SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — A woman follower of murderer Charles Manson thrust a loaded pistol at President Ford from pointblank range today in an apparent assassination attempt, but security men quickly seized the gun and arrested her.

She was identified by a White House spokesman as Lynette Alice Fromme, 27, a follower of Manson, convicted in the slaying of actress Sharon Tate and several others in Los Angeles in the late 1960s.

The evident attempt on Ford's life came as the President walked on the California state capitol grounds.

Disaster Money Is Sought

AUSTIN — Of the $699,000 estimated damages caused by flooding in Howard County Aug. 8 to 10, Gov. Dolph Briscoe said agricultural losses accounted for $500,000.

The governor made the estimate Thursday in asking the Federal Disaster Assistance Administration to declare Howard County a major disaster area.

Other private property losses totaled about $50,000, according to the governor's letter. Damage to county roads was listed at $149,000.

In addition to the Federal Disaster Assistance Administration, Briscoe asked that supplemental federal assistance be provided by the Small Business Administration, Farmers Home Administration and Soil Conservation Service.

County Engineer Neel Barnaby said on some roads the "only thing we had left was the right of way."

Rain water washed out roads in the northern half of the county, Knott area, around Lomax, near Big Spring city limits and east Howard Field, Barnaby said.

In spots, the county road department had finished preparing roads for paving when rain fell, Barnaby said.

"The county's budget just wouldn't stand it," Barnaby said of needed road repairs.

County Judge Bill Tume, who requested the aid, was out of town today.

Teachers Meet Saturday For Unique Conference

The Big Spring Herald's Living Textbook Conference will begin Saturday in the Howard College Auditorium, with registration at 8 a.m.

Mrs. Jamie Bilbo Boren, Snyder, heads the panel of discussion leaders. More than 60 educators and newsmen from around the area have signed up for the course.

The class will begin after registration and will continue after a noon luncheon served at the college, courtesy of the Herald.

The objective of the conference is to introduce teachers to the many possibilities of enriching their instructional program through the use of the daily newspaper.

Afternoon activities include a tour of the Herald plant at 3 p.m.

Jobless Rate Steady; Wholesale Prices Up

WASHINGTON (AP) — The nation's 8.4 per cent unemployment rate held steady in August accompanied by an increase in the number of Americans with jobs, the government said today. But that encouraging sign in the economy was offset by another sharp increase in wholesale prices.

The Labor Department said many factories recalled workers laid off during the depths of the recession, and that total employment rose for the fifth straight month.

But the department also said wholesale prices rose .8 per cent — a 4 per cent drop from their increase in July but still a historically large jump. The largest increase was for fuels, related products and power which rose 2.9 per cent.

August figures showed an increase in employment of 275,000, meaning that 85.4 million Americans held jobs. Along with employment, the size of the labor force increased in August to 93.1 million, up by 230,000 following a rise of more than 500,000 in July.

The increase in employment occurred mostly among adult men, household heads and blue-collar workers, segments of the labor force hardest hit by the recession.

Since reaching a recession low of 83.8 million last March, employment has risen by 1.5 million, the department said.

The encouraging news in the job picture was somewhat offset by another sharp increase in wholesale prices last month.

In a separate report, the Labor Department said wholesale prices rose .8 per cent, a slower pace than the July increase of 1.2 per cent, but still high by historical standards.

Pre-Game Meal Club Venture

Serving hours will be from 5 to 8 p.m. today in the Evening Lions Club's barbecue, which annually precedes the first home football game of the Big Spring Steers.

The Bold Gold hosts the Andrews Mustangs at 8 o'clock in Memorial Stadium. The barbecue takes place in the High School Cafeteria.

Tickets for the meal are $2 each and can be purchased at the door. Since barbecue will be served, this has to be one of the better bargains of the year.

The continuing surge in prices at both the wholesale and retail levels over the last two months has renewed fears of resurgent inflation. However, administration economists insist that while the next few months will continue to bring high prices, the inflation rate will soon moderate.

The number of Americans without jobs in August numbered 7.8 million, unchanged from July but down 410,000 from the peak level reached in the second quarter.

Both the jobless rate and the actual number of unemployed were unchanged from July, a surprise to administration economists who were expecting a slight increase in unemployment.

Government analysts said the jobless rate would have declined last month had the drop in joblessness of adult men not been offset by an increase in teen-age unemployment.

The jobless rate for adult men dropped from 7 per cent to 6.6 per cent. The rate for adult women was little changed over the month at 7.7 per cent.

But in contrast, the jobless

Sniper Is Sent Here

LAMESA — A 33-year-old Lamesa man was committed to Big Spring State Hospital today after shooting up the town Monday night in the area in which he resides.

The man apparently became upset over a barking dog and with repairs needed on a car motor. He stepped out on a residential street in West Lamesa with a .22 automatic rifle and fired at least three shots.

One of the shots was fired at a dog, and one in the general direction of a man who reported the bullet went through his hat brim.

The third slug, which went into a yard where a family was outside, narrowly missed a two-year-old child.

Police Chief Lee Bartlett reported that police captured and disarmed the would-be sniper. Chief Bartlett brought the man to Big Spring this morning.

School Bond Issue Looms

The Forsan Booster Club, Elbow PTA and the Forsan school board will host a meeting in the Forsan High School Cafeteria at 7:30 p.m. Monday for all residents in the Forsan Independent School District.

Primary purpose of the meeting will be to get citizens' points of view regarding goals of the Forsan School system and to present the proposals of a bond issue to be submitted Sept. 25. Also included on the program will be a film of the Saturday night junior varsity game between Forsan and Stanton.

Refreshments will be served and baby sitters will be provided if needed. Older children may play in the gymnasium while the meeting is being held.

rate for teen-agers, which fell in July to 19.1 per cent, rose to 21.1 per cent in August.

The Labor Department reported that employment increased in nearly three-fourths of the 172 industries measured by the Bureau of Labor Statistics.

Among the major industry divisions, the largest increases occurred in manufacturing, where employment rose by 210,000. Major gains also were

Trial Is Delayed

LAMESA — The trial of Whitmer Jean Ballard on the armed robbery charge revolving around the robbery and death of rancher Steve Currie in Glasscock County in December, 1971, was postponed today by mutual consent of the prosecutors and defense attorneys. No new date was set for the trial, which was transferred here on a change of venue.

Ballard, who was serving time on the murder charge, has had the murder conviction reversed and remanded for trial.

His trial on the armed robbery count was to have opened in 106th District Court here Monday. Ballard is presently confined to the Dawson County jail, having failed to arrange a $150,000 bond set for him.

Judge George Hansard today passed the case for a later session, with pre-trial motions between the attorneys to be heard next week in Lamesa.

Gail Jones serves as special prosecutor on the case with Big Spring District Attorney Bob Moore, Bobby Bearden, Midland attorney, represents the defense.

Will Not Hike Mail Rates During Christmas Rush

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Postal Service has decided not to raise mail rates during the Christmas rush, Postmaster General Benjamin Bailar said today.

It was not known when mail rates would be increased, but Bailar said the Postal Service will file for a rate increase sometime in the next two weeks to take effect after the holiday mailing periods.

At a meeting Thursday, the Postal Service Board of Governors set the stage for a new rate hike, making the current rate of 10 cents to mail a first-class letter permanent effective Sept. 14. Bailar said the service would raise mail rates as soon as the present rates are made permanent.

However, more recently, postal officials have said an increase may not be imposed as soon as it is legally possible to do so.

"It is a question that remains to be answered whether we would want to put a rate increase in right before Christmas," one reported in construction, which suffered severely during the recession, and in the service industries.

Joblessness among white workers continued a decline that began last spring, dropping to 7.6 per cent in August. In contrast, the jobless rate for blacks rose in August from 13 to 14 per cent, with most of the increase among black women.

The average length of unemployment was up slightly in August from 15.4 weeks to 15.7 weeks. But the number of persons unemployed decreased by 160,000 last month to 2.8 million. This marked the first real decline in long-term joblessness since unemployment began to rise in 1973.

The average work week increased 2 hours to 36.3 hours. Factory overtime also increased slightly, continuing the small gain recorded since last April.

Average hourly earnings for all production or non-supervisory workers on nonfarm payrolls rose 3 cents in August to $4.55 and were up 29 cents from a year ago. Average weekly earnings were $166.99, an increase of $2.01 over the month and $8.94 over the year.

'Lady, You're Being Robbed'

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP) — Police are still searching for a young man who robbed the cafeteria manager at William James Middle School of more than $100 Wednesday.

"I've been in the school business 25 years, and this is the first time I've ever heard of anything like this on campus," principal Homer Ludiker said.

He said the bandit entered the school after cafeteria employees had finished cleaning up after lunch.

Witnessing the robbery was a young man, described as being in his late teens, who walked up to the manager and said, "Lady, you're being robbed," Ludiker said.

The first rainfall for the month of September was measured at the Big Spring Experiment Station Thursday afternoon, bringing the total rainfall for the year to 21.90 inches, more than normal for this time of year.

The experiment station measured .38 inch of rainfall during the showers Thursday afternoon.

The rainfall at the county was very spotty. On the Earl Hull farm north of Coahoma, a total of .4 of an inch fell. In the east part of Big Spring, however, only a bare sprinkle fell. A hard shower fell at the Herald, located at 710 Scurry St.

Some gutters in the southwest part of town trapped .02 of an inch.

The city budget is slated for first reading at the city council meeting at 9 a.m. Tuesday with the tax rate to remain the same as last year, according to the agenda.

However, the budget does reflect a $1 increase in monthly sewer rates and a 50 cent increase in monthly garbage pickup for an overall increase of $1.50 per customer which will be included in the water, sewer and garbage bills.

The ordinances setting these rates are included for first reading Tuesday.

At the same time, Tom Locke, Texas Electric Service Company manager, is slated to make first presentation of a rate increase for electricity.

A large crowd is also expected to be on hand to discuss the public hearing and first reading of an ordinance requesting a zone change from SF-2, Single Family Residential District to M-F, multi-family housing district in Sec. 44, Block 33, TSP-1-North.

The request is being made by Jerry Worthington to construct an apartment complex. Many of the neighbors in that area have already appeared at the planning and zoning

A rate increase before Christmas "would infuriate and seriously inconvenience a large majority of your patrons," Hanley said Thursday in a letter to Bailar.

The rate schedule that will take effect Sept. 14 and be in effect until new temporary rates become effective is similar to the one in use since March 1974. It will:

—Reduce the rate for first-class letters after the first ounce from 10 cents to 9 cents.

—Reduce the postcard rate from 8 to 7 cents.

—Leave unchanged the rates for air mail letters (13 cents an ounce), air mail cards (11 cents an ounce) and bulk or third-class mail.

—Raise rates for newspapers and magazines (second-class mail) by 3 per cent and for parcels (fourth-class) by 10 per cent.

When these permanent rates are increased on a temporary basis, they could be increased by as much as one-third.

The World At-A-Glance

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — A bomb exploded early today in a 17th floor restroom of the Kennecott Building here, causing an estimated $50,000 damage, authorities said. No injuries were reported.

Persons identifying themselves as members of the Weather Underground called Associated Press bureaus in Salt Lake City and San Francisco and said the bomb was aimed at the Kennecott Copper Company in protest of U.S. actions in Chile.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Israel, Egypt and some other Arab countries would get at least $9 billion in American aid over the next three years as part of Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger's bargaining for the new Middle East agreement. The administration, congressional and diplomatic sources who provided the figure emphasized that this is a minimum sum and that it could run much higher as time passes. Both Israel and Egypt demanded large amounts of assistance before agreeing to the interim settlement, under which the Jewish state surrendered some land on the Sinai Peninsula in exchange for political concessions by Cairo.

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP) — In these bright and sterile halls dedicated to the preservation of life, death is often a visitor. But that bitter realization does not placate the doctors at the Veterans Administration Hospital here where in the past two months, somehow, "someone with intent," opened the door to let death in. That someone, as yet unknown, administered a powerful muscle relaxant to a number of patients, who fell into respiratory arrest as a result. The FBI is still investigating.

NAPLES, Fla. (AP) — During the past several years of tight money and record-breaking mortgage interest rates, a huge Teamsters Union pension fund and its friends offered bargain financing for buyers of individual units in a waterside condominium. The Central States, Southeast and Southwest Areas Pension fund was willing to loan you the $20,000 balance for a modest interest rate of 6 1/2 per cent.

Chamber of commerce and Webb officials have recently expressed concern for a desperate need for more apartments in Big Spring if the city is to grow.

About two years ago, a proposal for an apartment complex for the Coronado Hills area was fought by the neighbors. The proposed apartment complex was later taken to Odessa and constructed there.

Other items to be discussed Tuesday include two claims for damages, a resolution authorizing the mayor to enter into a lease agreement with Carter Furniture for a parking lot across from the Patton House, and a report on the garbage pickup study.

Policy Still Lacking

James Langdon, chairman of the Texas Railroad Commission, recently exploded in print over the threat of federal regulation of interstate gas. He must have gotten advance word of what the Federal Energy Administration is thinking about.

Frank Zarb, FEA head, has before him a plan prepared by his staff for coping with a natural gas shortage this winter. Among provisions of proposed legislation on the subject is one that gives the agency authority to allocate the movement of natural gas through pipelines. This would permit gas now moving through intrastate lines, and not subject to federal price controls, to be transferred to other states where a shortage of natural gas exists.

This proposal presents a number of problems. Gas being moved only in Texas is selling for almost $2 a thousand cubic feet. Gas moved in interstate commerce, with federal price controls in effect, sells for about 53 cents a thousand at the wellhead. If intrastate gas was diverted to interstate pipelines, what would the producer be paid, $2 a thousand or 53 cents?

Authority to allocate gas also implies the authority to set priorities. Would the federal government divert gas destined for industrial uses to homes where it would be used for heating?

The urgent need for a national energy gas policy is impressed on us once more. Natural gas as an energy source cannot be dealt with successfully in a vacuum. It is a part of a larger picture. Attempts to deal with the energy crisis on an ad hoc basis can only cause confusion and dislocation of business and industry in Texas.

Solution Not Yet In Sight

Secretary of State Henry Kissinger has been engaged in what appears to be the final stages of an agreement between Israel and Egypt. What will this agreement consist of?

Probably at most it will give the leaders of both countries no more than three years of uneasy peace. How far will the Israelis withdraw? How far forward will the Egyptians advance in the Sinai? What will be the width of the demilitarized zone between the two countries? These may appear to be issues of substance, but they will do little more than set the tone of the agreement.

At the heart of any agreement will be the question of Egyptian intentions. This is likely to be expressed not in public, but in secret or half-secret assurances given by Egypt to the United States and communicated to Israel. Premier Anwar Sadat is in no position to alienate his Arab colleagues, either politically in Syria and Jordan, or financially in Saudi Arabia. He cannot publicly say that he has guaranteed to keep the peace for a three-year period by assuring the United States that he will renew periodically permission for the United Nations presence in the Sinai.

Thus Kissinger cannot even pretend to be negotiating a Middle East settlement. The limited agreement he may be able to fashion will leave untouched such prickly questions as the future of the Golan Heights, the status of Jerusalem, and the highly intractable and inflammatory question of the future of Palestine.

This is not to say that what Kissinger is trying to accomplish is not worthwhile. It is just to say that a temporary agreement between Egypt and Israel must not be interpreted as a Middle East settlement.

Alarms Selling

Around The Rim

John Edwards

What Big Springers look to electronics for, a San Francisco jeweler got from a tarantula — security.

Instead of a guard dog for $100 per month, which seemed inappropriate for a jewelry store, Tom Cole rented a big, black spider named Rosie, according to the New York Times. The fee is $10 monthly.

SINCE HER assignment to the store, there have been no burglaries. "I think," he said, "she's actually quite pretty... in a different sort of way."

Meanwhile in Big Spring, would-be burglary victims are buying vehicle alarms faster than Ronnie Smith can stock them.

"Unbelievable," Smith, a hardware store service manager, said of the demand.

Stereo tape decks used to be sought by auto burglars, Smith, a reserve policeman, noted. But the now popular CB radios are worth more.

"WE'VE SOLD so many alarms, we've bought everything in Lubbock and other cities," Smith said. "Just now, they're beginning to sell real well in Lubbock."

For $37, you can buy the auto burglar alarm, which helps explain the demand, Smith observed.

He also sells home burglar alarms, which don't go as fast. They cost $190.

While you can control the home alarm sensitivity, they are triggered by "anything that moves in that area" of the house. No wiring is necessary.

The sound of the horn or bell would wake you up.

"Your neighbors immediately hear it," Smith said, "plus the burglar inside."

Crime isn't the only thing wrong with the Big Spring area.

Moss Creek Lake has a sandy beach, but only ducks and fish are allowed to swim there.

Why is the city swimming pool open so little of the time?

The facility was not open at nights this summer when youths clustered in parking lots and at drive-in restaurants for "entertainment" and other diversions.

NOW THAT school has begun again, the pool is closed all the time. The county was criticized by some for inefficient use of capital equipment when commissioners court contracted for a computer like ones being utilized by City Hall and Howard College.

Why does it seem some of the city's traffic lights are out of sync? Are they trying to get us to stay a little longer?

And, finally, why do drivers weave and wander on the unpaved and some paved streets of the city? Are they afraid of bottoming out on a bump or in a hole or gully?

With Moneyman

Marquis Childs

WASHINGTON — A massive bulk of a man in a sparsely furnished office is directing the effort to raise $10 million for President Ford's pre-convention campaign. David Packard, the finance chairman, is trying scrupulously to live up to the complex rules laid down in the campaign financing law of 1974.

WITH A LIVELY sense of humor, Packard is aware of the startling contrast between 1972 and 1976. In '72, 400 individuals contributed nearly $30 million to Richard Nixon's re-election campaign. Under the new law, 400 individuals could contribute a maximum of $400,000. For one who once put his net worth at close to $400 million, it would have been possible in the old days to have written a check for a sizeable chunk of the needed money. Instead, Packard and his small staff are pursuing contributors of $1,000, the limit under the law.

Thus far, they have raised $595,000 at a cost of $33,000. With 20 contributors of $250 each in 20 states, the finance committee will be eligible for matching federal funds. This will not be difficult to establish, but so far it has not been decided whether to go for federal money.

Packard resigned as deputy secretary of defense in 1973 to return to his firm, Hewlett-Packard, as chief executive officer. He had developed a flair for politics and money to elect Houston Flournoy as governor of California to succeed Ronald Reagan. An academic more liberal than Reagan, Flournoy was defeated by a narrow margin by 37-year-old Edmund G. Brown Jr.

At Ford's invitation, Packard moved into the big time. In order to insure that his services as a volunteer comply with the election law, he has taken a half-time leave from Hewlett-Packard duly approved by the board of directors, a company that sells several hundred million dollars a year of high technology products around the world. He opened campaign finance headquarters in his home in nearby Los Gatos.

As an example of how strict his interpretation of the law is, if he should make a long distance call about politics from his Hewlett-Packard office, the cost would have to be recorded and the company repaid. A volunteer must observe a $500 limit on expenses incidental to his services.

As an example of the technicalities of the law, it is a violation to receive political contributions on federal property. About $5,000 was sent directly to the White House for the Ford campaign and this must now be returned. Packard wonders with a wry smile how much of the millions coming into Democratic senators running for President went by way of the Senate office building.

THERE ARE STILL so many uncertainties that the amount of money needed is far from clear. The big question is whether Ronald Reagan will run in the primaries against Ford. A longtime friend of the former California governor, Packard thinks he is wise to hold off any announcement. In that way, he can continue his radio program and his column which are very profitable.

Then the question is whether the President should go into the early primaries. He could say that he is too busy running the nation's affairs to politics. But if he gets around the country speaking at political rallies, this will look like a transparent excuse to duck the challenge.

Next month, thanks in part to Packard's persuasion, the President is making three important appearances in California. He will speak at a dedication at Pepperdine University near Los Angeles Sept. 20. The following day, he goes to Palo Alto to dedicate Stanford University's new law school building and Sept. 22 he speaks to the Council on World Affairs in San Francisco. These are being billed as non-political.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Editor:

Those were a "hearty" few words written by Tommy Hart for your Sept. 1 issue. (Apparently the writer is referring to a Rim article suggesting that congressmen be limited to two terms in office).

Could you hold a poll to see which wins — pro Mr. Hart or con Mr. Hart?

Didn't T. Hart used to be sports editor along with his other duties. Start the "poll" rolling. Oh yes, I agree with Mr. Hart.

Scrambled Signals

John Cuniff

NEW YORK (AP) — Trying to understand the messages that are being emitted by the U.S. economy today is as difficult as deciphering an electronically scrambled telephone call.

The economic signals are scrambled too, and all you need do for verification is to read some of the forecasts being made by the esteemed economists for banks, businesses, government and consulting services.

In all of these reports, "if" becomes a mighty word. Qualifications are sprinkled throughout every paragraph. Writers caution readers against taking too literally what they have just written.

The greatest confusion seems to result from signals that show at one and the same time that the economic recovery is under way and that so also is the beginning of the next recession or the deepening of the present one.

The conflict becomes clear when you realize that the index of leading indicators has now gained an astonishing 11.5 per cent since its trough in January of this year.

This, the First National City Bank notes, "is the fastest increase on record for the first five months of any recovery since 1958."

Now look at consumer and wholesale prices. They're rising, and sharply, and that means a drag on sales. Companies that have geared up for an expanding economy could find themselves once again with big inventories.

Indeed, domestic demand for goods and services remains sluggish. A good deal of the expansion during the second quarter of the year resulted from exports. There has been no burst in retail sales.

At the same time, interest rates are rising, and if the past experience is a criterion that's like throwing water on a fire.

Nowhere is the dampening effect more pronounced than in the housing markets. Lenders have money, but they don't want to part with it. And if they do commit themselves, they want almost impossible terms.

Mortgage rates for apartments and shopping centers showed their sharpest increase in a year during August, the Advance Mortgage Corp. reports.

Small Town Problem

Dr. G. C. Thosteson

Dear Dr. Thosteson: I am a girl of 16, soon to be 17 in two months. I live in a very small town where something like this can get around, and you know what would happen?

Problem: I have gonorrhea, and I can't go anywhere to get help because I don't want to embarrass anyone. I read somewhere that gonorrhea is more serious in women, that they can go blind. Please help me, because I don't know what to do. — No Name, please.

Here's what you have to do. You have to gather every bit of courage you can and go to a doctor immediately. The consequences could be quite serious for you if you delay. The infection can spread quickly to the Fallopian tubes and other areas of the body.

It could even cause you to become sterile. Otherwise VD is no respecter of sex.

Scary? You bet, and I hope you're scared with your young people with your problem (the numbers must be astronomical, from recent reports) into seeking prompt treatment. Young girls should also know that while the pill, which many of them use, may be a dandy contraceptive, it will not prevent VD.

As a matter of fact, there is evidence that the pill can, in fact, make women more susceptible to gonorrhea. It does this by changing the vaginal membrane chemistry, making it more hospitable to the germ. The best method to assure women they will neither become pregnant nor contract VD in intercourse is the use of the condom by their partners.

But remember, some discharges in young girls, that may appear to be VD-caused need not be at all.

Although your community is small, you should see a doctor. These problems are handled very confidentially.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: I would like to know how food cooked in wine or flavored with an alcoholic beverage would affect an alcoholic who is taking the drug Antabuse, or an alcoholic who is trying to maintain sobriety without any drugs.

I like to entertain by cooking, and many of my best recipes call for some alcoholic beverage addition. — Mrs. J. G.

Much gourmet cooking does involve such things as marinating with wine sauces. Most of the alcohol probably disappears with cooking, but in recipes that don't call for cooking it does, of course, remain.

My Answer

Billy Graham

One of the greatest needs in America today is prison reform. I compliment Charles Colson on his decision to give his life now for that cause. Why don't you say more about it?

M.J.

Prison reform is getting more attention these days, and it should. Any enlightened society would want to go beyond mere penalty, and seek the reformation of the lawbreaker. If our parole system is to work, it requires that the offender learn or relearn honest and productive living. So little progress, however, is being made. If there is no rehabilitation, time spent behind bars makes an inmate more of a liability to society.

I too applaud Mr. Colson for his prison efforts. As occasion presents itself, many of our team have had prison ministries which God has honored.

God would be barbaric if He had no plan but judgment for the condemned sinner. That's exactly where Christ comes in. By faith, He links up God's love to God's holiness. Man is more than a rebellious creature. He has a whole new life, with new desires and new controls.

A Devotion For Today

"If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow me."

PRAYER: Our father, help us to understand Thy great love for all people and give us the strength we need to look upon all people as our own brothers and sisters. Amen.

Funnels Dance New Beeville

Severe thunderstorms surged into Texas from the Gulf of Mexico around Galveston today and lighter thundershowers pelted the coastal plains from Beaumont and Port Arthur to Palacios.

There also were moderate to heavy showers from near San Antonio toward Austin and between Cotulla and Alice in the south to south central parts of the state, and from around Amarillo and Borger northward in the Texas Panhandle.

Low clouds and early morning fog overhung some other parts of South Texas. Skies were clear to partly cloudy elsewhere across the state.

The persistently wet and often turbulent weather capped a night of brisk thundershowers across the southeast two-thirds of the state, with moisture amounts ranging up to 1.14 inches at Gonzales. In addition, sightings of tornado funnels, which spun away harmlessly, were reported near Beeville and Victoria.

Meanwhile, although rains had about played out in the Lower Rio Grande Valley, flood warnings were up for that section from Anzalduas Dam south of Mercedes to Brownsville. Owners were advised to move all livestock and equipment from the Rio Grande flood plain.

National Weather Service observers said torrential rains in Northeast Mexico after Hurricane Caroline thrust ashore last weekend prompted the alerts. They predicted the Rio Grande would crest a foot below flood stage of 21 feet at Mercedes and three feet below the flood level of 18 feet at Brownsville.

Little change was predicted in the state's weather through Saturday. A cool front lying across the Panhandle near Amarillo was expected to edge toward the southeast, triggering more moisture. Showers and thundershowers were expected to be most prevalent in extreme South and North Texas.

The first major meal will be served beginning at 11:30 a.m., when selected airmen and sergeants will be served steak.

H. L. Hunt's Two Sons Face Trials In Lubbock

DALLAS (AP) — Two sons of the late oil billionaire H.L. Hunt will go on trial on obstruction of justice charges only four months after their wiretapping trial, scheduled to begin in 10 days.

U.S. District Court Judge Hal O. Woodward Thursday set Jan. 26 as the date Nelson Bunker Hunt, W. Herbert Hunt and five others face the obstruction charges.

Both trials will be in Lubbock before Judge Woodward, who got the cases on a change of venue from Dallas.

The Hunt brothers, along with three Dallas attorneys, Houston lawyer Percy Foreman and a Houston industrialist were indicted in July on charges of conspiracy to obstruct justice and obstruction of justice.

The charges were connected to the 1973 wiretapping case for which the Hunts are to go on trial Sept. 15. The government alleges the Hunts hired private detectives to wiretap the telephones of several of their father's aides.

The Jan. 26 trial will involve what the Justice Department claims was an attempted coverup to keep the Hunts from being indicted on the wiretapping charges.

The Hunts maintain they are being prosecuted by the government because they refused to allow the Central Intelligence Agency to operate within their international oil business.

In a related move Thursday, Ralph Shank, a lawyer for the Hunts since 1933 and one of those indicted, asked that his trial be severed from the other defendants.

Sudan Coup Leader Slain

KHARTOUM, Sudan (AP) — An abortive coup against President Jaafar el-Numairi ended today in less than two hours and the leader of the revolt, an obscure major, was killed, Sudanese officials said.

Vice President Mohamed Baghier Ahmed said the leader of the coup, identified as Maj. Hassan Hussein Osman, "was silenced forever." But he did not disclose the circumstances or whether he had been executed.

Numairi described the second attempt in six years to overthrow him as "trivial" and the work of officers "so weak they couldn't even control a village."

Maj. Gen. Bashir Mohammed Ali, the army commander and defense minister, said the rebels were routed within two hours.

In London, informed sources in contact with Khartoum said they had been informed that the coup leader, an obscure army major identified as Hassan Hussein Osman, was killed in the fighting. They had no other details about his death.

The sources said forces loyal to Numairi were reported in "full control" of the situation, and at noon local time the streets of the capital were calm.

"On behalf of the president and the people and as defense minister and commander in chief, I address my comrades in arms everywhere," Ali said in a broadcast. "I address first those who stood as men and crushed the plot in only two hours after they moved to recapture the radio station and reinstate authority."

Band Boosters Bomb Blast In Hilton Hotel Lobby Kills Two

LONDON (AP) — A bomb exploded in the lobby of the Hilton Hotel near Buckingham Palace at lunchtime today, killing two persons and injuring 41, police said. A device that appeared to be a second bomb was found later and demolition experts were dismantling it.

Earlier police reports erroneously said three persons were killed in the explosion in the hotel, which is approximately 600 yards from the palace.

Associated Newspapers, publisher of the Daily Mail and London Evening News, said an anonymous caller with an Irish accent telephoned 10 minutes before the blast and warned the bomb would go off.

The 28-story hotel, facing Hyde Park and only a few minutes walk from the American Embassy, was filled to capacity with 700 guests.

It was the fifth bombing in or near London in the past nine days. In the four previous blasts, one person was killed and 30 were wounded. Police suspect terrorists of the Irish Republican Army are responsible for the wave of bombings.

"I saw several people thrown to the floor," said one of those injured in today's blast, British businessman Edgar Dickinson, 48. "Some of them were screaming. It was like the end of the world. A bright flash and then everything went black."

One witness said about 100 people were in the lobby at the time.

CFC Campaign Opens At Webb, Off Base

Unit goals for the Combined Federal Campaign (CFC) for Webb AFB and the local area were announced at the Tuesday kick off during the Wing staff meeting. Total goal of $34,500 was divided between the base's $29,300 and off-base $5,200 goals.

Goals this year are determined by computing "fair shares" of assigned people based on their salaries or pay.

This on-the-job solicitation raises funds for the Big Spring United Way, the National Health Agencies and International Service Agencies. "This campaign offers us the opportunity to help people in our communities, in our nation and overseas," said Secretary of the Air Force John L. McLucas and Air Force Chief of Staff General David C. Jones in a letter to major command commanders.

"... By participating in this year's appeal, and giving generously, we will be continuing the tradition of casualties. The Playboy Club, next door to the Hilton, was evacuated.

A police spokesman at St. George's Hospital, where many of the injured were taken, said, "It is like a butcher's shop in the casualty department."

An investigation into the identity of the man continues, after the Big Spring Police Department said they were unable to provide information on his identity.

The body was taken to Morgan-Hargrove Funeral Home in Baird.

Band Plans Busy Night

The first Friday in September spells out Football Fever in most towns in Texas as the high school teams across the state prepare for the opener.

Those who have sat in the throne room since last football season are now committed to begin the fight to defend their crown.

Those lightly regarded nevertheless enter the season with hopeful optimism, because, at this point, the slate is clean.

The Big Spring Steers host the opener at 8 o'clock tonight, meeting the Andrews Mustangs.

High school football seasons include more than the game as all of the hoopla is attached in an effort to pull people out from in front of their television sets to "where the action is."

The Big Spring High School band will precede tonight's game with a special presentation of Paul Ruiz, who will serve as Uncle Sam for the band's annual Campus Review in January, to be set around a patriotic bicentennial theme.

Theme of their halftime show is the "Good Old Days of the 50s."

Livestock Show Dates Are Set

The association voted to give away a rifle at the Mitchell County Fair in October as a fund raising activity. Tickets are available at the county Extension office and 4-Hers, FFA members and parents are urged to come by and pick up some tickets to sell.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Powell will present the Jim Maddox Memorial Trophy to the Best Lamb Bred in Mitchell County.

A total of 1,435 registrations have been completed this morning at Howard College, with 31 more held up temporarily in the business office for a possible total of 1,466, according to figures released by Registrar Red Lewis.

This is in comparison with 1,317 at the same time last year and above the all-time high figures of 1,448 last spring.

This includes 1,247 on the main campus, 31 still being processed, 108 at Lamesa and 80 at San Angelo. Sept. 16 is the final day for registration.

HEY, SMOKEY THE BEAR

Hooker Hookup Stars 'Hot Lips'

DALLAS (AP) — Who's the most talked about personality on citizen band (CB) radio besides Smokey the Bear? Would you believe Hot Lips. The Hooker?

Not only can CB operators use the air waves to warn fellow travelers about Smokey (state troopers) but in Dallas they can tune in to learn where to drop in on their favorite prostitute.

"Good morning world — this is Hot Lips and I am ready for you," she chimes over the air.

One man said he heard such a broadcast about 3 o'clock in the morning.

"Man, you could hear truck tires squealing and drivers coming on the air from everywhere all at once," he added.

Carl Pryon, district supervisor for the Federal Communications Commission, is quick to point out the women are violating a number of regulations.

If caught, a prostitute probably could be charged with having no CB license, soliciting business and use of the air waves for "unauthorized purposes."

"We've had a number of complaints about this," Pryon said. "Unfortunately, none of my men has actually heard one of these broadcasts but I feel there is something to it. We've had too many complaints about it."

A Dallas vice squad officer said he gets the same reports.

"I think some of the girls are calling their pimps on these CB radios to get directions on how to get to their next customer," he said.

Pryon said the prostitutes invite listeners, many of them truck drivers, to meet at a code-named motel for "fun and games." If the trucker, or whoever he is, knows the code location, they're in business."

Pryon estimated there are 16,000 CB radio operators in the Dallas area.

With Hot Lips and friends on the air, that number could increase rapidly.

Dear Abby

Woman Running Hotel For Uninvited Guests

DEAR ABBY: Help! I am suffering from acute and chronic "Houseguestitis." Tomorrow morning I will place an ad in our local newspaper to sell my lovely guest-room furniture. It's only one year old, looks like new, but I have aged a lot since installing it.

I've had wave after wave of houseguests for the past seven weeks — all either uninvited or self-invited — and the end isn't in sight.

My nerves are shot, my cuticles are bleeding, my purse and gas tank are empty, my yard, house, children and pets are somewhat neglected, and I'm exhausted.

One more call from friends asking me to please pick them up at the airport (85 miles round trip) will send me to the funny farm.

Most of my friends in this area have the same problem. Our husbands escape to their offices and try to ignore the mess.

I wish that people could understand that a casual, "We'd like to see you if you visit in this area," is not an invitation to move in with us.

So, tomorrow, the furniture goes on sale and the hotel closes.

ALWAYS A HOSTESS, NEVER A GUEST

DEAR ABBY: Why give up your guest facilities? All you have to do is say, "I'm sorry, but we can't accommodate guests now," when unwanted guests invite themselves.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "HOPING IN MEMPHIS": When a man says, "Can't we be friends?" it's the beginning of the end.

Everyone has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply, write to ABBY: Box No. 69700, L.A., Calif. 90069. Enclose stamped, self-addressed envelope, please.

MISS AMERICA HISTORY — Three Miss America contestants wear two-piece swim suits Sunday at an Atlantic City photo session. It was the first time contestants were allowed to wear such suits for publicity pictures. One-piece suits will be worn in the competition. Shown from left are Miss Jean Waters of Illinois, Miss Jana Salmans of Kansas and Miss Lee Hibbert of Washington State.

Bikinis Are Pageant First

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP) — History of sorts was made at the Miss America Pageant Sunday when three contestants were photographed in bikini bathing suits in public for the first time.

The queens from Illinois, Kansas and Washington appeared at a poolside picture-taking session in two-piece suits, while 11 rivals wore the traditional one-piece suits.

"They said come in something that's natural, and if I'm ever going to the beach, I wear a two-piece suit," said Miss Kansas, 20-year-old Jana Salmans.

She wore a red, white and blue bikini despite a five-inch surgical scar from a kidney removal operation last December.

Photographers singled out the three for attention while the others giggled. Miss Washington, Lee Hibbert, 22, said she too chose a two-piece suit because that's what she wears to the beach.

"We should have worn a one-piece for warmth," shivered Miss Illinois, Jean Waters, 22, as the women splashed their toes in the private pool on the chilly, cloudy afternoon.

Organic Gardening Club To Buy Film

Members of the Organic Soil Builders met Monday evening at the Experiment Station with Dr. Paul Koshi, vice president, presiding.

Mary Jane Club Begins Year With Breakfast

A "sunbonnet breakfast" was the theme of the first 1975-76 meeting of the Coahoma Mary Jane Club. Members met at the home of Mrs. Donald McKinney Thursday morning attired in sunbonnets and long dresses.

Breakfast was served on the patio by Mrs. McKinney, Mrs. Glyn Mitchell and Mrs. Marshall Day. Members received favors of small sunbonnets adorned with jars of homemade pickles.

During the business meeting yearbooks depicting the club's bicentennial theme were distributed.

The club decided to assist with the Cystic Fibrosis Drive in the Coahoma, Sand Spring and Midway area during the second week of October.

Garden Club Sets Meeting

The Planters Garden Club will have its first meeting of the 1975-76 year at 2 p.m. Wednesday in the home of Mrs. Frank Wilson, 1503 11th Place.

All members are urged to attend. New Yearbooks will be distributed and the flower show schedule for the Howard County Fair will be discussed.

Bro. McHargue began his ministry as associate pastor in Houston. He then led in the organization of the Southmont Baptist Church in Houston, and continued there as pastor until 1964, when he was invited to assist in the formation of the Independent Baptist College. He has served there continuously as professor of bible, theology and speech, as well as dean, and in his present position of vice president of academic affairs.

A fine Bible preacher, Brother McHargue has been in great demand as a Bible conference preacher and serves extensively in the revival ministry throughout the United States.

The public is invited by Pastor Bob Lee and the membership of Birdwell Lane Baptist Church to attend every service during this great week.

The church is located on the corner of Birdwell Lane at E. 16th, and the phone number is 267-7157.

The church choir and other special singing groups, heard each Sunday morning at 9 a.m. on a local radio station, will be featured in every service. "You will thrill to the gospel message so desperately needed in this day and time," Pastor Lee stated.

Hebrew Holidays Begin On Friday

Rosh Hashanah, New Year's Day in the Hebrew calendar will begin Friday night, September 5, initiating the High Holy Days, the most solemn days of the year, according to Dr. Josef Zeiler, rabbi of Temple Beth-El in Odessa.

The period known as the Days of Repentance will culminate in Yom Kippur, the Day of Atonement.

The two special days, as well as the days in between are represented in Jewish tradition as a unit, known also as the Days of Awe, a period dedicated to a spiritual regeneration and religious rehabilitation. Unlike many special observances, this period is not concerned with the bounty of nature or with great historical events.

Since early times Rosh Hashanah has been regarded as a day of reflection and repentance essentially concerned with the individual and his ideal way on earth.

The period is characterized by a special solemnity of the worship service. The new year is greeted not with gaily but with solemn prayer. Traditionally, Rosh Hashanah marks the birthday of the creation of the world. Thus the theme of the festival is a universal one.

On this holy day, the Kingship of God over all men is reaffirmed. Rabbi Zertes said, "We also pray for the time when The Lord shall be King over all the earth." (Zecharia 14-9)

The week following Rosh Hashanah is likewise spent in soul searching and repentance, concluding in the Day of Atonement, Yom Kippur, which marks the end of the penitential period. The most significant aspect of the day, is the twenty four hour fast. "Fasting sincerely observed enables us to spend a complete day in the atmosphere of the synagogue. It teaches us the necessity of self denial, without which self improvement is impossible," the rabbi continued.

He added, "Moreover, the Day of Atonement reminds us that life is not totally physical, nor worldly enjoyment its real aim, but there are higher things by which man lives. Man does not live by bread alone, but by all that comes out by the mouth of the Lord doth man live. (Deuteronomy 8-3 and Matthew 4-4)."

The Holy Day services start Friday night at Temple Beth-El in Odessa and are concluded with the Day of Atonement by sounding the ram's horn called Shofar after the recitation of the final evening prayer.

Immaculate Heart Festival Slated

The Immaculate Heart of Mary Catholic Church will again host the annual Fall Festival Saturday and Sunday at their church hall.

The festivities begin at 3 p.m. Saturday. There will be short orders available such as grilled hamburger, sausage, Mexican foods, cotton candy, snow cones, soft drinks.

The big specialty Sunday is a Mexican dinner at $2 a plate after second Mass at 11 a.m. and serving till 2 p.m. The entire affair will end with the regular Sunday night bingo at 7:30 p.m.

Door prizes will be given at intermission time. There will be bingo and other games both days.

Jack Gilbert served as ticket chairman for the festival this year. Father Louis Moeller is pastor of the church.

The public is invited and urged to take part in the annual event.

New Church Begun Here

growing up

Look at your lanky, teen-age son! It's hard to believe that he once wore these shoes. It seems only yesterday that he was a baby, yet he himself is the best testimonial that the years have passed. Now he stands almost as tall as you. He is a fascinating maze of contradictions—an eager, lovable youngster one minute, a scowling, angry adolescent the next.

It takes patience to understand a teen-ager—patience, and a lot of love. Though he strives to be adult, he is still a boy. Though he clings to childhood, he is almost "grown-up." You may not always be aware of it, but he still looks to you for many things. And he sees in you an example that he will, almost unconsciously, follow in many ways.

Are you setting a good example? How about church, for instance? If you haven't been going lately, start again next Sunday for your son's sake, as well as your own. And don't forget to take him with you!

The 38mpg rabbit.

Good news at last! Volkswagen happily introduces the Rabbit. The incredible new car that gets 38 highway miles per gallon and 24 in the city (according to the 75 model Federal EPA tests).

Good news travels fast, too. The Rabbit'll do 93 miles per hour (we strongly suggest you obey all speed limits) and has the power to scoot from 0 to 50 in just 8.2 seconds.

QUALITY VOLKSWAGEN

2114 W. 3rd. Dial 263-7627

And, since the engine's mounted sideways, the sub-compact Rabbit has all the head and leg room of some mid-sized cars. It also has a hatchback, front-wheel drive, and VW's unique rear stabilizer axle.

All backed by the Volkswagen Owner's Security Blanket with Computer Analysis. See the new Volkswagen Rabbit. And drive happily ever after.

Dodgers Stall Reds' Drive

The Los Angeles Dodgers may have lost a pennant race, but they've found a pitcher.

"He's shown steady improvement over the year," Los Angeles Manager Walt Alton says of Doug Rau. "He's proven he can go nine innings. His control has been better and his changeup, too. But the big thing has been his control."

The left-hander has become one of the most vital and consistent starters on the Dodger staff and Thursday night, won his 13th game with a 3-2 decision over the Cincinnati Reds.

"You've got to have pride," said Rau, whose Dodgers are a hopeless 18 1/2 games behind the Reds in the National League West. "It means a lot to me. At this stage of the season, beating a team that's won 92 games is pleasing."

Rau, who equaled his career high of 13 victories, credits his strong showing of late to a restful winter. He stayed out of winter ball for the first time in three years.

"I'm stronger now," says Rau. "My arm's healthy. No doubt about that."

In the only other National League games, the Atlanta Braves whipped the San Diego Padres 2-1 and the San Francisco Giants took a 2-1 decision from the Houston Astros.

Rau pitched a four-hitter and Willie Crawford ripped a two-run homer as the Dodgers stalled the Reds' drive for the West flag. Their "magic" clinching number remained at five.

Braves 2, Padres 1

Run-scoring singles by Ed Goodson and Marty Perez in the ninth inning gave Atlanta its victory over San Diego. A crowd of 1,062 watched the game, lowest ever for a major league baseball contest at Atlanta. Only 1,130 turned out for Wednesday night's game between the two clubs.

Giants 2, Astros 1

John Montefusco, 13-7, notched his third straight victory with ninth-inning relief help and Steve Ontiveros and Bobby Murcer each knocked in a run as San Francisco nudged Houston.

Remember how the Boston Red Sox were supposed to fade in the stretch? As soon as they started to feel the pennant pressure in September, critics claimed, the Sox would fold like an accordion.

Well, consider this: Boston's magic number is 18. "It'll be tough for them to catch us now," said Boston rookie Fred Lynn, equipping a tone of confidence heard in all corners of the Red Sox lockerroom after they beat the Baltimore Orioles 3-1 Thursday night to complete a sweep of their "crucial" two-game series.

The Red Sox have opened an eight-game bulge over the Orioles in the American League East, and with 25 games left to play, any combination of 18 Boston victories or Baltimore defeats will mean a division flag for Beantown.

Elsewhere in the American League, the Kansas City Royals blanked the Chicago White Sox 7-0, the New York Yankees beat the Detroit Tigers 8-1, the Cleveland Indians outscored the Milwaukee Brewers 10-5 and the California Angels defeated the Texas Rangers 6-4. Oakland and Minnesota were not scheduled.

With Luis Tiant a late scratch because of muscle spasms in his back, Boston Manager Darrell Johnson decided two Red Sox pitchers might do the job of one. So he split the mound time between Dick Pole and Dick Drago.

COLUMBUS, Ga. (AP) — Mac McLendon and John Schroeder, a pair of young veterans who have had their problems recently — on the tour, share the lead entering today's second round of the $100,000 Southern Open Golf Tournament.

McLendon, a 30-year-old veteran of eight years on the tour, and Schroeder, 29, with six years on the tour, mastered the Green Island Country Club course Thursday with 65s, five under par. That was good enough for a one-shot advantage over Terry Dill and Leonard Thompson.

Forty-one of the 146 starters either equaled or bettered par.

The list at 68 included Hubert Green, who has won more than $47,000 in the past three weeks but is still seeking his first 1975 victory. Ben Crenshaw and J.C. Snead also were in that figure.

At 69 was Don Iverson, last week's B.C. Open winner, while at par 70 were Miller Barber and Tom Kite. Defending champion Forrest Fezler struggled in with a 73 over the narrow, hilly 6,971-yard course in muggy, 90-degree weather.

"I've had several 65s in my career, but never a 64," said McLendon, who missed a six-footer on the sloping No. 18 green to settle for his 65. "I was thinking more of making a 64 than the putt," he said.

Most of the big names on the tour were not entered. Jack Nicklaus, Tom Weiskopf, Lou Graham and Tom Watson, winners of the major tournaments earlier this year, are competing in the World Series of Golf this weekend. Arnold Palmer, Lee Trevino, Hale Irwin, Gary Player and Johnny Miller chose not to play here.

Freshman Arenas booted a 47-yard field goal with 59 seconds left in the scrimmage for a 17-14 lead for the Grays. Then with one second left, Landrum, who also handles Rice's punting, kicked an identical 47-yard field goal for the deadlock.

The Owls open their season Sept. 13 in the Astrodom against the University of Houston.

Football Review

By The Associated Press

A smattering of games opened the Texas high school football season Thursday, and around 1,000 other schools kick off tonight with the spotlight on six Dallas area Class 4A games involving Top Ten teams.

Top-ranked Bryan will be host to Beaumont Hebert in one key contest, and No. 2 Port Neches-Groves is at home against Pasadena Dobie.

The six Dallas area games involving ranked teams include Dallas Jesuit versus third-ranked Longview, No. 4 Mesquite against Dallas Samuel, sixth-ranked Plano against South Garland, No. 7 Dallas Carter against Dallas Spruce, No. 8 Irving MacArthur versus Dallas Sunset and No. 9 San Angelo versus Dallas Roosevelt.

In other games, No. 5 Seguin tangles with Killean and 10th-ranked and defending 4A champion Brazoswood plays Angleton. Cowboys At Home

DALLAS (AP) — Oakland is the kind of team Dallas Coach Tom Landry wants his young Cowboys to be when they grow up.

"Oakland is a perennial Super Bowl contender and we want to get back to that level," Landry said.

The Cowboys will meet the unbeaten Raiders tonight in a nationally televised National Football League preseason game.

The Cowboys are 1-3 going into the game and Landry said of the competition: "The way Oakland has been playing if we're not 20 points behind at halftime we'll be in great shape."

Landry was still experimenting with his team which has only 17 leftover from the 1972 Super Bowl champions. Fullback Robert Newhouse was moved from fullback to halfback while Jean Fugett was switched from the wide receiver to tight end. A long look was planned for the Cowboy linebacking corps which stands at nine players.

"It is important to win, but it's more important to make the right decision on our personnel," said Landry, eyeing a hefty cut next week.

Dallas missed the NFL playoffs for the first time in nine campaigns last year and the Cowboys have lost to Los Angeles, Kansas City, and Minnesota in the exhibition season.

"We might be a contender this season in our division with a little luck here and there but it takes time to replace players," Landry said. "I wish I could wave a magic wand and do it."

Defensively, Landry was trying to find an adequate replacement for retired all-pro defensive tackle Bob Lilly. Both Larry Cole and Bill Gregory have worked at the position.

Offensively, Charles Young was given the starting nod at fullback where Walt Garrison created a large gap with retirement.

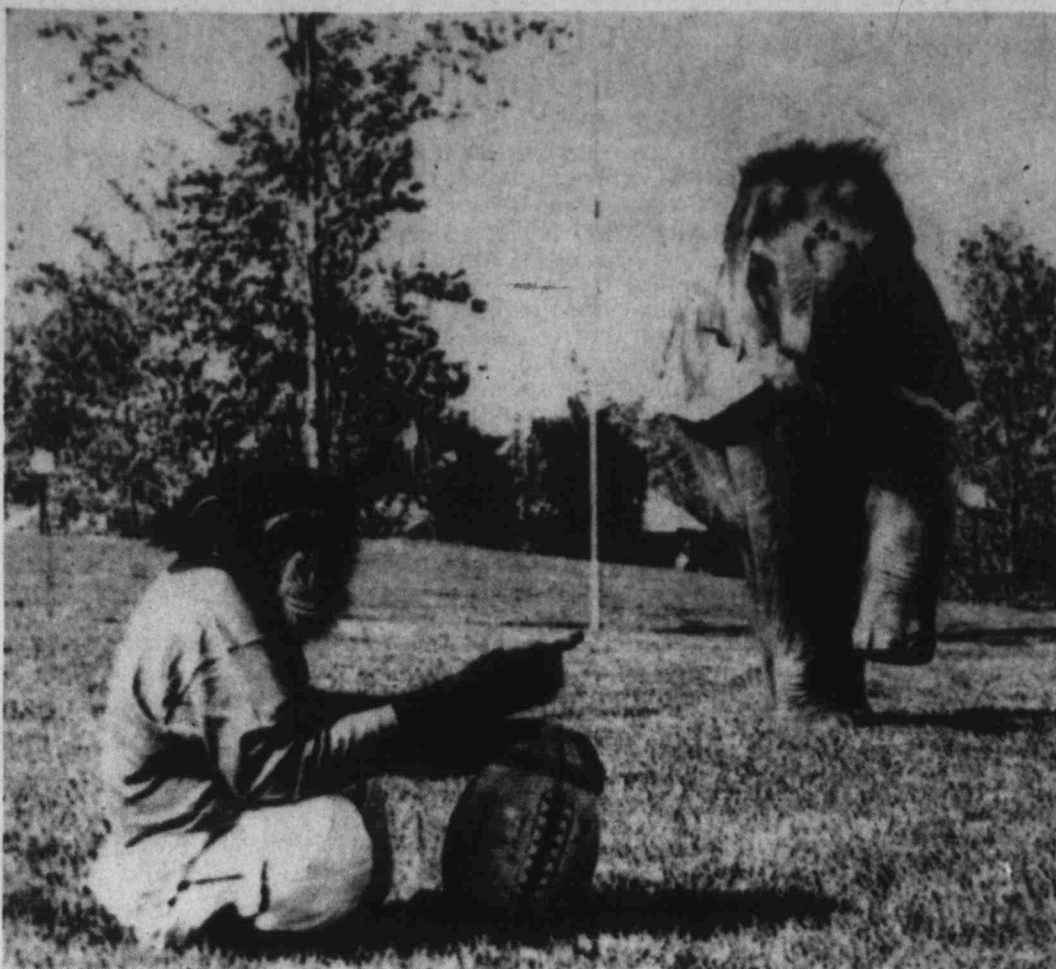

Missing for the first time from the Oakland roster was Jim Otto, 37, who retired this week as the Raider center after 15 seasons in which he never missed a league game—210 straight.

Rough Work Next Order

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — The Arkansas Razorbacks have completed all scrimmage work, but they still have plenty of "rough work" ahead, according to coach Frank Broyles.

Instead of the normal weekend scrimmage, the Razorbacks will rehearse the kicking and passing games this weekend. Arkansas opens the season Sept. 13 against the Air Force Academy in Little Rock.

"We've done enough scrimmaging," Broyles said. "We'll rehearse as much as we can without lining up and knocking heads. It will be just like playing a two-handed game of touch."

Bears Landslide Choice Over Rebuilding Rebels

By The Associated Press

The Southwest Conference opens its 61st football campaign Saturday with prospects bright for a fast 3-0 start against nonconference opponents.

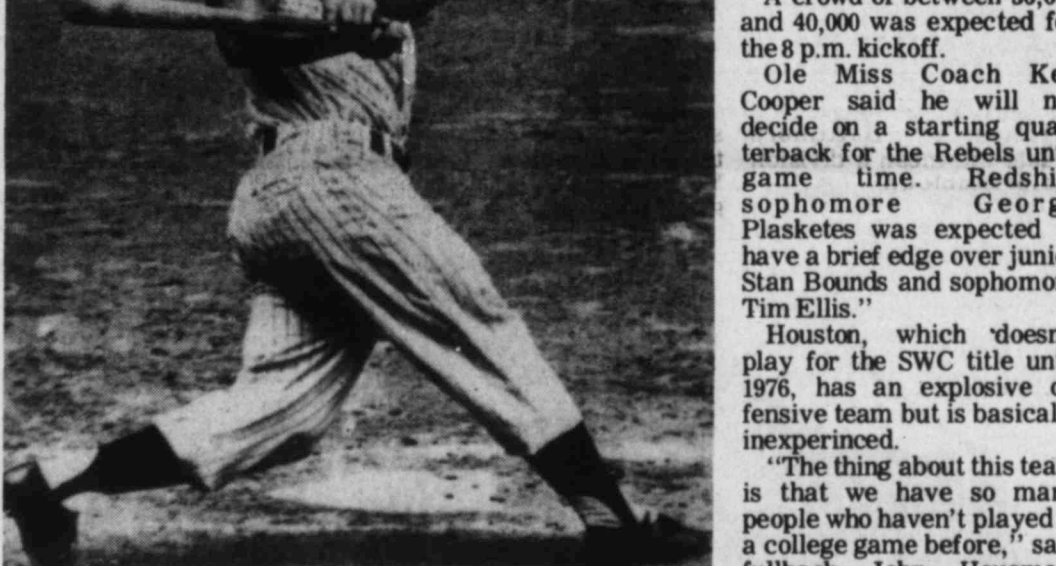

Defending SWC champion Baylor was a heavy favorite over rebuilding Mississippi, Houston was a prohibitive pick over Lamar University, and Southern Methodist was a strong choice over Wake Forest.

Next week Texas Christians hosts Texas-

Arlington on Friday night; Air Force is at Arkansas in Little Rock; Rice is at Houston, SMU is at Florida, Colorado State is at Texas, Ole Miss is at Texas A&M, and Florida State is at Texas Tech.

All eyes will be on Waco to see if the Bears will field the kind of team which led them to the "Miracle on the Brazos" and their first SWC title in 50 years last season.

The 1974 Coach of the Year Grant Teaff said the Bears "could have another fine

TV GAME MONDAY College Season Starts Saturday

By The Associated Press

Alabama, Penn State, North Carolina State and Maryland get a jump on the other members of The Associated Press Top Twenty when the college football season gets under way this weekend.

N.C. State, ranked 13th, and No. 17 Maryland, two of the powers in the Atlantic Coast Conference, will be the first of the ranking teams to see action. Both are at home against nonleague opponents — the Wolfpack entertaining East Carolina while Maryland faces Villanova.

Sixth-ranked Penn State is the only Top Ten team scheduled for action Saturday. The Nittany Lions meet upset-minded Temple at the University of Pennsylvania's Franklin Field and the game has been designated an official Bicentennial event for the City of Philadelphia by the board of directors of "Philadelphia 76."

Television viewers will have to wait until Monday night for their first taste of action when ABC-TV airs the intersectional clash between second-ranked Alabama of the Southeastern Conference and Missouri of the Big Eight from Birmingham, Ala. (9 p.m., EDT).

Four games are on tap in various conferences. Saturday afternoon, Western Michigan visits Central Michigan to help the Chipewas, last year's national College Division champs, make their debut in both the University Division and the Mid-American Conference. After dark, Drake is at New Mexico State and West Texas State at Wichita State for Missouri Valley Conference games while Fullerton State makes its Pacific Coast Athletic Association — and Division I — inaugural at Fresno State.

The only other daytime games find Pitt at Georgia, Lamar at Houston, William & Mary at North Carolina and Eastern Michigan at Ball State. The rest of the night schedule has Mississippi at Baylor, Mississippi State at Memphis State, Southern Methodist at Wake Forest, Texas-El Paso at San Diego State, Western Carolina at Toledo, Western Kentucky at Dayton, Southwestern Louisiana at Long Beach State, Pacific at Northeast Louisiana, North Texas State vs. Texas-Arlington at Irving, Tex., Northwestern Louisiana at Arkansas State and Marshall at Akron.

Penn State and Temple met 13 times from 1938-52 with the Lions holding a 9-3-1 lead after losing three of the first four intrastate battles. Coach Joe Paterno wasn't ecstatic when the resumption of the series was announced but has changed his tune.

"I thought when the series was scheduled that it would not be good for us," he says. "I was wrong. Temple has done a great job of rebuilding its program and it should be a good series for both schools."

Pigskin To Be Thrown Around

All but three area high schools plunge into the new football year tonight.

Big Spring, possessing a good attitude and positive thinking, has high hopes of making this campaign one of the best ever.

The Harris Poll even likes the looks of the Steers, rating them a five-point choice. A young team, Bob Burris' Steers could become the "sleeper" in the 5-4A.

Ten starters return from last season, four on offense and six on defense. Pete Ruiz and Ed Pekowski are the only two senior linemen, offensive and defensive interior line, respectively, on the Steer roster.

Mark Moore, 6-3, 200 pounds, will call the Steer plays for the second year in a row.

Gerald Galloway, 242-pound senior tackle, will support the Andrews front wall. He landed on the all-state second team as a junior.

The Evening Lions Club will have a Steer barbecue tonight from 5 to 8 at the high school cafeteria. Dinner is $2 per plate.

Ten miles east of Big Spring, Coahoma starts off with Reagan at 8. The Harris Poll rates Coahoma as a one-point underdog.

First year Bulldog Head Coach Charles Lynch will field a team lacking depth for the first time in years. Several players will be seeing varsity action for the initial time.

But waving the "Big Red" pride and maintaining a winning tradition established over a period of years, Coahoma could come out the winner.

Leading the Reagan County attack is quarterback Jennings Teel, rated one of the most talented AA field generals in the state.

Lamesa will enjoy the comforts of home, welcoming rugged Carlsbad, N.M., at 7:30 p.m. Tor Head Coach Tom Koger has available 15 lettermen back along with four offensive and four defensive returnees.

Grady, thrilled with the recent completion of a home stadium, hosts Dawson at 8. Playing prep ball for the first time in 1974, Grady was on the road all season long.

Sands of Ackerly, out to improve its last year's reading of 2-8, entertains Garden City. Both will field experienced teams. Game time is 8.

With 16 lettermen back, Klondike coached by Mike Cope starts off at home against Whitarral at 8.

Stanton, spearheaded by

Webb Air Force Base will host its second "three-two" slow-pitch softball tournament Sept. 13, announced base gym officials.

According to the gym spokesmen, anyone who can field a team must contact the base gym or Randy Pringle by closing time today. The gym extension is 2642 and Pringle's home phone is 267-6461.

As before, the tournament will be limited to the first 24 teams to enter. There will be an entrance fee of $15 per team, to cover the cost of officials.

The tournament is open to all area slow-pitch softball players. The spokesmen said that a strong showing from the Big Spring teams is expected.

Civitan Open Begins Today

DALLAS (AP) — If JoAnne Carner can shrug off the excitement of having landed a 19-pound chinook salmon on a recent fishing trip to Oregon, the 13-year veteran shotmaker should be an odds-on favorite to repeat as champion in the 20th Dallas Civitan Women's Open under way here today.

Mrs. Carner arrived in Dallas for the $46,000 tournament at Brookhaven Country Club with a new putter fashioned by her caddy, West Texas State golfer Don Robertson, and a rebuilt set of irons that have given her 15 to 20 yards added distance.

"I feel putting can be the difference here," said Mrs. Carner. "I put the ball 10 to 15 feet from the pin on 48 of 54 holes in the recent Denver National Jewish Hospital Classic but managed only 5-under par to finish in a tie for fifth. I'll have to do better than that here."

The 54-hole tournament runs through Sunday.

Opening Day Successful

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Opening day of the white-winged dove season was a success despite the threat of Hurricane Caroline, the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department reports.

Department officials in the Rio Grande Valley reported that about 7,700 hunters harvested an estimated 50,000 white-wings on Sept. 1 for an average of six birds per hunter.

On Sept. 2 the average bag dropped to only three birds.

The department predicted fair to good hunting Friday for a resumption of hunting but say hunting could deteriorate over the weekend.

There are estimates that 250,000 white-wing doves were in the Valley at the start of the season.

FOXBORO, Mass. (AP) —

The New England Patriots are down to the player limit under National Football League rules for their exhibition game with the San Diego Chargers Sunday night at Schaefer Stadium.

The Patriots got down to 51 players Thursday, including two All-Star collegians not counted on the roster until next week, by placing veteran linebacker John Tanner on the injured reserve list and waiving defensive back Donnie Walker.

Tanner has a bad back, while Walker failed to show enough after being acquired on waivers from the New York Giants last week.

PITTSBURGH (AP) —

The Pittsburgh Triangles have signed Sue Stap to a contract for the 1976 World Team Tennis season.

Miss Stap was acquired from Cleveland in a trade last week that sent Rayni Fox, Kim Warwick and the rights to Jimmy Connors and Wendy Overton to the Nets.

ATLANTA (AP) —

The Atlanta Braves, concluding an earlier trade for knuckleballer Bruce Dal Canton, has swapped veteran left-hander Ray Sadecki to the Kansas City Royals for two minor-league pitchers.

The 34-year-old Sadecki had a 2-3 record and a 4.23 earned run average in 25 games for the Braves since May 28, when he was obtained from the St. Louis Cardinals. He is 3-3 for the year with a 4.09 ERA.

Norm Angelini and Al Autry were obtained by the Braves from the Royals Triple-A team at Omaha. Angelini, 27, was 3-8 with a 4.41 ERA and 20 saves. Autry, 23, was 9-7 with a 3.87 ERA.

Extra Point Wins Contest

ANDREWS —

An all-important extra point kick allowed Andrews to move past Big Spring, 7-6, in a junior varsity contest here Thursday night.

This was the seasonal opener for both squads.

All scoring took place in the fourth period. Big Spring broke the deadlock with 8:21 to go on a 65-yard pass from Wade Cobb to Steve Pearson.

Andrews tied the contest with 3:36 left on the clock on a 25-yard run. Then the home eleven connected on the point after the TD to win.

Defensive standouts for Big Spring included Don Stump, Mike Eagan and Billy Hayes with Ricky Torres, Kent Rice and Robby Wagner playing well on offense.

First downs were even on both sides, 12 apiece. Andrews was assessed 35 yards in penalties and Big Spring, 25.

Coahoma Eight Graders Score

SWEETWATER —

Coahoma's eighth grade football team got off to a quick seasonal start here Thursday night, pounding Sweetwater's junior high eleven, 46-0.

Isidro Mendez paced Coahoma's scoring attack with three touchdowns. He was followed by Tim Davidson, two touchdowns and Tony Flores and Ambrosia Uranga, each scoring six points.

Coahoma's next game is scheduled Sept. 11 at Andrews.

WOMAN CLOSING GAS STATION AFTER 42 YEARS

No More Downtown Corners

DALLAS (AP) — Dorothy Eiler was packing 42 years of memories while the jackhammers were ripping away the concrete of the downtown Dallas service station to make way for another parking lot.

Mrs. Eiler, talking above the roar of the construction crew, said, "Nothing has ever hurt me so. It is pitiful. We were the only station in the downtown area to provide road service and now, we no longer even exist."

She wiped her hands on the blue slacks and said, "It seems silly to make more room to park more cars and do it at the expense of the people who drive to work each day."

"What are they going to do when the battery dies in this parking lot, or they run out of gasoline during the rush hours, or the motor overheats? There's no one left in the downtown section to help these people anymore," she said.

The station was started Oct. 31, 1932 by Mrs. Eiler's father, Barney Gibbs. In the passing years, the station has moved five times because of the evergrowing downtown Dallas area.

The lease on the latest location has expired and Mrs. Eiler said, "I guess we have run out of downtown corners. We've got to close it down now and there's no place to go. I don't want a suburban station. I want to help the folks downtown. I thought I was doing a service, pulling cars out of the way when they stalled so not to block downtown traffic, giving directions, pumping gasoline for the guy who is on the way home from work and the tank is on empty."

During the interview, several persons came into the now almost deserted station. One asked for a road map, another for directions to a federal building; a third who said he was out of gasoline and needed assistance; two to use the telephone to report problems with their delivery trucks; others to grab a cold drink from the vending machine and relax and talk before going back to their jobs.

Mrs. Eiler said she "crawled under my first car in Dad's service station when I was nine years old, and that's been many a year, more than I want to say, but more than 40. I tried to keep the station going for him when he retired, but it's all over now. We have grown so big in Dallas we have lost the person-to-person touch. Nobody seems to care anymore. Maybe it's the same in other big cities, but I didn't want it to happen here."

She added, "There are big buildings, parking lots, and everything except somebody to call when you need help. The few stations left in the downtown section don't have road service. They let you call a wrecker. That takes time and money."

When her father, now 81, was told the station he had started was closing, "it threw him for a loop," Mrs. Eiler said. "I wanted to carry on the name as long as possible, but it is all over today."

Mrs. Eiler pumped her last gallon of gasoline Wednesday and was putting away the last few records and reports Thursday.

"Have to get it all out of here by midnight, or what's left will be buried under the parking lot, as if this station never existed. Just nothing left by pavement."

Mrs. Eiler said she would like to find a small office downtown so "I could take calls from motorists in trouble and tell them how to get help."

Duval Slant Well Drilling

CORPUS CHRISTI (AP) — There has been some slant well drilling for oil in Duval County, Texas Ranger Capt. John Wood told the Corpus Christi Caller-Times Wednesday.

Slant well drilling is an illegal method used to steal oil from another lease by drilling at an angle.

Wood said "we are sure" there has been some slant drilling in Duval County.

Wood said he has asked the Texas Railroad Commission for records dealing with wells plugged or abandoned for the past several years and new wells drilled.

Re-Elect Cauble Chief
Of Aero Commission

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Over protests from Amistad Airlines Inc., the Texas Aeronautics Commission Wednesday called a new hearing on Amistad's application for scheduled air service between San Antonio and Laredo.

The rehearing for Amistad will be Sept. 22 in Austin.

The commission also re-elected Rex C. Cauble of Denton as chairman of the commission; re-elected Lucien Flournoy of Alice as vice chairman and David Witts of Dallas was elected secretary.

Amistad, which now operates non-stop service between San Antonio and Del Rio, opposed the rehearing motion which was asked by Texas International Airlines and Texicana Airlines. Texicana has an application pending before the commission for authority to serve five cities including Laredo.

Amistad attorney J.M. Head urged the commission to go ahead and grant Amistad's application, saying that a TAC examiner had already found a need for additional air service in Laredo. He said Amistad had the planes and pilots to fulfill that need immediately.

Texicana attorney Arthur Troilo said Texicana had made a market study of the Laredo area and would be ready in six weeks to ask for a hearing on its application to service the area.

Harry Lawson, attorney for Texas International, said Amistad's application was premature in view of "their financial condition." He also said granting the application would divert some passengers from Texas International making it more difficult to serve Laredo.

The commissioners granted the request Thursday by Bledsoe Aviation, Inc., Corpus Christi, to withdraw its application to provide scheduled air service between Corpus Christi, Austin and San Antonio. A TAC examiner has recommended the application be denied.

The commission also approved a six-month extension of Maverick's Airways' request to suspend service between San Antonio, San Angelo and Eagle Pass.

Texas Citrus Industry
Surviving Problems

DALLAS (AP) — The Texas Citrus and Vegetable Growers and Shippers Association is somehow surviving despite troubles with government regulations, high costs and such problems as labor, says its president.

"Our industry isn't doing too bad at all," said shipper James P. Walsh of McAllen Thursday.

"We are holding our own against the rising prices and all of the other problems facing the citrus and vegetable industry. I don't know how we do it sometimes, but we always manage," he said at the association's annual two-day convention.

"Our industry is troubled the most by so damn many government regulations. There are times we don't know where to turn. There is always some chemical we can't use or some regulation we must meet," Walsh added.

Walsh said he didn't know why retail prices for fruits and vegetables remain high even during the harvest season, "but many in the industry think it is going to the retailer."

"I will say there is no excuse for a box of grapefruit to go up seven to eight cents from the Texas Valley to Dallas," he added.

One of the biggest financial problems facing growers and shippers, Walsh said, is the cost of labor. "There has been quite a revolution in labor. The industry is having to pay a heck of a price. And, fertilizer is out of sight. You are talking about cost increases of 400 per cent."

"Despite all of these things, the industry is getting along pretty good," he said.

To Probe Futuristic Police Gadgetry Phillips To Clip Soaring Crime Rates?

TULSA (AP)—An in grand jury investigation of the campaign contribution practices of Phillips Petroleum Co. of Bartlesville is scheduled to open Monday.

The U. S. Justice Department-directed probe was to have started Thursday but U.S. District Court Judge Allen E. Barrow dismissed a grand jury because it had only 16 members—the minimum legal number. The judge said he feared not having quorum for the Phillips probe, which he said could take up to one month.

Will Retire

MOUNTAIN VIEW, Calif. (AP)—Former astronaut Alfred M. Worden says he will retire from the National Aeronautics and Space Administration this week.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The outcome of a bureaucratic power struggle may determine whether the Ford administration's solution to rising crime rates will be sought in futuristic police gadgetry.

At odds are Richard W. Velde, chief of the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration, and key members of the agency's staff.

Sources close to agency

Court Filings

Due Next Week

"We're going to file about five a week from now on," District Attorney Robert H. (Bob) Moore III said today. He was talking about several revocation motions he filed this week, because the defendant had not paid restitution or court costs.

operations say Velde is using an investigation of possible violations of Civil Service regulations to solidify his control over LEAA, which has distributed nearly $4 billion in crime fighting grants since it was established in 1969. They said Velde may use the probe to push dissident staff members to resign.

Velde was named head of LEAA by Richard M. Nixon in the last days of his presidency. Velde's predecessor, Donald Santarelli, resigned after saying he thought Nixon should quit for the good of the country.

Sources in the law enforcement community say a key factor in the intra-agency struggle is Velde's preference for technological assistance to police rather than grants geared to increasing citizen involvement in criminal justice.

Velde, a 43-year-old avid jogger, also has approved a $541,000 grant for a study of police physical fitness.

Velde's opponents within the agency declined to be interviewed during the current highly charged atmosphere. But many are known to feel the Velde projects are a continuation of the emphasis on police equipment criticized in past evaluations of LEAA. Congressional investigations and non-governmental evaluations of LEAA have criticized the fact that millions of dollars were used to buy new radios and patrol cars for police departments.

The Civil Service investigation has centered on several LEAA staff members brought into the agency by Santarelli. They include Gerald M. Caplan, director of LEAA's National Institute of Law Enforcement and Criminal Justice, and Charles Work, deputy LEAA administrator.

Consultants allegedly were brought in to perform work that Civil Service regulations require be done by fulltime employees.

The matter has been pending for months with no action by Velde. Some top officials, included Work, reportedly have threatened to resign if Velde took what they considered unduly harsh disciplinary action, particularly suspensions without pay.

It was learned that cases of two of the six officials under investigation were settled with a letter of reprimand being placed in their personnel files. Velde sent his recommendations on two other cases to Deputy Atty. Gen. Harold Tyler.

Undergoing Tests

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Philip A. Hart, D-Mich., is undergoing tests in the nearby Bethesda, Md., Naval Hospital after a small malignant growth was found in one arm.

"The tests are being conducted to determine the primary source of the malignancy," his office said in a statement issued Thursday.

Calls Questions

'Outrageous'

EVERETT, Wash. (AP)—Helen Jackson, wife of Sen. Henry M. Jackson, says the personal questions First Lady Betty Ford has answered recently for journalists were "rude and outrageous."

If she were asked the same kind of question, the wife of the Washington Democrat said, "I'd tell them those matters are my personal affairs and go on to the next question."

"BEYOND THE LAW"

MOVIN' ON TO COUNTRY PORN Truckin' Grandma Thinks Folks 'Getting More Broad-Minded'

MILFORD, Iowa (AP) — The manager of a triple X movie house here is a grandmother, a retired truck driver. And she succeeded a 24-year-old Sunday school teacher and Cub Scout den mother.

"People hear where I work and say, 'Aha, you're one of those,'" says 40-year-old Dixie Murray. "But it's a job, it was available, I applied, was hired, and it's above-board."

Except for the Lakeside Drive-In, which is open only summers and features drive-in worship services on Sundays, the Strand theater is the only movie house in this northern Iowa town of 1,668.

Townpeople objected when the Strand started showing porn, and there were some attempts to block the operation.

But Mayor Richard Klingseis says, "They're not violating the law as long as they don't allow anyone under 18 inside. And nobody's trying to drag people inside of it."

Mrs. Murray said she retired from her truck-driving job — she and her husband drove tractor-trailer rigs cross-country together — because "it's a rough job and I'm really pretty much a homebody."

"But I got bored because I don't have any little ones around anymore so I applied for the job."

Of the Strand, she says, "We get all kinds of people. Some of our nicest customers are couples in their 70s who walk out smiling and holding hands. You've really got to have something going for yourself to go to this kind of movie at their age."

The current showings are "Legacy of a Woman" and "More Than Just Friends." Tickets are $4 and the theater opens to a brisk business at 11 a.m.

"I think people are getting more broad-minded," Mrs. Murray said. "Times are changing, even in Iowa. Arnold's Park (a nearby town of 970) has a massage parlor now."

Oil-Producing Countries Wage New Arms Race

LONDON (AP) — China's missile program has slowed but the United States and the Soviet Union continue to sharpen their nuclear strike forces despite detente, the Institute for Strategic Studies reported Friday.

At the same time, a new arms race is under way in the oil-producing countries, the institute said. Iran and Saudi Arabia each tripled their military budget in the past year. Iran now spends more money on arms than Britain.

The institute, an international body of experts, analyzes data from government, military, academic and intelligence sources. Findings were published in "The Military Balance 1975-76," the 17th of the institute's authoritative annual surveys.

"China continued her nuclear program more slowly than earlier projections have indicated," the institute said. It said there have been no China nuclear tests since the 16th was conducted in June 1974.

An unspecified number of intermediate range ballistic missiles in the 1,750-mile category were added by Peking during the year. But the multistage intercontinental ballistic missile — ICBM — with a range of 3,500 miles sufficient to reach Moscow is still not deployed and there has been no full range test of China's planned 8,000-mile ICBM, although both have been under development for years, the institute said.

Turning to the superpowers, the institute said although the Vladivostok summit last November proposed ceilings on the number of strategic nuclear weapons, it has not checked their development by the United States and the Soviet Union.

UTPB, Midland Offer Courses At Webb AFB

Several college courses are being offered at Webb Air Force Base through the University of Texas at the Permian Basin and Midland College this fall, with late registration still being held for the classes.

UTPB is offering six courses in business and law enforcement. Registration can take place at the class meeting through next week or at the Webb AFB Education Center, Building 603.

Courses offered include Accounting 403, federal income taxation; Economics 422, macro economics; Finance 320, financial management principles; Marketing 310, marketing management; Law Enforcement 300, police in America; and Law Enforcement 305, organized crime.

Fees for the course are $67.50 for one course and $75 for two courses.

Schools Given Federal Grant

Cong. Omar Burleson announced Thursday the approval of $181,705 Head Start grant to the Big Spring Independent School District.

The Head Start program will run for nine months and will involve about 200 children.

In the past year, the United States completed programmed deployment of 550 Minutemen, 3 ICBM each with multiple warheads, and deployed Poseidon missiles with multiple warheads in 25 submarines, among many improvements in its nuclear arsenal.

The Soviets, among other things, added 40 ICBM to their stockpile over the past year, and deployed a new family of more accurate, large payload ICBM identified by the institute as the SS17, SS18 and SS19. Accuracy was reported to be within a quarter of a mile, comparable to U.S. missiles.

All these developments conform to guidelines agreed upon at Vladivostok for limiting offensive nuclear weapons until 1985. But the institute stressed that both sides are increasing their nuclear arsenals to permitted limits while little progress has been made in reducing conventional forces.

As it has each year since 1968, the institute listed a Soviet advantage in ICBMs over the United States — Russia's 1,618 to America's 1,054 on the 1975 count. But the institute said the United States was well ahead in more sophisticated weaponry such as the Multiple, Independently Targeted — MIRV — warhead. No Soviet submarine yet has this equipment operational, the institute reported.

Indian Guide Parley Set

All boys in the first, second and third grade who are over six years of age, along with their fathers, are invited to attend an organizational meeting of the Y-Indian guides at 7 p.m. Monday.

The meeting will be held at the YMCA at 8th and Owens. Julian Patterson, designated as the Long House Chief and Dr. Jim Cowan, designated as the medicine man, will lead the organizational meeting.

A youth cannot belong without his father, nor a father without his son.

The tribes meet in the members' homes, plan projects, build things and take interesting trips together.

Fathers and sons are encouraged to attend the organizational meeting.
