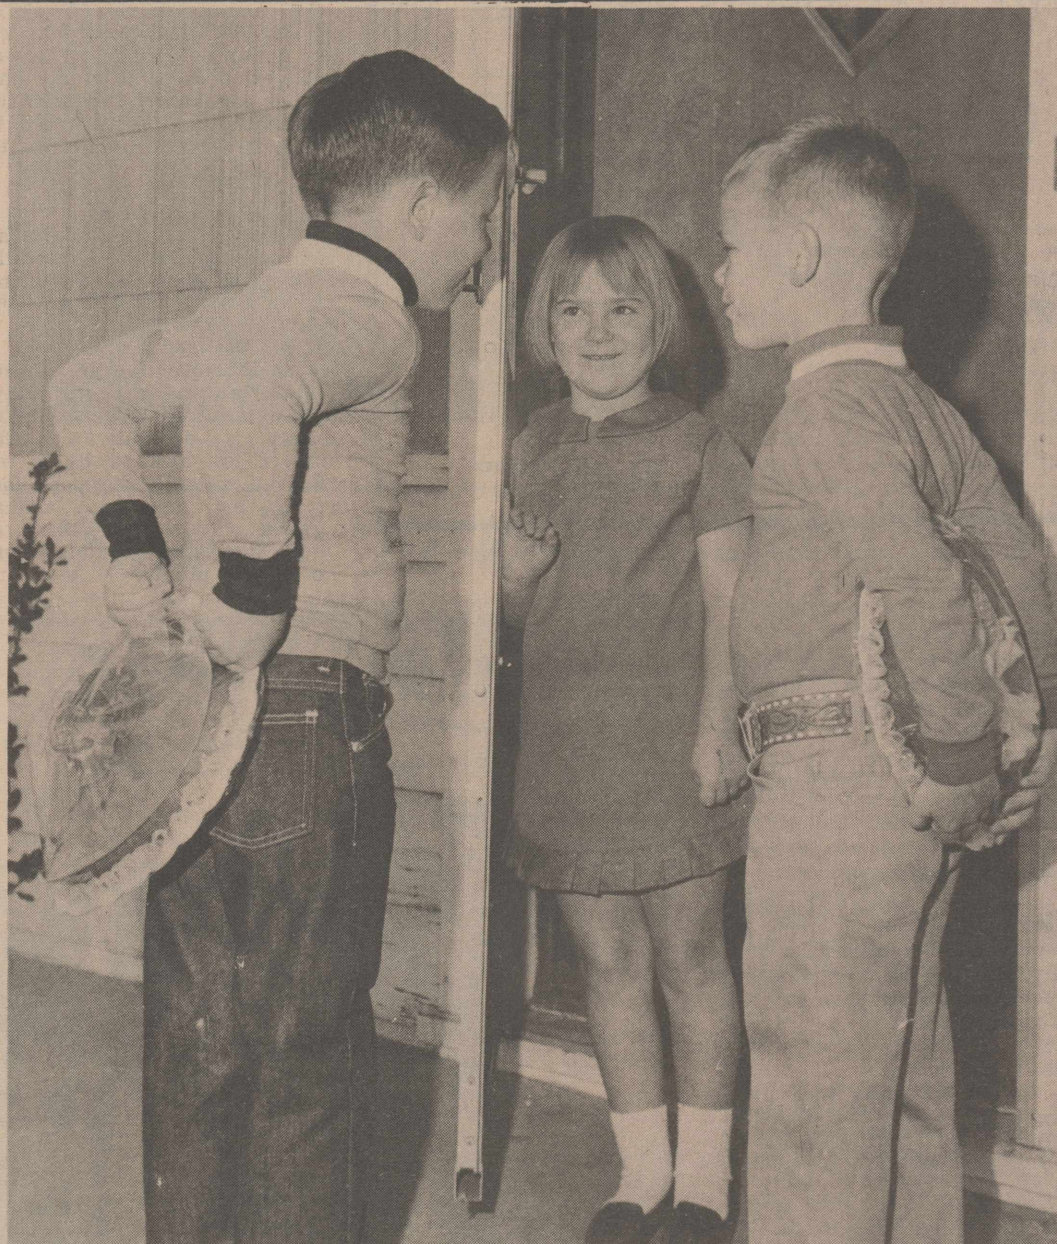

He said 45 more street lights were needed in the residential section, while 24 more were needed on Highway 70. These would cost the city $2 each, for a total of $174 more per month. The city now pays $303.50 per month for the present lights in operation.

The additional lights would raise that monthly bill up to $477.50. No action was taken by the council.

Mayor Parley Myers called for a city election for the purpose of electing a mayor and two city councilmen.

Deadline for filing is March 4 and the election has been called for April 5. Ballots will be cast at the city hall.

In other action, the council agreed to allow Lloyd Blackwell serve as school trustee officer.

Principals of Olton schools were granted new contracts when the board of trustees met in regularly scheduled meeting Tuesday night.

The board accepted resignations from Coach Chuck Saul and Reda Clay effective Feb. 15. Coach Saul has accepted a position with a sporting goods firm and will move to Lubbock. Mrs. Clay did not reveal her plans.

An election was called by the board for the purpose of electing three school board members. Terms of Elmo Bryant, Royce Collins and Gerald Allcorn expire this year. All three have filed for re-election.

Deadline for filing for a position on the school board is March 5, with election set April 5.

Principals were granted two year contracts, extending their present contracts through school year of 1971.

Supt. Ray Schultz reported that the attendance was up only four, those being in grade school. Reporting on the lunchroom, he said that it showed a loss of about $600 but that a big inventory was purchased this month, causing the debit balance.

Taxes were discussed further by the board, seeking a solution to the equalization of taxes prior to the expected raise in school taxes. No action was taken.

In other action, Mrs. Kenneth Burgess was approved by the board as the new remedial reading teacher. Approved as teachers in the new migrant children's program were Mrs. Buddy Brock and Mrs. Bill Burton.

The board reviewed the retirement plan which was adopted last March to become effective Sept. 1, 1969. The plan stated that teachers reaching the age 65 years during that year would not be eligible for teaching positions.

The board ruled the retirement valid and stated that they would have to abide by the policy.

Quail-Hunting Season Draws Fire From Hunters

Representative Bill Clayton today stated that he has received several inquiries pertaining to the length of quail-hunting season in Lamb County.

Two years ago, acting on a resolution by the Commissioner's Court, a bill was introduced and passed to limit the hunting season to 20 days on quail.

Since that time, another resolution was adopted by the Court on June 17, 1968, which asks that the Legislature return the authority governing quail-hunting season in Lamb County to the Parks and Wildlife Commission.

According to the direction of this resolution, Clayton stated that he had introduced House Bill 21, which would place the regulation of the hunting season in the hands of the Commission. This bill has not been heard before a committee, because the Parks and Wildlife Committee has just been organized and will not hear any bills until the week of Feb. 10.

During the week of Feb. 3, however, the Commissioner's Court of Lamb County passed another resolution which, in effect, invalidates the resolution of June 17.

This resolution requests that the authority for setting the hunting season for quail be vested in the Commissioner's Court of said county. Clayton stated that he must be directed by the Commissioner's Court before passing any game legislation. But due to conflicting resolutions, hearing on any game bill will be delayed for a few weeks, until such time as the full extent of the new resolution may be determined.

Clayton further stated that it is his desire to do what the majority of the people of Lamb county want in regard to the quail-hunting season. This is the reason that heavy emphasis must be placed on action by the Commissioner's Court. Legislative Committees will respond to such a resolution as being the majority desire of the people in a given county.

Dear Editor

You Set An Example

What kind of community do you live in? Is it free from scandal and reproach? Is it a place where people like to come to raise their children?

Today in our country, our crime rate is at an all-time high. Delinquency has skyrocketed, alcoholism and dope addiction are threats to every boy or girl whether living in the city or country.

Add to this the constant bombardment of pornography from movie, TV, and magazines, and it is no wonder people are talking about a "new morality".

However, the CRUSHER for our children is not these. It is the bad examples adults set before the young. Our children could possibly withstand the bad influences from the outside, but the surest way to ruin them is to set the bad example in our community.

What makes a good community - of which all can be proud?

Individuals! When individuals CARE enough NOT to set examples of drunkenness, dishonesty, and adultery; and when jokes about such are no longer "laughing matters" but deserving only of contempt, people GET a good community. Only when we DESERVE a good community, will we have one.

Communities of which men can be proud don't "just happen". They are the result of deliberate planning and dedication ... dedication among adults determined to live worthy examples, and having the courage to oppose sin, in their lives as well as others lives.

It isn't enough to oppose sin Sunday morning, or at church. We are going to have to oppose it every day, in cafes and "back-alleys", and wherever men gather. To smile or joke about sin, or to say, "It's none of my business," not only is to encourage sin, but to become a partner to it.

The well-being of your country is YOUR BUSINESS; the well-being of your community is YOUR BUSINESS, for you are a part of both.

The community needs every member, not only to stand for right, but to stand against wrong. The Bible says, Proverbs 14:34, "Righteousness exalteth a nation, but sin is a reproach to any people."

It is better to have a community exalted by the examples of its adults than reproached by their examples. We can make our Olton the BEST - when we set the right example!

City Sales Tax

The date for the city sales tax election is fast approaching and there seems to be quite a number of questions about the tax.

One of the most asked questions is probably, "What items will be taxed?"

The answer is simple. Taxable items will be the exact items on which you pay state taxes. Exempt items will be the same as the exempt items on state taxes.

The next most asked question could be, "When will the tax become effective?"

Although the election will be held March 1, the city sales tax would not be "tacked on" taxable items until July 1, with the city receiving their share of the money Sept. 1.

The businessmen want to know, "If the tax is approved, will it hurt my business?"

In other cities where the sales tax has been in effect for quite some time, it was decided that rather than hurting businesses, the tax actually served a stimulant and made the town prosper and grow.

Taxes did not drive the people to other towns and the fact is - that every state and most cities around Olton now has the sales tax. Olton is fortunate in having escaped this tax as long as it has, but more revenue is needed for the city and the city sales tax seems to be the answer, according to city councilmen.

More funds are needed to improve streets, install new street lights, replace worn out equipment and pay adequate wages to get and keep competent policemen.

Councilmen agreed that this method of raising more revenue for the city would be the fairest type of taxes as each person who shops in Olton would be contributing to city operating fund.

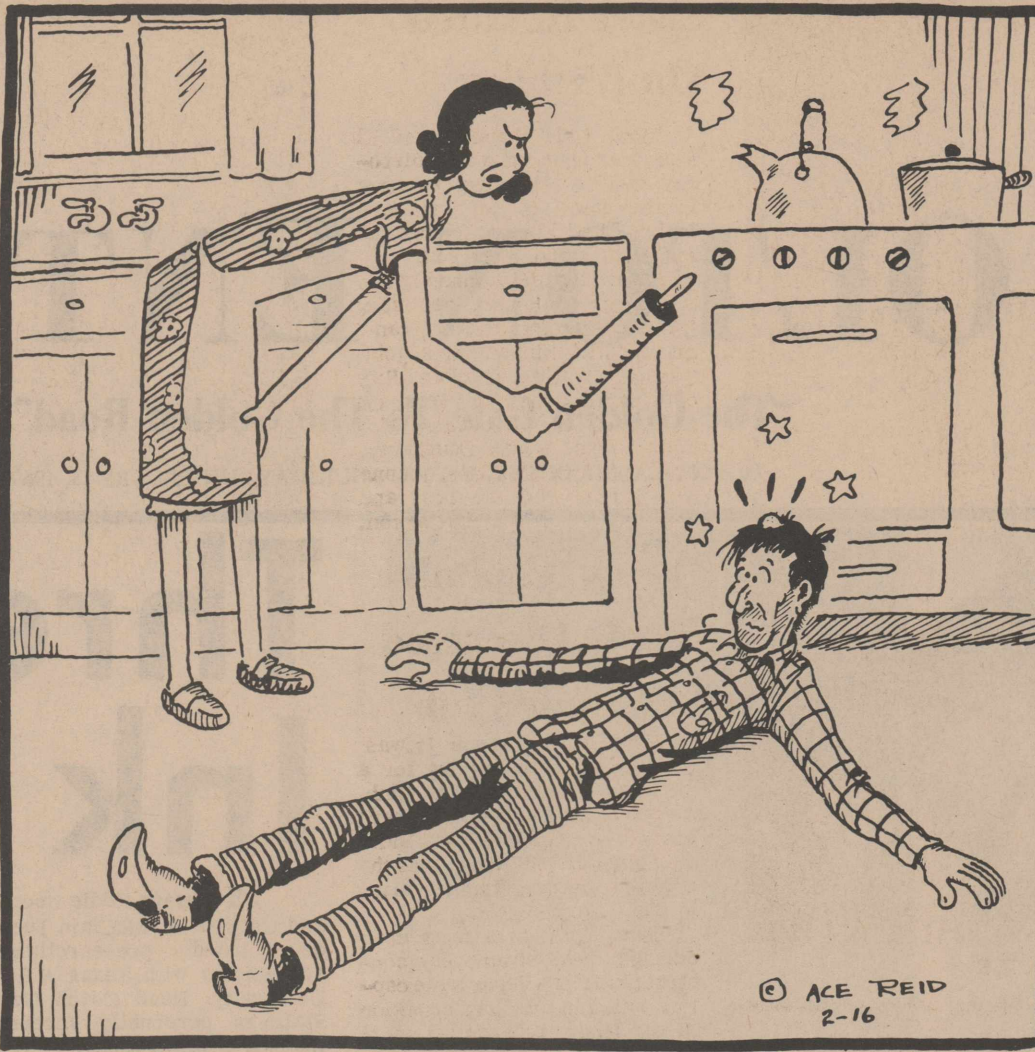

According to a county estimate published by the Texas Municipal League, the ratio per capita for Lamb County is $9.38. Using this ratio and figuring a population of 2,000 persons who would shop in Olton a total of $18,760 would be collected per year.

There are a number of improvements that Olton needs and must have if it is to continue to grow. A run down city runs down business.

Let's help Olton grow. Vote FOR the city sales tax.

When working with interior or exterior latex paints, it's a good idea to wash your brush in clear water occasionally. Texas Capitols Topic Discussed At Study Club

Mrs. J. L. Carson Jr. was hostess Monday evening for a meeting of Olton Study Club. Devotional thoughts were shared by Mrs. Bailey Hair.

"Capitols of Texas" was the title of a historical presentation by Mrs. Garrett Eley.

Mrs. Eley gave facts concerning the seven-year construction of the Texas state capitol building, calling attention to the labor, transportation of materials and financial problems.

She pointed out that 3,000,000 acres of Texas were sold to raise funds to build the capitol. That land became the famous XIT Ranch.

"The loftier building, the deeper must the foundation be laid," Mrs. Eley stated. She explained that after excavation had been made, the project was delayed. Stagnant water in the excavations became an issue before work was begun again.

The Junior Girls Auxiliary of the First Baptist Church met Monday afternoon after school. The topic of the meeting was "Burma Diary".

Cynthia Hutson described Burma in the year 1813 when A doniram and Ann Judson went there as missionaries. Few travelers went to Burma at that time because their baggage was opened and one tenth of it was given to the king. Some of the people learned a few English words by the missionaries pointing to objects and then speaking the names of the objects.

Sharla Carson told of "Hard Work in Rangoon in 1813". Judson translated the book of Matthew in the language of Burma and he wrote a grammar and started a dictionary.

Carol Prentiss discussed Friends and Failures. She told that the natives paid a great deal of attention to the clothing worn by the missionaries and not much attention to what was said.

Patricia Daugherty talked about "Good News Rangoon 1815". It was a joyful occasion to the Judsons when they heard of the organization of the first Baptist Convention in America and of its plans to help with the mission work in Burma. Cynthia Light discussed the topic "A Burmese Baptist". A shelter had been built on a main street of Rangoon and travelers were told of Christ while they rested under the shelter. As a result of this one native became a Baptist after 10 years of missionary work in that country.

A war broke out between England and Burma and Judson was thrown into prison. Sharla Carson related the incident of the translation of the New Testament into the language of Burma being buried and then taken in a pillow to Judson while he was in prison. He was released because he was needed as an interpreter when England and Burma made peace.

The adult leader, Mrs. Claude Burnett, told that in the first quarter of the 19th century the people, the men and women of Burma wore their hair long and fastened it on top of their head. They pierced their ears and wore pieces of gold as ornaments.

Everything But The Kitchen Sink

BY MOZELLE TROTTER

Did you read in that big-town paper the other day how our president is neglecting his "image"?

Seems as though our top man is not trying to get on a "Dickie Boy" basis with the "In crowd". And I gather he's just trying to be "different" — maybe just stubbornness.

Of course, what he's a'doin is wearing those white dress shirts, big legged trousers and cutting his hair too short.

I'm sure the author of that article made a thorough survey and found that the majority of American males agree with him.

Bahl Humbug! (Let them call me Scrooge)

It seems as tho the President needs to start wearing the newer colored shirts—white is OUT. White shirts are for the antiquated squares.

And, by all means, he needs to seam up the legs of his pants. Fashion has decreed that women and men have switched. Gals are no longer in style with the slim-legged pants of the past few years — now it's the bigger the better.

But while designers have been letting out women's seams they've been taking up men's. It's getting so a big-footed man can hardly get into his pants.

One last step is required before our leader can be accepted. He simply must change hair stylists! The "new Nixon" just has to let his side-burns grow!

Before I finish this catty column, did you read this week in that same paper about our two all-state Mustangs signing up with A & M? Of course you didn't! They didn't write about it!

But in due credit to them, the story about our president and his out-of-stylishness was just a bit of "canned news" released to fill up space. It wasn't necessarily their views.

But why didn't they mention our guys? Meow!

Texas Public Schools Week Marks 115 Years of Growth

For 115 years, Texas Public Schools have been on the grow, and so today, the Texas Public Schools System is one of the finest in the United States.

Freemasonry in Texas has been largely responsible for bringing schools to the attention of Texans. Masonic Lodges throughout the state have fought since the early 1800's for the advancement of schooling for everyone in this state, and today are behind the Texas Public Schools Week promotion.

But, one group can't do it all.

Public support is asked and will be appreciated. Parents, relatives, friends, or any interested persons are asked to visit a public school March 3rd through 7th—a rewarding experience as well as an enlightening one.

During this special week, school facilities are completely open to everyone, and it's a worth-while trip to the nearest public school.

Mark the date on a calendar, March 3rd through 7th, Public Schools Week in Texas!

NATIONAL ELECTRICAL WEEK MEANS PROGRESS FOR YOU IN MORE WAYS THAN ONE

Some of the printed materials that Reddy's Area Development Department has created are displayed by one of Reddy's co-workers.

Advances in electric appliances, equipment and electric service — all to make living and working better for all of us — are acknowledged during National Electrical Week.

But other services for the betterment of our city which Reddy happily performs may not come to mind.

For example, Reddy has co-workers trained in helping you to attract new business and industry, to aid you with ideas in ways to keep your city looking smart as well as beautiful, to help you with printed materials necessary to tell new industrial prospects why your city is a good one.

And, right now, Reddy has a new film ready for showing to your clubs and organizations. It's called "Money Grows Here" and shows in beautiful color the advantages that new industry can have by locating in our area.

Your Public Service manager will gladly arrange a showing for your group.

Amarillo Oil Announces Findings In Uranium Leases

Amarillo Oil Company has announced that as of Feb. 1, 1969, its subsidiary, Amarillo Minerals, Inc., had obtained evidence of ore grade materials in drill holes on 15 different uranium leases in which it has an interest in Karnes, Live Oak, Duval and Starr Counties in the Texas Coastal Plain area.

Over one million feet of exploratory hole has been drilled on 82 leases and drilling continues at a rate in excess of 100,000 feet per month. In most cases the drilling has been widely spaced, and accurate estimates of ore tonnages and total uranium content cannot be made until closer spaced drilling has been completed.

The company has an interest in over 100,000 acres of leases in this area on which no exploration has yet been done. Not over 15 percent of the total acreage under lease has been explored.

Planning concerning a mill in the Coastal Plain area is continuing.

Exploratory drilling on acreage held by the company in Wyoming will start in the near future.

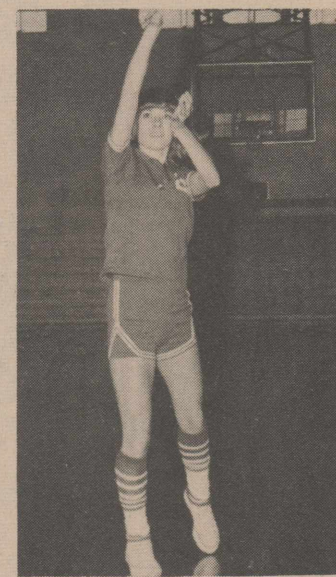

Amarillo Oil Company is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Pioneer Natural Gas Company.

HELEN SMITH

Hello, Olton High School fans, and just how does your spirit soar this week? This is another "week-that-was" because report cards brighten the lives of all who participate in the fun-filled studies which make our school what it is today. With deep respect to all the students who will be staying home for awhile, we continue.

In our last episode of "The New FTA President Mystery", Captain Marvel was about to zap us the envelope containing the winner. Here it is now, and the winner is -- Jimmy Galloway. Congratulations, Jimmy!!

Due to the many, many activities happening this week, this column will be cut short in order for the reporters to avoid the rush.

Mr. Singleton, the school photographer from San Antonio, was kind enough to bless us with a return engagement Monday to finish up with some annual pictures. Mondays are bad for just about everything, but the weather was just right, and the pictures were completed without too much trouble.

Friday night will result in the last basketball games for our OHS Varsity this 1969 season. To honor this season's teams, a Basketball King and Queen will be crowned Friday afternoon in the gym. The candidates for the King are our five Senior players: Charles McClain, Johnny Lewis, Kenneth Johnson, Benny Akin, and Joe Schultz. The candidates for the Queen are our four Senior players: Kate Carson, Pam Foster, Leslie Norfleet, and Diane Malone, with Susan Nicholas as an escort. It has been a good season, cagers, and good luck Friday night!!

The "One Act Plays Festival" has been rescheduled for Monday Feb. 24 due to a stock show conflicting with the original date. The plays to be presented that night are "This Property is Condemned", "Balcony Scene", and "Antic Spring". The admission price

"SHOPLIFTING isn't a 'game' or anything very funny. It's a crime and... a very serious crime. When a shoplifter steals for 'kicks' he risks a criminal record that may haunt him throughout life. It may bar him from a good job. It may be the start of a life of crime. It may bar his entry into a business or profession. He may find the door closed to a position of trust in city, state or federal government. His stupid act will bring shame to his parents, to his brothers and sisters and to his friends. Stealing is foolish business. Its costs are high in shattered reputations and loss of personal happiness and respect." - Faribault, Minn. News.

Wayland College authorities are determined that turmoil and confusion such as are disrupting colleges over the United States shall not affect Wayland.

The religious nature of the college will be maintained through cooperation of students, administration and board of trustees, said Dr. Roy McClung, president of Wayland.

committee of which the Rev. Joe Dee Ray, Borger, is chairman, concurred in taking a positive stand against trends such as are disrupting many campuses. Graddy Tunnell, Plainview, chairman of the board of trustees, is a member of the executive committee.

"This does not mean that Wayland is less interested in progressive and socially concerned students and teachers," said a formal statement made by the groups. It was pointed out that there is a difference between the progressive and rebellious, and between the socially concerned and an anarchist.

February 24 has been set as the date for a new and different program to be presented by students of Olton High School. The production, entitled "A Night of One-Acts," is being prepared by students of speech classes, under the direction of Ruth Holladay.
