BEFORE THE SHOW GOES ON

This is work that must be done before the Collingsworth County Livestock Show can be held. Extension Agent Don Reeves trims the Angus steer belonging to Mark Fourmentin, right, who holds the spotlight.

Judge Thomas Will Not Seek Another Term

County Judge Zook Thomas said Monday, January 9, that he will not seek re-election to that office, due to having to attend to personal business affairs.

"This office plus my personal business is more of a load than I want to carry," he

County Farmers Carry Protest For 100% Parity to Capitol Hill

Twenty supporters of the American Agriculture movement from Collingsworth County will carry their protest for higher farm prices to the Congress January 18 through 20.

The group will leave Oklahoma City for Washington, D.C. early Wednesday morning, January 18 and return January 20. The local group will join farmers from across the country who will ask their own and other Congressmen to support 100 percent parity for farm prices during the opening days of the Congressional session.

Denzil Lacy, one of those who plans to attend, said the group will have data on the cost of production for each crop produced in the county compared to current farm prices. Lacy said members of the group hope to visit with urban Congressmen to explain current farm problems to them.

The local American Agriculture group will hold another general information meeting on Monday, January 16 at 7:30 p.m. in the strike office building on Highway 83, Lacy said.

Planning to go from Collingsworth County are Dudley Phipps, David Caison, Farris Wood, Ronnie O'Rear, Tom Sanderson, C.B. Carter, J.H. Oldham, Eddie Orr, Don Hendrix, Herschel Tabor, Doug Darrow, Rudie Tate, Denzil Lacy, Doug Seale, Duggie Jameson, Jimmy Coleman, Mike Hughes, Andy Bell, Garland Hightower and Kim Tabor. Danny Davis will go with a group from Clarendon.

In other news relating to the farm strike movement, Monty Mitchell, local Farm Bureau member, said that the Farm Bureau is prohibited from supporting the strike as a group by legislation under which the Bureau was organized. He said that individual members are free to support any movement, though. Farm Bureau has come under criticism locally and nationally for failure to support the strike movement.

Calf and Lamb Show Scheduled Saturday

The annual youth livestock show will be held Saturday, January 14, when approximately 20 top quality calves and lambs compete for trophies, ribbons and $300 in cash.

The show will start at 1:00 p.m. in the livestock show barn on Amarillo Street between 7th and 8th.

Extension Agent Don Reeves called this group of calves "straight across, a little heavier and more uniform" than those in recent years.

Rodney Myrick, Wellington ag instructor, heads the lamb show.

A grand champion and reserve champion will be picked in the steer division and in the lamb division. Ribbons will go to other winners, and there will be a showmanship award, said Billy Moseley, president of City State Bank, donor of the awards.

This is the first outing for the calves and their young owners, who will represent Collingsworth County on the 1978 show circuit.

Next week, 18 of the calves are due to go to the Amarillo Livestock Show, and the following week, 20 are entered in the Fort Worth Fat Stock Show.

In late February, 11 steers and the one heifer to be exhibited here will be at the biggest livestock competition in the world, the Houston Livestock Show, Reeves said.

Crossbred steers outnumber purebreds again this year, Reeves said.

Purebreds are Herefords,

Angus and Polled Herefords.

There will be a Santa Gertrudis-Hereford cross, and the exotics include Semintals and Limousines crossed with Herefords and Angus and Charolais-Hereford crosses.

The lambs will include a class of fine wool market lambs and one of medium wool market lambs. The breeds will be Suffolk and Hampshire.

The show judge will be Ronny Gooch, Donley County extension agent, who is rated as one of the best calf judges in the state. He has judged several past Wellington shows.

There will be three classes of steers, according to Reeves. These 20 calves will be weighed as they come into the show then divided into three

John R. Henard Succeeds Hartman as Commissioner

John Robert Henard, rancher and conservationist, was appointed Commissioner of Precinct 1 Monday, January 9, County Judge Zook Thomas announced. He will succeed Cliff Hartman, who submitted his resignation from that office at the commissioners court meeting Monday.

Mr. Henard has filed for the office of county judge in the 1978 primary and general elections.

His resignation is effective

Tuesday, January 31, and he will continue to carry on the duties of commissioner until that time.

Mr. Henard will begin his term on Wednesday, February 1. He was ill with flu and not able to meet with the Commissioners.

In making the appointment, Judge Thomas said that he served 15 years with Mr. Henard on the Salt Fork Soil Conservation Board and knew the kind of commissioner he will make.

Mr. Hartman had three years left on his second term. Under the state law, Mr. Henard will serve until the next general election. If he wishes to continue in the office, he will have to file and run for the remaining two years by the February 6 deadline.

The new appointee is a life-long county resident and a third-generation rancher. Besides serving 15 years on the Salt Fork Soil and Water Conservation Board, he has received regional and state honors for his work in soil and water conservation, and wildlife preservation.

Eleven months ago he was awarded the 1977 Texas Outstanding Resident Conservation Farmer-Rancher Award at the Texas Farm and Ranch Credit School for Commercial Bankers at Texas A&M University.

He and his wife, Louise, have two children, Mrs. Dan Langford and John R. Henard III, both of Wellington.

Delmar Turner For Constable

Delmar Doc Turner has authorized the Wellington Leader to announce his candidacy for the office of Constable of Precinct 1, Collingsworth County, subject to action of the Democratic Primary.

Constable's Precinct 1 includes the entire county except for three small uninhabited tracts in the northeast, northwest and west parts of the county. The office has been vacant since the death of Bruce Hite last year.

Mr. Turner says: "I have been in private business for the last 9 years, and I will do my best to serve the people of Collingsworth County if you elect me to be your constable."

I have been with the Childress City Police Departments since June 1977 and hold the rank of day sergeant. I will receive my law enforcement certification after Feb. 24, 1978, which will be through the Texas A&M University branch at Floydada.

In addition, I have completed courses in basic law and law enforcement offered by

School Board Votes to Keep Wing

Wellington School Board voted 3 to 2 to save the west wing of the old elementary school rather than tear it down at regular school board meeting Monday, Jan. 9.

The board passed a motion to face the 15th Street side of the wing with the same type of concrete panels used on the new portion of the school at a cost of $8,900. No other work will be done to the interior or exterior at the present time.

Voting for the motion were Jerol Morris, Benson Long and Frank Coleman, Jr. Opposed were Willie O'Rear and Carroll Nunnely.

Prior to the vote the board discussed the proposal at a public meeting sponsored by the PTO and attended by 20 citizens.

In addition to questions about tearing down the old west wing, the group had several questions relating to the new building. They were told: (1) that the school had provided plumbing in all 17 new classrooms, but sinks in only 10 of the rooms at the present time; (2) that the school would provide cabinets in each classroom through a separate contract that has not yet been let, rather than through the general contractor; and (3) that when the current building and remodeling is complete the school will have 20 regular size and 1 small classroom.

George Smoot, superintendent of works for general contractor Speed Fab-Crete, said he expected to be ready to hand over the building to the school on February 15 if all materials are available as scheduled. Smoot said insulation is now being installed between interior walls. Cabinets and lockers are not expected to be ready by that time, however.

The board also approved a locker color scheme of pale green, reddish brown, yellow

Rev. Henson Comes To Nazarene Church

The Rev. J.D. Henson has been assigned as pastor of the Church of the Nazarene, and he and his wife will move here shortly after January 15.

He will succeed the Rev.

Johnny Harrison, who is going to the church at Broken Bow, Oklahoma.

Rev. Henson has been pastor of First Church of the Nazarene in Quanah 11 years.

Both he and his wife, Mollie, come from the McAlester area in Southeast Oklahoma.

He entered the ministry 27 years ago, in 1950, and his Oklahoma pastorates included Fillmore, Sallisaw and Arper. Quanah is his only pastorate in West Texas.

He has been active in the Ministerial Alliance.

The Rev. and Mrs. Henson have two daughters, Mrs. Deborah Fisher and Mrs. Judy Trammell. Both live in Quanah. There are three grandchildren.

Student Financial Aid Night Explains Loans, Scholarships

A student financial aid night is planned for parents and seniors of the county's three schools who may want to continue their education but face a financial problem.

This will be held Thursday, January 19, at 7:30 p.m. in Wellington High School auditorium.

Louis Graham, Wellington counselor, will be in charge.

Scholarships, grant, work-study programs and student loans will be discussed. It will also cover senior colleges and universities, junior colleges, and trade or vocational schools.

Mr. Graham explained that scholarships and grants are not paid back by the recipient.

Loans are made to be paid back within a 10-year period at an interest rate as low as 3 percent in some cases.

Both state and national programs will be explained.

Packets of information to make applications for financial aid will be distributed and explained at this meeting.

"Over half of the graduating seniors from the Wellington class of 1977 who are involved in continuing education are receiving some form of financial aid," said Mr. Graham.

He explained that this is an open meeting, and there may be adults in town who are interested in going back to school, and they, also, are urged to come.

MISS SAMNORWOOD

Miss Samnorwood, a Samnorwood High School Senior, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Sanderson, was crowned Miss Samnorwood at the school Saturday night.

Truth Festival for Youth Opens Friday

Youths of First Christian Church are inviting their friends of all other churches to a Truth Festival, a rally that will be held overnight Friday and Saturday, January 13 and 14.

"We need you," the Rev. Ken Johnson appealed to the youths. "I am anticipating at least 100 kids to take part."

The Truth Festival will feature the rock gospel band, Second Coming, from Dallas. There will be three class sessions, each an hour long. These will concern truth, and its role in confronting contemporary issues such as drugs, music, popularity, and other questions, Rev. Johnson said.

There will be plenty of time for recreation and socializing. A spaghetti dinner will be served late Friday evening, there will be doughnuts for breakfast and a wiener roast Saturday afternoon.

The meeting will be in the National guard Armory, starting at 7:00 p.m. Friday. They will spend the night at the Armory and each one attending will be responsible for furnishing sleeping bags, clothes and a Bible.

The Truth Festival will end at 6:00 p.m. Saturday.

Second Coming will perform at Wellington High School Friday, January 13, at the morning assembly.

Approximately 15 to 20 adults will assist at the Truth Festival, in classes as well as overnight at the armory.

Association of W's To Organize Jan. 16

The Wellington Chapter of Association of the W's (Women Who Want to be Women) will hold their organizational meeting Monday, January 16, at 7:00 p.m. in the Farm Bureau Building. At that time officers will be elected and future action planned. This organization is part of the nation-wide Association of the W's and was formed with these objectives:

- To educate on issues which affect the moral and spiritual welfare of the family.
- To determine specific things each person can do. -To unite efforts for greater effectiveness.

"If you believe in the rights of parents to rear their children, the family institution itself, in God and His holy word, then now is the time to become involved," said Mrs.

L.B. Don Hendrix, one of those working with the movement.

All persons over 16 years-men, women and young people-are invited to the meeting.

At the end of the present term, Judge Thomas will have served 12 years as Collingsworth County Judge, and during that period he has guided it into many new avenues of endeavor, which have resulted in benefits not heretofore obtained.

equal classes. Weights will range from 850 to 1300 pounds.

Boys and girls who will exhibit in the steer show are David Baumgardner, one calf; Lisa Nix and Darvin Nix, four; Stan Tate and Lynn Tate, five; Barry Long, one; Harold Scott, two; Paul Estes, one; Channy Wood, one; Kirk Patterson, two; Mark Fourmentin and Patricia Fourmentin, four; and Jody Coleman one.

The purebred Hereford heifer will be exhibited by Dwayne Myers of Samnorwood.

Lamb exhibitors will be Harold McKinney, two, and Stanley Whitten, Cody Anglin, Gary Isaacs, Farron Lockhart, Leigh Myrick and Mike Myrick, two.

The lambs are due to go on to the Amarillo show.

One hazard remains for the young calf owners. Most of the steers are approaching the age where they will shed their baby teeth. That makes them ineligible to be exhibited in any of the three shows they are scheduled to enter.

One calf is already out of Saturday's show for that reason.

The public is urged to come out and see the calves and sheep Saturday, Reeves and Myrick said.

"Competition is much tougher when you leave

Amarillo College here. I am a volunteer fireman, serving as fourth lieutenant, and also I am registered with the state as assistant fire marshal of Wellington.

I am a member of First Baptist Church. My entire life has been spent here and I completed my schooling here. My parents are Mr. and Mrs. N.J. (Doc) Turner. I am married to Jeanetta Gollighugh. We have three children: Pamela, a junior in Wellington High School; Patricia, a sophomore; and Delmar, Jr., a freshman.

Although my free time is limited, I will try to see each of you before the primary election, to personally ask for your vote and support."

Wellington than it was 10 years ago, but our boys and girls are going to be in there with the best of them," Reeves added.

When the youngsters take their calves to Amarillo early next week, they are going with the assurance they will not lose money on any they choose to sell.

A Kiwanis Club, with Jake Leach as chairman, is to raise money from the business people to bid in any calf that is bid in lower than they believe it is worth. Assisting Leach is Wayne Martin. They plan to begin their fund drive late this week, Leach said.

In other building developments, Randy McCollin of architect Tom Brown's office admitted that the architect's specifications did not include facing for the top of the cafeteria to match the new building, as was indicated by an artist's rendering of the proposed building last year.

Eagles, Eaglettes In Tourney

Samnorwood Eagles and Eaglettes competed in the Amarillo Jaycee Basketball Tournament on the last three days of 1977.

Eaglettes defeated Adrian 38-28 in the first round Thursday, Dec. 29. They trailed 6-11 at the first period but led 18-15 and 28-23 at the second and third.

Both teams had a hard time getting started.

Scoring for Norwood were DiAnna Schaub, 23; Tonya Kincannon 10 and Sally Kincannon 5. Betty Turner was the other forward and guards were Margaret Sanderson, Kim Peeples, Donnie Knoll, Ravena Graves and Jona Stages. Durham made 17 points for Adrian.

The Norwood girls lost to Hartley 48-35 Friday morning after trailing all the way. DiAnna scored 19 points, Tonya 14 and Sally two.

Saturday in an 8:00 a.m. game, the Eaglettes won over Happy 61-49. They led 14-12, 30-22 and 47-37 at the quarters. Tonya scored 31 points, DiAnna 24 and Sally 6.

The Eaglettes played Valley High School for third place later Saturday, losing 58-52.

A slow start left Norwood girls trailing 10-18 at the first period and 32-25 at halftime. They had pulled ahead 46-42 by the third period, but a late push put Valley out ahead.

Samnorwood and Hartley boys met in the first round, with Norwood taking the victory 50-45. Due to the Christmas break, both teams were slow in getting started. Norwood was ahead 10-8 at the first quarter and the score was tied 24 all at the half. Late in the third, the Eagles were able to open up a 10-point lead and hold it through the fourth.

Scoring for Samnorwood were Richard Lee, 10; Lowry Schaub 6; Mike Bentley and Randy Breeding 12 each; Russell Schaub four and J.D. Ray 6.

L. Hammock scored 14 points for Hartley.

In second-round action, the Eagles met Phillips. The game was close throughout and was tied 9 times in the first half.

Neither team was ever able to get more than 4 or 5 points ahead, and Phillips led by one point when the final buzzer sounded.

The Eagles led 17-16 at the first quarter and trailed 34-33 and 51-47 at the second and third.

M. Young had 21 points for Phillips.

Scoring for Samnorwood were Lee 20; M. Bentley 17; L. Schaub 13, Breeding 7 and Ray one.

After losing to Phillips, Samnorwood had to return to the losers side of the bracket. For the second time, they faced Hartley, which had won the second round from Canyon JV.

Once more, this game was close. Both teams played much better basketball than the first time and the Eagles defeated Hartley two points, 54-52.

Samnorwood trailed 17-13 and 32-27 at the first two quarters and led 41-39 at the third. Scoring for Norwood were Lee, 23; M. Bentley 9; L. Schaub and Breeding 8 each; R. Schaub four and Ray two.

After defeating Hartley on Saturday morning, Samnorwood had to play Texline at 6:00 p.m. for third place. Both teams were tired and the play was not as sharp as the earlier games.

Samnorwood was leading 45-44 and Texline scored with 4 seconds to play. The Eagles called time out and set up for one last shot. The ball was inbounded to Richard Lee, who shot the ball as the buzzer went off. The basket was good, but the official ruled that it had not left his hand when time ran out.

A. Hager had 12 for Texline.

Scoring for Samnorwood were Lee 15; Breeding 11; L. Schaub 8; M. Bentley 6; R. Schaub four, and R. Bentley one. Others making the trip were Jody Knoll, Dwayne Myers, Billy Kincannon, Lynn Tate, Dale Turner, Rex Paschall and Mark Wischkaemper.

Following the Eagles and Eaglettes to the tournament were Mr. and Mrs. J.L.

Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. Rudie Tate and Stan, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Knoll, Steve and Stacy, Dee Kincannon, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Breeding and Crystal.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Schaub, Mr. and Mrs. Buck Breeding, Mr. and Mrs. Doug Coleman, Cindy and Doug Jr., Ross Wayne Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. Rex Peeples and Scott, Mr. and Mrs. J.C. UT Austin has been judged the nation's leader among 106 education institutions in the successful academic use of computers.

UT was the only one judged exemplary in six areas of computer excellence: student accomplishments, institutional accomplishments, spectrum of applications, computer science or data processing curricula, and outreach to the community.

Scholarships Offered Under Army ROTC

LUBBOCK--High School Seniors interested in Army ROTC Scholarships should begin preparing applications now, according to Lt. Col. George T. Kimbro, professor of military science at Texas Tech University.

"About 700 full-tuition four-year scholarships will be awarded to students who enter college in the fall of 1978," Kimbro said.

The scholarships pay all tuition cost for four years, books, laboratory fees, plus an additional monthly allowance of $100 for up to 10 months of each school year, Kimbro said.

Kimbro said that with rising college costs, the Army ROTC Scholarship could easily be worth more than $12,000 over the four-year period.

Saving energy in the kitchen is a concern of the Federal Energy Administration.

Much of our food is highly processed, and even that which is not may have come from lands far away, at an enormous cost in energy. So before it gets to us, our food may have been treated, transported, processed and re-processed, packaged, and hauled again--from market to our own kitchen shelves.

To help cut down further energy output--in meal preparation--the Office of Conservation suggests these tips to the consumer:

1. Avoid peeking in the oven, or in the crockpot. Use a timer, a meat thermometer or time/temperature chart; check minimum allotted cooking time for the food you are cooking. Or use the oven light to help you see into the oven. Make sure the oven door seal is tight and not leaking.

2. Plan complete oven meals that can be cooked all at the same time. Turn off oven when there is about five minutes of cooking time left--the oven will be hot enough to finish the cooking.

3. Match pots and pans to the size of the burners. Use pans with flat bottoms for close contact with burner. A pot on too large a burner allows heat to escape.

4. Cover saucepans with tight-fitting lids whenever possible. Food will cook faster at a lower temperature.

5. Preheat oven only for baking, and then for only about ten minutes.

6. Set surface burners on high setting only briefly; lower setting will usually work just as well.

7. Prepare double recipes of some foods--such as stew, soup and lasagna. Freeze for later use.

8. Keep your gas range pilot adjusted. It could be using more fuel than necessary.

9. Put pots and pans on the range before burner is turned on so heat is not wasted.

10. Use your oven instead of surface units when possible. Less heat is lost in confined areas.

11. When practical, thaw foods before cooking.

12. Use glass or ceramic pots and pans on a conventional range; the heat can be lowered 25 degrees without losing cooking efficiency.

13. Heat only as much water as you need; it will heat more quickly.

14. Use specialized appliances--popcorn poppers, toasters, skillets--when possible; they use less energy than the range does.

15. Use the vent fan to exhaust air heated by range-top cooking. This eases the burden of your cooling system, but don't let the fan run needlessly.

16. Cook several dishes at once by dividing the skillet with foil inserts.

BOB'S BOBBERY

100th Judicial District Probation Officer

HE'S TOO BIG TO SPANK?

In juvenile probation the term "he's too big to spank," comes up in conversation with parents all too often. It has become an out with some parents, an excuse for shirking responsibility. What kind of world would it be if, because rule-breakers were too big or too old for physical punishment, none at all was given? Obviously, if a youngster is beyond the age of spanking, other punishment must be meted.

Some parents use the family car privilege as a means of punishment for rule infractions. If the youngster has "his own" car, I would remind parents whose name is on the title.

Other punishments that work toward your goals for behavioral improvement might be:

* Curtailment or elimination of night out privileges.. "grounding."

* Cut-off of cash handouts for non-essential spending.

* Forbidding usual recreational activities.

* Assignment of menial household tasks, not ordinarily the teen's responsibility.

Today, generally speaking, parents demand too little of their teens. And, punishment that works on one doesn't mean it will work on all, even in the same family. My point is this: doing something in the way of punishment is better than doing nothing.

What if you make things so uncomfortable for the teen that he leaves home? If your youngster believes you live in constant fear of him leaving, the chances are he's running your household, not you...a situation you will live to regret. In most cases, the teen who actually leaves home because of disciplinary measures will return in a short time, a far easier person to get along with at home.

Above all else, the parent must retain the status of the adult in complete control—wrong or right—acting in fairness, setting the rules and handing out punishment. No other arrangement will hold the respect you must have to maintain order.

"He's too big to spank?" is he, or is it simply that parents want to avoid the unpleasantness and resulting furor? If parents don't punish, the chances of someone else having to do it for them, sooner or later, become very real. Which would be less upsetting to the family, home punishment or letting the youngster go until he faces a judge? I rest my case.

Texas Chili Harvest Eye-Watering Success

AUSTIN-Mexican food fans should be happy to hear that chili pepper harvest is nearing completion at El Paso, and so far the crop looks good, Agriculture Commissioner Reagan V. Brown reported today.

Along with this specialty crop for Texas is the harvest of fall and winter vegetables across the state.

From the Lower Rio Grande Valley, carrots, cabbage and bell peppers are being shipped. The citrus harvest is going well there with gift season demand remaining high, Brown said.

In the San Antonio-Winter Garden area, bell peppers, cabbage, spinach, and carrots are still being moved to market. Eagle Pass growers are also harvesting spinach and salvaging tomatoes from fields damaged by a mid-November freeze.

In 1912 Jim Thorpe scored 25 touchdowns and 198 points for the Carlisle Institute football squad.

Texas Fishing License A Good Buy

AUSTIN-Fisherman who fish in Texas pay less for the privilege than in most states. This includes the cost of both resident and nonresident fishing licenses, according to figures compiled by the Fisheries Division of the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department.

A resident fishing license costs $4.50 in Texas; the average for other states is $5.24. A Texas nonresident license sells for $10.50; the average for the other 49 states is $13.81.

Six states charge more than $25.00 for nonresident fishing licenses; Nebraska and Tennessee have the most expensive at $30.00 each.

Seven states charge less than $4.00 for resident licenses, the two lowest being Illinois, $2.25 and Louisiana, $2.00.

Most states including Texas sell short-term licenses. Texas issues a five-day nonresident license for $4.50 or a three-day saltwater license, good for both residents and nonresidents, for $1.25. California issues a 10-day ocean license for $5.00.

Many states' licenses require extra stamps for fishermen who fish for salmon or trout.

The Squeaky Wheel

Congressman Jack Hightower was in our office last week and our question to him was this: Is the "farm strike" registering in Washington?

The Congressman's reply: "Well, the squeaky wheel gets the grease, and if we'd have this much interest and enthusiasm last year, we'd have had a better farm bill this year."

"I think we've got to have new farm legislation, and I plan to call for hearings as soon as I get back to Washington" Hightower said. "I don't think we can guarantee farmers a profit, but we're going to have to have a better farm bill than we have now."

The American Agriculture movement will be making more noise in Washington next week when farmers from across the country descend on Washington during the opening days of the Congressional session.

And we're glad to see them take their complaints directly to the American government—the government that is largely responsible for the farm price mess today.

The protest in Washington next week is symbolic of the farmer's new-found sense of politics. He's taken to the nation's streets and highways in recent weeks and now he's taking his grievances to the government.

It's a pattern of protest that proved effective in the late 1960's. Just how effective the student protests of that period were was learned only after the revelation of the Watergate tapes. A Nixon administration that publicly sneered at the thousands on the Washington Mall was in reality trembling behind the White House curtains as thousands of young people took to the streets in protest of the Cambodian invasion.

This example from the 60's tells us that farmers may be doing more good than the public realizes with their seemingly ineffective tractor parades.

And farmers, of course, have been much milder in their protests to date than those of the 60's. But the current farm movement may be the beginning of the end of the days when the farmer stood at the last of the line and took whatever crumbs were left over from the slices of the American economic pie.

Other Editors Say . . .

Well-Handled

Although Amarillo doesn't always act like it, it is indebted to its trade territory, primarily smalltown and rural farmers, for about 60 percent of its retail trade.

These farmers and smalltown people are not the stupid hicks some city folks suppose. They know what the score is. They are aware of their contribution to Amarillo's economy. And they are somewhat sensitive about their customer-merchant relationship. They understand that too often it's a one-way street to Amarillo, with farm dollars rolling into Amarillo, but few if any rolling back to the rural communities.

In this contest, the farmers three weeks ago rolled into Amarillo on an educational mission. Their intent was not to injure Amarillo business houses but to awaken them to the crisis of survival which many farmers are now facing.

Amarillo faced a challenge. It could have reacted in various ways. Amarillo police could have reacted like smalltown cops, throwing their weight around, issuing tickets, arresting some, and in general throwing gasoline on a smoldering fire. The management of the picketed businesses could have over-reacted. Some might have employed their fists if not their shotguns. And all no doubt would have felt justified in their own eyes. At least there was a climate for cuss fights.

But without exception, cool heads prevailed. There were no serious incidents with the picketed businesses. There was no over-reaction from law officers. And 24 hours later the farmers pulled out of Amarillo with apparently nothing but kind thoughts concerning their reception and treatment...with one exception.

Amarillo preserved the goodwill of its customers...for the most part.

AUSTIN — New federal judgeships may be raining on Texas if a court bill passed by the U.S. Senate and approved (in slightly altered form) by the House Judiciary Committee becomes law.

Both versions of the legislature would create more than 100 new federal district courts and 35 additional circuit judgeships.

Ten of the district courts recommended by the Senate would be assigned to Texas. The Senate bill further recommended splitting the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals, to provide a new Eleventh Circuit for Texas and Louisiana, and that would mean still more appellate judges for Texas.

The House committee bill would set up 110 new district courts, allocating nine of them to Texas.

Under the Senate bill, Texas' big southern district could get five district courts. The same district would get four in the House version. Both bills would provide three district courts for the northern district and one each for the western and eastern districts.

New courts mean a major patronage plum for President Carter — and Democratic U.S. Sen. Lloyd Bentsen who will recommend appointments of Texas judges to the president.

A long list of applicants for the expected lifetime, $54,500 a year prestige appointments already is emerging—many of the hopefuls well-known Texas political names.

But under Bentsen's theory of "merit appointments," the best judicial appointees are the best qualified lawyers available.

Car Insurance Rates

There will be no immediate increase in Texas auto insurance rates.

The State Board of Insurance has agreed to hold the line pending a new hearing in July.

The decision meant rates would remain $193 million below those requested by insurance companies and $112 million below original board staff recommendations—based on about $1.1 billion in annual private passenger car premiums. Board actuaries originally recommended a 10.1 per cent hike, after the industry last summer asked 17.4 per cent more. A special rate consultant to the regulatory agency later suggested 1.8 per cent was adequate. Meanwhile, State Farm Insurance Company announced its profits justified a rebate of $7.5 million in excess premiums to state car owners.

Land Sale Set

A lease sale next month of nearly 750,000 acres of state owned land may bring another $7 million to the state's public school fund.

The School Land Board has advertised for bids February 7 on the lands, which include 510,000 acres in the Gulf of Mexico.

The state leases the land to oil companies and individuals for a minimum of $25 an acre, plus a one-fifth royalty on any production.

Good Industry Year

Preliminary statistics indicate 1977 was a banner year for industrial development in Texas.

More than 210 companies announced plans for a Texas location last year, with a month yet to be accounted for. And plants are hiring more people.

While plants locating in 1976 hired an average of 38 people, the same plant in 1977 employed 54.

Courts Speak

The Supreme Court refused to remove a temporary injunction against American Nazi Party telephone recording messages offering a $5,000 bounty for killing a non-white who attacks a white.

The high court sustained lower court rulings which prevented trial of a $1 million suit by widows of men who died at the San Angelo sewer plant in 1973 after being overcome by gas.

A Mills County man is entitled to a new divorce hearing since he could not get a transcript of the original proceeding, the Supreme Court found.

The Supreme Court twice refused to interfere with a recount of a Panhandle State Senate District 31 runoff after Secretary of State Steve Oaks ordered it.

A Waco intermediate court's decision that may force an insurance company to pay $11,500 on a burned rural house in Navarro County which witnesses said was worth no more than $3,000 will be reviewed by the Supreme Court.

Ambulance Service Holds Annual Meeting

"Thank you. Thank you for my life."
A slender young Altus, Okla., woman came to the annual meeting of Wellington Volunteer Ambulance Service Saturday night to say this personally to its members and especially the men who removed her from her wrecked car on Highway 83 south of Wellington a year ago.
Mrs. Barbara Logan, one of 7 injured in the accident, had another message. Because there have been many unusual incidents in her life, she has submitted her story to a major national magazine. She says the editors have told her they will use the material, and Mrs. Logan said that any proceeds she receives will be divided equally between the Wellington Volunteer Ambulance Service and the Red Cross.
The accident occurred when the axle of her small newly purchased car broke, causing it to go out of control and overturn. This was shortly after the death of her husband as she was moving from Houston to Altus. Ambulance service attendants brought the injured to Collingsworth General Hospital; transferred them to Altus Air Force Base Hospital, and stayed with Mrs. Logan until she was taken by air ambulance to Sheppard Air Force Base, due to her critical back injury.

Principal speaker at the meeting was Mrs. Betty O'Rourke, regional Emergency Medical Services Coordinator for Panhandle Regional Planning Commission.
"The Panhandle has the most outstanding volunteer ambulance services in the state, and this is the most outstanding service in the Panhandle--and therefore in Texas," she told the volunteers.

Mrs. O'Rourke has frequently used this service as an example of what a community can do, in her funding work on state and national levels.
She revealed other plans that will affect the Wellington service.
A grant made available by Levi Straus Co. and its employees will fund paramedic training in the Panhandle. First to be trained will be emergency medical technicians from those counties which have no doctor or hospital.
Those in Collingsworth and other counties will come later. This training, she pointed out, is what one sees on the TV serial Emergency.
The Panhandle Emergency Medical Services System has received a Burn Grant, one of 6 in the United States. This will provide for two hot lines, one to the Burn unit of Parkland Hospital, Dallas, which will make available consultation from specialists at that hospital.

The PEMSS helicopter for medical transport is again in service and available here when needed, Mrs. O'Rourke said.
Three officers were re-elected in the business session, Bob Watson, president; Marshall Peters, vice president; and Mrs. Margaret Vines, secretary-treasurer.
Three directors named were elected, Mr. Peters, Ralph Owens and Dennis Cudd.
In his annual report, Mr. Watson said the ambulance service made 242 runs in the 1977 year. Expenses amounted to $9,962.26 and of this $2,792.59 was for insurance, he said.

"Every time a run is made at a $25 basic charge, $11 of that is for insurance," he said.
He named the 10 ambulance service members who have made the highest number of runs during the year:
King Bowen 88 and Kenneth Patterson 77, both of Collingsworth General Hospital staff; the Sheriff's department, with Deputy Richard Keller making most of the runs, 24; and the top 8 volunteers: Ralph Owens, 10, Johnny Brown, 15, Jim Sikes, 24, Jeanette Anderson 26, Tom Anderson, 28, Mrs. H.H. Bowen, 42, Marshall Peters, 45, and Bob Watson, 55.
A gift certificate was presented to Mr. Bowen for his dedicated service and a plaque went to Tom Anderson for service as co-ordinator,

Victories End Non-Conference Play

Wellington Skyrockets and Rockettes closed out pre-conference play winning three of the four scheduled games.
They defeated Quanah Indians boys and girls in Rocket Gym Friday night, January 6, but earlier in the week, when the girls traveled to Childress, the Rockettes dropped their game a close 58-53, but the Rockettes won over Childress girls 38-23.
On the final three days of the Christmas holidays, both teams participated in the Claude Invitational Tournament and both lost out in the consolation finals.
Wellington boys took an early lead over Quanah and held it to the 63-44 finish.
They were ahead 12-8 at the first quarter and enlarged this to 32-18 at the half. Play was even in the third period and the score was 45-28. Wellington scored 18 points in the final period and Quanah 16.
Charles McIntosh led Wellington scoring with 25 points;

Juan Jalamo made 15 for Quanah.
Wellington girls took an easy 55-40 victory over Quanah. They had a 13-10 lead at the first period and were ahead 33-24 at halftime. The same pace continued and Rockettes were ahead 47-32 at the third.
Suzy Chandler accounted for 29 Wellington points. Carpenter scored 18 for Quanah.
Both teams traveled to Childress Tuesday, Jan. 3, with the Rockettes winning 46-32 and the Rockettes dropping their game 58-53.
Wellington boys led at the end of the first period 16-13, but in the second period they dropped behind 31-24. They narrowed the score to 42-39 as the third period ended, but weren't able to overcome the Childress lead.
Ricky Jones scored 15 points for Wellington; Brett Stone made 17 for Childress.
Wellington girls stayed from four to six points ahead of their opponents through the first three quarters, leading 8-3, at the first period, 20-16 at halftime, and 32-26 at the third. Their 14 points in the final period, to 10 scored by Childress, gave the Rockettes a comfortable victory.

Wellington's high point player was Suzy Chandler with 20. Kathy Davis made 18 for Childress.
In the opening round of the Claude tournament, Wellington boys trailed all the way to the 61-47 finish. High point man was Clay Rickerson, with 17 for Fritch. Jon Sessions scored 14 points for Wellington.
The Skyrockets defeated Claude boys 51-48 going into consolation play. This was one of the closest games of the tournament. Wellington trailed 14-13 at the first period, but the score was tied 24-24 by the half-way mark. Wellington was ahead three points, 39-36 at the third quarter.
Carl Taylor led Wellington scoring with 20 points and Kevin Webb for Claude with 19.

Wellington lost the consolation finals to Stinnett 56-31 after trailing from the start. High point man for the Rockettes was Charles McIntosh with 6 points. Bobby Williams made 15 for Stinnett.
The Rockettes lost to Fritch 67-44 in the first round. Getting off to a slow start, they were never able to catch up.
Pam Ingram led Wellington scoring with 22 points; Derenda Durr made 28 for Fritch.
Going into the consolation bracket, Wellington Rockettes surged ahead to defeat Lefors 89-34. Their 25-5 lead at the first period left little doubt of the outcome. They were ahead 37-16 at halftime and 62-26 by the third. Pam Ingram was high point for Wellington with 23 points; Hudson scored 22 for Lefors.
The consolation finals with Stinnett saw some of the Brothers Together After Fifty Years

Five Fincher brothers gathered in Wellington during the holiday season, the first time all had been together in 50 years. They met in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W.B. Fincher.
They included W.B. Fincher and Wilford Fincher of Wellington; Jack Fincher of Plainview, who formerly lived here; Allen Fincher of Oklahoma City; and Odell Fincher of Marshall.
They are the sons of the late Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Fincher. The three living away reached Wellington December 30 and they visited until January 2.
Dr. and Mrs. Jerry Barnett, Chris and Jennifer, of Oklahoma City were Christmas guests of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Waters east of Lutie. Other holiday guests were Mrs. Waters mother, Mrs. Mary Plunkett, and her sisters, Mrs. Julia Perry and Miss Opal Plunkett of Amarillo.

Darton Murder Trial Opens Here Tuesday

The trial of Ivory Darton, who is under indictment for murder, first degree, a felony, has been set for Tuesday, Jan. 17, in 199th District Court, according to District Attorney Charles Darter.

Darton is charged in the beating death of Maxine Sterling, which occurred Saturday, August 13, in a car on a country road southwest of Wellington.

He has been held in Collingsworth County Jail since his arrest.

Representing Darton will be Mike Moore of the Tom Upchurch legal firm in Amarillo.

Mr. Darter will represent the state, with Judge Robert Montgomery of Memphis presiding.

A jury has been called to hear the case.

It's Time To Control Cattle Lice

COLLEGE STATION—Lice cost U.S. cattlemen more than $50 million annually, so it's important to control them, says an entomologist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Dr. Carl D. Patrick of Amarillo notes that lice begin to reproduce rapidly with the onset of cool weather, so peak populations on cattle occur in late winter and early spring. Uncontrolled lice can soon infest a whole herd because with cold weather, cattle tend to bunch up more so that the pests can move easily from one animal to another. Heavy hair coats on animals during cold weather also afford protection for the parasites and allow for increased reproduction.

Both types of lice—blood-sucking and biting-infest cattle. Sucking lice pierce the animal's skin and suck blood while biting lice feed on particles of hair, scale, scab and skin exudation, explains the entomologist.

Lice infestations irritate animals, causing itching, scratching and rubbing on fences or anything else available. This produces denuded areas, bruises and lacerations on the affected animal. Heavily infested animals will have an unthrifty appearance and will suffer weight reduction, decreased milk production, anemia or even death. Lice infested animals may also be more subject to infectious diseases. Heavy lice infestations often stunt calves.

Spraying or dipping infested animals with the proper insecticide is the most effective means of controlling lice, says Patrick. However, properly placed and maintained dust bags offer effective control and save both time and labor. Position dust bags prior to lice buildup so that cattle can become accustomed to using the bags. A dust bag station should serve about 30 head. Depending on cattle size, place the bags so that they hang 18-24 inches above the ground. Forced-use of dust bags, where they are placed so that cattle must pass under them to get feed or water, begin to control lice sooner than those used free-choice. By allowing a two-to-three week adjustment period, free-choice bags can be about as effective as forced-use types.

In a spraying or dipping program an animal must receive a thorough soaking in each of two applications 14-18 days apart to effectively control lice, contends Patrick. The second spray or dip will kill any lice hatching from eggs that were laid prior to the first spraying. When spraying, use a high pressure (250 pounds per square inch) and thoroughly wet animals to the skin.

For a list of effective insecticides for controlling lice, the entomologist suggests that cattlemen obtain a copy of "Suggestions for Controlling External Parasites on Livestock and Poultry" available at any county Extension office.

Check the label on the insecticide container and pay particular attention to warnings, restrictions and waiting periods, especially if some of the cattle are being prepared for slaughter, cautions Patrick.

Cates Joins Staff Of Shamrock Paper

Phil Cates, representative from the 66th legislative district, has joined the advertising staff of the Shamrock Texan as a full time employee, effective Monday, January 2.

In addition to his legislative office, he has served as Shamrock Chamber of Commerce since 1975. He is resigning from that job.

Now completing his fourth term in the legislature, Cates had announced earlier that he would not seek re-election.

He purchased a stock interest in The Texan effective Sept. 1, 1977.

Following graduation from West Texas State University in 1969, Cates was assistant dean of student life at WT in 1969-70; worked in the production of Texaco, Inc.; and was economic advisor to the Comptroller's office of the Oil and Gas Division of Cabot Corporation in Pampa.

A native of Lefors, he is married to the former Nancy Holt of Pampa and they have two children, Andy, three and John David, one.

Annual rainfall in Collingsworth is 22.03 inches.

WHS Teams Travel to Shamrock For District Opener Friday

Wellington Skyrockets and Rockettes open District play Friday January 13, against Shamrock boys and girls.

The third game will feature the girls B teams of the two schools.

Wellington was idle Tuesday night.

The Rockets have been picked third in District 2-A behind Memphis and Clarendon.

Wellington squad, and juniors, sophomores and freshmen make up the varsity.

The Rockettes, coached by Miss Debbie Chisum, finished non-conference play with 16 wins and three losses.

"We feel we are ready," she added.

District play will end February 10. The season is divided into two halves, with every team playing every other team in the district once in each half.

If different teams win the halves, there will be a play-off game to determine the 2-A winner.

During the district season, a "B" team game will begin at 5:00 p.m. each night. Boys and girls "B" teams will alternate. The varsity girls game will follow, usually around 6:30 p.m., and the varsity boys will begin play about 8:00.

After the Shamrock game, Friday, the teams will host Clarendon teams Tuesday, January 17, and on Friday, January 20, Wellington travels to Memphis for crucial games.

City, County and Hospital Elections Slated April 1

In addition to the primaries and general election, county voters will face other elections in 1978.

City, school and hospital district elections are all scheduled for Saturday, April 1.

Wellington voters will name four city council members; Dodson will select city council members; voters in each of the three school districts will name board members; and the county will vote on hospital board members.

In Wellington, the terms of council members Lyndon Crelia, J.L. Harper and Wayne Cudd expire. None has announced for re-election so far, and Mr. Harper said he will not be a candidate.

A fourth member will be elected to fill the unexpired term of Robert Owens, who resigned recently, giving as his reason that he felt there would be a conflict of interest in his new residential development and city interests. One year remains on this term.

Hold over officials are Mayor Bill Hatch and Council member Tom Wilkins.

Dodson mayor Lonnie Robertson is not up for re-election, and an announcement will be made as to which council terms expire.

Terms of Wellington school board members William O'Rear and Frank Coleman, Jr., expire. Another trustee will be elected to succeed Vance Hunt of Dodson, who was elected in 1977. His company has transferred him to New York.

Holdover trustees are Jerol Morris, Carroll Nunnelle, V.K. Orr and Benson Long. Wellington trustees are elected for three year-terms.

Voting boxes will be at Wellington and Dodson.

Outgoing trustees at Samnorwood are James Martindale and Billy Wischkaemper. The voting box will be at Samnorwood School.

Three trustees will be elected at Quail. Those whose terms expire are Donald Langley, James Farris and Jim Kennedy.

Terms of three county school board members expire: Walter Camp, Precinct 1; Z.J. Neeley, Precinct 3; and Johnny Carson, member at large.

Four hospital board members will be elected. Those whose terms expire are Otis Emmert, Bill Janes, and Tom

Price Picks Up Two Votes in County Recount

A recount of votes cast in the December 10 election to determine the District 66 State Representative left Bob Price in the lead, with 15,194 votes.

Bob Simpson, his opponent, picked up 17 votes in the 26-county district, for a total of 14,970.

In Collingsworth County, Price picked up two votes and Simpson lost two, according to District Attorney Charles Darter.

The change was in Box 1, Dodson. The new figures gave Price 12 votes and Simpson 24. The new county total was Price 206, Simpson 383.

Assisting Darter with the recount were Dee Coleman and Joe Baumgardner.

Cunningham, who have served regular terms, and Lyman Daniel, who is completing an unexpired term.

Fleet Prudens Guests At Harvest Seminar

Mr. and Mrs. Fleet Pruden recently attended the Christian Broadcasting Network Autumn Harvest Seminar at the Omni International Hotel, Norfolk, Virginia. More than 700 persons from across the United States and Canada were guests of CBN for the four-day program of teaching, fellowship, ministry and prayer.

Main speaker and leader of the seminar was Dr. M.G. "Pat" Robertson, founder and president of the Christian Broadcasting Network, Inc. (CBN). A Yale Law School graduate, ordained minister, former Marine Corps combat officer and son of the late U.S. Senator A. Willis Robertson, he is host of CBN's internationally syndicated "700 Club" television program.

The guests were entertained by recording stars Cathie Taylor and Roger Wiles who are frequent performers on CBN's "700 Club" television program and "The Ross Bagley Show"; and by "Moose" Smith and the "700 Club" band.

In addition to present CBN corporate, television and radio facilities, the guests toured the 200 acre site of the new CBN Center in Virginia Beach,

License Plate Renewal Notices Now in Mail

AUSTIN-License plate renewal notices for almost 11 million motor vehicles are in U.S. post offices throughout Texas for delivery to owners beginning the day after Christmas.

R.W. Townsley, director of the Motor Vehicle Division, State Department of Highways and Public Transportation, said the renewal notices were stuffed into envelopes, pre-sorted by zip code, boxed and delivered to post offices to expedite delivery. Work to get the renewal notices ready for delivery started in early October.

"The plate renewals for passenger cars and light trucks (such as pickups) will be different from last year. A new law requires that renewal dates be spread as equally as possible over 12 months, rather than have all expire at one time (April 1) each year," Townsley said.

Since the Motor Vehicle Division does not maintain records by owner's name or birth date, the license number of the vehicle has been used to determine the month of registration renewal in the future.

Renewal notices have been issued to reflect the number of months and the prorated fee to be paid to register each vehicle under the new system.

A complete explanation of the new system is enclosed with each renewal notice for passenger cars and light trucks (one ton or less). It is imperative that vehicle owners not lose the registration notice as it must be presented at the county tax collection office to obtain new license plates.

Because of the new system, registration may take longer this first year than ever before. The new law authorizes county tax assessors-collectors to start processing the renewals a month early.

Your county tax assessor-collector is ready when you are-any time starting with the county's first work day in 1978.

CJC Extension Courses Listed

Clarendon College will hold extension college classes at Childress High School during the second semester. Courses will include general psychology, history of the western world, conversational Spanish, introduction to sociology and composition and reading.

All will carry full college credit and enrollment will be Tuesday, January 17, with tuition payable at that time.

Classes will be Monday and Tuesday from 7:00 to 10:00 p.m. and Thursday from 6:00 to 10:00 p.m. The semester will end May 11.

Texas engineers estimate an additional two billion barrels could be recovered through "water flooding" and other special recovery methods. More than a million persons annually visit the Veterans Administration's National Memorial Cemetery of the Pacific in Honolulu.

CITY STATE BANK

The world's most notorious robber still is at large. He may be here - or headed here. His name is Carelessness.

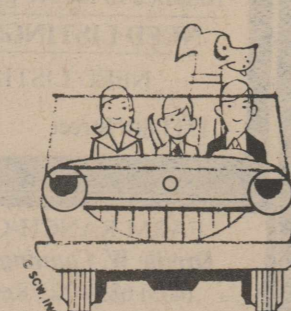

The bank will help protect you from this brazen bandit - even when you must carry large amounts of money. By issuing travelers checks, the bank assures that your money is fully protected while you still have total access to it wherever you are. A $10 travelers check is a spendable as a $10 bill, but if it is lost or stolen you are reimbursed. Because a travelers check issued to you is worthless to anyone else. Each check is signed when it is purchased, and signed again when used.

The checks are as good as cash at most any place of business by the simple comparison of the two signatures. And they are acceptable all over the world. If any are lost, simply notify the nearest agent - usually the local bank. You will be promptly reimbursed...you can BANK on it!
