Heart Fund Campaign Set For February

Members of the 1924 Study Club will head the 1973 Heart Fund Campaign in Collingsworth County, it was announced today by Mrs. Don Van Pelt, president. The campaign will be conducted during February, declared American Heart Month by an Act of Congress.

Mrs. Stephen Schmidly is chairman of the local campaign. She cited the urgent need in the forthcoming campaign.

"More than 675,000 Americans will die this year of heart attack, the number one killer in the nation," she said. "The drive will seek to raise funds to reduce death and disability from heart attack and other heart and blood vessel diseases. Give generously to support heart programs."

Annual Stock Show Features County's Top Calves, Lambs

Calves that represent Collingsworth on the show circuit this year will make their first appearance at the annual Youth Livestock Show Saturday, January 13. As an overall group, it is considered one of the best ever to go from here to some of the nation's top shows.

The Wellington event will be at the Salt Fork SCD Show Barn, immediately behind the Soil Conservation Service Office, according to County Agent Don Reeves. Judging will start at 1:00 p.m. in the open area between the SCS office and the barn.

No matter what the weather, this will be an outdoor show, Mr. Reeves said, reminding that last year's show took place in 3-degree weather.

There will be three classes of fat steers, with a total of 23 individuals entered. They will be about evenly divided into light, medium and heavy-weight classes. There will be one class of fat lambs.

Money prizes will be awarded and there will be ribbons through tenth place.

There will be several purebred Herefords in the show, along with a number of Hereford-Angus crosses, several Angus, a good variety of Charolais crosses, two Shorthorns and a Brahman.

Dink Wilson, Hardeman County Agricultural Agent, will judge the show. A graduate of Texas Tech University, he was the Red Raider for two years.

There will be no hogs in this year's show, according to Rodney Myrick, Wellington FFA advisor. The swine are scheduled for showing at the Amarillo Fat Stock Show, and bad weather has kept down their weight to where they will have

Snow Blanket at 7-Inch Depth and More Falling

Snow, stacked to a 5 to 6 inch depth, received another layer Wednesday, January 10, as approximately an inch had fallen by 9:00 a.m., to make this one of the most prolonged periods of snow and cold in several years.

It comes as ideal on wheat and native pastures, but it also finds much of the county's bumper cotton crop still in the field—with some growers having yet to pull a single bale.

Most cotton growers report the snow is not particularly damaging the cotton, except to lower the grade, and add that the increase in price presently being experienced will offset the grade loss.

A few, however, report that their cotton is beginning to string out of the boll and they fear damage can come with prolonged wet weather. Several point out that more wet weather could make the stalks begin to rot, adding to the problems of stripping. North of Salt Fork, an estimated 75 to 85 percent of the crop remains in the fields, some growers say and many in this area have not yet begun to harvest their crop.

Most of the grain sorghum and most of the guar was harvested before the snow began.

No cattle losses have been reported so far among those native to the county, although there has been a little loss to stock shipped in, ranchers and feeders say. Most add that there is not a great deal of real suffering among range cattle, but the loss to feeders comes in their not gaining weight and in some cases they are even losing. There has been no reports of deaths to newborn calves or hogs to this date.

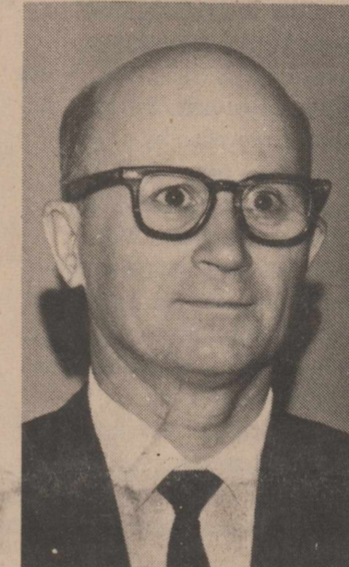

Most livestock men are feeding cattle as much as they will eat.

Temperature dropped to a lot of 7 degrees, and in the 7 days ending Wednesday morning, Jan. 10, it was never warmer than 26 degrees. Only one of those days Tuesday, Jan. 9, was without moisture either snow or freezing rain.

Questions People Ask About the Catholic Church

Q. Don't you consider miniskirts, hot-pants, nudity and long hair obscene?

A. Among the things I consider obscene are war, hunger, disease, poverty, bigotry, hatred, prejudice, and people who set themselves up as judges of what is obscene.

Q. Don't you consider our space-flights contrary to God's Law?

A. That's like the ridiculous saying "if God had meant us to fly, He'd have given us wings". I can't believe that God created this marvellous and beautiful Universe, and then said "Don't you dare look at it". What a waste that would be, and God never does anything wasteful. Only people waste.

Federal Land Bank Closes Record Year

Jack Williams, Manager of the Federal Land Bank Association of Shamrock announced today that The Federal Land Bank of Houston closed 3,701 loans for more than 164 million dollars during 1972.

"This has been a record year for new loan business and represents an increase of more than 60% over 1971, which was the largest year in the bank's 54-year history," Williams said.

"A number of factors account for this substantial increase in volume of new loans," said Williams. "Probably the greatest factor was the new lending authorities made possible by the Farm Credit Act of 1971, which was implemented during 1972," he said.

The Federal Land Bank Association of Shamrock, which serves Collingsworth and Wheeler Counties, closed loans in the gross amount of $1,450,000 during 1972.

The Federal Land Bank of Houston makes farm and ranch real estate loans throughout Texas and on December 31 had more than 675 million dollars in loans outstanding to over 35,000 farmers and ranchers.

Directors of the local association are J.C. Emmert, Robert Terry, Tom Cunningham, Woodrow Wood, C.F. Waters, and H. J. Finsterward, and the office assistant is Mrs. Rosalie Seeds.

"He has been very ill and has undergone surgery for a malignant tumor of his left lung. He is getting along well now. However, he will remain in The Southwest Convalescent Center for sometime yet. Weather Again Delays Harvest Throughout Area

Inclement weather delayed harvest over the Memphis, Texas area this past week, according to W.E. Cain, in charge of the USDA, AMS, Cotton Classing Office in Memphis, Texas. "This will allow gins and the classing office to catch up some," said Cain, as he again urged farmers to wait for their cotton to dry out well before resuming stripping operations to avoid "barkies".

The Memphis, Texas cotton classing office graded 28,950 samples this week to bring the season total to 114,400. This compares to 74,000 on the same date a year ago.

The predominant grade classed this week was Strict Low Middling Light Spotted (42) with 36 percent followed by Middling Light Spotted (32) with 26 percent and Strict Low Middling (41) with 23 percent.

Micronaire, or fineness and maturity, readings show 66 percent miked in the desirable range of 3.5 to 4.9, and 31 percent miked 3.4 and below.

Pressley, or strength, readings show 76 percent of the samples tested 75,000 psi or higher. The average was 79,000 psi.

The cotton market continued very active and prices closed fully steady to slightly

WHS Wins Two and Loses Two for Week

Wellington Skyrockets and Rockettes each won a game and lost one in play last week. Both bowed to Memphis Tuesday night, January 2, then won over Clarendon Friday, December 5.

The Rockettes lost to Memphis 37-33 in the final period when they got in foul trouble and were cold on their free shots. Scoring was close both at halftime and going into the fourth quarter, however. Wellington girls hit only 27 per cent of their free shots, while Memphis made 53 per cent.

Phyllis Sullivan of Wellington and Mary Beck of Memphis each scored 15 points to lead their teams. Patti McAlister added 13 for the Rockettes and Edi Watkins, 5.

The Rockets trailed Memphis from the start and finally lost the game 71-54. No amount of hard work could stop the Cyclone's 6'4" Larry Johnson, who scored 37 points for his team.

Jay Thomas led Wellington with 20 points, Bruce Oney had 12, Dickie Johnson 10, Randall Hodges 6, Mike Williams four and Steve Kane two.

These games were played at Memphis.

Returning to their home court, the Rockettes defeated Clarendon girls 47-24, and the Rockets won 59-44.

The girls game was 10-all at the end of the first period, then Wellington pulled away. All Rockette forwards scored, including Patti McAlister 18, Edi Watkins 11, Phyllis Sullivan 7, Teresa Patterson 5, Lucy Sullivan three, Mary Thomas two and Dian Brooks one.

Guards were Katy Sullivan, Janie Davis, Gwen Lewis, Lennie Morgan and Kathy Kersten. Camille Mann led Clarendon scoring with 16 points.

The Rockets trailed the Bronchos at one point, 10-9 at the end of the first period, then got the game under control. Clarendon threatened again by pulling to within four points of Wellington at the beginning of the fourth period.

"We won this game by a very good team effort, and it was one of our better ball games," said Coach Don Lacy.

"Clarendon has some real fine athletes, and because they went to state in football, they are a little behind the rest of us in basketball, since the same boys are in both sports."

"They will be real tough to beat the next time around."

Jay Thomas led the Wellington scoring with 23 points, Randall Hodges added 12, Bruce Oney 8, Mike Williams 7, Dickie Johnson 6, and Brent Wade three.

Elray King scored 20 points to lead Clarendon.

Stock Show to Feature Fine Animals, Fine Youth

Saturday is the day of the annual Youth Livestock Show, that point of departure for winners in some of the southwest's major stock shows of recent years.

The fine fat steers and lambs will be there. Some of this county's finest boys and girls will be there to show the animals. And one of the things most needed is the support and presence of the people of the county -- support that can in part match the determination and spirit of these young men and women.

It is this winter show toward which they are aiming with their project calves, which are bought to be at their peak condition for this and the three major livestock shows -- Amarillo, Fort Worth and Houston.

A calf from this county was the Grand Champion at Amarillo last year, and in recent years we have had winners in the other shows. This in view of Houston's being the largest livestock show in the world, and the calves from here competed in the open division.

The animals and their young owners stand on their own merits and we can see what that quality is.

Our presence Saturday, our congratulations to the winners and the other participants, and our wishes for success in the coming shows, will in part compensate for the long, wearisome hours spent feeding, walking, gentling and overall taking care of the animals -- particularly in the snow and wet and cold of these last few weeks.

Other Editors Say . . .

More Fragile Than We Think

The chief executive officer of Time, Incorporated, Mr. Andrew Heiskell, recently delivered a commencement address at Hofstra University. The subject of his talk was freedom of speech -- and the press. The bulk of his remarks dealt directly with public attitudes and government strictures that he feels pose a threat to the free press as we have known it in the United States.

He noted with concern a public opinion survey that showed "... an astonishing 55 per cent of the American public did not think that the press even in time of peace had the right to report any story the government felt harmful to the national interest." He added, "If that survey accurately reflects public opinion, we are in trouble, for we have forgotten the fundamental values upon which this nation was founded."

There is no question that the press has its shortcomings; but, on the whole, the American public, through its free press, is better informed and thus better armed against oppression than virtually any other nation on earth.

— The Walton Tribune, Monroe, Ga.

AUSTIN, Tex. -- Texas legislators, with new leadership in both houses and a swarm of first-term members, reported here Jan. 9 for their expected history-making regular session.

They face a mountain of problems, the magnitude of some still unmeasured.

If the High Court upholds a three-judge federal court ruling in San Antonio just over a year ago, lawmakers are under orders to revise the present system which is keyed to property taxes. A reversal could allow more time, but the state Board of Education is expected to vote January 13 for a complete state financing of basic education costs spread over a period of several years, regardless of the Supreme Court decision.

Lawmakers are hopeful of avoiding a major tax fight, but again the school finance case may completely upset those hopes.

Among other major items for legislators' consideration are these:

* Reform of the legislature process itself and state government in general, including a new code of ethics law, a revised lobby control act and revision of campaign finance reporting requirements.

* Overhaul of state election laws to provide a new method of financing party primaries and possibly moving voting dates for primaries.

* Court reform.

* Redoing the legislative and congressional redistricting of 1971.

POLLUTION MAJOR JOB -- Atty. Gen.-elect John Hill assigned top priority in his new administration to tackling a heavy backlog of pollution cases.

Hill said he also plans heavy emphasis on consumer protection, including a fresh package of legislation in the field, and combatting organized crime through a special, five-member task force of attorneys.

He pledged to seek accelerated docketing of the air and water pollution cases, quicker filing of new cases submitted by state agencies and fast prosecution by his staff.

CAMPUS TROUBLED -- An "extremely volatile" situation on the campus of the University of Texas at El Paso led to sudden appointment of a new president there.

Dr. Arleigh B. Templeton was dispatched to the troubled campus from the new UT-San Antonio which he had been picked earlier to serve as president. UT regents confirmed the selection in an emergency session. Dr. Joseph Smiley resigned November 1 as UT-El Paso president.

The U.S. Justice Department advised UT Chancellor Dr. Charles LeMaistre corrective steps were needed at El Paso to prevent a campus tragedy sparked by demonstrations against the administration.

PARK PLANS MOVE ON -- Texas Parks and Wildlife Department, over protest of some landowners, plans to add another 550 acres to the Lyndon B. Johnson State Park along the Pedernales River near the former President's ranch.

The P-W Commission also approved buying 554 acres at Bryan Beach two miles southeast of Freeport in Brazoria County for a third Gulf Coast Beach Park.

A master plan for development of Mustang Island as a state park is being prepared and is expected to be presented to the Commission in about two months.

Meanwhile, Dallas County commissioners ordered a study to determine possibility of converting 603 acres of federally-owned land at Seagoville into a state park.

APPOINTMENTS -- Charles G. Purnell of Dallas has been named as executive assistant and chief advisor to Gov.-elect Dolph Briscoe.

New Attorney General Hill picked Larry York of Houston as his executive assistant and Mary Jane Bode of Austin as his press secretary.

B.R. Fuller was named by Gov. Preston Smith as executive director of the Department of Community Affairs in the governor's office. He has served as city manager of Eagle Pass and San Marcos.

Charles Freeman of Pleasanton was reappointed by Smith to the Evergreen Underground Water Conservation District.

GAS ORDER EXPECTED -- A Railroad Commission order setting priorities for use of natural gas when supplies are short is due to be entered by mid-January.

At a hearing here November 30, two commission officers examined views on gas curtailment. They later made recommendations (as yet not disclosed) to the three-member Commission. Opposition to a statewide standard of priorities was expressed at the hearing. Testimony was also offered in favor of granting priorities to homes, schools and hospitals in time of drastic shortage.

INAUGURAL DINNER SET -- Democrats will celebrate inauguration of Governor Briscoe and Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby at a combination fund-raising and party victory dinner January 15.

The $25-a-plate dinner will offer entertainment by Danny Davis and the Nashville Brass and talks by Briscoe, Hobby and new National Democratic Chairman Robert Strauss. State Democratic Chairman Calvin Guest of Bryan will be master of ceremonies.

AG OPINIONS -- Local political subdivisions may call for elections on granting homestead property tax exemptions (not less than $3,000) to persons over 65 on petition of 20 per cent of voters, Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin held.

In another recent opinion Martin concluded that the State Air Control Board is among three state agencies having responsibility for feedlot waste stockpiling, along with Texas Water Quality Board and the Texas State Department of Health.

SHORT SNORTS -- The State Supreme Court held tavern owners can own more than a single vending machine and don't have to pay a $300 annual tax on each.

CROSSROADS REPORT

Dear Editor:

I see where the Women's Lib girls are making considerable noise and some progress, but it will be a long time before the sexes are completely Equal.

Like the old habit of parents giving girls' names to girl babies and boys' names to boy babies will have to be declared discriminatory by the courts and names assigned to newcomers by a sexless government computer.

But true Sex Equality won't be here until a lady can appear in public with a bald head and total confidence in her charm, just like a man can.

Congratulations on Your Steer Show Saturday

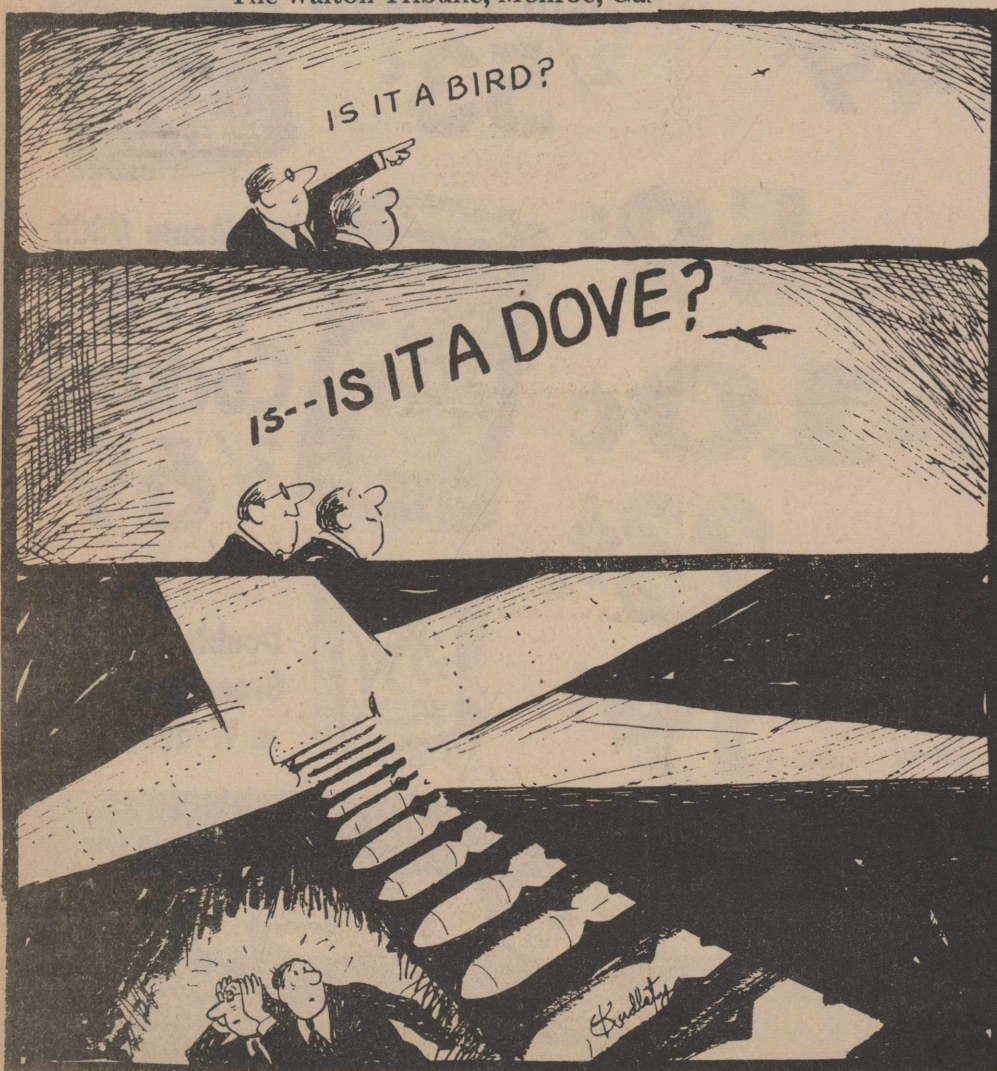

We believe that the fine work these Club Members are doing with their steers can lead straight into a fabulous future here in Collingsworth County.

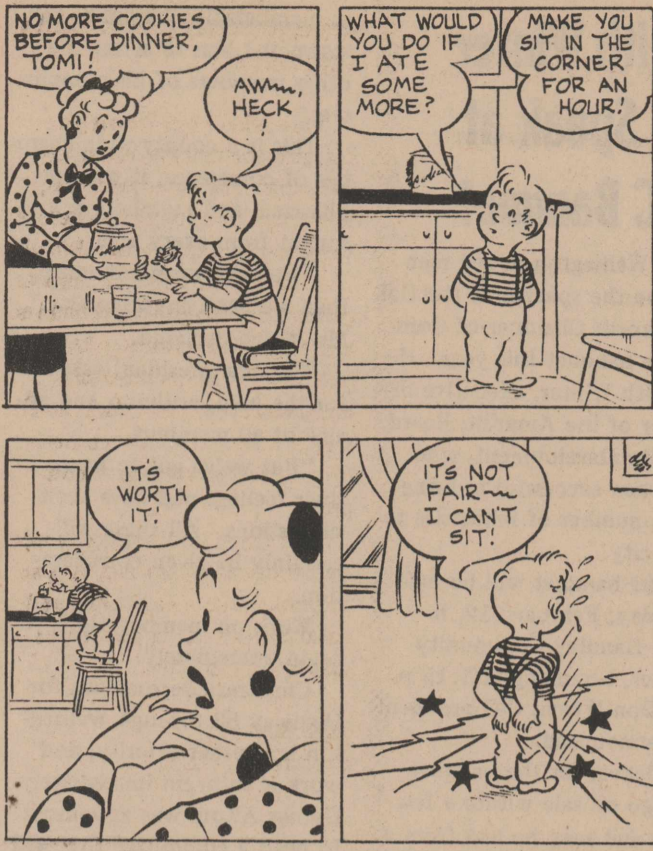

The beef industry in one of its forms—raising cattle or feeding them—holds the spotlight in the years ahead. We lie in the area where the big move in the beef industry is happening. If Collingsworth is to join this dynamic era, we will need all the young men like these that we can get—those with brains and knowhow and youth, and a strong desire to make their future where they grew up.

That is the kind of future this bank is working for. Now, or a few years from now, we will be glad to advise you on your livestock operations.

WANT ADS WORK WONDERS

Deck's DIDACTICS

—by Deskins Wells

THIS unusual winter continues to bring moisture that would have been welcomed this time last year as it would have been nine out of ten years for the past seventy. As it is the snow, sleet and cold are making operations extremely difficult for the farmers who still have grain and cotton in the fields. Fortunately a good part of these crops have been gathered here.

THE CATTLE raisers and cattle feeders are confronted with conditions that make their operations hard to keep going. The loss of life among the cattle below the Caprock does not seem to be nearly as great as the deaths in the herds on the high plains; but the loss in weight is taking its toll here just as it is there. Sunny days plus the adequate moisture may help the situation later. Right now things are rough and tough for the man with the cows.

VELMAN WARRICK says that he has not heard of any cattle deaths due to cold or lack of feed in the Wellington area. He also doubts if the number lost on the high plains is nearly as great as some newspaper accounts would indicate. Some of the cattle deaths may have resulted from pneumonia due to the cattle having been dipped for scabies before being moved.

W.R. (BUCK) BREEDING wants me to start predicting sunny weather from right now into April—evidently he needs it for both wheat and cattle. That is something that is easier to think about than accomplish this year. First there is the matter of moving the jet stream farther north where it normally blows. This 600 mile per hour stratospheric wind has been on a course from San Diego past Abilene and Shreveport to the Atlantic since November and some weather people think this is the reason for our early and long winter. This is the first year I have been called upon to deal with the jet stream and it will require some study before any predictions are made.

PROSPECTS are bright for the wheat farmer and the row crop farmer in 1973. Good moisture and good prices prevail at the start of the season which also sees the farm program still in operation. Prospects after 1973 grow dimmer for a new law must be passed before their is any farm program at all.

THERE IS misguided hostility in Congress against the farm program and it reaches down in Agricultural Committees of both the House and Senate. Unfortunately most of the members of both of these committees have no farm or ranch experience at all. They have no conception of how the production of food and fibre fits into the economy of this nation. They are opposed to the farmer being paid for "not growing a crop." It never occurs to them that this is more a subsidy for the consumer than it is for the producer.

RIGHT now our excess grain is a means of obtaining badly needed gas and other urgently needed raw materials from Russia. It is probably too much to hope that some of our leaders will be astute enough to obtain some of that Russian gold. Perhaps it is enough to hope that the most efficient and productive agricultural system the world has ever known will not be crippled to the detriment of the entire nation.

EACH football season brings its might of beans, heartbreakers and Monday morning quarterback and the one just past was no exception. Two of them happened to teams near to us and were of more than passing interest to many local people.

THE Clarendon Bronchos should be the state Class A football champions; but the victory was snatched from them by Schulenburg with 23 seconds left in the game. Clarendon was playing without the services of their best running back, Tommy Shields, who gained over 2,000 yards in the regular season. They dominated the play through most of the game and led 10 to 3 with 4 minutes left. They threw a pass that was intercepted by Schulenburg. They could have won with Shields and they might have won without him by playing ball control until time to punt. On the other hand another touchdown would have put the game out of reach. It was one of those things.

CLARENDON lost fair and square and that is all there was to it without that inevitable "might have been". On the other hand the Red Raiders had their bowl game taken from them by the decision of an Eastern Conference official. A Red Raider linebacker intercepted a North Carolina pass and ran it back for a touchdown. The decision nullified the 6 points and penalized Tech 15 yards. The call was for a Tech coach being on the field. It is in the rule book; but it is practically never called. The peculiar bit on this call was the time lag and the fact that no flag was ever observed being thrown. Tech fans are not the only ones who think the Raiders were robbed.

IF YOU pass me on the street and I only wave back, don't think I am down in the dumps or sour on the world. I am following orders. The old doctor said: "Mr. Wells, you must learn to keep your mouth shut." As I was leaving the young doctor cautioned: "Mr. Wells, don't get into any arguments."

CONSIDERING the alternative, this is a wonderful world in which to live.

County School Heads Attend Finance Meeting

School superintendents of the county were in Austin from Wednesday through Friday, January 3 to 5, to attend the School Administrators Advisory Conference on Education.

They were Thayne Amoneit of Wellington, Rex Peeples of Samnorwood, James Stavenhagen of Quail, and County Supt. J.L. Harper.

Heads of the three schools attended sessions on school financing under the plans proposed by a Joint House-Senate Committee, the Texas Education Agency and Texas State Teachers Association. These have many points in common, they report.

Mr. Harper attended the first two sessions on school financing and a third session devoted to career education. The financing plans will be turned over to the state legislature for consideration within the next few days.

Driver Unhurt In Bus Accident

The driver of an empty Wellington school bus, Dan Fires, escaped injury when the vehicle skidded on ice-glazed pavement and overturned Thursday morning, January 4, Supt. Thayne Amoneit reported.

The accident occurred near the Buck Creek Bridge on US 83 south of Wellington.

Mr. Amoneit said no children had been picked up, as the bus was on the early stages of its route, and there was little damage to the vehicle.

School Boards Consider Tax Exemption Mon.

Trustees of the three school districts took up the exemption of not less than $3,000 of the value of residence homesteads of persons 65 years of age or older from all ad valorem taxes levied.

The Wellington board discussed the proposition but took no action, according to Supt. Thayne Amoneit.

Quail School board members voted to not allow the exemption this year, until they can get finances in a little better condition, Supt. James Stavenhagen reported.

"We are working on a real close budget and it would throw us in the red again and make a real difficult situation," he said. "I think our board did some real thinking on this."

Samnorwood School Board also voted to not give the exemption.

The exemption proposition is pursuant to Amendment 6 to the Texas Constitution, passed by voters in the November General Election.

He began his duties January 1, 1973.

Mr. Boone, who completed his term as district attorney January 1, explained that the Enforcement Division of the Attorney General's office represents the State of Texas and all state officials.

by-laws, physical plant, and facilities, dietary, housekeeping, and maintenance with Mr. Altom and the staff.

At 1:30 p.m. there was a summation conference with the entire survey team, Dr. Holcomb, Dr. Chas. B. Jones, board representatives and others directly involved.

Dr. Hoffman and Mr. Brotherton were very complimentary of the medical staff, the nursing service, and other areas of the hospital and more than once Mr. Brotherton stated it was the cleanest hospital he had ever been in. Mr. Altom said, Altom credited this to King Bowen, Fredonia Hunnicutt, Ella Mae Jones, Bobbie Lee Shrubs, and part time employees. Maggiene Green and Yvonne Thomas in the housekeeping department for their efficient work and wanted the District to know who was responsible for the cleanliness.

"The representatives were most helpful in suggestions for improvements and with any survey or inspection, there are some minor changes and additions to be met. There were no major deficiencies and although it will be 6 to 8 weeks before the survey will be audited and we will receive our notice," Altom said.

Altom said that the significance of accreditation is very difficult to express in a few words, but basically the certificate of accreditation is meant to convey the fact that an institution, its governing body, its personnel and its medical staff have collaborated to seek excellence, have accepted outside appraisal and have demonstrated substantial conformance with professionally developed and nationally applied criteria.

"It took many people, in many different positions, working together to achieve this worthy goal for high quality in the care of the patient.

they are interested or to which they are adapted. He set up certain priorities to be emphasized. Membership growth is the first of these. Mr. Welch appointed Vice-President Hiett as membership chairman, and instructed him to select the other members of his committee.

This is a county-wide chamber of commerce, it was emphasized, and members will be sought from every area.

"We need members more than we need anything else," Mr. Welch declared.

The new president asked for the help, criticism and advice of all members.

"But we've got to know their feelings and have their suggestions. All these will certainly be given consideration.

Work on membership is to begin immediately.

Christmas decorations for Highway 83 through Wellington is another priority, and work is to begin immediately. Garner Altom was appointed to head a committee that will investigate the kind of decorations that will be feasible for the highway, and their availability.

The decorations will be acquired early in the year and held until time to decorate for the 1973 Christmas season. Mr. Welch pointed out the number of Wellington business houses that are along U.S. 83.
