JOHN COLEMAN WITH HIS BOOK

Major John Coleman (Ret.) autographs copies of his recently published book, "Bataan and Beyond" at the party given in his honor by the county chapter of the National Retired Teachers Association Friday, Nov. 10. The book describes his life as a prisoner of war of the Japanese in the Philippine Islands and Japan during World War II.

City's Eligibility Established For UDAG Grant Application

The U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development has established Wellington's eligibility to apply for an Urban Development Action Grant, City Manager Glen Taylor, was notified Monday, Nov. 13.

In a phone conversation from the Dallas office of HUD, Taylor was told the city will be invited to apply in January for a $750,000 grant, for February funding.

The grant will be sought to expand industry and utilities in the city.

Its more specific purpose will be to fund the sponsor's part of a new $7.5 million steel mill which Southwestern Rail Products, Inc., proposes to build in Wellington.

With the establishment of Wellington's eligibility assured, it becomes one of the few small cities in the country to achieve this status. Taylor filed a letter requesting a determination of eligibility in early July.

In the next step, the city will file a pre-application for funds with the Dallas office of HUD. Upon approval of this, an application for funding will be made with the Panhandle Regional Planning Commission.

Working with the city in the HUD Dallas office has been Cheryl Renteria, who assisted in determining the loan sought would apply in Wellington's situation.

Action grants may be used for a wide range of development activities, such as clearing, land, improving sites, and rehabilitating and constructing public, commercial.

School Board Releases More Funds To Building Architect-Contractor

Wellington School Board at regular meeting Monday, Nov. 13 agreed to pay general contractor Speed Fab-Crete for Fr. Worth all payments due for the new and remodeled portions of elementary school with the exception of $7,880 which the board will hold until a final "punch list" of corrections to the building is completed.

Speed Fab-Crete spokesman Jeff Spedding told the board that the finishing touches on the remodeled portion of the building should be completed within two weeks.

The board also voted unanimously to pay architect Tom Brown $4,000 of his fees and retain $520 until the building is accepted.

The board also unanimously accepted an audit of the school's books for the '78-'79 school year by CPA Don Wells of Shamrock. Wells told the board he found everything in order in all funds and that business manager and tax assessor Nita Brantley's records of school expenditures were as good as he has seen anywhere. "You have very good documentation," he said.

The school has appealed a state valuation that estimates true market value of the school district taxable property at $108 million, and the board heard a report from Mrs. Brantley and Supt. E.W. Clement on that appeal. They said they appealed the valuation in five areas: residential housing, vacant lots, apartment complexes, yield on cotton land and intangible property. Mrs.

Brantley said the final figure will be important to the school

Six Band Members Named All-Region

Six members of That Skyrocket Band qualified for places in the all-region band in competition at Phillips Saturday, Nov. 11. They participated in the division for bands coming from Class A and Class B schools.

Selected were Renee Lacy, second chair cornet; Maria Langford, fifteenth chair cornet; Robert Burba, sixth chair tuba; Jimmy Morgan, eighth chair tuba; Tony Isaacs, second chair flute; and Renee Owens, fourth chair flute.

They and other members of the all-region band will be presented in the annual concert in January 1979, said Jamie Larson, band director.

Wellington contest numbers were "Old Scottish Melody," arranged by Wiley; "Saber and Spurs, Sousa; Rock Encounter, Chataway; and Momentations," by Tatgenhorst.

Other students at Phillips were Richard Burba, Sharee Bailey and Cheryl Birkey.

Other schools competing were Stratford, Shamrock, Sunray, Sanford-Fritch, Phillips, Gruver, Memphis, Vega, White Deer, Panhandle, Booker, Groom, Miami, and McLean.

Approximately 20 members of Junior High Band will try out for places on the Junior High all-region band Saturday, Nov. 18, at River Road School, Amarillo, Larsons aid. Their numbers will "Highlander Regiment" and "Country and Western Jamboree" by Ployhar, and Montage" by Tatgenhorst.

They will compete against schools in Class A and Class B who have junior high bands.

Skyrockets - Memphis Battle For 2-A Title Friday Night

"It will be one heck of an exciting football game," says Head Coach James Williams when the Rocket and Memphis Cyclone meet Friday, Nov. 17 at Memphis.

This ends scheduled play for both teams, and game time is 7:30 p.m.

At stake is the District 2-A crown. This is the game the Skyrockets have been waiting for almost a full year.

"When we started the season, we figured it would probably come down to this--our final game with Memphis to determine the district 2-A championship. Sure enough, it's here again," says the Rocket Head coach.

After their disappointing loss last year, Wellington boys will be ready to play football.

"We've had good workouts and our kids and the coaches are real excited," says

Williams.

"We went out today and worked in the bad weather, just in case it's bad again Friday night, We had a good workout."

This crucial game comes during quarter examinations, but coaches believe that will not bother the team.

The Skyrockets and Cyclone go into the game with identical records, 7-2 for the season. Neither has lost a conference game. Memphis was defeated by Childress and Sanford Fritch and Wellington by Childress and Floydada.

Memphis offensive output has not been as good as Wellington's, but the Cyclone defense has allowed only 15 points to be scored on them and this has been keeping them in the race.

"We look at it as another tough football game, and it's always worse there.

This is the second consecutive year the teams have met at Memphis, due to the redrawing which followed the UIL realignment effective with the beginning of this year.

Although Memphis lost its fine running back Kirk Fields and linebacker Kenny Martin last year, they nevertheless, have 14 returning lettermen, 6 on offense and 8 defensive starters.

Returning on defense are 210 pound end Rodney Guy and tackle Ronny Wilson, along with middle linebacker Allard.

Playing defensive halfback is Yo Yo Salinas, who won the state 880 run in the spring. Tony and Woodrow Richardson, brothers, are again in the line up.

Scott Baca, who started last year on offense and also as offensive end, has changed to quarterback this year.

Doug Williams, senior linebacker, adds a lot of experience to the Cyclone defense. All of these men play on offense as well as defense.

"They have been capitalizing on everybody's mistakes all year," says Williams.

Head coach of the Cyclone is Jim Morgan, who came from an assistant's position at Pampa at the beginning of the year.

"It's going to be a close game. We look for a real hard hitting game, and when you have a game of this type, you have turnovers. The team that hangs on to the ball and makes the least mistakes will win," predicts Williams. The Rockets, he adds, will play as hard as they have all year.

Nevertheless, Wellington

County School Board Turns Down Petition on Quail Detachment

Collingsworth County School Board Wednesday, November 8, turned down a petition to detach large area of Quail Independent School District and annex it to Wellington Independent School District.

The board voted 3 to 2 on a motion made by Tom Cunningham and seconded by Johnny Carson to "reject the petition presented to the County Board on October 10, 1978 detaching certain properties from the Quail Independent School District and annexing the same to Wellington Independent School District."

Tom Cunningham, Johnny Carson and Z.J. Neeley voted for the motion and Walter Camp and Sam Carter voted against it.

The petitioners have appealed the board's decision to Texas Commissioner of Education, M.L. Brockette in Austin.

The letter, signed by Earl Patterson, requesting a hearing on the appeal lists three points on which the appeal is made: 1) that the petition bore the signatures of 70% of the qualified voters who reside in the area to be detached; 2) that there are conflicting interests between three members of the Collingsworth County School Board and members of the Quail School Board; and 3) that the board's decision on the petition was made in a closed meeting in the county superintendent's office before 1 p.m., and that only an announcement of the board's decision was made at the open meeting posted for 1 p.m. in the district court room.

County school superintendent Isla Mae Morris said, however, that the meeting in her office was open and that anyone who wished to come in could have done so.

The notice of meeting which was filed with the district clerk's office states that the county school board will "render their decision" on Wednesday, Nov. 8 at 1:00 p.m. in the district court room. In other action at the regular county school board meeting, the board approved transfer of Quail Independent School District's transportation fund balance to the First National Bank of Aspermont as Quail's depository for the '78-'79 school year. The board also approved minutes of the last meeting and office and travel expense of the county superintendent.

Mrs. Sims Delegate To Library Meeting

Mrs. B.M. Sims is a delegate to the Governor's Conference on Texas Libraries and Information Services, to be held in Austin Thursday through Saturday, Nov. 16 to 18.

This is in preparation for the White House conference to be held in 1979, and on the agenda at Austin is the passage of resolutions which will be presented at the national meeting.

Governor Dolph Briscoe will welcome the delegates.

Mrs. Sims is a member of the registration committee, and those attending will receive group assignments for the three days.

Dinner speakers will be Sen. Ralph Yarbrough, former United States Senator from Texas, and Lynn Ashby, Houston Post columnist. During the final session, delegates will tour the Texas State Library.

Some of the resolutions to be adopted concerning Texas' needs have come out of the state-wide town hall meetings held earlier. Others will be drawn from recommendations made at the meeting.

Mrs. Sims, in preparation for her work as delegate, attended an orientation session and town hall meetings held in Amarillo, Wheeler, and Wellington. She said she has received input for possible resolutions relating to the needs of school, public, academic and special libraries.

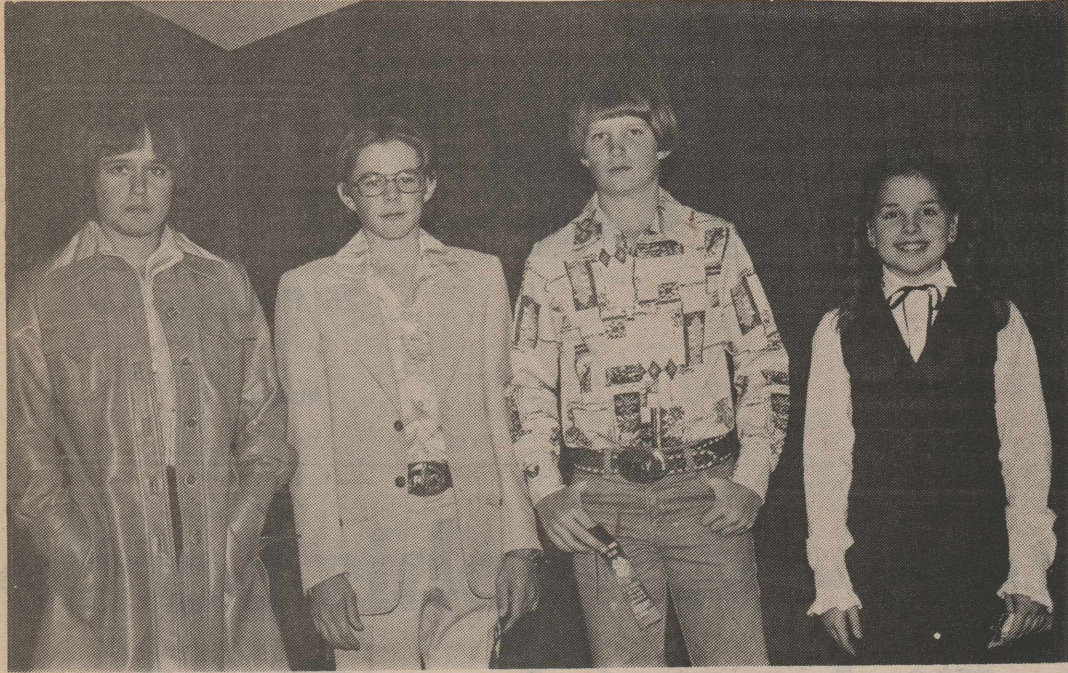

Those attending the governor's conference will reflect on the theme "Information: Your Rights and Responsibilities."

"This motif may have special meaning for the conference delegates, as they face their duties of preparing resolutions for the White House Conference in 1979," said Mrs. Sims. Grounded in these resolutions is the most complete and current information of what is needed by the citizens of Texas in this area of concern. Because the governor wanted us to have the latest information, highest priority was placed on town hall meetings so citizens could have input.

4-H GOLD STAR RECIPIENTS

Receiving this year's 4-H Club Gold Star Awards, highest given by the Texas A&M Extension Service on the county level, were Lynn Tate, left, and Cheryl Birkey. During the year they have worked with the extension agents, Jean Chandler and Don Reeves. Making the Gold Star presentations was County Judge Zook Thomas.

FOR HORSEMANSHIP

cial, industrial and residential buildings, according to information Taylor has received from HUD.

A locality may also use the money for equity funding, loans, loan guarantees or other financial arrangements to support joint public-private development.

It is in this area that the city proposes to provide the sponsor's part for funding the steel plant.

Southwestern Rail Products, Inc., headed by Wayne Smith, has made application with the Farmers Home Administration for a loan of approximately $7 million for the steel mill construction. A site for the proposed mill has been secured at the southeast edge of Wellington, facing on FM 338, immediately north of Marian Airpark.

A FmHA loan to finance this steel mill would be a first in Texas, although that agency has made loans to fund steel mills in other states.

Services for Alton Wilkins Held Wednesday

Alton (Kisser) Wilkins, 73 died in King's Daughters Hospital at Temple Sunday, November 12, at 8:12 p.m. He had been critically ill since going to Temple a few days earlier.

He retired from Mead's Bakeries about 10 years ago, after a long tenure as salesman. As a young man, he had worked for the Wellington Bakery when it was owned by the late Bill McDonald and Casey Jones and afterward by the late S.F. Hughes. He and Mr. Jones were also partners in a grocery store, and he was with Dr. Pepper Bottling Co.

During World War II, he was employed at Childress Air Force Base as a fireman.

Wilkins was a member of the Wellington Volunteer Fire department approximately 50 years and retired only a few years ago. He began his service during a period when the department fought fires with meager equipment, much of it hand-built. He helped it grow into the finely equipped department it has been for a number of years. He served as an officer several terms.

As a fireman many years ago he entered a burning house in northeast Wellington to rescue a small child.

L. Alton Wilkins was born

January 25, 1905, at Bonita, Montague County, the son of the late Dr. and Mrs. Henry A. Wilkins. Shortly afterward, the family came to the area that later became Dodsonville, and later the family moved to Wellington, where he graduated from high school.

He was married to Jimmie Shumate January 15, 1928 in Wellington. They lived here all of their married life.

Wilkins belonged to First Baptist Church and the Odd Fellows Lodge.

Funeral services were conducted Wednesday at 2:00 p.m. in First Baptist Church, with the Rev. Stanley Hughes, pastor, officiating. Pall bearers were J.I. Morgan, Howard Holton, Herman Belew, Robert Lewis, Johnny Nash, Jake Leach, Clyde Drake, Jimmy Forrester.

Honorary pall bearers were Ben Wilhelm, John Nash,

Sr., Buster Hughes, David Peters, Jim Sikes, Cal Sugg, Bill Brewster, Dr. Chas. B. Jones and Doc Turner.

All firemen who were not pall bearers attended the service. Burial was in Fairview Cemetery under the direction of Kelso Funeral Home.

Survivors are his wife, Mrs. Jimmie Wilkins; a daughter, Mrs. Bill (Barbara) Payne of Temple; a son, Cager Wilkins of Troup; a sister, Mrs. Eunice Hunter of Childress; and four grandchildren.

Parsons and Editor Issue Statements

Sandy Parsons, Jr., this week issued a statement which he said he hoped would clear up controversy on the hospital pharmacist's job and Wellington Leader editor Henry Wells issued an apology to Parsons for any misconceptions or reflections on his character resulting from a story two weeks ago that Parsons had been dismissed as Collingsworth General Hospital's consulting pharmacist.

"I took the job as hospital pharmacist after I retired only at the request of the hospital administrator, and with his understanding that I would be traveling for many weeks during the year," Parsons said. "It was a job that I did not seek and had offered to resign from on several occasions. I was hoping to turn the job over to another pharmacist, and I was hurt by the board's action and by the way Henry Wells reported that action in the newspaper."

"We regret very much any misconceptions and apologize for any erroneous reflections on Mr. Parsons personal or professional character resulting from stories on hospital board action," Wells said. "Sandy Parsons has been active in dozens of civic affairs in the community, especially in work towards improving medical care in the county, and his professional ability has never been questioned."

"It was not our intention to hurt anyone, but merely to try to report on board action," Wells said.

Last week Collingsworth General Hospital Board president Otis Emmert said "No one has done more than Sandy Parsons in working to keep the hospital open and secure more doctors, and we appreciate all of his service to the community."

because "local fund assignment" for the next school year will be based on that figure. Local fund assignment is an amount of money that the state deducts from funds that would otherwise have been paid to the school.

Mrs. Brantley told the board that staff members in Austin told her that of all the school districts which have appealed the valuations, Wellington was the only one to date which has offered supporting evidence to back up its case.

Clement also reported that work has started on curbs and gutters for the south side of the new elementary school building. In other action the board voted unanimously to purchase 13 new girls basketball uniforms at an estimated cost of $750 and to refund money which local citizens had donated towards that purchase. The board also voted unanimously to purchase drapes for the new superintendent and tax offices at an estimated cost of $182.

Present were board members Frank Coleman, Jr., Benson Long, Harold Moore, Jerol Morris, Carroll Nunnelle, and V.K. Orr, Jr. Kirby Campbell was absent.

Hightower Invited to Trade Symposium

The House of Representatives Committee on Agriculture announced today that Congressman Jack Hightower of Texas is one of eight members of the committee invited to participate in an Interparliamentary Symposium in Tokyo, Japan starting November 14.

Hightower will be the principal speaker for the United States delegation on concerns in trade with Japan in the areas of wheat, feed grains and beef. Citrus, cotton and soybeans will be among the other commodity areas discussed in the agricultural sector of the symposium.

The United States delegation will go from Tokyo to Peking in the Peoples Republic of China November 20th. The China meetings will focus on cotton with the official hosts being ChinaTex and the China Council for the Promotion of International Trade. ChinaTex is the official organization for purchasing imported fibers and for the sale of exporting fibers for the country.

In the Japan meeting Hightower is expected to address the problems of access to Japanese markets and the overall trade deficit problems existing with Japan.

In response to questions about trade with the two countries, Hightower stated, "While Japan is the United States best customer of agricultural commodities with the dollar level reaching over $4 billion this year, there still exists a very distressing overall trade deficit between the countries. This deficit has played no small part in the problems the United States dollar has had this year in overseas valuation."

"China, on the other hand is a sleeping giant in potential as a customer for our farm products. They now rank fifth as a buyer of our cotton and can very well become a leading customer of the short staple cotton that we grow in my area of Texas," Hightower emphasized.

The delegation will be back in the United States the first week in December.

Curtis Clement of Bloomfield, N.M. visited last week with his father, Guy B. Clement.

HAPPY THANKSGIVING!

Mrs. Aaron Class Speaker

Mrs. Agnes Aaron of Matador, gave a slide presentation and discussion of the state of Israel for the Wellington High students of her daughter, Mrs. Ruth Norman.

Mrs. Aaron's program was based on her trip to the Middle East.

Students were interested in seeing on slides places they have read about. Mrs. Aaron told of her arrival in Nazareth at night, and her eagerness to be out of the hotel next morning and walking the same streets where Jesus walked.

The pictures which held the students interest longest were those of the Garden of Gethsemane, the road to Jericho and the Church built over the place where Christ was Crucified.

Several pictures of the mosque, the Dome of the Rock, were shown. Mrs. Aaron pointed out that it stands on the very spot of Solomon's Temple and Herod's Temple. It is built over the same rock where the Jewish people offered their sacrifices.

Mrs. Aaron explained that the Holy Land was sacred to three religions, Christian, Jewish, and Moslem. She called this the trip she had always wanted to take and expressed the hope she could again.

To the history classes, she also explained Israel's significance in today's world.

Juvenile Officer Discusses Youth Crime for 1954 Club

The 1954 Study Club heard Bob Watson, 100th District Juvenile Probation Officer and county judge elect, as their guest speaker in the regular meeting Thursday, Nov. 8, in the home of Mrs. John Nash.

Mrs. Ben Ratliff introduced the speaker, reminded members of the experience Watson has had in the Texas law enforcement, especially in the juvenile area.

Watson is the only juvenile probation officer in 4,043 square miles. Even the juvenile probation is in danger of ending in the judicial district due to lack of funds, club members were told.

The speaker compared juvenile behavior now with that of a generation ago. The principal difference, he said, is the easy mobility. The number of girls who are involved in juvenile crime has increased sharply. The age of juvenile offenders has gone down, due to lack of family control and also to knowledge gained by juveniles on methods of committing crimes gained chiefly from TV.

Wellington, like other towns in this area, has been hit hard in the last year by vandalism. But Watson rates shop lifting as one of the major problems in this community. In the majority of these cases, need is not a factor. Often store owners know who these shop-lifters are.

Watson also cited drugs as a problem in this area, again with offenders becoming younger.

He told members that although there has been extensive education of the youth about drugs, most parents know little about them. Parental education could be of immeasurable help. More knowledgeable parents would know what signs to look for and perhaps be better able to help their children.

"Our children's finances, as well as their time away from home, need to be carefully monitored. Mainly, parents

A Way to Low Rent Housing

Another opportunity has opened which would help ease Wellington's tight housing problems for those in the lower income brackets.

The city is eligible for federal Chapter 8 (rent subsidy) Housing, if a sponsor and builder are available. It didn't take long to find both.

Money would be borrowed through the Farmers Home Administration for new construction or to remodel existing housing to meet acceptable standards, says City Manager Tiny Taylor.

Several members of the Wellington Housing Authority have expressed themselves individually, saying that agency can serve as sponsor. Lev Connor, builder of Sagebrush Apartments and Sagebrush II, has said all along he will consider building more apartments here when the need arises.

Rent-subsidy housing enables low income families or individuals to live in decent homes at a price they can afford to pay. The difference between what they can afford and the rental price of the unit is made up by subsidy payments from HUD to the landlord.

In Wellington, those meeting low income guidelines are for the most part the elderly, couples or individuals, on fixed income or Social Security. Many spent their working years farming or at town jobs. It is not their fault that inflation has taken their savings. Chapter 8 Housing would be an opportunity for them to live in dignity in comfortable homes they can afford.

This would also be an economic asset for the town, and an addition of a good many thousands to the tax roll of all the taxing agencies.

Other Editors Say...

United Way the Best Way

Currently under way in a number of West Texas towns is the United Way or United Fund campaign, which leaders in those towns believe is the best way to fund the "good causes" and campaigns of their particular area.

This is a good time for Wellington to review the reasons some of the other progressive towns have gone to the United.

It does not have to be an official United Way, but a method patterned after that successful procedure.

Some of Wellington's younger leaders are familiar with this funding method and they like the idea of once a year paying one amount, which will be divided among the participating organizations. It eliminates those constant calls for donations that every county business gets day in and day out, most from good causes.

Comments in two newspapers are noted: Says the Wichita Falls Times:

"That money (United Way donations) will come right back. Chances are that you or someone close to you is benefitting from one or more of the 33 member agencies (in Wichita Falls).

The Canadian Record comments:
"We simply feel that the United Fund directors, who can study budget requests, are in a better position to assess relative needs of all these worthy organizations which share our contributions than we are...and the 'fare share' method of giving is the best way to give. Charities which aren't willing to settle for a 'fair share' will have to do without ours."

STATE CAPITAL

HIGHLIGHTS

By Lyndell Williams

TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN—State government again entered a new fiscal year period with a fat surplus—of $2.7 billion.

Comptroller Bob Bullock filed with the governor's office a 1978 annual financial report showing the surplus as of last August 31.

The year-end cash balance was $244.8 million greater than that at the beginning of the year.

Bullock's report indicated state government had total revenues and beginning cash of $11.1 billion during the year and spent $8.4 billion.

The comptroller said the favorable position was made possible by record revenues from major taxes. Income included $5 billion in taxes, $2 billion in federal aid, $414 million in licenses and fees, $665 million from investments of state funds and $405 million in revenue from state-owned lands.

"The economic environment of Texas government should be the envy of budget-makers in the other 49 states and is closely linked to the state's prospering economy," Bullock said.

Biggest expenditure was $3.7 billion for public education at all levels—46 per cent of all outgo.

Public welfare ranked second with outlays of $1.6 billion.

Spending for state highways totaled $921.8 million.

The report showed Texas population at 12.8 million, an increase of 2.8 per cent over the last year.

Per capita personal income averaged $6,803 in 1977—a 10.3 per cent jump.

Data Requested

A legislative committee, assessing effect of the new tax relief constitutional amendment, requested full information on value of property owned by the aged and disabled.

The Legislative Commission on Public School Finance requested the School Tax Assessment Practices Board to come up with the data to aid assessment of the amendment's impact on school finances.

The amendment grants a $5,000 exemption from school taxes to homeowners and permits an additional exemption of up to $10,000 on market value of homes owned by the elderly and disabled.

In their special session last summer, legislators set aside $450 million to reimburse school districts for revenue lost due to increased exemptions.

The commission will also assess impact of exempting intangible property from the tax base and other factors bearing on school finance.

A report on the exemptions will be made at the commission's next meeting here December 1.

Bids Taken

The State Department of Highways and Public Transportation accepted bids this week for 44 highway construction projects expected to cost about $67 million.

Largest project is the $21.5 million (estimated) completion of the southwest quadrant of IH 820 around Fort Worth.

The department earlier announced federal approval of a 20-project program to provide transportation for the aged and handicapped.

Eleven of the first $458,115 worth of projects will provide funds for organizations in urbanized areas, nine in non-urban areas. The Urban Mass Transportation Administration offers grants for equipment purchases where local sponsors agree to operate and subsidize cost of special transportation for the aged and handicapped.

Courts Speak

The Court of Criminal Appeals ordered a new trial for a Yorktown man awaiting execution for murder of a policeman because he wasn't provided a lawyer before he signed a confession.

The State Supreme Court, in a Grayson County case, held a district judge cannot retain authority over a county's tax rolls. The judge blocked a couple from carrying on their suit to invalidate the Grayson County tax rolls.

then rescinded the order.

District Judge Harley Clark of Austin turned down a suit attacking an Interscholastic League rule which requires high school athletes who move to a new school from out of state to wait a year to play in league competition.

In other cases, the Court of Criminal Appeals:

—Ordered a new trial for a Houston man sentenced to life for aggravated robbery.

—Threw out a 15-year-to-life sentence of a Bexar County man for robbery.

—Reversed a 10-year sentence of a Weatherford man for possession of marijuana.

Appointments

Ben Teague of Austin has been named acting commissioner of occupational education and technology at the Texas Education Agency.

Gov. Dolph Briscoe appointed Dr. William F. Ross of Dallas to the statewide Health Coordinating Council for a two-year unexpired term.

Briscoe also placed Robert J. Cheaney II of Santa Anna and Ross L. Jones of Coleman on the board of directors of the Central Colorado River Authority. They replace Oscar L. Cheaney of Santa Anna and Maurice B. Kingsbery of Coleman.

systems just as much, they have chosen the government as their ultimate monopoly.

In considering this, I would like to relate to you the following paragraph which Tom Anderson wrote in his straight talk article in the September-October Issue of the Independent American.

"What is a billion dollars? A stack of one thousand-dollar bills four inches high is a million dollars. Since 5280 feet in one mile, therefore, a stack of one thousand-dollar bills a mile high, would contain fifteen billion, 840 dollars. Thus our 800 billion Federal debt is equivalent to a stack of thousand dollar bills 53 miles high.

So as the old saying goes socialism will steal you blind-so it can give you contact lenses!

4-H Gold Star Winners to Be Honored Nov. 18

Two outstanding 4-H members from Collingsworth County, Lynn Tate and Cheryl Birkey will be honored at the District 1 4-H Gold Star award banquet at 6 p.m. on Saturday, November 18 at The Villa Inn, 1-40 East, Amarillo.

Paul Gross and Sue Farris, District Agents for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, said the pair will be among 37 youths to receive the Gold Star honor.

A boy and a girl from each of the 20 counties in District 1 are eligible to receive this highest county award each year. It recognizes outstanding achievement, leadership, and contribution to the county 4-H program.

The event is sponsored annually by Deaf Smith, North Plains, Rita Blanca and Swisher Electric Cooperatives.

Mrs. Becky King, Dallam County Judge will be the banquet speaker. The theme is "The Future Is Ours."

Phil Moreman of Donley County, Chairman of the District 1 4-H Council, will be master of ceremonies. He lived in Wellington several years ago.

The District 1 4-H Gold Star Committee is the district council which will direct the program. Special guests will be parents, adult leaders, Extension service officials, county commissioners and judges, representatives of the cooperatives and other friends of 4-H.

To qualify for the Gold Star Award, a 4-H'er must be at

Christmas Fund Campaign to Aid Hospital Gets Under Way

A spontaneous move is developing among some Wellington area residents who propose to support Collingsworth General Hospital through a money gift this Christmas.

They say they will make their donations of the amount they would otherwise have spent on purchasing Christmas greeting cards and stamps to mail them.

Coordinating the drive are Mrs. John Rainey and Mrs.

least 13 years old, have completed at least three years of club work, and be currently active in 4-H. The award is to stimulate winners toward higher achievements and to encourage other young people to participate in the county 4-H program.

Mr. and Mrs. Rudie Tate, Mr. and Mrs. John Birkey, Mr. and Mrs. Don Reeves and Jean Chandler will attend the banquet.

Frank Coleman, Jr.

Names of all donors will be published in the Christmas edition of The Wellington Leader. This will bring out that those who have given to the hospital, are doing so instead of sending Christmas cards.

Both Wellington banks will be depositories for the fund.

There will be solicitation, Mrs. Rainey emphasizes. Each donation must be made voluntarily.

Because of certain Medicare requirements as they are understood here, the donors cannot be made to the hospital for a specified purpose or project. However, all gifts are tax deductible for the donor and they are assured that the money will be spent to cover badly needed expenses at the hospital.

This drive is separate from the Hospital Memorial fund in which gifts are also made, and with which Mrs. Rainey is also working.

Additional plans for the drive will be developed and announced next week.

Delta Kappa Gamma Hears Past New Mexico President

Mrs. Opal Moore, past state president of Delta Kappa Gamma Society in New Mexico, was guest speaker when Gamma Kappa chapter held a brunch in the Bronze Room of First National Bank, Memphis, Saturday, Nov. 11. Speaking on the role of women in education, Mrs. Moore stressed the need for lobbies or representatives before the state legislatures in behalf of women's interests. She told of four laws passed recently in New Mexico to benefit women (some of these Texas already has) the community property law, equal credit rights, equal employment, and fair housing. Mrs. Moore urged Texas women to contact their congressmen expressing opposition to Congress' bailing out New York City in its financial troubles. Deficit spending leads to irresponsibility, she declared. Concerning the right-to-work law, Mrs. Moore believes it is as helpful to members of labor unions as to those not members, for they, too, are able to work in non-union jobs should the need arise or if they want to. Delta Kappa Gamma does not approve of the militant parts of ERA, but it does want equal rights under the law. Women's lib is different, she pointed out, for those woman want the rights of men. To the members of this honorary women's teachers society, Mrs. Moore pointed out that there are few women school executives, and she urged that they assume more responsibility in their field of work.

Hostesses for this meeting were Memphis members. Mrs. Betty White of Childress, president, was in charge of the meeting, and the vice president, Mrs. Marjorie Bain of Turkey, introduced the speaker. Wellington members attending were Mrs. Chester White, Miss Bonnie Willis, Mrs. Charley Hill, Mrs. J.D. Sheer and Miss Maudie Coffee.

Chamber Directors Study FmHA Move

Chamber of Commerce directors were told Monday evening, Nov. 13, that Raymond Hodges, county supervisor of the Farmers Home Administration, will be transferred to Dumas, leaving Collingsworth County to be served part time by a supervisor from another county.

The board expressed concern at this, as FmHA is the source of funding sought for Wellington's proposed $7 to $8 million dollar steel mill. In addition, FmHA is a vital factor in Wellington's residential growth.

Directors began plans to put before state FmHA officials this county's need for a resident supervisor.

Plans for Christmas decorations were discussed. In the downtown area, these will center on the lighted courthouse and business buildings around the square. Tommy Hudson, manager of West Texas Utilities Co., was appointed to be in charge of Christmas lighting.

The board acknowledged a letter from Lone Star Gas Company further setting forth its claims for minus-revenue within the city.

Robert Owens, vice president, presided at the meeting, and officers and directors present were Guy Owens, Bill Hatch, John Nash, Dorothy McGill, Chet Long, Virginia Robey, Dr. Bill Estes and Tommy Thomas, and Mrs. Margaret Vines, secretary.

Rocket JV Defeats White Deer 18-13

The Skyrocket Junior Varsity saved its big play that won the game until time was running out, and defeated White Deer Bucks JV 18-13. The game was played Thursday, Nov. 9, at White Deer.

That action was set up with 48 seconds left on the clock when the Bucks mounted a drive. As a Buck streaked toward the end zone, he was hit by a Wellington player on the 5 yard line, knocked the ball loose and it rolled into the end zone. Chris Lynch covered it for a touchback.

"That was the game-saving play. They (White Deer) probably would have scored. Our kids held together and came up with the big play," said Coach Robert Hicks.

White Deer took the lead on a 15-yard pass in the first quarter, then kicked the extra point for a 7-0 lead.

On the next possession, Wellington mounted a 60 yard drive, with Kenneth Warren scoring on a 14 yard run around right end. Try for the two points failed.

Three minutes before half time, Wellington's Chris Lynch capped a 36 yard drive with an 8 yard run up the middle for another touchdown. Again, Wellington missed the extra point, but the Rockets led 12-7 at the half.

Late in the third, White Deer put a 70 yard drive together and scored from one yard out. This time it was the Bucks who failed to kick the point after but they were ahead 13-12.

With two minutes to go in the game, Willie Pennon recovered a White Deer fumble on the Bucks 40, and drive started. Jody Coleman broke three or four tackles to go the last 10 yards and score. Again Wellington was luckless on the extra point, but they had moved ahead 18-13. That was when White Deer got possession with less than a minute to go.

Wellington Wipes Out White Deer, 44-6

Ricky Jones hauled the mail four times for Skyrocket scores at Powell Field Friday, Nov. 10, as Wellington overpowered White Deer 44-6 in the Rockets' 4th district win of the season.

The win leaves Memphis and Wellington both undefeated before the final regular season game Friday, Nov. 17.

Robert Powell returned the opening kickoff from his own 10 yard line to the White Deer 48 to set the stage for a score on the Rockets' first possession. Six downs later Ricky Jones carried over left side for six points. Baldo Nevarez' kick failed.

White Deer fumbled the punt snap from center on their first possession and Danny Wischkaemper, Richard Garcia and Joe Saldana swarmed over the punter to give Wellington possession at the Buck 33 yard line. From the 1 foot line Ricky Jones ran in standing up for the TD, and Carl Taylor's pass to Robert Powell for extra points made it 14-0.

At the beginning of the second quarter White Deer found themselves with first down at the Rocket 9. But four downs later the Bucks had moved only to the 8--an outstanding effort by the Wellington defensive line had shut out White Deer fullback Monty Carroll and the defensive secondary had stymied quarterback Mike Pettit's attempts to throw the ball.

The high point of White Deer's game came after an interception by White Deer's Ralph Gallett set up the Bucks on their own 25 yard line. Then on third down and eight Gallett completed a 70-yard screen pass to Monty Carroll to the one yard line. From the one Billy Srader scored. Srader's kick failed, leaving the score 14-6.

On first down after White Deer's kickoff Ricky Jones took off over right end on an incredible 73-yard run for a touchdown, and Jon Sessions dove scooped in Carl Taylor's extra point pass to put the Rockets ahead 22-6 at halftime.

When the Rockets got their hands on the ball after the half, Wellington's offensive machinery was running smoothly as Ricky Jones and David Baumgardner alternated with the ball to the 9 yard line. From there, Jones followed Baumgardner's block in for the score, Carl Taylor completed a second extra-point pass to Robert Powell, and the Rockets had a 30-6 lead.

The Bucks tried and failed for first down on fourth and 2 from their on 34, and some of the Rockets second offensive unit took over. On first down from the 18 yard line Stacy Urban shoveled the ball to Tim Anderson for the score, and Urban completed an extra point pass to Jon Sessions to make it 38-6.

At the end of the third quarter (which seemed to take two hours to run off in a cold

On the next down Baldo Nevarez intercepted another Buck pass and the Rockets got to keep it this time. In the fourth quarter Stacy Urban intercepted two more White Deer passes, one in the end zone for a touchdown.

The Rockets completed an 80-yard drive for their final score with 14 seconds left to play in the game. From the 10 yard line Stacy Urban completed a TD pass to Kevin Hall. An extra-point pass fell incomplete and the Rockets wound it up 44-6.

Marty Warrick's interception of a White Deer pass ended the game.

Norwood Drops Openers to Hedley, Lefors Downs Quail

Samnorwood Eagles and Eaglettes lost their opening games to Hedley boys and girls Friday, Nov. 10.

This was the fourth game for the Hedley teams.

Samnorwood girls dropped their game 53-28. High point player was Sallie Kincannon with 12 points; Ravenna Graves and Kim Peebles had 6 each and Norma Alfaro four.

"For the first ball game, with six people, we didn't play that bad, but I think we are capable of playing better than we did," said Coach Kenneth Martindale.

Hedley boys would have been defending district champion had they not been transferred to another UIL district. This move leaves Norwood as the top team in District 4-A.

Hedley, was winner of this encounter, however, 64-46.

Randy Breeding was high point man for Norwood with 15 points. Lowry Schaub added 10, J.D. Ray 8, Michael Bentley 7 and Russell Schaub 6.

The Quails dropped their game 57-32.

Lefors girls were ahead 9-4 and led 20-12 at halftime. Their third period lead was 23-20.

Donna Langley led Quail scoring with 10 points; Anne Lewis had 12 for Lefors.

Lefors boys pulled ahead 19-8 at the first period and held a 31-16 lead at the half. Quail trailed 31-24 at the third period.

Skyrocket JV Plays Memphis Here Thursday

Skyrocket Junior Varsity will close its season with a home game against the Memphis Cyclone JV Thursday, Nov. 16. The game will start about 7:30 p.m. Seventh grade and Firecracker games will start at 4:30 and 6:00 p.m.

"That game won't be all marbles for us, but it will be for the varsity, and we look at it in that light. We want to set a good example," declared JV Coach Robert Hicks.

In the first JV meeting with Memphis this season, Wellington won 6-0 on Cyclone Field, scoring on the first possession of the ball.

From then on, it was a touch game, not only because of the Cyclone strength, but because of Wellington fumbles and then penalties they drew. "We have ironed out some of those problems as far as penalties and fumbles go. We look forward to playing here Thursday to set the tune for Friday," said Hicks. He urged all Wellington football fans to come out and watch the last football action on Powell Field for the 1978 season. Wellington JV goes into its final game with a 3-5-1 record.

Reddy's tips on electric safety

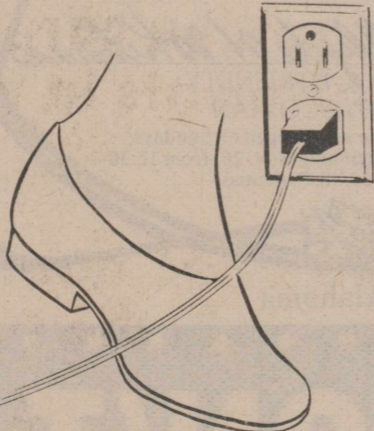

★ When disconnecting an appliance, don't pull cord; pull plug.

★ Be sure each appliance has the type of cord suited to the job it does — heavy duty extension cords for power tools; moisture resistant cords and plugs for outdoor equipment.

★ Have frayed cords replaced promptly.
★ Water conducts electricity; never handle electric appliances or switches with wet hands or when standing on a wet surface.

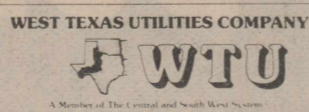

★ If an appliance has a separate cord, attach cord to appliance before plugging it into an outlet; disconnect cord from outlet before disconnecting it from appliance. Store cords away from cutlery, heat and dampness.

★ Don't place cords where they'll be tripped over or be subject to wear (under a well-travelled rug, through doorways).

★ Teach children not to play with or around electric sockets or equipment.

★ Don't use an electric lawn mower or hedge clippers when barefoot, or on wet grass or hedges.

Remember, Reddy supplies the electricity—only you can use it safely!

Teacher Concerns Discussed At TSTA Meeting at Norwood

Weldon (Doc) Bates, superintendent of Estelline Schools, was the guest speaker when Samnorwood teachers were hosts at the county unit of Texas State Teachers Association Tuesday evening, October 10.

The first of three meetings in the 1978-79 school year, it was held in the school cafeteria.

Bates, long active in TSTA on local and district levels, urged the teachers to maintain their voice in public affairs, first by registering and then by voting.

He spoke on other teachers concerns, urging them to vote against the tax amendment to the state constitution to be determined November 7. Passage of this measure would leave the next session of the legislature free to write the tax bill it wanted, he maintained.

During the business session members elected Dale Morris, of Samnorwood, president, and Mrs. James Williams of Wellington, president elect, as county delegates to the District XVI convention in Amarillo November 2 and 3.

Morris presided at the meeting and Kenneth Martindale, Samnorwood principal, gave the invocation. Musical entertainment was by the Rev. and Mrs. Darrell Feemster of Samnorwood Baptist Church.

Other meetings of the County TSTA will be January 29, at Quail and March 5 at Wellington, both at 7:30 p.m. Other officers for the current year are Mrs. J.D. Sheer, of Samnorwood, secretary, and Mrs. Edith Carter, of Wellington, treasurer.

Cards of Thanks

In my weak way I want to thank everyone that has been so kind and sweet to me while I have been in and out of the hospitals. First, Dr. Holcomb, the hospital staff and nice nurses; especially my children and their families and all the friends for their visits, cards, phone calls, flowers, and prayers. I really love each and every one of you.

STRETCHING THE MEAT DOLLAR

Dr. Ted Montgomery, head of the animal science department, West Texas State University, demonstrates for Collingsworth homemakers how to divide a chuck roast to get a roast for one meal, broiling steaks, for another, and others less tender for a third meal. The best meat buys today are the cuts on sale in the local markets, he said. All of this meat came from a Wellington market. Montgomery spoke at the Beef-o-Rama on Thursday, March 9.

Public Invited to Visit New Sagebrush II Sunday Afternoon

Open House for Sagebrush II, Wellington's newest apartment units, will be held Sunday, Nov. 19, from 2:00 to 5:00 p.m. Lev Connor, of Dalhart, owner and builder, has announced.

Located on Ennis Street between 8th and 9th, the units are ready for occupancy. Selection of this location moved better new construction farther east into an area where there has been little new residential building in recent years, but some desirable locations.

Sagebrush II includes 8 apartments in two quadrangles, built to the same floor plan as the popular Sagebrush Apartments, which Connor also owns. Only minor changes were made in the interior arrangement. All have two bedrooms.

Several structural changes were built into Sagebrush II to make them more energy efficient, says Mrs. Margaret Vines, manager for both Sagebrush units.

There is additional insulation in the walls and ceiling and thermopane windows were used throughout.

Sagebrush II units have electric air conditioning, but gas heating and gas water heaters, says Mrs. Vines. Kitchens feature electric continuous clean ovens. The apartments are carpeted throughout. Fenced patios at the front of each unit insure privacy to the occupants, the manager points out.

A contemporary design was selected for the exteriors, which are finished with grey brick.

The apartments were built at a cost of $132,000. Financing was through Farmers Home Administration, the source of funding the owner also selected for his first Sagebrush.

Connor had the highest praise for Raymond Hodges, county FHA supervisor, and Joy Belew, secretary.

"They went out of their way to help get these apartments built," says the owner.

"We invite the public to visit Sagebrush II," said Connor. We are proud to be a part of a town as progressive as Wellington and to contribute to its growth," said Connor.

Throughout construction of Sagebrush II, Connor has said that when all units are filled, he will begin plans to build another identical 4-apartment unit immediately north of these. Sagebrush II should be filled in the immediate future, Mrs. Vines added.

Thanksgiving Holiday Closings Announced

All county offices will be closed Thursday and Friday, Nov. 23 and 24, for the Thanksgiving holidays with the exception of the sheriff's department, which will remain open around the clock.

Helen Gollighugh, county-district clerk, urged those having business in any on the county offices to take care of it by Wednesday evening, Nov. 22.

State offices, including those in the court house and the Texas Department of Highways and Transportation, will be closed Thursday and Friday, also.

Federal offices, among them the Post office and USDA offices, will close Thursday only. Mail delivery on the rural routes and city routes will be on the usual schedule Friday.

The schools will observe their traditional 2-day holiday, closing both Thursday and Friday.
